NOTICE OF APPEAL

Notice is given that President Donald J. Trump appeals to the Supreme Court of Georgia from the Court's 31 July 2023 order denying his motion to quash the special purpose grand jury's report and disqualify the district attorney.

The Appellant. The Appellant is President Donald J. Trump, who was the movant of the motion to quash. He is represented on appeal by:

- All exhibits tendered during any proceeding in a reviewable form, whether admitted in evidence or not, see OCGA §§ 5-6-41(d) & 43(a).

Jurisdiction. Jurisdiction is proper in the Supreme of Georgia. Under Art. VI, § VI, ¶ II(1) of the Georgia Constitution of 1983, the Supreme Court has exclusive appellate jurisdiction in “all cases in which the constitutionality of a law ... has been drawn in question.” President Trump challenged in this proceeding the constitutionality of Georgia’s special purpose grand jury scheme (OCGA § 15-12-100 et seq.), and he intends to urge those same grounds on appeal. President Trump has properly invoked the Supreme Court’s jurisdiction under OCGA §§ 5-6-34(a)(1) and 38(a).
