

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

DONALD J. TRUMP,

Defendant.

*
*
*
*
*
*
*

CRIMINAL NO. 23-cr-257 (TSC)

GOVERNMENT’S OPPOSED MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE OVERSIZED BRIEF

On October 23, 2023, the defendant filed a 31-page motion to dismiss on constitutional grounds, ECF No. 113, and a 34-page motion to dismiss on statutory grounds, ECF No. 114. To avoid the repetition and cross-referencing that pervades the defendant’s separate motions, see, e.g., ECF No. 113 at 11, 25-30; ECF No. 114 at 15-19, 24, 26-31, the Government intends to file one omnibus opposition brief. Given the need to respond to 65 pages of motions, the Government’s filing will exceed the typical 45-page limit for a single brief but will come in well under the 90 pages to which the Government would be entitled if it filed separate opposition briefs. See Local Crim. R. 47(e). The Government therefore seeks leave to file an oversized brief. The defendant, through counsel, opposes this motion.

Respectfully submitted,

JACK SMITH
Special Counsel

By: /s/Thomas P. Windom
Thomas P. Windom
Molly Gaston
Senior Assistant Special Counsels
950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Room B-206
Washington, D.C. 20530