TO APPELLATE DIVISION, FIRST JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK:

Petitioners Donald J. Trump, Donald Trump, Jr., Eric Trump, Allen Weisselberg, Jeffrey McConney, The Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust, The Trump Organization, Inc., The Trump Organization, LLC, DJT Holdings LLC, DJT Holdings Managing Member, Trump Endeavor 12 LLC, 401 North Wabash Venture LLC, Trump Old Post Office LLC, 40 Wall Street LLC, and Seven Springs LLC (collectively, "Petitioners"), by their attorneys, Habba Madaio & Associates and Robert & Robert PLLC, allege the following as and for their Verified Petition against The

Honorable Arthur F. Engoron, J.S.C. (“Justice Engoron”) and the People of the State of New York by Letitia James, Attorney General of the State of New York (the “Attorney General” and together with Justice Engoron, “Respondents”):

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. “The assumption that respect for the judiciary can be won by shielding judges from published criticism wrongly appraises the character of American public opinion. For it is a prized American privilege to speak one’s mind, although not always with perfect good taste, on all public institutions. And an enforced silence, however limited, solely in the name of preserving the dignity of the bench, would probably engender resentment, suspicion, and contempt much more than it would enhance respect.” Bridges v. California, 314 U.S. 252, 270-271 (1941).

2. Petitioners bring this proceeding to redress Justice Engoron’s serious and continuing violation of the procedural and substantive rights guaranteed to them under New York law and the United States Constitution.

3. The conduct at issue arises from the ongoing, highly publicized trial of the Attorney General’s civil enforcement action captioned People v. Trump, et al., pending in Supreme Court, New York County, under Index No. 452564/2022. On the second day of trial, Justice Engoron entered a “gag order” forbidding Petitioners<sup>1</sup> from “posting, emailing, or speaking publicly about any members of [his] staff” (the “Gag Order”). A month later, Justice Engoron expanded the Gag Order to preclude Petitioners’ counsel from “making any public statements, in or out of court, that refer to any confidential communications, in any form, between my staff and me” (the “Supplemental Gag Order,” and with the Gag Order, “Gag Orders”).

<sup>1</sup> The order also applies on its face to the Attorney General as a party to the case but is plainly directed at, and has only been enforced as against, Petitioners.

4. The Gag Orders unconstitutionally infringe on Petitioners’ freedom of speech guaranteed by the First Amendment and Article I, Section 8 of the New York Constitution.

5. Justice Engoron may not, by judicial decree, transmogrify the court’s summary contempt power into an unfettered license to inflict public punishments on a defendant for the defendant’s out-of-court statements made for the benefit of the fourth estate. Nor does the court’s summary contempt power authorize Supreme Court and its staff to actively and independently investigate and prosecute violations of a gag order.

6. Justice Engoron’s enforcement of the Gag Order has violated multiple sections of the Judiciary Law and casts serious doubt on his ability to function as an impartial finder of fact in a bench trial. His extraordinary expansion of that order both limits and chills advocacy on Petitioners’ behalf and precludes counsel on pain of contempt from making a record of misconduct and bias in a public courtroom.

7. Prior restraints, i.e., orders that suppress speech based on content and viewpoint and in advance of its expression, are presumptively invalid. Only a clear and present danger of a serious, substantive evil can justify such an infringement on the freedom of speech the First Amendment and the New York Constitution protects.

8. This constitutional protection is at its apogee where the speech in question is core political speech, made by the frontrunner for the 2024 Republican Presidential nomination, regarding perceived partisanship and bias at a trial where he is subject to hundreds of millions of dollars in penalties and the threatened prohibition of his lawful business activities in the state.

9. The speech giving rise to the Gag Order, a post on Petitioner Donald J. Trump's ("President Trump") Truth Social account, included a photograph of Justice Engoron's principal law clerk (the "Principal Law Clerk") and Senator Chuck Schumer. In the caption, President Trump described the Principal Law Clerk as "Schumer's girlfriend" and stated that she "[wa]s running this case against me."

10. The Principal Law Clerk had originally posted that photograph of the Principal Law Clerk and Senator Schumer on a public Instagram account with the handle "greenfield4civilcourt," an account explicitly linked to her unsuccessful 2022 campaign for the Democrat nomination for New York County Civil Court. It was then reposted by a public Twitter account, @JudicialProtest, and ultimately reposted by President Trump.

11. It is apparent to anyone attending the trial or reading contemporaneous press coverage that the Principal Law Clerk plays a visible role in the trial, as she sits immediately adjacent to Justice Engoron on the bench, consulting with him on almost every ruling and passing contemporaneous notes.

12. Justice Engoron has also sanctioned President Trump under the Gag Order for an October 25, 2023, comment made to the Associated Press outside of the courtroom about a "person who is very partisan sitting alongside" Justice Engoron. Completely disregarding President Trump's own testimony that the comment referred to the testifying witness, Michael Cohen, and not the Principal Law Clerk, Justice Engoron has used the Gag Order to muzzle President Trump's legitimate and well-founded concerns regarding the partiality of the factfinder at his trial.

13. On its face, the Gag Order prevents any speech, no matter how innocuous or relevant, about any member of Justice Engoron's staff. As applied to President Trump, it also prevents a presidential candidate from commenting on the public conduct and possible ethical violations of a critical member of Justice Engoron’s chambers, who sits right beside him on the bench throughout the trial.

14. While the desire to protect his staff may seem understandable, the Gag Orders, as entered, are not narrowly tailored to do so. The mere potential that speech may anger or provoke others likewise does not entitle Justice Engoron to suspend wholesale the rights afforded litigants by the First Amendment and the New York Constitution. The First Amendment does not permit Justice Engoron to restrict speech based on the audience’s anticipated unruly reaction—that is a forbidden “heckler’s veto.”

15. At base, President Trump has been, under threat of fine or incarceration, precluded from offering his perception of how his own bench trial is being conducted. Neither the First Amendment nor the New York Constitution permits such a grave curtailment of plainly protected speech in a trial playing out on a national and international stage.

16. The Supplemental Gag Order, which prohibits counsel from “making any public statements, in or out of court, that refer to any confidential communications, in any form, between my staff and me,” compounds Petitioners’ significant injuries.

17. In the weeks after the Gag Order was entered, counsel for Petitioners repeatedly raised with Justice Engoron and observed on the record the Principal Law Clerk’s unusual public presence on the bench, constant note-passing, eye-rolling, facial expressions, and visible role in the proceedings. Counsel’s advocacy comported with their ethical obligations to competently and zealously represent their clients.

18. In closing the record to any further commentary on the Principal Law Clerk, the Supplemental Gag Order both insulates Justice Engoron from contemporaneous criticism and denies Petitioners and the appellate courts a complete record on the appeal of the final judgment. Indeed, Justice Engoron has gone so far as to have his courtroom camera angle adjusted, which now no longer reveals collaboration between him and the Principal Law Clerk while on the bench and has instructed counsel that they cannot make an oral motion regarding the Principal Law Clerk.

19. The Supplemental Gag Order also runs afoul of black-letter law mandating that an absolute privilege attaches to in-court statements by counsel.

20. Justice Engoron's enforcement of the Gag Order is plagued by myriad procedural and jurisdictional infirmities, and he has consistently violated the Judiciary Law and the Rules of the Appellate Division, First Department.

21. Justice Engoron has twice invoked his limited summary contempt power to level punitive fines against President Trump for purportedly contumacious conduct that indisputably took place outside of the courtroom and Justice Engoron's immediate view and was never raised by any party to the proceeding, let alone by motion on notice.

22. Justice Engoron did not explain how the conduct, which consisted of an archived post on the Trump campaign website and comments to the media reported by the Associated Press, came to his attention, nor have any of his putative sources been entered into the record. These circumstances imply that Justice Engoron independently reviews press accounts about the trial and conducts his own, unprompted internet research into Petitioners' out-of-court speech. Such activities dehors the record are particularly inappropriate given that Supreme Court, in this instance, is the sole factfinder, which concomitantly imposes elevated duties of impartiality and fairness toward all litigants. There is no public record sufficient to support a summary finding of contempt.

23. Likewise, Justice Engoron’s reliance on “evidence” such as (i) his own testimony describing his proximity to his law clerk and the layout of the bench and witness box, (ii) unidentified statements describing a witness by his name, (iii) yet another out-of-court statement to the press preceding the issuance of the Gag Order, and (iv) the Oxford English Dictionary was plainly inappropriate and insufficient to justify a contempt finding.

24. Additionally, while Justice Engoron has never identified any statutory authority in punishing President Trump, his findings do not comport with the procedural or substantive requirements for either civil or criminal contempt, each of which carry certain due process guarantees. Those guarantees were wholly ignored here.

25. Justice Engoron’s imposition of concededly punitive fines of $5,000 and $10,000, respectively, is far in excess of the statutory limitations applicable to both civil and criminal contempt.

26. Finally, inasmuch as Justice Engoron viewed the purportedly contumacious statements as impugning his integrity and that of his staff, it was error for Justice Engoron even to preside over the subject contempt proceedings.

27. Justice Engoron accompanies each abuse of his authority with a warning to President Trump that the punishments will increase in severity until, apparently, Justice Engoron imprisons President Trump without abiding by any of the procedural protections to which President Trump is entitled by law.

28. Justice Engoron’s abrogation of Petitioners’ constitutional rights during a presidential campaign and his egregious and continuing abuse of the summary contempt power in a trial that has captured the attention of the nation and the world cannot be overstated.

29. The imposition of the Gag Orders and continued enforcement thereof exceeds Justice Engoron's jurisdiction and violates the First Amendment of the United States Constitution and Article I, Section 8 of the New York Constitution. Justice Engoron's imposition of summary punishment exceeds Justice Engoron's jurisdiction, violates the Judiciary Law and the Rules of this Court, and constitutes an arbitrary and capricious exercise of Supreme Court's contempt powers. Accordingly, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court annul and vacate the Gag Orders and the attendant contempt findings and prohibit the enforcement thereof.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

30. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to CPLR §§ 7804(b) and 506(b)(1), and pursuant to Judiciary Law § 755, which provides that an order imposing summary punishment for contempt is reviewable in a proceeding under Article 78 of the CPLR.

31. Venue in this Court is proper pursuant to CPLR § 506(b)(1) because the action, in the course of which the matter sought to be enforced or restrained originated, is triable in Supreme Court, New York County.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

49. The Attorney General initiated the underlying civil enforcement action captioned People v. Trump, et al., Index No. 452564/2022, in Supreme Court, New York County on September 21, 2022, following a three-year investigation into Petitioners' business practices that included interviews of more than 65 witnesses and the review of millions of pages of documents seeking myriad equitable remedies, including cancellation of business certificates and a disgorgement penalty of $250 million. A copy of the complaint is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

A. The First Gag Order

50. On October 3, 2023, the second day of trial, Justice Engoron conducted an off-the-record conference with the parties wherein he advised that he had learned that President Trump reposted to his social media account on the online platform "Truth Social" a photograph of the Principal Law Clerk with Senator Schumer, with President Trump's commentary thereon.

51. The Principal Law Clerk was appointed as Justice Engoron's principal law clerk in 2019 and has served Justice Engoron in that capacity for the entirety of the underlying proceeding.

52. In 2022, the Principal Law Clerk campaigned unsuccessfully for a Democrat nomination to Manhattan Civil Court. In connection with her campaign, and while serving as Justice Engoron's law clerk, the Principal Law Clerk created and maintained a website,

Instagram account, and Twitter account. The website “greenfield4civilcourt.com,” which remains functional, includes a link to, inter alia, the Principal Law Clerk’s Instagram page, created and maintained under the handle “@greenfield4civilcourt.”

53. Upon information and belief, the “greenfield4civilcourt” Instagram account was maintained as a public page through the time of President Trump’s Truth Social post. The account has since been set to private.

54. Beginning in or about early 2022, the Principal Law Clerk used the “greenfield4civilcourt” Instagram account to publish dozens of public political posts, including endorsements from the Village Independent Democrats and Grand Street Democrats, photographs with Democratic party leadership, and statements expressing support for Democratic incumbents and policies. A compilation of screenshots of those posts is annexed hereto as Exhibit B.

55. On February 26, 2022, the Principal Law Clerk posted on her public “greenfield4civilcourt” Instagram page that she was withdrawing from the Democratic primary for Civil Court. See Exhibit C.

56. In subsequent months, the Principal Law Clerk continued to actively post on her “greenfield4civilcourt” account. For example, on March 6, 2022, the Principal Law Clerk posted about her political activities with the Village Independent Democrats, with the caption: “petitioning with the @villagedems who have endorsed incredible candidates like @bradhoylman @nycformaloney.” See Exhibit D.

57. Justice Engoron has likewise permitted the Principal Law Clerk to contribute to Democrat causes in 2022 and 2023 in excess of the amount permitted by the Rules on Judicial Conduct. 22 N.Y.C.R.R. § 100.5. A summary of those contributions from the official New York state website is annexed hereto as Exhibit E. The Principal Law Clerk contributed over $3,000 to Democrat-affiliated organizations in 2022 and over $900 in 2023. Id. These prohibited contributions include contributions to partisan organizations that actively support Attorney General James and oppose President Trump, made while the case is pending. See, e.g., “Letitia James Serves as Last Line of Defense Against Trump Administration,” available at <https://www.gothamgazette.com/130-opinion/9811-letitia-james-last-line-defense-against-trump-administration>. The Principal Law Clerk also attended partisan political events while this case was pending, where speakers, inter alia, openly advocated for Joe Biden, and commented on the fight against “development and the profits of big real estate” and the “consequences of the former President,” i.e., Mr. Trump. See <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DMCEeSLugHE> at 6:40-7:15 and <https://youtu.be/DMCEeSLugHE?feature=shared&t=609> at 12:14-12:21 and 12:24-12:31.

58. The subject photograph of the Principal Law Clerk and Senator Schumer was originally posted by the Principal Law Clerk to the “greenfield4civilcourt” Instagram page on April 30, 2022. A caption accompanying the photograph read, in relevant part, as follows: “So thrilled to attend the Chelsea Reform Democratic Club Founder’s brunch today honoring incredible and fearless lifelong public servants like @senschumer and @repmaloney.” A screenshot of the Principal Law Clerk’s original post is depicted below as Figure 1.

59. On September 27, 2023, the Principal Law Clerk’s photo was used in a post on the online platform “X,” formerly known as Twitter, published by the X account “@JudicialProtest.” The post includes the subject photograph of the Principal Law Clerk and Senator Schumer and is accompanied by the text: “Why is Judge Engoron’s Principal Law Clerk, Allison R. Greenfield, palling around with Chuck Schumer?” A screenshot of the original post is depicted below as Figure 2.

60. The original post, as depicted in Figure 2, remains visible to the public on the @JudicialProtest account page on X. The same page routinely posts videos and photographs of, and other media about, the Principal Law Clerk. These posts have garnered millions of views.

61. On October 3, 2023, President Trump reposted the post depicted at Figure 2 and included additional commentary as follows: “Schumer’s girlfriend, Alison [sic] R. Greenfield, is running this case against me. How disgraceful! This case should be dismissed immediately.”

62. President Trump’s re-post also included a link to the Principal Law Clerk’s then-public “greenfield4civilcourt” Instagram account—the same account that the Principal Law Clerk urged her followers to “keep an eye on...”

63. After learning about President Trump’s repost outside of the courtroom, from an undisclosed source, Justice Engoron conducted the above-referenced, off-the-record conference wherein, despite it being constitutionally protected speech, President Trump voluntarily and immediately deleted the repost and accompanying commentary from his Truth Social page.

64. Later that afternoon, on the record, Justice Engoron sua sponte entered an order prohibiting all parties from “posting, emailing, or speaking publicly” about any members of his staff. A copy of the so-ordered transcript is annexed hereto as part of a compiled transcript as Exhibit F and provides, in relevant part, as follows:

This morning, one of the defendants posted, to a social media account, a disparaging, untrue and personally identifying post about a member of my staff. Although I have since order[ed] the post deleted, and apparently it was, it was also emailed out to millions of other recipients. Personal attacks on members of my court staff are unacceptable, inappropriate, and I will not tolerate them, under any circumstances. Yesterday, off the record, I warned counsel of this, and this was disregarded. My warning was disregarded.

Consider this statement a gag order forbidding all parties from posting, emailing, or speaking publicly about any members of my staff. Any failure to abide by this directive will result in serious sanctions.

Id. at 270:16-271:1-5.

65. Judge Tanya Chutkan of the United States District Court, District of Columbia imposed a gag order on President Trump during the course of legal proceedings against him. Specifically, Judge Chutkan ordered that “[a]ll interested parties in this matter, including the parties and their counsel, are prohibited from making any public statements, or directing others to make any public statements, that target (1) the Special Counsel prosecuting this case or his staff; (2) defense counsel or their staff; (3) any of this court’s staff or other supporting personnel; or (4) any reasonably foreseeable witness or the substance of their testimony.” United States v. Trump, Case No. 23-cr-00257, ECF No. 105 (D.D.C. Oct. 17, 2023).

66. That gag order was extremely short-lived. On October 17, 2023, a three-judge panel of the D.C. Circuit administratively stayed the gag order entered by Judge Chutkan pending appeal. United States v. Trump, Appeal No. 23-3190 (D.C. Cir. 2023).

67. The imposition of gag orders on President Trump has been widely criticized by legal experts, including in an amicus brief filed by the American Civil Liberties Union asking the D.C. Circuit to reject Judge Chutkan’s gag order, and members of the media. See, e.g., Betsy McCaughey, Why The ACLU Is Going To Bat For Donald Trump, N.Y. Post (Nov. 1, 2023) (citing “the public’s right to hear Trump’s views so it can decide ‘whether he deserves to be elected again’”); The Editors, The Trump Gag Order Goes Too Far, National Review (Oct. 18, 2023) (“Not only is free speech his right — it is the right of voters in the forthcoming primary and general elections to hear it before choosing the nation’s next president.”); Andrew McCarthy, The Trump Gag Order Is Judicial Overkill, National Review (Oct. 17, 2021) (emphasizing “the court’s duty to minimize the intrusion of judicial process on the electoral process....”); Isaac Arnsdorf et al., In Trump Cases, Experts Say Defendant’s Rhetoric Will Be

Hard To Police, Washington Post (Aug. 21, 2023) (judges should “permit voters access to the defendant’s statements as they decide how to cast their ballots...”); Jason Willick, Go Ahead, Silence Donald Trump, Washington Post (Sept. 19, 2023).

B. The First Summary Contempt Finding

68. Before President Trump voluntarily deleted his Truth Social post his campaign copied it into an email blast to registered supporters with the subject line “ICYMI.” That email was automatically archived on President Trump’s website.

69. On or about October 19, 2023, the Principal Law Clerk, again based on information obtained outside the record, emailed the parties on behalf of Justice Engoron that he had learned President Trump’s deleted Truth Social post remained visible on President Trump’s website. A copy of that email, sent by the Principal Law Clerk, is annexed hereto as Exhibit K.

70. The archived email and Truth Social Post were deleted the same night. Counsel for President Trump explained in the courtroom the following day that its continued presence on President Trump’s website was inadvertent.

71. Nonetheless, on October 20, 2023, Justice Engoron sua sponte issued an order finding that President Trump violated the Gag Order and imposing as punishment for the “inadvertent” and “first time violation” a “nominal” fine of $5,000, payable to the New York Lawyers’ Fund for Client Protection within 10 days from the date of the order (the “October 20 Order”). A copy of Justice Engoron’s October 20, 2023, order is annexed hereto as Exhibit G.

72. In the October 20 Order, Justice Engoron recited the Gag Order entered into the record on October 3, 2023, and stated that “last night [he] learned that the subject offending post was never removed from the website ‘DonaldJTrump.com.’” Justice Engoron continued:

[W]hether intentional or the result of mere ‘campaign structure’ negligence, the effect of the post on its subject is unmitigated [sic] by how or why it remained on Donald Trump’s website for 17 days....

In the current overheated climate, incendiary untruths can, and in some cases already have, led to serious physical harm, and worse.

Ex. G. Justice Engoron proceeded to state that “this Court is way beyond the ‘warning’ stage” and imposed punishment. Id.

73. Justice Engoron concluded by threatening President Trump with “far more severe sanctions” to come, including imprisonment, for any future violation of the Gag Order:

Make no mistake: future violations, whether intentional or unintentional, will subject the violator to far more severe sanctions, which may include, but are not limited to, steeper financial penalties, holding Donald Trump in contempt of court, and possibly imprisoning him pursuant to New York Judiciary Law § 753.

Id.

74. Justice Engoron puzzlingly referred to contempt as a future “sanction” and failed to reference any statutory authority for the punishment he imposed. However, inasmuch as the October 20 Order (1) found a violation of the Gag Order and (2) imposed immediate punishment in the absence of a motion on notice, order to show cause, or any other formal procedure, it constituted a summary punishment for civil contempt pursuant to Judiciary Law § 755.

C. The Second Summary Contempt Finding

75. On October 25, 2023, Michael Cohen (“Cohen”) took the stand as a witness for the Attorney General.

76. On that day, and for the duration of his testimony, Cohen sat in the witness box to Justice Engoron’s immediate left-hand side. Cohen admitted to perjuring himself in front of the late Judge William Pauley of the Southern District of New York. A copy of the October 25, 2023, transcript repeating that statement is annexed hereto as Exhibit F.

77. During a break in the proceedings, President Trump spoke to the press outside of the courtroom and Justice Engoron’s presence, stating, in relevant part: “This judge is a very partisan judge with a person who is very partisan sitting alongside of him, perhaps even much more partisan than he is.” Ex. H.

78. When the parties reconvened in the courtroom, Justice Engoron, who has repeatedly claimed to not read any press coverage of the underlying proceeding, sua sponte raised President Trump’s statement to the press made moments before and outside of his presence:

It was just brought to my attention that the Associated Press reported, I wasn’t there, this is the Associated Press, that Mr. Donald J. Trump just stated the following to the press outside the courtroom:

“This judge is a very partisan judge with a person who is very partisan sitting alongside of him, perhaps even much more partisan than he is.”

Now, it’s very easy for the public, for anyone to know who that person is.
Ex. F, 2373:2-10.

79. Justice Engoron immediately assumed that the statement was about the Principal Law Clerk.

80. The Principal Law Clerk sits at the bench with Justice Engoron, to his right-hand side. The Principal Law Clerk has sat at the bench during pretrial proceedings and for the duration of the trial.<sup>2</sup> This arrangement is depicted in the below photographs published by Getty Images and the Associated Press, respectively at Figure 3 and Figure 4.

81. The Principal Law Clerk is given unusual latitude for a court attorney and often questions attorneys for the parties herself. Justice Engoron turns to speak with off the record during trial before ruling on virtually all evidentiary objections or answering questions about the Court's position on various issues.

82. The Principal Law Clerk’s role in the proceedings has also been the subject of significant on-the-record discussion among Justice Engoron and counsel for Petitioners.

83. On October 25, 2023, Mr. Kise described the “considerable tension” caused by the Principal Law Clerk’s position on the bench and indicated that it is “unusual” for a law clerk to sit on the bench. Ex. F, 2416:9-13. Mr. Robert described his experience in New York State, such that he had never seen a situation where “you’re literally trying the case to two judges” with “notes that are constantly being passed,” where it “would appear the Court is in consultation with the law secretary” with each ruling. Id. at 2418:3-11. Mr. Robert further described that Justice Engoron would “appear to be leaning in one direction and then [will] either receive a note or there will be an eye gesture or a roll of the face and something changes and it is of significant concern to [Petitioners.]” Id. at 2418:17-22. Ms. Habba concluded as follows: “if we’re going to make a complete record with the treatment that I’ve received from the Principal Law Clerk from the bench, it is inappropriate. I do not like having eyes rolled, I do not like being yelled at by law clerks who did not earn the robe.” Id. at 2419:18-22.

84. In sanctioning President Trump under the Gag Order, Justice Engoron found that President Trump’s “recent statement, assuming the Associated Press is correct, obviously was intentional,” about the Principal Law Clerk, and a “blatant, dangerous disobeyal [sic]” of his Gag Order. Ex. F at 2373:23-25, 2374:5-6.

85. Counsel for President Trump responded that he had confirmed with his client that the statement referred to Cohen, who had been sitting in the witness box immediately to Justice Engoron’s left. Id. at 2374:16-2375:7.

86. Justice Engoron responded that he would typically interpret “alongside of me” as referring to the Principal Law Clerk because there is a barrier between him and the witness stand.

Id. In contrast, there is no barrier between Justice Engoron and the Principal Law Clerk because the two sit on the bench together. He continued:

We know from this trial and from our lives that language is sometimes precise and sometimes not very precise, sometimes ambiguous and not clear. Seemed clear to me, but I understand that could be interpreted another way. I'll take the whole matter under advisement. Let's not spend any more time on this. Let's move ahead with the trial.

Id.

87. The matter did not come up again for the duration of the morning session. Then, after a luncheon recess, Justice Engoron conducted an off-the-record conference with the parties, closed to the press, regarding the statement.

88. Justice Engoron then permitted the public to re-enter the courtroom and went back on the record “to resume the discussion about what happened this morning when Defendant, Donald J. Trump, apparently made a statement to the press referring to ‘the person next to me.’” Ex. F, 2412:10-13.

89. Justice Engoron stated he was “going to hold a hearing right now about that.” Justice Engoron then stated: “And I’ll have as my – as the first witness, Defendant Donald J. Trump.” Justice Engoron proceeded to instruct President Trump to “[c]ome on up” to the witness stand and had the court officer swear him in. Ex. F, 2412:19-2413:9-.

90. President Trump confirmed that he had made the subject statement as reported by the Associated Press but, in response to Justice Engoron’s direct questioning, stated that “the person sitting alongside of” him was Cohen. Ex. F, 2413:10-17.

91. Justice Engoron proceeded to challenge President Trump’s response and to question President Trump about any other out-of-court statements he might have made in the past about the Principal Law Clerk:

THE COURT: Are you sure that you didn't mean the person on the other side of me, my principal law clerk?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I am sure.

THE COURT: Have you in the past referred to her, my principal law clerk, as partisan, and/or partisan Democrat?

THE WITNESS: Maybe unfair. I think she is very biased against us. I think we've made that clear. We put up the picture and you didn't want that up. I think they got it off her website, however, so we didn't necessarily agree but – and we did take it down, Your Honor...

Ex. F, 2413:18-2414:3.

92. Justice Engoron then began testifying on the record about his physical proximity to the Principal Law Clerk:

Well, I'm more interested right now in – to whom you were referring as you can see and as everyone can see, first of all, my principal law clerk is very close to me. In fact, Ms. Habba would refer to the notes back and forth and even the conversations [between me and my law clerk], but you and I, we can see each other and we're close, but not as close clearly and there is a barrier between us.

Ex. F, 2414:8-14

93. Justice Engoron punctuated his testimony with a question to President Trump: "So wouldn't that be at best somewhat ambiguous as to whom you are referring?" Counsel objected to the question, and no response was provided. Ex. F, 2414:14-20.

94. Justice Engoron then asked another question: "Don't you always refer to Michael Cohen as Michael Cohen?" President Trump responded in the negative. Ex. F, 2414:21-23..

95. At the conclusion of his Star Chamber questioning, Justice Engoron, acting as both prosecutor and jury, declared that he believed none of President Trump's testimony and imposed a second summary punishment for violation of the Gag Order:

As the trier of fact, I find that the witness is not credible; that he was referring to my law clerk, the principal law clerk, who is sitting much closer to me, who doesn't have a barrier, whom I believe has been accused by the defendant of being partisan or Democrat or partisan Democrat. I hereby fine you $10,000, which is on the low side, to be paid within 30 days to the Lawyer's Fund for Client Protection.

Ex. F, 2415:13-20.

96. In a written order dated October 26, 2023, Justice Engoron memorialized his findings, holding that President Trump's statement to the press violated his Gag Order: "Quite clearly, defendant was referring, once again, to my Principal Law Clerk, who sits alongside me on the bench" (the "October 26 Order"). A copy of the order is annexed hereto as Exhibit H.

97. Justice Engoron then reiterated his finding that President Trump's testimony "under oath that he was referring to Michael Cohen . . . rings hollow and untrue." See Exhibit H.

98. The primary basis for Justice Engoron's rejection of President Trump's testimony was the Oxford English Dictionary's definition of "alongside" as "close to the side of; next to." Justice Engoron averred that "[w]itnesses do not sit 'alongside' the judge[;] they sit in the witness box, separated from the judge by a low wooden barrier." See Exhibit H. In contrast, the Principal Law Clerk sits on the bench with Justice Engoron and is, by his own repeated characterizations, "very close" to him during trial. Id.; Exhibit F, 2414:10-11.

99. Justice Engoron further rejected President Trump's testimony because he made unidentified "past public statements" referring to Cohen "directly by his name, or by a derogatory name," rather than as "a person." See Exhibit H.

100. Finally, Justice Engoron stated President Trump's statement "mirror[ed]" certain "language he used in public statements to the press on October 2," prior to the issuance of the Gag Order, which was "inappropriately and unquestionably" about the Principal Law Clerk. Id.

According to Justice Engoron, the October 2, 2023, statement was as follows: “this rogue judge is a trump hater, the only one that hates trump more is his associate up there, this person that works with him, and she’s screaming into his ear.” Id.

101. Justice Engoron illogically concluded that President Trump used “imprecise language” and created “plausible ambiguity,” but also that his statement was “unmistakably clear”:

Using imprecise language as an excuse to create plausible ambiguity about whether defendant violated this Court’s unequivocal gag order is not a defense; the subject of Donald Trump’s public statement to the press was unmistakably clear. As the trier of fact, I find that Donald Trump was referring to my Principal Law Clerk, and that, as such, he has intentionally violated the gag order. This is the second violation of this Court’s gag order in the less than one month since this trial commenced. Accordingly, this Court imposed a fine of $10,000 on defendant Donald Trump, to be paid to the New York Lawyers’ Fund for Client Protection, within thirty (30) days of October 25, 2023.

Id.

102. Justice Engoron failed to reference any statutory authority for the punishment imposed for the simple reason that there is no such authority. However, inasmuch as the October 26 Order (1) found a violation of the Gag Order and (2) imposed immediate punishment in the absence of a motion on notice, order to show cause, or any other formal procedure, it constituted a summary punishment for criminal or civil contempt.

103. On October 27, 2023, counsel for Appellants objected on the record to the entry of the Gag Order and subsequent orders thereunder and sought reconsideration of the October 26 Order. A copy of the October 27, 2023, transcript is annexed hereto as part of a compiled transcript as Exhibit F. Counsel again observed that there was no record evidence countering President Trump’s assertion that he was not referring to the Principal Law Clerk and raised additional constitutional infirmities with respect to the Gag Order. Id. at 2468:2-2473:9.

104. Specifically, counsel pointed out that it was constitutionally impermissible to preclude a presidential candidate from “comment[ing] on the fairness of a proceeding with even a general reference to what he sees and perceives legitimately as bias.” Id. at 2470:2-12.

Counsel further explained that the Principal Law Clerk’s “presence on the bench is open and public,” that President Trump has observed the Principal Law Clerk “make comments to” and “pass notes to” Justice Engoron, and President Trump “commenting on that fact is well within the bounds of his First Amendment rights.” Id. at 2470:13-2472:17.

105. Counsel summarized as follows:

[T]he defendant has a First Amendment right to comment on what he believes and perceives I think legitimately from his perspective as a potential source of bias and limiting that runs afoul of the First Amendment in general with respect to defendants, but also even more under the heightened scrutiny of restricting and placing prior restraints on political speech of a presidential candidate.

Id.

106. Counsel then specifically requested that the Gag Order be reduced to writing for appellate purposes. Id. at 2472:18-2473:9.

107. That same day, counsel for President Trump wrote to the Court indicating that, “[w]ithout waiving any rights or remedies, including . . . any rights to appeal said orders,” the $15,000 in fines had been paid to the New York Lawyers’ Fund for Client Protection. A copy of that letter is annexed hereto as Exhibit I.

D. Further Record Discussion of the Principal Law Clerk and the Gag Order

108. On November 2, 2023, Justice Engoron and counsel engaged in an extended on-the-record discussion about the Principal Law Clerk and the Gag Order. A copy of the November 2, 2023, transcript is annexed hereto as part of a compiled transcript as Exhibit F. Justice Engoron resorted to an ad hominem attack on counsel as follows:

Mr. Kise, all joking aside, and even I like to leaven [sic] the proceedings, do not refer to my staff again. A person sitting alongside of me is my principal law clerk. She's a civil servant. She's doing what I ask her to do, which is help me process cases and decide them correctly. Sometimes I think there may be a bit of misogyny the fact that you keep referring to my female principal law clerk. If there is any further reference to anyone on my staff, and I don't have a big staff, I have about three people, I will consider expanding the gag order to include the attorneys including yourself.

Id. at 3396:15-3397:1.

109. Mr. Kise responded to Justice Engoron's threat of an expanded gag order:

I do often feel -- frequently, I do feel like truly that I'm fighting two adversaries and I'm not trying to impugn anyone. I'm trying to point out as a lawyer and I think it is fair comment as a lawyer. I understand what your ruling is, but I have to respond to this because this is important. So I feel like I'm sitting here and I have to respond to Mr. Amer or their arguments. I hear what those arguments are and I get to see what those arguments are and we get to have our engagement, but then there is someone else who is sending you information on a very, very frequent basis. I think yesterday we counted maybe 30 times, 40 times and so I don't get to understand what this is and those -- and I'm not -- I'm not trying to invade it. All I'm trying to say is that gives off -- respectfully that gives off the appearance of impropriety and I'm entitled to at least make a record about that. It is not impugning anyone. It does give off the appearance of impropriety particularly if it is an individual or individuals that have a different view of the case than we do, have a different political background or political view than we do. And so those are relevant issues for Your Honor's consideration. Again, this is why I brought up on the constitutional -- I asked you to reconsider the gag order on the constitutional basis because I think it raises much more serious issues and I don't really want to go there and I'm trying not to; but at some level, I have to at least have fair comment on what I think is biased.

Id. at 3397:8-3398:21.

110. Ms. Habba added that she would be "happy to make the record for Mr. Kise, so that none of [her] team member are accused of misogyny" and that she had the same "issues with the person sitting on the bench." Id. at 3398:22-3399:2.

111. Ms. Habba continued:

Your Honor, I respect your position, but I do feel like Mr. Kise that your position is often what you are given in notes and we don't have a clue what is going on; but we do know that there is a nod of the head by you when those notes are received and then decisions are made. We have to make a record of it because, frankly, it's become part, and as I have said for three years for me personally, a part of the record and I'm not going to stand by and allow it to happen. I'm not going to let someone who's my teammate be called a misogynist because he is pointing out something, frankly, that I can do myself. So I will make my own record. It is inappropriate.

Id. at 3399:3-14.

112. After further discussion of the witness' testimony, Mr. Kise stated "I have to on behalf of my client comment on what I see going on in the courtroom that I think could prejudice or bias the proceeding. I don't -- I don't see what is being passed to you, so it is not possible for me to know." Id. at 3402:9-13.

113. Justice Engoron became irate, responding: "[t]hat's right. You don't see it. That's -- I'm going to pound the table -- confidential communications from my principal law clerk. Absolute right to it and you don't have any right to see it or question it." Id. at 3402:14-17.

114. Mr. Kise pushed back:

I certainly have a right to question what is perceived by my client as bias. I do have that. I have to make that record. I do have that. That's just what lawyers do. I mean, I have to make the record. I don't think, respectfully, there is any security concern. We're talking about observations of what's happening in open court. Everyone in this room can see what I'm seeing, so it is not a security issue. I'm not commenting inappropriately. I'm directing my comments to you and only to you, but I have to make a record if I perceive that there is potential bias.

Id. at 3402:18- 3403:4.

E. The Supplemental Gag Order

115. On November 3, 2023, Justice Engoron opened the proceedings with further comment on the Principal Law Clerk and the Gag Order:

Not yesterday, but several days ago, I believe that one or two or all of the defense lawyers said that they had never seen a judge be so intertwined with his or her law clerk basically passing messages. I mentioned that to the judge for whom I was a law clerk for many years, he reminded me of something that happened decades ago. There was an elected Supreme Court judge, which is what I am, in this very building, and I'll give away the genders. He was very well respected and he had this very high profile case. If I told you the name of the plaintiff and I told you the name of the defendant everybody in this room would know both of them. Now you're really scratching your heads, right? The law clerk was running for judge and the campaign literature -- the campaign literature said, I'll almost quote this exactly -- I'll put on a little bit of the act. "I sit on the bench everyday with the judge and I whisper in his ear and I tell him how to rule." Now, of course we haven't seen that, fortunately. The law clerk was elected, is still a judge. This is decades ago and so just to the claim that you've never seen anything like this, apparently that's been even more extreme. I didn't see this happen. I'm assuming that's what the story was and the judge never said no, she doesn't sit up there and tell me how to rule. So -- but to finish up, I hope I made myself clear yesterday. Okay.

A copy of the November 3, 2023, transcript is annexed hereto as Exhibit F, 3408:16-3409:16.

116. The Court issued the Attorney Gag Order later that day. A copy of that order is annexed hereto as Exhibit J.

117. After describing the two previous instances of summary contempt, Justice Engoron observed that he had "imposed the gag order only upon the parties, operating under the assumption that such a gag order would be unnecessary upon the attorneys, who are officers of the Court." Ex. J.

118. However, he found that:

[o]ver the past week, defendants' principal attorneys, namely Christopher Kise (admitted pro hac vice) (Continental PLLC), Clifford Robert (Robert & Robert PLLC) and Alina Habba (Habba Madaio & Associates LLP) have made, on the record, repeated, inappropriate remarks about my Principal Law Clerk, falsely accusing her of bias against them and of improperly influencing the ongoing bench trial. Defendants' attorneys have made long speeches alleging that it is improper for a judge to consult with a law clerk during ongoing proceedings, and that the passing of notes from a judge to a law clerk, or vice-versa, constitute an improper 'appearance of impropriety' in this case.

Id.

119. Justice Engoron ordered as follows: "[t]hus, for the reasons stated herein, I hereby order that all counsel are prohibited from making any public statements, in or out of court, that refer to any confidential communications, in any form, between my staff and me” and cautioned that “[f]ailure to abide by this directive shall result in serious sanctions.” Id. (emphasis in original).

120. The following day, Justice Engoron clarified the scope of the Supplemental Gag Order on the record, stating that the Supplemental Gag Order prohibits counsel not only from referring to the “confidential” contents of his communications with staff, but even to the fact or frequency of the communications: “No, it's not even the content. I am prohibiting you, or I have already, from referencing my confidential communications.” A transcript of the proceeding is annexed hereto as Exhibit F, 3645:21-24.

121. Justice Engoron further clarified in response to a follow up question from Petitioners’ counsel:

MS. HABBA: Okay. I'll be more clear, if I may. I think they are being extremely careful, and it's causing confusion, your Honor, so don't sanction me. I'm doing this in the most delicate way possible. I personally -- we know that we, obviously, are going to be moving for a mistrial. There's no, you know, that is part of the plan. We do not want to put anyone at risk, which is what they are trying to get at.

I -- outside in the way I read your order, which is different than they do, I think that you are specifically speaking about the contents of your notes being confidential, and that is what we are not to talk about; is that correct?

THE COURT: Not just the contents of the notes, which I assume you don't know, but the fact that they exist.

MS. HABBA: Okay.

THE COURT: That's my business, not yours.

Id. at 3648:24-3649:15.

122. Petitioners’ counsel asked whether Justice Engoron’s interpretation of the Gag Orders meant they could not refer to the communications even if (1) a necessary ground for a motion, including a motion for a mistrial, and (2) even though Justice Engoron had not previously heard and ruled on that ground in a manner that would create an appealable record:

MR. KISE: Of course. But if we were, for example, to move for a mistrial based on the implications of that, we would need to at least reference the subject matter in order to file that motion. There's no way to file that motion without referencing the subject matter. We don't –

THE COURT: Don't file that motion, Chris.

Id. at 3646:1-6.

123. Justice Engoron confirmed that he was directing counsel not to make any motion based on a ground that might be subject to the Gag Orders:

MR. ROBERT: For clarification purposes, then, is it the direction and order of this Court that if we were to move for a mistrial based on the grounds that are subject to the gag order, that we are directed not to make such a motion[?]

THE COURT: Can you repeat that.

(Whereupon, the requested testimony was read back by the court reporter.)

THE COURT: Yes. I'm directing you not to make such a motion because I'm entitled to do what you're referring to, the only subject matter of the gag order.

Id. at 3647:7-17.

124. Justice Engoron then modified his position, telling counsel that they could make the motion they were describing but only in writing by submission of a proposed order to show cause:

MS. HABBA: So outside of the notes, your Honor, other issues have come to our attention. Are we allowed to address anything outside of the notes? Because they haven't been addressed with the Court, and I think that's the clearest way to ask your Honor, what we are asking, which is we need to have an opportunity to be heard on those things that have not been yet heard.

THE COURT: Give me a second to have a confidential communication.

MS. HABBA: That's fine, your Honor. That's fine.

(Laughing.)

THE COURT: Okay. How's this: I think this is fair, and I understand your concerns. You can make that motion, Ms. Habba.

MS. HABBA: Thank you.

THE COURT: And I'm sorry I yelled at you before.

MS. HABBA: We will do it in a very delicate manner.

THE COURT: Okay. But it has to be in writing. I don't want to hear it in front of hundreds of people –

****

THE COURT: Yeah. Do it by order to show cause, please. You could make it as quick as you can.

Id. at 3648:16-3649:19.

125. Counsel stated that while that procedure was highly unusual, it was acceptable provided that the order to show cause was actually signed by Justice Engoron. However, Justice Engoron refused to confirm that he would sign any proposed order to show cause:

MR. ROBERT: I've never seen an application for a mistrial done by order to show cause on paper like that, but as long as the order to show cause is signed by the Court, I don't see a problem with it.

THE COURT: I'm not sure that that -- I guess that –

(Whereupon, there is a brief pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Submit an OS -- proposed OSC. It's not an order until the judge signs it. Mr. Robert knows that. Submit a proposed OSC to me and I'll get right to it and make a quick return.

Id. 3649:23-3650:9.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(For Judgment Pursuant to CPLR 7803)

126. Petitioners repeat and reallege each and every allegation in the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

127. Section 7802(a) of the CPLR defines “body or officer” to include “every court, tribunal, board, corporation, officer, or other person, or aggregation of persons, whose action may be affected by a proceeding under this article.”

128. Section 7803(2) of the CPLR authorizes a petitioner to raise in a special proceeding whether a “body or officer proceeded, is proceeding or is about to proceed without or in excess of jurisdiction.”

129. Section 7803(3) of the CPLR authorizes a petitioner to raise in a special proceeding before a Supreme Court “whether a determination was made in violation of lawful procedure, was affected by an error of law or was arbitrary and capricious or an abuse of discretion, including abuse of discretion as to the measure or mode of penalty or discipline imposed.”

130. Judiciary Law § 750 permits a court of record to punish for a criminal contempt a person guilty of, inter alia, “[d]isorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior, committed during its sitting, in its immediate view and presence, and directly tending to interrupt its proceedings, or to impair the respect due to its authority,” “[b]reach of the peace, noise, or other disturbance, directly tending to interrupt its proceedings,” “[w]illful disobedience to its lawful mandate,” or “resistance willfully offered to its lawful mandate.”

131. A finding of willfulness, rather than mere disobedience to a lawful mandate, is required to support a punishment for criminal contempt. See McCormick v. Axelrod, 59 N.Y.2d 574, 583 (1983); Simens v. Darwish, 100 A.D.3d 527 (1st Dep’t 2012); Sheridan v. Kennedy, 12 A.D.2d 332, 333-34 (1st Dep’t 1961).

132. Judiciary Law § 751 provides that a punishment for criminal contempt “may be by fine, not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment, not exceeding thirty days, in the jail of the county where the court is sitting, or both, in the discretion of the court.”

133. Judiciary Law § 753 permits a court of record to punish, “by fine and imprisonment, or either, a neglect or violation of duty, or other misconduct, by which a right or remedy of a party to a civil action or special proceeding, pending in the court may be defeated, impaired, impeded, or prejudiced” in cases including, but not limited to, punishment of a party for its “disobedience to a lawful mandate of the court.”

134. Judiciary Law § 773, provides that the assessable civil contempt fine must either be (1) “sufficient to indemnify the aggrieved party” or (2) a sum that does not exceed “the amount of the complainant’s costs and expenses,” plus $250.00.

135. “[U]nlike fines for criminal contempt where deterrence is the aim and the State is the aggrieved party entitled to the award...civil contempt fines must be remedial in nature and effect....The award should be formulated not to punish an offender, but solely to compensate or indemnify private complainants.” State v. Unique Ideas, Inc., 44 N.Y.2d 345, 349 (1978) (internal citations omitted); see McCormick v. Axelrod, 59 N.Y.2d at 583 (the penalty for criminal contempt is “punitive in nature” inasmuch as its “objective is deterrence of disobedience of judicial mandates”).

136. Judiciary Law § 755 provides limited circumstances where summary punishment for contempt, in the absence of a motion on notice or order to show cause, is permissible:

Where the offense is committed in the immediate view and presence of the court, or of the judge or referee, upon a trial or hearing, it may be punished summarily. For that purpose, an order must be made by the court, judge, or referee, stating the facts which constitute the offense and which bring the case within the provisions of this section, and plainly and specifically prescribing the punishment to be inflicted therefor.

137. In all other instances of civil contempt, Judiciary Law § 756 provides that “[a]n application to punish for a contempt punishable civilly may be commenced by notice of motion returnable before the court or judge authorized to punish for the offense, or by an order of such court or judge requiring the accused to show cause before it . . . at a time and place therein specified.”

138. Likewise, Judiciary Law § 751 provides that a criminal contempt “committed in the immediate view and presence of the court, may be punished summarily; when not so committed, the party charged must be notified of the accusation, and have a reasonable time to make a defense.”

139. The Court of Appeals instructs that summary contempt adjudications are appropriate only for the preservation of immediate order in the courtroom:

It is the need for the preservation of the immediate order in the courtroom which justifies the summary procedure—one so summary that the right and need for an evidentiary hearing, counsel, opportunity for adjournment, reference to another Judge, and the like, are not allowable because it would be entirely frustrative of the maintenance of order. Of course, such rigorous procedure is justified only by necessity and must then be based upon contemptuous conduct committed in the view and presence of the presiding Justice.

Matter of Katz v. Murtagh, 28 N.Y.2d 234, 238 (1971); see In re Hart, 7 N.Y.3d 1, 7 (2006)

(summary contempt “should be employed where a court reasonably believes that prompt adjudication may aid in restoring order and decorum in the courtroom” [emphasis added]).

140. Accordingly, the Rules of this Court provide that Supreme Court’s summary power to punish contempt in its immediate view “shall be exercised only in exceptional and necessitous circumstances, as follows:”

- (i) Where the offending conduct either
  - (a) disrupts or threatens to disrupt proceedings actually in progress; or
  - (b) destroys or undermines or tends seriously to destroy or undermine the dignity and authority of the court in a manner and to the extent that it appears unlikely that the court will be able to continue to conduct its normal business in an appropriate way; and
- (ii) The court reasonably believes that a prompt summary adjudication of contempt may aid in maintaining or restoring and maintaining proper order and decorum.

141. The Rules of this Court further provide: “Before summary adjudication of contempt the accused shall be given a reasonable opportunity to make a statement in his defense or in extenuation of his conduct.” 22 N.Y.C.R.R. § 604.2(a)(3).

142. The Rules of this Court state that certain procedural protections must be provided to the accused in every case where the court’s limited summary punishment power is not indicated: “In all other cases, notwithstanding the occurrence of the contumacious conduct in the view and presence of the sitting court, the contempt shall be adjudicated at a plenary hearing with due process of law including notice, written charges, assistance of counsel, compulsory process for production of evidence and an opportunity of the accused to confront witnesses against him.” 22 N.Y.C.R.R. § 604.2(b) (emphasis added).

143. The Rules of this Court further provide:

Except in the case of the most flagrant and offensive misbehavior which in the court’s discretion requires an immediate adjudication of contempt to preserve order and decorum, the court should warn and admonish the person engaged in alleged contumacious conduct that his conduct is deemed contumacious and give the person an opportunity to desist before adjudicating him in contempt. Where a person so warned desists from further offensive conduct, there is ordinarily no occasion for an adjudication of contempt. Where a person is summarily adjudicated in contempt and punishment deferred and such person desists from further offensive conduct, the court should consider carefully whether there is any need for punishment for the adjudicated contempt.

22 N.Y.C.R.R. § 604.2(c).

144. The Rules of this Court further provide:

The judge before whom the alleged contumacious conduct occurred is disqualified from presiding at the plenary hearing or trial (as distinguished from summary action) except with the defendant's consent:

- (1) if the allegedly contumacious conduct consists primarily of personal disrespect to or vituperative criticism of the judge; or
- (2) if the judge's recollection of, or testimony concerning the conduct allegedly constituting contempt is necessary for an adjudication; or
- (3) if the judge concludes that in view of his recollection of the events he would be unable to make his decision solely on the basis of the evidence at the hearing.

22 N.Y.C.R.R. § 604.2(d).

145. An order imposing summary punishment under the Judiciary Law is reviewable by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. See People v. Webb, 159 A.D.2d 289 (1st Dep't 1990); People v. Epps, 21 A.D.2d 650, 650 (1st Dep't 1964); Kelly v. Kelly, 34 A.D.3d 809, 809 (2d Dep't 2006); Shockome v. Shockome, 30 A.D.3d 529, 530 (2d Dep't 2006); Matter of Ellman, 117 A.D.2d 803 (2d Dep't 1986); see also CPLR § 7801(2).

146. The October 20 and October 26 Orders punishing President Trump for contempt were each made in violation of lawful procedure, affected by an error of law, arbitrary and capricious, and an abuse of discretion, including as to the measure or mode of penalty or discipline imposed.

i. The October 20 Order

147. The October 20 Order, which purported to punish President Trump for failing to remove an archived email posted prior to the issuance of the Gag Order, impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump for conduct that occurred outside of the “immediate view and presence of” Justice Engoron.

148. The October 20 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump solely upon Justice Engoron’s ex parte online investigation and in the absence of any evidence entered on the record.

149. The October 20 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump for conduct that did not (1) disrupt or threaten to disrupt or (2) destroy or undermine or tend seriously to destroy or undermine the dignity and authority of the court in a manner and to the extent that it appeared unlikely that the court would be able to continue to conduct its normal business in an appropriate way.

150. The October 20 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump notwithstanding that Justice Engoron had no reasonable belief that a prompt summary adjudication of contempt might aid in maintaining or restoring and maintaining proper order and decorum, inasmuch as the conduct did not occur in the courtroom or in Justice Engoron’s presence and that President Trump has comported himself appropriately at all relevant times while in the courtroom or in Justice Engoron’s presence.

151. The October 20 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump without providing him with a reasonable opportunity to make a statement in his defense or in extenuation of his conduct.

152. The October 20 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump absent a plenary hearing with due process of law including notice, written charges, assistance of counsel, compulsory process for production of evidence, and an opportunity of the accused to confront witnesses against him.

153. The October 20 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump, even though Supreme Court recognized the contumacious conduct as “inadvertent” and a “first time violation,” absent warning or admonishment.

154. The October 20 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump notwithstanding that Justice Engoron should have been disqualified from presiding over such proceeding inasmuch as (1) the allegedly contumacious conduct consisted of vituperative criticism on the partiality of Justice Engoron’s Principal Law Clerk; (2) Justice Engoron’s email describing the contumacious conduct and testimony with regard thereto was necessary to the adjudication, and there was no other record evidence about the conduct; and (3) Justice Engoron could not make a determination absent his own testimony, since there was no other record evidence about the conduct.

155. Inasmuch as the October 20 Order constitutes a finding of criminal contempt, it impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump for purportedly contumacious conduct that occurred outside of the view of Justice Engoron without proper notice to President Trump of the accusation and a reasonable time to make a defense.

156. Inasmuch as the October 20 Order constitutes a finding of criminal contempt, it impermissibly imposes a fine in excess of the statutory maximum of $1,000.

157. Inasmuch as the October 20 Order constitutes a finding of criminal contempt, it impermissibly punishes President Trump for conduct that Justice Engoron expressly found was “inadvertent,” rather than “willful,” within the meaning of the Judiciary Law.

158. Inasmuch as the October 20 Order constitutes a finding of civil contempt, it impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump for purportedly contumacious conduct that occurred outside of the view of Justice Engoron absent a motion on notice or a signed order to show cause.

159. Inasmuch as the October 20 Order constitutes a finding of civil contempt, it impermissibly imposes a punitive fine that does not purport to recompense any aggrieved party or complainant and exceeds the $250 additional sum provided for by statute.

ii. The October 26 Order

160. The October 26 Order, which purported to punish President Trump for a statement he made outside of the courtroom to the media during a break in the trial, impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump for conduct that occurred outside of the “immediate view and presence of” Justice Engoron.

161. The October 26 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump upon Justice Engoron’s ex parte investigation of President Trump’s statements to the media, other unidentified out-of-court statements, and the Oxford English Dictionary, none of which was made a part of the record.

162. The October 26 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump for conduct that did not (1) disrupt or threaten to disrupt or (2) destroy or undermine or tend seriously to destroy or undermine the dignity and authority of the court in a manner and to the extent that it appeared unlikely that the Court would be able to continue to conduct its normal business in an appropriate way.

163. The October 26 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump notwithstanding that Justice Engoron had no reasonable belief that a prompt summary adjudication of contempt might aid in maintaining or restoring and maintain proper order and decorum, inasmuch as the conduct did not occur in the courtroom or in the presence of Justice Engoron and that President Trump has comported himself appropriately, as his rights permit, at all relevant times while in the courtroom or in the presence of Justice Engoron.

164. The October 26 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump absent a plenary hearing with due process of law including notice, written charges, assistance of counsel, compulsory process for production of evidence, and an opportunity of the accused to confront witnesses against him.

165. The October 26 Order impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump notwithstanding that Justice Engoron should have been disqualified from presiding over such proceeding inasmuch as (1) the allegedly contumacious conduct consisted of vituperative criticism about both Justice Engoron and the Principal Law Clerk's partiality; (2) Justice Engoron's testimony describing the contumacious conduct, his proximity to his Principal Law Clerk, and the layout of the courtroom was necessary to the adjudication; and (3) Justice Engoron could not make a determination absent his own testimony, since no other record evidence supported a finding that President Trump's statement was about the Principal Law Clerk.

166. Inasmuch as the October 26 Order constitutes a finding of criminal contempt, it impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump for purportedly contumacious conduct that occurred outside of Justice Engoron’s view, without proper notice to President Trump of the accusation and a reasonable time to make a defense.

167. Inasmuch as the October 26 Order constitutes a finding of criminal contempt, it impermissibly imposes a fine in excess of the statutory maximum of $1,000.

168. Inasmuch as the October 26 Order constitutes a finding of civil contempt, it impermissibly imposed summary punishment on President Trump for purportedly contumacious conduct that occurred outside of Justice Engoron’s view absent a motion on notice or the issuance of an order to show cause.

169. Inasmuch as the October 26 Order constitutes a finding of civil contempt, it impermissibly imposes a punitive fine that does not purport to indemnify any aggrieved party or complainant and exceeds the $250 additional sum provided for by statute.

170. Accordingly, the October 20 and October 26 Orders should be vacated and annulled as in violation of lawful procedure.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(For Judgment Pursuant to CPLR 7803)

171. Petitioners repeat and reallege each and every allegation in the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

172. Section 7803(2) of the CPLR is a codification of the common-law writ of prohibition and is available “both to restrain an unwarranted assumption of jurisdiction and to prevent a court from exceeding its authorized powers in a proceeding over which it has jurisdiction.” La Rocca v. Lane, 37 N.Y.2d 575, 578-79 (1975); see Soares v. Carter, 25 N.Y.3d 1011, 1013 (2015); Johnson v. Sackett, 109 A.D.3d 427, 428-29 (1st Dep’t 2013).

173. The October 20 and October 26 Orders punishing President Trump for contempt were jurisdictionally defective insofar as each constituted an unauthorized exercise of Supreme Court’s summary power to punish contempt.

174. Supreme Court lacked jurisdiction to initiate sua sponte civil or criminal contempt proceedings in both instances because the offending conduct did not occur in the courtroom or in the presence of Justice Engoron.

175. Supreme Court lacked jurisdiction to punish President Trump for contempt in both instances inasmuch as the offending conduct is protected speech under the First Amendment and the New York Constitution.

176. Supreme Court lacked jurisdiction to punish President Trump for contempt in both instances inasmuch as the predicate offense was the violation of the Gag Order, which is an unconstitutional restraint on Petitioners’ freedom of speech under the First Amendment and the New York Constitution.

177. Accordingly, the October 20 and October 26 Orders should be vacated and annulled as in excess of Justice Engoron’s jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(For Judgment Pursuant to CPLR 7803)

178. Petitioners repeat and reallege each and every allegation in the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

179. Section 7803(2) of the CPLR authorizes a petitioner to raise in a special proceeding whether a “body or officer proceeded, is proceeding or is about to proceed without or in excess of jurisdiction.”

180. Section 7803(2) is a codification of the common-law writ of prohibition and is available “both to restrain an unwarranted assumption of jurisdiction and to prevent a court from exceeding its authorized powers in a proceeding over which it has jurisdiction.” La Rocca v. Lane, 37 N.Y.2d 575, 578-79 (1975); see Soares v. Carter, 25 N.Y.3d 1011, 1013 (2015); Johnson v. Sackett, 109 A.D.3d 427, 428-29 (1st Dep’t 2013).

181. The First Amendment to the United States Constitution provides, in relevant part, that “Congress shall make no law . . . abridging the freedom of speech.”

182. Article I, Section 8 of the New York Constitution provides, in relevant part, that “[e]very citizen may freely speak, write and publish his or her sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right.”

183. “A ‘prior restraint’ on speech is ‘a law, regulation or judicial order that suppresses speech—or provides for its suppression at the discretion of government officials—on the basis of the speech’s content and in advance of its actual expression.” Ash v. Board of Managers of 155 Condominium, 44 A.D.3d 324, 324 (1st Dep’t 2007), quoting United States v. Quattrone, 402 F.3d 304, 309 (2d Cir. 2005). “[I]t has been long established that such restraints ‘are the most serious and the least tolerable infringement on First Amendment rights.’” Id. at 324-325, quoting Nebraska Press Ass’n v. Stuart, 427 U.S. 539, 559 (1976).

184. Consequently, “any imposition of prior restraint, whatever the form, bears a ‘heavy presumption against its constitutional validity.’” Id. at 325, quoting Bantam Books, Inc. v. Sullivan, 372 U.S. 58 (1963). “[A] party seeking to obtain such a restraint bears a correspondingly heavy burden of demonstrating justification for its imposition.” Id., citing Organization for a Better Austin v. Keefe, 402 U.S. 415, 419 (1971); Near v. Minnesota, 283 U.S. 697, 713 (1931).

185. “[P]rior restraints upon the rights of free speech and publication ‘may only be overcome upon a showing of a ‘clear and present danger’ of a serious threat to the administration of justice.” Id., quoting Nat’l Broadcasting Co. v. Cooperman, 116 A.D.2d 287, 290 (2d Dep’t 1986). Put differently, the speech sought to be restrained must be “likely to produce a clear and present danger of a serious substantive evil that rises far above public inconvenience, annoyance, or unrest.” Brummer v. Wey, 166 A.D.3d 475 (1st Dep’t 2018), quoting Rosenberg Diamond Dev. Corp. v. Appel, 290 A.D.2d 239, 239 (1st Dep’t 2002); Terminiello v. City of Chicago, 337 U.S. 1 (1949).

186. Gag orders are a quintessential example of prior restraints. See, e.g., New York Times Co. v. Rothwax, 143 A.D.2d 592, 592-593 (1st Dep’t 1988).

187. The Gag Order was explicitly identified by Justice Engoron as such and plainly qualifies as a prior restraint on the speech of the parties to People v. Trump, et al., Index No. 452564/2022. Specifically, the Gag Order “forbid[s] all parties [to that action] from posting, emailing, or speaking publicly about any members of [Justice Engoron’s] staff.” Ex. G.

188. “The test for determining overbreadth is whether the law on its face prohibits a real and substantial amount of constitutionally protected conduct.” People v. Barton, 8 N.Y.3d 70, 75 (2006), citing Houston v. Hill, 482 U.S. 451, 458 (1987); Broadrick v. Oklahoma, 413 U.S. 601, 615 (1973). The Court is required to interpret the directive “‘without reference to the defendant’s conduct’—to decide whether ‘a substantial number of its applications are unconstitutional, judged in relation to the statute’s plainly legitimate sweep.’” People v. Marquan M., 24 N.Y.3d 1, 8 (2014), citing People v. Stuart, 100 N.Y.2d 412, 421 (2003).

189. Speech is unprotected where it “is directed to inciting or producing imminent lawless action and is likely to incite or produce such action.” Brummer, 166 A.D.3d at 478, quoting Brandenburg v. Ohio, 395 U.S. 444, 447 (1969).

190. Justice Engoron’s record remarks made at the time he issued the Gag Order indicated that he was addressing “disparaging, untrue and personally identifying” statements made about the Principal Law Clerk, none of which are properly the subject of a prior restraint. See Ex. F, 270:17-18. Justice Engoron further stated that “[p]ersonal attacks on members of [his] court staff are unacceptable, inappropriate, and [h]e w[ould] not tolerate them, under any circumstances.” Id. at 270:21-23.

191. The Gag Order, which suppresses Petitioners’ speech on the basis of content and viewpoint, is facially overbroad inasmuch as it is not narrowly tailored to prohibit speech that is “likely to produce a clear and present danger of a serious substantive evil that rises far above public inconvenience, annoyance, or unrest.” Brummer, 166 A.D.3d at 475; see also Matal v. Tam, 582 U.S. 218, 243 (2017) (proscription on speech that “disparages” constitutes forbidden viewpoint discrimination); Guerrero v. Carva, 10 A.D.3d 105, 111 (1st Dep’t 2004) (holding that “expressions of opinion” are protected by the First Amendment).

192. The Gag Order, as issued by the court, is also unconstitutionally overbroad because it prevents any speech about any member of Justice Engoron’s staff. Thus, the Gag Order restricts a “substantial” amount of clearly protected speech when compared to the order’s “plainly legitimate sweep.” Marquan M., 24 N.Y.3d at 8.

193. The Gag Order fails to address any identified, legitimate threat to a member of Justice Engoron’s staff. Instead, the Gag Order improperly presumes that any critique of a staff member by a party, regardless of whether it is well-founded, will incite violence.

194. Justice Engoron’s November 2, 2023, comments further demonstrate that he continues to believe that he can balance “the First Amendment right against the safety of [his] staff” on the basis of such nebulous factors as “what’s going on out there in the world.” Ex. F, 3400:23-25. Justice Engoron has yet to identify a single, concrete concern sufficient to justify the wholesale abrogation of Petitioners' freedom of speech.

195. The Gag Order is likewise overbroad as applied to President Trump.

196. President Trump twice has been sanctioned pursuant to the Gag Order for commenting on the perceived bias of a de facto fact-finder, who sits on the bench with Justice Engoron as if a member of an appellate panel, routinely and publicly passes notes, speaks in Justice Engoron's ear when evidentiary objections are made, and makes inappropriate expressions during trial.

197. First, on October 20, 2023, Justice Engoron issued a sua sponte order finding that President Trump violated the Gag Order because, while a post that had been made prior to the issuance of the Gag Order had been deleted, an email containing the post had been archived on President Trump's website and not removed. The post included a photo the Principal Law Clerk had publicly published on her judicial campaign's social media page months ago and a link to the campaign's social media account. The original X post containing the photo and commentary questioning the Principal Law Clerk's bias in favor of the Democratic party remains publicly visible and has been viewed by over one million people.

198. Justice Engoron's order cautioned that "[i]n the current overheated climate, incendiary untruths can, and in some cases already have, led to serious physical harm, and worse." Ex. G. However, Justice Engoron made no finding, nor could he, that the post called for violence or gave rise to any specific threat against the Principal Law Clerk or any other member of his staff.

199. Moreover, the Principal Law Clerk has made myriad, public social media posts posing with prominent Democrats, including Senator Schumer and Representative Maloney, espousing her support for Democratic policy positions, attending Democratic events, and engaging in Democratic political fundraising. Ex. B, D.

200. All of these posts were made during the Principal Law Clerk's tenure as Justice Engoron's clerk. Many of the posts were made while Justice Engoron was presiding over the special proceeding involving many of the same parties, including President Trump, with the Principal Law Clerk sitting right beside him. Most egregiously, several of the posts, including the post with Senator Schumer, were made during the pendency of this action.

201. The Principal Law Clerk's uncommon role in the courtroom has also been publicly visible to all attending the proceedings in the underlying action, including President Trump. As counsel for Petitioners have commented on the record, it is unusual for a law clerk to sit on the bench and has created the appearance that counsel are "trying the case to two judges." Ex. F, 2418:6.

202. The Principal Law Clerk also consults with Justice Engoron on almost every ruling and passes contemporaneous notes, including with respect to substantive evidentiary issues, and often directly questions and instructs the parties even while Justice Engoron is present.

203. Contemporaneous press coverage has reinforced this impression of the Principal Law Clerk's unusual role. See supra p.18, n.2. As explained by counsel, the Principal Law Clerk's "presence on the bench is open and public." Ex. F, 2470:25-2471:1.

204. The Principal Law Clerk is therefore a public figure, subject to public criticism, for purposes of these proceedings. See, e.g., Gottwald v. Sebert, 193 A.D.3d 573 (1st Dep't 2021); see also Brady v. Ottaway Newspapers, Inc., 84 A.D.2d 226, 240 n.5 (2d Dep't 1981), quoting Rosenblatt v. Baer, 383 U.S. 75, 86 (1966) (holding that public figures include any government official with “such apparent importance that the public has an independent interest in the qualifications and performance of the person who holds it”).

205. Additionally, President Trump, a current presidential candidate, must be permitted to “comment on what he believes and perceives . . . as a potential source of bias.” Ex. F, 2471:24-2472:2. At base, President Trump is being prohibited from commenting on public conduct that he perceives as undermining the legitimacy of the legal processes that will decide this case.

206. A defendant in a high-profile trial is well within his rights to comment on the perceived, or actual, bias of a judicial appointee who sits immediately adjacent to the judge on the bench, to whom he has effectively abdicated his judicial role.

207. On October 26, 2023, Justice Engoron sua sponte issued a second order regarding a statement President Trump made to the press earlier that day. Specifically, President Trump stated to the press that “[t]his judge is a very partisan judge with a person who’s very partisan sitting alongside him, perhaps even much more partisan than he is.” Ex. H (emphasis added).

208. Justice Engoron, in assuming that the statement referred to the Principal Law Clerk, characterized it as a “blatant, dangerous disobeyal [sic]” of the Gag Order. Ex. F, 2374:5-6..

209. Regardless of whether President Trump was referring to the Principal Law Clerk, Cohen, or someone else entirely, the First Amendment and the New York Constitution clearly do not permit Justice Engoron to restrict such core political speech “in advance of its actual expression.” Ash, 44 A.D.3d at 324.

210. The fact that President Trump may influence his followers does not authorize the Court to the sweeping restriction of First Amendment rights the Gag Order imposes in this instance. See, e.g., Rockwell v. Morris, 12 A.D.2d 272, 279 (1st Dep’t 1961) (“[T]his does not justify the perversion that if the actor’s speech, otherwise innocent, incites others to unlawful action he may be suppressed.”); see also Brown v. Louisiana, 383 U.S. 131, 133 n.1 (1966) (Public speakers “are not chargeable with the danger” that their audiences “might react with disorder or violence.”); Hoesten v. Best, 34 A.D.3d 143, 151 (1st Dep’t 2006).

211. Moreover, the Gag Order curtails the First Amendment rights of President Trump’s public audience to hear, respond to, and amplify his speech on matters of public concern. Westchester Rockland Newspapers, Inc. v. Leggett, 48 N.Y.2d 430, 452 (1979) (Cooke, C.J., concurring) (“The First Amendment respects the right of citizens to enjoy the free flow of information and ideas, a right which necessarily encompasses the correlative rights to receive and to communicate”), citing Virginia Pharmacy Bd. v. Virginia Consumer Council, 425 U.S. 748, 764-765 (1976); see also Packingham v. North Carolina, 582 U.S. 98, 104 (2017); Santer v. Bd. of Educ. of E. Meadow Union Free Sch. Dist., 23 N.Y.3d 251, 264 (2014); O.B.G.Y.N. Assos. v. Birthright of Brooklyn & Queens, Inc., 64 A.D.2d 894, 895-896 (2d Dep’t 1978). “[A] speech burden based on audience reactions is simply government hostility and intervention in a different guise.” Matal, 582 U.S. at 250.

212. Nothing about President Trump’s comment itself constitutes incitement or any other type of unprotected speech. Nor did Justice Engoron properly find that the comment furthered any specific threat against his staff.

213. Because the speech that the Gag Order restricts is also speech in furtherance of the campaign of a former President who is the current frontrunner for the 2024 Republican nomination, the constitutional concerns implicated by the application of the Gag Order are particularly grave. The issues at stake in this case and the relentless media coverage of the case mean that speech about the conduct of the trial and its participants, including the Principal Law Clerk, are inextricably intertwined in the current Presidential campaign.

214. “[S]tatements made by a candidate in furtherance of the candidate’s own campaign constitute core political speech worthy of First Amendment protection.” In re Raab, 100 N.Y.2d 305, 312 (2003), citing Republican Party of Minnesota v. White, 536 U.S. 765, 770 (2002); see also Susan B. Anthony List v. Driehaus, 573 U.S. 149, 162 (2014) (The First Amendment “has its fullest and most urgent application precisely to the conduct of campaigns for political office.”); Meyer v. Grant, 486 U.S. 414, 425 (1988) (Campaign speech is “at the core of our electoral process and of the First Amendment freedoms . . . an area of public policy where protection of robust discussion is at its zenith.”) (internal citations and quotations omitted); Cole Fischer Rogow, Inc. v. Carl Ally, Inc., 29 A.D.2d 423, 429 (1st Dep’t 1968).

215. Additionally, as Justice Engoron is presiding over a bench trial, the Gag Order cannot possibly be aimed at “impaneling [] a constitutionally impartial jury” or ensuring a fair jury trial. See Gannett Co., Inc. v. De Pasquale, 43 N.Y.2d 370, 380 (1977).

216. The D.C. Circuit’s October 17, 2023, administrative stay of Judge Chutkan’s similar gag order further evinces the impropriety of imposing gag orders on President Trump.

217. The Gag Order is also unconstitutionally vague.

218. “A statute, or a regulation, is unconstitutionally vague if it fails to provide a person of ordinary intelligence with a reasonable opportunity to know what is prohibited, and it is written in a manner that permits or encourages arbitrary or discriminatory enforcement.” Indep. Ins. Agents & Brokers of New York, Inc. v. New York State Dep’t of Fin. Servs., 39 N.Y.3d 56, 63–64 (2022). In assessing vagueness, the Court must determine whether (1) it is “sufficiently definite to give a person of ordinary intelligence fair notice that [the person’s] contemplated conduct is forbidden” and (2) it “provides officials with clear standards for enforcement” in order to avoid the “attendant dangers of arbitrary and discriminatory application.” Id. at 64. (internal citations and quotations omitted).

219. Here, the Gag Order failed to give President Trump adequate notice that his October 26, 2023, comment would fall within its ambit.

220. The Gag Order proscribes parties, including President Trump, from “posting, emailing, or speaking publicly about any members of [Justice Engoron’s] staff.” However, President Trump did not even refer to the Principal Law Clerk by name. Worse, he testified under oath that he was, in fact, speaking about Cohen.

221. Consequently, the Gag Order is not sufficiently definite to give fair notice that such conduct would be forbidden.

222. The vagueness of the Gag Order has also resulted in arbitrary and discriminatory enforcement.

223. Justice Engoron summarily concluded that the statement was about the Principal Law Clerk, observing that “it [was] very easy for the public, for anyone to know who that person is.” Ex. G. Additionally, in order to bring President’s Trump’s comment within the ambit of the Gag Order, he found that he would typically interpret “alongside of me” as referring to the Principal Law Clerk because there is a barrier between him and the witness stand. Id.

224. Justice Engoron’s conclusion that President Trump’s statement was both “unmistakably clear” and employed “imprecise language” creating “plausible ambiguity” is plainly arbitrary. Id.

225. That such order allows for discriminatory enforcement is all the more concerning given Justice Engoron’s open disdain for President Trump.

226. In justifying his October 20, 2023, enforcement of the Gag Order, Justice Engoron alluded to the “overheated” political climate and “incendiary untruths” that have purportedly “led to serious physical harm and worse,” without identifying any untruth or physical harm. Ex. G.

227. Justice Engoron has also threatened to “hold[] Donald Trump in contempt of court” and “possibly imprison[] him.” Id. These statements are calculated to chill constitutionally protected speech, even speech that does not violate the Gag Order— especially in light of the Gag Order’s inherent vagueness.

228. With respect to the October 25, 2023, enforcement of the Gag Order, Justice Engoron summoned President Trump to the stand for questioning without authority. President Trump denied that the statement was about the Principal Law Clerk but, under questioning, admitted that he believed the Principal Law Clerk to be partisan. Nonetheless, acting in the capacity of both the aggrieved party and the arbiter of truth, Justice Engoron judged President Trump “not credible.”

229. For all of the foregoing reasons, the Gag Order should be annulled and vacated as in excess of Justice Engoron’s jurisdiction under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution and Article I, Section 8 of the New York Constitution.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(For Judgment Pursuant to CPLR 7803)

230. Petitioners repeat and reallege each and every allegation in the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

231. Section 7803(2) of the CPLR authorizes a petitioner to raise in a special proceeding whether a “body or officer proceeded, is proceeding or is about to proceed without or in excess of jurisdiction.”

232. Section 7803(2) is a codification of the common-law writ of prohibition and is available “both to restrain an unwarranted assumption of jurisdiction and to prevent a court from exceeding its authorized powers in a proceeding over which it has jurisdiction.” La Rocca v. Lane, 37 N.Y.2d 575, 578-79 (1975); see Soares v. Carter, 25 N.Y.3d 1011, 1013 (2015); Johnson v. Sackett, 109 A.D.3d 427, 428-29 (1st Dep’t 2013).

233. The First Amendment to the United States Constitution provides, in relevant part, that “Congress shall make no law . . . abridging the freedom of speech.”

234. Article I, Section 8 of the New York Constitution provides, in relevant part, that “[e]very citizen may freely speak, write and publish his or her sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right.”

235. “[I]t is well-settled that statements made in the course of litigation are entitled to absolute privilege.” TRB Acquisitions LLC v. Yedid, 215 A.D.3d 40, 43 (1st Dep’t 2023), quoting Front, Inc. v. Khalil, 24 N.Y.3d 713, 718 (2015). “A counsel, or party conducting judicial proceedings, is privileged in respect to words or writings used in the course of such proceedings reflecting injuriously upon others, when such words and writings are material and pertinent to the questions involved; . . . within such limit, the protection is complete, irrespective of the motive with which they are used; but such privilege does not extend to matter, having no materiality or pertinency to such questions.” Id. at 43-44, quoting Youmans v. Smith, 153 N.Y. 214 (1897).

236. “The public interest requires that such statements be absolutely privileged so that those discharging a public function may speak freely in doing so, insulated from harassment and fear of financial hazard. Since the privilege is absolute, it confers immunity from liability regardless of motive. The privilege embraces anything that may possibly be pertinent or which has enough appearance of connection with the case.” Id. at 44 (internal citations and quotations omitted). This absolute privilege “will not be conferred” where “the underlying lawsuit was a sham action brought solely to defame the defendant” or “the testimony is part of a larger scheme to defraud.” Id. at 44-45 (internal citations and quotations omitted).

237. In keeping with the absolute protection which statements made in the course of litigation are afforded, a court is not permitted to punish a litigant “because his attorney makes a record.” In re Hart, 7 N.Y.3d at 7.

238. The Supplemental Gag Order explicitly proscribes public statements “in . . . court [] that refer to any confidential communications, in any form, between” Justice Engoron and his staff. Ex. J (emphasis in original). Justice Engoron has further confirmed that counsel are prevented from referencing his communications with staff even if they constitute a ground for a substantive motion, has instructed counsel not to make any such motion, and has suggested that he may refuse to sign an order to show cause raising his communications with staff. This contravenes the principle of absolute privilege.

239. There has been significant, heated colloquy between counsel and Justice Engoron regarding counsel’s ability to comment on the record regarding the Principal Law Clerk’s role in the proceedings. That colloquy ultimately led to issuance of the Supplemental Gag Order.

240. The Supplemental Gag Order prevents counsel from abiding by their ethical obligations to advocate for their clients. Specifically, the Supplemental Gag Order prevents counsel from continuing to make a record of conduct they believe to be impermissible, engaging in zealous advocacy, and preserving evidence of Justice Engoron’s open abdication of judicial duties and the Principal Law Clerk’s improper public influence for appeal.

241. The Supplemental Gag Order instead states that Petitioners’ “record is now fully preserved for the duration of the proceedings,” and counsel “may refer back to this blanket statement in their appeal as they deem appropriate.” Ex. J.

242. The Supplemental Gag Order violates the First Amendment and the New York Constitution insofar as it bars in-court statements by counsel.

243. “As to counsel’s First Amendment rights, prior restraints of speech are unquestionably viewed with a strong presumption against their validity.” Fischetti v. Scherer, 44 A.D.3d 89, 92 (1st Dep’t 2007), citing Carroll v. President & Comm’rs of Princess Anne, 393 U.S. 175 (1968). “[R]easonable limitations may be placed on speech where an important countervailing interest is being served.” Id. at 93. (internal citations omitted).

244. “[E]xtrajudicial statements of attorneys may be subject to prior restraint by a trial court upon a demonstration that such statements present a ‘reasonable likelihood’ of a serious threat to a defendant’s right to a fair trial.” Id., quoting Cooperman, 116 A.D.2d at 292. “[I]n general, an attorney acting as counsel in a legal matter may be prohibited from making extrajudicial statements which are likely to materially prejudice the case.” Id., citing Gentile v. State Bar of Nevada, 501 U.S. 1030 (1991).

245. The Supplemental Gag Order, like the Gag Order, is impermissibly overbroad in contravention of New York law and the United States Constitution.

246. Justice Engoron’s record remarks made at the time he issued the Supplemental Gag Order indicated that he was addressing “repeated, inappropriate remarks” by counsel about the Principal Law Clerk “falsely accusing her of bias against [Petitioners] and of improperly influencing the ongoing bench trial.” Ex. J.

247. Precluding “remarks” by counsel about the public conduct of Justice Engoron and the Principal Law Clerk while permitting discussion of “scheduling issues” and “management of the trial” constitutes impermissible content-based and viewpoint-based discrimination.

Brummer, 166 A.D.3d at 475; Matal, 582 U.S. at 243.

248. Justice Engoron implicitly identified as “countervailing interest[s]” the “safety of his staff” and the “orderly progression of th[e] trial.” Ex. J; Fischetti, 44 A.D.3d at 92.

249. Counsel’s comments, which have all been made on the record before Justice Engoron, do not constitute incitement or any other type of unprotected speech. Nor did Justice Engoron properly find that any comments made by counsel, on or off the record, furthered any specific threat against his staff. To be sure, Justice Engoron has never even identified a single specific threat his chambers has received. Instead, Justice Engoron impermissibly relied on unsubstantiated concerns about “violence resulting from heated political rhetoric” and unspecified “phone calls, voicemails, emails, and letters, and packages” purportedly sent to his chambers during the pendency of the underlying proceeding. Ex. J.

250. Justice Engoron has likewise not identified any statement resulting in a “reasonable likelihood” of a serious threat to a defendant’s right to a fair trial,” particularly where the trial in question is a bench trial. Fischetti, 44 A.D.3d at 92; see also Gannett Co., Inc., 43 N.Y.2d at 380.

251. The Supplemental Gag Order therefore also violates the First Amendment and the New York Constitution insofar as it bars out-of-court statements by counsel.

252. For all of the foregoing reasons, the Supplemental Gag Order should be annulled and vacated as in excess of Justice Engoron's jurisdiction under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution and Article I, Section 8 of the New York Constitution.

WHEREFORE, Petitioners respectfully request that this Court grant judgment in their favor as follows:

- (a) On the first cause of action, annulling and vacating Justice Engoron's summary findings of contempt as in violation of lawful procedure under CPLR § 7803(3);
- (b) On the second cause of action, annulling and vacating Justice Engoron's summary findings of contempt as in excess of Supreme Court's jurisdiction pursuant to CPLR § 7803(2);
- (c) On the third cause of action, finding that Justice Engoron's Gag Order is in excess of Supreme Court's jurisdiction under CPLR § 7803(2);
- (d) On the fourth cause of action, finding that Justice Engoron's Supplemental Gag Order is in excess of Supreme Court's jurisdiction under CPLR § 7803(2); and
- (e) Granting such further and additional relief as the court deems just and proper.

Plaintiff, the People of the State of New York, by Letitia James, Attorney General of the State of New York, as and for their Verified Complaint, respectfully allege:

I. NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Following a comprehensive three-year investigation by the Office of the Attorney General (“OAG”), involving interviews with more than 65 witnesses and review of millions of pages of documents produced by Defendants and others, OAG has determined that Defendants Donald J. Trump (“Mr. Trump”), Trump Organization LLC and the Trump Organization, Inc. (collectively with the other named entities, the “Trump Organization”), Allen Weisselberg, and the other individuals and entities affiliated with Mr. Trump and his companies named as Defendants, engaged in numerous acts of fraud and misrepresentation in the preparation of Mr. Trump’s annual statements of financial condition (“Statements of Financial Condition” or “Statements”) covering at least the years 2011 through 2021.

2. These acts of fraud and misrepresentation were similar in nature, were committed by upper management at the Trump Organization as part of a common endeavor for each annual Statement, and were approved at the highest levels of the Trump Organization—including by Mr. Trump himself. Indeed, Mr. Trump made known through Mr. Weisselberg that he wanted his net worth on the Statements to increase—a desire Mr. Weisselberg and others carried out year after year in their fraudulent preparation of the Statements.

3. These acts of fraud and misrepresentation grossly inflated Mr. Trump’s personal net worth as reported in the Statements by billions of dollars and conveyed false and misleading impressions to financial counterparties about how the Statements were prepared. Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization used these false and misleading Statements repeatedly and persistently to induce banks to lend money to the Trump Organization on more favorable terms than would otherwise have been available to the company, to satisfy continuing loan covenants, and to induce insurers to provide insurance coverage for higher limits and at lower premiums.

4. All of this conduct was in violation of New York Executive Law § 63(12)'s prohibition of persistent and repeated business fraud, which embraces any conduct that "has the capacity or tendency to deceive, or creates an atmosphere conducive to fraud." People v. Northern Leasing Systems, Inc., 193 A.D.3d 67, 75 (1st Dep't 2021).

5. These misrepresentations also violated a host of state criminal laws, constituting repeated and persistent illegality in violation of Executive Law § 63(12). Among other laws, Defendants repeatedly and persistently violated the following: New York Penal Law § 175.10 (Falsifying Business Records); Penal Law § 175.45 (Issuing a False Financial Statement); and Penal Law § 176.05 (Insurance Fraud).<sup>1</sup>

6. Each Statement from 2011 to 2021 provides Mr. Trump's personal net worth as of June 30 of the year it covers, was compiled by Trump Organization executives, and was issued as a compilation report by Mr. Trump's accounting firm. Each Statement provides on its face that its preparation was the responsibility of Mr. Trump, or starting in 2016, the trustees of his revocable trust, Donald Trump, Jr. and Allen Weisselberg.<sup>2</sup> Each Statement was personally certified as accurate by Mr. Trump, by one of his trustees, or in 2021 by Eric Trump, when submitting the Statement to financial institutions with the purpose and intent that the information contained in the Statement would be relied upon by those institutions.

<sup>1</sup> While not a basis for recovery in this action, the conduct alleged in this action also plausibly violates federal criminal law, including 18 U.S.C. § 1014 (False Statements to Financial Institutions) and 18 U.S.C. § 1344 (Bank Fraud). Under those provisions, a defendant violates federal law by knowingly submitting a false document or statement in order to influence the decision of a federally-insured bank or to obtain money from a bank by means of false representations or pretenses. There is no requirement of loss or reliance. OAG is making a referral of its factual findings to the Office of the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York.

7. Each year from 2011 to 2016, Mr. Trump and Mr. Weisselberg would meet to review and approve the final Statement. When asked questions about those meetings under oath, both men invoked their Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination and refused to answer. When asked under oath if he continued to review and approve the Statements after becoming President of the United States in 2017, Mr. Trump invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege and refused to answer.

8. As further evidence of their scheme to inflate the value of Mr. Trump's assets when beneficial to his financial interests, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization procured inflated appraisals through fraud and misrepresentations in 2014 and 2015 for the purpose of granting conservation easements over two of Mr. Trump's properties. Through these conservation easements, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization agreed to forgo their purported rights to develop areas of the two properties that are the subjects of the easements, which enabled them to treat as a charitable donation the difference in the value of each property with and without the relinquished development rights as determined in the appraisals. In the same way that Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization inflated the valuations of Mr. Trump's assets for the Statements, they manipulated the appraisals to inflate the value of the donated development rights with respect to both conservation easements.

A. The Fraudulent Statements of Financial Condition

9. Each Statement of Financial Condition lists Mr. Trump's assets and liabilities, and then presents his "net worth" as the difference between the two. On the asset side, each Statement includes five basic categories: (i) "cash and cash equivalents;" (ii) monies held in “escrow” and “reserve deposits;” (iii) interests in “partnerships and joint ventures;” (iv) real estate licensing fees; and (v) by far the largest category – real estate holdings. On the liability side, each Statement lists “accounts payable and accrued expenses,” loans on “real and operating properties,” and other mortgages and loans.

10. Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition for the period 2011 through 2021 were fraudulent and misleading in both their composition and presentation. The number of grossly inflated asset values is staggering, affecting most if not all of the real estate holdings in any given year. All told, Mr. Trump, the Trump Organization, and the other Defendants, as part of a repeated pattern and common scheme, derived more than 200 false and misleading valuations of assets included in the 11 Statements covering 2011 through 2021.

11. Nearly every one of the Statements represented that the values were prepared by Mr. Trump and others at the Trump Organization in “evaluation[s]” done with “outside professionals,” but that was false and misleading; no outside professionals were retained to prepare any of the asset valuations presented in the Statements. To the extent Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization received any advice from outside professionals that had any bearing on how to approach valuing the assets, they routinely ignored or contradicted such advice. For example, they received a series of bank-ordered appraisals for the commercial property at 40 Wall Street that calculated a value for the property at $200 million as of August 1, 2010 and $220 million as of November 1, 2012. Yet in the 2011 Statement, they listed 40 Wall Street with a value $524 million and increased the valuation to $527 million in the 2012 Statement, and to $530 million in 2013—more than twice the value calculated by the “professionals.” Even more egregiously the valuation of more than $500 million was attributed to information obtained from the same professional appraiser who prepared both valuations putting the building's value at or just over $200 million.

12. The inflated asset valuations in the Statements cannot be brushed aside or excused as merely the result of exaggeration or good faith estimation about which reasonable real estate professionals may differ. Rather, they are the result of the Defendants utilizing objectively false assumptions and blatantly improper methodologies with the intent and purpose of falsely and fraudulently inflating Mr. Trump's net worth to obtain beneficial financial terms from lenders and insurers.

13. Nor can the false and fraudulent asset values in the Statements be defended based on boilerplate disclaimers in the accountant's compilation report accompanying each Statement. While the accountants gave notice in the reports that they did not audit or review the Statements to verify the accuracy or completeness of the information provided by Mr. Trump or the Trump Organization, they confirmed that their clients were responsible for preparing the Statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("GAAP"). The disclaimers may relieve the accountants of certain obligations that would otherwise adhere to their work on a more rigorous audit engagement, but they do not give license to Mr. Trump or the Trump Organization to submit to their accountants fraudulent and misleading asset valuations for inclusion in the Statements.

14. Moreover, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization have no excuse for issuing Statements of Financial Condition that repeatedly violated GAAP rules in multiple ways despite expressly representing in the Statements that they were prepared in accordance with GAAP. Among the many GAAP rules they violated are: (i) including as "cash" funds that Mr. Trump could not immediately liquidate because they did not belong to him and may never be distributed to him; (ii) failing to determine the present value of projected future income when including the income as part of an asset valuation; (iii) failing to disclose a substantial change in methodology from the prior year's statement for how an asset value was derived; (iv) failing to value the entirety of Mr. Trump's interest in a partnership, including all limitations and restrictions on his interest; and (v) including intangibles such as internally-generated brand premiums when calculating an asset's value.

15. As discussed in greater detail in the sections that follow, Mr. Trump and others affiliated with the Trump Organization who are named as Defendants employed a number of deceptive strategies as part of the overall scheme to fraudulently and falsely inflate Mr. Trump's assets in order to comply with Mr. Trump's instruction to increase his net worth. A chart showing many of the deceptive strategies employed by Mr. Trump and other Defendants by asset and year is attached as Exhibit 1, and includes the following, to list just a few:

- a. Relying on objectively false numbers to calculate property values. For example, Mr. Trump's own triplex apartment in Trump Tower was valued as being 30,000 square feet when it was 10,996 square feet. As a result, in 2015 the apartment was valued at $327 million in total, or $29,738 per square foot. That price was absurd given the fact that at that point only one apartment in New York City had ever sold for even $100 million, at a price per square foot of less than $10,000. And that sale was in a newly built, ultra-tall tower. In 30 year-old Trump Tower, the record sale as of 2015 was a mere $16.5 million at a price of less than $4,500 per square foot.
- b. Ignoring legal restrictions on development rights and marketability that would materially decrease property values. For example:
  - i. In the 2012 Statement, rent stabilized apartments at Trump Park Avenue were valued as if they were unrestricted, leading to a nearly $50 million valuation for those units—but an appraisal accounting for those units' stabilized status valued them collectively at just $750,000;
  - ii. The Mar-a-Lago club was valued as high as $739 million based on the false premise that it was unrestricted property and could be developed and sold for residential use, even though Mr. Trump himself signed deeds donating his residential development rights and sharply restricting changes to the property – in reality, the club generated annual revenues of less than $25 million and should have been valued at closer to $75 million; and

- iii. For his golf course in Aberdeen, Scotland, the valuation assumed 2,500 homes could be developed when the Trump Organization had obtained zoning approval to develop less than 1,500 cottages and apartments, many of which were expressly identified as being only for short-term rental. The $267 million value attributed to those 2,500 homes accounted for more than 80% of the total $327 million valuation for the Aberdeen property on the 2014 Statement.
- c. Failing to use basic rules of valuation to ensure reliable and accurate results—such as discounting revenue or cash flow that might be obtained from a speculative development far into the future to its present value. For example, a series of high-value properties estimated the profits from developing and selling homes without accounting for the years it would take to plan, build, and sell the homes and instead operated under the impossible and thus false premise that the homes could be planned, built, and sold instantaneously.
- d. Using an inappropriate valuation method for a given category of assets. For example, for the period 2013 to 2020, Mr. Trump’s golf course in Jupiter, Florida was valued using a fixed-asset approach even though that was not an acceptable method for valuing an operating golf course. And the bulk of the value in that fixed-asset approach was based on the use of an inflated purchase price from the purported assumption of “refundable” membership liabilities. Mr. Trump claimed to have paid $46 million for the club, consisting of $5 million in cash he actually paid and $41 million in assumed membership liabilities. In the Statement Mr. Trump did not disclose the inclusion of those inflated liabilities in the price of the club and in fact took the opposite position, stating that his potential liability for those membership deposits was zero.
- e. Increasing the value of golf clubs to incorporate a “brand premium” despite expressly advising in the Statements that brand value was not included in the figures and despite GAAP rules prohibiting inclusion of internally-generated intangible brand premiums. For example, in the 2013 Statement, the value of Mr. Trump’s golf course in Jupiter, Florida was further inflated by fraudulently adding 30% for the Trump “brand.” Combining the inflation from using the fixed-asset approach with the 30% brand premium, Mr. Trump claimed that a club he purchased for $5 million in 2012 was worth more than $62 million in 2013. The 2013 Statement included the same fraudulent 30% brand premium for six other golf clubs.
- f. Using inflated net operating income (“NOI”) figures and arbitrarily low capitalization rates to calculate valuations using the income capitalization method, where value is derived by dividing NOI by a capitalization rate. For example, in some instances the NOI for Trump Tower relied on favorable numbers by mixing time periods, using future income that exceeded the Trump Organization's internal budget projections while also using expense figures that were lower than past expenses in audited financials. Capitalization rates were derived by cherry-picking an unsupported figure from, or averaging the lowest two or three capitalization rates listed in, generic marketing reports and ignoring rates in those same reports for buildings that were closer and more comparable to Trump Tower.

- g. Claiming as Mr. Trump's own "cash" monies belonging not to Mr. Trump but to partnerships in which Mr. Trump had only a limited partnership interest with no control over making disbursements. For example, one-third of the amount under "cash and cash equivalents" listed in the 2018 Statement belonged to Vornado Partnerships, not Mr. Trump. Those are partnerships in which he owns a minority 30% stake with no right to control distributions. Mr. Trump did the same thing in counting funds held in escrow. For example, one-half of the amount under "escrow" in the 2014 Statement belonged to the Vornado Partnership.
- h. Including in the value of golf clubs anticipated income from inflated membership initiation fees. For example, at Mr. Trump's golf course in Westchester, the valuation for 2011 assumed new members would pay an initiation fee of nearly $200,000 for each of the 67 unsold memberships, even though many new members in that year paid no initiation fee at all. In some instances, Mr. Trump specifically directed club employees to reduce or eliminate the initiation fees to boost membership numbers.

16. Mr. Trump and the other Defendants also engaged in conduct intended to mislead Mazars in connection with its work compiling the Statements, including by concealing important information. Because Mazars was not conducting any review or audit procedures, but rather issuing a compilation in which Mr. Trump's and the Trustees' assertions were being compiled into financial-statement format, many of their fraudulent statements and strategies remained concealed from, or undetected by, Mazars.

17. As a result, shortly after some of the findings uncovered by OAG's investigation came to light in public filings to enforce OAG's investigative subpoenas, Mazars concluded that it had to end its long-term business relationship with Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization and withdraw the Statements it had compiled from 2011 to 2020. In a letter to the Trump Organization dated February 9, 2022, Mazars explained that it had "come to this conclusion based, in part, upon the filings made by the New York Attorney General on January 18, 2022, our own investigation, and information received from internal and external sources,” and advised “that the Statements of Financial Condition for Donald J. Trump for the years ending June 30, 2011—June 30, 2020, should no longer be relied upon.” Mazars further instructed the Trump Organization to “inform any recipients thereof who are currently relying upon one or more of those documents that those documents should not be relied upon.”

18. Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition were repeatedly and persistently submitted to banks insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation for the purpose of influencing the actions of those institutions. The Statements were used to obtain and maintain favorable loans over at least an eleven-year period, including: (a) Deutsche Bank’s extension of a $125 million loan (or combination of loans) in connection with the Trump Organization’s purchase of the property known as Trump National Doral; (b) Deutsche Bank’s financing of up to $107 million in debt in connection with the Trump International Hotel and Tower, Chicago, in 2012, as well as a $54 million expansion of that loan in 2014; and (c) Deutsche Bank’s financing of up to $170 million in funds in connection with the Trump Organization’s purchase and renovation of the Old Post Office property in Washington, DC.

19. As to each of those loans, the truthfulness and accuracy of the pertinent Statement, as certified by Mr. Trump, was a precondition to lending. Moreover, pursuant to the covenants of those loans, each year Mr. Trump or the trustees would submit a new Statement and certify its accuracy. Material misrepresentations on any loan document, including the Statements or the certifications as to their accuracy, would constitute an event of default under the terms of the loan agreements.

20. The Statements, along with other false representations, were also used repeatedly and persistently to obtain beneficial terms on insurance policies from insurers participating on the Trump Organization's surety program and directors and officers liability policies.<sup>3</sup>

21. The magnitude of financial benefit derived by Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization by means of these fraudulent and misleading submissions was considerable. Following the initiation of subpoena-enforcement litigation against Mr. Trump, and Mazars's withdrawal of ten years' worth of Mr. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization decided to repay hundreds of millions of dollars in debt early. But even that step, the equivalent of partial disgorgement, fails to account for substantial additional financial benefit obtained by Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization by means of the false and fraudulent Statements of Financial Condition. Mr. Trump and his operating companies obtained additional benefits from banks other than loan proceeds in the form of favorable interest rates that likely saved them more than $150 million over the prior ten-year period.

<sup>3</sup> Under the surety program, insurers underwrote surety bonds on behalf of the Trump Organization required for the company's business activities, primarily to secure judgments and mechanics liens and as needed on construction projects and for liquor licenses. Ordinarily, a surety underwriter requires the insured to put up collateral to secure the obligations assumed under the bonds, but here the underwriters waived the collateral requirements and accepted instead a personal indemnity from Mr. Trump coupled with the opportunity to review his Statement of Financial Condition. Under the directors and officers liability program, underwriters agreed to defend and indemnify the officers and directors of the Trump Organization in connection with any claims and investigations asserted against them arising out of their work for the company. As part of the underwriting negotiations, the insurers reviewed Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition and questioned company executives about any pending or threatened claims and investigations.

22. The Statements were also critical to the overall success of the investment in the Old Post Office property in Washington, D.C. Based on its own statement, the Trump Organization won the bidding as part of “one of the most competitive selection processes in the history of” the General Services Administration. Critical to the success of that bid was a demonstration of the “financial wherewithal” of the Trump Organization through the submission of his Statement of Financial Condition. The favorable interest rates obtained from Deutsche Bank were instrumental in the financial performance of the investment, which ultimately led to “the record breaking sale of the Trump International Hotel, Washington, D.C.,” and a financial benefit to the Trump Organization of more than $100 million in May 2022.

23. All of those benefits were derived from the improper, repeated, and persistent use of fraudulent and misleading financial statements and are, therefore, subject to disgorgement in this action under Executive Law § 63(12).

24. It is no defense to claims for disgorgement under § 63(12) that the Trump Organization may have made all payments due under the loans and insurance policies. The remedy of disgorgement is available to deprive a wrongdoer of illegal benefit regardless of whether any entity suffered a financial loss.

III. JURISDICTION, APPLICABLE LAW, AND VENUE

40. This enforcement action is brought on behalf of the People of the State of New York pursuant to the New York Executive Law.

41. Executive Law § 63(12) allows the Attorney General to bring a proceeding “[w]hensoever any person shall engage in repeated fraudulent or illegal acts or otherwise demonstrate persistent fraud or illegality in the carrying on, conducting or transaction of business.”

42. Fraudulent conduct as used in § 63(12) includes acts that have the “capacity or tendency to deceive, or creates an atmosphere conducive to fraud.” People v. Applied Card Sys., Inc., 27 A.D.3d 104, 107 (3d Dep’t 2005), aff’d on other grounds, 11 N.Y.3d 105 (2008); see also People v. Northern Leasing Systems, Inc., 193 A.D.3d 67, 75 (1st Dep’t 2021). The terms “fraud” and “fraudulent” are “given a wide meaning so as to embrace all deceitful practices contrary to the plain rules of common honesty, including all acts, even though not originating in any actual evil design to perpetrate fraud or injury upon others, which do tend to deceive or mislead.” People ex rel. Cuomo v. Greenberg, 95 A.D.3d 474, 483 (1st Dep’t 2012). By its plain terms, Executive Law § 63(12) covers frauds committed by overtly false or fraudulent statements, by omission, or as part of a scheme to defraud. See Executive Law § 63(12) (defining the words “fraud” and “fraudulent” to include “any . . . misrepresentation, concealment, [or] suppression . . .”).

43. A violation of any federal, state, or local law or regulation constitutes “illegality” within the meaning of Executive Law § 63(12). See, e.g., Applied Card Sys., 27 A.D.3d at 106, 109; Oncor Commc’ns, Inc. v. State, 165 Misc. 2d 262, 267 (Sup. Ct. Albany Cty. 1995), aff’d, 218 A.D.2d 60 (3d Dep’t 1996); People v. Am. Motor Club, Inc., 179 A.D.2d 277 (1st Dep’t 1992), appeal dismissed, 80 N.Y.2d 893; State v. Winter, 121 A.D.2d 287 (1st Dep’t 1986). “It long has been recognized that the statute affords the Attorney General broad authority to enforce federal as well as state law, unless state action in the area of federal concern has been precluded utterly or federal courts have exclusive jurisdiction of the matter.” Oncor Commc’ns, Inc. v. State, 165 Misc. 2d 262, 267 (Sup. Ct. Albany Cty. 1995), aff’d, 218 A.D.2d 60 (3d Dep’t 1996).

Thus, if conduct violates a provision of New York’s Penal Law . . . it may be the subject of an action for equitable relief on the basis of “illegality” under Executive Law § 63(12).

44. State laws other than Executive Law § 63(12) render unlawful certain fraudulent actions with respect to financial statements and their use. Falsification of business records is unlawful under the Penal Law—and is a felony when committed to aid or conceal the commission of another offense. See, e.g., Penal Law § 175.10. The issuance of a false financial statement is likewise an offense under the Penal Law. See, e.g., Penal Law § 175.45. A conspiracy—essentially, an agreement to commit an offense by a group of persons, and one overt act by one of the conspirators—is unlawful under the Penal Law as well. See generally Penal Law § 105.

45. Fraud or illegality, within the meaning of Executive Law § 63(12), may be the subject of an enforcement action if it is either “repeated” or “persistent.” Such conduct is “repeated,” § 63(12) instructs, if it involves either “any separate and distinct fraudulent or illegal act, or conduct which affects more than one person.” Executive Law § 63(12). Thus, under the statute, “the Attorney-General [may] bring a proceeding when the respondent was guilty of only one act of alleged misconduct, providing it affected more than one person.” State of New York v. Wolowitz, 96 A.D.2d 47, 61 (2d Dep’t 1983).

46. The statute instructs that the term “persistent” includes the “continuance or carrying on of any fraudulent or illegal act or conduct.” Executive Law § 63(12).

47. Among the equitable remedies available to the Attorney General under Executive Law § 63(12) is disgorgement, which is designed to deprive the wrongdoer of illegal benefit regardless of whether any entity suffered a financial loss. See People v. Ernst & Young, LLP, 114 A.D.3d 569, 569-70 (1st Dep’t 2014) (“Thus, disgorgement aims to deter wrongdoing by preventing the wrongdoer from retaining ill-gotten gains from fraudulent conduct. Accordingly, the remedy of disgorgement does not require a showing or allegation of direct losses to consumers or the public; the source of the ill-gotten gains is ‘immaterial’”). Multiple defendants may be jointly and severally liable for disgorgement under § 63(12) when they have participated in a common scheme. See Fed. Trade Comm’n v. Shkreli, No. 20 Civ. 706, 2022 WL 135026 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 14, 2022). Disgorgement can also include salary and bonuses that are a result of fraudulent activity. See, e.g., SEC v. Razmilovic, 738 F.3d 14, 32 (2d Cir. 2013).

48. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action, personal jurisdiction over the Defendants, and authority to grant the relief requested pursuant to Executive Law § 63(12).

49. Pursuant to C.P.L.R. § 503, venue is proper in New York County, because Plaintiff resides in that county, and because a substantial part of the events and omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in that county.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

50. The breadth of material presented here is considerable, necessitating a roadmap for the Court. This complaint presents verified allegations regarding scores of fraudulent, false, and misleading representations by Mr. Trump, the Trump Organization, and the other Defendants. The financial statements in question were issued annually; each contained a significant number of fraudulent, false, and misleading representations about a great many of the Trump Organization’s assets; and most played a role in particular transactions with financial institutions. The substantial information presented in the complaint is organized in the following manner:

- a. an overview of the relevant assets of Mr. Trump presented in the Statement (§§ 51(a) – 51(n));

- b. a general description of the Statements for the relevant years, 2011 through 2021 (§§ 52 – 65);
- c. a detailed discussion of the inflated valuations contained in the Statements for each relevant asset (§§ 66 – 558);
- d. a detailed discussion of the loans procured and maintained by Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization using the false and misleading Statements (§§ 559 – 675);
- e. a detailed discussion of the insurance procured by Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization procured through the use of the false and misleading Statements and other material misrepresentations and omissions (§§ 676 – 714); and
- f. a detailed discussion of the ongoing nature of the fraudulent scheme and conspiracy among the defendants (§§ 715 – 747).

A. Overview of Trump Organization Assets

51. In an effort to familiarize the Court with the pertinent assets reflected in the Statements of Financial Condition, OAG provides the following brief descriptions below:

- a. Cash, marketable securities, and cash equivalents. This category of asset reflects cash controlled by Mr. Trump, or securities (such as publicly traded stocks) that are readily convertible to cash. Under GAAP, cash equivalents constitute short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and that are so near their maturity that they present insignificant risk of changes in value because of changes in interest rates (such as a money market fund).
- b. Escrow and Reserve Deposits and Prepaid Expenses. This category purports to include funds that belong to Mr. Trump but have been escrowed or subjected to some other restriction pursuant to a legal document such as a loan agreement.
- c. Trump Tower (commercial space) (“Trump Tower”). Mr. Trump owns commercial space (office and retail) in a building at 725 Fifth Avenue in midtown Manhattan.
- d. Mr. Trump’s triplex apartment (“Triplex”). Separately Mr. Trump owns an apartment in Trump Tower. This apartment is grouped with other assets in a category entitled “other assets” on the Statements of Financial Condition.
- e. 4-6 East 57th Street (“Niketown”). Mr. Trump owns two ground leases that comprise a space adjoining Trump Tower. Mr. Trump pays rent on those ground leases to the landowners, and those ground leases are subject to long-term rent schedules and adjustments. The retail space for many years was leased to Nike and is known as “Niketown.”

- f. 40 Wall Street (“40 Wall Street”). 40 Wall Street is a building located in lower Manhattan. Mr. Trump purchased a ground lease pertaining to the building in 1995 for $1.3 million. The building was completed in 1930 and contains a mix of office and retail space.
- g. Trump Park Avenue (“Trump Park Avenue”). This building, located at 502 Park Avenue in midtown Manhattan is a condominium that contains residential and retail units owned by Mr. Trump.
- h. Seven Springs (“Seven Springs”). Mr. Trump purchased this estate traversing the towns of Bedford, North Castle, and New Castle in Westchester County, New York in 1995 for $7.5 million. The estate consists of two large homes, undeveloped land, and a few other buildings.
- i. Trump International Hotel & Tower, Chicago (“Trump Chicago”). This condominium-hotel building is, or has been, comprised of a residential component and a hotel component. The building is located in Chicago, Illinois. Since 2009, its value has been excluded from the Statements of Financial Condition because, according to sworn testimony, Mr. Trump did not want to take a position on the Statements that would conflict with a position about the property’s value he has represented to tax authorities. Investigation revealed that the tax position taken was that the property had become worthless according to Mr. Trump, and thus formed the basis of a substantial loss under the federal tax code. This building is relevant to this action because Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization obtained bank loans on the building or its components as collateral, and the Statements were part of that loan transaction.
- j. Trump Old Post Office, Washington, DC (“OPO”). This property refers to the “Old Post Office” on Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, D.C. The Trump Organization obtained a ground lease from a federal agency (the General Services Administration) to redevelop this property into a luxury hotel doing business as Trump International Hotel, Washington, DC.
- k. Club Facilities and Related Real Estate. The “Clubs” category of assets—for which no itemized value for any individual asset was ever disclosed—is comprised of the following golf and social clubs in the United States and abroad (among others) that are owned or leased by Mr. Trump, and collectively represent the single largest itemized asset on the Statement in each year:
  - i. Mar-a-Lago Social Club (“Mar-a-Lago”) in Palm Beach County, Florida;
  - ii. Trump National Golf Club in Briarcliff Manor (“TNGC Briarcliff”), in Westchester County, New York;

- iii. Trump National Golf Club in Hudson Valley (“TNGC Hudson Valley”), located in Dutchess County, New York, a property held via a ground lease;
  - iv. Trump National Golf Club, Jupiter (“TNGC Jupiter”), located in Palm Beach County, Florida;
  - v. Trump National Golf Club, Los Angeles (“TNGC LA”), in southern Los Angeles County, California;
  - vi. Trump National Golf Club, Bedminster, in Bedminster, New Jersey;
  - vii. Trump National Golf Club, Washington, DC (“TNGC DC”), located in Loudoun County, Virginia;
  - viii. Trump National Golf Club – Philadelphia (“TNGC Philadelphia”), located in Camden County, New Jersey;
  - ix. Trump National Golf Club, Charlotte (“TNGC Charlotte”), located in Iredell County, North Carolina;
  - x. Trump National Doral (“Doral”), located in western Miami-Dade County, Florida;
  - xi. Trump International Golf Club in Scotland, Aberdeen (“Trump Aberdeen”), located in Balmedie, Scotland; and
  - xii. Trump International Golf Club in Scotland, Turnberry (“Trump Turnberry”), located in Ayrshire, Scotland.
1. Partnerships and Joint Ventures. Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition incorporate values for the following two assets classified as partnerships and joint ventures:
- i. 1290 Avenue of the Americas in New York, New York (“1290 Avenue of the Americas”) and 555 California Street in San Francisco, California (“555 California”) (collectively, “Vornado Partnership Interests”). This asset category, in general terms, refers to Mr. Trump’s 30%, limited partnership interests in entities that own the two buildings. The Vornado Realty Trust, controlled by others and not by Mr. Trump, owns the remaining 70% stake and functions as the general partner that is empowered to make business decisions for the partnership.
  - ii. Trump International Hotel and Tower – Las Vegas, Nevada (“Las Vegas”). This asset refers to Mr. Trump’s 50% interest in a joint venture, with Philip Ruffin, in a hotel condominium tower in Las Vegas, Nevada.

- m. Real Estate Licensing Developments (“Licensing Value”). This category of assets claims to value potential future revenue that might be earned from purported licensing agreements with third parties.
- n. Other Assets. This catch-all category includes a range of assets not valued elsewhere on the Statements of Financial Condition. All of the asset values contained in this category are summed to generate an overall figure for the category; individual asset values are not disclosed. Assets in this category include, depending on the year, the Triplex, Seven Springs, aircraft, a management company, loans to Mr. Trump’s family members, and various homes (such as in Palm Beach, Florida; Beverly Hills, California; and the island of St. Martin).

B. Overview of the Statements of Financial Condition

52. Since no later than 2004, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization have prepared an annual “Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump.” Since 2017, commencing with the Statement for the year ending June 30, 2016, the Statements have been issued by the Trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust. These Statements contain Mr. Trump’s or the Trustees’ assertions of Mr. Trump’s net worth, based principally on asserted values of particular assets that Mr. Trump or the Trustees evaluated, minus outstanding liabilities.

53. From 2004 until 2020, Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition were compiled by accounting firm Mazars. Mazars ceased work on the Statements after issuing the Statement reflecting Mr. Trump’s financial condition as of June 30, 2020.

54. As alleged in greater detail below, the process for preparing the annual Statement of Financial Condition remained the same throughout the period 2011 through 2021. The valuations for the Statements would be prepared by staff at the Trump Organization, working at the direction of Donald J. Trump or his trustees, Allen Weisselberg, and Jeffrey McConney. Those valuations, which were reflected in an Excel spreadsheet, and the supporting documents would be forwarded to Mazars, which would generate a compilation report of those valuations. In other words, Mazars would generate the document that became the Statements. A draft was sent back to the Trump Organization; while Mazars might ask questions of the Trump Organization, it did not conduct an audit or review of the Statements. The responsibility for insuring that the Statements were prepared in accordance with GAAP lay with the Trump Organization. Mr. Trump and his trustees were responsible for providing full and complete information to Mazars.

55. As the engagement letters entered into between the Trump Organization and Mazars made clear, other than expressly enumerated exceptions, the Statements of Financial Condition were to be prepared in accordance with GAAP. For example, as the 2015 engagement letter reads, “You”—referring to Allen Weisselberg as Chief Financial Officer of the Trump Organization—“are responsible for . . . the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with” GAAP; for “designing, implementing and maintaining internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements”; and for “preventing and detecting fraud.”

56. Similarly, the engagement letters specifically obligated the Trump Organization to provide Mazars with “access to all information of which you are aware [that] is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement, such as records, documentation, and other matters,” and made clear that Mr. Weisselberg, as the Trump Organization’s CFO, was responsible for “the selection and application of accounting principles,” and for “establishing and maintaining internal controls.” The engagement letters similarly obligated the Trump Organization to “mak[e] all financial records and related information available to [Mazars] and for the accuracy and completeness of that information.”

57. In addition to the engagement letters, for each year from 2011 to 2020, Mr. Weisselberg as CFO of the Trump Organization signed a representation letter submitted by the Trump Organization to Mazars in connection with Mazars's actual issuance of the completed Statement of Financial Condition. In the letter, Mr. Weisselberg represented that the Trump Organization was "responsible for the information provided to Mazars for each annual compilation," and that the information was "presented fairly and accurately in all material respects."

58. In February 2022, Mazars advised the Trump Organization by letter that it was ending its long-term relationship with Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization, and that the Statements for the years ending June 30, 2011 through June 30, 2020 should not be relied upon.

59. After Mazars ended the relationship, another accounting firm, Whitley Penn LLP, compiled the June 30, 2021 Statement.

60. The relevant Statements of Financial Condition covering the period from 2011 to 2021 are attached as Exhibits 3 – 13.

61. As noted, Mr. Trump or the Trustees would prepare valuations and data for the Statement, which Mazars (or for 2021, Whitley Penn) would then compile. Each year the Trump Organization personnel (including Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney) would prepare a supporting data spreadsheet containing the valuations for the Statement and backup material supporting those valuations. Mazars (or for 2021, Whitley Penn) then compiled that information into financial-statement format.

62. Until 2016, those supporting data spreadsheets were prepared by Trump Organization Senior Vice President and Controller, Defendant Jeffrey McConney, and were known as "Jeff Supporting Data," with "Jeff" referring to Mr. McConney. Defendant Allen Weisselberg, the Trump Organization's Chief Financial Officer, reviewed Mr. McConney's work on the spreadsheets.

63. For the 2016 Statement forward, and beginning on or about November 16, 2016, Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney enlisted a junior employee, only a few years out of college and with no professional accounting training or knowledge of GAAP, to be in charge of preparing the valuations that would feed into the annual Statement—subject to their direction and control.

64. All of the supporting data spreadsheets, whether prepared by Mr. McConney or the junior employee under his direction, are a principal locus of Defendants’ repeated and persistent fraudulent conduct. The relevant supporting data spreadsheets from 2011 to 2021 are attached as Exhibits 14 – 24.

65. The Trump Organization and its affiliates used the Statements to induce counterparties to provide funding or insurance on favorable terms or to comply with the terms of ongoing covenants with respect to transactions in which the parties were already engaged. In particular, the Trump Organization and its affiliates and senior executives, including Mr. Trump and the other company employees named as Defendants, submitted the Statements or arranged for their submission to counterparties, including financial institutions, other lenders, and insurers, as more fully described below.

C. The Asset Values and Associated Descriptions Presented in the Statements Were Fraudulent, Misleading, and Not Presented in Accordance with GAAP.

1. Cash and Cash Equivalents/Marketable Securities

66. As a general matter, when a GAAP-compliant financial statement reports “cash,” it is referring to an amount of liquid currency or demand deposits available to the person or entity whose finances are described in the statement. See Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”), Master Glossary - Cash. Similarly, when a financial statement reports “cash equivalents,” it is reporting “short-term, highly liquid investments” that both can be “readily converted to known amounts of cash” and is “so near their maturity that they present insignificant risk of changes in value because of changes in interest rates.” See FASB, Master Glossary – Cash Equivalents. When a financial statement refers to “marketable securities,” it refers to debt or equity securities for which market quotations are available, and such assets are valued at “their quoted market prices.” See, e.g., FASB, Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 274-10-35-5.

67. Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition misrepresented his holdings of cash, cash equivalent and marketable securities. Most notably, for several years included in his “cash” were the amounts in the Vornado Partnership Interests in which Mr. Trump had a minority stake and did not control. In some years these restricted funds accounted for almost one-third of all the cash reported by Mr. Trump (for example, they accounted for $24 million of the total $76 million in cash reported for 2018).

68. Mr. Trump has a 30% limited partnership stake in the Vornado Partnership Interests. Vornado Realty Trust (“Vornado”), in which Mr. Trump has no ownership interest, holds the other 70% stake in the Vornado Partnership Interests and functions as the General Partner.

69. Under the partnership agreements governing the Vornado Partnership Interests, the General Partner has “full control over the management, operation and activities of, and dealings with, the Partnership Assets and the Partnership’s properties, business and affairs,” and “the Limited Partners shall not take part in the management of the business or affairs of the Partnership or control the Partnership business.” Moreover, “[t]he Limited Partners may under no circumstances sign for or bind the Partnership.” The partnership agreements provide for cash distributions in an amount, if any, that is “determined by the General Partner in its sole discretion.”

70. Mr. Trump was well aware of the restricted and limited nature of his 30% interest because he personally took part in extensive, contentious litigation regarding these partnerships in which control over partnership-held cash and partnership business choices was expressly addressed. See, e.g., Trump v. Cheng, 9 Misc. 3d 1120(A), at *7 (Sup. Ct. N.Y. Cty. Sept. 14, 2005) (quoting definition of “Cash Available for Distribution”).

71. As the court explained in that litigation, “[t]he Agreements do not obligate the general partners to distribute partnership assets or sale proceeds to the limited partners prior to [the partnerships’ dissolution date in 2044],” and instead during the partnerships’ existence provide for distributions of cash in the general partner’s “sole discretion.” Id. at *7.

72. Internal Trump Organization records acknowledge that cash residing in the Vornado Partnership Interests was not Mr. Trump’s to access at his whim. Rather, as those records show, Trump Organization accounting personnel knew such funds could be distributed at Vornado’s discretion only and that the prospect of a distribution was unknown: “Although there could be operating profits, distributions are at the discretion of Vornado at a rate of 30% to Trump. At this point we do not have all of the data that goes into Vornado’s decision making, thus we are attributing no distribution for these properties.”

73. In a memo dated March 23, 2016, from Allen Weisselberg to Donald Trump, Jr., Ivanka Trump and Eric Trump, entitled “2015 Corporate Operating Financial Summary,” Mr. Weisselberg noted that “Included in the Net Operating Cash Flow/Operating Profit above are 30% of the operating profits for 1290 Avenue of the Americas and 555 California Street. However, distributions are at the discretion of Vornado.”

74. Contrary to what is reflected in these internal records (which are consistent with the terms of the governing partnership documents and previous court rulings of which Mr. Trump was aware), Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition from at least 2013 through 2021 included cash held by the Vornado Partnership Interests as Mr. Trump's own "cash" or similarly identified liquid assets (referred to in the Statements as either "cash equivalents" or "marketable securities"), often constituting a considerable portion of Mr. Trump's reported liquidity.

75. The chart below shows the amount of cash attributable to Mr. Trump's 30% stake in the Vornado Partnership Interests over which he exercised no control and should have been excluded under GAAP:

Statement Year	Amount Included Based On 30% Share In Vornado Property Interests
2013	$14.2 million
2014	$24.7 million
2015	$32.7 million
2016	$19.6 million
2017	$16.5 million
2018	$24.4 million
2019	$24.7 million
2020	$28.3 million
2021	$93.1 million

76. The decision to include cash in the Vornado Partnership Interests, as if it were Mr. Trump's own cash as reflected in the Statements and contrary to GAAP, was made by Mr. McConney and/or Mr. Weisselberg and was approved by Mr. Trump or his attorney-in-fact Donald Trump Jr.

2. Escrow and Reserve Deposits and Prepaid Expenses

77. Mr. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition, beginning with the June 30, 2014 Statement of Financial Condition, also included in the total for the "escrow and reserve deposits and prepaid expenses” category of assets, 30% of the escrow deposits or restricted cash held on the balance sheets of the Vornado Partnership Interests.

78. With respect to the “escrow and reserve deposits and prepaid expenses” category of assets, the Statements of Financial Condition generally identify when, for one of Mr. Trump’s wholly owned properties, “[f]unds in the amount of [X] have been escrowed pursuant to” a legal document, such as a loan. The implication is that Mr. Trump is valuing escrowed funds that are his own but that are merely held in escrow or otherwise subject to restriction.

79. That description was false and misleading with respect to escrowed or restricted cash held by the Vornado Partnership Interests but included within the total amount listed for “escrow and reserve deposits and prepaid expenses” as if they were Mr. Trump’s escrowed funds.

80. The chart below shows the total “escrow and reserve deposits and prepaid expenses” attributable to Mr. Trump’s 30% stake in the Vornado Partnership Interests over which he exercised no control and should have been excluded under GAAP:

Statement Year	Amount Included Based On 30% Share In Vornado Property Interests
2014	$20.8 million
2015	$15.98 million
2016	$14.47 million
2017	$8.75 million
2018	$8.18 million
2019	$11.2 million
2020	$7.11 million
2021	$12.7 million

81. As with assertions regarding funds held by Vornado Partnership Interests and listed as Mr. Trump’s “cash” identified above, these escrowed funds held by Vornado Partnership Interests were not Mr. Trump's own funds, and their inclusion as Mr. Trump's own escrowed or restricted funds in each Statement was false and misleading.

3. Trump Park Avenue

82. Trump Park Avenue is included as an asset on Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition for the years 2011 through 2021 with values ranging between $90.9 million and $350 million.

83. The valuation of the building was based on estimates of both the valuation of the commercial space and unsold residential condominium units in the building. The unsold residential condominium units owned by Mr. Trump or the Trump Organization represented the lion's share of reported value for this property (in excess of 95% in some years). For example, in 2011, the commercial space was valued at $15 million based on an estimate prepared by Donald Trump, Jr. The unsold residential condominium units were valued at $293 million.

84. Based on an outside appraisal and internal (but undisclosed) estimates of market value prepared by the Trump Organization, the values for the unsold residential units at Trump Park Avenue asserted in the Statements were false and misleading.

85. An appraisal was performed in 2010 by the Oxford Group in connection with a $23 million loan from Investors Bank. As the appraisal identified, the collateral consisted of residential units (12 of which were rent stabilized), two commercial spaces, and six storage spaces. The appraisal valued the collateral at $72.5 million, of which approximately $55.1 million was derived from the residential units and storage spaces. The appraisal valued the 12 rent-stabilized units at $750,000 total, noting that the rent-stabilized units "cannot be marketed as individual units" for sale because the "current tenants cannot be forced to leave." The Trump Organization was well aware of the rent-stabilized nature of many units at the property, as any landlord would be. Indeed, Donald Trump, Jr. testified that the rent-stabilized tenants at the building were, “the bane of [his] existence for quite some time.” The Trump Organization also engaged in litigation regarding rent-stabilization at the property and obtained particular types of insurance for the rent-stabilized units.

86. The Trump Organization had a copy of the Oxford Group appraisal in its own files, and it was integral to the company’s loan from Investors Bank, including to the release of the collateral as unsold units were sold.

87. Notwithstanding this 2010 appraisal, and the Trump Organization’s knowledge that numerous units at the property were rent-stabilized, Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition in 2011 and 2012 valued the unsold residential units in Trump Park Avenue without regard for those restrictions or the appraisal’s conclusion. The result was a valuation of more than $292 million, or roughly six times the 2010 appraised value attributable to the residential units and storage spaces.

88. In July 2020, the Trump Organization received an appraisal with a value of $84.5 million but on the 2020 Statement the Trump Organization valued Trump Park Avenue at $135.8 million.

89. The Trump Organization did not disclose to Mazars either the 2010 appraisal, the 2020 appraisal, or that several of the unsold units were subject to rent stabilization in connection with the Statement of Financial Condition engagements from 2011 to 2020.

90. The lead accountant for the compilation engagement, Donald Bender, testified that he was “shocked by the size of the discrepancy” between the value for the rent stabilized units in the 2010 appraisal and the Trump Organization valuation figures provided for the rent stabilized units in the Statements of Financial Condition. He also stated that he would not have issued the Statements with the values the client provided for Trump Park Avenue if he had been aware of the 2010 appraisal, the 2020 appraisal, or the fact that several units were rent stabilized and that he found the failure to disclose this information.

91. Additionally, the Trump Organization routinely prepared estimates of current market value for unsold residential units at Trump Park Avenue that were far lower than the values reported on Mr. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition.

92. In the Statements of Financial Condition for 2011 through 2015 (the last of which was finalized in March 2016), the Trump Organization used offering plan prices to value unsold residential condominium units at Trump Park Avenue—not estimates of current market value.

93. But as far back as 2012 (and perhaps earlier), the Trump Organization's in-house real estate brokerage arm (Trump International Realty) prepared Sponsor Unit Inventory Valuation spreadsheets reflecting both offering plan prices and current market values based on actual market data that included unsold units at Trump Park Avenue.

94. Trump Organization employees used these "Sponsor Unit Valuation Spreadsheets"—reflecting internal estimates of market value and offering plan prices—for day-to-day operations and business planning purposes. But when they wanted to present a higher value for Mr. Trump's Statement, they disregarded the company's actual internal market valuations and instead reported offering plan prices that bore no necessary connection at the time to any market estimate.

95. The result was a classic "two sets of books" situation: one internal set of records reached one conclusion regarding market value, but the figure presented on Mr. Trump's Statement was considerably higher:

Year	Total Offering Plan Price used for Statement of Financial Condition	Total Current Market Value Prepared by Trump	Difference in Value
2012	$293,122,750	$236,425,000	$56,697,750
2013	$326,854,500	$285,795,000	$41,059,000
2014	$283,051,500	$246,265,000	$36,786,500

96. What is more, in nearly every instance in which this conduct occurred, the Trump Organization concealed its actual market value estimates from Mazars—sending the accounting firm only the portion of the “Sponsor Unit Valuation Spreadsheet” containing the offering plan prices and omitting the actual market value estimates. In one year, the Trump Organization did send both portions of the spreadsheet—but later deleted the actual market value estimates and directed the use of the offering plan prices.

97. Mr. Bender stated that the failure of the Trump Organization to provide the current market value estimates in connection with the Statement of Financial Condition engagements, where offering prices were used to value Trump Park Avenue, was inconsistent with their obligation to provide complete and accurate information and that it was misleading.

98. The Trump Organization’s own conduct beginning in late 2016 or early 2017 reflects an understanding that reporting offering plan prices as the estimated current values of unsold Trump Park Avenue units—rather than its own, lower assessment of these units’ actual current market values (albeit still inflated due to ignoring the impact of rent stabilization)—was incorrect and misleading. Beginning with the June 30, 2016 Statement of Financial Condition—finalized in March 2017—the Trump Organization changed its practice and began reporting its current market value estimates for purposes of that Statement.

99. But even the “Sponsor Unit Valuation Spreadsheets” were grossly inflated because they did not include any reductions to account for the rent-stabilized units. If they had, the valuation of Trump Park Avenue would have been significantly lower based on the information available to the Trump Organization from the 2010 appraisal. For instance, in 2011 and 2012 the 12 rent stabilized units were valued collectively at $49,596,000—a rate over 65 times higher than the $750,000 valuation for those units in the 2010 appraisal, which was based on their rent-stabilized status.

100. Valuations in 2013 through 2021 similarly ignored the restrictions imposed by rent-stabilization laws on the rent-stabilized units owned by Mr. Trump or the Trump Organization.

101. The junior employee tasked with preparing the Statements of Financial Condition beginning in November 2016 was aware that some of the unsold apartments at Trump Park Avenue were rent stabilized, but did not consider or discuss with anybody whether to factor rent stabilization into the valuations, which did not account for rent stabilization at all.

102. In addition to the grossly inflated values for the unsold apartments, the descriptions on Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition reflecting the manner in which those valuations were reached are inaccurate and misleading. In particular, the Statements of Financial Condition from at least 2011 through 2019 reflect, in sum and substance, that the reported values were “based upon an evaluation made by Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates and outside professionals,” thereby leading the reader to believe that the manner of valuation included consultation with outside professionals.

103. But there was no consultation with any outside professional in connection with reporting the value of unsold residential condominium units at Trump Park Avenue for the Statement of Financial Condition in those years.

104. In 2020, Mr. McConney was interviewed by OAG as part of its investigation and asked about various references to “outside professionals” on the Statements of Financial Condition. After that interview, the Trump Organization changed the wording for the 2020 Statement, omitting any representation that any particular valuation was reached in consultation with “outside professionals” and instead listing outside professionals as merely one factor that may have been “applicable” in some unspecified manner.

105. The Trump Organization’s abrupt removal of any specific references to consultation with outside professionals in connection with specific valuations is a tacit admission that such references in prior years were inaccurate and misleading.

106. Additionally, some of the unsold units were reported at values that were several times the prices Mr. Trump had agreed to sell them. For one of the unsold residential units, a penthouse apartment (“Penthouse A”) rented by Ivanka Trump starting in 2011, Mr. Trump’s Statement of Financial Condition reported a value much higher than the price at which Ms. Trump had been granted an option to purchase the unit in a lease that also granted her a rental payment substantially below the market rent for similar units in the building.

107. Ms. Trump’s rental agreement for Penthouse A in Trump Park Avenue included an option to purchase the unit for $8,500,000. But in the 2011 and 2012 Statements of Financial Condition, this unit was valued at $20,820,000—approximately two and a half times as much as the option price, with no disclosure of the existence of the option. For the 2013 Statement of Financial Condition, the unit was valued at $25,000,000—more than three times the option price, again, with no disclosure of the existence of the option.

108. In June 2014, Ms. Trump was given an option (which automatically vested the next year) to purchase a different, larger penthouse unit (“Penthouse B”) at Trump Park Avenue for $14,264,000. That unit was valued at more than three times as much on the 2014 Statement—the unit’s $45 million offering plan price on the 2014 Statement of Financial Condition. In that year, Ms. Trump’s option to purchase the unit at a steep discount was included in a lease in which she was charged a rental payment substantially below the market rent for similar units in the same building.

109. The Statement of Financial Condition for Trump Park Avenue in 2015 reflected the option price ($14,264,000) as the value for the unit instead of the much higher offering plan price ($45,000,000) that had been used in the 2014 Statement.

110. From 2016 to 2020 the value of Penthouse B was listed at the price of $14,264,000 with a notation appearing in 2018 and forward that this price was “per rental agreement.”

111. Mr. Bender told the Trump Organization that reporting an offering plan price for a unit instead of the option price at which the Trump Organization already had agreed to sell the unit was inappropriate and urged that the option price be reported instead. He repeatedly over several years had to tell the Trump Organization to revise their valuations downward to account for the option.

112. However, even the option price reported by the Trump Organization was inaccurate. In December 2016, Donald J. Trump, Ivanka Trump, and Jared Kushner signed a second amendment to the lease which lowered the option price to $12,264,000.

4. 40 Wall Street

113. The Trump Organization, through the entity 40 Wall Street LLC, a New York Limited Liability Company, owns a “ground lease” pertaining to 40 Wall Street. In other words, it holds a leasehold interest in the land and buildings on the land, but pays rent (known as ground rent) to the landowner.

114. By the terms of the ground lease, the rent on 40 Wall Street gradually increases over a series of years, with a reset to a percentage of market value in 2032 based on the overall value of the building. A “reset” is typically a significant event in a ground lease, because it can result in the holder of the lease paying substantially more rent to the landowner.

115. As indicated in the chart below, the values derived by Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization for this leasehold interest far exceeded the values determined by professionals in lender-ordered appraisals for the same property, including an unreasonably inflated lender appraisal prepared in 2015 that the Trump Organization sought to unduly influence:

Statement Year	Statement Valuation	Lender-Ordered Appraisal
2011	$524,700,000	$200,000,000
2012	$527,200,000	$220,000,000
2013	$530,700,000
2014	$550,100,000
2015	$735,400,000	$540,000,000
2016	$796,400,000
2017	$702,100,000
2018	$720,300,000
2019	$724,100,000
2020	$663,600,000
2021	$663,600,000

116. From 2011 through 2015, the supporting data for Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition reported a valuation for 40 Wall Street that was calculated using an "income capitalization approach," a method for estimating the value of real property based on the net operating income, or NOI, the property generates. Under this valuation method, a property's NOI is divided by a capitalization rate to arrive at an estimate of market value. (Because the value is directly proportional to NOI and inversely proportional to the capitalization rate, the higher the NOI or lower the capitalization rate, the higher the value.)

117. Net operating income is typically defined as "[t]he actual or anticipated net income that remains after all operating expenses are deducted from the effective gross income but before mortgage debt service and book depreciation are deducted." Appraisal Institute, The Dictionary of Real Estate Appraisal 158 (6th ed. 2015).

118. For the Statements from 2011 through 2015, the Trump Organization routinely inflated the leasehold's value on the Statements of Financial Condition by inflating the NOI for the building and utilizing unrealistically low capitalization rates.

119. Capital One (which held a $160 million mortgage on the property at the time) raised substantial concerns about cash flow at the property as far back as August and September 2009, leading to in-person meetings with Mr. Trump, Mr. Weisselberg, and others. At one of those meetings, Mr. Trump said that if the bank tried to restructure the loan because of a low loan-to-value based on a bank appraisal, he would counter a low appraisal by creating a Trump University lease for the vacant space and then order his own appraisal. According to Mr. Trump, the lease would "pump up" the value and the net result would be either a third appraisal or some sort of arbitration or litigation.

120. Those discussions led to a loan modification executed in 2010 that attached the Trump Organization's own 2010 budget for the property. That 2010 budget projected for 2011 an NOI of just over $4.4 million.

121. Yet for the 2011 Statement, Mr. Trump used an NOI figure of $26.2 million—nearly six times the budget projection—to derive a grossly inflated value for the property of $524.7 million.

122. Outside appraisals further demonstrate that Mr. Trump's valuation of 40 Wall Street was false and misleading. In connection with the 2010 Capital One loan modification, an appraisal was performed by Cushman & Wakefield, Inc. ("Cushman") valuing the Trump Organization's interest at $200 million as of August 1, 2010. Cushman performed similar appraisals for the bank in 2011 and 2012 reaching valuations in that same range.

123. A key component of valuing Mr. Trump's interest in 40 Wall Street in the 2012 appraisal was the reset of the ground lease in 2032. As noted above, a ground lease reset is a significant event because it can substantially increase the rent the leaseholder will have to pay. Any purchaser of Mr. Trump's interest in the ground lease at 40 Wall Street would have been keenly focused on the terms of the ground lease and of any rent reset. The 2012 appraisal concluded that the ground lease would reset from $2.8 million in rental expenses to more than $15.5 million beginning on January 1, 2033. Unlike professional appraisals of the ground lease, the Trump Organization's valuations ignored the reset entirely in the 2011 to 2015 valuations.

