The Honorable Rod J. Rosenstein
Deputy Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, D.C. 20530

The Honorable Christopher A. Wray
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, D.C. 20535

Dear Mr. Rosenstein and Director Wray:

On November 3, 2017, the Committees on Oversight and Government Reform and the Judiciary requested documents and communications referring or relating to decisions made at the Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in 2016.¹ On February 1, 2018, both Committees followed up on this initial request and specifically requested “DOJ provide copies of all Page and Strzok text messages it has and provide additional texts as they become available on a rolling basis.”² Today, the DOJ Office of the Inspector General (OIG) released a report titled A Review of Various Actions by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Department of Justice in Advance of the 2016 Election. As part of the review, the OIG collected text messages between FBI employees Page and Strzok.

In reviewing this report it is clear the FBI and DOJ withheld relevant text communications between Lisa Page and Peter Strzok. The Deputy Attorney General learned of these texts days before the IG report was made public while others at the DOJ or FBI learned of these texts in May of 2018. The failure to disclose and produce these messages to Congress continues a pattern of non-cooperation and interference with the pendency of our joint investigation. It will not be countenanced.

In order to help the Committees understand why these communications were withheld from Congress, please provide all documents and communications referring or relating to the text messages in question, including but not limited to any communications about providing those messages to, or withholding those messages from the Committees.

Additionally, the Committees request your testimony at a joint hearing the week of June 25, 2018. Further instructions related to your appearance at the hearing will be provided.

Please contact Sean Brebbia of the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform at (202) 225-5074 or Robert Parmiter of the Committee on the Judiciary at (202) 225-3951 with any questions about this request. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Bob Goodlatte
Chairman
Committee on the Judiciary

Trey Gowdy
Chairman
Committee on Oversight and Government Reform
