Senior Court Reporters

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is now in session. The Honorable Judge rthur Engoron presiding. Make sure all cell phones are on silent. Laptops and cell phones will be permitted, but only to members of the press. There is absolutely no recording or photography of any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Hello, everybody. I don't run and up down these steps anymore. I don't have the energy to do so. I don't bow down because I'll probably trip and break my neck.

Okay. We're up to -- I understand there is five minutes or so of housekeeping on the record?

MR. KISE: Two minor things -- well, one minor and one a record item.

We did receive the ttorney General's filings as to Ivanka Trump last night. It was 11:30, so given --

THE COURT: Sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander as we say.

MR. KISE: So the 12 hours or so that we have given -- can we have until 2:15? Can we have until the end of the lunch break? I mean, we are on trial.

THE COURT: Chris, you ask so much, but okay.

MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge.

The second item -- I mean, if we can do it sooner we will. I just don't -- we're in process right now and it's -- the schedule is kind of cramped.

The second is I would just ask Your Honor -- and I'm just going to make a brief record and a brief plea for Your Honor to reconsider the sanction order of yesterday, two parts to that.

Number one, I will say I went back and looked at the entirety of the video and will say to the Court the premise is still not supported by any evidence. The only testimony in the record is that when the statement was made he meant Michael Cohen. The review of the statement itself, at least in my mind, and this is where I pointed out to the Court yesterday and I went back to make sure that my recollection was correct, that the review of the statement does not support the sanction either.

President Trump stated "very partisan judge" and quote, "With a person who is very partisan sitting alongside of him, perhaps even more partisan than he is."

nd the very next sentence after that is "so we are doing very well. He's a totally discredited witness."

Now, I'm not going to offer a grammar lesson here, but to me the -- the "he" in the immediately subsequent sentences is referring to the person in the immediately preceding sentence. That's how I certainly took it at the time.

In fact, if you watch the video, I'm standing there sort of stone faced. I think -- I'm not going to comment on that. I think -- and if I thought there was a violation of an order I probably would have reacted. But in all events, sanctions must be based on clear conduct. This wasn't clear conduct. The conduct is not -- is susceptible to an innocent explanation and for that reason I would ask the Court to reconsider.

Secondly, though, and I think as importantly, if not more importantly, accepting the Court's premise that it was in fact a reference to your law secretary, I think that raises even more problematic considerations for the Court to take into account. These are significant First mendment considerations when we're talking about the kind of statement that was made yesterday. gain, I don't accept -- and President Trump as you can tell from his testimony doesn't accept the premise that in fact he was referring to anyone other than Michael Cohen. But to the extent that the Court is saying that he does -- he was, then barring a defendant from commenting on his perception of fairness in a proceeding is simply, you know, based on his own observations is not, respectfully, constitutional.

I mean, these perceptions of the defendant are perceptions of what he is observing in open court. The case itself it's fair to say -- I mean, we can debate whether it's fully political or somewhat political, but in any event, it's political.

The ttorney General has made numerous public comments both prior to bringing the case and during the case about getting Trump and a political agenda here and the defendant is the leading candidate it seems even in New York now for the presidency of the United States. So he is entitled to comment even beyond what a normal event would be. I mean, the restrictions on political speech become much more -- much greater consideration. So the notion that he cannot comment on the fairness of a proceeding with even a general reference to what he sees and perceives legitimately as bias is constitutionally infirmed.

I mean, this violates the First mendment. His perception is based on him sitting here in the courtroom, watching your law secretary make comments to you, pass notes to you. He's -- he said to me numerous times when I'm arguing because when I'm arguing I'm focused on the witness or on yourself, but he's always said every time you get up to argue the law secretary is writing notes advocating. These are his perceptions.

You, Your Honor, may disagree with those perceptions, but these are his perceptions. He is a defendant in a proceeding where his business is being attacked and he's entitled to comment fairly on what he perceives in open court. Your law secretary's presence on the bench is open and public. That's a point that he has made and I have to echo anyone can observe that. So him commenting on that fact is well within the bounds of his First mendment rights. Him commenting on the bias that may result from that is well within his First mendment rights. He did not name anyone yesterday. gain, he was talking about Michael Cohen. But accepting the Court's premise there was no one named and all defendants in any proceeding have a right to comment on what they believe is a perceived lack of fairness or on some impediment to receiving a complete and full, fair trial.

We don't have a jury. You've heard him comment on that before. The system doesn't allow him the jury under the circumstances and so that's also problematic and he's free to comment on that as well. But limiting a defendant's right to comment appropriately on observations that are made in open court, you know, again, I will note that everyone can observe your law secretary on the bench and when the photographers that you have let in here come in they're photographing the bench. There is no attempt to shield that public fact from the photographers that the media is covering this on a daily basis, albeit a little less today, but on a daily basis.

So this is open, public and the defendant has a First mendment right to comment on what he believes and perceives I think legitimately from his perspective as a potential source of bias and limiting that runs afoul of the First mendment in general with respect to defendants, but also even more under the heightened scrutiny of restricting and placing prior restraints on political speech of a presidential candidate.

There was no reference to anyone by name, there was nothing more than an observation about proximity and bias. Both of those are -- fall well within the fair bounds of the First mendment comment, again, for any defendant but certainly for a defendant who is a candidate for President of the United States.

So, respectfully, Your Honor, I'd ask you to reconsider your order, one, because the President as he testified, the only evidence was referring to Michael Cohen; and two, because as stated the order is constitutionally infirmed.

To the extent, Your Honor intends to proceed then with the order and affirm the order, then I would ask respectfully that you reduce it to writing so that it can be appealed and I would also ask that at some point in the proceedings during a break that we be allowed since photographers have been in here to photograph the empty bench so the ppellate Court has a record of exactly what the setting is with where you're sitting, where Michael Cohen would have been sitting, where your law secretaries are sitting so that there is a full record there. I hope that that won't be necessary. I think that -- I know that President Trump understands your order and to the extent you want to reaffirm that order with him when he's back here that's certainly acceptable and appropriate to continue to admonish the defendant of the bound of the order, but I don't think that the order entered yesterday survives constitutional scrutiny, respectfully. Thank you, Judge.

MR. MER: Your Honor?

THE COURT: I was going to ask the plaintiff if any Counsel wants to say anything.

MR. KISE: One thing I would also point out before Mr. mer speaks. My understanding of the CDC guidelines and based on their representations is individuals who are returning after five days should be wearing masks. gain, no one seems to be concerned about this on the ttorney General's side and it was represented to us that was going to happen and apparently it was not.

MR. MER: That's not true. The CDC guidelines say if you test negative over a 48-hour period you no longer have to wear a mask and I'm within the guidelines, so I choose not to wear a mask.

THE COURT: Okay. nything else you want to say?

MR. MER: Yes. I want to address Mr. Kise's arguments he makes. Two points, Your Honor. The first point is request for you to reconsider the sanction order. I would just say I haven't heard anything that justifies granting reconsideration. Your Honor put Mr. Trump on the stand under oath. You heard his testimony, you assessed his credibility that's within your purview and you made your decision which I think should stand. Nothing new or different has been brought to this Court's attention as far as I could tell.

With respect to Mr. Kise's second argument, it seems to be a challenge to this Court's gag order. I would suggest, Your Honor, that there is absolutely nothing improper and everything appropriate with your gag order. The First mendment has limits, Your Honor, carefully narrow tailored the gag order to address the safety of your staff. You did not prevent Mr. Trump from attacking or criticizing you. You did not limit Mr. Trump from criticizing the ttorney General, at least one other judge. federal judge in Washington, D.C. has issued a similar order to protect her staff. That gag order is appropriate and based on the assumption of Mr. Kise's second argument, which is that Mr. Trump was referring to your law -- principal law clerk, he is asking that you vacate your gag order. We think there is no reason for you to do so and that gag order is perfectly appropriate.

nd I would say his second argument suggests that Mr. Trump doesn't believe that your gag order is valid in the first place and has bearing on then whether Mr. Trump took it seriously and who he was referring to during his press conference.

I will also say if you watch the video of his press conference he was asked multiple times by the press who he was referring to and he refused to answer that question, so that's all I have to say. Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, one, so I don't know where to begin. First of all, I'm not sure that the ttorney General has a dog in this hunt, but I'll leave that to you, number one.

Two, the ttorney General is oversimplifying the constitutional analysis, not surprisingly, because doing that favors their blurring of the lines position. So irrespective of whether we believe the gag order is constitutional facially, certainly there is a distinct difference between facial unconstitutionality and as applied unconstitutionality.

The argument that I'm presenting to Your Honor as a basis for reconsideration relates to irrespective of whether the gag order itself is constitutional. The question that hasn't been raised and need not be reached. The question is as applied, your application of that order under these circumstances, whether that's constitutional and my argument is that it is not because it is impinging upon the right of any defendant to comment on anything that happens in open court in full view of anyone, the media, anyone in this room that impacts the adjudication of the proceeding. It's not naming anyone, it's not a post on a website, it's not a disparaging comment.

nd setting aside whether those distinctions have constitutional meaning here we're talking about a very narrow and specific question as applied to the comments that were made assuming, again, that he was speaking about Mr. Cohen -- about your law secretary and not Mr. Cohen. nd, again, the ttorney General's observations about the video are a non-sequitur -- the other coverage. Because Mr. Trump was asked immediately before that were you talking about the judge's law clerk? Did you violate the order? He affirmatively said no. The fact that he didn't answer, like, 50 more questions about the same subject doesn't prevent anything other than he wasn't going to answer questions about the same subject. But here you've got a true significant, substantial impingement upon the constitutional rights of any defendant. nd here, the First mendment rights to political speech about observations, his observations of what's taking place in open court, whether one can agree or disagree, I think that he has a legitimate basis to raise these arguments because he is seeing as he's told me on a regular basis head nods, eye rolls, notes being passed, head shaking, you know, comments on arguments that I'm making. gain, usually when I'm making arguments, I'm doing what I'm doing now. I'm not paying attention to anybody else, so I don't see those things necessarily but the client does, the defendant does.

He's got every right to comment on -- just like if anything else were going on in the courtroom, any other public activity were taking place in the courtroom that might impact the adjudication of the proceeding. So he has a right to comment on that and as applied the order impinges upon that right. ny defendant has this right. nd, again, there's been no attempt to otherwise shield anyone from public notoriety. The cameras that come into the courtroom film everyone that's here and everyone's aware of that. There's been no attempt to shield anyone on the bench or anyone else in the room from those cameras.

So I'm not sure that there is a meaningful distinction between that sort of notoriety and a comment by a defendant that hey, I'm not getting a fair trial because I'm observing that something's going on that's going to prevent me from getting a fair trial. It's no different from him saying I'm not entitled to a jury under this statute and that's wrong. That's not fair, that's not right.

nd just because he's a candidate for President of the United States or, in fact, maybe because he's a candidate for President of the United States, that doesn't really alter anyone's ability to impinge on those rights. He has a right to make fair comment. nd again, I don't -- without getting into the issue of whether the overall gag order is constitutional or otherwise, as applied under this particular circumstance, it clearly -- I believe respectfully is not and that's the basis for the reconsideration. Thank you.

THE COURT: Briefly?

MR. MER: Very briefly, Your Honor. I know a facial challenge when I hear one. That was a facial challenge, but it doesn't matter whether it's a facial challenge or a challenge that's applied. We think it's appropriate under the circumstances and we don't see any reason why Your Honor should reconsider or change the sanction order or revisit the gag order. Thank you.