124. The Trump Organization had the 2010 appraisal in its possession when it prepared the 2011 Statement. In addition, Mr. Weisselberg was aware that an appraisal of 40 Wall Street from the 2010 to 2012 time period had valued the property in the $200 million range prior to finalizing and issuing the 2012 Statement, but he nevertheless determined, along with Mr.

Trump, to assign the property a much higher value for purposes of the Statements of Financial Condition. The value for 40 Wall Street listed on the Statements of Financial Condition was $524.7 million in 2011, $527.2 million in 2012, and $530.7 million in 2013. These values are more than twice the value reached by the professional appraisals noted above.

125. In 2015, the Trump Organization was able to negotiate favorable terms for a new loan working through Allen Weisselberg's son, then an employee at Ladder Capital Finance ("Ladder Capital"), an originator of securitized loans. The Ladder Capital loan would replace the Capital One loan based on an inflated appraisal prepared by Cushman. The 2015 appraisal did not reflect a good faith assessment of value; rather, it used false and misleading information and assumptions to arrive at a pre-determined value under pressure from the Trump Organization and Ladder Capital.

126. Internal worksheets prepared by Cushman showed consideration of a Ladder Capital valuation of $600 million and a Trump valuation of $533 million, which was calculated by dividing $160 million (the amount of the loan the Trump Organization was seeking) by .30 (which would generate a loan-to-value for the transaction of 30 percent.)

127. In preparing the 2015 appraisal, Cushman used unreasonably aggressive assumptions involving the discount rate and capitalization rate that contradicted the assumptions used in its earlier appraisals, and included a number of demonstrably false assumptions and representations. Among other things:

- a. The appraisal assumed market rents for the building that were well in excess of any lease signed by the Trump Organization in the recent past. In fact, the appraisal used those inflated market rents despite including six leases effective as of June 2015 – the same month as the appraisal – that were 10-17% below the market rents used by Cushman.
- b. Cushman was well aware that rents in the building were not increasing commensurate with the assumptions in the appraisal. On June 18, 2015, Robert Nardella, the senior appraiser on the project and a Cushman Executive Managing Director, emailed the other appraisers on the project as an “fyi” a piece from the “Real Deal” about a Wall Street Journal article in 2012 describing the “aggressive leasing deals” Mr. Trump was offering on 40 Wall Street and how rents “are essentially unchanged” from 15 years ago.

- c. The appraisal included as part of the rent roll a $1.4 million dollar lease with Dean & Deluca, even though the lease was still under negotiation and had not yet been signed. While Dean & Deluca did eventually sign a lease for the space, it never commenced operations in the building, it declared bankruptcy, and the Trump Organization sued in federal court for unpaid rent.
- d. The appraisal understated certain expenses for the building. For example, the appraisal recited management fees and expenses of $100,000 per year for 2012, 2013 and 2014, despite audited financials for the building showing management fees of $894,959 in 2012, $1,007,988 in 2013 and $939,689 in 2014. The appraisal assumed future management fees and expenses of $349,562, when actual management fees, per the audited financials for 40 Wall Street, were $1,211,909.

128. Initially, Cushman’s efforts were not enough to reach the $533 million value the Trump Organization urged as the target. The initial draft of the appraisal came in at a valuation of $500 million on June 18, 2015.

129. Over the next week, Ladder Capital and the Trump Organization worked to manipulate the appraisal figure by unreasonably lowering expenses (thus increasing net income), in some instances by revising the building’s budget to reclassify repeated annual costs as “one time expenses.”

130. Ultimately, the final appraisal came to a valuation of $540 million through a number of unreasonable adjustments, including reducing costs and changing the assumptions concerning the ground lease.

131. Under the terms of the ground lease for 40 Wall Street – as outlined in the 2015 appraisal – in “2033 the lease payments are revalued to the greater of either: (a) 6.0% of [the] then value of the land considered as vacant and unimproved but with the right to construct a 900,000 square foot office building with grade retail; or, (b) 85.0% of the then lease payments.”

Cushman applied those terms in each of its earlier 2011 and 2012 appraisals and in its June 18, 2015 draft appraisal. But in the final 2015 appraisal, Cushman assumed, for the first time, that there would be a 10% reduction in the square footage to account for “zoning floor area” based on mechanical space in the building. By applying this reduction for the first time, the ground lease reset was reduced from more than $16 million to $9.6 million. Incongruously then, while the value of the building purportedly more than doubled from 2012 to 2015, the ground lease reset, based on the value of the building, purportedly dropped.

132. But for the purposes of the 2015 Statement of Financial Condition, even this increase was not enough for Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization. The Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2015 valued the building at $735.4 million—more than a 35% increase over the already inflated $540 million Cushman appraisal of that same date.

133. The Trump Organization arrived at a $735.4 million valuation for Mr. Trump’s 2015 Statement using tactics similar to those employed on other assets previously. In particular, the Trump Organization provided only a 13-page summary of the already-inflated $540 million appraisal to Mazars—withholding the remainder of the document, including the comparable sales utilized and capitalization rate information, such as that the appraiser concluded a 4.25% capitalization rate was appropriate using the direct income capitalization method. To reach a $735.4 million value, the Trump Organization then falsely and misleadingly attributed to the very same appraiser who performed that appraisal a capitalization rate of 3.29% based upon a particular comparable sale, even though the appraiser had considered that same sale and concluded in the appraisal that 4.25% was the appropriate rate. The Trump Organization then further misleadingly described this approach, in which it had inflated the appraiser’s conclusion, as “conservative.”

134. The degree to which the Statements overvalued 40 Wall Street was evident when the financial details for the building were disclosed as part of the securitization of the loan issued by Ladder Capital. For example, the ratings agency Morningstar made adjustments to the rental rates, NOI, and capitalization rates utilized by Cushman and Ladder Capital and calculated a value of $262.3 million. That valuation was consistent with a $260 million “projected market value” as of November 2015 that was included in the 2012 Cushman appraisal and an internal valuation of $257 million prepared by Capital One in November 2014.

135. Thus, the 2015 Statement of Financial Condition overstated the value of 40 Wall Street by at least $195.4 million when compared to the inflated 2015 Cushman appraisal and $473.9 million when compared with the independent Morningstar analysis.

136. By August 2016, the ratio of 40 Wall Street’s income to its debt service expenses had dropped to the point that the Ladder Capital loan was added to a watchlist. In the ensuing 2016 Statement, the Trump Organization stopped using the “income capitalization approach” to value 40 Wall Street in favor of a “sales comparison approach,” which multiplied the total square footage of the building by the price per square foot of a recent “comparable” sale. Although GAAP required the Trump Organization to disclose this change in methodology, the 2016 Statement contained no such disclosure.

137. Under the new valuation methodology, using the sales comparison approach, from 2016 through 2021, the Statements of Financial Condition continuously overstated the value of 40 Wall Street by using inflated comparable prices, by not accounting for the full cost of the rising ground lease rent (or not accounting for ground rent expenses at all), and eventually by inflating the square footage of the building.

138. For example, in 2016, the Trump Organization valued 40 Wall Street at $796.4 million by multiplying the total square footage of the building (1,164,286 square feet) by a price per square foot of $684. This price reflected a massive premium over the $464 price per square foot used a year earlier by Cushman in the 2015 appraisal for Ladder Capital and the $225 price per square foot used by Morningstar.

139. The 2016 Statement of Financial Condition also used two other misleading assertions to reach the inflated $796.4 million valuation.

140. First, the Trump Organization used the sale price of 60 Wall Street as its “comparable” sale. But the two buildings were in no way comparable. 60 Wall Street is a modern office building, completed in 1989, six decades after 40 Wall Street. The building was occupied by an institutional anchor tenant, Deutsche Bank. Indeed, the 2015 Cushman appraisal distinguishes between pre-war buildings like 40 Wall Street and modern office buildings “constructed since 1980” like 60 Wall Street, which the appraisal specifically identifies as being in this separate category. Notably, Cushman did not identify 60 Wall Street as comparable to 40 Wall Street.

141. Second, the 2016 valuation did not account for the obvious economic impact of the ground lease or the reset in 2032.

142. In 2017, the Statement of Financial Condition utilized the same techniques to reach an inflated valuation of $702.1 million. Once again, the supporting documentation cites a price of “$603 per sq ft from recent sales comps” that is well in excess of earlier valuations of the property. The supporting spreadsheets do not cite a specific comparable sale, but $603 per square foot is the average of the two highest sales on a spreadsheet provided by Cushman to the Trump Organization via email on August 21, 2017. Those properties were 60 Wall Street, which was valued at $624 per square foot (not the $684 per square foot cited in 2016), and 85 Broad Street, a building built in 1983. Once again, the 2017 valuation did not account for the economic impact of the ground lease or the reset in 2032.

143. In 2018, the Statement of Financial Condition utilized similar techniques to reach an inflated valuation of $720.3 million. The supporting documentation cites a price of “$647 per sq ft from recent sales comps.” The source for that price is described as “Sales price per sf comps provided by Michael Papagianopoulos of Cushman on 9/11/18.” That communication from Mr. Papagianopoulos, however, has no specific discussion of appropriate comparable properties for 40 Wall Street. Instead, Mr. Papagianopoulos sent a list of 15 properties entitled “Summary of Downtown Office Improved Sales.” The $647 per square foot valuation appears to reflect the second highest valuation on the list, 222 Broadway, a building built in 1961 and renovated in 2013 with the building 78% occupied by an institutional anchor tenant, Bank of America, and long-term leases in place with Conde Nast and We Work. Cushman had considered the sale of 222 Broadway in its 2015 appraisal and adjusted the price per square foot down to $454 to account for differences between the two buildings. The Trump Organization had a copy of that appraisal, which Mr. McConney sent to the junior employee responsible for preparing the 2018 Statement of Financial Condition in October 2015.

144. While the 2018 valuation does account for the ground lease, it fails to account for the present value impact of the ground lease reset in 2032.

145. In 2019, the Statement of Financial Condition utilized similar techniques to reach an inflated valuation of $724.1 million. The supporting documentation cites a price of “$630 per sq ft from recent sales comps.” The source for that price is described as “Sales price per sf comps provided by Douglas Larson of Newmark on 7/8/19.” That communication from Mr. Larson, however, has no specific discussion of appropriate comparable properties for 40 Wall Street.

Instead, Mr. Larson included a series of attachments, including one entitled “Downtown Class A Sales.” The $630 per square foot valuation does not match any specific sale on the list, but it is within $10 per square foot of the second highest sale on the list, 60 Wall Street. And once again, while the 2019 valuation does account for the ground lease, it fails to account for the present value impact of the ground lease reset in 2032.

146. In 2020 and 2021, the Statements of Financial Condition utilized similar techniques to reach an inflated valuation of approximately $664 million. The supporting documentation cites as a comparable sale a price of “$692 per sq ft from 44 Wall Street sold March 2020 (per NYC).” The Trump Organization then adds a “15% ppsf discount to account for the difference in size of the building and covid.” There are no sources cited for the adjustment. Among other issues, the analysis appears to miscalculate the price per square foot of the sale of 44 Wall Street, which came to $564 per square foot, not $692. That error alone added $130 million to the value of 40 Wall Street. And once again, while the 2020 valuation does account for the ground lease, it fails to account for the present value impact of the ground lease reset in 2032.

5. Niketown

147. The property identified as “Niketown” consists of two long-term ground leases held by The Trump Organization, pertaining to land and buildings located between Fifth and Madison Avenues on 57th Street in Manhattan.

148. One of the ground leases, dated January 31, 1995, contained a rent schedule for years 1995 through 2044 and has a provision that resets the rent in 2037 to the greater of a series of figures, with one being “the annual fair market rental value of the demised premises,” as determined by an independent appraiser if the parties fail to agree. The lease was modified in 1996 to extend the term to 2094 and require a second reset of the rent in 2044.

149. The second ground lease, dated October 23, 1995, contains a rent schedule of $400,000 per year from 2012 through 2015 and $450,000 from 2016 through 2020, with a reset in 2021 based on “7% of the fair market value of” the leased property. Similar resets would occur in 2041 and 2061, and the lease would expire in 2079.

a. June 30, 2011 and June 30, 2012 valuations of Niketown

150. The June 30, 2011 Statement of Financial Condition stated a value of $263,700,000 for the Trump Organization’s interests in Niketown. The Statement represents that “[t]he current value of $263,700,000 reflects the net proceeds which Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates and outside professionals expect to be derived from rental activities pursuant to the lease described above, as well as the residual value of the property.”

151. That representation regarding how the value of Niketown was computed was false and misleading. In reality, as stated in the supporting data, the valuation was “based on the par value of” certain bonds issued in November 1995. Under the actual valuation method, “the par value of the bonds is deemed to be 75% of the value of the asset. This amount has been increased 6% per year since the bonds were issued.”

152. Consistent with this description in the supporting data, the Trump Organization identified the value of bonds issued on the property in 1995 as $92,739,590, and then applied a loan to value ratio of 75% to derive a 1995 value for the Niketown property of $123,652,787. Then, the Trump Organization merely adjusted that figure upwards by 6% in each year—regardless of the property’s actual performance or market conditions—to derive the values reported in the Statements, at least from 2007 forward.

153. The net proceeds expected to be derived from rental activity played no role in the valuation. Indeed, such net proceeds do not appear in Mr. McConney's supporting data for the Statement and no calculation was done to compute the net proceeds, by taking gross revenue and subtracting expenses. Nothing in Mr. Trump's 2011 Statement of Financial Condition informed the reader that the amount of bonds issued in 1995 was the key determinative factor in deriving the value for the Niketown property 16 years later in 2011, without giving any consideration to the net operating proceeds.

154. Nor did any "outside professional" provide any information as to the net proceeds to be derived from rental activities, contrary to the assertion in the 2011 Statement.

155. The June 30, 2012 Statement of Financial Condition stated a value of $279,500,000 for the Trump Organization's interests in the Niketown property based on this same approach, applying a 6% increase over the value in the 2011 Statement.

156. As with the 2011 Statement, the 2012 Statement contains the identical false and misleading description of how the value of Niketown was computed based on net operating proceeds.

157. And just like with the 2011 Statement, the net proceeds expected to be derived from rental activity played no role in the 2012 valuation of Niketown. Such net proceeds do not appear in Mr. McConney's supporting data for the Statement and no calculation was done to compute the net proceeds by taking gross revenue and subtracting expenses.

158. Nothing in Mr. Trump's 2012 Statement informed the reader that the amount of bonds issued in 1995 was the key determinative factor in deriving the value for the Niketown property in 2012, without giving any consideration to the net operating proceeds.

159. Nor did any “outside professional” provide any information as to the net proceeds to be derived from rental activities, contrary to the assertion in the 2012 Statement.

160. Mr. Weisselberg was involved in the decision to “use the par value of the bonds” as the basis for the 2011 and 2012 valuations of Niketown.

b. Valuations of Niketown from 2013 through 2018

161. The Niketown valuations from 2013 through 2018 ranged from a low of $287.6 million to a high of $466.5 million, as indicated in the chart below, employing essentially the same methodology:

Statement Year	Niketown Valuation
2013	$287,600,000
2014	$348,800,000
2015	$466,500,000
2016	$389,600,000
2017	$432,600,000
2018	$422,400,000

162. In 2013, the Statement represented that the valuation “reflects the net proceeds which Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates and outside professionals expect to be derived from rental activities pursuant to the lease described above, as well as the residual value of the property.”

163. This language was false and misleading, and failed to disclose a substantial change from the prior two years in the underlying valuation methodology for Niketown starting in 2013, as required by GAAP.

164. In actuality, at no point in preparing the 2013 valuations were any “outside professionals” engaged to determine or forecast the “net proceeds” that the Trump Organization would derive from rental activities, or otherwise to evaluate the “residual value of the property.”

165. In each of the years from 2014 through 2018, the Statement represented that the valuation “is based on an evaluation by Mr. Trump” (for the years 2014 and 2015) or by the Trustees (for 2016 through 2018) “in conjunction with [his/their] associates and outside professionals, applying a capitalization rate to” either “the net operating income” or “the cash flow to be derived pursuant to the buildings net rental stream.”

166. This language was false or misleading. In actuality, from 2014 to 2018, no “outside professional” participated in any evaluation by Mr. Trump or the Trustees of the property’s net operating income or cash flow or of the appropriate capitalization rate to apply to those figures for purposes of the Statements.

167. The method employed for the valuations from 2013 to 2018, except for the 2015 valuation, used two variables: (1) a one-year figure for NOI that was purely a function of income from the lease to Nike, minus the ground rent; and (2) a capitalization rate applied to that NOI.

168. Both figures employed to derive the Niketown valuation in these years omit several key variables known to the Trump Organization.

169. For the NOI figure, the choice to use only a single year’s rental income and ground rent omitted consideration of key facts respecting ground rent: the certainty of substantially escalating rental expenses on a particular schedule, and resets in specific years in which ground rent would likely increase substantially.

170. The impact of scheduled escalations under the terms of the ground leases on the valuations is substantial, as confirmed by the information contained in the Trump Organization’s GAAP-compliant, audited financial statements. For example, the year-ending 2012 audited financial statements—also prepared by Mazars—reflect a ground lease rent expense of $3,608,385—approximately $1.72 million more than the expense figure used by the Trump Organization for the valuation on the 2013 Statement. The reason the expense figure was higher in the GAAP-compliant statement is that, pursuant to GAAP, such statements factor in scheduled expense increases. Using the ground lease rent expense from the GAAP-compliant financials would have reduced the reported valuation, holding all else constant, by $58.5 million.

171. By contrast, the 2020 and 2021 valuations of Niketown did account for escalating scheduled rent expenses—an approach that, despite increased revenue assumptions, dropped the reported value from the mid-$400 million range to the $225-$250 million range.

172. The Trump Organization was aware from bank-ordered appraisals prepared by Cushman for 40 Wall Street that resets on a ground lease interest are important factors in valuing such an interest. That is because they are important variables in determining how much value is retained by the landowner. Despite that awareness, the Trump Organization did not factor expected ground rent resets into its valuations of Niketown from 2013 through 2018.

173. The capitalization rate applied in the Niketown valuations for the Statements from 2013 to 2018 similarly lacked support and appropriate disclosures.

174. First, the Statements in 2013 did not disclose the use of any capitalization rate at all to determine the value of Niketown.

175. Second, the sole justification offered for the capitalization rate chosen in 2013, 2014, and 2016 through 2018 was identified in supporting data as a telephone conversation with appraiser Doug Larson, in which he purportedly advised that “cap rates for retail properties in upscale areas like Times Square and the Fifth Avenue area are usually almost 60 basis points lower than office space.” Based on that purported advice, and “[t]o be conservative,” the Trump Organization in each of these years “reduced the cap rate used on Trump Tower by 50 basis points to arrive at the cap rate used for NIKETOWN.”

176. But Mr. Larson denies the conversation ever happened and insists it is not advice he would have ever given. In particular, Mr. Larson testified that the method used by the Trump Organization “doesn’t make any sense,” that it was “very unlikely” he ever conveyed such advice, that an assertion that he provided such advice in a conversation was inaccurate. Mr. Larson also testified it would be a misstatement if the Trump Organization said it reached the 2013 valuation of Niketown (the first year the purported conversation was referenced) in conjunction with him and that there was no valuation of Niketown done by him.

177. Additionally, the date of the purported conversation shifted over time, casting further doubt on the Trump Organization’s contention it received such advice from Mr. Larson. The supporting data for the 2013 and 2014 Statement represent that the purported conversation with Mr. Larson occurred on September 17, 2013. The supporting data for the 2016 Statement makes no mention of a conversation in 2013, and instead describes an identical telephone conversation with Mr. Larson on September 17, 2016 – three years to the day from the purported call in 2013. The supporting data for the 2017 Statement does not mention any conversation with Mr. Larson in 2016, and instead reverts back to September 17, 2013, as the purported date for the discussion. And the supporting data for the 2018 Statement describes in identical language a telephone conversation with Mr. Larson purportedly on September 14, 2018.

178. But regardless of whether there was any conversation with Mr. Larson either in 2013, 2016, or 2018, it was neither reasonable nor appropriate for the Trump Organization to rely on such a purported conversation for valuations of a retail space. Simply reducing an office-space capitalization rate by fifty basis points to determine a capitalization rate for a retail space is inappropriate, as Mr. Larson confirmed to OAG. A determination of an appropriate capitalization rate should involve considering market information, the spreads between capitalization rates on different properties, rent rolls, and expenses, among other variables, as Mr. Larson himself confirmed to OAG.

179. For the 2015 Statement, the Trump Organization took a different approach to calculate the capitalization rate based on advice from a different Cushman employee. The supporting data for the 2015 valuation of Niketown identifies as the basis for the capitalization rate a “10/26/15 email from Kurt Clauss of Cushman” that “reflects a cap rate on the sale of the Crown Building of 1.56%.” Explaining that “[s]ince this cap rate is for a property on Fifth Avenue, and there weren’t any other comps in the area,” the Trump Organization used the “average of this cap rate (1.56%) and the cap rate we used last year of 2.63%.”

180. Contrary to this stated explanation, Mr. Clauss simply provided Mr. McConney by email with a generic list of sales on October 26, 2015—without providing an opinion regarding whether or how such information could be used to derive an appropriate capitalization rate for the Niketown property.

181. Thus, the capitalization rate applied to Niketown for the 2015 Statement of Financial Condition was a function of: (a) the capitalization rate applied in 2014, which suffered from a number of problems, including the false and misleading claim that Mr. Larson participated in an evaluation that determined that rate; and (b) the Trump Organization’s selection of a single rate from a generic market report provided by Mr. Clauss, who did not participate in the 2015 valuation.

182. Because the capitalization rate applied to calculate the value of Niketown for the years 2013 through 2018 was a function of the chosen capitalization rate for Trump Tower (albeit through a different approach in 2015), the method for determining the Trump Tower capitalization rate inflated not only the reported Trump Tower value but also the reported value of Niketown.

c. June 30, 2019 valuation of Niketown

183. The June 30, 2019 Statement of Financial Condition stated a value of $445,000,000 for the Trump Organization's interests in the Niketown property.

184. The June 30, 2019 Statement of Financial Condition's supporting data for the Niketown valuation (like the supporting data for the six prior years) omitted any consideration of escalating ground rent expenses that were accounted for in the Trump Organization's GAAP-compliant, audited financial statements for years up to the year ending December 31, 2016.

185. The supporting data (like the supporting data for the prior six years) also omitted any consideration of ground rent resets and their impact on prospective net income that a buyer would consider.

186. The NOI used to prepare the Niketown valuation in 2019 was false and misleading in another respect: it mismatched income and expense periods in a manner that inflated the result by using a forward-looking (higher) income figure and a backward-looking (lower) expense figure to derive the NOI. Had the Trump Organization used income and expense figures from the same time period, the NOI would have been lower because either the income would have been lower or the expenses would have been higher. The result of this mismatched approach was to overstate the value by approximately $37.3 million.

187. The calculation of the capitalization rate used (2.4%) similarly reduced the Trump Tower rate by a fixed number of basis points, though fewer than in prior years. The supporting data for the 2019 Niketown valuation purportedly reflects a different conversation with Mr. Larson—this time, undated—in which Mr. Larson supposedly advised, “the 50 to 60 basis point reduction used in previous years probably does not stand in the market as of 6/30/19.” Based on this advice, and “to be conservative,” the Trump Organization “reduced the cap rate used on Trump Tower by 25 basis points to arrive at the cap rate used for NIKETOWN.”

188. Just before the 2019 Statement was finalized, Mr. Larson testified before OAG. Speaking at that time about the 2018 Niketown valuation, Mr. Larson stated: “I didn’t generate a valuation. I wasn’t engaged to generate a valuation and I would never have put a value on the property.” Mr. Larson was then asked whether it was fair to say that Mr. Trump’s trustees, in conjunction with him, had applied a capitalization rate to Niketown’s net operating income—and he responded, “Absolutely not.” Given that testimony, the undated purported conversation with Mr. Larson to support the 2019 Niketown valuation did not occur.

189. As with the prior year valuations, because the capitalization rate applied to Niketown for the 2019 Statement was a function of the chosen capitalization rate for Trump Tower, the Trump Tower capitalization rate inflated not only the reported Trump Tower value but also the reported value of Niketown.

d. June 30, 2020 valuation of Niketown

190. For the 2020 Statement, the Trump Organization discontinued use of the prior method employed—namely, a direct-capitalization approach with a single year’s net operating income divided by a capitalization rate.

191. The new method for 2020, as described in the Statement, was as follows: “The estimated current value of $252,800,000 was derived by using a 20 year discounted cash flow based on a future prospective single tenant user.” The 2020 Statement—unlike prior statements—disclosed this change in method, confirming the Trump Organization’s awareness that such a disclosure was required under GAAP.

192. Unlike the valuations of Niketown in any of the prior years, the cash flow analysis used for the 2020 valuation does reflect consideration of escalating ground rent under at least one of the ground leases. That lowered the reported value for Niketown by nearly half in a single year ($252,800,000 in 2020 versus $445,000,000 in 2019)--confirming the huge inflating effect of the Trump Organization's prior decision to ignore those escalating rent expenses.

193. Despite using a discounted cash flow analysis that factored in the escalating ground rent, the Trump Organization's computation still included unwarranted, favorable assumptions that inflated the reported value.

194. First, on the expense side, the discounted cash flow analysis erroneously assumed that the rent under the second of the two ground leases would remain at $450,000 per year (as it had been for several years) for the ensuing 20 years. That assumption was known to the Trump Organization to be false or unsupported because the lease was subject to an imminent rent reset through an appraisal process. That process resulted in an agreement in March 2021 between the Trump Organization and the landowner to increase the ground rent from $450,000 to $892,500.

195. Based on the time required for the Trump Organization and the landowner to retain appraisers and negotiate to conclusion this agreement by March 2021, the Trump Organization had to have known that the rent reset was likely to result in significant increased rent at the time it issued the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition in January 2021, which instead falsely assumed no increase in rent under the second lease for the next 20 years.

196. Second, on the revenue side, the Trump Organization's discounted cash flow analysis assumed rental revenue in the first five years of more than $28 million per year and increasing by ten percent every five years. These revenue figures were far in excess (by a factor of more than two) of rental income ever obtained from the property by the Trump Organization.

197. Moreover, the Trump Organization's assumption that the rental income for the Niketown space would nearly triple conflicted with market data in the Trump Organization's possession. In Fall 2020, the Real Estate Board of New York (“REBNY”) produced a “Manhattan Retail Report” – which the Trump Organization had in its files -- that showed rents had declined in the retail markets for Manhattan retail space.

198. The 2021 Niketown valuation further indicates the 2020 valuation had been inappropriately inflated. In the 2020 valuation, the Trump Organization used a square footage over 93,000 in its discounted cash flow analysis. In the 2021 valuation, the Trump Organization used a different figure—approximately 66,000 “usable” square feet—to reach a valuation $27 million lower. There is no indication the square footage of the space changed during that time.

6. Trump Tower

199. The valuations of Trump Tower from 2011 through 2019, with the exception of 2015, were derived by the Trump Organization by dividing NOI by a capitalization rate. For 2015, and only for that year, the Trump Organization—without disclosing the change as required by GAAP—used a different methodology, basing its valuation on the sale of a single nearby building described in the press as setting a new world record; doing so generated a value in 2015 that was nearly more than $170 million higher than the previous year’s value, nearly $250 million higher than the following year’s value, and $75 million higher than the value derived in any other year using the NOI/capitalization rate method.

200. The valuations from 2011 through 2019 ranged from a low of $490 million to a high of $880.9 million (in 2015), as indicated in the chart below:

Statement Year	Trump Tower Valuation
2011	$490,000,000
2012	$501,100,000
2013	$526,800,000
2014	$707,000,000
2015	$880,900,000
2016	$631,000,000
2017	$639,400,000
2018	$732,300,000
2019	$806,700,000

201. The valuation in all years from 2011 through 2019 is described in each Statement as being “based on an evaluation” by Mr. Trump (from 2011 through 2015) or the Trustees (from 2017 through 2019) “in conjunction with [his/their] associates and outside professionals.”

202. The representation in each year that an “outside professional” took part in “an evaluation” of the value of Trump Tower for purposes of the Statements of Financial Condition is false and misleading. There is no evidence that any “outside professional” performed or participated in an evaluation of the value of Trump Tower for purposes of the Statements of Financial Condition. Rather, as discussed below, the Trump Organization simply relied on information in generic market reports circulated by individuals at appraisal firms including Cushman.

203. The valuation of Trump Tower for each year’s Statement from 2011 through 2019, except for the 2015 Statement, was calculated based on dividing an NOI figure by a capitalization rate.

204. The Trump Organization’s conduct in valuing Trump Tower in these involved a series of coordinated actions designed to artificially push the value higher, rather than reach a reasonable value for the property based on market information. Those actions ranged from recording objectively false justifications for using a certain capitalization rate; to pairing an inflated NOI with cherry-picked, low capitalization rates; to misrepresenting the valuations performed.

205. With respect to the capitalization rate, the supporting data for each year from 2011 to 2019 (except for 2015) relies on data cherry-picked by the Trump Organization from generic market reports provided by various individuals at appraisal firms including Cushman, rather than on any evaluation done specifically for Trump Tower or the Trump Organization. Indeed, no one at any appraisal firm evaluated Trump Tower for purposes of determining a capitalization rate or otherwise participated in calculating a valuation for that property for the Statement of Financial Condition. It was false and misleading for the Trump Organization to suggest that receipt of the generic market reports constituted an evaluation done in conjunction with an “outside professional” on the valuations.

206. In each year from 2011 to 2019, except in 2015, the Trump Organization appears to have cherry-picked a few low capitalization rates from a range of rates provided in a generic market report and then used the average of those selected low rates as the rate for Trump Tower. And when providing the valuation to Mazars, the company in some instances misleadingly included only excerpted favorable portions of those generic market reports that excluded higher capitalization rates that would have produced lower values.

207. The supporting data frequently provided no rationale for why the Trump Organization selected only from the low end of the range of capitalization rates in each generic market report to value Trump Tower, or why the company ignored higher capitalization rates for buildings that were comparable to Trump Tower. For example, the 2013 supporting data provides no rationale for rejecting the 4.86% capitalization rate associated with a sale in March 2013 of nearby 767 Fifth Avenue (only two blocks north of Trump Tower on Fifth Avenue)—described in the generic market report to be “in excellent condition” and “a trophy Class A office tower . . . which is considered in the marketplace to be one of the best buildings in Manhattan due to its construction quality and location which provides some the best views in the City of Central Park.” Nor does the Trump Organization provide a rationale for rejecting the 5.80% capitalization rate associated with a property sale in April 2013 in the “Plaza office submarket” on West 55th Street between Sixth and Seventh Avenues. The Trump Organization ignored these unfavorable rates and instead selected rates that were much lower to derive a rate of 3.44% for Trump Tower in 2013.

208. Even if small numerically, the differences in rates have an enormous impact on the reported value based on the formulas used. And the Trump Organization was well aware of this impact. The method used was pure division: NOI divided by capitalization rate. A 3.44% capitalization rate means the value equals about 29 times NOI ( $1/.0344$ ). But a 5.80% capitalization means the value equals about 17.2 times NOI ( $1/.058$ ). In other words, just choosing a 3.44% rate over a 5.8% rate raises the value by almost 70% (29 is 68.6% greater than 17.2).

209. In 2019, moreover, the Trump Organization went to great lengths to generate a valuation over $800 million by, among other things, using an extremely low capitalization rate and recording a false justification for doing so. Indeed, a junior employee wrote down the purported basis for these decisions, which he later acknowledged was false.

210. In particular, in 2019, the Trump Organization used only a 2.67% capitalization rate to value Trump Tower and generated a valuation of $806.7 million. That capitalization rate was derived from a generic market report reflecting a sale of 666 Fifth Avenue, which had been sold by the Kushner Companies back in 2018. The handwritten basis recorded in the backup materials provided to Mazars for using that sale—and only that sale—among all of the others in the generic market report was that it was the “only Plaza District sale in the last two years on Fifth Avenue (non-allocated).” The decision to use that sale for that stated reason was made by Allen Weisselberg.

211. That justification was false (or, at a minimum, misleading). As the full market report revealed, a building one block away from Trump Tower on Fifth Avenue (at 711 Fifth Avenue) and identified as in the “Plaza District” was in contract to sell at a capitalization rate of 5.36%. And that other property in fact sold at a capitalization rate in that range well in the months before the 2019 Statement was completed, as information in the Trump Organization’s possession made clear and as public records made otherwise easily available. The statement that the 666 Fifth Avenue transaction was “only sale in the last two years in the Plaza District on Fifth Avenue (non-allocated)” was false.

212. What is more, during the course of the 2019 valuation of Trump Tower, Mr. Weisselberg systematically rejected numerous valuations that would have reached values between $161 million and $224 million less than the prior year’s $732 million valuation. Multiple draft valuations were prepared by the junior employee charged with preparing the Statement using other, more recent Plaza District transactions with much higher capitalization rates of 4.65% and higher—but Mr. Weisselberg systematically rejected all of those market data points and decided to use a less recent, but much more favorable, 2.67% rate from the 666 Fifth Avenue sale to push the value north of $800 million. The justifications recorded by the junior employee for Mr. Weisselberg’s decisions rejecting those other capitalization rates were, alternatively, false or so cursory that they appear to have been crafted to justify a decision Mr. Weisselberg had already reached.

213. Even the use of the 666 Fifth Avenue rate of 2.67% was misleading because the market data relied upon dictated using 4.45% as a capitalization rate when using “stabilized” NOI. The underlying market report, for the 666 Fifth Avenue transaction used by the Trump Organization for this valuation, provided a capitalization rate “upon stabilization” of 4.45%. The 2019 Trump Tower valuation expressly states that it is based on, “applying a capitalization rate to the stabilized net operating income.” It was thus false or misleading to imply that the backup material for the valuation supported using a 2.67% capitalization rate when, on its face, it stated a capitalization rate nearly two full percentage points higher was appropriate “upon stabilization” and the Trump Organization’s valuation purported to be upon stabilization.

214. Furthermore, the NOI figures used by the Trump Organization were generally one-off figures prepared solely for purposes of the Statements, allowing for manipulation. In some instances, for example, the figures were inflated from the Trump Organization’s actual or projected results for the property because expenses were taken from historical audited results for the property from a prior year, but revenues were taken from budgets from the current year, creating a mismatch in time periods. The result was an inflated NOI. Neither the Statements nor the supporting data explains why, for purposes of calculating an NOI for valuation purposes, it would be appropriate to use a revenue figure from one year and an expense figure from another year.

215. Moreover, the NOI figures used in the valuations often were misrepresented in the Statements. The Statements in many instances describe the valuation method as being based on the “cash flow to be derived from the building’s operations.” When that representation was made, it was false or misleading. In reality, even apart from the time period mismatches identified above, the Trump Organization padded its NOI for Trump Tower by adding in millions of dollars in “cash flow” it knew it would not “derive from the building’s operations”—including revenue from space the Trump Organization had itself occupied for many years. The Statements until 2017 did not disclose that the NOI figures used by the Trump Organization to value Trump Tower were not actual or truly expected NOI results for the property.

216. In other instances, expenses were artificially reduced; in particular, approximately $1 million in management fees for the property were stricken from the expense rolls—even though those management expenses were paid (according to the audited financials) and typical appraisal practice does factor in management fees as a property expense (as appraisals in the Trump Organization’s possession made clear).

217. Given the low capitalization rates used by the Trump Organization to calculate the valuations, even a relatively small increase in NOI results in a significantly inflated value. For example, a $1 million difference in NOI would result in an increase in value of $34.4 million at the 2.90% capitalization rate used in 2017.

218. Additionally, for the years 2017 to 2019, the Trump Organization purported to use the “stabilized NOI,” and in those years included the sort of padded revenue figures generated by inclusion of millions of dollars of revenue from space the Trump Organization did not expect to earn revenue from.

219. No definition of the term “stabilized” was given in the Statements for these years. In the real estate industry, the term “stabilized” typically means that a building is at its average or typical occupancy that would be expected over a specified projection period or over its economic life.

220. There is no indication that any analysis was done to conclude that all of the additions to NOI were done to reflect the typical or average occupancy (or vacancy) and financial performance Trump Tower would experience over any period of time—as distinct from generating a one-off figure that inflated NOI to be used solely for a valuation on Mr. Trump’s Statement of Financial Condition.

221. The representation that the NOI figure used to value Trump Tower was “stabilized” in these years was false and misleading.

222. Moreover, for all years in which the Trump Organization padded its Trump Tower NOI by inclusion of millions of dollars in revenue it did not expect to earn, combining that tactic with the selection of the lowest or near-lowest capitalization it could pull from generic reports was misleading. To the extent either approach could be justified on the basis of “upside” in the property, using both tactics at the same time effectively double-counted such potential upside and thus was a wholly improper valuation approach. The Trump Organization either knew, or should have known, that approach was improper.

b. 2015 valuation of Trump Tower

223. The 2015 Statement of Financial Condition finalized in mid-2016 valued Trump Tower at $880,900,000—a 24.6% increase over the 2014 value, which already had increased 34.2% over the 2013 value.

224. The 2015 valuation was purportedly “based on an evaluation by Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates and outside professionals, based on comparable sales.” Although the use of “comparable sales” represented a significant change in methodology from the company’s use in the prior four years of NOI divided by a capitalization rate, there was no disclosure on the 2015 Statement of Financial Condition, as required by GAAP, that the Trump Organization had changed valuation methods.

225. In any event, the representation that the valuation was “based on comparable sales” (plural) was false and misleading. Rather, the Trump Organization used only a single, highly favorable sale as the sole data point to derive a value for Trump Tower in 2015.

226. The decision to use a single sale as the sole basis for deriving the value in 2015, to the exclusion of all other sales of comparable office buildings in the same period, was made by Mr. McConney and Mr. Weisselberg.

227. The single sale involved the Crown Building at 730 Fifth Avenue, which sold for “a new world record for the price of an entire office building,” according to press reports describing the sale.

228. The 2015 supporting data provides no rationale for why the company considered Trump Tower to be comparable to a building that sold for a world record price per square foot, and not comparable to other office buildings sold during the same period. Nor does the Statement disclose that the that single, world record sale was the only sale used to value Trump Tower.

229. In selecting the Crown Building sale as the sole data point for deriving the 2015 valuation for Trump Tower, Mr. McConney and Mr. Weisselberg ignored a host of unique factors about the sale that differentiated the Crown Building from Trump Tower. These factors included development and reconfiguration of retail space, conversion of a huge swath of floors into a hotel, and utilization of “existing, unused development air rights,” among other things.

230. The 2015 supporting data indicates that the information about the Crown Building sale came from a generic market report forwarded by Kurt Clauss at Cushman.

231. But the 2015 Statement’s representation that Mr. Clauss (the only “outside professional” identified in the supporting data) took part in “an evaluation made by Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates and outside professionals” was false or misleading. Mr. Clauss did not, by providing a generic market report, evaluate the value of Trump Tower along with Mr. Trump, Mr. McConney, or Mr. Weisselberg, let alone advise the company that it would be appropriate to use a single sale at a world record price, to the exclusion of other market data, to derive a value for Trump Tower.

232. The effort by the Trump Organization to exploit the Crown Building sale to generate an unjustifiably high value for Trump Tower in 2015 became readily apparent when the company reverted to its prior “NOI/capitalization rate” method in 2016, again making a change in method without the necessary disclosure required by GAAP. After reverting to the earlier method, the value of the property precipitously dropped by 28.4% or approximately $250 million.

7. Seven Springs

233. Seven Springs is a parcel of real property that consists of approximately 212 acres within the towns of Bedford, New Castle, and North Castle in Westchester County. Seven Springs LLC, a Trump Organization subsidiary, purchased the property in December 1995 for $7.5 million.

234. A 2000 appraisal prepared for the Royal Bank of Pennsylvania and sent to the Trump Organization estimated that Seven Springs had an “as-is” market value of $25 million for residential development.

235. The same bank’s records further indicate that a 2006 appraisal showed an “as-is” market value of $30 million.

236. In sharp contrast to these bank-appraised market values, the Statements of Financial Condition from 2011 to 2021 include far higher valuations of Seven Springs, ranging between $261 million to $291 million.

237. The 2011 Statement included under the category “Properties under Development” a value for Seven Springs of $261 million and the 2012, 2013, and 2014 Statements reported a value separately itemized for Seven Springs of $291 million. In each of these years, the Statement asserted that “[t]his property is zoned for 9 luxurious homes” and that the valuation was “based on an assessment made by Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates of the projected net cash flow which he would derive as those units are constructed and sold, and the estimated fair value of the existing mansion and other buildings.”

238. According the supporting spreadsheets, the $261 million and $291 million valuations were “based on the sale of luxury homes net of cost.” Specifically, the Trump Organization calculated that it had “7 mansions approved” that would each cost $12 million to develop and sell for $35 million, for a total profit of $161 million plus a residual value of $70 million for the “main mansion” in 2011, which increased to $100 million in 2012, 2013, and 2014 (without any explanation for the $30 million increase in value), plus another $30 million for the remaining land. All of these values were a fiction, totally unsupported by the development history of the property and contradicted by every professional valuation of the property.

239. Beyond using these inflated numbers, the Statements from 2011 to 2014 stated that a “fair value” estimate of the “existing mansion and other buildings” was performed. But “fair value” is an accounting term of art, and no such analysis was done. The claim that it was done was false and misleading.

240. Instead of including a proper “fair value” analysis, the supporting spreadsheets that the Trump Organization provided to Mazars for the purpose of compiling the 2012 Statement reported a “telephone conversation with Eric Trump (9/24/2012)” as one basis of the valuation derived from the projected development, and also noted that portions of the Seven Springs property were “land to be donated.” The supporting data for 2013 and 2014 cited to similar conversations with Eric Trump on later dates.

241. Those projections for developing mansions from Eric Trump were false in almost every particular. For example, even if the Trump Organization had approvals to build seven homes that would sell at $35 million each, it would be inappropriate to include that full amount without performing a discounted cash flow analysis to account for the years it would take to construct infrastructure, build homes, obtain additional approvals, and sell the number of homes identified in the supporting data, or to consider the business risk inherent in an uncertain residential development of previously undeveloped land. The implication of such a valuation is that the lots or homes were ready to sell, and would do so, instantaneously—a false and misleading (and, indeed, impossible) assumption.

242. Eric Trump and the Trump Organization knew that the development projections were not feasible and that they did not have the approvals necessary to support such a development. By the time Eric Trump was cited as a source for the 2012 valuation, he was already working with the Trump Organization’s outside land-use counsel Charles Martabano and its engineer to gain development approvals just for the Bedford portion of the Seven Springs property’s development (but not for portions in New Castle or North Castle).

243. Indeed, from 2011 through 2016, Eric Trump not only led the Trump Organization’s efforts to develop the property, but also worked with outside tax counsel Sheri Dillon to plan for and complete a conservation easement donation over parts of the property to get a federal tax deduction. The easement donation was a recognition that the Trump Organization would never be able to develop the property for anything approaching a $161 million return.

244. In the process of evaluating the potential easement donation in 2012 over just the New Castle portion of Seven Springs, the Trump Organization retained a licensed appraiser who valued six potential lots at about $700,000 each in December 2012. Despite knowledge of this appraisal from a licensed appraiser, the Trump Organization ascribed a value of $23 million each for similarly sized lots in the adjacent Town of Bedford for the 2013 valuation.

245. Asked to explain various aspects of the 2012 and 2013 valuations, Eric Trump repeatedly invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege.

246. As the approval process bogged down further, from 2014 through 2016 the company, acting through Eric Trump and tax counsel Sheri Dillion, sought to value and then donate an easement over parts of the Seven Springs Estate in all three Westchester towns (North Castle, New Castle, and Bedford).

247. Eric Trump was deeply involved in this process, taking the lead on the Seven Springs property within his family and the Trump Organization. At various times from 2011 to 2016, Eric Trump spent time living at the property and repeatedly met with town officials for Bedford and North Castle to discuss potential development of the site. As a result of those meetings, and as reflected in other correspondence, Eric Trump was aware that the Town of Bedford had imposed limitations on the ability of the Trump Organization to develop the Seven Springs property. Eric Trump was also aware that there was effectively no way to ameliorate the impact of these limitations because the Nature Conservancy, which held rights to a neighboring site, imposed significant restrictions on development of the property – restrictions that the Trump Organization sought to challenge unsuccessfully in litigation. Eric Trump concealed those limitations from appraisers in order to inflate the value of the Seven Springs estate and fraudulently increase the value of the tax deduction from the resulting easement donation.

248. Specifically, in July 2014, acting as an agent of the Trump Organization, Sheri Dillon engaged Cushman to “provide consulting services related to an analysis of the estimated value of a potential conservation easement on all or part of the Seven Springs Estate.” David McArdle, an appraiser at Cushman, performed this engagement, which was to provide, only verbally, a “range of value” of the Seven Springs property.

249. Mr. McArdle valued the sale of eight lots in the Town of Bedford, six lots in New Castle, and ten lots in North Castle. He used two different techniques to reach his range of values.

250. In one spreadsheet, which he called “a sellout analysis,” Mr. McArdle reached an average per-lot sales value of $2 million for the New Castle and North Castle lots, and $2.25 million for the Bedford lots. After preparing a cashflow analysis anticipating the timing for the sale of the lots and 10% rounded costs over five years, Mr. McArdle reached a rounded present value for all 24 lots of $29,950,000. In other words, Mr. McArdle—accounting for the time it would take to develop the property and discounting revenues and expenses to their present value—computed a value of just under $30 million for 24 lots, in sharp contrast to the 2013 and 2014 Statement valuations by the Trump Organization that used $23 million for each of the lots in Bedford.

251. Using another valuation technique, Mr. McArdle also reached values “Before” and “After” an easement donation. He noted the eight Bedford lots were presently worth $1.5 million to $2.5 million each, for a range of $12 million to $18 million total. He noted six lots in New Castle at an estimated range of $1.5 million to $2 million for a total of $9 million to $12 million. Likewise, he noted ten lots in North Castle at an estimated range of $1.5 million to $2 million, for a total of $15 million to $20 million. Mr. McArdle provided these individual ranges of value to the Trump Organization verbally in late August or September 2014, which put the total value at between $29.5 million to $50 million.

252. The Trump Organization, including Eric Trump and Allen Weisselberg, was thus in possession of Mr. McArdle's verbal appraisal conclusions of the lots at Seven Springs well before the finalization of the 2014 Statement of Financial Condition on November 7, 2014.

253. Despite the Trump Organization's receipt of two valuations by a professional appraiser of 24 lots across three Westchester townships reflecting a value for the 24 lots under a "sellout analysis" of just under $30 million and under a "before/after" analysis between $29.5 million and $50 million, the 2014 Statement of Financial Condition valued seven non-existent mansions in just one of those townships (Bedford) at $161 million—without factoring in the time it would take to build and sell such homes, a factor McArdle had considered. The $161 million value placed on those Bedford lots was false and misleading.

254. After receiving the 2014 valuation from McArdle, the Trump Organization declined to proceed with an easement donation in 2014.

255. The Trump Organization did ultimately decide to make the easement donation for tax year 2015. In connection with that donation, in March 2016, two Cushman appraisers retained by the Trump Organization completed another appraisal of Seven Springs and concluded that the entire property (including undeveloped land and existing buildings) as of December 1, 2015 was worth $56.5 million. Like Mr. McArdle's verbal consultation, this March 2016 appraisal substantially undermined the much higher valuations of Seven Springs in the Statements of Financial Condition from 2011 through 2014, which reflect valuations that range from $261 million to $291 million.

256. But even the 2016 appraisal is overstated and fraudulent. Among other things, the March 2016 appraisal omits consideration of central facts known to (and indeed negotiated by) the Trump Organization regarding the number of lots that could be developed and sold based on the restrictions imposed by local authorities, and relies on other false assumptions, like an impossibly accelerated pace of planning and obtaining environmental approvals.

257. More specifically, the Trump Organization:

- a. Failed to inform the appraisers of restrictions imposed by the Town of Bedford that (i) limited the total number of lots that could be developed, and (ii) required the lots to be developed sequentially, extending the development timeframe by years.
- b. Failed to inform the appraisers of restrictions arising from the litigation against the neighboring Nature Conservancy, which had been pending for years and had exhausted appeals.
- c. Pushed the appraisers to otherwise use an accelerated development timeline that ignored the prior nine years of unsuccessful development efforts. Counsel for the Trump Organization even went so far as to push the appraisers to cut the development “sellout” timeline from an already unrealistic year to a mere three to six months, telling them: “the Bedford subdivision area already has preliminary approvals; as a result, we understand from our client that final approvals would likely take another that 3-6 months, as opposed to one year. We would like you to consider whether this fact results in 6 or so lots being sold earlier in the sellout analysis.”
- d. Falsely informed the appraisers that a report by Insite Engineering indicated that “the property was very long, very well down the road toward getting approvals.” In reality, Insite Engineering never drafted any such report.

258. Each of these facts would have significantly lowered the valuation of the Seven Springs property. Because the Trump Organization concealed this information, the Cushman appraisal materially overstated the value of the Seven Springs property by tens of millions of dollars.

259. That Cushman appraisal was submitted to the Internal Revenue Service as part of an easement tax donation that ultimately, and fraudulently, reduced Mr. Trump's tax liability by more than $3.5 million.

260. To cover up this scheme, Mr. Trump and his agents sought to avoid creating a documentary record. Mr. Trump advised his employee handling his real estate affairs in the Lower Hudson Valley, which included Seven Springs, that he did not want communications between them put in writing. Likewise, on June 18, 2015, his tax attorney, Ms. Dillon, instructed her associate to "call [Cushman appraiser] Tim [Barnes] and advise him to limit substantive emails with Scott Blakely (engineer) and instead use the phone to the extent possible (want to avoid creating discovery unnecessarily)." On September 28, 2015, Ms. Dillon sent an email to another associate at her firm, "Please use a fresh email when communicating with appraisers so that we avoid to the extent possible, email chains." The Cushman appraisers acceded to Ms. Dillon's request. As Mr. Barnes, the senior appraiser, wrote to the junior appraiser, "Bedford conversations with engineer, broker, or attorney should be phone calls, not email whenever possible."

261. But even this inflated appraisal reflected a massive drop of more than 80% from the $291 million valuation of the Seven Springs estate in 2012, 2013, and 2014. To cover up that drop, which would have had a material effect on Mr. Trump's overall net worth, the Trump Organization, through Allen Weisselberg and Jeffrey McConney, altered the way the estate was reported on the Statement of Financial Condition.

262. For the years 2011 through 2014, the asserted value for Seven Springs was listed individually on the summary page or property description for each Statement. But the Statement dated as of June 30, 2015 (which was not issued until after receipt of the March 2016 appraisal), does not identify any value for the Seven Springs property. Instead, the property was moved into a catch-all category entitled “other assets,” where its value was part of that category’s total but not separately itemized.

263. Between the 2014 and 2015 Statements, the “other assets” category was reported to have increased in value by $219.6 million, with the Seven Springs property representing a significant asset transferred to this category. To a reader, that increase would appear to be the result of the addition of the Seven Springs estate. But in reality, the increase was largely attributable to a massive, and fraudulent, increase in the value of Mr. Trump’s penthouse Triplex apartment in Trump Tower.

264. In other words, the Trump Organization concealed the precipitous drop in the value of the Seven Springs property based on the March 2016 appraisal by two misleading maneuvers – the property was moved into the “other assets” bucket without being itemized, and it was lumped together with the value of Mr. Trump’s Triplex apartment, which had suddenly jumped by $127 million.

265. But as discussed in the next section, the $127 million increase in the value of the Triplex for the 2015 Statement was only one example of how the value of Mr. Trump’s personal residence was manipulated to fraudulently inflate his net worth.

8. Mr. Trump’s Triplex Apartment

266. Between 2011 and 2015, the value of Mr. Trump’s Triplex incorporated into the Statements of Financial Condition increased more than 400% – from $80 million to $327 million. The value of the apartment as included in the Statement each year from 2011 to 2021 is reflected in the table below:

Statement Year	Trump Triplex Valuation
2011	$80,000,000
2012	$180,000,000
2013	$200,000,000
2014	$200,000,000
2015	$327,000,000
2016	$327,000,000
2017	$116,800,000
2018	$116,800,000
2019	$113,800,000
2021	$131,281,244

267. The bulk of this fraudulently inflated value came from the misrepresentation in the years 2012 through 2016 that the apartment was 30,000 square feet, when in reality the apartment was only 10,996 square feet. That wildly overstated size was then multiplied by an unreasonable price per square foot.

268. The result was an implausible valuation that was obscured by including the Triplex in the “Other Assets” category, which could include more than a dozen different properties and assets.

269. Tripling the size of the apartment for purposes of the valuation was intentional and deliberate fraud, not an honest mistake. Documents demonstrating the true size of Mr. Trump’s Triplex (most notably the condominium offering plan and associated amendments for Trump Tower) were easily accessible inside the Trump Organization, were signed by Mr. Trump, and were sent to Mr. Weisselberg in 2012. And Mr. Trump was of course intimately familiar with the layout of both the building and the apartment, having personally overseen the construction of both.

270. Indeed, Mr. Trump told one biographer: “This is a very complex unit. Building this unit, if you look at the columns and the carvings, this building, this unit was harder than building the building itself.” Mr. Trump lived in the apartment for more than two decades, using it for interviews, photo spreads, as a filming location in “The Apprentice,” and even to host foreign heads of state.

271. Yet when discussing the use of the 30,000 square foot estimate, Mr. Weisselberg guessed that it might have been the work of a broker who worked for Trump International Realty for a year between 2012 and 2013.

272. But Mr. Trump has been misrepresenting the size of the apartment for years and did so before 2012. In 2010, for example, as part of the underwriting for a homeowner’s insurance policy with Chubb, Mr. Trump personally conducted a tour of the apartment with a Chubb appraiser and misrepresented the size of the apartment as between 25,000 and 30,000 square feet. As the appraiser wrote:

This was a unique appraisal appointment, before the site visit I was told there would only be 15 minutes to see the apartment, Mr. Trump was home at the time of the appraisal and wanted to do the walk through himself, I was unable to see the master bedroom and Mrs. Trump’s dressing room per request of Mr. Trump (Mrs. Trump was sleeping).

Although I was able to spend slightly longer the 15 minutes in the house, the appointment was conducted at a speed directed by Mr. Trump and there was not ample time to take measurement while on site. Square footage was also not noted in the prior appraisal. When Mr. Trump was asked the square footage he said he was not sure but thought it was between 25,000-30,000 square feet. This seems high based on the walk through, due to this confusion the square footage used (11,194 which was found on propertyshark.com for the penthouse units which were combined in 1986-1989 by Mr. Trump).

The square footage was removed from the agent/client report copies due to the confusion noted above. Due to the multiple methods used to analyze the replacement cost noted above I feel confident in the total replacement value.

274. Mr. Trump’s grossly inflated estimate of the apartment’s size was incorporated into the Statement of Financial Condition from at least 2012 through 2016.

275. In 2011 the Statement incorporated a value for the apartment of $80 million, though the supporting data spreadsheet offered no specific rationale for that number. But an $80 million valuation would have valued the apartment at more than $7,200 per square foot, when the highest price for an apartment in the building that year was $3,027 per square foot.

276. In 2012, the value of the Triplex was increased by $100 million in the Statement to $180 million. Allen Weisselberg asked an employee at Trump International Realty to value the apartment based on the assumption that the apartment was 30,000 square feet. That employee then told Weisselberg, and later McConney, that: “At 30,000 sq ft. DJT’s triplex is worth between 4K to 6K per ft – or 120MM to 180MM.” McConney incorporated the top number into the Statement. No apartment sold in New York City had ever approached that price, with the highest overall sale that year occurring at 15 Central Park West, a building completed just five years earlier. That sale, a penthouse for $88 million, was a record high price in New York City at the time. The increase in valuation of Mr. Trump’s Triplex between 2011 and 2012 therefore put the value at an amount that was higher than the highest price ever paid for an apartment in the city's history to that point.

277. The next year, the value of the Triplex on the Statement increased to $200 million. This time McConney asked another employee at Trump International Realty to estimate a listing price – not a selling price – for the apartment, which she did using $8,000 per square foot and the inflated 30,000 square foot figure. Specifically she wrote:

Doing the list now. As far as DJT's. One unit just sold for over 5000 a foot. However, another just came on the market at over 11K /sq ft.

Which is not necessarily indicative of the market.

Based on the activity in the luxury market and given how unique the apartment is , as well a tied to celebrity, I don't see how one would list below 8K per sq ft at this point. which brings us to @240,000M.. 200,000M is a safe estimate

278. But a $200 million selling price would have translated to more than $18,000 per square foot for the Triplex based on its actual size. Executives in the Trump Organization were well aware of the true selling price for apartments in the building. For example, in October 2013, Allen Weisselberg's son sent him an article reporting on the highest priced sale in the history of Trump Tower, $16.5 million for a 3,700 square foot unit, reflecting a price of $4,459 per square foot.

279. In the 2015 Statement the value of the Triplex jumped up again. The supporting data for Mr. Trump's 2015 Statement reported the value of Mr. Trump's Triplex as $327 million, based on a price per square foot of $10,900 multiplied by the inflated 30,000 square foot figure. (In reality, based on the actual size of the apartment, the true price per square foot reflected in this value was an incredible $29,738.) As support for this assertion, McConney cited an email from yet another Trump International Realty employee, who reported her review of sales at buildings "most likely to be the highest: 15 CPW, One57, 432 Park Ave."

280. The $10,900 price that McConney used in preparing the Statement was inappropriate for two reasons. First Mr. McConney pulled the number from a penthouse sale at One57 that the New York Times reported as marking the first sale above $100 million in Manhattan and “shattering the record for the highest price ever paid for a single residence in New York City.”

281. Second, Mr. McConney used an erroneously high price per square foot for the penthouse at One57. The sale price for the penthouse was actually $9,198 per square foot. As shown below, because the email contained a stray dollar sign in front of the square footage for the apartment at issue, Mr. McConney simply grabbed the highest number he could find (10,923), rounded it off to 10,900, and used it as the price per square foot even though it was actually the square footage of the apartment and the price per square foot was clearly shown as “$9,198 PPSQFT”:

Highest was $9,390 PPSQT at 15 CPW only 2,761 sqft for $29,995,000

Highest among the larger unit was $9,198 PPSQT at One57 unit 90, 10,923 sqft for $100,471,453. Closed on 12/23/14.

The rumored in contract at 432 Park Ave, PH at 95 mil for 8,255 sqft comes to $11,508 PPSQFT. Unit 91A is currently on the market for $40,250,000, only 8,255 sqft comes to $11,308 PPSQFT. We heard few combined PH with 10,000 to 15,000 sqft fetched over $11,000 to $15,000 PPSQFT but no confirmation.

282. In short, Mr. McConney, with the approval of Mr. Weisselberg, not only used the fraudulently inflated apartment size, but used a price per square foot 15% higher than a record-setting sale in a brand new building. And based on the actual smaller size of Mr. Trump’s apartment, the value of $327 million for the apartment translated to a price per square foot that was more than triple the record-setting price per square foot paid for the penthouse at One57.

283. As the New York Times reported in 2018, Trump buildings were no longer competitive with such newly built luxury buildings. “Even at Trump Tower, where Mr. Trump has a triplex, sales peaked in 2013, with average prices at $3,000 per square foot, and have fallen since then, according to . . . a real estate marketing consultant. Sales are now running about $2,000 a square foot.”

284. That same article explicitly called out the difference with the buildings used as a comparison in the Statement. “And when compared with the new generation of ultraluxury buildings along Billionaire’s Row, a stretch of 57th Street that includes Trump Tower, the average Trump apartment is worth far less. The sales average, for instance, at 432 Park Avenue was $5,564; $4,051 at Time Warner Center; and $3,812 at One 57, the skyscraper at 157 57th Street, according to CityRealty.”

285. The Trump Organization used the fraudulent square footage again in the 2016 Statement of Financial Condition, despite being directly informed by Forbes Magazine that the measurement was false. On March 3, 2017, just a week before the 2016 Statement was published, Forbes emailed Alan Garten, General Counsel of the Trump Organization, a series of questions about “President Trump and his business connections around the world.” The email included this question:

TRUMP TOWER PENTHOUSE

1) President Trump has told Forbes in the past that his penthouse occupies 33,000 square feet, comprising the entirety of floors 66-68 of Trump Tower. Property records (notably the latest amended condo declaration, dated October 11, 1994). Is the 1994 declaration accurate and up-to-date? It shows President Trump’s apartment is 10,996.39 square feet.

286. Mr. Garten forwarded the email to others in the Trump Organization, including Donald Trump, Jr., Eric Trump and Allen Weisselberg. Donald Trump, Jr. responded, “Insane amount of stuff there.”

287. Three days later, Mr. Garten wrote to Amanda Miller, a Vice President of Marketing for the Trump Organization, that “I handled everything except Trump World Tower and Trump Tower.” Ms. Miller responded, “Thank you Alan – I spoke to Allen W. re: TWT and TT – we are going to leave those alone.”

288. On March 10, 2017, Donald Trump, Jr. and Allen Weisselberg represented to Mazars that the information in the Statement was accurate and complied with GAAP. They further certified that:

- 14) No events have occurred subsequent to the date of the statement of financial condition and through the date of this letter that would require adjustments to, or disclosure in, the personal financial statement.
- 15) We have responded fully and truthfully to all inquiries made to us by you during your compilation.
- 16) In regards to the financial statement preparation services performed by you, we have:
  - a) Assumed all management responsibilities.
  - b) Overseen the services by designating an individual who possesses suitable skill, knowledge, and/or experience.
  - c) Evaluated the adequacy and results of the services performed.
  - d) Accepted responsibility for the results of the services.

Very truly yours,

Allen Weisselberg
Chief Financial Officer
Trustee, The Donald J. Trump Revocable
Trust dated April 7, 2014, as amended

Donald J. Trump, Jr.
Executive Vice President
Trustee, The Donald J. Trump Revocable
Trust dated April 7, 2014, as amended

289. That same day Mazars published the 2016 Statement, which incorporated the false 30,000 square foot measurement that translated into a $327 million valuation of the Triplex.

290. Three days later, the Trump Organization sent the 2016 Statement to Deutsche Bank as required by the terms of its loans, and Donald Trump, Jr. certified that the Statement “presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of the Guarantor at the period presented.”

291. During his sworn testimony, before invoking his Fifth Amendment privilege, Mr. Weisselberg conceded that using the false square footage had the effect of improperly inflating the value of the apartment almost threefold. Mr. Weisselberg admitted that this amounted to an overstatement of “give or take” $200 million, testifying in the following exchange: “Q: In fact, [the value was] overstated by a factor of 3, is that correct? A: I didn’t do the math, but it should be one third, yes, I would agree with that. Q: So, it’s on the order of a $200 million overstatement, give or take? A: Give or take.”

292. Each year, from 2012 to 2016, the practice of fraudulently inflating the value of the Triplex was carried out by McConney and Weisselberg, at the express direction of Donald J. Trump. When asked about the scheme during his sworn testimony, Mr. Trump invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination by stating “same answer,” which incorporated by reference his initial invocation of the privilege at the beginning of his interview:

Q. You are aware that from 2012 through 2016, the value of your triplex apartment in Trump Tower was calculated by multiplying 30,000 square feet times a price per square foot; is that correct?

A. Same answer.

Q. And you personally directed the use of the 30,000-square-foot figure in valuing your apartment for the Statement of Financial Condition in those years; is that correct?

A. Same answer.

Q. The 30,000-square-foot figure is false; is that correct?

A. Same answer.

Q. When you directed the use of that square footage to value your triplex, you knew that the 30,000-square-foot figure was false; correct?

A. Same answer.

293. Only after Forbes published an article in May 2017 entitled “Donald Trump has Been Lying About the Size of His Penthouse” did the Trump Organization stop inflating the square footage for the apartment. For the 2017 Statement the valuation of the apartment dropped to $116,800,000. The reported value continued to drop to a low of $105,946,460 in the 2020 Statement before rising to $131,281,244 in 2021. And even those numbers inflated the true value of the Triplex based on a still-unreasonably high price per square foot based on sales of apartments in buildings that were not comparable to Trump Tower.

9. 1290 Avenue of the Americas and 555 California (Vornado Partnerships)

294. Mr. Trump’s Vornado Partnership Interests consist of 30% limited partnership interests in entities that own two commercial properties: 1290 Avenue of the Americas in New York City and 555 California Street in San Francisco.

295. For the Statements of Financial Conditions from 2011 through 2021, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization calculated the value of Mr. Trump’s interest in the Vornado Partnership Interests by taking 30% of the values they calculated for the 1290 Avenue of the Americas and 555 California buildings, net of debt, without considering the nature of Mr. Trump’s limited partnership interest, to derive the following amounts:

Statement Year	Value of Limited Partnership Interest
2012	$823,300,000
2013	$745,800,000
2014	$816,900,000
2015	$946,000,000
2016	$979,500,000
2017	$1,195,800,000
2018	$1,211,900,000

Statement Year	Value of Limited Partnership Interest
2019	$1,307,900,000
2021	$645,600,000

296. These values for Mr. Trump's interest in 1290 Avenue of the Americas and 555 California are false and misleading for many reasons, as discussed below.

a. The Restricted Nature of Mr. Trump's Limited Partnership Interest

297. As set forth more fully supra at ¶¶ 68 – 71, the pertinent partnership agreements place the General Partner (i.e., Vornado) in control of those partnerships, including with respect to the amount of any cash distributions (if any) or reinvestment decisions.

298. Moreover, the pertinent partnership agreements sharply limit Mr. Trump's ability to exit the partnerships. In particular, the agreements provide: "The term of the Partnership shall continue until December 31, 2044, on which date the Partnership shall dissolve, unless sooner dissolved upon the occurrence of any of the events specified in Section 17.1." The few exceptions to that rule are outside of Mr. Trump's sole control.

299. The pertinent partnership agreements also sharply limit withdrawal by any partner, or sale or transfer of a partner's interest in the partnership. "No partner may withdraw from the Partnership or assign or transfer its Partnership Interest in whole or in part, except as provided in Articles 10 and 11 hereof." Article 10 of the pertinent partnership agreements provides, among other things, that "a Partner may not, directly or indirectly, sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of (collectively, "Transfer") all or any part of its Partnership Interest (including, without limitation, the right to receive allocations of income, profits and losses and/or distributions of cash flow) . . . without the prior written consent of the General Partner, which consent may be granted or withheld in the sole discretion of the General Partner.” Article 11 refers to the “dissolution, resignation or bankruptcy of the General Partner.”

300. Additionally, the partnership agreements bar Mr. Trump from pledging his Vornado Partnership Interests to a bank to secure a loan except under limited circumstances that do not apply.

301. GAAP requires, when presenting the value of an interest owned in a partnership or joint venture, that the specific interest that is owned be valued in its entirety—and that the value of that interest be presented as one line item rather than broken apart and buried within multiple line items in multiple categories of assets.

302. All of the valuations of Mr. Trump’s limited interest in the Vornado Partnership Interests from 2011 to 2021 violate this standard. Indeed, they do not compute a value for Mr. Trump’s interest in these specific partnerships, with their associated restrictions on sale and cash distributions. None of the valuations even attempts to ascertain what the value of Mr. Trump’s restricted interest would be on the open market, assuming he even were permitted to sell it. Instead, the valuations are false and misleading because they are based on the fiction that by virtue of his limited partnership interest, Mr. Trump owns 30% of two buildings, with Mr. Trump’s interest calculated by simply taking 30% of the value net of debt of each building the partnerships owned.

303. Any hypothetical buyer of Mr. Trump’s limited stake in the Vornado partnerships would consider the restrictions on sale and cash distributions when valuing such interest. Any such buyer would appreciate the possibility (at Vornado’s discretion) of receiving no cash or profit distribution from the properties over an extended period of time—and factor that potential limitation on the return on investment into its assessment. Similarly, any such hypothetical buyer would understand that the partnership agreements, by their plain terms, limit exit from the investment for decades—another factor a reasonable buyer would consider in deciding whether to purchase Mr. Trump’s interest and at what price. Nor was any discount applied reflecting the fact that Mr. Trump’s limited minority stake entailed essentially no control over business operations.

304. The Trump Organization’s written descriptions of these valuations were misleading. From 2012 through 2018, for example, the Statements misleadingly asserted: “Mr. Trump owns 30% of these properties,” as opposed to holding minority, restricted stakes in particular partnerships. In 2019 and 2020, the SOFC added that he owned “30% of these properties as a limited partner,” but continued employing the same valuation method of reporting what Mr. Trump owned as simply 30% of the calculated buildings’ value net of debt.

305. Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization were well aware of restrictions on Mr. Trump’s limited partnership interest—having engaged in extensive litigation regarding the Vornado partnership agreements. But nowhere do the Statements of Financial Condition or the supporting data consider the restricted nature of what Mr. Trump owns through his limited partnership interests (despite the Statements’ representations that the valuations “reflect[ed]” his “interest”). Indeed, the first time the junior employee charged with preparing the Statement from 2016 forward saw one of the pertinent partnership agreements was during the course of OAG’s investigation.

b. The False and Misleading Valuations of the Buildings

306. As noted, in each year from 2011 to 2021, the Statement’s valuations of the Vornado Partnership Interests were a function of simply apportioning at a 30% rate valuations of 1290 Avenue of the Americas and 555 California, net of debt.

307. Those valuations were calculated based on dividing an NOI by a capitalization rate. During the period 2011 through 2021, evidence reveals that the Trump Organization in repeated instances manipulated components of that formula to inflate the value of the Vornado Partnership Interests.

308. As with other properties, the Trump Organization misleadingly represented that “outside professionals” had done “an evaluation” with Mr. Trump or his trustees. In reality, the company’s typical practice was to cherry-pick favorable capitalization rates from generic reports and then misleadingly represent the valuation was the result of “an evaluation” done with an outside professional.

309. The supporting data often provided no rationale for why the Trump Organization selected only from the low end of the range of capitalization rates in the source materials to value the properties, or why the company ignored higher capitalization rates listed in the source material for buildings that were comparable to the Vornado properties. And, in several instances, the Trump Organization only provided to Mazars excerpts of the market data relied upon.

310. For example, in the 2012 Statement, the Trump Organization relied on market reports circulated by Doug Larson of Cushman reflecting rates between 3.12% and 3.95% for office buildings on Lexington Avenue and Fifth Avenue between 51st and 53rd Streets to derive an “average” rate of 3.4% for 1290 Avenue of the Americas. Yet Mr. Larson had authored an appraisal for another entity in October 2012 that concluded an appropriate capitalization rate for 1290 Avenue of the Americas was 4.59%, producing a value ($2.0 billion) that was $800 million less than the Trump Organization’s calculation.

311. It was false and misleading for the Trump Organization to suggest that the valuation that derived a capitalization rate of 3.4% for 1290 Avenue of the Americas was done

“in conjunction” with Mr. Larson when he had not opined to the Trump Organization on the capitalization rate but instead determined in an essentially contemporaneous appraisal report for the same property that the appropriate rate was 4.59%.

312. The Trump Organization purported to rely on “an evaluation” done with Mr. Larson again in 2013 to use a capitalization rate of 3.12% for 1290 Avenue of the Americas—generating a value of $2.989 billion, $989 million higher than Mr. Larson actually had reached in an appraisal completed only months earlier. The Trump Organization even misleadingly relied on the “investment grade” nature of the property in that year, despite public investment reports providing the appraised value of $2.0 billion.

313. Indeed, in four instances – for 1290 Avenue of the Americas in 2016 through 2019 – the Trump Organization selected a low capitalization rate based on just the single sale of one property listed in generic market reports.

314. In 2016, the Trump Organization misleadingly attributed to Mr. Larson a capitalization rate of 2.90%, which was cherry-picked from a generic market report. Indeed, until a last-minute change, the Trump Organization used other figures that even it identified as coming from comparable buildings—but then opted to lower the cap rate and use a value $400 million higher. Mr. Larson testified that the supporting data’s reference to him in connection with this valuation was inaccurate. In 2017, the Trump Organization continued to use that 2.90% figure, attributing it to a different appraiser who also testified he did not provide the Trump Organization with any indication of what particular capitalization rate to use.

315. Similarly, in 2017, for 555 California, the Trump Organization only received a generic market report and selected two sales to derive a 3.8% capitalization rate for the property.

Only an excerpt of that report was provided to Mazars. The full report contained a series of much higher rates for Class A office buildings.

316. The 2018 and 2019 valuations of 1290 Avenue of the Americas placed the value of the building over $4 billion, based on a misleading, cherry-picked choice of the same 2.67% capitalization rate used for Trump Tower in 2019.

317. The Trump Organization stated that it performed “an evaluation” with an outside professional, and the supporting data attributes the capitalization rate to information provided by an appraiser. But the Trump Organization knew the numbers chosen were flatly inconsistent with that appraiser’s conclusion—because they actually asked him in May 2018 to confirm his statement that a capitalization rate in the 4-4.5% range was appropriate for 1290 Avenue of the Americas; and then the Trump Organization appears to have used what it understood to be the appraiser’s view to push back on a valuation by a news organization.

318. As with the Trump Tower valuation in 2019, the use of the 2.67% figure in 2018 and 2019 for 1290 Avenue of the Americas was misleading. The market data point relied upon dictated using 4.45% —not 2.67%—as a capitalization rate when applied to “stabilized” NOI. The 2018 and 2019 valuations of 1290 Avenue of the Americas were, according to the Statements, based upon a “stabilized” NOI. Using 4.45% rather than 2.67% would have decreased the value of 1290 Avenue of the Americas by more than $1.5 billion in 2018 and 2019.

319. With respect to the NOI, the Trump Organization in many years misleadingly described such income as “the net operating income,” suggesting this was the net cash the Trump Organization would derive from the buildings’ operations. But the cash flow to Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization was limited by the terms of the partnership agreements and could be zero in the exercise of the general partner's discretion. The Trump Organization instead computed the values of his Vornado Partnership Interests based on cash flow the partnerships would derive from the buildings' operations—not the cash flow Mr. Trump would derive (at Vornado's discretion).

320. For the years 2017 to 2021, the Trump Organization purported to use the “stabilized net operating income” and claimed in supporting spreadsheets that the NOI figures to derive the values for the properties came from audited financial statements. Those statements were false and misleading. In reality, the Trump Organization, at the direction of Allen Weisselberg, frequently used unaudited reports and then adjusted them to suit its own purposes by adding millions of dollars in net operating income to the figures.

321. In the real estate industry, the term “stabilized” typically means that a building is at its average or typical occupancy that would be expected over a specified projection period or over its economic life. No definition of the term “stabilized” was given in the Statements for these years. There is no indication that any analysis was done to conclude that the unaudited figures used, or the adjustments to them, reflected the typical or average occupancy and financial performance the properties would experience over any period of time – as distinct from generating a one-off figure that inflated NOI to be used solely for a valuation on Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition.

322. Moreover, for all years in which the Trump Organization padded the 1290 Avenue of the Americas NOI by inclusion of millions of dollars in revenue to achieve a purportedly “stabilized” figure, combining that tactic with the selection of the lowest or near-lowest capitalization it could pull from generic reports was misleading. To the extent either approach could be justified on the basis of “upside” in the property, using both tactics at the same time effectively double-counted such potential upside and thus was a wholly improper valuation approach. The Trump Organization either knew, or should have known, that approach was improper.

10. Las Vegas (Ruffin Joint Venture)

323. The Trump International Hotel and Tower – Las Vegas (“Trump Vegas”) is a hotel condominium property in Las Vegas, Nevada. Mr. Trump and Philip Ruffin each own half of a joint venture that built the property and continues to own the hotel and all of the unsold condominium units.

324. Prior to 2013, the Statements omitted Mr. Trump’s 50% interest in the property.

325. From 2013 through 2021, the Statements listed an inflated value for the property using some of the same deceptive techniques Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization used to fraudulently inflate valuations of Mr. Trump’s other properties, including failing to discount future cash flows and projecting future income from the sale of residential units that assumed prices well in excess of what the units were actually selling for in the marketplace, while ignoring the values derived and methods used in earlier appraisals that were never disclosed.

326. In 2011 and 2012, the Trump Organization hired an appraiser to contest property taxes assessed on Trump Vegas before the Clark County and Nevada tax authorities. The 2011 appraisal used a discounted cashflow analysis to appraise 932 unsold condominium units and the separate hotel unit, applying a discount rate of 12% to the units and 12.5% to the hotel. Eric Trump sent this appraisal—which valued the units and hotel at $115,689,000 and $12,690,000, respectively—to Allen Weisselberg, writing: “The tax appeal for the hotel component is happening today and appeal on the units themselves is scheduled for March 11th. I’ll let you know how we make out later this afternoon....”

327. The Trump Organization ordered another appraisal of the condominium units using the same approach from the same appraiser in 2012. Based on a conclusion that the units would need 10 years to be fully sold—with the majority sold more than five years in the future—and applying a discount rate of 10% to these cashflows to calculate the present value of the income, the appraiser determined that the value of the unsold residential units was $111,500,000. This was far less than the roughly $178 million in outstanding loans payable on the property at the time—but that made the appraised value a favorable result for the Trump Organization, because a lower value would result in a lower tax bill.

328. After receiving this appraisal from outside tax counsel, Eric Trump wrote, “I take it you are happy with the work?” The attorney replied, “I am happy with the work and think the [Clark County Board of Equalization and the Nevada State Board of Equalization] will buy the value . . . . I am optimistic.”

329. Thus, the Trump Organization and its executives, including Eric Trump and Allen Weisselberg, understood any analysis of the value of the property’s future cash flows required the application of a discount rate—and they had expressly adopted that position in their submissions to the county and state government tax authorities.

330. Despite having submitted the 2011 and 2012 appraisals to government taxing authorities, the Trump Organization ignored those appraisals when valuing Trump Vegas for the 2013 Statement.

331. Instead, at Eric Trump’s request, a Trump Organization employee provided an approach that discarded both the assumptions and methodology used by the appraiser and incorporated misleading figures from Mr. Weisselberg into a document that purported to illustrate cashflows to the Trump Organization from the sale of Trump Vegas condominium units. Mr. McConney later sent a version of this approach to Mazars to include in the 2013 Statement.

332. Where the appraiser had concluded it would take a decade to sell the remaining units, the Trump Organization assumed all units would be sold in half that time, by 2018. Where the appraiser had projected a sales price for the condominiums of roughly $369 per square foot and the Trump Organization had sold in bulk a number of units to Hilton for $400 per square foot, the Trump Organization—just a year later—used a range of projected sale prices starting with $528 per square foot in 2013 and topping out at $724 per square foot in 2018.

333. And where the appraiser had used a 10% discount rate, the Trump Organization used none at all, instead treating the future revenue from condominium sales (calculated to be $123 million) as if it represented the present value of the property—in violation of GAAP.

334. The failure to include a discount rate inflated the Trump Organization's valuation significantly. For example, $8,749,295 of projected Trump income from 2018—which, applying the appraiser's discount rate of 10%, should have been valued at about 62.5 cents on the dollar or $5.5 million—was valued at $8,749,925 in 2013.

335. Notably, the $123 million valuation was a 10% increase over the tax appraisal's $111.5 valuation from January 2012—and this despite the facts that (1) the tax appraisal did not appraise Mr. Trump's 50% interest; (2) the tax appraisal's value did not subtract debt; and (3) between January 1, 2012 (the appraisal date) and June 30, 2013, more than one hundred condo units had sold, reducing the amount of property held by the Vegas joint venture.

336. Examining additional appraisals obtained by the Trump Organization for tax purposes in 2015 and 2016 next to the valuations provided in the Statements for those same years highlights the fraudulent intent—and duplicity—of the Trump Organization's approach.

337. In 2015, the Trump Organization obtained an appraisal to contest the tax assessments for the hotel portion of Trump Vegas that reached a value of $24,950,000 after identifying numerous risks factors that would decrease the property's value, including that the property was a "first venture in the Las Vegas market of a stand-alone tower that is not directly located along Las Vegas Boulevard South and contains no gaming."

338. Outside tax counsel James Susa emailed the appraisal to Eric Trump. Emphasizing that the goal of the appraisal was to reach a lower value, Mr. Susa wrote: "Here is the appraisal of the hotel unit at just under $25 million. I had asked [the appraiser] to come in around $20 million but you were making too much money for him to get that low."

339. The appraisal had its intended effect; while it was initially rejected as too low by the Clark County Assessor and the Clark County Board of Equalization, the Nevada State Board of Equalization overturned those conclusions on appeal. As Mr. Susa described the State hearing to Eric Trump, "We cleaned their clock . . . First comment from the Board was 'this is a complex appraisal assignment, the taxpayer brought us an appraisal, that does it.' Second comment from the Board was 'move to approve the appraised number, second, all in favor, unanimous, thanks for coming.'" The Trump Vegas tax assessment was lowered accordingly.

340. By contrast, the Trump Organization's valuation of Trump Vegas that year for purposes of the Statement was again designed to falsely inflate the value of Mr. Trump's stake in the venture and disregarded the appraisal. Mr. McConney provided a valuation of $107,732,646 to Mazars. The valuation assumed a price per square foot for sales in 2016 of $506 and that all units would be sold by 2020 with a price per square foot of $673 in that final year, without any discount of these projected future revenues at all, again in violation of GAAP.

341. In 2016, however, when the Trump Organization retained its appraiser to prepare another appraisal for tax purposes—to argue this time that the remaining unsold condo units were worth less—the appraiser reached a much different set of conclusions. He argued that the appropriate price per square foot for sales in 2016 was $450 (11% less than the Trump Organization’s 2015 analysis) and that it would take nine more years to sell the remaining units. He applied a 12.5% discount rate to future cashflows, meaning that, for instance, revenues from 2020 sales would be valued at 55.5 cents on the dollar in the present day. Using these methods, he reached a valuation of $95,500,000 as of July 1, 2016.

342. Trump Organization outside counsel, Mr. Susa, asked Eric Trump to carefully consider whether to submit this appraisal to taxing authorities: “I need you, in ALL your free time (kidding you a little), to tell me if there is anything in the appraisal that gives you heartburn from giving it to the Assessor’s office.”

343. There was good reason for the Trump Organization to be concerned about disseminating the appraisal: just as in 2015, the valuation of Trump Vegas in the 2016 Statement—which was made as of June 30, 2016, just one day prior to the date of the 2016 appraisal—adopted much more aggressive assumptions to reach a much higher valuation of Mr. Trump’s 50% stake in the remaining condo units of $107,508,863.

344. Reflecting disappointing sales that year, the 2016 Statement valuation used about the same price per square foot as the appraiser had, $441. But it projected significant increases in the sales price every subsequent year, with units selling for $704 per square foot by 2019. By contrast, the 2016 appraisal had assumed units would sell at only $476 per square foot in 2019.

345. These increased projections drove the value even higher because the 2016 Statement valuation—like every other since 2013—ignored the time value of money and failed to discount future revenues. So, for instance, $34,047,415 in 2020 cashflows were valued as money in hand for the Trump Organization's Statement valuation. If the Trump Organization had used the 12.5% discount rate the appraiser had applied, that money would have been valued at 62.5 cents on the dollar, or about $21.3 million in 2016.

346. By using the fraudulent valuation methods and assumptions described above, the Trump Organization was able to inflate the value of Trump Vegas in each of the years from 2013 to 2016. Eric Trump, invoking his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination, refused to answer questions related to his participation in the drafting of each of the 2013 through 2016 Statements.

347. For the 2017 and 2018 Statements, the Trump Organization changed its approach to an even more blatantly fraudulent method to value the then-remaining Trump Vegas condominium units, which was done at the direction of Mr. Weisselberg or Mr. McConney. Instead of purporting to estimate revenue from the anticipated sale of the units over time, the Trump Organization simply added together "list" prices of the remaining units and treated this sum as the present value of the property (with certain adjustments to acknowledge expenses and the debt service on the loan secured by the property).

348. The Trump Organization's use of "list" prices for the units to generate the 2017 and 2018 valuations was false and misleading in two respects. First, like earlier valuations, it ignored the requirement under GAAP to discount future cash flow to derive present value. Second, by using "list" prices, the valuation employed per-square-foot prices that were more than 50% greater than actual recent closed sales at the Trump Vegas property—as reflected on the backup material itself.

349. In 2019, the Trump Organization modified its approach to include a 14% discount for “Sale Price vs List Price” and deductions for closing costs in connection with condominium sales, effectively conceding that its approach in the prior two years of using the “list” price without adjustment was false and misleading. But—despite performing a present-value analysis in connection with the hotel portion of the same property—the Trump Organization continued its misleading practice of valuing cash flow from condominium sales without discounting to present value.

350. The Trump Organization continued to use this same approach in 2020 and 2021—again failing to discount to present value cash flow from future condominium sales—but acknowledging that the “list” prices needed to be adjusted downward.

351. The records related to the 2021 valuation demonstrate how unrealistically aggressive the Trump Organization’s previous projections had been with respect to how long it would take to sell all of the condominium units. For the 2013 valuation, the Trump Organization had assumed that all units would be sold by 2018, but in 2021 there were still 288 unsold units.

352. And where the 2013 projections assumed a price per square foot reaching $724 by 2018, the most recent offer the Trump Organization had received in 2021 for a condominium was $462 per square foot. The Trump realtor who had received this offer—which was substantially below the Trump Organization’s projected future price per square foot used in every Statement valuation since 2013—described it as “not bad.”

11. Club Facilities and Related Real Estate

353. The Statements of Financial Condition do not list separate values for each of Mr. Trump’s club facilities. Instead, the values for those properties are lumped together into a single figure under the heading “Club Facilities and Related Real Estate.” That figure represents far and away the single largest source of value in each year as reflected below:

Statement Year	Total Club Value	% of Total Asset Value
2011	$1,314,600,000	28.6%
2012	$1,570,300,000	31.3%
2013	$1,656,200,000	30.1%
2014	$2,009,300,000	31.9%
2015	$1,873,300,000	28.5%
2016	$2,107,800,000	33.0%
2017	$2,159,700,000	34.1%
2018	$2,349,900,000	35.7%
2019	$2,182,200,000	33.2%
2020	$1,880,700,000	36.5%
2021	$1,758,000,000	35.3%

354. The result of using an aggregated figure is that a reader of the Statements receives only the total value ascribed to the clubs and related properties and cannot discern from the Statements the value assigned to any particular club in that category or the method of valuation used for any particular club.

355. That practice by design allowed Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization to conceal significant swings in the value attributed to individual clubs and changes to the individual methods employed to arrive at those values. Those fluctuations were necessary to perpetuate the scheme of inflating Mr. Trump's net worth during the period 2011 to 2021.

356. The Statements of Financial Condition for the years 2011 through 2019 claim, among other things, that the valuations for each property comprising the category "Club Facilities and Related Real Estate" were reached through an assessment or evaluation prepared by Mr. Trump working in conjunction with his associates and outside professionals.

357. As with all other valuations prepared for these Statements, this asserted work with "outside professionals" when preparing the valuations for the club facilities was false.

358. Outside professionals were not retained to prepare any of the valuations for any of “Club Facilities and Related Real Estate” properties for purposes of Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition. The veneer of participation by independent professionals in the preparation of the valuations comprising this category was false and misleading.

359. In 2020, employees of the Trump Organization were asked about the various references to “outside professionals” on the Statements of Financial Condition in sworn testimony before OAG. Thereafter, the Trump Organization changed the wording for the 2020 Statement, omitting any representation that any particular valuation was reached in consultation with “outside professionals” and instead listing outside professionals as merely one factor that may have been “applicable” in some unspecified manner.

360. The Trump Organization’s abrupt removal of any specific references to consultation with outside professionals in connection with specific club valuations is a tacit admission that such references in prior years were inaccurate and misleading.

361. As detailed in the sections below discussing individual clubs, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization employed various deceptive schemes at particular clubs in particular years to inflate the club values. These schemes included: (i) valuing the clubs based on the “fixed assets” of the clubs – in other words the money spent to acquire and maintain them – despite being informed by valuation professionals that this practice was inappropriate for a club operating as an on-going business; (ii) adding a “brand premium” despite the fact that including an internally developed intangible brand premiums is prohibited by GAAP and the Statements expressly claim to exclude brand value; (iii) estimating the anticipated income from developing and selling residential units on club property based on assuming sale prices that far exceed what the market will bear, ignoring zoning requirements, and failing to include any present value calculation to account for the time required to build and sell the units; (iv) inflating the purchase price of the clubs by claiming to have assumed debt for refundable membership deposits, despite express disclosures in the Statements that Mr. Trump attributed no value to those liabilities; and (v) inflating the value of unsold memberships, often by over one hundred thousand dollars per membership, even in situations where such memberships were being given away for free at Mr. Trump's direction to boost membership numbers.

362. The Trump Organization and Mr. Trump knew that Mar-a-Lago was subject to a host of onerous restrictions and limitations—agreed to and signed by Mr. Trump—that precluded any usage of the property as anything other than a club, precluded the property's residential subdivision, and required considerable preservation expenses, among other limitations. Despite full knowledge and awareness of those facts, the Trump Organization valued Mar-a-Lago in each year from 2011 to 2021 based on the false premise that those restrictions did not exist. For these and a host of other reasons, all of the valuations of this property were false and misleading.

363. As Mr. Trump's submission to the locality stated, the property was too expensive to be used and preserved as a private residence, that it was a "white elephant" that "was almost impossible to sell" in that form, and that it therefore needed to be converted to club usage so that its preservation could be "at the expense of a limited group of members, most of whom will be Palm Beach residents." As Mr. Trump has previously recognized, "both the U.S. Government and State of Florida deemed Mar-a-Lago unsuitable and too expensive for a retreat by government officials."

364. In the course of urging approval for usage of Mar-a-Lago as a club, Mr. Trump and his agents disparaged residential development as an option and acknowledged that local authorities had rejected a residential subdivision on the property.

365. Moreover, Mr. Trump and his agents, when seeking local approval to use Mar-a-Lago as a club, recorded an agreement with the Town of Palm Beach providing, among other things, that “[t]he use of the Land shall be for a private social club” and that “[t]he Land, as described herein, shall be considered as one (1) parcel and no portion thereof may be sold, transferred, devised or assigned except in its entirety, either voluntarily or involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise.” The agreement likewise contained onerous preservation restrictions covering “critical features” of Mar-a-Lago, a term that covered gates, walls, windows, the main house, open vistas, and even the topographical flow of the land.

366. In 1995, Mr. Trump sought to obtain an income tax benefit from donating through a conservation easement—in a document entitled Deed of Conservation and Preservation—rights similar to what he already had stated he would forego in order to gain approval to use Mar-a-Lago as a club.

367. This document, entitled “Deed of Conservation and Preservation Easement from Donald J. Trump to National Trust for Historic Preservation in the United States,” was recorded with the County of Palm Beach in April 1995 and is signed by Mr. Trump as Grantor.

368. The Mar-a-Lago Conservation Deed articulated that “many features of Mar-a-Lago, hereinafter collectively the ‘Critical Features,’” including “vistas from the Mansion,” possessed “significant architectural, historic, scenic and open space values of great importance” to Mr. Trump, Palm Beach, Florida, and the United States. “Critical Features” were defined, as in the use agreement, to include gates, walls, driveways, doors, and, among other things, “open vistas” toward the ocean and Lake Worth and the “topographical flow of the land.”

369. Under the Mar-a-Lago Conservation Deed, Mr. Trump was bound “at all times to maintain the Critical Features in substantially the form and condition” then-existing. The Mar-a-Lago Conservation Deed articulated that “additional structures on those portions of the Property not included within the Critical Features may adversely impact the architectural, historic, scenic, and open space values of the Critical Features.” Among other restrictions, the Mar-a-Lago Conservation Deed forbade destroying critical features, or constructing or erecting new buildings, within and upon such areas defined as Critical Features.

370. The Mar-a-Lago Conservation Deed also barred many actions without the approval of the National Trust for Historic Preservation. These included “the right to replace, alter, remodel, rehabilitate, enlarge, or remove, and change the appearance, materials, topography, and colors of, any of the Critical Features,” “the right to construct new permanent structures on those portions of the Property that are not attached to, a part of, or contained within the Critical Features, including but not limited to appurtenant docs or wharves, and additions thereto,” and “the right to divide or subdivide the property.” No amendment to the conservation deed was permitted that would “adversely impact the overall architectural, historic, scenic, and open space values protected by this Easement.”

371. The Conservation Deed allocated approximately 23.5% of Mar-a-Lago’s value to the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

372. In an apparent effort to further solidify the expansive reach of the Mar-a-Lago Conservation Deed, and to lower property taxes on the property, Mr. Trump signed a deed of development rights in 2002. In this deed, also publicly recorded, Mr. Trump and his affiliates conveyed (to the extent not already conveyed) to the National Trust for Historic Preservation “any and all of their rights to develop the Property for any usage other than club usage.”

373. In this 2002 deed, Mr. Trump recognized that the 1995 Mar-a-Lago Conservation Deed “limits changes to the Property including, without limitation, division or subdivision” of Mar-a-Lago “for any purpose, including use as single family homes, the interior renovation of the mansion, which may be necessary and desirable for the sale of the Property as a single family residential estate, the construction of new buildings and the obstruction of open vistas.” The deed likewise expresses Mr. Trump’s understanding that the Mar-a-Lago Conservation Deed “requires the approval of changes that would be necessary for any change in use and therefore confines the usage of the Property to club usage without the express written approval of the National Trust.” The 2002 deed articulated that “the Club and Trump intend to establish as explicitly as possible that the Preservation Easement perpetuates the club usage of the Property, consistent with the other limitations set forth in that Easement.”

374. Among other things, the net results of all these documents executed by Mr. Trump are: (1) to obtain permission to use Mar-a-Lago as a club, rather than as a “white elephant” private estate that was too expensive to maintain, he agreed to confine its usage to club usage and not to subdivide the property; (2) to obtain a tax benefit, he granted to the National Trust the right to control even minuscule changes to Mar-a-Lago; and (3) he executed and recorded deeds making unambiguous that he had signed away any right to use the property for “any usage other than club usage.”

375. Despite those restrictions—obviously known to Mr. Trump and his agents and made “as explicitly as possible” by them in the 2002 deed—the Statements of Financial Condition from 2011 to 2021 valued the property based on the false and misleading premise that it was an unrestricted residential plot of land approaching or exceeding eighteen acres in size that could be sold and used as a private home.

376. Moreover, despite restricting the property's usage to club usage, and securing lower property tax valuations based on that restricted usage, the Trump Organization on Mr. Trump's Statements did not value Mar-a-Lago as the operating business it was restricted to be—a social club—based on its financial performance. The Trump Organization never applied methods to value the property that it understood applied to other operating business, such as using NOI and capitalization rate to derive value.

377. The Trump Organization was aware such methods would have led to valuations substantially below (and nowhere close to) the false and misleading valuations the Trump Organization generated by assuming the property could be developed without regard to any of the existing onerous restrictions.

378. The Trump Organization accounting department employee who was responsible for preparing the supporting data spreadsheet for the Statements of Financial Condition from 2016 through 2021 determined that he was unable to get to the values listed by the Trump Organization in the Statements by using a valuation method based on Mar-a-Lago's financial performance.

379. In other words, valuing Mar-a-Lago as an operating business would not have supported the sky-high numbers the Trump Organization had generated using a valuation method based on a hypothetical residential development without Mar-a-Lago's restrictions—so the Trump Organization simply chose not to value the property as the operating business it was.

380. Rather than value Mar-a-Lago as a property subject to the restrictions to which Mr. Trump had personally agreed, Mr. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition from 2011 through 2021 ignore those restrictions entirely. Nowhere in the backup material are those restrictions referenced or accounted for; indeed, even the preservation obligations and expenditures are ignored.

381. Instead of accounting for those limitations, the valuations from 2011 through 2021 proceed from the false premise they do not exist. Mr. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition from 2011 through 2021 purport to value Mar-a-Lago as if it were an unrestricted home to be "sold to an individual," rather than the heavily encumbered historical landmark restricted to club usage that it was. This premise, repeated in the valuations year after year from 2011 through 2021, is false and misleading in light of the legal restrictions of which the Trump Organization and Mr. Trump himself were aware—binding the property owner to continued club usage, and to undertake expensive preservation efforts, absent approval of the National Trust for Historic Preservation overriding such obligations.

382. The valuation method, too, proceeds from another false premise: that Mar-a-Lago is a large, unrestricted residential plot of land that could be valued on a per-acre basis and sold off in that fashion, as if it could be subdivided. Reflecting that premise, the Trump Organization often used comparatively tiny (often one acre or less) residential properties and then extrapolated across all of Mar-a-Lago's acreage. But the premise that Mar-a-Lago could be valued that way conflicts with (1) the restrictions on Mar-a-Lago's usage to club usage and (2) the prohibitions on subdividing or condominiumizing Mar-a-Lago.

383. In addition, the Trump Organization's valuations never accounted for the fact that the 1995 conservation easement entailed the donation of approximately 23.5% of Mar-a-Lago's value to the National Trust for Historic Preservation. In other words, assuming away all of the other problems described above, the Trump Organization still failed to inform a reader of the Statement that Mr. Trump's ownership interest had been restricted. Nor did the final valuation reflect the reduction in value attributed to that donation.

384. Indeed, the Trump Organization accounting department employee who was responsible for preparing the supporting data spreadsheets for the Statements of Financial Condition from 2016 through 2021 did not take into account the conservation and preservation easement at Mar-a-Lago or the 2002 deed signed by Mr. Trump, which he was not even aware existed at the time he was preparing the supporting data spreadsheets.

385. The Trump Organization took other steps within the inappropriate valuation method it applied to inflate the valuations even further.

386. In most years, the Trump Organization added a 30% club-based premium to the final result. In other words, despite purporting to value the property as a home to be sold to one individual, the Trump Organization tacked on another 30% because the property was a completed club operated under the "Trump" brand – hereafter referred to as the "Brand Premium Scheme." The company did not end this undisclosed scheme for Mar-a-Lago until the 2016 Statement (issued in February 2017).

387. The Trump Organization also used a price-per-acre figure based on sales of purportedly "comparable" properties as a key component in deriving the valuations; the company would calculate an average price-per-acre based on such sales and then use that average as the figure to be multiplied by Mar-a-Lago's acreage. This price-per-acre figure also was inflated in all years from 2011 to 2021 in one or more ways.

388. In particular, the Trump Organization inflated Mar-a-Lago's reported value by falsely reducing acreage of properties compared to Mar-a-Lago. Reducing the acreage of the properties it compared to Mar-a-Lago drove the price-per-acre variable higher, and thus the reported value of Mar-a-Lago higher. For example, the 2016 Mar-a-Lago valuation relied upon a price-per-acre figure that was 120% greater than the prior year's figure. This was based on, among other things, a purportedly "comparable" property the Trump Organization described as selling for $49.9 million on 1.61 acres. But the Trump Organization's own backup (a Zillow printout) described the property in the transaction as 2.61 acres—and the Trump Organization had used that same property, with its correct acreage, years earlier. Using the false and lower 1.61 figure as the acreage instead of the actual 2.61 acreage increased the price-per-acre input from that property by more than 50%—from $19.1 million to more than $30 million. That same manipulation of the price-per-acreage figure was also repeated in the data supporting the 2017 Statement.

389. Similarly, the Trump Organization inflated the price-per-acre derived from another purportedly "comparable" property at 1695 North Ocean Way in Palm Beach for the 2016 and 2017 Statements. In both Statements, the Trump Organization computed a price-per-acre of more than $51 million—a major driver of the valuations in both years because it was far-and-away the highest price-per-acre used in the average. The $51 million figure was computed by dividing a selling price of $43.7 million by an acreage figure of 0.85. The acreage, though, was understated for both the 2016 and 2017 Mar-a-Lago valuations. Public records and press reports reflect—several months before the 2016 Statement was finalized—that the land actually transferred was approximately 2.5 acres, not 0.85 acres.

390. The 2017 Statement, too, ignored that a neighboring property at 1565 North Ocean Way was purchased and combined with 1695 North Ocean Way under common ownership before the 2017 Statement was finalized. Through that transaction, recorded on June 29, 2017, the combined properties sold for approximately $11 million per acre—$67.4 million for 6.1382 acres. Yet, for the 2017 Statement, the Trump Organization used a price-per-acre figure ($51 million) nearly five times as high to value Mar-a-Lago.

391. The Trump Organization similarly inflated price-per-acre figures in the 2018, 2019, and 2020 Mar-a-Lago valuations. The Trump Organization included as a “comparable” for the 2018 and 2019 valuations a property at 1485 S. Ocean Boulevard that sold for $41,257,000 and that the company described as 1.0 acre. But the property is approximately 2.3 acres.

392. The Trump Organization similarly falsified the price-per-acreage figure used for the 2019 and 2020 valuations involving on a property at 1295 S. Ocean Boulevard that was part of a transaction involving 4.7178 acres of oceanfront and lakefront land that sold for a total of $104.99 million (approximately $22 million per acre). Despite Mar-a-Lago consisting of lakefront, interior, and some oceanfront land, the Trump Organization segmented the more valuable 2.61-acre oceanfront component of that $104.99 million sale to generate an inflated $30 million price-per-acre figure.

393. The Trump Organization also otherwise cherrypicked sales to use as “comparables” from available data. For example, in 2019 and 2020, the Trump Organization used 60 Blossom Way—a $99.1 million, 3.5-acre sale to a buyer, who was assembling an ocean-to-lake compound. But the company ignored recent sales to the same buyer as part of the same compound with much lower price-per-acre figures. Documents confirm the Trump Organization (at least in 2020) knew that same buyer was assembling a compound, but nevertheless isolated the single sale at 60 Blossom Way to value Mar-a-Lago.

394. Another way the Trump Organization inflated Mar-a-Lago’s value was by using “asking prices” for properties rather than the much lower actual sales prices reflected in public records. For example, among the properties relied upon in 2012 were 1220 S. Ocean Boulevard and 1275 S. Ocean Boulevard. Both sold well below the asking prices used by the Trump Organization to value Mar-a-Lago in that year.

395. Sales data for properties in Palm Beach, and the acreage and square footage of those properties, is easily accessible from local authorities. The Trump Organization was aware of that fact throughout most, if not all, of the relevant time period. Despite that ready availability, no documentation reflects any consideration by the Trump Organization of sales of properties in Palm Beach other than the ones the company cherry-picked to generate high price-per-acre figures.

396. In most years, the Trump Organization also added tens of millions of dollars' worth of club-related construction and other club-related property to the Mar-a-Lago value. For example, through 2021, the Trump Organization added between $15 million and $25 million for the construction costs of the club's Grand Ballroom, beach cabanas, and a tennis pavilion and teahouse (in some cases applying a 30% premium to them). The company did so despite the property purportedly being valued as a home to be sold to an individual, based on price-per-acre figures of residential sales. And, after adding $16.8 million to the valuation for "furniture, fixtures, and equipment" ("FF&E") in 2013, with the stated reason that the single sale used to value Mar-a-Lago was a "spec house and sold without FF&E," the Trump Organization continued adding that amount (or at least more than $14 million) for FF&E after its initial reason for doing so no longer applied.

b. Trump Aberdeen

397. The value assigned to Trump Aberdeen in each year is comprised of two components: one value for the golf course and another value for the development of the non-golf course property, i.e., the "undeveloped land."

398. These components and the total value of the property in each year are set forth in the chart below:

Statement Year	Value of Golf Course	Value of Undeveloped Land	Total Value
2011	$41,000,000	$119,000,000	$160,000,000
2012	$64,703,600	$117,600,000	$182,303,600
2013	$76,715,600	$114,450,000	$191,165,600
2014	$74,169,082	$361,393,344	$435,562,426
2015	$60,570,463	$267,016,090	$327,586,553
2016	$50,679,806	$226,043,750	$276,723,556
2017	$49,691,890	$221,155,584	$270,847,474
2018	$50,832,046	$223,217,779	$274,049,825
2019	$49,460,737	$220,989,724	$270,450,461
2021	$21,012,667	$114,317,896	$135,330,563

399. Both components were derived each year using improper methods and based on facts and assumptions that were materially false and misleading, were known by Mr. Trump and others within the Trump Organization to be materially false and misleading, and which substantially inflated the valuations as described more fully below.

i. The Golf Course Valuations

400. In each year, Mr. Trump derived the value of the golf course based on his capital contributions since the inception of his ownership adjusted by a “multiplier,”<sup>4</sup> which is a fixed-assets approach, and without factoring in any depreciation – hereafter referred to as the “Fixed-Assets Scheme.” But using fixed assets to derive the market value of a golf course is contrary to industry custom and practice, as Mr. Trump himself acknowledged to the IRS in 2012 when seeking to maximize the value of a conservation easement related to another one of his golf courses in Bedminster, New Jersey.

401. In pushing back against the IRS's planned reduction to the amount of the Bedminster conservation easement, Mr. Trump's attorney argued on his behalf that the income producing capacity of the golf course – i.e., an income-based approach – was the relevant metric for a potential purchaser. As his lawyer advised the IRS: “The price at which a golf course will trade depends on the revenues that it can produce.”

402. Similarly, in an appraisal that the Trump Organization submitted to the IRS in connection with the same dispute, the appraisal firm stated that an income-based approach, or secondarily a sales-comparison approach, are the acceptable methods for valuing a golf course. The appraisal firm did not propose using a fixed-assets approach.

403. Indeed, throughout (and even before) the relevant time period, the Trump Organization was in possession of numerous appraisals of golf course properties that squarely rejected the only appraisal approach bearing any resemblance to the fixed-asset method the Trump Organization used. These appraisals, some of which the Trump Organization itself commissioned, rejected the use of a “cost approach”<sup>5</sup> as simply not what a prospective purchaser of a golf course would consider. These appraisals instead performed valuations based on the clubs' financial performance (the income approach) and sales of comparable properties (the comparable sales approach). As a Trump Organization-commissioned appraisal articulated: “The Cost Approach has no bearing on what investors would pay for a golf course in today's

<sup>5</sup> The “cost approach” factors into a value “the cost to construct the existing structure and site improvements” and “then deducts all accrued depreciation in the property being appraised from the cost of the new structure.” The Appraisal of Real Estate 335 (11th Ed. 1996). When using the “fixed assets” approach, the Trump Organization did not deduct accumulated depreciation from the fixed-asset figures that were used.

environment,” “we find major deficiencies in its application,” and “[w]e have found examples of golf courses that sold for a fraction of what they cost to build.”<sup>6</sup> The Trump Organization withheld from Mazars the fact that it possessed numerous appraisals rejecting the cost approach to value a golf course and instead using income and sales-comparison approaches, even though it was required to provide that information consistent with its obligation to provide complete and accurate information to Mazars.

404. The Trump Organization even contacted an outside consultant to advise the company on how to value golf courses and he advised that an income-based approach – using gross revenue adjusted by an appropriate multiplier – was the relevant metric for the valuation of a golf course. The Trump Organization ignored this consultant’s advice and never shared this advice with Mazars, even though it was required to do so consistent with its obligation to provide Mazars with complete and accurate information.

405. Finally, the Trump Organization has consistently relied on an income-based approach when assessing golf courses for property tax assessment purposes. For example, the Trump Organization has repeatedly relied on income figures when arguing for lower tax assessments, noting that using fixed assets “often results in a higher valuation then [sic] the income approach.”

406. Employing the Fixed-Assets Scheme rather than using an income-based approach improperly and materially inflated the value of the golf course at Trump Aberdeen.

407. The golf course opened in 2012 and the business has operated at a loss each year since then, even without considering depreciation. Because the golf course has operated at a loss each year, using values for the golf course ranging between $21 million to $76 million in the Statements from 2011 to 2021 based on employing the Fixed-Assets Scheme is materially false and misleading; the golf course should have been valued at a much lower figure.

ii. The Undeveloped Land Valuations

408. In each year from 2011 to 2021, the larger component of the valuation – and for many years by a factor of four or more – was the estimated value of developing the undeveloped land portion of Trump Aberdeen. The valuation of the undeveloped land was grossly inflated for several reasons.

409. In 2011, the valuation for Trump Aberdeen in the supporting data provided to Mazars included an estimate of the value for the undeveloped land of £75 million, or $119 million based on the then-current exchange rate, citing as the sole basis a “George Sorial email [dated] 9/6/2011.”

410. The referenced email from Mr. Sorial, Executive Vice President and Counsel at the Trump Organization, had the subject line “Forbes Magazine” and contained a quote Mr. Sorial provided to an accountant in Scotland who was then expected to pass the information on to Forbes Magazine. The quote stated: “Although a formal appraisal has not been prepared at this point, after speaking with specialists in the field and having closely watched this development transform itself over the last five years, we are informed that the value for the residential/hotel land parcels could achieve a value in excess of 75 million [British pounds sterling].”

411. Accordingly, the value of the undeveloped land at the property used for Mr. Trump’s 2011 Statement was based on nothing more than an unsubstantiated quote prepared by a Trump Organization employee for Forbes Magazine.

412. Mr. Sorial's 2011 Forbes Magazine quote also served as the sole basis for the Trump Organization's 2012 and 2013 valuations for the undeveloped land at Trump Aberdeen of $117.6 million and $114.45 million, respectively, based on valuing £75 million at the then-current exchange rate.

413. For the 2014 Statement, the Trump Organization no longer relied on Mr. Sorial's Forbes Magazine quote and instead assumed that 2,500 homes could be built on the property and sold at £83,000 pounds per home. This more than tripled the value of the undeveloped land from the prior year, to approximately $361.4 million.

414. The price per home of £83,000 was taken from an email with an appraiser at the firm Ryden LLP, who provided a list of land sales that he stated "may not be particularly comparable for your site." The Trump valuation does not make any adjustment to the list of sales to account for site differences and does not include an allowance for affordable housing or affordable housing payments as required by the Scottish Government. Nor did the valuation account for the time it would take to secure any needed approvals, develop the property, and market the property.

415. In addition to these misleading elements, there was no factual basis for assuming that 2,500 homes could be built and sold.

416. The 2014 Statement of Financial Condition reports that the Trump Organization "received outline planning permission in December 2008 for . . . a residential village consisting of 950 holiday homes and 500 single family residences and 36 golf villas." This is a total of 1,486 homes, not 2,500 homes.

417. Moreover, in deriving the value for the 2014 Statement, the Trump Organization assumed all of the homes would have the same value. This ignores the fact that, as the Statement notes, 950 of the homes were to be “holiday homes” and 36 were to be “golf villas.” Such properties—under the terms governing Trump Aberdeen—would be rental properties that could be rented for no more than six weeks at a time, a restriction that would significantly lower their value.

418. Indeed, according to material the Trump Organization submitted to the Scottish Government, the holiday homes and golf villas would not be profitable and therefore would not add value to the project. At the inception of the project in 2007, economic impact assessments commissioned by the Trump Organization found that for the holiday homes alone, without the private residential component, the net present value of the project ranged from negative £34 million to positive £21 million. So in addition to calculating a value for the undeveloped land based on 2,500 homes rather than the 1,486 homes actually approved, the Trump Organization falsely valued the 986 rental properties (holiday homes and golf villas) as if they were private residences to be sold.

419. This strategy of using unrealistically high prices to estimate the profit from a future residential development that ignored zoning requirements and failed to include any cash flow analysis to compute the present value of future income – hereafter referred to as the “Inflated Home Sale Scheme” –vastly overstated the value of the undeveloped land at Trump Aberdeen.

420. From 2015 through 2018, the valuation of the undeveloped land at Trump Aberdeen relied on the same Inflated Home Sale Scheme as 2014.

421. As a result, the Statements of Financial Condition in years 2014 to 2018 inflated the value of the undeveloped property in a material way. Indeed, simply adjusting the valuations to correct for using 2,500 private homes rather than the 500 private homes actually approved, keeping all other variables constant, results in a reduction in the valuation of the undeveloped land component of Trump Aberdeen of more than $175 million in each year.

422. In May 2018, the Trump Organization applied to the Aberdeen City Council to reduce the scope of the development project to 550 dwellings. The new proposal was to build 500 private residences, 50 cottages, and no holiday homes because the company determined the holiday homes were not economically viable.

423. In September 2019, the Aberdeen City Council approved the Trump Organization's reduced proposal to build only 550 dwellings, consisting of 500 private residences and 50 cottages.

424. Nevertheless, the 2019 Statement, finalized a month later in October 2019, continued to employ the Inflated Home Sale Scheme, deriving a value of just under $221 million for the undeveloped land based on 2,035 private homes, so fewer than the 2,500 homes assumed in prior years but still far more than the number of homes the City Council had just approved.

425. The 2020 and 2021 Statements derived much lower values of $101 million and $114 million, respectively, for the undeveloped land based on 1,200 homes, still more than twice the number of homes the City Council had approved in 2019.

426. As in prior years, the 2019 to 2021 valuations employed the Inflated Home Sale Scheme.

427. Moreover, the Trump Organization's decision to employ the Inflated Home Sale Scheme during the period 2011 through 2017, and more specifically to fail to conduct any cash flow analysis, was particularly egregious in light of Mr. Trump's decision during this entire period to indefinitely postpone all development plans on the property due to the Scottish Government's approval of a proposed wind farm in Aberdeen Bay that would be visible from the property. As he confirmed in testimony to the Scottish Government in April 2012, Mr. Trump determined that he “cannot proceed with [the development] if the hotel is going to be looking at industrial turbines, and no one here would do so if they were in my position.”

428. The Trump Organization confirmed in a public, audited financial statement shortly before finalizing Mr. Trump’s 2014 Statement that it did not intend any residential development on the property for the foreseeable future. Specifically, in the audited “Director’s report and financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2013,” submitted to a UK regulator and signed by Mr. Weisselberg on September 29, 2014, the Trump Organization wrote: “the hotel, second golf course, and future phases of the project have been postponed until such time that the Scottish Government and regional Councils have reversed their stance on supporting the wind farm development being considered for Aberdeen Bay.”

429. The Trump Organization also sought to challenge the Scottish Government’s approval of the wind farm through litigation. Shortly after the Scottish Government approved the Aberdeen Bay wind farm in March 2013, the Trump Organization commenced a lawsuit against the Scottish Government to halt the project. The lower court rejected the suit in February 2014, which was upheld on appeal to the Scottish Court of Session (2015 CSIH 46) and, in December 2015, by the UK Supreme Court (2015 UKSC 74).

430. The wind farm was completed and began producing electricity by mid-2018.

431. After losing the court battle in 2015 to halt the wind farm, and without reversing his position that development would be indefinitely postponed because of the wind farm, Mr. Trump continued to attribute an inflated value ranging between $267 million and $221 million to the undeveloped land for the years 2015 through 2017.

432. Between 2011, when Mr. Trump decided to indefinitely postpone development due to the planned wind farm, and 2018, when he apparently reversed his position and applied for a reduced development of only 550 homes, neither Mr. Trump nor the Trump Organization factored into the valuation the indefinite postponement of any development plans, whether to account for the potential lack of any development at all or at least the delay in when homes could be built and sold should the “indefinite postponement” be lifted.

c. Trump Turnberry

433. In 2014, through the entity Golf Recreation Scotland Ltd, the Trump Organization purchased the hotel and golf course known as Trump Turnberry for approximately $60 million. The golf club had its first full year of operations in 2017.

434. From 2017 through 2021, the Trump Organization employed the Fixed-Assets Scheme to value the club, combining its “initial investment” of £41,667,000 with various “additions” over time to derive values ranging between $123 million to $126.8 million.

435. Consistent with the improper use of the Fixed-Assets Scheme for other clubs, the Trump Organization did not factor in any depreciation of the assets, with the exception of the 2021 Statement; in that year, for the first time, the Trump Organization included “Estimated depreciation from 1/1/15 to 6/30/21” of $16,309,538 – an implicit acknowledgement that ignoring depreciation in prior years was improper.

436. Since opening in 2017, the golf course has operated at a loss each year. As a result using values for the golf course ranging between $123 million and $126.8 million based on employing the Fixed Asset Scheme is materially false and misleading; the golf course should have been valued at a much lower figure.

d. TNGC Jupiter

437. In November 2012, the Trump Organization, through the entity Jupiter Golf Club LLC, purchased TNGC Jupiter for $5 million in cash. Less than a year later, Mr. Trump valued the same property at $62 million on the 2013 Statement of Financial Condition. That inflation represented a markup of 1,100%. Indeed, for every year from 2013 to 2020, virtually all of the value attributed to Jupiter was fraudulently overstated due to several deceptive methods and assumptions.

438. The primary means of overstating the value of TNGC Jupiter was to fraudulently inflate the acquisition cost of the club and use that inflated figure as the key component in the valuation when employing the Fixed-Assets Scheme. But anyone reading the disclosures in the Statements through 2019 would not know that the club was valued using fixed assets because there was no mention in the Statement disclosures about factoring in the purchase price of the club.

439. As part of the purchase of the club, the Trump Organization assumed liability for the refundable membership deposits of the club's members. Those deposits had a face value of $41 million. The Trump Organization treated that $41 million as if it was debt that it purchased with the club, which it then deemed to increase the total purchase price to more than $46 million – hereafter referred to as the “Membership Deposit Scheme.”

440. But the Trump Organization was not assuming an immediate $41 million of liability. The terms of the “refundable” membership agreements for the club provided that only those members who remain in good standing for 30 years are eligible to obtain a full refund of their membership deposits. Therefore, the liabilities for “refundable” memberships would need to be paid out only decades in the future, if at all.

441. Under the applicable GAAP rules, the Trump Organization was required to determine the present value of the liabilities it assumed, not just the total cash value of payouts decades into the future.

442. While the Trump Organization did not prepare such a present value assessment, the seller of the property, Ritz-Carlton, did. The seller retained the National Golf and Resort Properties Group of Marcus & Millichap, a leading real estate advisory and valuation firm, to prepare a “Market Positioning and Price Analysis” for the club as-of June 15, 2012 – five months before the sale closed. That analysis included a calculation of the present value of the membership liabilities, which reached a “conservative” assessment valuing them at $2,158,341 – far below the $41 million value used by the Trump Organization to inflate the purchase price of the club under the Fixed-Assets Scheme.

443. The Trump Organization obtained and utilized a copy of Ritz-Carlton’s analysis in seeking a potential reduction in its local property taxes. However, the Trump Organization ignored the analysis and chose for each year from 2013 through 2020 not to utilize the net present value of the membership liabilities in calculating the purchase price of the club for purposes of the Statements. Instead, the Trump Organization employed the Membership Deposit Scheme, falsely assuming the full cash value of the refundable memberships was a liability acquired as part of the sale that should be included in the purchase price.

444. And remarkably, the company did this even though Mr. Trump valued his liability for the membership deposits to be zero. For example, the 2013 Statement explains: “The fact that Mr. Trump will have the use of these [membership deposit] funds . . . without cost and that the source of repayment will most likely be a replacement membership has led him to value this liability at zero.”

445. Additionally, the Trump Organization overstated the value of TNGC Jupiter by employing the Brand Premium Scheme, adding for the “Trump brand” an additional 30% from 2011 through 2014 and 15% from 2015 through 2020—even though the Statements disclaimed that any of the valuations included a brand premium.

446. Finally, the Trump Organization included in the value in nearly all years the outstanding receivables from members for food and dues. This is not consistent with any recognized valuation technique, much less a calculation based on a fixed-asset approach.

e. TNGC Briarcliff

447. Based on the supporting data, the value for TNGC Briarcliff in each year is comprised of two components: the value for the golf course and the value for the development of the undeveloped land.

448. These components and the total value of the property in each year are set forth in the chart below:

Statement Year	Value of Golf Course	Value of Undeveloped Land	Total Value
2011	$43,603,300	$25,100,000	$68,703,300
2012	$74,407,000	$25,100,000	$99,507,000
2013	$74,514,000	$101,748,600	$176,262,600
2014	$75,132,941	$101,748,600	$176,881,541
2015	$74,745,190	$101,748,600	$176,493,790
2016	$75,949,132	$101,748,600	$177,697,732
2017	$77,435,891	$101,748,600	$179,184,491
2018	$78,310,201	$101,748,600	$180,058,801
2019	$78,104,818	$105,561,050	$183,665,868
2021	$37,058,718	$86,498,800	$123,557,518

449. Both components were derived each year using improper methods and based on facts and assumptions that were materially false and misleading, and known by Mr. Trump and others within the Trump Organization to be materially false and misleading, and which substantially inflated the valuations as described more fully below.

450. In each year, except 2011, Mr. Trump derived the value of the golf course based on employing the Fixed-Assets Scheme.

451. In 2011, the supporting data reflects that the golf course was valued at $43,603,300. That amount included estimated initiation fees for 67 unsold memberships totaling $12,775,000. Although the supporting data spreadsheet states that the club was currently “getting $150,000” in initiation fees per membership, the Trump Organization derived the $12,775,000 figure by assigning a much higher value for the initiation fees of 47 of the 67 unsold memberships, in many instances as high as $250,000. Instances in which the Trump Organization used unsold memberships at prices far higher than their own internal records reflect, without performing a discounted cash flow analysis on future revenue, is hereinafter referred to as the “Unsold Memberships Scheme.”

452. Valuing more than two-thirds of the unsold memberships as worth materially more than $150,000 each was without any basis and improperly inflated the amount of the golf course value. Indeed, according to membership records, even the representation that the club was “getting $150,000” per membership for initiation fees in 2011 was false; records indicate that many members paid no initiation fee for their memberships at all in 2011 and 2010.

453. In addition, as part of the Unsold Membership Scheme, the Trump Organization failed to take into account how long it would take to sell the memberships at the inflated prices reflected in the supporting data. Mr. Trump knew this was improper because when he filed a protest with the IRS regarding a conservation easement for his golf course in Bedminster, New Jersey, his attorney argued on his behalf that golf course revenue in a valuation should be subject to a discounted cash flow analysis.

454. In March 2012, Mr. Trump instructed his staff to waive the initiation fee for new members at TNGC Briarcliff as part of a new strategy to bring in 75 new members in order to increase revenue for the club. As a result of this instruction, and as confirmed by membership records, no new members paid an initiation fee in 2012.

455. But Mr. Trump's decision to waive initiation fees in order to increase membership would have resulted in a sharp reduction in the valuation of the club based on the prior year's approach of valuing the unsold memberships based on collecting hefty initiation fees. To avoid this result, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization abandoned the Unsold Membership Scheme, ignored the unsold memberships, and instead employed the Fixed-Assets Scheme to value the golf course – a change in method that was not disclosed in violation of GAAP rules.

456. Under the Fixed-Assets Scheme, the golf course was valued at $71,200,000 in the 2012 Statement, an increase of approximately $30 million in the total valuation of TNGC Briarcliff from 2011 to 2012.

457. Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization continued to employ the Fixed-Assets Scheme for the 2013 to 2020 Statements, which resulted in values ranging from $74.5 million to $79 million for the club component of the valuation.

458. In 2021, The Trump Organization made a slight modification to the Fixed-Assets Scheme by averaging the fixed assets figure with the gross revenue times a multiplier, purportedly based on the advice of the same outside consultant whose advice the company had previously ignored and who said nothing about averaging gross revenue and fixed assets.

459. This modification to the Fixed-Assets Scheme resulted in an increase in value of about $12 million.

460. Finally, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization knew that employing the Fixed-Assets Scheme specifically for TNGC Briarcliff was improper and derived grossly inflated valuations based on the appraisal the Trump Organization had Cushman prepare for purposes of valuing a conservation easement for TNGC Briarcliff to obtain a tax deduction. In the appraisal report, issued in April 2014, Cushman used two approaches to value the golf course – looking at comparable sales and the property’s income-producing capabilities. Cushman did not use a fixed-asset approach.

461. Under both approaches, the report determined the value of the golf club as of April 2014 was $16.5 million, less than one-fourth the golf club value used for the Statements from 2012 through 2020 and less than half the golf club value used for the Statements in 2011 and 2021.

ii. The Undeveloped Land Valuations

462. In each year from 2011 to 2021, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization separately derived a value for the undeveloped land at TNGC Briarcliff by employing the Inflated Home Sale Scheme based on estimating the value of building and selling mid-rise apartment units. For 2013 to 2021, the estimates for the undeveloped land comprised the larger component of the valuation of the entire property.

463. In 2011 and 2012, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization derived a value of $25,100,000 for the expected profit from the sale of 31 mid-rise units, or $809,677 per unit. The supporting data fails to provide any detail on basis for this estimate.

464. From 2013 to 2018, the value of the undeveloped land quadrupled, to $101,748,600. This dramatic increase was accomplished by adding 40 more units to the estimate (for a total of 71 units) and increasing the profit per unit by 76%, to $1.433 million.

465. Based on the supporting data, the only source for the increase in the number of units and profit per unit were telephone conversations with Eric Trump.

466. From 2019 to 2021, the value of the undeveloped land fluctuated between $105.5 million and $86.5 million while still estimating the expected profit from the sale of 71 units.

467. Moreover, the supporting data confirms that during the entire period, from 2011 to 2021, the development plans remained “on hold,” yet there is no indication in any of the supporting data that Mr. Trump or the Trump Organization performed a discounted cash flow analysis to account for the delay due to putting the development plans “on hold.”

468. Finally, Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization knew the estimated profits from the sale of the mid-rise units they were using for the Statements were wildly inflated based on a 2013 preliminary valuation of about $45 million and an April 2014 Cushman appraisal. That appraisal valued the undeveloped land at $43.3 million, about $58 million less than the value they used for the undeveloped land in the 2013 to 2018 Statements. Eric Trump, the specific source of the valuation during this period had access to the lower appraisal number from Cushman prior to the issuance of each Statement from 2013 to 2018.

f. TNGC LA

469. The value assigned to TNGC LA in each year is comprised of two components: one value for the golf course and another value for the development of the undeveloped land.

470. These components and the total value of the property in each year are set forth in the chart below:

Year	Value of Golf Course	Value of Undeveloped Land	Total Value
2011	$23,800,000	$310,300,000	$334,100,000
2012	$23,800,000	$283,250,000	$307,050,000
2013	$73,505,900	$152,000,000	$225,505,900
2014	$74,300,642	$139,390,000	$213,690,642
2015	$56,615,895	$84,095,000	$140,710,895
2016	$52,426,829	$82,485,000	$134,911,829
2017	$52,670,127	$69,200,000	$121,870,127
2018	$51,322,079	$62,075,000	$113,397,079
2019	$54,734,733	$62,260,000	$116,994,733
2020	$54,734,733	$52,975,655	$107,710,388
2021	$28,446,251	$63,663,391	$92,109,642

471. Both components were derived each year using improper methods and based on facts and assumptions that were materially false and misleading, were known by Mr. Trump and others within the Trump Organization to be materially false and misleading, and which substantially inflated the valuations as described more fully below.

472. In 2011 and 2012, the Trump Organization valued the golf course at TNGC LA at $23.8 million based on the original loan and improvements.

473. Starting in 2013 and continuing through 2020, and without any disclosure of the change in methodology in violation of GAAP rules, the Trump Organization employed the Fixed-Assets Scheme to value the golf club component of TNGC LA. During this period, the company also added 30% to the value in 2013 and 2014 and 15% to the value in 2015 through 2020 under the Brand Premium Scheme.

474. In 2021, the company modified its fixed-assets approach, again without the required disclosure of a change in methodology, and derived the golf course value by averaging gross revenue times a multiplier and the value derived by the Fixed-Assets Scheme (but using “Net Fixed Assets” which factored in depreciation rather than just “Fixed Assets” without any depreciation as in prior years); this modification was purportedly based on advice of “golf course industry experts” Marcus & Millichap, despite receiving prior advice from that firm that using a fixed-assets approach for an operating golf course was improper. The use of a net figure for fixed assets that factors in depreciation is an implicit acknowledgement that ignoring depreciation in prior years was improper.

475. In every year from 2011 to 2020, the golf course has operated with a net income that barely reached the low seven figures, often at $1.5 million or lower, and in some cases lower than $1 million. As a result, using values for the golf course ranging between $23.8 million to $74.3 million in the Statements from 2011 to 2021 based on employing the Fixed-Assets Scheme, coupled with the Brand Premium Scheme starting in 2013 that tacked on an additional 30% or 15% in all years except 2021, is materially false and misleading; the golf course should have been valued at a much lower figure.

ii. The Undeveloped Land Valuations

476. Throughout the period 2011 to 2021, the TNGC LA valuation incorporated an inflated value for a substantial number of potential lots for sale in the areas around the golf course using the Inflated Home Sale Scheme.

477. TNGC LA was originally known as Ocean Trails Golf Club. Construction on the course started in 1997 and by June 1999, the golf course was almost complete—until a landslide dropped 300 yards of the 18th hole fairway into the Pacific Ocean. The landslide also caused most of the 18th hole to slide 50 feet toward the ocean, including the fairway and green.

Development on the property ceased after the landslide and the Ocean Trails Golf Course construction project went into bankruptcy. VH Property Corp., a Trump Organization subsidiary, acquired the property out of bankruptcy in November 2002 for a reported price of $27 million.

478. Given the site's instability, the landslide, and the site's proximity to the Pacific Coast, the Trump Organization needed approval from the City of Rancho Palos Verdes to develop the site. The Trump Organization's geologist worked with a Rancho Palos Verdes geologist to develop a geologic model and reach an understanding of any improvements necessary before the site could be further developed. This presented a particular hurdle for 16 planned lots on the driving range and putting green. In June 2011, the Trump Organization's geologist produced a report stating that 104 "shear pins," stabilizing implements drilled into the ground to provide engineering stability, would be required to develop the lots safely.

479. Given these difficulties in developing the lots, the Trump Organization began to consider another option: donating a conservation easement over the 16 proposed lots that would preclude any development but allow continued use of the area as a driving range and putting green.

480. Nevertheless, for the purposes of the Statement of Financial Condition, the Trump Organization valued the property as if there were no practical limitations on the development of the lots, in addition to assigning inflated values to each of those lots. For example, the 2011 valuation of $334 million had two components: the $23.8 million valuation of the clubhouse (which the valuation attributed to the value of a loan plus improvements) and the putative sales price of 70 housing lots valued at $310.3 million, which incorporated two lots that had been "priced out" at $8.8 million together, another $7.15 million lot under contract, and 67 remaining lots priced at an "average price" of $4.5 million. The valuation, which provides no source for this average price, noted that “[a]lthough 17 lots have been used for a driving range, we can still convert the lots back to housing.” The driving range lots would later be the subject of the Trump Organization’s conservation easement in 2014.

481. The 2012 valuation of $307 million took a similar approach. For this year, 12 lots were listed as priced out at a total of $35,750,000 at an average of roughly $3 million per lot. These included two of the lots that had been previously listed as “priced out” at an average of $4.4 million per lot in 2011. Despite the lower lot prices for these two lots, the 2012 valuation retained the $4.5 million average price per lot for the remaining 55 lots, and the clubhouse remained valued at $23.8 million.

482. But this valuation was contradicted by advice the Trump Organization received from “outside professionals,” specifically appraisers from Cushman asked to conduct a preliminary valuation to aid consideration of a potential easement donation over the driving range property.

483. After the issuance of the 2012 Statement, Trump Organization outside tax counsel Sheri Dillon engaged Cushman appraisers Richard Zbranek and Brian Curry to put a value on the potential easement donation. Ms. Dillon also hired an engineer to work on the project. The Cushman appraisers were to provide “initial valuation conclusions” for 16 lots on the TNGC LA driving range. This initial evaluation would not involve a formal written report or assess value enhancement for the full Trump-owned parcel. If this valuation met with the Trump Organization’s approval, the appraisers would then move on to provide a valuation suitable for supporting a charitable donation.

484. The Trump Organization, through Bingham McCutchen LLP (Ms. Dillon's law firm at the time), conveyed to the appraisers that it believed the lots might be worth a total of $40 or $50 million.

485. In December 2012, Cushman, relying on costs and other information prepared by an engineer (also retained by Dillon and Bingham), reached a preliminary value conclusion for the development potential of the lots of only $17,725,000. As Mr. Curry described it to Mr. Zbranek, "They did paper napkin analysis and suggested 40 to 50 million dollars. I sent them my analyses, we walked through the whole thing, and they couldn't argue with it. More like. 'Oh'."

486. After this preliminary valuation, the Trump Organization put the conservation easement project on hold and did not pursue it further in 2012 or 2013.

487. While the 2013 Statement did not adopt the Cushman price estimate, it nevertheless reflected a decrease in the valuation of the development of the lots from $247.5 million in 2012 to $152 million in 2013. The drop was due to lower average sales prices: for the 11 lots priced out in 2013, the sales price was a mere $22 million, or an average of $2 million a lot. Three additional lots were under contract for a total of $4.65 million, or $1.55 million each. Given these lower prices, the company based the estimate for the remaining lots on an average sales price of $2.5 million—instead of $4.5 million—significantly reducing the calculated value of those 52 lots. But this valuation was still massively inflated over the price assessment the Trump Organization received from Cushman, which valued the 16 lots on the driving range at only $17,725,000 (or roughly $1.1 million per lot after accounting for development time).

488. To reach a total valuation of $225 million in 2013, the Trump Organization had to change its approach to valuing the golf club by utilizing the Brand Premium Scheme, without disclosing the change in the Statement in violation of GAAP rules. Instead of imputing a value from the amount of a loan plus improvements as it had in previous years, in 2013 the Trump Organization identified the book value of the club as $56,543,000 and added a “Premium for fully operational branded facility @ 30%” of $16,962,900, to reach a $73.5 million valuation—creating an almost a $50 million increase in the valuation of the golf club. This significant increase in the golf club valuation masked the decrease in the value of the housing lots.

489. The 2014 valuation of $213 million continued this approach. The club “appreciated” slightly to $74,300,642 with the 30% brand premium, 24 units were “priced out” at $41,890,000 (an average of about $1.75 million), and the 39 remaining lots were listed at an estimated $2.5 million ($97,500,000 total).

490. This valuation, however, was undermined when the Trump Organization also decided to pursue the easement donation over the driving range property after all and began the process of obtaining the necessary formal appraisal to support the donation. By August 2014, Trump tax counsel Sheri Dillon had engaged Cushman appraisers Brian Curry and Richard Zbranek to value the TNGC LA property in 2014 for purposes of donating a conservation easement over 16 lots that comprised the driving range. On October 16, 2014, Mr. Curry reached a preliminary valuation for the property of “around $27 to $28MM for the driving range property.” Given the 16 lots at issue in this valuation, Mr. Curry’s estimate put the value of each lot at $1,687,500 to $1,750,000—much lower than the $2.5 million used by the Trump Organization. The next day, Eric Trump authorized Ms. Dillon to obtain a formal appraisal of the driving range property.

491. During the process of preparing that appraisal, Mr. Trump personally pushed to increase the value of the parcel, arguing that lots were in a “more prestigious” zip code than other lots on the property and could thus command a “‘zip code’ premium.” Mr. Curry asked Ms.

Dillon to confirm whether the lots were in a different zip code. Trump Organization in-house counsel concluded they were not.

492. But even those preliminary numbers were significantly inflated. Indeed, when Cushman appraisers began to prepare a formal appraisal, they lowered the value of the driving range property down to as little as $20.5 million. They then realized that the engineer concluded that costs associated with developing the lots had been “underestimated,” which would have lowered the value even further. The engineer in fact subsequently submitted substantially increased cost estimates on December 10. But during in the process of finalizing the appraisal, Ms. Dillion and the Trump Organization pushed Cushman to increase the appraised value of the driving range parcel, which in turn would increase the value of the easement donation. At one point Mr. Curry wrote to Mr. Zbranek that “Trump is fighting for every $1.”

