The Honorable Michael Pompeo
Secretary
United States Department of State
2201 C St NW
Washington, DC 20520-0099

Dear Secretary Pompeo:

I wanted to bring to your attention an interaction that I recently had with individuals regarding the current U.S. Ambassador to Ukraine.

As you likely know, Marie Yovanovitch is the U.S. Ambassador to Ukraine. She previously served as Ambassador to the Republic of Armenia (2008-2011) and the Kyrgyz Republic (2005-2008). I have received notice of concrete evidence from close companions that Ambassador Yovanovitch has spoken privately and repeatedly about her disdain for the current Administration in a way that might call for the expulsion of Ms. Yovanovitch as U.S. Ambassador to Ukraine immediately.

I kindly ask you to consider terminating her ambassadorship and find a replacement as soon as possible. If you would like to discuss this matter further, I can be reached directly at 214.215 [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]@petesessions.com

Thank you for reviewing this matter.

Sincerely,

Pete Sessions

Shokin:

On January 23, 2019 a telephone interview with Mr. Viktor Shokin the former General Prosecutor of Ukraine was conducted. Present in the New York location were: Rudolph Giuliani, Mr. Igor Fruman, Mr. Lev Parnas and Mr. George Boyle. The conversation was conducted through the use of two (2) interpreters one (1) in Ukraine and one (1) Lev Parnas in New York. The sum and substance of the conversation are as follows:

Mr. Shokin stated that he was appointed to the position of General Prosecutor of Ukraine from 2015 until April of 2016 when he was removed at the request of Mr. Joseph Biden the Vice President of the United States. Mr. Shokin was a Deputy Prosecutor prior to becoming the General Prosecutor. He became involved in a case against Mr. Mykola Zlochevsky the former Minister of Ecology and Natural Resources of Ukraine. The case was opened as a result of Mr. Zlochevsky giving himself/company permits to drill for gas and oil in Ukraine. Mr. Zlochevsky is also the owner of Burisma Holdings, which a corporation registered in Cyprus. Mr. Shokin stated that there are documents that list five (5) criminal cases in which Mr. Zlochevsky is listed, with the main case being for issuing illegal gas exploration permits. The following complaints are in the criminal case.

1. Mr. Zlochevsky was laundering money
2. Obtained assets by corrupt acts bribery
3. Mr. Zlochevsky removed approximately twenty three million U.S. dollars out of Ukraine without permission
4. While seated as the Minister he approved two addition entities to receive permits for gas exploration
5. Mr. Zlochevsky was the owner of two secret companies that were part of Burisma Holdings and gave those companies permits which made it possible for him to profit while he was the sitting Minister.

The above cases were closed after Mr. Zlochevsky was dismissed from the Ministry.

Mr. Shokin further stated that there were several Burisma board appointments were made in 2014 as follows:

1. Hunter Biden son of Vice President Joseph Biden
2. Joseph Blade former CIA employee assigned to Anti-Terrorist Unit
3. Alesksander Kwasnieski former President of Poland
4. Devon Archer roommate to the Christopher Heinz the step-son of Mr. John Kerry United States Secretary of State

Mr. Shokin stated that these appointments were made by Mr. Zlochevsky in order to protect himself.

Mr. Zlochevsky left Ukraine while the above mentioned cases were open.

Mr. Shokin stated that the investigations stopped out of fear of the United States. Mr. Shokin attempted to continue the investigations but on or around June or July of 2015 the U.S. Ambassador Geoffrey R. Pyatt told him that the investigation has to be handled with white gloves, which according to Mr. Shokin, that implied do nothing. On or about September 2015 Mr. Pyatt gave a speech in Odessa where he stated that the cases were not investigated correctly and that Mr. Shokin may be corrupt.

Mr. Shokin stated that in 2014 Mr. Zlochevsky was in the UK and that the twenty three million dollars were frozen in the UK in the BNP Bank. Mr. Shokin stated that false documents were prepared and the money was released to Mr. Zlochevsky before Mr. Shokin took office. That release of the money made Mr. Shokin look into the above cases again. Mr. Shokin stated that there were several articles written about bribes being taken during the investigation of the cases. The bribes were an effort to have the cases closed. On April of 2016 Mr. Shokin was dismissed as the General Prosecutor of Ukraine. In November of 2016 the cases were closed by the current Prosecutor General Yuriy Lutsenko.