THE COURT: Well, I will speak from notes, but they're my notes.

Mr. Kise, you should have seen me in law school. I was a real defender of the First mendment. Justice is black and Douglas is absolutist, but as we all learn it has limits. nybody can run for president. I am going to protect my staff. There are basically about three people. I don't think that's impinging on somebody's First mendment rights to protect my staff.

I'll reconsider for -- because I haven't seen the video or even a full transcript, so let me see that and I think it may -- based on what was said, may work both ways.

In terms of -- Mr. Kise, I think a few times you said nobody was named. I certainly remember from law school or cases you can be liable for defamation even though you don't use the name of the person if it's clear to whom you're referring. Of course, that's an issue, but that's a factual issue and I'm the finder of fact.

I think I said this yesterday, but I've been thinking about it since. The irony here, the great irony is on the one hand you're saying Mr. Trump was not referring to my law clerk and then you make this whole big deal "but she is sitting right near me, you're passing notes, you're talking," which I said yesterday I have an absolute right to do. I think several members of defense team have said that's not how it's done, I haven't seen that. Well, this is how I do it and I think it's certainly within my discretion and my purview and I think it makes me a better judge that I listen to other opinions. But I'll stress again two years of a former Trump's term, I am the decider. Nobody knows everything, somebody has to decide.

I do not consider this trial political at all. I understand the points or arguments about history or who said what to me. It's not a political trial. It's an Executive Law -- Judiciary Law 6312, whatever the law is and that's how I'm conducting it, that's how I'm deciding it. Just what was said doesn't violate the law and maybe finally, Mr. Kise, you asked that I reduce this to a writing, etc. so you can appeal. You can appeal the transcript. I did and I believe it's uploaded. Just confirmed it's been uploaded.

MR. KISE: That's fine. I didn't see that. I was working on the 11:30 filing from the G, so I must have missed that.

THE COURT: It just happened, like, minutes before.

MR. KISE: ll right. Thank you.

THE COURT: nd I'll do this. I'll make you a deal. I'll reconsider the sanctions decision because I do want to see that the clip or the transcript. If you read the opinion and you'll see more reasons why I did what I did than I was able to enunciate yesterday.

MR. KISE: I'll certainly read it. Yes, Your Honor, absolutely.

THE COURT: nd that's it. I'll leave it at that. I'll reconsider, but I made the decision and unless I say otherwise, the decision stands.

Okay. That's it for now, yes?

MS. F HERTY: One more point, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Sure.
MS. F HERTY: s Counsel has already recognized we did have a filing that we e-mailed to the Court last night. However, we did not file it because in connection with that service of the papers there were certain exhibits that defendants have marked as confidential. In an abundance of caution, we didn't want to violate the protective order that is in place governing designated confidential materials.
We asked permission to be able to file those materials. I respectfully request if Your Honor can give us that direction to do so and I'll make sure that those documents are filed in the public docket immediately.
THE COURT: re you looking for permission or direction?
MR. KISE: Well, once we see what they are.
MS. F HERTY: You have them. We e-mailed them last night. You have them.
MR. KISE: I know, but I do get up at 5:30. Between the hours -- between the hours of 10:30 and 5:30, I sleep.
THE COURT: Of course. You can do whatever you want in that regard.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Sure. nd by the way, to correct the record of sorts, I do think defendants have often filed papers rather late, maybe not 11, but 9 o'clock.

MR. KISE: I'm still awake at 9:00.
MR. MER: I think you have a few other people who could read the papers too.
THE COURT: ll right. Let's just move on.
Would you like to call your next witness, plaintiff?
MR. MER: Yes, Your Honor.
People call Michael Holl to the stand.
MR. ROBERT: We were told that Ms. Dillon was the first witness this morning.
MR. MER: No.
MR. KISE: Ms. Dillon was supposed to be the witness yesterday afternoon and then she went home.
MS. F HERTY: Ms. Dillon is here. Mr. Holl will be a very quick witness. Based on the witness's schedules we are putting Mr. Holl first so that we could get him out. He is -- and if I were confusing in explaining this to Counsel, please accept my sincere apologies. Both witnesses will be on today. We just need to proceed with Mr. Holl first.
nd, again, my apologies to the Court, my apologies to Counsel. I thought I was clear, but if I was not, I'm sorry.
MR. ROBERT: Well, first of all, we were under the impression it was going to be Ms. Dillon followed by Mr. Flores' continuation.

MS. F HERTY: No.
MR. ROBERT: I even -- that's what we were told.
MS. GREENFIELD: Yesterday, with Ms. Habba, she indicated it was going to be Mr. Holl and then Ms. Dillon.
MS. F HERTY: It's on our list, as well.
MR. ROBERT: I understand. I was under a different assumption because I actually think that Mr. Flores was planning to be here this afternoon with his counsel because they were told to be here at 2:15, I think.
MS. F HERTY: Later in the afternoon.
MR. ROBERT: So you're going to have three witnesses?
MS. F HERTY: Mr. Holl will be a very brief witness.
MR. ROBERT: I understand. Is he going to appear on our case in chief if we want him? Is he a New York resident?
MS. F HERTY: I have no idea how you're proceeding with your case.
MR. MER: We did give you notice that we were calling him. Really?
MS. F HERTY: You are not always sandbagged, sir. I am apologetic that there was confusion. I'm trying to be clear with the schedule. We have stood up with the Court's principal law clerk, Ms. Greenfield, to discuss scheduling with defense counsel present. We have identified our list for Counsel and I'm sure you would agree that the past few days have been a bit chaotic. I have had no reasonable apprisal of the defendant's ability to calculate their own timing. So respectfully, this is the best we can do and this is how we are proceeding, sir.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, it's the judge's determination, not yours, Ms. Faherty, but I appreciate your apology and I accept it. I'm not accusing you of anything. I'm just talking as a matter of practice and procedure. If you're going to call a witness then we then have to cross examine that witness we are entitled to notice of it. We were told we were starting with Ms. Dillon.
MR. MER: We were just told that Ms. Habba was advised that we were calling Mr. Holl first this morning, so you did have notice.
THE COURT: That was my understanding was always it would be Holl, then Dillon.
MR. ROBERT: Okay. Well, then, I would ask that the ttorney General make all accommodations to have him reappear if we need him.
MR. MER: No. We're calling the witness, we gave him notice. If they want to cross examine him, their chance is after our direct, period.

THE COURT: If you need a little time after the direct.
MR. ROBERT: I just want to put my objection on the record. nd talk about sandbagging. Ms. Faherty started by an apology, now Mr. mer is yelling. I don't know what their game is, but we'll proceed and our objection is on the record.
THE COURT: Mr. mer, stop yelling.
MR. MER: I don't think I was, Your Honor.
THE COURT: If you weren't, then don't start.
ll right. I hope this has much to do about nothing. I believe you were notified through Ms. Habba.
Let's get Mr. Holl.
Get the witness, please.

MR. MER: Thank you, Your Honor.
DIRECT EX MIN TION
BY MR. MER:
Q Good afternoon, Mr. Holl. Can you, please, describe for us your educational background for us after high school?
I have a four years bachelor's degree of psychology from Eastern Connecticut State University.
Q nd when did you receive that degree?
In 1995.
Q re you currently employed?
I am, yes.
Q nd who is your employer?
HCC Global.
Q nd if we -- is that related to Tokio Marine?
It is.
Q nd if we refer to your employer as HCC, is that okay?

Yes.
Q nd how long have you worked at HCC?
little over 20 years.
Q Prior to starting at HCC, did you have any other employment in the insurance industry?
Yes.
Q Can you describe that for us, please?
Sure. I worked for the Hartford out of college for about six months and then I worked for Chubb for about five years.
Q In what area did you work for the Hartford and Chubb?
For Hartford, I was in the claims unit and then at Chubb, I was in the D&O claims unit.
Q What does D&O stand for?
Directors and officers liability.
Q Can you just describe for the Court very briefly what that line of insurance covers?
Sure. It covers exactly that. The directors on the board of companies and the officers if they're named in litigation.
Q nd is that a liability cover?
Yes.
Q Focusing on your time at HCC, what department or division did you start in?
I started in the claims department.

Q Just briefly, what were your responsibilities in the claim department?
So I would adjust D&O claims.
Q How long did you work in the claims department?
bout three years.
Q nd where did you move to next?
I moved to the public company D&O update writing unit.
Q Just contrast for us what underwriting means as opposed to claims.
Sure. So now we're looking at the business and determining whether we want to provide insurance cover. So you're underwriting the business and writing policies for companies.
Q nd again, I think you said you were in the D&O area of the underwriting group; is that right?
Yes.
Q nd what was your title when you moved into the underwriting group?
Underwriter.
Q nd have you retained that title to date?
I have.
Q nd you mentioned public company. So what does that entail?
So it means that they're publicly-traded and their financials on public record where you can go -- anyone in the public can go find them.

Q Did you in that group ever have occasion to underwrite private companies?
Yes.
Q nd under what circumstances would you as a member of the public company D&O group be underwriting a private company?
Generally, if it's a complex risk or a risk that most private company underwriters or units would just outright deny.
Q I'd like to focus only the period of 2015 to 2018. Could you tell us who you reported to during that period?
My manager was Tom Pettit.
Q Did you have any dotted line reporting relationship with anyone during that period of time?
Yes.
Q Who?
ndy Stone.
Q nd who was Mr. Stone?
ndy is the co-founder and president of HCC.
Q Do you have any authority level for underwriting?
No.
Q Who would you have to seek approval for?
THE COURT: I doubt they can hear you in the back. I think it's your voice is going.
MR. MER: It is.
Q Who would you have to seek approval for to underwrite?

M. HOLL - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2490

MR. KISE: I can't hear him.
THE COURT: We've got to do something here.
MR. MER: Short break.
THE COURT: Sure, short break.
MR. KISE: I don't think it's Mr. mer. We had this problem yesterday with people with very loud voices as you know.
THE COURT: I think it's half and half, his voice and the system.
MR. KISE: Maybe.
Q So who would you seek approval for for underwriting?
Who would I seek it from?
THE COURT: From, not for, from.
Q Yes, from. Yes.
I would seek it from either Tom Pettit or ndy Stone.
MR. MER: I'd like to hand the witness a document for identification with the number Plaintiff's Exhibit 587.
Q Do you recognize this as a series of e-mails to you and from you?
Yes, I do.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I ask this be admitted into evidence.
THE COURT: Hearing no objection, it's in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 587.)

M. HOLL - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2491

Q Let me ask you to look at page two and direct your attention to the e-mail actually begins on the bottom of page one and carries over to page two.
That's an e-mail from you to Mr. Stone, correct?
Yes.
Q nd at this point in time, is Mr. Stone -- what was his title again at this point in time?
President.
THE COURT: Mr. mer, I think the microphone might work much better now.
MS. GREENFIELD: He raised the volume if you want to try it.
Q You wrote that you got a call from John Vanasco at ON. Who is John Vanasco?
He is a broker for on.
Q What does that mean to be a broker?
So a broker would have a relationship with the companies that we're underwriting.
Q nd what role did you understand him to be playing in connection with the Trump Organization and the inquiry that he made?
I would have understood that he's the broker of record for the Trump Organization.
Q I'm intrigued by the next line, so I'll just ask you what did you mean, "a nice, juicy one"?