493. Ultimately the appraisal submitted to the Internal Revenue Service valued the donation at $25 million. But the appraisers only reached this valuation by fraudulently manipulating the valuation. Among other things, the appraisers:

- a. Failed to use the final engineering report prepared by the engineer retained to assess the costs of developing the lot. Instead of using the final report which would have raised the cost of developing the lot and hence decreased the value of the donation, the appraisers used a draft report with lower costs and incorporated an unsupported development timeline.
- b. Failed to account for a cost savings to the Trump Organization from the donation. By giving away development rights for the driving range property, the Trump Organization avoided an obligation to build two affordable housing units.
- c. At the last moment, cut by one-third the value to the golf course of having a driving range available to golfers. By dropping the benefit of retaining the driving range from $1.5 million to $1 million, the appraisers inflated the value of the donation by $500,000.

494. In January 2015, the donation of the easement to the Palos Verdes Peninsula Land Conservancy was publicly disclosed. Ms. Dillion advised against the press conference for a host of reasons, including a desire to avoid drawing undue scrutiny to the transaction. On January 14, 2015, she wrote to an in-house lawyer at the Trump Organization: “Remind him that the larger the value and the more he makes of it, then he is telling the world how large a tax deduction he is taking for it. In this case, this is tantamount to the US taxpayers paying Donald Trump to keep his driving range and use it for exactly what he is already using it for - and some could argue that as long as he is operating the golf course, he would continue to keep the driving range - effectively, the US taxpayers are paying him to do what he would already do anyway, and perhaps this isn’t the best use of taxpayer dollars. Bottom line - the more publicity this gets, the more we invite scrutiny. This may cause renewed interest in the issue.”

495. Mr. Trump nevertheless decided to hold a press conference at TNGC LA to announce the donation. Mr. Trump explained: “It’s something I’ve been thinking about for a year, maybe a little longer than a year, and I decided to pull the trigger and do it,” adding that giving up entitlements to develop the land “was not an easy thing to do” because it is valued at “much more than $25 million.”

496. Having publicly disclosed the donation, in 2015, the Trump Organization adjusted its valuation—partially—to conform to the appraisal that Cushman prepared in connection with Mr. Trump’s donation of a conservation easement over the driving range. The valuation acknowledged that 16 donated lots could no longer be built after the donation. It purported to value 23 remaining lots at a value reached in the appraisal, $50,450,000 (about $2.2 million per lot). Unlike the appraisal, however, the Trump Organization failed to discount that value back to present value.

497. Adopting some of the figures from the appraisal superficially conformed with the valuation provided by Cushman. However, the Trump valuation assumed that the lots would be developed promptly even though the Trump Organization had no intent to develop the lots, and disregarded the discounted cash flow analysis Cushman performed. And, in fact, as depicted below, the lots remain cleared of vegetation but bare of development today.

498. As for the golf course component of the TNGC LA valuation, in 2015, after a shift from the previous 30% brand premium to a 15% brand premium—in accordance with the Trump Organization’s change in valuation for the other clubs that year but contrary to the disclosure in the Statement that no brand value was included—the value was reduced to $56,615,895.

499. But even this reduced valuation was still higher than the (inflated) valuation reached by the Cushman appraisers for purposes of the tax deduction. The appraisal prepared by

Mr. Zbranek and Mr. Curry reached a valuation of the golf club using “direct capitalization” and sales comparison approaches. Their analysis placed the property’s value at a mere $16 million—less than 30% of the value on Mr. Trump’s Statement.

500. From 2016 through 2018, the Trump Organization continued the same approach to valuation it used in 2015: superficially purporting to use the valuation reached by Cushman to value the 23 lots it never developed, adopting inflated estimates for other unsold lots, failing to use the Cushman appraisal’s valuation of the golf course itself, and applying an undisclosed brand premium that inflated the value of the golf club.

501. For 2019 and 2020, the Trump Organization used a similar approach. In 2019 and 2020, the Trump Organization adopted values purportedly “from a 3rd party real estate agent” rather than the Cushman appraisal or their internal sales records regarding sales prices at the site. And the Trump Organization did not do a discounted cash flow analysis that would have accounted for the time it would take to develop the site and sell the lots. Moreover, far from receiving updated pricing “from a 3rd party real estate agent,” as the supporting data spreadsheets indicate, 2020 backup information indicates the “pricing” came from within the Trump Organization, from a person at Trump International Realty with a trumporg.com email address.

502. In 2021, the Trump Organization continued the same approach of adopting inflated estimates for unsold lots, relying this time on “2021 pricing from [Trump International Realty] and updated internal costs” to reach a higher value still of $63,663,391, or about $2.77 million per lot – again without performing a discounted cash flow analysis to account for development and sales time. The 2021 pricing schedule appears to be in the same form as the 2019 and 2020 schedules, indicating had been false to state that those schedules ever came from a third party agent.

g. TNGC Colts Neck

503. In July 2008, the Trump Organization, through the entity Trump National Golf Club Colts Neck LLC, purchased TNGC Colts Neck for $28 million.

504. The valuations of TNGC Colts Neck on the Statements of Financial Condition from 2011 to 2020 were false and misleading in ways that mirror the valuations of other club facilities.

505. The 2011 Statement of Financial Condition valuation of TNGC Colts Neck was infected by false and misleading statements in the supporting data and the Statement itself.

506. The valuation in this year had two essential components: (1) purchase price and improvements of the clubhouse, and (2) the purported value of unsold memberships. These figures were both false and misleading in important respects.

507. As for the purchase price of the clubhouse and improvements, those figures were inflated by employing the Membership Deposit Scheme.

508. As for the unsold memberships, the Trump Organization employed the Unsold Membership Scheme, pricing the vast majority of unsold membership at two to more than three times the then-current $50,000 price of a membership and failing to account for the considerable time it would take to sell those memberships, which would require a cash flow analysis applying a discount rate to bring the projected income to present value.

509. Nor is there any evidence to suggest that the membership prices and figures reflected in the supporting data were bona fide projections of membership revenue. Indeed, in the entire 2010 calendar year, the Trump Organization collected $419,667 in initiation fees at TNGC Colts Neck. At the price listed in the supporting data that would mean about 8 members joined the club—not the 25 stated to pay $50,000 or the 177 stated to pay higher amounts. And, in July 2011, the Trump Organization established a promotional program where they waived initiation fees for any member who joined for a minimum of three years. In 2011, the Trump Organization collected less than $300,000 in initiation fees from TNGC Colts Neck.

510. Beginning in 2012, the Trump Organization shifted to employing the Fixed-Assets Scheme, the Membership Deposit Scheme, and starting in 2013, the Brand Premium Scheme to inflate the valuation, without disclosing the change in violation of GAAP rules.

511. Specifically for the membership deposits, despite advising recipients of the Statements that these were worthless liabilities, the Trump Organization included their full face value ($11.7 million) to inflate the purchase price of the club to approximately $40 million from 2012 to 2021.

512. On top of that inflated purchase price, the Trump Organization from 2013 to 2020 added a brand premium, even though the Statements represented that no amount was included for the Trump brand. Adding a brand premium not only conflicted with the description in the Statements, but violated the GAAP rule requiring that brand premium be excluded.

513. In 2021 the Trump Organization switched to valuing the club based on 10 times earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization or “EBITDA,” per the advice of the outside golf consultant they had ignored in earlier years. The resulting valuation of $27,583,948 is about half of the valuation from 2020 of $55,191,322.

514. Therefore, when valued based on an income approach after thirteen years of ownership and capital expenditures by Mr. Trump, TNGC Colts Neck is worth less than the original $28 million purchase price absent membership deposits paid in 2008.

h. TNGC Philadelphia

515. Through an entity called TNGC Pine Hill LLC, Mr. Trump purchased a ground lease interest in TNGC Philadelphia located in Pine Hill, NJ, for a purchase price of $4,750,000 in 2009.

516. The Statements of Financial Condition from 2011 to 2021 do not disclose that Mr. Trump owns a leasehold interest for TNGC Philadelphia. Instead, the Statements misleadingly suggest that Mr. Trump holds a fee simple interest, and value the club either by employing the Unsold Memberships Scheme or by employing the Fixed-Assets Scheme. This was false and misleading for a number of reasons.

517. First, each of the Statements from 2011 to 2013 indicated that TNGC Philadelphia was valued based on “an assessment of the cash flow that is expected to be derived from club operations.” This was false and misleading for a number of reasons, including because the Fixed-Assets Scheme does not consider cash flow from operations.

518. Second, the supporting data for the years 2011 through 2020 confirms that the Trump Organization did not account for ground lease expenses when computing valuations of the property. The valuations failed to include rent payments required under the terms of the ground lease or account for the fact that the ground lease agreement requires consent of the landlord in order for Mr. Trump to transfer his leasehold interest to non-related parties.

519. Third, the Trump Organization employed the Unsold Membership Scheme in 2011 and 2012. For example, in 2011 the listed initiation fee was only $10,000, but the company valued all of the unsold memberships at prices ranging between $15,000 and $35,000. And in 2012 the unsold memberships were valued at prices ranging between $15,000 to $30,000. In reality, Trump Organization records showed that most initiation fees were waived for new members of TNGC Philadelphia from 2010 to 2013.

520. Fourth, the Trump Organization employed the Membership Deposit Scheme, including as part of the purchase price the full face value of refundable membership deposits of $953,237 despite declaring in the Statements that the liability for the membership deposits was zero dollars.

521. At the very least, in accordance with GAAP, the Trump Organization should have used the present value of the liability Mr. Trump assumed for the membership deposits. According to the Trump Organization's internal analysis, the first repayment of a deposit for TNGC Philadelphia was not expected until 2027 and the present value of the obligations would be less than one-third of the "actual" or nominal dollar value.

522. Fifth, from 2013 to 2020, the Trump Organization employed the Brand Premium Scheme, even though the Statements disclaimed adding brand value and GAAP rules prohibit such premiums.

523. In 2021 the club was valued using the average of net fixed assets and gross revenue times a multiplier. This led to a reduction in value of almost $10 million from 2020.

i. TNGC DC

524. The valuations of TNGC DC on the Statements of Financial Condition from at least 2011 to 2021 were false and misleading in ways that mirror the valuations of other club facilities.

525. The valuations of TNGC DC in the 2011 and 2012 Statements of Financial Condition had two essential components: (1) purchase price plus improvements; and (2) the purported value of unsold memberships.

526. For 2011 and 2012, the cost of a full individual golf membership was $25,000 and the cost of a corporate membership was $125,000. Nevertheless, employing the Unsold Membership Scheme for the valuations in those years, the company valued nearly all of the unsold memberships well above those prices—mostly in a range between $75,000 and $225,000—without any cash flow analysis..

527. Beginning in 2013 and continuing through 2021, the Trump Organization employed the Fixed-Assets Scheme—without disclosing the change in violation of GAAP rules—which produced valuations that were false and misleading in numerous respects.

528. First, each of the Statements from 2011 to 2013 indicated that TNGC DC was valued based on “an assessment of the cash flow that is expected to be derived from club operations.” This was false and misleading for a number of reasons, including because the Fixed-Assets Scheme does not consider cash flow from operations.

529. Second, the Trump Organization employed the Membership Deposit Scheme, including as part of the purchase price from 2013 to 2020 the full face value of refundable membership deposits of $16,131,075 despite declaring in the Statements that the liability for the membership deposits was zero dollars.

530. At the very least, in accordance with GAAP, the Trump Organization should have used the present value of the liability Mr. Trump assumed for the membership deposits. According to the Trump Organization’s internal analysis, the first repayment of a deposit for TNGC DC was not expected until 2022 and the present value of the obligations would be a small fraction of the “actual” or nominal dollar value.

531. Third, from 2013 to 2020, the Trump Organization employed the Brand Premium Scheme, adding either 30% or 15% (depending on the year) to fixed assets, even though the Statements represented that no brand value was included and GAAP rules prohibit adding any such internally developed intangible brand premiums.

532. In 2021, when the club switched to using an EBITDA multiplier, the valuation fell by $17 million from the 2020 figure.

j. TNGC Charlotte

533. The valuations of TNGC Charlotte on the Statements of Financial Condition from 2012 to 2020 were false and misleading in ways that mirror the valuations of other club facilities.

534. For the 2012 Statement of Financial Condition valuation of TNGC Charlotte, the Trump Organization employed the Membership Deposit Scheme -- including the full face value of refundable membership deposits of $4,080,550 despite declaring in the Statements that the liability for the membership deposits was zero dollars – and the Unsold Membership Scheme, and also included a value for the “club improvement fund.”

535. With respect to the membership deposits, at the very least, in accordance with GAAP, the Trump Organization should have used the present value of the liability Mr. Trump assumed. According to the Trump Organization’s internal analysis, the first repayment of a deposit for TNGC Charlotte was not expected until 2028 and the present value of the obligations would be a small fraction of the “actual” or nominal dollar value.

536. For 2013 and continuing through 2020, the Trump Organization continued to employ the Membership Deposit Scheme, adding to the purchase price the full face value of refundable membership deposits of $4,080,550.

537. Also during these years, the Trump Organization employed the Brand Premium Scheme, adding either 30% or 15% (depending on the year) to fixed assets, even though the Statements represented that no brand value was included and GAAP rules prohibit adding any such internally developed intangible brand premiums.

k. TNGC Hudson Valley

538. Mr. Trump purchased a ground lease interest in TNGC Hudson Valley through an entity called TNGC Dutchess County LLC for a stated purchase price of $3 million in 2009.

539. The Statements of Financial Condition from 2011 to 2021 do not disclose that Mr. Trump owns a leasehold interest for TNGC Hudson Valley. Instead, the Statements misleadingly suggest that Mr. Trump holds a fee simple interest, and value the club either by employing the Unsold Memberships Scheme or by employing the Fixed-Assets Scheme. This was false and misleading for a number of reasons.

540. First, each of the Statements from 2011 to 2013 indicated that TNGC Hudson Valley was valued based on “an assessment of the cash flow that is expected to be derived from club operations.” This was false and misleading for a number of reasons, including because the Fixed-Assets Scheme does not consider cash flow from operations.

541. Second, the supporting data for the years 2011 through 2021 confirms that the Trump Organization did not account for ground lease expenses when computing valuations of the property. The valuations failed to include rent payments required under the terms of the ground lease or account for the fact that the ground lease agreement requires consent of the landlord in order for Mr. Trump to transfer his leasehold interest to non-related parties.

542. Third, the Trump Organization employed for the valuations in 2011 and 2012 the Unsold Membership Scheme. For example, in 2011 and 2012 the listed initiation fee was only $10,000, but in 2011 the company valued more than 93% of 161 unsold memberships at prices between $15,000 and $25,000, and in and 2012 the company valued 78% of the 254 unsold memberships at prices ranging between $15,000 and $30,000; meanwhile, Trump Organization records showed that most initiation fees were waived for new members of TNGC Hudson Valley from 2010 to 2012.

543. Fourth, the Trump Organization employed the Membership Deposit Scheme, including as part of the purchase price the full face value of refundable membership deposits of $1,235,619 despite declaring in the Statements that liability for the membership deposits was zero dollars. At the very least, in accordance with GAAP, the Trump Organization should have used the present value of the liability Mr. Trump assumed for the membership deposits. According to the Trump Organization's internal analysis, the present value of the obligations would be a fraction of the "actual" or nominal dollar value.

544. Fifth, from 2013 to 2020, the Trump Organization employed the Brand Premium Scheme, even though the Statements disclaimed adding brand value and GAAP rules prohibit such premiums.

545. In 2021 the club was valued using a combination of fixed assets and income, and the valuation fell by almost $4 million – roughly 25% – from the 2020 figure.

12. Real Estate Licensing Developments

546. From 2011 to present, Mr. Trump's Statement has included a category entitled Real Estate Licensing Developments.

547. This category is represented to value "associations with others for the purpose of developing and managing properties" and the "cash flow that is expected to be derived . . . from these associations as their potential is realized."

548. The value assessment included in the Statements was represented to include "only situations which have evolved to the point where signed arrangements with the other parties exist and fees and other compensation which will be earned are reasonably quantifiable."

549. Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization fraudulently inflated the valuation of the Real Estate Licensing Developments category in a number of ways.

550. One means of inflation was by including from 2015 to 2018 speculative and non-existent deals as components of the value—deals expressly identified on financial records supporting the valuation as “TBD,” i.e. to be determined. These TBD deals included arrangements in Asia and the Middle East, were described in a list of purported “new openings,” and were based on purely speculative projections that included thousands of new hotel rooms and millions of dollars in additional revenue. The inclusion of these TBD deals conflicted with the express representation in the Statements that only deals that “exist” and for which compensation was “reasonably quantifiable” were included.

551. And including the TBD deals in the 2016 and 2017 Statements was misleading for an additional reason. Both of these Statements were issued after January 20, 2017 – the date of the inauguration – when the Trump Organization purportedly ceased pursuing foreign deals consistent with public representations by Mr. Trump and his company and express restrictions incorporated into Mr. Trump’s revocable trust, as confirmed by Donald Trump, Jr., a trustee under that trust, that precluded any Trump Organization entity from entering into any new management agreement in any foreign jurisdiction that uses the Trump brand. But the valuation on these two Statements still included prospective new foreign deals. Assuming the Trump Organization adhered to the ban on foreign deals put in place as of January 20, 2017, it was false and misleading to include such prohibited foreign deals in the 2016 and 2017 Statement valuations.

552. The impact of including the TBD deals was substantial. As shown in the chart below, the TBD deals accounted for between 20-30% of the total Real Estate Licensing Development valuations from 2015 to 2018:

Year	Total (only figure on the Statement)	Future Management Portfolio – TBD Deals	% of Total
2015	$339,000,000	$103,536,391	30.5%
2016	$227,400,000	$46,312,797	20.4%
2017	$246,000,000	$52,731,562	21.4%
2018	$202,900,000	$45,198,994	22.3%

553. According to Allen Weisselberg: “Licensing generally was handled by Ivanka in that I’ll call it twenty-fifth floor, that’s where they’re located, it was a whole licensing department down there and they worked on those deals.”

554. Ms. Trump and her brothers Donald Trump, Jr. and Eric Trump were also well aware of the actual revenue derived from licensing in general, and international licensing in particular given their financial interest in those projects. Each of them were paid a “consulting fee” on international licensing deals through an entity called TTT Consulting, LLC, which was jointly owned by the three children. Each child owned 33.3% of the company and they received regular distributions, including Ivanka Trump after she left the company in January 2017.

555. Another means of inflation was including in this category a number of deals between entities within the Trump Organization concerning its own properties, including Doral, OPO, and Trump Chicago—deals in accounting parlance that are known as “related party transactions” because they are not arms-length deals in the marketplace but rather deals between affiliates. Including these related party transactions was contrary to the representation in the Statements that this category included only the value derived from “associations with others” that materialized into actual, signed agreements when in fact the value was substantially inflated through the inclusion of self-dealing agreements among and between Trump Organization affiliates.

556. Including the value of related party transactions also constituted a substantial, undisclosed departure from GAAP, which generally requires disclosure of details of related party transactions because, among other reasons, such self-dealing transactions are not arms-length transactions in the marketplace. See, e.g., Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) No. 850. Here, if properly disclosed, a reader would have understood that the Trump Organization was valuing its own intracompany deals—not deals negotiated at arms-length in the marketplace.

557. Finally, the Trump Organization inflated the valuations in this category from 2011 to 2018 by including so-called incentive licensing fees in a fraudulent and misleading manner. These are fees that are anticipated to be earned over the life of a project typically expected to last several years but were treated for purposes of the valuations as if the revenue would be received over a much shorter period of one or two years. As with other valuations, the Trump Organization's treatment of incentive licensing fees failed to include a cash flow analysis and ignored the speculative nature of the anticipated future income.

558. Starting with the 2019 Statement (issued after the commencement of OAG's investigation), the Trump Organization applied a discount factor to the valuation of the incentive licensing fees, and in their calculations indicated that a majority of the deals would be paid out over a period as long as seven to ten years.

D. The False and Misleading Statements of Financial Condition Were Used to Secure and Maintain Financial Benefits, Including Financing and Insurance, on Favorable Terms.

559. Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization utilized the false and misleading Statements of Financial Condition in an array of financial transactions, most prominently in obtaining real estate loans and insurance coverage.

560. Between 2011 and the present, the Trump Organization has obtained hundreds of millions of dollars in real estate loans in reliance on, among other things, Mr. Trump's net worth as reported in his Statements of Financial Condition. The Statements were critical to these loans because in addition to being secured by real property or an “interest in” real property, they were backed by Mr. Trump’s personal guaranty—either for the full amount of the loan, for a partial amount of the loan, or for the full amount of the loan in a manner that would “step down” to a partial or zero guaranty depending on the ratio of the loan amount to the value of the underlying real property interest.

561. The Statements were also a key component of the Trump Organization’s insurance submissions to underwriters. For purposes of soliciting and binding one of its insurance programs, the Trump Organization used Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition to satisfy requirements for financial disclosure for Mr. Trump’s personal guaranty in lieu of collateral, and specifically misrepresented to underwriters that the valuations of the properties listed in two of the Statements were prepared by outside appraisers. In connection with renewing its directors and officers liability insurance, the Trump Organization also relied on the Statements to satisfy financial disclosure obligations and concealed the existence of at least one governmental investigation involving Mr. Trump and other company employees despite the company’s intent and later efforts to seek coverage for defense costs associated with that investigation.

1. Deutsche Bank Loan Facilities

562. The financial relationship between Deutsche Bank and the Trump Organization dates back to the late 1990’s and involved multiple loans for hundreds of millions of dollars in total. But at the start of 2011, the Trump Organization had a single outstanding loan held by Deutsche Bank on Trump Chicago with just over $140 million outstanding. The Trump Chicago loan was originated by the Commercial Real Estate (“CRE”) lending group in Deutsche Bank.

563. Starting in 2011 the relationship with Deutsche Bank was revitalized when Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization initiated a relationship with bankers in the Private Wealth Management (“PWM”) division of Deutsche Bank, which enabled them to obtain more favorable terms than they could have received through the CRE division by having Mr. Trump personally guarantee the loans based on his net worth as reflected in his Statements of Financial Condition.

564. In essence, rather than obtain credit facilities through the wing of Deutsche Bank with an expertise in commercial real estate, Mr. Trump began to seek funds from a wing of Deutsche Bank focused on servicing ultrawealthy clients. Hence, Mr. Trump’s personal guaranty, and his representations regarding his finances that backed up that guaranty, featured prominently in Mr. Trump’s loan transactions through the PWM wing of Deutsche Bank.

565. Between 2011 and May 2022, Deutsche Bank served as the largest single lender to the Trump Organization and Mr. Trump. At the beginning of May 2022, the Trump Organization owed the bank approximately $340 million in principal and was spending tens of millions of dollars annually to service the debt. These loans, each originated by the PWM division, consisted of: (1) a $170 million facility covering OPO; (2) a $125 million facility covering Doral; and (3) a $45 million facility covering Trump Chicago. By the end of May 2022, the Trump Organization had repaid to the bank approximately $295 million of the debt. The Trump Organization repaid the $170 million OPO loan upon the sale of that property and repaid the Doral loan by refinancing with another financial institution.

566. The initial introduction to the PWM division at Deutsche Bank came in September 2011, when Jared Kushner, the husband of Ivanka Trump, introduced his brother-in-law Donald Trump, Jr. to Rosemary Vrablic, a Managing Director at the bank in the PWM division. Kushner told Donald Trump, Jr. that while “Rosemary only lends with recourse,” meaning with a personal guaranty from the borrower, “the flexibility, rate and service you get is unparalleled.” As part of this initial exchange, Vrablic confirmed the need for recourse in PWM loans telling Donald Trump, Jr. “Sorry about the recourse issue - a dirty word, I know - but it is a requirement in private banking.”

567. Kushner was correct that PWM did provide Donald Trump, Jr. – and eventually his father Donald J. Trump and the Trump Organization – unparalleled rates on loans. Each of the three loans outstanding as of May 2022 were shopped to other banks as well as the CRE division within Deutsche Bank. The interest rates offered by PWM were significantly lower than any other offers. As Ivanka Trump wrote after receiving one term sheet from the PWM division: “It doesn’t get better than this.” And a personal guarantee of each loan by Donald J. Trump was necessary to meet the “recourse” requirement in order to obtain those preferential rates.

568. As a result of the personal guarantee, the annual Statement of Financial Condition was central to each of those loans. By personally guaranteeing the loans and providing evidence of his liquidity and net worth through his Statements, Mr. Trump obtained for his company a significant improvement in the interest rates on the loans.

569. The personal guaranty and other loan documents entailed a certification by Mr. Trump of his Statement of Financial Condition as a requirement before any funds would be lent. The regular submission of the Statements of Financial Condition also helped the Trump Organization and Mr. Trump avoid having the loans placed into default, because annual certifications of the accuracy of Mr. Trump’s Statements were required. All told, the interest rate savings from the issuance of the false and misleading Statements of Financial Condition totaled between $85 million and $150 million.

570. In 2020 when Deutsche Bank learned of the alleged misrepresentations in the Statements from the pendency of the action by OAG to enforce its investigative subpoenas against the Trump Organization and related parties, it asked the Trump Organization a series of questions about those Statements. The Trump Organization refused to respond. Thereafter, Deutsche Bank decided, given the Trump Organization's failure even to answer simple questions concerning the Statements, to exit its relationship with the company. Given the then-outstanding credit facilities totaling hundreds of millions of dollars, that exit would take some time, as each facility had an expiration a few years away.

2. Deutsche Bank Loan Issued in Connection with Trump National Doral Golf Club (Florida)

571. In November 2011, the Trump Organization executed a $150 million purchase and sale agreement for the Doral Golf Resort and Spa as part of a bankruptcy proceeding. The Trump Organization was to serve as a stalking horse bidder in a bankruptcy auction, with an eye toward closing the transaction in June 2012.

572. The formal process for soliciting the Doral loan began in late October 2011, when Ivanka Trump sent an "Investment Memo" and financial projections for the Doral property to two Deutsche Bank employees.

573. In November 2011, Mr. Trump began personally contacting banks to secure a loan to purchase Doral. On November 13, 2011, Mr. Trump spoke with Richard Byrne, the CEO of Deutsche Bank Securities to ask if the bank was interested in working with him on financing for the purchase of Doral. Mr. Byrne in turn forwarded the request to the Global Head of the CRE division at the bank who wrote that Doral was "a tough asset and our initial reaction was not enthusiastic."

574. Nevertheless, on November 14, 2011, the two bankers spoke with Mr. Trump and Ivanka Trump about the loan. The next day, Mr. Trump sent Mr. Byrne a letter, copying Ivanka Trump, enclosing his Statement of Financial Condition and writing, “As per our conversation, I am pleased to enclose the recently completed financial statement of Donald J. Trump (hopefully you will be impressed!)” The letter continued, “I am also enclosing a letter that establishes my brand value, which is not included in my net worth statement.”

575. On November 21, 2011 the CRE division offered the Trump Organization a $130 million loan at LIBOR + 800 basis points, with a LIBOR floor of 2 percent – a minimum 10% interest rate.

576. The Trump Organization did not accept those terms and continued to look for financing for Doral. In December 2011, Mr. Trump and Ivanka Trump met with Rosemary Vrablic to discuss a potential loan through the PWM division. On December 6, 2011, Ms. Trump emailed Ms. Vrablic that, “My father and I are very much looking forward to meeting with you tomorrow to discuss Doral. I have attached our investment memo as well as some basic information on our golf and hotel portfolios.” Ms. Trump copied her husband, Mr. Kushner, on the email who then wrote back just to her saying, “Also – push the relationship AND doral [sic]. Not Doral and the relationship . . . .”

577. The two sides began negotiating terms and on December 15, 2011, Ms. Vrablic sent Ms. Trump a term sheet proposing a $125 million loan with an interest rate of LIBOR + 225 basis points during a renovation period for the resort and LIBOR + 200 basis points during an amortization period for the resort. The terms of the loan included recourse through a personal guarantee by Mr. Trump of all principal and interest due on the loan and the operating expenses of the resort. The proposal also included a number of covenants including requirements that Mr. Trump maintain a minimum net worth of $3 billion and unencumbered liquidity of $50 million.

578. Ivanka Trump forwarded the proposal to Allen Weisselberg, Jason Greenblatt (Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer), and Dave Orowitz (Senior Vice President, Acquisitions and Development) writing: “It doesn’t get better than this . . . I am tempted not to negotiate this though.”

579. Mr. Greenblatt wrote back: “I will review, but [note] immediately that this is a FULL principal and interest and operating expense personal guaranty. Is DJT willing to do that? Also, the net worth covenants and DJT indebtedness limitations would seem to be a problem?”

580. Ms. Trump then responded: “That we have known from day one. We wanted to get a great rate and the only way to get proceeds/term and principle where we want them is to guarantee the deal. As the market has illustrated getting leverage on resorts right now is not easy (ie 125 plus an equity kicker for 25 percent or Beal with full cash flow sweeps and steep prepayment penalties.)”<sup>7</sup>

581. Mr. Greenblatt again responded writing: “Obviously this is not my decision, but this is completely inconsistent with what he told me he would ever do again when we had the Chi and vegas issues and the magnitude of this is much bigger. He was so angry that he got himself ‘into the chi/vegas mess’ and told me he NEVER wanted to do this again.” Mr. Greenblatt closed by noting “While none of this is my call, this is a highly risky proposition.”

582. On December 18, 2011, Ivanka Trump sent a revised term sheet back to Ms. Vrablic, copying Allen Weisselberg, seeking to reduce Mr. Trump’s net worth covenant from $3 billion to $2 billion, and to reduce loan payments by making the full term of the loan interest-only (as opposed to having a period when payments would be principal plus interest).

583. In an internal credit report dated December 20, 2011, Deutsche Bank employees from the PWM division sought the approval of a $125 million term commitment for the Doral property. This report noted “[t]he Facility will also be supported by a full and unconditional guarantee provided by DJT of (i) Principal and Interest due under the Facility, and (ii) operating shortfalls of the Resort . . . .”

584. The credit memo listed this guaranty as a source of repayment, and recommended approval of the loan. The memo stated that “[t]he Facility is being recommended for approval based on” a series of factors, the first of which was “Financial Strength of the Guarantor” and another of which was the nature of the personal guaranty. In connection with that recommendation, the credit memo evaluated assets reported on Mr. Trump’s Statement of Financial Condition for the year ending June 30, 2011. For many of the assets listed on Mr. Trump’s Statement, the credit memo identified Mr. Trump’s valuation and then a “DB Valuation.” The DB Valuation included reductions to asset values based on applying “haircuts” to account for the risk that an asset’s value might change in the future and the risk that the borrower’s valuation might be overly optimistic. These reductions were not intended to account for fraud or knowing misrepresentations by a borrower. The result of those “DB Valuations” was to derive a “DB Adjusted” net worth for Mr. Trump for purposes of the bank’s evaluation.

585. In support of the loan application, the Trump Organization submitted an appraisal of the Doral property prepared by CBRE for a different financial institution (Beal Bank based in Texas). When this appraisal was received, one of Deutsche Bank’s appraisal reviewers was asked to “drop everything” and review it. That reviewer identified numerous problems with the appraisal, and understood (as reflected in contemporaneous emails) that the matter would escalate internally once he raised those problems: “PWM wants to do the deal and I am rejecting the appraisal. [PWM Banker] said this is a very high profile deal and that her bosses will be elevating this . . . .”

586. In response to those concerns, Deutsche Bank personnel in February 2012 submitted a new credit memo to alter the terms of their prior credit memo. As a result of those changes, one tranche of the loan – amounting to $19 million – became an unsecured personal loan.

587. The Doral loan closed on June 11, 2012, with a loan to Trump Endeavor 12 LLC personally guaranteed by Mr. Trump. Interest on the loan was set for LIBOR + 2.25 during a renovation period, and LIBOR + 2.0 thereafter.

588. The loan agreement, signed by Mr. Trump, required that Mr. Trump’s June 30, 2011 Statement of Financial Condition have been provided to the bank as a precondition of lending.

589. In multiple instances, the loan agreement required that Mr. Trump certify the accuracy of that statement. In particular, the agreement contained a provision entitled, “Full and Accurate Disclosure.” This provision required Mr. Trump to make a representation that no information contained in any loan document or in “any written statement furnished by or on behalf of Borrower or any other party pursuant to the terms of the” loan or associated documents “contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary to make any material statements contained herein or therein not misleading in light of the circumstances under which they were made.” Similarly, issuance of the loan was noted to be subject to several conditions precedent, including that “[t]he representations and warranties of Borrower contained in this Agreement and in all certificates, documents and instruments delivered pursuant to this Agreement and the Loan Documents shall be true and correct on and as of the Closing Date.”

590. The loan required submission of annual financial statements by the Doral operating entity on an unaudited basis but certified as presenting fairly that entity’s financial condition and results in all material respects. The loan further included a debt service coverage ratio (“DSCR”) covenant and a loan-to-value (“LTV”) ratio covenant.

591. Mr. Trump’s personal guaranty, which he signed, included various financial representations. Mr. Trump, as guarantor, was required to certify the truth and accuracy of his Statement of Financial Condition as a condition of the guaranty—reliance on which Mr. Trump agreed the loan itself was granted. As the guaranty spells out, “In order to induce Lender to accept this Guaranty and to enter into the Credit Agreement and the transactions thereunder, Guarantor hereby makes the following representations and warranties as of the date hereof.” One of those representations was: “Guarantor has furnished to Lender his Prior Financial Statements. Such Prior Financial Statements are true and correct in all material respects and (i) Guarantor’s Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly Guarantor’s financial condition as of June 30, 2011.” Further, the guaranty stated: “there has been no material adverse change in any condition, fact, circumstance or event that would make the Prior Financial Statements, reports, certificates or other documents submitted by Guarantor in connection with this Guaranty and the other Credit Documents to which he is a party inaccurate, incomplete or otherwise misleading in any material respect.” The guaranty further stated that “all the Guaranteed Obligations,” referring to the entirety of the loan and other obligations Mr. Trump guaranteed, “shall be conclusively presumed to have been created in reliance hereon.”

592. Pursuant to the guaranty, Mr. Trump was required to maintain $50 million in unencumbered liquidity, and a minimum net worth of $2.5 billion to be “tested and certified to on an annual basis based upon the Statement of Financial Condition delivered to Lender during each year.” That language means the bank would determine Mr. Trump’s compliance with his net worth covenant by reference solely to the net worth Mr. Trump reported and certified to the bank.

593. Mr. Trump was also required to “keep and maintain complete and accurate books and records” and periodically to “deliver to Lender or permit Lender to review,” a series of documents under the guaranty’s financial reporting requirements. One of those submissions was a statement of financial condition, which was to be delivered annually with a compliance certificate certifying the statement “presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of Guarantor at the period presented.”

594. False certifications of such financial statements were expressly identified as events of default under the loan agreement. Under the loan, “[a]ny representation or warranty of Borrower or Guarantor herein or in any other Loan Document or any amendment to any thereof shall prove to have been false and misleading in any material respect at the time made or intended to be effective” was one of several “events of default.” The term “Loan Documents” includes the loan agreement, guaranty, and, inter alia, “any other document, agreement, consent, or instrument which has been or will be executed in connection with” the agreement and guaranty, and thus would include annual signed certifications, which provide they would be executed by Mr. Trump.

595. Mr. Trump submitted Statements of Financial Condition to Deutsche Bank accompanied by certifications required as described above for the years 2014 through 2021

(executed either personally or, for years 2016 and later, by Donald Trump, Jr. or Eric Trump, as attorney-in-fact for Mr. Trump). When combined with certifications related to other loans, Mr. Trump (or his attorney-in-fact) certified the accuracy of his Statement of Financial Condition to Deutsche Bank for every year from 2011 through 2021.

596. Subsequent to the loan's origination, Deutsche Bank in a credit memo in July 2013 approved a modified version of the guaranty that enabled Mr. Trump's guaranteed obligation to step down, on a percentage basis, as the LTV ratio of the loan improved. This step-down scale kept Mr. Trump's guaranty at 100% of the guaranteed obligations if the LTV ratio fell between 66% and 85%, stepping down to 40% (LTV 56-65%), 20% (LTV 46-55%), 10% (LTV 36-45%), and 0% (LTV 35% and below). Mr. Trump's net worth covenant under this loan would also step down, based on the percentage of the guaranty that applied (in other words, if the guaranty had stepped down to 40%, then the governing net worth covenant would be 40% of $2.5 billion). The step-down in the guaranty would correlate with an increase in the loan's DSCR covenant amount (in essence, corroborating that the property's cash flow increased to balance the bank's risk in reducing the guaranty level). This credit memo document, which also was part of the annual review of the Trump Doral loan, evaluated Mr. Trump's 2011 and 2012 Statements of Financial Condition. An amended Doral guaranty dated August 12, 2013 indicates the guaranty would be "terminated" upon the reduction of the step-down percentage to 0%.

597. Incorporating figures from Mr. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition submitted in conjunction with compliance certificates, Deutsche Bank conducted annual reviews of the Doral loan in July 2013, May 2014, July 2015, July 2016, July 2017, July 2018, September 2019, July 2020, and July 2021.

598. Pursuant to an appraisal provided by the Trump Organization in 2015, the loan-to-value ratio dropped to 34%—sufficient to eliminate Mr. Trump’s personal guaranty. But, according to a bank credit memo, “Trump has requested to maintain a 10% guarantee on the combined loan amount of both tranches resulting in the facility being priced at L+1.75%”—in other words, the Trump Organization maintained a personal guaranty to keep the interest rate at a preferred level.

599. The loan remained outstanding until May 2022. As a result, Deutsche Bank received Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2019, June 30, 2020 and June 30, 2021.

600. On May 26, 2022, the Trump Organization refinanced the loan through Axos Bank, repaying the $125 million of principal outstanding to Deutsche Bank.

3. Deutsche Bank Loan Issued in Connection with Trump Chicago (2012)

601. Roughly contemporaneously with the Doral loan’s closing in June 2012, the Trump Organization sought another loan from the PWM group at Deutsche Bank in connection with the Trump Chicago property—in essence, a refinancing of an existing $130 million from the CRE group at Deutsche Bank on that property.

602. Dueling proposals within Deutsche Bank were under discussion in or about March 2012. A memo drafted by the credit risk management group articulated the differences between them. One proposal from the CRE group was for a non-recourse (meaning, no personal guaranty) loan facility with an interest rate of LIBOR plus 800 basis points. The other proposal from the PWM group was for a loan facility with a personal guaranty at LIBOR plus 400 basis points—so, four percentage points lower, in terms of the interest rate. Both proposals were for two-year terms, though they may have had other differences. The difference between these two proposals indicates that Mr. Trump’s personal guaranty, which was to be procured by means of his Statement of Financial Condition, accounted for a difference in interest rate of approximately four percentage points on the loan. The memo notes as “Credit Support” that “Donald Trump has reported Net Worth of $4.0 billion with liquidity of approximately $250 million.”

603. In October 2012, PWM recommended approval of a loan of up to $107 million to 401 North Wabash Venture LLC, guaranteed personally by Donald J. Trump. Given the mixed nature of the hotel-condo property, the loan was broken down into two facilities. One facility (Facility A) concerned the residential component—unsold residential condominium units, deeded parking spaces, storage spaces, and the like. The second facility (Facility B) concerned the commercial component—“a full service hotel, including 339 condo-hotel rooms, of which 175 are Borrower owned,” and various other commercial operations at the property. Facility A was to be for up to $62 million, for a 4-year term, at a rate of LIBOR plus 3.35%; Facility B was to be for up to $45 million, for a 5-year term, at a rate of LIBOR plus 2.25%. For Facility A, the bank listed the primary source of repayment as the sale of the remaining un-sold condo units, and for facility B the cash flow generated by commercial components.

604. For both facilities, a source of repayment was “[f]ull and unconditional guarantee of DJT which eliminates any shortfall associated with operating and liquidation of the Collateral.” In addition, the memo noted its “recommendation” was based in part on “Financial Strength of the Guarantor,” the “Nature of the Guarantee,” and a developing relationship between the bank and Mr. Trump and his family.

605. As with the Doral credit memo from 2011, this credit memo assessed Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition. In connection with that assessment, the credit memo stated: “Although Facilities are secured by the Collateral, given its unique nature, the credit exposure is being recommended based on the financial profile of the Guarantor.” The memo assessed Mr. Trump's 2011 and 2012 Statements. The bank in this memo derived a "DB Adjusted" net worth for Mr. Trump by starting with Mr. Trump's reported values, reducing them to adjusted values to account for the risk that an asset's value might change in the future and that the borrower's valuation might be overly optimistic, and then totaling assets and subtracting liabilities.

606. The loans under the two facilities closed on November 9, 2012. As with the Doral loan, Mr. Trump personally guaranteed both Trump Chicago loan facilities.

607. The loan agreements, signed by Mr. Trump, required that Mr. Trump's June 30, 2012 Statement of Financial Condition or his then-most-recent Statement of Financial Condition have been provided to the bank as a precondition of lending. Mr. Trump's June 30, 2012 Statement of Financial Condition was provided to the bank in October 2012 and figures from that statement are reflected in the bank's internal consideration of the loans.

608. In multiple instances, the loan agreements required that Mr. Trump certify the accuracy of that Statement of Financial Condition. In particular, the agreements contained a provision entitled, "Full and Accurate Disclosure." This provision required Mr. Trump to make a representation that no information contained in any loan document or in "any written statement furnished by or on behalf of Borrower or any other party pursuant to the terms of the" loan or associated documents "contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary to make any material statements contained herein or therein not misleading in light of the circumstances under which they were made." Similarly, both loan documents contained conditions precedent to lending, including that "[t]he representations and warranties of Borrower contained in this agreement and in all certificates, documents and instruments delivered pursuant to this Agreement and the Loan documents shall be true and correct on and as of the Closing Date.”

609. The 2012 Trump Chicago loans each entailed a personal guaranty signed by Mr. Trump. Mr. Trump, as guarantor, was required to certify the truth and accuracy of his Statement of Financial Condition as a condition of the guarantees—reliance on which Mr. Trump agreed the loans themselves were granted. The terms of each 2012 Trump Chicago loan’s guarantees were materially identical to the Doral guaranty: Mr. Trump was required to maintain a minimum net worth, based upon his statement of financial condition, of $2.5 billion, and he was required to provide an annual statement of financial condition to the bank accompanied by an executed compliance certificate certifying that the statement “presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of Guarantor at the period presented.” In addition, both loans “shall be conclusively presumed to have been created in reliance” on their respective guarantees.

610. Each guaranty similarly provided that “Guarantor has furnished to Lender his Prior Financial Statements. Such Prior Financial Statements are true and correct in all material respects and (i) Guarantor’s Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly Guarantor’s financial condition as of June 30, 2012.”

611. Each guaranty similarly provided that “there has been no material adverse change in any condition, fact, circumstance or event that would make the Prior Financial Statements, reports, certificates or other documents submitted by Guarantor in connection with this Guaranty and the other Credit Documents to which he is a party inaccurate, incomplete or otherwise misleading in any material respect.”

612. False certifications of such financial statements were expressly identified as events of default under the loan agreements, with the same or similar language as had been used in the Doral agreement.

613. Annual reviews including Trump Chicago facilities were conducted in May 2014, July 2015, July 2016, July 2017, July 2018, September 2019, July 2020, and July 2021.

614. During the period between the Trump Chicago closing and the first annual review in May 2014 (with extensions in the interim to align the Trump Chicago annual review with other reviews), the Trump Organization paid down the Trump Chicago loan from an overall balance of $98 million to $19 million from the proceeds of condominium sales.

615. Based upon the purported strength of Mr. Trump's financial profile, the Trump Organization requested an additional $54 million in loan funds from Deutsche Bank to be fully guaranteed by Mr. Trump. According to the Trump Chicago annual review from 2014, "The Borrower has requested a $54 million increase to the current outstanding balance of $19 million for a total loan amount of $73 million." This credit memo states: "The proceeds will be used for business purposes including further real estate acquisitions and working capital." Collateral for the loan would be the seven remaining unsold condominium units and the Trump International Hotel Chicago, and the loan would be "fully guaranteed by Mr. Trump for all principal, interest and operating shortfalls until the balance of the facility is less than $45 million (34% LTV)." Specifically, as set forth in this memo, the modified Trump Chicago loan would include a step-down guarantee like the one for the Doral loan--with the guarantee percentage stepping down based on the LTV ratio, and the DSCR stepping up as the guarantee level dropped. The net worth covenant would also drop on a percentage basis with the guarantee.

616. The credit memo recommending approval did so based on the “Financial Strength of the Guarantor,” the “DB Relationship” with Mr. Trump and his family, the “quality of the collateral and LTV,” an accelerated repayment schedule, the property’s cash flow, and potential refinancing in the future. Amended loan documents implementing the above covenants and financial reporting terms closed on June 2, 2014.

617. As with earlier credit memos, this 2014 credit memo (which also recommended approval for the $170 million loan in connection with the Old Post Office discussed below) evaluated Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition. In particular, this credit memo incorporated figures from the 2011, 2012, and 2013 Statements. In connection with that assessment, the credit memo stated: “Although Facilities are secured by Collateral, given the unique nature of these credits, the credit exposure is being recommended based on the financial profile of the Guarantor.” The bank in this memo derived a “DB Adjusted” net worth for Mr. Trump as of June 30, 2013 by starting with Mr. Trump’s reported values, reducing them to adjusted values to account for the risk that an asset’s value might change in the future and that the borrower’s valuation might be overly optimistic, and then totaling assets and subtracting liabilities.

618. Amended Trump Chicago loan documents—including an agreement and a personal guaranty—were executed by Mr. Trump in May 2014. These new loan documents contained terms and conditions governing submission, certification, and misrepresentation of Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition that were substantially similar to those describe above for the Doral and 2012 Trump Chicago loans. In the amended Trump Chicago guaranty, Mr. Trump certified that his June 30, 2013 Statement of Financial Condition was true and correct in all material respects and that the Statement “presents fairly Guarantor’s financial condition as of June 30, 2013.”

619. By the time of the annual review in July 2015, the Trump Organization had paid down the Trump Chicago loan to an overall balance of $45 million. Since the property had been appraised at $133 million, Mr. Trump’s personal guarantee was eliminated because the LTV ratio was 34%--below the 35% threshold in the stepdown provision. A subsequent credit report states: “the loan documentation identifies the Guaranty reduction as a permanent event, meaning appraisals that are completed going forward will not change the Guaranty level, regardless of their value.”

620. Either Mr. Trump, Eric Trump or his trustees certified the accuracy of the Statement of Financial Condition in connection with the Trump Chicago loans discussed herein for every year from 2013 through 2021, either through the execution of an amended guaranty or through the submission of a compliance certificate.

4. Deutsche Bank Loan Issued in Connection with Trump Old Post Office Hotel in Washington, D.C.

621. In approximately July 2013, Deutsche Bank began considering whether to extend credit for the Trump Organization’s redevelopment of OPO in Washington, DC.

622. The Trump Organization had obtained the right to redevelop the property as the result of a bidding process by the U.S. General Services Administration that company described as “one of the most competitive selection processes in the history of the agency.” According to the Trump Organization:

Over twenty of the top hotel companies in the world bid on the project, and The Trump Organization was awarded the job based on the strength of Trump development capabilities, financial wherewithal, vision for the property, and dedication to the preservation of the historic structure.

623. The Statement of Financial Condition was central to that successful effort, captained by Ivanka Trump. The GSA's request for proposals provided that a bidder's "Financial Capacity and Capability" was to be a factor in the government's decision, and required submission of the most recent three years of financial statements.

624. Mr. Trump's Statements, prepared in the same process described above, were submitted as part of Mr. Trump's July 2011 bid.

625. Mr. Trump and Ivanka Trump participated personally in the bidding process in 2011. In particular, Ivanka Trump was involved in crafting communications to the GSA in connection with the bid and in responding to deficiency comments raised by the GSA. Those communications concerned, among other topics, Mr. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition, including their departures from GAAP and contained detailed information about Mr. Trump's financial capabilities as well as his ability to perform the obligations under the lease at issue. The GSA questioned the use of Mr. Trump's Statements, and Mr. Trump and Ms. Trump participated in an in-person presentation to address GSA's concerns about those topics and others.

626. After addressing those issues, the Trump Organization was ultimately selected by GSA in February 2012 to redevelop the property and signed a lease for that purpose on August 5, 2013.

627. In advance of executing the lease, the Trump Organization reached out to the CRE group at Deutsche Bank about potential financing for the project. Despite the request coming into the CRE group, Rosemary Vrablic from the PWM group of the bank—at the urging of Ivanka Trump—kept close tabs on the bank's consideration of the request.

628. By October 2013, the CRE group had proposed a term sheet offering the Trump Organization a $140 million loan at LIBOR + 400 basis points.

629. The next month, in November 2013, employees at the Trump Organization took that offer to the PWM group to see what terms that group could provide on an OPO loan.

630. By Monday, December 2, 2013 (the Monday after the Thanksgiving holiday), the bank's PWM group provided a draft term sheet directly to the Trump Organization. In an email to Ivanka Trump and Dave Orowitz, Deutsche Bank attached the term sheet and noted that, although the term sheet reflected a $160mm commitment, "[w]e understand the request is for $170 million and are working on getting the step-up approved."

631. The PWM term sheet was different in a number of respects from the CRE term sheet. For example:

- Mr. Trump would personally guaranty the full loan amount in the PWM term sheet (whereas the CRE proposal was unresolved as to whether there would be a 10% guaranty);
- The PWM term sheet had a loan term of ten years, versus a CRE term of approximately 42 months;
- The PWM term sheet had a loan amount, initially, of up to $160 million (and up to $170 million would ultimately be approved), whereas the CRE term sheet had a maximum loan amount of $140 million;
- Interest rates in the PWM term sheet were about half of what they were in the CRE term sheet: PWM's proposal was LIBOR + 2% during the "redevelopment period," and LIBOR + 1.75% during the "post-redevelopment period"; and
- The PWM term sheet required a $2.5 billion net worth (higher than any of net worth covenants proposed by CRE, which topped out at $500 million).

632. Ultimately the Trump Organization and the PWM group agreed on a term sheet that was executed on January 13 and 14, 2014. The executed term sheet's terms largely mirror those above: $170 million loan amount; a 10-year term; 100% personal guaranty; interest rates of LIBOR + 2% or 1.75% (depending on the period); and covenants including $2.5 billion in net worth, $50 million in unencumbered liquidity, and no additional indebtedness in excess of $500 million. Mr. Trump, as guarantor, would be required to provide his annual statement of financial condition to the bank; there were other financial reporting requirements as well.

633. A May 2014 Deutsche Bank credit memo approved the $170 million loan to Trump Old Post Office LLC. This credit memo incorporated information from Mr. Trump's 2011, 2012, and 2013 Statements of Financial Condition.

634. Mr. Trump's net worth and his Statements of Financial Condition were critical to the final terms of the loan, executed on August 12, 2014. As with the Doral and Trump Chicago loans described above, the loan agreement for the OPO project required that Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition be provided to the bank. The Statement required to be submitted was as of June 30, 2013.

635. In multiple instances, the loan agreement required that Mr. Trump certify the accuracy of that Statement. In particular, the agreement contained a provision entitled, "Full and Accurate Disclosure." This provision required Mr. Trump to make a representation that no information contained in any loan document or in "any written statement furnished by or on behalf of Borrower or any other party pursuant to the terms of the" loan or associated documents "contains any untrue statement of material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary to make any material statements contained herein or therein not misleading in light of the circumstances under which they were made." Similarly, issuance of the loan was noted to be subject to several conditions precedent, including that "[t]he representations and warranties of Borrower contained in this Agreement and in all certificates, documents and instruments delivered pursuant to this Agreement and the Loan Documents shall be true and correct on and as of the Closing Date."

636. In addition, because the OPO loan was a construction loan to be disbursed over a long series of tranches, the loan agreement made clear that the bank was not obligated to make such disbursements unless representations by the borrowing entity and the guarantor (Mr. Trump) were true and accurate at the time of the requested disbursement. One “condition” of such disbursements was that, “The representations and warranties made by Borrower and Guarantor in the Loan Documents” (including the guaranty and subsequent certifications) “shall be true and accurate in all material respects on and of the date of the requested Disbursement with the same effect as if made on such date.”<sup>8</sup>

637. As with the Doral and Trump Chicago loan documents, an “Event of Default” in the OPO loan document was defined to include when “[a]ny representation or warranty of Borrower or Guarantor herein or in any other Loan Document or any amendment to any thereof shall prove to have been false and misleading in any material respect at the time made or intended to be effective.”

638. Mr. Trump’s personal guaranty on the OPO loan, which he signed, is dated August 12, 2014.

639. Mr. Trump’s personal guaranty also included various financial representations. Mr. Trump, as guarantor, was required to certify the truth and accuracy of his Statement of Financial Condition as a condition of the guarantees—reliance on which Mr. Trump acknowledged when the loans themselves were granted. As the guaranty states, “In order to induce Lender to accept this Guaranty and to enter into the Loan Agreement and the transactions thereunder, Guarantor hereby makes the following representations and warranties as of the date hereof.” One such representation and warranty was: “Guarantor has furnished to Lender his Prior Financial Statements. Such Prior Financial Statements are true and correct in all material respects

<sup>8</sup> The agreement spelled out an exception for such representations that were “no longer true and correct in all material respects solely as a result of” the passage of time, but a statement that was inaccurate when made would not have satisfied that exception.

and (i) Guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly Guarantor's financial condition as of June 30, 2013[.]”

640. Further, the guaranty stated: “there has been no material adverse change in any condition, fact, circumstance or event that would make the Prior Financial Statements, reports, certificates or other documents submitted by Guarantor in connection with this Guaranty and the other Loan Documents to which he is a party inaccurate, incomplete or otherwise misleading in any material respect.”

641. Pursuant to the guaranty, Mr. Trump was required to maintain $50 million in unencumbered liquidity, and a minimum net worth of $2.5 billion to be “tested and certified to on an annual basis based upon the Statement of Financial Condition delivered to Lender during each year.” That language means the bank would determine Mr. Trump's compliance with his net worth covenant by reference to the net worth Mr. Trump reported and certified to the bank.

642. Mr. Trump was also required to “keep and maintain complete and accurate books and records” and periodically to “deliver to Lender or permit Lender to review,” a series of documents under the guaranty's financial reporting requirements. One of those submissions was a statement of financial condition, which was to be delivered annually with a compliance certificate certifying the statement “presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of Guarantor at the period presented.”

643. False certifications of such financial statements were expressly contemplated as events of default under the loan agreement. Under the loan, “[a]ny representation or warranty of Borrower or Guarantor herein or in any other Loan Document or any amendment to any thereof shall prove to have been false and misleading in any material respect at the time made or intended to be effective” was one of several “events of default.” The term “Loan Documents” includes the loan agreement, guaranty, and, inter alia, “any other document, agreement, consent, or instrument which has been or will be executed in connection with” the agreement and guaranty, and thus would include annual signed certifications, which provide they would be executed by Mr. Trump.

644. The bank conducted annual reviews of the OPO loan in July 2015, July 2016, July 2017, July 2018, September 2019, July 2020 , and July 2021.

645. Because the OPO loan was a construction loan, the $170 million loan amount was not disbursed on or about the closing date; instead, the loan was disbursed in a series of “draws” or disbursements over time. The first was on or about June 22, 2015 in a “Request for Disbursement” signed by Mr. Trump. Draws continued throughout 2015 and 2016; generally, requests for those draws were signed by Mr. Trump personally. However, on December 21, 2016, Ivanka Trump signed a draw request in the amount of $4,334,772.83. On February 22, 2017, Eric Trump signed a final draw request in the amount of $2,757,897.30, bringing the total amount dispersed up to $170 million.

646. On or about May 11, 2022 the Trump Organization sold the OPO property for $375 million. Of those proceeds, $170 million were used to repay the loan to Deutsche Bank.

5. 40 Wall Street Loan Issued by Ladder Capital

647. In approximately November 2015, the Trump Organization (through 40 Wall Street LLC) refinanced an existing $160 million mortgage from Capital One Bank on the office building property at 40 Wall Street, New York, NY.

648. The loan from Capital One had an interest rate of 5.7% and required a principal payment of $5 million in November 2015. In January 2015, after consulting with Eric Trump, Allen Weisselberg wrote to Capital One asking the bank to waive the principal payment, explicitly citing the $550 million valuation in the Statement of Financial Condition:

Mr. Trump's latest financial statement dated June 30, 2014 shows a valuation of $550,000,000 for the building based upon NOI & CAP rates on that date. This would put your loan at a 30% loan to value.

In light of the aforementioned valuation and considerable capital investment, along with a much improved cash flow (which will continue to grow as new tenant free rent continues to burn off) and an occupancy rate of 91%, which will be 96% after pending leases totaling 34,862 square feet are signed, we respectfully request that the required $5 million principal payment due in November 2015 be waived.

649. Capital One, which internally valued the building at roughly $260 million, declined to waive the principal payment. Mr. Weisselberg then began working with his son, a Director at Ladder Capital Finance, to refinance the $160 million mortgage at a rate that would be advantageous to the Trump Organization.

650. This new mortgage was issued by Ladder Capital Finance, and subsequently securitized pursuant to agreements between Ladder Capital and a number of banks. The loan required Mr. Trump to maintain a net worth of at least $160 million and liquidity of at least $15 million. In connection with those covenants, Mr. Trump was required to provide his annual financial statements "prepared in a form previously provided to Lender by Guarantor from an independent firm of certified public accountants acceptable to Lender (Lender agreeing that WeiserMazars LLP is an acceptable firm) and prepared in accordance with GAAP in all material respects (except as disclosed therein), including a balance sheet, and certified by Guarantor as being true, correct and complete and fairly presenting the financial condition and results of such Guarantor."

651. In connection with this refinancing loan, Cushman performed an appraisal of the Trump Organization's leasehold interest in 40 Wall Street, concluding that this interest had an "as is" market value of $540 million on June 1, 2015. The appraisal reached this conclusion both through a discounted cash flow approach and a direct capitalization approach. The latter, a direct function of NOI divided by a capitalization rate, used the figure of $23,203,919 as the property's NOI—noting that this figure was “Plus Year 1 Free Rent.” The free rent figure is noted as $7,776,980—suggesting that NOI without counting free rent was, instead, $15,432,939. That figure dovetails with the results presented in an income-and-expense table, similar to that contained in the 2010, 2011, and 2012 Cushman appraisal of 40 Wall Street. This table showed, for example, an NOI for 2012 of $6.5 million; for 2013, of $15.4 million; for 2014, $10.6 million; a budgeted NOI for 2015 (the year in question) of $14.2 million; and a Cushman forecast for the same year of $15.43 million.

652. Internal Ladder Capital documents indicate that Ladder underwrote the $160 million loan based on the $23 million NOI figure—and note that Mr. Trump had personally guaranteed tenants' free rent in the first year in the loan documents. A presentation to Ladder's Risk and Underwriting Committee contained an executive summary stating that the loan's underwriting net cash flow DSCR was 2.10x, meaning that net cash flow was more than twice debt service payments according to Ladder's underwriting team.

653. Other listed strengths included Mr. Trump's reported net worth of $5.8 billion as of June 30, 2014, and the property's strong recent leasing activity and below-market rents (which could roll into higher-paying tenants). The presentation also noted that the property's NOI, per the Cushman appraisal, was “$23,203,919,” with a footnote stating: “The Appraisal NOI reported above excludes free rent due to tenants during the first year of the Loan. Under the terms of the Loan Documents, Donald Trump will guarantee all outstanding Free Rent at closing of the Loan.”

6. Seven Springs Loan Issued by Royal Bank America / Bryn Mawr Bank

654. In 2000, Seven Springs LLC took out an approximately $8 million mortgage from Royal Bank America (“RBA”), later acquired by Bryn Mawr Bank in 2017. Donald J. Trump personally guaranteed the mortgage.

655. Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition were submitted to RBA and Bryn Mawr on multiple occasions in connection with the Seven Springs mortgage. A 2011 credit memo records that the financial statement was “compiled annually with a 6-30 date” and that the bank “typically receives the information in October.” A 2014 credit memo from Bryn Mawr contains data drawn from Mr. Trump’s 2011 and 2013 Statements.

656. The memo states that because of the “personal financial strength of Mr. Trump, as evidenced by liquid assets of $339 million (cash and marketables) and net worth of $5 billion, Royal Bank America previously waived the requirement of personal tax returns.” Another 2014 credit review document notes that the “primary shortfall” in the loan was the lack of cash flow at the property, because the annual loan payments (more than $1 million) is “a large number to cover,” and notes figures from Mr. Trump’s 2012 Statement.

657. Indeed, Bryn Mawr retained in its files Mr. Trump’s Statements of Financial Condition for 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, and 2016. Typically the Statements were sent under the cover of a letter from Jeffrey McConney at the Trump Organization, stating that Mr. Trump’s Statement was being provided pursuant to the mortgage.

658. The Statement of Financial Condition was material to not only the origination of the mortgage, but also to the regular maintenance of the loan and a series of extensions. For example, the Trump Organization obtained a series of extensions of the maturity date in 2001, 2002, 2003, 2006, 2009, 2011, 2014, and 2019. In connection with at least some of these modifications, the bank relied upon Mr. Trump’s Statements. In particular, the modification documents in 2011, 2014, and 2019 reiterate various representations and warranties made by the Borrower (Seven Springs LLC) in the original loan documents. Mr. Trump re-affirmed his personal guaranty prior to becoming President, and the 2019 modification was signed by Eric Trump “as attorney in fact” for Donald J. Trump.

659. The personal guaranty for this loan was described by Bryn Mawr in internal records as a positive component of the loan for the bank. For example, one 2011 memo stated, under the heading “pro” (vs. con), “Experienced and financially strong guarantor, with a reported $3.9 Billion net worth.” A 2014 memo similarly noted that renewal of the loan was recommended based on, among other factors, “Strong Guarantor Support” and “Personal financial strength of Mr. Trump evidenced by a reported net worth of $5 Billion and liquid assets of $354MM.”

660. During the 2019 loan modification Jeffrey McConney originally asked for a quote on the price of extending the loan without the personal guaranty of Donald J. Trump. He was told that he would be required to place about $700,000 in escrow at closing and was quoted an interest rate about half a percentage point higher per annum than if there was a guaranty. After receiving these terms, he and Eric Trump decided to extend the loan with the personal guaranty of Donald J. Trump in place.

661. Bryn Mawr personnel relied on Mr. Trump’s Statements for purposes of extending and maintaining the mortgage and accepted that they were complete and accurate as represented to the bank.

7. Other Efforts To Use The False And Misleading Statements In Commercial Transactions

662. In or about February 11, 2016, the Trump Organization—via a communication from Ivanka Trump to Rosemary Vrablic—sought an additional $50 million loan secured by the Doral property.

663. Ms. Vrablic further explained two “things to note” with respect to “the $50mm request” in a response email. First, Ms. Vrablic explained that a new appraisal would be required because the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act would not allow the bank to use the Trump Organization-ordered appraisal from the prior year.

664. Second, the “[u]se of proceeds must be clearly detailed so as not to be involved in any political or campaign uses of events.” “Dave O” (referring to Dave Orowitz) “had mentioned to Josh Frank in Lending that it would be used for Trump Turnberry improvements,” referring to a Trump golf course in Turnberry, Scotland, “and we would need to see the budgets etc.... To confirm this so we are both covered should the files be picked up by the regulators.”

665. On Monday, February 15, 2016, Ms. Vrablic wrote to a colleague at Deutsche Bank relaying the request from the Trump Organization that the bank either (a) agree to extend additional credit secured by the Doral property, with a full personal guaranty for the additional credit by Mr. Trump, or (b) agree to a wholly unsecured line of credit that, in “one year,” could be “[pa]id off” with an increased mortgage after a new appraisal would be ordered.

666. Ultimately, Deutsche Bank declined the request to extend further credit to Mr. Trump, then a presidential candidate, because it “could lead to the perception that DB was not politically neutral which posed an unacceptable level of reputational risk.”

667. Earlier, in July 2014, Donald J. Trump and the Trump Organization made a $1 billion bid to purchase the Buffalo Bills football team. Up to $800 million of that $1 billion bid could have been financed. As part of that bid, DJT and the Trump Organization needed a confidence letter from a financial institution to submit with his bid package. Mr. Trump asked Deutsche Bank (through Rosemary Vrablic) for that letter.

668. Mr. Trump, Mr. Weisselbnerg, and Mr. McConney met with Deutsche Bank personnel in connection with the request in July 2014. Mr. McConney then certified as to Mr. Trump's liquidity as of June 30, 2014, and that there had been "no material decrease" from the 2013 Statement of Financial Condition figures previously certified by Mr. Trump. Mr. Weisselberg would typically have executed the certification, but Mr. McConney executed it instead because Mr. Weisselberg was not in the office.

669. Mr. Trump's bid package—which was partially successful, in that Mr. Trump did advance further into the bid process—included a letter signed by Ms. Vrablic indicating that based upon the bank's review of Mr. Trump's financial information he would have the "financial wherewithal" to fund his bid to purchase the Bills football team.

670. Although Mr. Trump's 2013 Statement of Financial Condition (inflated pursuant to the deceptive strategies described above) reported a net worth of approximately $5.1 billion, Mr. Trump sent a separate letter, under his own signature, using an even higher figure in an effort to win the bidding: "I have a net worth in excess of Eight Billion Dollars (financial statements to be provided upon request) . . . ."

671. Finally, in 2010 the Trump Organization, through Allen Weisselberg, submitted an offer to the City of New York for a concession to operate, maintain, and manage an 18-hole golf course and related facilities at Ferry Point Park, Bronx, NY.

672. Mr. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition featured in the process of obtaining the contract, as well as the Trump Organization's maintaining its obligations under the contract.

673. In particular, the Trump Organization's bid enclosed a letter from Weiser LLP (Mazars' predecessor) incorporating Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition, referencing his net worth and cash position. A similar December 2011 letter was also submitted to the City.

674. The award granting the Trump Organization the concession cites Mr. Trump's wealth as one basis for award, and the contract documents include a personal guaranty by Mr. Trump. The guaranty stated that the full 2010 Statement of Financial Condition had been furnished to the City.

675. After 2012, when the Trump Organization won the contract, it was required (as part of Mr. Trump's personal guaranty on the contract) to represent periodically that there had been no material change in Mr. Trump's financial position. It did so by letters from Mazars that were expressly based on the then-most-recent Statement of Financial Condition. The Trump Organization submitted "no material change letters" to the City in 2010, 2011, 2013, 2016, 2017, 2018, and 2021.

E. Insurance-Related Benefits

676. Under New York Penal Law § 176.05, the submission of false information in a written statement submitted as part of an application for commercial insurance or to claim a benefit under an insurance policy is insurance fraud.

677. The Trump Organization and other Defendants committed insurance fraud by submitting Mr. Trump's false and misleading Statements, along with making other false representations, to obtain financial benefits under insurance policies from insurers participating on the Trump Organization's surety program and directors and officers liability program, as more fully described below.

1. Insurance Fraud Against Surety Underwriters

678. The Trump Organization submitted Mr. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition to insurers and its insurance broker by allowing underwriters only to review a copy of the Statements at the Trump Organization's offices. One of those insurers was Zurich North American ("Zurich").

679. From 2007 through 2021, Zurich underwrote a surety bond program (the "Surety Program") for the Trump Organization through insurance broker AON Risk Solutions ("AON"). Under the Surety Program, Zurich issued surety bonds on behalf of the Trump Organization within specified dollar limits in exchange for a premium calculated based on a rate times the face amount of the bonds. Most of the bonds were statutorily required for the Trump Organization's real estate business, such as liquor license bonds for golf courses or release of lien bonds for construction projects.

680. Over the course of the Surety Program, based on the financial disclosures made by the Trump Organization, Zurich agreed to increasingly more favorable terms—periodically increasing the limits and decreasing the rate. For example, in 2011, the Surety Program had a single bond limit of $500,000, an aggregate limit for all bonds of $2,000,000, and a rate of $20 per thousand. When the Surety Program was canceled in 2021, the single bond limit was $6,000,000, the aggregate limit was $20,000,000, and the rate was $10 per thousand. Over the course of the relationship, in accordance with its standard underwriting guidelines for surety business, Zurich required the Trump Organization to provide an indemnification against any loss should Zurich be required to pay under a bond.

681. From the inception of the Surety Program, the Trump Organization met this indemnification requirement through a General Indemnity Agreement (“GIA”) executed by Donald J. Trump, pursuant to which (similar to a personal guaranty on a loan) he personally agreed to indemnify Zurich for claims under the Surety Program. The GIA also included an annual requirement that Mr. Trump disclose to Zurich’s underwriter his personal financial statements. This annual financial disclosure requirement permitted Zurich to ensure that the indemnification from Mr. Trump was sufficient to support the continued renewal of the Surety Program.

682. Indeed, on multiple occasions when AON was unable to secure in a timely manner the required financial disclosure—which took the form of an on-site review of the Statements in a conference room at the Trump Organization’s offices—Zurich put the Surety Program into “cut-off” status, which means Zurich ceased writing new bonds and would cancel existing bonds on expiration, until Mr. Trump’s Statements were made available for review.

683. The indemnity was such a critical aspect of the Surety Program, that in early January 2017, with Mr. Trump’s inauguration fast approaching, Zurich insisted as a condition to renewing the Surety Program that the indemnification be modified to address the potential difficulty Zurich might have in seeking to enforce the GIA against a sitting president. After some negotiation, during which the Trump Organization’s lawyers sought to persuade Zurich that there was no legal impediment to suing a sitting president, Zurich and the Trump Organization agreed to resolve the issue by adding DJT Holdings LLC as an additional indemnitor on the GIA effective January 17, 2017.

684. The Trump Organization obtained Zurich’s approval to renew the Surety Program on at least two occasions through intentional misrepresentations concerning Mr. Trump’s Statements. During the on-site review that occurred on November 20, 2018 for the 2019 renewal, Zurich's underwriter was shown the June 30, 2018 Statement. The Statement listed as assets the Trump Organization's real estate holdings with valuations that Allen Weisselberg represented to Zurich's underwriter were determined each year by a professional appraisal firm "such as Cushman" "using cap rates and NOI as factors."

685. Zurich's underwriter considered the valuations to be reliable based on Weisselberg's representation that they were prepared by a professional appraisal firm and recorded such information in her underwriting file. Also, based on her interactions with Weisselberg during the review, Zurich's underwriter found him to be "highly professional, well educated, and conscientious about" his work. Weisselberg's representations about how the valuations were determined and the underwriter's impressions of Weisselberg factored favorably into her analysis leading to her recommendation that Zurich renew the Surety Program for 2019 on the existing terms, which it did.

686. During the on-site review for the next renewal, the Trump Organization disclosed to Zurich's underwriter Mr. Trump's 2019 Statement. Weisselberg again represented to Zurich's underwriter that the valuations for the real estate holdings listed in the Statements were derived annually by a professional appraisal firm. Further, he specified that the appraisals for the current Statement were performed by Newmark Group and had previously been prepared by Cushman, explaining that "[t]he reason for the change is the individual at Cushman with whom [the Trump Organization] had a longstanding relationship with moved to work at Newmark."

687. Again, Zurich's underwriter considered the valuations to be reliable based on Weisselberg's representation that they were prepared by the professional appraisal firm Newmark Group, and specifically by the same individual (Larson) who had purportedly derived the previous valuations when he was an employee of Cushman. The underwriter again assessed Weisselberg to be “highly professional, well educated, and conscientious about the operations” of the Trump Organization. Her impressions of Weisselberg and the representation that Newmark prepared the valuations all factored favorably into her analysis leading to her recommendation that Zurich renew the Surety Program in 2020 on the existing terms, which it did.

688. Weisselberg’s representations to Zurich’s underwriter that the valuations listed in Mr. Trump’s Statements were prepared annually by professional appraisal firms were false. As discussed in detail above, the Trump Organization did not retain any professional appraisal firm to prepare any of the valuations used for the Statements; instead, the valuations were prepared by Trump Organization personnel, contrary to what Zurich’s underwriter was expressly told and believed, and in almost all instances in a false and misleading manner.

689. Had Weisselberg told Zurich’s underwriter the truth about how the valuations for the Statements she reviewed had actually been prepared, she would have accorded them less weight and it would have negatively impacted her underwriting analysis. Moreover, had Zurich’s underwriter discovered during the renewal process that Weisselberg had misrepresented to her how the valuations were prepared, it would have caused her to doubt the veracity of the rest of the information disclosed by the Trump Organization during the renewal and would have called into serious question whether Zurich should continue its insurance relationship with the Trump Organization, or renew on terms less favorable to the Trump Organization.

690. The Trump Organization also failed to disclose that the valuation for the golf courses listed on Mr. Trump’s Statements within the “Clubs” category, which was approximately $2.2 billion in the 2019 Statement, included a substantial brand premium baked into the reported valuation. Under Zurich's underwriting guidelines, intangible assets such as brand value are to be excluded.

691. Had Weisselberg disclosed to Zurich's underwriter that the valuation listed for "Clubs" included the Trump brand premium, she would have been required under the guidelines to reduce that valuation to exclude the premium.

2. Insurance Fraud Against Directors & Officers Liability Underwriters

692. As of December 2016, the Trump Organization had in place Directors & Officers ("D&O") liability coverage consisting of a single primary policy providing a limit of $5,000,000 from Everest National Insurance Company ("Everest") at a premium of $125,000.

693. Everest had provided D&O liability coverage to the Trump Organization in 2013 and 2014 as well.

694. For purposes of that coverage, similar to the process described above with Zurich, the Trump Organization provided underwriters no more than fleeting access to Mr. Trump's Statements, through a monitored in-person review at Trump Tower. Pursuant to a non-disclosure agreement ("NDA"), the Everest underwriter would incorporate information from Mr. Trump's annual Statement provided by Allen Weisselberg for purposes of the annual renewal. At no point during such financial reviews were the underwriters informed about the false and misleading valuations contained within the Statement.

695. On December 6, 2016, AON reached out to an underwriter in the D&O Group of Tokio Marine HCC ("HCC") seeking a quote for additional limits of $5,000,000 to sit above the Everest policy. In presenting the opportunity to his supervisor, the HCC underwriter noted "[t]here are no financials to look at. Everest saw them for 30 minutes, under NDA at renewal but AON has never seen them."

696. The HCC underwriter received authority to quote a policy for the requested limits above the Everest policy through the expiration date of February 17, 2017 for a flat premium of $40,000 subject to reviewing the financials at renewal, which the underwriter conveyed in a formal quote to AON later in the day on December 6 and which the Trump Organization accepted.

697. In advance of the policy expiration, AON scheduled a “D&O Underwriting Meeting” at the Trump Organization’s offices on January 10, 2017 between Trump Organization personnel (including Weisselberg) and various underwriters, including HCC’s underwriter. Among the agenda items for discussion was Mr. Trump’s financial condition. According to the HCC underwriter’s email to his supervisor written the same day as the meeting, the Trump Organization was looking to cancel the existing policies and rewrite the program on the day of Mr. Trump’s presidential inauguration with significantly higher limits of $50,000,000 – a tenfold increase in the D&O coverage that existed under the Everest policy. AON advised HCC’s underwriter that HCC would be “in play” to take over the primary layer from Everest.

698. The underwriters at the meeting were provided very few financials but did see the balance sheet for year-end 2015, which showed total assets of $6.6 billion, cash of $192 million and total debt of $519 million with no single debt larger than $160 million and no concentration of maturities – all as reported in the 2015 Statement. The Trump Organization representatives assured the underwriters that the balance sheet for year-end 2016 that would be completed in a few weeks would be even better than the year-end 2015 balance sheet.

699. In response to specific questioning from the underwriters, the Trump Organization personnel represented that there was no material litigation or inquiry from anyone that could potentially lead to a claim under the D&O coverage. The HCC underwriter relied on this representation in concluding that there were no investigations by law enforcement agencies that could potentially trigger coverage under the D&O policies.

700. On January 20, 2017, after considering the information conveyed during the January 10 meeting, HCC offered terms for a primary $10,000,000 policy with a $2,500,000 retention for a premium of $295,000 subject to certain conditions. Coverage per these terms was bound on January 31, 2017, with effective dates of January 30, 2017 to January 30, 2018.

701. Despite the representations made to underwriters by the Trump Organization personnel during the January 10 meeting that there was no material litigation or inquiry from anyone that could potentially lead to a claim, there was at the time of the meeting an ongoing investigation by OAG into the Trump Foundation and Trump family members Donald J. Trump, Donald Trump, Jr., Ivanka Trump, and Eric Trump, all of whom were at the time directors and officers of the Trump Organization.

702. In September 2016, four months before the January 10 meeting, OAG had sent a notice of violation to the Trump Foundation and a letter to Trump Organization outside counsel Sheri Dillon requesting documents, to which Ms. Dillon replied on October 16, 2016. In October 2016, OAG had also issued third-party subpoenas in connection with its investigation and examined Allen Weisselberg, one of the attendees at the January 10 meeting.

703. Neither Mr. Weisselberg nor any other Trump Organization representative disclosed to the underwriters at the January 10 meeting or at any other time prior to the January 30 renewal of the D&O policies the existence of OAG's investigation into the Trump Foundation and Trump family members who were directors and officers of the Trump Organization. They withheld this information despite their understanding and belief that the OAG investigation could potentially lead to a claim under the D&O coverage, as evidenced by the notice of claim they submitted to the D&O insurers HCC, Starpoint, Swiss Re, Argo, and Allianz through AON on January 17, 2019 seeking coverage in connection with OAG's enforcement action resulting from the investigation.

704. Other notices of claims and circumstances from AON tendered under the D&O policies soon followed.

705. In June 2017, the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust, a named insured under the D&O policies, provided notice of claim on behalf of Michael Cohen in connection with a subpoena issued to him by the House of Representatives Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence ("House Intelligence Committee") seeking documents and testimony in connection with the House Intelligence Committee's investigation into Russian interference in the 2016 presidential election.

706. On January 12, 2018, just prior to the next renewal on January 30, 2018, AON provided notice of claim on behalf of Donald Trump, Jr., in connection with his involvement in the investigations by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, the House Intelligence Committee, and Special Counsel Robert Mueller into Russian interference in the 2016 presidential election.

707. These claim notices raised issues for HCC's underwriter. Specially, on January 26, 2018, HCC's underwriter asked AON to obtain a response to the question: "Is the Trump Organization aware of any other individuals (other than Cohen and Don Jr) in the Trump Organization who are involved or could reasonably expect to be involved in the current investigation?" HCC's underwriter agreed to extend the policy expiration date to February 10, 2018 to provide time to obtain a response.

708. AON provided the response from Trump Organization's General Counsel Alan Garten on February 1, 2018, identifying four individuals who had been requested to testify in addition to Michael Cohen and Donald Trump, Jr. No other individuals were identified in response to the HCC underwriter's inquiry about others who are involved or could reasonably be expected to be involved in the investigations that were the subject of the two claim notices.

709. Nor did anyone from the Trump Organization disclose during the renewal negotiations in early 2018 the existence of any other investigations or inquiries that could potentially lead to a claim under the D&O policies.

710. On February 5, 2018, based on the information provided during the renewal negotiations, HCC agreed to extend its $10,000,000 policy with a $2,500,000 retention for the expiring premium of $295,000 for another 12 months, ending February 10, 2019.

711. Based on further correspondence exchanged in 2018 between AON on behalf of the insureds and HCC's coverage counsel disputing whether coverage existed for the tendered claims on behalf of Michael Cohen and Donald Trump, Jr., HCC's underwriter determined that the exposure on the risk was significantly higher than previously assessed. As a result, on January 24, 2019, HCC offered to renew the $10,000,000 policy for a substantially increased premium of $1,600,000, more than five times the expiring premium. The Trump Organization declined to accept the renewal terms.

712. On February 8, 2019, two days before the expiration of the policy term, AON provided notice to the D&O underwriters of the following "claims and/or circumstances which may reasonably be expected to give rise to Claims (as defined in the Policies) against the insureds under the Policies":

- letters from Congressional members or committees seeking information regarding a June 2016 meeting with Natalia Veselnitskaya at Trump Tower, other campaign-related communications with Russian persons or entities relating to Hillary Clinton and/or the 2016 presidential election, and/or efforts by the Trump Organization or its affiliates to develop or partner with a developer to build a Trump-branded property in Moscow;

- letters from Congressional members or committees seeking information regarding Mr. Trump's compliance with the Emoluments Clause in the U.S. Constitution and/or conflicts of interest arising from Trump or Kushner-affiliated entities' business with foreign entities;
- a letter from a member of Congress seeking information regarding the use of a private email server by Ivanka Trump and Jared Kushner;
- two letters from Congressional members or committees seeking information regarding (a) payments made to Stephanie Clifford and Karen McDougal in violation of campaign finance laws, and/or (b) payments that the Trump Organization made to Michael Cohen relating to his payment of Ms. Clifford;
- an investigation by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York regarding the payments to Ms. Clifford, Ms. McDougal, and Mr. Cohen;
- the investigation by Special Counsel Mueller;
- an investigation by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York regarding the Presidential Inaugural Committee;
- "possible investigations" by multiple jurisdictions and investigative authorities (ICE, Dept. of Labor, State Attorneys General); and
- "possible investigations" by multiple investigative authorities (IRS, NYS Dept. of Taxation and Finance) regarding employer-provided housing and vehicles.

713. Trump Organization personnel made no disclosure at the January 10, 2017 meeting with underwriters or at any time prior to binding the policies that incepted on January 30, 2017 about any circumstances involving Russia and the 2016 presidential election, including the June 2016 meeting at Trump Tower with Ms. Veselnitskaya, or the effort to develop a Trump-branded property in Moscow.

714. With the exception of the House Intelligence Committee investigation and Mueller investigation into Russian interference in the 2016 presidential election, none of the investigations and inquiries referenced in AON's February 8, 2019 claim notice, or the circumstances giving rise to those investigations and inquiries, had previously been disclosed by Trump Organization personnel to underwriters during renewal negotiations.

F. Ongoing Scheme and Conspiracy

715. The foregoing allegations constitute a continuous, integrated scheme to inflate Mr. Trump's net worth in order to obtain financial benefits.

716. Specifically, Defendants each agreed to participate in a scheme to use false and misleading information to increase Mr. Trump's stated net worth on the Statement of Financial Condition for each year from 2011 through the present. Defendants further agreed to use those inflated Statements to obtain economic and financial benefits from 2011 through the present day.

717. When asked if he had an ongoing agreement from at least 2005 through the present with Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. McConney, and others to prepare the Statement of Financial Condition in a manner that included intentional overvaluations, Mr. Trump invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination and refused to answer.

718. When asked if he had an ongoing agreement from at least 2005 to the present with Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. McConney and others to prepare the Statement of Financial Condition in a manner that included false and misleading valuation statements, Mr. Trump invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination and refused to answer.

719. Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney directed other employees to prepare the Statements in a fraudulent manner and in a way that insured that Mr. Trump's wealth increased each year.

720. As Executive Vice Presidents of the Trump Organization, Donald Trump Jr., Ivanka Trump and Eric Trump were also aware of, and knowingly participated in, the scheme. Indeed, the fraudulent scheme was integral to the business of the Trump Organization and required the participation of Mr. Trump and his children.

721. As Executive Vice Presidents, the three children were intimately involved in the operation of the Trump Organization's business. They were aware of the true financial performance of the company, whether through Donald Trump Jr.'s work on commercial leasing, Ivanka Trump's work on Doral, Trump Chicago and OPO, or Eric Trump's work on the golf course portfolio.

722. Indeed, the Trump Organization took extensive steps to keep them all up to date on the company's operations. For example, the Trump Organization maintained a "Master Office Calendar" for Mr. Trump, Donald Trump, Jr., Ivanka Trump and Eric Trump.

Master Office Calendar* - 5/7/15

Distribution List#
Donald J. Trump
Donald J. Trump, Jr.
Ivanka Trump
Eric Trump

723. While the calendar would also be distributed to lower level employees, it allowed the four executives to track key obligations of the business. Those included submission of "DJT June 30 Statement of Financial Condition" in connection with Doral, Trump Chicago and OPO. The master office calendar also reflected detail about financing, payment due dates, financial statements on individual properties and partnerships; in sum, all of the information that allowed Donald Trump, Jr., Ivanka Trump and Eric Trump to understand the true valuation of the properties contained in the Statement of Financial Condition.

724. Donald Trump, Jr., Ivanka Trump and Eric Trump were also familiar with the true performance of the properties compiled in the Statements of Financial through financial reporting from Allen Weisselberg and others. For example, in February 2016, Mr. Weisselberg prepared a detailed report on the Trump Organization's performance in 2015, with a cover memo headed:

To: Don Jr., Ivanka & Eric
From: Allen Weisselberg
Date: February 24, 2016

Re: 2015 Corporate Operating Financial Summary

As per your request enclosed please find a detailed analysis setting forth our various business segments and their resulting operations for calendar year 2015.

725. The enclosed report included individualized breakdowns on golf courses, hotels, Trump Tower, Niketown, 40 Wall Street, and virtually every component of the Statement of Financial Condition.

726. And in their roles as Executive Vice Presidents, each of the three Trump children had familiarity with, responsibility for, and made use of, the Statements of Financial Condition in commercial transactions.

727. Donald Trump, Jr., a graduate of the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania, was a source of valuations in the Statement of Financial Condition for properties like Trump Park Avenue. He was familiar with the financial performance of the properties incorporated in the Statement, including through his responsibility for commercial leasing in buildings like 40 Wall Street and Trump Tower. As a Trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust, Donald Trump, Jr. was responsible for the preparation of the Statement for every year from 2016 to the present. Donald Trump, Jr. certified to the accuracy of the Statement in 2017, 2018 and 2019.

728. Ivanka Trump, an honors graduate of the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania, was familiar with the Statements of Financial Condition, making presentations on them to the GSA in 2011, and using them to facilitate loans from Deutsche Bank in 2012 and 2013. Ms. Trump maintained responsibility for those loans, which required annual submission of the Statements and confirmation that there had been no material changes in Mr. Trump's net worth. Ms. Trump was familiar with the financial performance of the properties incorporated in the Statement, including through her responsibility for Trump International Realty.

729. Eric Trump, an honors graduate of Georgetown University with a degree in Finance and Management, was a source of valuations in the Statement of Financial Condition for properties like Seven Springs. Eric Trump certified to the accuracy of the Statement in 2020 and 2021. When asked if he ever assisted in the preparation of the Statement of Financial Condition, Eric Trump invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination and refused to answer. Eric Trump was familiar with the financial performance of the properties incorporated in the Statement, including through his responsibility for the Trump Golf properties.

730. The corporate Defendants each participated in the scheme through the actions of their high managerial agents – including Mr. Trump, Donald Trump, Jr., Ivanka Trump, Eric Trump, Allen Weisselberg and Jeffrey McConney – acting within the scope of the agent's employment.

731. Some aspects of the scheme were well known publicly. For example, Mr. Trump's desire to keep his reported net worth high was widely reported. In a 2015 article, Forbes wrote that of all the individuals who have appeared on its list of the 400 wealthiest Americans, "not one has been more fixated with his or her net worth estimate on a year-in, year-out basis than Donald J. Trump.” The article described Mr. Trump’s net worth as a “subject that he cares about to the depths of his soul.”

732. That same article quotes Mr. Trump on his motivation for inflating his net worth: “It was good for financing.”

733. This public desire to inflate his net worth was well known amongst his children and employees. As far back as March 2007, the European Bureau Chief of Forbes wrote to Donald Trump, Jr. and Ivanka Trump with the subject matter “Still awfully rich . . .” In that email, the bureau chief wrote that: “Your dad called. He’s always good to me. He mentioned that he’d seen his wealth quoted at $2.6 billion in the local paper. That didn’t sound right to me. I just checked: We’ve still got him at $2.9 billion, same as September. I told Kelly already but if you talk to him, mention it.”

734. The scheme to inflate Mr. Trump’s net worth also remained consistent year after year. The supporting data spreadsheet for each annual Statement incorporated the prior year’s valuations and tracked changes to insure the total valuation increased as directed by Mr. Trump and Mr. Weisselberg. Starting in 2014, the supporting spreadsheets included a column entitled “change in clubs” that tracked the overall rise or fall in the value of the clubs individually and as a group. Properties were grouped together in broad buckets to disguise annual fluctuations in value of individual properties. Properties would move from one group to another to disguise significant declines. Single conversations with “professionals” and others would serve as the basis to inflate values over multiple years. For example, a single 2013 conversation with an executive at ClubCorp, a large, privately owned golf management company, served as the basis for adding a premium to the value of Trump golf clubs through 2018.

735. The loans obtained through the use of the inflated Statements likewise required performance and confirmation year after year. Each of the Deutsche Bank loans, for example had terms extending past 2022 and each had continuing obligations to maintain a net worth of at least $2.5 billion and unencumbered liquidity of $50 million. Each of the loans required the annual submission of the Statement of Financial Condition to meet these covenants as well as a certification that the Statements were true and accurate and there had been no material changes to either Mr. Trump's net worth or his liquidity.

736. Defendants also went to great lengths to conceal their fraud. In submitting information to Mazars, Defendants would exclude key information, like lender-ordered appraisals on a given property or limitations on development like the easements on Mar-a-Lago. In presenting the Statements, Defendants hid the precise valuation of individual properties by grouping them together into categories like "Club facilities and related real estate." When properties dropped in value, the change was covered up by increasing the valuation of other properties in the same category, or moving them into different categories, the way Seven Springs was moved into "other assets" following receipt of the appraisal for the easement donation.

737. The Trump Organization also sought to limit the ability of counter-parties to review the Statements of Financial Condition or disseminate them more broadly. Some insurers would only be able to sit in a room to review the Statements. Often the Trump Organization would only send hard copies of the Statements to lenders.

738. The Trump Organization also took steps to conceal Defendants' fraud in response to direct inquiries from Deutsche Bank. Specifically, on October 29, 2020, Deutsche Bank wrote to Donald Trump, Jr.:

Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas (“DBTCA”) has recently become aware of certain public factual allegations concerning the accuracy of financial information and representations submitted to DBTCA in connection with various loan facilities extended to affiliates of the Trump Organization and subject to the personal financial guaranty of Donald J. Trump. These allegations have been raised, among other places, in public court filings by the Office of the New York Attorney General (“OAG”), as well as in public reporting by the New York Times related to certain tax return information reportedly obtained by that organization.

The factual allegations appear to directly relate to the accuracy of certain Statements of Financial Condition submitted to DBTCA in Donald J. Trump’s capacity as guarantor to the relevant loan facilities. The allegations pertain to, among other things, the value and other attributes of certain assets referenced in such Statements of Financial Condition, including but not limited to the Mansion at Seven Springs and the Trump National Golf Club in Los Angeles.

739. The bank asked a series of specific questions about the easement donations and an article in the New York Times discussing an inquiry by the IRS into a $72.9 million tax refund claimed in 2009.

740. The Trump Organization offered no response until December 7, 2020, when Alan Garten, Chief Legal Officer, emailed Deutsche Bank to say that the letter had only just come to the company’s attention.

741. Deutsche Bank wrote back on December 14, 2020, requesting a response and providing additional detail:

As you know, Donald J. Trump is required under the terms of his loan guaranties to provide annual financial statements to Deutsche Bank and to ensure that those statements “are true and correct in all material respects.” See, e.g., Old Post Office (“OPO”) Guaranty Agreement, § 9(ix). This information is used by the Bank to assess the borrowers’ and Mr. Trump’s compliance with loan and guaranty covenants, as non-compliance with such covenants may result in an event of default. See, e.g., OPO Loan Agreement, § 7.1(b). Failure to provide accurate valuations of financial assets may fundamentally impact the Bank’s view of borrowers’ and Mr. Trump’s compliance with such covenants. Additionally, Mr. Trump must submit annually a signed certificate certifying, among other things, his compliance with covenants relating to his net worth, debt, and unencumbered liquid assets, and further certifying that his Statement of Financial Condition “presents fairly in all material aspects” his financial condition. See, e.g., Old Post Office Guaranty Agreement, Section 11(i)(D). The loan agreements and guaranties provide that an event of default occurs when “[a]ny representation or warranty of Borrower or Guarantor herein or in any other Loan Document or any amendment to any thereof shall prove to have been false or misleading in any material respect at the time made or intended to be effective.” See, e.g., OPO Loan Agreement, § 7.1(d).

742. On December 16, 2020, Mr. Garten said he hoped to have a response “within the next few days.” Deutsche Bank wrote back on January 8, 2020 asking for a response. Ultimately none was forthcoming.

743. Defendants did try to limit their exposure on the Deutsche Bank loans in 2022 by selling the OPO property, paying off the loan to Deutsche Bank, and recovering their capital investment and any accrued profits. Shortly thereafter, Defendants exited the Doral loan by refinancing with Axos Bank.

744. During the negotiations with Axos Bank in February 2022, the Trump Organization sought to avoid submitting a Statement of Financial Condition or making representations about Mr. Trump’s net worth. Instead, the Trump Organization pushed to provide a schedule of material real estate assets and liabilities and leave it to the lender to calculate net worth. As counsel for the Trump Organization wrote on February 11, 2022:

Subject: RE: Trump Tower/Axos - Loan Documents (Remaining Comments)

David,

In the Partial Payment Guaranty, can you please add the “material” as you did in the other Guaranty, and in each Guaranty add a reasonableness standard for Lender’s determination of New Worth (see below). Other than that, no further comments. Thanks.

(a) Financial Reporting. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar quarter, Guarantor shall furnish to Lender a schedule of material real estate assets and all related material liabilities, including material contingent liabilities, and a calculation of Net Worth and Liquidity (as such terms are defined below), all in form and content acceptable

Net Worth shall be determined by Lender in its reasonable direction, taking into consideration the financial information delivered to Lender in accordance with Section [4/5] of this Agreement, together with Lender’s reasonable determination of the value of the real estate assets identified therein.

745. The Trump Organization also sought to limit the liability of Donald Trump, Jr. as trustee, with the bank eventually drawing the line at exculpating him for fraud. As counsel for Axos Bank wrote:

2. With respect to the request to exculpate Donald J. Trump, Jr. in his role as trustee, we are generally ok with the language proposed by your trust counsel, provided that we do not believe the exculpation should eliminate liability for fraud or for a misrepresentation by trustee (1) in the certifications made in the Trust Certificate (in particular as it relates to authority to bind the trust) or (2) with respect to ongoing deliverables provided by the Guarantor under the Loan Documents. We will provide proposed language tomorrow and can discuss any concerns that you may have.

746. Finally, Defendants sought to conceal their fraud through repeated failures to provide documents in response to subpoenas from OAG. As reflected over the course of extensive litigation in the matter People v. The Trump Organization, No. 451685/2020, pending in this Court:

- a. The Trump Organization failed to do a thorough search for electronic documents in response to an initial subpoena in December 2019, including failing to identify the fact that certain responsive documents had not been collected because of errors in a data migration. That issue was only identified and addressed upon inquiry by OAG. As a result, the Trump Organization hired a third-party vendor to review the collection process pursuant to a stipulated order. The Trump Organization did not certify that its production was complete until April 2022.

- b. Even that production failed to include all responsive documents for Donald J. Trump, which were only obtained after a follow-up subpoena from OAG and Mr. Trump was held in contempt by this Court for failure to properly certify a response to that subpoena. The contempt was not purged until June 29, 2022.

747. But even after almost two years of litigation it appears that it may still be the case that not all responsive documents were produced. Among other things, in litigation over a search warrant executed at Mar-a-Lago on August 8, 2022, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida noted that “the seized materials include . . . correspondence related to taxes, and accounting information.” Trump v. United States, 22 Civ. 81294, Order, Docket 64 (S.D. Fla. Sept. 5, 2022). Documents concerning taxes and accounting information would appear to be responsive to OAG’s subpoenas, but no such documents for Mr. Trump were produced by counsel for Mr. Trump despite a representation by that counsel that: I “diligently searched each and every room of Respondent’s private residence located at Mar-a-Lago, including all desks, drawers, nightstands, dressers, closets, etc. I was unable to locate any documents responsive to the Subpoena that have not already been produced to the OAG by the Trump Organization.”

V. CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Executive Law § 63(12) – Persistent and Repeated Fraud
(Against All Defendants)

748. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the paragraphs above as if fully stated herein.

749. New York Executive Law § 63(12) empowers the Attorney General to seek restitution, damages, and injunctive relief when any person or business entity has engaged in repeated fraudulent or illegal acts or otherwise demonstrates persistent fraud or illegality in the carrying on, conducting or transaction of business.

750. At all relevant times, Defendants have engaged in carrying on, conducting, or the transaction of business in New York within the meaning of Executive Law § 63(12).

751. Fraud under Executive Law § 63(12) is broadly defined to include “any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud and any deception, misrepresentation, concealment, suppression, false pretense, false promise or unconscionable contractual provisions.”

752. Fraudulent conduct as used in § 63(12) includes acts that have the “capacity or tendency to deceive, or create[ ] an atmosphere conducive to fraud.” People v. Applied Card Sys., Inc., 27 A.D.3d 104, 107 (3d Dep’t 2005), aff’d on other grounds, 11 N.Y.3d 105 (2008); see also People v. Northern Leasing Systems, Inc., 193 A.D.3d 67, 73 (1st Dep’t 2021). The terms “fraud” and “fraudulent” are “given a wide meaning so as to embrace all deceitful practices contrary to the plain rules of common honesty, including all acts, even though not originating in any actual evil design to perpetrate fraud or injury upon others, which do tend to deceive or mislead.” People ex rel. Cuomo v. Greenberg, 95 A.D.3d 474, 483 (1st Dep’t 2012).

753. Persistent fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) is broadly defined to include continuance or carrying on of any fraudulent or illegal act or conduct.

754. Repeated fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) includes “repetition of any separate and distinct fraudulent or illegal act, or conduct which affects more than one person.”

755. Defendants’ acts and practices alleged herein constitute conduct proscribed by Executive Law § 63(12) in that Defendants engaged in persistent and repeated fraudulent acts. As set forth in the allegations above, Defendants made or caused to be made misrepresentations, false or misleading statements, and statements that were misleading by omission, concealment, or suppression of information. All of this conduct, moreover, occurred in an atmosphere conducive to fraud—in which the goal of increasing Mr. Trump’s reported net worth on the Statements was well known and carried out by his agents and subordinates. Further, all of that conduct was directed toward presenting misleading statements to others—including lenders, insurance companies, and governmental entities.

756. The acts of fraud alleged here were repeated—entailing, among other things, dozens of specific numerical entries in financial spreadsheets; dozens of verbal representations in financial statements; and other fraudulent and misleading conduct by the Defendants.

757. The acts of fraud alleged here also were repeated, in the sense that they affected more than one person under Executive Law § 63(12). In particular, the acts of fraud alleged herein affected lenders, employees who worked for those lenders and insurers, the accounting firm that compiled the Statements, and personnel of that firm.

758. The acts of fraud alleged herein were also persistent, which connotes the “continuance” or “carrying on” of fraudulent conduct. Here, the key individual players remained the same over the course of several years: Jeffrey McConney (prepared or supervised preparation of supporting spreadsheets); Allen Weisselberg (reviewed and approved spreadsheets, and, as trustee, certified Statements’ accuracy); Donald J. Trump (reviewed and approved Statements and certified their accuracy), Donald Trump, Jr. (as trustee, certified the Statements’ accuracy). Moreover, these Defendants engaged in the same or similar conduct consistently over the course of several years—relying on prior years’ information to prepare new valuations, continuing the use of deceptive wording to describe valuations performed, and continuing deceptive strategies used on the prior year’s Statements.

759. Executive Law § 63(12) also proscribes, as one type of fraud, “any . . . scheme or artifice to defraud.” Defendants’ conduct constituted one or more schemes to defraud under § 63(12). In particular, Defendants’ conduct was committed to obtain property (including bank funds and insurance proceeds) by means of false or fraudulent pretenses or representations; involved common and closely related techniques, misrepresentations, omissions and concealments of material facts over a period of years; and involved a common nucleus of actors, namely the Trump Organization, its constituent entities, its executives, and its other agents. See, e.g., People v. First Meridian Corp., 80 N.Y.2d 608, 616-17 (1995) (holding that it was appropriate to infer the existence of a “unitary scheme to defraud” under Penal Law using similar factors).

760. Defendants are also liable for persistent and repeated fraud under Executive Law § 63(12) as participants in a long-running conspiracy. Although not an independent cause of action in New York, a civil conspiracy, if it exists, may “connect the actions of separate defendants with an otherwise actionable tort.” Abacus Federal Savings Bank v. Lim, 75 A.D.3d 472, 474 (1st Dep’t 2010). Here, the actions of the Defendants—including making numerous false and misleading entries and omissions in financial statements and supporting materials in a similar manner over the course of more than a decade, and then submitting them to financial institutions as certified by Mr. Trump or his trustees—reflect the existence of an agreement to commit fraud within the meaning of § 63(12). Cf. People v. Flanagan, 28 N.Y.3d 644 (2017) (unlawful agreement often shown by circumstantial evidence). Indeed, when asked if he, Mr. Weisselberg, and Mr. McConney, since at least as far back as 2005, had an ongoing agreement to generate false or misleading financial statements, Mr. Trump invoked his Fifth Amendment privilege. Each Defendant knowingly participated in the conspiracy and engaged in overt acts in furtherance of it: helping craft the Statements, using them to secure favorable financial terms, or certifying their accuracy to third parties. Overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy occurred as late as 2019, 2020, 2021, and 2022.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Pursuant to Executive Law § 63(12), Repeated and Persistent
Illegality: Falsifying Business Records under New York Penal Law
(Against All Defendants)

761. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the paragraphs above as if fully stated herein.

762. New York Executive Law § 63(12) empowers the Attorney General to seek restitution, damages, and injunctive relief when any person or business entity has engaged in repeated fraudulent or illegal acts or otherwise demonstrates persistent fraud or illegality in the carrying on, conducting or transaction of business.

763. At all relevant times, Defendants have engaged in carrying on, conducting, or the transaction of business in New York within the meaning of Executive Law § 63(12).

764. Persistent fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) is broadly defined to include continuance or carrying on of any fraudulent or illegal act or conduct.

765. Repeated fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) includes “repetition of any separate and distinct fraudulent or illegal act, or conduct which affects more than one person.”

766. Falsifying business records in the second degree, New York Penal Law § 175.05, is committed when, with intent to defraud, a person:

- a. Makes or causes a false entry in the business records of an enterprise; or
- b. Alters, erases, obliterates, deletes, removes or destroys a true entry in the business records of an enterprise; or
- c. Omits to make a true entry in the business records of an enterprise in violation of a duty to do so which he knows to be imposed upon him by law or by the nature of his position; or
- d. Prevents the making of a true entry or causes the omission thereof in the business records of an enterprise.

767. The elements of falsifying business records in the first degree are met when a person commits falsifying business records in the second degree, and when the intent to defraud includes an intent to commit another crime or to aid or conceal the commission thereof. People v. Reyes, 69 A.D.3d 537 (1st Dep’t 2010).

768. Defendants, through their conduct described above, have made or caused to be made false entries and/or made or caused to be made the omission of true entries in the business records of an enterprise. Examples of falsified business records or portions thereof identified in the allegations above include false figures used to value properties, false claims that liquid assets belonged to Mr. Trump when they did not, false verbiage about how underlying valuations were prepared, and financial statements and supporting documents that omit true facts.

769. In addition, through their conduct described above, Defendants have made or caused to be made false entries and or made or caused to be made the omission of true entries in the business records of an enterprise with the intent to commit another crime or aid or conceal the omission thereof—including the issuance of a false financial statement under Penal Law § 175.45 and insurance-fraud violations below.

770. Defendants’ conduct in this regard was “repeated” in the sense that it occurred multiple times and affected more than one person.

771. Defendants’ conduct in this regard was “persistent” because it continued and was carried on over the course of several years.

772. With respect to Defendants that are not natural persons, they are liable for the additional reasons that the unlawful falsification of records was committed by one or more of their high managerial agents acting within the scope of the agent’s employment.

773. Consequently, Defendants have engaged in repeated and persistent illegality in violation of Executive Law § 63(12) by falsifying business records.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Pursuant to Executive Law § 63(12) Repeated and Persistent Illegality: Conspiracy to Falsify Business Records under New York Penal Law
(Against All Defendants)

774. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the paragraphs above as if fully stated herein.

775. New York Executive Law § 63(12) empowers the Attorney General to seek restitution, damages, and injunctive relief when any person or business entity has engaged in repeated fraudulent or illegal acts or otherwise demonstrates persistent fraud or illegality in the carrying on, conducting or transaction of business.

776. At all relevant times, Defendants have engaged in carrying on, conducting, or the transaction of business in New York within the meaning of Executive Law § 63(12).

777. Persistent fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) is broadly defined to include continuance or carrying on of any fraudulent or illegal act or conduct.

778. Repeated fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) includes “repetition of any separate and distinct fraudulent or illegal act, or conduct which affects more than one person.”

779. In New York, a criminal conspiracy consists of an “agreement to cause a specific crime to be committed together with the actual commission of an overt act by one of the conspirators in furtherance of the conspiracy.” Robinson v. Snyder, 259 A.D.2d 280, 281 (1st Dep’t 1999).

780. Defendants’ acts and practices, such as making or causing to be made false entries in the business records of an enterprise, reflect the existence of an agreement to falsify the Statements of Financial Condition, supporting data spreadsheets, and other business records with requisite intent for that conduct to violate the Penal Law.

781. At least one of the Defendant co-conspirators engaged in an overt act in furtherance of the conspiracy. Those acts included entering or causing to be entered false entries in the business records of an enterprise, or knowingly omitting to make true entries in those business records, or using the Statements of Financial Condition for purposes of obtaining financial benefits.

782. Thus, Defendants engaged in a conspiracy to falsify business records as defined by New York Penal Law.

783. Defendants' conduct in this regard was "repeated" in the sense that it occurred multiple times or affected more than one person.

784. Defendants' conduct in this regard was "persistent" because it continued and was carried on over the course of several years.

785. Overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy occurred as late as 2019, 2020, 2021, and 2022.

786. With respect to Defendants that are not natural persons, they are liable for the additional reasons that the unlawful conspiracy to falsify business records was committed by one or more of their high managerial agents acting within the scope of the agent's employment.

787. Consequently, Defendants have engaged in repeated and persistent fraud or illegality in violation of Executive Law§ 63(12) by conspiring to falsify business records.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Pursuant to Executive Law § 63(12) Persistent Illegality: Issuing False Financial Statements under New York Penal Law § 175.45

(Against All Defendants)

788. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the paragraphs above as if fully stated herein.

789. New York Executive Law § 63(12) empowers the Attorney General to seek restitution, damages, and injunctive relief when any person or business entity has engaged in repeated fraudulent or illegal acts or otherwise demonstrates persistent fraud or illegality in the carrying on, conducting or transaction of business.

790. At all relevant times, Defendants have engaged in carrying on, conducting, or the transaction of business in New York within the meaning of Executive Law § 63(12).

791. Persistent fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) is broadly defined to include continuance or carrying on of any fraudulent or illegal act or conduct.

792. Repeated fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) includes “repetition of any separate and distinct fraudulent or illegal act, or conduct which affects more than one person.”

793. Pursuant to Executive Law § 63(12), Defendants’ acts and practices constitute issuing false financial statements under the New York State Penal Code.

794. A person issues a false financial statement, under New York Penal Law § 175.45, when the person, with intent to defraud, (1) knowingly makes or utters a written instrument which purports to describe the financial condition of some person and which is inaccurate in some material respect, or (2) represents in writing that a written instrument purporting to describe a person’s financial condition as of a particular date is accurate with respect to such person’s current financial condition, knowing it is materially inaccurate in that respect.

795. Defendants, through their conduct described above, have, with intent to defraud, knowingly made or uttered materially inaccurate written instruments purporting to describe Donald Trump's financial condition.

796. Defendants' conduct in this regard was "repeated" in the sense that it occurred multiple times and affected more than one person.

797. Defendants' conduct in this regard was "persistent" because it continued and was carried on over the course of several years.

798. With respect to Defendants that are not natural persons, they are liable for the additional reasons that the unlawful issuance of a false financial statement was committed by one or more of their high managerial agents acting within the scope of the agent's employment.

799. Consequently, Defendants have engaged in repeated and persistent fraud or illegality in violation of Executive Law § 63(12) by issuing false financial statements.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Illegality: Conspiracy to Falsify False Financial Statements under New York Penal Law
(Against All Defendants)

800. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the paragraphs above as if fully stated herein.

801. 802. At all relevant times, Defendants have engaged in carrying on, conducting, or the transaction of business in New York within the meaning of Executive Law § 63(12).

803. Persistent fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) is broadly defined to include continuance or carrying on of any fraudulent or illegal act or conduct.

804. Repeated fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) includes “repetition of any separate and distinct fraudulent or illegal act, or conduct which affects more than one person.”

805. In New York, a criminal conspiracy consists of an “agreement to cause a specific crime to be committed together with the actual commission of an overt act by one of the conspirators in furtherance of the conspiracy.” Robinson v. Snyder, 259 A.D.2d 280, 281 (1st Dep’t 1999).

806. Defendants’ acts and practices, such as making or causing to be made materially inaccurate written instruments purporting to describe Donald Trump’s financial condition, reflect the existence of an agreement to issue false financial statements as defined under the New York Penal Law.

807. At least one of the Defendant co-conspirators engaged in an overt act, such as preparing the Statements, certifying the Statements’ accuracy, signing letters necessary to the Statements’ issuances, preparing supporting information, contributing supporting information, or conveying such information to third parties, in furtherance of the agreement.

808. Overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy occurred as late as 2019, 2020, 2021, and 2022.

809. Thus, Defendants engaged in a conspiracy to issue false financial statements as defined by New York Penal Law.

810. Defendants’ conduct in this regard was “repeated” in the sense that it occurred multiple times or affected more than one person.

811. Defendants' conduct in this regard was "persistent" because it continued and was carried on over the course of several years.

812. With respect to Defendants that are not natural persons, they are liable for the additional reasons that the unlawful conspiracy to issue false financial statements was committed by one or more of their high managerial agents acting within the scope of the agent's employment.

813. Consequently, Defendants have engaged in repeated and persistent fraud or illegality in violation of Executive Law § 63(12) by conspiring to issue false financial statements.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Pursuant to Executive Law § 63(12) Repeated and Persistent
Illegality: Insurance Fraud under New York Penal Law § 176.05
(Against All Defendants)

814. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the paragraphs above as if fully stated herein.

815. New York Executive Law § 63(12) empowers the Attorney General to seek restitution, damages, and injunctive relief when any person or business entity has engaged in repeated fraudulent or illegal acts or otherwise demonstrates persistent fraud or illegality in the carrying on, conducting or transaction of business.

816. At all relevant times, Defendants have engaged in carrying on, conducting, or the transaction of business in New York within the meaning of Executive Law § 63(12).

817. Persistent fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) is broadly defined to include continuance or carrying on of any fraudulent or illegal act or conduct.

818. Repeated fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) includes "repetition of any separate and distinct fraudulent or illegal act, or conduct which affects more than one person."

819. Pursuant to Executive Law § 63(12), Defendants' acts and practices constitute insurance fraud under the New York State Penal Code.

820. Under New York State Penal Law §176.05, "[a] fraudulent insurance act is committed by any person who, knowingly and with intent to defraud presents, causes to be presented, or prepares with knowledge or belief that it will be presented to or by an insurer . . . or any agent thereof: 1. any written statement as part of, or in support of, an application for the issuance of . . . a commercial insurance policy, . . . or a claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy . . . for commercial or personal insurance that he or she knows to: (a) contain materially false information concerning any fact material thereto; or (b) conceal, for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto."

821. Defendants, through their conduct described above, knowingly and with the intent to defraud presented, caused to present, or prepared, written statements in support of applications for insurance knowing they contained materially false information concerning facts material to those applications, and/or concealed, for the purpose of misleading insurers, information concerning facts material to those written statements.

822. Defendants' conduct in this regard was "repeated" in the sense that it occurred multiple times and affected more than one person.

823. Defendants' conduct in this regard was "persistent" because it continued and was carried on over the course of several years.

824. With respect to Defendants that are not natural persons, they are liable for the additional reasons that the insurance fraud was committed by one or more of their high managerial agents acting within the scope of the agent's employment.

825. Consequently, Defendants have engaged in repeated and persistent illegality in violation of Executive Law § 63(12) by committing insurance fraud.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Pursuant to Executive Law § 63(12) Repeated and Persistent Fraud or Illegality: Conspiracy to Commit Insurance Fraud under New York Penal Law
(Against All Defendants)

826. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the paragraphs above as if fully stated herein.

827. New York Executive Law § 63(12) empowers the Attorney General to seek restitution, damages, and injunctive relief when any person or business entity has engaged in repeated fraudulent or illegal acts or otherwise demonstrates persistent fraud or illegality in the carrying on, conducting or transaction of business.

828. At all relevant times, Defendants have engaged in carrying on, conducting, or the transaction of business in New York within the meaning of Executive Law § 63(12).

829. Persistent fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) is broadly defined to include continuance or carrying on of any fraudulent or illegal act or conduct.

830. Repeated fraud or illegality under Executive Law § 63(12) includes “repetition of any separate and distinct fraudulent or illegal act, or conduct which affects more than one person.”

831. In New York, a criminal conspiracy consists of an “agreement to cause a specific crime to be committed together with the actual commission of an overt act by one of the conspirators in furtherance of the conspiracy.” Robinson v. Snyder, 259 A.D.2d 280, 281 (1st Dep’t 1999).

832. Defendants’ acts and practices, such as causing to present, or preparing, written statements in support of insurance applications, knowing such statements to contain materially false information concerning facts material to those applications, and/or concealing information concerning facts material to those written statements, reflect the existence of an agreement to commit insurance fraud as defined under the New York Penal Law.

833. At least one of the Defendant co-conspirators engaged in an overt act, causing to present, or preparing, written statements in support of insurance applications, knowing such statements to contain materially false information concerning facts material to those applications, and/or concealing information concerning facts material to those written statements, in furtherance of the agreement.

834. Thus, Defendants engaged in a conspiracy to commit insurance fraud as defined by New York Penal Law.

835. Defendants' conduct in this regard was "repeated" in the sense that it occurred multiple times and affected more than one person.

836. Defendants' conduct in this regard was "persistent" because it continued and was carried on over the course of several years.

837. With respect to Defendants that are not natural persons, they are liable for the additional reasons that the conspiracy to engage in insurance fraud was committed by one or more of their high managerial agents acting within the scope of the agent's employment.

838. Consequently, Defendants have engaged in repeated and persistent illegality in violation of Executive Law§ 63(12) by conspiring to commit insurance fraud.

VI. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter an order and judgment granting the following relief to remedy the substantial, persistent, and repeated fraudulent and misleading conduct in the business of the Trump Organization occurring since 2011:

- A. Cancelling any certificate filed under and by virtue of the provisions of section one hundred thirty of the General Business Law for the corporate entities named as defendants and any other entity controlled by or beneficially owned by Donald J. Trump which participated in or benefitted from the foregoing fraudulent scheme;
- B. Appointing an independent monitor to oversee compliance, financial reporting, valuations, and disclosures to lenders, insurers, and tax authorities, at the Trump Organization, for a period of no less than five years;
- C. Replacing the current trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust (“Revocable Trust”) with new independent trustees, and requiring similar independent governance in any newly-formed trust should the Revocable Trust be revoked and replaced with another trust structure;
- D. Requiring the Trump Organization to prepare on an annual basis for the next five years a GAAP-compliant, audited statement of financial condition showing Mr. Trump’s net worth, to be distributed to all recipients of his prior Statements of Financial Condition;
- E. Barring Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization from entering into any New York State commercial real estate acquisitions for a period of five years;
- F. Barring Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization from applying for loans from any financial institution chartered by or registered with the New York Department of Financial Services for a period of five years;
- G. Permanently barring Mr. Trump, Donald Trump, Jr., Ivanka Trump, and Eric Trump from serving as an officer or director in any New York corporation or similar business entity registered and/or licensed in New York State;
- I. Permanently barring Allen Weisselberg and Jeffrey McConney from serving in the financial control function of any New York corporation or similar business entity registered and/or licensed in New York State;

- J. Awarding disgorgement of all financial benefits obtained by each Defendant from the fraudulent scheme, including all financial benefits from lenders and insurers through repeated and persistent fraudulent practices of an amount to be determined at trial but estimated to be $250,000,000, plus prejudgment interest; and
- K. Granting any additional relief the Court deems appropriate.

After being rated as "Most Highly Qualified" by the Democratic Screening Panel and securing the endorsement of two local Democratic political clubs and many local politicians (for all of which I am most grateful), I am withdrawing from the 2022 primary for the 2nd Municipal Court District. Two candidates who have major financial resources will be left to run against each other. Although this wasn't my year, I am optimistic that 2023 will be. I will enter the panel(s), hope to be reported out again, and hit the ground running. Keep an eye on this space, and I hope that you will support me in 2023!

I'm Judge 2 Arthur Engoron, and that is the correct pronunciation of 3 my surname. En-gor-on, not Eng-o-ron or even worse 4 En-gu-ron. 5 Before we start the actual trial in this matter, 6 I'll hear from the attorney from the various news 7 organizations, who, last Friday, filed an application for 8 certain forms of press access. 9 MR. BALIN: Good morning, your Honor. 10 THE COURT: Good morning. 11 MR. BALIN: Robert Balin of Davis Wright 12 Tremaine, LLP for 18 news organizations that made a press 13 application for access on Friday. 14 Your Honor, I start by saying I want to thank 15 the Court. I note the Administrative Judge of this 16 section is here, as well as the Director of Public 17 Information for the Court System; and, I'd like to thank 18 you because you've granted, already, many of the requests 19 that were in our Friday letter. 20 I have only two requests to make of your Honor 21 this morning. First, is to permit a pool television 22 camera person to televise the opening and closing 23 statements of the defense counsel and the Attorney 24 General. 25 I'd start by saying I've asked both sides their

Your Honor, I believe if ever 4 there was a case that justified the public understanding 5 what their legal arguments are -- it's not about 6 witnesses. What the legal arguments are in this case is 7 of such great significance, this is that case. 8 We have a pool TV cameraman outside. His name 9 is Tracey Reede. He's from NBC. He has a Whitehouse 10 press pass, a State Department press pas and a Defense 11 Department press pass. I would note, your Honor, that 12 televising of opening and closing arguments was allowed 13 by a Judge in Westchester County in People v. Olivo in 14 2008, three years after the Courtroom Television Network 15 case. 16 We believe it is permitted, and, it is up to 17 your Honor. It's within your discretion. There are 18 various factors. One, is the positions of the parties. 19 Two, is would it disturb the proceedings. Your Honor, I 20 can bring the cameraman and his camera in, if you'd like. 21 Three, is the type of case. I can hardly 22 overstate the significance of this case. Four, safety. 23 Five is. Maintaining decorum. I believe all of those 24 factors are met here. 25 So, your Honor, that is our first request. I

1 know you have other things to do and I don't want to take 2 your time. 3 THE COURT: Give me a second. 4 (Brief pause.) 5 THE COURT: That's more difficult, a more 6 fraught request than you might expect or other people 7 would expect. I'm afraid I'm constrained to deny it. 8 MR. BALIN: Thank you, your Honor, for your time 9 on it. 10 The second request-- I thank the Court. You've 11 permitted laptop use, which, I believe, is surely 12 necessary in the courtroom for this type of proceeding. 13 The concern expressed to me by a number of members of the 14 press is that with so many members of the press using the 15 Wi-Fi in this courthouse, that it may either crash or it 16 may slow down. 17 The request that I have for the Court is to 18 allow what are called remote hotspots. A number of the 19 members of the press have them and to use cell phones 20 solely for the ability to get to the Internet and get to 21 their news rooms. That was the second request I have for 22 your Honor. 23 THE COURT: Granted. 24 MR. BALIN: All right. Your Honor, thank you 25 very much.		1 to those, the less often the better. 2 The basic schedule to which we'll adhere is 3 Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. then a 4 one-hour-and-15-minute lunch break, then 2:15 through 5 4:30 p.m.. on Fridays, we'll only have the morning 6 session, 10:00 to 1:00. 7 Months ago, I declared that the trial would 8 commence today, October 2, 2023, come hell or high water. 9 Meteorologically speaking, we've had the high water but 10 we're ready to go. I commend all counsel for adhering to 11 my tight schedule and for their Herculean efforts to get 12 us where we are today. 13 This case has esteemed counsel. On one side, we 14 have an Attorney General. On the other side, we have a 15 former Solicitor General. In the middle, we have me, a 16 generalist, meaning that I know a little about a lot. 17 One thing I know a lot about is the legal 18 definition of fraud. Common law, meaning law before we 19 all came of age. Fraud, also known as misrepresentation, 20 has five elements. 21 First, a material statement. Second, falsity of 22 that statement. Third, scienter, lawyer talk meaning 23 that the defendant knew that this statement was false. 24 Four, the plaintiff's justifiable reliance, and five, 25 damages.
Proceedings	Page 6	Proceedings	Page 8
1 THE COURT: You're welcome. I'm allowing five 2 or so pool photographers. Are they waiting to come in 3 now? 4 (Photographs taken.) 5 THE COURT: The name of the case that brings us 6 here today is People of the State of New York by Letitia 7 James, Attorney General of the State of New York, versus 8 Donald J. Trump, et al., meaning, and others. 9 The index number, which is how we keep track of 10 cases around here, and might help you to follow it on the 11 New York State Court's electronic filing system, 12 affectionately known by its acronym as NYSCEF is 13 452564/2022. 14 Early this morning, I received an application 15 from plaintiff seeking to discuss some housekeeping 16 matters. I will address those matters after opening 17 statements. The trial is scheduled to last from today 18 until December 22, 2023, the Friday before Christmas. 19 I intend to speak now for approximately five 20 minutes. Call it my opening statement. Soon after 21 which, counsel for each side will make their, no doubt, 22 longer opening statements. 23 For the next three months after that, I hope 24 that the only words I will utter are sustained, 25 overruled, and let's take a ten-minute break and even as		1 Common-law fraud is not an easy case to prove. 2 Material, according to whom? How do we know what the 3 defendant knew? What reliance is justifiable? Then 4 along came Jacob Javitz. Nowadays, he's best known for 5 the convention center and for the federal office building 6 directly across the street from us, which you can 7 actually see out our windows, both named for him. 8 Before that, he was best known as the long-term 9 United States Senator from New York. Before that, he was 10 the Attorney General of the State of New York, the 11 position that Ms. James now occupies. 12 In 1956, he convinced New York State to adopt 13 what is now codified as Executive Law Section 63(12) 14 which gives the Attorney General the authority to 15 investigate and bring actions against any entities that 16 allegedly engage in "repeated fraudulent or illegal acts 17 or otherwise demonstrate persistent fraud or illegality 18 the carrying on, conducting a transaction of business." 19 Subsequent case law has construed that to mean, 20 or at least to include, false statements used in 21 business. Incidentally, Javitz was a savvy politician. 22 He was born on the lower eastside, so very near here. 23 When he campaigned on his home turf, he called himself 24 Jacob Javitz. When he campaigned on the posh upper 25 eastside, he called himself John Javitz, and, when he

1 campaigned upstate, he called himself Jake Javitz. I 2 want to make sure Mr. Kise returns to Florida with some 3 New York history and political street smarts. 4 The complaint in this case consists of seven 5 causes of action. There are no counterclaims, at least 6 not in court. The first is known as the standard on 7 Section 63(12) claim. The other six are claims that 8 defendants violated Section 63(12) by violating various 9 sections of New York's Penal Law. 10 As all, or most, of you know, six days ago, on 11 Tuesday September 26th, I granted plaintiff summary 12 judgment only on liability and only on the first cause of 13 action. What's left to be tried and decided are, first, 14 either liability or exoneration on the other six causes 15 of action and, second, monetary damages or other relief. 16 Plaintiff is seeking disgorgement of alleged 17 ill-gotten gains and to limit defendant's ability to 18 conduct business in New York. 19 You have probably noticed or already read that 20 this case has no jury. Neither side asked for one and, 21 in any event, the remedies sought are all equitable in 22 nature, mandating that the trial be a bench trial, one 23 that a Judge alone decides. I promise to do my best, 24 despite my lame attempts at humor. 25 As I said in an earlier phase of this		1 Statements of Financial Condition for Donald J. Trump 2 were false and misleading in each year from 2011 to 2021. 3 We have already proven that those statements 4 were then repeatedly and persistently used in the conduct 5 of business after July 13, 2014. We have also proven 6 that each of the defendant's entities and individuals 7 alike participated in that fraud. So, what remains for 8 us to prove at trial? 9 First, the People will establish that each of 10 these defendants further violated Executive Law 63(12) by 11 engaging in repeated and persistent illegal acts in the 12 conduct of business. 13 The second thing we will show is that those 14 illegal acts, together with the fraud we've already 15 established, entitles the People to all of the equitable 16 relief that we're seeking, including a bar on new 17 commercial real estate transactions, a bar on borrowing 18 on New York banks, an industry bar for each of the 19 individual defendants, removal of trustees, and an 20 accurate GAAP compliance Statement of Financial Condition 21 for Donald J. Trump. 22 Finally, the People will demonstrate that the 23 Court should disgorge the financial benefits each of 24 these defendants obtained from their illegal conduct. 25 Now, what illegal acts do we intend to prove?

1 litigation, I take my job very seriously, and, I know 2 that counsel and the parties do, likewise. The acoustics 3 in this room are not too bad, as you can hear, I hope, 4 but I'm sure everybody will be hanging on to every word 5 you say. So, I beseech counsel to speak slowly, loudly, 6 clearly, and, as I'm doing, directly into the microphones 7 so that everyone in the bleacher seats may hear you. 8 Now, let's listen to plaintiff's opening 9 statement. 10 MR. WALLACE: Thank you, your Honor. Kevin 11 Wallace for the Office of the Attorney General. 12 Some of what I heard, I'm just going to double 13 up on what you just talked about. The first of which is 14 that, obviously, the case today -- 15 THE COURT: I hear feedback. 16 MR. WALLACE: Okay. 17 (Brief pause) 18 THE COURT: Please continue and we'll see how it 19 sounds. 20 MR. WALLACE: Thank you, again, your Honor. As 21 I mentioned, I may cover some of the ground that you 22 already did. 23 First of all, the case today is, obviously, 24 significantly different than it was just a week ago. At 25 this point, the People have already proven that the		1 First, we will prove defendants illegally 2 falsified business records in violation of New York 3 Criminal Law. We will show the defendants committed this 4 illegal act by making false entries in the records of 5 Trump Organization and, by extension, the records of 6 their accountants, the banks, and other counterparties 7 that received the fraudulent Statements of Financial 8 Condition. 9 We will show the defendants made these false 10 entries with the intent to defraud. We'll also show that 11 the defendants conspired to make these false entries in a 12 separate criminal violation. 13 The next crime we will establish is issuing 14 false financial statements. We will show that with 15 intent to fraud, each defendant participated in, or have 16 knowledge of the creation of a written instrument, here 17 the Statement of Financial Condition that described 18 Donald J. Trump's financial condition in a manner that 19 was inaccurate in a material way. 20 We will further prove that the defendants also 21 violated this law by representing, in writing, that the 22 statements were true while knowing that they were 23 materially inaccurate and, once again, we'll show the 24 defendants conspired to create and use these false 25 statements, a separate criminal violation.

1 Next, we'll prove that the defendants committed 2 insurance fraud in violation of New York Criminal Law. 3 We will establish this illegal act by showing that the 4 defendants, acting with intent to defraud presented the 5 materially false financial statements to insurers in 6 connection with the application to renew their insurance. 7 Again, we will show the defendants conspired to commit 8 this insurance fraud. 9 Now, for each of these claims, the fact the 10 Statements of Financial Condition were false and 11 misleading has already been established. That's been 12 decided. Insurance fraud and false financial statement 13 counts both require the misstatements be true and while 14 the evidence we present of the coming weeks and months 15 will certainly show the materiality of defendant's lies, 16 this issue has also already been decided. 17 The Court has already found that the People 18 submitted conclusive evidence that between 2014 and 2021, 19 the defendants overvalued the assets in the statements 20 between $812 million and $2.2 billion per year. There's 21 no world in which that, an overstatement of that size is 22 not material. 23 So, the two parts to this trial that are new 24 from the summary judgment proceeding are intent and 25 conspiracy. Let me start by talking about intent. The		1 From 2016 to 2021 the Statement of Financial 2 Condition stated that it was Donald Trump, Jr. and Allen 3 Weisselberg, the trustees from Mr. Trump's trust, who 4 determined the estimates of current values; and, again, 5 that included individual properties like Trump Tower and 6 40 Wall Street. 7 What about Eric Trump? For years, he served as 8 a source of valuations for properties like Seven Springs 9 shown here in 2012 and, again, 2014 and 2015. In 2021, 10 Eric Trump personally oversaw the intention of Whitley 11 Penn and their work on the statement. 12 What's more? Each of the defendants certified 13 the banks, time and again, that statements were true and 14 correct. Donald Trump, from 2011 through 2015, he 15 certified the Deutsche Bank and statements presented of 16 financial condition fairly in all material respects. 17 From 2016 to 2020 Donald Trump, Jr. certified 18 the Deutsche Bank with the statements presented of his 19 father's financial condition fairly in all material 20 respects. 21 In 2021, Eric Trump certified the Deutsche Bank 22 that the statements presented his father's financial 23 condition fairly in all material respects. In multiple 24 years, Allen Weisselberg certified to Ladder Capital that 25 Donald Trump's net worth was true, correct, and complete,
1 intent to fraud here on the part of the individual 2 defendants and entities they owned and operated is 3 self-evident. 4 The defendants knew that the statements were 5 false. They then used them to obtain and maintain 6 benefits they were not entitled to. That is the 7 definition of intent. Now, most of the individual 8 defendants have argued that they lack the requisite 9 intent because they didn't know the statements were 10 false. 11 With the exception of Mr. McConney, they claim 12 they weren't involved in the valuation process and had 13 nothing do with the preparation of statements. The Court 14 will be able to judge for itself the credibility of those 15 denials when defendants appear on the stand and offer 16 them, but, if those denials are true, the defendants were 17 lying year after year after year to Mazars, to the banks, 18 to any reader of the statements, and, that's because the 19 defendants made the exact opposite representation for 20 years. 21 From 2011 to 2015, the Statement of Financial 22 Condition represented that every estimate of current 23 value was determined by Mr. Trump. That included 24 individual properties like Trump Tower and 40 Wall 25 Street.		1 and fairly presented his financial condition. 2 Even Jeff McConney got into the act of passing 3 these statements off to lenders, including the lender on 4 Seven Springs. When it came time to testify under oath, 5 the defendants wanted nothing to do with these 6 statements. They refuted each of these representations. 7 Eric Trump denied he had any knowledge of the 8 statements whatsoever. 9 (Video played.) 10 Let's move on to the critical question of who's 11 responsible for making sure that the statements complied 12 with GAAP. None of the defendants would take 13 responsibility. Let's start with Donald Trump, Jr., as 14 trustee. He, together with Weisselberg, was responsible 15 for GAAP presentation of the statements from 2016 until 16 2021. What did he say at his deposition? 17 (Video played.) 18 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, objection. 19 THE COURT: Hold on. Okay, go ahead. 20 MR. ROBERT: The examinations under oath are not 21 part of this case. That's not from Mr. Trump's 22 deposition. It's from his examination under oath. The 23 Attorney General did not take his deposition in the 24 instant case. This goes to the motions in limine we 25 discussed last week.

Page 17 1 I object to the use of this EUO as part of the 2 Attorney General's opening statement and ask that it be 3 stricken. 4 THE COURT: Denied. I don't believe that's a 5 correct statement. 6 MR. WALLACE: Thank you, your Honor. Moving on. 7 What about the other trustee, Allen Weisselberg, the 8 Chief Financial Officer of the company? What did he know 9 about the GAAP? 10 (Video played.) 11 12 (Continued on the following page..) 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	Page 19 Opening Statement by Mr. Wallace 1 None of that was true. Defendants never ordered 2 appraisals from Newmark, or Cushman, or anyone else when 3 they were preparing the Statement of Financial Condition, 4 and your Honor has heard defendants tell you that they were 5 not obligated to use appraisals, even if they had them. 6 So, not only was it a lie that they were ordering 7 appraisals for the statements, they were ignoring the ones 8 they had, and any claim of innocence or mistake may be most 9 clearly refuted by the inflation of the triplex apartment, 10 Donald Trump's personal residence, from 11,000 square feet 11 to 30,000 square feet, nearly tripling the value. 12 Your Honor is well acquainted with this story. 13 In March of 2017, while the 2016 Statement of Financial 14 Conditions was being prepared, the defendants received an 15 email inquiry from a reporter at Forbes. Alan Garten, 16 general counsel of the Trump Organization, then forwarded 17 that email to Eric Trump, Alan Weisselberg, and Donald 18 Trump, Jr. Among the questions, President Trump has told 19 Forbes in the past that his penthouse occupies 33,000 20 square feet. If the 1994 declaration is accurate and 21 up-to-date, it shows President Trump's apartment is 22 10,996.39 square feet. 23 Now, the answer to that question is yes, it was 24 accurate and up-to-date. It shows the size of the 25 apartment at 10,996.39 square feet, signed by Donald J.
Opening Statement by Mr. Wallace Page 18 1 MR. WALLACE: What about Donald Trump? Who did 2 he rely upon to make sure that statements were prepared 3 according to G.A.A.P? 4 (Video played.) 5 MR. WALLACE: Now, all of these denials put the 6 defendants in an impossible bind. The Court has already 7 found that statement to be false, based on the inflated 8 violations, and while the defendants may hope that these 9 denials will help them to avoid liability for the 10 inflation, the denials, we believe, that defendants lied 11 about their involvement, certified the statements to banks 12 as insurers; lied about the oversight they provided; lied 13 about conforming with G.A.A.P.; and the defendants are left 14 to answer the classic question: Were you lying then, or 15 are you lying now? 16 But, even beyond these corrections and 17 implausible denials, there's ample evidence of intent, 18 based on the defendant's knowing and intentional lies. 19 Alan Weisselberg told an insurance underwriter that the 20 fair value for the properties is appraised annually by a 21 professional firm. This year, it was done by Newmark 22 Group, and it's previously been done by Cushman &amp; 23 Wakefield. The reason for the change is the individual at 24 Cushman &amp; Wakefield with whom the organization had a 25 long-standing relationship with, moved to work at Newmark.	Opening Statement by Mr. Wallace Page 20 1 Trump. 2 What happens next? After working over the 3 weekend on Monday, March 6th, Alan Garten writes to Amanda 4 Miller, in the press office of the Trump Organization, "I 5 handled everything except Trump World Tower and Trump 6 Tower." She responds, "Thank you, Alan. I spoke to Alan 7 W.," Alan Weisselberg, "re: TWT and TT," Trump Tower. "We 8 are going to leave those alone." They weren't going to 9 touch the value of the penthouse. 10 And what happens next? On March 10th, 2017, Alan 11 Weisselberg and Donald Trump, Jr. certify the accuracy of 12 the Statement of Financial Condition to Mazars, just four 13 days later. That Statement of Financial Condition included 14 a valuation of Mr. Trump's apartment that was 30,000 square 15 feet. This is direct evidence that the inflated penthouse 16 valuation was not an innocent mistake, but an intentional 17 lie. 18 It's further aided by the fact that a few months 19 later, on May 3rd, 2017, Forbes publishes its article. 20 Donald Trump has been lying about the size of his 21 penthouse. This marks the end of the inflation of the 22 penthouse on the Statement of Financial Condition. The 23 inflation had been publicly disclosed, and they stopped 24 using it in their valuations. 25 Let's talk a little bit about conspiracy, now.

