

U.S. House Committee on
THE JUDICIARY
CHAIRMAN JERROLD NADLER

(/)

Chairman Nadler Notifies President Trump & Ranking Member Collins of Privileges Provided During Impeachment Inquiry

Nov 29, 2019

Washington, D.C. –Today, House Judiciary Committee Chairman Jerrold Nadler (D-NY) sent letters to President Donald Trump and House Judiciary Ranking Member Doug Collins (R-GA) regarding certain privileges afforded to them under House Resolution 660. Chairman Nadler has asked both the President and the Ranking Member to provide notice to the Committee of their intent to exercise these privileges no later than December 6, 2019.

Text of the letter to President Trump can be found here

(<https://judiciaryforms.house.gov/components/redirect/r.aspx?ID=407-9243>).

Text of the letter to Ranking Member Collins can be found here

(<https://judiciaryforms.house.gov/components/redirect/r.aspx?ID=408-9243>).

116th Congress