M. HOLL - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2492

I mean, Donald Trump had just been elected President of the United States, so it is not an opportunity you get to look at very often.
Q What do you recall learning about this potential business opportunity from your conversation with Mr. Vanasco?
So my understanding from him was that they -- upon the election, they were looking for additional D&O cover. D&O is written in towers and they wanted more capacity.
Q You write, "Currently, the primary 5 million is with Everest and those loss runs are clean." What did you mean by that?
Well, it means that Everest is the -- would be the only carrier on and is the primary carrier and that there are no losses. They haven't written any losses on any of the policies they've written for Trump Organization.
Q The e-mail mentions a few lines down, "It is a 2/17, but they are looking for midterm additional limits (5x5) now." If you could decipher that for us.
It is referring to the expiration date. So this e-mail is in December. They're -- they're not looking just for the coverage once it renews on February 17th. They're looking to put additional capacity in place now and the 5x5 would be $5 million in D&O limit over the five that Everest is providing.
Q nd that would be from the date of the -- in December until the renewal in February; is that right?

M. HOLL - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2493

Yes. From whenever they choose to bind that coverage up through that February 17th renewal date.
Q Your e-mail says, "Trump Organization Private Company," so you understood -- did you understand that the Trump Organization was a private company as opposed to a public company?
Yes, I did.
Q I think you explained to us that there were circumstances under which you in the public company group would get asked to look at a private company placement. Is this one of those circumstances?
Yes, it is.
Q When you -- when this opportunity came to you from on, did you believe you had the necessary background and experience to handle assessing this risk from an underwriting standpoint?
I think so.
Q If we scroll up to the e-mail above this one, which is from Mr. Stone to you, what did you understand Mr. Stone to be conveying to you in this reply e-mail?
He was basically giving approval to quote the additional capacity they were looking for and the pricing for that being $40,000 and that to put a prior impending litigation exclusion on it, "PP lit X."
Q So when he says, "I think a 5x5 on this until 2/17 is okay," what did you understand he was conveying to you in terms of what HCC's line would be for this stub period?

What our line would be? I don't know what you mean.
Q How much coverage was he conveying to you was okay for HCC to write?
Yeah. We were okay writing 5 million X of 5 million.
Q The very last line of Mr. Stone's e-mail says, "We will need to review financials for the renewal."
What did you understand him to mean by that?
That it's standard practice in any company we look at, that we would want to see the financials that we're not going to see them prior to the renewal, but that we're gonna want to see them as of that February 17th renewal date rolled around.
Q Can you explain to us why that was standard practice?
Why it's standard practice? I mean, every account that we underwrite, we generally try to get a look at the financials for those companies to understand what their financial situation is.
Q Is that relevant to assessing risk?
It is.
Q Why is that?
It's relevant because you're trying to find out if they're a successful company and if they're profitable and if they are in debt, that they can't manage and what their overall financial health is.

M. HOLL - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2495

Q If you could just explain to us how a company's financial health bears on the D&O risk that you're underwriting?
If they are a bankruptcy risk, there is a significant increase in the likelihood of a D&O claim if a company goes bankrupt.
Q Let's go to the top of the page, the top e-mail. You write to a woman named va P-R-Z-Y-C-H-O-D-Z-E-N. Who is that person?
va was my underwriting assistant at the time.
Q What are you asking va to do in this e-mail?
I'm asking her to draft a quote per the terms that ndy was okay with.
Q The last line of your e-mail says, "Subjectivities review of financials at renewal." What is a subjectivity?
It's a line item put on a quote that says in order to bind this, you have to abide by the agreed to, what we're putting in front of you.
Q Did HCC, in fact, offer the quote reflected in your e-mail?
Yes.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and hand the witness Exhibit 596.
Q Mr. Holl, do you recognize this document?
I do, yes.
Q What is this document?

M. HOLL - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2496

This is the quote per the terms that I spelled out to va.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I ask that this be admitted into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 596.)
Q Let's turn to the second page and you'll see as part of this quote, it says, "Contingencies review of financials at renewal."
Is a contingency different from a subjectivity or is it the same thing?
Not in this case, no.
Q So what were you indicating in the quote by this contingency?
Same thing, that if we were going to consider the renewal of the risk, we wanted to see financials.
Q Now, we've been discussing that this was a quote to get to the renewal. Did there come a point in time where the D&O coverage came up for renewal where you looked at whether you would quote on the renewal?
So I don't think that this extension was ever bound, so it wouldn't have been a renewal if this quote wasn't bound. It just would have been an inception of a new policy.
Q Do you recall participating in meetings -- in a meeting with other underwriters to look at whether you would participate at the annual renewal of this coverage?

Yes, I do.
MR. MER: I would like to mark as Exhibit 588 the next document. I'm told this was already in evidence. It was shown to Mr. Cohen and admitted during his testimony.
THE COURT: Okay.
Q Do you recognize this agenda, Mr. Holl, that is 588 in evidence?
Yes, I do.
Q You'll see, Mr. Holl, down at the bottom portion of the page, your name is listed as an attendee on behalf of the HCC at the 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m. time slot?
Yes.
Q Do you recall attending this meeting?
Yes, I do.
Q There are a number of individuals listed as attending on behalf of the Trump Organization; llen Weisselberg, Matt Calamari, Michael Cohen, Ron Lieberman, George Sorial, dam Rosen and Patrick Birney.
Do you have a recollection of meeting with any of those individuals during this D&O underwriting meeting on January 10th?
Yes.
Q Who do you recall meeting with?

M. HOLL - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2498

llen Weisselberg.
Q nd is it that you recall only meeting with him or is that -- or is it that he's the only one you specifically recall among these people?
He's the only one I specifically recall.
Q But there were other people on behalf of the Trump Organization at the meeting?
Yes, there were.
Q What did you understand Mr. Weisselberg's role to be at the meeting as you perceived it?
The chief financial officer of the Trump Organization.
Q Did you take notes at this meeting?
I did.
Q nd did you report to your superiors, Mr. Pettit and Mr. Stone, about what transpired at the meeting after the meeting ended?
Yes, I did.
MR. MER: I'd like to hand up to the witness Exhibit 2985.
Q This is an e-mail from you to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit. Do you recognize this e-mail?
Yes, I do.
Q nd what's the date of this e-mail?
January 10, 2017.
Q So -- and this was sent at 1:19 p.m., so is this

M. HOLL - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2499

basically immediately after you left the meeting?
It is. It is on my train ride back to Connecticut.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 2985.)
Q Was this e-mail prepared with the benefit of the notes you took during the meeting?
It is, yes.
Q nd what was the purpose for your preparing this e-mail to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit?
Just to provide all the information that I obtained during the meeting and provide some of my thoughts, insights or opinions.
Q nd do you consider this e-mail to be an accurate reflection of what transpired at the meeting?
Yes, I do.
Q Just focusing your attention on the paragraph that begins "saw very few financials," do you see that?
Yes.
Q You say in this portion, "Saw very few financials, but did see the balance sheet for year ends 2015. They assured me that the one being put together in a few weeks is better."
When you say, "they assured me, "who, if you recall, specifically provided you that assurance?

I don't recall who specifically provided me that assurance.
Q Was it somebody from the Trump Organization?
It was.
Q nd you go on to write, "They have total assets of 6.6 billion, cash of 192 million, total debt of 519 million." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Why did you choose to specifically call out the 192 million in cash figure in this e-mail to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit?
That's generally a meaningful, useful figure in financials for organizations we're looking at.
Q nd what did you consider that figure to reflect?
The amount of cash they had on the balance sheet.
Q Did you view that as a figure that was a measure of liquidity for the company?
Yes.
Q Directing your attention to the next paragraph, you say in the last sentence of this paragraph, "No material litigation or communications from anyone."
What did you intend to reflect in that comment?
It's standard practice in meetings with the management to ask them if they are aware of something that's not public; that is, litigation or notices or communications that could lead to litigation that would implicate the D&O policy.

Q What kind of notices or communications would you fit within that description?
I mean, any letter from a law firm making a threat or any notice from a regulatory agency, you know, advising them of concerns they may have, something like that.
Q Did you, in fact, inquire about those items during the underwriting meeting?
I believe -- if I didn't, somebody did. I think I did.
Q nd what are you reflecting in your comment, "no material litigation or communications from anyone"?
What am I reflecting?
Q Yes.
The response that I received to the inquiry.
Q Did you review -- did you view the response that there was no material litigation or communications from anyone in a positive or negative light from an underwriting perspective?
Positive.
Q In what way was it positive?
I mean, if they do have litigation or notices or letters that are of concern, that raises the risk of liability to the D&O policy.
Q nd based on this comment, you were told that there were -- there was no material litigation or communications from anyone; is that right?

Yes.
Q So the facts that you --
MR. KISE: Your Honor, I just want to -- maybe this will be connected up, but I just want to raise a relevance objection to this line of questioning. I mean, I've watched it, so I let --
THE COURT: Overruled. I see relevance.
MR. KISE: Okay.
MR. MER: Thank you, Your Honor.
Q We are looking now at an e-mail that has certain factor information that you are sending to about this underwriting meeting to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit who are your superiors and who have authority to issue the policy. Why were you conveying the facts that you are conveying to them?
So they can start considering whether it's a risk that we want to provide directors and officers cover for.
Q Did you consider the facts that you were putting into your e-mail to be relevant to their assessment?
Yes.
Q Did HCC, in fact, put in a quote for this coverage following your participation in this underwriting meeting?
Yes, we did.
MR. MER: I'd like to hand the witness

M. HOLL - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2503

Exhibit 592.
Q Mr. Holl, this is a letter you are sending to Mr. Vanasco on January 31, 2017. Do you recognize this document?
Yes, I do.
Q nd what is this?
This is a primary quote for D&O cover for what's now being referred to as the Donald Trump Revocable Trust.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I move this document into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
MR. KISE: Same objection, Your Honor, on relevance which I haven't explained. I know you overruled it, but I haven't explained it, but that's okay.
THE COURT: You don't think it's relevant. I see the relevance, so I don't know that there is a point in debating it.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 592.)
Q Mr. Holl, does this reflect the terms that you were authorized to quote for the cover from Mr. Stone?
Yes.
Q nd what layer of coverage is HCC quoting?
The primary letter.
Q nd what is the premium being proposed for this quote?
$295,000.

M. HOLL - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2504

Q Did the Trump Organization or the trust accept this proposal and bind coverage?
Yes, they did.
Q Now, this indicates that the coverage was going to expire on January 30, 2018; is that right?
Yes.
Q Did it, in fact, come up for renewal in January of 2018?
Yes.
MR. MER: I'm going to hand the witness Exhibit 595.
Q Mr. Holl, is this a letter you sent to Mr. Vanasco on February 9, 2018?
Yes.
Q Does this relate to the renewal of the policy quote that we were just looking at?
Yes, it does.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I move this into evidence.
MR. KISE: Same objection.
THE COURT: Same ruling. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 595.)
Q Just to clarify one thing, Mr. Holl, because we had looked at the expiration date being January 30, 2018. If you look at the first paragraph, it says, "With regard to the above-referenced account, Tokio Marine HCC D&O Group is pleased to bind a 12-month extension of the current aggregate of limited liability on behalf of U.S. Specialty Insurance Company from February 10, 2018 to February 10, 2019."