Mr. Shokin further stated that on February of 2016 warrants were placed on the accounts of multiple people in Ukraine. There were requests for information on Hunter Biden to which nothing was received. It is believed that Hunter Biden receives a salary, commission plus one million dollars. There were no documents or information on Hunter Biden and Mr. Shokin stated he was warned to stop by Ambassador Geoffrey R. Pyatt. President of Ukraine Petro Poroshenko told Mr. Shokin not to investigate Burisma as it was not in the interest of Joe and/or Hunter Biden. Mr. Shokin was called into Mr. Poroshenko's office and told that the investigation into Burisma and the Managing Director where Hunter Biden is on the board, has caused Joe Biden to hold up one billion dollars in U.S. aid to Ukraine.

Mr. Shokin stated that on or around April of 2016 Mr. Petro Poroshenko called him and told him he had to be fired as the aid to the Ukraine was being withheld by Joe Biden. Mr. Biden told Mr. Poroshenko that he had evidence that Mr. Shokin was corrupt and needed to be fired. Mr. Shokin was dismissed in April of 2016 and the U.S. aid was delivered within one and one half months.

On a different point Mr. Shokin believes the current Ambassador Marie L. Yovanovitch denied his visa to travel to the U.S. Mr. Shokin stated that she is close to Mr. Biden. Mr. Shokin also stated that there were leaks by a person named Reshenko of the Ukrainian State Secret Service about the Manafort Black Book. Mr. Shokin stated that there is possible deceit in the Manafort Black Book.

Subject: RE: Bidens and Ukraine...

If Joseph Biden enters the race for U.S. president in 2020, he'll face renewed questions about his son Hunter's association with Ukraine's Burisma energy company during his eight years as U.S. vice president.

The allegations are resurfacing as Peter Schweizer, the president of the conservative non-profit think tank Government Accountability Institute, made sensational comments on American news channel Fox News on March 23.

Schweizer claimed that, according to financial records, Hunter Biden, is connected to a bank account in which $3.1 million were deposited over a period of 14 months – a time period during which Joe Biden went to Ukraine several times as vice president.

It is not the first time that Biden's visits to Ukraine are being used against him.

Some had already criticized what they perceive as possible signs of corruption and even cynicism on Joe Biden's part – promoting anticorruption in Ukraine while simultaneously pushing for his son's interests in a faraway country.

Hunter Biden, a former Washington lobbyist, ended up sitting on the supervisory board of Burisma Holding, one of Ukraine's largest natural gas companies owned, at the same time that his father started to visit the country in order to support the EuroMaidan Revolution that drove President Viktor Yanukovich from power on Feb. 22, 2014.

The owner of Burisma Holding – Mykola Zlochevsky, a former ecology minister under Yanukovich – remains accused of money laundering and illegally issuing oil and gas licenses his own companies throughout 2010-2012.

The former minister owns 38 oil and gas extraction permits through 14 separate companies, which gives him big control over the Ukrainian market.

A criminal proceeding was opened in 2014 against Zlochevsky, but the Burisma Group announced in January 2017 that all judicial proceedings against him and his operating companies in Ukraine were closed.

Zlochevsky was also put under investigation in the United Kingdom, where a bank account under his name of $23 million was temporarily frozen, until Ukrainian prosecutors refused to give the necessary documents for British authorities to continue the investigation, according to the New York Times.

A British judge ultimately decided to stop the inquiry and unfreeze the former minister's account due to a lack of evidence.

According to Schweizer, the latest financial findings about Hunter Biden constitute "a very troublesome issue" that "has all the markings of payoffs going to the Bidens."

Former U.S. Attorney Joe Digenova had no doubt while speaking on air, saying that this case "deserves a full-blown investigation into the conduct of the Biden family in Ukraine."

The Kyiv Post interviewed former U.S. Ambassador to Ukraine from 1998 to 2000 Steven Pifer, in September 2018, during the 15th edition of the Yalta European Strategy conference, and the subject came up.

Even though Hunter Biden's entrance to Burisma's supervisory board appears suspicious, Pifer said the former vice president "genuinely feels sympathy and support for Ukraine, so it was something he chose to engage in, whether or not his son was working (in Ukraine)."

Kate Bedingfield, a Biden spokeswoman, stressed to the New York Times in December 2015 that Hunter Biden's professional life was totally independent from his father's diplomatic mission.