1 Courts recognize that, because conspiracies are secretive 2 endeavors, they often have to be inferred from 3 circumstantial evidence, and confirmed by overt acts. 4 Well, that kind of evidence certainly exists in this case, 5 but we also have direct evidence of the scheme to inflate 6 Mr. Trump's net worth. 7 Michael Cohen testified to this, when he was 8 deposed by defendants. Let's take a look at one portion of 9 that testimony. 10 (Video played.) 11 MR. WALLACE: Now, the defendants may argue that 12 you can't believe Mr. Cohen, but his testimony is 13 corroborated by the other evidence in this case, and his 14 testimony is consistent with that of a current Trump 15 organization employee, Patrick Birney. Mr. Birney played a 16 central role in preparing the Statements of Financial 17 Condition starting in 2017. And what did he say? 18 "Alan Weisselberg told me, Donald like to see it 19 go up." 20 He likes it to go up, and, "It," I don't think 21 referred to assets. I think it refers to net worth. 22 So, we have direct testimony from the people 23 involved in the scheme to inflate Donald Trump's net worth, 24 but I would like to talk a little bit about the overt acts 25 that prove this conspiracy, the evidence that demonstrates		1 Financial Condition, again, with Seven Springs valued at 2 291 million, the triplex valued at 200 million, and Wall 3 Street, 40 Wall Street, valued at 660 million. The process 4 kicks off with Jeff McConney and Donald Bender, at Mazars. 5 This is the first of a number of emails with spreadsheets 6 for back-up for DJT's SOFC. 7 "This one has been marked up, the 6/30/2014 SOFC, 8 before Alan's comments. I should be talking to him 9 tomorrow morning." 10 Attached to this email we see Mr. McConney's 11 hand-marked-up valuations; his indications of what the 12 values will be, in 2015. He also marks up the text in the 13 draft SOFC. So, let's see what he writes for Seven 14 Springs. 15 The mansion at Seven Springs, you can see the 16 value is set at $291 million. You can see Mr. McConney's 17 handwritten notation, "Okay." The value is going to stay 18 at $291 million, but by the time the statement is finalized 19 in March of 2016, that valuation is no longer what they are 20 going to use. Why? Because of that easement donation. In 21 order to get the tax deduction from that donation, 22 Mr. Trump had to obtain an appraisal from Cushman &amp; 23 Wakefield. Cushman &amp; Wakefield valued the entire economic 24 value of Seven Springs at $56 million, even before placing 25 the easement. That includes all the development rights the

1 number is inflated. The 10,900 number is also inflated. 2 Part of it is because there was a record-breaking sale at 3 157 that was in no way comparable to Mr. Trump's 4 40-year-old apartment. But, even the 10,900 number is 5 wrong. That's not what an apartment sold for, at 157. 6 That's the square footage of the apartment that got sold. 7 The actual price was below $10,000, so about a thousand 8 dollars less, meaning another 30,000 of this is just from 9 not using the actual sales price of the square footage 10 number. Again, inflating the overall value, and putting it 11 in a category to hide the drop in Seven Springs. 12 So, on the statement, they eventually need to 13 make up more of the difference with 40 Wall Street. 14 40 Wall Street starts the 2015 process valued at $660 15 million. We can see, right here. It's handwritten in by 16 Mr. McConney. Now, how did they get to that $660 million? 17 You can see. They actually disclose that there's a Cushman 18 &amp; Wakefield appraisal done June 2015 for loan refinancing 19 with Ladder Capital at $540 million. This is the initial 20 spreadsheet that goes to Mazars. 21 Mr. McConney, however, adds value. There's been 22 additional rental activity in vacant spaces, including a 23 retail space that gets leased to Dean &amp; Deluca that 24 generates another $1.4 million in a given year, and is part 25 of the $120 million evaluation they want to add to 40 Wall.		1 Wall, to the 40 Wall appraisal in the first draft. Through 2 this process, Mr. McConney and Mr. Weisselberg take a $235 3 million drop in the value of the Seven Springs, and turn it 4 into a $77 million increase in Mr. Trump's net worth. 5 This was their process. This was their 6 conspiracy. 7 So, why did defendants do this? Beyond just a 8 place on the Forbes billionaires list, what does a net 9 worth of over $6 billion gain Donald Trump? The simple 10 answer is, the defendant knew that a high-net-worth was 11 necessary to obtain and maintain certain financial 12 benefits. When he was first looking for financing on 13 Doral, Donald and Ivanka Trump had a meeting with the CEO 14 of Deutsche Bank. After the meeting, Donald sent a letter 15 with his financial statement attached. 16 "I'm pleased to enclose the recently completed 17 financial statement of Donald J. Trump. Hopefully, you 18 will be impressed. I'm also including a letter that 19 establishes my grant value, which is not included in my net 20 worth statement." 21 Donald Trump knew exactly how the statement was 22 prepared, and he was using it in search of a loan with a 23 lower rate. Later that year, after negotiating with the 24 commercial real estate group at Deutsche Bank, the Trump 25 Organization began speaking to the private wealth
Opening Statement by Mr. Wallace	Page 26	Opening Statement by Mr. Wallace	Page 28
1 Well, what's the problem with adding 2 Dean &amp; Deluca? It's already included in the appraisal that 3 had been done by Cushman &amp; Wakefield, but the defendants 4 and Mr. McConney only send Mazars an excerpt of that 5 appraisal, the first 15 pages, so he does not see that 6 includes a Dean &amp; Deluca lease, and it does not include the 7 fact that they had a different cap rate, as compared to 8 what Mr. McConney is using. 9 So, by the end, they use a different technique to 10 inflate the value of 40 Wall Street, and add another 11 $75 million. They say that they have done their own 12 analysis, and it's based on information provided by Douglas 13 Larson of Cushman &amp; Wakefield in November of 2015, and 14 February of 2016. Now, you can see, these are just general 15 questions that they have asked him about various market 16 activity. Now, who is Doug Larson? Doug Larson is the 17 same appraiser who did the valuation of 40 Wall Street, and 18 valued it at $540 million. He never gave them grounds to 19 increase the value like that. 20 So, where does this leave us, in the end? Seven 21 Springs goes down. It gets combined with the triplex, 22 which goes up, and 40 Wall goes up, as well. So, from 23 December 2015 to March 2016, the defendants increase the 24 value of the triplex and 40 Wall by 202 million, and that's 25 on top of the 120 million they had already added to 40		1 management group at Deutsche Bank, and the group offered 2 significantly lower interest rates, but required the loan 3 to be on recourse with a personal guarantee, and proof of 4 guarantors' net worth, but those rates were worth it. 5 When the Trump Organization first got the offer 6 from the private wealth group, Ivanka Trump told Alan 7 Weisselberg and others, "It doesn't get any better than 8 this." She didn't even want to negotiate on it. But their 9 in-house lawyer, Jason Greenblatt, immediately saw a 10 problem: The net worth requirement. 11 Now, the net worth requirement, the proposal from 12 Deutsche Bank was $3 billion. It may be surprising that a 13 $3 billion net worth covenant would be a problem for 14 Mr. Trump, who claimed a fortune well north of that every 15 year from 2011 to 2021, but nevertheless, Ivanka Trump 16 tried to negotiate the number down to 2 billion, before 17 agreeing to 2.5 billion. 18 So, year after year, on loan after loan, the 19 defendants misrepresented Mr. Trump's net worth to obtain 20 and maintain those favorable interest rates. In fact, the 21 value of those low interest rates was so profound, they 22 formed the primary basis for our disgorgement claims. As 23 our banking expert, Michael McCarty, will demonstrate, the 24 use of the false Statements of Financial Condition saved 25 defendants tens of millions of dollars, and those savings

1 came in every year after the July 2014 statute of 2 limitations date, set by the First Department. 3 That benefit is measured by the difference 4 between the interest rates the Trump Organization could 5 have obtained, if their loans were treated as regular 6 commercial real estate loans, and the interest rates they 7 actually obtained, using the false financial statements 8 with the private wealth management groups, the spread was 9 vast, and it lasted for years. 10 On Doral, after July 2014, the difference in the 11 interest rates was often more than 8 percent, including 12 8.2 percent in 2022. On Chicago, the delta after July 2014 13 ranged from 3 to 5 percent, with the broadest spread in 14 2022, when it reached 5.45 percent. On OPO, the spread was 15 off around 5 or 6 percent, and was at its widest in 2021. 16 When combined with the other loans and 17 transactions entered into by defendants, the direct 18 financial benefit was well north of $100 million. With 19 prejudgment interest, the total disgorgement amount is well 20 north of $250 million. We'll ask the Court to recoup that 21 entire amount. 22 So, these are the nuts and the bolts of our case; 23 the how, what, why, and where of the defendants' fraud. 24 The defendants' challenge this proceeding is to question 25 why the case even exists at all; to complain about the		1 be one thing to exaggerate for Forbes magazine or a 2 television audience, they cannot do it while conducting 3 business in the State of New York. 4 For that reason, your Honor should bar them from 5 further business in the State of New York, and reclaim 6 their ill-gotten gains. 7 Thank you. 8 THE COURT: When Mr. Robert objected before, I 9 said that I don't believe that's a correct statement. 10 Something like that. I just want to make clear, I'm not 11 doubting your facts. I assume these are completely 12 correct. I just doubt the legal conclusion you reached. 13 Would defendants like to make an opening 14 statement? 15 MR. KISE: Yes, your Honor. 16 THE COURT: Please. 17 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 18 proceedings.) 19 MR. KISE: Can you hear me now? 20 THE COURT: Yes. I hope every else can. As long 21 as there's no feedback. I'm already getting enough 22 feedback about this case. 23 MR. KISE: Certainly, your Honor. You can hear 24 me your Honor, now? 25 THE COURT: Very well.

1 Attorney General reaching in private transactions; that the 2 transactions were profitable; and that the banks and 3 insurers, that those financial institutions were 4 sophisticated parties. 5 But, this isn't business as usual, and this isn't 6 how sophisticated parties deal with each other, and even if 7 it was, there's a reason the legislature gave the Attorney 8 General the authority, under Executive Law 6312, to step in 9 and police fraud and illegality in the conduct of business 10 in New York, because these are not victimless crimes. By 11 hiding their true resources, defendants hid their 12 weaknesses. They convinced they banks to take on hidden 13 risk, risk to the tune of hundreds of millions of dollars. 14 Our financial system, both in this state and in 15 this country, depend on honesty to ensure their safety and 16 soundness. We have already seen the impacts to the banking 17 system when financial institutions take on hidden risk in 18 2008, and again, just this past year. The defendant's 19 claim they never missed a payment and never defaulted on a 20 loan, but they looked to escape those deals. They sold the 21 Old Post Office Hotel, a property they said they would hold 22 for decades. They refinanced their Doral loan with a small 23 lender in California, at a higher interest rate. Those are 24 not the actions of a market participant who plays by the 25 rules. The defendants got caught lying, and while it may		1 MR. KISE: Okay. Thank you. Sorry about that. 2 As you know I'm not, technologically, the wizard. 3 So, I'm going to make an opening statement on 4 behalf of most of the defendants. As we have done in the 5 past, Mr. Robert is going to add a few comments on behalf 6 of his clients. 7 So, you heard an interesting story from the 8 government. Needless to say, we have a very different 9 picture of the evidence. We think that the evidence is 10 going to establish many things, and often we are looking at 11 the same evidence, and often we are looking at different 12 evidence, but in sum, we think it's going to establish many 13 things very different than what the government has laid 14 out. 15 At the outset, I also -- at the outset of the 16 trial, your Honor, I do want to renew our objection on the 17 limitations issues, and the disgorgement. That is, the 18 introduction of evidence prior to the July 13, 2014 cutoff 19 date. I think the 2011 loan discussions that Mr. Wallace 20 just referenced would fall within ambit of that. I realize 21 that opening statements are not evidentiary, but I want to 22 just make sure it's clear, on the record. I don't mean to 23 burden the Court with the objection, but I will, on that. 24 Same with disgorgement. We just renew our objection with 25 regard to the disgorgement evidence.

1           What we think the evidence is going to establish, 2           and we think it will be very clear, a few things. First, 3           that President Trump has made billions of dollars building 4           one of the most successful real estate empires in the 5           world. It is one of the most highly-successful brands in 6           the world, and he has made a fortune, literally, being 7           right about real estate investments. That consists of 8           trophy properties that have very little debt, and an 9           exceptional operating track record. 10          The claims here, just to place them in context, 11         they involve a handful of loan transactions. They were all 12         successful and profitable loan transactions. That's what 13         the evidence is going to show this Court. There were no 14         late payments. There were no missed payments. The loans 15         were all paid back, timely, and the banks made well over 16         $100 million in interest. 17         The statements that you have heard so much about, 18         the statements and certifications, were submitted in 19         connection with those loan transactions. They represent a 20         fraction of the overall business operations and business 21         empire, but they were submitted specifically in connection 22         with those loan transactions. Only the specific parties to 23         those transactions made any submissions. The evidence is 24         going to demonstrate that this is a very compartmentalized 25         process. The certifications, when they were made, were		1           evidence that the government really points to is the 2           evidence from a serial liar. A serial liar, an individual 3           who has lied to everyone he has ever come in contact with, 4           and he has lied to the courts; he has lied to congress; he 5           has lied to anyone and everyone he has come in contact 6           with, but the government hinges its proof on conspiracy, of 7           agreement to conduct a conspiracy, on a serial liar. We 8           think the evidence will ultimately demonstrate, that's a 9           fallacy. 10          In sum, the evidence is going to demonstrate that 11         there was no intent to defraud; there was no illegality; 12         there was no default; there was no breach; there was no 13         reliance by the banks; there were no unjust profits; and 14         there were no victims. 15         So first, just to place this in context, I'm not 16         going to go through every loan agreement, but as I 17         mentioned, we are talking about specific transactions. We 18         are talking about specific loan agreements that fall within 19         the appropriate statute of limitations period, and as you 20         can see just from this cover example, this is a specific 21         agreement between specific parties. Here, it's Trump Old 22         Post Office, LLC and Deutsche Bank Trust Company America. 23         It's one of the most sophisticated international banks in 24         the world. 25         Their agreement, the evidence is going to show,
Opening Statement by Mr. Kise	Page 34	Opening Statement by Mr. Kise	Page 36
1           true and accurate. The loan covenants were not violated. 2           The statements were true and accurate in all material 3           respects, a point that your Honor made, that materiality is 4           a key component of what we are going to prove. 5           There were no false entries in records. 6           Materiality has not been decided, so I would disagree with 7           the government, that anything has been decided with respect 8           to materiality. Materiality is going to be proven at 9           trial, and they are going to be held to that proof. There 10          were no false entries, because if they are not materially 11         false, they are not false. 12         The statements complied with G.A.A.P, and the 13         valuations were derived under what you heard so much about, 14         and we are going to talk about, briefly, ASC 274. The 15         statements had valid and obvious disclaimers negating 16         intent. This goes to intent, materiality and reliance. I 17         understand the judge's -- your ruling on summary judgment, 18         but now we are talking about intent, we are talking about 19         materiality, and we are talking about reliance, and those 20         valid and obvious disclaimers, the evidence is going to 21         establish, negate these elements. 22         The banks themselves conducted their own 23         independent valuation analysis. The evidence is going to 24         show that, as well. There's no credible evidence of 25         agreement, a necessary element of conspiracy. The only		1           was negotiated by top tier counsel. It provided protection 2           and remedies for the banks. It provided the banks certain 3           rights. It also made certain representations on behalf of 4           the borrower. But this document, and a similar document, 5           the loan agreement between Ladder Capital Finance and 6           40 Wall Street, LLC -- again, a complex private agreement 7           between very specific parties, another sophisticated 8           lending institution, negotiated by top tier counsel -- 9           these agreements are what have and should, as the evidence 10          will show, govern the relationship between the parties. 11         There are specific representations that were made 12         by specific parties, and they relate to, as you can see 13         from the example -- this is an example from the May 2016 14         Statement of Financial Condition, the certification to 15         Deutsche Bank. 16         (Continued on the next page.) 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

1 MR. KISE: Importantly, it points out, as Mr. 2 Wallace noted, it represents fairly, in all material 3 respects, the financial condition of the guarantor at the 4 time period presented. 5 This is important because if the statements were 6 not materially false then this certification does not 7 constitute any evidence of any violations, of either 8 63(12) or the underlying criminal statutes, that are 9 being presented, and, I don't think, again, that that has 10 been decided. 11 Materiality is an important question that needs 12 to be decided by this Court in this proceeding. The 13 statements were materially accurate. First, the evidence 14 is going to show that all the statement values comply 15 with GAAP and ASC 274. That is a very important point 16 with respect to intent and materiality, that all the 17 valuations were derived in compliance with ASC 274. 18 Importantly, that all of the statements and the 19 associated Independent Accountant's Compilation Board 20 incorporated unequivocal disclaimers placing the user on 21 notice as to reliance. This evidence will go directly to 22 intent. This evidence will go directly to materiality 23 and directly to reliance. 24 So, the governing standard is, as I've been 25 saying, Accounting Standards Codification 274, ASC 274.		1 about. You went between 2015 and 2016 from a period 2 active development -- that's the plain course of action 3 for the property -- to a different approach, which is a 4 conservation easement. Those are fundamentally different 5 ways to look at property. 6 One is active valuation for active development. 7 The other is for purpose of conservation. There's all 8 sorts of rules that govern how you calculate the value of 9 the property for conservation easement versus how you 10 value for active development. 11 So, while the government intends to introduce 12 evidence, clearly from their opening, that that change 13 was somehow sinister, that there was some nefarious 14 intent, there was no nefarious intent. It simply 15 reflects the change in a complex, sophisticated real 16 estate development organization where you move from 17 active development to a conservation easement approach. 18 All acceptable under ASC 274, the evidence will show. 19 The ASC 274 approved methods do not hinge 20 substantially on current market conditions but focus on a 21 long-term perspective. That is current value. It is not 22 intended to be a market value model. Importantly, 23 appraisals are simply not the only appropriation 24 valuation method. 25 The 40 Wall Street example you heard Mr. Wallace
1 The evidence is going to show that personal financial 2 statements shall present assets and their estimated 3 current values and that ECV, estimated current value, is 4 not the same as fair value or market value, that there is 5 great latitude in valuation methodology. There is no one 6 generally accepted procedure in determining the estimated 7 current value. It does not require a specific method to 8 be used and there are many ways to value assets and all 9 are accurate and acceptable, even if they yield different 10 results. 11 So, the statements fit within ASC 274. Now, 12 we're talking about intent materiality, reliance. Those 13 statements fit within ASC 274. There may be wide 14 variations between different valuations, but, if comport 15 with ASC 274 that alone we believe the evidence 16 demonstrates intent. It certainly negates materiality. 17 In accordance with this wide latitude, 18 specifically, the provision that I have up there ASC 19 274-10-556 provides one of the myriad available bases for 20 determining the value of property and, as you can see, 21 the evidence is going to show us that one of those ways 22 is the net realizable value of the property placed on 23 planned courses of action. 24 This evidence is going to speak directly to the 25 Seven Springs example that Mr. Wallace spoke so much		1 speak about, again, back to an appraisal. The government 2 continues to try and convince the Court that that's the 3 only appropriate methodology. ASC 274 simply does not 4 provide that, that we don't have to rely necessarily on 5 appraisals, and, it's not dispositive. There are many 6 ways and, as long as, again, the valuations fit within 7 the confines of GAAP and ASC 274, there can be no intent. 8 There can be no material departure. 9 We believe that the evidence will show both of 10 those things. The compliance with ASC 274 will 11 demonstrate no intent to defraud, and compliance with ASC 12 274 will demonstrate no material inaccuracies. 13 The Court will hear, finally, from Professor Eli 14 Bartov, at the NYU Stern School of Business. Professor 15 Bartov, among other things, will present evidence 16 relating to these points on ASC 274, that there is no 17 such thing as objective valuation in GAAP. 18 That valuation is an opinion about price and is 19 subjective, and, which valuation methodology to choose 20 and which assumptions to apply, depends on many, many 21 factors. So, estimated current value under ASC 274, 22 you'll hear him testify, places very little weight on 23 current market conditions. 24 That evidence is important, irrespective of the 25 Court's decision on summary judgment, because it goes to

1 intent. It goes to materiality and, ultimately, we say 2 all of it goes to reliance. Again, compliance with ASC 3 274 and GAAP negates essential elements and, the evidence 4 will show, negates essential elements of the People's 5 case. 6 The Court will also hear from Professor Laposa, 7 who will testify about the fact that disagreements, 8 essentially, as to SOFC valuations does not establish any 9 fraud. There are disparate but legitimate valuations of 10 specific property that co-exist. The mere existence of 11 these disparate valuations for a given property does not, 12 in itself, establish any specific valuations as 13 inaccurate, inflated or, as we would say, intentionally 14 fraudulent. 15 This is the essence of the commercial real 16 estate market place. Buyers have a view. Sellers have a 17 view. Banks have a view. None of them are wrong. 18 They're just different. When a seller or owner of a 19 property takes the position and presents his or her 20 opinion of the value of that property and discloses the 21 nature of that valuation and presents that, in accordance 22 with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and ASC 23 274, there can be no intentional fraud. There can be no 24 material departure, and, there certainly is no reliance. 25 The statements, as you will hear Professor		1 read out of the certificate. 2 The guarantor made that representation. The 3 guarantor did not say this is absolutely, positively 4 inaccurate. This is in accordance with a specific 5 appraiser's view of the property. This is in accordance 6 with a specific objective for the property. 7 What the guarantor said in that certification is 8 that the foregoing presents fairly, in all material 9 respects, the financial position of the guarantor of the 10 period presented, and that is a holistic concept. That 11 is not an asset-by-asset concept. GAAP also incorporates 12 materiality and does apply material items. 13 You'll hear from Professor Bartov. None of the 14 items on the statement identified by the Attorney General 15 as statements or omissions were departures from GAAP. 16 Any such items were, therefore, immaterial from the 17 viewpoint of the sophisticated bank and underwriters who 18 received the statements. 19 The Independent Accountant's Compilation Report 20 and the statement notes are a unified presentation. This 21 is the disclaimers that you've heard so much about. 22 Here, again, they are fundamental to our concept of 23 intent, materiality, and reliance. 24 Mr. Flemmons, a former SEC chief accountant will 25 testify that AICPA standards dictate that the Independent

1 themselves, not even the Mazars compilation report-- I'll 2 get to that but right here in the statement, the evidence 3 is going to show the statements prepared by certain of 4 the defendants place the user, any user, on notice that 5 the amounts are not necessarily indicative of the amounts 6 that could be realized upon the disposition of the 7 assets, that the use of different market assumptions and 8 estimation methodologies may have a material effect on 9 estimated current value. 10 The bank will tell you, like in all 11 transactions, this very standard in sophisticated 12 commercial real estate transactions. The recipient of 13 individual financial statements understand there's not an 14 intentional defrauding. It's simply the opinion of the 15 owner of the property and they are on notice to do their 16 own due diligence. 17 The Independent Accountant's Compilation Report 18 disclaimer-- this was the Mazars' letters that 19 accompanies the statements which, as I said, the evidence 20 will show, are read together. Users of this financial 21 statement recognize that they might reach different 22 conclusions about the financial condition of Donald J. 23 Trump. 24 It's not possible to state it any more clearly; 25 and, we think the evidence will show that the banks		1 the 2014 credit memo. This credit memo relates to the 2 OPO loan that-- the Old Post Office loan from the 3 original slide that I pointed out, the transaction that 4 closed in August of 2014. 5 The evidence is going to show, clearly, and 6 there are a number of these credit memos, but I'm using 7 this as an example. The evidence will show, clearly, the 8 level of detail that the bank conducted in its own 9 underwriting analysis, that they took the numbers 10 provided by the borrower and, as you can see clearly, 11 they dissected those numbers and came up with their own 12 estimates. 13 So, in the 2012 year, the client reported number 14 was 4.5 billion as net worth. The bank adjusted number 15 was 2.4 billion. In 2013, similar result. The client 16 reported, the borrower reported was 4.9 billion net worth 17 and the bank adjusted number was 2.6 billion, yet the 18 bank proceeded with these loans. They conducted this 19 sophisticated underwriting analysis. They determined 20 there was a $2 billion delta, $2 billion difference 21 between what the borrower was reporting and what their 22 own valuation experts determined. Yet, they proceeded 23 anyway. They conducted their own risk analysis. 24 As I said, this is the heart and sole of 25 commercial real estate lending. This is what happens
1 understood it fully. The evidence will show that the 2 disclaimers alone establish that there was no requisite 3 intent, that there were no material departures, and there 4 was no reliance. The disclaimer is important. We told 5 the banks what was being provided and also, importantly, 6 what wasn't being provided, meaning, we're not providing 7 you with absolutes. We're not providing you with audited 8 financial statements. 9 We're telling you these are our estimates of 10 current value in accordance with ASC 274 but that you 11 might reach different conclusions, that the assumptions 12 we made may not be assumptions you make. So, they notify 13 users of the statements like Deutsche Bank, like Zurich, 14 that they need to conduct their own analysis. 15 As Professor Bartov will testify, the 16 disclaimers put sophisticated users of the statements, 17 like Deutsche Bank, on complete notice to perform their 18 own due diligence which, as you will observe and the 19 banks themselves will, a sophisticated user like Deutsche 20 Bank would have performed anyhow in the absence of those 21 disclaimers. 22 The evidence will show that the banks are 23 required to conduct their own independent underwriting 24 analysis, and, the evidence will show they, in fact, did 25 perform that analysis. One example, if you look just as		1 every day in the city, and, these numbers that are 2 provided by the owner in accordance with GAAP and in 3 accordance with ASC 274 are presented as their evidence. 4 The bank did an even deeper dive on certain 5 properties. As this page reflects, the bank conducted a 6 much more in-depth analysis of what it described as four 7 trophy properties. Again, others, other than the 8 defendants, believe their properties are trophy 9 properties. They are Trump Tower, Niketown, 40 Wall 10 Street, and Trump Park Avenue. 11 As you can see, the bank conducted -- this is a 12 summary of the analysis the bank conducted but the bank 13 did its own detailed number analysis and right there on 14 line four: The valuations for each of these properties 15 were discussed with Deutsche Bank's Valuation Services 16 Group. 17 The evidence will show that's the valuation 18 group within Deutsche Bank that's responsible for 19 conducting independent analyses of collateral, 20 independent analyses of properties. 21 They advised on adjustments for each property. 22 As the evidence will reflect, they conducted their own 23 analysis. For example, on 40 Wall Street, the borrower 24 had a valuation of $530 million. Deutsche Bank's own 25 independent underwriting analysis estimated the value at

1 $500 million. Both of those numbers, the evidence will 2 show, will differ from other appraisals and other 3 valuations. That doesn't make the bank's number 4 fraudulent any more than it makes the defendant's number 5 fraudulent. 6 Everyone has a different opinion as to value. 7 That is the sum and substance of the evidence; and, as 8 long as those opinions are formulated in a way that 9 comply with ASC 274 and GAAP and they're presented 10 appropriately, there can be no intent. There can be no 11 materiality; and, here, particularly with the disclaimers 12 and with the evidence that will be-- the record will be 13 replete with, of independent analyses done by the user, 14 by Deutsche Bank, there can be no reliance; but, the 15 Court not need take the defendant's word for this. 16 The evidence will include testimony from actual 17 individuals involved in the loan decisions, the very 18 decisions that the Attorney General is disputing, the 19 very transactions that the Attorney General is focusing 20 on. 21 These individuals are Thomas Sullivan, David 22 Williams, Emily Pereless and Rosemary Vrablic, all of 23 them were involved in the loan decisions. All of them 24 were involved, in some shape or fashion, in the process 25 by which Deutsche Bank engaged in conducting its own	1 to loan terms that they couldn't otherwise obtain; but, 2 the testimony of the bank officers, themselves, involved 3 in the transaction, will demonstrate that President Trump 4 was overqualified for these loans, by far. 5 Their testimony also will reflect that President 6 Trump didn't violate the loan agreements by making the 7 certifications that President Trump did not default, that 8 President Trump did not make any false statements, and, 9 that the alleged valuation disparities in the statements 10 did not impact the loan approval or pricing; and, the 11 testimony of the Attorney General's expert is beyond 12 speculative in that regard. 13 There's no actual connectivity between what the 14 bank's independent sophisticated risk analysis was and 15 the basis for the disgorgement. They're fundamentally 16 disconnected, and, we believe the evidence will 17 demonstrate there is a fundamental lack of proof on any 18 of the disgorgement claims, particularly the evidence of 19 their purported expert. 20 So, the summation of what the evidence will 21 establish is, as you've heard me say repeatedly, the 22 statements were materially accurate. They complied with 23 GAAP, ASC 274. There's, therefore, no evidence of intent 24 to defraud. The compliance with the acceptable governing 25 standards and the adherence to those standards

1 analysis and in reaching conclusions. 2 They will testify that Deutsche Bank conducted, 3 as they're required to, their own independent risk 4 analysis, that they did not rely on the statements. They 5 will testify that the valuation disparities are not 6 falsity or fraud, not evidence of any intent to defraud. 7 Indeed, their own independent analysis, as I 8 noted, demonstrated a $2 billion difference between the 9 client reported and their own numbers, $2 billion 10 difference. Yet, they proceeded with the transaction. 11 They were eager to proceed with the transaction, wisely 12 so, because they made well over $100 million in interest. 13 They made a good risk/benefit calculation. 14 The evidence will show that is exactly why they 15 did, what they did, and that is how they proceeded. They 16 fully anticipated that the statements provided by the 17 borrower were going to be different than their values, 18 and, their testimony will demonstrate and reflect their 19 view that the statements were not misleading. 20 The bank officers will also testify that 21 President Trump was overqualified for the sub-loans, that 22 his net worth far exceeded the minimum required to be a 23 private wealth customer. The Attorney General presents, 24 as evidence that they intend to present, as evidence of 25 motive, that somehow the defendants were seeking access	1 demonstrates that-- will demonstrate that the defendants 2 had no intent to defraud. 3 There's also no evidence of any agreement, an 4 essential element of conspiracy claim, other than, as I 5 mentioned, from the serial liar, Mr. Cohen. The evidence 6 will establish there was no breach, no late payments, no 7 defaults. The banks profited minorly from their 8 sophisticated risk-benefit analysis, that those 9 sophisticated banks and insurers were never mislead about 10 anything. Importantly, that the disclaimers notified the 11 users to conduct their own independent underwriting 12 analysis in clear terms, fully negating intent. 13 Anyone intending to defraud does not say to the 14 other side, please conduct your own analysis. No, we put 15 them on notice, fully on notice through those 16 disclaimers. The language is unequivocal. The evidence 17 will suggest there is no unjust benefits or profits of 18 the defendants. They were fully overqualified for the 19 loan. 20 The bank's independent underwriting analysis is 21 what created the pricing and loan terms, not the 22 Statements of Financial Condition and certainly not the 23 certifications, which came long after, in most cases, the 24 loans that the Attorney General seeks to render at issue 25 here, despite the clear bar of the Statute of

1 Limitations. 2 In sum, there was no illegality. There was no 3 fraud. There are no victims; and, we believe the 4 evidence will demonstrate the Attorney General has no 5 case. 6 Thank you. 7 THE COURT: I just want to ask you two things. 8 You said, I think twice, that the banks were required to 9 do due diligence. Required by who or what? 10 MR. KISE: You'll hear from their experts. Mr. 11 Unell will come in to testify about the applicable OCC 12 regulations. That's testimony we think, frankly, should 13 have been incorporated in the summary judgment process. 14 Respectfully, I understand it wasn't but, certainly, that 15 testimony is going to be very poignant and very 16 significant here. 17 THE COURT: I think you suggested that under 18 Executive Law Section 63(12) disgorgement is not 19 available as a remedy. 20 Is that your position? 21 MR. KISE: I preserve that as an objection. I 22 understand your Honor's ruling fully. I just didn't 23 preserve that as an objection but yes. Given your 24 Honor's ruling, we'll certainly speak to that evidence 25 that the Attorney General intends to present. We'll		1 THE COURT: Tommy's announcements are probably 2 pretty loud for you. If you are standing right next to 3 him, it's deafening. 4 Can I see just the attorneys for 60 seconds? 5 Come on up to the bench. 6 (Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion took 7 place at the bench.) 8 THE COURT: Do defendants have other opening 9 statements from other clients? 10 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 11 proceedings.) 12 MS. HABBA: No feedback? 13 THE COURT: No feedback. 14 MS. HABBA: I have a feeling my voice will boom 15 anyway. 16 How are you, your Honor? 17 THE COURT: I'm good. How are you? 18 MS. HABBA: Well, we have been doing this for 19 three years. I first want to say that I incorporate 20 everything my colleague said, and Cliff Robert will speak 21 after me, on behalf of the children. As you know, I 22 represent other individuals in this case, Alan Weisselberg 23 Jeff McConney, the President, and certain entities of the 24 Trump Organization. 25 I will start by saying that I wasn't planning to
1 rebut that evidence directly. 2 THE COURT: I'm not talking about evidence. I'm 3 talking about point of law and it's not a question as to 4 what I ruled on. It's a question of what the First 5 Department, maybe the Court of Appeals, has been saying. 6 There's case law that says disgorgement is an 7 available remedy in a 63(12) case. Isn't that what the 8 law says? 9 MR. KISE: We respectfully disagree with your 10 Honor. We'll take that up with the Appellate Court. I'm 11 not belaboring the point, and, I'm just making note that 12 we had that legal objection, and, when the time comes, 13 we'll make minor objections that we need to to preserve 14 our Appellate record and we will move on. 15 THE COURT: Thank you. 16 MR. KISE: Thank you. 17 THE COURT: We've been going for an hour and 18 40 minutes. I believe a lot of you have been sitting 19 here for a lot longer than that. I said one of the few 20 things I'd say is, let's take a ten-minute break. 21 (Recess taken.) 22 23 (Continued on the following page..) 24 25		1 speak today until I saw what the attorney general said 2 outside, and when I saw the presentation that was just put 3 on by Mr. Wallace. 4 First, I want to say that this case was brought 5 prior to the Attorney General sitting in office, as we 6 know. That is part of this case, unfortunately, because it 7 is a public case, as your Honor has astutely said. That's 8 why we have press here. That's why we are all sitting 9 here, right now, three years later. This case could have 10 been brought before. 11 I would like to start with some -- I'm going to 12 go through Mr. Wallace's testimony first, but before I do 13 that, I just want to remind everyone that Ms. James said 14 that she was going to come into the Attorney General's 15 office, and she was going to get Trump. She was going to 16 go to work, get Trump, and then go home. This is a case 17 brought by the Attorney General, so it is part of this 18 case. 19 Michael Cohen's testimony was played by 20 Mr. Wallace. 21 Thank you for playing that, actually. 22 I look forward to having Mr. Cohen take the 23 stand, because when he takes the stand, I'll play the rest 24 of the testimony where Michael Cohen, who is a convicted 25 felon, who is a liar, by the Southern District of New York,

1 received it -- stated that they could not articulate any 2 flaws that the Trump organization had done. And why is 3 that? Because Donald Bender, who will take the stand as 4 their first, first representative, their strongest guy, 5 Donald Bender will have you believe that, as the accountant 6 who acted effectively as the in-house accountant for this 7 organization, his hands are clean. 8 He had unfettered access, your Honor. We'll ask 9 him what he did, and we'll prove that he had unfettered 10 access to the Trump organization. He could come in, he 11 could go out. He could get on the computers. We didn't 12 even monitor when he was on, looking through the records. 13 And your Honor, you and I went through, as you recall, back 14 in the special proceeding, when I gave over thousands of 15 documents, thousands, when we opened up the Trump 16 organization, when we opened up his homes and we were 17 willing to cooperate, and did, and there was nothing that 18 turned up that was in direct conflict of what I'm saying 19 now. 20 So, the Attorney General is going after kids, and 21 I'll let Cliff, who represents the kids, go to that, but I 22 will also say that their representation that a phone call 23 with an accounting department asking for status of zoning, 24 is not a conspiracy. It's doing business. Anybody with 25 real estate understanding -- and I personally come from a		1 believe -- well, first, before I do that, I do want to 2 thank you, your Honor, for one thing you said when you 3 opened up, which was explaining to the press, the jury 4 issue, because I personally have been dealing with that 5 myself, and 6312, and the fact that we don't have a jury, 6 and I know my client did want a jury. I want to say that. 7 But we have addressed that, and I appreciate that you 8 clarified, for the Court. So thank you, for that, from me. 9 THE COURT: You're welcome. 10 MS. HABBA: Well, these are sophisticated banks. 11 These are sophisticated lenders. They made over $100 12 million, and there was no intent to defraud. Period, the 13 end. The disgorgement only came, which is what the 14 Attorney General is asking for, after the Trumps sold the 15 property that they undervalued for 250 more than was 16 valued. That's when this case was brought, not two years 17 ago. After the sale, and that's the number they picked. 18 Why? Because if you look at the president and 19 his family's worth, if you look at the Trump Organization 20 and all the 850-plus people that work for that beautiful 21 company, you will see that they have never overvalued. The 22 Statement of Financial Condition was disclaimed. It was 23 undervalued, in my opinion, and we'll prove that, through 24 our experts, and the AG is setting a very dangerous 25 precedent for all business owners in the State of New York.
1 family of real estate, so I get this, but to the American 2 people, to the people, maybe at the Attorney General's 3 office, that aren't aware of how real estate companies 4 operate, this is normal practice. The banks are aware, and 5 the banks do their own values, and do their own 6 investigations, and frankly, if they don't, then they are 7 in violation themselves. 8 More examples of properties that were 9 undervalued. Doral. It was stated on the Statement of 10 Financial Condition for $350 million, your Honor. Anyone 11 who follows golf knows that Doral has one of the best golf 12 courses in the country. I've had the pleasure of visiting 13 these properties, sir. They are not normal properties. 14 Doral would sell for at least a billion dollars. 15 Mar-A-Lago, at least a billion dollars. Look at OPO. OPO 16 did sell for 100 million more than what was stated on the 17 Statement of Financial Condition. Very point. Very point, 18 sir. Ten times the value that was stated on the Statement 19 of Financial Condition. Doral has 1500 units that have 20 never been developed. 21 The list could go on and on, because real estate 22 is malleable, your Honor. Real estate changes. The values 23 change, but there was absolutely no fraud, no intent to 24 defraud, no conspiracy. 25 I would just like to close by saying that I		1 The State of New York, they would have you 2 believe, if you believe your property is worth a million 3 dollars and you list it on Trulia for $1 million, but it 4 sells for 800,000, then you, sir, should be here, and you 5 should be disgorged of your profits, and that is a very 6 dangerous time for our country, and this state. 7 Thank you, your Honor. 8 THE COURT: Ms. Habba, as you referenced, we have 9 been dealing with, to use a slang term, each other for 10 years, and if it's okay with you, and because we don't have 11 a jury, or at least a formal jury, I would like to just go 12 over a few of the things that you said. Is that okay? 13 MS. HABBA: Of course, your Honor. 14 THE COURT: One, this is not a question, you 15 referred to Mr. Wallace's presentation as testimony. 16 Opening statements are not testimony. 17 MS. HABBA: Opening statement. Yes. 18 THE COURT: It's just what you intend to prove. 19 MS. HABBA: Yes. Well, I think part of it, your 20 Honor, to be clear, was testimony. He played testimony 21 from some of the witnesses. 22 THE COURT: You are right. 23 Next, you brought up the Attorney General's 24 history, motivations, statements. 25 MS. HABBA: Yes.

1 THE COURT: You had moved to have the entire case 2 dismissed because it's a, quote, witch hunt, which is what 3 the press tends to call it, and I denied that, and I was 4 affirmed by the First Department. So Ms. James' 5 motivations are not an issue in this case any more; are 6 they? 7 MS. HABBA: Well, your Honor, actually I brought 8 a case that was separate from this case against Ms. James 9 for what I believe is constitutionally improper, improper 10 by her office, and I do believe her statements out of court 11 prior to having office, and claiming that she knows what 12 goes on in the Trump Organization, are very important to 13 this case. Unfortunately, it's become the fabric of this 14 country, right now, that these out-of-court statements are 15 part of the case. 16 Ms. James sat on the court steps before coming in 17 here. I didn't know she was going to do that, but that's 18 part of the schtick, evidently, so I have to address it, 19 and I do believe that that was improper on many levels. I 20 withdrew that case. It was not dismissed. 21 THE COURT: All right. We can go back and forth. 22 MS. HABBA: Sure. Of course, your Honor. 23 THE COURT: We have a few more points to discuss. 24 The valuation of Mar-A-Lago, there were very significant 25 easements on the ability to turn it into -- subdivide it		1 THE COURT: I held one of the defendants in 2 contempt. I fined him $10,000 a day. It was vacated after 3 11 days, and I was upheld on that, both the contempt 4 finding, and the amount of the fine. So, I don't know why 5 we are -- 6 MS. HABBA: Well, I just wanted to bring up the 7 point, your Honor, that after these ten days, despite the 8 fine, which, we obviously went through our procedure, you 9 did recall that after those days, and after my diligent 10 searches and my certifications, we never did find anything 11 that was not previously revealed. 12 THE COURT: Yes, that's right. 13 MS. HABBA: So my point is, that goes to the good 14 faith and the intent, your Honor. 15 THE COURT: You never did find anything, but the 16 contempt was because you didn't submit an affidavit that 17 said who looked for what, when, where. 18 MS. HABBA: And then I did, many times. 19 THE COURT: And then you did. Well, but the 20 defendant didn't. You did, I think. But, I don't think 21 the defendant did. 22 MS. HABBA: He did, actually, your Honor. 23 THE COURT: I don't think he submitted an 24 affidavit saying what he did, when, where, et cetera. 25 MS. HABBA: Right.
Opening Statement by Ms. Habba	Page 66	Opening Statement by Ms. Habba	Page 68
1 into residences, et cetera, and more importantly, I 2 specifically said, in the summary judgment decision, I'm 3 not valuing or evaluating properties. I believe that there 4 was -- 5 Well, I wouldn't telegraph that, but please, 6 Press, stop saying that I valued it at $18 million. That 7 was a tax assessment. Or, something in that range. 8 There would have been issues of fact as to what 9 the value was. 10 MS. HABBA: Well, I think, your Honor -- if I may 11 respond? 12 THE COURT: Yes. 13 MS. HABBA: I think that is an issue of fact, and 14 the fact -- and I'll preserve, as my colleague said, 15 everything on the Appellate Division, but the fact that you 16 drafted a summary judgment motion saying that that was not 17 an issue of fact is exactly what we are appealing, and 18 we'll handle that on the Appellate Division. 19 THE COURT: Okay. I didn't draft a motion. I 20 drafted a decision. 21 MS. HABBA: Yes, your Honor. 22 THE COURT: You referred, perhaps obliquely, or 23 maybe more directly, to the million pages of documents that 24 were turned over. 25 MS. HABBA: Yes.		1 THE COURT: You said that at one point, just 2 recently, values change. That's one of the big points in 3 this case. You can't look at property ten years later and 4 say, Well, now look what it's worth. These Statements of 5 Financial Condition were current, current market value, so 6 yes, values change, but the point of the Statements of 7 Financial Condition is what were they worth then? What 8 would a willing seller and willing buyer agree to? 9 MS. HABBA: And if I may respond? 10 THE COURT: Sure. 11 MS. HABBA: Saying that the value of Mar-A-Lago, 12 then or now, would be worth that -- and I obviously, again, 13 on appeal, so I'm not going to litigate our case between 14 you and me, and give my adversaries the benefit of hearing 15 all of my arguments, but I think that we'll prove that, 16 through our experts. We'll prove that at that time, they 17 were undervalued, in many instances. As I noted, some of 18 these properties are heavy undervalued, and we are 19 forgetting the disclaimer, and also the fact that the Trump 20 brand is worth something. 21 And, I know that you addressed it in your summary 22 judgment motion, and I'm not going to get into it now, but 23 we cannot -- look, my point is this, your Honor, and I 24 think that our case will show this: If this was a 25 conspiracy, if we were trying to inflate his value, which

1 is worth billions and billions and billions of dollars more 2 than anything he ever took the loan out, and frankly, he 3 was underleveraged, but if you were -- if they are trying 4 to prove that, your Honor, that case falls flat on its 5 face, just by looking at certain things that were not 6 included. 7 If that was the intent for Forbes magazine, then 8 why wouldn't President Trump say, Put in the brand, put in 9 The Apprentice rights, put in the Miss America, or whatever 10 it was, Universe. Put all that in. Let's inflate it. 11 That didn't happen, your Honor. 12 THE COURT: The brand value, at least some of the 13 Statements of Financial Condition specifically, expressly 14 said, We are not including brand value. Is that the case? 15 Right? 16 MS. HABBA: And my point is it was not included, 17 and if he had wanted to inflate, why wouldn't we? 18 Never mind any of that, your Honor. Everything 19 falls on its face when you look at the WeiserMazars 20 disclaimer, and the sophisticated banks we are dealing with 21 that did their own due diligence. 22 And I just submit, your Honor, I don't want to 23 litigate my case with you, only because of the prejudice 24 that that could cause to my client. 25 THE COURT: My final point is, the disclaimers,		1 compilations. And again, I go back to my Trulia example. 2 No bank, no lender, takes somebody's value at a 3 compilation, the lowest level. It's not audited. It 4 doesn't proclaim to be. It doesn't proclaim to have been. 5 It never did. 6 But, on top of the fact that it's a compilation, 7 they put the waiver on the front. On top of that, these 8 banks came in and did their own due diligence. It was not 9 us that did it. 10 And, for what its worth, your Honor, we could go 11 all day, I'm sure, and it would be great, but that is the 12 crux of where I disagree with you. 13 THE COURT: All right. Is it not the case that, 14 in a layperson's terms -- and we have a lot of lay people 15 out there -- the Mazars disclaimer was basically, We are 16 relying on the Trump Organization? 17 MS. HABBA: No, your Honor. 18 THE COURT: That's how I read it. 19 MS. HABBA: Well, frankly, the Trump Organization 20 relied on Mazars to come in and do what they did, and they 21 came in. Regardless, they are the accountants. They are 22 the accountants, sir. 23 THE COURT: Thank you. 24 MS. HABBA: Thank you, your Honor. 25 THE COURT: And we have at least one more opening
Opening Statement by Ms. Habba	Page 70	Opening Statement by Mr. Robert	Page 72
1 which understandably, the defendants make a big deal about, 2 first of all, I believe that was part of both the motion to 3 dismiss, and the motion for preliminary injunction. I 4 ruled against that, as a defense. I was upheld both times, 5 but I would just like to explain, basically, what the 6 disclaimers, which were separate from the worth statements, 7 but just talking about the disclaimers, the Mazars 8 disclaimers basically said, We are not sure about all this, 9 look to the Trump Organization, that's where we are getting 10 these figures. So, they were anything but, you know, 11 disclaimers, and you can't even make a disclaimer on behalf 12 of someone else, so I just don't see it. 13 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, I'm actually glad you 14 brought that up. Did if I may? 15 THE COURT: Sure. 16 MS. HABBA: Again, my experts, my colleagues, who 17 are incredibly bright, they will go into excruciating 18 detail with every witness, and we will bore everyone in 19 this room at length for three months, but if I can just 20 give you the high level of where I disagree with you on 21 that, sir? 22 THE COURT: Sure. 23 MS. HABBA: It's that, these are compilations. 24 We did not present the Statement of Financial Condition as 25 an audited financial. Period, the end. They are		1 statement by the defendants. 2 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 3 proceedings.) 4 MR. ROBERT: Can you hear me, Judge? 5 THE COURT: Yes. That's pretty good, but keep 6 your voice up. 7 MR. ROBERT: Okay. Good afternoon, sir. I'll be 8 very brief. 9 First of all, I want to just say that I echo the 10 statements of Mr. Kise, on behalf of my clients, Eric Trump 11 and Donald Trump, Jr. We reserve all the rights and the 12 objections that Mr. Kise has referenced, but what I want to 13 spend my few moments here talking to you about, your Honor, 14 is what I will respectfully submit that the evidence will 15 show that my clients did in this case, but I actually 16 think, more importantly, what the evidence will show that 17 my clients did not do, in this case. 18 I don't think it's going to come as a surprise to 19 anyone in this courtroom that I vigorously, on behalf of my 20 clients, disagree with just about everything Mr. Wallace 21 said this morning, but there are two things that I actually 22 do agree with him on, and I actually flagged them, and I 23 put them in red on my pad, because I was shocked that I 24 actually agreed with him about something, and what I agreed 25 with him on were two concepts.

1 One, that in order for the Attorney General to 2 win her case, she has to show repeated, persistent, illegal 3 acts, and I respectfully submit to this Court, she will not 4 be able to sustain that burden, especially as to Eric Trump 5 and Donald Trump, Jr., and more importantly, what 6 Mr. Wallace said is that you need to judge credibility. 7 Mr. Wallace put it in the context of credibility of denial. 8 Well, your Honor, it's credibility, in and of 9 itself. You will be the finder of fact. You will hear 10 testimony from Eric Trump. You will hear testimony from 11 Donald Trump, Jr. You will hear them be cross examined by 12 able counsel for the Attorney General, and you will then 13 make a decision as to their veracity. 14 In addition, you will hear testimony, as Mr. Kise 15 set forth, from the witnesses of Deutsche Bank, and 16 Deutsche Bank's testimony is going to be consistent in that 17 there was never a material misrepresentation made by Eric 18 Trump or Donald Trump, Jr. So, it's not going to just be 19 the credibility of my clients. It's not just going to be 20 the credibility of the president, when he testifies. It's 21 going to be the credibility of people who were actually 22 involved in the transactions, and I don't think that can be 23 overstated. 24 It's interesting. You know, when we do an 25 opening statement, I think the first rule we learn is, you		1 the 45th President of the United States in 2017, Eric and 2 Don then continued to grow the business, Eric in an 3 operational standpoint; Don expanding what the company was 4 doing. 5 But, as you are going to hear, and as the 6 testimony from Eric Trump's deposition -- and I'll read 7 from it, page 32, lines 17 and 18: 8 "I was focused on pouring concrete, not 9 accounting." 10 Now, let's be clear. Eric Trump and Donald 11 Trump, Jr. are not walking away from the Statements of 12 Financial Condition. Let's be clear. There were no 13 material inaccuracies. All of the statements and 14 certifications signed by Donald Trump, Jr. and Eric Trump 15 are clear that it talked about no material 16 misrepresentations. This is not a situation where someone 17 signs an affidavit, and they're attesting that every single 18 fact in there is true. 19 I would ask your Honor to think about it in terms 20 of, it's no different from an affidavit where the affiant 21 says, I believe the following to be true, in all material 22 respects. 23 That's what they did here, and it is clear, and 24 our evidence will show, our experts will show, Mr. Kise 25 went through, in painstaking detail, that they were not
1 want to show the best part of your case because, you know, 2 especially if there was a jury here -- which again, I agree 3 with Ms. Habba, we were entitled to under 6312 -- but very 4 often I'll tell a jury, it's kind of like a road map. I 5 want to tell you where I'm going, and what I think the 6 evidence is going to prove. 7 Well, I think it's fascinating that in the 8 Attorney General's opening, their major linchpin is Michael 9 Cohen. Now, as the Court will hear, he is actually on 10 their first -- I think the first six witnesses, maybe the 11 first seven. So, when you talk about credibility, you are 12 going to have a guy who lies to everyone; who is a 13 convicted felon; who allocuted, very specifically in Judge 14 Pauley's courtroom, which we can probably see if we look 15 out the window, and he is a fixture of what their case is 16 about. 17 Now, they played you a snippet of Eric Trump, 18 which quite frankly I thought was in incredibly poor taste, 19 and really misleading. That snippet has to do with 20 Mr. Trump honestly asking if he recalls a 2021 21 conversation. What they didn't show is the rest of his 22 testimony, where he goes through what exactly it is he does 23 at the Trump Organization, and the fact that he and Donald 24 Trump, Jr. spent their life working for their dad, learning 25 from their dad. When their dad assumed the office of being		1 materially -- there was nothing materially wrong with them. 2 And again, you are not taking my word. You will 3 take the word of an NYU Stern School of Business professor. 4 You will take the word of a senior person who used to work 5 at the SEC. 6 (Continued on the next page.) 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

1 MR. ROBERT: But even though we're not running 2 away from these statements of financial condition, as I 3 started my opening, I want to submit to you what the 4 evidence will show my clients didn't do and there's no 5 refuting it. There's not any amount of snippets Mr. 6 Wallace can play, even taken out of context, that will 7 disprove, one, they were not involved in the creation and 8 preparation of the SOFC. 9 Two, they did not assemble the backup for the 10 SOFC. Three, they did not review the SOFC supporting 11 data. Four, they did not perform the calculations used 12 in the SOFC; and, five, they did not review those 13 calculations after they were done. Others created and 14 prepared the SOFC; and, for those years, when they signed 15 documents dealing with financial matters, they relied on 16 the work product of others, which is not anything that 17 should come as a surprise to anyone, especially the 18 People, when you're of a level of a company that 19 Mr. Trump were, they weren't the ones with the green 20 accounting hat ongoing through the mountain of documents 21 in the backup. 22 So, to suggest there is liability that can be 23 attached to them, first of all, from the first 24 foundational issue that there's nothing materially wrong 25 with the statements and, second, the fact that they acted		1 MR. KISE: I think this is-- your hypothetical 2 represents the fundamental problem we have, respectfully, 3 with the summary judgment order. You haven't heard the 4 evidence. You haven't heard from Professor Bartov in 5 person. You haven't heard from Mr. Unell. You haven't 6 heard from Mr. Flemmons and I think you owe it to the 7 defendants to listen to this evidence and understand 8 exactly what I was saying. ASC 274 -- 9 THE COURT: The evidence, that would be 10 argument. Mr. Bartov has evidence? 11 MR. KISE: He does have evidence. His opinion 12 on what the governing accounting standards are. I'm not 13 an expert on governing accounting standards. I don't 14 think the Court is. Respectfully, I don't think you're 15 an expert on governing accounting standards. 16 So, if you have an expert that comes in and 17 tells you this is what the estimated current value is and 18 that is how it's calculated. This is what is material or 19 not, you can agree or disagree but at least give us an 20 opportunity to have a trial where you hear this evidence 21 and make those determinations, because, right now, we 22 haven't gotten there and I would caution your Honor 23 vigorously to -- I understand your hypothetical but I 24 think under these circumstances there's a lot more to the 25 story. There is a lot more layers to this.
1 as appropriately as they should, both in their capacity 2 as executive and in Donald Trump, Jr. as trustee. 3 Therefore, I respectfully submit that the claims 4 brought by the New York State Attorney General against my 5 client should be dismissed. 6 I thank you for your time. 7 THE COURT: Is it the position of all three 8 defendant lawyers that there were no material-- 9 withdrawn. That there were no misstatements in any 10 Statements of Financial Condition? 11 Is that your position? 12 MR. ROBERT: You made a ruling in your summary 13 judgment motion. My position was there were no material 14 misstatements because that is what the People must prove 15 and, at least as it relates to my clients, those were the 16 certifications they signed. The words in every single 17 document they signed say the words "material 18 representation." 19 I'll defer to Mr. Kise as to the others. 20 THE COURT: Let's talk about, very briefly, that 21 word "material." Let's say there's a statement that $100 22 million. At what point would you consider something 23 material? Would $20,000 be material? 24 MR. KISE: Your Honor -- 25 THE COURT: Yes.		1 The Attorney General wants to make it simple. 2 There is an error here and it's material because we say 3 so. I think we have to at least give these witnesses an 4 opportunity to take the stand and understand what this 5 case is about. If you want to disagree later, that's 6 fine, but, I would say that we've got testimony from 7 folks that understand fully valuations. They understand 8 fully accounting standards, and, it is relevant to 9 intent. It is relevant to materiality. 10 If I prepare a statement and that statement is 11 in accordance with the Governing Accounting Standards, I 12 cannot see how, possibly, someone can say, even if they 13 disagree with my valuations, that I had intended to 14 defraud. So, maybe you disagree with my valuation but 15 that is an entirely different question. 16 So, I'd ask the Court to allow us to present the 17 evidence. For example, the differentiation in values, I 18 mean, we have experts that you haven't heard from, and, I 19 don't know we're going to hear from them now based on the 20 way the case is structured. 21 I mean, the Attorney General has certainly 22 opened the door, in my mind, to valuation issues, but, we 23 don't have to decide that today. I think we need to make 24 sure that the evidence comes into the courtroom in a 25 fulsome way and you hear from witnesses who tell you no,

1 that is not material. This value is not 18-- back to the 2 hypothetical. This value is not $18 million, it's a 3 billion dollars, whatever the case may be, but, the Court 4 really needs-- and, frankly, I think from the 5 constitutional perspective, owes it to the defendants to 6 at least hear this evidence and allow them to defend 7 themselves. 8 You're talking about a trial, by the Attorney 9 General's own press conference, is designed to strip them 10 of their New York assets and drive them out of business 11 in New York State. That is a pretty serious thing. That 12 is a pretty serious charge to level against a business 13 that's been one of the most successful employers and one 14 of the most successful real estate developers in New York 15 City. 16 The message that sends is staggering to the real 17 estate community. That is my opinion, but, I know we're 18 not here to get into my opinions. The record will 19 demonstrate, what we say will demonstrate, and, I ask the 20 Court listen to all that evidence before making that 21 determination. 22 THE COURT: I intend to be very patient and 23 liberal listening to things. I think the specific 24 disagreement we seem to have is if Professor Bartov reads 25 a document and has a professional opinion about it, to		1 THE COURT: That's why I didn't do it. 2 MR. KISE: You need to certainly hear when we're 3 talking about criminal standards. We're talking about 4 standards under criminal predicates. Those things must 5 and should be adjudicated with the benefit of expert 6 testimony. There's no way to do it otherwise. It's just 7 not possible. We're all lay people when it comes to some 8 of these things. 9 I am a lay person. I have an accounting degree 10 but I wouldn't call myself an expert on AICPA standards. 11 THE COURT: Thank you. We have to break in 12 about 15 minutes but let's hear the housekeeping issues 13 that were raised this morning. 14 MR. AMER: Good afternoon. Andrew Amer on behalf 15 of the People. We did send a letter this morning raising 16 a couple of issues. I'll set it pretty quickly. 17 The first issue concerns trial subpoenas that 18 were served literally on the eve of trial on Mazars and 19 Ladder Capital. We think the Court should just quash 20 these subpoenas. 21 First, they were never served on us, as they're 22 required to be under 2303(a) CPLR 2303(a) but, 23 importantly, as the cases we cite to in our letter 24 demonstrate, you can't use the trial subpoena to reopen 25 discovery.
1 me, that's not evidence. That's testimony or expert 2 opinion but it's not bringing in new facts. Right? 3 MR. KISE: Respectfully, your Honor, expert 4 opinion in testimony is evidence. That's what evidence 5 is. It's not a document, but, their opinion is relevant. 6 Again, unless the Court is going to be satisfied that it 7 is an expert on accounting regulations, it is an expert 8 on accounting principles and an expert on OCC 9 regulations -- 10 THE COURT: I think what-- is it stacking a dead 11 horse? I intend to listen to all of this. Whether 12 expert opinion is evidence, again, I just consider it 13 opinion and testimony, but, I wouldn't call it evidence, 14 but, there may be different demonstrations. 15 MR. KISE: Again, I don't know how to say it any 16 more clearly. We, respectfully, disagree. We think an 17 expert, for example, a valuation expert comes in and says 18 Mar-A-Lago is worth a billion dollars and you have taken 19 a position that the tax assessor, without a trial, taken 20 a position that the tax assessor's valuation is more 21 credible but -- 22 THE COURT: I did not judge credibility. You 23 can't do that. 24 MR. KISE: That is the whole point, your Honor. 25 That is why --		1 We've had a note of issue. Discovery is over 2 and these trial subpoenas, in large measure, seek 3 documents that they already tried to obtain through 4 subpoenas during fact discovery and, in any event, you 5 just can't use a trial subpoena on an eve of trial to 6 reopen discovery. 7 We shouldn't be dealing with these type of issue 8 as we're trying to prepare each day to present evidence 9 to the Court. So, we would ask that we not have to deal 10 with these subpoenas because we'd ask that the Court 11 quash them. 12 THE COURT: I believe the basic rule is in 13 discovery you find out what there is and subpoenas are 14 for, hey, bring it to court. 15 MR. AMER: Exactly. The second issue concerns 16 Nicholas Haigh. 17 MR. KISE: Are we going to take these one at a 18 time or is he going to do it -- 19 THE COURT: I gather you'd like to speak now to 20 number one? 21 MR. KISE: It may just get jumbled if we don't. 22 THE COURT: I understand. I don't know that I'm 23 making a ruling now. 24 MR. KISE: I understand. I want to make some 25 points and Mr. Robert may also have some points on the

1 first issue. Just for convenience, because we have the 2 remote microphone over there, which is challenging, I'll 3 just stand here, if that's all right with your Honor. 4 Thank you. 5 The trial subpoena asks-- Mr. Robert will speak 6 to this. I don't think they were served improperly but 7 to the extent that is a valid argument, we can just 8 reserve them today. That's easy enough. 9 With respect to the substance, though, this is 10 not information we sought in discovery. As you pointed 11 out, there's things we identified during discovery and, 12 for the trial, we asked for specific records. These are 13 very narrow. They're specific records. They may not 14 think they're narrow because they cover a broad time 15 period but they're very specific records that speak, 16 specifically, to particular witnesses that we now know 17 are going to appear at trial and they go, potentially, to 18 cross-examination of those witnesses. 19 We're certainly-- it's not discovery. We're 20 entitled to, I want to see those records. It's up to us 21 to go through them but it is not discovery. It's 22 information we need for the trial. We didn't seek it in 23 discovery. We identified it, perhaps, in discovery but, 24 at this point, I don't see that they even have a basis to 25 object to what it is that we want to go through in terms		1 Mr. Haigh, who was at Deutsche Bank. We understood, and 2 have understood for quite sometime, that Mr. Haigh would 3 be leaving the country starting on October 13th and would 4 be unavailable. 5 It was our intent to call Mr. Haigh live on our 6 case in chief before he left the country but then on 7 September 26th, your Honor issued a ruling that changed 8 the nature of our case. We actually read the ruling and 9 we understood the ruling to mean that what the banks 10 thought and did just didn't matter. 11 I don't know how more clearly your Honor could 12 have stated it and how many times you could have stated 13 it, and, I think this is a direct quote. "You can't lie 14 on financial statement period." And so, as a result of 15 your Honor's ruling, which we are taking heed of, we are 16 not calling bank representatives because they're not part 17 of our case anymore. We don't need to put on testimony 18 from banks. 19 So, the issue we have, and, I think it's 20 absolutely clear from the openings here, is that the 21 defendants haven't changed the case that they intend to 22 put on to incorporate many of the Court's rulings and 23 they still intend to provide you with testimony from 24 their experts, which we'll talk about at a later point in 25 time, and, they still intend to provide testimony from

1 of using other -- locating impeachment material we think 2 is relevant. If it exists, give it to us. That's it. 3 It's pretty simple. 4 THE COURT: The point was raised just a few 5 hours ago. I'll have to look at the subpoenas. 6 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, if I may, the section 7 of the CPLR Mr. Armen references were to properly notify 8 them before the return date. 9 It's my understanding, you referenced, when we 10 started today, about the rains of Thursday and Friday. 11 My understanding is the subpoenas were served throughout 12 the course of Thursday and Friday in due course. If they 13 don't have it already, we probably already e-mailed it to 14 them this morning. That's a nonissue. 15 I also note the people who were served are not 16 moving to quash. Usually, you have a meet and confer 17 with the person that received the subpoena. You discuss 18 whether or not it was too broad, what the relevance of it 19 is, why we needed it, and, it could be worked out. The 20 Attorney General is sending the letter, as a nonparty, to 21 the subpoena objecting to it. I think it's also 22 procedurally improper. 23 THE COURT: Let's go on to the second issue. 24 MR. AMER: The second concerns our need to take 25 a deposition of Mr. Haigh. Let me give you background of		1 bank employees, even though your Honor has said what the 2 bank thought didn't matter. 3 THE COURT: Well, remember, I said that about 4 the first cause of action. I'm not sure about the other 5 six. 6 MR. AMER: That's why we may have a dispute of 7 whether the bank employees can testify and what the scope 8 of their testimony will be. We need to account for the 9 fact that we may need to call Mr. Haigh in our rebuttal 10 case; and, it's perfectly clear from his schedule that he 11 will not be available to be called at trial on our 12 rebuttal case. 13 So, we've asked to take his deposition to 14 preserve his testimony for rebuttal and we have 15 scheduled, with his counsel, to do that next week, and, 16 the defendants are refusing to allow us to take his 17 testimony to preserve it for rebuttal, and, we think we 18 should certainly be allowed that right. 19 We didn't understand until September 26th that 20 we were not going to call him in our case in chief; and, 21 I think our decision not to call him in our case in chief 22 is an appropriate decision, given your Honor's ruling, 23 and, we would like the opportunity to take his deposition 24 next week, and, I would note that your Honor has 25 accommodated the defendants' request the other day to

1 take depositions of witnesses who we're going to put on 2 and we've made no objection to that. We're working with 3 them to schedule it. 4 So, we think Mr. Haigh's deposition should go 5 forward on the date Mr. Haigh's counsel agreed to make 6 him available next week. 7 THE COURT: Defendant, any quick reply? 8 MR. KISE: Your Honor, yes. First of all, 9 there's no need to take a deposition. If they want to 10 call a witness, they can call a witness and bring that 11 witness in the courtroom. Your Honor pointed out exactly 12 the key elements here. You determined in your ruling 13 that what the bank said or did or thought was irrelevant 14 to liability, to the decision you made but not to the 15 remainder of the case. That's the whole point. 16 So, we think it's highly relevant to 17 disgorgement, again, the extent I won't belabor but we 18 think it's highly relevant for disgorgement and, so, if 19 this witness is going to testify, if they're going to 20 establish their case then, he's here. We can take him 21 out of order and put him on the stand. There's no 22 problem with that. I just don't see any bases -- 23 Mr. Robert will speak again. 24 As you know, he's the CPLR expert, not me, but 25 what the banks thought and did does matter and, frankly,		1 compressed nature of it but, regardless of that, your 2 order of June 9th said "trial depositions for all 3 nonparty witnesses who are unavailable for trial, as set 4 forth in CPLR 3117 shall be held by July 28, 2023. 5 We opposed it beforehand. If the Attorney 6 General had any issues prior to that point, they needed 7 to make an application. On July 31st they then filed a 8 note of issue certifying "discovery known to be necessary 9 was completed." Again, because this is a bench trial, 10 because you have tremendous discretion as a result of it, 11 if they're intent-- he may be a rebuttal witness, going 12 back to what I said I agree with Mr. Wallace about, 13 credibility is everything. 14 Let him come here. Let him take the stand. Let 15 him be subject to the Attorney General's direct, our 16 cross-examination, and this Court can hold that in 17 abeyance, if they then want to use that for purposes of 18 rebuttal, but, in the middle of the trial, you will allow 19 him to take a deposition, not in open court, and not 20 before you, I think is incredibly problematic. 21 MR. KISE: One other thing I'll add, Your Honor, 22 not to be too pejorative here but it appears there may be 23 a little slight of hand. I note on the Attorney 24 General's initial witnesses on September 8th, just a few 25 weeks ago, the trial was still going to start on
1 if they want Mr. Haigh to testify, then he needs to come, 2 and, we're prepared to confront him in an open forum, not 3 at some deposition. 4 The deposition Mr. Amer is referencing are new 5 witnesses, people that no one knew about before. They 6 disclosed it the first time on a witness list less than a 7 week before the trial started. They never disclosed him 8 in interrogatories or on a witness list until now. 9 We had a right to depose them because we don't 10 know anything about their presence but Mr. Haigh, they 11 interviewed Mr. Haigh for three days or more during the 12 investigative process. They know full well what the 13 impact truly is, what he is, why he is. 14 We deposed Mr. Haigh during the course of 15 discovery. They didn't ask any questions. So, now, they 16 want to come along and insert a deposition of what will, 17 no doubt, be some key witness for them; and, in the 18 middle of a trial, it's wholly improper. There's no 19 procedure for it. 20 If Mr. Haigh is available, he is available until 21 October 13th, he can certainly come and present his 22 testimony. 23 THE COURT: Mr. Robert. 24 MR. ROBERT: You issued an order and there was a 25 lot of back and forth over the last year about the		1 October 2nd. Mr. Haigh was listed as the 37th witness. 2 So, I doubt that they intended for Mr. Haigh to be called 3 before the 13th on their initial list. 4 So, I don't know what's even changed between 5 then and now. I don't think Mr. Haigh decided to leave 6 the country for three or four weeks on a whim. So, I 7 think they had their opportunity to raise to depose Mr. 8 Haigh. They could have asked questions during our 9 deposition, as Mr. Robert pointed out. Your order gave a 10 specific time period and there's no basis for that. 11 We're entitled to confront these witnesses in an 12 open courtroom where everyone can see and hear what they 13 have to say. 14 THE COURT: Quickly. 15 MR. AMER: Certainly, there is no slight of 16 hand. We didn't appreciate the full schedule of Mr. 17 Haigh's travel and we were perfectly prepared to call him 18 out of turn. 19 THE COURT: For reasons of time. 20 MR. AMER: Sure. 21 THE COURT: I'm going to allow the deposition. 22 What's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. No 23 prejudice. You have a right to confront him in court. 24 If he testifies, you'll have a right to confront him in 25 court. I don't think this is close.

1 What's the third issue? You can work out the 2 schedule. 3 MR. AMER: Thank you. The third issue concerns 4 a proposal we made. We just haven't gotten a response 5 but I think it's one that will greatly aid the efficiency 6 of the proceedings. We requested that all documents that 7 were produced by any party during the investigative phase 8 in response to our subpoenas be considered authentic to 9 avoid the need to bring in -- 10 MR. KISE: I think we agreed on this already on 11 authenticity. I think we had an agreement on the phone 12 last week on Friday. So, we haven't gotten back. We can 13 work that out. Authenticity. 14 THE COURT: Authenticity, not necessarily 15 admissibility. 16 MR. KISE: That's right. That is what we worked 17 out. 18 THE COURT: I knew this would become a love fest 19 eventually. 20 MR. AMER: One more procedural issue. 21 THE COURT: Quick. 22 MR. AMER: We now have a designated and 23 counter-designated deposition transcript for a witness we 24 are going to call by video, play her video deposition, 25 and there are some objections that were lodged to certain		1 I'll have a ruling on the first issue by then. 1 designations and we can't cut the video to play in court 2 without knowing how your Honor wants to work out ruling 3 on the objections and what process you want us to follow 4 to submit the designations and the objections, get your 5 ruling, and then we can cut the video and make sure, if 6 you sustain any objections, we leave those portions out. 7 THE COURT: Submit it with a statement of 8 objections in camera and I'll go over the whole thing. 9 Mr. Kise. 10 MR. KISE: Let us look at the specifics. 11 Mr. Amer is correct. How we intend to proceed is key to 12 how we go about resolving the issue. If I'm 13 understanding, you want us to separately -- first we have 14 to try and work out any objections. To the extent we 15 can't, separately submit those, and we'll do that off 16 trial time. 17 THE COURT: I mean, we'll do that separate. Of 18 course. 19 MR. KISE: Prior to the time that the witness's 20 testimony is going to be played? 21 THE COURT: Of course. 22 MR. AMER: You want a paper copy of the 23 transcript highlighted or you want a video? 24 THE COURT: Paper copy will do. I'm old school. 25 Have a great lunch. We'll resume at 2:15 and		1 THE COURT: First things first. I would like to 2 have a quick sidebar, or you might call it a front bar, 3 with counsel. This will only take minute or two. 4 (Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion took 5 place at bench.) 6 THE COURT: I said I would address the first 7 issue that the Attorney General raised, very recently. I'm 8 quashing those subpoenas. It seems clear to me that they 9 are being used as a discovery device. Let's see what we 10 can find out; not, We want you to bring the report of 11 April 1965, or whatever. So, that's that. 12 MR. AMER: Along these lines, your Honor, we did 13 learn that Deutsche Bank was served with a trial subpoena 14 this morning, so I think it makes sense to extend your 15 order to that subpoena, as well. 16 THE COURT: Well, I would have to see the 17 subpoena and the argument, so, without prejudice, 18 withdrawn. 19 Okay. Are we ready for our first witness? 20 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, the People had one 21 issue relating to the first witness, we just wanted to 22 raise. The People's first witness is going to be Donald 23 Bender, from the accounting firm Mazars. One of the 24 primary reasons to have Mr. Bender come in is to bring in 25 the various documents that relate to the Statement of

1 Financial Condition. There's four primary documents. 2 There's the Statement of Financial Condition; there is the 3 supporting data spreadsheet; there's the engagement letter; 4 and there's the representation letter. So, there's those 5 four documents, for every single year. 6 Many of them are not objected to, by both 7 parties, and so we would propose that documents that are 8 not subject to objection be entered into evidence, without 9 necessarily having the witness go through each and every 10 single document. For the ones that there are objections 11 to, we'll go through them with the witness. 12 MR. KISE: I think, your Honor, the best 13 approach -- I mean, again, as we said, we agree as to 14 authenticity, but as to admissibility, I think we need to 15 go document-by-document, because as you know, we have a 16 different view of the timeline here, and it's important for 17 our record to make sure that we preserve those objections. 18 MR. WALLACE: Let me be clear. We are talking 19 about documents which are listed as, No objection, on the 20 exhibit list. 21 MR. KISE: If we take it document-by-document, 22 your Honor, it's not going to take very long. I mean, it's 23 pretty simple. So, if we just -- I'm not even sure which 24 four documents he is talking about right now. I'm not 25 saying he is right or wrong. I just think it's much		1 every single document. 2 We are also presenting an electronic copy of the 3 supporting data spreadsheet, because it's an Excel 4 spreadsheet. 5 (Whereupon, documents were handed to the Court.) 6 MR. WALLACE: If we have a moment, Chris, I think 7 we might raise one more issue. 8 Mr. Kise and I both made presentations, as part 9 of our openings. Does your Honor want us to provide you 10 with copies of those, or should we file it on the docket? 11 MR. KISE: We can provide copies, but as I'm sure 12 the Court is aware, opening statements are not evidentiary. 13 They have no -- 14 THE COURT: I said that, earlier. 15 MR. KISE: Right. 16 MR. WALLACE: Understood. 17 THE COURT: But I'll take them. Sure. It would 18 be the same thing as just getting a transcript, so. 19 (Whereupon, a document was handed to the Court.) 20 DONALD BENDER, after having first been duly sworn, 21 was examined and testified as follows: 22 THE COURT OFFICER: Please have a seat. 23 Please state your name and either home or 24 business address, on the record. 25 THE WITNESS: My name is Donald Bender, and I
1 easier, and a much better flow, for us to just take it 2 document-by-document, and if we waive objection, we waive 3 objection. 4 MR. WALLACE: The objections have been waived 5 already, so my request is that documents with no objection 6 be moved into evidence. 7 THE COURT: I don't think we can do that, en 8 masse, without seeing. I think Mr. Kise is correct. 9 One-by-one, hopefully, if they have waived their 10 objections. If they object, you will say, But you waived 11 it, and they will say, Well, we did, or we didn't. 12 MR. WALLACE: Well, that's fine, but we'll go 13 through each document for every one year, and we'll do that 14 with Mr. Bender. 15 So, the people call Donald Bender. 16 Your Honor, I would also -- per our discussion at 17 the pretrial conference, we prepared binders. Three copies 18 for court, and staff, if Ms. Faherty can bring them up. 19 THE COURT: Sure. You can approach. Bring it 20 up. 21 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I'll say we have 22 prepared, actually, two sets of binders for today. One 23 would be for the Court to have a set of these Statements of 24 Financial Condition, so we prepared a set of binders for 25 that. We'll go through them. We are going to go through		1 live in Woodbury, New York. 2 THE COURT: I just ask you to keep your voice way 3 up. Talk right into the microphone. 4 THE WITNESS: I'll try, your Honor. 5 MR. KISE: Your Honor, not to delay the 6 proceedings, but while we are on the subject of objections, 7 so, with Mr. Bender's testimony, we are going to do the 8 same thing with each witness, if it's okay with your Honor. 9 As you know, we won an appellate victory in June 10 of this year. We believe that it wiped out 80 percent of 11 the case, based on the statute of limitations. At all 12 events, we object to any testimony that will come in as to 13 Statements of Financial Condition that were prepared, 14 certifications that were made, any questions of this 15 witness. We are going to do this in a blanket way, so we 16 don't interrupt question-by-question, but we just want to 17 state on the record, now, that the witness has been sworn; 18 that we object to testimony coming in that is outside of 19 the claims that should be addressed. 20 As you know, we have argued that, and we believe 21 that, the Appellate Division ruling supports the fact that 22 eight of the ten transactions, the loan transactions, are 23 not at issue. Only two are, the two that were mentioned at 24 the beginning, but we make a blanket objection to testimony 25 in that regard. We won't interrupt the proceeding.

1 As to documents, and this is why I was a bit 2 pedantic about document-by-document. We will object, on 3 that basis, document-by-document. To the extent documents 4 come in, because from the Appellate cases that we have 5 reviewed, we have to do that, to preserve the record. 6 We'll make the objection. We'll try and move the case 7 along, but we have to make that objection. 8 And then, lastly, if we have agreement, as we 9 have done throughout this case in the depositions, if we 10 have agreement, an objection for one is an objection for 11 all, so that you don't have people popping up, popping up 12 and down, if that's all right with the People. If one of 13 us objects to a document coming in, then we don't all have 14 to stand up and object, to make that record. 15 THE COURT: Birds of a feather flock together. 16 MR. KISE: Indeed. 17 THE COURT: Well, let's not get into a whole 18 discussion about statute of limitations, et cetera. It's 19 my position, and I hope it was clear from the summary 20 judgment decision and order, that it's one thing if your 21 client makes a statement, gets a loan, and the money is 22 transferred, and that's it. It's another thing if the deal 23 is, We'll loan you the money; we want to read your 24 Statement of Financial Condition, and every year you are 25 going to have to send us another Statement of Financial		1 course of conduct between the parties during a 2 long-standing relationship can have relevance. The statute 3 of limitations is a bar on claims, not on a bar on 4 evidence. If it's too far gone, understood, it could be 5 not relevant anymore, but I think we do this as we go 6 through the case, and we may likely see this on the first 7 document that I show to Mr. Bender. 8 So, why don't we get started. 9 THE COURT: Yes. 10 MR. WALLACE: If that's okay with your Honor. 11 THE COURT: Please proceed. 12 DIRECT EXAMINATION 13 BY MR. WALLACE: 14 Q Good afternoon, sir. 15 A Good afternoon. 16 THE COURT: A little louder. 17 THE WITNESS: I'll try. 18 A Good afternoon. 19 THE COURT: Better. 20 Q Since there's been some colloquy, could you please 21 state your name again, for the record? 22 A Donald Bender. 23 Q Mr. Bender, are you taking any medication that we 24 should just be aware of, during the course of your testimony 25 today?
1 Condition. If those later statements flow within the 2 statutory period, I certainly consider them relevant. 3 MR. KISE: I understand your Honor's position, 4 and I think you understand ours with respect to the 5 limitations. 6 With respect to that latter piece, if we are 7 talking about just certifications that occurred after 2014, 8 then that still would exclude any evidence about the 9 underlying loan transaction that predated the statute of 10 limitations. That's part of -- 11 THE COURT: I think that's right, but the 12 pre-statute of limitations dealings may be relevant for 13 injunctive relief, for their knowledge of things, but we'll 14 have to deal it with it one-by-one. 15 MR. KISE: We would object to that as well, your 16 Honor. 17 THE COURT: Okay. Objection overruled, but I 18 will ask the Attorney General to be cognizant of his 19 points, and if there's something, a discrete transaction, 20 obviously that occurred before the limitations period 21 began, then let's not have that in, because I'll exclude 22 it. I won't consider it, anyway. 23 MR. WALLACE: Fair enough, your Honor. I think 24 that -- I'm not going to speak for this witness, and every 25 witness that's going to come in. We certainly believe that		1 A I'm just on normal medications for blood pressure, 2 prostate, aspirins, reflux. Nothing beyond that, today. 3 Q If you need any breaks, you can -- 4 A Okay. Thank you. 5 Q -- let Judge Engoron know. 6 Can you please describe, for me, your educational 7 background? 8 A I graduated with a BA from Queens College in 1979. 9 Q Okay. And do you hold any professional licenses? 10 A I'm a New York State CPA. 11 Q And are you currently employed? 12 A No. I'm retired. I do a few hours of consulting, but 13 I'm retired. 14 Q What was your last job, before you retired? 15 A I was a partner at Mazars USA. 16 Q And what is Mazars USA? 17 A It's an accounting and -- an accounting and consulting 18 firm. 19 Q At the time of your retirement, how long had you been 20 working for Mazars? 21 A With predecessor firms, approximately 41 years. 22 Q Okay. And at what point did you become a partner in 23 the firm? 24 A About 22 years ago. 25 Q And what work did you perform as a partner at Mazars?

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 105 1 A I considered myself a generalist. I did a little bit 2 of everything. Some test work, some tax work, sales tax. I 3 came from a background of a multi-functional. 4 Q And when you say test work, what is that referring to? 5 A Test work means generally, today, audit review or 6 compilation work. 7 Q Okay. And we'll get to those, in a minute. Was the 8 defendant, Donald J. Trump, a client of yours at Mazars? 9 A Yes. He was a client of Mazars. 10 Q And what work did you do for him, as an individual? 11 A As an individual, I worked on his tax return. I 12 worked on some certain tax exams, and I worked on the 13 compilation of his Statement of Financial Condition for a number 14 of years. 15 Q What is a tax exam? 16 A Some government authority, federal, state or city, or 17 an agency thereof, is auditing him to see if the numbers are 18 correct. 19 Q Okay. And are you familiar with an entity doing 20 business as the Trump Organization? 21 A Well, the Trump Organization, in my time, were two 22 different entities. There were two entities. The first entity 23 was Trump Organization, Inc. The second entity was Trump 24 Organization, LLC. In my point of view, those were basically 25 inactive entities. The name of the Trump Organization, to me,	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 107 1 That doesn't include -- I don't have an analysis of non-billable 2 time, so I don't know if that -- I don't think we should rely on 3 those numbers today. 4 Q Okay. So, I understand you may have been doing work 5 that isn't counted in the billable time? 6 A Yes. 7 Q You are describing -- that's what your concern was? 8 A Yes. 9 Q Understood. 10 Do you have a sense of what percentage of your time 11 doing work for the Trump Organization was spent on the 12 compilation of Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition? 13 A Say that again, please? 14 Q Do you have a sense of how much of your time, how much 15 of the work you are performing for the Trump Organization and 16 Mr. Trump, what percentage was the work on the Statement of 17 Financial Condition? 18 A I would say somewhere in the range 2 to 4 percent. 19 Q And do you have a rough sense of how many hours that 20 would be, in a given year? 21 A It changed, over time, depending on who was helping 22 me, not helping me or -- you know, but I would say 50 to 60 23 hours of my time wouldn't be unusual, in a year. 24 Q You were describing -- you mentioned that you did work 25 for entities owned or controlled by Donald Trump and his
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 106 1 is like a d/b/a. It's an umbrella entity that reflected all of 2 the entities owned or controlled by Donald J. Trump, or his 3 children. That's how I would think of it, today. 4 Q And did you do any accounting work for corporate 5 entities owned or controlled by Donald Trump and his children? 6 A I did accounting work for those entities, corporate, 7 partnerships, LLCs. Not just corporate. 8 Q And what work did you perform for them? 9 A Like I said, whole spectrum of work, from some audits, 10 reviews, compilations, test work. Some tax returns. You know, 11 a little bit of everything. Whatever needed to be. I was a 12 generalist. I could help out, from time to time. 13 Q Do you have a sense of approximately how much of your 14 time, let's say during the years 2011 through -- 15 MR. WALLACE: Strike that question. 16 Q Do you have a sense of how much of your time, from the 17 period of 2011 until your retirement, you were spending on 18 engagements for Donald Trump and the Trump Organization? 19 A I don't have a good sense. If I had to guesstimate 20 today -- it changed over the years -- I would say approximately, 21 anywhere between 45 or 55 percent. But that's just a 22 guesstimate. I don't have the information in front of me, 23 today. 24 Q Do you have a sense of how much of your time? 25 A Let me take that -- that's probably my billable time.	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 108 1 children. You said you do an array of work. Could you describe 2 for me what individuals you would work with, in the course of 3 your engagement for the Trump Organization and Mr. Trump? 4 MR. KISE: Objection, your Honor. I've let this 5 go a bit, but can we maybe confine this to year-by-year, or 6 series of years? And are we asking for the entire ten-year 7 period? I'm just -- there's no context, here, for this. I 8 mean, in general terms, he can testify, but the questions 9 need to be more precise. It couldn't be the same people, 10 each year. 11 THE COURT: Well, what if we did this: If you 12 are asking to average, generalize, just make it clear that 13 that's what you are doing, but I'm not going to insist that 14 he go year-by-year. 15 Q So Mr. Bender, generally, during the period of 2011 to 16 the time of your retirement, who were some of the individuals 17 you would deal with at the Trump Organization? 18 A I dealt with a large array of the executives, legal 19 department, accounting department, and a lot of other people in 20 between. 21 Q And who would you interact with the most? 22 A If I had to say who I interacted the most, it would be 23 Jeff McConney. 24 Q And what was Mr. McConney's role? 25 A He was some type of -- I don't remember what type of

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 109 1 vice president he was, but he had a title, and he was Controller 2 for a number of those years. Before that, he was Assistant 3 Controller. 4 Q You mentioned that you were familiar with the entities 5 of the Trump Organization, Inc. and the Trump Organization, LLC. 6 I would like to ask if you are familiar with a few other 7 entities. Are you familiar with an entity called DJT Holdings, 8 LLC? 9 A Yes, I am. 10 Q And what do you understand that entity does? 11 A That was a holding entity for a number of Mr. Trump's 12 investments, in the later years. 13 Q And did you do any accounting work for that entity? 14 A Mazars did accounting work, yes. 15 Q And what accounting work did Mazars do? 16 A We prepared the tax return, and we did certain 17 accounting work papers. 18 Q Are you familiar with an entity called DJT Holdings 19 Managing Member? 20 A I believe the name is DJT Holdings Managing Member, 21 LLC, but you will have to confirm that for me. It's been a 22 while. But yes, I am. 23 Q And what does that entity do? 24 A It also held a number of Mr. Trump's investments. 25 Q And did that entity -- did Mazars do accounting work	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 111 1 A Yes, we did. 2 Q And what accounting work did Mazars do for that 3 entity? 4 A We did various levels of test work, depending on what 5 year it was, and for certain years we did tax returns and we did 6 accounting, and we did -- let me take that back. 401 North 7 Wabash. 401 North Wabash doesn't file a tax return. To the 8 best of my recollection, we did accounting work papers to assist 9 for the preparation of other entities' tax returns. 10 Q Are you familiar with an entity called Trump Old Post 11 Office, LLC? 12 A Yes, I did. 13 Q What did that entity do? 14 A That is the entity that operates the Old Post Office 15 Hotel in Washington, D.C. 16 Q Did Mazars do accounting work for that entity? 17 A We did test work and we did tax returns, to the best 18 of my recollection. 19 Q Are you familiar with the entity called 40 Wall 20 Street, LLC? 21 A 40 Wall Street. Yes. 22 Q And what did that entity do? 23 A That is the property that -- that's the company that 24 operated the Trump building at 40 Wall Street, in Manhattan. 25 Q And did Mazars do accounting work for that entity?
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 110 1 for that entity? 2 A Yes, we did. 3 Q What accounting work did you do for that entity? 4 A We did the same kind of work. We filed tax returns 5 and did certain accounting work papers. 6 Q Are you familiar with an entity called Trump Endeavor 7 12, LLC? 8 A Yes, I am. 9 Q What does that entity do? 10 A That is the property that owns the Doral, in Florida. 11 The Doral Golf Club. 12 Q Did Mazars do accounting work for that entity? 13 A Yes. Yes, we did. 14 Q And what accounting work did Mazars do for that 15 entity? 16 A To the best of my recollection today, I believe we did 17 compilations and we did tax returns, but I would have to check 18 that. 19 Q Are you familiar with an entity called 401 North 20 Wabash Venture, LLC? 21 A Yes, I am. 22 Q And what does that entity do? 23 A That is the sponsor for Trump International Hotel and 24 Tower in Chicago. 25 Q And did Mazars do accounting work for that entity?	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 112 1 A We did various levels of test work, depending on what 2 year it was, and we did a tax return, amongst other things. 3 Q And are you familiar with an entity called Seven 4 Springs, LLC? 5 A Yes, I am. 6 Q And what does that entity do? 7 A That entity, to the best of my recollection, changed 8 over the years. I think originally, if I recall, it was 9 supposed to be a golf course, potentially. Later, it was -- 10 became a development project, and in later years it was a 11 personal asset for Mr. Trump. 12 Q And did Mazars do accounting work for Seven Springs, 13 LLC? 14 A Yes, we did. 15 Q What accounting work did Mazars do for Seven Springs, 16 LLC? 17 A To the best of my recollection today, we did tax 18 return -- tax returns and accounting work papers. 19 Q Okay. I would like to go back and focus on the 20 Statement of Financial Condition you mentioned. Can you 21 describe for me what that document is? 22 A Simplistically, I would say that is what people today 23 would basically call a balance sheet. It's a balance sheet of 24 Mr. Trump's assets and liabilities as of June 30th of the 25 individual year we are talking about, prepared, you know, under

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 113 1 accounting principles. 2 Q When you say you prepared it under accounting 3 principles -- 4 A If I said prepared, we compiled it. We did not 5 prepare the statement. 6 Q So you compile the statement. What does it mean to 7 compile the statement? 8 A Compilation is when you take the information, the 9 accountant compiles information given to us by a client to 10 present it in a financial statement format. The compilation 11 has -- the accountant gives no assurance, and gives -- does no 12 testing on analytics, on that information. 13 Q And taking the period from 2011 until your retirement, 14 what was your role in compiling the Statement of Financial 15 Condition for Mr. Trump? 16 A Well, I was the partner in charge of it. I think the 17 last one we did was June '20, 2020. It didn't go till my 18 retirement. You would have to check that. I think it was 19 June 30, 2020, was the last one, but I was the partner in 20 charge, and sometimes I was more involved in the preparation, 21 and certain years I supervised some staff on it. 22 Q Okay. Do you recall how many staff you would 23 supervise? 24 A One to three. It wasn't, you know -- 25 Q Is it possible for you to describe for me, at a high	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 115 1 started the work. 2 Q So you would not always immediately begin the work on 3 the compilation when you received the information from 4 Mr. McConney? 5 A Not necessarily. That's true. 6 Q Okay. And so, if information came in that superseded 7 what you had already received, you would only look at the most 8 recent information? 9 A In most cases, I would say that's fair. 10 (Continued on the next page.) 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 114 1 level, during that time 2011 to 2020, what the process was for 2 getting the statement compiled. 3 A Well, it changed as technology changed, so I don't 4 know what year exactly technology changed, but in the early 5 years I would go to Trump Tower, some years, and I would sit 6 with Jeff McConney, and he will give me paper backup for the 7 information. He would give it to me in paper. Sometimes he 8 might give it to -- I think they used DHL or FedEx. It would 9 sometimes come by messenger. I would literally sit with him, 10 and he would give me the numbers. He would give me the backup, 11 or what was available as of that day. I would literally punch 12 holes in the paper, and put it into a looseleaf binder. 13 As technology changed, they started emailing me more 14 and more stuff, and at some point, for the last few years, I 15 believe they went into a portal. 16 Q Okay. So let's focus on the years when you were 17 getting the information by email. What would you do after you 18 received the information from Mr. McConney? 19 A Me or a member of my team would insert it into what we 20 call an engagement binder, whether it be an electronic binder, 21 and we would put the information in that binder, and we would 22 leave it in that binder until we were ready to start the 23 engagement. So, if certain information came in and was 24 superseded, we just used -- we would take the one that -- the 25 latest one that came in, at the time we started, physically	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 116 1 Q So, once you start working on it, what does that look 2 like? What are you doing? 3 A We would cross-- we would look at. Jeff or a member 4 of his team. If it wasn't Jeffrey, it was somebody else. 5 They'd send us a schedule with a control schedule. They 6 would send us an early draft of the financial statement which 7 they marked up. 8 They usually took the previous years's 9 statement, crossed out and made the changes and, again, that 10 would be an early draft of the statement, and, they would 11 send us backup schedules, and, we'd try to cross-reference 12 the schedules to their supporting control sheet, to make sure 13 the numbers agreed. 14 Q So, when you say cross-reference to make sure the 15 numbers agreed, can you describe what that looks like? 16 A I tell a story that I used to say it's a full 17 circle. Their control document was something I believe 18 called Jeff Supporting Data. So, I would make sure the 19 numbers, even if they sent me updates, the numbers on the 20 Jeff Supporting Data available would tie out to the cash 21 schedule, the accounts payable schedule, whatever schedule we 22 were looking at. 23 Q So, you were making sure the numbers on the support 24 they sent you match the numbers going into the spreadsheet? 25 A Yes and vice versa.

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 117 1 Q Were you doing any other analysis of the supporting 2 information? 3 A I would look at it at high level. If I saw 4 something that bothered me or something that didn't make 5 sense to me, I'd ask him about it, generally. 6 Q Okay. So, you checked the schedules. You said they 7 would send you a marked-up version of the statement-- of what 8 is necessary to complete the statement? 9 A You know, if -- first of all, we'd have to get an 10 engagement letter. We'd have to get an engagement letter 11 from the client, outline the terms of the engagement. We 12 would, you know, after we would type the statement, sometimes 13 we'd type it in before. We would just type the first draft. 14 After Trump Organization had finalized their 15 numbers and sent to us, you know, we'd send them a final 16 draft. Typically, we'd send them multiple final drafts with 17 red lines sometimes with changes. Red lines, black lines, 18 whatever they call it. I'm not a lawyer. At the point when 19 everybody was-- the Trump Organization was happy with the 20 statement, the compilation, they would send a representation 21 letter. 22 After they signed the representation letter and 23 when the representation letter was signed, Mazars had done 24 all the procedures, all that was required on our end, we 25 would issue the compilation report.	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 119 1 MR. KISE: We just lodge our objection to the 2 document, and, we're going to do that document by 3 document. 4 THE COURT: Okay. You can make it quick for the 5 other one? 6 MR. KISE: Yes. 7 THE COURT: It's admissible. 8 MR. WALLACE: We offer Plaintiff's Exhibit 75 in 9 evidence, your Honor. 10 THE COURT: It's in evidence. 11 (Whereupon, said exhibit was received in 12 evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 75.) 13 Q Mr. Bender, do you recognize this document? 14 A Yes, I do. 15 Q What is it? 16 A It's the engagement letter that compiled the 17 Statement of Financial Condition to Donald J. Trump as of 18 June 30, 2011. 19 Q Okay. If I could direct your attention to the top of 20 the page here. It's addressed to Alan Weisselberg Executive 21 Vice President, Chief Financial Officer of the Trump 22 Organization. 23 Why is this letter being addressed to Mr. 24 Weisselberg? 25 A Mr. Weisselberg signed all the engagement letters.
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 118 1 Q Did that process generally remain the same throughout 2 the period of 2011 through your retirement? 3 A To the point we stopped -- not to my retirement. 4 When we stopped compiling the financial statement. 5 Q That was in 2021; 6 A '20 or '21. I don't remember. You have to tell me. 7 Q You said it was the statement as of June 30, 2021? 8 A That's what I thought it was. 9 Q Mr. Bender, you have been handed a document premarked 10 PX-200785. We'll also call it up on the screen here. Do you 11 recognize this document? 12 MR. KISE: Your Honor, this would be one of 13 those documents that we're going to object to on the 14 Statute of Limitations. We don't think it should come 15 in. It's 2011. 16 THE COURT: I agree with you we're trying to do 17 this altogether. Hold on. Mr. Kise, I'm going to 18 overrule you on what I think is going to be a continuing 19 objection, and, I'll recognize the continuing objection. 20 As the Attorney General said earlier, and was in 21 their papers, Statute of Limitations claims are not 22 evidence. These can be relevant to just setting the 23 stage for what happened later. It can be relevant for 24 the equitable relief requested. I'm letting in it in but 25 you can make a statement now.	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 120 1 He was the one who ran the accounting department as Chief 2 Financial Officer for the Trump Organization. 3 Q So, the Trump Organization and their accounting 4 department were responsible for the engagements of you for 5 Donald Trump's personal Statement of Financial Condition? 6 A Yes. Yes, that is fair to say. 7 Q If I can direct your attention to the second and 8 third paragraphs of this letter. I'll just highlight this for 9 you. 10 Let's take a look at paragraphs two and three. 11 "We will perform the following services. We will compile, 12 from information you provide, the Statement of Financial 13 Condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2011." 14 I think you touched on it when we were talking 15 about high level. What does it mean that you would compile 16 the Statements of Financial Condition? 17 A Compilation is to present, simplistically, to 18 present, in the form of financial statement, the presented 19 compiled information in the form of financial statement given 20 to us by the client. Mazars would do compilation. Mazars 21 would give no assurance on the work and we'd do no testing or 22 analytical review as part of the compilation procedure. 23 Q Your responsibility was for the form of the document? 24 A If I saw something that stuck out at me at high 25 level, I noticed something on that, I would go back to them

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 121 1 and ask them a question but I did not order or review 2 procedure. 3 Q Could you just describe for me when you say "audit or 4 review procedure?" 5 A Review procedure would include analytical procedure, 6 analytical procedure and the accountant would give limited 7 assurance. On order, we'd do analytical procedure and audit 8 testing and give the assurance that the financial statement, 9 simplistically -- I don't have the exact in front of me. The 10 financial statement would be reasonably stated. Sorry. 11 Q In the context of the audit you're describing, what 12 kind of analytical procedures were involved? 13 A Analytical procedure or review would be, you know, 14 comparison from one year to another to determine what kind of 15 procedure, what kind of items you would test. 16 Q Going back to compilation engagement, are you 17 undertaking any steps to make sure the information you're 18 looking at is true? 19 A No, I would just look at something. If something 20 stuck at high level or came to my attention, I would bring it 21 to the attention of the client. 22 Q Okay. Going back to the third sentence here, you 23 write: "We will compile from information you provide." Speak 24 clear. Who's the you that will provide information? 25 A The Trump Organization.	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 123 1 Q Do you have an understanding of what the rules were 2 provided for related to this letter in 2011? 3 A Yes, I do. 4 Q What would those rules have provided for? 5 A As I said, no analytical procedures, no testing and 6 the numbers in the financial statement on the representation 7 of management, simplistically. 8 Q Second sentence in this paragraph states: "The 9 objective of a compilation is to present, in the form of 10 financial statements, information that is the representation 11 of management without undertaking to express any assurance on 12 the financial statements." I think we've covered some of 13 this, so I don't want to go through all of it, but, what does 14 it mean it's the representation of management? 15 A As I just stated, your last question, the numbers 16 are the representation of management of the client. 17 Q If we go down to the next paragraph, it states: 18 "Compilation differs significantly from a review or an audit 19 of financial statements." 20 I want to understand, this is, essentially, 21 consistent with what you were telling me before about the 22 difference between review, audit, and compilation? 23 A Yes, sir. 24 Q The next sentence states: "A compilation does not 25 contemplate performing inquiry, analytical procedure, or other
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 122 1 Q Who selected the as-of date of June 30, 2011? 2 A When I came around, it was already June 30th. I 3 think, historically, for a number of years, it was June 30th. 4 Q If we could direct your attention to the top of the 5 next paragraph. It states: "We will compile the financial 6 statements and issue an accountant's report thereon in 7 accordance with statements on Standard For Accounting and 8 Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified 9 Public Accountants." 10 Can you tell me what is an accountant's report? 11 A In this case, they're talking about the compilation 12 report. 13 Q So, that is something Mazars would be drafting? 14 A It's a standard. It's, I think it's AICPA 15 promulgated and we would make certain changes, you know, if 16 we had to, but it's historical. 17 Q What's the purpose of the accountant's report? 18 A To inform the reader that there is a compilation or 19 any exceptions to whatever standard of accounting the user, 20 the financial statement being prepared under. 21 Q Can you tell me, what are the statements on standards 22 for accounting review services issued by the American 23 Institute of Certified Public Accountants? 24 A SSARS is the standard used promulgated to define 25 what rules would have been for a compilation or review.	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 124 1 procedure performed in a review." 2 Is that, in fact, the nature of the engagement 3 that Mazars had with the Trump Organization in 2011 4 regarding -- 5 A I want to make sure to clarify that it is a 6 compilation that did not contemplate inquiry, analytical 7 reviews, or other procedure. 8 Q Next sentence states: "Additionally, a compilation 9 does not contemplate obtaining an understanding of the 10 entity's internal control, assessing fraud risk, tests of 11 accounting records by obtaining sufficient appropriate audit 12 evidence through inspection, observation, confirmation, the 13 examination of source documents, for example, cancelled checks 14 or bank images or other procedures ordinarily performed in an 15 audit." 16 So, it's a long sentence. Let's take it bit by 17 bit. Looking at the first part of the sentence, what does it 18 mean "a compilation does not contemplate obtaining an 19 understanding of the entity's internal controls?" 20 A That Mazars would not -- Mazars would not, during 21 compilation, would not obtain an understanding of the 22 entity's internal control. 23 Q What internal control is at issue here? 24 A Example of internal control is who, the person who 25 signs the checks person, who signs the checks wouldn't do the

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 125 1 bank reconciliations. You know, it would be some separation 2 of duties. 3 Q With respect to this engagement, internal controls 4 that are being described here relate to how the Statement of 5 Financial Condition was prepared? 6 A No. 7 Q What would they relate to? 8 A If you do an audit. 9 Q So, this is saying this is something you're just not 10 doing? 11 A Yes. 12 Q My question is do you have a sense of what internal 13 controls would be relevant for the preparation of Statement of 14 Financial Condition within the Trump Organization? 15 A Yes, I would wouldn't need to consider internal 16 controls for an audit. 17 Q Do you recall if, at any point, you actually did 18 obtain an understanding of Trump Organization's internal 19 controls regarding the Statements of Financial Condition? 20 A No, I did not. 21 Q In some of your other work, did you look at internal 22 controls the company had in other areas? 23 A We did some, what we call, walk-throughs, maybe. 24 Yes. We took one transaction and followed it through to 25 understand what was being done.	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 127 1 were doing this work for? 2 A I don't have that. That potentially the CFO or 3 somebody could override the controls and that would be an 4 example of fraud risk. 5 Q Sentence also mentions "a compilation does not 6 contemplate a test of accounting records," and goes on. What 7 is a test of accounting records? 8 A An example of an accounting record would be a 9 voucher bill to see that the bill on-- the amount on the bill 10 agreed to the amount in the general ledger and whatever. 11 We'd look at the bill. 12 Q Did you ever, in fact, test accounting records in 13 connection with the preparation of Statements of Financial 14 Condition? 15 A No. No, I do not believe so. 16 Q The top sentence here states: "Our accountant's 17 compilation report is expected to include references to the 18 following departures from Generally Accepted Accounting 19 Principles. First, what are Generally Accepted Accounting 20 Principles?" 21 A We call that GAAP. We use GAAP as we go forward. 22 Those are the rules promulgated on how to prepare standards 23 that are required to prepare financial statements under those 24 rules. 25 Q Are there particular rules -- are there particular
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 126 1 Q Can you just give me an example of what one of those 2 walk-throughs might have been? 3 A When an invoice comes in, the person -- somebody 4 would approve the invoice that they would look and then 5 another person would write the check and then somebody would 6 sign off and review that the check was all ready to be done 7 from start to finish to make sure there was some kind of 8 control involved. 9 Q It mentions that in that compilation does not 10 contemplate assessing fraud risk. Did you ever, in fact, 11 assess fraud risk at the Trump Organization in connection with 12 the Statements of Financial Condition? 13 A No, we did not. 14 Q Did you assess fraud risk for the Trump Organization 15 in other contexts in audit engagements? 16 A Yes, we did. 17 Q What would it entail to assess fraud risk in those 18 instances? 19 A We'd have -- just an example, we'd have, what do you 20 call -- we would have meetings at the beginning of the audit. 21 Brain storming sessions. Sorry. It's been a while. 22 We'd have brainstorming sessions, for example, 23 and we'd discuss potential fraud risks as part of the audit 24 engagement. 25 Q What were fraud risks for some of the entities you	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 128 1 rules that apply to the preparation of Statements of Financial 2 Condition for Donald J. Trump? 3 A They would be under the normal capital rules. 4 Q Are you familiar with those rules? 5 A Some of them. I don't know anymore. 6 Q Do you know which rules govern preservation of 7 financial statements? 8 A Again, Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. 9 Q I'm asking if there is a particular rule, by number 10 or section, if you're aware, that covers the preparation of 11 personal financial statement? 12 A Not right now, I don't know. 13 Q If there was a time in 2011 you had a question about 14 what rules governed the preparation of financial statement, 15 how would you find that out? 16 A I was kind of lucky. My managing partner in my 17 office, he wrote-- he was a big contributor for SSARS, one, 18 and, two, he was strong on GAAP. His office was directly 19 next to me or one office away, depending on where our 20 location was. I also had a quality control person with me 21 who would be an independent quality control person who would 22 review the work to make sure it met certain standards. 23 You know, we would, you know, speak to other 24 partners if I had a question or I could speak to the director 25 of quality control, whatever her department was called. The

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 129 1 name changed over the years. 2 Q Were you or Mazars responsible for making sure the 3 statements complied with GAAP? 4 A No, that was the Trump Organization's 5 responsibility. 6 Q It says here the report is expected to include 7 references to following departures from GAAP. What is a 8 departure from GAAP? 9 A Sometimes people want to not follow GAAP and we'd 10 have to disclose it in the financial segment -- in the 11 compilation report. 12 Q When you say "we"? 13 A I'm sorry. We means Mazars, predecessor. 14 Q If there's a departure from the GAAP rules, it needs 15 to be disclosed. Do I understand that correctly? 16 A That's correct. 17 Q Do you know who decided that Mr. Trump would include 18 these departures from GAAP in his Statements of Financial 19 Condition? 20 A Those are determined by the Trump Organization. 21 Q During the period -- we can cover this broadly but 22 during the period of 2011 to 2020, do you recall any 23 instances -- I'll restart the question. 24 During the period of 2011 to 2020, do you recall 25 any instances where you recommended to the Trump Organization	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 131 1 A Yes. 2 Q You informed the Trump Organization that they needed 3 to add that GAAP exception? 4 A We had a discussion. I informed them. There was 5 discussion there were additional GAAP exceptions that had to 6 be added to the Accountant's Compilation Report. 7 Q Do you remember who you had that discussion with? 8 A Not particularly. Either Jeff and/or Allen 9 Weisselberg. 10 Q Jeff McConney and Allen Weisselberg? 11 A Yes. Sorry. 12 Q For the Vegas and Chicago properties, you don't 13 remember what year this would have occurred? 14 A No, I don't. 15 Q During the period of 2011 to 2020, do you recall any 16 instances where you recommended to the Trump Organization that 17 they needed to remove the GAAP departure from the Donald J. 18 Trump Statement of Financial Condition? 19 A Not today. No, I don't remember anything. 20 Q Why don't we walk through each of these departures. 21 .1 states: "Generally Accepted Accounting Principles require 22 that in order to reflect amount to be received in the future 23 at estimated current values, the rights must be 24 nonforfeitable, fixed, and determinable and not require any 25 future services. Several of the values that will be expressed
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 130 1 that you needed to add a GAAP departure to Donald J. Trump's 2 Statements of Financial Condition? 3 A I'm not sure of the year. I believe it was this 4 period there was a GAAP exception pertaining to combining 5 cash and not cash and Marketable Securities. That was the 6 GAAP exception that was put in. There was a GAAP exception. 7 They were excluding certain assets, either in Vegas or 8 Chicago, and those were, what do you call it -- I think may 9 have --have been during this period and that was the GAAP 10 exception when Trump Organization decided to exclude those 11 assets. 12 Q Okay. So, let's take those each in order. The first 13 one you mentioned was GAAP exception for cash and Marketable 14 Securities. I understand your recollection is you had to 15 inform the Trump Organization that that practice needed to be 16 identified as a GAAP exception? 17 A Yes. 18 Q But you don't remember what year? 19 A No. 20 Q The other exception you mentioned was Vegas and 21 Chicago properties -- well -- 22 A Vegas and/or. I think it changed over the years. 23 Q So, one of those properties was not being included in 24 the Statements of Financial Condition and that was the GAAP 25 exception that needed to be disclosed?	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 132 1 will be based on future interests that, in some instances, are 2 not for fixed or determinable amounts and, in some instances, 3 are based on performance of future services." 4 Who made the determination to include this GAAP 5 exception in the Statements of Financial Condition? 6 A It was the Trump Organization. 7 Q .2-- actually let me back up. On the first GAAP 8 exception, did anyone from the Trump Organization tell you why 9 they decided not to follow GAAP on this issue? 10 A Not that I recall. 11 Q Did you perform any accounting procedure to determine 12 if this GAAP exception was accurate? 13 A No. 14 Q Let's move on top .2 which states: "Generally 15 Accepted Accounting Principles require that with respect to 16 each closely held business entity summarized information about 17 assets, liabilities, and results of operations for the most 18 current year must be disclosed in the financial statements. 19 In addition, the current estimated value of each closely held 20 business should be recorded as a net investment assets of 21 liabilities. Lastly, the ownership percentages of each 22 closely held business should be disclosed. The Statements of 23 Financial Condition will not include the required summarized 24 disclosures and will report some closely held business 25 entities in a manner that separately states gross assets and

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 133 1 liabilities and states certain cash positions separately from 2 their related operating entity and will not disclose 3 Mr. Trump's ownership percentage in certain closely held 4 businesses." 5 Who made the determination to include this GAAP 6 departure? 7 A The Trump Organization. 8 Q Did anyone from the Trump Organization tell you why 9 they decided to not follow GAAP on this issue? 10 A Not that I recall, no. 11 Q Did you perform any accounting procedures to 12 determine if this GAAP was accurate? 13 A Not that I recall, no. 14 MR. KISE: Your Honor, just, I'm assuming that 15 these questions are all confined to 2011, not generally. 16 He just hasn't asked that. 17 MR. WALLACE: Yes, we're looking at 2011 18 statement. 19 Q Let's move on to point numb three. "Generally 20 Accepted Accounting Principles require the receipt of 21 noninterest-bearing deposits in exchange for rights and 22 privileges of the recorded present value of liability. The 23 present value of the liability for noninterest-bearing 24 deposits received as a condition of membership in club 25 facilities will not be included in the accompanying Statement	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 135 1 Q Did you perform any accounting procedures to determine 2 if this G.A.A.P. exception was accurate? 3 A No, I did not. 4 Q Let's take a look at item number four. 5 "Generally Accepting Accounting Principles require 6 that personal financial statements include a provision of 7 current income taxes, as well as estimated income taxes on the 8 differences between estimated current values of assets and 9 estimated current amounts of liabilities and their tax basis. 10 The Statement of Financial Condition will not include such 11 provisions." 12 Who made the determination to include this G.A.A.P. 13 departure? 14 A The Trump Organization. 15 Q And did anybody from the Trump Organization tell you 16 why they decided not to follow G.A.A.P. on this issue? 17 A No, sir. 18 Q Did you perform any accounting procedures to determine 19 if this G.A.A.P. exception was accurate? 20 A No, I did not. 21 Q Last one. 22 "Generally Accepted Accounting Principles require that 23 personal financial statements include all assets and liabilities 24 of the individual whose financial statements are presented. The 25 accompanying Statement of Financial Condition does not include

Trump may have 6 provided." 7 Is this the exception that we were talking about 8 earlier, that you recall having? 9 A Yes. 10 Q So, who was responsible for including this G.A.A.P. 11 exception? 12 A The Trump Organization. 13 Q Did you ever discuss, with the Trump Organization, why 14 they didn't want to include Chicago and Las Vegas on the 15 Statement of Financial Condition? 16 A That would be subject to a Kovel letter. 17 Q Just, so I understand, you were retained by tax 18 counsel for Mr. Trump, and that's how you learned about issues 19 relating to Chicago and Las Vegas? 20 A Yes. 21 Q So, you were providing consulting services to an 22 attorney. The attorney was representing Mr. Trump; is that 23 correct? 24 A Yes. 25 Q We are fine not going any further on that, then.

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 137 1 If we look at the bottom part of the page, the last 2 sentence states: 3 "The effects of the above departures from Generally 4 Accepted Accounting Principles, as described above, will not be 5 determined or disclosed in our accountant's compilation report." 6 What is meant by, The effects of the above departures? 7 A Simplistically, how these departures might affect the 8 financial statement that -- you know, the numbers on the 9 financial statement, or the footnotes. 10 Q So, if I'm understanding correctly, if G.A.A.P. had 11 been followed in these instances, you are not going to calculate 12 what the differences would be? 13 A Simplistically, yes. 14 Q I'm very simplistic, so I'm happy to see it that way. 15 A So am I. 16 Q Why were the effects not determined or disclosed? 17 A It was never discussed, but it would have been a 18 tremendous job to figure it out. 19 Q And whose determination was it, not to determine or 20 disclose the amount of those departures. 21 A Trump Organization. 22 Q Okay. 23 MR. WALLACE: If we could turn to the next page. 24 Q The top of the page it states: 25 "Further, our report will include the following:	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 139 1 A Discussed above. Yes. 2 Q Why don't we turn to paragraph four on this page. 3 The top of this paragraph states: 4 "Our engagement cannot be relied upon to disclose 5 errors, fraud, or illegal acts that may exist. However, we will 6 inform the appropriate level of management of any material 7 errors, and of any evidence or information that comes to our 8 attention during the performance of our compilation procedures, 9 that fraud may have occurred. In addition, we'll report to you 10 any evidence or information that comes to our attention during 11 the performance of our compilation procedures regarding illegal 12 acts that may have occurred, unless they were clearly 13 inconsequential. We have no responsibility to identify any 14 communication deficiencies in your internal control, as part of 15 this engagement." 16 What does it mean that your engagement cannot be 17 relied upon to disclose errors, fraud, or illegal acts that may 18 exist? 19 A As we discussed earlier, since it's a compilation, 20 Mazars did not do, for example, any internal control work. The 21 financial statement is a representation of management, and 22 Mazars is giving no assurance on the financial statements. 23 Q When you said you relied on the representation of 24 management, who was management? 25 A That would be Donald J. Trump or his trustees, Alan
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 138 1 "Because the significance and pervasiveness of the 2 matters discussed above make it difficult to assess their impact 3 on the Statement of Financial Condition, users of this financial 4 statement should recognize that they might reach different 5 conclusions about the financial condition of Donald J. Trump if 6 they had access to a revised Statement of Financial Condition, 7 without the above-referenced exceptions to generally accepted 8 principles." 9 First, what is meant by, significance and 10 pervasiveness? 11 A To me, simplistically, it would have a big number, or 12 have an effect on what the reader would perceive, by reading the 13 financial statement. 14 Q So the difference between following G.A.A.P. and not 15 following G.A.A.P. on the above essentials could be significant 16 and pervasive? 17 A Yes, sir. 18 Q And when he says, The matters discussed above, that's 19 referring to the G.A.A.P. exceptions we were just walking 20 through; is that correct? 21 A That is correct. 22 Q I just want to make sure I understand. This is only 23 referring to the size and pervasiveness of the G.A.A.P. 24 exceptions that were actually disclosed in the paragraphs above; 25 is that correct?	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 140 1 Weisselberg, or whoever was -- whoever was determined to be the 2 agent of either Trump -- Mr. Trump, or his trust. 3 Q Okay. Let me address Mr. Kise's point, from before. 4 In the year 2011, who would be the management relied upon? 5 A Mr. Trump, and his representatives. 6 Q The next sentence states that, "We'll inform the 7 appropriate level of management of any material errors." 8 Do you see that section? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Do you have an understanding of who the appropriate 11 level of management was, in 2011? 12 A It would have been Mr. Trump and Mr. Weisselberg. We 13 would have communicated with, presumably, Mr. Weisselberg or 14 Mr. McConney, if we found an error. 15 Q Do you ever remember bringing an error to Mr. Trump's 16 attention? 17 A No, I do not. 18 Q Do you remember bringing any errors to 19 Mr. Weisselberg's attention? 20 A Mr. Weisselberg or Mr. McConney. I can't tell you who 21 was on the individual items. Mr. Weisselberg or Mr. McConney 22 did, from time to time, find errors, and we would go over 23 things. 24 Q So, not necessarily 2011, but you remember, from time 25 to time, you would bring errors to Mr. Weisselberg's and

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 141 1 Mr. McConney's attention? 2 A Yes. 3 Q Do you have any specific recollection of the errors 4 you brought to their attention? 5 A There could have been an error -- one year, this was 6 many years ago, it was on the cash schedule. They included 7 Mr. Trump's foundation, and we took that off. A couple of years 8 there were errors pertaining to -- there were errors pertaining 9 to -- I'm losing it. Ivanka Trump had an option to buy certain 10 apartments, or one apartment I knew about, on Trump Park Avenue, 11 and the value they were using for that apartment on their 12 schedule, valuing Trump Park Avenue, differed from what Ivanka 13 was valuing the apartment, Ivanka's option for the apartment, 14 was. 15 There were a couple of times pertaining to straight 16 line receivables. I think they may have gone the wrong way on 17 the financial statements. We would have to correct, adjust an 18 asset for a straight line receivable. 19 There was some times, from time to time, when they 20 were cross referencing cash on an account's payable schedule, to 21 the lead sheet for cash or accounts payable. The number would 22 be a little bit different than we had talked about it. 23 Sometimes it would be -- we would adjust it. Sometimes it would 24 be a small amount, and the Trump Organization -- the Trump 25 Organization would adjust it, or sometimes it would not -- it	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 143 1 issue with the cash schedule, including money from Mr. Trump's 2 foundation, do you remember when that occurred? 3 A Long time ago. 4 Q Okay. You mentioned the Ivanka Trump option to buy an 5 apartment at Trump Park Avenue. Do you remember when that 6 occurred? 7 A I don't remember the year, but I believe it was two 8 years, I changed it. At least. 9 Q So the error was repeated again the following year? 10 A It may have not been the following year, but it was 11 more than one year. 12 Q How did you come to know that Ivanka Trump had an 13 option on an apartment on Trump Park Avenue? 14 A I don't recall. 15 Q Could you describe for me what you meant when you were 16 talking about straight line receivables, for someone who may not 17 deal with receivables on a regular basis? 18 A Oh, my God. You're in trouble, now. 19 Under G.A.A.P. -- it's more old G.A.A.P. and new 20 G.A.A.P., but when you are doing Generally Accepted Accounting 21 Principles, the income stream for a lease, simplistically, 22 should be picked up pro rata, over the life of the lease. So 23 for instance, if the first year has free rent, and -- let's say 24 it's a ten-year lease, and the first year is free, and the next 25 nine years equal up to a million dollars in total, so for the
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 142 1 was not worth the material -- not material. It was necessarily 2 to adjust. 3 Q Any other examples you remember? 4 A That's it, right now. 5 Q Okay. I'll just walk through this, a little bit. 6 On the last one you said there was an issue with cross 7 referencing cash, or accounts payable. Would the number that 8 you would see in the supporting spreadsheet, wouldn't match the 9 number that was actually in the supporting data? 10 A Sometimes there would be an example in a cash account 11 on the lead sheet for cash, and then there might be, for 12 instance, a balance sheet for a golf course in Jeff 13 Supporting -- in his back up, Jeff Supporting Data, and there 14 would be a cash number, and it could go either way, but we would 15 bring it to the Trump Organization's attention, if we came 16 across it. 17 Q Go either way, meaning it could be higher? 18 A Yes. Yes, or lower. 19 Q And if I'm understanding your testimony correctly, 20 they would correct it if it was, but sometimes it -- they would 21 often correct it, but sometimes it wasn't big enough to merit a 22 correction? 23 A Or they didn't want to -- it may have been -- that's 24 fair to say, yes. 25 Q Do you remember specifically, when you mentioned an	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 144 1 total ten years, it's a million dollars. You would pick up a 2 rent of $100,000 every year, on that lease. 3 Q Okay. And you are saying that sometimes it went the 4 wrong way? 5 A Certain schedules they would ask us for, and it was -- 6 sometimes, it went the wrong way. 7 Q And this was in connection with the preparation of the 8 Statement of Financial Condition? 9 A The adjustment they were making on the Statement of 10 Financial Condition did not always go the right way. 11 Q But you don't remember what year that occurred in? 12 A No, but again, multiple times. A couple times, I 13 believe. 14 Q Why don't we take a look at the next paragraph, which, 15 the single sentence, it states, "As part of our engagement, we 16 will also perform other accounting services, as needed." 17 Do you know if other accounting services were needed, 18 as part of this engagement in 2011? 19 A I don't recall. 20 Q Do you remember ever performing other accounting 21 services in connection with preparation of a Statement of 22 Financial Condition? 23 A Other accounting services might include, for instance, 24 drafting a few words in a footnote, or helping with a footnote. 25 Something like that could have occurred, over the years.

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 145 1 Q I'm sorry. Drafting -- I didn't hear. 2 A A note, changing something on a footnote. For 3 instance the G.A.A.P. exceptions we talked about before, for 4 cash, the wording for the -- in the compilation report, I keep 5 calling them footnotes. The notes would have almost the exact 6 same wording to the wording that went into the compilation 7 report. That wording, I believe, would go into those financial 8 statements. 9 Q So, if they were using your accounting work product, 10 that's an additional accounting service, and it might be 11 included in a report where you are just doing compilation? 12 A Yes, but that's a sentence I generally put in most of 13 my engagement letters. 14 Q Okay. If we look at the next paragraph underneath 15 that, it says, "You are responsible for making management 16 decisions and performing management functions, and for 17 designating an individual with suitable skill, knowledge or 18 experience to oversee any other services we provide." 19 What falls into the category of management decisions 20 and management functions? 21 A Determine the methodology for how the properties would 22 be valued. 23 Q Okay. And so you didn't have any role in the methods 24 of valuation in the Statement of Financial Condition? 25 A No, I didn't. No, I did not.	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 147 1 the extent he knows their educational background, knowledge 2 or training. 3 MR. WALLACE: I will ask him some foundational 4 questions. 5 Q So, let me back up. The suitable skill, knowledge and 6 experience refers to the process of valuing properties. Is that 7 correct? 8 A Amongst other things. 9 Q And are you familiar with the skill, knowledge or 10 experience of, let's start with Mr. McConney, in valuing real 11 estate? 12 A No, I'm not. 13 Q What about Mr. Weisselberg? 14 A No, I'm not. 15 Q So you don't have any familiarity with their skill, 16 knowledge or experience. 17 Did you ever make a determination as to whether or not 18 they had suitable skill, knowledge or experience? 19 MR. KISE: Objection. 20 MR. WALLACE: I'm asking if he made a 21 determination. 22 MR. KISE: How can he make a determination if he 23 has no understanding? 24 MR. WALLACE: Then the answer can be no. 25 THE COURT: Overruled. Whether it was right or
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 146 1 Q For this engagement, do you know, in 2011, do you know 2 who the individual was who was designated to supervise the 3 services you provided? 4 A Alan Weisselberg, with the assistance of Jeff 5 McConney. 6 Q And are you familiar with their relevant skill, 7 knowledge and experience? 8 A Yes. 9 Q And could you describe for me, generally, the level of 10 their skill, knowledge and experience? 11 A Alan -- 12 MR. KISE: Objection. Is the witness going to 13 provide his understanding? Is he opining as an expert on 14 the level of knowledge and experience? 15 THE COURT: Well, he is not qualified as an 16 expert. He is a fact witness; right? 17 MR. WALLACE: Correct. I'm asking what his 18 understanding was of the -- of the skill, knowledge and 19 expertise that Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney had, when 20 they were receiving his service. 21 MR. KISE: I don't think there's any proper 22 foundation laid for that. I don't see how he can ask this 23 witness that question, other than his general guessing as 24 to what their qualifications were. There hasn't been any 25 testimony that he is familiar with those individuals, to	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 148 1 wrong, proper-improper determination, if he made a 2 determination, he made a determination. 3 Q And the question is, did you make a determination? 4 A I made a determination they had the suitable skill, 5 experience to oversee the services that we were providing. 6 Q Understood. 7 MR. WALLACE: If we turn to the next page of this 8 engagement letter. 9 Sorry. If we can go to the bottom. Next page. 10 Q Do you recognize -- well, first let me ask you, 11 underneath WeiserMazars, did you sign this agreement? 12 A WeiserMazars. 13 Q WeiserMazars? 14 A But some people use the French interpretation. 15 You are asking who signed? 16 Q Who signed that? 17 A That's either my signature, or an electronic signature 18 of mine, which I would have given permission to use. But it's 19 probably a real signature. 20 Q On behalf of the firm? 21 A Yes. 22 Q And do you recognize the signature underneath that 23 one? 24 A That's Alan Weisselberg. 25 Q Okay. And did you have an understanding of whether or

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 149 1 not Mr. Weisselberg had the authority to retain Mazars for this 2 engagement, based on his position as CFO of the Trump 3 Organization? 4 A Yes, I did. 5 Q And what was the basis for that understanding? 6 A He was -- he signed all the engagement letters for the 7 Trump Organization, for the entities that -- let me take that 8 back. He signed all the engagement letters for the entities 9 that were run out of 725 Fifth Avenue. I'm not sure he ran all 10 the entities. And he was the go-to guy for all accounting 11 matters for the Trump Organization. 12 Q Mr. Bender, do you recognize -- I've handed you a 13 document that's been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 1893 -- 14 MR. WALLACE: Strike that. 15 Q Mr. Bender, I've handed you a document that has been 16 marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 1873 for identification. Do you 17 recognize this document? 18 A Yes, I do. 19 Q And what is it? 20 A This is a -- this is an email from Jeff McConney to 21 me -- Doc is me. That's a nickname. That's the most asked 22 question in deposition history -- where Jeff is sending us some 23 information. It appears to be in Excel, for the June 30th, 2011 24 statement of the compilation of the June 30th, 2011 Statement of 25 Financial Conditions for Donald J. Trump.	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 151 1 attachments, and the first one is Jeff Supporting Data. Can you 2 just describe for me what you understand that exhibit to be? 3 A That's Jeff's control sheet on how he is coming up to 4 the Statement of Financial Condition for Mr. Trump, as of 5 June 30th, 2011, and if that's the control sheet, we would be 6 using those numbers. At the end of the day, the numbers on the 7 Jeff Supporting Data, when all is said and done, have to agree. 8 Should agree. Nothing has to, in life. Should agree, to the 9 assets and liabilities on the Statement of Financial Condition. 10 Q Okay. 11 MR. WALLACE: Can we pull up, I believe it's the 12 native one of that attachment to this email. This is still 13 Exhibit 1873. This is the native version, the Excel 14 version of the attachment that we were just looking at. If 15 we can just go up to the top. 16 Q Do you recognize this document, or this attachment? 17 A This is one, a version of the Jeff Supporting Data for 18 the Statement of Financial Conditions for Mr. Trump, as of 19 June 30, 2011. 20 MR. KISE: Same objection, your Honor. 21 THE COURT: Well, it's part of the same exhibit, 22 so -- 23 MR. KISE: Well, that's not exactly clear. I 24 think it is. 25 THE COURT: You are right. So I'll recognize the
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 150 1 MR. WALLACE: I believe the defendants have an 2 objection. 3 MR. KISE: Thank you, Mr. Wallace. 4 Yes. Same objection, your Honor. Predates the 5 July 13, 2014. 6 THE COURT: Okay. Duly noted, and overruled, for 7 the same reasons. 8 Q Do you want to explain why you're called Doc, on this? 9 A Jeff came from the predecessor firm, Spahr Lacher &amp; 10 Berk, I won't go through all the -- and this was a nickname I 11 had 35, 40 years ago, and it's only legend. I don't remember 12 exactly what it is, and it still sticks around with one or two 13 people, today. 14 Q So, do you have an understanding of, what are these 15 attachments that he's sending to you, in this email? 16 A These are certain -- this is the schedule. It appears 17 to be the schedule we previously discussed, which was their 18 control schedule, or at least the first version of it, for 19 the Jeff Supporting Data, and certain backup schedules, as shown 20 under the attachment section. 21 Q Okay. And so, this would be at the beginning of the 22 process of preparing the Statement of Financial Condition? 23 A Assuming that this is the first one. There could have 24 been a predecessor one. I couldn't answer that, today. 25 Q You can see, there's a number of exhibits listed under	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallach Page 152 1 objection, and overrule it. 2 MR. KISE: Thank you. 3 Q So, can you describe for me how this document works? 4 A Jeffrey, line-by-line, prepares -- he is saying that 5 the cash, 207 million -- yes. $207,488,027, Jeff would have a 6 back-up schedule in this case, for that amount. Sometimes he 7 would do the computation, but this is his control, and his 8 backup. In many ways, it would be like a trial balance. This 9 is where Jeff is determining Jeff, or the Trump Organization, 10 whoever is determining it, would -- this would be their control 11 sheet. 12 Q And what would you do with this document, when you 13 received it? 14 A Whatever version was the last version we would have 15 received when we started our compilation work at Mazars, that 16 would be our control. So, if Jeffrey -- and we would change. 17 If Jeffrey would send updates afterwards, Jeff, or a member of 18 his team, we would cut and paste that information into a new 19 worksheet, because we do a lot of referencing back and forth, 20 and we didn't want to put what we call tick marks, and I'm sure 21 we'll see that the next few days. We wouldn't want to have to 22 put all these references in 500 times, so we needed to take a 23 version that was our control, and that would be the version when 24 we started, really started to do the work. 25 Q Okay. So he might send you this, and you might not

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 153 1 work on it, but it might be the version you would use to control 2 and put together your final work? 3 A The version that we received when we started our 4 compilation procedures, started the real work, not the 5 engagement, but honestly started the work, that was the one we 6 would use, and any updates came in, we would just cut and paste 7 the certain lines, as needed, to make it agree to the Trump 8 Organization's version that they were sending us later. 9 Q If we go back to the original email, Exhibit 1873 -- 10 MR. KISE: Just for record purposes. Sorry. How 11 are we keeping track? I know that the exhibit has a number 12 on it, but the spreadsheet, do we have some number 13 associated with it? I mean, how are we -- 14 MR. WALLACE: That's incorporated with the 15 exhibit list, I believe is how we prepared it, and there is 16 a native file attachment. So, I think that's what we sent 17 to you guys when we produced our exhibit list. I'm not 18 sure. I'll confess, I don't remember how you guys 19 structured your -- 20 MR. KISE: I just want to make sure we have got 21 some way of keeping track. We will sort that out later. 22 MR. WALLACE: Sure. I will, when I'm reading in 23 the record, I did read -- this is native 01, so we'll try 24 to make that as clear as possible. 25 So, I would like to open one of the other	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 155 1 Q What would you do with this document once you 2 received it? 3 A I would have to check my work papers but, 4 presumably, we would have footed it, added it up. I don't 5 know if any other backup came with it, and, we'd make sure 6 that the total at the end of the day, if you can't see down 7 here, ties into the Jeff Supporting Data at the end. 8 Q You're saying you want to make sure? 9 A 9,000,180. 10 Q That comports with the Jeff Supporting Data 11 spreadsheet? 12 A Yes. 13 Q This e-mail plaintiff's Exhibit 1873, file name is 14 Native 05. Do you recognize this document? 15 A It appears to be the Trump Organization's schedule 16 of cash and short-term investments from Mr. Trump and his 17 entities as of June 30, 2011. 18 Q Do you have an understanding of who prepared it? 19 A It would have been prepared by Trump Organization. 20 Q What would you do with this document when you 21 received it? 22 A I can't -- 23 MR. KISE: Same objection. Same objection. 24 THE COURT: Noted and same ruling. 25 MR. KISE: I think that applied to the last file
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 154 1 exhibits. It's escrow balances 0611XLS. I'll say this is 2 going to be Plaintiff's Exhibit 1873, native file 04. This 3 was on the exhibit list, with a file name of September 23, 4 2011, Restricted Cash Flow and Escrow Balances. 5 Q Do you recognize this document? 6 A I think you said Restricted Cash Flow. I think it's 7 Restricted Cash. 8 Q Restricted Cash. You are correct. Thank you for 9 correcting me. 10 Do you recognize this document? 11 A It appears to be -- it appears to be a schedule Jeff 12 McConney or the Trump Organization would have sent us, with the 13 restricted cash and escrow balances for Donald J. Trump for 14 June 20, 2011. 15 Q Do you have an understanding of who would have 16 prepared it? 17 A Somebody in the Trump Organization. 18 (Continued on the next page.) 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 156 1 too. It's moving so quickly. I don't recall it but just 2 for the record. 3 MR. WALLACE: We're happy to note -- 4 THE COURT: We'll accept the objection 5 retroactively. 6 MR. WALLACE: We're happy to recognize that the 7 defendant's have a standing objection to documents from 8 before the Statute of Limitations. 9 Q So, I'm sorry. I don't know if it was asked and 10 answered. What would you do when you received this? 11 A What would we do when we received it? 12 Q Yes. 13 A First, we would insert it in our binder. I would 14 need to see our work papers, specifically, to see what we 15 did. I presume that we would have footed it or cross-footed 16 it. We'd have to check that and we would have made sure that 17 the total on the bottom agrees to Jeff Supporting Data. 18 Q So, you mentioned footing and cross-footing. Is that 19 how you're recording your work on Statements of Financial 20 Condition? 21 A I record-- we didn't always do it but sometimes we 22 just check the math. You go down Excel, boom, and make sure 23 it adds. 24 Q Why don't we see if it's helpful. This is a Native 25 file document, so we just have a slip sheet for the document.