Was there a short extension of the policy to get from January 30th to February 10th?

Yes, there was.

Q So this is the quote to extend for a 12-month period the policy that had been bound in the prior year?

Yes, it is.

Q nd what is the premium amount being proposed for this 12-month renewal?

295,000.

Q So is that at the same as the expiring premium?

Correct, yes.

Q Did the Trust accept the renewal quote?

Yes, they did.

Q I want to ask you about the renewal for the following year in 2019.

Do you recall if HCC quoted a renewal for the following 12-month period?

Yes.

Q nd did they?

Did we quote it, HCC, yes, we did.

MR. MER: Let me show the witness Exhibit 2989.

Q Mr. Holl, do you recognize this e-mail from you to va?

Yes, I do.

Q nd does this relate to a renewal quote for 2019 to 2020?

Yes, it does.

MR. MER: Yes, I move this exhibit into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 2989 in evidence.)

MR. KISE: Same objection, relevance.

Q Now, we had looked at the prior two renewal quotes, which were for $295,000 for the annual premium.

This renewal, what is the proposed premium here?

1.6 million.

Q nd can you explain to us why the premium quote is being increased from $295,000 to 1.6 million?

Because our assessment of the risk changed and we believed that the risk was significantly more risky than our initial assessments.

Q nd it looks like there is an alternative option being proposed which was to remove entity cover and then the premium would be 950,000; is that right?

Yes.

Q Did the Trump Organization or the Trust renew the policy for this increased premium, either option?

No, they did not.

MR. MER: That's all I have, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. ny cross examination?

MR. FIELDS: Yes, Your Honor.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, can we have a short break as you suggested?

THE COURT: Sure. bout how long you're thinking?

MR. KISE: Ten minutes.

THE COURT: Sure.

(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, have you had -- is there a reasonable chance under the circumstances to review the direct testimony and prepare for cross examination?

MR. KISE: I would say we're prepared to proceed now with some cross examination. I don't know I would call it reasonable under the circumstances, but we are prepared and we will make every effort to not have to call the witness back. I don't know that that will be necessary, but I don't want to waive any rights on behalf of my clients or anyone else for that matter, but we are going to proceed and try and move on with it.

MR. MER: I'm just going to note for the record we advised Ms. Habba the order of the witnesses, so we think by providing notice to Ms. Habba, we provided notice to all defendants.

MR. KISE: I'm not sure what he's arguing about. I just said -- but in the event that something comes up, documents or things that we aren't aware of, we'll present that to the Court. But I certainly think as we have done with all the witnesses we're entitled to call them in our case if we need to. But we're not going to burden anyone with a reappearance. We've all been here far too long.

M. Holl - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2509

THE COURT: Okay. I appreciate that you are willing to go forward at this point reserving whatever rights. I have -- well, let me ask one other question. I know you're doing what we're just referring to. Did you get a chance to see the written decision I wrote this morning?
MR. KISE: I have not, Your Honor, but I will on the next break. I will.
THE COURT: Might ruin your lunch.
MR. KISE: No, no.
THE COURT: But in any event, I have reconsidered the $10,000 penalty and I am adhering to that decision. I have looked at the video of what Mr. Trump said outside and of course I've taken into consideration your argument that he must have been referring to Michael Cohen because that's what he talked about. There was a clear, brief, but clear transition. I think he might have an ooh, ahhh, whatever, but he said "we are doing very well, it's going well."
He's a -- that was, to me, a clear transition from one person to another and I think the original -- the person originally referred to is very clear and that's the fact I found and that's the penalty I levied, so let's move ahead.
Okay. Let's get the witness back.
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2510

THE COURT: Okay.
MR. FIELDS: With the Court's permission, may I examine the witness? It should be exceedingly brief.
THE COURT: bsolutely.
CROSS EX MIN TION
BY MR. FIELDS:
Q Good morning, Mr. Holl. I represent -- I'm going to ask you a couple questions, if that's okay?
Yes, okay.
Q I notice you're wearing an merican flag pin and I like that, so thank you.
Mr. Holl, you were shown Plaintiff's Exhibit 587 by Counsel for the government. s you'll recall, I think there was a comment there where you said, "a nice, juicy one." Do you generally recall that?
Yes.
Q Would it be fair to say in December 2016 you were excited about the prospect of insuring the Trump Organization or various of its subsidiaries?
Yes.
Q nd that's because there was -- at that point Donald Trump had just been elected president and was the president-elect; correct?
Correct.
Q nd you believed that that could help your personal business. Is that fair?

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2511

MR. MER: Objection to "personal business."
Q You originate business at HCC, Mr. Holl?
Yes.
Q nd did -- Donald Trump being elected president and being a potential client of yours, did you believe that that could help your business?
No.
Q You did not believe that doing business with the president-elect of the United States was going to help your personal business at HCC?
No.
Q So you did not plan to tell anybody that you were insuring the president-elect's trust. Is that fair?
That's fair. We don't discuss who our insureds are.
Q But nevertheless you were excited?
Yes.
Q t the time that you -- withdrawn.
Just so that I'm clear, there were several policies that you discussed with Mr. mer and I want to make sure I understand them all.
There was the initial policy that was to sit above the adverse policy that was bound in approximately December of 2016?
MR. MER: I'm going to object. I think the witness's testimony was he didn't think that was bound.

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2512

THE COURT: You can ask.
Q Was the December 6, 2016 policy bound?
I don't believe that extension was -- or that 5X5 was bound.
Q Okay. So then would it be fair to say then that the first policy that HCC bound under your direction was the January 2017 D&O policy?
MR. MER: Objection to "under your direction."
THE COURT: Sustained. His testimony was somewhat different.
MR. FIELDS: Okay.
THE COURT: "Direction" is the wrong word.
Q Open-ended question.
While you were working at HCC what was the first policy that you bound for the Trump Trust?
Yes.
MR. MER: Can I just object to "bound?"
THE COURT: Yes, objection sustained.
Q Sir, do you work at HCC?
Yes, I do.
Q Did you work at HCC in January of 2017?
Yes.
Q Okay, great.
So now my question is what was the first policy at HCC while you were working there found for the Trump Trust?

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2513

Yes, that January 30th policy.
Q ll right.
The primary policy.
Q The January 30, 2017 policy?
Correct.
Q nd then there was a renewal of that in January -- approximately January 30th of 2018. Is that fair?
So technically, it didn't renew. It got extended, so it came up for renewal and it was then extended instead.
Q Okay. nd then in 2019 there was no renewal or extension; correct?
Correct.
Q So then would you agree that there were two relevant policies while you were working at HCC that you discussed with Mr. mer that were actually bound?
There was only one policy that was bound. There was one bound policy number with an extension.
Q nd one of them was in 2017 and it was extended in 2018?
Correct, same policy number.
Q Okay. In December of 2016, when you were first approached by ON with the possibility of working -- binding -- or HCC binding coverage for the Trump Trust, you were aware that the Trump Organization, I'll use that term broadly, was concerned about potential exposure now that Donald Trump had been elected president; correct?

Correct.
Q So you were aware that was a reason why they were seeking additional coverage; correct?
I was aware that they thought that they would be a higher -- they would have higher exposure and that's why they were seeking additional cover.
Q nd the first time that you reviewed any financials for the Trump Organization was in January of 2019?
Yes.
Q nd that was the underwriting meeting that you discussed with Counsel for the government, believe it was January 10th of 2017?
I think so, yes.
MR. FIELDS: Can we pull up Plaintiff's 588, please? nd if we can enlarge the list of attendees under the Trump Organization?
Q Just to make sure I understand your testimony, I believe you testified that you generally recall llen Weisselberg being there, but you don't have a clear recollection about some of the other individuals that are listed there?
Yes, yes.
Q Okay. nd I believe your testimony was that there was a balance sheet that you reviewed; is that correct?
That's correct.

M. Holl - Plaintiff - cross (Fields) Page 2515

Q nd I think -- I believe the balance sheet had $192 million in cash listed. Is that fair?
That's correct.
Q The balance sheet that you reviewed, was it a piece of paper, was it a PDF, an Excel spreadsheet? What did it look like?
It was a piece of paper.
Q nd do you recall where the piece of paper was while you were in the room; on the table, somebody hand it to you?
It was handed around amongst the underwriters.
Q Do you recall who handed it to you?
I don't recall who handed it to me.
Q nd would it be fair to say, Mr. Holl, that the -- withdrawn.
re you familiar with what a retention is in an insurance policy?
Yes, I am.
Q nd for the uninitiated, what is a retention generally?
It's a deductible.
Q It works similarly to a deductible in an insurance -- health insurance policy, for instance?
It's what the insured's responsible for before the policy would start.
Q nd would you agree with me that the purpose of an insurance underwriter's review of financials of a private company seeking D&O coverage is to ensure that the potential insured has the financial wherewithal to cover the retention?

Yes.
Q nd in this case I believe your testimony was that the retention was approximately $2.5 million throughout the life of these -- the policy and the extension?
Yes.
Q Okay. So just so I'm clear as an underwriter, when you went to Trump Tower that day to review the financials, would you agree with me that your primary concern was to ensure that the Trump Organization could meet its requirements to pay the retention if needed?
Yes. nd that they were not a bankruptcy risk.
Q Fair. But in this case as you just said the retention was $2.5 million; correct?
Correct.
Q nd so, for instance, if -- withdrawn.
nd there was $192 million in cash on the balance sheet that you saw; correct?
Yes.
Q So if the Trump Organization had identified, let's say, $25 million in cash on the balance sheet, ten times the retention, you wouldn't have been concerned; correct?
MR. MER: Objection. Calls for speculation.
THE COURT: Overruled.

So can you repeat that? Sorry.
MR. FIELDS: May I have a read back, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Read back, please.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
So I think it would depend on the debt as well, right, and whether they had -- so it's not as simple as a yes or no. If they had debt on the balance sheet coming due and that debt amount was larger than the cash that they had on the balance sheet, then yes, but correct. If they had 25 million and a two and a half million dollar retention there would be enough on the balance sheet to cover their retention.
Q Were you at all concerned with any of the debt you saw on the balance sheet that day?
I was not.
Q Did you ask to see any bank statements, Mr. Holl?
Bank statements, no.
Q nd just to be clear, you were binding a policy on behalf of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust; correct?
MR. MER: Objection, Your Honor. It lacks foundation. This witness didn't bind anything. He had no underwriting authority.
THE COURT: You want to just -- withdrawn.
Q Did HCC bind a D&O policy on behalf of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust on or about January 30th of 2017?

Yes.
Q nd you were involved in that process; correct?
I was.
MR. FIELDS: ll right. I'm going to show the witness what's been premarked as Plaintiff's 597.
nd, Your Honor, I don't intend to really examine the witness much about the document. I apologize. I don't have extra copies, but it was a little bit short trying to print them.
THE COURT: I'm sure that will work.
Q Mr. Holl, I'll just ask you, if you could, to take a look at this document. Let me know if you recognize it.
THE COURT: Do you recognize it?
THE WITNESS: Was there a question?
Q Do you recognize the document?
Yes.
Q What is it?
That is the policy that we wrote on January 30, 2017.
Q nd just to be clear, did you -- were you able to page through some of the documents to ensure that it's -- appears to be the entire policy that HCC wrote in 2017?
It appears to be.
Q Fair enough.
MR. FIELDS: Move to admit Plaintiff's 597.

MR. MER: No objection.
THE COURT: It's in evidence.
Q Mr. Holl, you were asked by Counsel for the government about some representations that were made during the underwriting meeting at Trump Tower in 2017 regarding -- and I use the wrong terminology, but prior pending litigation or notices of any potential claims. Do you generally recall that?
Yes.
Q nd I believe your testimony was -- and please correct me if I'm wrong -- that there was a disclosure to you that there was no potential claims known to somebody that told you that statement. Is that an accurate representation of your testimony?
Yes.
Q nd I believe you also testified that you're not sure if you asked, but somebody else may have asked that question?
Correct.
Q nd do you recall who it is that made that statement to you -- withdrawn.
Do you recall who made the statement about no known claims?
I don't recall.
MR. MER: Your Honor, just so the record is clear that does mischaracterize the testimony. There was no material litigation and no communications from anyone.

THE COURT: re you relying on the specific language? Is that what you're looking to correct?
MR. MER: Yes, as opposed to no known claims that was never part of the testimony or the document.
THE COURT: Right.
MR. FIELDS: Your Honor, I apologize. I had a couple of minutes to prepare this, so please forgive me.
THE COURT: ll right. The record should be considered changed to reflect the exact wording.
MR. FIELDS: One moment, please.
THE COURT: Sure.
MR. FIELDS: Thank you. I want to make sure I use the right terminology.
Q So with regard to the statement that there was no material litigation or communication from anyone, if at some point you, HCC, had determined that there was information that was not known to them that should have been made to them or disclosed to them, isn't it true that HCC has the ability to rescind the policy?
I would have to look at the specific policy to see if we had the ability to rescind or not.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt that this policy does not contain a right to rescind by the insurer?
I don't know what -- I don't know one way or the other. Sometimes we have language on there that says that the insurer has no right to rescind.

Q But be that as it may, if there is a right to rescind, the insurer has the right to rescind the policy; correct?
Correct.
MR. MER: Object to the form of the question.
MR. FIELDS: It's cross examination, but it's okay.
THE COURT: Overruled.
Q In addition, the insurer maintains the right to disclaim coverage as well; correct?
Meaning deny coverage for something submitted?
Q Sure.
Yes.
Q Do you know if this policy contains a right for the insurer to deny coverage if they did not believe that it was covered under the policy?
I mean, it doesn't specifically contain language that says that. It's that if the language doesn't provide coverage, it doesn't provide coverage.
Q Did you ever meet with Donald J. Trump by any chance, Mr. Holl?
No, I did not.
Q ll right. nd at some point you determined that you had made a mistake and underpriced the risk in approximately 2019; correct?
I wouldn't say we made a mistake. I'd just say that that newest quote number reflected what we perceived to be the going-forward risk.

Q Did you underprice the risk?
I don't know how to answer that.
MR. FIELDS: Let's pull up --
Q Mr. Holl, you were interviewed by the ttorney General's Office in February of 2022; correct?
Okay. I was.
Q Were you?
Yes.
MR. FIELDS: ll right. Let's pull up page 145, line six. We'll start at line two.
Q ll right. The question is:
" nd what was the basis for increasing the premium for the same extension period to such a significant extent?
" NSWER: It was clear to us that we had underpriced this risk and that there was significant exposure to us."
Is that what you answered in February of 2022?
MR. MER: Can we read the whole answer so we have a context?
THE COURT: Well, if you think it matters, yes; if you're just saying it because it's only part of the answer, no.
MR. MER: Well, I think it does matter.

MR. KISE: On redirect they can read the rest of the answer.
MR. MER: I think when you read the question you should read the whole question and the whole answer.
MR. KISE: That would be nice if you had done that the entirety of this case, but you haven't.
THE COURT: Sometimes yes, sometimes no.
In an abundance of caution, I'll ask that the entire answer be read back.
Q ll right, beginning at line six --
MR. FIELDS: I'll withdraw the question, Your Honor.
Transcript continues on the following page....

THE COURT: It's a lot of reading.
MR. KISE: Exactly. It is a lot of reading.
MR. FIELDS: Thank you. That's all, Your Honor.
THE COURT: ny re-direct?
MR. MER: I do. I just want to make sure is that side done?
MR. ROBERT: Subject to our reservation of calling the witness back on our case.
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. MER: I just have a few questions. So if I could do it from here, Your Honor, if that's all right.
THE COURT: Of course.
RE-CROSS EX MIN TION
BY MR. MER:
Q I want to ask you about Mr. Fields's questions concerning the hypothetical that instead of telling you it was 192 million in cash, they instead had told you it was 25 million in cash or ten times the retention. Do you recall those questions?
I do.
Q Okay. Now, the 192 cash number is the number that you forwarded on to Mr. Stone and Mr. Pettit, correct?
Yes.
Q nd at the time, you didn't have any authority to underwrite the business; is that right?

MR. KISE: Objection; leading.
MR. MER: I think it is summarizing testimony he already --
MR. KISE: Leading question.
THE COURT: Well, it might be simpler if you just ask it. lthough, it might still be leading, but I will allow it if you just ask it in the abstract.
MR. MER: I think he already testified to it, so I'm just trying to bring us back.
Q Did you have authority to underwrite this risk at that point in time yourself? Did you have underwriting authority?
I don't have under -- I don't have authority, correct.
Q nd if they had told you it was 25 million in cash, would that have been the number that you conveyed as opposed to 192 million in cash?
Yes.
Q nd as you sit here today, you don't know what they would have done in response to getting that different dollar figure, do you?
That's fair, yes.
MR. MER: That's all I have, Your Honor.
THE COURT: ny re-cross?
MR. KISE: Not at this time subject to the reservation, no. Thank you.
THE COURT: Okay. Let's take a break until noon and the witness is excused. Thank you. We will have Ms. Dillon, right?

MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Break until noon and then we will have Ms. Dillon.
(Witness excused.)
(Whereupon, a recess was taken.)
THE OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Be seated and come to order.
THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, would you like to call your next witness?
MR. SOLOMON: I would, Your Honor. Thank you. The People call Sheri Dillon.
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
S H E R I D I L L O N, a witness called by the Plaintiff, after having been first duly sworn by the Clerk of the Court, took the witness stand and testified as follows:
THE COURT OFFICER: Please state your name and either home or business address on the record.
THE WITNESS: Sheri Dillon. 1111 Pennsylvania venue, N.W. Washington, DC. Zip code 20004.
THE COURT: Please proceed.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.

Following that, I left for a year and went to Vinson & Elkins. nd after that, I rejoined my prior colleagues from Bingham who had been merged in Morgan Lewis and that was in 2015.
Q You said you worked at Vinson & Elkins for one year. So that was roughly 2014 to 2015.
That would be correct and it is roughly one year.
Q nd when were you at Bingham?

That would be roughly 2009 to 2014 is the best of my recollection. I'm not quite sure on those dates.
Q pproximate dates are okay. Thank you.
When you were at Bingham, were you a partner?
I began my career at Bingham, yes, I would have been a partner.
Q Were you in a particular group at Bingham?

Q nd was the Trump Organization your client?

It was a firm client.

Q Do you currently do work for the Trump Organization?
No.
Q When did you cease doing work for the Trump Organization?
That would have been 2020, some point in 2020.
Q Do you recall when in 2020?
I do not. It would have been in the spring or early summer.
Q Was there some precipitating event that caused you to cease doing work for the Trump Organization?
No, not any one event.
Q Were there several events that caused you to cease doing work for the Trump Organization?

There just came a time when it was mutually agreed with the client that it was no longer in their best interest for me to be representing the Trump Organization.
Q Keeping this at a high level, can you describe the type of work you've done for the Trump Organization over the years?
Predominantly providing tax advice and advice related to the tax advice as well as other projects from time to time as requested by my client.
Q What would those other projects be?
ssisting reviewing contracts from time to time, helping with forming entities and things of that nature.
Q Did you ever do any work responding to government investigations?

Q Did you work on what's known as the OGE form the Office of Government Ethics form that's filed?
I did provide legal advice with respect to OGE form 278.
Q You mentioned you provided tax advice. What were -- again, at a high level. I'm not asking for specific information, but at a high level, what was the -- what were the general areas of tax advice that you provided to the Trump Organization?

The general high areas of tax advice would be related to one, assisting with IRS examinations, working through that process as well as for va right of Trump entities as well as assisting with tax planning, looking at the tax aspects of various transactions as they came along over the years.
Q Would tax planning include providing advice with respect to donations of potential easements?
Donations of potential easements would be I would provide tax advice with respect to donations, legal advice relating to tax relating to conservation easement.
THE COURT: Potential conservation easement, potential transactions?
THE WITNESS: Yes, both potential and lots of potential transactions across the board as well as actual transactions that occurred.
Q In connection with either potential or actual donations of conservation easements, would you interact with third-party professionals such as appraisers?
I would interact with lots of _ professionals, appraisers, environmentalists, a whole -- engineers, architects, all sorts of folks, yes.
Q During your time providing services to the Trump Organization, with whom did you interact?

Is there a specific period you're looking for?
Q Let's put the period 2011 to present. Withdrawn. Excuse me. Withdrawn, please.
Let's put the period as 2011 to when you ceased providing services in or about 2020.
I worked with a lot of people at the Trump Organization. It would have been -- gosh. Jason Greenblatt, Jaclyn Maranes, lan Garten. I'm sorry. I'm going through departments. s well as Jeff McConney, llen Weisselberg, Mark Hawthorn. Gosh. Just a host of people, a variety right of folks.
Q Let's throw out some names to see if we can jog your memory.
Sure.
Q Donald Trump?
Sr. or --
Q Sr. When I refer to Donald Trump today, I will be referring to Sr. If I am referring to Jr., I will add Jr., so the record is clear.
That would be very helpful. Thank you.
Q Did you interact with Donald J. Trump between the 2011 through the termination of the relationship?
To some degree, yes.
Q What do you mean by "to some degree?"

S. DILLON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2533

I did interact, but it wasn't -- he was pretty high on the food chain. That's not who I spent most of my time with.
Q Understood. Not as often as some of the other people you just mentioned?
Yes.
Q Fair enough. Donald Trump Jr.?
From time to time.
Q Eric Trump?
Yes, from time to time on certain projects.
Q More often than you interacted with Donald J. Trump?
It would depend on the project.
Q Ivanka Trump?
Yes.
Q Patrick Birney?
Yes.
Q Jill Martin?
Yes.
Q nyone else you can think of now that I've given you a couple of names from various departments?
There are others that were in the general counsel's office and I'm sorry. I'm just not remembering their names right now. dam, his last name I'm not remembering. David Cohen and I know there are others that -- yeah. If you have others to ask me about -- I'm sorry. It has been a while.
Q I appreciate the effort to try to remember. We will focus on some documents and that may refresh your recollection later on.

Great.
Q Sure.
Do you recall working on donations or potential donations of conservation easements relating to TNGCL also known as Trump National Golf Club L ?
Yes.
Q Do you recall working on a potential donation of a conservation easement at Briarcliff Development?
Yes.
Q That's the Briarcliff Golf Course located in Westchester County in New York, correct?
That's my understanding.
Q nd do you recall working on a potential donation of a conservation easement relating to Seven Springs?
Yes.
Q nd Seven Springs, that's the property located in Westchester in the Towns of Bedford, New Castle and North Castle, correct?
That is correct.
Q So let's focus on those and if there are differences between them, I'd like you to point it out.
When you worked on those potential donations, what did that work entail?