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 158 1 Q Okay. So, let's walk through that. First, I'll walk 2 up to the screen. The first one you mentioned, what are these 3 red indications? I'll describe them for the record as two red 4 arrows in the form of a circle. 5 What does that indicate? 6 A I'd have to go back and confirm to our software 7 definition of tick marks but I believe it means the math was 8 calculated. 9 Q To the extent folks can see, up in the C area here. 10 "=round (+ E-11, *E-12, 0.)" What does the combination of red 11 circles of the formula of that cell indicate? 12 A They are saying 535,714 multiplied by .0615 equals 13 32,946. 14 Q So, if I'm understanding correctly, the red circles 15 indicate someone from Mazars is confirming the math is being 16 performed correctly on that? 17 A Yes. 18 Q You also mentioned the blue numbers. I'll describe 19 it for the record. We're here at -- why don't we take a look 20 at this one. I'll note for the record it's in row six, column 21 H. There's a blue number 4100.01. What does that indicate? 22 A I previously mentioned Mazars had a software package 23 which we call-- I think it's called edge game. We call it, 24 E-pace. In E-pace these work papers are inserted. That's our 25 file. It was paper in the olden days. This is done	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 160 1 indicate? 2 A That's -- it stands for prepared by client. 3 Software you can just click it and it goes on. 4 Q This is indicating this is information you received 5 from the Trump Organization. It's not something generated by 6 Mazars; is that correct? 7 A Yes. 8 Q Is this a schedule that would pop up in your system? 9 A Yes. 10 Q When you click on number 41? 11 A It should. 12 MR. KISE: Your Honor, Statute of Limitations 13 objection. 14 THE COURT: I don't think we have to do it for 15 every document. 16 MR. KISE: I'm going to look again, but, my 17 understanding of the case law is we actually do, 18 unfortunately. That the Appellate Division won't accept 19 a straight line objection. We can come up with a way to 20 streamline this, I assure you. 21 THE COURT: Okay. Well, we only have a few more 22 months. 23 Q So, if we could scroll down to the bottom here, row 24 42. The line reads: "Balances in US dollars at the exchange 25 rate on 6/30/11."

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 161 1 I'm actually interested in the notation next to 2 it that's in small red letters, TB. 3 What does that indicate? 4 A That stands for trial balance. That was one of the 5 ways we could reference it back to Jeff Supporting Data. 6 Q So, can you explain to me how that works? Is this 7 another link? 8 A It's just placed on top PBC. Trial balance in most 9 accounting closings is the control sheet. In many ways, I 10 think I stated earlier today the Jeff Supporting Data is 11 equivalent of trial balance for this purpose. 12 So, you might see a TB, you might see a 13 reference to control sheet or whatever the reference is to 14 Jeff Supporting Data. 15 Q This is an indication the number here matches the 16 number in the Jeff Supporting Data? 17 A Yes. 18 Q If we look at the bottom, the number here, again, 19 it's got the-- we'll describe as two red arrows and a circle. 20 What is indicated by two red arrows and circle? 21 A I have to check the definition but I think it means 22 math calculated. 23 Q Okay. That number there 207,488,026.58. Did Mazars 24 undertake any audit procedures to confirm that number was 25 correct?	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 163 1 document look the same way, they'd take you back to another 2 file that would have information that sports the number in the 3 spreadsheet? 4 A I believe that would be true, but, I'd have to look 5 at the whole document to confirm that. 6 MR. WALLACE: Could we pull up Plaintiff's 7 Exhibit 787? 8 Q I put a copy image up on the screen, Mr. Bender. Do 9 you recognize this document? 10 THE COURT: Objection duly noted. 11 MR. KISE: Thank you. 12 A Yes, I do. 13 Q What is this document? 14 A This is the Statement of Financial Condition for 15 Mr. Trump as of June 30, 2011. 16 Q Is this the final version? 17 A Yes, it is. 18 Q How can you tell? 19 A It has my electronic signature on the second page of 20 the Accountant's Compilation Report. 21 Q If we can turn to that page, the second page, Bates 22 number 3133. This is the electronic signature you're talking 23 about? 24 A Could be by manual or electronic. I don't know. 25 Q So, what should the relationship be between this
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 162 1 A No, he did not. 2 Q Did Mazars undertake any assurance procedures 3 whatsoever with respect to that number? 4 A No, it did not. 5 Q So, I think we just follow the link 4100.01 to see 6 the $207 million number. Is that how it works? 7 A The little yield sign is -- - 8 Q That should be what it is? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Okay. So, that looks right? 11 A I think it was, yeah. 12 Q So, when Mazars would check that numbers, the 13 207,488,027 against the spreadsheet we were just looking at, 14 are you performing any accounting procedure in doing that? 15 A No, I did a quick overview and I told you, one year 16 I looked at the high level. The second, a member of the 17 Mazars looked at it and one year I included the foundation 18 and we took it up and we suggested-- we made the 19 recommendation it should be taken out and the Trump 20 Organization agreed with us and they took it out. 21 Q So, as you spot an issue, you bring it up. You 22 weren't going out and looking for issues? 23 A If something bothered me and I noticed it, I would 24 bring it to their attention, and we'd talk about it. 25 Q So, can I ask, if all of the blue numbers in this	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 164 1 document and the Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet we were 2 looking at? 3 A The numbers should be the same. 4 Q So, why don't we go to the top -- actually, let's go 5 down a couple of pages here. So, cash and Marketable 6 Securities, the number here is 258,900,000. That should match 7 the number in Jeff Supporting Data? 8 A Yes, it should. 9 Q You see the number 258,900,000 those are the numbers 10 that should be matching? 11 A Yes. 12 Q That was the service Mazars is providing, translating 13 those numbers into the form of the financial statement we were 14 just looking at? 15 A No, Trump Organization put the statement together. 16 So, we didn't have to do it. We would have checked the 17 number as part of our compilation procedure. We would have 18 made sure the numbers on this spreadsheet would have agreed 19 to the Statements of Financial Condition by the Trump 20 Organization. 21 Q So, you're just typesetting the financial statement 22 or is there some other -- 23 A No, we'd-- all of those things, it's more of 24 typesetting. We would discuss the kind of things we talked 25 about before the cash, Ivanka's apartment, footing of the

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 165 1 schedule. We make sure they cross-reference but we would 2 have typed final statements. 3 Q Okay. So, if we could go back to the statement which 4 I believe is Exhibit 787, I want to walk through the various 5 segments of the report. I believe this is the first page. 6 So, this page stating "Donald J. Trump Statement of Financial 7 Condition June 30, 2011." 8 What is this section of the Statements of 9 Financial Condition? 10 A This page? 11 Q Yes. 12 A This page is the asset page. 13 Q Okay. What is reflected -- so, who is responsible 14 for the numbers on this page? 15 A The Trump Organization. 16 Q I should have gone back a couple of pages. Can we go 17 back. So, if we go to the top, actually. Independent 18 Accountant's Compilation Report. What is this section of the 19 Statements of Financial Condition? 20 A As we talked about earlier this afternoon, this is 21 the Accountant's Compilation Report. This is basically a 22 AICPA promulgated form. We make some changes. In this case, 23 the GAAP exceptions, for example, and this explains that, you 24 know, our procedures are only compilation procedures. 25 They're not order review procedures, and we did not do review	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 167 1 Q Okay. Did this language have to be included with the 2 Statements of Financial Condition? 3 A This letter had to be included in the Independent 4 Accountant's Compilation Report. 5 Q Which attaches to the Statements of Financial 6 Condition? 7 A Yes. 8 Q So, to make sure we're describing the full document 9 here as the Statements of Financial Condition but, 10 technically, that list of values, that's what is his statement 11 and this is an attachment? 12 A That and the accompanying footnotes, notes. 13 Q Why don't we take -- why don't we take a quick look 14 at those. I think they appear on page six -- no. Four. So, 15 this says: "Notes to Statement of Financial Condition," and 16 in parenthesis, "Independent Accountant's Compilation of 17 Work." 18 What does it mean? These are the notes to 19 Statement of Financial Condition? 20 A This is, simplistically, these are requirements 21 under GAAP or other disclosures that are made related to the 22 Statements of Financial Condition. 23 Q What is the purpose of notes? 24 A To allow the reader to have a full picture of the 25 financial statement, simplistically.
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 166 1 or audit testing or analytics, as we went through this 2 afternoon. 3 Q So, why is this addressed to Donald J. Trump? 4 A Because the engagement-- it's assets of Donald J. 5 Trump and, in this case, the engagement letter was and the -- 6 the engagement letter is addressed to Donald J. Trump. 7 Q The first paragraph states -- 8 A I take that back. It's not true. The engagement 9 letter does not address Donald J. Trump but the engagement 10 letter says we were engaged to prepare the financial letter 11 statement for Donald J. Trump. 12 Q The engagement letter was to the Trump Organization 13 signed by Allen Weisselberg to prepare, compile the Statements 14 of Financial Condition for Donald J. Trump? 15 A Yes. I apologize for the error. 16 Q First paragraph states: "We have compiled the 17 accompanying Statements of Financial Condition of Donald J. 18 Trump as of June 30, 2011. We have not audited or reviewed 19 the accompanying financial statement and, accordingly, do not 20 express an opinion or provide any assurance about whether the 21 financial statement is in accordance with accounting 22 principles generally accepted in the United States of 23 America." 24 Is this statement accurate? 25 A Yes, it is.	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 168 1 Q So, is this information coming from Mazars or the 2 Trump Organization? 3 A This is coming from the Trump Organization. Mazars 4 may have made some adjustments over the years or potentially 5 put wording in, but, the original numbers come from the Trump 6 Organization, and, any changes that would have been made at 7 the end, would have been approved by the Trump Organization. 8 MR. WALLACE: Judge Engoron, I don't know what 9 time we all need to be filtering out. I'm trying to 10 structure my next sections. 11 THE COURT: I said this morning we'll go to 12 4:30. In two minutes, I would have given you the 13 ten-minute warning. 14 What do you want to do? 15 MR. WALLACE: We're okay to stay until 4:30. 16 THE COURT: We'll break at 4:30. How's that? 17 MR. WALLACE: Got it. Understood. 18 Q We can move on from this in a moment. I want to ask 19 you to turn to page 17. I want to direct your attention down 20 at the bottom segment where it says: "Miss Universe Pageant," 21 and it says "in 1996 Donald J. Trump and CBS acquired all of 22 the assets together on the Miss Universe Pageants." 23 Do you remember this was an asset to be included 24 in the DJT Statements of Financial Condition? 25 A I remember Mr. Trump for many years owned Miss

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 169 1 Universe, yes, or a portion of it. 2 Q This was included as one of the assets in the 3 Statements of Financial Condition? 4 A In 2011, yes, it was. 5 Q Whose decision was it to include the Miss Universe 6 Pageants as an asset on Statements of Financial Condition? 7 A It was the Trump Organization's but it was required 8 by GAAP anyway. 9 Q Mr. Bender, we've handed you a document marked as 10 Plaintiff's Exhibit 786. 11 Do you recognize this document? 12 A Yes, I do. 13 Q What is this document? 14 A It's the representation letter for the June 30, 15 2011, compilation of Donald J. Trump's Statements of 16 Financial Condition. 17 MR. KISE: We assert a Statute of Limitations 18 objection on this document. 19 THE COURT: Noted. 20 Q How did this representation letter fit into the 21 process of compiling a Statement of Financial Condition? 22 A It's something that would have been required for us 23 to issue the Statements of Financial Condition. 24 Q Why was it required? 25 A Because I felt I wanted it.	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 171 1 bottom of the document? Do you recognize the signature at the 2 bottom? 3 A Yes, I do. 4 Q Whose signature is that? 5 A Allen Weisselberg's. 6 Q He's signing on behalf of the Trump Organization? 7 A Yes, he is. 8 Q Can we go back to the paragraph I just read into the 9 record? This is the first paragraph of the letter. 10 Would Mazars have issued a Statements of 11 Financial Condition if Allen Weisselberg did not make this 12 representation on behalf of Mr. Trump? 13 A No, we would not. 14 Q Would Mazars issue Statements of Financial Condition 15 if they learned this representation was not true? 16 A No, we would not have. 17 Q We'll look at the next paragraphs. We'll read them 18 to go. It states: "We confirm, to the best of our knowledge 19 and belief, the following: As of October 6, 2011, you have 20 provided us with a copy of the statement that you have 21 compiled. We've read that information. The data presented in 22 the statement was provided to you by members of Mr. Trump's 23 accounting department and you have compiled that information 24 in an appropriate manner when preparing the statement." 25 What's the significance of this language?
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 170 1 Q Why did you want it? 2 A To make sure that the client took responsibility for 3 his-- for the Statements of Financial Condition. 4 Q Looks like this is dated the same day as the 5 Statements of Financial Condition; is that correct? 6 A Yes. 7 Q Why is it dated the same day as Statements of 8 Financial Condition? 9 A On a compilation, I believe, and I haven't done it 10 in I long time but I believe the letter on the statement is 11 the date of representation letter. That's when we completed 12 our compilation procedures and were ready to issue as soon as 13 we'd get the compilation -- as soon as we get the 14 representation letter. 15 Q So, there's no gap between the Statements of 16 Financial Condition and the representation? 17 A Not if I prepared the statement, no. 18 Q We'll look at the first paragraph. It states: 19 "We're providing this letter in connection with your 20 compilation of Statements of Financial Condition of Donald J. 21 Trump as of June 30, 2011 (the statement.) We confirm that we 22 are responsible for the fair presentation in the Statement of 23 Financial Condition in conformity with accounting principals 24 generally accepted in the United States of America." 25 Before I ask you about this, could we go to the	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 172 1 A It's, you know, it's confirming that the Trump 2 Organization has read the statement; and, the information 3 included and the data presented in the statement was provided 4 by the Trump Organization's accounting department. 5 Q So -- 6 A And you've compiled the information in an 7 appropriate manner. That we prepared it. 8 Q So, they've read the final statement, and they're 9 signing off on it? 10 A And that the information was provided by them. 11 Q Okay. The next paragraph states: "The statement 12 referred to above is fairly presented in conformity with 13 accounting principles generally accepted in the United States 14 of America. All assets are presented at their estimated 15 current value and all liabilities are presented at their 16 estimated current amount which have been determined in 17 accordance with the guidelines promulgated by the American 18 Institute of Certified Public Accountants except to the extent 19 noted in the Accountant's Compilation Report which was annexed 20 to this statement." 21 Would Mazars have issued a Statements of 22 Financial Condition if Alan Weisselberg did not make that 23 representation on behalf of Mr. Trump? 24 A It says "to the statement," not to this statement. 25 No, we would have not.

Page 173 1 Q Would Mazars have issued a Statements of Financial 2 Condition if they learned this representation was not true? 3 A No, we would not have. 4 Q I'll go on to the next paragraph. It states: "There 5 are no material transactions that have not been properly 6 recorded in the accounting work papers underlying the 7 statement, other than those exceptions from accounting 8 principles generally accepted in the United States of America 9 that are noted in the Accountant's Compilation Report." 10 So, first the Accountant's Compilation Report is 11 that section of the Statements of Financial Condition we were 12 looking at before? 13 A That's the first two pages of the Accountant's 14 Compilation Report that bears my signature on the second 15 page. 16 Q Focusing on the word "material". There are no 17 material transactions that have not been properly recorded. 18 Is that an accounting term of art or what is meant by the term 19 "material"? 20 A In this case, the materiality is not a concept on 21 compilation. Material means important, big. There's no 22 state of art to it. 23 24 (Continued on following page..) 25	Page 175 D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace 1 purchase or sale commitments that have not been properly accrued 2 or disclosed in the statement." 3 Would Mazars have issued the Statement of Financial 4 Condition if Alan Weisselberg did not make this representation 5 on behalf of Mr. Trump? 6 A No, we would not have. 7 Q Would Mazars have issued the Statement of Financial 8 Condition if it learned this representation was not true? 9 A No, we would not have. 10 MR. WALLACE: If we could scroll onto the next 11 page. I'll just -- we can highlight this section? 12 Q That starts, "There are no," and it talks about 13 violations or possible violations of regulations, other claims, 14 other material liabilities. 15 Would Mazars have issued the Statement of Financial 16 Condition if Alan Weisselberg did not make this representation 17 in these three paragraphs on behalf of Mr. Trump? 18 A No, we would not have. 19 Q Would Mazars have issued the Statement of Financial 20 Condition if it learned these representations were not true? 21 A No, we would not have. 22 Q I'll skip ahead, and direct you to -- this is at the 23 top of the page, now. There's a paragraph that states, 24 "Mr. Trump has satisfactory title to all owned assets, and there 25 are no liens or encumbrances on such assets, or has any asset
D. 1 THE COURT: All right. So, I just want to say,
2 after all we have gone through this afternoon, that I trust
3 that -- well, that unless the Attorney General can relate 4 all the discussions about 2011 documents to something that 5 happened later, this has all been a waste of time.

6 MR. KISE: We certainly agree with that, Judge.

7 MS. HABBA: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: I figured you would.

9 MR. WALLACE: As you said, it's turned into a
10 love fest, I guess.

11 Your Honor, I think we saw, in Mr. Kise's
12 opening, that there are credit reports from Deutsche Bank
13 that include these earlier years that happen --

14 MR. KISE: No, your Honor. These credit reports
15 related to the OPO loan that was closed in August of 2014,
16 which postdates the statute of limitations. Those credit
17 reports relate to that specific loan that, unfortunately 18 for us, is within the limitations period. So, that's a 19 very different scenario, then.

20 MR. WALLACE: I will explain my point, then.
21 There are credit reports that consider things that happen
22 in 2011, during the period that is under the statute of 23 limitations.

24 MR. KISE: Not for any loans that are within the 25 limitations period, your Honor, but we'll tie that up

1 later. You told him he needs to tie it up.

2 THE COURT: I'm sure we'll address this many
3 times, going forward.

4 And Mr. Robert, I hereby deem you an expert in 5 the CPLR, and no doubt other aspects of New York law.

6 MR. ROBERT: Thank you, Judge.

7 THE COURT: All right. Give me one second.

8 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 9 proceedings.)

10 THE COURT: Okay. We are going to break for the 11 day. I appreciate everybody's patience and stamina. We 12 resume tomorrow on schedule, 10:00 in the morning. Have a 13 good evening.

14 MR. WALLACE: Thank you, your Honor.

15 (Whereupon, the proceedings were adjourned to 16 Tuesday, October 3, 2023 at 10:00 a m.)

1 THE COURT: The man you just heard I have
2 affectionately called Tommy. His next gig is, no doubt,
3 going to be with the Metropolitan Opera Company.
4 Good morning, everyone. If you were here for 5 yesterday's excitement, welcome back; and if you weren't,
6 you might have heard a little about it.
7 First, let me apologize, mea culpa, for 8 erroneously stating yesterday that expert opinion testimony
9 is not evidence. It certainly is. I was reacting to what 10 seemed like an attempt to have an expert introduce new 11 facts, of which the expert would not have personal 12 knowledge, which is impermissible. I hope that no harm, no
13 fall applies.
14 Second, I want to clear up any possible
15 misconceptions that might have arisen over colloquy in the 16 last five minutes of yesterday, and over the repercussions
17 of the June 27th Appellate Division First Department 18 decision and order. This case arrived at the App. Div., as 19 we call it, with seven causes of action. It left with 20 seven causes of action. It arrived with 16 defendants. It
22 Division with a six-year statute of limitations. It left
23 with a six-year statute of limitations, extended by both
24 Covid tolling, and a tolling agreement.
25 The App. Div. ruled that the continuing wrong

1 doctrine, which would have pushed the statute of 2 limitations back at least to 2011, did not apply, so that 3 only claims that accrued after June 13, 2014, or 4 February 6, 2016, depending upon application of the tolling
5 agreement, remained viable.
6 The general rule is that a claim accrues when
7 someone can sue on it. Here, the Attorney General is suing
8 over the use of false financial statements in business, not 9 over the underlying deals themselves. Obviously, she could 10 not have sued on those statements until defendants issued
11 them. Every use of a false financial statement in business
12 starts the statute of limitations running, again, no matter
13 when the transaction out of which is arose, closed.
14 I understand that the defendants strongly 15 disagree with this, and will appeal, in part, on this 16 ground. Yesterday afternoon's testimony was based on 17 certain agreements between defendants and non-party Mazars 18 that were consummated in 2011, long before they could be 19 sued on, in isolation. Thus, I made clear that unless 20 those agreements were somehow tied to something that 21 occurred years later, at least three years later, or five
22 years later, the afternoon was a waste of time.
23 Mr. Wallace promised to connect the dots however,
24 as I stated yesterday, statutes of limitation bar claims,
25 not evidence. In any event, on the first day of a

1 multi-month trial, I am inclined to grant considerable 2 leeway to both sides as to what may be relevant. 3 Finally I want to emphasize that this trial is 4 not an opportunity to relitigate what I have already 5 decided, including my conclusions in the summary judgment 6 decision. That's why we have appeals. 7 So, let's continue with the testimony of Donald 8 Bender, a former principle of Mazars, and I will, over 9 defendant's continuing objection, allow testimony about 10 documents, dates and events that occurred in 2011 and 11 beyond, subject to connection to later documents. 12 Speaking of continuing objections, although I 13 appreciate Mr. Kise's diligence in attempting to preserve 14 the record by continuing to object to the use of documents 15 dated prior to 2014, the Court of Appeals, the highest 16 Court in New York State, has made clear that a continuing 17 objection makes it unnecessary to challenge other evidence, 18 for the same reason. And that is Kulak, K-U-L-A-K, versus 19 Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company, 40 N.Y.2d 140 at page 20 145, 1976. 21 Obviously, I would not be commenting like this if 22 a jury was present. It is not, so I've taken the liberty 23 of attempting to clarify where the trial stands at this 24 juncture. 25 And, now shall we continue with Mr. Bender?		1 whom I'm sure the Court would recognize, have told us 2 differently. But, give us the opportunity to look at the 3 case. I take it that your Honor is not precluding me from 4 making the objection. I just don't now how to balance 5 this, because I'm being told that I need to preserve these 6 objections a certain way. 7 THE COURT: My mother always told me, Do what 8 you're told. So, yes. Feel free, until you have had a 9 chance to digest that case -- 10 MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge. 11 THE COURT: -- to object to each document. 12 Okay. Are we recalling Mr. Bender? 13 MR. WALLACE: The People are going to continue to 14 the testimony of Mr. Bender. 15 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 16 proceedings.) 17 THE COURT: This is a big room, and apparently 18 the isolation room is far away. 19 MR. WALLACE: I believe the words rabbit warren 20 came to mind, as we were making our way through, yesterday. 21 DONALD BENDER, having been previously sworn, was 22 examined and testified as follows: 23 THE COURT: I will remind the witness, as I 24 remind every witness, that he is still under oath. 25 THE WITNESS: Good morning.
1 And as yesterday -- and most of you know this -- 2 I'm allowing a group of pool photographers and one 3 videographer to come in and show how good looking we all 4 are. 5 (Photographs taken.) 6 THE COURT: Oh, the wages of fame. 7 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, if I could just raise 8 one procedural issue with the defendants concerning timing? 9 I understand Mr. Bender was served with a trial subpoena 10 when he left the courthouse yesterday, from the defendants, 11 and so I just would want to know for us, in ordering our 12 witnesses, are they planning to cross Mr. Bender, or are 13 they doing taking him as a -- separately, during their case 14 in chief? 15 MR. KISE: As of now, we are planning to cross 16 Mr. Bender. 17 MR. WALLACE: Okay. 18 MR. KISE: One other point of clarification, your 19 Honor. So, I have not yet -- I did receive a letter from 20 the Attorney General early this morning. I have not yet 21 looked at the cases, including the cases that you cite -- 22 Usually no one has a problem hearing me. 23 -- including the cases that -- the case that you 24 just cited, the Kulak case. I've not looked at them. I 25 will state, again, that our appellate consultants, some of		1 THE COURT: Good morning. 2 Counselor, please proceed. 3 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION 4 BY MR. WALLACE: 5 Q Good morning, Mr. Bender. Are you settled in? 6 A I need two seconds. 7 Q Okay. 8 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 9 proceedings.) 10 A Okay. 11 Q Mr. Bender, when we closed yesterday, we talked in 12 fairly extensive detail about the process and documents related 13 to the preparation of the 2011 Statement of Financial Condition. 14 Do you recall that testimony? 15 A Yes, I do. 16 Q And we talked about, I believe there was an engagement 17 letter, Jeff Supporting Data, a representation letter, and the 18 reported -- the statement itself; is that correct? 19 A Yes. That's correct. 20 Q Did Mazars also compile a Statement of Financial 21 Condition for Donald J. Trump as of June 30 for each year from 22 2012 to 2020? 23 A That's correct. 24 Q Okay. Were there any significant changes in the 25 preparation process for those statements between the 2011 and

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 187 1 the 2020 statement? 2 MR. KISE: Objection, your Honor. I don't think 3 that we can summarize. This case involves documents, as 4 they have said, and so we can't just summarize. It's 5 inappropriate to summarize a ten-year span and say the 6 process is the same, everything is the same. Each year 7 stands on its own. It's a very complicated process, and if 8 the government intends to establish intent, materiality and 9 reliance, then it needs, respectfully, to go year-by-year. 10 MR. WALLACE: What's the evidentiary objection? 11 MR. KISE: The nature of my objection is, it's 12 calling for a narrative. The question calls for a 13 narrative. It's an open-ended question, and it's 14 introducing facts that are not in evidence. There's no 15 foundation. 16 MR. WALLACE: Yesterday you said I needed to tie 17 things together. The 2011 process continues. I'm allowed 18 to ask this general question. If I want to go through the 19 additional documents, I will. It's my exam. 20 MR. KISE: Okay. That's fine. If he's intending 21 to through the additional documents year-by-year, that's 22 fine. I just want to make that clear. If it's an initial 23 summary question, then I'll withdraw my objection. 24 THE COURT: Was the question whether the -- I 25 think the question was whether the process that he used	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 189 1 Q Okay. Did the responsibility of the Trump 2 Organization regarding the preparation of the financial 3 statement change in any significant way, between 2011 and 2020? 4 A No, sir. 5 Q Do you know if, for each statement from 2011 to 2020, 6 Mazars required a signed engagement letter from the Trump 7 Organization? 8 A It was signed. I'm not sure if it was signed by Trump 9 Organization, or the trustees, after Mr. Trump became president. 10 Q But in each year from 2011 to 2020, you required an 11 engagement letter? 12 A Yes. Mr. Weisselberg would have signed, either way. 13 Q And do you know if, in fact, in each year from 2011 to 14 2020, you did, in fact, receive an engagement letter? 15 A Yes, we did. 16 Q Okay. For each Statement of Financial Condition 17 engagement, from 2011 to 2020, did Mazars receive a supporting 18 data spreadsheet from the Trump Organization? 19 A Yes. Jeff Supporting Data. 20 Q For your Statement of Financial Condition engagement 21 from 2011 to 2020, did Mazars maintain a control version of the 22 supporting data spreadsheet? 23 A Say that again, please? 24 Q Did you maintain, in each year from 2011 to 2020, a 25 control version?
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 188 1 changed, over time. 2 MR. WALLACE: That's correct, your Honor. 3 THE COURT: And has that question been answered? 4 MR. WALLACE: That question has not been 5 answered. 6 THE COURT: Objection overruled. Let's hear the 7 answer to that, and then we can discuss whether it's proper 8 to group everything, or to what extent every year has to be 9 examined individually. 10 A I think the process was pretty much the same. The 11 only thing I could think of off the top of my head was that I 12 think the December 2015 return -- return. Financial 13 statement -- the trustees were in place by the time the 14 statement got released in -- no. One year, the trustees took 15 over. That would have been the 2016 statement, probably. 16 Q So that I'm understanding correctly, the process 17 generally remained the same, but at some point the trustees of 18 the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust became responsible for the 19 statement? 20 A They were the one that signed the engagement letter 21 and the representation letter. 22 Q Can I ask, did the obligations of Mazars in compiling 23 this financial statement change in any significant way, from 24 2011 to 2020? 25 A No, sir.	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 190 1 A Yes, we did. 2 Q Okay. For each Statement of Financial Condition 3 engagement from 2011 to 2020, would the final version of the 4 supporting data spreadsheet tie out to the final Statement of 5 Financial Condition? 6 A Yes, it did. 7 Q And for each year for -- as of June 30 year, from 2011 8 to 2020, did Mazars require a signed representation letter from 9 the Trump Organization in order to issue the Statement of 10 Financial Condition? 11 A It would have been signed by Trump Organization. Like 12 I said, it may have been signed by the trustees, in the later 13 years. 14 Q Okay. But in each year, you would have required a 15 representation letter in order to release the statement? 16 A Yes, we did. 17 Q And for each statement from 2011 to 2020, did Mazars 18 receive a signed representation letter from the Trump 19 Organization? 20 A Yes, we did. Or the trustees. 21 Q Or the trustees. We can go through the document in 22 detail, now. 23 MR. WALLACE: So, could we please put up, on 24 the -- well no. 25 Would it be helpful if we actually put the

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 191 1 document up on the screen? I know typically we do it 2 before it's admitted, for you to see it. Is it helpful if 3 we put it up on the screen? 4 MR. KISE: This is this one? 5 MR. WALLACE: Yes. I handed you a copy. 6 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 7 to the witness.) 8 Q Mr. Bender, do you recognize the document you were 9 just handed? 10 A Yes, I do. 11 Q And what is this document? 12 A This is the engagement letter, the Trump -- to prepare 13 the Statement of Financial Conditions for Donald J. Trump as of 14 June 30, 2012. 15 MR. KISE: Your Honor, we just assert our statute 16 of limitations objection. 17 THE COURT: I understand the objection. Same 18 ruling, et cetera. 19 Q And does this appear to be the final engagement 20 letter? 21 A Yes, it does. 22 Q Okay. You can put that one down. 23 MR. WALLACE: Can we put up PX793. Native. 24 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 25 to the witness.)	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 193 1 J. Trump for the year June 30th, 2012. In this case it looks 2 like it was sent to the client by PDF, by email. 3 MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations. 4 THE COURT: Overruled. 5 Q And is that a copy of the -- is that the final copy of 6 the Statement of Financial Condition? 7 A Yes, it is. 8 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I'm not saying the 9 words, We would ask to have this moved into evidence, but I 10 assume that once the objection is overruled, it comes in. 11 Or, would you like me to make that clear on the record? 12 THE COURT: Well, why don't you make it clear, 13 and we'll see if there's an objection, other than what's 14 already been objected to. 15 MR. KISE: Right. There won't be an additional 16 objection, but it's up to Mr. Wallace to move them into 17 evidence, or for your Honor to. 18 THE COURT: Unless I hear an objection in the 19 next three seconds, it is now admitted into evidence. 20 MR. WALLACE: Going forward, do the People want 21 me to -- should we be saying the magic words, We would like 22 to move this into evidence? We have had a number of 23 documents where I haven't always said it. 24 MR. KISE: That's usually how trials work, your 25 Honor, but --
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 192 1 Q Mr. Bender, you are being handed what's a pull sheet 2 for a document that's produced in an Excel format. We have put 3 up on the screen a copy of the Excel file that was attached at 4 that location. It's Plaintiff's Exhibit 793. 5 Based on what you see on the screen, do you recognize 6 this document? 7 A Yes. This is what we have been calling the Jeff 8 Supporting Data for the Statement of Financial Conditions for 9 Mr. Trump's financial statement, as of June 30, 2012. 10 MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations. 11 THE COURT: Overruled, but understood. 12 Q And again, what is indicated by the red letters, PBC? 13 A Prepared by client. 14 Q Okay. 15 MR. WALLACE: We can take that down. 16 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 17 to the witness.) 18 Q Mr. Bender, you have been handed a document that is 19 marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 815. Do you recognize this 20 document? 21 A Give me a second, please. 22 Q Sure. 23 A Okay. Yes, I do. 24 Q And what is this document? 25 A It's the Statement of Financial Condition for Donald	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 194 1 MR. WALLACE: Trials work in many ways. 2 MR. KISE: That's been my experience, in the last 3 33 years. 4 THE COURT: Yes. We might as well use the magic 5 words. 6 MR. WALLACE: Is there any objection? 7 MR. KISE: That's why I keep standing up and 8 making that objection, because there's a process. 9 MR. WALLACE: There are plenty of bench trials 10 where you don't say the magic words, but I will say the 11 magic words, and I will ask if we could let the record 12 reflect that the exhibits that were shown to Mr. Bender 13 yesterday, where the objections, or the ones that were 14 objected to and were overruled, are admitted into evidence, 15 record-wise. 16 MR. KISE: Other than the objections that have 17 been raised and overruled, no further objections. 18 THE COURT: All of yesterday's and today's 19 documents are hereby officially admitted into evidence, 20 over objection. 21 Q Mr. Bender, I've just handed you a document marked 22 Plaintiff's Exhibit 792. Do you recognize this document? 23 A Yes, I do. 24 Q And what is this document? 25 A This is the letter of representation for the Statement

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 195 1 of Financial Conditions for Donald J. Trump as of June 30th, 2 2012. 3 MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations. 4 THE COURT: Overruled, and it's in evidence. 5 MR. WALLACE: And it's in evidence. Thank you, 6 your Honor. 7 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 792 was received 8 in evidence.) 9 Q Mr. Bender I'm going to direct your attention to the 10 first paragraph. It states, "We are providing this letter in 11 connection with your compilation of the Statement of Financial 12 Condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2012, the statement. 13 We confirm that we are responsible for the fair presentation in 14 the Statement of Financial Condition and conformity with 15 accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of 16 America." 17 Would Mazars have issued the Statement of Financial 18 Condition if you did not receive this representation letter? 19 A No, we would not have. 20 Q Would Mazars have issued the Statement of Financial 21 Condition if it learned that any of the financial statements in 22 this letter were not true? 23 A No, we would not have. 24 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 25 to the witness.)	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 197 1 A Yes. This is the Jeff Supporting Data for the 2 Statement of Financial Condition for Donald J. Trump, as of 3 June 30, 2013. 4 MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations. 5 THE COURT: Overruled. 6 Q I'll just refer you, again, to the red letters PBC. 7 What do those stand for? 8 A Prepared by client. 9 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we ask this document be 10 admitted into evidence. 11 THE COURT: Granted. It's now in evidence. 12 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 705 was received 13 in evidence.) 14 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 15 to the witness.) 16 Q Mr. Bender, you have been handed a document that has 17 been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 707. I'll give you a moment to 18 look through it. 19 Mr. Bender, do you recognize this document? 20 A Yes, I do. 21 Q And what is it? 22 A It's a compilation of Donald J. Trump's Statement of 23 Financial Condition as of June 30, 2013. 24 Q And does this appear to be the final version? 25 A Yes, it does.
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 196 1 Q Mr. Bender, you have just been handed a document that 2 has been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 705. Take a moment. 3 Do you recognize the document? 4 A Yes, I do. 5 Q And what is the document? 6 A This is the engagement letter to compile the Statement 7 of Financial Conditions for Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2013. 8 I may have said prepare in the past times. I should 9 have said compile. 10 MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations. 11 THE COURT: Overruled. 12 Magic words? 13 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we move Exhibit 705 14 into evidence. 15 THE COURT: Granted. It's now in evidence. 16 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 705 was received 17 in evidence.) 18 MR. WALLACE: You can put the evidence down, now 19 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 20 to the witness.) 21 Q Mr. Bender, you have been handed an exhibit that is 22 marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 708. It's a pull sheet for a 23 document that was produced as an Excel file. We have put a copy 24 of that file up on the screen, here. Based on what you see on 25 the screen, do you recognize this document?	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 198 1 MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations. 2 THE COURT: Overruled. 3 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I would ask this 4 document be entered into evidence. 5 THE COURT: Granted. It's now in evidence. 6 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 707 was received 7 in evidence.) 8 Q Mr. Bender -- 9 A Just, I may not have used the word compiled for the 10 previously financial statements you showed me. I just want to 11 make sure that I said compiled, for the records. All the 12 financial statements you showed me were compilations, this 13 morning. 14 Q They were compilations. Let's turn to the document 15 that's up on the screen here, and the document that you have 16 been handed, it's Plaintiff's Exhibit 706. I'll give you a 17 minute to just look through it. 18 Do you recognize the document, Mr. Bender? 19 A Yes, I do. 20 Q And what is this document? 21 A This is the representation letter for the compilation 22 of the Statement of Financial Conditions for Donald J. Trump as 23 of June 30, 2013. 24 MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations. 25 THE COURT: Overruled.

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 199 1 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we would ask that the 2 document be entered into evidence. 3 THE COURT: Granted. It's now in evidence. 4 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 706 was received 5 in evidence.) 6 Q If we go to the bottom on page three, do you recognize 7 that signature at the bottom of this page? 8 A Yes. It's Allen Weisselberg. 9 Q If we go back to the top, the first paragraph states, 10 "We are providing this letter in connection with your 11 compilation of the Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. 12 Trump as of June 30th, 2013. The statement. We confirm that we 13 are responsible for the fair presentation in the Statement of 14 Financial Condition, in conformity with accounting principles 15 generally accepted in the United States of America." 16 Would Mazars have issued the Statement of Financial 17 Condition if Mr. Weisselberg did not make the representations in 18 this letter, on behalf of Mr. Trump? 19 A No, we would not have. 20 Q Would Mazars have issued the Statement of Financial 21 Condition if it learned that any of the representations in the 22 letter were not true? 23 A No, we would not have. 24 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 25 to the witness.)	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 201 1 A This is the Jeff Supporting Data for the Statement of 2 Financial Conditions for Donald J. Trump, as of June 30, 2014. 3 MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations. 4 THE COURT: Overruled. 5 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I would ask that this 6 document be entered into evidence. 7 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 8 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 719 was received 9 in evidence.) 10 (Continued on the next page.) 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 200 1 Q Mr. Bender, you have been handed a document that has 2 been marked has Plaintiff's Exhibit 717. You can take a moment 3 to look through it. 4 Do you recognize the document? 5 A Yes, I do. 6 Q And what is it? 7 A It's the engagement letter to compile the financial 8 statements, Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump, 9 as of June 30th, 2014. 10 MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations. 11 THE COURT: Overruled. 12 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we would ask this 13 document be entered into evidence. 14 THE COURT: Granted. It's now in evidence. 15 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 717 was received 16 in evidence.) 17 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 18 to the witness.) 19 Q Mr. Bender, you have been handed a document that has 20 been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 719. It's a pull sheet for a 21 document that was produced as an Excel file. The copy of that 22 file is up on the screen, in front of you. 23 Do you recognize this document? 24 A Yes, I do. 25 Q What is this document?	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 202 1 Q Mr. Bender, you've been handed an exhibit marked as 2 Plaintiff's Exhibit 730. I'll give you a minute to look 3 through. 4 Mr. Bender, do you recognize this document? 5 A Yes, I do. 6 Q This is a compilation of Donald J. Trump Statement of 7 Financial Condition as of June 30, 2014? 8 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of Limitations. 9 THE COURT: Overruled. 10 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we have additional 11 information that may be relevant to the objection. Can 12 you go to the third page of document, please? 13 Q Mr. Bender, what is the date at the bottom near the 14 signature? 15 A November 7, 2014. 16 Q What does that date indicate? 17 A That is the date we finalized the financial 18 statement and the date of representation. 19 MR. ROBERT: That doesn't change the objection. 20 The objection is-- one is for all. Nonetheless, my 21 clients don't believe they are -- 22 Even though it's an objection for one, it's an 23 objection for all. My clients, in particular, do not 24 believe they're bound by the tolling agreement. So, to 25 preserve their Appellate rights, we object to anything up

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 203 1 to February 6, 2016, and respectfully object based on 2 Statute of Limitations. 3 THE COURT: I knew you were an expert in the 4 CPLR. 5 MS. HABBA: Not to be redundant, but, I'm going 6 to preserve the same objection for my clients as well, 7 and, I agree, it's one for all. 8 THE COURT: Understood. Overruled, but, I 9 understand the objection. 10 MR. ROBERT: Thank you, sir. 11 MR. WALLACE: I guess I'm curious, since Cliff's 12 a CPLR expert, if it's admissible, at least for some of 13 the defendants, do we have to have the objections 14 preserved for the Statute of Limitations argument? 15 MR. ROBERT: Absolutely. 16 THE COURT: I think they do. 17 MR. KISE: Absolutely. 18 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we would move this 19 document be entered into evidence. 20 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence over 21 objection, as to certain defendants. 22 MR. KISE: Actually, it's all for one and one 23 for all, under our agreement. I just got tired of 24 standing up, so I let Mr. Robert do it. 25 THE COURT: Overruled objection for all the	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 205 1 Condition if Allen Weisselberg had not made the representation 2 on behalf Mr. Trump? 3 A No. 4 Q Would Mazars have issued a Statement of Financial 5 Condition if they knew any of the representations were not 6 true? 7 A No. 8 Q Mr. Bender, I handed you a copy of Plaintiff's 9 Exhibit 786. This is the document you saw yesterday 10 previously admitted into evidence over defendants' objection. 11 You can take a look. You should have -- you still have 718, 12 as well? You have 718 and 786. 13 Can you take a moment and look at those, compare 14 those two documents? It's two pages, so I'll give you a 15 minute. 16 Mr. Bender, did you have a chance to compare the 17 two letters? 18 A I gave them both an overview, yes. 19 Q Apart from the dates listed, is the language in the 20 two letters identical? 21 A It appears to be, pretty much. 22 Q Does that mean all the representations Mazars 23 required in connection with 2011 Statement of Financial 24 Condition were also required for the 2014 Statement of 25 Financial Condition?
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 204 1 defendants. 2 MR. KISE: Thank you. 3 MS. HABBA: Thank you. 4 MR. ROBERT: Thank you. 5 Q Mr. Bender, you've been handed a document that's been 6 marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 718. 7 Do you recognize this document? 8 A Yes, this is the letter of representation for the 9 compilation of Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. 10 Trump as of June 30, 2014. 11 Q If we take a look, the header on the document is the 12 Trump Organization. That's the same as the previous years; is 13 that correct? 14 A Yes, sir. 15 Q The top states: 16 "We're providing this letter in connection with 17 your compilation of Statement of Financial Condition of Donald 18 J. Trump as of June 30, 2014 (the statement.) We confirm that 19 we are responsible for the fair presentation in the Statement 20 of Financial Condition in conformity with accounting 21 principles generally accepted in the United States of 22 America." 23 Do you see that language? 24 A I do. 25 Q Would Mazars have issued a Statement of Financial	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 206 1 A Yes. Substantially, that's correct. 2 Q Mr. Bender, you've been handed a document that's been 3 marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 727. I'll give you a minute to 4 look for the document. 5 Mr. Bender, do you recognize this document? 6 A Yes, I do. 7 Q What is it? 8 A It's the engagement letter, compilation of 9 Statements of Financial Condition of Donald J. WALLACE: Your Honor, we ask this document 14 be entered into evidence. 15 THE COURT: Granted. It's now in evidence. 16 Q Mr. Bender, you have been handed a document marked as 17 plaintiff's Exhibit 731. It's pull sheet for a document 18 produced in Excel format. There's a copy of that Excel file 19 up on the screen. 20 Do you recognize this document? 21 A Yes, I do. 22 Q What is it? 23 A The Jeff Supporting Data for the Statements of 24 Financial Condition of Donald J. D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 207 1 top? 2 A Prepared by client. 3 Q Was this the final supporting data spreadsheet for 4 the 2015 Statements of Financial Condition? 5 A It appears so, yes. 6 MR. ROBERT: You want to move it in first? 7 MR. WALLACE: I move, over your objection. 8 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of Limitations. 9 He used the magic words this time. 10 THE COURT: Overruled. Those are my magic words 11 or magic word. 12 MR. WALLACE: I ask this document be moved into 13 evidence. 14 THE COURT: Granted. It's now in evidence. 15 Q Mr. Bender, you've been handed a document marked 16 Plaintiff's Exhibit 729. I'll give you a minute to peruse it. 17 Mr. Bender, do you recognize this document? 18 A Yes, I do. 19 Q What is it? 20 A The compilation of Donald J. Trump's Statements of 21 Financial Condition as of June 30, 2015. 22 Q Does this appear to be the final copy? 23 A Yes, it does. 24 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I ask this be moved 25 into evidence.	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 209 1 Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2015. ROBERT: I actually am going to make a 17 Statute of Limitations objection to this as well because 18 it's cited to conduct in 2015. So, we renew the 19 objections. 20 THE COURT: Understood. Overruled. 21 Q Would Mazars have issued the 2015 Statements of 22 Financial Condition if it learned any of these representations 23 were not true? 24 A No, it would not have. 25 Q Mr. Bender, you've been handed a document that has

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 211 1 Thank you, sir. 2 THE COURT: Understood. Overruled. 3 Q If you look at the top, it says: 4 "This letter correctly sets for the 5 understanding of the trustees on behalf of Donald J. Trump." 6 Do you know what trustees that's referring to? 7 A The trustees would have been Donald, Jr. and Mr. 8 Weisselberg. 9 Q What trusts were they the trustees of? 10 A Exact name, I think it's the Donald J. Trump 11 Revocable Trust as of 2014, but, I'm not sure. It says it 12 right there, okay. 13 Q So, I'll, just for the record, underneath Mr. 14 Weisselberg's signature, it states: "Trustee, Donald J. 15 Trump, Revocable Trust dated April 7, 2014, as amended." 16 That's the trust you understood? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Do you have an understanding of why Mr. Weisselberg 19 is now signing this on behalf of a trust? 20 A He's signing on behalf of both, Executive Vice 21 President of Trump Organization and as trustee. 22 Q So, why is it now the trust that's involved? 23 A Because Mr. Trump was now President and a 24 significant portion of his assets were put into holding 25 companies that we discussed yesterday and were all	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 213 1 "position" in the highlight, should that have been 2 condition or is there a reason that it's a different word 3 being used? 4 THE WITNESS: I think it's a mistake but I'd 5 have to check. Good catch. 6 THE COURT: You don't have to check. I think 7 it's a mistake. 8 THE WITNESS: It's still a good catch. 9 Q We'll go through a little more of this. It might be 10 easier to read up here. The next paragraph states: "We'll 11 also provide other accounting services, as necessary, to 12 obtain sufficient accounting records from which to prepare a 13 statement. The performance of these additional accounting 14 services does not alter the fact that you are responsible for 15 the content of the financial statement, including the 16 estimated current value of assets and"-- "the estimated 17 current value of liabilities." 18 Do you have a recollection of what is being 19 referred to in the "other accounting services, as necessary?" 20 A Anything-- the example I gave yesterday is we may 21 assist with a few footnotes or something. 22 Q Any assistance you provided did not change the nature 23 of the work that Mazars was responsible for; is that correct? 24 A Yes, that's correct. 25 Q If we scroll down to the number paragraphs below.
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 212 1 transferred all into the trust. 2 Q So, the trust became responsible for the preparation 3 of Statements of Financial Condition? 4 A I would say that's correct, yes. 5 Q If we can go back to the top of this document? 6 A I would say the trust and the Trump Organization. 7 Q If we look at the second paragraph, it states: "We 8 will prepare the statement of financial position of Donald J. 9 Trump and the related notes to the financial statement and 10 perform compilation engagement with respect to this financial 11 statement." 12 Do you have an understanding of why the language 13 has changed in this engagement letter from prior years? 14 A I don't recall. 15 Q Does the nature of the work that you were performing 16 on behalf -- strike that question. 17 Is the nature of the work you were preparing-- 18 strike that question. 19 Is the nature of the work you were performing in 20 compiling Statements of Financial Condition changed in any 21 way? 22 A No, except now some of the assets are in a trust but 23 the statement included the assets of Donald J. Trump through 24 his Revocable Trust. 25 THE COURT: I have a question. The word	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 214 1 Paragraph number one states -- well, I'll read the 2 introduction. 3 "The objective of our engagement is, one, 4 prepare a financial statement in accordance with accounting 5 principles generally accepted in the United States of America 6 based on information provided by you." 7 Who, again, is the "you" in that sentence? 8 A The Trump Organization and the trustees. 9 Q Who is responsible for preparing the statement in 10 accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in 11 the United States of America? 12 A The Trump Organization and the trustees. 13 Q If you look at the next one, number two, it says: 14 "Apply accounting and financial reporting expertise to assist 15 you in the presentation of the financial statement without 16 undertaking to obtain or provide any assurance that there are 17 no material modifications that should be made to the financial 18 statement in order for it to be in accordance with accounting 19 principles generally accepted in the United States of 20 America." 21 Is that consistent with the practice Mazars 22 would have followed in prior years? 23 A I'd have to compare the two but, I believe, yes. It 24 would be consistent with our practice. 25 Q So, separate and apart from the language, the

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 215 1 practice would remain the same? 2 A Yes. 3 Q Okay. Please, scroll down to the bottom paragraph. 4 It states: "We're not required to, and will not, verify the 5 accuracy or completeness of the information you will provide 6 to us for the engagement or otherwise gather evidence for the 7 purpose of expressing an opinion or a conclusion. 8 Accordingly, we will not express an opinion or a conclusion 9 nor provide any assurance on the financial statement." 10 Why would Mazars not verify the accuracy or 11 completeness of any information provided? 12 A You don't do those types of procedure in a 13 compilation. That is what we're being asked to perform. 14 Q If you look at the paragraph that it's in italics, 15 underneath the statement "our accountant's compilation report 16 is expected to include" -- I won't read it into the record. 17 I'll give you a minute to just look at it. 18 A Just the first paragraph? 19 Q First two. Actually, the one that starts: "The 20 accompanying Statement of Financial Condition." So, what's 21 being reflected in these paragraphs? 22 A These are basically the GAAP exceptions we discussed 23 yesterday and that GAAP is-- the accompanying statement does 24 not reflect above-noted items. 25 Q Who was responsible for determining what exceptions	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 217 1 Q If you look at the paragraph underneath that, it 2 states: "Our engagement cannot be relied upon to identify or 3 disclose any financial statement and misstatements including 4 those caused by fraud or error or to identify or disclose any 5 wrongdoing or noncompliance with laws and regulations. 6 However, we will inform you of any material errors and any 7 evidence or information that comes to our attention during the 8 performance of our procedures that fraud may have occurred." 9 With respect to this period from 2016, do you 10 remember any instances where you identified any fraud that may 11 have occurred at the Trump Organization? 12 A It's not the Trump Organization. This is a 13 Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump. 14 Q I'll rephrase the question. Do you know, from the 15 period of this letter in 2016, if you, in the course of 16 compiling the Statements of Financial Condition, identified 17 any fraud at the Trump Organization? 18 A Trump Organization? 19 Q Did you identify any fraud at the Trump Organization? 20 A We didn't do any work as of June 30th. 21 Q If we go down to the last paragraph under the heading 22 "your responsibilities," it states: "The engagement to be 23 performed is conducted on the basis that you acknowledge and 24 understand that our role is to prepare financial statements in 25 accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 216 1 to GAAP will be in the Statements of Financial Condition? 2 A Trump Organization. 3 Q If you look at the next paragraph, I will read that 4 one into the record. It says: "Further, our report will 5 include the following: Because the significance and 6 pervasiveness of the matters discussed above make it difficult 7 to assess their impact on the Statements of Financial 8 Condition, users of this personal financial statement should 9 recognize that they might reach different conclusions about 10 the financial condition of Donald J. Trump if they had access 11 to a revised Statement of Financial Condition prepared in 12 conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in 13 the United States of America." 14 I'd like to direct your attention to the phrase 15 "users of this personal financial statement should recognize 16 that they might reach different conclusions." The reason for 17 those different conclusions -- what's the basis for the 18 different conclusions a user might reach? 19 A Because if you didn't have these GAAP exceptions, 20 these financial statements would be presented in a different 21 format. 22 Q So, is the GAAP exceptions disclosed above the reason 23 someone might have a different view of this financial 24 condition of Mr. Trump? Is that what's being said? 25 A Yes.	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 218 1 the United States of America and assist you in the 2 presentation of the financial statement in accordance with 3 accounting principles generally accepted in the United States 4 of America." 5 Who is the "you" that's being referred to in 6 this paragraph? 7 A The Trump Organization and trustees. 8 Q Let's look at what the responsibilities are. They're 9 on the next page. Under item one, it states: "The selection 10 of accounting principles generally accepted in the United 11 States of America as the financial reporting framework to be 12 applied in the preparation of the financial statement." 13 Which party is responsible for selecting the 14 accounting principles to be used? 15 A The Trump Organization and trustees. 16 Q Item two states: "The preparation and fair 17 presentation of financial statement in accordance with 18 accounting principles generally accepted in the United States 19 of America and the inclusion of all informative disclosures 20 that are appropriate for accounting principles generally 21 accepted in the United States of America, other than 22 previously noted." 23 Let's start with the end there. Do you know 24 what's being referred to in the "other than previously noted?" 25 A The GAAP exceptions that were delineated in italics

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 219 1 in the beginning. 2 Q So, who is responsible for this paragraph? 3 A The Trump Organization and trustees. 4 Q Do you understand what is meant by inclusion of all 5 informative disclosures? 6 A Generally, they include notes to financial 7 statements. 8 Q So, the actual text of what's contained in that 9 financial statement? 10 A Yes. 11 Q Look at item number 25. It states: "Compliance with 12 the laws and regulations applicable to its activities." 13 Do you know who the "its" is in this? 14 A The Trump Organization and the trustees. 15 Q So, who's responsible for their compliance with the 16 laws and regulations? 17 A The Trump Organization and trustees. 18 Q Look at the next item number six. It states: "The 19 accuracy and completeness of the records, documents, 20 explanations, and other information, including significant 21 judgments you provide us for the engagement." 22 Why is this item included? 23 A Because the parties we discussed are responsible for 24 the accuracy of the compilation of records, documents, 25 explanations, and other significant items and judgments.	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 221 1 MR. KISE: Just -- go ahead. Sorry. I just 2 have a housekeeping question. 3 THE COURT: Overruled on Statute of Limitations. 4 What's the housekeeping question? 5 MR. KISE: Maybe it's me. I want to make sure 6 there's-- it looks like there's two copies of the 7 Statement of Financial Condition, one redline and the 8 other is very thick. So, I'm just. 9 MR. WALLACE: I can ask, maybe, Mr. Bender if he 10 understands it and, if not, I can make a proffer on 11 something. 12 MR. KISE: That's fine. 13 Q So, I believe your testimony was -- I think you said 14 that this was information that was provided to you by the 15 Trump Organization in connection with the preparation of 16 Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition; is that correct? 17 A Yes. 18 Q I'll get to what some of the attachments are in a 19 moment but answer first. Who is Patrick Birney? 20 A He's an employee of the Trump Organization. 21 Q Do you know why he's the one sending you this 22 information? 23 A At some point, he started being involved with the 24 Statements of Financial Condition and helping Jeff McConney. 25 Q Helping Jeff McConney?
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 220 1 Q Item seven states: "To provide us with access to all 2 information of which you are aware is relevant to the 3 preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements 4 such as records, documentation, and other matters." 5 What's encompassed within information that is 6 relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial 7 statements? 8 A Any information that they know or documents that 9 they know pertaining to the financial statement. 10 Q If there was a document that related to the value of 11 the asset but they weren't using it for their specific form 12 valuation, would you still expect that to be shared? 13 A Yes, I would. 14 Q Mr. Bender, you've been handed a document that has 15 been marked as plaintiff's Exhibit 3003. Do you recognize 16 this document? 17 A Yes, I do. 18 Q What is it? 19 A This is certain data that was sent to us from the 20 Trump Organization for the preparation of the June 30, 2016, 21 compilation of Statement of Financial Condition for Donald J. 22 Trump. 23 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we ask this document 24 be entered into evidence. 25 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of Limitations.	Page 222 1 A Yes. 2 Q Did you understand that he reported Mr. McConney I? 3 A Yes, I believe he did. 4 Q So, I think we recognize the name of the first 5 attachment. What is that one? 6 A Jeff Supporting Data. 7 Q We can go through it, but, I believe there's two file 8 names separated by semicolons. I'll attempt to read them into 9 the record. 10 The first one states: "SOFC 02-17-2017 VPB 11 2.17.17 clean.doc," and the second file states: "SOFC 2.17. 12 2017 VPB 2.17.17.doc." 13 Do you have an understanding of what those two 14 files are? 15 A I can guess. I'm not sure. 16 Q Based on your experience of working with Mr. Birney? 17 A I can't-- I can make a guess but not based on 18 working with Mr. Birney. 19 Q What was your guess? 20 A I'm guessing-- 21 MR. ROBERT: Objection. 22 THE COURT: Sustained. Not allowed to have 23 speculation. 24 (Continued on following page..) 25

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 223 1 Q Do you have an understanding of what a clean document 2 means? 3 A I'm thinking that it's a document that they want us to 4 use for -- as their version of the typed financial statement. 5 It appears they typed the financial statements themselves, this 6 time. 7 Q And there are two files that are dot doc files, that 8 are SOFC 21717. 9 If you take a look at the list underneath, Mr. Birney 10 writes, "Bender, see attached. Item six is Word document, 11 clean. Item seven is Word document, track changes." 12 Based on that language, do you have any understanding 13 of what the files are, that are included? 14 A It just appears to me that one of them would be the 15 document that we just spoke, and one of them would track 16 changes, but I would have to review. 17 Q I'm happy to move on from this. It's not actually 18 relevant to the questions I was asking about the -- 19 MR. ROBERT: I just want to be clear, your Honor. 20 Are you moving in the attachments, too? Or just 21 the covering email? 22 MR. WALLACE: The full document The document 23 comes with the attachments. 24 MR. ROBERT: Okay. So, then our objection was 25 including the attachments that you moved in, as one piece?	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 225 1 MR. WALLACE: Let's pull up Exhibit 742. 2 Q Mr. Bender, you have been handed a document that was 3 marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 742. It's a pull sheet for a 4 document that was produced as an Excel file. We have put a copy 5 of that Excel file up on the screen, here. Let me ask, do you 6 recognize this document? 7 A Yes, I do. 8 Q And what is this document? 9 A This is the file from Mazars' binder for the Statement 10 of Financial Condition compilation of Donald J. Trump, as of 11 June 30, 2016. 12 Q And what do the letters PBC stand for? 13 A Prepared by client. 14 Q And what was the use of this table? 15 A This was our control to tie into the statement of -- 16 the compilation of the Statement of Financial Condition for 17 Mr. Trump, as of June 30, 2016. 18 MR. WALLACE: If we could -- 19 Q I'll just ask you this: The systems you described for 20 preparing this document, did they operate the same way in 2016 21 as what we discussed in 2011? 22 I can clarify the question. 23 A At some point, they started putting stuff into a 24 portal. I don't think it was this early, but the systems would 25 have been the same, except for that.
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 224 1 MR. WALLACE: Yes. 2 MR. ROBERT: Thank you for the clarification. 3 THE COURT: Ten-minute warning. 4 MR. WALLACE: Absolutely fine, your Honor. 5 THE COURT: Ten minute, I thought you said ten 6 minutes for morning. 7 Q Mr. Bender -- 8 MR. WALLACE: If we could pull up the native 9 file. 10 Q We are going to pull up one of the exhibits that was 11 in the Excel file, native five. Do you recognize this 12 attachment to the email I just showed you? 13 A It appears to be their copy of the Jeff Supporting 14 Data for the compilation of Donald J. Trump financial statements 15 as of June 30th, 2016. 16 Q And do you have an understanding of who would have 17 prepared this document? 18 A It would have been somebody -- it would have been the 19 Trump Organization. 20 Q Okay. But you are not sure which precise individual 21 would have done it? 22 A I'm not. I wouldn't be 100 percent sure, no. 23 Q And what would you have done with this document, when 24 you received it? 25 A We would insert it into our binder, presumably.	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 226 1 Q Okay. So if I'm understanding correctly, the way in 2 which people at the Trump Organization would send you documents, 3 the Statement of Financial Condition, changed, but there was no 4 change to how you prepared this document? 5 A The last document you gave me was 2016, also. 6 Q Correct. 7 A So, yes. So, the stuff would have been -- the same 8 process would have on the statement, as before. 9 MR. ROBERT: To the extent Mr. Wallace is going 10 it move this document in, we object on statute of 11 limitations, and I also object, it was a leading question. 12 THE COURT: Do you want to withdraw it? 13 MR. WALLACE: No, I don't want to withdraw the 14 question. I was just going to say, this is the electronic 15 version of an attachment of the document that was already 16 entered into evidence, over Mr. Robert's objection. 17 MR. ROBERT: I thought, because you identified it 18 as a separate exhibit number, it wasn't. 19 MR. WALLACE: No, I didn't. This was the same 20 exhibit number. 21 MR. ROBERT: It's the same exhibit number? 22 MR. WALLACE: Different file name. 23 MR. ROBERT: Then I still have the objection to 24 the leading question, your Honor. 25 MR. WALLACE: I would say that the leading

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 227 1 question was in response to a general response from the 2 witness, and I was clarifying his answer. 3 THE COURT: Oh. In all my years of objections 4 about leading questions, I never heard the defense that, 5 Well, he was just asking for a qualification. 6 MR. ROBERT: If that works, we'll use it all the 7 time. That's fine. 8 THE COURT: It seems, to me, a legitimate device 9 in the search for the truth. Overruled. 10 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, before we proceed, I just 11 wanted to let the court reporter know that this is actually 12 Mr. Robert, not Mr. Solomon. I want to make sure the 13 record is clear. 14 THE COURT: That would be a bad mistake to make. 15 MR. SOLOMON: Okay, your Honor. 16 THE COURT: That's Mr. Solomon. 17 MS. HABBA: That's Mr. Solomon. 18 Q So, we were discussing how this document operates 19 what's indicated by the numbers in blue, in row 84100.01? 20 A Those are the cross references to the underlying work 21 papers in the Mazars binder in that case, and an example, the 22 cash worksheet appears to be worksheet 4100.01. 23 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed to 24 the witness.) 25 Q Mr. Bender, I've handed you a document that's been	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 229 1 A Yes, sir. 2 Q If we look at the lettering in blue, on row one, it 3 states, "Per discussion with J. McConney, 2.717, cash balances 4 are from bank reconciliations and not individual balance 5 sheets." 6 Can you just tell me, what does that mean? 7 A I'm not 100 percent sure, today. 8 Q Do you recall if Mr. McConney was still involved in 9 the preparation of the Statement of Financial Condition, as of 10 February 27, 2017? 11 A He was involved with the compilation for the Statement 12 of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30th, 2016. 13 I don't know if you said '16 or '17. 14 Q So, just to clarify, this is a discussion that 15 happened in 2017, but it's for the as-of-June 30, 2016 16 statement? 17 A It appears to be so, yes. 18 Q Do you have a recollection as to why work on the 19 as-of-June 30, 2016 statement was happening in 2017? 20 A I have a general recollection. 21 Q What's your general recollection? 22 A I think things -- Mr. Trump became president, and 23 things were a little crazy. 24 Q Okay. 25 A For the Trump Organization.
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 228 1 marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 2587. This is a document that was 2 produced as an Excel file, so I've put a copy of the Excel file 3 that was produced up on the screen. Do you recognize this 4 document -- let me introduce -- this document has been produced 5 with, and is listed on plaintiff's exhibit list, as a file name 6 of 4100.01 Cash Balances as of 6/30/16 - final VPB 7 2.17.17.XLS.XLS. 8 Do you recognize this document? 9 A Yes. This is the Excel file for the cash and 10 short-term investments for the compilation of Donald J. Trump's 11 Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2016. 12 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we would ask that this 13 document be marked into evidence. 14 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations. 15 THE COURT: Overruled. 16 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 2587 was received 17 in evidence.) 18 Q Again, what does the red letters at the top say, PBC, 19 what do those indicate? 20 A Prepared by client. 21 Q And what would you do with this table? 22 A It would -- the bottom total should hopefully tie into 23 the Jeff Supporting Data. 24 Q Okay. So this is the support for the number on the 25 document we were just looking at?	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 230 1 Q If we go down to rows 69 through 72, I just want to 2 direct your attention to -- there's two red arrows -- let me 3 start by staying, we are on row 69. There's two red arrows. 4 One going up, and one going down, and they each go into a red 5 line. What is indicated by that symbol? 6 A I believe, and I would have to double check, I believe 7 that it was footed. Added done. 8 Q So, someone has confirmed that the formula that's 9 operating there, it had been prepared correctly? 10 A Somebody would have taken the -- 11 Q Okay. 12 A -- mouse, and would have went down with it, and made 13 sure the math checks. 14 MR. WALLACE: I think we are done with this 15 document, if that's a good time to break, your Honor. 16 THE COURT: I don't allow breaks longer than 17 10 minutes, but we are going to have 15 minutes to have the 18 10-minute break. So, please be back at 11:45, everyone. 19 MR. WALLACE: Thank you. 20 (Whereupon, a recess was taken.) 21 * * * * * 22 THE COURT: You know, for various reasons, I want 23 to run a tight ship. It seems like I'm going to have to be 24 a little firmer in these the timing of these breaks. I 25 said -- another example of lame humor -- we'll take a

1 10-minute break, but you can have 15 minutes. Maybe you 2 could push that to 20, but I'm starting in 20 minutes. If 3 I say we are talking a 10-minute break in 15 minutes, and 4 if you are not here, I'm starting anyway. So, please be 5 here. 6 I see Mr. Kise is nodding. You understand. 7 Mr. Robert. 8 Ms. Habba. 9 10-minute break, at most 20 minutes. 10 All right. Let's continue. 11 Before we do, I looked at Kulak, the case that I 12 mentioned before, very closely. Kulak versus Nationwide, 13 40 N.Y.2d 140, and at page 145 -- depends which version -- 14 the Court of Appeals makes clear, not just that continuing 15 objections can be made, but they don't even have to be 16 made. 17 Quote, "The objection, thus clearly made and 18 overruled, served as a continuing objection, and made it 19 unnecessary to challenge other improper evidence," close 20 quote. 21 The next sentence says, quote, "Although 22 objection was not made to every question during this line 23 of testimony, the objections were," internal quote, "Were 24 sufficient to cover the whole of the material accepted as 25 evidence."		1 that. But we will continue to look into it, to save all of 2 us the -- 3 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I can, also, though -- 4 I think we have offered to -- the parties exchanged exhibit 5 lists that contained the information. If they want to do a 6 list that specifies the document to which they object, 7 based on statute of limitations ground and timing, just 8 that, and your Honor can rule on the list, regardless of 9 whether or not -- and then they can preserve their 10 objections that way, we would be happy to do something 11 along those lines. 12 MR. KISE: We'll look at that as well, your 13 Honor. Anything to expedite these process, I can assure 14 you. 15 THE COURT: As I said much earlier, Mr. Kise and 16 everyone at defense table, I'll let you do what you feel 17 like you need to do. 18 MR. KISE: Understood and appreciated. But we'll 19 streamline it, as much as we possibly can. 20 THE COURT: And by the way, I didn't read the 21 exception into this that you are reading into it, but you 22 know, reasonable minds can differ. Okay. 23 I hope he is closer, this time. 24 (Whereupon, the witness resumed the witness 25 stand.)
1 So, I beg to differ with the advice that the 2 defendants received. You can make continuing objections, 3 and you can just object, and it's understood that that will 4 cover the exact or similar, same situations. 5 MR. KISE: Just looking at this, your Honor, 6 briefly, and I didn't get to look at it on the break, even 7 though it was a long break, but just pulling it up now, I 8 think this goes -- and I've sent it off to our folks. I 9 think this goes to what I said yesterday, the difference 10 between testimony and documents. This case relates, I 11 think, from what I'm seeing more, to testimony, and that's 12 why with Mr. Bender, we have made one blanket objection as 13 to testimony, which is sufficient. But, I don't know that 14 that covers us with documents. 15 But, I can assure you, to the extent that I 16 don't -- and Mr. Robert, so we don't have to keep standing 17 up and down -- if we can come up with a way to satisfy our 18 side, we would do that. I just think this is testimony and 19 not documents, because it speaks to, defendant objected 20 only to the first of three hypothetical questions. The 21 last hypothetical question -- the first three hypothetical 22 questions addressed to the first expert, it was not error 23 to admit, into evidence, testimony as to the possibility of 24 adequate representation. I think that's the distinction 25 that we are drawing here, as I did yesterday, I mentioned		1 THE COURT: Please proceed. 2 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION 3 BY MR. WALLACE: 4 Q We have three minutes of good morning left, 5 Mr. Bender, so good morning, again. 6 MR. WALLACE: I would like to offer the witness a 7 new document. 8 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 9 to the witness.) 10 Q Mr. Bender, you are being handed a document that has 11 been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 756. Can you just take a moment 12 to look through this document? 13 THE COURT: And while he is looking, I'll ask the 14 court officer to hand a copy of the Kulak case to the 15 defense table, for their convenience. 16 MR. KISE: Thank you. 17 Q Mr. Bender, do you recognize this document? 18 A Yes, I do. 19 Q And what is this document? 20 A This is the compilation of Donald J. Trump's Statement 21 of Financial Condition, as of June 30, 2016. 22 Q And does this appear to be the final version? 23 A Yes, it does. 24 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we ask that this 25 document be moved into evidence.

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 235 1 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations. 2 THE COURT: This, the date of this -- I'm 3 speaking to the expert here. The date of this document is 4 after the limitations period had started, if we can call it 5 that; right? 6 MR. ROBERT: Correct. The limitations period, in 7 our view, is from February 6, 2016, so what is contained in 8 here, and the work product that's within here, to protect 9 our record, we believe that that would be barred by the 10 statute of limitations as for those defendants not bound by 11 the tolling agreement. 12 THE COURT: And what if it was 2017? 13 MR. ROBERT: It gets a little more complicated 14 there, because sometimes, especially on the McConney 15 spreadsheets, you will see that they have two years' worth 16 of information on a spreadsheet the year before, in that 17 year. That's why we have to take them one document at a 18 time, just to make sure we are preserving our position and 19 not waiving that we feel, for those defendants not bound by 20 the tolling agreement: Anything that happened prior to 21 February 6th of 2016, is out. 22 THE COURT: Overruled. 23 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, you have already ruled, 24 so I probably should just sit down, is the standard 25 operating advice. I will note that we don't believe that	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 237 1 holding companies. These two holdings companies are owned by 2 the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust, dated April 7, 2014, as 3 amended, (The Trust). Prior to Mr. Trump being sworn in as 4 President of the United States of America on January 20, 2017, 5 he transferred a significant portion of his remaining assets and 6 liabilities, including certain entities, to either the trust, or 7 entities owned by the trust." 8 "The accompanying Statements of Financial Condition 9 consists of the assets and liabilities of Donald J. Trump, 10 including the assets and liabilities of the trust." 11 So, just to reorient, this is the trust process that 12 you speak about earlier this morning? 13 A I'm not sure what you mean by that? 14 Q Okay. You are not sure -- 15 A What you mean by that question. 16 Q You said that at some point trustees took over the 17 responsibility for the preparation of the Statement of Financial 18 Condition. This is the trust that the trustees were operating 19 on behalf of -- 20 A Yes, it was. 21 Q Okay. So, if we look at the next full paragraph, it 22 states that, "Assets are stated at their estimated current 23 values, and liabilities at their estimated current amounts, 24 using various valuation methods." 25 So who is responsible for making sure that assets are
D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 236 1 the defendants are entitled to lie about events that 2 happened in 2014, in '17 and so that the statute of 3 limitations isn't applicable, or the statute of limitations 4 period certainly encompasses this document, but I will move 5 on. 6 And so I take it this document has now been 7 entered into evidence? 8 THE COURT: Yes. It's now in evidence. 9 MR. WALLACE: Thank you. 10 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 756 was received 11 in evidence.) 12 Q Mr. Bender -- 13 MR. WALLACE: If we could pull up page three of 14 the document. It's the one that has the production number 15 1985. 16 Q Just please reorient us. What portion of the 17 Statement of Financial Condition is this section? 18 A These are the notes to the financial statements. 19 Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition. 20 Q And who is responsible for this language? 21 A The Trump Organization, and the trustees. 22 Q And just to clarify, I'll leave the record here, under 23 the heading, Basis of Presentation it states, "Prior to June 30, 24 2016, Donald J. Trump transferred certain of his assets and 25 liabilities, including certain entities that he owned, to two	D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 238 1 stated at their estimated current values? 2 A The Trump Organization, and the trustees. 3 Q Okay. So, if we could just flip to the page five of 4 this report, it's the production number that ends 1987, if we 5 look at the second paragraph, it states, "The estimated current 6 value of 600 million -- $631 million, is based on an evaluation 7 by the trustees in conjunction with their associates and outside 8 professionals, applying a capitalization rate to the cash flow 9 to be derived from building operations." 10 So, who is responsible for deciding to use this 11 technique, to value Trump Tower? 12 A Trustees, in conjunction with their associates and 13 outside professionals. 14 Q And did Mazars undertake any procedures to determine 15 if that was an appropriate means of valuing Trump Tower? 16 A No, we did not. 17 Q And did Mazars undertake any accounting procedures to 18 determine if the 631 million number was accurate? 19 A Say the question again, please? 20 Q Did Mazars undertake any accounting procedures to 21 determine if the $631 million number was accurate? 22 A Anything that -- I would have to see the Jeff 23 Supporting schedule, to see if we footed any other, or if we did 24 any other work. 25 Q But would you have undertaken any kind of audit or

D. Bender - Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 239 1 review to check the number, the $631 million number? 2 A No, we would not have done that. 3 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 4 to the witness.) 5 Q Mr. Bender, you have been handed a document that has 6 been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 741. I'll give you a moment 7 to look through it. 8 Do you recognize this document, Mr. Bender? 9 A Yes, I do. 10 Q And what is this document? 11 A It's a representation letter for the personal -- for 12 the compilation of the financial statements of Donald J. Trump, 13 as of June 30, 2016. 14 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we would ask that this 15 document be moved into evidence. 16 MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations. 17 THE COURT: Overruled. 18 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 741 was received 19 in evidence.) 20 Q Mr. Bender, would Mazars have issued the Statement of 21 Financial Condition if the trustees -- 22 MR. WALLACE: Well, let's actually strike that 23 question. 24 Can we turn to the last page of this document? 25 THE COURT: The correct term is withdrawn, not	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 241 1 Q In what capacity is he signing this letter? 2 A He signed it as Chief Financial Officer of the Trump 3 Organization and as Trustee of Donald J. Trump Revocable 4 Trust. 5 Q Do you recognize the signature on the right-hand side 6 of the screen? 7 A Yes, it's Don, Jr.'s signature. 8 Q In what capacity is he signing this? 9 A As Executive Vice President of the Trump 10 Organization and Trustee of Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust. 11 Q Would Mazars have issued, as of June 30, 2016, 12 Statements of Financial Condition for Donald J. Trump if the 13 trustees had not signed this representation letter? 14 A No, they would not. 15 Q I'd like to direct your attention to the second page 16 of this document. Paragraph two states: "We've made 17 available to you all financial records and related data and 18 any additional information you requested from us for the 19 purpose of the compilation. We have not, knowingly, withheld 20 from you any financial records or related data that, in our 21 judgment, would be relevant to your compilation." 22 You see that language? 23 A Yes, I do. 24 Q Would Mazars have issued the Statements of Financial 25 Condition if the trustees had not made that representation?

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 243 1 shown to us, appraisals, that were in their possession that 2 we did not know about. 3 THE COURT: Please keep your voice nice and 4 loud. 5 THE WITNESS: I apologize. My throat is -- 6 THE COURT: That's because you're talking too 7 much the last few days. 8 THE WITNESS: That's because I'm retired. I'm 9 not used to talking. 10 Q So, Mr. Bender, how did you learn there were 11 appraisals you had not been provided? 12 A I believe the first time I saw them were interviews 13 with the District Attorney of the City of New York. 14 Q Was that information you thought you should have 15 received in the course of preparing a compilation engagement? 16 A Yes. 17 Q Let's go down to another portion of this letter. If 18 you look at item number 15, item 15 states: "We've responded 19 fully and truthfully to all inquiries made to us by you during 20 your compilation." 21 After the receipt of this letter, did you learn 22 whether or not that representation was inaccurate? 23 A It was inaccurate for not-- I can't tell you for 24 this year but for various years in total, yes. 25 Q Based on your understanding, why was that	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 245 1 Organization? 2 A Yes. 3 MR. KISE: Objection. Which year? 4 THE COURT: I may be second-guessing myself but 5 I think he can ask if it was done, and, you can 6 cross-examination well, when was it done. 7 MR. KISE: Okay, if he's asking generally, did 8 he ever make inquiries about appraisals, that is one 9 thing. He's asking, specifically, the representation 10 with respect, rather, to this particular year. I think 11 that's quite another. 12 THE COURT: I don't think he was but let's see 13 if he'll clarify. 14 MR. WALLACE: I appreciate Mr. Kise's evidence 15 coming in but-- 16 Q Did you ask the Trump Organization, during the course 17 of your work on compilation reports, for appraisal reports? 18 A Yes, I think it started at the time-- first time, my 19 recollection of asking where the appraisals were, they gave 20 me certain appraisals for TIHT Commercial LLC of Trump Plaza, 21 LLC, and, I think those questions I asked in most years of 22 Jeff McConney. That was started, based on, I guess, 23 approximately, 2013 or other. 24 Q Do you have a specific recollection of it starting in 25 2013?
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 244 1 presentation inaccurate? 2 A Because they were not giving us all the documents 3 that we needed, potentially, to compile the compilation. 4 Q So, had you made inquiries for those documents? 5 A In many, yes, I did. Yes. 6 MR. KISE: Objection. Which documents? He's 7 testified he's not sure which year it was. So, which 8 documents are we talking about? 9 THE COURT: Sustained. 10 MR. KISE: What year? When? When -- 11 THE COURT: Sustained. I think we need to be a 12 little more particular. 13 Q Mr. Bender, you testified that the Trump Organization 14 was not giving us all the documents that we needed to 15 potentially compile the compilation. What documents are you 16 referring to? 17 A There were certain appraisals out there for a number 18 of years. 19 Q Do you remember, specifically, which years? 20 A Not all years off the top of my head, no. 21 Q Do you remember some of the years, off the top of 22 your head? 23 A I think it was '15, '16, something like that but I'd 24 have to double check. 25 Q So, you made inquiries for appraisals to the Trump	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 246 1 A I recently saw that we had those appraisals appear 2 in 2013. So, that's probably when I asked for them. 3 Q So, your best recollection is you started asking for 4 appraisals in or about 2013? 5 A Yes. 6 Q You had asked Mr. McConney, I believe you said? 7 A Yes, most years. 8 Q Can you describe, to your recollection, how you asked 9 Mr. McConney for those documents? 10 A First time he gave me appraisals, I said, do you 11 have any more appraisals, and, I'd ask every year after that. 12 All-- most accountants -- I did ask for appraisals. 13 Q What did he tell you? 14 A "That's all we have." 15 Q Every year you asked, that's what he told you? 16 A Yes. 17 Q Again, you don't remember exactly when that practice 18 started? 19 A No, but, I did see that the appraisal appeared 20 around 2013. 21 Q You've seen an appraisal dated 2013 that conforms to 22 what your memory is? 23 A I saw appraisals in the 2013, the binder for the 24 compilation for the year, as of June 30, 2016. 25 Q What did you do when you learned that there were

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 247 1 appraisals that had not been given to you? 2 A What did I do? 3 Q Yes. 4 MR. KISE: Objection. The timeframe. Back to 5 timeframe. Objection. 6 MR. WALLACE: He identified the timeframe as 7 during a meeting with the New York District Attorney's 8 Office. 9 MR. KISE: Is that a timeframe? He said some 10 timeframe but then it was unclear as to which -- I just 11 want the record to be clear. 12 THE COURT: We all do. 13 Q Do you remember when? 14 THE COURT: Hold on a second. Let's start with: 15 Can you remember a specific time when you reacted to this 16 realization. 17 Q Can you answer the question from the Judge? 18 A It was my first meeting with a Zoom meeting with the 19 District Attorney of the State of New York. 20 THE COURT: You remember, roughly, when that 21 meeting was? 22 THE WITNESS: Not off the top of my head. 23 THE COURT: Can you approximate from point of 24 view of more than speculation but less than certainty? 25 THE WITNESS: I would say about three years ago,	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 249 1 Zoom meeting with DANY. 2 Q Meaning the District Attorney's Office of New York 3 County? 4 A Somebody taught me this. 5 THE COURT: DANY. 6 THE WITNESS: Somebody taught me this. I'm 7 sorry. 8 Q Mr. Bender, in any given year where you asked for 9 appraisals you were not given -- let me withdraw that 10 question. 11 THE COURT: He's a quick learner. 12 Q Mr. Bender, would Mazars have issued Statements of 13 Financial Condition-- without reference to a specific year 14 but, if Mazars learned that the Trump Organization had not 15 provided all appraisals, would you have issued the Statement 16 of Financial Condition? 17 MR. KISE: Objection. Back to which year? 18 THE COURT: Overruled. Again, I may be 19 second-guessing myself but you can ask if it was ever 20 done. I don't see a problem with that. 21 MR. KISE: Which years did he not receive the 22 appraisals? Which years is the government asking him 23 which statements wouldn't have been produced? I mean, 24 there are some years where there might not have been any 25 appraisals provided and some years were there were
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 248 1 during COVID. Yeah, it was during COVID but, yes, the 2 late part. Wasn't the first year of COVID. 3 Q Did you do anything after you learned from that 4 meeting with the District Attorney's Office that there were 5 appraisals you'd not been given? 6 A I was not personally involved in any of those 7 matters. It wasn't handled by me. 8 Q Were you still working on the compilation for Donald 9 J. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition at the time you 10 learned that information? 11 A No, we did not. So, it had to be after 2020. The 12 date would have to be after June 30, 2020, was, I believe, 13 the last compilation we did. 14 Q Did you have any conversations with Mr. McConney 15 after you learned this information from the District 16 Attorney's Office? 17 A Pertaining to that matter? 18 Q Correct. 19 A No, I did not. 20 Q You had conversations with him on other matters? 21 A Yes. Let me go back. 22 THE WITNESS: It would have been early part of 23 '21, your Honor. 24 THE COURT: Just finish the sentence. 25 A Would be the early part of the '21 that we had the	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 250 1 appraisals provided but what the government is doing is 2 mashing it all together and saying, in those years that 3 you didn't get appraisals, would you have issued the 4 statements, but, that doesn't speak to the direct point 5 which they have to establish that it was a specific year 6 or a specific appraisal not provided in connection with a 7 specific statement. 8 Not generally, over a ten-year period, whether 9 appraisals you didn't receive and did that then -- what 10 the -- 11 MR. WALLACE: How would the witness know if he 12 didn't receive an appraisal, apart for the ones shown by 13 DANY? 14 MR. KISE: According to his testimony, he was 15 told by the District Attorney of New York when he didn't 16 receive it. So, if the witness can recall which years 17 that related to and he can recount what he would have 18 done or not have done, based on information he would have 19 received in that particular year, fine; but, if it's no, 20 he can't just speculate generally about -- 21 MR. WALLACE: You're arguing in front of the 22 Judge now. 23 THE COURT: He is allowed to. Overruled. 24 MR. WALLACE: Can we go back to -- 25 THE COURT: Subject to the cross-examination.

D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 251 1 Q Mr. Bender, would Mazars have issued a Statement of 2 Financial Condition if it knew it had not been provided with 3 all appraisals? 4 A No, it would not. 5 Q Thank you. 6 MR. KISE: Just for the record, I didn't object 7 to that last question because of the Kulak case, okay. 8 I'm glad we're on the same page. 9 Q Mr. Bender, you have been handed a document that has 10 been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 753. Take a moment to look at 11 this. Do you recognize this document? 12 A Yes, I do. 13 Q What is this document? 14 A This is the engagement letter compiling the 15 Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump as of 16 June 30, 2017. 17 Q Does this appear to be the final letter? 18 A Yes, it does. 19 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, I would ask this be 20 entered into evidence. 21 THE COURT: Granted. It's now in evidence. 22 By the way, I can ask why you're not objecting. 23 Because of the continuing objection rule or because of 24 the date of the document? 25 MS. HABBA: Don't worry, your Honor. I'm about	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 253 1 Statute of Limitations period but it's about events that 2 happened before, isn't that still actionable or am I 3 missing something? 4 MS. HABBA: Again, we've raised these issues 5 with the Appellate Division, which we're preserving. I 6 would like to state the objection that any reference to 7 anything in here before 2016, which I know your Honor has 8 a differing opinion, but, I have to state my objection 9 against it, should not be considered. 10 THE COURT: I'll just say in front of everyone, 11 I don't see how you can possibly object to a statement 12 that's timely even if it's about a fact that comes before 13 that; but, as you just said, we'll agree to disagree. 14 MS. HABBA: Thank you, your Honor. 15 THE COURT: Thank you. 16 Q So -- 17 THE COURT: Objection overruled and we'll ask 18 the witness to answer. 19 MR. WALLACE: I believe there was a pending 20 request to put this in the record. 21 THE COURT: It's in. 22 Q Mr. Bender, you have been handed a document that's 23 been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 755. I'll give you a moment 24 to look through the document. 25 Mr. Bender, do you recognize this document?
D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 252 1 to object. I'm just letting him do his thing. 2 THE COURT: Okay. 3 Q Mr. Bender, I've handed you a document marked 4 Plaintiff's Exhibit 758. It is a pull sheet for a document 5 that was produced to us in the form of an Excel file. We put 6 a copy of the Excel file up on the screen here. 7 Do you recognize this document? 8 A Yes, I do. 9 Q What is this document? 10 A This is the Jeff Supporting Data for the Statement 11 of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 12 2017. 13 Q Does this appear to be the final form? 14 A Yes, it does. 15 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we ask the document be 16 entered into evidence. 17 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, I'll state my objection 18 on the record. To the extent that the 2017 documents 19 look back to 2016, and anything in there before 20 February 2016, we assert the same Statute of Limitations 21 objection. 22 THE COURT: Maybe this is the right time to 23 discuss this point. 24 If the defendants make a statement, or any of 25 the defense makes a statement, within the permissible	D. Bender - Direct/Wallace Page 254 1 A Yes, I do. 2 Q What is this document? 3 A It's the compilation of Donald J. Trump's Statements 4 of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2017. 5 Q Does this appear to be the final version of the 6 document? 7 A Yes, it does. 8 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we ask this document 9 be entered into evidence. 10 THE COURT: Granted. It's now in evidence. 11 Q Mr. Bender, you've been handed a document marked 12 Plaintiff's Exhibit 754. Just take a moment to look through 13 this document. 14 Do you recognize this document -- withdrawn. 15 A I'm sorry. 16 Q Mr. Bender, do you recognize this document? 17 A Yes, I do. 18 Q What is this document? 19 A This is the representation letter for the 20 compilation of the personal financial statement, Statements 21 of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 22 2017. 23 Q If we just flip to the last page. Do you recognize 24 the signature on the left-hand side of the screen? 25 A Yes, I do.

THE COURT: They don't laugh at mine, either, so. (Whereupon, the witness resumed the witness stand.) THE COURT: I'll remind the witness, as usual, that he is still under oath. THE WITNESS: Thank you. THE COURT: Counsel, please proceed. CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. BENDER: Q Mr. Bender, good afternoon. A Good afternoon. Q We have met before? A Good afternoon. THE COURT: That's a question. Have you met before? Q We have met before. We met in April of 2023, when I took your deposition on behalf of the defendants. Do you recall, sir? A Yes, sir. Q Okay. Mr. Bender, you have been up here testifying for the last day about the Statements of Financial Condition of the 45th President of the United States. Is that correct? A Yes, sir.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	Lacher? A Yes, he did. Q May have been responsible for giving you the name Doc? A He wasn't, but he kept it going. Q Did they call you Doc because you were good at documented transactions? That was the Doc? A No. Q It's a cute nickname. Was Mr. Weisselberg an accountant? A He was an accountant. Q Mr. Weisselberg is a CPA? A No. He is not a CPA. Q Mr. McConney is a CPA? A No. Mr. McConney is not a CPA. Q Okay. So who was the in-house accountant at the Trump Organization, Mr. Bender? A Mr. Weisselberg, and his team. Q All right. You did work for the Trump Organization for over 35 years; did you not, Mr. Bender? A Excuse me? Q You did work for the president and his company, the Trump Organization, for over 35 years? A Approximately. Q Approximately. In fact, you came to work with the Trump Organization through a gentlemen named Mr. Mitnick; didn't

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 280 1 A Yes, sir. 2 Q And in fact, President Trump and the Trump 3 Organization were loyal clients of yours; were they not? 4 A I hope so. 5 Q In fact, they were so loyal to you, Mr. Bender, that 6 in 2004, when the Securities and Exchange Commission censured 7 Weiser, the Trump Organization let you keep their business; did 8 they not? 9 A I have no knowledge about that. 10 Q You have no knowledge of the Securities and Exchange 11 Commission censuring Weiser in 2004? 12 A I know there was something at one point. I don't 13 remember when it was. 14 Q Do you recall that the SEC called Weiser's conduct 15 highly unreasonable? 16 A I have no knowledge of that. 17 Q Do you recall if the SEC called Weiser's conduct 18 improper professional conduct? 19 A I have no knowledge of that. 20 Q Do you recall if a gentlemen named Victor Wahba, at 21 the time when he was at Weiser's, was also censured by the SEC? 22 A I don't remember exactly. 23 Q Who is Victor Wahba? 24 A He is the Chairman of Mazars. 25 Q Mazars?	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 282 1 A Rosenblum. 2 Q Rosenblum? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Okay. 5 A May he rest in piece. 6 THE COURT: I don't know how we got from Wilson 7 to Rosenblum. 8 MR. SUAREZ: My hearing. 9 Q When Weiser merged into Mazars, you continued to 10 handle work for the Trump Organization; did you not? 11 A I continued to be on the account, yes. 12 Q Okay. And as you testified today and yesterday, you 13 were one of the parties that signed the Statements of Financial 14 Condition compilation reports every year; were you not? 15 A For a number of years, yes. 16 Q Okay. According to your testimony from at least 2011 17 to 2020, was that not the case? 18 A Yes. That's the case. 19 Q And during that period of time, President Trump's 20 business was at least half of your billable work at the firm; 21 was it not? 22 A Close to it, I would say. 23 Q Close to it. He was your single biggest client, in 24 fact? 25 A Yes.

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 283 1 Q And companies controlled by Mr. Trump were your single 2 biggest client? 3 A Yes. 4 Q And the Trump Organization and President Trump, they 5 paid you a lot of money; didn't they, Mr. Bender? 6 A It was a significant amount. 7 Q In some years it was more than a million dollars? 8 A Yes. 9 Q In some years it was more than $2 million? 10 A I can't specifically allocate it, but it's possible. 11 Q In fact, in 2015, the Trump Organization and related 12 entities paid Mazars over $2.1 million; did they not? 13 A I don't know, off the top of my head. 14 (Continued on the next page.) 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	D. Bender - Defendant/Suarez Page 286 1 A Yes. 2 Q But you're not an expert? 3 A I'm lucky enough to be in a firm where the guy next 4 door to me was an expert on this stuff. In 2021, did you compile the President's 5 Statement of Financial Condition in 2021? 6 A I do not believe so. The 10 compilation report to President Trump's Statement of Financial 11 Condition, what authoritative literature did you review? 12 A I know we had the subject matter specialist and we 13 discussed the -- any issues that were out there. 14 Q My question was a little bit different. My question 15 was: What literature did you review, in connection with 16 preparing the compilation report to the Statement of Financial 17 Condition, for the leader of the free world? 18 A We have required check lists and I went through the 19 required check lists that's required by Mazars. 20 Q Did you check any AICPA guidelines? 21 A I do not recall. 22 Q Did you check any notes or commentary for the 23 accounting standards? 24 A I do not recall. 25 Q Did you read any literature concerning the applicable

Bender - Defendant/Suarez Page 293 1 A I don't know about that. 2 Q They would give you an opportunity to review loan 3 agreements before they entered into them? 4 A Many years ago, they might have. Certain 5 paragraphs. 6 Q Certain paragraphs? 7 A Yes. 8 Q They wouldn't send you loan agreements and ask you, 9 hey, Mr. Bender, can you review these for us and let us know 10 if this is something we can enter into? 11 A I don't think they sent full agreements. I do 12 remember them sending certain paragraphs from time to time. 13 Q Do you remember reviewing loan agreements and seeing 14 whether the Trump Organization could comply with certain 15 covenants? 16 A Reviewing them before the loan documents were 17 signed? 18 Q Yes. 19 A I do not recall at this moment. 20 Q Can you recall reviewing loan agreements after they 21 were entered into and giving advice as to whether certain loan 22 covenants could be complied with? 23 A I don't think they advised. They did, sometimes as 24 an order, get a loan covenant. 25 Q Provide calculations?
D. Bender - Defendant/Suarez Page 292 1 A Or I'd bring somebody in to help me when I couldn't 2 Q Who did you bring in to help you? 3 A Numerous people over the years. 4 Q Who? 5 A I can give you 20 or 30 names. 6 Q Give me one. 7 A Andy Cohen. 8 Q What did you bring him in on? 9 A He would discuss financial statement matters with me 10 and them. 11 Q Andy Cohen would discuss with you matters relating to 12 President Trump's Statement of Financial Condition; is that 13 correct? 14 A From time to time. 15 Q How often? 16 A I couldn't answer that off the top of my head. 17 Q When The Trump Organization called and they had 18 questions about accounting transactions, you'd answer them, 19 correct? 20 A If I could. 21 Q And, in fact, many times they consulted you before 22 even engaging in transactions; did they not? 23 A Sometimes. 24 Q They would run transactions by you and ask you to 25 help them understand certain loan terms?	D. Bender - Defendant/Suarez Page 294 1 A I don't know if we provided the calculations or they 2 provided the calculations, but, we had discussions at certain 3 times. 4 Q So, they could have provided the calculations, if you 5 told them it was correct or not? 6 A No, we would have audited. 7 Q So, you did audit work for the Trump Organization? 8 A I did for a number of entities. 9 Q For which entries did you perform audit work for the 10 Trump Organization, Mr. Bender? 11 A It varied over the years, but, it would have 12 included Trump Tower Commercial, or its predecessor. In 13 early years, Trump Fifth Avenue. It would have been 40 Wall 14 Street, LLC for certain years, not all years. 15 Let's take that back. There was certiorari 16 work also and it would have been 57th Street Management for a 17 number of years. I'm sorry. 57th Street Associates LLC. 18 There would have been, I think, a couple of 19 years, 41 Wabash-- 401 and there might have been certiorari 20 work of certain properties, audit of certiorari work. I 21 couldn't tell you which companies, off the top of my head. 22 Q In fact, you did audit work for Trump Post Office, 23 LLC -- 24 A Yes, I did. 25 Q --a defendant in this case. You performed audits of

D. Bender - Defendant/Suarez Page 295 1 another defendant in this case, 40 Wall Street, LLC; did you 2 not? 3 A Certain years yes. 4 Q In other years, you performed reviews? 5 A Yes, sir. 6 Q You performed compilations. We got along. 18 Q You got along. Who were your principal points of 19 contact? Were they not Jeff McConney and Allen Weisselberg? 20 A I'd say more Jeff than Allen. 21 Q What is Mr. McConney's title? 22 A It changed over the years. I believe, originally he 23 was assistant comptroller then he became comptroller then he 24 hit different levels of vice president. I don't know what 25 was the prefix to his vice president was.

I was at Old 23 Post Office a number of times. That's all I can think of off 24 the top of my head. 25 Q Any other properties you can recall visiting?	D. Bender - Defendant/Suarez Page 298 1 Q You and Mr. McConney were close friends at one point; 2 were you not? 3 A We didn't have a relationship outside of work but we 4 got along well. 5 Q You got along well? 6 A I had tremendous respect for him. So, I was invited, so I couldn't-- I was not on the 5 original list. I wasn't on the original list at the wedding. 6 They missed me at the wedding. It was last minute. 7 Gerry Rosenblum, the predecessor partner, 8 mentioned it to them. So, I was invited last minute to the 9 wedding also. 10 MR. I don't know what year it was but Arthur 17 Anderson was doing it for a number of years. In fact, you were often provided with 14 an ability to give input on loan transactions even before they 15 took place? 16 A That I don't recall right now, other than seeing 17 some loan documents, certain pages of loan documents, as we 18 previously stated. 19 Q Did you always read everything the folks over at the 20 Trump Organization sent you? 21 A Everything the Trump Organization sent me, no. 22 Q In connection with preparing tax returns, you had 23 access to ledgers, I trust? 24 A The Trump Organization supplied us with general 25 ledgers.	D. Bender - Defendant/Suarez Page 302 1 Mr. Trump. 2 Q Which firms were those? 3 A McGladry or whatever they were called after they 4 merged. There was a firm in California called Ludlow. 5 Something like that. I don't know. A firm that did-- DH 6 Properties Corp. in California. They had a number of firms 7 that did golf courses over a number of years before we took 8 them over. 9 A lot of them were McGladry over the years 10 before we took them over and McGladry continued to do 11 Mar-a-Lago. There was a gentleman who did some returns over 12 the years, Matthew Dapolito and, obviously, some of the 13 larger companies in the olden days. I don't remember 14 timeframe. Arthur Anderson did some returns, and, Ian Wise 15 did returns in the old days. 16 Q From 2011 to 2020, did anyone, other than Mazars, 17 prepare President Trump's tax returns? 18 A Entity returns? 19 Q President Trump's tax returns? 20 A His personal returns? 21 Q His personal returns. 22 A No. His personal income tax returns were prepared 23 by Mazars or its predecessor. 24 Q They were prepared by you at Mazars? 25 A 2020 yes, sir.

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 307 1 A That is either my signature, or an electronic copy 2 thereof. 3 Q Okay. And that's your letterhead down there, Mazars 4 USA, 60 Crossways Park Drive, in Woodbury, New York? 5 A Yes. 6 MR. SUAREZ: Can we turn to the next page of this 7 document? I think we skipped one. Come back. Next page. 8 Q All right. The first page is the cover, then you have 9 your independent accountant's compilation report. Is that 10 correct? 11 A Yes, sir. 12 MR. SUAREZ: And then, turn it over. 13 Q You have got the Statement of Financial Condition of 14 Donald J. Trump. 15 A That's the asset page. 16 Q And then there's reference there to the independent 17 accountant's compilation report. Do you see that? 18 A Yes, sir. 19 Q All right. And then, in the bottom it says, "The 20 accompanying notes are an integral part of this financial 21 statement." 22 A Yes, sir. 23 MR. SUAREZ: Turn it over. Next page, please. 24 Q Then the following sheet are the liabilities and net 25 worth. Do you see that?	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 309 1 A Yes, sir. 2 MR. SUAREZ: Now, keep going all the way to the 3 end of the document. This is the second to last page. 4 Flip it over. Keep going, to the end of the document. 5 Q And this would be the back page of the document; 6 correct? 7 A That would be the back cover. 8 Q The back cover of this document. So, this document 9 would be presented from front cover to back cover? 10 A Yes. 11 Q And the back cover, it's got -- what does it say down 12 there? www.weisermazars.com? 13 A Yes, sir. 14 Q So it's presented as a single document with the front 15 and the back page? 16 A So, I can't speak for this individual year. In the 17 older days, they were bound statements, and they would be bound. 18 There would be a cover and a cover, and there would be the white 19 pages that you have just shown me, would be in between. In 20 later years, I don't know. In 2016, they may only have been 21 PDF-ed. 22 Q Now, so this would all be bound, in other words? 23 A In the earlier years. 24 Q And in the later years, when it was an electronic 25 document like this one that you identified previously, it would
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 308 1 A Yes, sir. 2 Q And you see there it says that there's a loan related 3 to 40 Wall Street; do you not? 4 A Yes, sir. 5 Q You see it? 6 A Yes, sir. 7 Q And there's a loan related to Trump Park Avenue? 8 A Yes, sir. 9 Q And then there are other loans there related to the 10 Trump International Hotel and Tower, and the Old Post Office? 11 A Yes, sir. 12 Q In preparing the Statement of Financial Condition, you 13 would have done work to familiarize yourself with the loans that 14 are on this document? 15 A The Trump Organization would have supplied us a loan 16 statement for those individual loans, in most years. 17 Q A loan statement. And what would that loan statement 18 contain, Mr. Bender? 19 A The loan balance as of the date of the -- 20 Q Okay -- 21 MR. SUAREZ: Let's zoom back out, and keep going. 22 Q And here it's got the notes for the Statement of 23 Financial Condition, and again, a reference to the independent 24 accountant's compilation report. That's your report; correct, 25 Mr. Bender?	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 310 1 start with the WeiserMazars logo on its front page, it would 2 have your compilation report, it would go through the financial 3 statement and the notes, and then it would have this page; 4 correct. 5 A I can't speak to the fact that they might have gotten 6 hard copies in those years. 7 Q But the digital copy -- you would agree with me that 8 this is a true and correct copy of the documents; correct? I 9 think that's what you testified to earlier? 10 A Yes. 11 Q Yes it starts with a Mazars page, and ends with a 12 Mazars page? 13 A Starts with a cover, the bound the cover. The cover, 14 the statement, and it ends with a cover of the statement. 15 Q The documents all travel together. All the pages in 16 this document travel together. 17 A Yes. 18 Q Nothing is missing? 19 A No, sir. 20 Q Let's take a look at engagement letter for this 21 Statement of Financial Condition, which was PX 74 -- excuse me. 22 PX 740. Yes. 23 MR. SUAREZ: Can we put those up next to each 24 other? 25 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 312 1 A Mazars wrote the compilation report. 2 Q Mazars wrote the compilation report, but who is the 3 human being at Mazars responsible for writing the compilation 4 report on June 30, 2016? 5 A I had the ultimate responsibility. 6 Q You had the ultimate responsibility. And how about in 7 connection with the engagement letter? It might have been 8 prepared by one of your staff members, but you had the ultimate 9 responsibility for preparing that engagement letter; correct? 10 A Yes. Yes, sir. 11 Q Okay. And let's take a look at that engagement 12 letter. That engagement letter says, in the second page, right 13 there in the middle of the second page it says, "Our report will 14 include the following. Because of the significance and 15 pervasiveness of the matters discussed above --" 16 Excuse me. Let me repeat that. 17 "Because the significance and pervasiveness of the 18 matters discussed above make it difficult to assess their impact 19 on the Statements of Financial Condition, users of this personal 20 financial statement should recognize that they might reach 21 different conclusions about the financial condition of Donald J. 22 Trump if they had access to a revised Statement of Financial 23 Condition prepared in conformity with the accounting principles 24 generally accepted in the United States of America." 25 Do you see that?	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 314 1 G.A.A.P. exceptions, we had determined that we would need to put 2 that paragraph. 3 Q Due to the fact that it had so many G.A.A.P. 4 exceptions. Let's talk about the G.A.A.P. exceptions. You just 5 described them as, so many G.A.A.P. exceptions. Is the Trump 6 Organization required to comply with G.A.A.P.? 7 A Even the G.A.A.P. exceptions aren't complying with 8 G.A.A.P. You are notifying them. So, everybody is required, to 9 a certain extent, to comply with G.A.A.P. 10 Q That wasn't my question, Mr. Bender. My question was, 11 is there anything that required the Trump Organization to 12 maintain their books in accordance with G.A.A.P., as a private 13 company? 14 A To maintain their books as a private company? 15 Q G.A.A.P. 16 A No. 17 Q A private company doesn't have to follow G.A.A.P.; 18 correct? 19 THE COURT: It probably depends on -- and I'm not 20 an accountant -- what they're using it for. If they are 21 using it for external reasons, or internal reasons. So, 22 I'm just asking you to be more specific. 23 MR. SUAREZ: I will be mindful of that. 24 Q But there's nothing that requires a private company to 25 follow G.A.A.P.?

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 315 1 A No. A private company is not required to follow 2 G.A.A.P. 3 Q A private company is not required to follow G.A.A.P., 4 but it can choose to; correct? 5 A Yes. 6 Q Let's go to the statement above. "Accounting 7 principles generally accepted in the United States of America 8 require that personal financial statements include a provision 9 for current income taxes, as well as estimated income taxes, on 10 the differences between estimated current values --" 11 Excuse me. Let me start that again. 12 "Accounting principles generally accepted in the 13 United States of America require that personal financial 14 statements include a provision for current income taxes, as well 15 as estimated income taxes, on the difference between estimated 16 current values of assets, and the estimated current amounts of 17 liabilities, and their tax bases, present cash, marketable 18 securities, and hedge funds, separately, include amounts to be 19 received in the future from estimated current values that are 20 non-forfeitable, fixed and determinate, and do not require any 21 future services. 22 "Record the net --" 23 Excuse me. 24 "Record the current estimated value of all 25 closely-held and other business entities, as a net investment,"	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 317 1 A No, he is not. 2 Q Mr. McConney is not a CPA; is he? 3 A No, he is not. 4 Q How would Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney know what 5 G.A.A.P. exceptions should have been disclosed or not disclosed 6 in a Statement of Financial Condition? 7 A Mr. Weisselberg did not want these amounts included in 8 the financial statement, and there would have to be a G.A.A.P. 9 exception. Jeff McConney, as you said earlier, was a practicing 10 accountant at our predecessor firm. Very experienced, and he, 11 as I have said many times, he is one the best accountants I ever 12 met. 13 Q But you are the certified public accountant, 14 Mr. Bender? 15 A Yes, sir. 16 Q You are the one that the Trump Organization turned to 17 to determine what was a G.A.A.P. exception and what wasn't; 18 weren't you? 19 A No. They knew what they were signing, when they 20 signed their engagement letter. 21 Q Okay. The engagement letter that you prepared, that 22 you drafted? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Okay. They knew what they were signing. And who 25 advised them as to what they were signing on this engagement
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 316 1 open parentheses, "assets net of liabilities, and disclose 2 summarized financial information about each entity. Record 3 non-interest-bearing deposits in exchange for rights or 4 privileges, and include all assets and liabilities of the 5 individual whose financial statements are presented." 6 I think I roughly got that right. 7 A I think you did, too. 8 Q Okay. Thank you. 9 "The accompanying Statement of Financial Condition 10 does not reflect the above-noted items. The affects of these 11 departures from accounting principles, generally accepted in the 12 United States of America, have not been determined." 13 Correct? 14 A Yes, sir. That's what it says. 15 Q All right. So, in the first paragraph, you have 16 identified about a half a dozen ways in which these Statements 17 of Financial Condition do not comport to G.A.A.P.; correct? 18 A Yes, sir. 19 Q Who made the determination as to which departures from 20 G.A.A.P. were applicable? 21 A The Trump Organization. 22 Q Who, at the Trump Organization, made that 23 determination? 24 A Mr. Weisselberg, when he signed the engagement letter. 25 Q Mr. Weisselberg is not a CPA; is he?	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 318 1 letter, as it related to departures from G.A.A.P.? 2 A They read their engagement letters, and they came to 3 us with questions, if they had questions. 4 Q They had questions. And did you tell them that there 5 were other G.A.A.P. exceptions that weren't disclosed in this 6 statement? 7 A Not that I recall, at this moment. 8 Q You were aware, with the financial statements of the 9 Trump Organization; were you not? 10 A Yes, sir. 11 Q Okay. And you were very familiar with the books and 12 records. You prepared tax return for hundreds of entities; did 13 you not? 14 A Yes, I was. 15 Q You closed their ledgers every year; did you not? 16 A I gave them trial balances. I did not close their 17 books. 18 Q You were paid over a million dollars a year from the 19 period of 2011 to 2020, and in some instances more than 20 $2 million a year to provide accounting services for the Trump 21 Organization? 22 A That sounds possible. 23 Q That sounds possible. And you were the only certified 24 public accountant that was involved in any of this; were you 25 not, Mr. Bender?

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 319 1 MR. WALLACE: Objection, your Honor. 2 "Any of this," is unclear. 3 THE COURT: Thank you. 4 Sustained. 5 Q You were the only certified public accountant that was 6 involved in determining which exceptions to G.A.A.P. existed. 7 MR. WALLACE: Objection, your Honor That wasn't 8 his testimony. 9 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Say again? 10 MR. WALLACE: I'm saying that determining which 11 exceptions to G.A.A.P. existed was not Mr. Bender's 12 testimony. 13 Q You were the only certified public accountant that was 14 involved in 2016 in connection with the presentation of this 15 engagement letter in determining which exceptions to G.A.A.P. 16 existed? 17 MR. WALLACE: Same objection. 18 THE COURT: Overruled. 19 A I did not determine the G.A.A.P. exceptions. The 20 Trump Organizations determined the G.A.A.P. -- 21 Q The Trump Organization determined the G.A.A.P. 22 exceptions, is your testimony, Mr. Bender? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Mr. Weisselberg? Is he the one who determined the 25 G.A.A.P. exceptions?	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 321 1 Q You are a CPA? 2 A Yes, sir. 3 Q You were a CPA when you prepared this? 4 A Yes, sir. 5 Q Mr. Weisselberg was not a CPA? 6 A No, sir. 7 Q So, when you and Mr. Weisselberg had a discussion 8 about what departures from G.A.A.P. existed, you had the 9 knowledge of a certified public accountant that Mr. Weisselberg 10 did not? 11 A He had the knowledge of speaking to us, if he had any 12 questions. 13 Q And did you ever advise Mr. Weisselberg that there 14 were any other disclosure that should have been included as 15 departures from G.A.A.P.? 16 A Some of these ones, we did suggest to him. 17 Q You did? Which ones? 18 A We had discussions on, as I think I stated yesterday, 19 about the G.A.A.P. exception for cash and marketable securities. 20 When he made that change to the financial statement, we agreed 21 it would have to be a G.A.A.P. exception. 22 Q You agreed that it was a G.A.A.P. exception? 23 A Yes, I did. 24 Q You recommended that it should be a G.A.A.P. 25 exception?
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 320 1 A He is the ultimate one responsible. 2 Q Not my question. I didn't ask who is responsible. I 3 asked who determined what G.A.A.P. exceptions applied? 4 A The Trump Organization. 5 Q What individual? The Trump Organization, we agree, is 6 a corporate entity. It doesn't make determinations. It acts 7 through people; right? 8 A Excuse me? 9 Q Trump Organization acts through people. Companies 10 don't make decisions. 11 THE COURT: I'll take judicial notice that 12 corporations and businesses generally have to act through 13 their personnel. 14 Q So, who was the person at the Trump Organization that 15 determined what departures from G.A.A.P. were appropriate to 16 list in the Statements of Financial Condition? 17 A Ultimately, Mr. Weisselberg. 18 Q Ultimately, Mr. Weisselberg. And who did 19 Mr. Weisselberg consult with? 20 A You would have to ask him that. 21 Q Did Mr. Weisselberg consult with you? 22 A On certain G.A.A.P. exceptions, he might have. 23 Q Because you were a CPA? 24 A You would have to ask him. That's the reason he 25 consulted with me.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 322 1 A I don't know if we recommended it. It could have been 2 prepared, they prepared the statement without a G.A.A.P. 3 exception. 4 Q It was changed to your satisfaction; was it not? 5 A The -- what was changed to my satisfaction? 6 Q The manner in which they presented it. 7 A With the G.A.A.P. exception, it met the -- it was 8 appropriate. 9 Q So, you suggested, to Mr. Weisselberg, a G.A.A.P. 10 exception, and it was accepted, and it was incorporated in the 11 Statement of Financial Conditions? 12 A That's not what I'm saying. I'm saying, based on 13 discussions we would have had with them, we told them we agreed 14 that this G.A.A.P. exception would be required, if they wanted 15 the financial statement presented the way they had drafted it. 16 Q And they agreed? 17 A They agreed. 18 Q On your advice? 19 A Not on our advice. 20 Q Not your advice. 21 A They -- 22 Q -- independently, that's your testimony? 23 A They determined that. 24 Q Okay. 25 A They drafted the financial statement, and one of those

1 wanted at the time -- there was a discussion --
2 MR. WALLACE: I would just like to note my
3 objection, that if he could let the witness answer the 4 questions before he starts the next question, we would
5 appreciate it.
6 THE COURT: That is the proper way to proceed.
7 MR. SUAREZ: I will try. I will do.
8 Q In fact, when you suggested other changes to the Trump
9 Organization, when you had discussions about things that you
10 believed were appropriate, they generally heeded your advice?
11 A I didn't suggest changes, but there was one other
12 change that they -- they wanted -- they did, in the preparation
13 of their financial statements that I recall, that would have 14 required a G.A.A.P. exception, and there was a discussion about 15 it.
16 Q There was a discussion about it?
17 A Yes.
18 Q So, when you raised an issue with the Trump
19 Organization's compliance with G.A.A.P., there was a discussion
20 about it?
21 A We talked to them about the G.A.A.P. exception. Yes, 22 sir.
23 Q And it was resolved to your satisfaction?
24 A It was resolved to my satisfaction.
25 Q In fact, I believe yesterday you testified that

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 324

1 whenever you resolved a G.A.A.P. exception, whenever you raised
2 a G.A.A.P. exception to the Trump Organization, it was general
3 resolved to your satisfaction; was it not?
4 A I only recall these two G.A.A.P. exceptions, at this
5 point, that I ever had discussions with them.
6 Q You brought up G.A.A.P. exceptions yesterday, that you
7 had a conversation with the Trump Organization about, and they
8 were resolved to your satisfaction?
9 A They agreed that the G.A.A.P. exception would have to 10 be shown in the independent compilation report, and to the notes
11 to the financial statement.
12 Q Because if you would have -- I'm sorry. If it
13 wouldn't have been resolved your satisfaction, you would have 14 been required to withdraw?
15 A We. Would not have issued a financial statement, if 16 it was not resolved.
17 Q But you did, because the concerns that you raised were 18 resolved, to your satisfaction?
19 A Yes, sir.
20 Q Okay.
21 MR. SUAREZ: Let's bring up the management
22 representation letter from that same year, previously
23 marked plaintiff's Exhibit 741.
24 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed
25 to the witness.)

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 325

1 Q Mr. Bender, who drafted this letter?
2 A Mazars.
3 Q Mazars prepared the management representation letter
4 that's here on the screen?
5 A We drafted it. Yes, sir.
6 Q Okay. And you drafted it, because this is something
7 that you wanted; correct?
8 A Yes, sir.
9 Q You wanted this piece of paper?
10 A Yes, sir.
11 Q And you are the one that put the words on the page
12 here; correct?
13 A A member of Mazars. Yes.
14 Q A member of Mazars. And that would be a member of 15 Mazars working under your supervision; would it not be?
16 A Yes.
17 Q And that member of Mazars working under your 18 supervision, in the year 2017, would have typed out this letter?
19 A Somebody in typing would have typed it. Yes.
20 Q And it would have been sent over to the Trump
21 Organization?
22 A Yes.
23 Q And you would have asked the Trump Organization to 24 sign it?
25 A They would have reviewed it. If they had questions,

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 326

1 they would have come back to us, and we would have discussed any
2 issues on the draft that would be necessary, and if there was a
3 change, we would discuss it.
4 Q Does this management representation letter that was 5 prepared at your direction contain the word appraisal anywhere
6 in it?
7 A I would have to read the whole letter.
8 Q Please read it. It was prepared at your direction.
9 THE COURT: Is there some way to short circuit
10 him reading three pages?
11 MR. SUAREZ: They're his words, your Honor, and 12 I'm asking -- I know --
13 Q The word appraisal, I don't believe, appears anywhere
14 here, Mr. Bender; does it?
15 A I have to read the letter.
16 THE COURT: Does anybody think that the word
17 appraisal appears in this letter?
18 Let's assume it doesn't.
19 Mr. Bender, are you comfortable with that?
20 THE WITNESS: I'm comfortable, your Honor.
21 THE COURT: We want you to be comfortable.
22 Q Nowhere in this letter does the Trump Organization
23 warrant to you that it's given you every appraisal that they 24 have.
25 A In item three, "We have made available to you all

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 327 1 financial records and related data, and any additional 2 information you requested from us, for the purpose of this 3 compilation." 4 Q Okay. 5 A "We have not knowingly withheld from you any financial 6 record or related data that, in our judgment, would be relevant 7 to your compilation." 8 Q It doesn't say they have given you appraisals. 9 A It says they made available to us, "All financial 10 records and related data, for the purpose of compilation. We 11 have not knowingly withheld any financial records." 12 In my opinion, that includes appraisals. 13 Q That, in your opinion, includes appraisals. You wrote 14 this letter. Why didn't you use the word, appraisals? 15 A This is pretty much standard language. 16 Q It's standard language. And this letter was signed 17 by? 18 A Allen Weisselberg and Donald Trump, Jr. 19 Q Neither of which is a CPA? 20 A No, sir. 21 Q So they should have inferred, from the language that 22 you wrote, in the letter that you wrote and sent to them, and 23 asked them to sign, that that included that you wanted to see 24 appraisals? 25 A I think they should have understood that, yes.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 329 1 Q This was not your job, to explain to them, that's 2 something that you wanted? 3 A Mr. Weisselberg understood what -- accounting. 4 Mr. McConney has a lot of expertise in -- 5 Q But they weren't certified public accountants, and you 6 never explained it to them, and you wrote this letter, not them. 7 MR. WALLACE: Objection. Compound question. 8 THE COURT: Sustained. 9 And I hope that the reporter got that. Weren't, 10 not, they were. 11 MS. HABBA: She did. 12 MR. SUAREZ: Let's pull up the Jeff Supporting 13 Data for this particular year. That was PX 742. Is that 14 right, PX 742? Yes. PX 742. 15 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 16 to the witness.) 17 Q This was the Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet. This 18 was what was sent to you; correct, Mr. Bender? 19 A This is the final version that we used for the 20 compilation of Mr. Trump's 2016 Statement of Financial 21 Condition. 22 Q PBC. Prepared by client? 23 A Yes. 24 Q True or not true? 25 A Yes.
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 328 1 Q But you never said that to Allen Weisselberg? 2 A I never discussed it with Allen Weisselberg. 3 Q And you certainly never said it to Donald Trump, 4 Junior; did you? But based on your own letter that you wrote, 5 your words, and asked them to signed, you believe that they 6 should have concluded that needed to give you appraisals? 7 A Absolutely. 8 Q Why didn't you tell them? 9 A To me, financial data, I think it's included, 10 appraisals. 11 Q But that's not what it says. We can agree on that? 12 A That's not what it says. 13 Q Was Donald Trump, Jr. capable of determining which 14 G.A.A.P. exceptions should have been included in a Statement of 15 Financial Condition? 16 A I think he would have needed to rely on Jeff McConney 17 and Allen Weisselberg. 18 Q So he should have relied on the two guys that weren't 19 CPA's? 20 A He should have relied on his CFO and his controller, 21 yes. 22 Q Should he have relied on their outside accounting 23 firm? 24 A It was not my job to -- they -- in-house reviewed it, 25 and if they had any questions, they could have come back to us.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 330 1 Q Okay. That's what you said that meant; right? 2 A Yes, sir. 3 Q All right. So, this is what they sent you? 4 A This is -- they may have made changes, as I previously 5 stated. They sent it to us, and then they would send us updated 6 copies, and updated copies, and this is what their final version 7 would have been. 8 Q Okay. So this is the supporting data that you used to 9 prepare your compilation report; correct? 10 A This is the supporting data I used to compile the 11 compilation. 12 Q Okay. To compile the compilation? 13 A Yes. 14 Q Which is different, in your mind, from preparing the 15 compilation report? 16 A Yes. 17 Q How is that different? 18 A A preparation is a different level of accounting 19 services than a compilation. I just want to make sure that I 20 was using the right language. 21 Q Okay. 22 MR. SUAREZ: Now, scroll up here. Can we just 23 scroll through this compilation report, from top to bottom, 24 so we can see all the facts and figures that are included? 25 Q You would agree, Mr. McConney, that you were required

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 331 1 to review all of these notes in connection with preparing your 2 compilation report? 3 A I'm Mr. Bender, not Mr. McConney. 4 Q I'm sorry. Bender. 5 A We were not hired to review this. We were hired to 6 compile these. 7 Q All right. 8 A These financial statements. 9 Q Were you required to read it? 10 A We did read it. 11 Q Not we, Mr. Bender. You did you read this document? 12 A Did I read the whole document? I presumably -- I 13 can't answer if I read the whole document. 14 Q You can't answer whether you read the whole document? 15 A Yes. 16 Q Okay. The Statement of Financial Condition of the 17 President of the United States, and you can't answer if you read 18 the whole document. Is that right? 19 A I can't answer, today, that I read every line. 20 Q So let's scroll down to the triplex. 21 (Continued on the next page.) 22 23 24 25	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 333 1 MR. SUAREZ: Let's go back to the other side 2 here. 3 Q Do you see here where it goes from "triplex based on 4 comps from TIR sales office 30,000 square feet @ 10,900 a 5 square foot?" 6 A Yes. 7 Q Triplex based -- 8 THE COURT: Triplex. 9 Q Triplex based on comps from 432 Park? 10 A Yes. 11 Q Did you read that? 12 A I don't know if I read that. 13 Q You don't know if you read that? This is for the 14 2017 Statement of Financial Condition when were you compiling 15 the Statement of Financial Condition for the President of the 16 United States, Mr. Bender; is that not the case? 17 A Yes, sir. 18 Q The square footage of the triplex changes? 19 THE COURT: What is a triplex? 20 MR. SUAREZ: The triplex, sorry, your Honor. 21 The triplex. 22 A Yes. 23 Q Did you see that it changes there? 24 A I see it changed. 25 Q You see that it changed?
D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 332 1 MR. SUAREZ: May I approach the screen? 2 THE COURT: Ten-minute warning. 3 Q See where it says here "triplex based on comps from 4 TIR sales office 30,000 SF @ $10,900 a square foot?" 5 A Yes. 6 Q Is that something you read? 7 A I couldn't tell you if I read it back then, no. 8 Q Is that something you understood? 9 A I understand it today. 10 Q You understand it today but you can't tell me if you 11 read it back when you were preparing the Statements of 12 Financial Condition report? Yes or no? 13 Did you read it back then? 14 A I did not. I was not the person. I did not do all 15 the work in 2016 financial statement. I had staff working on 16 it. I do not know if I read every word of the worksheet. 17 Q Okay. Let's pull up the 2017 compilation report. 18 Let's pull up the supporting data. Jeff Supporting Data from 19 2017 PX-758. Let's go down to the triplex again. 20 THE COURT: I think it's pronounced tri-plex. 21 MR. SUAREZ: In Florida, it's try-plex 22 MR. WALLACE: There's a dispute from plaintiff's 23 team. 24 MS. HABBA: It's tri-plex. 25 MR. WALLACE: This divides many people.	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 334 1 A Today I see it changed. 2 Q Did you ever pick up the phone and say, to the 3 President of the United States, your triplex just got cut by 4 2/3? 5 A I did not. I have no independent memory -- we 6 missed it. 7 Q You missed it? 8 A Yes. 9 Q You missed it? 10 A Yes. 11 Q President Trump hired you to prepare a compilation 12 from the Statement of Financial Condition for the Leader of 13 the Free World and you missed it? 14 A Yes, sir. 15 Q You never picked up the phone and said, sorry, I 16 missed it? 17 A Didn't have his phone number but we missed it. 18 Q You missed it. You never said, hey, there's an error 19 here or, hey, 2/3 of your triplex just disappeared, did you? 20 A No, sir. 21 Q Do you think that's something President Trump would 22 have wanted to know? 23 A I can't answer what -- 24 Q Do you think that's something -- 25 THE COURT: Let him answer.

1 A I can't tell you what Mr. Trump wanted to know.
2 Q Do you think that is something that President Trump,
3 who relied on you, who relied on Mazars, who was loyal to you
4 for all those years, would have wanted to know?
5 MR. WALLACE: Objection at this point.
6 Testifying about what Mr. Trump relied on and wanted.
7 THE COURT: Overruled. I'll allow it one more
8 time. Go ahead. You want to ask it again?
9 MR. SUAREZ: Yes.
10 THE COURT: Go ahead.
11 Q Do you think the Leader of the Free World would have 12 wanted to know that you had been given information that his 13 triplex apartment had been stated at a different square
14 footage and reduced by 2/3 in the year 2017?
15 Do you think that is something that the man who
16 paid you millions of dollars a year would have wanted to know?
17 A I can't speak for Mr. Trump.
18 Q Okay. Let me ask you, if we go back to 753,
19 Exhibit 753. In Exhibit 753, you made a promise to Mr. Trump 20 in your engagement letter, were you promised that your 21 engagement cannot be relied upon to identify or disclose any 22 financial misstatements, including those caused by fraud or 23 error, or to identify or disclose any wrongdoing or 24 noncompliance with laws and regulations. However, we will
25 inform you of material errors and any evidence or information

1 that comes to our attention during the performance of our
2 procedures that fraud may have occurred.
3 Do you think that 2/3 of his townhouse
4 disappearing, of the triplex disappearing, from 2017 to 2018
5 is not something that you should have said to the Leader of 6 the Free World?
7 A Did not come to our attention.
8 Q It did not come to your attention? Oops. Sorry, I
9 screwed it up?
10 MR. WALLACE: Objection at this point. That's 11 not a question.
12 Q Mr. Bender --
13 THE COURT: Just questions, not commentary.
14 A We didn't screw it up. The Trump Organization made
15 a mistake, and, we didn't catch it.
16 Q You didn't catch it?
17 A The Trump Organization --
18 Q You didn't catch it in '18. You didn't catch it in 19 '19. You didn't catch it in '20. All those years, you didn't 20 catch it, you never came to him and said, sorry,
21 Mr. President. I made a mistake. I didn't catch it.
22 All of those years, millions of dollars in fees
23 later and you didn't catch it?
24 MR. WALLACE: Objection. We covered this ground
25 multiple times now.

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 337

1 THE COURT: We only have four more minutes.
2 Q It goes to the heart of the case. This was someone
3 that -- I am emotional about it because it's not funny because 4 the Leader of the Free World, who was keeping us safe, who was 5 keeping this county safe, relied on you, Mr. Bender, not to 6 screw this up, and, you screwed it up?
7 A No, I did not.
8 Q Okay. You just missed it?
9 A We were engaged to do a compilation and the 10 compilation, as we discussed earlier, does not require us to 11 outline the compilations and we met our compilation, what was 12 required for a compilation.
13 Q You met all that was required for the compilation and 14 that includes missing 20,000 square feet is something that was 15 not required for you to disclose to your client?
16 A If you-- we missed it.
17 Q You missed it. Now, he's sitting here today, his 18 company is going through hell. Tens of thousands of employees
19 are going through hell because you missed it?
20 MR. WALLACE: Objection.
21 A No, because they put the wrong number. They 22 misrepresented the numbers on their data.
23 Q You never called and told him about it?
24 A We did not.
25 Q When you went to the White House -- you went to the

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 338

1 White House, right? He invited your son to the White House.
2 You mentioned to him, hey, we missed it?
3 MR. WALLACE: At this point, can he please let
4 the witness answer the question he is asking?
5 THE COURT: He's already answered it. So, I
6 don't know if that matters. Counselor, I think he's 7 already said he did not tell them. So, you don't have to 8 ask him whether he did not tell them when he was at The 9 White House. He said he didn't tell them.
10 Q Was making this mistake the reason Mazars forced you
11 to retire?
12 A No.
13 Q You were planning to retire anyway?
14 A The partnership agreement of Mazars requires you to 15 retire at 65.
16 Q That's why you went to the President mortified?
17 That's why you went and apologized for having made this 18 mistake?
19 MR. WALLACE: Objection. If he wants to include 20 something about a conversation of Mr. Bender and the 21 President, he can ask a question about it. He cannot 22 testify.
23 THE COURT: Considering this is 24 cross-examination, obviously -- I'll leave it at that.
25 MR. WALLACE: Can I at least raise a foundation

1 objection?
2 THE COURT: Overruled.
3 Q So, Mr. Bender.
4 MR. SUAREZ: Yes, sir?
5 THE COURT: So, you'll ask it again or you'll --
6 MR. SUAREZ: It's been asked. Overruled. I
7 don't know. Does he have anything to say for himself?
8 MR. WALLACE: Objection.
9 THE COURT: You can't ask him does he have
10 anything to say for himself.
11 MR. SUAREZ: In response to the last question,
12 you overruled the objection. He's sitting there.
13 Q You missed it.
14 A I never went to Mr. Trump mortified. I was never 15 mortified.
16 Q You lost your biggest client, the client that 17 literally made your entire professional reputation, Mr.
18 Bender. Your entire identity was being the big accountant for 19 the powerful Trump Organization for the President of the 20 United States and you blew it.
21 MR. WALLACE: Objection.
22 THE COURT: Sustained.
23 Q Let's get into 2017 then.
24 THE COURT: Two-minute warning.
25 Q PX-755 let's see what else. This is the compilation

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 340

1 report for 2017, Mr. Bender. Mazars, that's your logo on the
3 A Yes, sir.
4 Q Okay. It's not the Trump Organization logo?
5 A No, sir.
6 Q They're not the ones taking credit for this, you are?
7 A Mazars compiled the financial statement.
8 Q You know, Mr. Bender, what I think bears repeating
9 for the Court. The Jeff spreadsheets weren't attached to this 10 document that went between the two Mazars logos, right?
11 A No, sir.
12 Q No. It was just the Statement of Financial Condition
13 and your compilation report, correct?
14 A Yes, sir.
15 Q And the notes?
16 A Notes are considered part of the accountant's --
17 notes are considered part of the Statement of Financial 18 Condition.
19 Q The notes that are considered part of the Statement
20 of Financial Condition are also discussed in your accountant's
21 compilation report, correct?
22 A Repeat the question, please.
23 Q The notes that form part of a Statement of Financial 24 Condition are also referenced in your independent accounting
25 compilation report; are they not?

1 A I'm just checking. Yes, they are.
2 Q Yes, they are.
3 THE COURT: Okay. We're going to break for the 4 day. We'll resume tomorrow at 10:00 we have to take
5 care of some housekeeping matters right now and my law
6 clerk has a question.
7 MS. GREENFIELD: Sorry. To make sure we're on
8 track, which witnesses, besides continuing with Mr.
9 Bender, do we intend to call tomorrow?
10 MR. WALLACE: I believe the next witness is 11 Cameron Harris from the Whitley Penn accounting firm and 12 then, I believe, Jeff McConney will come after him.
13 MR. GREENFIELD: Thank you.
14 MR. KISE: To be clear, we don't need Mr.
15 McConney here tomorrow morning? We'll continue with the 16 cross tomorrow.
17 MR. WALLACE: Up to you guys. I don't think 18 Mr. Harris will be here very long for our direct but on 19 the cross-examination of Mr. Harris and the continued
20 cross-examination of Mr. Bender --
21 MR. KISE: We'll work that out. We want to make 22 sure your witnesses are here.
23 THE COURT: Okay. Thanks, everyone.

25 2023 at 10:00 a.m.)

1 THE COURT: If this was Broadway, we'd be having
2 a long run here. I think we're getting the photographers.
3 (Photos taken.)
4 THE COURT: They do this every day. I mean,
5 they look the same.
6 Is the defense going to recall Donald Bender?
7 MR. SUAREZ: Yes, sir.
8 THE COURT: It's a little confusing. There are 9 two Donald's. Okay, let's get him in.
10 MR. SUAREZ: Good morning, your Honor.
11 THE COURT: Good morning.
12 MR. SUAREZ: I've taken heed to a request to 13 speak more slowly today. I also understand that it's 14 pronounced, in the great State of New York, triplex.
15 MR. KISE: In the south, it's just called 16 apartment.
17 THE COURT: Chris, do you have triplexes down
18 there?
19 MR. KISE: That's why it's called an apartment,
20 no.
21 THE COURT: Welcome to New York City.
22 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom.)
23 THE COURT: I'll remind the witness, as I always 24 do, that he's still under oath.
25 THE WITNESS: Thank you, your Honor.

4 please proceed.
5 CROSS-EXAMINATION (Cont'd)
6 BY MR. SUAREZ:
7 Q Mr. Bender, good morning.
8 A Good morning.
9 Q Yesterday we were taking a look at Plaintiff's
10 Exhibit 758; and, I just wanted to thank you for acknowledging
11 the mistake, the change in value of the triplex from 327
12 million to 116 million.
13 MR. SUAREZ: If you can please pull up the 2016
14 and 2017 Statements of Financial Condition.
15 Q I just wanted to walk you, Mr. Bender, through both 16 statements, the June 30, 2016 statement, Plaintiff's
17 Exhibit 756 with Mazars and WeiserMazars logo on the front
18 page and then Plaintiff's Exhibit 755, which is the Statement
19 of Financial Condition, Mazars USA logo on the bottom.
20 Mr. Bender, between 2016 and 2017, I take it,
21 Mazars stopped using the WeiserMazars and just started
22 referring to Mazars?
23 A Yes, our name changed many times over the years.
24 Q If you can please go to the next page, on both 25 documents. The 2016 Statement of Financial Condition was dated March 10, 2017; is that correct?
A Yes, sir.

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 346 1 Q Just a few months later, in October of 2017, the same 2 year, the 2017 Statement of Financial Condition was issued. 3 Is that your signature there on October 30, 4 2017? 5 A It's either mine or electronic copy thereof. 6 Q Okay. This was a particularly interesting year 7 because President Trump assumed the Presidency on January of 8 2017, correct? 9 A Yes, sir. 10 Q And for that reason, there was an understandable 11 delay producing the compilation report for the 2016 Statement 12 of Financial Condition? 13 A You'd have to confirm that with the Trump 14 Organization. It was just a guess yesterday. 15 Q You would agree the Trump Organization, on its own, 16 changed the value of the triplex. It wasn't prompted by 17 anybody to do it? 18 A It wasn't prompted by Mazars. 19 Q Okay. Moving on. Did you have an opportunity last 20 night to speak to anybody about your testimony? 21 A I spoke to counsel last night. 22 Q Did you speak to anyone from the New York Attorney 23 General's Office? 24 A No, sir. 25 Q Did your counsel speak to anyone from the New York	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 348 1 agree. 2 MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge. 3 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, we're providing the 4 Attorney General's Office a copy of an exhibit we're 5 going to use solely for impeachment. It bears the Bates 6 labeled Mazars DANY GJS 0003106, and, I'd like to ask Mr. 7 Bender if he recognizes this document. 8 THE WITNESS: Are we finished with this one? 9 MR. SUAREZ: You can set that down. 10 THE WITNESS: Thank you. Thank you. 11 A Yes, I recognize it. 12 Q All right. You see this is a Weiser Engagement 13 Continuance Form? 14 A Yes, sir. 15 Q What does this document represent? 16 A This is a part of our client acceptance process, 17 client continuance process in this case. 18 Q This was for Statement of Financial Condition 19 prepared June 30, 2011. You see on the right-hand corner date 20 of financial statement? 21 A I guess so, yes. 22 Q Okay. Do you see where it says "partner"? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Is that your name, Donald Bender? 25 A Yes.
D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 347 1 Attorney General's Office? 2 A You'd have to speak to them. 3 Q Are you aware if your counsel spoke to anyone from 4 the New York Attorney General's Office? 5 A I don't recall any conversation with counsel last 6 night. 7 Q All right. Moving on. Yesterday -- 8 MR. SUAREZ: Let's pull up the testimony from 9 yesterday. 10 Q We had a discussion about whether you were the 11 relationship partner in charge of the Trump Organization when 12 Weiser merged into Mazars, correct? 13 A Yes, sir. 14 Q You told me there was a gentleman named Gerry 15 Rosenblum that was the partner in charge for a period of time? 16 A For a number of years. 17 Q Okay, for a number of years. 18 MR. SUAREZ: Let's pull up the 2011 engagement 19 report. 20 MR. KISE: Just to make a record observation. 21 Sorry. I want to be clear, the fact they were pointing 22 to documents that are in evidence now doesn't waive our 23 objection as to the Statute of Limitations. I mean, 24 we're working with the record as it exists. 25 THE COURT: All right. I understand and I	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 349 1 Q Is Mr. Rosenblum's name on there? 2 A No, sir. 3 MR. SUAREZ: Let's pull up the 2012. Your Honor, 4 I will move this document into evidence solely for 5 impeachment purposes. 6 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence solely 7 for impeachment purposes. 8 MR. WALLACE: As we're evaluating whether this 9 comes in for impeachment, what is the testimony this was 10 impeaching? Can you give us a specific date? 11 THE COURT: And who was the partner? 12 MR. SUAREZ: At the time, Gerry Rosenblum. 13 MR. WALLACE: I wanted to see the date. 14 MR. SUAREZ: He said at the time of the Mazars 15 transition and we'll move now to Mazar's years when Gerry 16 Rosenblum -- 17 MR. WALLACE: I'm not sure that it established 18 how this impeaches his testimony. 19 MR. SUAREZ: Mr. Bender testified yesterday that 20 at the time that Weiser merged into Mazars, Gerry 21 Rosenblum was the partner in charge of the Trump 22 Organization. The Engagement Continuance Reports showed 23 that Mr. Bender is the only person listed as a partner in 24 connection with the engagement in these reports for the 25 Trump Organization.