That work would entail coming to an understanding of the property. It would come to an understanding most importantly the key element when thinking about a conservation easement is that an easement is something that is going to be granted in perpetuity and my perspective, to back up for a second, is from a tax law perspective. So I want to be clear on that.
So the tax law requires that it be granted and most easements are granted in perpetuity and perpetuity means forever. s we all know from our property class back in law, perpetuities, so you go back to that and so when you're granting an easement, it is a big decision. nd a conservation easement, what that means is you retain the land and you put in conservation easement on it which is restricting the uses of the land. nd so there's a lot of different decisions that have to be made with that and that's where I would spend a lot of my time in coming to understand the property, coming to understand what you want to do with it or not do with it, and it would be the choices of which parts of the property do you want to restrict and which parts do you not want to restrict and what will those restrictions be. nd then once you determine that, I would work with the client to help them implement that, working with the environmentalists. There's all kinds of environmental reports that have to be done, baseline documentation, working on the conservation easement deed, that makes the grant of the easement, working with the appraisers to determine the value of the easement working with engineers to some degree.

lthough, it was generally the other professionals who would work with the engineers, but it was just that whole collection of people and every piece of property is unique, so these are sort of some of the common elements sometimes there would be others who needed to be involved depending on what the project was and what the land looks like. But it would also be making sure that all of these things are laid out in the tax code and all of these various requirements, what does baseline documentation of the environmental aspects of the property, what does that mean, what's required for that, what's required for the appraisal. It needs to have qualified appraisers and a qualified appraisal. So there's all kinds of hosts of legal requirements that need to be satisfied. So that's the work I would do.
Q I think it was implied in your answer, but so the record is clear, you mentioned legal requirements. Were these requirements, to your understanding, to enable the donor obtain a tax deduction for the value of a donation?
Some of them were. Some of them were requirements that are other sorts of requirements. gain, we would want to have a deed that would be respected, that could be recorded. That would be legal requirements outside of the tax code, but a lot of them are legal requirements that are set forth in the tax codes, so that Congress provided incentives encouraging folks to conserve land. Restrict your rights. Don't build on it. Let's keep public parks. Let's keep rivers. Let's keep beautiful forests. Let's keep all of that. nd to do that, they did -- they created an incentive, a charitable deduction for tax purposes and that -- so in order to secure the deduction, you would have to follow a lot of very stringent and lengthy legal requirements that are set out in the tax code in a host of treasury regulations. I think there's probably 50 pages of these regulations, IRS guidance that even further explains the code and the regulations and a huge body of case law that's developed on conservation easements as well as other donations of charitable property.

Q You mentioned in an earlier answer, an appraisal. I think the term that I've seen is a qualified appraisal. Have you seen that term?

Yes.

Q qualified appraisal, does that have a different meaning to you than an appraisal?

qualified appraisal is an appraisal that is described in the tax code and in order to secure it, a deduction, the appraisal that you have has to meet the requirements of a qualified appraisal.

Q nd the appraisal is an appraisal of the value of the easement that is being donated; is that correct?

It is the value of what you have given up in your easement, the economic value of the rights and restrictions that you have given up.

Q nd you mentioned that you've worked on several of these. Do you know how that value is determined by an appraiser?

There are different methods for determining that value. The treasury regulations lay out the methods that may be used. The primary method, I think my recollection is -- I don't have the regs in front of me right now, but I believe the principal method is to find sales of comparable conservation easements. Those rarely exist, so the treasury regulations have an alternative way to measure the value of a conservation easement and that is called the before and after method.

Q nd in the before and after method, does the appraiser determine the value of the property before placement of the easement, the value of the property after the placement of the easement, subtract the latter from the former to come up with that value of the easement itself?

So, yes, the appraiser, if I understood this, first determines --

Q If my question wasn't clear, please tell me and explain it in your own words.

The appraiser values the entire property unrestricted meaning with no restriction.

THE COURT: You left out the word "first" which was included in your first answer.

THE WITNESS: I will try to speak slower. So yeah, we first start with the entire property. You value that. So in my example, we'll say that's worth a hundred. You then value the property after the restrictions have been placed on, taking into the characteristics of the property as it would then exist with the conservation easement. So the after-value would generally be less.

So let's say started off of 100. Your after-value is ten. The appraiser then would say, well, the easement is the difference between the entire value of the property unrestricted and the value of the property restricted. So in my example, it would be 100 minus ten, would be 90 the value of the property.

There would then need to be other considerations taken into account which would have to do with does the property owner have contiguous property that surrounds or is in the nearby area of the property that's been restricted.

Q nd if there is an enhancement to the value of the contiguous property, that would be deducted from the value of the donation, correct?

That is correct.

Q We'll come back to easements in more detail as we go on, but I would like to turn to something you mentioned about doing work in connection with government investigations for the Trump Organization.

Do you recall in or about September of 2016 communicating with the New York ttorney General's Office with respect to an inquiry that the office was conducting?

I know I have responded to lots of things. So again, if you could give me a little more background, that might help me.

Q I will show you a document, ma'am, and see if it refreshes your recollection.

MR. SOLOMON: If we could, please, pull up PX 1001 and may I hand this up to the witness.

Q Ma'am, this is a letter dated September 27, 2016 sent by electronic mail and certified mail return receipt requested to you at Morgan Lewis. You were at Morgan Lewis in 2016, correct?

Yes, I was at Morgan Lewis then.

Q This is from the State of New York Office of the ttorney General from the Charities Bureau, correct?

Yes, the letter is from the Charities Bureau.

Q Did you receive this on or about September 27, 2016?

Yes, I did.

MR. SOLOMON: We offer this in evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.

S. DILLON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2541

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibit 1001.)
Q Does this refresh your recollection to at least one matter that you were handling for the Trump Organization in connection with a government inquiry?
Yes, it does.
Q What can you tell me if you -- withdrawn.
t a high level, what was your understanding of this inquiry that was being conducted in or about September of 2016?
MR. ROBERT: I appreciate the way Mr. Solomon has worded the question, "at a high level." I just want to make sure there is no waiver of attorney-client privilege here and I don't think that's what Mr. Solomon is getting at. I just wanted the record clear. Do you agree, Mr. Solomon, you are not trying to --
MR. SOLOMON: We are not asking the witness to waive privilege. We just want to know the witness' understanding of what the investigation concerned.
MR. ROBERT: From a high level, not conversations with any of her clients?
MR. SOLOMON: My question did not ask for conversations with the client.
MR. ROBERT: I didn't think you were and --
MR. SOLOMON: lso to be clear for the record, this witness received the letter. So this information came to the witness, not from the client, but from the ttorney General's office.

MR. ROBERT: I hear what you're saying. I just wanted the record to be clear. Got it.
MR. SOLOMON: No issue.
THE COURT: Please continue.
Q Does this letter refresh your recollection about a -- about this inquiry?
Yes, it does.
Q When you received this letter and read this letter, did you have an understanding as to what the inquiry concerned?
Yes.
Q What was that understanding?
My understanding was the Charities Bureau was taking a look at whether the Trump Foundation had complied with New York State law in connection with its activities.
Q I only want the names. I'm not asking what you discussed. So let's be clear. Did you discuss this request for information with anyone from the Trump Organization?
Yes.
Q With whom did you discuss it?
That would have been Jason Greenblatt.
Q nyone else?
Certainly at some point President Trump. Probably at some point a variety of the in-house lawyers at Trump when I was trying to understand it. I would have talked to Jeff McConney. I would have talked with llen Weisselberg. I would have talked with Debra whose last name is escaping me right now. She is one of the internal bookkeepers at the organization.

THE COURT: I have to ask about "would have." Does this mean you remember you did or does this mean you think generally looking back, "Yeah, that's probably who I spoke to"?
THE WITNESS: I would have spoken to them. Yes, I spoke to them. I'm sorry. Got me there. Yeah, I would have spoken to them.
THE COURT: Thanks.
THE WITNESS: I did speak to them to clarify.
THE COURT: We are very precise.
THE WITNESS: t some point in time, not with everything in this letter, but in general in connection with the investigation.
Q When you had these conversations, were you ever made aware of a prior communication from the ttorney General's office directed to Mr. Weisselberg concerning a contribution in the amount of $25,000 made by the Donald J. Trump Foundation to an organization known as nd Justice For ll?
MR. ROBERT: Objection. If the knowledge came from a conversation with any of the clients, it would be privileged. So if the question is "did the witness learn from any source other than her client", that's a fair question. But just a general question "did she become aware," she may have become aware of it from her client and the mere fact that she says that would be an invasion of the privilege.

THE COURT: I'm not sure that that's right. The fact that there was some discussion doesn't mean that that was advice asked or advice given, but we might be able to avoid that issue by --
MR. SOLOMON: That's all I was asking, was she made aware. I am not asking what was said. I'm not asking advice that was given. Was she made aware of the prior communication from the ttorney General's office? May I finish, please? I don't think that's privileged. The mere fact of the existence of prior communications is not privileged.
MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, any fact that a lawyer learns from his or her client during the scope of their representation is governed by attorney-client privilege. That's why if the question is "did you learn a fact from someone other than the client," that's a fair question. But once we get into "were you made aware of something," then becomes the issue of who made you aware of it and that conversation is absolutely privileged.
THE COURT: I disagree. It is not advice.

MR. SOLOMON: nd also, Your Honor, not every fact you learn from your counsel or from the client would be privileged. If a client told me, "today is Thursday," that doesn't make that communication privileged.

MR. ROBERT: It would make it confidential if it's absent an order directing an attorney to provide it. It would be a problem, but here, the judge made his ruling.

THE COURT: So objection noted, understood, but overruled.

Q Simple question. Did you become aware of a prior communication from the ttorney General's office relating to the contribution that I described?

t some -- I'm sorry. Of a prior communication from the ttorney General to?

Q To the Trump Organization relating to a $25,000 contribution made by the Donald J. Trump Foundation to an organization known as nd Justice For ll?

I believe I was aware of that communication. I don't recall the details.

Q nd were you made aware that the Donald J. Trump Foundation responded to the ttorney General's Office? It's a yes or no.

I believe I was aware of that, too, yes.

MR. SOLOMON: Okay. Could we please mark as PX 1000 for identification?

Q Ma'am, while you're reviewing it, I'll just identify for the record that this is or appears to be a letter on the Donald J. Trump Foundation letterhead dated June 28, 2016 addressed to someone at the New York State ttorney General's Office.

MR. KISE: Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. KISE: I'm just going to impose yet another objection. What does this have to do with anything in this case? I mean, maybe Mr. Solomon is going to connect it up, but this is 2016 and it's a completely separate investigation of an entity that's not a defendant here. It has no connection to these proceedings of an investigation in a matter that's long since been over, so I know we're all interested in moving this along, I just don't see what connection this has to these proceedings.

THE COURT: Mr. Solomon?

MR. SOLOMON: I think Your Honor heard earlier today from the prior witness that representations were made to potential insurance carriers that there were no outstanding investigations, inquiries and the like. I don't remember the exact language. I know we had to go back to find the exact language, but in the vernacular there are no outstanding claims asserted or unasserted and that representation was made to HCC and what we're doing now is just establishing whether there were --

MR. KISE: Right, but again -- well, as you know, on the insurance matter, I had basically the same objection, which is what does that have to do with a 6312 violation? I mean, all of those matters between the insurance company and the client are subsumed within the policy as we heard the witness -- I'm not going to go off on that.

nyway, we're now taking to a second degree of relevance. We first had something that I objected to, you overruled as marginally relevant -- not relevant in my opinion, but marginally relevant and now we're taking yet another step away from the core issues in the case because I'm not sure what this has to do with anything in the case. What count does it relate to in the case?

MR. MER: Can I just say I didn't hear the word "marginal" when Your Honor overruled --

MR. KISE: That was my description, as I just said.

THE COURT: s I told the witness, we are very precise around here. One word or the other could make a big difference.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, an omission in seeking insurance coverage is relevant. nd if we show that there was knowledge at the Trump Organization at the highest levels of the existence of this inquiry and we actually are going to get to an actual Notice of Violation that was sent to the Trump Organization. The failure to disclose that, if intentional, absolutely goes to the existing claims in this case in the 6312 violations that we've alleged.

MR. KISE: Okay, Your Honor, the 6312 violations relate to financial statements and the submission and use of those financial statements in the course of obtaining loans and insurance. They -- the case as pled and as tried doesn't have to do with every single communication or representation that was made to anyone at anytime by this is the Donald J. Trump Foundation, again, a non-defendant, nonparty. t some level there really needs to be some containment of what we're doing here. This has gotten pretty far afield. So, respectfully, the issue in the case and the claims asserted again relate to statements of financial condition that were inflated, not inflated, whether they were used to obtain insurance, whether they were used to obtain loans, but anything to do with representations to anyone we'll be here until 2025.

MR. SOLOMON: We'll only be here that long, Your

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2549

Honor, if there that many fraudulent misrepresentations or omissions. I have another five or ten minutes on this line. It's not going to take that long. We're going to establish that they knew about these inquiries, they knew about the Notice of Violation, and as you heard earlier today in open court, they did not disclose it to HCC.

MR. KISE: Okay. So, again, the case is about statements of financial condition.

THE COURT: That's a banned word.

MR. KISE: I know it is, but I have to say it in response. I realize that the case is about statements of financial condition and the use of those -- I mean, we can pull out the complaint and look at the claims, so -- and whether or not the insurance company was notified properly or not notified properly about something is as the witness has testified and is clear for the policy subsumed within the policy. The insurance company and the insured and the insurer work that out. If there is something that wasn't disclosed, then they don't cover it.

MR. ROBERT: In addition, Your Honor, they keep using the phrase "they knew." Who knew what and when because there is a policy of insurance that's in evidence. There is specific provisions in that policy as to who is -- who has to have notice in order to have a disclosure. So at some point there has to be some connection of the dots as to who knew what at one time. They're uniform. They knew, they knew. Respectfully, it's inappropriate here because there are multiple defendants.

THE COURT: I certainly see that and understand that as an issue. The record will show who knew, who didn't know. So that will be a consideration.

But let me make a general statement that might foreclose or deter other objections. To me, this case is not just about financial statements being submitted to insurance companies. It's about whether or not the defendants were committing fraud, persistent and whatever the pervasive -- whatever the other wording is. nd it's also about what the -- what any alleged, of course, any remedies will be. If it seems to me in taking Mr. Solomon's -- building on what Mr. Solomon said, if the evidence shows that a certain defendant was consistently acting fraudulently if, if, if, then the law provides that there can be all sorts of equitable relief. So I think this is completely relevant. I understand it's not maybe the heart of the case, but it is in the case.

MR. KISE: But, Your Honor, the equitable relief being sought, the equitable relief that can be granted is limited by what they're requesting and the equitable relief cannot be just stop committing fraud generally. It has to be specific. nd so here the case is about don't issue false financial statements anymore. That's their claim. That's what they're seeking. That's part of their injunctive relief is stop doing that.

THE COURT: Part of.

MR. KISE: But it can't be just stop committing fraud generally. I mean, there is no provision in the law for that. So any allegation of any claim of any kind that they say is fraudulent is going to come in as evidence of some pattern? I mean, it has to -- everything has to connect back to the case that's been pled and is being proven. Otherwise, there is absolutely no limits on what comes in. It's just anything that they decide to look at and say okay, this is fraud, that's fraud. How are you even supposed to fashion relief in that regard? Stop committing fraud generally? That's a prohibited order.

THE COURT: I have various ideas about how to do that if it comes to it.

MR. KISE: But the point is there has to be some connection to the claims. Otherwise, it's just adrift.

THE COURT: We're going around in circles. The objection is overruled for the reasons I said and that Mr. Solomon said. Let's move on.

MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: We'll break at five minutes to 1:00.

MR. SOLOMON: Okay. Thank you.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2552

Q Ms. Dillon, have you had an opportunity to review what is PX 1000?

I did not read it word for word, but I looked at it when you asked me to look at it before, but no, I did not re-review it during the exchange.

THE COURT: You were riveted by the exchange?

THE WITNESS: s a lawyer I was riveted by the exchange.

THE COURT: I was just going to say as a lawyer.

Q Ma'am, if you see on the second page there is a signature above the printed name " llen Weisselberg." Would you recognize Mr. Weisselberg's signature if you saw it?

No, not necessarily.

Q Were you aware that the Donald J. Trump Foundation had communicated in or about June of 2016 with the New York State ttorney General's Office concerning the contribution described in this letter?

Isn't the letter the communication? I'm -- I didn't maybe understand your question. Was I aware of this letter?

Q Yes, ma'am.

Yes, I was aware of this letter.

Q Okay. When did you become aware of it?

Contemporaneous with the letter.

Q Okay.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2553

MR. SOLOMON: We offer the letter in evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1000 in evidence.)
MR. ROBERT: Objection to relevance. It's a continuing objection.
THE COURT: I understand. Objection noted. Overruled.
MR. SOLOMON: If we could show the witness PX 1002?
Thank you, sir.
Q nd PX 1002 is a letter on State of New York Office of the ttorney General letterhead directed to you, Ms. Dillon, at Morgan Lewis. Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q nd the "re:" is the "Donald J. Trump Foundation;" correct?
Yes.
Q nd the title in the center of the first page is "Notice of Violation?"
I see that.
Q Okay. Did you receive this letter in or about September of 2016?
Yes, I did.
MR. SOLOMON: We move PX 1002 into evidence.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2554

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
MR. ROBERT: Same objection.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1002 in evidence.)
Q Just a yes or no, ma'am, did you discuss this letter with anyone at The Trump Organization?
Yes.
Q Okay. Just the names of the persons with whom you discussed this letter?
Jason Greenblatt. I don't recall if there were others that I discussed the contents of the letter with.
Q So you don't recall if you discussed the contents of this letter with Mr. llen Weisselberg?
Of this letter in particular, no. I'm not sure if I did or not.
Q Did you discuss the subject matter of this letter, the Notice of Violation, if not the particular letter with Mr. Weisselberg?
I believe I did, yes.
Q Okay. Let's go then to the subject matter of the letter, if not the letter itself.
With whom at the Trump Organization did you discuss the subject matter of the letter?
That would have been as mentioned, Mr. Greenblatt,

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2555

Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney.
Q nyone else you can recall?
I don't believe so. I could be wrong. There was a lot going on at that time, but I think that's the list.
Q Okay. Did you provide a copy of this letter to your client?
Yes.
Q Okay. nd at that time who did you understand your client to be?
The Trump Foundation, The Donald J. Trump Foundation.
Q So who at the Donald J. Trump Foundation did you provide the letter to?
I don't recall who I gave it to. Certainly I would have given it to Mr. Greenblatt and he would have handled that. Would be my -- again, this is a would be. That is my -- yes, to the best of my recollection, it would have been Mr. Greenblatt that I would have provided the letter to.
Q But in your practice, ma'am, if you received a letter from a governmental authority titled, "Notice of Violation," you would have sent it on to the client? Do you have any doubt of that?
I have no doubt that it would have gotten to the clients, but it would have been through client's counsel.
Q In-house counsel?
In-house counsel, yes.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2556

MR. SOLOMON: Can we please mark as PX 1003 for identification?
nd while you're looking at this letter I will identify for the record it is a letter on Morgan Lewis letterhead. It appears to be your letterhead, in fact, dated October 7, 2016.
Q Ma'am, is that your signature on the second page of this letter?
Yes, it is.
Q nd did you send it to Mr. Sheehan at the Charities Bureau at the New York State ttorney General's Office on or about October 7, 2016?
Yes.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer PX 1003 in evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Same objection.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1003 in evidence.)
Q The first line of this indicates that it is -- excuse me -- that "you are in receipt" -- "we are in receipt of your letter dated September 30, 2016."
nd that's the letter we saw a moment ago, PX 1002; correct?
Yes.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2557

Q gain, without discussing the substance, with whom did you discuss this response prior to sending it to the New York State ttorney General's Office?
I don't recall who all I've discussed the response with.
Q Do you recall anyone? When you say you all?
gain, this would have certainly been Mr. Greenblatt. It's -- I'm just not sure who I talked to about it. It was a long time ago.
Q Okay. Would you have sent it -- in your practice, would you have sent it to the client for review before sending it on to the ttorney General's office?
Generally I would send things, yes, to the client for review. gain, meaning to in-house counsel at the Trump Organization.
Q So is it fair to say by no later than October 2016 you as outside counsel and The Donald J. Trump Foundation were aware that the New York ttorney General's Office had issued a Notice of Violation and that you were gathering information to respond to that notice?
I was certainly aware of it and certainly the Trump Organization -- or the Donald J. Trump Foundation was aware of this, yes.
Q Were you at that time gathering information to provide to the New York State ttorney General's Office? When I say

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2558

"you," I mean you or someone at your direction?
Yes, we would have been gathering information.
Q Do you know if this Notice of Violation or the need to respond to the request for information were disclosed to the Trump Organization's insurance carriers prior to soliciting either a renewal or issuance of a new insurance policy?
I don't know.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I'd be moving on to a completely different area. I can start or we can --
THE COURT: I can tell you want a break now. We'll break now until 2:15.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.
(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)
F T E R N O O N S E S S I O N
THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. The Honorable Judge rthur Engoron presiding. Please be seated and come to order.
THE COURT: Let's get the witness.
MR. KISE: Judge, while we're waiting on that, just two very brief points. Can I ask the Court to so order -- I believe it's the October 3rd transcript, which contains the original gag order? Because I don't think that was ever memorialized. The first violation last week was memorialized and then, of course, yesterday you entered your order, but the gag order itself was on the transcript. So in order for that to be appealable, then we would need to so order that transcript for October 3rd.