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 350 1 MR. WALLACE: I guess I wasn't aware of when 2 this merger was or what the date is and so how this is 3 impeaching -- 4 MR. SUAREZ: We're getting there. It's got 5 Weiser. I'm showing 2012, which will show the dates that 6 Mr. Bender is the only one on there. 2016 will show only 7 Mr. Bender on there. 8 MR. WALLACE: I understand it's impeaching the 9 statement at the time, I guess, of the merger. I'll 10 confess for the record, I did not know when that merger 11 occurred and why this document impeaches his prior 12 testimony. 13 THE COURT: Just to give perspective on this, 14 there's no jury here. I don't think it matters that much 15 whether somebody was the lead partner or is not the lead 16 partner, who signed it. I think it's easiest just to 17 move on. 18 MR. WALLACE: I'm happy to move on. My objection 19 is overruled, I guess, your Honor. 20 THE COURT: Take a hint. 21 MR. SUAREZ: This is now WeiserMazars engagement 22 continuance report, your Honor; and, the Engagement 23 Continuance Report that I would like to show the witness 24 for impeachment purposes, relates to the financial 25 statement dated June 30, 20127, and I'd like to ask the	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 352 1 name and we merged about 23 years ago. 2 At that time we merged, I was a junior partner 3 in the firm, and, Gerry Rosenblum was the senior partner at 4 the firm. 5 Q At what time was Mr. Rosenblum the partner in charge 6 of President Trump's account? 7 A I couldn't tell you -- it started, he was 8 probably -- he was. I was not senior partner of the firm 9 until 13, 14 years ago. He was still more the senior than me 10 in the firm, but, I would say I probably took over somewhere 11 about 20 years ago as the lead partner from -- I was still 12 considered the lead partner on the account but he was the 13 senior partner, and I was still junior partner in the firm. 14 Q You were the lead partner in the account and 15 Mr. Rosenblum was senior to you? 16 A Mr. Rosenblum, when we merged, was senior partner 17 and in charge of the account. A number of years later, he 18 transferred a lot of the work to me, but, he was still senior 19 partner, and I was junior partner of the firm. 20 Q But you were the partner in charge? 21 A We shared it together for a number of years, but, it 22 was, you know, we co-shared the work. 23 Q You co-shared the client, but, to be sure, in 2011, 24 Mr. Rosenblum wasn't your copartner on this engagement? 25 A No, sir.
D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 351 1 witness if he recognizes this document. 2 THE COURT: You're being asked if you recognize 3 that document. 4 THE WITNESS: I don't have the document in front 5 of me. 6 (Hanging.) 7 A Thank you. Yes, I do. 8 Q Do you see who the partner that's listed for this 9 engagement is? 10 A Yes. 11 Q You see where the client is? 12 A Yes, I do. 13 Q Who is the client? 14 A Donald J. Trump. 15 Q Who is the partner? 16 A I am. 17 Q Okay. Does this refresh your recollection as to 18 whether you or Mr. Rosenblum were in charge of the account at 19 the time that Weiser merged into Mazars? 20 A Okay. So, to make everybody understand, Weiser has 21 had five different names. We merged about 22 to 25 years 22 ago. I think about 23 years ago. Our original name-- excuse 23 me if I miss any-- was MRWeiser then I think we became Weiser 24 LLP, then we became WeiserMazars, and then we did Mazars USA. 25 It's all the same firm. We just changed our	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 353 1 Q Nor was he in 2012? 2 A No. 3 MR. SUAREZ: Let's pull up 2016. Your Honor, I 4 would move this into evidence for impeachment purposes 5 solely. 6 THE COURT: The Attorney General just told me 7 they have no objection. 8 MR. WALLACE: Certainly not on Statute of 9 Limitations, your Honor. 10 Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. Bender? 11 A Can I see the original, please? 12 MR. SUAREZ: This document has been premarked by 13 defendants as Exhibit 949. 14 Q The Mazars logo up top? 15 A Please let me read it. 16 Q Take your time. 17 A Thank you. 18 Q Do you recognize this document? 19 A Yes, I do. 20 Q What is this document? 21 A This is the Engagement Continuance Form for the 22 Trump Organization for 2016. 23 Q Okay. Who's the partner in charge here? 24 A I am. 25 Q Who's the manager?

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 354 1 A Jennifer Safran. 2 Q Who's Jennifer Safran? 3 A My senior manager and later became partner. 4 Q Then she became your partner? 5 A Yes. 6 THE COURT: Counsels, let's have a real quick 7 side-bar. As I like to call it, front bar. 8 (Side-bar discussion held off the record.) 9 Q Mr. Bender, in connection with this document, I'd 10 just like to give you an opportunity to refresh your 11 recollection. The page bearing Mazars DANY GKS 01201998. 12 What you have in front of you. 13 Do you see that, 01998? 14 A Yes, sir. 15 MR. WALLACE: We want to note our objection is 16 that he's refreshing his recollection for a document that 17 he hasn't established that he doesn't have a recollection 18 to be -- 19 THE COURT: That is the rule. You can't refresh 20 a recollection if the person doesn't recollect. 21 Q Mr. Bender, yesterday I asked you how many 22 engagements the Trump Organization-- you had done for the 23 Trump Organization over the years and you weren't quite sure 24 if it was 11,000 or another number? 25 A Yes, sir.	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 356 1 A That's fair. 2 Q Then I'd like to scroll through so the Court can see 3 and see if we can refresh your recollection, Mr. Bender. 4 Over the first 16 pages, there's about two dozen 5 entities on each page, maybe more. These were all entities 6 that you and WeiserMazars provided accounting services for 7 just in the year on 2016; is that correct? 8 A Yes, sir. 9 Q So, would you agree with me, roughly, that over, I 10 don't know-- what's the math? Twenty-five, twenty-four 11 entities per page, over 16 pages? 12 A Approximately. 13 Q Do you know what that math works out to? 14 A 203. 15 Q 203? 16 A Could be. I'm on my phone. Roughly, 200. 17 Q Roughly, 200 entities. All right, 200 entities in 18 one year that you provided engagements for; is that correct? 19 A Yes, sir. 20 Q You provided work for the Trump Organization for a 21 period of 30 years? 22 A Yes, sir. 23 Q Does that refresh your recollection as to how many 24 separate individual engagements you may have undertaken for 25 the Trump Organization?
D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 355 1 Q I'd like to run through the WeiserMazars LLP work in 2 process realization, by client, for the Trump Organization 3 from January 1, 2016, to December 31, 2016, which starts on 4 page one of sixteen. 5 I'd like you, Mr. Bender, to note the number of 6 entities, different entities controlled by the Trump 7 Organization that are listed here in the first page. I would 8 ask you if these were all entities that you provided services 9 for in the year 2016? 10 A These are all entities that Mazars provided services 11 for. Some of them on this page might be independent 12 condominium associations that were not controlled by the 13 Trump Organization but these are all entities that were work 14 that Mazars worked on or somebody worked on in 2016. 15 Q These were all grouped here January 11, 2017 DJT-1, 16 Donald J. Trump, Bender. 17 That grouping would mean that these were all the 18 entities that you considered were part of the client group for 19 President Trump, correct? 20 A These are all clients that we considered as one 21 billing group for accounting purposes. 22 Q As one billing group. You'd agree with me on this 23 page there's at least-- and by no means do I want to spend the 24 Court's time counting each of these, but, there's at least two 25 dozen entities on this page?	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 357 1 A In the early years, I only worked on one engagement, 2 Trump Equitable Fifth Avenue. I didn't work on these other 3 engagements. 4 When Mr. Trump's business was strong, the 5 number of entities that were being performed, I don't 6 remember, somewhere between 50 to 100 entities a year. 7 So, I didn't work on earlier years. Earlier 8 years most of these entities didn't exist. 9 Q So, in 2016 you did your work for over 200 10 entities -- 11 MR. ROBERT: I'm having a difficult time 12 hearing. I can't understand. 13 THE COURT: Mr. Bender, right into it. Slowly. 14 Q In the year 2016 there were, at least, over 200 15 entities that you were performing services for President Trump 16 and the Trump Organization? 17 A Yes, sir. Including outside entities but he didn't 18 control. 19 Q That were all grouped under -- 20 A For billing purposes. 21 Q All right. We'll continue going through there all 22 the way to page 16. 23 So, Mr. Bender, and the Court, can see all of 24 the different entities that Mr. Bender provided work for 25 grouped under President Trump's billing code. We can stop

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 358 1 here. 2 This is for the period of January 1, 2016 to 3 December 31, 2016, Mr. Bender? 4 A Yes, sir. 5 Q There you can see that, at the bottom, the partner 6 total, partner total would be for you, correct, Mr. Bender? 7 A Most of it, maybe not all of it. 8 Q There's no other partner listed in this engagement, 9 correct? 10 A Some of the partners might have billed more. 11 Q No other partner's name appears there where it says 12 "Bender"? 13 A Yes. 14 Q Not some other partner? 15 A No. 16 Q So, you're the partner on this document? 17 A Yes, sir. 18 Q "Partner: 2.77 million." You see that down there, 19 "production"? 20 A Yes, sir. 21 Q Then you see "Billing: 1.9 million?" 22 A Yes, sir. 23 Q Does this refresh your recollection as to how much 24 money you billed the Donald J. Trump billing group in the year 25 2016?	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 360 1 see who prepared it. 2 MR. WALLACE: At this point, can we note an 3 objection to relevance. I'm not sure how this relates to 4 any issue that needs to be decided in this case. 5 THE COURT: Offer of proof. What is this 6 showing? 7 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, this is showing that 8 Mr. Bender, who signed all 12 however many Statements of 9 Financial Condition that were introduced by the Attorney 10 General on Monday may not have seen or done all the work. 11 Just because it has his signature on it, doesn't 12 mean that he's actually the person that prepared it. 13 MR. WALLACE: I believe he's already testified 14 to that. So, I'm not sure how this is impeachment. It 15 sounds like maybe he is trying to refresh his 16 recollection about the details of engagement but I still 17 fail to see the relevance. 18 THE COURT: I'll be charitable and let-- give 19 him some latitude but I see the plaintiff's point. 20 MR. SUAREZ: All right. 21 THE COURT: Let me just say, I think you said 22 just because it says it's from him, doesn't mean it's 23 from him. 24 That's not his testimony, as I understand it. 25 Just because it says it's from him, he wasn't the only
D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 359 1 A It appears that would be 1.95 million. 1,952,850. 2 Q What percentage of your work in 2016 was reflected by 3 the Trump Organization with respect to your billable clients? 4 A I don't recall. 5 Q If you can move to the page ending in 2017. Do you 6 see this here? 7 A Yes, I do. 8 Q Do you see where it says: "Controller, Jeff McConney 9 formally worked for Spahr Lacher &amp; Berk?" 10 A Yes, I do. 11 Q Then is this something you would have written, Mr. 12 Bender? 13 A Did I write it or a member of my team wrote it? I 14 can't tell. 15 Q You can't tell me? 16 A If I wrote it or a member of my team wrote it. 17 Q Can you turn to page 2015. Do you see who it's from? 18 A Yes. 19 Q Does this refresh your recollection as to who wrote 20 it? 21 A It may not have been me anyway. Could have been 22 members of my team could have worked on it. 23 Q So, if something says it's from you, it doesn't 24 necessarily mean it's from you? 25 A I would have to see the sign-off in the binder to	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 361 1 person that worked on it. Is that correct, Mr. Bender? 2 THE WITNESS: Yes, these forms would have been 3 submitted in certain years to the Executive Committee. 4 So, people could help me prepare. A partner doesn't 5 normally do client acceptance continuance. There's staff 6 that prepares these forms. 7 THE COURT: If it says it's from you, it's still 8 from you? 9 THE WITNESS: The final responsibility is mine, 10 your Honor. 11 Q The final responsibility is yours? 12 A Yes. 13 Q Okay. So, the final responsibility is yours. We got 14 that. Okay. 15 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I would ask to move in 16 D-949 in evidence. 17 THE COURT: There's no objection. So, yes. 18 It's in evidence. 19 MR. SUAREZ: 2017. Pull 2017, the Engagement 20 Continuance Form, if we have it. We'll come back to that 21 later. That's fine. Okay, let's pull up premarked 22 Defendant's 27. 23 Q Do you see here what this document is, Mr. Bender, 24 and we'll certainly give the Attorney General a copy. 25 A This copy -- can I have a paper copy, please? Yes,

Page 363 1 Q Do you see at the top where it says estimated current 2 value, Mr. Bender. Is that a concept you are familiar with? 3 A Somewhat. Again, I'm not an expert on -- 4 Q You are not an expert on estimated current value? 5 A Not today; no. 6 Q Were you ever an expert on estimated current value? 7 A I wouldn't say I was ever an expert on it, no. 8 Q Now, this section on estimated current value, this 9 lays out the implementation guidelines; correct? 10 A It appears so. 11 Q Can you read what 55-3 says? 12 A "In determining estimated current value of some 13 assets," parenthesis -- thank you, "for example, works of art, 14 jewelry, restricted security investments, and closely held 15 company -- closely held businesses and real estate," close 16 parenthesis, "the person may need to consult a specialist." 17 Q Okay. So in determining estimated current values, the 18 implementation guidance considers that you may need to consult a 19 specialist; correct? 20 A It's saying that you may need to consult a specialist, 21 but this was a compilation that did not require me to -- I was 22 not engaged to do that type of work. 23 Q And in connection with preparing a compilation report 24 for a Statement of Financial Condition, did you need to have an 25 understanding as to what estimated current value was?	Page 365 1 (Whereupon, a video was played.) 2 MR. WALLACE: I'm just going to object. That 3 doesn't impeach. It's a different question than he was 4 just asking. 5 THE COURT: The rule is, you can only refresh 6 your recollection if the person doesn't recall. I think I 7 said it the opposite, last time. So again, there's no 8 jury. Tell me what the point is. 9 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, he didn't recall at his 10 deposition whether he had discussed estimated current 11 values with Andy. Yesterday he agreed that he had 12 consulted Andy Cohen for estimated current values. Today, 13 he is not a specialist in determining what estimated 14 current value is, despite the fact that ASC 274 requires 15 him to consult with a specialist if he doesn't know it, and 16 today he doesn't recall if he consulted with a specialist 17 or not. 18 MR. WALLACE: The testimony that he showed was a 19 question about whether he consulted with an expert on the 20 difference between estimated current value and fair value. 21 It was not on current estimated value, standing alone, 22 which is the question he has been asking Mr. Bender this 23 morning, so it's not impeachment. If he want to probe that 24 area, we have no objection. 25 THE COURT: This is starting to sound like, how

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 366 1 many angels can dance on the head of a pin. 2 Objection overruled. Let's just keep moving. 3 Q Is there a difference between estimated current value 4 and fair value? 5 A There is a difference. Yes. 6 Q And are you familiar with the differences? 7 A Estimated current value delineates -- there's five 8 standards, five or six methodologies, that are suggested here -- 9 MS. HABBA: I'm sorry. I have to say, I can't 10 understand anything Mr. Bender says. 11 A There are five or six methodologies that are 12 delineated here that can be used to estimate a current value. 13 Q And are you an expert in those different areas? 14 A No, I'm not. 15 Q All right. Do you understand how estimated current 16 value is different than fair value? 17 A I understand it, to a certain extent. 18 Q Okay. What is your understanding, to a certain 19 extent, of what the difference is? 20 A Estimated current value would use these five, A 21 through E, items. Their value, fair market value, would be what 22 a willing buyer or seller would use. That would be fair market 23 value, and that's the main difference I can think of, right now. 24 Q So in your mind, there's a difference? 25 A Excuse me?	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 368 1 Do you see where, 55-6b, it says, "Information that 2 may be used in terminating -- in determining estimated current 3 values of investments in real estate, including lease holds 4 includes any of the following," and b says that, "Discounted 5 amounts of projected cash receipts and payments relating to the 6 property, or the net realizable value of the property, based on 7 planned courses of action, including lease holds whose current 8 rental value exceeds the rent in the lease." 9 Do you see that? 10 A Yes, sir. 11 Q Do you know what realizable value of the property, 12 based on planned courses of actions, means? 13 A I would need to consult an expert, before I gave 14 testimony. 15 Q In connection with preparing President Trump's 16 Statement of Financial Condition, did you ever consult an expert 17 to understand what that meant? 18 A I don't recall, at this moment. 19 Q Okay. Moving on. 20 MR. SUAREZ: If we could pull up page 293 from 21 yesterday's testimony. 22 Q Do you see when I asked you yesterday, Mr. Bender: 23 "They --" referring to the Trump 24 Organization "-- would give you an opportunity to review 25 loan agreements before they entered into them?"
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 367 1 Q In your mind, there is a difference? 2 A Between fair market value and estimated current value? 3 Yes. 4 Q And is estimated current value more flexible than fair 5 value? 6 A I would say so. 7 Q And is it correct that there's no one generally 8 accepted way to determine the estimated current value of an 9 asset? 10 A I believe so. 11 Q And would you have consulted a specialist in 12 determining whether it was appropriate to use any particular 13 basis for establishing estimated current value of an asset? 14 A The 57th Street example I gave yesterday would be an 15 example that I can think of today, that we consulted. 16 Q Any others? 17 A I'm just going through a balance sheet in my head. 18 Q That's President Trump's balance sheet? 19 A Statement of Financial Condition. 20 Not that I can think of, off the top of my head. 21 Q You have the statement, President Trump's Statement of 22 Financial Condition in your head? 23 A No, but I saw parts of it yesterday. I know what 24 assets he owned, generally. 25 Q All right. Let's turn to 55-6, on page 14.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 369 1 And you responded: 2 "Many years ago they might have, certain 3 paragraphs." 4 A Yes, sir. 5 Q And I said: 6 "Certain paragraphs?" 7 And you said: 8 "Yes." 9 And you responded -- and I continued to ask you: 10 "They wouldn't send you loan agreements and ask 11 you, Hey, Mr. Bender, can you review these for us and let 12 us know if this is something you can enter into?" 13 A Yes. 14 Q And you responded: 15 "I don't think they sent full agreements. I do 16 remember seeing certain paragraphs, from time to time." 17 A Yes. 18 Q All right. I would like to show you a document to see 19 if it refreshes your recollection as to whether documents were 20 sent to you by the Trump Organization while they were still 21 being negotiated for your review, and we have marked, or we 22 have -- and we'll offer, for impeachment, a document bearing 23 Bates label Mazars DANYGJS704 -- excuse me -- 01432223. 24 A Are we finished with this document? 25 Q You can set it aside.

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 370 1 MR. WALLACE: I'm sorry. That was a production 2 number you were reading? You said Bates. I thought you 3 said documents -- 4 MR. SUAREZ: No. Just a Bates label. Mazars 5 DANYGJS. 6 (Whereupon, a document was handed to the 7 witness.) 8 Q Do you recognize this document? 9 A Not particularly. 10 Q Do you see where it says, "From Allen Weisselberg to 11 Donald Bender," at the top? 12 A Yes. 13 Q Would Mr. Weisselberg send you emails? 14 A Excuse me? 15 Q Would Mr. Weisselberg send you emails? 16 A Yes, sir. 17 Q And they would have documents attached to them? 18 A Yes. From time to time. 19 Q Do you see here, "Forward OPO loan agreement?" 20 A Yes, sir. 21 Q Do you see where it says, "JDG notes on BL final Doral 22 loan agreement to OPO loan agreement?" 23 A Excuse me. Say that again, please? 24 Q Do you see where the attachments up top -- 25 A Yes.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 372 1 Q Okay. So you would look at the whole loan agreement, 2 and it wasn't in your possession? 3 A Excuse me? 4 Q You would see the whole loan agreement, and it would 5 be sent to you? 6 A I would have the whole loan agreement. I wouldn't 7 review the whole loan agreement. 8 Q Okay. So, just because something was sent to you 9 doesn't mean you reviewed it? 10 A That is correct. 11 Q Okay. Yesterday, I asked you, the Trump 12 Organization -- if you were the in-house accountant at the Trump 13 Organization. 14 A Yes, sir. 15 Q And I think we discussed whether you were the only 16 certified public accountant. 17 A I'm not -- 18 MR. WALLACE: Objection. 19 Q Whether you were the only certified public accountant 20 that interacted with the folks that prepared the Statements of 21 Financial Condition. 22 THE COURT: Overruled. 23 A I believe you did ask me that, yesterday. 24 Q And we established that, in fact, I believe you were? 25 A No. In hindsight, I do realize that they may have had
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 371 1 Q -- say, "GDG notes -- JDG notes on BL final Doral loan 2 agreement to OPO loan agreement?" 3 A Yes. 4 Q Does this document refresh your recollection on being 5 shown loan agreements prior to their being entered into? 6 And you can review the attachment to the document. We 7 can pull it up on the screen and scroll through. 8 A I remember from time to time, looking at certain pages 9 or paragraphs. I remember Jason Greenblatt, chief counsel for 10 Trump, would drive me nuts. He would send me only two or three 11 pages of a loan agreement. I never reviewed any full loan 12 agreements, prior to them being signed, to the best of my 13 recollection. 14 Q Okay. But after they were signed, did you have an 15 opportunity to review the loan agreement? 16 A We would look at the loan agreement, if it would be 17 required information for a footnote disclosure on a financial 18 statement. 19 Q And what would you do with the loan agreement, when 20 you had to review a footnote disclosure on a financial 21 statement? 22 A Certain sections of the -- of the loan agreement would 23 be looked at to discuss things like terms of a loan, payment, 24 interest rates, information that we would need to write a 25 footnote.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 373 1 some CPAs in the Trump Organization who worked on portions of 2 the financial statement, from year to year. 3 Q Do you recall who they were? 4 A I know some schedules were prepared by Mark Hawthorne 5 from the Hotel Group, so they did have a CPA in house. At 6 least, he did it, I think. He's all I remember ever discussing 7 a schedule with. 8 MR. SUAREZ: Let's pull up a document bearing 9 Mazars DANYGJS01487514. 10 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 11 to the witness.) 12 Q And first, Mr. Bender, do you recognize this document? 13 A No, I do not. 14 Q From Mazars, DANYGJS01487514? 15 A Yes. 16 Q Is this a document that was sent to you? 17 A Yes. 18 MR. SUAREZ: Can you turn to the last page of 19 this document? 20 Q Do you see where it says intraoffice memorandum? 21 A Yes. 22 Q Within the office? 23 A Yes. 24 Q And who is the first person there, that's listed? 25 A I guess the Trump Organization doesn't know I'm not on

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 374 1 their payroll. 2 Q Okay. And it says, To Donald Bender? 3 A I wasn't on the Trump Organization payroll. 4 Q Well, $2.1 million in fees, and you were listed, to 5 Donald Bender? 6 A I guess they have an internal problem they need to 7 address. 8 Q Did you ever correct them and say, I'm not inside? 9 A I didn't. I probably would not have read it. 10 Q You would not have read it? 11 A No. 12 Q All right. So, this is something you would not have 13 read, a copy of the term loan agreement by and between Trump 14 Endeavor 12, LLC borrower, and Deutsche Bank Trust Company 15 Americas, lender. 16 A I may not have been required to read it, no. 17 Q Okay. So, if it would have been sent to you, we 18 shouldn't assume that you were required to read it? 19 A I may not -- I would have no need to read it for 20 the -- we were not engaged to do any work that would have 21 required me to read the whole document. 22 Q You were engaged to prepare audits for Trump Endeavor 23 12? 24 A No, sir. 25 Q You were engaged you were engaged to prepare	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 376 1 MR. SUAREZ: And we'll pull that up. I think 2 that was introduced as PX731. 3 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 4 to the witness.) 5 Q And Mr. Bender, in connection with the Statement of 6 Financial Condition, is this something that you saw? 7 A The schedule? 8 Q Did you see it? 9 A Yes, I did. 10 Q Did you review it? 11 A I did not review it. 12 Q Did not review it? 13 A Review is -- the job was a compilation. 14 Q Okay. Did you read it? 15 A I read -- may not have read every line, but I did look 16 at it. 17 Q You did look at it. 18 MR. SUAREZ: And if we could, scroll down and 19 start with Trump Tower. 20 Q Do you see there where it lists the basis of valuation 21 for Trump Tower? 22 A Yes, sir. 23 Q When you prepared the compilation report -- 24 A When I compiled the compilation report -- 25 Q You compiled, produced the compilation report -- when
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 375 1 compilations for Trump Endeavor 12? 2 A Compilation, I believe, without footnotes. 3 Q And you wouldn't have reviewed the loan agreement in 4 connection with the Trump Endeavor 12 loan from Deutsche Bank? 5 A I can't say if I did or I didn't. 6 Q Okay. Moving on. 7 MR. SUAREZ: If we could please put up PX729, 8 which was marked yesterday. Or, on Monday. Or, perhaps 9 yesterday. 10 Q Do you recognize this document, WeiserMazars? 11 A Yes, sir. 12 Q And it's got both the Mazars and the WeiserMazars 13 logo, and if you could turn over to the next page -- and this is 14 the independent accountant's compilation report; is that 15 correct? 16 A Yes, sir. 17 MR. SUAREZ: Turn over to the next page. 18 Q WeiserMazars, LLP. Is that either your signature or 19 your digital signature? 20 A Yes, sir. 21 Q Okay. 22 MR. SUAREZ: And if you could, turn over to the 23 next page. 24 Q I would like to walk you through the Jeff Supporting 25 Data that relates to this Statement of Financial Condition.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 377 1 you produced the compilation report, did you see this? 2 A Yes, I did. 3 Q And what did you do with it? 4 A I -- me or a member of my team appears to have cross 5 referenced it to worksheet 4800.01 and 4800.01a. It appears 6 they also did some math checks. 7 Q Okay. So you did see it? 8 A Me or a member of my team. I would have to check the 9 sign-offs. 10 Q Sitting here today, do you recall if you saw it? 11 A Did I see the schedule? I'm sure I saw the schedule. 12 Q Did you see the basis for valuing Trump Tower when you 13 prepared the compilation report? 14 A I believe so. 15 Q Okay. 16 MR. SUAREZ: Scrolling down to the next asset. 17 Stop. 18 Q Do you see there, NikeTown, when you prepared the 19 compilation report for NikeTown, did you see the basis for the 20 asset value ascribed to NikeTown? 21 A I can't say if I saw every one, without looking at the 22 sign-offs, but it -- I need to confirm the sign-offs, but I 23 believe I would have seen it. 24 Q You believe you would have seen -- 25 A I believe I would have seen it. I can't say I looked

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 378 1 at every line in this worksheet, no. 2 Q Okay. So you didn't look at every line of the 3 spreadsheet, and you are not sure if you saw it. 4 A I would need to see the sign-offs in the binder to 5 confirm who worked on it. 6 Q But you took responsibility for everything that was in 7 the compilation report; correct? 8 A Yes, sir. 9 Q All right. So either you or a member of your team 10 would have seen this? 11 A Yes. 12 Q But you don't recall if you saw it? 13 A I don't recall if I saw it, in 2015, line-by-line. 14 No. 15 Q Okay. Line-by-line. Let's go to the next asset. Do 16 you see where it lists the basis of valuation for 40 Wall Street 17 in this document? 18 A Let me just adjust my chair, so everybody is happy. 19 Yes, I do. 20 Q Did you see it at the time that you prepared the 21 compilation report, in 2015? 22 A I can't say if I looked at every line of it, but I'm 23 sure I saw a portion of it. 24 Q Okay. What portion of it might you have seen? 25 A I don't recall, today.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 380 1 worksheet. Okay. 2 Can you tell me how you would -- 3 MR. SUAREZ: Withdrawn. 4 Q So, you may not have looked at every line on this 5 worksheet for club facilities? 6 A No, sir. 7 Q All right. Let's keep going. 8 Would you have looked at every line on the worksheet 9 for the Trump International Golf Club, Florida? 10 A I'm not sure which lines I would have looked at and 11 didn't look at. 12 Q Okay. So you might have looked at some, and not 13 others? 14 A Yes, sir. 15 Q And the Trump National Golf Club in Briarcliff, do you 16 recall which lines you saw and which you didn't? 17 A No, I do not recall, today, which lines I looked at 18 and which lines I didn't. 19 Q So you may have looked at some, and not others? 20 A That is possible. 21 Q All right. And the Trump National Golf Club in 22 Bedminster, the next line, right there. Do you recall which of 23 those you looked at, and which you didn't? 24 A No, sir. I do not. 25 Q So, it's possible you may have looked at some and not
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 379 1 Q Okay. Would you have seen where the asset value was 2 calculated, based on an NOI? 3 A Yes, sir. 4 Q Would you have seen where a cap rate was applied? 5 A I presume so, but I would have to check the sign-offs 6 on my work papers to confirm who worked on the work. 7 Q So you are not sure if you saw it or not? 8 A I would have to double check, but I believe I would 9 have probably seen it. 10 Q You probably did see it. Okay. 11 Let's go to the next asset, Trump Park Avenue. Did 12 you see that? 13 A Again, I would have to confirm who worked on it, and I 14 would have to check the sign-offs in the binder. 15 Q So, you are not sure if you saw it in 2015? 16 A I can't be sure what lines I looked at on the 17 worksheet, or what lines I did not look at on the worksheet. 18 Q How about the club facilities, there. I think the 19 first one is the Mar-A-Lago club. Do you see that. 20 A I can't tell you which exact lines I looked at on this 21 worksheet, and which lines I looked at as part of my compilation 22 procedures. 23 Q So you might have looked at some, and not others? 24 A I may not have looked at every line in the worksheet. 25 Q You may not have looked at every line on the	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 381 1 others? 2 A Yes, sir. 3 Q All right. The Trump National Golf Club, Colts Neck, 4 do you recall which of those lines you looked and which you 5 didn't? 6 A No, sir. I do not. 7 Q May have seen some, and not others? 8 A That's correct. 9 Q The Trump National Golf Club, Washington D.C. Do you 10 see that? 11 A Yes, sir. 12 Q Do you recall which lines you looked at when you were 13 compiling the Statement of Financial Condition in 2015? 14 A No, I do not. 15 Q Okay. The Trump National Golf Club, Philadelphia. 16 Which of those would you have reviewed? Which lines of those 17 would you have reviewed, in connection with preparing the 18 compilation? 19 A I couldn't tell you which lines I looked at and which 20 lines I didn't look at, today. 21 Q So you would have looked at some and not others? 22 A I'm not sure what I looked at, today, and what I 23 didn't look at. 24 THE COURT: Can we just agree that the questions 25 will be the same, and the answers will be the same, for

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 382 1 each one of these? We have gone through, I don't know, 2 eight, ten. It's always the same. 3 I would ask Mr. Bender, you are more familiar 4 with this document than I am: Will your answers be the 5 same, if the questions are the same, as to each particular 6 property? 7 THE WITNESS: I believe so, your Honor. 8 THE COURT: All right. Then, let's move on. 9 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, if I could just have 10 30 seconds to talk to my colleague, your Honor? 11 THE COURT: Sure. 12 (Whereupon, the witness spoke to the Court, off 13 the record.) 14 THE COURT: You can get off the stand, but you 15 can't talk about the case. 16 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 17 proceedings.) 18 Q Let's keep going through, here. 19 THE COURT: Not the same way. 20 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, may I get through the 21 spreadsheet, and I won't do it for every year. Just, I 22 would like to get through one spreadsheet, as an example. 23 THE COURT: Fine. 24 MR. SUAREZ: Thank you. 25 Q The Trump National Golf Club, Hudson Valley. Did you	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 384 1 different assets that are -- you would agree that the basis for 2 valuation was disclosed to you? 3 A I would have to look at -- I would say their 4 methodology was disclosed. To the best of my recollection, that 5 would be true. 6 Q The methodology was disclosed. Okay. 7 MR. SUAREZ: If we can keep scrolling down. 8 Q The methodology with respect to these assets would 9 have been disclosed to you in the Jeff Supporting Data, from 10 year to year; correct? 11 A To the best of my recollection that -- I believe that 12 is true. 13 Q Okay. 14 MR. SUAREZ: Keep scrolling. Keep scrolling. 15 Stop. 16 Q Trump National Golf Club, Charlotte. Would you have 17 seen this information? 18 A I don't recall, today, if I looked at every line in 19 the worksheet. 20 Q All right. So it's not your testimony that you looked 21 at every line on this worksheet? 22 A It is not my testimony that I looked at every line in 23 this worksheet. 24 (Continued on the next page.) 25
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 383 1 review every line here? 2 A I couldn't tell you, today, if I looked at every line 3 or I didn't look at every line. 4 Q For the assets that were on the Statement of Financial 5 Condition, did you draw an understanding as to how they were 6 valued? 7 A Generally. So, I may not have known every asset, but 8 I would have known a significant portion of them. 9 Q Okay. And that was possible, without reviewing every 10 line? 11 A Yeah, because it was a lot of -- it was -- let me take 12 it back. The footnotes of the financial statement disclosed 13 certain methodologies that are included, so to that extent, I 14 would have known. I may not have recalled if I looked at every 15 one or not, today. 16 Q And would you have looked at every one at the time? 17 A I can't recall, today, what I did in 2015. Or 2016. 18 Whenever the report was issued. 19 Q But you may have seen some, but not others? 20 A I don't recall today, but I would have definitely seen 21 some, yes. 22 Q And there are some that you wouldn't have? 23 A I didn't say that. I don't recall, today, what I look 24 at in 2015, or '16. 25 Q You don't recall. All right. So, for all of these	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 385 1 Q Excellent. 2 A My testimony is that I don't recall. 3 Q You don't recall if you looked at it? 4 A I don't. 5 Q You may have looked at it and relied -- 6 A I don't remember at this moment. I don't think I 7 looked at every line on this spreadsheet. 8 Q You don't think you looked at every line? 9 A No. 10 Q Would that be true of the Jeff Supporting Data for 11 each of the different years, you wouldn't have looked at every 12 line on the spreadsheet? 13 A I can't recall today if it would be true every year. 14 Q Was it your practice to look at every line on the 15 spreadsheet? 16 A I don't recall if I looked at every line every year. 17 Q You may have looked at some lines and may not have 18 looked at others? 19 A I don't recall today. 20 Q Did you ever express any disagreement-- did you ever 21 bring up any disagreement on the basis of valuation of any 22 asset? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Which assets? 25 A We discussed the Nike building yesterday. I don't

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 386 1 know of any others right now. That is the one that sticks 2 out in my mind. 3 Q You would agree with me that the basis of valuation 4 of the triplex was set forth in the Jeff Supporting Data? 5 A Yes, sir. 6 Q The basis valuation for 40 Wall Street was set forth 7 in the Jeff Supporting Data? 8 A The method valuation, yes, sir. 9 Q The basis for the valuation of Trump Tower would have 10 been set forth in the Jeff Supporting Data? 11 A Trump Tower Commercial, yes, sir. 12 Q Basis for valuing Niketown would have been set forth 13 in the Jeff Supporting Data? 14 A Their methodology for valuating was included in the 15 Jeff Supporting Data. 16 Q The basis of valuing Trump Park Avenue would have 17 been set forth in the Jeff Supporting Data? 18 A Their methodology for doing it would have been set 19 forth in the Jeff Supporting Data. 20 Q Their methodology for valuing their interest in-- the 21 Trump Organization's interest in 1290 Avenue of the Americas 22 would have been set forth in the Jeff Supporting Data? 23 A Mr. Trump's interests in 1290 -- 24 Q Yes? 25 A --Avenue of the America would have been -- their	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 388 1 Q Mazars would have looked at it but not necessarily 2 you? 3 A I may not have looked at every line of Mazars and -- 4 say the question again. 5 Q Mazars -- someone from Mazars would have looked at 6 all the Jeff Supporting Data but not necessarily you? 7 A I can't say somebody from Mazars looked at every 8 line of the worksheet. 9 Q You can't tell me whether someone from Mazars looked 10 at every line on the worksheet? 11 A I can't read somebody else's mind today. 12 Q You testified earlier you would responsible for all 13 the work product that went into it? 14 A Absolutely. 15 Q You agree you were responsible to make sure somebody 16 at Mazars looked at every line on that spreadsheet? 17 A I don't think a person at Mazars would need to look 18 at every line on that worksheet. I agree I was responsible 19 for the compilation, if it's the right word. I was the 20 partner in charge of the compilation procedure. 21 Q You were the partner in charge of the compilation 22 procedure. The buck stopped with you? 23 A Absolutely. 24 THE COURT: Ten-minute warning. 25 Q If the buck stopped with you, Mr. Bender, would you
D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 387 1 methodology would have been set forth. 2 Q The method for valuing 555 California, President 3 Trump's interest in that entity, that would have been set 4 forth in the Jeff Supporting Data? 5 A Yes, I believe it would have. 6 Q The method for valuing Seven Springs would have been 7 set forth in the Jeff Supporting Data? 8 A I believe it would be yes, sir. 9 Q The method for valuing Mar-a-Lago would have been set 10 forth in the Jeff Supporting Data? 11 A I believe that would be true. 12 Q So, every year, you were presented with the basis for 13 valuation of each of these assets in the Jeff Supporting Data? 14 A I believe, off the top of my head, that would be 15 true, sir. 16 Q Yesterday, I think you said you had tremendous 17 respect for Jeff, for Mr. McConney; is that correct? 18 A He's one of the better accountants I ever worked 19 with. 20 Q He passed along this information to you every year? 21 A Him and Patrick Birney. 22 Q The Jeff Supporting Data was what you reviewed when 23 preparing your compilation report? 24 A Mazars would have looked at it. I don't know the 25 word "reviewed".	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 389 1 have not been required to sign off on the basis for valuing 2 each of the assets and making sure it was consistent with 3 estimated current values? 4 A It we were not engaged, the compilation did not 5 require us to do the work. The financial statement is the 6 Trump Organization. They were the experts in real estate. 7 They were the experts in golf courses and it was them. 8 If something, as part of a high-level review, 9 if I noticed something, like 57th Street, I'd bring it to-- 10 yeah, 57th Street. 11 If I brought something like 57th Street came to 12 my attention, I'd do it, but, it was not our responsibility 13 to. We were not engaged to discuss -- we were engaged to do 14 method appraisals-- not appraisals. That was not part of our 15 engagement. 16 Q Appraisals weren't part of your engagement? 17 A We were engaged to-- to the best of my recollection, 18 we were never engaged to do an appraisal for the Trump 19 Organization. 20 Q Now, Mr. Bender, you told me that you were required 21 to follow AICPA guidelines, correct? 22 A To the best of my ability. 23 Q And when you weren't, you'd consult a specialist? 24 A I would try to, if I something came to my attention. 25 Q Are you aware that the AICPA guidelines for the

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 390 1 compilation of personal financial statements require you, in 2 connection with the compilation, to under ordinary-- excuse 3 me. To "ordinarily, an accountant can compile personal 4 financial statements based on the individual's representation 5 of estimated current value of assets and the estimated current 6 amount of liabilities." 7 You'd agree with that statement? 8 A Can you read it, again, please? 9 MR. WALLACE: Objection. If he's introducing 10 language from a document, we'd like that to be on the 11 record. 12 MR. SUAREZ: Sure. I'm happy to move into 13 evidence what I believe was premarked and somebody will 14 give me the number. 15 Q AICPA personal financial statements. Chapter Two. 16 2.03, compilation of financial statements. 17 Have you ever seen the AICPA guide for 18 preparation of financial statements? 19 A Yes, sir. 20 Q All right. So, turn to page -- to chapter two, which 21 governs a compilation of personal financial statements at 22 Section 2.03. We've premarked this as exhibit D-950. It 23 said: "Ordinarily, an accountant can compile personal 24 financial statements based on the individual's representation 25 of estimated current values of assets and the estimated	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 392 1 Q -- your involvement with that, okay. 2 You see in Section 2.07: "Reporting or compiling personal 3 financial statements. If the accountant -- 4 A Let me find it. 5 Q --believes -- 6 THE COURT: It's on the screen. 7 THE WITNESS: Thank you. 8 Q --"that the methods used to determine the estimated 9 current value of assets and the estimated current amounts of 10 liabilities are not in accordance with statement of position 11 82-1 accounting and financial reporting for personal financial 12 statements, AICPA technical practice aids, or if he or she 13 believes that the methods are not appropriate, in light of the 14 nature of each asset and liability, he or she should consider 15 whether modification of a standard report is adequate to 16 disclosure the departure." 17 THE COURT: "To disclose." 18 Q "To disclose the departure." 19 "If the accountant determines that modification 20 of the standard report is not adequate to indicate the 21 deficiencies in the financial statements taken as a whole, the 22 accountant should withdraw from the engagement and provide no 23 other services with respect to those financial statements." 24 Do you see that? 25 A Yes, I do.

At a minimum, however, the 2 accountant should obtain an understanding of the methods by 3 which the individual determined the estimated current values 4 of significant assets and the estimated current amounts of 5 significant liabilities and consider whether the methods were 6 appropriate, in light of the nature of each asset or 7 liability." 8 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, we'd like to note an 9 objection to the use of this document at this time. It's 10 dated May 1, 2008. I believe that this guidance has 11 been -- was superseded in 2009. So, it wouldn't have 12 been relevant in 2011, but, if he wants to ask the 13 question, we want to note -- 14 THE COURT: Your objection is noted. I don't 15 know how much it changed or didn't change from that year, 16 but, I'll take that into consideration. 17 Q Do you see that? 18 A Yes. 19 Q Is that something you undertook with respect to the 20 assets? 21 A I don't recall. As counsel said, if this happened 22 at the time and I don't recall -- we definitely looked at -- 23 I don't recall today what we did. 24 Q You don't recall-- 25 A No.	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 393 1 Q Did you ever, prior to 2020, withdraw from the 2 engagement with the Trump Organization? 3 A No, I did not. 4 Q Did you ever, prior to 2020, give any indication to 5 the Trump Organization that you disagreed with the methods 6 used to determine estimated current values? 7 A I don't believe it was required of me to do that per 8 compilation procedure. 9 Q Did you ever, prior to 2020, advise the Trump 10 Organization that you disagreed with any of the methods used 11 to determine the estimated current value of the assets? 12 A 57th Street would be one example where I did 13 disagree. 14 Q That is the only one? 15 A The only one I'm thinking of now. 16 Q When you brought up your disagreement with 57th 17 Street, what did the Trump Organization -- 18 A We had Mazars saying-- Trump Organization spoke 19 about it. 20 Q They revised it to your satisfaction? 21 A They revised it to our satisfaction, Mazars. 22 MR. SUAREZ: Okay. I think I'm at a good point 23 to take a break. 24 THE COURT: Like yesterday, we'll take a 25 ten-minute break. Take 15 minutes, but, unlike

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 394 1 yesterday, unless there's some personal emergency, I'll 2 be very strict. We're starting again in 15 minutes, 3 whether you're here or not. 4 (Recess taken. ) 5 ( Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom.) 6 THE COURT: Okay, counsel. Please, proceed. 7 Q Mr. Bender, please take a look at Section 2.05. 8 "Personal financial statement, compilation of personal 9 financial statements from the AICPA." 10 Do you see this? 11 A May I have the original document, please? 12 Q Premarked D-950. It says -- I'd invite you to read 13 along with me, Mr. Bender. 14 A One second. Thank you. 15 Q "Before submission, the accountant should read the 16 compiled personal financial statements and consider whether 17 such financial statements appear to be appropriate in form and 18 free from obvious material errors. In this context, the term 19 error refers to mistakes in the compilation of financial 20 statements, including arithmetical or clerical mistakes and 21 mistakes in the application of accounting principles, 22 including disclosure. Misstatements that may occur in 23 personal financial statements prepared in conformity with 24 Generally Accepted Accounting Principles include: 25 Number one: "The failure to record estimated	D. In connection with your preparation 23 of an Independent Accountant's Compilation Report, did any 24 asset strike you as being presented at an obviously 25 inappropriate value or amount?

So, at the time, nothing came to your 19 attention as the presentation of an asset or liability at an 20 obviously inappropriate value or amount? 21 A Correct. 22 Q In connection with the 2014 compilation report, did 23 anything come to your attention as the presentation of an 24 asset or liability at an obviously inappropriate value or 25 amount?	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 397 1 A No, sir. 2 Q Did any liability strike you as being presented at an 3 obviously inappropriate value or amount? 4 A Not that I can recall at this time. No, sir. 5 Q In 2011, which you testified to on Monday, you were 6 preparing your Independent Compilation Report, did any asset 7 or liability strike you as being presented at an obviously 8 inappropriate value or amount? 9 A No, sir. 10 Q How about 2016? In 2016 did any asset strike you as 11 being presented at an obviously inappropriate value or amount? 12 A No, sir. 13 Q In 2017, when you prepared your Independent 14 Accountant Compilation Report, did any asset strike you as 15 being presented at an obviously inappropriate value or amount? 16 A No, sir. 17 Q In 2018, when you were preparing your Independent 18 Accounting Compilation Report, did any asset or liability 19 strike you as being presented at an obviously inappropriate 20 value or amount? 21 A No, sir. 22 Q In 2019, in connection with the preparation of your 23 Independent Accounting Compilation Report, did any asset in 24 the President's Statements of Financial Condition strike you 25 as being presented at an obviously inappropriate value or

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 398 1 amount? 2 A No, sir. 3 Q Did any liability strike you as being presented at an 4 obviously inappropriate value or amount? 5 A Not that I recall at this moment. 6 Q In 2019, in connection with preparing your 7 Independent Accountant's Compilation Report, did any asset 8 strike you as being presented at an obviously inappropriate 9 value or amount? 10 A I'm sorry. Which year did you say? 11 Q 2019. 12 A No, sir. 13 Q How about liabilities? Any liabilities strike you as 14 being presented at an obviously inappropriate value or amount? 15 A Not that I recall at this moment. No, sir. 16 Q Okay. In 2020, when you prepared the Compilation 17 Report, the Independent Accountant's Compilation Report, did 18 any asset or liability strike you as being prepared at an 19 obviously inappropriate value or amount? 20 A No, sir, not that I recall. 21 Q All right. How about the failure to disclose the 22 methods used to determine estimated current values or amounts? 23 In 2020, in connection with the preparation of 24 your Independent Accountant's Compilation Report, did you note 25 any failure to disclose the methods used to determine	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 400 1 MR. SUAREZ: I'd-- not asset by asset but I'd 2 like to get through every year. 3 THE COURT: I'm not going to let you do that. 4 Ask him if it happened in any year. 5 Q Did you ever notice in any year in the Statement of 6 Financial Condition that we discussed here today, yesterday or 7 Monday whether there was a failure to disclose the methods 8 used to determine estimated current values and amounts with 9 respect to any asset listed on President Trump's Statement of 10 Financial Condition? 11 A I do not believe so. 12 THE COURT: So, now, the record is clear for 13 every year. Great. 14 MR. SUAREZ: Thank you. 15 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, if I may be heard on 16 that, sir. 17 THE COURT: Yes. 18 MR. ROBERT: First of all, Mr. Bender's answer 19 was "I don't believe so." So, I don't think that was as 20 dispositive as he wants us to believe. If he wants to 21 say no, it never happened, that's one thing. 22 In addition, the relief the Attorney General is 23 seeking against all the defendants is extraordinary. 24 THE COURT: What does that have to do with 25 anything?
D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 399 1 estimated current values and amounts? 2 A Did I note or notice? 3 Q Note. 4 A Note. What do you mean by note? 5 Q Did you notice? 6 A Okay. No. 7 Q You noticed. You did not notice a failure to 8 disclose the methods used to determine estimated current 9 values and amounts in connection with President Trump's 10 Statement of Financial Condition of 2020? 11 A No, sir. I don't recall. 12 Q Did you notice any failure to disclose the method 13 used to determine estimated current values and amounts in 14 connection with your Independent Accountant's Compilation 15 Report for President Trump's Statement of Financial Condition 16 in 2019? 17 A I do not recall. No, sir. 18 Q Did you notice a failure to disclose the methods used 19 to determine estimated current values and amounts in 20 connection with your preparation of the Independent 21 Accountant's Compilation Report for President Trump's 22 Statements of Financial Condition in 2018. 23 A Nothing came to my attention. 24 THE COURT: We're not going to go each year by 25 year, are we?	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 401 1 MR. ROBERT: Because they're trying to lump 2 together a sequence of years and based on the fact that 3 they have individual defendants that they've named as 4 well as entities, what happened in a specific year is 5 crucially important. They're seeking a quarter of a 6 billion dollars in damages for the defendants. 7 THE COURT: What does that have to do with 8 anything? 9 MR. ROBERT: The severity and importance of 10 making sure we go year by year because different people 11 have different responsibilities year by year. 12 THE COURT: We're asking this particular 13 witness. 14 MR. ROBERT: And this particular witness is 15 saying -- I think the answer was. Not-- let me make 16 sure. 17 THE COURT: Answer is the same for every year, 18 whether it was complete or not. 19 MR. ROBERT: Let me see what his answer was. 20 Give me one moment, or, the Court Reporter can read back, 21 with the Court's permission. 22 THE COURT: No. 23 He's asking the same question. He asked for 24 2020, 2019, 2018. I don't see the point to go through 25 every single year. It's the same question and same

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 402 1 answer. So I asked counsel to ask for all the years and 2 the answer is the same. Either he doesn't remember or he 3 didn't. What's the difference? Jesus. 4 But I'll ask the Plaintiffs, do you want to go 5 through every year or not? Because I could get reversed 6 for not allowing him to ask for every individual year 7 rather than lumping them all together. 8 What would you like me to do? 9 MR. WALLACE: Whatever your Honor wants. 10 THE COURT: I don't want to go through nonsense. 11 So, let's move on. Objection overruled. 12 MR. KISE: So, to be clear, we're precluded from 13 asking year-by-year questions in the course of this 14 proceeding? 15 MR. WALLACE: I object. 16 MR. KISE: What we're driving at here is who, at 17 Mazars, was responsible for conforming with the AICPA 18 standard each year. President Trump and the other 19 defendants are accused of committing fraud in a repeated 20 and persistent pattern, year by year by year each 21 statement. 22 So, each statement, respectfully, your Honor, 23 stands on its own. Each statement is a freestanding 24 statement. Each certification is a freestanding 25 certification. This is what your Honor has ruled, that	Page 404 1 involves millions of pages of documents. I'm sorry, your 2 Honor, but, I think we should be entitled to go year by 3 year because that's their burden of proof. If we're 4 going to lump it all together and all the organizations 5 together -- 6 THE COURT: We're not lumping it all together. 7 We're asking if the answer is the same for every year. 8 Same for 2020. Same for 2019. Same for 2018. He said-- 9 he can ask whether the answer would be the same for every 10 year. You can argue for every year. His answer of 2013, 11 '15 or '11 or '12 would be the same. That's your record. 12 I don't see any way around that. 13 Again, I'll ask Plaintiff, do you want to hear 14 it for every year or risk my being reversed because I 15 wouldn't let them put on a defense in a really big case. 16 (Continued on the following page..) 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25
D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 403 1 they're independent. So, it is crucial, we believe, for 2 the government to establish that in each independent 3 year, there are these infirmities and if they can't 4 establish that, then they need to -- they've not met 5 their burden of proof and I'll give you an example. 6 We're talking here about a presentation of an 7 asset or liability at an obviously inappropriate value or 8 amount. The government has introduced evidence of an 9 alleged five or six hundred million dollar disparity on 10 the Statement of Financial Condition for Mar-a-Lago. 11 They've said it should be 18 to 27 instead of the six, 12 seven, eight hundred that we have. That, to me -- I'm 13 just -- 14 THE COURT: You're talking to me or the press or 15 the audience, Chris? 16 MR. KISE: I'm talking to you, your Honor. 17 That, to me, you're asking why we have to go year by 18 year. 19 THE COURT: You don't have to go year by year. 20 You have to go every year and he said every year, the 21 answer would be the same. We're wasting more time than 22 if he just let him go through it but this is -- 23 MR. KISE: We need to be able to put on our 24 defense the way we think we should be able to put on a 25 defense, year by year. They brought this case. It	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 405 1 MR. WALLACE: So the record is clear, we are 2 happy to stipulate here that Mr. Benders' response will be 3 the same from every year from 2011 to 2020. 4 THE COURT: That's my ruling. Objection 5 overruled. 6 Q Mr. Bender, when you stay you don't believe so, do 7 you know? 8 A Read the question again? 9 THE COURT: Do you want read back? 10 Read back, please. 11 By the way, I do this same technique to try to 12 save time, whether a big case or a little case. It's the 13 same thing. 14 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the 15 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.) 16 THE COURT: So, let's move on with the next 17 question. 18 Q Mr. Bender, I do not believe so, does that mean no? 19 A Yes. That means no. 20 Q Thank you. And Mr. Bender, for each and every year 21 that you prepared a Statement of Financial Condition and didn't 22 notice a failure to disclose the methods used to determine 23 estimated current values and amounts, if you didn't notice a 24 failure to disclose the methods used to determine estimated 25 current values and amounts, you certainly couldn't have

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 406 1 communicated that to the Trump Organization; correct? 2 MR. WALLACE: Objection. 3 THE COURT: Correct. If he didn't notice, then 4 he couldn't communicate it. 5 MR. SUAREZ: I just asked the question, and I got 6 an objection. I just want to make sure we all understand 7 it correctly, your Honor. 8 THE COURT: Okay. If you don't notice something, 9 you can't communicate it to someone else. Can we agree on 10 that, counselor? 11 MR. SUAREZ: Yes. 12 THE COURT: So, what's the point of asking the 13 question? 14 MR. SUAREZ: I would like the witness to make 15 that record, that if he didn't notice it, he didn't 16 communicate it. The point is to establish that he didn't 17 communicate it, your Honor. 18 THE COURT: Yes. You did establish it, and he 19 said he didn't notice it. But, I'll ask the witness to 20 answer. 21 Did you communicate what you didn't notice? 22 THE WITNESS: The only change I would make is, he 23 used the word, prepared. This was not a preparation. This 24 was a compilation, so I just -- his question has to be 25 adjusted.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 408 1 Q Or they would be reflected in your work papers? 2 A Generally, that would be true. 3 Q And the work papers were maintained by Mazars? 4 A Yes, sir. 5 Q Would you review those work papers each year, before 6 picking up on the following year's independent accountant's 7 compilation report? 8 A I don't recall if I didn't or I didn't. 9 Q You don't recall whether you, each year, before 10 beginning the prior -- the current year's independent accounting 11 compilation report, review the prior year? 12 A I don't recall -- I don't recall. 13 Q Mr. Bender, at your deposition you testified that you 14 spent 50 to 60 hours each year working on the Statement of 15 Financial Condition compilation report; is that correct? 16 A That would be an estimate. Yes. 17 Q Okay. It's an estimate. It would change from year to 18 year. 19 MR. SUAREZ: And I'm not going to ask year to 20 year, because I understand the Court's order. 21 Q That would be an estimate from the period of time 2011 22 to 2020, you spent about 50 to 60 hours a year? 23 A That would be an estimate. 24 Q And in your opinion, as the -- 25 MR. SUAREZ: Withdrawn.
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 407 1 A If you say compilation, if I didn't notice it, I 2 didn't communicate it on the compilation. 3 Q Mr. Bender, certainly when you prepared the 2015 4 Statement of Financial Condition -- 5 MR. SUAREZ: I'm going to stop. I'm going to 6 withdraw the question. I'm going to speak more slowly. 7 Q Certainly, Mr. Bender, when you prepared the 8 independent accountant's compilation report for the 2015 9 Statement of Financial Condition, you didn't forget all of the 10 things that you learned when you prepared the independent 11 accountant's compilation report for the Statement of Financial 12 Condition in 2014; did you? 13 A No -- say that again. 14 MR. SUAREZ: I'm trying to adhere to your Honor's 15 direction not to go year-by-year. 16 Q But, I'm simply trying to establish the fact, 17 Mr. Bender, that, from year to year, you didn't forget what you 18 learned the prior year in preparing a Statement of Financial 19 Condition. Compilation report. 20 A Generally, that would be true. I'm not saying I would 21 remember line-by-line from the year before, but generally, that 22 would be true. 23 Q But material issues that you learned in one year, you 24 would remember the following year? 25 A Generally, that would be true.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 409 1 Q And as the partner in charge at Mazars, in charge of 2 preparing the independent accountant compilation report for the 3 45th President of the United States, 50 to 60 hours a year was a 4 sufficient amount of time for you to spend on that assignment; 5 correct? 6 A Yes, sir. 7 THE COURT: We are taking a very short break. 8 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 9 proceedings.) 10 THE COURT: Okay. Let's continue with where we 11 left off. 12 Q And within those 50 to 60 hours a year, approximately, 13 that you spent compiling the Statement of Financial Condition 14 for the 45th President of the United States, that was a 15 sufficient amount of time for you to satisfy yourself that the 16 statements did not fail to disclose the methods used to 17 determine estimated current values and amounts? 18 A I did the best, based on my professional skills, to 19 meet those standards. 20 Q I'm sorry. I can't -- 21 A I did the best, based on my professional standards, to 22 meet those. 23 Q You did the best, based on your professional 24 standards? 25 A My professional skills.

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 410 1 Q And were those the professional standards for Donald 2 Bender, or the professional standards of Mazars. 3 A I used my best professional skills to meet the 4 standards of Mazars. Of Mazars, and the AICPA. 5 Q All right. So you used your best professional skills. 6 So, can we infer from your testimony that it was your best 7 professional skills that the president had the benefit of, or 8 can we infer from your skills that it was the benefit of -- from 9 your statement that it was the benefit of Mazars' skills, that 10 the president had the benefit of? 11 A I thought you asked about me -- I method your question 12 was addressed about me. 13 Q Well, was 50 to 60 hours a year sufficient for you to 14 supervise everyone at Mazars that worked on this engagement? 15 A Yes. I felt it was. 16 Q And to adequately make sure that you could represent 17 to the president that his Statements of Financial Condition did 18 not fail to disclose the methods used to determine estimated 19 current values and amounts? 20 A We did our best to try to meet those standards, yes. 21 Q You tried your best? 22 A Yes. 23 Q And you tried your best, in those 50 to 60 hours a 24 year, to make sure that Mazars USA -- 2016, for example -- could 25 represent to the president that all of the assets were	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 412 1 an example. Let's use a concrete example. Let's take 2013. 2 Let's start with 2013. Fifty to 60 hours a year -- let's put up 3 2013. 4 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 5 to the witness.) 6 Q Mazars and WeiserMazars, both of those logos on are 7 the page, at the top. It says WeiserMazars LLP. 8 MR. SUAREZ: Come on over. Next page. 9 Q Your signature, the assets. 10 Let's go through the assets. In 2013, in 50 to 60 11 hours a year, you were able to satisfy yourself that it was 12 appropriate to list $339 million in cash, $339 million in cash, 13 on the statement of assets in 2013, Mr. Bender? 14 A On the Statement of Financial Conditions? I met the 15 professional standard for a compilation. Yes, sir. 16 Q So, to meet the professional standard for a 17 compilation and conclude that an asset or liability is not 18 stated at an obviously inappropriate value or amount, in 50 to 19 60 hours a year, you could do that, to determine, just go 20 through them, $339 million in cash and marketable securities? 21 A Yes, sir. 22 Q And in 50 to 60 hours a year, you were able to take 23 Trump Tower at $526 million, and determine that Trump Tower, at 24 $526 million, was not presented at an obviously inappropriate 25 value or amount?
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 411 1 presented, all of the assets or liabilities, were presented at 2 an amount that was not inappropriately -- that was not obviously 3 inappropriate? 4 MR. WALLACE: Objection. 5 THE COURT: What's the ground? 6 MR. WALLACE: The question is completely unclear. 7 THE COURT: How about a rephrase? 8 MR. SUAREZ: Sure. 9 Q The 50 to 60 hours a year that you worked on the 10 Statement of Financial Condition, was that sufficient for you, 11 Mr. Bender, to be comfortable signing the name, Mazars USA, to 12 the Statement of Financial Condition certifying that the assets 13 were not presented at an obviously inappropriate value or 14 amount? 15 A I was comfortable signing the compilation. I did not 16 need to certify anything. That was not an audit. This was a 17 compilation. The standards for a compilation don't require us 18 to certify anything. 19 Q Well, the standards for at compilation do require you 20 to present a compilation report that notes whether any of the 21 assets or liabilities are stated at an obviously inappropriate 22 value or amount? 23 A Yes, sir. 24 Q And in 50 to 60 hours a year, you were able to satisfy 25 yourself that the asset value that was stated -- and let's take	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 413 1 A Based on my compilation procedures, nothing came to my 2 attention. 3 Q And in 50 to 60 hours a year, you were able to 4 determine that Trump Tower being presented at $526,800,000 did 5 not fail the compilation -- did not -- I'm sorry, the Statements 6 of Financial Condition, it did not fail to disclose the methods 7 used to determine estimated current value of that asset? 8 A Say that again, please? 9 Q You were able, in 50 to 60 hours a year, to determine 10 that the Statements of Financial Condition did not fail to 11 disclose the methods used to determine estimated current value, 12 estimated current value of that asset? 13 A Nothing came to my attention, as part of my 14 compilation procedures. 15 Q And in 50 to 60 hours a year, you were able to 16 determine that NikeTown, worth $287,600,000 in 2013, was 17 appropriately listed, and that the Statement of Financial 18 Condition did not fail to disclose the methods used to determine 19 estimated current values and amounts? 20 A Nothing came to my attention, as part of my 21 compilation procedures. 22 Q And in 50 hours a year, you were able to determine, 50 23 to 60 hours a year, approximately, you were able to determine 24 that that asset was not presented at an obviously inappropriate 25 value or amount?

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 414 1 A Nothing came to my attention, as part of my 2 compilation procedures. 3 Q And in connection with 40 Wall Street, identified in 4 2013 at $530 million a year, Mr. Bender, you were able to 5 determine that the Statement of Financial Condition did not fail 6 to disclose the methods used to determine estimated current 7 value and amount of that asset? 8 A Nothing came to my attention, as part of my 9 compilation procedures. 10 Q Okay. And in 50 to 60 hours a year, Mr. Bender, you 11 were able to determine that 40 Wall Street was not presented at 12 an obviously inappropriate value or amount; is that correct? 13 A Nothing came to my attention during my compilation 14 procedures. 15 Q And in 50 to 60 hours a year, Mr. Bender, you were 16 able to determine that Trump Park Avenue, listed in the 17 Statement of Financial Condition at $346,100,000, that the 18 Statement of Financial Condition did not fail to disclose the 19 methods used to determine estimated current value and amount for 20 that asset? 21 A Nothing came to my attention, during my compilation 22 procedures. 23 THE COURT: Counselor, can we lump this all 24 together? Again, using the same principles, you can ask 25 him, for each item, whether 50 or 60 hours was sufficient.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 416 1 Plaza was disclosed in this financial statement? 2 A No. 3 Q And did anything come to your attention that would 4 cause you to think that this asset was not presented at an 5 obviously inappropriate value or amount? 6 A No, sir. 7 Q Did anything cause you to think that it was presented 8 at an inappropriate value or amount? 9 A No, sir. 10 Q The Trump Plaza commercial and retained residential 11 portions identified at $31 million, in 50 to 60 hours a year, is 12 that something that you were able to determine that the Jeff 13 Supporting Data that then was reflected in the notes, 14 Mr. Bender, did not fail to disclose the methods used to 15 determine estimated current values and amounts? 16 A Nothing came to my attention. 17 Q Nothing came to your attention. 18 So, this is all work that you did in 50 to 60 hours a 19 year? 20 A My time would have been 50 to 60 hours a year. 21 Q Your time alone? 22 A My time alone. 23 Q Sufficient? 24 A On average. 25 Q On average?
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 415 1 I think that would make sense, but if you really want to do 2 it, go ahead. 3 MR. SUAREZ: I'm doing my best to lump this 4 together, but I can't lump it together, your Honor, because 5 each separate asset on the spreadsheet presents the basis 6 for valuation, and Mr. Bender's testimony, I believe, is 7 that within 50 to 60 hours a year, he was able to look at 8 all of those valuations and make sure that they were 9 properly listed, or at a minimum, that they were properly 10 disclosed in the Statement of Financial Condition, what the 11 basis for that methodology was. 12 THE COURT: Yes. The key word you used is, all. 13 Ask him if he would have the same answer to the same 14 questions for each line. But all the lines -- 15 MR. SUAREZ: May I try to truncate is by 16 saying -- 17 Q Would you have the same answer to the same questions 18 concerning the club facilities and real estate in New York, 19 Florida, New Jersey, California, Washington D.C., North 20 Carolina, and Scotland, at $1,656,200,000? 21 A Nothing came to my attention as part of my compilation 22 procedures. 23 Q Nothing came to your attention. Did anything come to 24 your attention concerning the manner in which estimated current 25 value and amounts for the Trump World Tower at United Nations	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 417 1 A Guesstimate. 2 Q I've been asked to bring them all together. 3 A Okay. 4 Q And in 50 to 60 hours a year, Mr. Bender, the Trump 5 Palace, the Trump Parc, the Trump Parc East condominiums, those 6 commercial portions, you were able to satisfy yourself that the 7 Statement of Financial Condition did not fail to disclose the 8 methods used to determine estimated current value and amounts 9 for those three assets at $13,700,000? 10 A Nothing came to my attention, as part of my 11 compilation procedure. 12 THE COURT: Counselor, I don't talk just to hear 13 myself. You seem to be doing the exact same thing, and I'm 14 precluding you from doing it. You can lump together -- I 15 thought you were just going to list the different 16 properties, but to ask the question again, I'm not going to 17 let you to that. 18 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, here is the concern that 19 I have: Every single Statement of Financial Condition 20 lists the property differently. Every single Statement of 21 Financial Condition, from year to year, identifies the 22 properties differently. Mr. Bender just told you, your 23 Honor, that he or Mazars retained the knowledge as to all 24 material assets that went from year to year, and how those 25 assets changed, and in 50 to 60 hours a year, Mr. Bender

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 418 1 satisfied himself that he could sign the name of a major 2 international accounting firm on the Statement of Financial 3 Condition, slapped their logo on it, and called it an 4 independent compilation report. 5 THE COURT: Maybe that helps you. That is his 6 testimony, yes. Or, you can ask him, Would your answer be 7 the same to the same questions for all of the other 8 properties on that sheet? That's all I'm going to let you 9 do. 10 THE WITNESS: My testimony wasn't that, from year 11 to year. I said, in each individual year, your Honor. 12 MR. SUAREZ: And that just reiterates the point 13 as to why we have to go year by year, your Honor. Because 14 in each individual year, his testimony may be different. 15 THE WITNESS: No. I said, I didn't necessarily 16 compare to the previous year. 17 MR. SUAREZ: He didn't necessarily compare to the 18 previous year, which is even more important, because every 19 single year, he had two rows of data presented to him; the 20 prior year and the current year, and his testimony today is 21 that he didn't compare to the prior year. 22 THE WITNESS: I may not necessarily have compared 23 every item to the previous year. 24 THE COURT: Let me approach this a different way. 25 How much longer do you expect this cross	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 420 1 is, or various people are, on trial here. 2 MR. KISE: I would respectfully disagree with 3 that, your Honor. 4 MS. HABBA: As would I, your Honor. 5 MR. KISE: His credibility, his veracity, his 6 thoroughness in conducting his job that he got paid 7 millions of dollars a year to do. He was the CPA. He had 8 certain responsibilities under the AICPA standards. Those 9 responsibilities are laid out. If he didn't meet those 10 standards -- he is sitting here answer after answer saying, 11 Nothing came to my attention; I don't recall. The only 12 things he seems to recall, with any degree of specificity, 13 are what the Government wants him to recall. That's a fair 14 summary of his testimony so far. 15 MR. WALLACE: The record saying what? 16 MR. KISE: So we need to be allowed to parse the 17 evidence. We didn't bring this case. 18 THE COURT: But you don't -- you are not allowed 19 to waste time. That's what this is becoming, going through 20 every one of these and getting the same answer, when you 21 can just say, Would your answer be the same. 22 And, as I said, I do this in every trial, and you 23 know what? No one has ever objected to it. 24 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, if I may, this trial is 25 different because we still don't even have clarity on the
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 419 1 examination to take? 2 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor -- 3 THE COURT: That's a simple question. 4 MR. SUAREZ: We have -- 5 THE COURT: If you do it your way. Not my way. 6 MR. SUAREZ: We have Statements of Financial 7 Condition. I would work my hardest to be done today. 8 MR. WALLACE: Today? 9 THE COURT: Well -- 10 MR. WALLACE: Your Honor, at this point I will 11 raise that we have another witness who has come in from out 12 of the town, now in second day of waiting outside, and if 13 they are just going to do this, read every number and say, 14 did he spend the 50 to 60 hours he already testified he 15 spent, this is time wasting. I don't know why they think 16 running out the clock is going to be helpful, but there's 17 no jury. I don't know who we are performing for, at this 18 point. The evidence is clear. He spent 50 to 60 hours a 19 year. The statements say what they say. 20 THE COURT: I'll let -- 21 MR. WALLACE: If we are going to go on all day 22 with Mr. Bender, at some point we would like to have a 23 conference, because we have a witness waiting. 24 THE COURT: I just want to point out to 25 everybody, Mr. Bender is not on trial here. Somebody else	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 421 1 years in question, and for my clients, frankly, it's 2 incredibly important. My clients, some of them did the 3 backup data, that he is complimenting my client from the 4 stand, but I can't ask him specifically, and have no record 5 as to what he relied on with my client Mr. McConney, for 6 instance, or Allen Weisselberg. 7 This is insane. We haven't gotten one answer out 8 of him, and we have not objected to the fact that he is 9 being evasive, but quite honestly, your Honor, he is. He 10 has not answered one question. He has no memory today, as 11 we sit here. 12 MR. KISE: I just want to be clear, your Honor. 13 THE COURT: Go ahead. 14 MR. KISE: The Government has brought a case 15 accusing my client of a staggering fraud, and that is based 16 on year-by-year. They pointed out to you, in this year 17 they made these changes, in this year they made those 18 changes. I mean, it's specific to year. But now, when it 19 comes time for us to defend ourselves and point out the 20 flaws in that case, they want -- 21 THE COURT: You have had plenty of chances to 22 defend yourself, and I've already ruled on them. 23 MS. HABBA: No, your Honor. We disagree with 24 that. 25 MR. KISE: With respect to intent, with respect

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 422 1 to materiality, and with respect to reliance, these 2 concepts are very important, and so we'll attempt to 3 streamline these as much as possible, but they gone back -- 4 THE COURT: You haven't seen that, yet. I made a 5 ruling, and he totally ignored it. I said, I'm not going 6 to let you do property by property, and then he just went 7 on, property by property. 8 MR. KISE: But we have to do property by 9 property, because that's -- the devil is in the details. 10 I'm sorry, but it is. 11 THE COURT: You can do property by property, and 12 you can lump them all together. This is ridiculous. 13 To the reporters, I'm pounding the bench, again. 14 This is ridiculous. 15 MS. HABBA: That's the one thing I agree with 16 you, sir. This is absolutely ridiculous. 17 THE COURT: There's no point in going through 18 each line, when the counsel can ask the witness if his 19 answer would be the same for each line. Then you have got 20 your record on appeal, and then you have got whatever 21 post-trial brief you want to say. I'm just being logical, 22 here. 23 MR. KISE: I'm not sure -- let me be sure I 24 understand what you are saying. So, you are asking us to 25 go line by line, but just ask the same question for each	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 424 1 things together, so we don't waste time. You can include 2 Mar-A-Lago and any other property in whatever question it 3 is, but let's not waste time. I'm just being logical, 4 here. I'm not going to let you ask every single line, when 5 you can just ask, For all the lines, would your answer be 6 the same. You will have your record, you will have what 7 I've heard, and let's just move ahead. You are not going 8 to get away with this. 9 MR. KISE: For the record, I object to that 10 procedure, your Honor. 11 MS. HABBA: As do I, your Honor. 12 MR. ROBERT: As do I. 13 THE COURT: Okay. 14 By the way, you don't even have to say every line 15 on the page. You can say, Would your answer be the same 16 for A, B, C, D, E, F. You can name them all, but you don't 17 have to ask the question again. 18 Q For the questions that we have just run through 19 Mr. Bender, I'm just going to -- 20 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I'm being very delicate, 21 to make sure I don't re-ask the question. 22 Q But, I'm going to go through, and I'm going to 23 question you, for the remaining assets, whether 50 to 60 hours a 24 year was sufficient for you, number one, to determine that the 25 Statement of Financial Condition did not fail to disclose the
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 423 1 line? 2 THE COURT: I'm asking -- 3 MR. KISE: Would your answer be the same -- for 4 example, would your answer be the same as to Trump 5 International Hotel and Tower; would your answer be the 6 same as to Mansion at Seven Springs; would your answer be 7 the same as to partnerships and joint ventures? I mean, 8 I've never had to negotiate how to ask questions, as a 9 defense lawyer, but -- and I think it's highly irregular. 10 I think it makes -- I think it makes a very poor record, 11 frankly. 12 So, this is why I think we should be entitled to 13 present our defense the way we want to. It is going to 14 take some time, but they brought a case that spans a 15 decade, and accuses -- 16 MS. HABBA: Exactly. 17 MR. KISE: -- my client of massive and staggering 18 fraud, they can't condense it all together, because they 19 have a witness waiting, and it's inconvenient. 20 MS. HABBA: And your Honor, your order itself 21 goes to, for instance, Mar-A-Lago, famous Mar-A-Lago, which 22 we are clearly having a discrepancy for, on the value. How 23 can you say that now we can't sit her and ask about the 24 value of Mar-A-Lago? 25 THE COURT: All I'm asking is that you lump	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 425 1 methods used to determine estimated current values and amounts; 2 and number two, that the asset was presented at a value or 3 amount that was not obviously inappropriate. 4 A I'm sorry. Nothing came to my attention, during my 5 compilation procedures. 6 Q And that was true -- 7 MR. SUAREZ: I'm sorry, your Honor. 8 Q But my question, actually, Mr. Bender, was a little 9 different. My question wasn't whether anything came to your 10 attention. My question was whether 50 to 60 hours a year was 11 sufficient for you to determine that the Statement of Financial 12 Condition with respect to, take the Trump International Hotel 13 and Tower, New York, New York, did not fail to disclose the 14 methods used to determine estimated current values and amounts, 15 and presented the value or amount of that asset or liability, in 16 a manner that was not obviously inappropriate. 17 A I was able to meet my standards for my compilation 18 procedures. 19 MR. SUAREZ: The witness is being evasive, which 20 is the reason we've got to go and try to pin him down. He 21 testifies, 50 to 60 hours a year. I'm asking him, with 22 respect to each asset, whether within those 50 to 60 hours 23 a year, it was sufficient for him, the person who signed 24 the accountant's compilation report, to determine whether 25 two very basic and fundamental criteria had been met.

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 426 1 That's the question. Was that enough time for you to make 2 that determination? If his answer is yes, I'll say, same 3 question. Same question for this asset. Same question for 4 this asset. If his answer is no, I'll ask him the same 5 question for each asset, same question for each asset, same 6 question for each asset. 7 THE COURT: I think that's what I'm asking you to 8 do. 9 MR. SUAREZ: And I'm more than happy to do that, 10 your Honor. I'm certainly not intending to upset you or 11 not follow the Court's orders but -- 12 THE COURT: I have a thick skin, but it's really 13 being pierced, here. 14 MR. SUAREZ: But the answer that I'm getting from 15 the witness is not responsive, candidly. 16 Q The question is, Mr. Bender, in 50 to 60 hours a year, 17 were you able to determine whether the asset listed in this 18 Statement of Financial Condition, with respect to each asset 19 listed on the Statement of Financial Condition, the Statement of 20 Financial Condition did not, number one, fail to disclose the 21 methods used to determine estimated current values and amounts; 22 and number two, present an asset or liability at an obviously 23 inappropriate value or amount. 24 Was that enough time for to you make that 25 determination?	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 428 1 Q With respect to the Trump International Hotel and 2 Tower in Las Vegas, Nevada, would you give me the same answer, 3 if I asked you the same question? 4 A Yes, sir. 5 Q With respect to Miss Universe Pageants, would you 6 give me the same answer, if I asked you the same questions? 7 A Yes, sir? 8 Q With respect to real estate licensing developments, 9 would you give me the same answer, if I asked you the same 10 questions? 11 A Yes, sir. 12 Q With respect to the other assets, would you give me 13 the same answer, if I asked you the same question? 14 A Yes, sir. 15 Q Now, the other assets, the other assets are disclosed 16 at a value of $337 million in this Statement of Financial 17 Condition, correct? 18 A Yes, sir. 19 Q You, Mr. Bender, made the determination it was 20 appropriate to present them as other assets, to lump them 21 together in the category of other assets? 22 A It's the client's compilation. They prepared the 23 financial statement. Yeah, they prepared the financial 24 statement. 25 Q You understood which assets were included within the
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 427 1 A It was enough time for me to make that determination, 2 based on my compilation procedures. 3 Q Okay. Same question for Trump International Hotel and 4 Tower. Would you give me the same answer? Yes or no. 5 A Yes, sir. 6 Q And for Mansion at Seven Springs. If I asked you the 7 same question, would you give me the same answer? 8 A Yes, sir. 9 Q With respect to the partnerships and joint ventures, 10 the first one, 1290 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York; 11 and 555 California Street, San Francisco, California, would you 12 give me the same answer, if I asked you the same questions? 13 A Yes, sir. 14 (Continued on the next page.) 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 429 1 value of the other assets. Was that part of your mathematical 2 calculation? 3 A Yes, sir. 4 Q You went through all of the other assets and I, with 5 your Honor's permission, I'd like to pull them up and walk 6 through what other assets fold into other assets. 7 THE COURT: I'm not sure he understood the 8 question before. I think isn't the question, do you know 9 what the other assets were. I'll ask that question, all 10 right. 11 Do you know what the other assets were? 12 THE WITNESS: I know a lot of them. I don't now 13 them all for every year, off the top of my head. 14 THE COURT: Did you know them all for 2013? 15 THE WITNESS: I can't tell you today. 16 THE COURT: Ask him what you want. 17 MR. SUAREZ: Let's pull up the Jeff Supporting 18 Data for other assets. I would just note that part of 19 the argument that we've heard is that assets were moved 20 in or out of this category over the years, for one reason 21 other another, and, whatever motivations the government 22 ascribes to them, that we don't agree with, but, 23 certainly, certainly, the point is the independent 24 accountant that looked at these Jeff Supporting Data in 25 50 to 60 hours a year was able to determine that they

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 430 1 should all be lumped together in the category of other 2 assets and that that same independent accountant and his 3 knowledge of the AICPA guidelines carried that knowledge 4 over from year to year, your Honor, and how those assets 5 changed and what he looked at and whether those assets 6 were lumped together into the category of other assets 7 are the questions that I respectfully intend to ask the 8 witness. 9 THE COURT: Let's start and see how it goes. 10 MR. SUAREZ: Excellent. 11 Q Mr. Bender, other assets, The Apprentice. Did you 12 review the basis for including that asset into the category of 13 other assets? 14 A It wasn't a review but I was happy -- I was content 15 with the classification at that time. 16 Q It was okay with you to classify that as other asset? 17 A At that time, yes. 18 Q Okay. The Wollman Rink, were you able to classify 19 that as an asset in the Statement of Financial Condition? 20 A At that time, yes. 21 Q Is it still okay to call it an other asset? You keep 22 saying "at that time" as if you'd change your mind and would 23 call it another asset today. That would be okay with you? 24 A I would be fine. 25 Q You'd be perfectly fine with calling that an other	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 432 1 assist me, and I would able to consult people. 2 Q Starrett City Associates, $10 million. It was okay 3 for you to lump that into other assets? You didn't have an 4 issue with how that was disclosed, Mr. Bender? 5 A No, I did not have an issue. 6 Q Okay, the President's aircrafts which, in 2013, were 7 disclosed at asset value of $52 million. You can see there 8 the manner in which those asset values were derived at 9 $52 million. You were okay lumping that into other assets? 10 A I was okay at that time. 11 Q Are you okay with it today? I'm trying to understand 12 or qualify "at that time." 13 A Yes. Yes. 14 Q Okay. The triplex -- 15 MR. SUAREZ: I think he I said it right this 16 time, your Honor. 17 Q --listed there at $200 million, it was okay with you 18 to lump that in as an other asset? 19 A It was, yes. 20 Q Okay. The two homes in Palm Beach in 2013 listed as 21 an asset of $9 million and $2,750,000, that was okay for you 22 to list as an other asset? 23 A It was okay. 24 Q In Beverly Hills, California the residence in Beverly 25 Hills, $15 million asset, that was okay to lump it in?
D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 431 1 asset. The President's family receivables, you'd be okay with 2 calling that an other asset? 3 A Yes, sir. 4 Q Trump Model Management disclosed to you $2 million. 5 You'd be okay with calling that an other asset? 6 A Yes, sir. 7 Q The Virginia Vineyards which, in 2013, were valued at 8 $15,439,000, you'd be okay with calling that an other asset? 9 A Yes, sir. 10 Q You made the determination it was okay to include 11 that in the other assets? 12 A The client made the determination. I did not have 13 any problem at the time. 14 Q You had no problem in the manner in which it was 15 disclosed in the financial statement? 16 A Not at that time, no, sir. 17 Q How about today, you think it was inappropriate to 18 disclose that? 19 A As of today, I'm not on top of all standards as of 20 today but I know of nothing -- 21 Q When did you stop being on top of all standard? 22 A I stopped doing compilations about two or three 23 years ago. 24 Q Before that, you were on top of all the standards? 25 A No but I have subject matter specialists who would	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 433 1 A It was okay at that time, yes. 2 Q The licensing deals, the management fees, and 3 incentive fees, it was okay to lump those assets in as other 4 assets? 5 A It was okay at that time. Yes, sir. 6 Q Same question for the accounts payable. Okay to lump 7 them in as other assets? 8 A Those are the liabilities. I take it back. That is 9 a liability on the other side and that's a -- 10 Q Let's put a pause on that. So, in 2013 when you 11 reviewed all of those assets, you were okay lumping them into 12 other assets? 13 A Mazars compiled the financial statement. We had no 14 problem at that time. 15 Q Do you have a problem with the fact in 2013 all of 16 those assets were put together and included as other assets in 17 the Statements of Financial Condition? 18 A We had no problem when we issued the statement. 19 Q Okay, at that time-- withdrawn. In connection with 20 all the assets that we just discussed, the failure -- sorry. 21 You did not know, in connection with all the assets that we 22 just discussed, as other assets, you did not know or notice a 23 failure to disclose the methods used to determine estimated 24 current value among any of those assets? 25 A Not that I recall at this time.

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 434 1 Q And in your estimation, in the 50 to 60 hours you 2 spent on this worksheet, you did not notice that any of these 3 assets were presented at an obviously inappropriate value or 4 amount, did you? 5 A Nothing came to my attention when I compiled the 6 2013 -- 7 Q 2013? 8 A Yeah, it's not shown. 9 Q You would agree with me when you compiled 2013, you 10 had in front of you the number used in '13 and the number that 11 was used in 2012? 12 A Yes. 13 Q So, you can see, for example, when you go all the way 14 to the top, that the President's cash position in June 30, 15 2013 increased to $339 million from $169 million the year 16 before? 17 A His cash and marketable security balance. 18 Q Cash and Marketable Securities increased from $339 19 million from 169 the year before? 20 A That's what it says. Yes, sir. 21 Q In the time that you spent reviewing that, you were 22 comfortable that the method used to determine the estimated 23 current value of all of these assets on the spreadsheet were 24 properly disclosed in the Statement of Financial Condition? 25 A When I was compiling it, not reviewing it. You said	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 436 1 Q If I asked you the same question for the note related 2 to Trump Tower, you'd give me the same answer? 3 A Yes, sir. 4 Q If I asked you the same question for the secured 5 lease bond related to Niketown? 6 A Yes, sir. 7 Q The loan related to 40 Wall Street, you'd give me the 8 same answer? 9 A Yes. 10 Q The loans related to club facilities and related real 11 estate, you'd give me the same answer? 12 A Yes, sir. 13 Q The loan related to Trump Park Avenue, you'd give me 14 the same answer? 15 A Yes. 16 Q So, in reviewing and preparing your Independent 17 Accountant's Compilation Report, you would have been apprised 18 of the fact that there was a loan on Trump Tower, correct? 19 A Yes, sir. 20 Q You would have been apprised to the fact that there 21 was a loan related to 40 Wall Street? 22 A Yes, sir. 23 Q You would have been apprised of the fact that there 24 was a loan related to club facilities and real estate? 25 A Yes, sir.
D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 435 1 reviewed. When I was compiling, nothing came to my attention 2 or bothered me. 3 THE COURT: Five-minute warning. 4 MR. SUAREZ: Let's move back to liabilities. 5 MR. WALLACE: The People would like to request a 6 side-bar before we actually all leave for lunch. So, if 7 that can be accommodated within the five minutes. 8 THE COURT: Let's do that. Great. 9 MR. WALLACE: Now or -- I think five more 10 minutes and then we can talk. 11 THE COURT: Go five more minutes of testimony 12 and then we'll talk. 13 Q Let's pull up the 2013 Statement of Financial 14 Condition. Next page. Next page. Let's go to liability. 15 Here you have the liabilities, Mr. Bender. 16 You correctly noted the accounts payable and 17 accrued expense of liability of $20 million. In the 50 to 18 60 hours you spent, Mr. Bender, producing your Independent 19 Accountant's Compilation Report for the 2013 Statement of 20 Financial Condition, were you able to determine, with respect 21 to accounts payable and accrued expenses, the Statement of 22 Financial Condition did not fail to disclose the methods used 23 to determine the estimated current value, the amount of that 24 liability? 25 A Nothing came to my attention during that time.	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 437 1 Q And the loans related to club facilities and real 2 estate, that's also grouping, correct? 3 A Yes, sir. I believe so. 4 Q That reflects more than one loan? 5 A I'd have to check. I'm not familiar with the debt 6 on the club facilities at the time. 7 Q You certainly would have determined that was an 8 appropriate way to disclose that? 9 A Yes, sir. 10 Q You would have determined that loans related to Trump 11 Park Avenue were appropriately disclosed? 12 A Yes. 13 Q The loans related to the commercial and retained 14 residential portions of Trump Plaza were appropriately 15 disclosed? 16 A Yes, sir. 17 Q Same question with the Trump International Hotel and 18 Tower New York? 19 A Sorry? 20 Q The loan related to the Trump International Hotel and 21 Tower New York? 22 A Nothing came to my attention. 23 Q The loan related to the mansion at Seven Springs, you 24 would have determined that was appropriate to disclose at that 25 time?

Work address: 6 Whitley Penn. 8343 Douglas Avenue Dallas, Texas. 7 DIRECT EXAMINATION 8 BY MR. GABER: 9 Q Good morning, Mr. Harris. 10 A Good afternoon. 11 Q You just gave us your name and place of business. 12 Can you just state your employer and title, for the record? 13 A Yeah. My employer is Whitley Penn. Title is audit 14 partner. 15 Q Mr. Harris, were you involved in the engagement 16 compiling of a 2021 Statement of Financial Condition of Donald 17 J. Trump? 18 A Yes, sir. 19 Q Mr. Harris, how long have you been employed there? 20 A Over 19 years. 21 Q Can you describe your educational background? 22 A I graduated from Texas Tech with an accounting and 23 management degree. 24 MR. KISE: Is his microphone on? 25 THE COURT: You have to speak right into it,	C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 444 1 Organization. 2 Q Is this memo kept among the work papers for this 3 engagement? 4 A Correct. 5 MR. GABER: I'd like to move this into evidence, 6 Judge. 7 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 8 Q So, Mr. Harris, I'd like to direct your attention to 9 the top of the second page of this document, if you would. 10 It says: "On August 17, 2021 Camron Harris, 11 Randy Gregg, Jeff Lawlis held a call with Mark Hawthorn and 12 Jeff McConney. During this call we went through all the prior 13 years' audit and compilation records and asked various 14 questions about the operation and each of the entities. We 15 also discussed the clients acceptance inquiry outlined above. 16 Management provided and answered all questions adequately and 17 was forthright in providing all necessary information." 18 Was-- the meeting occurred as described here? 19 A Yes. 20 Q Who is Jeff McConney? 21 A Jeff McConney was the Vice President of Finance. 22 Q At the Trump Organization? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Who is Mark Hawthorn? 25 A Mark Hawthorn's role was CFO at the Trump
C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 443 1 clearly. 2 A I graduated from Texas Tech with a management and 3 accounting degree and I'm a CPA. 4 Q I believe that you said you were an audit partner, 5 Mr. Harris. Can you describe that role? 6 A Yes, as an audit partner, I lead multiple teams that 7 are in charge of doing attestation work for numerous clients. 8 Q As audit partner, did you have a role in any of 9 Whitley Penn's audit engagement for the Trump Organization? 10 A I only work on attestation engagements. 11 Q All of the attestation agreements? 12 A Correct. 13 Q So, Mr. Harris. I'll bring up a document that 14 Plaintiff's have marked PX-1498 for identification. 15 Are you familiar with this document, Mr. Harris? 16 A Yes, sir. 17 Q Can you describe what this document is? 18 A Yes. This is our client acceptance procedure memo. 19 This memo details out the work that we did, forbearance 20 proposal, and onboarding process and determining if this was 21 a client that we were going to take on. 22 Q When you say this was a client, can you clarify? 23 A Restate, please. 24 Q Who is this? 25 A The engagement that we do for the Trump	C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 445 1 Organization over the resort properties. 2 Q Was the Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. 3 Trump one of the audits and compilations discussed on this 4 call with Mr. Hawthorn and Mr. McConney? 5 A I believe so. 6 Q Do you know what or can you describe what role Jeff 7 McConney played in the SOFC engagement? 8 A Yes, Jeff was one of our main points of contact as 9 we were going through that compilation. He's reviewed a lot 10 of the work prior to it being provided to us. 11 Q Same question for Mr. Hawthorn. 12 A Mr. Hawthorn was not involved in the Statement of 13 Financial Condition. 14 Q Now, move down to the third to last paragraph on this 15 document. It's right there above the section called 16 "background check." It says that-- I'm sorry. It's the one 17 starting on September 1, 2021. It says that "Camron Harris 18 Randy Gregg and Jeff Lawlis held a call with Jeff McConney. 19 During this call we discussed and asked questions regarding 20 the DJT SOFC and reviewed the prior year report." 21 Is prior year review a requirement of 22 compilation engagement? 23 A No. 24 Q Can you tell me what you recall of the discussion at 25 that meeting?

C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 446 1 A We would have gone through the 2020 Statement of 2 Financial Condition that was provided by Jeff McConney to us 3 and just read through it trying to get an understanding of 4 what was included, what the process entailed, and how we were 5 to obtain information and then we asked the client acceptance 6 inquiries as well. 7 Q Prior year inquiries aren't required, as I believe 8 you just testified. Why were you reviewing the previous 9 year's SOFC? 10 A We all prefer to get the prior year papers, if we 11 can, to obtain a better understanding of the work audit that 12 was done in the prior year and to help us, aid us as we begin 13 to plan for potentially doing this engagement. 14 Q Did you ultimately accept that engagement? 15 A Yes. 16 MR. GABER: Can I bring up 1497. 17 Q Mr. Harris, I've handed you a document marked 18 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1497 for identification. Do you recognize 19 this document? 20 A Yes, sir. 21 Q Can you tell me what this document is? 22 A Overall compilation program. So, this program is 23 sort of built out into three sections. A planning section or 24 work papers section and then a reporting section. This 25 program is promulgated from the compilation guidance SSARS	C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 448 1 and then an audit would be the top attestation engagement 2 type where you're truly going into the underlying support 3 documents. 4 Q You mentioned the standard governing compilation 5 engagements. Do you know what those standards are? Can you 6 describe them? 7 A SSARS 80. Yes. SSARS 80, that is the main guidance 8 we file when we go through the compilation. It's a statement 9 on standards for accounting and review services and that's 10 what these programs are derived from that. 11 We followed that as our guide to complete all 12 of the necessary and required steps and procedures. 13 Q At this time, I'd like for you to turn to page 4, on 14 the screen here. Page four says that "Whitley Penn held a 15 planning call with Jeff McConney and Patrick Birney in early 16 October 2021." 17 Were you on this call? 18 A Yes. 19 Q Early October 2021. Can you describe what was 20 discussed at this call? 21 A We described it as our planning call. So, during 22 the planning call, we'd going over introducing our team to 23 the client. We'd also be introduced to the main points of 24 contact that we'd be working with in regards to that 25 engagement.
C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 447 1 which is made by the AICPA. 2 So, this is our guide whenever there is a 3 compilation that shows all the steps that we need to complete 4 as part of the compilation. 5 Q And is this for the Statement of Financial Condition 6 engagement, this particular compilation program? 7 A Correct. 8 MR. GABER: I'd like to move this into evidence. 9 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 10 Q Mr. Harris, take a step back. Can you explain your 11 understanding of what a compilation is, in accounting terms? 12 A Sure. At a compilation, we're receiving information 13 from the client. We're reviewing that for obvious errors. 14 We are then putting it together in a format and presentation 15 that is the proper, in accordance with the applicable 16 framework, that we're doing that compilation in. We do not 17 conclude or do not verify any of the accuracy on any of the 18 information that is provided. 19 Q Is that different than a review or audit engagement? 20 A Yes. 21 Q In what way? 22 A Compilation, we're at lowest attestation, lowest 23 assurance in the attestation agreements. Review would be the 24 next level of an attestation agreement, which would include 25 review, year after year analytics, inquiries with management	Page 449 1 We'd also go through a timeline of when we were 2 going to do this work for them. We also, during that time, 3 we'll ask for updates, things that are going on with the 4 operations of entities, any changes in systems or internal 5 controls and go through inquiries as well. 6 7 (Continued on following page..) 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 450 1 Q At this time, I would like you to flip to page 11. 2 It says there that, "The SOFC is prepared under ASC 3 274, personal financial statements. ASC 274 requires that all 4 assets and liabilities be reported as estimated current values 5 as of the reporting date." 6 What is your understanding of this requirement of ASC 7 274? 8 A Yes. Under ASC, so, all the assets and liabilities, 9 they say current value. That's the key word, versus book value. 10 Like, a G.A.A.P. audit is at book value, versus fair market 11 value, or current values, which is what that's referring to. 12 Q And does ASC 274 cover all personal financial 13 statements under G.A.A.P.? 14 A I couldn't answer that. 15 Q Okay. 16 MR. GABER: So, if we scroll down to page 14. 17 Q First, it says Patrick at the top of the page. Who is 18 Patrick? 19 A Patrick Birney. 20 Q Who is Patrick Birney? 21 A I'm not positive of his title, but he was main point 22 of contact that we had when we were completing Statements of 23 Financial Condition, and prepared and provided a majority of the 24 work papers. 25 Q Okay. So it says, "Patrick explained that he is the	C. GABER: Not all the way. Sorry. Page two. 7 Q So, page two here, this is an email -- or, do you 8 recognize this document? 9 A What I'm holding here is different than that. 10 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 11 proceedings.) 12 A This is different. Yeah. What I'm holding here is 13 not the same thing as what I'm seeing on the screen. 14 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 15 proceedings.) 16 (Whereupon, a document was handed to the 17 witness.) 18 Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. Harris? 19 A Yes. 20 Q Can you -- is this your email address here, at the 21 top? 22 A Yes, it is. 23 Q Okay. And did you send this email? 24 A Yes. 25 MR. GABER: I would like to move Plaintiff's
C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 451 1 primary preparer of the valuations. Patrick obtained all of the 2 necessary information for the valuations from external and 3 internal sources. He worked with other team members to pull 4 this information together, such as Ray Flores. Ray Flores 5 performs the first review of Patrick's spreadsheet and financial 6 statements. Prior to issuance of the SOFC, an individual from 7 upper management of the Trump Organization, and also one of the 8 Trump family members, will read and review the financial 9 statements." 10 Mr. Harris, do you know who the individual from upper 11 management of the Trump Organization was, referred to here? 12 A Jeff McConney. 13 Q And Mr. Harris, do you know who the member of the 14 Trump family who read and reviewed the 2021 financial statement 15 was? 16 A We received the representation letter signed by Donald 17 Trump, Jr., as the trustee. 18 Q It's your understanding that he reviewed the 19 statement? 20 A We provided the final version to Jeff to provide to 21 him, and we got the representation letter returned to us, 22 signed, by Mr. Trump, Jr. 23 Q Thank you. We can move on. 24 Mr. Harris, I'm going to ask you to -- for 25 identification, I'm going to pass you a document that's marked	C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 453 1 Exhibit 1515 into evidence. 2 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 3 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 1515 was received 4 in evidence.) 5 Q So, "Mr. Harris, I have included everything, based on 6 the information I have, but need help on audit committee and RP 7 section below, before getting this over to Felix, to 8 distribute." 9 First, what is RP, in this context? 10 A Related party. 11 Q Okay. And Mr. Harris, looking at this document, what 12 are you asking for here, can you tell me? 13 A This email took place as I was preparing to send out 14 our independence check. 15 Q Is that a conflict check? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And if you go to page three of the document, 18 Mr. Harris, one of the lines, it says, "List the names of the 19 board of directors/trustees, including the chairman of the audit 20 committee." 21 You were asking for that information, then. Do you 22 have an understanding of who those individuals are, for the 23 Trump Organization? 24 A Yes. 25 Q Can you tell me?

C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 454 1 A Donald Trump, Jr. and Eric Trump. 2 Q What do you understand Eric Trump's role to have been 3 with respect to the board of directors/trustees, including the 4 chairman of the audit committee? 5 A As the trustee, executive leadership, corporate 6 governance, tone at the top. 7 Q And Donald Trump, Jr.? 8 A Same responsibilities. 9 Q Did either -- did Eric Trump play any roles as a 10 member of, or chairman of, the audit committee for the Trump 11 Organization? 12 A They do not have an audit committee. 13 Q They do not have -- okay. What interactions did you 14 have with Eric Trump in their role as -- 15 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 16 proceedings.) 17 Q Tone at the top? 18 A The person in charge, they set the tone at the top. 19 The leader. 20 Q And did you have meetings with Eric Trump, in this 21 capacity? 22 A Is this in relation to the Statement of Financial 23 Condition? 24 Q Yes. 25 A No.	C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 456 1 Q And I believe that we were at your counsel's office, 2 we sat in the conference room, there was a stenographer there? 3 A I remember, yes. I remember this. 4 Q Do you remember what I asked you about the audit 5 committee and the annual meetings at the time? 6 A Yeah. 7 Q Okay. And if I were to bring up your transcript, 8 would that potentially refresh your recollection as to answers 9 you gave during that meeting, or during that -- 10 A I don't recall what I said. 11 Q Okay. And would it refresh your recollection if I 12 showed you your testimony from that day? 13 A Yes. 14 MR. GABER: I would like to refresh his rec, so 15 if we look at page 76. 16 (Whereupon, a document was displayed.) 17 Q So, I asked you: 18 "So, in this capacity that we are describing 19 here, did Don, Jr. or Eric certify that there were any 20 internal audit controls, policies or procedures at the 21 Trump Organization that you are aware of?" 22 And you said: 23 "No." 24 And I asked you: 25 "You have described some of what you understand
C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 455 1 Q How about generally? 2 A Who? 3 Q Mr. Eric Trump. Did you have meetings with Mr. Eric 4 Trump regarding other engagements? 5 A Other engagements, yes. 6 Q But you had no other meetings that included you 7 discussing the Statement of Financial Condition? 8 A Yes. 9 Q I had asked you if you had had any meeting with Eric 10 Trump that discussed the Statement of Financial Condition. 11 A No, I did not. 12 Q Did you have an annual meeting with Mr. Eric Trump 13 related to the Trump Organization engagement? 14 A Correct. 15 Q Yes? 16 A Yes. 17 Q The Statements of Financial Condition have been 18 discussed at any of these annual meetings? 19 A No, they were not. 20 Q You sure about that? 21 A Our first meeting took place subsequent to the 22 issuance of the Statement of Financial Condition. 23 Q Mr. Harris, do you remember giving a deposition in May 24 of this year? 25 A Yes.	C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 457 1 Eric's role to be. You mentioned an annual meeting. You 2 had mentioned that you/he is present at meetings between 3 you and the managers of the hotels." 4 You said: 5 "Correct." 6 I asked: 7 "Any other interactions with Mr. Eric Trump in 8 regards to his, like, role as either --" 9 I think the transcript is a little -- 10 "-- in the capacity of an audit committee member, 11 or --" 12 And then you said: 13 "Sure. On the audit side, those are primary 14 discussions." 15 Let me just see. 16 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 17 proceedings.) 18 Q So then, if we skip ahead to 77, on line 11, I asked 19 you: 20 "Just the high level, just the high level 21 managerial operational stuff that you described?" 22 And then you said: 23 "Yup. Exactly right. That annual meeting we 24 have goes through all the engagements which, the Statement 25 of Financial Condition would be a part of that discussion."

C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 458 1 So, does this refresh your recollection as to whether 2 those annual meetings discussed the Statement of Financial 3 Condition? 4 MR. ROBERT: Objection, your Honor. 5 THE COURT: And what's the ground of the 6 objection? 7 MR. ROBERT: I think Mr. Gaber has to go up to 8 the question and answer that's before that, to put that in 9 context. 10 THE COURT: Well, let's do that, unless there's 11 an objection. 12 Q Okay. 13 "Question: Did you have any meeting with either 14 Don, Jr. or Eric, with respect to the SOFCs?" 15 You answered: 16 "Not specifically. Not specifically in relation 17 to the, yeah, Statement of Financial Condition." 18 And then, the question that I just read out. 19 So, while not specifically, did you have any meetings 20 in which the Statement of Financial Condition would be a part of 21 the discussion? 22 A I did not have any meetings with Donald Trump, Jr. or 23 Eric Trump in regards to the Statement of Financial Condition. 24 Q So, when you testified that at the annual meeting that 25 you had that goes through all the engagements, which the	C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 460 1 Q Okay. Mr. Harris, looking at the signature block, can 2 you tell me why this engagement letter is addressed to Mr. Eric 3 Trump? 4 A As the trustee of the revocable trust and most of the 5 properties, assets, liabilities that are included on the 6 Statement of Financial Condition fall under the revocable trust. 7 Q The signature block identifies Mr. Trump as president 8 of the Trump Organization. Did you understand that to be his 9 role at the time of this letter? 10 A Yes. 11 Q The letter then goes on to say: 12 "Mr. Trump -- Dear Mr. Trump, you have requested that 13 we prepare the financial statements of Donald J. Trump, the 14 company, which comprise your Statement of Financial Condition as 15 of June 30, 2021, and the related notes to the financial 16 statements required by accounting principles generally accepted 17 in the United States of America, G.A.A.P., and perform a 18 compilation engagement with respect to these financial 19 statements. We are pleased to confirm our acceptance and 20 understanding of this engagement by means of this letter." 21 So, this is, Whitley Penn will prepare the financial 22 statements and perform a compilation engagement with respect to 23 these statements. Is preparation and performing of the 24 compilation engagement different than compiling the Statement of 25 Financial Condition?
C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 459 1 Statement of Financial Condition would be a part of that 2 discussion -- 3 A I think the question, lines seven and nine, or line 4 nine, would be my answer, that I did not have any meetings in 5 relation. 6 Q Did you discuss the Statement of Financial Condition 7 at the annual meetings in any way? 8 A No. 9 Q That seems -- 10 A Yes. It's contradictory, nine and fifteen are 11 definitely contradictory, but during those annual meetings that 12 we had in January, that's with Eric Trump and his accounting 13 team and the property managers, and we go through the audit and 14 other compilation engagements during that meeting. 15 Q Okay. Let's move on. 16 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 17 to the witness.) 18 Q So Mr. Harris, I'm handing you a document marked PX 19 2300 for identification. Do you recognize this document? 20 A Yes, sir. 21 Q Can you tell me what it is? 22 A Mazars engagement letter. 23 Q Engagement letter for what engagement? 24 A Engagement letter for the Statement of Financial 25 Condition.	C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 461 1 A As part of the compilation engagement, what we were 2 doing is taking the information provided by the client, 3 reviewing that for any obvious errors, and then adjusting it for 4 any presentation or format issues to make sure it's in 5 accordance with that applicable guidance. 6 Q Does preparation include generating valuations of 7 assets or determining the amounts of liabilities in the 8 financial state? 9 A No. We do not verify anything, in a compilation. 10 Q So under, Our Responsibilities, it says, "The 11 objective of our engagement is to prepare financial statements 12 in accordance with G.A.A.P., based on information provided by 13 you, and then B, apply accounting and financial reporting 14 expertise to assist you in the presentation of financial 15 statements, without undertaking to obtain or provide any 16 assurance that there are no material modifications that should 17 be made to the financial statements in order for them to be in 18 accordance with G.A.A.P." 19 Can you describe what you mean, by without undertaking 20 to obtain or provide any assurance? 21 A Correct. As part of a compilation, we could not 22 verify the accuracy of any of the information that is provided, 23 and we do not provide an opinion, or any assurance or 24 conclusion, in regards to the accuracy of the information on 25 that compilation.

C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 462 1 Q Okay. And then a moment ago we discussed the, I 2 believe it's pronounced SSARs? 3 A Correct. 4 Q And you had said you discussed them, but can you tell 5 me what they provide in the context of a compilation engagement, 6 including the ethical principles here? 7 A Yes. Under SSARs, that is the guidance and the rules 8 that we follow. It provides the guidelines that we must follow, 9 and the procedures that we must do to be in compliance with the 10 compilation guidance. 11 Q And then the paragraph below that, it says, "We are 12 not required to, and will not, verify the accuracy or 13 completeness of the information you will provide to us for the 14 engagement, or otherwise gather evidence for the purpose of 15 expressing an opinion or conclusion. Accordingly, we will not 16 express an opinion or conclusion, nor provide any assurance on 17 financial statements." 18 Why are you not required to verify accuracy or 19 completeness of the information? 20 A That's the definition of a compilation. 21 Q So -- 22 A Under -- not required, under a compilation, to do 23 those procedures. 24 Q Okay. And assurance here, again, I think you 25 described it, means what?	C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 464 1 A through H, is it important that a client acknowledge and 2 understand their responsibilities, as described here? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Is it necessary for them to do so in order for Whitley 5 Penn to take an engagement such as this one? 6 A Yes. 7 Q So, beneath the list of responsibilities, the document 8 also says that the Trump Organization would be responsible for, 9 quote, "Designating an individual with suitable skills, 10 knowledge and experience to oversee our preparation of your 11 financial statements." 12 To your knowledge, was somebody at the Trump 13 Organization designated for this purpose, in fact? 14 A Jeff McConney. 15 Q Jeff McConney. 16 So, it also says, "You are also responsible for all 17 management decisions and responsibilities --" Sorry. That's 18 what I just read. 19 Okay. Later in the document, it says, "These 20 responsibilities are fundamental to your undertaking the 21 engagement." 22 I think that you already said that Whitley Penn would 23 require the client to acknowledge all of these things before 24 taking it, but why are they fundamental? Can you explain that? 25 A Under a compilation, we are not doing anything, you
C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 463 1 A We are not providing any opinion or providing any 2 conclusions in regards to the information within the Statement 3 of Financial Condition. 4 Q In the next paragraph it says, "Our engagement cannot 5 be relied upon to identify or disclose any financial statement, 6 misstatement, including those caused by fraud or error, or to 7 identify or disclose any wrongdoing within the entity, or 8 noncompliance with laws and regulations." 9 Is this also part of the compilation standards that 10 you have discussed? 11 A Correct. 12 Q So, this is set by the AICPA for any compilation 13 engagement? 14 A Correct. 15 Q Can I direct to you page two? Under the header, Your 16 Responsibilities, it says, "This engagement is -- the engagement 17 to be performed is conducted on the basis that you acknowledge 18 and understand that our role is, to prepare financial statements 19 in accordance with G.A.A.P., and assist you in the presentation 20 of the financial statements in accordance with G.A.A.P. You 21 have the following overall responsibilities that are fundamental 22 to our undertaking the engagement, in accordance with SSARs." 23 And then there's a list here of several items that fit 24 that description. Can I just ask, as a general matter, for all 25 of the responsibilities listed here in the A through G -- sorry,	C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 465 1 know, to verify the accuracy of that information, so that 2 responsibility and accountability follows within the client to 3 be doing those things so that the information is correct, 4 because we didn't do anything to verify that it is correct. 5 Q And then the last sentence on this page, it says, "You 6 are responsible for evaluating the adequacy and results of these 7 services performed, and accepting responsibility for such 8 services." 9 What does that mean to you, for a client to be 10 responsible for those items? 11 A The client needs to make representations that the 12 information that they are providing is accurate and complete, 13 and in accordance with the framework that we are following. 14 Q Can we go down to the next page, then? 15 On page three of this, under, Our report, it says, "As 16 part of our engagement, we'll issue a report on the compiled 17 financial statements that will state that we did not audit or 18 review the financial statements, and that accordingly, we do not 19 express an opinion, a conclusion, or provide assurance on them." 20 I believe that you describe the assurance issue. Then 21 it says, "Our report will disclose," and for the sake of time, 22 I'll just say that there's a long list here of disclosures that 23 the report will include. Are you able to summarize what these 24 disclosures are? 25 A Under the compilation guidance, again, we, the

C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 466 1 management, acknowledged that the framework was going to be 2 under G.A.A.P., and so we reviewed all of the information that 3 we were providing, reviewed the Statement of Financial Condition 4 and the report to ensure that it's in that proper presentation 5 and format that follows G.A.A.P., but then you must disclose any 6 departures from G.A.A.P., and so these are the departures from 7 G.A.A.P. 8 Q So, departures from G.A.A.P. are required disclosure 9 in a compilation report? 10 A Correct. 11 Q And so, would each one of the disclosures here be 12 necessary to disclose, before you were to issue your compilation 13 report? 14 A Restate that question? 15 Q So, if there is a departure from G.A.A.P. in the 16 financial statement, you would -- would you issue the 17 compilation report, without disclosure of that departure? 18 A No. 19 Q Okay. At the bottom of this paragraph it says, "If 20 these provisions were to be included in the financial 21 statements," referring to the disclosures that we just 22 discussed, "they might influence the user's conclusions about 23 the entities' financial position, results of operations, and 24 cash flows. Accordingly, the financial statements will not be 25 designed for those who are not informed about such matters.	C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 468 1 here, the disclosure of the G.A.A.P. exceptions, or is it just 2 broadly, that's construed. 3 A I believe this paragraph, specifically, that we are 4 referring to, is talking about the disclaimers and the 5 differences, those departures and the differences, those could 6 make. 7 Q So Mr. Harris, having gone through the statements that 8 Whitley Penn has made in the engagement letter, and looking at 9 the Trump's organizations responsibilities in the engagement, 10 broadly speaking, what's the role of this mutual responsibility 11 and obligation in the engagement letter? 12 A The majority of the responsibility falls upon the 13 client to do A through G, or H, that was listed on that previous 14 page, whereas part of our compilation procedures -- again, 15 you're gathering information from a client, reviewing it for 16 obvious errors, and putting it into a usable format that's in 17 accordance with the framework. 18 MR. GABER: Can we go to the bottom of the 19 document? 20 Q So, at the bottom it says, response, "This letter 21 correctly sets forth our understanding, The Trump Organization, 22 acknowledged and agreed on behalf of the Trump Organization by," 23 and then do you recognize that signature, Mr. Harris? 24 A Yes, I do. 25 Q Whose signature is that?
C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 467 1 There may be circumstances in which the report differs from the 2 expected form and content." 3 Can you explain to me what it means here, that the 4 provisions -- if the provisions were to be included, they might 5 influence the user's conclusions? What does that mean? 6 A That if all this information was included, that the 7 amounts could be different. 8 Q And what does it mean that the statements will not be 9 designed for those who are not informed about such matters? 10 A Anybody that uses the statement should understand that 11 the numbers have not been verified, we have not verified the 12 accuracy of them, and we have not concluded or provided any sort 13 of assurance on them, and that these departures could change the 14 amounts that are being presented, on that statement of the 15 financial condition. So, any user needs to be aware of those 16 disclaimers. 17 Q Is that for the benefit of Whitley Penn, as the 18 compiler? 19 You just described that it -- that you hadn't 20 performed assurance on it, and so the user would need to be 21 aware of that. 22 A I think part of it, yeah, it's for Whitley Penn. Yes. 23 Q Okay. So is the warning here, that users might reach 24 a different conclusion about the financial condition of Donald 25 J. Trump, is that wording based only on the G.A.A.P. exceptions	C. Harris - Direct by Mr. Gaber Page 469 1 A Eric Trump. 2 Q Did you have an understanding of whether Eric Trump 3 had the authority to retain Whitley Penn for this engagement, 4 based on his position at the Trump Organization? 5 A I would presume the trustee and president would be 6 able to make that decision. 7 Q Okay. And would Whitley Penn perform a compilation 8 report without an engagement letter? 9 A No. 10 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 11 to the witness.) 12 Q So Mr. Harris, I'm handing you, for identification, a 13 document that has been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 1512. 14 Do you recognize this document Mr. Harris? 15 A Yes. I recognize this document. 16 Q Can you describe to me what it is? 17 A Yeah. Email from another engagement team member to 18 me. He was trying to put the agenda together that we would 19 provide the client, as we started to begin the planning and the 20 compilation for the Statement of Financial Condition. 21 (Continued on the next page.) 22 23 24 25

C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 470 1 MR. GABER: First, I'd like to move this document 2 into evidence. 3 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 4 Q Can you tell me who Mr. McKinnell is? 5 A Steven McKinnell was the senior manager on the 6 Statement of Financial Condition. 7 Q Okay. "I tried to strip this down to keep it a 8 compilation scope." Then he goes to SSARS 80. Then says "if 9 we do anything more than that, we run the risk of performing 10 assurance procedures." 11 Can you explain what you understood Mr. 12 McKinnell to be concerned about here? 13 A He was pulling this agenda from our normal planning 14 agenda that we use for, primarily, our audit and review 15 engagements; and, so, there's additional items that are 16 already included on that template agenda that were not 17 necessary to be on it for a compilation. 18 Q I believe that the agenda is attached to this 19 document, it's pages 2 and 3. 20 Can you identify what the agenda items are that 21 he was concerned about? 22 A It's our standard agenda. The management inquiries 23 are-- a few of them are taken off on that. 24 Q Sorry? 25 A A few of the management inquiries, number seven,	C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 472 1 report. 2 Q The Statement of Financial Condition, the final 3 report. What are the components of this document? 4 A This document would be made up of our compilation 5 report, which is our letter to the trustee that goes at the 6 front of this report and then it's going to include the 7 Statement of Financial Condition as well as the footnotes and 8 disclosures. 9 MR. GABER: First, I'd like to admit this 10 document in evidence. 11 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 12 Q You just said, Mr. Harris, you'd include our 13 compilation report. Whitley Penn is responsible for the 14 compilation report? 15 A When I say compilation report, I'm referencing just 16 the one page that has our signature on it. 17 Q In addition to the compilation report, you mentioned 18 the Statement of Financial Condition and the notes. 19 Who is responsible for the content of the 20 Statements of Financial Condition? 21 A The client's responsible for that. 22 Q Who's responsible for the notes? 23 A The client is responsible for them. 24 Q So, at the top of this, this is the report that you 25 were describing, right?
C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 471 1 that's the main part of what he was referring to. 2 Q As beyond the scope of the compilation engagement? 3 A Not beyond the scope. Sorry. Restate your original 4 question. 5 Q I had just asked you, I believe, and the last answer, 6 you said that Mr. McKinnell was looking at the agenda and 7 trying to make sure the items that were going to be discussed, 8 that would put you in the position of providing too much 9 assurance or getting rid of the audit scope of the 10 compilation. I was trying to understand and identify any of 11 the items here. 12 A Yes, number seven, the management inquiries. It's 13 larger than the audit review agenda. There's more items. 14 Q Looking at this agenda, as you and Mr. McKinnell, as 15 the engagement team, and two other client teams Jeff McConney, 16 Raymond Flores and Patrick Birney, these were the individuals, 17 the ones at this meeting? 18 A Correct. 19 Q It seems we don't have paper copies of this. Are you 20 comfortable with just reviewing it on the screen, Mr. Harris? 21 A Yes. 22 Q Do you recognize this document? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Can you tell us what this is? 25 A Our Statement of Financial Condition, the final	C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 473 1 A Correct. 2 Q It says: "The trustee of the Donald J. Trump 3 Revocable Trust dated April 7, 2014 as amended on behalf of 4 Donald J. Trump, are responsible for the accompanying personal 5 financial statement which comprises the Statement of Financial 6 Condition as of June 30, 221 and related notes to the 7 financial statement in accordance with accounting principals 8 generally accepted in the Untied States of America." 9 Then it says: "We had performed a compilation 10 engagement in accordance with the statements on standards for 11 accounting and review services promulgated by the Accounting 12 and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. We did not audit 13 or review the financial statement nor were we required to 14 perform any procedure to verify the accuracy or the 15 completeness of information provided by the trustee of Donald 16 J. Trump Revocable Trust dated April 7, 2014, as amended on 17 behalf of Donald J. Trump. Accordingly, we do not express an 18 opinion, a conclusion, nor provide any form of assurance on 19 this personal financial statement." 20 Can you explain why this language is included in 21 your report? 22 A It's going back through a lot of that compilation 23 guidance that's stating that the client is ultimately 24 responsible for this, as the accounting firm would be 25 responsible for taking the information that the client

C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 474 1 provided, reviewing it for obvious errors, and putting it 2 into the format that would then be used by GAAP in this 3 circumstance. 4 Q Who is this addressed to, this report? 5 A The trustee. 6 Q It says: "The effects of these departures. These 7 departures above," being the GAAP disclosures that were 8 referenced in the engagement letter. You can correct me if 9 I'm wrong. "From the accounting principles generally accepted 10 in the United States of America have not been determined." 11 Can you explain that? 12 A As part of the compilation guidance, the accountants 13 are not responsible to understand what the effects of those 14 departures from GAAP are that we've included within that 15 disclaimer paragraph. 16 THE COURT: Five-minute warning. 17 Q It says: "Because of the significance and 18 pervasiveness of the matters discussed above." 19 I'll first ask, what are the matters discussed 20 above? What do you understand that to be? 21 A From the previous page, it's discussing who's 22 responsible and that it's in GAAP, that it would not provide 23 our assurance or conclusion on it. It includes the departure 24 from GAAP as well. 25 Q It says: "Makes it difficult to assess their impact	C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 476 1 in there so that the user will refer back to that compilation 2 report we just went through that has those certain departures 3 and some of that wording that provided no assurance on this 4 information. 5 Q Right before we take a break, it says "assets are 6 stated at their estimated current values and liabilities at 7 their estimated current amount using various valuation 8 methods." 9 Can you explain what that means? 10 A The client prepared calculations for the assets and 11 liabilities-- well, for the assets in regards to -- they 12 prepared calculations to get to the fair market value, the 13 current value, or selling price of these assets. 14 Q The client prepared them? 15 A Yes. 16 MR. GABER: Judge, we can take a break now. 17 Okay? 18 THE COURT: Another ten-minute break. Take 19 15 minutes. 20 (Recess taken. ) 21 THE COURT: Let's get the witness. 22 (Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom.) 23 THE COURT: Please proceed. 24 Q Mr. Harris, you said the client is responsible for 25 calculating the assets and liability in the Statement of
C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 475 1 on the person financial statement. Users of this personal 2 financial statement should recognize that they might reach 3 different conclusions about the financial condition of Donald 4 J. Trump if they had access to a revised Statement of 5 Financial Condition prepared in conformity with the accounting 6 principles generally accepted in the United States of 7 America." 8 Who are the users of this personal financial 9 statement? 10 A That, as my understanding, this requirement came 11 from a lender. 12 Q Do you know which lender? 13 A I believe Deutsche. 14 Q Does this paragraph only refer to the disclosed 15 exceptions to GAAP listed on the previous page? 16 We can go up to that, if you want to see it? 17 A Yeah. I think it's referring exactly to those 18 departures from GAAP as well as this other paragraph in 19 regards to effects of COVID on the operations of the assets. 20 Q This here, this is, it's labeled The Notes to 21 Statement of Financial Condition. 22 Why does it say in parentheses Independent 23 Accountant's Compilation Report? 24 A That's a requirement in the disclosure checklist for 25 compilation to include that wording in there. I think it's	C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 477 1 Financial Condition? 2 A Correct. 3 Q Did Whitley Penn determine any of the values 4 presented in the Statements of Financial Condition? 5 A No, we did not verify the accuracy of the 6 information. 7 Q Did Whitley Penn determine any valuation methods for 8 the client to use? 9 A No, we did not determine any valuation methods. 10 Q Mr. Harris, I'm going to hand you an exhibit marked 11 PX 050101, slip-sheet for a document provided to us. Do you 12 recognize the spreadsheet, Mr. Harris? 13 A Yes, sir. 14 Q Can you tell me what that is? 15 A This worksheet, the Excel worksheet was provided by 16 the client. It included all of the asset amounts that feed, 17 tie back into the Statement of Financial Condition. 18 Q Is that the final version that was used to tie back 19 to your final compilation report? 20 A If it was pulled from our work papers, it would be 21 the final version. 22 Q I can represent to you it was pulled from your work 23 papers. 24 A Yes. 25 MR. GABER: I ask that this be admitted into

C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 478 1 evidence. 2 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 3 MR. GABER: I'm not sure that the engagement 4 letter, if I officially said the magic words. In risk of 5 repeating myself, I'd ask that that be moved into 6 evidence as well. 7 THE COURT: At the risk of repeating myself, 8 granted. It's in evidence. 9 Q So, what do you use this document for when completing 10 your compilation engagement? 11 A This document provided by the client we review it 12 for obvious errors. So, we scroll through it looking for 13 mathematical errors and going through everything that is on-- 14 everything on here to see if there's obvious errors we come 15 across. This would be the source document that ties back to 16 the Statement of Financial Condition. 17 Q Did you rely on any other backup or support documents 18 in connection with the 2021 SOFC engagement? 19 A There were multiple prepared by the client, work 20 papers that were provided to us by the client and they all 21 stated in our engagement letter so there are other details 22 that are in there that tie back to the Statement of Financial 23 Condition outside of just this one document, but, this 24 includes all of the cash, the escrow, and then all of the 25 property and investment accounts.	C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 480 1 includes representations that management is making, that 2 representations are stating that the information that the 3 client has provided is accurate, complete, and in accordance 4 with applicable framework. 5 Q The second paragraph here says: "Certain 6 representations in this letter are described as being limited 7 to matters that are material. Items are considered material, 8 regardless of size, if they involve an omission or 9 misstatement of accounting information such that in the light 10 of surrounding circumstances there is a substantial likelihood 11 that individually or in the aggregate, they would 12 significantly influence the judgment made by a reasonable user 13 based on the SOFC." 14 I just want to ask you, what does it mean if the 15 items are considered material, regardless of size? 16 A On the compilation we did prepare materiality 17 calculation but, yeah, if anything can be misconstrued by the 18 user, regardless of that materiality that we use, yeah, it 19 could significantly influence or change your judgment. 20 Q It says: "We acknowledge our responsibility and have 21 fulfilled our responsibilities for the preparation and fair 22 presentation of the SOFC in accordance with accounting 23 principles generally accepted in the United States of America 24 except for the following items:" Then there's, I believe, a 25 list, we've grown very familiar with, of GAAP exceptions but
C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 479 1 Q So, any asset or liability listed in this Statement 2 of Financial Condition would be found in this document? 3 A The liabilities are not within this work paper. 4 Q Where do the liabilities come from? 5 A We have a separate detail for an accounts payable 6 detail and notes payable detail that are included within our 7 work papers that detail out all of those portions, the 8 liability portion of Statement of Financial Condition. 9 Q Okay. You said that Whitley Penn would correct any 10 obvious errors in this document; is that correct? 11 A Management or the clients would correct any errors 12 that we noted. Any obvious errors, we would not make the 13 corrections. 14 Q Did you perform any analysis or analytic procedure on 15 the assets listed here? 16 A No, we do not. 17 Q I'm going to present you an exhibit now marked 18 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1502 for identification. 19 Do you recognize this document, Mr. Harris? 20 A Yes, sir. 21 Q Can you tell me what it is? 22 A This is our representation letter. This letter is 23 prepared by us but we provide it to the client to review and 24 sign and return to us. It is the last work paper that we 25 receive prior to issuing our final compilation report and it	C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 481 1 would Whitley Penn have issued the SOFC if the client did not 2 make this representation about the GAAP exceptions? 3 A No. 4 Q Now, in the interest of time, I won't read through 5 all the representations but there's a number of 6 representations in this document that are being made. 7 Would Whitley Penn issue the compilation report 8 without these representations from management? 9 A We would not issue a report without getting the 10 signed representation letter. 11 Q In this form? 12 A In? 13 Q Signed representation. Would Whitley Penn have 14 issued the 2021 SOFC without a signed representation letter in 15 this form? 16 A This form? 17 Q This letter. Not any letter. A letter that lists 18 out everything here? 19 A Correct. 20 MR. GABER: Apparently, I have not moved to 21 admit this into evidence. I'd like to do so. 22 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 23 MR. ROBERT: Can we ask Mr. Sherief to speak a 24 little more into the microphone. 25 MR. GABER: I'll try that. Can we scroll to the

C. Harris - Direct/Gaber Page 483 1 and he concluded later on, reached back out stating it was no 2 longer necessary. 3 Q Is the Trump Organization still a client of Whitley 4 Penn on other engagements? 5 A Yes. 6 MR. GABER: Nothing further. Thank you, Mr. 7 Harris. 8 THE COURT: Cross-examination? 9 MR. ROBERT: At this time, we reserve to be able 10 to call the witness back during our case, pursuant to the 11 order of stipulation that we had. 12 THE COURT: Counsels, step up. 13 (Side-bar discussion held off the record.) 14 THE COURT: So, the defendants are reserving the 15 right to call Mr. Harris back for cross-examination and 16 we're going to go with Bender at this point. Back to 17 Bender, correct? 18 MR. ROBERT: Correct, your Honor. Thank you, 19 sir. 20 MR. WALLACE: If they call Mr. Harris on their 21 case in chief, it would be a direct examination and not a 22 cross-examination. 23 MR. ROBERT: That's fine, your Honor. 24 THE COURT: All agreed. 25 (Whereupon, Mr. Bender resumes the stand.)	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 485 1 THE WITNESS: Counsel. 2 Q You spoke with your counsel? 3 A Yes. 4 MR. SUAREZ: May I inquire which counsel he 5 spoke with? 6 THE COURT: Yes. 7 Q Which counsel did you speak with? 8 A I had lunch with counsel from Blank Rome and Wilson 9 Elser. 10 Q Did either of the counsel tell you how you should 11 testify here today? 12 A No, sir. 13 Q Okay. 14 MR. SUAREZ: We'll pull up Plaintiff's 15 Exhibit 741. 16 Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. Bender? 17 A Yes, I do. 18 Q What is this document? 19 A This is the representation letter for the 20 compilation of the personal financial statement of Donald J. 21 Trump as of June 30, 2016. 22 Q Did you draft this document? 23 A Did I draft it? I supervised it. I don't know if I 24 drafted it or a member of my team drafted it. 25 Q What member of your team would have drafted this

D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 486 1 document? 2 A I couldn't answer that without seeing the work 3 papers. 4 Q Just to be clear, which work papers? 5 A In our binders there are all these papers are list 6 and tells you who worked on the -- 7 Q Those binders would tell me which individual person 8 actually drafted this management representative letter? 9 A It wouldn't tell me who drafted it, but might tell 10 me who worked on it. 11 Q Did you discuss the contents of this management 12 representation letter with anyone at Trump Organization? 13 A I don't recall. 14 Q Did any member of your team discuss this letter with 15 anyone at the Trump Organization? 16 A Nobody from my team discussed it, other than me, if 17 I would have discussed it. 18 Q Why is that? 19 A Because nobody else would have -- would have come to 20 me. 21 Q You were the person that had communications with the 22 Trump Organization on behalf of your firm? 23 A Not on all matters. 24 Q As it relates to the compilations of the President's 25 Statements of Financial Condition, were you the individual	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 488 1 Q Portal? 2 A Yeah. 3 Q What is portal? 4 A Put into a portal. 5 Q Would you review all the documents that were put into 6 a portal by the Trump Organization? 7 A Would I personally do it? 8 Q Yes. 9 A Not necessarily, no, sir. 10 Q Who would review it on your behalf? 11 A On this engagement or any engagement? 12 Q On any engagement with the Trump Organization? 13 A Items, in general, that went into a portal in later 14 years would have been put-- certain interns would have loaded 15 it into another binder. 16 Q Who would have reviewed that for you? 17 A Who would have reviewed it? 18 Q Yes. The documents that were uploaded to the portal, 19 who would have reviewed it for you? 20 A I don't know if anybody reviewed it after it went 21 into the binder. What do you mean by review? 22 Q Do you know what it means to review a document? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Okay. If documents were uploaded by the Trump 25 Organization to Mazars portal, who would have reviewed the
D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 487 1 that had discussions with staff at the Trump Organization? 2 A Members of my team could have had discussions also. 3 Q In connection with the 2016 Statement of Financial 4 Condition, which members of your team could have had 5 discussions with staff at the Trump Organization? 6 A I would need to see the binders to see who worked on 7 it. 8 MR. SUAREZ: You can turn to the following page, 9 please. The following page. 10 Q Here at the bottom of this document, are you aware 11 whether this document was actually signed by Mr. Weisselberg 12 or Mr. Trump, Jr. 13 A It appears to be their signatures. 14 Q Who would you know that? 15 A I recognize their signatures. 16 Q How is that the case? 17 A I've seen their signatures a number of times over 18 the years. 19 Q Okay. How was this letter transmitted to Mazars? 20 A I can't be 100 percent sure. 21 Q How do you think that the letter was transmitted to 22 Mazars? 23 A Either by e-mail or portal. 24 Q Excuse me? 25 A Either by e-mail or portal.	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 489 1 documents? 2 A Again, the word "review" I'm not going to use but 3 who would have looked at the documents is what other staff 4 member subsequently pulled it up the files to work on that 5 engagement. 6 Q Okay. Are you mindful of the difference between 7 looking at a document and reading it? 8 A Yes. 9 Q What is the difference between looking at a document 10 and reading it? 11 A Reading it is reading the whole document. Looking 12 at it would have been to look -- 13 Q Looking at it is just to observe the fact that a 14 document exists? 15 A Yes. They would have looked more looked at it if 16 they needed the document, they would have used it, in 17 general. 18 (Continued on the following page..) 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 490 1 Q Who would have read and comprehended the documents 2 that were uploaded by the Trump Organization in the Mazars 3 portal? 4 A Whichever staff member would have been assigned to 5 work on an engagement would have done whatever procedures were 6 required for the engagement they were working on. 7 Q Okay. And in connection with the 2016 compilations 8 report for the Statement of Financial Condition, who would have 9 read and reviewed the documents that were uploaded in the Mazars 10 portal by the Trump Organization? 11 A I'm not sure it went into the portal. I'm just 12 saying, it's a possibility. 13 Q So, the Trump Organization, it's possible, could have 14 been uploading documents into the portal, but you don't know who 15 would have read those documents? 16 A Any person who would have signed off on the document, 17 or on the binder -- any staff member who would have worked on 18 the, prepared the work papers, an individual entity, would sign 19 off on the work papers that they worked on. 20 Q But you don't know who that was? 21 A On which occasion? 22 Q In the connection with the 2016 compilation report for 23 the Statement of Financial Condition. 24 A You need to look in the binder and see who signed off 25 on the binder.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 492 1 financial reporting expertise to assist you in the presentation 2 of the financial statement, without undertaking to obtain or 3 provide any assurance that there are no material modifications 4 that should be made to the financial statement in order for it 5 to be in accordance with accounting principles generally 6 accepted in the United States." 7 Do you see that? 8 A Yes, sir. 9 Q All right. What accounting and financial reporting 10 expertise did you apply to assist the Trump Organization in the 11 presentation of the financial statement? 12 A I applied compilation procedures, as deemed necessary 13 to do this engagement. 14 Q Any others? 15 A I can't tell you what I did for the June 30, 2016 16 statement without my binder to see if I did anything else that I 17 could find. 18 Q So, paragraph one of this document says, "The 19 objective of our engagement is to prepare the financial 20 statements in accordance with accounting principles generally 21 accepting in the United States of America, based on information 22 provided by you." 23 Do you see that? 24 A Yes, sir. 25 Q So, "you," is the Trump Organization, in this case?
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 491 1 Q Are these physical binders? 2 A Electronic binders. 3 Q They are electronic binders. Did you access to the 4 electronic binders? 5 A Yes. 6 Q And in connection with preparing your compilation 7 report for the Statement of Financial Condition, did you read 8 and understand the documents that were in the electronic 9 binders? 10 A I did not read -- all I did not necessarily read all 11 of the documents. 12 Q Okay. 13 MR. SUAREZ: If we can please turn to Plaintiff's 14 Exhibit 740, and if we can zoom into the section that says, 15 Our responsibilities. 16 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 17 to the witness.) 18 A Excuse me. Which paragraph? 19 Q We are looking here at, Our responsibilities, and you 20 would agree, Mr. Bender, that this was the engagement letter 21 prepared by Mazars in connection with the 2016 compilation 22 report for the Statement of Financial Condition? 23 A Yes, sir. 24 Q Okay. Do you see in paragraph two, where it says, 25 "The objective of our engagement is to apply accounting and	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 493 1 A Yes, sir. 2 Q They would provide, you, Mazars, through Mr. Bender, 3 information; correct? 4 A They provided us information, that we do compilation 5 procedures. 6 Q Okay. And then you, Mazars, undertook the 7 responsibility to apply accounting and financial reporting 8 expertise. In the second paragraph. Do you see, in the second 9 paragraph -- 10 A Yes, sir. 11 Q -- it says, "Apply accounting and financial reporting 12 expertise?" 13 A To assist. 14 Q To assist. So, you undertook, you promised the Trump 15 Organization that you were going to apply Mazars allegedly 16 considerable accounting and financial reporting expertise to 17 assist the Trump Organization. 18 A We were engaged to compile financial statements. 19 Q But that's not what this says. This doesn't say that, 20 We agree that it is our responsibility to apply compilation 21 procedures, Mr. Bender. This goes a step further. It says that 22 you are going to assist them in the presentation of the 23 financial statements. 24 A Without undertaking or obtaining or providing any 25 assurance that there are no material modifications that should

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 494 1 be made. 2 Q And granted, it says that, but what meaning do you 3 ascribe to the concept that there was expertise that you were 4 going to apply to assist your client in preparing those 5 financial statements? 6 A If you would need a further definition, I would have 7 to reach out. We would need to get somebody who is an expert in 8 compilations. 9 Q So, you are not sure of what additional expertise was 10 applied to the Trump Organization. 11 A I would want to get expert help. 12 Q And is that something that we would be able to 13 determine, from your time records? Did you log this in your 14 time entries? 15 A Did I do the -- 16 Q Yes. 17 A Did I -- 18 Q Did you maintain time entries? All the lawyers in 19 private practice are still traumatized by time entries. 20 A I did time sheets. 21 Q You do time sheets. 22 A Yes. 23 Q And you maintain time sheets in connection with your 24 work on the compilation reports for the Statements of Financial 25 Condition?	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 496 1 Q And if you needed to do it, how would you do it? 2 A I would load my time entry program. 3 MR. WALLACE: Objection, at this point. 4 I interrupted the witness. I apologize. 5 MR. SUAREZ: We'll move on. 6 Next page. 7 Q Do you see this disclaimer language here, Mr. Bender, 8 where it says that your own report will include the following 9 and, then it has a disclaimer? 10 A Yes, sir. 11 Q And if I were to pull up the compilation report for 12 2016, Plaintiff's Exhibit 742 -- excuse me, Plaintiff's 13 Exhibit 756, Plaintiff's Exhibit 756, that would have the same 14 disclaimer? 15 MR. WALLACE: Objection. I'm not sure the record 16 it clear what Plaintiff's Exhibit 756 is. 17 THE WITNESS: That's what I want to make sure. 18 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 19 to the witness.) 20 A Yes, sir. 21 Q We are going to blow up 756, and it will show the 22 disclaimer, and that disclaimer appears there, on the second 23 paragraph of 756. 24 A No. That's the last paragraph. 25 Q Last paragraph?
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 495 1 A Yes, sir. 2 Q And would those time sheets adequately describe the 3 accounting and financial reporting expertise that you applied to 4 assist in the presentation of the financial statements? 5 A I don't think -- you would have to check to see if 6 there were descriptions. 7 Q All right. And how were those time sheets kept? 8 A Electronically. 9 Q Are they in the binders? 10 A No, sir. 11 Q Where are they kept, in the Mazars universe? 12 A You would have to speak to somebody in internal 13 accounting. 14 Q The last time -- you retired from Mazars in what year, 15 Mr. Bender? 16 A '22. 17 Q In 2022? And at that time, if you needed to pull up 18 your accounting records to see your time sheets and your time 19 entries, how would you do that? 20 A I would have the ability to pull up most of those, 21 that information, yes. 22 Q You would have had the ability? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Affirmatively had the ability to do? 25 A Yes.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 497 1 A Not the second paragraph. 2 Q Significance and pervasiveness of the matters 3 discussed above? 4 A Yes, sir. 5 Q And the engagement letter was a prerequisite to you 6 getting the engagement to prepare the compilation report; 7 correct? 8 A We might have started the procedures before we 9 received the physical engagement letter. 10 Q So, you did not need an engagement letter to start the 11 procedure; is that your testimony? 12 A We might have started it without the -- without the -- 13 Q My question is a little different. Did you need the 14 engagement letter to start the procedures? 15 A I did not need the engagement letter to start the 16 procedures. 17 Q Do the accounting, the accounting, the CPA accounting 18 guidelines require you to have an engagement letter before you 19 perform a compilation report? 20 A I would have to check. I'm not sure, off the top of 21 my head. 22 THE COURT: Ten-minute warning. 23 MR. SUAREZ: Thank you, sir. 24 Q If the engagement letter, in theory, predates the 25 compilation report, and in fact predates the compilation report,

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 498 1 how would you know which disclosures were appropriate to include 2 in your accountant's compilation report, if you had not even 3 begun the engagement, Mr. Bender? 4 A Well, can you clarify what you mean by disclosure? 5 Q Sure. How would you know that this clause was 6 required in your compilation report, ahead of time? 7 A If the Trump Organization would have informed us that 8 they wanted to change the level of work we had done before. 9 They had not informed us of such a change. 10 Q But this clause isn't standard operating procedure in 11 a compilation report; correct? 12 A No, sir. 13 Q You would have to become familiar with the accounting 14 and financial reporting of the organization in order to 15 determine which clause you needed to include as a disclaimer; 16 correct? 17 A Yes, sir. 18 Q And you would do that, in theory, prior to preparing a 19 compilation report? 20 A Yes, sir. 21 Q Okay. And the next page, as to cash and marketable 22 securities and hedge funds, escrow reserve, deposits and, 23 pre-paid taxes -- 24 MR. WALLACE: Objection. It says expenses, not 25 taxes.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 500 1 Q Correct? 2 MR. SUAREZ: I'm going to adopt your Honor's 3 order and direction, to say the same question with respect 4 to each asset. I just want to make sure that I've got the 5 question down right. 6 Q With respect to the escrow reserve, deposits and 7 prepaid expenses identified as $28,010,000, were you able to 8 determine that there was no failure to disclose the methods used 9 to determine estimated current values and amounts for that 10 asset? 11 A Yes. I believe so. 12 Q Is that yes? 13 A Yes. 14 Q Yes. Same question for Trump Tower? 15 A Just reword the question one more time? Or reread the 16 question? 17 THE COURT: Do you want to repeat? 18 MR. SUAREZ: Please. 19 THE COURT: Okay. 20 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the 21 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.) 22 A Yes, I was. 23 Q Same question for Trump Tower? 24 A Yes, sir. 25 Q Same answer?
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 499 1 MR. SUAREZ: I'm sorry. Thank you. It's late. 2 Q As to cash, marketable securities and hedge funds, 3 escrow reserve, deposits, and prepaid expenses, those are two 4 separate lines in this Statement of Financial Condition; 5 correct? 6 A Yes, sir. 7 Q All right. So, as to cash, marketable securities and 8 hedge funds, which are listed as $114,400,000, would you agree 9 that you had the ability to determine that there was no failure 10 to disclose the methods used to determine estimated current 11 value and amount of that asset? 12 A What's the last word? I'm sorry. Just last word. I 13 didn't hear. 14 Q Of that asset? 15 A Okay. Thank you. 16 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Just, ask the whole 17 question again. 18 MR. SUAREZ: Sure. 19 Q In connection with your preparation of the independent 20 account and compilation report, were you able to determine that 21 there was no failure to disclose the method used to determine 22 estimated current values and amounts for that asset? 23 A I believe there were. 24 Q You believe there were no failures? 25 A No failures.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 501 1 A Yes, sir. 2 Q Same question for NikeTown on East 57th Street? Same 3 question, same answer? 4 A Yes, sir. 5 THE COURT: You don't have to say, Same question, 6 same answer. You can just list each property. 7 Q And that applies, as well, to 40 Wall Street? 8 A Yes, sir. 9 Q And that applies, as well, to the Trump Park Avenue? 10 A Yes, sir. 11 Q And applies as well to the club facilities and related 12 real estate in New York, Florida, New Jersey, California, 13 Washington D.C., North Carolina, Scotland and Ireland? 14 A Yes, sir. 15 Q And those are identified at 2,107,800,000? 16 A Our compilation procedures, we were able to satisfy, 17 as part of our compilation procedures. 18 Q And the same question for the Trump World Tower at 19 United Nations Plaza, Mr. Bender? 20 A Yes. We were able to satisfy, as part of our 21 compilation procedures. 22 Q And the same question for 100 Central Park South? 23 A Yes. We were able to satisfy, as part of our 24 compilation procedures. 25 Q And the same question for Trump Plaza, commercial and

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 502 1 residential portions, in New York, New York? 2 A Yes. We were able to satisfy, as part of our 3 compilation procedures at that time. 4 Q You say, at the time. Is there anything that's 5 changed now? 6 A I don't recall. I can't tell you what's going on 7 today. 8 Q With respect to the Statement of Financial Condition 9 in 2016? 10 A At the time we prepared, there was no issue. 11 Q Okay. With respect to the Trump Palace, Trump Parc, 12 and Trump Parc East condominiums, the commercial portions, same 13 question Mr. Bender. 14 A There were no issues at that time. We had no trouble 15 satisfying ourselves. 16 Q The same question for the Trump International Hotel 17 and Tower in New York, New York, Mr. Bender? 18 A At that time, we had no problem satisfying ourselves. 19 Q And the same question for the Trump Old Post Office in 20 Washington D.C.? 21 A At that time, we had no problem satisfying ourselves. 22 Q And would you give me the same answer if I asked about 23 1290 Avenue of the Americas, and 555 California Street? 24 A Yes, sir. 25 Q And the same question for the Trump International	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 504 1 Q This document would have been done separately? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And where would the values on this document have been 4 divined were? 5 A They would have come from Jeff Supporting Data. 6 THE COURT: Okay. Are we through with this? 7 MR. SUAREZ: Yes. 8 THE COURT: Okay. We are going to break in a 9 minute. My Principal Law Clerk, Allison G., has questions 10 for the attorneys about scheduling; okay? 11 MS. GREENFIELD: So we are starting off tomorrow 12 morning, continuing with the cross of Mr. Bender? Is that 13 correct? 14 MR. SUAREZ: That's correct. 15 MS. GREENFIELD: How long do you anticipate you 16 have, remaining? 17 MR. SUAREZ: Depending on the answers, I will 18 hope to be able to conclude. 19 MS. GREENFIELD: By the morning? 20 MR. SUAREZ: Tomorrow. 21 THE COURT: In the afternoon? 22 MR. SUAREZ: I think we got into pretty good 23 rhythm. If we can keep that going -- 24 MR. WALLACE: We are prepared to stipulate that 25 each year Mazars issued Statements of Financial Condition.
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 503 1 Hotel and Tower in Las Vegas? 2 A Yes, sir. 3 Q Same question for real estate licensing developments? 4 A Yes, sir. 5 Q And when you say, Yes, sir, Mr. Bender I'm 6 understanding that to mean that if I asked you the same 7 question, you would give me the same answer? 8 A Yes, sir. 9 Q And the same for, other assets? 10 A Yes, sir. 11 Q And that mathematically footed to the 6,300,000,000 -- 12 MR. SUAREZ: Please move that up. 13 Q And that footed to the $6,388,510,000 in total assets? 14 A I believe so. 15 Q And that's the math that you would have carried over 16 from the supporting data which was provided to you? 17 A The math would have been done separately, on the 18 sheet. 19 Q It would have been a separate document? 20 A This would have been added up separately. 21 Q The math to get here, the numbers that are reflected 22 in this statement of assets. 23 A I can't tell you if it was done on Excel or in Word, 24 without seeing the line documents, but the math would have been 25 done -- this document is separate. Would be done separately.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 505 1 I'm not sure that we need to go through every line, to get 2 repetitive answers. We are prepared to enter into 3 stipulations to shorten this. 4 MR. KISE: I think we are back to the future. We 5 had this discussion, earlier. We'll make every effort, 6 overnight, to streamline it, so that we can be done as 7 rapidly as possible. 8 MS. GREENFIELD: Okay. Do you want to plan to 9 have another witness, just in case? 10 So, who is next? 11 MR. WALLACE: Jeffrey McConney is the next 12 witness. 13 MS. GREENFIELD: I imagine we are not going any 14 further than that tomorrow; correct? 15 MR. KISE: That's probably right. 16 MS. GREENFIELD: Okay. Thank you. 17 THE COURT: Counselors, come up, one minute. 18 (Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion took 19 place at the bench.) 20 * * * * * 21 (Whereupon, the proceedings were adjourned to 22 Thursday, October 5, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.) 23 24 25

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez

1 THE COURT: So, I understand some members of the 2 press are coming in. Photographers. We are ready.
3 Get your best smile.
4 (Photographs taken.)
5 THE COURT: Okay. Let's start, but I'm going to 6 stay off the record for a minute.
7 (Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion took 8 place.)
9 DONALD BENDER, after having been previously duly
10 sworn, was examined and continued his testimony as follows:
11 THE COURT: All right counselor whenever you are 12 ready please proceed.
13 MR. SUAREZ: Thank you your Honor.
14 CONTINUED CROSS EXAMINATION
15 BY MR. SUAREZ:
16 Q Mr. Bender, good morning.
17 A Good morning.
18 Q Did you discuss your testimony with anyone since you
19 left the stand yesterday?
20 A No, sir.
21 Q Mr. Bender, I would like to show you a document that 22 was previously identified as Exhibit D 950.
23 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed
24 to the witness.)
25 Q It's an audit guide for personal financial statements.

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez

1 Do you recognize that document?
2 MR. SUAREZ: Can we turn to the second page?
3 Q It's an audit and accounting guide; right?
4 A Second page?
5 Q Yes. Do you see where it says, Personal financial 6 statement audit guide?
7 A Okay. This copy doesn't -- it's on the third page.
8 Yes. Yes, sir.
9 Q Is this a document that you would have reviewed, prior 10 to preparing a compilation report for the Statements of 11 Financial Condition for President Donald Trump?
12 A I may not have reviewed it every year, but I probably 13 have seen it, in my career.
14 Q You have probably seen it?
15 A Yes.
16 Q And the audit guide for personal financial statements
17 published by the American Institute of Certified Public 18 accountants is this something that you would have endeavored to 19 make yourself familiar with, prior to preparing compilation 20 reports for President Trump's Statements of Financial Condition?
21 A I was familiar with standard, at the time I 22 prepared -- I compiled Mr. Trump's personal financial 23 statements.
25 having reviewed this audit guide prior to preparing compilation

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 509 1 reports for the president's Statement of Financial Condition? 2 A I have no independent memory of when I -- if I did it, 3 at that time. 4 MR. WALLACE: We would like to just renew our 5 objection to this exhibit, which, the first time I objected 6 to this coming in -- it's been superseded. It was not in 7 place at the time of 2011, or any engagement going forward. 8 THE COURT: Well, I have a more fundamental 9 issue. It says, blah, blah, blah, Audit guide. There was 10 no audit here. 11 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I'm more than happy to 12 respond with two comments. Number one, I'm simply trying 13 to establish if Mr. Bender has looked at it or relied upon 14 it; and number two is, it does, in fact, address the 15 compilation standards within the guide. A compilation is a 16 form of attestation, like an auditor review. I know your 17 Honor -- 18 THE COURT: Okay. You have answered my 19 objection. I'll overrule the plaintiff's objection. 20 MR. SUAREZ: Thank you. 21 I would like to move Exhibit D 950 into evidence. 22 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 23 (Whereupon, Defendant's Exhibit 950 was received 24 in evidence.) 25 Q Mr. Bender, is this a document that you looked at,	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 511 1 Q Chapter two. Do you see where this document reads, 2 compilation of financial statements? 3 A Yes, sir. 4 Q All right. Do you see, in section 2.03, in the second 5 line, where it says, "At a minimum, however the accountant 6 should obtain an understanding of the methods by which the 7 individual determined estimated current values of significant 8 assets, and the estimated current amounts of significant 9 liabilities, and consider whether the methods are appropriate, 10 in light of the nature of each asset or liability?" 11 A Yes, sir. 12 Q Okay. 13 MR. SUAREZ: I would like to pull up Plaintiff's 14 Exhibit 786. 15 I'm sorry. 787. 16 (Whereupon, a document was displayed.) 17 Q Mr. Bender, you would agree that this is a Statement 18 of Financial Condition for the year ending June 30, 2011? 19 A I'm just waiting for him to give it to me. 20 (Whereupon, a document was handed to the 21 witness.) 22 A Yes, sir. 23 Q Did the 2011 Statement of Financial Condition disclose 24 the method used to determine the value of each asset? 25 A I believe it did.
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 510 1 prior to doing the compilation reports? Yes or no? 2 A I looked at it, but I may not have looked at it every 3 year. 4 Q You may not have looked at it every year. Did you 5 look at it prior to 2011? 6 A I don't have any independent memory of which years I 7 looked at it. 8 Q Okay. Would you have relied on the audit guide? 9 A It would have been something that we would have -- we 10 would have, with help of members of Mazars, we would have used 11 to rely on to compile the personal financial statements, as 12 applicable. 13 Q This is something that would have been from Mazars' 14 library? 15 A I don't know if we had libraries in those days, 16 anymore, but it would have been available online. 17 Q In the online collection of reference materials, 18 Mr. Bender? 19 A We would have to check that, specifically. 20 Q You wouldn't be sure? 21 A I don't remember how things worked, back then. 22 Q Okay. Mr. Bender, if you could please turn to page 9 23 of this document? And that's 9 of the compilation guide. It 24 might not be the ninth page that's right in front of you. 25 MR. SUAREZ: Keep going.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 512 1 Q Yes or no, Mr. Bender. 2 A I would have to read the whole statement. 3 Yes, I do believe it did. 4 Q So that's a yes; right? 5 A I believe so. 6 Q The 2011 Statement of Financial Condition disclosed 7 the method used to determine the amount of each liability; 8 correct? 9 A Yes, sir. 10 THE COURT: Let me just interrupt a second. 11 I often say, If you are asked -- to the witness, 12 directed to witnesses -- If you are asked a yes or no 13 question, answer it yes or no unless you can't, in which 14 case, "I believe," "I think so," is acceptable, if that's 15 the truthful answer. 16 Q The 2011 Statement of Financial Condition did not 17 present any asset or liability of an obviously inappropriate 18 value or amount, Mr. Bender; is that correct? 19 A At the time of the compilation procedures, we were not 20 aware of any potential inappropriate valuations. 21 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, that's not the question. 22 I want to be mindful of the instructions you just gave us, 23 but that's not the question that I asked, and I understand 24 if the witness wishes to qualify a yes or a no, I have no 25 problem with that, but the question was whether it presents

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 513 1 and asset or liability at an obviously inappropriate value 2 or amount. Mr. Bender produced the compilation report. 3 THE COURT: I agree with you. Okay. 4 So, do you want to read back; you want to just 5 ask it one more time? Up to you. 6 Q Mr. Bender, did the 2011 Statement of Financial 7 Condition present any asset or liability at an obviously 8 inappropriate value or amount? 9 A Not at the time we issued the compilation report. 10 Q Did the compilation report change, after you issued 11 it? 12 A No, sir. 13 Q Mr. Bender, if you could, please turn to Plaintiff's 14 Exhibit 815? 15 A Are we finished with these? 16 Q You can set it aside. 17 A Thank you. 18 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 19 to the witness.) 20 Q Mr. Bender, the 2012 Statement of Financial Condition 21 is on the screen; correct? 22 A Yes, sir. 23 Q And the 2012 Statement of Financial Condition 24 disclosed the method used to determine the value of each asset; 25 correct?	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 515 1 Q Mr. Bender, is this the Statement of Financial 2 Condition for the year ending June 30, 2013, of President Donald 3 J. Trump? 4 A This is the compilation of Donald J. Trump's Statement 5 of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2013. 6 Q The first page includes your compilation report; 7 correct, Mr. Bender. 8 A The first page? 9 Q Second page, after the cover. The first page of the 10 document. 11 A Includes Mazars independent accountant's compilation 12 report. Yes, sir. 13 Q Okay. And the 2013 Statement of Financial Condition, 14 Mr. Bender, disclosed the methods used to determine the value of 15 each asset; correct? 16 A I believe so. 17 Q You believe that? 18 A Yes. I'm sorry. I left the word "yes" out. 19 Q And the 2012 Statement of Financial Condition, 20 Mr. Bender, disclosed the method used to determine the amount of 21 each liability; correct? 22 A Yes. I believe so. 23 MR. WALLACE: I'm just going to note an objection 24 to that question, because he said 2012. 25 I'm also just going to note an objection to this
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 514 1 A Yes, sir. I believe so. 2 Q And the 2012 Statement of Financial Condition 3 disclosed the method used to determine the amount of each 4 liability correct; sir? 5 A Yes. Yes, I believe so. 6 Q And the 2012 Statement of Financial Condition did not 7 present any asset or liability at an obviously inappropriate 8 value or amount; correct, Mr. Bender? 9 A That is correct as of the date, at the time we issued 10 the compilation report. Report. Yes. Report. 11 Q And the 2012 compilation report did not change, after 12 it was issued; correct. 13 A We did not change the report. 14 Q And the 2012 Statement of Financial Condition did not 15 change after it was issued; correct? 16 A Mazars did not recall the statement -- let me take 17 that back. The report did not change. 18 Q Did the statement change? 19 A The statement did not change. 20 Q Because the report traveled with the statement; 21 correct? 22 A Yes, sir. 23 Q All right. Let's turn to Plaintiff's Exhibit 707. 24 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 25 to the witness.)	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 516 1 as cumulative. We covered this ground yesterday, and if we 2 are just going to go through, year-by-year, to get the same 3 answer, this is exactly the issue we objected to yesterday. 4 THE COURT: And I'm not going to change the 5 ruling I made in the sidebar, but I accept the premise of 6 it. 7 Mr. Suarez, how long do you think you will need, 8 to finish cross examining this witness? 9 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I've formulated, 10 following your Honor's direction, last night -- 11 THE COURT: All I did was ask you how long. How 12 long? 13 MR. SUAREZ: I believe I can be done within the 14 next hour and a half. 15 THE COURT: Plaintiff? 16 MR. WALLACE: I would like it to be faster, but 17 if that is a hard cap, I would just as soon move along. 18 THE COURT: All right. In my discretion, you 19 have an hour and a half. Until noon, basically. And then, 20 whatever it is. And, if you want, you can finish earlier. 21 MR. SUAREZ: Understood. 22 MR. ROBERT: As we discussed yesterday, your 23 Honor, I have about ten minutes or so. 24 THE COURT: Okay. 25 MR. SUAREZ: Thank you for clarifying.

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 517 1 MR. AMER: I am also suggesting that if there's 2 some way that we can say, If I asked you the same questions 3 with respect to the statements from 2013 to 2020 that I 4 just asked you on the statements for 2011 and 2012, would 5 your answers be the same, I mean maybe we can get there a 6 little sooner. 7 THE COURT: That's sustained, as a suggestion. 8 Yes. 9 MR. SUAREZ: And I did follow your direction. 10 I'm down to three or four questions, per statement. I'm 11 moving quickly. 12 THE COURT: Okay. 13 Q Mr. Bender, with respect to the 2013 Statement of 14 Financial Condition, is it correct that it disclosed the method 15 used to determine the amount of each liability? 16 A Yes. I believe it is so. 17 Q Mr. Bender the 2013 Statement of Financial Condition 18 did not present any asset or liability at an obviously 19 inappropriate value or amount; correct? 20 A Not as of the date that we issued the compilation 21 report, independent compilation report. 22 Q And Exhibit 707 did not change after it was issued; 23 correct? 24 A It did not change, sir. 25 Q Moving to Exhibit 730, Mr. Bender.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 519 1 Q Mr. Bender, is this the Statement of Financial 2 Condition of President Donald J. Trump for the year ending 3 June 30, 2015? 4 A This is the compilation of the Donald J. Trump 5 Statement of Financial Condition, as of June 30, 2015. 6 Q The 2015 Statement of Financial Condition disclosed 7 the method used to determine the value of each asset; correct? 8 A Yes. I believe so. 9 Q The 2015 Statement of Financial Condition disclosed 10 the method used to determine the amount of each liability; 11 correct? 12 A Yes. I believe so. 13 Q The 2015 Statement of Financial Condition did not 14 present any asset or liability at an obviously inappropriate 15 value or amount; correct? 16 A Not as of the date the independent compilation report 17 was issued. 18 Q Did Exhibit -- did Plaintiff's Exhibit 729 change, 19 after it was issued? 20 A No, sir. 21 Q Thank you. Moving on to Plaintiff's Exhibit 756. 22 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 23 to the witness.) 24 Q Mr. Bender, do you recognize Plaintiff's 756 as the 25 Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump for the year
D. I think we 5 can just say what the document is that he has identified, 6 and ask questions. I don't know that he needs to review it 7 and identify it again. 8 THE COURT: No need to reinvent the wheel. 9 MR. SUAREZ: If there's an easier way to do it, 10 I'm happy to do it, your Honor. Just for the witness's 11 benefit. 12 MR. AMER: I thought I suggested an easier way 13 that the judge sustained as a suggestion. Why can't we do 14 that? 15 THE COURT: I'm torn. On the one hand, it is 16 deja vu all over again. On the other hand, I gave him an 17 hour and a half. So, let's try not to go over the same 18 ground that we have already gone over, and any way you can 19 think to save time, please do it. 20 MR. Many 17 years ago, I believe. 18 Q How many years ago, Mr. Bender? 19 A I know within the last ten years. 20 Q Within the last ten years? 21 A Yes. 22 Q All right. Can we bring up-- do you recall having a 23 discussion with me about this at your deposition, Mr. Bender? 24 A I do not recall that. 25 Q Would it be helpful to refresh your recollection if I	D. Bender - Cross/Suarez Page 528 1 Q Mr. Bender, you never spoke with Ivanka Trump about 2 her father's Statement of Financial Condition, correct, Mr. 3 Bender? 4 A Not that I recall. 5 Q Mr. Bender, in fact, with respect to Ms. Trump, are 6 you aware she invested over $7.5 million under the terms of a 7 lease into penthouse 20 at the Trump Park Avenue? 8 A Say that again, please. 9 Q Are you aware of Ms. Trump, Ms. Ivanka Trump ever 10 invested $7.5 million under the terms of the lease into 11 penthouse 20 at the Trump Park Avenue? 12 MR. WALLACE: Objection. 13 THE COURT: Ground? 14 MR. WALLACE: No foundation for that question. 15 THE COURT: I don't think the way it's worded 16 needs a foundation. Let's just get an answer. Go ahead. 17 A I don't recall. 18 Q Mr. Bender, you described Mr. McConney, several 19 times, as someone for whom you have a tremendous amount of 20 respect? 21 A I said he was a good accountant. 22 Q Do you have a tremendous amount of respect for Mr. 23 Bender? 24 THE COURT: For Mr.? 25 MR. Page 529 1 Q For Mr. McConney? 2 A Not really, no. 3 Q Do you recall your testimony from Monday? 4 A I do not. 5 MR. SUAREZ: I'd like to bring that up, if I may 6 use it to refresh the witness's recollection, your Honor. 7 Your Honor, may I have a second? 8 THE COURT: Sure. 9 (Brief pause. ) 10 MR. SUAREZ: I apologize. We're having 11 technical difficulties. 12 THE COURT: These things happen but it's part of 13 your hour and a half. 14 MR. SUAREZ: I understand. 15 Q I apologize. October 3rd, it was Tuesday. You say, 16 Mr. Bender, where I asked you: 17 "You and Mr. McConney were close friends at one 18 point; were you not." 19 You said: "We didn't have a relationship 20 outside of work but we get long well." 21 I said: "You got along well?" 22 And you said: "I had a tremendous respect for 23 him. He is a very good accountant." 24 A That's past tense. You asked me if I have 25 tremendous respect today.	Page 531 1 Q Did he-- withdrawn. 2 Did you ask Mr. McConney to provide you with 3 things that he didn't use in preparing his supporting data 4 spreadsheets? 5 MR. WALLACE: Objection. Asked and answered. 6 THE COURT: It's a strange question. Can you 7 read back that question? Maybe I missed something. 8 (Read back.) 9 THE COURT: Well, again, I'm not an accountant 10 but I don't know why you'd ask for things he didn't use. 11 You'd ask for things he did use. 12 MR. SUAREZ: If it's that he didn't ask him, 13 then he didn't ask him to give him things he didn't use. 14 THE COURT: I'm overruling the objection. I'm 15 just telling you how I see things. 16 A I did ask him for things like appraisals that he did 17 not use. 18 Q You asked him? 19 A From-- not in every year, as I previously testified. 20 I did ask a number of years for appraisals. 21 Q The only thing you asked him to produce to you, to 22 send you, were appraisals that he didn't use in preparing the 23 Statement of Financial Condition; is that correct? 24 A That is the only thing I can recall at this time. 25 Q That is the only thing you can recall. The only
Page 530 1 Q You lost your respect for Mr. McConney? 2 A It's a little different today than it was back when 3 we were younger. 4 Q When you were younger? 5 A When I had hair and he had hair too, and, his hair 6 was blond back then, not white. 7 Q Is that Mr., Bender, because-- withdrawn. 8 Did you ask Mr. McConney to provide you 9 everything that he had relied upon in coming up with the 10 supporting data for the Statements of Financial Condition? 11 A He was supposed to get us all information that he 12 had to -- he was giving us a full package of what he thought 13 was necessary. 14 Q Of what he thought was necessary? 15 A He gave us all his supporting data. 16 Q His supporting data for things he used to prepare the 17 Statement of Financial Condition supporting data, correct? 18 A Say that again, please. 19 Q Information that he used to prepare the supporting 20 data spreadsheets? 21 A Yes, and, I'd ask for supplemental things, like 22 appraisals, that we previously discussed, if any. 23 Q Did he ask you to provide you things that he didn't 24 use in preparing the Statement of Financial Condition? 25 A Say that again, please.	Page 532 1 thing you can recall. 2 You never sent Mr. McConney an e-mail? 3 A I don't recall. 4 Q You never sent Mr. McConney an e-mail asking him to 5 send you every appraisal, correct? 6 A I never sent him an e-mail asking for every 7 appraisal, no, sir. To the best of my recollection, no. 8 9 (Continued on the following page..) 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 533 1 Q Did you send him an email saying, I never asked, 2 please send me every appraisal you didn't use in preparing your 3 supporting data? 4 A No, sir. 5 Q Did you send him a text message asking him to send you 6 every appraisal he didn't use in preparing his supporting data? 7 A I don't use text that much. No, sir. 8 Q Did you ever send him an email asking him to send you 9 any appraisals? 10 A I don't recall. 11 Q Did you ever ask him to provide you with appraisals in 12 the presence of anyone else? 13 A I don't recall. 14 Q Did you ever ask him to send you any appraisals in 15 writing? 16 A Can you clarify that question, please? 17 Q Did you ever ask Jeff McConney to send you any 18 appraisals in writing? 19 A In writing? 20 Q Did you ever write Mr. McConney and say, Please send 21 me any appraisals? 22 A Not that I recall. 23 Q Not that you recall. 24 Did you ever have this discussion with Mr. McConney 25 asking him to provide you with appraisals he didn't use, while	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 535 1 A No, sir. 2 Q Was that an important thing for you to look at? 3 A Say that again, please. 4 Q Were appraisals an important thing for you to look at? 5 A I would have liked to have had all information 6 available. 7 Q Okay. You knew that the Trump Organization had loans 8 on its books; correct? 9 A Yes, sir. 10 Q And you knew that those loans were backed by real 11 estate, right; Mr. Bender? 12 A Many of them. 13 Q Many of them. And you knew that you typically, in 14 real estate, can't get a loan backed by real estate if there's 15 no appraisal that the bank orders; right? 16 A That is sometimes correct, yes. 17 Q Okay. So you would have known that the Trump 18 Organization had appraisals in its records? 19 A I didn't know that the Trump Organization had access 20 to any appraisals the banks had. 21 Q It's not a staggering concept to understand that a 22 company that owns insane amounts of real estate all over the 23 world had appraisals in its books? 24 A I didn't know the Trump Organization had any access to 25 appraisals they did not give me.
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 534 1 anyone else was present? 2 A I don't recall. 3 Q You knew that the Trump Organization had appraisals in 4 their possession; correct? 5 A Not necessarily. 6 Q You had no idea that the Trump Organization had 7 appraisals in his possession? 8 A I knew there were certain appraisals that had been 9 given. I don't recall any other appraisals that I -- 10 Q Are you familiar with the real estate industry? 11 A Somewhat. 12 Q Somewhat. You are not an expert in real estate; 13 right? 14 A I'm a real estate accountant. 15 Q A real estate accountant? 16 A Amongst other areas. 17 Q And a real estate accountant couldn't be expected to 18 know that a company that owns massive amounts of real estate 19 would have appraisals in its files? 20 A I asked for, if they have any appraisals. 21 Q You asked? 22 A Yes. 23 Q In passing? 24 A As a question. 25 Q Did you ever make that request, in writing?	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 536 1 Q Okay. And how many appraisals did the Trump 2 Organization give you, Mr. Bender? 3 A I don't recall. 4 Q You don't recall. Do you remember on Monday when you 5 talked about learning that there were appraisals that you didn't 6 know about after meeting with the District Attorney of New York? 7 A Say that again, please? 8 Q Do you recall on Monday what you testified in response 9 to a question from Mr. Wallace about first learning that the 10 Trump Organization had appraisals that you didn't know about, 11 when you met with the District Attorney of New York? 12 A Not particularly. That's what I said. 13 Q I'm sorry? 14 A Not particularly. 15 Q You don't recall your testimony, or you don't recall 16 learning that from the District Attorney of New York? 17 A I don't remember my exact testimony. 18 Q You don't recall your exact testimony -- 19 MR. SUAREZ: This is what happens when I try to 20 go fast. 21 Q And you generally remember testifying on Monday that 22 in your meeting with the District Attorney of New York, you 23 learned, or you testified that that was when you learned, that 24 the Trump Organization had appraisals that you hadn't seen? 25 A Yes. That, I do recall.

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 537 1 Q Okay. And that, just so I understand your testimony 2 Mr. Bender, that was the first time you learned that the Trump 3 Organization had appraisals that it hadn't given you? 4 A Yes, sir. 5 Q Okay. And you couldn't really remember what year that 6 meeting took place; is that right? 7 A The first meeting with the District Attorney? 8 Q Yeah. 9 A I believe of was in the spring of -- that was 20 -- 10 the last time -- I believe it was in the spring of '21. 11 Q Okay. And you remembered having a Zoom meeting with 12 him, and that's when he showed you these appraisals? 13 A It was. It was a Zoom -- we were on Zoom with the 14 District Attorney, so this is the first time -- I don't know if 15 we were saw them physically, but this was the first time I was 16 informed of it. 17 Q And then all of a sudden, you remember having made a 18 request, back in 2013, that appraisals -- that you had made a 19 request for appraisals from Mr. McConney; is that right, 20 Mr. Bender? 21 A No, sir. I remember it because I requested it. 22 Q You remembered that, over a number of years. Did you 23 ask in 2013? 24 A I don't remember specifically which years, but I know 25 I asked the question numerous sometimes.	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 539 1 asked. The representation letter said that they gave me all 2 relevant -- whatever we pulled. I don't want to say what the 3 representation letter said, off the top of my head. We can 4 bring one up. But they represented they gave me everything I 5 needed. 6 Q The representation letter that you drafted, and didn't 7 request appraisals? 8 A The representation letter asked for all relevant data. 9 We can get the exact language, if you would like to. 10 Q And do you think, Mr. Bender, that all relevant data 11 includes things that people don't rely on, in preparing 12 documents? Is that relevant data? 13 A I felt -- yes, I do. 14 Q Okay. So, the head of the Long Island Real Estate 15 Practice Group at Mazars, the big fancy accounting firm that the 16 president hired to compile their Statements of Financial 17 Condition, thinks that it's relevant to review appraisals that 18 weren't relied on in preparing spreadsheets, but never puts it 19 in writing, doesn't put it as part of his representation letter 20 that he drafted for his client of 30 years to sign, and all of a 21 sudden this becomes an issue when you are in front of the 22 District Attorney? 23 A No, sir. I asked them, at the time. 24 Q Oh. At the time. Never followed up. Never said to 25 Weisselberg, Hey, send your appraisals. Never sent the
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 538 1 Q Oh you asked the question numerous times? 2 A Most of my years I did ask, yes. And starting around, 3 I believe -- I thought I testified yesterday -- when we -- the 4 appraisals first appeared for TIHT Commercial, LLC or Trump 5 Plaza, LLC, I asked -- that's when I starting asking, Do you 6 have any other appraisals. 7 Q And that's when you first learned that the Trump 8 Organization had access to appraisals? 9 A Say that again, please? 10 Q That is what you first learned that the Trump 11 Organization had access to appraisals? 12 A That's the first time that it came to my attention, 13 during the compilation procedure, that I asked the question. 14 Q You told me at one point that you were the head of the 15 Long Island Real Estate Group for Mazars; is that correct? 16 A Yes, sir. 17 Q The Long Island Real Estate Group for a big fancy 18 accounting firm and you didn't know that a real estate developer 19 would have appraisals on its real estate available to them? 20 A I asked the client the question. They made a 21 representation. They gave it to me, and they told me they 22 didn't have any other appraisals. 23 Q You asked -- well, your testimony is that you made a 24 request to Mr. McConney that was never documented. 25 A I asked them for appraisals -- let me finish. I	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 540 1 president an email saying, Hey, I don't have a single appraisal 2 for your massive, giant real estate holding company that we have 3 done over 280 engagements for, that you prepare tax returns, 4 that you know have books and records and loans, it never crossed 5 your mind that is an entity that could have appraisals? 6 MR. WALLACE: Objection to form. 7 THE COURT: That's not what he's testifying to. 8 Objection sustained. 9 Q Mr. Bender, did the District Attorney of New York 10 threaten you with prosecution? 11 A No, they did not. 12 Q Did they threaten Mazars with prosecution? 13 A Not to my knowledge. 14 Q Do you know that Mr. Pomerantz, the gentlemen that you 15 met with when you met with the district attorney, put in his 16 book that Mazars sent you there to meet without your own lawyer? 17 A You informed me of that. 18 Q Yes. And is that the case, that Mazars sent you in 19 there to meet with the District Attorney of New York without 20 your own lawyer? 21 A I had counsel with me. 22 Q Counsel from Mazars? 23 A I believe they were my counsel. 24 Q You thought Mazars lawyers were your lawyers? 25 A I had my own counsel.

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 541 1 Q Okay. From Mazars? 2 A Mazars and I had counsel. 3 Q So is Mr. Pomerantz lying, in his book? 4 A I never saw Mr. Pomerantz's book, but -- 5 Q Okay. 6 A Let me finish. I had counsel with me, and I was 7 satisfied that I had appropriate counsel at all times. 8 Q And was that when Mr. Pomerantz informed Mazars of the 9 precarious legal position that they were in, if they didn't play 10 ball? 11 A I have no knowledge of that. 12 Q You have no knowledge of that. The lawyers Mazars 13 provided you when they met with the District Attorney told you 14 nothing about that? 15 A I have no knowledge of that. 16 Q Okay. And it was in this meeting when, all of a 17 sudden, it dawns on you that you had made a request for 18 appraisals? 19 A No, sir. I knew I had made the request, beforehand. 20 Q Right. And you never got it? 21 A Never received it. Requesting additional -- when the 22 question came up, Do you have any official appraisals to give 23 me, they never supplied me with any additional appraisals. 24 Q Mr. Bender, in the last three days, Monday, Tuesday, 25 Wednesday, you testified, "I don't know," or, "I don't	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 543 1 question; they gave me an answer; and they made representations 2 that they gave me all relevant data. 3 Q Okay. And in your -- 4 A I don't know the exact words. We can pull it up on 5 the screen. 6 Q We are happy to pull them up. 7 In your mind, relevant data is documents that you 8 didn't rely on? 9 A We can pull it up. 10 Q Okay. Mr. Bender, I have to ask you the question, are 11 there any mental health reasons that you can't testify here 12 today? 13 A No, sir. 14 MR. WALLACE: Objection. 15 THE COURT: Overruled. 16 Q Let me show you Defendant's Exhibit 729. 17 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 18 to the witness.) 19 A Do you want me to read this? 20 Q Have you seen it before? 21 A I have to read it. 22 Q Okay. 23 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 24 proceedings.) 25 Q I can draw your attention to the specific part of the
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 542 1 remember," over 89 times in response to questions, both from me 2 and Mr. Wallace. 3 A Mr. who? 4 Q Wallace. 5 A Okay. Sorry. My apologies. 6 THE COURT: It was his birthday yesterday. 7 THE WITNESS: Mr. Wallace's birthday? 8 MR. WALLACE: The nightmare continues. 9 THE WITNESS: Happy birthday. 10 Q But that, you do remember? 11 A What was the question again, please? 12 Q You do remember requesting appraisals from 13 Mr. McConney? 14 A Numerous times. Yes, sir. 15 Q Numerous times. Numerous times, and you never 16 received them? 17 A I never received any -- I did not receive any 18 additional appraisals, that they didn't supply as part of his 19 package. 20 Q And you said, Oh, okay. The Trump Organization must 21 not have appraisals. 22 THE COURT: That's not his testimony. 23 Q Did you conclude that the Trump Organization didn't 24 have appraisals? 25 A I didn't need to make a conclusion. I asked the	D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 544 1 document I intend to ask you about. On page two of the 2 document, a document prepared by Mazars and sent to the Trump 3 Organization concerning the transition away from Mazars to a new 4 accounting firm. 5 MR. WALLACE: Just, objection. What is the basis 6 for that? I'm just not familiar with the basis for the 7 statement that this was drafted on Mazars and to the Trump 8 Organization. 9 THE COURT: Well, I'll give counsel a little 10 leeway. 11 So, where we are going? 12 Q It talks about Mazars' transition being contingent on 13 the physical and mental health of Donald Bender. 14 A I see that. 15 Q Okay. Did you disclose to Mazars that you had a 16 mental health condition that precluded them from terminating -- 17 from continuing their transition to a new accounting entity? 18 A No, sir. 19 Q Then why would Mazars imply to us, to the Trump 20 Organization, that your mental health was a consideration in 21 whether they could continue to transition and comply with their 22 professional obligations in assisting to transitioning to a new 23 accounting firm? 24 MR. WALLACE: Objection to the implication part. 25 THE COURT: Overruled.

D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 545 1 A You would have to ask Mazars. 2 Q Okay. Was there ever a physical or mental condition 3 that should have been disclosed to the Trump Organization? 4 A Any health issues I had, they were aware of. 5 Q The Trump Organization was aware? 6 A Mr. Weisselberg knew I had certain health issues, over 7 the years, but nothing serious. 8 Q Okay. So you discussed your personal health issues 9 with Mr. Weisselberg? 10 A We had some common health issues over the years. 11 Q Okay. But you never said to Mr. Weisselberg, someone 12 that you could talk to about your health issues, you never said 13 to him, Let me see your appraisals? 14 A I don't recall if I ever asked Mr. Weisselberg for his 15 appraisals. 16 Q All right. I'm sorry? 17 A I don't recall if I spoke to Mr. Weisselberg about 18 appraisals. 19 Q Okay. You don't recall, you don't recall, you don't 20 recall. 21 So, for specific questions you don't recall, other 22 than you do remember, you do recall, asking Jeff McConney for an 23 appraisal, but everyone else, you don't recall anything else -- 24 MR. SUAREZ: Withdrawn. 25 Q Is there any reason here, based on this document that	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 547 1 MR. ROBERT: May I proceed, your Honor? 2 THE COURT: Please proceed. 3 CROSS-EXAMINATION 4 BY MR. ROBERT: 5 Q Good morning, Mr. Bender. It's still morning? 6 A Good morning. 7 Q So, in order to-- when I was sitting there yesterday 8 I had a little bit of difficulty hearing you. So, what I'm 9 going to ask you to do is speak into the mic, and, following 10 the Judge's admonition, or statement, a while ago, I'm going 11 to ask you to give me yes or no answers to my questions. 12 To the extent you feel you can't, I know the 13 Judge said you can say it's not able to be answered. So, ask 14 me, and, I'll be happy to rephrase the question so we can have 15 a dialogue and it's easier for the reporter to write it down. 16 Fair enough, sir? 17 A We'll do our best. 18 Q So, over the last couple of days where Mr. Suarez 19 left off -- 20 THE COURT: Wait a minute. That was supposed to 21 be a yes or no question. 22 MR. ROBERT: I'm starting out that way. It's 23 going to wind up with a yes or no, I promise. 24 Q In Mr. Suarez's last few minutes of his questioning 25 of you, he brought to your attention, correct, that over the
D. Bender - Cross by Mr. Suarez Page 546 1 we received from Mazars, that your testimony shouldn't be relied 2 on because of your mental or physical health? 3 A This memo was drafted by Mazars, no, I have no 4 physical or mental health issues that you have to be worried 5 about, today. 6 Q You disclosed no physical or mental health issues to 7 Mazars? 8 A I have had some health issues, and Mazars is aware of 9 them, and nothing serious? 10 Q Did any of them impair your ability to do your job for 11 the Trump Organization, Mr. Bender? 12 A My physical issues have been the last few months, and 13 they were resolved within two weeks. 14 Q And were there any mental health issues that 15 challenged your memory when you conducted your engagements for 16 the Trump Organization? 17 A No, sir. 18 Q Okay. That, you do recall; correct? 19 A I have no mental health issues. 20 MR. SUAREZ: No further questions on cross 21 examination, your Honor. 22 THE COURT: Thank you. Will there be -- 23 MR. ROBERT: Me, sir. 24 THE COURT: That's right. You wanted ten 25 minutes, I believe.	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 548 1 last few days you answered "I don't know" and "I don't recall" 2 approximately 90 times. 3 Do you remember that? 4 A I believe he said 89, but you can check the court 5 record. 6 Q So, that you remember, and I'm glad you do. You're 7 an accountant, and I'm a lawyer. So, you're good with 8 numbers. So, about 89 times, right? 9 A I believe that's what he said. 10 Q Okay. Do you recall a couple of days ago, actually 11 Wednesday morning, which would have been yesterday morning, 12 Mr. Suarez asked you the following: 13 "Question: Did your counsel speak to anyone 14 from the New York Attorney General's Office?" 15 You said: 16 "Answer: You have to speak with them." 17 Then the question was: 18 "Are you aware if your counsel spoke to anyone 19 from the New York Attorney General's Office?" 20 "Answer: I don't recall any conversation with 21 counsel last night. 22 So, is your testimony that when you were here 23 yesterday morning testifying, you don't remember if you 24 had a conversation with your counsel the night before? 25 A Say that again, please.

D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 549 1 Q Yesterday morning you testified that you couldn't 2 recall if you had a conversation with your counsel Tuesday 3 night. 4 So, you don't remember yesterday morning whether 5 your lawyer spoke with the Attorney General Tuesday night? 6 A I don't remember Wednesday morning if I had a 7 consult Tuesday night? I do not know what conversations my 8 client -- my counsel had -- my counsel had with the Attorney 9 General. 10 Q Did you speak to your lawyer Tuesday night, yes or 11 no? I don't want to know the contents of it, but, did you 12 speak with your lawyer Tuesday night? 13 A I believe I did. 14 Q As you sit here today, on Thursday morning, you don't 15 remember if, on Tuesday night, after your first day of 16 testimony, you spoke could your lawyer; is that your 17 testimony? 18 A Say that again, please. 19 Q Is it your testimony, as you sit here today, on 20 Thursday morning, that you don't remember if on Tuesday night 21 you spoke to your lawyer or not? 22 A I spoke to my lawyer because they wanted -- 23 Q Don't tell me what you spoke about, please. 24 A You're right. 25 Q Now, you remember you spoke to him Tuesday night?	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 551 1 Q That is all you recall at this moment, that there 2 were two times, correct? 3 A That is all I can recall right now. 4 Q Will you agree with me GAAP exceptions are an 5 important part of a Statement of Financial Condition? 6 A Yes, sir. 7 Q As a matter of fact, at the beginning of the 8 Statement of Financial Condition is where it's listed what 9 those GAAP exceptions are, correct? 10 A Yes, sir. 11 Q And I know you testified you're -- 12 A Let's take it back. There are two or three times 13 where I discussed new GAAP exceptions with him. 14 Q New GAAP exceptions and every time you had a 15 conversation, the Trump Organization agreed with what your 16 assessment was and either-- it changed the GAAP exceptions to 17 reflect something that you and Mazars were comfortable with, 18 correct? 19 A Yes, sir. 20 Q So, every time you, as the accountant, go to the 21 Trump Organization, you have a discussion about a concern you 22 have about GAAP, they comply with what you're suggesting, 23 correct? 24 It's a simple question, sir. Please. 25 A We came to a --
D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 550 1 A Yes. 2 Q Did you speak to him last night? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Do you know if he spoke to the Attorney General last 5 night? 6 A I do not know. 7 Q During the course of Mr. Suarez's examination of you, 8 you said that during the course of your engagement for the 9 Trump Organization there were two or three times that you had 10 a question about how they were handling certain GAAP issues in 11 the Statement of Financial Condition. 12 Do you remember that? 13 A No, I do not remember that being my testimony. I 14 believe, if we're talking about the same matter, I believe 15 there were two or three times where we discussed GAAP 16 exceptions. 17 Q There were two or three times, during the course of 18 your engagement, where you discussed GAAP exceptions, correct? 19 Yes or no? 20 A There were two or three times where we discussed it, 21 newer GAAP exceptions. I believe my testimony was two times, 22 not three times. 23 Q So, there were two times you talked to the Trump 24 Organization about issues of GAAP exceptions, correct? 25 A That's all I recall at this moment.	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 552 1 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, please. 2 THE COURT: I believe it's capable of a yes or 3 no. 4 A Yes. 5 Q Yes. Then the period of those times, you were the 6 partner in charge of the Statement of Financial Condition 7 project, correct? 8 A I was a partner in charge of the compilation, yes. 9 Q Okay. We talked about, or Mr. Suarez talked to you 10 the other day about ASC 274. You remember that? 11 A I don't remember the exact questions, no, sir. 12 Q Do you remember that the words ASC 274 were discussed 13 over the last few days? 14 A Yes. 15 Q I'll be honest with you, before this trial, I would 16 have thought it was a motor oil. I wouldn't have known it has 17 anything to do with accounting, but, you know ASC 274 has to 18 do with accounting, correct? 19 A Yes, sir. 20 Q I think your testimony was if you had specific 21 questions about it, you'd go next door or talk to somebody 22 else at Mazars, correct? 23 A Yes, sir. 24 Q Can we at least agree you have the requisite 25 knowledge and experience and training to know that ASC 274 is

D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 553 1 the governing principles behind what needs to be in a 2 Statement of Financial Condition? 3 Would you agree with that? 4 A At the time I was doing the engagement, I had the 5 appropriate knowledge, correct. 6 Q So -- 7 THE COURT: Wait a minute. That didn't answer 8 the question. 9 MR. ROBERT: Can we have the question read back? 10 THE COURT: Please read back and listen 11 carefully. 12 MR. ROBERT: Thank you. 13 (Read back. ) 14 A Yes, sir. 15 Q Okay. During the time that you were in charge of the 16 Statement of Financial Condition assignment from-- on behalf 17 of Mazars for the Trump Organization, you had that knowledge, 18 correct? 19 A Yes. 20 Q To the extent you had specific questions about it, 21 you would go to other people within Mazars to ask specific 22 questions, correct? 23 A Yes, sir. 24 Q That you remember, correct? 25 A Yes, sir.	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 555 1 not, as you sit here today under oath, ask Jeff McConney, on 2 one or more occasions, give me all the appraisals you have. 3 Yes or no? 4 A That's not the words I used. My words were, do you 5 have any other appraisals. 6 Q So, is your testimony then that it was only on a year 7 that you got one appraisal, you'd ask him if he had more 8 appraisals? Yes or no, sir? 9 A No. My testimony is that when the Trump Plaza LLC, 10 Trump Plaza LLC, and TIHT Commercial LLC appraisal appeared, 11 I asked: Do you have any-- that's when I started asking: Do 12 you have more appraisals. 13 Q Mr. Bender, please. You keep saying when you 14 started. I'm trying to make it clear for the record because 15 in a little while, Mr. McConney will raise his right hand and 16 will be asked these very same questions by Mr. Wallace and his 17 colleagues, because I want to tee this up now because I, 18 respectfully submit, there is going to be a difference. So, 19 let's be clear. 20 So, is it your testimony now that on specific 21 years, you told Jeff McConney: Give me all the appraisals you 22 have. Yes or no? 23 A My -- 24 Q Please, sir. Mr. Wallace can -- 25 THE COURT: Yes or no. If you want it read
D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 554 1 Q Okay. But as you sit here today, you also remember 2 now that you asked Jeff McConney every year for appraisals; is 3 that what your testimony is? 4 A I said most years. 5 Q So -- 6 A Started in, approximately, I believe, you can check 7 my testimony. I thought I said something like 2013. 8 Q Can you speak into the microphone? 9 A Can't get much closer without kissing it. 10 Q I don't think it wants that. Don't worry. 11 A It's the first time I've had one without a cover 12 since I've testified in the last few years. I believe my 13 testimony is, I asked most years. I could have missed one 14 but I did ask most years and I believe my testimony was 2013. 15 I believe, but, we can pull that up, if you'd like to confirm 16 that. 17 Q So, your testimony today, under oath, is that you, 18 specifically, recall, on one or more occasions, Jeff McConney 19 to give you every appraisal that he had. Is that your 20 testimony? 21 A My testimony is -- 22 Q Yes or no, sir, please. 23 A My testimony is that I asked for -- do you have any 24 other appraisals. 25 Q That is not my question, sir. Did you or did you	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 556 1 back, read it back or -- 2 THE WITNESS: Read it back. 3 THE COURT: Let's have a read back. 4 (Read back.) 5 A I would submit that's the word "ask" not "told" but 6 the answer would be yes. 7 THE COURT: Is that sufficient? 8 MR. ROBERT: I'm going to probe a little, sir. 9 Q So, you asked Jeff McConney every year to give you 10 appraisal's to the extent he had any appraisals. That's your 11 testimony under oath? 12 A Say that question again, please. 13 Q Your testimony under oath today is that every year 14 you asked Jeff McConney to provide you with any appraisal he 15 may have had; yes or no, sir? 16 A I never said every year. 17 Q You don't recall. Let's take a step back. 18 On the years that you did, is that question-- is 19 that the way you phrased it to Mr. McConney? 20 A The way I phrased it to Mr. McConney is: Do you 21 have any other appraisals. 22 Q Mr. Bender, we're having a disconnect here, because, 23 when you say: Do you have any others, that presupposes there 24 was one. So, since you don't remember what year it was, I was 25 trying to help jog your memory.

D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 557 1 So, is it your testimony then that only on the 2 years when you got one appraisal, you said: Hey, Jeff, do you 3 have any more? 4 A My testimony is when I got THIT Commercial and Trump 5 Plaza Commercial's appraisals, I said: Are there any more 6 appraisals. 7 Q So, that is one time? 8 A No, that is when it started, and, I asked most 9 years. 10 Q You asked-- so, on a year that there were no other 11 appraisals given to you as backup for the SOFC, you said: 12 Hey, Jeff, do you have any other appraisals? 13 A I asked him: Do you have appraisals, at the time 14 the first ones appeared. 15 Q So, your testimony is, after the first one appeared 16 in the year, you don't know every year, you would say to Jeff 17 McConney, do you have any other appraisals, even if he didn't 18 give you any appraisals for that year? Yes or no, sir? 19 Please. 20 A Say that, again, please. 21 MR. ROBERT: Can I have it read back, please? 22 THE COURT: Read back. 23 A Yeah. 24 MR. WALLACE: I'm going to object at this point. 25 His testimony has been clear. Mr. Robert keeps	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 559 1 THE WITNESS: Do you have any appraisals. Do 2 you have any others. I apologize to the Court if I had 3 the wrong word, but, starting at the point when he 4 started giving me appraisals, I started asking: Do you 5 have any other appraisals or you have any appraisals -- 6 or have any appraisals. I started asking for appraisals 7 at the point when the first appraisal appeared. 8 Q That is different from what you've been saying. So, 9 let's be clear. 10 Are you saying that you would either say to him: 11 Now, do you have any appraisals, or, do you have any other 12 appraisals, or, to you, does it mean the same thing? 13 A To me, it's the same thing. 14 Q So, you don't remember exactly what it is you said to 15 Mr. McConney on the years you don't remember what the years 16 were? 17 A I don't remember word for word but I know I asked 18 for appraisals. 19 Q You know you asked Jeff McConney for appraisals. You 20 don't remember the words you used? 21 A I -- 22 Q Correct? Yes or no? 23 A No, I do not remember the exact words. 24 Q No one was witnessing when you asked for these, 25 correct?
D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 558 1 rephrasing it in different forms. 2 THE COURT: Overruled. I hope we don't need 3 another read back. Let me see. 4 MR. ROBERT: I'm trying to do it in as tight a 5 way I can, Judge. 6 THE COURT: You seem to be asking if there 7 weren't any, would he ask for any others, and, logically, 8 you can't say are there any others, if there weren't any. 9 MR. ROBERT: That is what I'm going to get at. 10 I respectfully submit you're going to here diametrically 11 opposed testimony, either today or tomorrow, from Mr. 12 McConney, because, in my opening, I told it's all about 13 credibility, and, I stand before you today saying the 14 same thing. 15 So, I want to figure out exactly what it is you 16 say you said because that is not the way we see things. 17 MR. WALLACE: I will object to the 18 representation about what other people will testify to 19 that have not appeared in court. 20 THE COURT: Sustained. You should not do that. 21 I think I have it fairly simple. 22 MR. ROBERT: Please try, Judge. 23 THE COURT: If you didn't receive any appraisals 24 for a given year, would you actually say: Do you have 25 any others?	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 560 1 A I don't recall. 2 Q You didn't send him any e-mails about it? 3 A No, I don't recall. 4 Q You didn't send him any text messages about it? 5 A I don't text, generally. 6 Q You don't recall texts. You don't recall e-mails. 7 You don't recall if anyone is in the room, but, you have a 8 specific recollection today that you asked him for it, but, 9 you still don't remember if you even spoke to your lawyer two 10 nights ago, right? 11 A I said I did speak to my lawyer two nights ago. 12 Q You don't really know what you asked Jeff McConney 13 for. Do you, sir? 14 A Yes, I do. 15 Q Sir, you're aware of the accepted standards of 16 practice for an accountant, correct? Generally speaking? 17 A Generally speaking, yes, sir. 18 Q You know that if you depart from generally accepted 19 accounting standards, liability can be imposed, correct? 20 A Yes. 21 Q It can be liability in terms of accounting 22 malpractice, correct? 23 A I believe so. 24 Q And there can be regulatory and criminal obligations 25 that flow from it, correct?

D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 561 1 A Yes, sir. 2 Q You know, as you sit here today, that, to the extent 3 you give any admission that shows you departed from general 4 and accepted accounting standards, that potentiality you and 5 Mazars will be sued by our clients, correct? 6 A I never really thought about that. 7 Q You never thought about the fact that there was 8 liability? Perhaps, that our client would sue Mazars or you? 9 A It wasn't my biggest concern, no, sir. 10 Q You just went from it wasn't a concern to it wasn't 11 your biggest concern. Can we at least agree it was a concern 12 of yours? 13 A Not really sir, no. I wasn't worry about it. 14 Q You didn't worry about that. You're not worried your 15 testimony today will be scrutinized by regulator, or are you? 16 A Never thought about it. 17 Q What about the authorities? 18 A Which authorities? 19 Q The District Attorney's Office, US Attorney. You're 20 not concerned your testimony will be scrutinized by them? 21 A No, sir. 22 Q Okay. That, you're certain of? 23 A Yes, sir. 24 Q You know, another thing you weren't too sure about 25 over the last few days is how big a client our clients were to	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 563 1 From 2010 to 2020, on average -- 2 MR. ROBERT: And I'm not going year by year, 3 Judge. I promise. 4 Q For those ten years, on average, the Trump 5 Organization was your largest clients, right? 6 A Yes, sir. 7 Q More than 50 percent of your revenue was generated by 8 them, correct? 9 A Yes, sir. 10 Q If we added up all the other clients you had, it was 11 going to be less than the amount of money the Trump 12 Organization generated for fees for you, correct, in any given 13 year? True? 14 A Yes, sir. 15 Q Okay. You know, there was also some testimony about 16 your-- and I'm going to use the word, and then I'll change it. 17 Your review of the McConney spreadsheets. You remember? 18 A I don't remember using the word "review". 19 Q There was a whole back and for you and Mr. Suarez 20 using the word "review." It dawned on me, to accountants, 21 review means something different than it means to the rest of 22 us, right? 23 A Yes. 24 Q We have three levels to review. Financials, right? 25 We have an audit?
D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 562 1 you. 2 Do you remember, generally, that testimony? 3 A I don't remember the exact revenue stream, if that's 4 what you're talking about. 5 Q I think we established pretty clearly that in any 6 given year for the last ten years, the fees generated by 7 Mazars was over a million dollars? 8 A Yes. 9 Q Some years, as high as 2.6 million? 10 A I don't recall the exact number. 11 Q Can we at least agree they were your biggest client? 12 A My biggest client, yes. 13 Q Can we agree they were a cache client to have? 14 A Me, personally? 15 Q Yes. 16 A I wasn't really into-- it wasn't a cache thing for 17 me. 18 Q Do you think, as you sit here today, you would have 19 been made a partner at a large firm like Mazars but for the 20 fact the Trump Organization and affiliated members were your 21 clients? 22 A I can't speak to what Mazars would have done or 23 didn't do. 24 Q How much of your business, percentage-wise, is not 25 Trump related-- withdrawn.	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 564 1 A You're using the word "review" inappropriately, but, 2 I understand where you're going. 3 Q That's great because during the break, since we were 4 allowed to bring in our iPads, I was looking for a synonym for 5 review so I can use a word we both agree on. 6 Can we use the word inspect? 7 A Look at. 8 Q Well, it's funny. You have a different-- I looked at 9 the definition of look because you had a different definition 10 of "look" yesterday. When you said "look" is kind of 11 skimming. You remember that? 12 A No. 13 Q When you look at something. When you look at 14 something are you comprehending what's in there? 15 THE COURT: This is starting to sound like the 16 interrogation of Bill Clinton. It depends upon what the 17 definition of "is" is. 18 Q I want to ask some questions about the McConney 19 spreadsheets and I know if I used the word "review," the 20 answer will be I didn't, and, I appreciate it wasn't a review, 21 and, I can't say did you compile the spreadsheet. So, I'm 22 trying to come to a term we can agree on. 23 THE COURT: He's suggested looked at and 24 inspect. 25 A Worked on.

D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 565 1 Q Worked on? Okay. 2 A Use. Use. Whatever you prefer. 3 Q So, you worked on? 4 A Used, I like but go ahead. 5 Q Used is a better word? 6 A Yes, sir. 7 Q Okay. So, my English will be a little bad for the 8 record because I'll use the word "use". You used the McConney 9 spreadsheets? 10 A Mazars used the McConney spreadsheets, yes. 11 Q So did you? 12 A I'm part of Mazars. Yes, sir. I was part of 13 Mazars. 14 Q When this was discussed the other day, the Judge took 15 judicial notice the other day that companies act through 16 people. 17 So, can we agree that Mazars acted through you 18 as the primary liaison with the defendants in this case? Fair 19 enough? 20 A Yes, sir. 21 Q Okay. 22 A For a number of years. 23 Q I'm sorry? 24 A For the last -- 25 Q Last ten years. Before 2020. 2010 to 2020?	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 567 1 Q Well, sir, again in trying to do this quickly, can we 2 agree as to the main assets held by the Trump Organization 3 when we come to a value, whether it was Trump Tower, seven 4 Springs, one of the other-- 40 Wall. On the McConney 5 spreadsheet, he would explain how he came to the valuation? 6 We can put it on the screen but I want to save 7 time. 8 A There is a detailed cross-reference, but, for 9 instance, cash-- I don't know if there is a description. 10 Q I didn't ask about cash. Did you call the bank to 11 verify how much money was in the bank? 12 A No, sir. 13 Q But I'm not asking you about cash. I'm asking you 14 about the major real estate assets. Let's take three, for 15 example. 40 wall, Trump Tower, and Seven Springs. You're 16 familiar with the three assets owned by the defendants? 17 A Yes, sir. 18 Q Can we at least agree that underneath those, on the 19 McConney spreadsheet, it explained the way Jeff came up with 20 the value? 21 A Yes, sir. 22 Q Okay. In your use of the McConney spreadsheets, did 23 you use that information? Did you look at that? 24 A Personally? 25 Q Yes.
D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 566 1 A Yes, sir. 2 Q We can agree on that? Okay. 3 When you used the McConney spreadsheets, you 4 made a very big point of saying you didn't go through them 5 line by line. Remember that? 6 A Yes, sir. 7 Q I want to be clear. I'm not suggesting -- we can 8 take a step back. 9 Do you think you had an obligation to go through 10 them line by line? 11 A No, sir. 12 Q We can agree, in a world of levels of seniority in an 13 organization, you may not be looking line by line, like I 14 might not be looking at citations in a brief. Somebody else 15 may be doing it but I'm signing my name to it, like you're 16 signing your name to Statements of Financial Condition? 17 A Yes, sir. 18 Q I don't want to waste the Court's time putting it on 19 the screen, but, in addition to their being a line-by-line 20 Excel spreadsheet, there was descriptions under each category 21 of how Mr. McConney came to his valuations, correct? 22 A I don't know if there's each category. 23 Q Sorry? 24 A I'm not sure if there were descriptions in each 25 category.	D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 568 1 A I don't know if I looked at it every year. 2 Q So, you didn't personally even look at the highlights 3 that show how a valuation was come from -- where a valuation 4 came from? 5 A I don't recall if I looked at every line, if that's 6 what you're asking. 7 Q I'm not asking about every line. I'm trying to make 8 it simple. I don't think everyone in the courtroom thinks 9 you'd be looking at every line of a 40-page spreadsheet. 10 What I'm asking is: Did you, as a partner in 11 charge of this multimillion-dollar account, your biggest 12 client at Mazars, did you at least look at the valuation 13 methods that were used by the Trump Organization for its 14 largest assets? 15 A I looked at those assets, yes, sir. 16 Q You looked at those assets and you looked at the 17 description as to how the valuation was determined, correct? 18 A I believe -- 19 Q Yes or no, sir? 20 A I believe I did, yes. 21 Q Okay, you did. You didn't have a problem -- 22 THE COURT: He said: "I believe I did." You 23 can't say, oh, then you did. 24 MR. ROBERT: Fair enough. 25 Q So, you don't know, one way or the other, whether you

D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 569 1 looked the it? 2 A To the best of my recollection, I did. 3 Q Let me ask this. When we talk about generally 4 accepted-- acceptable accounting standards, do you think it 5 would have been appropriate, yes or no, for Mazars to sign off 6 on the Statement of Financial Condition and you, as the 7 primary partner in charge of the account, to have not looked 8 at how the valuations came, how the valuations came about 9 before you signed off on it? 10 A So, I did look at the largest assets. You're 11 correct, sir. 12 Q Okay. You didn't have a problem with them? 13 A I had no problem with them. At the time we issued 14 the compilation report, I had no problem with it. No, sir. 15 Q At the time you issued the compilation report, you 16 had no problem in the methods Mr. McConney used in coming to 17 the valuations, correct? 18 A I had no problem with the methodology the Trump 19 Organization came up with. What's the rest of the sentence? 20 To-- substitute the Trump Organization for Mr. McConney. 21 Q Fair enough, sir. It wasn't until the time that 22 after you sat down with the New York County District 23 Attorney's Office that you then had a change of this opinion; 24 yes or no? Please, sir. Yes or no? 25 A I do not --	Page 571 1 Q That-- you seem to be very precise, right? That's a 2 compliment, sir. You can take it. 3 A I'm not very precise but I'm trying to listen to 4 your questions and give you honest answers. 5 Q And I appreciate that, sir. So, being precise. So, 6 now we just spent a few minutes and thank you. 7 So, it was not until the Zoom meeting with the 8 Manhattan District Attorney's Office that you first had any 9 concern about the work you had done for the Trump 10 Organization, correct? 11 A That is correct. 12 MR. ROBERT: I have no further questions. 13 Judge. Thank you. 14 THE COURT: I think it's time for a break. As 15 usual, we'll have a ten-minute break but take 15 minutes, 16 and I will be strict about that. 17 18 (Continued on the following page..) 19 20 21 22 23 24 25
D. Bender - Cross/Robert Page 570 1 Q Yes or no, please. It's a very simple question? 2 A I can't answer that question. 3 Q So, you can't answer the question? 4 A I can't answer it yes or no. 5 Q You can't answer the question yes or no that it-- let 6 me ask -- I'll withdraw the question. 7 Prior to your meeting with the New York County 8 District Attorney's Office, you did not notify, you, The Trump 9 Organization that you had any problem with that, did you? 10 A Say that again, please. 11 Q Prior -- withdrawn. 12 You testified earlier today -- 13 MR. ROBERT: And this is my last point. I'm not 14 going to belabor it, Judge. 15 Q You testified earlier today that it wasn't until you 16 sat down in the Manhattan District Attorney's Office, with 17 Mazars' lawyers by your side, up until that point in time, you 18 were not aware of these additional appraisals, correct? 19 A That's not what I testified. 20 Q You didn't testify that you-- that this was-- your 21 first foray into knowing there were these additional 22 appraisals was when you met with the Manhattan District 23 Attorneys by Zoom? 24 A That is a different question. You said when I was 25 in the Manhattan District Attorney's Office.	D. Bender - Re-Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 572 1 THE COURT: Mr. Wallace and your team, any 2 re-direct of the previous witness? 3 MR. WALLACE: I have exceedingly brief re-direct. 4 It will just be a couple minutes. So, if we could get 5 Mr. Bender back. 6 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 7 proceedings.) 8 (Whereupon, the witness resumed the witness 9 stand.) 10 THE COURT: Okay please proceed with re-direct. 11 RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION 12 BY MR. WALLACE: 13 Q Welcome back, Mr. Bender. I assure you, I will try to 14 be exceedingly brief. 15 MR. WALLACE: Could we please pull up Defendant's 16 Exhibit 950. 17 (Whereupon, a document was displayed.) 18 Q Mr. Bender, up on the screen we have defendant's 19 Exhibit 950. It's a document entitled Personal Financial 20 Statements Guide with Conforming Changes as of May 1, 2008, 21 audit and accounting guide. Do you remember discussing this 22 document with Mr. Suarez? 23 A Yes, sir. 24 Q Okay. I'm just going to note that this document comes 25 from the University of Mississippi, and over here we can see

D. Bender - Re-Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 573 1 that it's from the American Institute of Certified Public 2 Accountants, AICPA, Historical collection. Do you know why this 3 document came from the historical collection? 4 A Not off the top of my head. 5 Q Do you recall that in 2009, U.S. G.A.A.P. was replaced 6 by the FASB, with the release of the FASB Accounting Standards 7 Collection? 8 A I don't remember the date, but that's approximately 9 correct. Yes, sir. 10 Q Okay. Let me show you a document, see if I can 11 refresh you on the date. 12 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 13 to the witness.) 14 Q It's a long document. I'm not going to ask you to 15 look at the whole thing. I would just like to direct your 16 attention to the header at the top of the page which states -- I 17 will represent to you, this is a copy of the same document we 18 were just looking, at that Mr. Suarez shared with you, but this 19 version states at the top, "Notice to Readers, Executive 20 Summary, U.S. G.A.A.P. was replaced by the FASB with the release 21 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification on July 1, 2009. 22 The codification is effective for financial statements for 23 interim or financial reporting periods ending after 24 September 15, 2009. While the accounting guidance in this audit 25 and accounting guide may be useful, only guidance that was	D. Bender - Re-Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 575 1 Q I believe you discussed this with Mr. Suarez, and it 2 states, "Before commission, the accountant should read the 3 compiled personal financial statements and consider whether such 4 financial statements appear to be appropriate in form and free 5 from obvious material errors. In this context, the term error 6 refers to mistakes in the compilation of financial statements 7 including arithmetical or clerical mistakes, and mistakes in the 8 application of accounting principles, including inadequate 9 disclosure. Misstatements that might occur in personal 10 financial statements prepared in conformity with generally 11 accepted accounting principles, G.A.A.P., include," and then 12 there's series of four bullet points? 13 A Yes, sir. I see that. 14 Q Do you remember Mr. Suarez taking you through these 15 bullet points? 16 A Yes, sir. 17 Q And I believe that earlier today he asked you a number 18 of questions about whether the statements in each year complied 19 with the bullet point at the bottom here which states, 20 "Presentation of an asset or liability at an obviously 21 inappropriate value or amount." 22 Do you recall that testimony? 23 A Yes, sir. 24 Q Okay. 25 MR. WALLACE: Could we put this up?
D. Bender - Re-Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 574 1 incorporated into the certification is considered 2 authoritative." 3 THE COURT: Codification. Not certification. 4 MR. WALLACE: Codification. Thank you, your 5 Honor. 6 Q Does this refresh your recollection as to the dates 7 that U.S. G.A.A.P. was replaced by the FASB? 8 A Yes, sir. 9 Q Okay. So, the guidance that you were shown by 10 Mr. Suarez was no longer authoritative as of 2011? 11 A That's correct. 12 Q Okay. And if you were consulting with your colleague 13 Mr. Cohen about what standards governed your work from the 14 period of 2011 forward, it would not have been in reference to 15 this guidance; is that correct? 16 A It would have been with the superseded guidance. 17 Mr. Cohen, or anybody else I consulted with. 18 Q Okay. 19 MR. WALLACE: If we can go back to Defendant's 20 Exhibit 950, and go to D-950, 22. 21 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 22 to the witness.) 23 MR. WALLACE: And if we can blow up item 2.05, 24 please. I'll just read it into the record. This is 25 section 2.05.	D. Bender - Re-Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 576 1 Actually, let's just pull up Defendant's 2 Exhibit 25. 3 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 4 to the witness.) 5 A Are we done with these? 6 Q You can just put that to the side, for now. 7 So Mr. Bender, I'll direct your attention to the top 8 of the screen. It states, "AR-80, Compilation of Financial 9 Statements." It states, "Issue date --" 10 A AR section. 11 Q AR section. Thank you? 12 A Okay. 13 Q "Compilation of Financial Statements. Issue date, 14 unless otherwise indicated, December 2009. See section 9080 for 15 interpretations of this section." 16 Do you know if this is the section that replaced the 17 guidance you had been looking at? 18 A Yes, sir. 19 Q So, this was in effect from 2009, forward? 20 A I believe so. Yes, sir. 21 Q And just to keep this moving along, I'll represent to 22 you that this guidance was superseded, as of December 15, 2015, 23 but I would like to take you to page 4 of this document, and if 24 we could look at the item under, Reading Financial Statements, 25 and this states, "Reading Financial Statements, before

D. Bender - Re-Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 577 1 submission, the accountant should read the financial statements 2 and consider whether such financial statements appear to be 3 appropriate in form, and free from obvious material errors. In 4 this context, the term error refers to mistakes in the 5 preparation of financial statements, including arithmetical or 6 clerical mistakes, and mistakes in the application of accounting 7 principles, including inadequate disclosure." 8 Do you see that language? 9 A Yes, sir. 10 MR. WALLACE: I would like to put this up next to 11 the language we looked at in Defendant's Exhibit 950-22, if 12 we could. 13 So, can we put that side by side, with the stuff 14 we just looked at? Oh they're on top of each other. 15 Q So you can see, the first two sentences are pretty 16 close; correct? It states, especially in the second sentence -- 17 well, they're pretty close? 18 A One refers to compilation. 19 Q Right, but they say that before submission, it should 20 consider whether such financial statements appear to be 21 appropriate in form, and free from obvious material errors. 22 They both state, in this context, "the term error refers to 23 mistakes in the compilation of financial statements, including 24 arithmetical or clerical mistakes and mistakes in the 25 application of accounting principles, including inadequate	D. Bender - Re-Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 579 1 Q Okay. 2 MR. WALLACE: Nothing more. 3 THE COURT: Any re-cross? 4 No. Okay. The witness is excused. 5 THE WITNESS: Thank you, your Honor. 6 THE COURT: And we need a five-minute break for 7 technical reasons. I advise everybody to stay where you 8 are. 9 (Whereupon, the witness was excused from the 10 courtroom.) 11 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 12 proceedings.) 13 THE COURT: Plaintiff, would you like to call 14 your next witness? 15 MR. AMER: Yes, your Honor. We call Jeffrey 16 McConney. 17 THE COURT: And where is Mr. McConney? 18 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 19 proceedings.) 20 THE COURT: Because Mr. McConney is a party, he 21 has an absolute right to be sitting here the whole time. 22 Maybe just he didn't think it would be exciting enough. 23 MR. ROBERT: That must be what it is. 24 J E F F R E Y M C C O N N E Y, after having first been duly 25 sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
D. Bender - Re-Direct by Mr. Wallace Page 578 1 disclosure." But the version on the top that comes in at 209, 2 it no longer has those bullet points does it? 3 A No, but there's a little difference in wording. 4 Q Right. 5 A You said the same. They refer to -- the bottom one 6 refers to compilation, I believe. 7 Q Right. So this bullet, though, about the presentation 8 of assets or liabilities, and obviously inappropriate value, or 9 amount, had been removed from the guidance? 10 A It appears so. 11 Q Okay. 12 A What you are showing me. 13 Q So those would not have been authoritative guidance at 14 the time you were discussing, with Mr. Cohen, what standards 15 apply to the 2011 Statement of Financial Condition of Mr. Trump; 16 is that correct? 17 A I will have to confirm that with somebody in my 18 technical group. 19 Q Okay. 20 A And it could have been Mr. Cohen, or somebody else in 21 my firm. 22 Q But the bullet point would not have governed your work 23 on its financial statements for the leader of the free world; is 24 that correct? 25 A No, sir.	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 580 1 THE COURT OFFICER: Please have a seat. 2 Please state your name and business or home 3 address on the record. 4 THE WITNESS: Jeffrey McConney, 390 First Avenue, 5 New York, New York. 6 THE COURT: You seem to have a nice, loud voice, 7 but I will ask you to speak right into the microphone, nice 8 and loud, slow, clear. 9 THE WITNESS: I'll try. Thank you. 10 DIRECT EXAMINATION 11 BY MR. AMER: 12 Q Good afternoon, Mr. McConney. My name is Andrew Amer. 13 We have not met before. I'm with the Attorney General's office. 14 Am I correct that you graduated with a Bachelor's of 15 Business Administration from Baruch College in 1978? 16 A Yes, sir. 17 Q And your degree was in accounting; is that right? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And after you graduated, you worked for a small real 20 estate company, and then went to an accounting firm; is that 21 correct? 22 A Yes. 23 Q You worked at the accounting firm for about nine years 24 before joining the Trump Organization in about April of 1987; is 25 that right?

1 A That's correct. 2 Q And am I also correct that when you were at the 3 accounting firm, that's where you first met and worked with 4 Donald Bender? 5 A Correct. 6 Q And when you started with the Trump Organization, you 7 started as an assistant controller? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And at that time, Mr. Weisselberg, Allen Weisselberg, 10 he was the controller of the organization; is that right? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And it's when he was promoted to Chief Financial 13 Officer that you stepped into his role as Controller of the 14 organization; is that right? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And as controller, you reported to Mr. Weisselberg; 17 correct? 18 A Correct. 19 Q And during the entire time that you were controller, 20 he was your boss; correct? 21 A Correct. 22 Q Is it also correct that you basically had the same job 23 and same responsibilities when you your title changed from 24 Assistant Controller to Controller? Is that fair? 25 A That's correct.	1 Q Let's talk about the Statements of Financial Condition 2 for Donald J. Trump. You became involved in the preparation of 3 Mr. Trump's annual Statement of Financial Condition and 4 eventually took over the whole processes, likely sometime in the 5 90s. Is that fair? 6 A Sometime in the 90s, I believe. Yes. 7 Q And you were primarily responsible for preparing 8 Mr. Trump's statement between 2011 and 2017; is that fair? 9 A We didn't -- we, being the Trump Organization, didn't 10 prepare the statement. Mazars, or whatever their name was at 11 that time, prepared the statement. I prepared the backup for 12 the statement. 13 Q And you prepared the valuations that went into the 14 statement; is that fair? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And you were primarily responsible for preparing the 17 valuations between 2011 and 2017; is that right? 18 A Yeah. I don't remember if it was the June of '16 or 19 the June of '17 statement when I walked away, but that's 20 correct. 21 Q And starting in around 2016 or 2017, you received 22 assistance from an employee named Patrick Birney, in the 23 preparation of the valuations; correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q And is it fair to say that starting in 2017, after
1 Q And your responsibilities included making sure 2 interest payments were made on loans; is that right? 3 A Yes. 4 Q And you dealt with the general ledger; correct? 5 A Yes. 6 Q And you oversaw accounts payable and accounts 7 receivable; correct? 8 A Yes. 9 Q Are you still employed by the Trump Organization? 10 A No. 11 Q And when did you leave the Trump Organization? 12 A I retired February 25th. February of this year. 13 Q And did you receive a severance package when you left? 14 A Yes, I did. 15 Q And how much that was severance package. 16 A The total package was $500,000. 17 Q And have you received all of your severance, as we sit 18 here today? 19 A As of today, no. 20 Q How much have you received, and how much is left to 21 go? 22 A 375,000 has been received. 125,000 is the last 23 payment. 24 Q And is that contingent on anything? 25 A No. Other than me being alive, no.	1 Mr. Birney came on board, you played less of a role in preparing 2 the valuations that went into the statement; is that correct? 3 A Whenever that handoff was, I had little to very little 4 to do with the financial statement. 5 Q Around the time that Mr. Birney took over for you? 6 A Right. Once Mr. Birney took over, I had little to do 7 with the statement. 8 Q But you still reviewed Mr. Birney's work with him; 9 didn't you? 10 A I believe the first time we went through it, I'm not 11 too sure, or I don't remember, how much interaction I had with 12 him, after that. 13 MR. AMER: I'm going to put up, your Honor -- we 14 prepared a demonstrative. We labeled it PDX-2, and it 15 shows the sources, which I believe are all already in 16 evidence. 17 (Whereupon, a document was displayed.) 18 MR. AMER: I don't know your preference on 19 demonstratives. Do you want me to admit it into evidence, 20 or not? 21 THE COURT: Yes. I would like that. 22 MR. AMER: Okay. So, I would ask that this be 23 admitted into evidence. 24 MR. ROBERT: As a demonstrative exhibit, 25 obviously. Not -- I'm not used to having a

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 585 1 demonstrative -- I'm used to having a demonstrative 2 document be marked, but not moved into evidence, so I would 3 object that a demonstrative document be put into evidence. 4 THE COURT: Well, I don't know that it matters, 5 in a bench trial, but would plaintiff be willing to just 6 have it marked as an exhibit, rather than it admitted into 7 evidence, as of now? 8 MR. AMER: I was asking your Honor how you would 9 like to do it, and I'm fine either way. I would say we 10 admit it -- I'm fine to say we are admitting it solely as a 11 demonstrative, if that helps Mr. Robert's objection. 12 MR. ROBERT: Let's mark it as demonstrative. 13 We'll talk over the break. I think we are saying the same 14 thing. We'll work it out. 15 MR. AMER: Does your Honor want a copy? 16 THE COURT: Yes. 17 (Whereupon, a document was handed to the Court 18 and to the witness.) 19 THE COURT: It's on the screen, but I like 20 souvenirs. 21 Q This just puts in chart form, on a single page, the 22 as-of date of the statements, and the actual date that the 23 statement was issued, and as this indicates -- and you can 24 confirm Mr. McConney -- the statements were all done as of 25 June 30th of the year that they covered; correct?	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 587 1 Q Okay. 2 A -- the June 30 of 2020 statement. 3 Q Generally speaking, unless there were extenuating 4 circumstances, the annual statement was due in October; is that 5 right? 6 A Yes. 7 Q And that's because Mr. Trump's lenders required 8 submission of an annual financial statement as part of the 9 covenants in the terms of the loans that were made to Mr. Trump 10 and the Trump Organization; is that right? 11 A Yes. 12 Q As a general matter, the due dates for those 13 statements on those loans were October 31 of each year; is that 14 right? 15 A Yes. 16 Q You knew every year that once June 30 passed, you 17 would need to start working on the statement as soon as you 18 could; right? 19 A Yes. 20 Q And you would start working on the statement in July 21 or August; right? 22 A Depending on the year, but yes. 23 Q And the statements take a long period of time to work 24 up and there's a lot of work involved in doing it; correct? 25 A That's correct.
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 586 1 A Yes. 2 MR. ROBERT: Do they have a hard copy to give us? 3 I see something was handed to the witness. 4 (Whereupon, a document was handed to counsel.) 5 Q And it looks as though, for all but three years, the 6 statement is issued in October or November of the year that the 7 statement covers; correct? 8 A Yes. 9 Q And for '15 and '16, it looks as though the statement 10 was not issued until March of the year after the year that it 11 covers. Do you see that? 12 A Yes. 13 Q And am I correct that in 2015, the statement issue 14 date was delayed because Mr. Trump was campaigning for office? 15 Is that right? 16 A That's correct. 17 Q And in 2016, the statement was delayed until March 18 because of the transition to the oval office; correct? 19 A Yes. 20 Q There's one other year where the statement was delayed 21 by a few months, and that's 2020. The judge alluded to this in 22 his opinion, but I would like to confirm, was that due to the 23 Covid pandemic? 24 A I really don't remember. I didn't have much to do 25 with --	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 588 1 Q And to start the process of preparing the annual 2 Statement of Financial Condition, you began with the years' 3 prior Excel spreadsheet; is that right? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And that spreadsheet is something that was called, 6 internally, Jeff Supporting Data; is that right? 7 A Jeff supporting something. I don't remember the exact 8 name. 9 Q And the Jeff was you; correct? 10 A Yes, sir. 11 Q And the Excel spreadsheet would include two years' 12 worth of information; is that right? 13 A Correct. 14 Q And the information in that spreadsheet included the 15 valuation methodology and prior valuations for each of the 16 assets valued in the statement; is that right? 17 A Yes. 18 Q And you would also go through the backup for assets, 19 and determine what information you needed to prepare the next 20 statement; correct? 21 A Yes. 22 Q You would gather that information and input the new 23 information into the Jeff Supporting spreadsheet; right? 24 A Yes. 25 Q And different assets on the statement were valued

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 589 1 differently; correct? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And so the valuation methodology dictated what new 4 information you needed in each year; correct? 5 A Yes. 6 Q And is it correct that the meat and potatoes of the 7 financial statement, in terms of preparing valuations and making 8 decisions with respect to those valuations, would be done by 9 Mr. Weisselberg and you, prior to Mr. Birney's involvement, and 10 then you, Mr. Weisselberg, and Mr. Birney, once he started to be 11 involved? 12 A And then just Mr. Birney and Mr. Weisselberg. 13 Q Can you put a year on it, when it became just 14 Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. Birney? 15 A It's been a while. It could have been the June of '17 16 statement, the June of '18 statement. But it was a fairly quick 17 process. 18 MR. AMER: I would like to put up PX-717, which 19 is the 2014 engagement letter, which has already been 20 admitted into evidence. 21 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 22 to the witness.) 23 Q Mr. McConney, you are familiar with this document; 24 right? 25 A Yes, sir.	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 591 1 Q You understood that, pursuant to this engagement 2 letter, Mr. Trump had an obligation to comply with these 3 responsibilities set forth in A through F; right? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And I just want to highlight, in particular, item F, 6 which says that, "It's management's responsibility for making 7 all financial records and all related information available to 8 us." 9 Us being Mazars; correct? 10 A Yes. 11 Q And for the accuracy and completeness of that 12 information; right? 13 A Yes. 14 Q So you understood at the time that this language 15 placed the responsibility for providing complete and accurate 16 information squarely on Mr. Trump's shoulders; correct? 17 A Yes. 18 Q And for 2016 through 2021, you understood, based on 19 the engagement letters for those years, that the management 20 responsibilities listed were the obligations that rested with 21 the trustees of the revocable trust; correct? 22 MR. ROBERT: Objection. 23 THE COURT: Grounds? 24 MR. ROBERT: Rested? I guess if the witness 25 understands it, I withdraw the objection.
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 590 1 Q This is a letter dated January 2nd, 2014 from Mazars 2 to the Trump Organization; right? 3 A Yes. 4 Q And it's signed by Mr. Weisselberg; correct? 5 A Yes. 6 Q He has acknowledged the document by his signature, and 7 accepted it; correct? 8 A Yes. 9 Q You reviewed this document before Mr. Weisselberg 10 signed it; correct? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And is it correct to say that you continued to review 13 these engagement letters, even after Patrick Birney started 14 taking over your role in the preparation of the valuations? 15 A I believe that's correct. Yes. 16 Q And you understood the terms of the compilation 17 engagement set forth in this letter, at the time that you 18 reviewed this letter; correct? 19 A Say that again, please? Can you ask that again? 20 Q Sure. You understood the terms of this compilation 21 engagement letter at the time that you reviewed it; correct? 22 A Yes. 23 Q If we go to page three of the letter, you will see 24 there's a section entitled, Management Responsibilities; right? 25 A Yes.	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 592 1 THE COURT: Okay. 2 A I believe that's correct. 3 Q And can we agree that your personal and professional 4 relationship with Mr. Bender, going back decades, did not in any 5 way relieve Mr. Trump or his trustees from having to comply with 6 any aspect of these management responsibilities; correct? 7 A Correct. 8 Q You provided Mazars with financial information, in the 9 form of the supporting data spreadsheets that we discussed, for 10 use in compiling Mr. Trump's annual Statement of Financial 11 Condition; correct? 12 A The information we used to prepare my spreadsheet, 13 yes. 14 Q And you provided that information in order to comply 15 with the obligation in item F of the engagement letter; correct? 16 A Correct. 17 Q And this letter explains that Mazars is performing a 18 compilation, and not an audit or a review; correct? 19 A Yes. 20 Q And you understood the significance of that 21 terminology; correct? 22 A Yes. 23 MR. AMER: And why don't we go to the compilation 24 procedures paragraph, which is on page one. 25 Q And this says, in the second paragraph, "A compilation

1 differs significantly from a review or an audit of financial 2 statements." 3 You certainly understood that at the time; correct? 4 A Yes. 5 Q A compilation does not contemplate performing inquiry, 6 analytical procedures, or other procedures performed in a 7 review. You understood that; right? 8 A Yes. 9 Q So you had no expectation that Mazars was going to 10 perform inquiry, analytical procedures, or other procedures like 11 those an accounting firm performs in a review; correct? 12 A I wouldn't say that. 13 Q You understand, though, that this was a compilation, 14 and that the engagement letter sets forth that a compilation 15 does not contemplate that the accounting firm would perform 16 inquiry, analytical procedures, or procedures performed in a 17 review; right? 18 A I understood that. 19 Q Okay. And additionally this says, "A compilation does 20 not contemplate obtaining an understanding of the company's 21 internal control;" correct? 22 A Yes. 23 Q And it does not contemplate the accounting firm 24 assessing fraud risk; correct? 25 A Correct.	1 Q So, Mr. McConney, this first page is an e-mail from 2 you to Mr. Bender, dated October 23, 2014, where you tell him: 3 "Call me when you want to go over this," and this is sending 4 Mr. Bender the prior year's Statement of Financial Condition 5 that's been marked up. Is that right? 6 A That's correct. 7 MR. AMER: Okay, your Honor. I'd move this into 8 evidence. 9 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 10 Q So, this you were sending in 2014 and the statement 11 that you're attaching, if we can go to the second page. This 12 was the statement for 2013 that you've marked up, correct? 13 A Correct. 14 Q And is all the handwriting in this document yours? 15 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, while the witness is 16 reviewing, you've already ruled, but, I'm going to object 17 on the Statute of Limitations ground just to continue 18 preserving our objections. 19 THE COURT: Agreed. Understood. 20 A Can you ask me the question one more time? 21 Q Sure. Is all the handwritten notations in the 22 document yours? 23 A Yes. 24 Q If we turn to the assets page, which is page four, 25 you've taken the prior year's statement asset sheet and you've
1 Q And it does not contemplate the accounting firm 2 testing accounting records by obtaining sufficient appropriate 3 audit evidence through inspection, observation, confirmation or 4 the examination of source documents; correct? 5 A Correct. 6 Q And source documents would be the documents you just 7 testified would go to Mazars, along with your supporting data 8 spreadsheet; correct? 9 A Yes. I believe that's correct. 10 Q And it does not contemplate the accounting firm 11 conducting any other procedures ordinarily performed in an 12 audit; correct? 13 A Correct. 14 Q Now, you would send the supporting data spreadsheet 15 and the backup material to Mazars on an annual basis; is that 16 right? 17 A If they didn't come to the office, yes, I would send 18 it to them. 19 Q And let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 03054. 20 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 21 to the witness.) 22 (Continued on the next page.) 23 24 25	1 marked it up for 2014; is that right? 2 A For June of '14, yes. 3 Q Was this the normal procedure that you followed each 4 year that you were the one handling the preparation of 5 valuations? 6 A I would say there was no normal procedure. If I had 7 time, I would mark the statement up, I guess. If I didn't 8 have time, I would just provide the spreadsheet to Mazars and 9 they'd provide the updated statement. 10 Q If we could just go back to the second page of the 11 document, page two. I just want to ask you about the note 12 you've written on the upper right-hand corner that says: "DJT 13 to get final review." 14 Do you see that? 15 A Yes. 16 Q That's your handwriting, yes? 17 A Yes. 18 Q DJT refers to Donald J. Trump, correct? 19 A Correct. 20 Q So, you're making a notation that you understood 21 Mr. Trump was to get final review of the Statement of 22 Financial Condition for 2014; is that right? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Was that also the procedure that you understood was 25 followed in each year that you had responsibility for

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 597 1 preparing the statement, that Mr. Trump would get final 2 review? 3 A I would get to the point where Allen Weisselberg and 4 I would review the statement and then I would get an okay 5 from Allen to let Mazars know if it was okay to finalize the 6 statement. 7 I don't want to assume what happened in between 8 the time I gave it to Allen Weisselberg and the time Allen 9 gave me the approval. 10 Q My question is a little different. You testified 11 your handwritten notation confirms your understanding that 12 Mr. Trump was to get final review for this 2014 statement? 13 A Correct. 14 Q My question is simply whether you had the same 15 understanding that Mr. Trump was to get final review for each 16 financial statement that you were primarily responsible for 17 preparing? 18 A Yes. 19 Q Okay. Did you have-- continue to have an 20 understanding that Mr. Trump would get final review of the 21 statements that Mr. Birney was primarily responsible for 22 handling? 23 A Once Mr. Trump became President Trump, I don't know 24 what the process was on getting approvals. I think it was 25 just the trustees, but, again, I didn't handle that or	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 599 1 objection. 2 THE COURT: I'm overruling that because that is 3 not the law. 4 MS. HABBA: No. No. I'm saying, your Honor, we 5 actually agreed on this before. I put on the record -- I 6 put on the record prior, and I'll reiterate it moving 7 forward, so I don't have to object, as well, that if 8 there's a document that references anything prior to 9 February 2016, those items, as his objection stands, same 10 line of questioning. I'm just putting an objection on 11 the record. 12 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry. 13 MS. HABBA: Yes. It's okay. 14 THE COURT: Also a continuing objection on 15 behalf of your clients. 16 MS. HABBA: Yes. Thank you. 17 THE COURT: Sorry for the misunderstanding. 18 Q Mr. McConney, this is the letter you sent to 19 Christopher Drimack at Royal Bank of America relating to the 20 seven Springs loan, correct? 21 A Yes. 22 Q You say in your letter that you are providing the 23 June 30, 2015 Statement of Financial Condition pursuant to the 24 promissory note on that loan, right? 25 A Yes.
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 598 1 remember that. 2 Q You provided copies of the statements to lenders to 3 comply with the loan covenants, correct? 4 A Yes. 5 Q You provided a copy of Mr. Trump's personal financial 6 statement to, specifically, Royal Bank of America; is that 7 right? 8 A I don't remember. It's possible. I don't remember. 9 Q Let me see if I can refresh your recollection. Let's 10 look at PX-99. 11 Do you recognize this letter as the letter you 12 signed going to Royal Bank of America? 13 A Yes, for the June 30, 2015 Statement of Financial 14 Condition. Yes. 15 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this be 16 admitted into evidence. 17 THE COURT: It's admitted into evidence. 18 MR. ROBERT: Same objection as to Statute of 19 Limitations. 20 THE COURT: Okay. I'll consider that a standing 21 objection to anything before the relevant dates in 2014 22 and 2016. 23 MS. HABBA: To make the record clear. Again, 24 also anything that incorporates anything prior to that 25 date, meaning the backup, et cetera. That was my prior	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 600 1 Q So, this was something you were sending to the bank 2 to comply with loan obligations, correct? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Let's go ahead and mark-- or I'll share with you 5 PX-100. 6 Mr. McConney, this is another letter you're 7 sending to Mr. Drimack at Royal Bank of America attaching the 8 June 30, 2016 Statement of Financial Condition, correct? 9 A That's correct. 10 Q That's your signature, correct, on the first page? 11 A Yes. 12 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move this into 13 evidence. 14 MR. ROBERT: Same objection, sir. 15 THE COURT: Their standing objections. You 16 don't have to keep saying them. I recognize standing 17 objections. The Court of Appeals recognizes the standing 18 objections. You don't even have to call them a standing 19 objection. It's in evidence. Yes. 20 Q As you did the year before, Mr. McConney, you are 21 sending to the bank, Mr. Trump's June 30, 2016 Statement of 22 Financial Condition in order to satisfy obligations under the 23 promissory note, correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q And Mr. McConney, you are aware that others within

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 601 1 the organization were provided with Mr. Trump's annual 2 Statement of Financial Condition to disclose to entities 3 outside the Trump Organization, correct? 4 A Yes. 5 Q In- 6 THE COURT: Ten-minute warning. I need to break 7 at 12:50. 8 Q In particular, you're aware that Michael Cohen was 9 given a copy for one or two meetings, right? 10 A He was given a copy. I don't remember which year or 11 for how many meetings. 12 Q Would it refresh your recollection to share with you 13 some of your deposition testimony on the screen? If we can 14 put it up. This is page 124, lines 9 to 25. 15 Do you do remember that you sat for an interview 16 where you gave testimony under oath, correct? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Okay. If we look at line 124, 9 to 25: 19 "Question: Are you aware of anyone else in the 20 Trump Organization who provided Mr. Trump's annual 21 Statement of Financial Condition for any year to anyone 22 outside the Trump Organization?" 23 You asked to hear it read again. 24 Then you say: "Yes." 25 "Question: Who is that?"	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 603 1 opening, and, you'll see that there are various columns of 2 information in this memo which refer to the client reported 3 values of various financial statements in columns that are 4 headed DJT 6/30/2011. Donald J. Trump 6/30/2012, client 5 reported, and then two columns over, DJT 6/30/2013, client 6 reported. 7 So, what I'd like to do is go through with you, 8 if we can confirm where some of these numbers are coming from. 9 If we could split the screen and put up the 2011 statement, 10 which is Plaintiff's 787 in evidence. 11 If we can go to page four, the assets page. You 12 can see, Mr. McConney, that the cash and Marketable Securities 13 figure on the assets page, the 258.9 million matches the 14 figure for cash and Marketable Securities in the first column 15 headed DJT 6/30/2011. You see that? 16 A Yes. 17 Q So, you would agree with me that that figure is 18 pulled from the 2011 Statement of Financial Condition, 19 correct? 20 A Yes. 21 Q Then if we put up the 2012 statement, which is 22 Plaintiff's Exhibit 815 and go to page five. We're looking at 23 the assets page. You'd agree with me that the cash and 24 Marketable Securities amount of 169.7 million ties into the 25 figure that's listed in the Deutsche Bank credit memo for
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 602 1 "Answer: I know Michael Cohen was given a copy 2 for one or two meetings." 3 You see that. 4 A Yes, sir. 5 Q Does that refresh your recollection that it was one 6 or two meetings? 7 A It does not refresh my memory, but, if it is, it was 8 one or two meetings. 9 Q Your testimony was truthful when you gave it during 10 the interview? 11 A I believe, so. Yes. 12 Q You also know that Mr. Weisselberg provided the 13 statement to insurance companies, right? 14 A I believe he let them look at the statements, yes. 15 Q Let's put up PX-294. I'll see if I can do this in 16 time before the break. 17 MR. AMER: So, your Honor, PX-294 is the DB 18 credit memo that Mr. Kise showed during part of his 19 opening. So, I'm going to ask it be admitted into 20 evidence. I'm hoping there's no objection. 21 THE COURT: If he showed it, I'm admitting it 22 into evidence. 23 MR. AMER: Thank you, your Honor. 24 Q Let's go ahead and turn to page 14 of this document. 25 This was actually a page that Mr. Kise put up during his	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 604 1 2012, client reported, right? 2 A Yes. 3 Q We'll do 2013 which is Exhibit 707 in evidence. Go 4 to page four. You'll agree with me that the figure for cash 5 and Marketable Securities of 339.1 million ties into that 6 fourth column figure for DJT 6/30/2013, client reported, 7 correct? 8 A Yes. 9 Q In the credit memo, if we could turn to the next page 10 and leave the statement up and let's look at the top column, 11 the top chart. You'll see that there are figures for four 12 properties. They're referred to as four trophy properties. 13 You see that? 14 I'm sorry. I'll wait for you to get there. 15 A Trophy properties, okay. 16 Q If you go to 2013 statement, you'll see that the 17 figures for Trump Tower, Niketown, 40 Wall Street, and Trump 18 Park Avenue all match what's in the credit memo. You see 19 that? 20 A Yes. 21 Q So, you would agree with me that the numbers in this 22 chart and the credit memo are pulled from the 2013 statement, 23 correct? 24 A In the DJT valuation column, yes. 25 Q Okay. You'll see there's a figure under club

1 facilities in the credit memo of 1656.2. Do you see that? 2 A Yes. 3 Q That ties into the dollar amount for club facilities 4 in the June 30, 2013 statement, correct? 5 A That's correct. 6 MR. AMER: As the Court will recall, the credit 7 memo relates to the OPO loan which closed in August of 8 2014. I think this is a good point to break, your Honor, 9 if you gave me the ten-minute warning. 10 THE COURT: I'm sure everybody will be happy to 11 break now. We'll be back at 2:15 as usual. Have a great 12 lunch. 13 (Luncheon recess taken.) 14 15 (Continued on the following page..) 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	1 morning. 2 MR. KISE: So -- and I may have to defer, your 3 Honor, to the expert, the acknowledged expert on the CPLR, 4 but as I understand it -- and I just responded to Ms. Vale 5 over the lunch break, a few minutes ago. As I understand 6 it, 22NYCRR, whatever that is, 1250.4(b)(2) requires that 7 the party seeking relief, as provided in this subdivision, 8 shall give reasonable notice to his or her adversary of the 9 day and time when, and the location where -- we have got 10 all that covered -- the application or order to show cause 11 will be presented, and the relief, including interim 12 relief, being requested. 13 So, my appellate people are telling me we have 14 done that. We have told them we are seeking a stay. 15 THE COURT: Of what? 16 MR. KISE: Interim relief -- well, that's the 17 thing. Until we file it, tomorrow -- hold on -- I'm not 18 sure they're entitled to ask these questions in a trial 19 court proceeding. It seems irregular that we are even 20 having a conversation in a trial court proceeding over an 21 issue that is going to go to the First Department, but we 22 are seeking a stay pending appeal, pursuant to the notice 23 of appeal filed on Wednesday. 24 I've offered to have a conversation with Ms. Vale 25 tonight. To the extent our appellate people can
1 THE COURT: Mr. Amer, do you have a statement of 2 some sort to make? 3 MR. AMER: Yes, your Honor. Just a point to 4 raise, on the record. It concerns the defendant's 5 application to the Appellate Division that they're going to 6 present tomorrow morning, for a stay. 7 We still do not know, although we have requested 8 multiple times, what the scope of the stay is going to be. 9 Is it going to be a stay just of the equitable relief in 10 your summary judgment decision, or will it be a stay of 11 this trial? Which, obviously, you know, required 12 tremendous resources to move forward with. 13 We believe that there is an obligation to have 14 given us notice of the specific request for relief that 15 they are going to seek, 24-hours notice. The papers have 16 Mr. Robert's firm name on them. We would ask that he just 17 say, in open court, on the record, what the scope of the 18 stay is going to be, and if he refuses to say that, then at 19 least we have that on the record, that we can take to the 20 Appellate Division. 21 THE COURT: Well, he can't say what the stay is 22 going to be. He can say what they are requesting. 23 MR. AMER: That's what I'm requesting. What is 24 the scope of the relief that they are seeking, so that we 25 understand what the nature of the application is tomorrow	1 communicate with them in between that time and sort out 2 what's required and what isn't, but you know, until we file 3 tomorrow morning -- we actually are filing tomorrow 4 morning, and so it's possible, I don't know, it's possible 5 we may change our mind. We may decide to seek, you know, 6 door number one or door number two. I don't think that 7 that's actually required, that we -- until we present our 8 papers to the First Department. That's the Court that we 9 are responding to. I mean, this is -- again, I'm not the 10 expert here, but this is how it has worked in all the times 11 I've gone up on interlocutory appeals, is you present your 12 papers in the morning, and we go to court. 13 THE COURT: I disagree. They asked for the 14 relief requested. That's the point of this notice, so they 15 are not blindsided. 16 Also, beyond all this, I would just think it's a 17 matter of common courtesy, you would just explain what 18 you're planning to request, or are requesting. 19 MR. KISE: I mean will they be satisfied if I 20 tell them -- what I'm concerned with is if I say it's A, 21 and it winds up being B tomorrow morning, then I'm going 22 hear a lot of static from the Attorney General. 23 Again, I think it's highly irregular that we are 24 having this conversation. 25 THE COURT: I don't think it's irregular, at all.

1 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, I actually have not even 2 reviewed -- and I can say that, because I'm sitting here on 3 trial with you. I haven't had an opportunity to review the 4 papers, so I most certainly would like that opportunity, 5 before we discuss anything with the AG. I'm sitting here 6 representing certain clients, and I'm not going to allow 7 him to represent anything that would be prejudicial either. 8 So, can we at least agree that, once it's final -- I mean, 9 but I don't see why we would do this, ever. I have never 10 done this. 11 MR. KISE: Why don't we do this. Why don't we do 12 this. As you know, Judge I'm a pragmatist. Why don't we 13 do this. Why don't we let him go ahead, and I will just 14 say, let's assume it's both, for right now; okay? In that, 15 it's a stay of the summary judgment, and the trial. 16 THE COURT: But -- 17 MR. KISE: And if it's not, then they will be 18 over-prepared, but they won't be under-prepared. But, I 19 can't commit, on behalf of several lawyers, several clients 20 that haven't even spoken to, exactly what it's going to be. 21 It's fair for us to say that it's a stay, and if they want 22 me to commit to, it's both, then okay, I'll do that, but I 23 don't know that tomorrow morning -- if it winds up being 24 less, I just don't want to hear any complaint that it's 25 going to be less.		1 It's a question of satisfying the rules. You have to give 2 us 24-hours notice. You just put it on the record, and 3 we'll have our appellate group deal with it tomorrow 4 morning. 5 THE COURT: I think we can move ahead. 6 MR. ROBERT: And I'm confident our notice this 7 morning satisfies all the requirements to make a stay 8 application before the Appellate Division. So, we can 9 leave it at that? 10 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I didn't hear the start 11 of that. 12 MR. ROBERT: I just wanted it to be clear that it 13 is our position that the notice that we gave the Attorney 14 General's Office -- including their appellate lawyers, 15 knowing that all the trial lawyers are here in court today, 16 including all of us -- of our intention to seek a stay 17 tomorrow, at 10:00 tomorrow morning. So, they're aware of 18 it. 19 THE COURT: Well, are they aware of it because of 20 what's in the notice, or because of what you said two 21 minutes ago? 22 MR. ROBERT: Our notice says that we are seeking 23 a stay. 24 THE COURT: Well, that's clearly not sufficient. 25 MR. ROBERT: Well, I respectfully disagree with
1 THE COURT: Well, I assume they can express that, 2 that they don't want to be over-prepared, in terms of 3 getting people to the courthouse here, and all. 4 MR. KISE: It's the same person, Judge. It's 5 Ms. Vale. I mean, it's the same, and we have been 6 communicating about this. Or, our office has been. 7 MR. AMER: Your Honor, this is simple. We are 8 entitled to -- the rules require 24-hours notice. It's not 9 notice to say, We are doing something, but we don't know 10 what we are doing. That's not notice. If they haven't 11 decided what they are doing yet -- 12 MR. KISE: No. 13 MR. AMER: -- then they should switch it back to 14 Tuesday morning. 15 THE COURT: And by the way, I'm not the Appellate 16 Division, but if I were, I would deny your request on the 17 ground you didn't give notice, because they didn't know 18 what they were up against. 19 MR. KISE: Then let's do that, just to satisfy 20 Mr. Amer and the Government. Again, I think it's highly 21 irregular. We will be seeking a stay of both the summary 22 judgment and the trial. 23 MR. AMER: We have our record, and -- 24 MR. KISE: Does that satisfy you? 25 MR. AMER: It's not a question of satisfying me.		1 the Court, but you have additional notice, and if it turns 2 out to be less, it turns out to be less. 3 THE COURT: Okay. 4 MR. KISE: But you know, again, I don't want to, 5 by stating what I stated on the record, to withdraw from 6 the position that our notice was sufficient as given, this 7 morning. Let me be clear on that. 8 THE COURT: I understand. 9 MR. KISE: To be clear on that. But, they are 10 asking. They have obviously, again, engaged in what I 11 think is a highly irregular procedure, to have a 12 conversation about an appeal in front of the Court that we 13 are appealing from, but at all events -- 14 THE COURT: Well, you said that five times, and 15 I've disagreed with you five times. 16 MR. KISE: I know you have. 17 THE COURT: Chris and I understand each other. 18 We don't always agree, but we understand each other. 19 All right. Now, are we ready to recall the 20 witness? Let's get the witness back. 21 (Whereupon, the witness resumed the witness 22 stand.) 23 THE COURT: Let's continue. 24 You are still under oath. You know? 25 THE WITNESS: Okay.

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 613 1 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION 2 BY MR. AMER: 3 Q Welcome back. 4 A Thank you. 5 Q I would like to turn to the cash asset category in the 6 Statement of Financial Condition, and I would like to start by 7 showing you the Statement of Financial Condition for 2016. It's 8 Exhibit 756. It's already in evidence. 9 MR. AMER: If we could pull up page three. 10 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 11 to the witness.) 12 Q You will see that the first item on the assets page is 13 cash, marketable securities and hedge funds, in the amount of 14 $114.4 million. Do you see that? 15 A Yes, sir. 16 Q Okay. 17 A Yes, sir. 18 Q And there are notes to this statement that explain 19 aspects of each asset category; correct? 20 A Yes. 21 Q And if we look at page six, note two is the one that 22 discusses this asset category; cash, marketable securities, and 23 hedge funds; right? 24 A Yes. 25 Q And it says, "Cash, marketable securities and hedge	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 615 1 A Well, the word operating entities is there. I don't 2 know how individuals would interpret operating entities, but it 3 doesn't specifically state entities that he does not control. 4 Q Well, it doesn't say operating entities that he has a 5 minority interest in, either; does it? 6 A It doesn't state, only entities that he owns 7 100 percent, or that he controls. 8 Q So, it's your testimony that this asset category 9 includes cash that Mr. Trump does not have control over. Is 10 that your testimony? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And that was your intent in valuing this asset, that 13 you were going to include cash which Mr. Trump could not control 14 and dispense? Is that your testimony? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And so, this is not, in your view, an asset category 17 that represents Mr. Trump's liquidity. Is that what you are 18 telling us? 19 A The majority of it is his liquidity. 20 Q I didn't say majority. 21 A Mm-hmm. 22 Q I'm asking you, are you telling us that this asset 23 category, in your view, is intended to represent cash, 24 marketable securities, and hedge funds, which do not reflect 25 Mr. Trump's liquidity?
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 614 1 funds represents amounts held by Mr. Trump and amounts in 2 operating entities." 3 Do you see that? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And we can agree operating entities, as used in this 6 note, means entities within the Trump Organization umbrella; 7 correct? 8 A And then some. Yes. 9 Q It's all operating entities that are within the Trump 10 Organization? 11 A It's the entities that are in the Trump Organization, 12 and entities where Mr. Trump is a partner in those entities. 13 Q Is it intended to include entities over which 14 Mr. Trump has no control? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And what about this language do you think would 17 explain to a user that operating entities includes cash, 18 marketable securities, and hedge funds within entities that 19 Mr. Trump doesn't control? 20 A I'm sorry. Can you say that again? 21 Q Sure. What is it in this language that is highlighted 22 on this screen that you believe discloses to a user of this 23 financial statement that this asset category includes cash, 24 marketable securities, and hedge funds within entities that 25 Mr. Trump does not control?	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 616 1 A I'm not sure that question makes any sense to me. 2 Q Okay. You have an accounting background; right? 3 A Yes. 4 Q You understand the concept of liquidity; correct? 5 A Yes. 6 Q And in order for this category to reflect Mr. Trump's 7 liquidity, would you agree that he would need to have control 8 over all of the assets that are in this category? 9 A Yes. 10 Q With respect to assets that he doesn't have control 11 over, those are not his liquid assets; right? 12 A That's not the way we looked at it, but yes. 13 Q Okay. And you're telling us that it was your intent 14 to include, within this category, assets that do not reflect 15 Mr. Trump's liquidity, because you have just told us you are 16 including assets held by entities in which he owns a minority 17 stake. Is that correct? 18 A Yes. The same way we have included accounts payable 19 in the same entities. 20 Q Why don't we pull up PX-2587, the native. 21 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 22 to the witness.) 23 Q Focusing on -- well, let me first ask you about this 24 document. This is backup that you provided to Mazars for this 25 asset category for 2016; right?

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 617 1 A Can you just scroll down to the bottom, with the 2 total? Because I believe the answer is yes, but -- 3 Q Okay. 4 MR. AMER: Scroll down to the total, for the 5 witness. 6 A Just up a little bit. Up to the total of the cash. 7 Q We'll get there. Hang on a second. 8 A Okay. 9 Okay. I'm sorry. Could you ask the question again? 10 Q Yes. This is the back up for the cash, marketable 11 securities category we were just looking at for the 2016 12 statement; correct? 13 A It's the spreadsheet that summarized the backup. Yes. 14 Q That's what you sent to Mazars, along with your Jeff 15 Supporting Data spreadsheet; correct? 16 A Correct. 17 Q You would consider this spreadsheet to be a business 18 record; wouldn't you? 19 A Yes. 20 Q And if we focus on rows 11 through 16, you will see 21 that each of those entities, 11, and then 16 through 19, all 22 have, in parentheses, 30 percent of cash on B/S -- which I 23 presume is balance sheet? 24 A That's correct. 25 Q Okay. And am I correct that each of these entities	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 619 1 Q He owns a minority percentage, correct? 2 A Yes. 3 Q He has no ability to liquidate the amounts that are 4 in-- that are ascribed to those entities, correct? 5 A That's correct. 6 Q If we scroll down to the -- by the way, you've 7 indicated here in the spreadsheet it's 30 percent. So, 8 actually, if you looked at the balance sheet of the entity, 9 you'd see the 100 percent number and you've taken 30 percent 10 of it and put it on this balance sheet? 11 A Correct. The same way we reflected the payables. 12 Q Is it okay if we refer to this shorthand as Vornado 13 cash? 14 A Fine with me. 15 Q Just so we're clear, Vornado cash is not cash that 16 Mr. Trump has access to on his own, correct? 17 A Correct. 18 Q He cannot withdraw the funds from the accounts where 19 they sit, correct? 20 A Correct. 21 Q Let's come back to -- let's go to PX-3041. 22 MR. AMER: PX-3041 is the defendant's response 23 to the 202 statement and I'm going to ask if we can go to 24 page 142 at paragraph 403 and just blow it up. If we 25 could just do the chart and the response below.
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 618 1 that have the 30 percent parenthetical are entities that are 2 part of the Vornado partnership? 3 A They are two partnerships, so yes. 4 Q Okay. Vornado Partnerships, plural; correct? 5 A Yes. 6 Q And that's a partnership group in which Mr. Trump has 7 a 30 percent minority interest; correct? 8 A Well, I don't know if it's a group. It's, Vornado 9 owns 70 percent; Mr. Trump owns 30 percent. 10 (Continued on the next page.) 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 620 1 Q This is a response that was filed by you in this 2 case, as a defendant, Mr. McConney, and you stated that it's 3 undisputed that the values listed are those reflected in the 4 Statement of Financial Condition and the amounts attributable 5 to the Vornado operating entities are as stated. 6 MR. AMER: I don't know if your preference is for 7 something like this, your Honor, that we admit it into 8 evidence or because it's on NYSCEF that's sufficient? 9 THE COURT: Let's consider this -- deem this 10 admitted into evidence, even though it's already on 11 NYSCEF, which is a whole different thing. 12 Q So, Mr. McConney, it is agreed then that for each 13 year from 2013 to 2021, the Vornado cash is as stated in the 14 second column. The statement year in the first column. The 15 second column has the Vornado cash. 16 The third column has the total cash reported on 17 the statement, and, the fourth column is just math, taking the 18 percentage of that column two represent as to column three. 19 So, that is stipulated fact. 20 Let's go and let's just confirm that your answer 21 is the same with respect to all these years, that the Vornado 22 cash, that has been agreed to, is cash that Mr. Trump has no 23 control over, correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q Let's go back to PX-2587, the native. Am I correct

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 621 1 that this spreadsheet then breaks out where these funds are 2 located in different accounts, correct? 3 A I'm sorry. Can you say that again? 4 Q Yes. The columns, for example, column D says Cash 5 Allied Irish Bank. So, that is an account that exists, right? 6 A Right. That's the bank or brokerage company or 7 whatever that holds that cash. 8 Q Okay. And if we could-- and, by the way, the cash, 9 Vornado cash is -- sits in a bank account controlled by the 10 Vornado Partnerships, right? 11 A Correct. 12 Q Can we collapse columns D through N? Mr. McConney, 13 you list the Vornado cash in a Capital One account that you 14 list cash for other entities that are controlled by Mr. Trump; 15 isn't that true? 16 A Yes. 17 Q So, you've got 40 Wall Street, LLC is in the Capital 18 One account. That's clearly something Mr. Trump controls, 19 right? 20 A Yes. 21 Q Isn't it the case then that this document represents 22 that the Vornado cash is in the same Capital One account that 23 Mr. Trump's cash resides for those entities that he does 24 control? 25 A It doesn't represent that it's in the same bank	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 623 1 it's a number of columns. At some point in time, we had to 2 realize we couldn't keep adding columns for every single bank 3 or brokerage company. Not account but bank or brokerage 4 company that was involved. 5 If Hudson Waterfront or Vornado had their cash 6 at Capitol One, it means that's the bank, not an account, but 7 the bank that the money is in. 8 Q Mr. - 9 THE COURT: One second. We need to have a quick 10 technical break of some sort. 11 (Brief pause.) 12 THE COURT: Continue. 13 Q Mr. McConney, if you wanted to list the five Vornado 14 cash entities in a separate section, you'd only have to add 15 one more column to the spreadsheet; isn't that right? 16 A That's correct. 17 Q This is the spreadsheet that you sent to Donald 18 Bender, correct? 19 A Yes. 20 Q So, when he looks at this spreadsheet, he sees all of 21 this cash in all of these entities, including ones that 22 Mr. Trump controls, and the Vornado cash, in a single column 23 labeled Cash Capitol One, correct? 24 A Can you start that again, because I think the 25 beginning of the question, I don't agree with.
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 622 1 account. It represent it's in the same bank. 2 Q Do you know if the Vornado cash is all in a Capital 3 One account? 4 A Based on this, I would have to make that assumption, 5 but, without looking at my backup, I can't make that 6 statement here. 7 Q So, you have multiple Capital One accounts here. You 8 have one called cash in Column O. You have one called cash in 9 Column P. You have one called OS and E in Column Q. 10 Do you see that? 11 A Yes, sir. 12 Q Isn't it correct, Mr. McConney, that anyone looking 13 at this spreadsheet would conclude that all of the cash in 14 Column O sits in the same Capital One account? 15 A People can make assumptions in any way they want to. 16 The users of the spreadsheet know that it's not one bank 17 account. 18 Q It was your intent, when you created this 19 spreadsheet, to put all of these cash amounts in Column O; 20 and, that means that accounts that Mr. Trump controls and the 21 accounts that hold the Vornado cash are in the same column 22 under this same Capital One account, and, you intended that to 23 be the case; isn't that right? 24 A I did not intend it to be one account. This 25 spreadsheet is not through Column V. If you keep going out,	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 624 1 MR. AMER: Can you read back? 2 THE COURT: Read back, please. 3 (Read back.) 4 A Yes, he sees a listing of numbers in a column that 5 says Cash Capital One. He knows it's not in one bank 6 account. 7 MR. AMER: I'll move to strike that last part of 8 the answer. 9 THE COURT: He said it many times. I'm not 10 sure -- because it's not responsive to the question. 11 MR. AMER: And because he's testifying about 12 what Mr. Bender knows without having any foundation for 13 that. It's hearsay. He can't get into Mr. Bender's 14 mind. 15 MR. ROBERT: All of the questions were elicited 16 to what Mr. Bender understood from the spreadsheet Mr. 17 McConney sent. So, to me, it's a fair answer to a fair 18 question. 19 THE COURT: Simple point is he doesn't know what 20 Mr. Bender is going to think. So, I'll strike the last 21 sentence or clause. 22 Q It wasn't a mistake, on your part, to include the 23 Vornado cash in the same Column O as the other entity cash; 24 that wasn't your intent, correct? 25 A No. My premise is based on looking at this now is

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 625 1 that's where Vornado has their cash. 2 Q Let me go back to my question. My question was 3 simply that it wasn't a mistake on your part to put the 4 Vornado cash in Column O; it was your intent do so, correct? 5 A The preparer of this statement, I'm assuming, knew 6 where the funds were that Vornado had. So, the intent was to 7 put it in the column with the bank where the funds were. 8 Based on the way this schedule is supposed to 9 be prepared, we had put the Vornado cash in the column where 10 the cash was maintained at Capital One. 11 Q I'm just going to try, again, to see if I can get a 12 responsive answer. It's very simple. Including the Vornado 13 cash in Column O was not a mistake, it was something you 14 intend to do? 15 MR. KISE: Objection. This has been asked and 16 answered about a dozen times. He's given the same 17 answer. It wasn't his intent, and, Mr. Amer wants to 18 testify, but, the witness has already answered and said 19 exactly why he put it where he put it. That's what he 20 said multiple times. 21 THE COURT: Overruled. He hasn't answered the 22 question yet. It's a very simple question. I can't 23 state it any better than Mr. Amer did. 24 Were those numbers in Column O the way you 25 wanted them to be or were they a mistake?	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 627 1 Q It says: "The accompanying Statement of Financial 2 Condition consists of assets and liabilities of Donald J. 3 Trump. Assets are stated at their estimated current values. 4 You understood, during the entire time that you were preparing 5 the valuations from 2011 through 2016, that the valuations you 6 were working on were intended to state the assets at their 7 estimated current values, correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q Let's go back to Plaintiff's 3041. The defendant's 10 response to Plaintiff's 202.8G statement. Let's look at 11 paragraph 31. 12 Again, this is something that you filed in this 13 case, and, you do not dispute that GAAP defines estimated 14 current value as "the amount at which the item could be 15 exchanged between a buyer and seller, each of whom is well 16 informed and willing and neither of whom is compelled to buy 17 or sell." 18 You understood, when you were working on the 19 valuations, that the values had to be estimated current values 20 and that estimated current values were this definition on the 21 screen, correct? 22 MR. KISE: Objection. No foundation. 23 THE COURT: Overruled. 24 A When we were preparing the Statement of Financial 25 Condition, estimated current value, to me, has a wide range
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 626 1 THE WITNESS: Without looking at the backup, 2 your Honor, knowing where Vornado has their cash, if 3 their cash was in a different bank, it was a mistake. If 4 it was in Capital One, we put it in the column where all 5 the other entities had their cash at Capital One. 6 Without the backup and looking at the actual 7 source document, I can't answer the question. 8 THE COURT: Mr. Amer, what do you want to do? 9 MR. AMER: One more followup. 10 Q So, as I understand your testimony, you're saying as 11 long as the Vornado cash was in an account somewhere within 12 Capital One Bank, even though it was not a Capital One Bank 13 that Mr. Trump controlled, then this was not a mistake? This 14 was something you intended to do? 15 A That's correct. 16 Q Let's switch now to a different asset. Let's talk 17 about Mr. Trump's triplex. 18 MR. KISE: Apartment. 19 Q I'd like to discuss your valuation of that property. 20 So, let's pull up the 2014 statement, PX-730, which is in 21 evidence, and, let me first focus you on page six where it 22 says: "Basis of presentation." 23 This would have been a statement that you 24 reviewed, correct? 25 A Yes.	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 628 1 of interpretation. There are a number of definitions. We 2 may not have listed them all here, but, this is one of them, 3 I believe. 4 THE COURT: Well, I'm sorry to interrupt. You 5 said it's undisputed. You're not disputing the statement 6 that's highlighted in yellow. So, what are we talking 7 about? 8 MR. KISE: He didn't say that. That's a 9 response. 10 MR. AMER: He filed -- 11 THE COURT: He's a defendant. 12 MR. KISE: But, your Honor. So, this is one 13 piece of the puzzle. What's undisputed is that was the 14 definition under that one section, but, there's 20 more 15 pieces to the puzzle after that, and, that's in our 16 statement of facts. 17 They just want to ignore the rest of it. So, 18 yes, GAAP has those words in it, but, GAAP has another 19 paragraph that tells you how you compute estimated value. 20 MR. AMER: I'm concerned when we argue about 21 objections that we end up with testimony. 22 MR. KISE: It's not fair -- 23 MR. AMER: Excuse me. Let me finish. We have a 24 witness on the stand, and, you're making a very lengthy 25 speaking objection in the presence of the witness, and, I

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 629 1 think that's objectionable. So, if we can just have an 2 objection and get the Court's ruling without a whole 3 explanation that educates the witness that is here in the 4 room on the stand -- 5 MR. KISE: I'm not trying to educate the 6 witness. You asked me a question, your Honor, and I'm 7 trying to explain why it says what we said. That's what 8 you asked. If you want to do side-bar -- 9 THE COURT: I didn't ask a question, I remember. 10 MR. KISE: You said it's undisputed. What is 11 the issue and I'm explaining what the issue is. 12 THE COURT: I didn't ask you. I was asking the 13 witness. In any event, you can cross-examine. 14 MR. KISE: Correct. 15 THE COURT: I don't think there was a foundation 16 need or any explanation needed. You want to ask it 17 again? 18 MR. AMER: Sure. 19 Q Let me back up a bit. You understand that the 20 Statement of Financial Condition had to be GAAP compliant 21 unless there was a specific departure from GAAP indicated, 22 correct? 23 A I'm not a GAAP expert. 24 Q Not my question, Mr. McConney. I'm not asking you 25 about GAAP regulations. I'm asking you a broader question,	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 631 1 amount at which the item could be exchanged between a buyer 2 and seller, each of whom is well informed and willing and 3 neither of whom is compelled to buy or sell? 4 A Yes. 5 Q Okay. Let's look at the 2012 Jeff Supporting Data 6 and that's in evidence. We'll put it up on screen, the 7 native. 8 Do you recognize this as your Jeff Supporting 9 Data that was provided to Mazars? 10 A Looks like it, yes. 11 Q We've had testimony from Mr. Bender that this was the 12 control version because it has PBC, provide by client, and it 13 has the various tick marks numbers, the blue numbers. Does 14 that sound right to you? 15 A That sounds right, yes. 16 Q Let's go to row 833. This is the section that 17 discusses the triplex, correct? 18 A Line 833 and line 834, yes. 19 Q Okay. There's a value in G and there's a value in H 20 and it covers -- it gives you two years, the current year and 21 the prior year, correct? 22 A Can you just scroll up so I can see which is the 23 current year and which is the prior year? 24 Q Sure. 25 A It should be at the top of these -- used to be a
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 630 1 which is, you understood that the Statement of Financial 2 Condition had to be GAAP compliant, whatever that ment, they 3 had to be GAAP compliant unless there was a departure from 4 GAAP specifically noted; is that correct? 5 A Yes. 6 Q You agreed, in this filing, that GAAP defines 7 estimated current value exactly as quoted here. 8 MR. AMER: That's a stipulated fact, your Honor, 9 which I ask the Court to take judicial notice of. 10 THE COURT: Well, I'd rather he said it; but, we 11 can get to judicial notice, if necessary. I think 12 sometimes the questions are a little longer than they 13 need to be. 14 Did you understand that, pursuant to GAAP, the 15 definition of estimated current value is as indicated up 16 there? 17 THE WITNESS: That's part of the definition. 18 That are many ways to come up with estimated current 19 value. If we didn't list them, I'm sorry. 20 Q Let me see if I can parse this. You say many ways to 21 come up with estimated current value and I'm asking you what 22 estimated current value is, however you come up with it, okay. 23 So, there's methodology and then there's the 24 result. Did you understand that the result of whatever 25 methodology you used had to be, at the end of the day, the	Page 632 1 page. 2 Q So, G is 2011. H is 2012. Correct? 3 A Yes, sir. 4 5 (Continued on following page..) 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

1 Q So, if we go back, you will see that for 2011 it's 2 $80 million, and 2012, it increases by $100 million to 180; 3 correct? 4 A Yes, sir. 5 Q And let's -- and you say, underneath triplex, "Per 6 email from Kevin Sneddon," and that's the explanation for the 7 jump of 100 million to 180 in 2012; correct? 8 A Yes. 9 Q And you provided backup for this; correct? 10 A Yes. 11 Q So why don't we look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 1052. 12 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 13 to the witness.) 14 Q Mr. McConney, these are a series of emails between you 15 and individuals employed at the Trump Realty -- Trump 16 International Realty; is that right? 17 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I offer this into 18 evidence. 19 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations objection. 20 THE COURT: It's a continuing objection. I don't 21 really care, but it's a waste. 22 MR. ROBERT: We still feel that we need to 23 preserve the record, your Honor. 24 THE COURT: Despite what the Appellate Division 25 said? I mean, Court of Appeals? Because --		1 correct? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And you say in your email to Ms. Kaye, "Justin told me 4 about the apartment he is going to video on the west side. I'm 5 trying to value DJT's triplex," and then ask you a series of 6 questions. What building is the unit in; what's the asking 7 price for the unit; how many square feet is the unit; correct? 8 A Yes. 9 Q You are looking for a comp for Mr. Trump's triplex; 10 correct? 11 A Correct. 12 Q Is Justin somebody who works at TIR? 13 A Justin, I believe, worked for the Trump Organization. 14 I don't think he worked for TIR. 15 Q And you understood he was going to video the apartment 16 to put it up for a listing; correct? 17 A Yes. 18 Q And then the top email, Ms. Kaye emails Mr. Sneddon 19 and copies you and says, "Kevin, please provide Jeff with the 20 prince's details. I'm not near a computer. Thanks;" right? 21 A Yes. 22 Q And Mr. Sneddon is another top person at TIR? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Just so we are not confused by the prince's details, 25 did you understand that that apartment that was going to be
1 MR. ROBERT: My understanding of that decision is 2 that had to do with testimony, and the trial judge had to 3 be given an opportunity to correct it at the trial level, 4 to be available, and that's why we bring it up. I may be 5 reading it incorrectly, but from my reading, it was 6 testimony. 7 THE COURT: I don't want to tell you what to do. 8 So, you can object every time. 9 Anyway, granted and it's in evidence, over 10 objection. 11 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 1052 was received 12 in evidence.) 13 Q Mr. McConney, if you can turn to page two of the 14 exhibit, I want to focus you on your email to Kathy Kaye dated 15 September 19th, 2012. Do you see that? 16 A Yes. 17 Q Am I correct that this is your effort to reach out to 18 Ms. Kaye to get information for you to value the triplex? 19 A Yes. 20 Q And Ms. Kaye is one of the top people at Trump 21 International Realty; correct? 22 A Yes. 23 Q And is it okay if I refer to that entity as TIR? 24 A Yes. That's the way I do it. 25 Q Okay. And TIR is an in-house real estate broker;		1 listed was owned by a Saudi prince? 2 A I don't know about Saudi, but I think, I have some 3 remembrance, that it was owned by a prince, or some royalty of 4 some sort. 5 Q So, it's not a typo. She's really asking for the 6 prince's details? 7 A That's what I remember. 8 Q Okay. Then Mr. Sneddon responds and he says, and 9 you're copied, "I already valued DJT's triplex for Alan." 10 You understood that to be Allen Weisselberg; right? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And he goes on to say, "Our 75 million-dollar triplex 13 lifting is in 240 RSB." 14 Is that 240 Riverside Boulevard? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And that's a Trump-developed property? 17 A At the time, yes. 18 Q Okay. And he says, "Total square footage is 14 and a 19 half thousand, including main residence, guest residence, and 20 staff residence. Ask is 5000-plus per foot." 21 Did you understand that to be per square foot? 22 A Yes. $5,000 per square foot. 23 Q So, he provided you with some of the information that 24 you asked for; correct? 25 A Yes.

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 637 1 Q And then you ask him to send you the email he sent to 2 Mr. Weisselberg; right? 3 A Yes. 4 Q And then he responds, "At 30,000 square feet, DJT's 5 triplex is worth 4,000 to 6,000 per foot, or 120 million to 6 180 million;" right? 7 A Yes. 8 Q Okay. And this is a point in time where you're still 9 using 30,000 square feet for the valuation of Mr. Trump's 10 triplex; right? 11 A I don't know if it's the point in time, or that's when 12 we started. I don't remember exactly when we started using 13 30,000 square feet. 14 Q Okay. And this is the information that you then use 15 to put a value on the apartment for 2012 of $180 million? 16 A Right. 17 Q It's fair to say you took the upper end of the range 18 that Mr. Sneddon provided; correct? 19 A Correct. 20 Q Now, there are two components to the formula that you 21 used to determine the value. One was the square footage. 22 There's been a lot read and argued about that, but the other 23 component is the price per square foot; correct? 24 A Yes. 25 Q Okay. And so here, the price per square foot that you	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 639 1 Q And your inquiry was about that apartment, and his 2 response was in response to your inquiry; right? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Okay. And you probably talked to Mr. Weisselberg 5 about this valuation; correct? 6 A We may have, at some point in time. I don't remember 7 a specific conversation. 8 Q Well, do you recall that Mr. Weisselberg felt that 9 going with the high end of the range at $180 million was 10 appropriate, and represented the value of Mr. Trump's triplex, 11 based on what Mr. Sneddon told you? 12 A Can you say that again? I was kind of -- 13 Q Sure. Is it correct that you reviewed this with 14 Mr. Weisselberg, and he felt going with the high end of the 15 range $180 million, represented the value of Mr. Trump's 16 triplex, based on what Mr. Sneddon had provided to you? 17 A That would be my assumption. Yes. 18 Q Well, I'm asking you for your best recollection. Is 19 that fair? 20 A Yes. 21 Q And you would agree that for purposes of valuing a 22 property for the Statement of Financial Condition in order to 23 get to an estimated current value, that it is better to use an 24 actual sale price, rather than an asking price? Correct? 25 MR. KISE: Objection. Foundation.
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 638 1 used for the 2012 valuation was 6,000 per square foot; is that 2 right? 3 A Yes. 4 Q And you base that off of the information you received 5 about the listing at 240 Riverside Boulevard; right? 6 A Sorry. Can you say that again? 7 Q Sure. You're basing that off of the listing for the 8 apartment, the comp that was at 240 Riverside Boulevard, that 9 you were communicating with Ms. Kaye and Mr. Sneddon about; 10 right? 11 A Well, I'm basing it on the email from Kevin, the 12 30,000 square feet, and the 4,000 to 6,000 per square foot. I 13 think the question about the apartment for sale was the starting 14 point, and this is, basically, where we ended up. 15 Q Well, Ms. Kaye's email said that the listing was going 16 to be at 5,000 per square foot, and you picked -- and 17 Mr. Sneddon gave you a range of 4,000 to 6,000, so isn't it 18 correct that that range was based on the listing price for the 19 comp at 240 Riverside Boulevard? 20 A I don't know what Kevin's thought process was. It 21 could be based on this, if you can draw that conclusion, but I 22 don't know if that's what Kevin was basing it on. 23 Q Well, it's the mid point of the range that he gave 24 you; right? 25 A Yeah. Mathematically, yes.	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 640 1 THE COURT: Combination. Foundation. 2 MR. KISE: Foundation. He already testified he 3 is not a G.A.A.P. expert. He has his understanding of what 4 estimated current value is. I'll stop there. 5 THE COURT: Overruled. 6 A So, can you ask the question again, please? 7 MR. AMER: Your Honor, can I get a read back. 8 THE COURT: That's the way to do it. 9 Read back, please. 10 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the 11 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.) 12 MR. ROBERT: Same objection. 13 THE COURT: Same ruling. Overruled. 14 A I don't think that's -- I think -- there are many ways 15 to value assets in a Statement of Financial Condition. 16 Q Let me just go right to your testimony, from the 17 interview. I'm going to put up page 307, line 13 to 307 -- to 18 308? 19 THE COURT: When you say interview, do you mean 20 deposition? 21 MR. AMER: This is his interview under oath 22 during our investigation. So, we don't call it a 23 deposition. It's an investigatory interview, your Honor. 24 THE COURT: Thank you. 25 Q "Question: Why use an asking price, and not an

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 641 1 actual sale? 2 "Answer: We asked ourselves the same thing a few 3 years ago, and we stopped using asking prices, and did sale 4 prices. I don't know why we used asking prices at that 5 time, but we realized it was probably better to get an 6 actual selling price. 7 "And why is that? 8 "Answer: Because you can ask anything you want 9 to. Like, we can ask for 291 million for houses on Seven 10 Springs. It doesn't mean you want to pay that. But, 11 that's what our asking price, if you want to buy it. So, 12 based on that theory, we thought it was a good determining 13 factor at the time, and when we thought about it some more, 14 we figured out, it's better to use selling prices." 15 That was your sworn testimony; correct? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And isn't it correct that when you are valuing a 18 property based on comps using actual sale prices as opposed to 19 asking prices, it's not just the better practice, it's the right 20 way to do it? 21 MR. ROBERT: Objection. 22 THE COURT: Grounds? 23 MR. KISE: Again, foundation. It's the same 24 question, the same problem. It's the same disconnect. I'm 25 loathe, because they are going to throw their pens in the	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 643 1 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move to admit this 6 exhibit for grounds of notice, that it was public record 7 that the sale occurred. 8 THE COURT: But do we know that they knew about 9 it? And are you arguing constructive notice? 10 MR. AMER: We are arguing that it was something 11 that was in the public domain, that he could have learned 12 about from this article. 13 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 14 proceedings.) 15 MR. ROBERT: Your Honor? 16 THE COURT: Go ahead. Sorry. 17 MR. ROBERT: It's a 2018 article. We are talking 18 about 2012 valuation. Its hearsay, and we are not 19 accepting what the New York Times says is accurate. 20 THE COURT: I believe that some or all of the 21 defendants had actual notice of this. They asked about it, 22 and were told. 23 But, Mr. Amer, can you resolve this issue? 24 MR. AMER: The question for -- so, the witness 25 thinks it's appropriate to use asking prices. The fact
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 642 1 air, I'm loathe to explain it, but it's the same principle. 2 He has already said there's multiple ways to get there. 3 Mr. Amer is now asking if that's the right way. This is 4 the whole point of the case, there is no one right way. 5 So, he is mischaracterizing the evidence in the record. 6 I'll put it that way. 7 And, this witness isn't a G.A.A.P. expert, so he 8 can't testify to what's the absolutely right way. He has 9 already said his view, multiple times. There are many 10 ways. 11 THE COURT: I think any high school student knows 12 the right way. I'm overruling the objection. 13 Q I'll ask the question again. You would agree that 14 when you are valuing a property based on comps, using actual 15 sale prices, as opposed to asking prices, is not just the better 16 practice, but it's the right way to do it; isn't it? 17 MR. KISE: Same objection. 18 A No. 19 Q You think it's okay to use asking prices when you are 20 looking for comps to value a property at it's estimated current 21 value? Is that your testimony? 22 A Yes, sir. 23 Q Do you know whether this comp at 240 Riverside 24 Boulevard, the prince's apartment, sold? And for how much? 25 A I do not.	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 644 1 that this apartment sold -- 2 THE COURT: I think he said they are just 3 different ways. He didn't say asking was the only way, or 4 the correct way. He said it was one way, I think. 5 MS. HABBA: Thank you. 6 MR. AMER: He said it was an acceptable way. 7 THE COURT: Acceptable. That's not the way. 8 That's an acceptable way. 9 MR. AMER: I meant to convey something different. 10 I'm sorry. 11 He is taking that position now, on the stand, and 12 the fact that it was in the public domain, that this 13 apartment sold for $30 million -- 14 THE COURT: Public domain doesn't do it. I think 15 there was a lot more than public domain. 16 Q Do you know, Mr. McConney, whether your colleagues in 17 TIR were aware of the sale of this apartment when it happened, 18 many years later, at a much lower price than the asking price? 19 A I have no idea what they knew. 20 MR. AMER: We'll come back to this, your Honor. 21 THE COURT: Fine. 22 Q Let's look at the 2013 value, and let's put up the 23 2014 JSD, because that will give us both the 2013 value and the 24 2014 value; correct? 25 A Yes, sir.

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 645 1 Q Okay. 2 MR. However, 5 another just came on the market at over 11,000 per square 6 foot." "One 16 just sold for 5,000 a foot. One just came on the market for 17 11,000 a square foot. It's not necessarily indicative of the 18 market." J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 646 1 Q Two hundred million in both years, and in 2013, it's 2 based on Kathy Kaye. 3 Is that an e-mail from her, August 2013? 4 A I'd have to look at the backup but, yes, it's an 5 e-mail from her. 6 MR. AMER: Okay. Let's go ahead and mark 714. 7 THE COURT: Ten-minute warning, everybody. 8 Q This is an e-mail exchange you had with Ms. Kaye, 9 correct? 10 A Yes, sir. 11 MR. AMER: I move this into evidence, your 12 Honor. 13 MR. ROBERT: Same objection. Statute of 14 Limitations. 15 THE COURT: Same ruling. Granted. It's in 16 evidence. 17 Q And the top e-mail from Ms. Kaye to you is the e-mail 18 that you're referencing in the spreadsheet for your 19 $200 million value; is that right? 20 A I believe August 19, 2013 was the date on the 21 spreadsheet. Can I look at the spreadsheet before I say yes 22 or no? 23 Q Sure. Going back to 719? 24 A August, yes. That is the e-mail we based it on. 25 Q So, let's go back to the e-mail. She says at the	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 648 1 square foot at this point which brings us to @ 240 million." 2 Then she says: "200 million is a safe estimate," correct? 3 A Yes. 4 Q So, you go with what she claims is a safe estimate? 5 A Yes. 6 Q We can agree that the item that she says is 11,000 7 per square foot is just a listing price and not an actual sale 8 price, correct? 9 A I believe that to be correct, yes. 10 Q That's what you understood at the time, right? 11 A Yes. 12 Q She's obviously using the 30,000 square foot figure 13 because she's saying 8,000 per square foot, right? 14 A Yes. 15 Q Do you know if she is the person at TIR who decided 16 to list the Prince's triplex at $75 million? 17 A I have no idea. 18 Q Okay. I'm correct that this one e-mail from Ms. 19 Kaye, that we've just reviewed, is the sole basis for your 20 valuing the apartment in 2013 at 200 million; is that right? 21 A That's correct. 22 Q If we look at the spreadsheet again for the 2014 23 value, you indicate there that it's based on comps at 157. Do 24 you see that? 25 A Yes.

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 649 1 Q That's referring to a property on West 57th Street 2 which is a very, very tall apartment building, correct? 3 A Yes. 4 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark Exhibit 3044. 5 Q Mr. McConney, is this your backup for getting to the 6 $200 million value for 2014 based on comps at 157? 7 A I believe so, yes. 8 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this be 9 admitted into evidence. 10 MR. ROBERT: Statute of Limitations objection. 11 THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. In evidence. 12 Q What you're doing here, Mr. McConney, is you're 13 taking all of the units on floors 50 and above that sold in 14 2014 at the building 157 and you're calculating, based on 15 those sales, a price per square foot of 6,733; is that right? 16 A Yes. 17 Q Then you take that number and you multiply it by 18 30,000 to get to the value of 201,990 which you round, for 19 purposes of the statement value, to 200 million; is that 20 right? 21 A Yes. 22 Q The second and third pages are printed from 23 StreetEasy.com listing the sales; is that right? 24 A I believe that's correct, yes. 25 Q Did you consider StreetEasy.com to be a reliable	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 651 1 Q Mr. McConney, you'll see that the StreetEasy.com site 2 that you said was reliable, indicates that this building was 3 built in 2013, correct? 4 A Yes. 5 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark as 6 Exhibit 3036 for identification a StreetEasy.com listing 7 for Trump Tower, the building in which Mr. Trump's 8 triplex is located. 9 Q You'll see, that according to StreetEasy.com, the 10 site you testified was reliable, Trump Tower was built in 11 1983. Do you see that? 12 A Yes. 13 Q Do you have any reason to disagree with either of 14 those dates? 15 A No. 16 Q So, Trump Tower is 30 years older than 157, correct? 17 A Yes. 18 Q If you look at the second page of the exhibit, let's 19 look at 3035, page two, you'll see there's a section that 20 says: "Building facts." 21 You see that? 22 A Yes. 23 Q It says under "sales listings: 245 previous sales at 24 5,369 per square foot average." Do you see that? 25 A Yes.
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 650 1 source for real estate apartment sales information? 2 A Yes. 3 Q You relied on it, correct? 4 A Yes. 5 MR. AMER: I'm going to mark as Exhibit 3035. 6 This, your Honor, is something we printed out last week 7 from the StreetEasy.com website for building 157 and I'd 8 ask that this be admitted into evidence based on the 9 witness's testimony that he relied on this site and 10 considered it to be reliable. 11 MR. ROBERT: Objection, your Honor. The witness 12 relied on what's already in evidence. This is just 13 hearsay. This is something he printed out on October 1, 14 2023. He didn't rely on this document about 157. 15 MR. AMER: His testimony was that the site was 16 reliable, not that the specific printout that he was 17 looking at was the only thing that was reliable. 18 MR. ROBERT: In the year that you're questioning 19 him about. 20 THE COURT: How about if we just mark it as an 21 exhibit? 22 MR. ROBERT: For identification? 23 THE COURT: Yes, for identification. 24 MR. ROBERT: Thank you, sir. 25 THE COURT: Okay.	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 652 1 Q So, that's the average price per square foot for 2 apartments in 157, correct? 3 MR. ROBERT: Objection. 4 THE COURT: Ground? 5 MR. ROBERT: It's hearsay. 6 THE COURT: By the way, in one of these 7 listings, I forgot which, the first amenity was elevator. 8 I would hope so. 9 It's an out-of-court statement being introduced 10 to prove the truth of its contents, isn't it? So, I'm 11 not sure what exception you want to try to put this 12 under. 13 MR. AMER: Your Honor, again, this is a website 14 that the witness has, himself, relied on for his own 15 valuations. So, I think it is appropriate based on his 16 own testimony that this exhibit be admitted into 17 evidence. 18 THE COURT: I don't think that alone does it. 19 Q Mr. McConney, did you look at StreetEasy.com to 20 determine whether apartments, on average, were selling for a 21 price per square foot in Trump Tower at a price that was 22 anywhere equal to what apartments were selling for in a 23 building that was built 30 years later, 157, when you decided 24 to use 157 as a comp for Trump Tower? 25 A No.

1 THE COURT: Last question then we'll take a 2 break. 3 MR. AMER: Okay. 4 THE COURT: Last question or short series of 5 questions. Lawyers do that all the time. They say one 6 question and we get ten. 7 Q When you decided to use 157 as a comp for Mr. Trump's 8 triplex in Trump Tower, did you look at any of the factors 9 such as building amenities, age of the building, or any other 10 type of factor when deciding whether you might need to adjust 11 pricing up or down to make it comparable to Mr. Trump's 12 triplex? 13 A Not that I remember, no. 14 MR. AMER: Okay. I think this is a good spot. 15 THE COURT: The usual ten-minute break over the 16 course of 15 minutes. 17 (Recess taken.) 18 THE COURT: Okay. Let's pick up where we left 19 off. 20 Q I have one more valuation on the triplex that would 21 go to a different asset. So, let's put up the 2016 Jeff 22 Supporting Data spreadsheet, Exhibit 742. It's already in 23 evidence. And row 913 is where the triplex section starts. 24 Again, it's the same value but goes up to 347 25 million for 2015 and 2016. Do you see that?	1 MR. AMER: I'd ask that this be admitted into 2 evidence, your Honor. 3 THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence. 4 Q Since Mr. Weisselberg's e-mail-- and, by the way, 5 based on the date of this e-mail, this is being sent to you 6 for purposes of preparation of the valuation for 2015 which 7 was still happening in March of 2016, correct? 8 A I believe that's correct, yes. 9 Q Mr. Weisselberg has forwarded you this e-mail from 10 Ms. Muramatsu. Again, she's in TIR, correct? 11 A I believe she was running TIR at the time. 12 Q Okay. She says to Mr. Weisselberg: "There are very 13 limited number of buildings that sell premium price, 14 especially larger units and I just looked at the closed sales 15 data for the following building, which most likely to be the 16 highest." She lists 15 WPW. That's Central Park west, right? 17 A I believe so. 18 Q So, 157, the building you used for comps before, 19 correct? 20 A Yes. 21 Q 432 Park Avenue, right? 22 A Yes. 23 Q Was the instruction that was given to TIR that they 24 should find comps for the triplex by looking at buildings with 25 closed sales most likely to be the highest?

1 A Can you scroll to where it has the June 30th dates 2 again? 3 Q Sure. There they are. 4 A Yes. June of '15 and June of '16, yes. 5 Q Okay. If we go back to '13, you'll see it says: 6 "Triplex based on comps from TIR sales office 30,000 square 7 feet at 10,900 per square foot." 8 MR. AMER: By the way, I have one more 9 demonstrative to hand out which is charts that show all 10 the values for properties on one chart. So, this is PBS 11 3.1 through 3.11. 12 Q So, there's a different chart for each asset and the 13 first page is the triplex. I just put this up because it's an 14 easy way to appreciate that the values in 2015 and 2016 are 15 the highest values for the triplex in this 11-year period. 16 Correct? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Okay. Let's look at Exhibit 1037. 19 MR. AMER: Why don't we give this to the 20 witness. We'll put it on the screen. It's a one-page 21 document. 22 Q Do you see that this is an e-mail from Naomi 23 Muramatsu to Mr. Weisselberg which he then forwards on to you, 24 correct? 25 A Yes.	1 A I don't know what Allen's instruction to Naomi was, 2 Ms. Muramatsu. 3 Q When you communicated, in prior years, to TIR, was 4 that the marching orders to find buildings with the highest 5 price per square foot? 6 A I don't remember telling that to anybody. I tried 7 or I asked them to find comps. 8 Q At any rate, her e-mail to Mr. Weisselberg indicates 9 that she was trying to find buildings that were most likely to 10 be the highest, correct? 11 A Yes. 12 Q Then the next paragraph she says: "Highest was 9,390 13 per square foot, correct? 14 A Yes. 15 Q That's at 15 Central Park West only 2761 square feet 16 for 29995, correct? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Then she says: "Highest among the larger units." So 19 she's commenting that this unit at 15 Central Park West was a 20 smaller unit, correct? 21 A Yes. 22 Q Then she says: "Highest among the larger unit was 23 9,198 per square foot at 157, Unit 90." You see that? 24 A Yes. 25 Q Then it says: "10,923 square feet for 100,471,453.

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 657 1 Correct? 2 A Yes. 3 Q Now, if we put the this next to the spreadsheet just 4 so we can compare it. Spreadsheet is 742. You see in the 5 spreadsheet you indicated 30,000 at $10,900 per square foot? 6 Do you see that? 7 A Yes. 8 Q Can we agree that your price per square foot is based 9 on the 10,923 number. Right? 10 A Yes. 11 Q And that was a mistake, wasn't it? 12 A Yes, it was. I picked up the square foot, not the 13 dollar amount per square foot. 14 Q Right. So, you used the square footage of the 15 apartment instead of the price per square foot, which was 16 9,198. Right? 17 A Yes. 18 Q We can do some court math, but, if you'll allow me to 19 round up 9,198 to 9,200, the difference between the figure you 20 used of 10,900 and the actual price per square foot rounded to 21 9,200 is 1,700; and, if you multiply that by 30,000, it comes 22 to $51 million. 23 Does that sound about right? 24 A I'll have to take your word for it. 25 Q 1700 times 30 is 51 and, so, this is a $51 million	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 659 1 Q Was it your intention at the time to choose a price 2 per square foot that would give you the highest value for the 3 triplex? 4 A We were looking to get a comp for -- so, we were 5 looking for the price per square foot that would give us what we 6 thought Mr. Trump's apartment was worth, compared to what was 7 sold out there. I'm not sure that answers your question, or 8 not. 9 Q It doesn't, so let me try again. 10 Looking at this now, and seeing that the 15 Central 11 Park West per square foot was actually higher than the one, the 12 price per square foot at 157, had you known that at the time, 13 would you have picked 15 Central Park West as the comp, because 14 you were looking to get the highest number you could for 15 Mr. Trump's triplex? 16 A No. We weren't always looking for the highest price. 17 This had 10,900 square feet, so it was closer in size to what we 18 thought the square footage was to Mr. Trump's triplex at the 19 time. 20 Q Let's turn our attention to 40 Wall Street. 21 MR. AMER: Let's put up the 2012 Jeff Supporting 22 Data spreadsheet. It's 793. 23 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 24 to the witness.) 25 Q If we go to row 110, that's the beginning of the
Page 658 1 mistake in each of the two years, correct? 2 A Yes. 3 Q If you had realized, Mr. McConney, at the time that 4 you were doing this valuation, that the correct price per 5 square foot was $9,198, would you have instead chosen, as a 6 comp, 15 Central Park West because that had a higher price per 7 square foot of $9,390? 8 A I can't make that statement. I don't know what my 9 thought process would be. 10 11 (Continued on following page..) 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 660 1 section for 40 Wall Street. 2 A I'm sorry, could you just do me a favor and scroll up, 3 so I know what year? 4 I guess its only one column, so it's only 2011. 5 2012. Okay. All right. So this is all 2012. Thank 6 you. Sorry. 7 Q And so rows 131 to 133 provide the note that indicates 8 how you came up with your valuation that landed at 527,200,000; 9 correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q Okay. And your note says, information provided by 12 Doug Larson at Cushman &amp; Wakefield, Inc., which reflect cap 13 rates of 4.23 percent and 4.39 percent for similar-sized office 14 buildings at 14 Wall Street and 4 New York Plaza; correct? 15 A Yes. 16 Q So, let's just go over some background for this type 17 of valuation. This valuation takes net operating income, 18 divided by capitalization rate, to get to a building value; is 19 that right? 20 A Yes. 21 Q And the lower the cap rate, the higher the value, 22 because the formula uses the cap rate as the denominator; 23 correct? 24 A Yes. 25 Q Now, Doug Larson is an appraiser with Cushman &amp;

1 Wakefield; correct? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And he is person that you indicate in the note you got 4 information from; right? 5 A That's correct. 6 Q I'm correct that the Trump Organization had not 7 retained Mr. Larson or Cushman to conduct an appraisal of 8 40 Wall Street; right? 9 A That's correct. 10 Q And the Trump Organization had not retained Mr. Larson 11 or Cushman &amp; Wakefield to provide you with a cap rate that was 12 applicable for 40 Wall Street; correct? 13 A That's correct. 14 Q In this note, what you are referring to Mr. Larson 15 having provided you with is a generic market report from Cushman 16 &amp; Wakefield; right? 17 A Yes. 18 Q And that generic market report is not a report that 19 Cushman prepared specifically for the Trump Organization; right? 20 A That's correct. 21 Q That is a generic marketing report that Cushman mails 22 out, or emails out, to a large customer base as a service that 23 it provides; correct? 24 A I have no idea what they do with it. 25 Q At any rate, it's not anything that you paid for;	1 that we were looking at, lines 131 to 133, now. The Jeff 2 Supporting spreadsheet 793. 3 Q And just focusing on the note in 131 to 133, does the 4 page from Exhibit 794 on the left appear to be the backup for 5 your note in the spreadsheet about how you got to the 4.31 cap 6 rate average? 7 A Yes. 8 Q You took two cap rates, one for 4 New York Plaza, one 9 for 14 Wall Street, from the generic market report; you averaged 10 them to come up with 4.31; right? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And the next two pages are the backup material. That 13 is, 794 are pages from that generic market report; right? 14 A That's correct. 15 Q And it contains a description of the two properties 16 you used for the average. It's the second and third properties 17 on the list; correct? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And the cap rates are listed under the column, OAR, 20 which stance for overall rate of return; right? 21 A I think so. Yes. 22 Q At any rate -- 23 A I use that as my cap rate. 24 Q Understood. That was the column that would have the 25 cap rate that you used; right?
1 correct? 2 A That's correct. 3 MR. AMER: Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 794. 4 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 5 to the witness.) 6 Q Mr. McConney, is this back-up material that you 7 provided to Mr. Bender in connection with your supporting 8 spreadsheet? 9 A The documents, yes. The computation in the middle, I 10 don't think that's mine. 11 THE COURT: You need to talk in the microphone. 12 Sorry? 13 THE WITNESS: It's like an adding machine tape of 14 some sort, in the middle, I don't believe I did. But, the 15 documents are mine. 16 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this be 17 admitted into evidence. 18 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations objection. 19 THE COURT: Objection overruled. Request 20 granted. It's in evidence. 21 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 794 was received 22 in evidence.) 23 Q I would like to focus you on the second page of the 24 exhibit. 25 MR. AMER: If we could put up the spreadsheet	1 A That's correct. 2 Q And again, because the cap rate is the denominator in 3 the equation, the lower the cap rate, the higher the property 4 value. The higher the cap rate, the lower the property value; 5 right? 6 A Yes. 7 Q There are a total of eight properties listed in this 8 generic market report. The two you selected and averaged were 9 the second and third lowest cap rates; right? 10 A Yes. 11 Q If we look at the next property after 14 Wall Street, 12 it's 33 Maiden Lane; correct? 13 A Yes. 14 Q If we just look at the description it says, This is a 15 Class A office building. Do you see that? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And 4 New York Plaza, which is a building you selected 18 to use, is also a Class A office property; correct? 19 A Yes. 20 Q 33 Maiden Lane has a higher cap rate of 4.74; right? 21 A Yes. 22 Q If you had included that in your average, it would 23 have drove the cap rate up; right? 24 A The cap rate would have gone up, yes. 25 Q And you did not use 33 Maiden Lane; correct?

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 665 1 A That's correct. 2 Q And the next building is 199 -- sorry 195 Broadway, 3 and that's a landmark Class A office building; correct? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And 14 Wall Street is also a landmarked Class A, but 6 it's a Class A-minus office building; correct? 7 A Yes. 8 Q And 195 Broadway has a higher cap rate of 6.3 percent. 9 Do you see that? 10 A Yes. 11 Q If you had used that in your average, it would have 12 driven the cap rate up; correct? 13 A Yes. 14 Q You did not include that building in your cap rate 15 equation; correct? 16 A That's correct. 17 MR. AMER: Your Honor, this is just math, so the 18 Court can take judicial notice of it, but I'll represent to 19 you that if you include those additional two cap rates and 20 you took the average from all four, the cap rate would be 21 4.915 percent, and it would lower the value by $65 million. 22 THE COURT: Well, subject to the math being 23 correct, I'll take judicial notice of that. Yes. 24 MR. AMER: Thank you, your Honor. 25 THE COURT: It sounds about right.	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 667 1 looking down. Right. There's the -- my notes. Okay. Sorry. 2 Can I just read the notes now? 3 Q Sure. 4 A Okay. So the answer to your last question about 2013 5 was yes. We used the same, 4.31. 6 Q Just so the record is clear, you are now looking at 7 rows 155 to 158, and you can confirm that it's the same 8 description for your valuation of 2012 and 2013; right? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Okay. And then rows 148 through 152 is your note for 11 the valuation for 2014; correct? 12 A Correct. 13 Q And you used a cap rate there. Again, it's 14 information provided by Doug Larson; right? 15 A Correct. 16 Q And it's the same type of generic market report that 17 we have been talking about for Mr. Larson; correct? 18 A That's correct. 19 Q And the cap rate of 3.04 percent for 100 -- sorry. I 20 just caught myself. So, you used the cap rate for 110 William 21 Street of 4.97 percent, and then another building, 61 Broadway, 22 was 4.46 percent. You then say, according to Doug, the spread 23 between Class A and Class B buildings is typically 150 basis 24 point. To be conservative, you reduced the cap rate by 75 basis 25 points to 3.71 percent, and then you averaged that with the
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 666 1 MR. AMER: Let's look at 2014 Jeff Supporting 2 Data, Exhibit 719. 3 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 4 to the witness.) 5 Q And 40 Wall Street starts at row 118. 6 A I'm sorry, which? Looking at the 2014 column? Column 7 H? 8 Q We are going to look at column G first, which is 2013. 9 A Okay. 10 MR. AMER: And go to row 118. 11 Q That's 40 Wall Street; correct? 12 A Is that a question for me? Yes. 13 Q Yes. Okay? 14 A Yes. 15 Q And you used the same 4.31 cap rate as in the prior 16 year that we have just discussed; right? 17 A Yes. 18 Q It's based on the same backup we just went through; 19 correct? 20 A Without looking at my backup, it's just an assumption. 21 I didn't have a note here, for some reason. 22 Q And if we look at column H, it shows the valuation for 23 2014 at rows 138 to 141; right? 24 A Right. Can you scroll up a little bit, because there 25 may be some notes there. I'm sorry, the page up, or I guess	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 668 1 4.97 percent. Is that right? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And am I correct, Mr. McConney, that during the period 4 we have been discussing, covering the 2012 to 2016 Statements of 5 Financial Condition, while you were receiving and using these 6 Cushman generic market reports that you were getting from 7 Mr. Larson to calculate your cap rates, you were aware that 8 Mr. Larson was preparing formal appraisals for 40 Wall Street 9 for the bank that had the loan on the property; right? 10 A I'm not sure I knew at the time that Doug was doing 11 those appraisals. 12 Q As you sit here right now, you are not sure that he 13 was doing those appraisals? 14 A At that time, I know at one point in time we were -- 15 we were refinancing 40 Wall Street, I don't remember what year 16 it was, and I know he was doing an appraisal because I was 17 heavily involved in it. I'm not sure every single appraisal 18 that Doug did for that period of time, I was aware of. 19 Q Mr. McConney, weren't you the conduit for information 20 from Mr. Larson, for purposes of him doing his bank appraisals 21 for 40 Wall Street? 22 A I remember -- again, I remember the one loan that we 23 were doing. I don't remember all the appraisals that he was 24 doing. I could be -- again, I don't remember being the conduit. 25 Q My question is very simple.

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 669 1 A Mm-hmm. 2 Q Isn't it a fact that you, Mr. McConney, were the 3 conduit for information on behalf of the Trump Organization to 4 Mr. Larson in connection with his bank appraisal, bank 5 appraisals that he was doing during the period 2012 to 2016 that 6 we have just been discussing? 7 A You are saying -- I'm saying I'm not sure I was the 8 conduit for every single appraisal. 9 Q And I'm not asking you if you were the conduit for 10 every single appraisal, but you were the conduit for information 11 for Mr. Larson for bank appraisals he was doing for 40 Wall 12 Street. Let's leave it at that. Is that correct? 13 A Yes. 14 Q Okay. 15 MR. AMER: Let's look at Exhibit 3047. 16 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 17 to the witness.) 18 Q These are emails -- this is an email exchange you have 19 with Mr. Larson; correct? 20 A Yes, sir. 21 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this exhibit be 22 admitted. 23 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations objection. 24 THE COURT: Objection overruled. Granted. It's 25 in evidence.	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 671 1 one the prior year; right? 2 A It looks that way, yes. 3 Q Okay. 4 MR. AMER: Let's look at Plaintiff's 5 Exhibit 3046. 6 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 7 to the witness.) 8 Q This is an email from Mr. Larson to you dated 9 October 15, 2012; right? 10 A Yes. 11 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this be 12 admitted into evidence. 13 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations objection. 14 THE COURT: Occasion overruled. Granted. It's 15 in evidence. 16 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3046 was received 17 in evidence.) 18 Q Mr. Larson says, "Jeff, we have been engaged by 19 Capital One Bank to prepare an appraisal of the above property," 20 which is 40 Wall Street; right? 21 A Yes. 22 Q "The following information is requested in order for 23 us to prepare the appraisal," and he lists a bunch of 24 information; right? 25 A Yes.
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 670 1 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3047 was received 2 in evidence.) 3 Q Let's look at the bottom of the email. This is from 4 Mr. Larson to you, and it's dated October 13, 2011. "Jeffrey, 5 we have been engaged by Capital One Bank to prepare an appraisal 6 of 40 Wall Street. Attached please find a list of information 7 we need to prepare the appraisal." 8 He gives you this phone number, and tells you you can 9 call him. 10 "Hope all is well, thank you, Doug;" right? 11 A Yes, sir. 12 Q So you knew, as of October 2011, that Mr. Larson was 13 preparing an appraisal for 40 Wall for Capital One Bank which, 14 at the time, was the bank that had the loan on 40 Wall Street; 15 correct? 16 A Yes. Thank you for jogging my memory. 17 Q Happy to oblige. 18 Now, let's look at the top email, and this is from you 19 to Mr. Larson. "Doug, a couple of quick questions. You are 20 asking for lease abstracts for the most recent leases. How far 21 back should I go? The last appraisal was done in August 2010." 22 Do you see that? 23 A Yes, sir. 24 Q So you know, in October of 2011, he is doing -- he is 25 currently doing an appraisal, and you also knew that he had done	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 672 1 Q So a year later, Mr. Larson is doing another 2 appraisal, and you are the person he contacts and tells he is 3 doing it, and requests information; right? 4 A That's correct. 5 Q So you knew in October of 2012 that Mr. Larson was 6 doing, now, his third appraisal for 40 Wall Street; correct? 7 A Yes. 8 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and mark Exhibit 3048. 9 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 10 to the witness.) 11 Q This is an exchange, an email exchange between you and 12 Mr. Larson in May of 2015; correct? 13 A Yes. 14 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this exhibit be 15 admitted into evidence. 16 MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations objection. 17 THE COURT: Objection overruled. Request 18 granted. It's in evidence. 19 (Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3048 was received 20 in evidence.) 21 Q The bottom email is yet another email from Mr. Larson 22 to you, telling you he has is been engaged by Ladder Capital. 23 That's the bank that refinanced the loan; right? 24 A This is the one I remember. Yes. 25 Q Okay.

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 673 1 A Yeah. 2 Q I'm glad to hear you remember this one, but there are 3 three others before this one. 4 A Yes. I just didn't remember those at the time. This 5 is the one I do remember. 6 Q Okay. And once again, he is telling you he has been 7 engaged to do an appraisal of 40 Wall Street, and he is asking 8 you for information; right? 9 A Correct. 10 Q You write to him in response and you say, Doug -- this 11 is the second line. 12 A Okay. 13 Q "Doug, Steve Lafiosca, copied on this email, can help 14 with you the inspection. Based on the appraisals you have done 15 in the past, do you have any of the below information in your 16 files," right? 17 A Yes. 18 Q So you are basically wondering, since he keeps coming 19 to you year after year asking you for all this information, why 20 he doesn't have it already, since he has been doing all these 21 appraisals before; right? 22 A I just asked him if he had it, yes, and if he could 23 use it. 24 Q Well, you are asking him if he had it in his files, 25 because you were aware of all these appraisals he has been	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 675 1 Q And during the period of time that you were acting as 2 the conduit of information for Mr. Larson for his appraisals 3 at 40 Wall Street and you were using his generic market report 4 for your cap rate calculations, you never asked Mr. Larson if 5 the cap rates you were selecting were appropriate. Isn't that 6 right? 7 A No. I mean, it's correct. Yes. 8 Q During this period of time when you were acting as 9 the conduit to provide information to Mr. Larson so that he 10 could do his formal appraisals, you never asked Mr. Larson 11 what cap rates he was using for any of the Cushman appraisals 12 at 40 Wall Street; isn't that right? 13 A I believe that's correct, yes. 14 MR. AMER: Can we put back up the Jeff 15 Supporting Data spreadsheet at 742, the native? 16 Q I want to go back to your note at row 153 that 17 explains the basis for the cap rate. This is your note 18 reflecting that you chose a cap rate of 3.04 percent for 100 19 Wall Street, correct? 20 A Yes. 21 Q You say it's based on a telephone conversation with 22 Doug Larson. You see that? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Okay. The cap rate of 3.04 percent for 100 Wall 25 Street was selected by you from the generic marketing report
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 674 1 doing; right? 2 A Seven years ago, yes. 3 Q Seven years ago. We were looking at 2012. That's 4 three years ago; right? 5 A No. In 2015, I knew that. That was eight years ago, 6 from today. At that point in time, I probably knew it. I don't 7 remember it now. 8 Q I understand what you are saying. So, we can agree 9 then, having now had your recollection refreshed by looking at 10 all these emails, that you, during the period that you were 11 working on preparing the Statements of Financial Condition from 12 2012 through 2016, you were simultaneously acting as the conduit 13 for information for Mr. Larson, so that he can prepare formal 14 appraisals for 40 Wall Street? Right? 15 A Yes. 16 Q And while you were acting as the conduit to provide 17 information to Mr. Larson, I'm correct that you never sought to 18 use any of the Cushman appraised values for 40 Wall Street in 19 the Statement of Financial Condition; correct? 20 A That's correct. 21 (Continued on the next page.) 22 23 24 25	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 676 1 you got from Cushman; is that right? 2 A Yes. I believe so, yes. 3 MR. AMER: Why don't we put up Plaintiff's 4 Exhibit 868. 5 Q Mr. McConney, this is an e-mail from you to Mr. 6 Bender which encloses an attachment, correct? 7 A Correct. 8 Q The attachment is an excerpt from the 2015 Cushman 9 appraisal of 40 Wall Street, right? 10 A Yes. 11 Q So, it's clear, you did have a copy of the Cushman 12 2015 appraisal when you forwarded this e-mail to Mr. Bender, 13 right? 14 A Yes. 15 MR. AMER: I ask that this be admitted into 16 evidence, your Honor. 17 MR. ROBERT: Statute of Limitations objection. 18 THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It's in 19 evidence. 20 Q Let's look at the 11th page of the exhibit. Now, Mr. 21 McConney, the highlighting is not anything we're putting up 22 there. This is in the exhibit, correct? 23 A Yes. 24 Q You're sending this to Mr. Bender. Did you highlight 25 this so he could see where you were getting the cap rate from?

1 A I believe so, yes. 2 Q Okay. Now, we do have, and this is what you sent to 3 him, but, the appraisal itself is a much larger document, 4 correct? 5 A I believe so, yes. 6 Q What you sent him was what you picked out of the full 7 appraisal to share with him, correct? 8 A I don't remember picking out certain pages but I 9 sent it to him. 10 Q Okay. You sent him only a portion of the appraisal 11 report, right? 12 A Yes. 13 Q What you sent him was what you intended to send him? 14 A Yes. 15 MR. AMER: Okay. Let's go ahead and mark the 16 full appraisal report. 17 THE COURT: Ten-minute warning. 18 MR. AMER: Just when I hand up a very large 19 document. It's going to be a challenge. 20 THE COURT: I hope you can finish the document 21 before we leave. 22 MR. AMER: I think we'll be okay. 23 Q This is starting at page eight of the document. 24 You'll see the cover page for the appraisal. 25 Do you see that?	1 Larson's cap rate of 4.25, instead of Mr. McConney's cap 2 rate of 3.04, the new value is $227 million lower than 3 the value that Mr. McConney calculated. 4 THE COURT: Those cap rates are really 5 important, but, I'll take judicial notice of that, 6 subject to checking the math. 7 MR. AMER: Just so you have it, the new value is 8 569 million which is $227 million lower than the value in 9 the Statement of Financial Condition. Let's go to page 10 100 in the appraisal report. 11 Q Mr. McConney, this is a description of comps that is 12 in the appraisal report; and, in fact, Mr. Larson looked at 13 100 Wall Street which was the basis for your choosing 14 3.04 percent, right? 15 A Yes. 16 Q Okay. Let's go to page 105 and that begins the 17 discussion of the comparables in his appraisal and he 18 discusses 100 Wall Street. You see that? It's the very first 19 comparable sale. 20 A Yes. 21 Q Okay. If we look at the last paragraph in this 22 section, Mr. Larson says: "In comparison with the subject 23 property, a downward adjustment was required for property 24 rights conveyed. A downward adjustment was required for the 25 size under the premise that smaller properties sell for more

1 A Yes. 2 Q It's the same 2015 appraisal that you sent an excerpt 3 of to Mr. Bender, correct? 4 A Can I have that last exhibit back, please? Yes. 5 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask Exhibit 118 be 6 admitted into evidence. 7 MR. ROBERT: Statute of Limitations objection. 8 THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It's in 9 evidence. 10 Q Let's turn to page 15 of the appraisal report. 11 Again, this is something you had in your file and you have 12 looked at? 13 A I had or had not? 14 Q You had looked at it because you sent a portion of it 15 to Mr. Bender, correct? 16 A Correct. 17 Q Okay. Let's look at the cap rate that Mr. Larson 18 used based on his professional appraisal, 4.25. Right? 19 A There are a number of cap rates here. It's one of 20 them that he used, yes, that is. 21 Q That is a different and much higher cap rate than the 22 one you used in the same year of 3.04 percent, correct? 23 A Yes. 24 MR. AMER: Let's go to -- I will represent to you 25 another math point, your Honor, that if you use Mr.	1 per square foot than larger properties." 2 Do you see that? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Okay. So, Mr. Larson a professional -- he's a 5 professional appraiser, right? 6 A Yes, he is. 7 Q He looked at the same property that you used as the 8 basis for your cap rate, and, he did two downward adjustments, 9 and, he ended up choosing a cap rate that was higher than the 10 one you chose. 11 He chose 4.25 percent, right? 12 A He chose 4.25 on that prior page you looked at. I 13 don't know where that 4.25 came from. 14 Q He looked at the same property, 100 Wall Street, that 15 was the basis for your cap rate, right? 16 A Yes. 17 Q He did two downward adjustments, correct? 18 A Yes. 19 Q You didn't share this page with Mr. Bender when you 20 sent him the excerpts from the appraisal, did you? 21 A I'd have to go back and look. 22 Q I'll represent to you, you did not. 23 A I believe you. 24 Q Okay. So, Mr. Bender was not aware that Mr. Larson 25 had reviewed and downwardly adjusted the very property that

J. McConney - Direct/Amer	Page 681	Proceedings	Page 683
1 you used as the basis for your cap rate, correct? 2 MR. ROBERT: Objection. 3 THE COURT: What's the objection? 4 MR. ROBERT: Before Mr. Amer talked about what 5 Mr. Bender knew. It wasn't part of what he said. We 6 don't know what Mr. Bender knew. 7 MR. AMER: I can rephrase it. 8 THE COURT: Sustained. 9 Q Mr. Bender would not have known, based on what you 10 sent him, that Mr. Larson had looked at and downwardly 11 adjusted the very property that you relied on for your cap 12 rate. Isn't that fair? 13 A That's correct but he could have asked for the whole 14 appraisal, also. 15 Q I'm just asking you based on what you sent to him. 16 You would agree that this process of making adjustments to 17 comp sales, in order to compare them to the subject property, 18 is what appraisers routinely do so that the comps better 19 reflect the value of the subject property; isn't that right? 20 A I don't know what appraisers do. I don't know how 21 they make these adjustments. I see on this one. I don't 22 know what they do as a general practical matter. 23 Q At no point when you were selecting cap rates from 24 the generic market reports, did you undertake any efforts to 25 make adjustments to the compensation so that they better		1 predict. 2 MR. ROBERT: Tomorrow is only a half day. 3 MS. GREENFIELD: Do we expect Mr. Weisselberg 4 tomorrow or Tuesday? Monday is a holiday. 5 MR. AMER: What I would say if I were to finish 6 before the end of the session, it's going to be very 7 close to the end of the session. So, we want to avoid 8 having to inconvenience Mr. Weisselberg. We can say I'll 9 go to whenever we stop and we'll be done. 10 MS. GREENFIELD: If we're beginning with 11 Weisselberg Tuesday morning, who is after Weisselberg, if 12 we know yet? 13 MR. ROBERT: They have Birney. 14 MR. WALLACE: The next Trump employee will be 15 Patrick Birney but we took Mr. Kise's position to heart 16 and are going to call Nick Haigh to appear in person 17 rather than do a deposition while the trial is going on. 18 He will appear on the 11th. He has the 11th and 19 the 12th he leaves the country. So, our expectation is 20 we're going to work cooperatively to get through Mr. 21 Weisselberg, depending on when he ends. Could be Mr. 22 Haigh or Mr. Birney but those will be the next two 23 witnesses. 24 MS. GREENFIELD: We'll revisit it tomorrow 25 before we adjourn.
1 reflected the value of 40 Wall Street; isn't that correct? 2 A That's correct. 3 MR. AMER: I'm at a good point, your Honor. 4 THE COURT: Okay. We need to talk to the 5 attorneys about scheduling, but I promised to Chris Kise 6 to teach him some New York history. 7 Does anybody know how Maiden Lane got its name? 8 If you ever see it, you'll see it's sort of a depression 9 in the area. Mr. Kise, because there was a stream. Back 10 in colonial times, young women would take their wash to 11 the stream to wash it, and they were called maidens. 12 That is how it got to be called Maiden Lane. 13 THE COURT: Now, Allison has some business to 14 conduct. 15 MS. GREENFIELD: Thank you, Judge So, I assume 16 we're going to be continuing for with Mr. McConney 17 tomorrow. How long do we anticipate cross? Is there 18 going to be cross tomorrow? 19 MR. KISE: No. 20 MS. GREENFIELD: How much more direct? 21 MR. AMER: I'm going to say I'm half way 22 through. 23 MS. GREENFIELD: Who is after Mr. McConney? 24 MR. SOLOMON: Mr. Weisselberg. 25 MS. GREENFIELD: That will be a full day, I		1 THE COURT: He's not leaving the country because 2 of this case? 3 MR. SOLOMON: So we're clear, Mr. Weisselberg 4 need not be here tomorrow? 5 THE COURT: Right. 6 MR. SOLOMON: We'll be finished for the day and 7 if he's finished tomorrow, we'll pick up Mr. Weisselberg 8 first thing Tuesday morning? 9 THE COURT: Yes. 10 11 (Whereupon, the trial is continued to 12 October 6, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.) 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

J. McConney - Direct/Amer

1 THE COURT: A court officer, very
2 well-intentioned, nice guy. They all are. One or two
3 times that my cell phone went off, he didn't realize
4 that. So, he tells the audience, you should turn off
5 those cell phones. It was my fault.
6 Okay. We're back to Mr. McConney, right?
7 MR. AMER: Yes.
8 THE COURT: Let's get the witness.
9 J E F F M C C O N N E Y, having been
10 previously duly sworn, resumed the witness stand and 11 continued to testify as follows:
12 THE COURT: Let's continue.
14 MR. AMER:
15 Q Good morning, Mr. McConney. I want to clean up one
16 issue from yesterday and then we'll move forward.
17 You recall we were discussing Vornado cash and 18 the various accounts that are listed in the spreadsheet we 19 looked at yesterday?
20 A Yes.
21 MR. AMER: Let's go ahead and put that
22 spreadsheet up. It's 2587 Native.
23 Q Just to recall your testimony--
24 MR. AMER: And can we collapse the columns that 25 we collapsed before? I think it was D through N.

J. McConney - Direct/Amer

1 Q I believe it was your testimony, Mr. McConney, that
2 it was your intent to represent that the Vornado cash
3 accounts, those accounts that referenced 30 percent were held
4 in Capital One accounts but they were different accounts than 5 the Capital One accounts for the various Trump-controlled
6 cash; is that correct?
7 A Yes.
8 Q Am I correct that from time to time, the Trump 9 Organization received distribution of Vornado cash at the 10 discretion of the general partner for the Vornado
11 Partnerships; is that right?
12 A That's correct.
13 MR. AMER: If we could look at Exhibit 3106.
14 Your Honor, this is a bank record that was 15 produced to us by Vornado Realty Trust in response to a 16 investigative subpoena. I ask it be admitted in as a 17 business record.
18 MR. SUAREZ: We object on the basis of Statute
19 of Limitations. It is dated March 15, 2013.
20 THE COURT: Overruled. Request granted. It's 21 in evidence.
22 Q You can confirm that the debit account name Hudson
23 Waterfront Associates III is one of the Vornado cash
24 partnerships, correct?
25 A Correct.

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 689 1 Q It's in the spreadsheet we were looking at before, 2 correct? 3 A Correct. 4 Q And this shows that the money being distributed by 5 this Vornado cash account is actually coming from Bank of 6 America, not Capital One, correct? 7 A That's correct. 8 Q Does this refresh your recollection that the Vornado 9 cash accounts were actually held at Bank of America and not 10 Capital One? 11 A This -- yes, this transfer came from Bank of 12 America. 13 Q That wasn't my question. My question was whether it 14 refreshes your recollection that all of the Vornado cash 15 accounts were actually sitting in Bank of America, not Capital 16 One? 17 A I don't know where all-- where Vornado puts all of 18 their money. Without looking at our specific backup for that 19 statement, I can't say all their accounts were at Bank of 20 America. This transfer did come from Bank of America. 21 Q Just pick up the exhibit again. Page two is a 22 different transfer from a different Vornado cash account. 23 That's Hudson Waterfront Associates V, right? 24 A Yes, sir. 25 Q That is from Bank of America, correct?	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 691 1 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I would move this exhibit 2 with the native files into evidence. 3 THE COURT: Granted it's in evidence. 4 MR. FIELDS: Objection. Statute of Limitations 5 if the documents are from 2015. 6 THE COURT: Objection overruled. It's in 7 evidence. 8 Q Do you see on the attachment line of this e-mail that 9 the first attachment is named 1-Jeff Supporting Data and it's 10 an XL file. 11 Do you see that? 12 A Yes. 13 Q So, this was your process for providing Mr. Bender 14 with copies of your Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet, correct? 15 A Yes. 16 Q If we pull up native one, we'll see this is, in fact, 17 your supporting data spreadsheet which appears to be a 18 preliminary valuation spreadsheet that you're sending to him, 19 correct? 20 A I don't remember where we were in the process at 21 this point in time. 22 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, I'm going to do it one 23 time for you today and only one time. I'll object to any 24 backup data that is before the February 2016 date that we 25 believe, per my objection that's been standing for the
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 690 1 A Yes, sir. 2 Q The third page, Hudson Waterfront Associates III is 3 another Vornado account, also from Bank of America, correct? 4 A That's correct. 5 Q Okay. I'd like to-- we were talking about 40 Wall 6 Street when we broke yesterday. 7 Do you recall that? 8 A Yes, sir. 9 Q I'd like to focus on the 2015 valuation and I'd like 10 to put up Exhibit 868 which is admitted into evidence. 11 And we looked at this yesterday. This is an 12 e-mail that includes excerpts from the 2015 Cushman appraisal 13 that you forwarded on to Mr. Bender, correct? 14 A Correct. 15 Q Just to note the date, it's December 29, 2015, 16 correct? 17 A Yes. 18 MR. AMER: If we could pull up Exhibit 3004. 19 Q This is a cover e-mail and then there were blank 20 sheets after that because it denotes native files, one of 21 which we'll put up. 22 That's an e-mail from you to Donald Bender, same 23 date as the prior e-mail we just looked at, December 29, 2015, 24 correct? 25 A Yes.	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 692 1 past four days. 2 THE COURT: Okay. Objection duly noted. We'll 3 call it a standing objection to anything before the magic 4 day. 5 MS. HABBA: Thank you. 6 THE COURT: Overruled. 7 Q Let's go ahead and go to row 117, and this is the row 8 that starts the analysis of 40 Wall Street in this valuation 9 that you provide to Mr. Bender in December, correct? 10 A Yes. 11 Q Now, on line 125 and 126, you state: Cushman &amp; 12 Wakefield appraisal done June 2015 for lien refinancing with 13 Ladder Capital, and you put a value of $540 million. 14 So, at this point in time, you were using the 15 Cushman 2015 appraisal as part of the valuation, correct? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And rows 118 through 123, if I'm reading this 18 correctly, is a calculation of an additional value of slightly 19 over $120 million that you then add to the Cushman appraisal 20 value of 540 to get to a valuation of 660.3, correct? 21 A Yes. 22 Q This additional value is made up of additional income 23 from two spaces that you indicate are new lease signings after 24 Ladder Capital refinancing was completed; is that right? 25 A Yes.

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 693 1 Q So, if I'm understanding this correctly, you are 2 adding additional value based on additional net operating 3 income from leases that you note were signed after the Ladder 4 Capital refinancing, which, I take it to mean, you believe 5 were not included within the Cushman appraisal; is that right? 6 A Yes. 7 Q Because they weren't, in your understanding, part of 8 the Cushman appraisal. It's appropriate in your view to add 9 that net operating income in as value by then dividing that 10 income by the 3.04 cap rate, that we've talked about before, 11 that you got from the generic market records, correct? 12 A Correct. 13 Q So, just to close the loop on the calculation. 14 You've got 2.25 million of income from a Dean &amp; DeLuca lease. 15 You add that up, you divide it by 3.04, and you 16 get the 120 million and change in additional value; is that 17 right? 18 A Yes. 19 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, I'm going to object and 20 ask that counsel ask direct questions instead of 21 testifying. This isn't cross. Just please ask and let 22 him testify to what he did. 23 THE COURT: I believe your objection is that the 24 questions are leading. Does that sound right? 25 MS. HABBA: Correct, your Honor. It's not only	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 695 1 Q We also had looked yesterday at the complete Cushman 2 appraisal. You had sent excerpts to Mr. Bender but you had 3 the full appraisal, correct? 4 A Yes. 5 MR. AMER: Why don't we put up Exhibit 118. It's 6 in evidence. Let's go to page 137. 7 Q You'll see there's a chart. It says: "Retail 8 contract rent summary." Yes? 9 A Sorry? 10 Q Sure. It's page 137. 11 A Okay. Got it. 12 Q This chart appears on that page, correct? 13 A Yes. 14 Q You'll see under Wall Street frontage, it says: 15 "Dean &amp; DeLuca 18,500 square feet contract rent 1.4 million. 16 Contract rents per square foot 75.68. You see that? 17 A Yes. 18 Q So, in fact, this Cushman appraisal does include the 19 income from the Dean &amp; DeLuca lease, right? 20 A I can't make that statement. I didn't track this 21 schedule back to the appraisal. So, I can't say yes or no. 22 Q Did you see this chart and make note of it when you 23 reviewed the appraisal? 24 A No. 25 Q Let's go to page 115. I'll wait for you to get
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 694 1 leading, it's as if he's testifying himself. 2 MR. SUAREZ: And they're also compound, Judge. 3 THE COURT: Sorry? 4 MR. SUAREZ: Compound. 5 MR. AMER: Your Honor, this is a defendant. He 6 is a hostile witness. I should be able to lead. 7 MS. HABBA: He's not a hostile witness. 8 THE COURT: He's a defendant. 9 MS. HABBA: He is. He's a defendant, but he-- 10 yes, but -- your Honor, my objection-- I noted my 11 objection. I'm sure you'll overrule it, but, I would 12 prefer if counsel would just ask him a direct question 13 and let him testify to what he did on the backup, just as 14 he preferred that Chris not testify in any objections 15 yesterday. 16 THE COURT: He is a defendant. I'm considering 17 him a hostile witness. Objection on the ground of 18 leading is overruled. 19 As for the compound question objection, yeah, 20 there's a rule you shouldn't be asking compound 21 questions. So, try to keep it discrete points. 22 Should we have that read? 23 MR. AMER: I think there is an answer, though. 24 THE COURT: I think there was, also. He 25 answered.	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 696 1 there. 2 A I'm there. 3 Q Second chart says: "Retail tenants." See on line 17 4 it says: "Dean &amp; DeLuca." See that? 5 A Yes. 6 Q Doesn't that indicate that this appraisal includes 7 the operating income from the Dean &amp; DeLuca lease? 8 A Again, I didn't go through this appraisal and try 9 everything out. So, I can't answer the question. 10 Q Well, you did a valuation on the assumption, as we 11 just agreed, that the Cushman appraisal didn't include the 12 Dean &amp; DeLuca lease, right? 13 A That's correct. 14 Q This page shows that there's a reference to the Dean 15 &amp; DeLuca lease, right? 16 A There is a reference to the Dean &amp; DeLuca lease, 17 yes. 18 Q Did you make note of this chart when you were 19 reviewing the 2015 appraisal? 20 A No. 21 Q Let's go to page 117. Let's do -- so, the bottom 22 paragraph carrying over to the next page: "In addition to 23 office space, the subject property is leased to four retail 24 tenants that include Dean &amp; DeLuca." 25 You see that?

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 697 1 A Yes. 2 Q It goes on to say that "Dean &amp; DeLuca leases 3 15,500 square feet on the grade." You see that? 4 A Yes. 5 Q So, this appraisal includes the income on the Dean &amp; 6 DeLuca lease, doesn't it? 7 A Again, I didn't go through and track all of this. I 8 can't make the statement yes or no. 9 Q Okay, but, you did a valuation in 2015 that was based 10 on the assumption that the Cushman appraisal did not include 11 the Dean &amp; DeLuca lease? 12 MR. FIELDS: Objection. Asked and answered. 13 THE COURT: Was it asked and answered? 14 MR. AMER: I'll withdraw the question. 15 Q You missed this reference in the Cushman appraisal; 16 is that what you're saying? 17 A I'm saying -- yes. 18 Q Let's go to page 136. See the paragraph that says: 19 "Market rental rate retail space? This-- "The subject 20 property is leased to four retail tenants that include Dean &amp; 21 DeLuca." See that? 22 A Yes. 23 Q Did you miss that, as well? 24 A Yes. 25 Q Can we agree, Mr. McConney, that by adding the income	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 699 1 counted the Dean &amp; DeLuca lease income. Isn't that the 2 practical effect of what you did in your valuation? 3 A Without looking at all this information and see how 4 it tracks from point A to point B within the appraisal, I 5 can't tell you if it's included or not. 6 MR. AMER: Your Honor, again, on math you can 7 check but I will just represent that if you back out the 8 $1,406,000 from the additional value that's then divided 9 by the 3.04 percent cap rate. 10 MS. HABBA: Your Honor -- 11 THE COURT: Let him finish. 12 MR. AMER: It equals 46,250,000. 13 MS. HABBA: Your Honor, objection. Counsel is 14 testifying. 15 THE COURT: Well, again, as often in this case, 16 there's no jury. So, there's no prejudice. I'll take 17 judicial notice of that, subject to a careful calculation 18 again. 19 Q Mr. McConney, if you want to confirm this by looking 20 at Exhibit 868, which was your e-mail to Mr. Bender with 21 excerpts from the 2015 Cushman appraisal, none of the four 22 pages that we just looked at that mention the Dean &amp; DeLuca 23 lease from the Cushman appraisal are included in what you sent 24 Mr. Bender, correct? 25 A Can you please give me those page numbers again?

Page 701 1 A Yes. 2 (Continued on following page...) 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	Page 703 J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer 1 A In general, over the 20 years, or -- 2 Q During the period that you were working on the 3 valuations. 4 A Yes. 5 Q What mistake did you make that caused the valuation to 6 go down? 7 A I recall one on the cash sheet, or the cash 8 spreadsheet we looked at with the Vornado cash on it. One year 9 I included Mr. Trump's foundation cash, Mr. Trump's foundation's 10 cash on that spreadsheet. Donald Bender said I can't do that, 11 it's not controlled by Mr. Trump, it's controlled by the 12 foundation, so I took that off. 13 I believe on Trump Tower, once, we were valuing vacant 14 space at a dollar amount, and Mr. Bender pointed out that we 15 used a different dollar amount on a certiorari proceeding, and 16 so we reduced the amount of my spreadsheet to the amount that he 17 indicated on the certiorari proceeding? Can I just go back to 18 the first mistake. 19 Q You said Donald Bender said you can't include cash 20 from Mr. Trump's foundation because it's not controlled by him. 21 Is that your testimony? 22 A I don't remember the exact words, but he had us -- he 23 told me to take the cash from the foundation off that 24 spreadsheet. 25 Q And he told you it was because Mr. Trump didn't
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 702 1 Q Thank you. That wasn't that hard. 2 Okay. Let's -- let me ask you, just, we have 3 discussed a couple of mistakes and oversights. We talked about 4 the 30000-square-foot-triplex mistake; correct? 5 A Yes. 6 Q And we talked about your mistake in pulling the square 7 footage for a comp at 157, instead of the price per square foot. 8 Do you recall that? 9 A Yes. 10 MR. SUAREZ: Objection, your Honor. He did not 11 testify to having made a mistake. 12 THE COURT: He just said he did. 13 MR. SUAREZ: No. He just -- it's in his 14 question. It wasn't in his testimony from yesterday. He 15 is mischaracterizing the testimony from yesterday. 16 MR. AMER: I think yesterday he said it was a 17 mistake. He pulled the wrong number from the email. 18 THE COURT: He just said he did. Or am I hearing 19 things? 20 Q So, you have that second mistake, and then you have 21 just testified that you missed seeing the Dean &amp; DeLuca 22 reference in the Cushman appraisal; right? 23 A Yes. 24 Q I may have missed it, but do you recall making any 25 mistakes that caused the valuing to go down instead of up?	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 704 1 control that cash; right? 2 A He gave me -- I believed it to be, Mr. Trump really 3 didn't control that cash anymore. 4 Q But you continued to list the Vornado cash; right? 5 A Yes. 6 Q Why don't we turn to Park Avenue, Trump Park Avenue. 7 MR. AMER: And let's put up the 2012 Jeff 8 Supporting Data, which is Exhibit 793 in evidence. 9 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 10 to the witness.) 11 MR. AMER: Let's go to row 166. 12 Q Now, this shows, Mr. McConney, a value for the unsold 13 units at Trump Park Avenue; correct? 14 A Yes. Well, except for the super's apartment. The 15 super's apartment was sold. 16 Q And for 2011 and 2012, it's the same value. It's a 17 little over $293 million; correct? 18 A Correct. Excuse me. Correct. 19 MR. AMER: Let's pull up Plaintiff's 20 Exhibit 1073. It's an email that has native files attached 21 to it. 22 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, I won't raise objections 23 to documents that have already been admitted over our 24 objection. Obviously, you would not be happy with me if I 25 did that. But, we do object to this document that's being

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 705 1 introduced right now, on the basis of statute of 2 limitations. 3 MR. AMER: And I'll move it into evidence, so 4 that there's something he can object to. 5 THE COURT: Objection overruled. It's in 6 evidence. The statute of limitations bars claims, not 7 evidence. Of course, they have to be connected, and we'll 8 see whether Mr. Amer connected the dots or not, and his 9 team. 10 (Whereupon, the exhibit was received in 11 evidence.) 12 Q Mr. McConney, this email from you forwards an 13 attachment that's entitled sponsor unit valuation, September 20, 14 2012, Park Avenue; correct? 15 MR. AMER: We'll put up the attachments in a 16 minute. 17 A Oh. There it is. Yes. The attachments. I was 18 looking at the subject. Sorry. 19 Q Okay. Is that correct? 20 A I'm sorry. Could you ask again? 21 Q Sure. The top email from you attaches a sponsor unit 22 valuation; correct? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Okay. And let's go ahead and pull up the attachment. 25 Do you recognize this as the backup for your valuation of the	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 707 1 correct? 2 A Correct. 3 Q And if we put this -- so -- 4 MR. AMER: Withdrawn. 5 Q The offering plan price is roughly $57 million higher 6 than the market value total; correct? 7 A Correct. 8 Q Now, let's go to Plaintiff's 796. 9 (Whereupon, a document was handed to the 10 witness.) 11 Q Mr. McConney, do you recognize this as backup that you 12 sent to Donald Bender in support of the supporting data 13 spreadsheet? 14 A Yes. 15 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I move this into evidence, 16 please. 17 MR. SUAREZ: Objection. Statute of limitations. 18 THE COURT: I thought someone said you are only 19 going to do that once. 20 MR. SUAREZ: No. I said I wouldn't do it for 21 exhibits that have been moved into evidence, but they are 22 bringing up with new witnesses. 23 THE COURT: All right. Duly noted. Overruled. 24 It's in evidence. 25 (Whereupon, the exhibit was received in
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 706 1 unsold apartments? 2 A Yes. 3 Q And 502 Park Avenue, that's Trump Park Avenue; 4 correct? 5 A Yes. 6 Q And there are three columns in this backup. There's 7 Unit, which is the unit number of the apartment; is that right? 8 A Yes. 9 Q There's an offering plan price; correct? 10 A Yes. 11 Q And there's a current market value price column; 12 correct? 13 A Yes. 14 Q We can agree that the value that you used in your 15 supporting data spreadsheet that we were just looking at is the 16 293 figure from the offering plan price column; correct? 17 A Correct. 18 Q And that was what you used for both 2011 and 2012; 19 correct? 20 A I believe so, yes. 21 Q And is this spreadsheet prepared by the TIR sales 22 office in order to give you valuations for the unsold units? 23 A Yes. 24 Q This is information that you asked TIR to provide you 25 for preparing your valuation of Park Avenue for the statements;	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 708 1 evidence.) 2 Q Mr. McConney, looking at what you sent Mr. Bender. It 3 appears that you sent him a column that shows the unit number 4 and column that shows the offering plan price, but you have cut 5 off the column that shows the market value; right? 6 A Yes. 7 Q So this was not a mistake. You intentionally removed 8 that third column from the material you forwarded to Mr. Bender, 9 on purpose; right? 10 A Yes. 11 Q And you removed that column because you didn't want 12 him to see the values that were labeled, current market values; 13 correct? 14 A No. 15 THE COURT: That was a yes or no? 16 THE WITNESS: No. 17 Q The effect of your removing that column was that he 18 didn't see it; right? 19 A Correct. 20 MR. AMER: I'm going to put up, from 21 Exhibit 3041 -- which is the defendants' 202 response -- 22 paragraph 344, and if we can do it side by side, 23 eventually, with the exhibit that we were just looking at. 24 So, let's go to paragraph 344, which is page 126, 25 I believe.

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 709 1 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 2 to the witness.) 3 Q Paragraph 344, which defendants have admitted is that, 4 "In 2013, the following 11 units were stabilized," and then you 5 see there's a list of units; correct? 6 A Yes. 7 Q And we can agree that if a unit was rent stabilized in 8 2011, it was rent stabilized in 2012 and 20 -- I'm sorry. If it 9 was rent stabilized in 2013, it would have been rent stabilized 10 in 2012 and 2011; correct? 11 MR. SUAREZ: Objection, your Honor. That's a 12 legal conclusion. I don't know that Mr. McConney is a 13 lawyer. 14 (Whereupon, there was a pause in the 15 proceedings.) 16 THE COURT: Mr. Amer, is there some other way 17 that we can figure out what was rent stabilized and what 18 wasn't? 19 MR. AMER: There's a paragraph above it. Why 20 don't we use that paragraph. Defendants, in response to an 21 assertion of the units that were rent stabilized in 2011 22 and 2012, asserted that the following 12 units were rent 23 stabilized as of September 2011, and then there's a list of 24 units. So, if we can take judicial notice of that as an 25 admitted fact; your Honor?	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 711 1 document? 2 MR. AMER: I moved it into evidence. I believe 3 your Honor said yes. 4 THE COURT: Yes. It's in. 5 MS. HABBA: Okay. Good. 6 THE COURT: So, it's already in evidence. 7 Q Mr. McConney, you were aware that Park Avenue had 8 these rent-stabilized units when you prepared the valuations; 9 correct? 10 A Yes. 11 Q Okay. And if we just tick off, in the sponsor unit 12 spreadsheet for 2012, these 12 units. For 4A, 4A, 6B, 7A, 7B, 13 7D, 7E, 7G, 8E, 8H, 10E, 12E, 15AB, so all of these units you 14 knew, at the time that you were doing the valuations for this 15 year, were rent stabilized; correct? 16 A Correct. 17 Q And you valued them without any regard to their 18 rent-stabilized status; is that correct? 19 A I didn't value them. TIR valued them. But, I believe 20 that's correct. 21 Q You put them into your spreadsheet that is goes to 22 Donald Bender; is that correct? 23 A That's correct. 24 Q And the values you relied on when you put them in your 25 spreadsheet and sent them to Donald Bender were the offering
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 710 1 THE COURT: Yes. That was admitted by this 2 defendant; right? 3 MR. AMER: Yes, your Honor. 4 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, the response to 343, 5 actually, is disputed. 6 MR. AMER: I was reading what comes after, 7 disputed. 8 MR. SUAREZ: Okay. 9 THE COURT: All right. So 343 is disputed, but 10 what comes after it is undisputed. 11 MR. AMER: It's what they assert. 12 THE COURT: Well -- oh, sorry. That's how those 13 things work. That's an assertion by this defendant. 14 MR. AMER: Yes. 15 MS. HABBA: I'm sorry. Just to be clear for the 16 record, are we putting in the entire document, or just this 17 section? I would submit the same response, that we should 18 be putting in the entire document, if that is what -- 19 MR. AMER: I thought I moved the whole document 20 into evidence. 21 MS. HABBA: It has been moved in? Then I have no 22 objection. 23 THE COURT: Well -- 24 MS. HABBA: The entire document. 25 THE COURT: -- is it in evidence, the entire	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 712 1 plan price values, knowing that these were rent-stabilized 2 units; correct? 3 A Correct. 4 Q And you followed that same approach for every 5 statement you reviewed; correct? 6 A Correct. 7 Q And it was intentional; correct? 8 A Yes. 9 Q And it was something you discussed with 10 Mr. Weisselberg; correct? 11 A I believe so, yes. 12 Q And he agreed that that was the way that you were 13 going to do it; correct? 14 A Yes. 15 Q Let's turn to Seven Springs. 16 MR. AMER: I'm going to put up the 2012 Jeff 17 Supporting Data, 793, which is in evidence. 18 Q Row 669, that starts the section on Seven Springs; 19 correct? Well, we'll get there in a second. 20 That's where it starts; correct? 21 A 669. Line 669, yes. 22 Q Okay. And did you understand at the time that the 23 property was in three different localities, New Castle, North 24 Castle and Bedford? 25 A Yes.

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 713 1 Q Row 683 indicates that there were seven mansions 2 approved to be developed in the Bedford portion; right? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Those are valued in the spreadsheet at 23 million per 5 mansion, times seven, for value of 161 million in each year; 6 correct? 7 A In 2011 and 2012, yes. 8 Q And row 674 mentions a September 16, 2011 telephone 9 call with someone named Hal Goldman; correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q That was a call you had with Mr. Goldman; right? 12 A Yes. 13 Q He was an independent contractor that the company had 14 hired to get through the planning and approval process for the 15 development; correct? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And row 679 referenced a call that you had with Eric 18 Trump on September 24, 2012; correct? 19 A Correct. 20 Q And the information about the seven mansions being 21 approved in Bedford was information that was provided to you by 22 Hal Goldman in 2011; right? 23 A Correct. 24 Q And it was confirmed to you by Eric Trump in 2012; 25 correct?	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 715 1 the seven homes in Bedford? 2 A No. 3 Q Were you operating under the assumption, in doing this 4 valuation, that the approval for the seven homes had been 5 obtained? 6 A Sorry. Can you ask that again? 7 Q Were you operating under the assumption when doing 8 this valuation in these two years that approvals had been 9 obtained, all necessarily approvals had been obtained for these 10 seven homes in Bedford? 11 A Looking at this now, yes. 12 Q And did you get that information from Mr. Goldman? 13 A I would have to go back and say -- and correct myself. 14 He, yes Hal probably gave me that information. 15 Q And that was confirmed again by Mr. Trump, Eric Trump, 16 in the call the later in the next year? 17 A I don't remember if I asked Eric that or not. 18 Q It's fair to say that you didn't learn anything 19 between the 2011 valuation and the 2012 valuation that lead you 20 to conclude differently concerning the approval necessary for 21 those seven homes; right? 22 A That's correct. 23 Q Now, as the controller of a large company, 24 Mr. McConney, with a finance background, you do understand the 25 concept of time value of money; correct?
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 714 1 A Correct. 2 Q And that was conveyed to you in both of those calls; 3 correct? 4 A I'm sorry. Ask you ask that question again? 5 Q Sure. The information from Mr. Goldman was conveyed 6 to you in that phone call that is reflected here with him; 7 correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And the information from Eric Trump was conveyed to 10 you during the phone call with him that's reflected here; 11 correct? 12 A That's correct. 13 Q And you were trying to value Seven Springs for the 14 2012 statement, and you knew Eric Trump was involved with the 15 property, so you asked him if he could give you -- if he could 16 give you a valuation for the statement, or provide some insight 17 into the value; is that correct? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And Eric Trump confirmed, during the call in September 20 of 2012, that all necessary approvals had been obtained to build 21 the seven homes in Bedford; correct? 22 A Never asked him that question. So, I guess the answer 23 is no. 24 Q Okay. Had you heard from Hal Goldman during the call 25 at 2011 that all necessary approvals had been obtained to build	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 716 1 A I do not have a finance background. I have an 2 accounting background. 3 Q As the controller of a large company with an 4 accounting background, you do understand the concept of time 5 value of money; right? 6 A Yes. 7 Q The concept is essentially that a dollar paid today is 8 worth more than a dollar paid, say, five years from now, based 9 on inflation; right? 10 A Yes. Excuse me. Yes. 11 Q And if you wanted to know how much the dollar that 12 gets paid five years from now would be worth today, you apply a 13 discount factor to determine the present value; correct? 14 A I'm not a finance guy, so I can't really answer that 15 question. 16 Q So that concept is not something you understand? 17 A I understand the concept. I don't know the 18 computation, to get to that point. 19 Q I'm asking you a much simpler question. As a general 20 matter, if you want to know how much a future payment is going 21 to be worth today, you do something called, apply a discount 22 factor, to get to the present value. Is that something you have 23 an understanding of? 24 A Not really. I know you have to discount it. I just 25 don't know the exact computation, or where you get the

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 717 1 percentages from. 2 Q Okay. My question wasn't going beyond just the simple 3 concept of having to discount it. So, we agree you have to 4 discount it in order to get to present value; correct? 5 A Yes. 6 Q And the concept of discounting future income to 7 present value, that is a very standard accounting practice; 8 isn't it? 9 A It could be a standard finance practice. I never use 10 it, really. 11 Q Different question. My question was whether you would 12 agree that it's a standard accounting practice. Yes or no. 13 A No. 14 Q It's not. Okay. Am I correct that the value of 15 $161 million for the seven homes in Bedford does not apply any 16 discount factor to take in account how long it would take to 17 construct the infrastructure, build the homes, and then sell the 18 home for $35 million each? 19 A That's correct. 20 Q You didn't factor into the valuation whether the homes 21 were going to be built today, tomorrow, or in a number of years; 22 correct? 23 A Correct. 24 Q And if it took five years to complete the homes, and 25 they were sold two years after that, your valuation doesn't	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 719 1 Q Mr. McConney, for the valuation in 2014 and 2013, 2 it's the same calculation, correct? 3 A I'm sorry. Can you ask that again? I think I heard 4 the question, but, just ask it again, please. 5 Q For the valuation of the seven mansions at Seven 6 Springs for 2013 and, 2014, it is precisely the same 7 calculation that we saw in 2011 and 2012, right? 8 A Yes. 9 Q So, all your answers that apply to 2011 and 2012 10 apply equally to these valuations here, correct? 11 A Yes. 12 Q Row 662 states a June 30, 2013 -- states that for 13 June 30, 2013, it's per telephone conversation with Eric Trump 14 on August 20, 2013, correct? 15 A Yes. 16 Q This reflects that you had a phone call with Eric 17 Trump on that date August of 2013 where he confirmed you 18 should continue to value the seven mansions in Bedford for the 19 Statement of Financial Condition, the same as you did for the 20 year before, right? 21 A Yes. 22 Q In row 660, it references a different call with 23 Mr. Trump, Eric Trump, on September 12, 2014, correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q That note reflects you had a phone call with Eric
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 718 1 account for that at all; correct? 2 A Correct. 3 Q Can we agree that this $161 million attributable to 4 these seven homes is, by necessity, going to be future income, 5 because the homes don't exist as of the date of these 6 valuations? 7 A Correct. 8 Q You have treated, for purposes of this valuation, the 9 profit of $23 million per home for all seven homes as if it were 10 realized immediately, as of June 30 in each year; correct? 11 A Yes. 12 MR. AMER: Let's go to the 2014 Jeff Supporting 13 Data, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 719. 14 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 15 to the witness.) 16 Q And row 655, again, the section on Seven Springs -- as 17 soon as we get there. 18 MR. AMER: I think we have to shift it over to 19 the left. Great. 20 (Continued on the next page.) 21 22 23 24 25	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 720 1 Trump on that date, September 2014, where he confirmed you 2 should continue to value the seven mansions in Bedford for the 3 Statement of Financial Condition, the same as you did for 4 2013, right? 5 A Yes. 6 Q As with the prior years, we just discussed your 7 valuation of the seven homes did not factor in whether the 8 homes were built today, tomorrow, or in a number of years in 9 the future, correct? 10 A Correct. 11 MR. AMER: Let's go to Jeff Supporting Data for 12 2015 and let's go to row 699. 13 Q Now, Mr. McConney for 2014, it has the same valuation 14 calculation for the seven mansions that we spoke about before, 15 correct? 16 A Correct. 17 Q And there is a reference for the June 30, 2014 value, 18 per telephone conversation with Eric Trump, September 12, 19 2014, correct? 20 A Correct. 21 Q And that note reflects that you had a phone call. 22 That's the same phone call we just spoke about, correct? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Okay. I noticed that there's no value for 2015 and 25 that's per the note that says: "Conservation easement

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 721 1 property moved to other assets." You see that? 2 A Yes. 3 Q So, if we want to find the valuation for Seven 4 Springs for 2015, we have to go to the section of the 5 spreadsheet that addresses other assets, correct? 6 A Correct. 7 Q Let's go to row 895. Row 895, we can see Seven 8 Springs per easement and the value now drops down to 56 9 million, correct? 10 A Yes. 11 Q That's pursuant to the easement donation? 12 A Yes. 13 Q Let me ask you a few questions to get a basic 14 understanding of a conservation easement donation. You 15 understood, at the time, that a conservation easement donation 16 is where the owner of the property agrees to donate rights to 17 develop the land, and the value of those rights is then taken 18 as a tax deduction; is that right? 19 A I've got a peripheral knowledge of easement. So, 20 yes, I know the land is donated; and, yes, I know there's a 21 charitable contribution taken on the tax returns. 22 Q When you say the "land is donated," isn't it that the 23 development rights on the land are donated? 24 A I have a limited knowledge of it, so I don't know 25 exactly what's donated.	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 723 1 donation, at 161 million, correct? 2 A Correct. 3 Q You understood it was correct to use the before value 4 rather than the after value because, as of this valuation 5 date, the development rights had not yet been donated, 6 correct? 7 A I believe that's correct. 8 MR. AMER: If we can just put up the Seven 9 Springs demonstrative PDX-3.9, just to look at the 10 values. 11 Q So, we have the statement values and, by the way, the 12 161 million, just to clarify, that was just the value of the 13 seven homes in Bedford, correct? 14 A Seven homes. I don't remember in which of the three 15 areas they're located. 16 Q The statement values here are much higher than 161 17 from 2011 through 2014 because they include other parts of the 18 property, correct? 19 A Correct. 20 Q Then the value drops to 56 million in 2015 because 21 you now have the appraisal in your hand that gives you that as 22 the before appraised value, correct? 23 A Correct. 24 Q So, you deemed it appropriate to use an appraised 25 value, correct?
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 722 1 THE COURT: I'll take judicial notice, the land 2 is not donated, just certain rights. 3 Q In order to get the tax deduction for a conservation 4 easement donation, you need an appraisal that values the 5 property before and after the donation. 6 Is that consistent with your understanding? 7 A I don't know that. 8 Q Are you aware that Seven Springs obtained an 9 appraisal for the purpose of making the easement donation? 10 A Yes. 11 Q That's the appraisal value, the before value of the 12 property. That is before the donation at the $56 million 13 figure that you put in your valuation, correct? 14 A Correct. 15 Q You used the before value as opposed to the after 16 donation value because as of the valuation date, the donation 17 had not yet been made, correct? 18 A I believe that's correct, yes. 19 Q So, the $56 million is actually the value put on the 20 property by the appraiser before the donation of development 21 rights, correct? 22 A Before the donation, yes. I don't know what they 23 donated. 24 Q So, before donating anything, the appraiser valued it 25 as 56 million, whereas, you have been valuing it, before any	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 724 1 A Yes. 2 Q And just so we're clear, the additional value in the 3 prior years come from the mansions on the property, right? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And the next year, 2016, that is now after the 6 conservation easement donation, correct? 7 A Correct. 8 Q So, you then use 35.4 million because that's the 9 after appraised value, correct? 10 A After the donation, yes. 11 Q So, the value of the development rights, according to 12 the appraiser, is the difference between 56 million and 35.4 13 million, correct? 14 A I don't know. Development rights, I don't remember 15 exactly what the difference is. I can tell you the 16 difference is $21 million before and after the donation. 17 Q Okay. So, the value of the donation is the 18 $21 million, correct? 19 A Correct. 20 Q What's being donated are the development rights, 21 correct? 22 A I'll take your word for that. 23 Q Okay. It's not 161 million, is it? 24 A What isn't 161 million? 25 Q The value of the development rights. The appraiser

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 725 1 did not value the development rights at any amount more than 2 $21 million; isn't that right? 3 A That's correct. 4 MR. AMER: I'm ready to move on to the golf 5 clubs. I don't know where we are in terms of when we 6 want to take a break. I'll keep going. I'm just going 7 to a new subject. 8 THE COURT: We can go until 11:30. 9 MR. AMER: Okay. 10 Q Let's talk about the golf club valuations. Why don't 11 we go ahead and look at the 2011 Jeff Supporting Data 12 spreadsheet which is Exhibit 788; and, let's go to line 264. 13 This is the valuation for Briarcliff Manor, 14 correct? 15 A It's-- that's the line that's highlighted, yes. 16 Q This is where that begins, correct? 17 A That's correct. 18 Q One component of the Briarcliff value, based on your 19 valuation, is comprised of nonrefundable membership fees; is 20 that right? 21 A That's correct. 22 Q And column G includes your numbers to value 23 Briarcliff for 2011, right? 24 A Yes. 25 Q The first set of numbers, which are in rows 280 to	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 727 1 Q Was the use of the higher price for memberships from 2 175,000 to 250,000 just your speculation as to what amount a 3 membership might get in the future? 4 A There was a-- based on a conversation I had with 5 Allen Weisselberg, who was more familiar with the golf 6 courses, and these were his estimates. 7 Q It wasn't based on anything you heard from the people 8 who worked at the golf course, right? 9 A I believe that's correct, yes. 10 Q The nonrefundable membership fees are amounts you're 11 expecting someone to pay in the future, right? 12 A Yes. 13 Q Line 275 shows that for 2010, the prior year, there 14 were 69 memberships, correct? 15 A Memberships available for sale, yes. 16 Q So, between 2010 and 2011, there were only two 17 memberships that were sold, correct? 18 A Correct. 19 Q And would you agree with me that at that pace, it 20 would take about 30 years to sell all these memberships? 21 A Using that pace, yes. 22 Q Now, when you listed the number of memberships to be 23 sold at each price point, you did not do any estimate as to 24 how far out it would take into the future to actually sell all 25 those memberships; isn't that right?
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 726 1 284, that reflects the value of nonrefundable memberships for 2 2011, right? 3 A Can you ask that question again? 4 Q Sure. Rows 280 to 284 have the value that you 5 calculated for the nonrefundable memberships for 2011, right? 6 A Correct. 7 Q Line 266 states that there were 67 memberships 8 available as of June 30, 2011; is that right? 9 A That is correct. 10 Q You get this information from the golf clubs. They 11 send you back this information, right? 12 A Yes. 13 Q Line 268, your note states: "Current membership 14 asking price 150,000. Getting 150,000." Correct? 15 A Yes. 16 Q That's also information you're getting from people 17 who work at the golf course, correct? 18 A I believe that's correct, yes. 19 Q But when you value the memberships available for 20 sale, as I read this, you only value 20 of the 67 memberships 21 at 150,000. Right? 22 A That's correct. 23 Q And you value another 47 memberships at prices 24 ranging from $175,000 all the way up to $250,000, correct? 25 A Correct.	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 728 1 A That's correct. 2 Q You did not perform any discounted analysis to 3 determine the present value of the income that you would -- 4 that the company would receive from the sale of these 5 memberships in the future, correct? 6 A That's correct. 7 Q Let's look at the 2011 Statement of Financial 8 Condition, which is Exhibit 787 in evidence. Let's go to page 9 ten. This provides, under club facilities and related real 10 estate, a description -- this club facilities and related real 11 estate, this relates to the golf clubs, right? 12 A The golf clubs and Mar-a-Lago, yes. 13 Q There's a description that appears that says: 14 "Entities wholly owned by Mr. Trump have acquired certain 15 properties for the purposes of developing"-- "for the purpose 16 of developing them into club facilities. Several of these 17 clubs will also contain residential units that they will sell. 18 The estimated current value of 1,314,600,000 is based on an 19 assessment of the cash flow that is expected to be derived 20 from club options. The sale of residential units after 21 subtracting the estimated costs to be incurred or recent sales 22 of properties in a similar location." 23 You see that? It says that? 24 A Yes. 25 Q That assessment was prepared by Mr. Trump working in

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 729 1 conjunction with his associates and outside professionals? 2 A Yes. 3 Q This paragraph identifies three alternative methods 4 for valuing the clubs, one of which is an assessment of the 5 cash flow that is expected to be derived from club operations? 6 A Correct. 7 Q A second is the sale of residential units after 8 subtracting the estimated costs to be incurred, right? 9 A Yes. 10 Q The third method is recent sales, properties in 11 similar location, right? 12 A Yes. 13 Q Can we agree that the third method was not a method 14 that was used by you for Briarcliff, right? 15 A Correct. 16 Q If we split the screen and pull up 788 at lines 295 17 to 298, you listed information about a projected sale of 18 mid-rise units approved but put on hold, correct? 19 $43.3 million? 20 A The 43.3 is a sellout price, yes. 21 Q So, you subtracted the costs related to that 22 development and you have the net profit, right? 23 A Yes. 24 Q You added that potential profit of, I think it's 25 $25.1 million to the valuation of Briarcliff, correct?	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 731 1 correct? 2 A Correct. 3 Q What you used is a method that includes just income 4 from selling memberships, right? 5 A It's a little more than that. You had the income 6 from the memberships. You had the sale of the mid-rise 7 units. You had the value for the clubhouse. If you could 8 scroll up, please. 9 There were receivables on membership deposits 10 and from operations from the food, dues, whatever. There 11 were a few other items included. 12 Q Let me see if I can shortcut this. You disclosed in 13 the statement three different alternative methods for valuing 14 clubs, correct? 15 A Correct. 16 Q We agree the third method is not relevant. You 17 didn't use it, correct? 18 A Correct. 19 Q You used the second method based on the 31 units, 20 right? 21 A Correct. 22 Q There is no attempt at the first method, which is 23 cash flow from operations, and, instead, you use a different 24 method that just includes income from selling memberships, 25 right?
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 730 1 A Correct. 2 Q So, that method is the second disclosed method in the 3 Statement of Financial Condition, correct? 4 A Yes. 5 Q As with other valuations that include future income, 6 there's no attempt to determine how long into the future it 7 would take to build and sell these homes, these units, 8 correct? 9 A Correct. 10 Q There's no discounted cash flow analysis to bring 11 those amounts to the present value, correct? 12 A Correct. 13 Q So, I think we said the third method in the Statement 14 of Financial Condition didn't apply. We've now seen, at least 15 with respect to these additional units, you've used the second 16 method. I don't see any line items that would reflect for 17 Briarcliff any cash flow analysis as described in the first 18 method. Am I correct? 19 A As described in the first method? 20 Q The first method in the statement says that the 21 estimated current value is based on one method. The first 22 method, is assessment of the cash flow that is expected to be 23 derived from club operations. You see that? 24 A Yes. 25 Q That is not a method you're using for Briarcliff,	Page 732 1 A Correct. 2 (Continued on following page...) 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 733 1 Q So, anybody reading this statement and this 2 description would have no understanding that estimated current 3 value includes, as a component, selling memberships, without a 4 more complete assessment of cash flow; right? 5 MR. FIELDS: Objection. Speculating as to what 6 other people reading the statement would know. 7 THE COURT: Do you want to phrase it slightly 8 differently? 9 MR. AMER: Sure. 10 Q There's nothing in this paragraph containing the three 11 alternate methods disclosed that indicates you have based the 12 valuation on simply taking membership sales and including that 13 in the value; right? 14 A Not specifically, no. 15 Q And an assessment of cash flow from operations would 16 include looking at things such as payroll; right? 17 A Yes. 18 Q And taxes; right? 19 A Yes. 20 Q And repairs and upkeep and maintenance of the golf 21 course; right? 22 A Yes. 23 Q And that's nowhere in your valuation analysis; right? 24 A For this property, no. 25 Q Let's look at how you value Briarcliff in 2012.	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 735 1 708, and let's look at lines 253 to 270? 2 THE COURT: Ten-minute warning. 3 Q Mr. McConney, in 2013, for the development of the 4 units, the value jumped from 25.1 million to 101 million and 5 change; correct? 6 A Yes. 7 Q And you increased the value of the Briarcliff 8 development in that amount based on a September 25th, 2013, 9 telephone conversation with Eric Trump; correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q And this increase was based on the sale of 71 midrise 12 units, approved but put on hold; correct? 13 A Correct. 14 Q So the number of units increased from 31 to 71; is 15 that right? 16 A I'm not too sure. If you show me the other 17 spreadsheet with the number -- I just don't remember. 18 Q Okay. We don't have to go back. But at any rate, 19 it's based on an increase in the number of units to 71; correct? 20 A To 71. 21 Q To, T-O, 71; correct? 22 A Yes. 23 Q And your information about the number of units came 24 from Eric Trump in that call; right? 25 A Yes.
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 734 1 MR. AMER: And we can pull up the 2012 Jeff 2 Supporting Data, Plaintiff's 793, and let's go to line 258 3 [sic]. 4 Q And line 287 [sic] shows your valuation of Briarcliff 5 jumped from 68.7 million in 2011 to 99.5 million, roughly, in 6 2012; correct? 7 A Yes. 8 Q And that's an increase of almost $31 million; right? 9 A Yes. 10 Q And line 285 shows that your projected profit from the 11 sale of the future residential units remained the same from the 12 prior year; correct? 13 A Yes. 14 Q And so, all of your responses about how you calculated 15 that would be the same for this year; correct? 16 A Correct. 17 Q And lines 273 to 275 show very little change in 18 additional value from 2011 to 2012, based on listed membership 19 receivables; right? 20 A Correct. 21 Q So, almost the entire increase, close to $30 million, 22 is attributable to your change in methodology, to using 23 something called fixed assets; right? 24 A Correct. 25 Q Let's look at 2013, and that's Jeff Supporting Data	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 736 1 Q And he also, by the way, told you that the project was 2 put on hold; right? 3 A Yes. 4 Q But you're still accounting for the profit from those 5 71 midrise units that were put on hold, as if it's immediately 6 realized as of June 30, 2013; correct? 7 A Yes. 8 MR. AMER: Now, let's look at Exhibit 205. 9 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 10 to the witness.) 11 MR. AMER: Your Honor, this is an appraisal by 12 Cushman &amp; Wakefield of the Briarcliff club, and I move that 13 this be admitted me into. 14 MR. SUAREZ: We have an objection, both based on 15 the statute of limitations and on hearsay. 16 MR. AMER: Your Honor, this was an appraisal that 17 the Trump Organization obtained. 18 THE COURT: It comes in, not for the truth of its 19 contents, but for what the Trump Organization knew or 20 thought, or whatever information they had. 21 MR. AMER: It's also an admission against 22 interests, your Honor. It's their appraisal. Their agent. 23 They hired Cushman to do the appraisal for them, and 24 therefore it's their appraisal. 25 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, it was sent to Sheri

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 737 1 Dillon at Bingham McCutchen. It's a Cushman &amp; Wakefield 2 Bates stamped out of Trump Organization Bates documents. 3 There's certainly no testimony that Mr. McConney has seen 4 it yet. Cushman is not here. 5 THE COURT: Well, we haven't gotten to that part, 6 yet. 7 MR. AMER: Just so you know, your Honor, just so 8 you are aware, Bingham McCutchen were counsel to the Trump 9 Organization. Their lawyers. 10 THE COURT: And that makes it an admission 11 against interests? 12 MR. AMER: Yes. It's a document created by their 13 agent. 14 THE COURT: The point of the hearsay exception 15 for an admission against interests is, you won't say 16 something that will hurt you. When this was drafted, put 17 together, whatever you call it, it wasn't necessarily going 18 to hurt them. So, I'm only letting it in to show what 19 the -- and I think that's all you need, unless I'm missing 20 something -- to show what the defendants knew or had access 21 to. There's nothing about the appraisal itself that hurts 22 them. But, you can tell me otherwise. Go ahead. Why? 23 MR. AMER: Because it comes up with a value 24 that's much lower than the value that they used. 25 THE COURT: Well, that's my point. You want to	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 739 1 A I see its value of 43.3. 2 Q It says market value of conservation easement; 3 correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q And as we discussed before, these type of appraisals, 6 you have a before value and after value, and you subtract the 7 two, and that's the value of the development rights being 8 donated? 9 THE COURT: Subtract one from the other. You 10 don't subtract the two. 11 MR. AMER: Yes. One from the other, your Honor. 12 Thank you. 13 Q Correct? 14 A Correct. 15 Q And so, the value of the development rights related to 16 the 71 units, according to this professionally-done appraisal, 17 is $43.3 million; correct? 18 A Again, I don't know what this appraisal was for, so 19 it's hard for me to comment. 20 Q I thought you were aware. So, you were not aware that 21 there was an appraisal done for an easement donation? 22 A I know there was easement donation. I am pretty sure 23 I knew there was an appraisal, but I don't think I was involved 24 in this. 25 Q And in 2014, according to the Jeff Supporting
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 738 1 show that it's lower than the value that they used, but the 2 fact that internally -- I'm sorry. I just still don't see 3 it, but it's in for the purpose that I think you need. 4 MR. AMER: Okay. 5 (Whereupon, the exhibit was received in 6 evidence.) 7 Q 2014, the Trump Organization sought to value a 8 potential easement over the five-acre development site. That 9 was the site for the 71 housing units; correct? 10 A I have no knowledge of that. 11 Q Were you unaware of the appraisal? 12 A I knew there was an appraisal, but I don't know what 13 it was for. I -- sorry. I knew it was for a conservation 14 easement, but I don't know the details of the appraisal. 15 Q Are you aware of the value that the appraisal came to 16 for the 71-unit development? 17 A I don't believe so. 18 Q If we turn to page two of the exhibit, this is the 19 cover letter that the appraiser sends to Bingham McCutchen. Did 20 you understand that they were the Trump Organization's counsel 21 for purposes of this easement donation? 22 A Yes. 23 Q If we turn to the third page, you see it says the 24 value of the easement donations is 43.4 -- 43.3 million; 25 correct?	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 740 1 spreadsheet, which is Exhibit 719 -- 2 MR. AMER: Can we put that up? 3 Q You continue to value the -- 4 A This is Westchester. 5 Q Yes. 6 A I'm sorry. 7 Q Yes. We need to go back to Briarcliff. Sorry. 8 You continue to value the Briarcliff 71 midrise units 9 in 2014 at $101 million, even though there an appraisal that the 10 company has that says 43.3; correct. 11 A Again, the appraisal is appraising -- I'm not too sure 12 what it appraises. We did complete the same 101 million 13 valuation for the 71 midrise units. 14 Q Well, let's look at page two of the appraisal, and 15 let's look at the third paragraph. You will see it says the 16 owner of the subject golf club is planning on donating a 17 conservation easement over approximately 5 acres of the 18 property. This is a development site entitled with 71 attached 19 housing units. Do you see that? 20 A Yes. 21 Q So, that's what this appraisal relates to; right? The 22 71 units that you value in your spreadsheet? 23 THE COURT: Hold on. 24 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, again, there's no 25 foundation. I believe the ruling from the Court was that

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 741 1 it was not admitted for the truth of the matter asserted. 2 He testified that he's not sure if he ever saw this 3 appraisal. The appraisal wasn't sent to Mr. McConney. It 4 wasn't sent to anyone at the Trump Organization. It says 5 what it says. He is not sure what it's for. There's no 6 foundation to have him testify about. 7 MR. AMER: Your Honor, just an objection, not a 8 speaking objection. The witness is on the stand. 9 THE COURT: Well, time for the break; right? 10 Saved by the bell. We'll address it on the way back. 11 As usual, we are going to take a ten-minute break 12 that will take 15 minutes. 13 (Whereupon, a recess was taken.) 14 * * * * * 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 743 1 going to testify about it, I'd like to condition the 2 testimony on the fact it hasn't been admitted yet for the 3 truth of the matter asserted, and, also, I'd like to 4 bring to the Court's attention that this is a document 5 that has limitations. 6 It's a document that has three pages of 7 different limitations that include what it can be used 8 for and what it can't be used for. 9 MR. AMER: This is improper. 10 MR. SUAREZ: May I finish? 11 MR. AMER: He is discussing an exhibit in front 12 of the witness. If he wants to do cross-examination with 13 this document when I'm done with my examination, he can 14 do that. 15 MR. SUAREZ: The witness is a party and, more 16 so, even the document says "draft" on it. 17 THE COURT: That's what cross-examination is 18 for. I'll allow it, the questioning, although I don't 19 know exactly where it's going. 20 Q I want to continue talking about valuation of 21 Briarcliff in 2015. 22 MR. AMER: If we can put up the supporting data 23 spreadsheet 731 and go to lines 255? 24 Q Now, the valuation of the 71 mid-rise units in 2015 25 remained as it was in 2014 as 101 million point 748 and
J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 742 1 THE COURT: Let's pick up from that interesting 2 issue from where we left off. I want to first make sure 3 I understand the context of the dispute. 4 The Trump Organization, through agent, through a 5 third party, commissioned appraisal. The plaintiff wants 6 the appraisal in, both for the truth of its contents and 7 to show notice. I already said I'm allowing to show 8 whatever notice there is but not for the truth of its 9 content because that's what hearsay is for. Hearsay 10 rule. 11 However, if plaintiff wants to pursue this, 12 wants to admit it for the truth of its contents, pursuant 13 to some hearsay exception, if you say you want to do 14 this, I'll ask both sides whether you want to submit 15 two-page memos by, two-page memos by next week or Tuesday 16 or something. Monday is a holiday. 17 MR. AMER: Let me confer with my colleagues to 18 see if we need it for the truth of the matter asserted or 19 notice is sufficient. If we want it for the truth of the 20 matter asserted, we'll submit it. 21 THE COURT: And the other side can oppose or -- 22 when will you consult with your colleagues? 23 MR. AMER: Later today. 24 MR. SUAREZ: I don't want to keep popping up 25 during the witness's testimony but if the witness is	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 744 1 change, correct? 2 A Yes. 3 Q So, we're all oriented, the appraisal we were looking 4 at, that's Exhibit 205 admitted for purposes of notice, was 5 from the letter, cover letter to Ms. Dillon -- if you want to 6 put it up -- is dated April 18, 2014, correct? 7 A Correct. 8 Q So, certainly, by the time you're doing your 9 valuation for June 30, 2015, this appraisal was done, right? 10 A Yes. 11 Q You were aware there was an appraisal, correct? 12 A Correct. 13 Q And is it your testimony you didn't ask to see the 14 appraisal? 15 A Yes. 16 Q It didn't matter to you for purposes of your 17 valuation; is that what you're saying? 18 A Yes. 19 Q The original -- the value for 2014 was based on the 20 note in 272, row 272 of the spreadsheet. This September 25, 21 2013 telephone conversation, you had with Eric Trump, correct? 22 A I'm sorry. I was reading something. Can you just 23 ask that again? 24 Q Sure. The value in 2014, that you put on your 25 spreadsheet, was based on a telephone conversation with Eric

J. McConney - Driect/Amer Page 745 1 Trump on September 25, 2013, as indicated in line 272, right? 2 A That's correct. 3 Q The value remaining the same in 2015 was based on a 4 telephone conversation that you had with Eric Trump in 5 November 17th -- on November 17, 2015, where Eric Trump said 6 to you, "leave value as is," correct? 7 A Correct. 8 Q So, notwithstanding the fact that there was this 9 appraisal, Eric Trump told you to leave the value as is, 10 correct? 11 A Correct. 12 Q I'd like to see if we could shorten this. So, I'll 13 just make a statement to you; and, if you're uncomfortable, we 14 can go through all of the spreadsheets; but, the spreadsheets 15 for 2016, 2017, and 2018 continue to use the same $101 million 16 value for the mid-rise units and all attributed to this phone 17 call with Mr. Trump that you should leave the value as is. 18 Is that consistent with your recollection? 19 MR. SUAREZ: We object to the grouping together 20 of different years for purposes of testimony. If there's 21 a specific question about specific years in specific 22 spreadsheets, that should be the question. Not lumping 23 them altogether. 24 THE COURT: I'm allowing the lumping together. 25 Objection overruled. Let's be clear. He's asking about	J. McConney - Driect/Amer Page 747 1 million and change and it's attributable, in your note on line 2 312, to your conversation with Eric Trump, leave value as is, 3 correct? 4 A Yes, but, I'd like to make the statement that 5 between June of '16 and June of '17, Patrick Birney was 6 taking over the Statement of Financial Condition. I don't 7 think I was involved in the June of '18 statement. 8 Q Okay. 9 A So -- 10 Q Looking at the control spreadsheet, though, that is 11 what is being indicated as the source for keeping the value 12 the same in 2018, correct? 13 A That's correct. 14 Q It's your phone call, right? It's your phone call 15 with Eric Trump? 16 A I had the phone call back in 2015, yes. 17 Q Okay. I want to switch topics with respect to golf 18 courses. It is correct that you included in your valuation of 19 some of the golf clubs starting in 2013 a 30 percent grand 20 premium, correct? 21 A Yes. 22 Q The inclusion of that grand premium was something 23 that you and Allen Weisselberg decided to do, right? 24 A Yes. 25 Q At some point after adopting that 30 percent premium,
J. McConney - Driect/Amer Page 746 1 all three years. We're just lumping them together. 2 A Can we just take a look at the three years to make 3 sure? 4 Q Absolutely. Why don't we look at 2017 because it 5 will give us 2017 and 2016, and that's 758 and it's line -- 6 278. 7 You'll see, Mr. McConney, the value remains the 8 same for both '17 and '16 and it has the note that attributes 9 that to Eric Trump saying "leave value as is," correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q So, those values remained as is based on your 12 telephone conversation with Eric Trump, correct? 13 A Correct. 14 MR. AMER: Let's go to 2018. It's plaintiff's 15 774 native and we'll go to line 295. Just so the record 16 is clear, in the prior exhibit we were looking at lines 17 278 to -- we just have to straighten out the line 18 numbers, the row numbers. 19 Q So, it's row 298 has the profit being 101 million and 20 the conversation with Mr. Trump is on line 301, correct. 21 A Correct. 22 Q Okay. That's for both 2016 and 2017, correct? 23 A Correct. 24 Q Let's go to 2018. Exhibit 774, line 295 is where 25 Briarcliff starts and, again, 2018 stays the same at 101	J. McConney - Driect/Amer Page 748 1 you changed it to a 15 percent premium, but, it was still a 2 premium that was added to the same golf clubs, correct? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Was that change to 15 percent also something that you 5 and Mr. Weisselberg decided to do together? 6 A Yes. 7 Q If we could pull up the 2013 statement, it's 8 Exhibit 707 in evidence -- 708. 9 Exhibit 707 in evidence, the Statement of 10 Financial Condition, if we go to page six where it says "basis 11 of presentation." 12 The bottom paragraph that begins: "Pursuant to 13 GAAP." Do you see that? 14 A Yes. 15 Q The last sentence of that paragraph says: "The 16 goodwill attached to the Trump name has significant financial 17 value that has not been reflected in the preparation of this 18 financial statement." 19 Do you see that? 20 A Yes. 21 Q That sentence is in every one of the statements under 22 "basis of presentation" from 2011 to 2021; isn't that right? 23 A I can -- I believe up until 2016/2017 it was there. 24 I really wasn't involved after that. 25 Q Okay. So, you can confirm that, at least from 2011

J. McConney - Driect/Amer Page 749 1 to 2016 or '17, this sentence appears in the "basis of 2 presentation" section, correct? 3 A Yes. 4 Q And every year that you were, from 2013 forward, that 5 you were adding the 30 percent premium or the 15 percent 6 premium, you were aware that this sentence was contained in 7 the "basis of presentation" section of the statement, correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q Am I correct that the Trump Organization in 2012 10 shifted away from valuing golf clubs based on projected income 11 from future membership sales, like we saw with Briarcliff, and 12 started to use something known as a fixed assets approach? 13 A We changed at a point in time. All the golf courses 14 that were using that valuation method changed at the same 15 time. I'm getting to it. 16 So, if the statement, the spreadsheet we were 17 looking at before -- I don't remember the years when we 18 switched. So, if you look at Briarcliff when we switched, I 19 can give you an answer. 20 Q I think it's just enough to get your confirmation 21 that at some point you switched from using an approach that 22 valued the sale of memberships to a fixed assets approach, 23 correct? 24 A That's correct. 25 Q Every year that you use the fixed assets approach for	J. McConney - Driect/Amer Page 751 1 A I'm sorry. Can you ask that question one more time? 2 MR. AMER: Sure. Actually, let's back up. 3 Q We looked at membership sales and those were 4 nonrefundable memberships, correct? 5 A Correct. 6 Q There was something different called refundable 7 membership deposits, right? 8 A At one time, yes, and, I guess, they still exist, to 9 some extent. 10 Q Right. Those are deposits that members make that at 11 some point in the future they may be entitled to get back; is 12 that right? 13 A That's correct. 14 Q And am I correct that the refundable membership 15 deposits are different from the nonrefundable membership fees, 16 that those refundable membership deposits were for Jupiter 17 included in the purchase price of the club for purposes of 18 valuing the fixed assets number? 19 A Part of them, yes. 20 Q Let's take a look at how that worked, and I'm going 21 to put up plaintiff's Exhibit 3055. 22 Mr. McConney, the first page is an e-mail. The 23 second page is a slip sheet for the attachment that we're 24 going to pull up in a minute, and, this is an e-mail that you 25 sent to a gentleman by the name of Frank Lucas. It's about
J. McConney - Driect/Amer Page 750 1 a particular golf club, you'd ask the controller at each golf 2 club for the value of the club's fixed assets and then you'd 3 enter that in your spreadsheet, correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q I'd like to look at the valuation for Jupiter, and, 6 that's a course that the Trump Organization purchased in 2013; 7 is that right? 8 A It purchased it. I'm not sure -- I don't remember 9 the exact year. 10 Q Let's go ahead and put up the 2013 supporting 11 spreadsheet in native, I think it's 708. It's in evidence. 12 If we go to row 462, this is the row that starts 13 the valuation for Jupiter, correct? 14 A Yes. 15 Q You'll see it has on line 465, value of fixed assets, 16 correct? 17 A Correct. 18 Q So, for Jupiter, at least in 2013, you're using the 19 fixed assets approach, right? 20 A Yes. 21 Q And am I correct that under the fixed assets 22 approach, you included, in the purchase price of the club, 23 that you then included, as part of the value of the fixed 24 assets, the amount of liability associated with refundable 25 membership deposits?	J. McConney - Driect/Amer Page 752 1 Jupiter and the attachment is Jupiter purchase. You see that? 2 A Yes. 3 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this exhibit 4 be admitted with the attachment. 5 MR. SUAREZ: We object on the basis of the 6 Statute of limitations. 7 THE COURT: Overruled. It's in. 8 (Whereupon, said exhibit was received in 9 evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3055) 10 Q Let's pull up the attachment, which is Exhibit 3055, 11 native one, and, you'll see it says: "Jupiter Golf Club, LLC 12 allocation of purchase price." 13 Do you see that? 14 A Yes. 15 Q This is the backup for calculating the purchase price 16 for purposes of using it in the fixed assets valuation for 17 this club, correct? 18 A This is the journal entry that was booked to show 19 however the purchase price was allocated. So, it could be 20 fixed assets, goodwill. It could be allocated to a number of 21 places. 22 Q But you're using this for purposes of doing your 23 valuation for the fixed assets basis for the Jupiter Club, 24 correct? 25 A Yes.

J. McConney - Driect/Amer Page 753 1 Q What this shows is, on line five, cash of $5 million. 2 You see that? 3 A Yes. 4 Q That was the actual amount of money that was paid to 5 purchase Jupiter? 6 A I don't remember, off the top of my head, but, I 7 believe so. 8 Q Then there's a line item on line six called Member 9 Deposit Liability Assumed, and it's over $41 million, correct? 10 A Correct. 11 Q Then there are closing costs that are included and 12 you get a total purchase price of over $46 million, correct? 13 A Correct. 14 Q So, let me just understand what's happening here in 15 calculating this purchase price. You have $5 million in cash 16 and you're assuming a liability to repay to members their 17 deposits of over $41 million and then you add closing costs 18 and you get to the purchase price; is that right? 19 A That's correct. 20 Q So, this calculation of the purchase price, assumes 21 that the member deposit liability will have to be repaid at 22 face value, correct? 23 A Correct. Can I clarify one thing? Face value being 24 the amount that the member gave the club, right. 25 Q Correct?	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 755 1 Q Now, let's go to the 2013 statement, which is 2 Exhibit 707, and let's go to page 15. 3 And this is the description for Jupiter; right? 4 MR. AMER: If you just scroll down, so we can see 5 the heading. 6 Q See Jupiter? 7 A Yes. 8 Q Okay. So, let's look at that second paragraph. 9 A Wait, something -- I'm looking at Doral. Sorry. 10 Q That's okay. Are you there? 11 A Yes. 12 Q Okay. Second paragraph says, "One condition of 13 membership was the contribution of a non-interest-bearing 14 deposit that does not require repayment until certain terms are 15 met, and then only upon the member's resignation. The fact that 16 Mr. Trump will have the use of these funds for that period, 17 without cost, and that the source of repayment will most likely 18 be a replacement membership, has lead him to value this 19 liability at zero." 20 Do you see that? 21 A Yes. 22 Q It goes on to say, through 9/30/2013, these deposits 23 amounted to $41 million; correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q So if I understand what's happening here, you are
Page 754 1 A Yes. 2 Q Okay. Now, if we could go to-- and this purchase 3 price, by the way, including the member deposit liability at 4 face value, is what you plug into your fixed assets 5 calculation for the valuation of Jupiter in the statement, 6 right? 7 A Can you ask that again? 8 Q Sure. The purchase price that we're looking at of 9 over 46 million, is what you include for the purchase price in 10 the fixed assets calculation for the statement, right? 11 A Yes. 12 (Continued on following page...) 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 756 1 including the value of the membership deposits as a liability 2 that increases the purchase price of the club to the tune of 3 $41 million; correct? 4 A That's correct. 5 Q And at the same time, you are representing, or the 6 statement is representing, that those liabilities are being 7 valued at zero; is that correct? 8 A That's correct. 9 Q And there is no entry on the liability side of the 10 statement that would indicate any obligation to repay these 11 membership deposits; is that right? 12 A The liability side of which statement? 13 Q The Statement of Financial Condition has assets and 14 liabilities; right? 15 A Correct. 16 Q And there's no entry on the liability side on the 17 statement that indicates any obligation to repay these 18 membership deposits; correct? 19 A There's no amount reflected. That's correct. 20 THE COURT: Let me jump in a second. I'm the one 21 that has to understand everything. 22 Estimated current value, what would it sell for, 23 basically, willing buyer, willing seller, the fixed assets 24 approach, I think, is how much did it cost us to buy this 25 thing and fix it up, develop it, whatever, and then the

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 757 1 assumption is, well, what you pay for it is what it's 2 worth; is that correct? 3 MR. AMER: Yes, and it assumes that the liability 4 is an obligation of the owner who buys it, so if I pay -- 5 let me see if I have a hypothetical that may clarify it. 6 If I buy a piece of property for a million dollars, but it 7 comes with an obligation to pay a million dollars, then 8 it's really costing me $2 million. It's costing me the 9 million dollars I pay to buy it, and then I have an 10 obligation to pay another million because there's some IOU 11 on the property, let's say. So, it costs me $2 million, 12 but the point I'm making -- 13 THE COURT: But you have got something that's 14 only worth $1 million. Is that -- 15 MR. AMER: It is, but I've indicated in the 16 statement that I've valued the liability that I'm assuming 17 at zero, so that's the -- 18 Q The issue here is, you have valued the liability at 19 face value for calculating the purchase price that you use; 20 correct? 21 A That's correct. 22 Q And you simultaneously represent in the statement that 23 you're valuing the liability at zero; correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q Okay. And with respect to the membership liability	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 759 1 A Yes. 2 Q And that applies to both of these years, 2011 and 3 2012; correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q And the entire basis of the valuation rests on the 6 premise that Mar-A-Lago can be sold as a private residence to an 7 individual; right? 8 A Yes. 9 Q If we put up demonstrative exhibit 3.10, this lists 10 the value of Mar-A-Lago in each year, from 2011 to 2021. 11 Mr. McConney, is it correct that every year, the value of 12 Mar-A-Lago is based on the premise that the property can be sold 13 as a private residence? 14 A That's correct. 15 Q And as of the date that you began preparing -- 16 A Sorry. 17 Q Go ahead. 18 A The year I was involved in preparing the statement. 19 Again, June of '16, June of '17, I'm pretty sure. But I didn't 20 work on June of '18 forward, so. 21 Q So let's just clarify your testimony. Your testimony 22 is that from every year from 2011 to 2016/2017, you were aware 23 that the premise of the valuation was based on the fact that the 24 property can be sold as a private residence; right? 25 A That's correct.
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 758 1 deposits, even if they do have to be repaid at some point in 2 time, that's way out into the future; correct? 3 A Depends when the member joined, but it's sometime in 4 the future. 5 Q And you don't do any discount factor analysis to 6 figure out, for the purpose of the fixed-asset approach, what 7 the present value is, of that liability; correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And you include it as though it's a hundred percent 10 due on the date of the valuation of the statement; correct? The 11 valuation date of the statement? 12 A Correct. 13 Q Okay. 14 MR. AMER: I intend to move on, unless the Court 15 has more questions to clarify, at this point. 16 THE COURT: Please just move on. 17 MR. AMER: Thank you. 18 Q I want to talk about Mar-A-Lago. 19 MR. AMER: Let's look at the 2012 Jeff Supporting 20 Data spreadsheet. It's Plaintiff's 93, and it starts at 21 row 187. 22 (Whereupon, a document was displayed, and handed 23 to the witness.) 24 Q Now, row 188 says, Value if sold to an individual. Do 25 you see that?	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 760 1 Q And you are not sure, one way or the other, what the 2 premise was for the valuation in the years from 2018 through 3 2021; correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q And as of 2011, when you were preparing the valuation 6 for Mar-A-Lago, you were aware, were you not, that there was a 7 deed of development rights that Mr. Trump had entered into with 8 the National Trust for Historic Preservation? 9 A When the club initially opened, I know there were some 10 documents relating to the deed. I don't know exactly what they 11 were, but I know there was some rules you had to live by. 12 Q Okay. Let me be more specific, because there are a 13 number of deeds. You were aware, as of 2011, that there was a 14 2002 deed of development rights with the National Trust for 15 Historic Preservation; isn't that right? 16 A I know there was something with the National Trust. I 17 don't know what the exact title. 18 Q Are you saying -- well, did you see the deed of 19 development rights, prior to 2011? 20 A I could have seen it when we first -- the club first 21 opened. I just don't remember that far back. 22 Q When you say, when the club first opened, when was 23 that? 24 A I'm thinking 1995. 25 Q Did you see a deed of development rights around --

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 761 1 later than that, in the 2000s, with the National Trust for 2 Historic Preservation? 3 A No. 4 Q Are you sure? 5 A I'm pretty sure. 6 Q Okay. And were you aware that Mr. Trump had deeded 7 away his right to use the club for any purpose other than a 8 social club? 9 MR. FIELDS: Objection. Speculation. The 10 witness testified he didn't see the deed. How could he be 11 aware? 12 THE COURT: How could he be aware? Somebody told 13 him, maybe? 14 MR. FIELDS: Then objection to hearsay. 15 MR. AMER: I'm entitled to -- 16 THE COURT: -- introduce it for the truth of its 17 contents, its notice, I think. 18 But Mr. Amer, see if you can get us through this 19 tangled web. 20 MR. AMER: I don't know what's tangled about this 21 web, your Honor, but I'll try. 22 Q You are doing valuations from 2011 forward; right? 23 A Yes. 24 Q Do you have an understanding as you are doing these 25 valuations, based on the premise that you can sell this property	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 763 1 A Correct. 2 Q Now, I notice for 2012, you have two comps and they're 3 based on asking price; correct? 4 A Correct. 5 Q And the two comps for 2011, also based on asking 6 price; correct? 7 A Correct. 8 Q So these are not prices that a willing buyer actually 9 paid; right? 10 A I don't know what -- if these were purchased, I don't 11 know what they were -- what the purchaser paid for these 12 properties. 13 Q Right. But as of the date that you used these prices, 14 they were asking prices and not prices for properties that had 15 actually sold; correct? 16 A That's correct. 17 Q And I notice that what you do is, you take the asking 18 price and you divide it by the number of acres to come up with a 19 number per acre; correct? 20 A Correct. 21 Q And then you then multiply that value per acre by the 22 acreage of Mar-A-Lago, on line 214; correct? 23 A That's correct. 24 Q So, if I'm understanding this correctly, the actual 25 square footage of the house that's being put up for sale is not
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 762 1 as a private residence, that there was -- that Mr. Trump had 2 deeded away his rights to use the property for any purpose other 3 than a social club? Yes or no, or were you aware? 4 MR. SUAREZ: Objection. It also assume facts not 5 in evidences, mischaracterizing the trust and the deed that 6 was referenced. It's just not the case, and there's no 7 evidence in the record that that is the case. 8 MR. AMER: I honestly didn't ask him, your Honor, 9 how he knew. I just want to know if he is aware. 10 THE COURT: Absolutely overruled. 11 A Sorry. Could you ask the question again, please? 12 MR. AMER: Can I get a read back, your Honor? 13 THE COURT: Sure. 14 (Whereupon, the requested portion of the 15 proceedings was read back by the court reporter.) 16 THE COURT: Please answer. 17 A I was not aware. 18 Q Now, the valuation that you prepared for Mar-A-Lago, 19 that's largely based on comps; is that right? 20 A Correct. 21 Q Let's go ahead and look at the -- well, actually, let 22 me see if I can do it this way. Let's go ahead and put up 23 the -- oh, let's leave up the 2012. Sorry. 24 Okay. Back to where we were. You have listed comps 25 for 2012 and 2011; correct?	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 764 1 relevant to your calculation? 2 A I don't -- I'm not too sure I understand that 3 question. 4 Q Okay. You are taking the asking price, and you are 5 dividing it by the acres that the property sits on, without any 6 factoring in how large the house is; right? 7 A But it does include a house, or some swimming pool, 8 cabana. It does include something. It's not just the value of 9 the land. 10 Q Let me ask a different way. You are not calculating a 11 price per square foot to do this comp; correct? 12 A Correct. 13 Q Okay. So, if you have two identical homes asking the 14 identical selling price, and one is on a two-acre lot and the 15 other is on a four-acre lot, the one on the 2-acre lot will have 16 a value, for your purposes, that's twice as large as the house 17 on the four-acre lot; correct? 18 A Mathematically, yes. That's correct. 19 Q Isn't the method you are using, which is to calculate 20 a value per acre, the method one would use to value vacant land, 21 as opposed to a house? 22 MR. FIELDS: Objection. Speculation. Lack of 23 foundation. 24 THE COURT: Overruled. 25 A Can you ask it again, please?

J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 765 1 Q Isn't the method that you are using, where you take 2 the asking price and divide it by the number of acres, a 3 valuation method used for valuing and comparing vacant land, as 4 opposed to a private residence? 5 A I guess you could do it that way. We took the whole 6 selling price, including the house, and divide it by the number 7 of acres. I guess you could use it for vacant land, but these 8 comps included whatever was being sold. 9 Q And the size of the house didn't matter in your 10 calculation, because you don't use it in the calculation; right? 11 A It was not used in the calculation. Correct. 12 Q Then, by the way, you add, if you can scroll down, you 13 add, on line 216, a premium for completed facility of 14 30 percent; right? 15 A Correct. 16 Q Did you -- so, you just take whatever number you get 17 from the comp and you gross it out by 30 percent, because it's a 18 completed facility; right? 19 A Correct. 20 Q But you are valuing it as if you are selling it as a 21 private residence; right? 22 A Correct. 23 Q Am I correct that when you started doing the valuation 24 for the following year, 2013, you realized that it was better to 25 use actual sale prices, rather than asking prices? Correct?	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 767 1 Q That compensation is 1220 South Ocean Boulevard, 2 right? 3 A Yes. 4 Q If you scroll down on the other one, other way. 5 Sorry. It's the same comp that you used the prior year, 6 right? 1220 South Ocean, Palm Beach, correct? 7 A Yes. 8 Q In 2012 -- we can go up a little more so I see the 9 price. In 2012, you're using the asking for the 2020 South 10 Ocean, Palm Beach of $74 million? 11 A Yes. 12 Q That's the asking price and then the next year you 13 realized that the same property sold for $42 million, correct? 14 A Correct. 15 Q In your description on line 224? 16 A Which? 1314? 17 Q On 1314. 18 A Yes. 19 Q You say actual selling price, not just selling price 20 but actual selling price, correct? 21 A Correct. 22 Q And on line 212, you just say selling price for the 23 other comp on line 212? 24 A On the same spreadsheet? 25 Q Same spreadsheet.
J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 766 1 A Somebody made that decision, yes. It was either Allen 2 or myself. 3 Q Okay. So some combination of you and Mr. Weisselberg 4 decided, in 2013, that it's better to use selling prices rather 5 than asking prices; correct? 6 A At some point in time we changed, yes. 7 Q Let's go ahead and look at 2014 Jeff Supporting Data, 8 Exhibit 719. 9 MR. AMER: And I may want you to put it up, side 10 by side, if we can, and let's go to row 207, where the 11 value began, where the Mar-A-Lago value begins. If you 12 could, just lift up the one on the left. 13 Q So, in 2013, you have, again, two comps. 14 MR. AMER: I just need to see a little below. 15 Q You have two comps; correct? 16 A Can we just scroll? 17 Q Yes. 18 MR. AMER: You have to go down, more. There we 19 go. 20 Q I'm sorry. Just one comp for 2013; correct? 21 A Can we just to be 100 percent sure, scroll over to 22 column G? I believe that's correct. I just want to make sure. 23 Yes. That's correct. Only one comp. 24 (Continued on the next page.) 25	J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 768 1 A Yes. 2 Q The reason why you inserted that word "actual" is 3 because you realized you had used the same comp the year 4 before and you used the asking price and now it was an actual 5 selling price, correct? 6 A I don't know if I realized what you said but there 7 was a reason for it. It's the actual price, is the actual 8 price. 9 Q But using the word "actual" you're kind of 10 acknowledging you used the same comp from the year before but 11 used the selling price? 12 A I'm not acknowledging the same comp from the year 13 before. The actual comp we used is the selling price. I 14 don't remember -- 15 Q Was this the reason you decided it was better to use 16 selling prices than asking prices because it dawned on you 17 that a property that you valued with an asking price of $74 18 million actually ended up selling a year later for only 19 $42 million? 20 A I don't remember that being the case, one way or the 21 other. 22 Q By the way, I noticed in 2012 the number of acres for 23 this property is 2.5 acres, correct? 24 A Correct. 25 Q A year later, the property is only 2.11 acres,

1 correct? 2 A Correct. 3 Q So, the acreage changed? 4 A We'd have to look at the source documents each year. 5 Q The effect of changing the acreage from 2.5 to 2.11 6 increases the value per acre, correct? 7 A In 2013? 8 Q Yeah. 9 A Yes. 10 Q Let's go to PX-2374. Mr. McConney, is Exhibit 2374 11 the backup that you sent for the comps to Mr. Bender? 12 A Yes, I believe so. For Mar-a-Lago, I believe so, 13 yes. 14 Q It shows the 1220 South Ocean Boulevard house selling 15 for $42 million, correct? 16 A Yes. 17 MR. AMER: Your Honor, I ask that this be 18 admitted into evidence. 19 THE COURT: Granted. It's in. 20 MR. SUAREZ: We only object if it's being 21 offered for the truth of the matter asserted because it 22 would be hearsay. The fact that, to the extent that he 23 testified that he sent it to Mr. Bender, that's a 24 different story. 25 THE COURT: Is that agreeable just for the fact		1 A Yes. 2 Q You knew about that appraisal, right? 3 A Yes. 4 Q You had a copy of that appraisal, correct? 5 A I believe so, yes. 6 Q You relied on the page we saw from this appraisal for 7 purposes of valuing Mar-a-Lago, correct? 8 A Yes. 9 Q That was an appraisal done in contemplation of a 10 conservation easement donation over Mar-a-Lago back in 2007, 11 right? 12 A I don't know what the purpose was, off the top of my 13 head. It says "conservation easement" here on the bottom of 14 page 506. So, I believe that's what it was for. 15 MR. AMER: I'm going to ask to hand the witness 16 Exhibit 1444. 17 Q Mr. McConney, this is the full appraisal of 18 Mar-a-Lago, 169 pages. You had a copy of it, correct? 19 A I don't remember but it's possible. 20 Q Well, you attached the cover page to the backup you 21 sent to Mr. Bender, right? 22 A Right. 23 MR. AMER: I ask that this be moved into 24 evidence, your Honor. 25 MR. SUAREZ: Your Honor, we have an objection
1 he sent it, the notice, as opposed to the truth of the 2 contents? That could be part of your two-page memo. You 3 can make it three pages now. 4 MR. AMER: That's fine, your Honor. 5 Q Let me ask, Mr. McConney, you relied on this backup 6 in performing your valuation, right? 7 A Yes. 8 THE COURT: So, is that sufficient? 9 MR. AMER: That should do it. 10 THE COURT: So, it's not going in for the truth 11 of its contents. 12 Q The third page, is this where you get your acreage 13 figure from for the comp at 1220 South Ocean Boulevard? 14 A Yes. 15 Q Let me ask you to turn to -- and you then had to take 16 the price per acre and multiply it by the acreage for 17 Mar-a-Lago to do your valuation, correct? 18 A Correct. 19 Q If you go to page five, and this highlighting is in 20 the original document, is this where you get the acreage 21 figure for Mar-a-Lago that you use in your valuation? 22 A Yes. 23 Q Now, Mr. McConney, can you turn to the page just 24 before this one. There was an appraisal done of Mar-a-Lago in 25 2007, correct?		1 first on the basis of the Statute of Limitations. Second 2 with the appraisals, the fact that the appraisal exists, 3 the fact it was in the file, the fact he may have looked 4 at it, that certainly whatever his testimony is, it is, 5 but, we object to the appraisal to the extent it's being 6 offered for the truth of the matter asserted within it. 7 There are, obviously, issues in the appraisal, 8 limitations, whatnot. This wasn't prepared for a party 9 in this case. It wasn't prepared by a party in this 10 case. The appraisal company is not here. That would be 11 the extent of our objection to the extent it's being 12 offered for the truth of the matter asserted. 13 It's an out-of-court statement as well. 14 THE COURT: Maybe three-and-a-half-page memos. 15 MR. AMER: First of all, your Honor, the 16 statement that it wasn't prepared for the Trump 17 Organization is wrong. It's prepared for Mar-a-Lago 18 Club, LLC. 19 Q That's a Trump Organization, right, Mr. McConney? 20 A The -- 21 THE COURT: I'll ask the witness to answer. 22 THE WITNESS: I don't know who goes first. The 23 Mar-a-Lago Club LLC was owned by, ultimately, the 24 President, yes. 25 MR. SUAREZ: My client is-- it's not a defendant

J. McConney - Direct/Amer Page 773 1 in this case. It's not a party. 2 THE COURT: Okay. 3 MR. AMER: I'm going to do this quickly. We're 4 stopping when, your Honor? Just so I know. 5 THE COURT: Fifty. 6 Q If we look at page two, this report says in the 7 second sentence: "This report has been prepared for our 8 client, Mar-a-Lago Club, LLC. The intended use was to assist 9 and establish market value of a conservation of easement for 10 possible donation." You see that? 11 A Yes. 12 Q In the second paragraph, just going to go down to the 13 middle of the paragraph, it says: "The value of the property, 14 before considering the terms of the easement, is compared to 15 the value of the property after considering the easement. The 16 difference in value, if any, is the value of the easement." 17 It's an easement related to the development of 18 11 single family lots. Do you see that? 19 A Yes. 20 Q To your knowledge, was there ever any approval given 21 for the development of any single family lots on the 22 Mar-a-Lago property? 23 A I have no idea. 24 Q Why don't you turn to page 88. There's a section of 25 this appraisal entitled "Deed of Development Rights." "Deed	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 775 1 Q And the next page, the next three pages, are the deed 2 of development that was entered into in 2002, between Donald 3 Trump and the National Trust. Do you see that? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And on page two of this deed it says that Mr. Trump is 6 conveying his rights to develop the property for any usage other 7 than club usage. Do you see that? That's the paragraph above 8 the signature block. Next page, last line, above the, In 9 witness whereof. Do you see that? 10 A Yes. 11 Q You knew about this appraisal, and you had a copy of 12 it in your possession, prior to 2011; right? 13 A Correct. 14 Q And so you had a copy of this deed of development; 15 correct? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And notwithstanding the fact that you had, in your 18 possession, this deed, every year from 2011 through 2016 or '17, 19 you valued the property as if it could be sold for private 20 residence; right? 21 A That's correct. 22 Q Now, Mr. McConney, you testified that during the 23 period of time when you were the controller, Allen Weisselberg 24 was your boss; correct? 25 A Correct.
Page 774 1 of conservation easement and exhibits." 2 You see that? 3 A Yes. 4 (Continued on following page...) 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	J. McConney - Direct by Mr. Amer Page 776 1 Q And am I correct that during the period of time when 2 Allen Weisselberg was your boss, he asked you, on more than one 3 occasion, to assist him in committing fraud? Isn't that right? 4 A No. 5 Q You gave testimony in the criminal trial of the Trump 6 Organization brought by the District Attorney of New York; 7 correct? 8 A Yes. 9 Q Isn't it the case that you testified in that trial 10 that Mr. Weisselberg asked you, on more than one occasion, to 11 assist him in committing tax fraud? 12 A Yes. 13 Q And at his request you helped him cheat on his tax 14 returns; isn't that right? 15 A I had nothing to do preparing his tax returns. 16 MS. HABBA: Objection. I'm just going to ask 17 what the relevance of this is. 18 MR. AMER: I think it's highly relevant, your 19 Honor. 20 THE COURT: Overruled. 21 Q Am I correct that you assisted him in receiving 22 tax-free personal expenses, and then backed the value of those 23 expenses out of his salary? Right? 24 A That's correct. 25 Q And Mr. Weisselberg directed you to process a payroll

1 check to his wife for $6,000 so that she could qualify for 2 Social Security benefits, even though you knew she was not an 3 employee of the Trump Organization; correct? 4 A I'm not too sure the dollar amount, but the rest of 5 the statement is correct. 6 Q So, I'll rephrase it. 7 Mr. Weisselberg directed you to process a payroll 8 check to his wife so that she could qualify for Social Security 9 benefits, even though you knew she was not an employee of the 10 Trump Organization? 11 MR. FIELDS: Objection. Improper impeachment. 12 Relevance. 13 THE COURT: Overruled. 14 Q Mr. McConney, when you processed that payroll check 15 for Mr. Weisselberg's wife, you knew it was illegal; correct? 16 A I did not know it was illegal. 17 Q You did not? 18 A I did not. 19 Q Can we put up, from Mr. McConney's testimony during 20 the criminal trial, page 1407, line 5. 21 (Whereupon, a document was displayed.) 22 Q "Question: Did you testify on cross examination 23 that the purpose of this was to have her qualified for 24 Social Security? 25 "Answer: Yes. Something to do with Social		1 still on the stand, can we have an admonition that he not 2 consult with his attorneys about his testimony? 3 THE COURT: Yes. I so direct him. 4 MS. GREENFIELD: Just one scheduling question, 5 Mr. Amer. How much more, how much longer do you think you 6 are going to be with Mr. McConney before we move on to 7 Mr. Weisselberg on Tuesday? 8 MR. AMER: Maybe I wasn't clear, but I finished 9 my examination. 10 MS. GREENFIELD: Oh, sorry. I wasn't clear on 11 that. Sorry. 12 MR. AMER: It seemed like a good point to end. 13 THE COURT: So, we are starting just with 14 Weisselberg? 15 MS. FAHERTY: Unless they have cross. 16 MS. HABBA: Can we reserve the right -- I don't 17 think we do. Think we are going to let him go. 18 You know, I'm not going to cross. Just -- 19 THE COURT: So we are starting with Weisselberg? 20 MS. HABBA: We are starting Weisselberg on 21 Tuesday morning. 22 MS. FAHERTY: Tuesday morning, Weisselberg. 23 THE COURT: Tuesday at 10:00. 24 MR. SOLOMON: Mr. Weisselberg. 25 THE COURT: Have a great three-day weekend.

1 Security benefits. 2 "Question: Did you think it was legal to pay her 3 for a job she did not perform, so that she would qualify 4 for a benefit to which she was not entitled? 5 "Answer: No. 6 "Question: So you knew that that was illegal? 7 "Answer: Yes. Yes. You can say that. Yes. 8 Yes." 9 Four yeses. That was your sworn testimony during the 10 criminal trial; correct? 11 A Yes. 12 Q And even though you knew that these activities that 13 you engaged in at Mr. Weisselberg's request was illegal, you 14 continued to engage in them; isn't that right? 15 A Continued in what way? 16 Q You kept doing it; correct? 17 A Yes. 18 Q And you engaged in this illegal conduct because 19 Mr. Weisselberg was your boss, and you were afraid that if you 20 refused his requests, you would probably lose your job; right? 21 A Yes. 22 MR. AMER: That's all I have, your Honor? 23 THE COURT: I guess we'll break for the day. 24 Monday is a holiday, and we'll resume Tuesday at 10:00. 25 MR. AMER: Your Honor, because the witness is		1 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, Colleen Faherty, on 2 behalf of the People, and I can speak separately with 3 counsel just to double check, but there were some 4 corrections to the transcript that I do think require us to 5 put on the record, because I don't think we can back-date 6 the corrections to exhibits as they are contained in the 7 record, so I'll speak with counsel, and I can even just 8 submit it in a letter to the Court, if that works. 9 What is your preference? 10 THE COURT: Sure. My preference is whatever your 11 preference is. Whatever you can work out with the other 12 side. How long would it take if we did it right now? 13 MS. FAHERTY: I have an email right now that I 14 can read from that identifies the corrections, and then if 15 counsel has an issue, we can respond. 16 THE COURT: All right. Let's do it. 17 MS. FAHERTY: Okay. So at the trial transcript, 18 at page 119, lines 11 through 12, Plaintiff's Exhibit 75 19 was admitted, and is currently in the record as PX75. It 20 needs to be corrected to 785. 21 THE COURT: Any objection or -- 22 MS. FAHERTY: Typographic. 23 MR. SUAREZ: No. 24 MS. HABBA: No objection. 25 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you. The second is

1 Plaintiff's Exhibit 788 was admitted into evidence, but
2 identified on the record by Bates number as
3 Mazars-NYAG-00003154. The exhibit number needs to be
4 added. It is from the trial transcript at 157, line's 2
5 through 11, and so the exhibit number that we would add to 6 the record is Plaintiff's Exhibit 788.

7 MS. HABBA: No objection.

8 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, Ms. Habba.

9 The third issue, your Honor, is Plaintiff's
10 Exhibit 791 was admitted into evidence on October 3rd, but
11 the exhibit number is not in the record. Plaintiff's
12 Exhibit 791 needs to be added. That's at the trial
13 transcript at 191, lines 5 through 18. It was admitted
14 into evidence, but the number was not --

15 MS. HABBA: No objection.

16 MS. FAHERTY: Your Honor, I have two more,
17 apparently. Trial transcript at 471, 19 through 472, 11, 18 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1354 was admitted into evidence on 19 October 4, but the exhibit number was not on the record.
20 So, Plaintiff's Exhibit 1354 needs to be added, please.

21 MS. HABBA: No objection.

22 MS. FAHERTY: And the last one is at trial
23 transcript page 477, lines 10 through 11, Plaintiff's
24 Exhibit 1501 was admitted on October 4, but was identified
25 on the record, or in the record, as Plaintiff's

1 Exhibit 50101 and it just needs to be corrected to say
2 Plaintiff's Exhibit 1501.

3 MS. HABBA: No objection.

4 I just want to make the record clear and state
5 that obviously I have no objection to these ministerial 6 changes, but if we had any prior to objections to the 7 exhibits themselves, that they still stand.

8 THE COURT: Of course. No waiver.

9 MS. FAHERTY: Thank you, your Honor.
10 Okay. Now, have a good three-day weekend.