THE COURT: I will take care of that. I agree with you.
MR. KISE: Okay. nd then at some point --
THE COURT: One second.
MR. KISE: Yes, sir.
THE COURT: I'll take care of that or I'll get back to you, if there is any issue or problem.
MR. KISE: The other thing, at the appropriate time when the courtroom is empty, a photo of the bench empty so we can lay out what adjoins next to and all that is because I do think that is a matter of interpretation.
THE COURT: Okay. Let me just -- you are -- you want to take a photo of the bench so --
MR. KISE: For the record, yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: I would suggest, it's up to you, a photo with me here, with you there and I haven't discussed that.
MR. KISE: I don't.
THE COURT: -- or some other person I think it will show if there are people sitting in actual chairs.
MR. KISE: However you would like me to proceed, although --
THE COURT: We can do both.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2560

MR. KISE: Okay. I'll do that.
THE COURT: Okay. Good. Okay.
nd Mr. Kise, you are about Michael Cohen's size. Maybe you should sit there and I'll sit here.
MR. KISE: I'm not nearly as photogenic as you might think. I'll stay back here.
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)
THE COURT: I'll remind the witness, as I always do, that she is under oath.
nd let's continue with the direct examination of Sheri Dillon.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.
CONTINUED DIRECT EX MIN TION
BY MR. SOLOMON:
Q Good afternoon, Ms. Dillon.
Good afternoon.
Q Let's turn to conservation easements of particular properties. We talked earlier about Trump National Golf Club L . Do you recall that?
Yes.
Q Can I refer to that as TNGC L ?
Yes, I'll know what you mean.
Q Okay. Do you recall the owner of that property is VH

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2561

Property Corp?
I don't recall that, but I recall a name similar to that, so.
Q We could -- we'll see a document later that has that in there. We'll see if it refreshes your recollection.
Did there come a time that the owner of TNGC L contemplated donating a conservation easement over a portion of its property?
Yes, there was a time that was contemplated.
Q Okay. In my questioning today when I use the term "communication" and I'm doing this because we had a little bit of a misunderstanding with another witness another day, but when I say "communications" I mean, all written, any other form of transmitting or receiving information, okay?
Okay.
Q Thank you.
Do you recall being involved in communications in the second half of -- excuse me.
Do you recall being involved in communications in the second half of 2012 relating to the potential donation of a conservation easement over a portion of TNGC L ?
I do recall during a general time frame being involved in potential conversations. I'm not sure of the exact dates, but.
Q Okay. Sure. Let's see if we can refresh your recollection and put a time frame on this.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2562

MR. SOLOMON: sk to mark PX 1446 for identification. For the record, this is a -- the top e-mail chain is from Donald Trump, Jr..
Q The date is 11/16/2012 to Josh Seidner to -- cc's to llen Weisselberg, Sheri Dillon, ndrew Weiss at the Trump Organization and Jill Martin at TrumpNational.com?
Does this e-mail chain refresh your recollection that it was in or about November 2012 that there were discussions relating to a potential conservation easement over TNGC -- a portion of TNGC L ?
I see from the e-mail that it was being talked about in November of 2012.
Q Okay. nd the e-mail chain, you are cc'd on it; correct?
If you give me a second to look through it.
Q Of course. Whatever time you need, ma'am.
I'm sorry, what was your question?
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, may I have a read back of my question?
THE COURT: read back, please.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
Yes.
Q Okay. nd did you receive it in or about November of

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2563

2012?
Yes, I would have received it on or about November 16, 2012.
Q Thank you.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer this in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It's in evidence. I understand the objection.
Q Okay. You've read through the e-mail chain; correct?
Yes, I quickly did.
Q Okay. You'll see that this e-mail chain at the top, the most recent one from November 16th, Mr. Donald Trump, Jr. indicates: "That's great. I'm glad the plans I had in Westchester could be of use." Do you see that?
I see that statement, yes.
Q Okay. nd the "re:" just so we could clarify something is the TIGC L ? Do you see that?
I see the re: says TIGC L .
Q Do people refer to the TNGC L golf course sometimes as TIGC L Trump International Golf Course L ?
Presumably so.
Q When you received this did you understand this e-mail chain was referring to TIGC L ?
I don't know what I thought because it seems to mix and match conversations about Westchester as well as L , so I'm not really too sure about that.

Q Sure. Turn to page two of three. It's from llen Weisselberg to Josh Seidner and you are cc'd. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Okay. "I understand you are working on the conservation easement project for the above-captioned property." The above-captioned property is TIGC L ; correct?
That is what it says that llen wrote and that's where it starts, but rest of the e-mail provides for a lack of clarity.
Q Okay. Did you have an understanding, however, that one of the issues in this e-mail was TNGC L ?
I don't know if it was an issue, but there is a discussion about it from the re: line or appears to be a discussion about it.
MR. SOLOMON: Okay. Let's mark PX 1412, please.
Q Ma'am, you see that PX 1412 is actually an offshoot of the earlier e-mail chain we were just looking at, PX 1466. Do you see that?
I'm still looking at it. Give me just a second, please.
ll right. Could I have the question again, please.
Q Sure. Do you see that this e-mail chain is an offshoot of the earlier e-mail chain we were just looking at, PX 1466?
It looks to be a continuation or it looks to be responding to that prior e-mail chain.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2565

Q Okay. On the first page you send an e-mail to Josh Seidner and llen Weisselberg with ccs; correct?
Yes.
Q nd the re: is still TIGC L . Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd you suggested at the bottom of your e-mail that your colleague, "Bob Leonard, worked extensively with our engineer on another project." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Did Bob Leonard work on the TNGC L potential donation of a conservation easement?
I don't recall. That was a long time ago back in 2012 whether Bob helped me on that or not.
Q Okay. If you go up one on the e-mail chain, 11/26/2012 from Josh Seidner to you with a cc to the same people, Donald Trump, Jr., Donald Bender, llen Weisselberg, ndrew Weiss, Jill Martin, and now Bob Leonard has been added as a cc. Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd Mr. Seidner says to you -- writes to you, excuse me: "Hi, Sheri. I hope all is well. ttached please find the proposed master plan layout for L ."
Does that refresh your recollection that this relates to TNGC L ?

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2566

This part of the e-mail certainly relates to L , yes.
Q Okay. So you agree with me then in or about November of 2012 the owner of TNGC L was contemplating or discussing a potential conservation easement over a portion of the TNGC L property; right?
The owner of TNGC or TIGC L , whichever it might be, appears to have been contemplating one in November 2012.
THE COURT: Well, wait a minute. You say "whichever it might be." I'd like to figure out whether it's one property with two names or two properties with their own name. I have my own opinion, but I'd rather hear from the witness based on everything that's been in front of you, everything you remember, everything you've ever seen. re they the same property or is it two different properties?
THE WITNESS: There is one property that I'm aware of in L that's a golf course.
THE COURT: Which is?
THE WITNESS: I just don't recall if it's a TN or a TI.
THE COURT: Yes, but it's the same property?
THE WITNESS: It's the same property.
THE COURT: Thank you.
Q You'll see in properties later on it's referred to as TNGC L . Thank you for confirming. One property may be referred to two different ways?

Correct.
Q Thank you.
On this e-mail -- and when I refer to this e-mail, I am still referring to PX 1412, the one from Josh Seidner to you with the ccs, second line, "Mr. Trump has reviewed this layout and thought it can work for our purposes." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Did you have an understanding as to which Mr. Trump that was referring to?
I may have at the time, but I don't know.
Q Was Donald Trump involved in the potential donation of a conservation easement over a portion of TNGC L ?
I don't recall whether he was involved or not.
Q Was Donald Trump, Jr. involved in the potential donation of a conservation easement over TNGC L ?
I similarly don't recall as to whether he was involved.
Q Same question for Eric Trump.
I don't recall whether Eric was involved. nd part of this might be I don't know what you mean by "involved." ware of?
Q Let's take a step back.
Donald Trump Senior, to your knowledge, did he review the layout for the constraints map and existing conditions?
I am -- sitting here today I don't know which Mr. Trump that's referring to.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2568

Q Okay.
THE COURT: But that didn't answer the question.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you.
May I have a read back, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Read back, please.
nd listen carefully. It's a very specific question.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
I have no knowledge of that one way or the other.
Q Same question for Donald Trump, Jr.?
Same answer. I have no knowledge of that one way or the other.
Q Same question for Mr. Eric Trump?
I have no knowledge of that one way or the other.
Q You'll see how I wrote "cc" on this for Mr. Seidner is to Donald Trump, Jr.?
I do.
Q Does that refresh your recollection as to which Mr. Trump you understood this to refer to at that time?
I'm sorry. That was 11 years ago, 12 years ago. I just don't recall which Mr. Trump that was referring to.
Q nd your e-mail ccs Mr. Donald Trump, Jr.. nd as you sit here today, you still don't have a recollection as to which

Mr. Trump was referred to in this e-mail chain?
I do not have a -- I don't remember. Yes, I can speculate for you, but I don't remember.
Q Speculate for us.
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: Sustained. Speculation is not allowed in court.
MR. SOLOMON: She offered, Your Honor.
Transcript continues on the following page....

Q Did you understand that the potential easement that was being referred to or considered at that time covered all or a portion of the driving range at TNGCL ?
Yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, mark PX 1460. Before we do that, Your Honor, I move into evidence PX 1412.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1412.)
Q Ma'am, you will see this is an e-mail chain, the most recent on this chain, meaning the first one, is Jill Martin sent October 9, 2014 to you. Do you see that?
I'm sorry. Yes.
Q Did the project or the consideration of potential easement in 2012 cease for a period of time and then was restarted in or about 2014?
Yes, that's correct.
Q You'll see the bottom e-mail is from Brian Curry to you, the one dated October 9th? Do you see that? 1:25 p.m.?
Yes.
Q Who is Brian Curry?
He was the appraiser retained to work on that project.
Q The TNGCL project?
Correct.

Q You then forward his e-mail on to Jill Martin. Do you see that, in the middle?
I do.
Q First sentence, "Yesterday, we had a call with Donald re valuation of the 16 lots." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Does that refresh your recollection as to which Mr. Trump was involved in the TNGCL project?
Yes.
Q Which Mr. Trump was involved in the TNGCL project?
It refreshes my recollection on who this call was with. It doesn't refresh my recollection on who was involved because I believe both -- I certainly know Don or I don't know. I'm not sure who was involved, but I know who this -- I believe I know who this call was.
Q Who was the call with?
That would be with Sr.
Q nd during the call -- next sentence, I'm reading, ma'am. "During the call, we understood Donald to indicate that the 16 lots (and I believe the rest of the "Phase 2" lots) had a different zip code than the Phase 1 lots" and then it goes on. Do you see that?
I do.
Q Was it Donald Trump, Sr. that indicated during the call that the 16 lots had a different zip code and then the additional information you provide in this e-mail?

I'm getting a little uncomfortable here with some of my ethical obligations are privileged since we seem to be getting into conversations I had with my client.
MR. SOLOMON: Several things. First off, the privilege belongs to your client, so it is for them to object to privilege, not the witness, as I think you instructed the witness we had here yesterday, Your Honor.
Second, second, if I may, this is an e-mail that was produced in this litigation. Your Honor has already ruled that communications governing valuations and appraisals are not privileged.
THE COURT: Because they involve business, not legal advice; is that right?
MR. SOLOMON: Correct.
MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, first of all, when we get up too soon, we get criticized for objecting too soon by the government and when we wait too long, they criticize we waited too long. Ms. Dillon is appropriately setting forth as a currently licensed attorney and a former attorney for our clients. If she feels uncomfortable, I think it is incumbent upon her and I commend her for making the objection the way she did or at least making it an issue.
We do believe that any conversations, as I said earlier this afternoon, between Ms. Dillon and her former clients are privileged. gain, we weren't directly involved in the special proceeding. I do know the Court made certain rules as to what documents were in or not, but when we address the issue with some previous witnesses, the fact that the Court may have ordered a document to be turned over previously in our view, especially since many of the defendants in this case were not defendants in that case were given an opportunity to assert privilege in that case. But once again, we asserted attorney-client privilege in any communication that Ms. Dillon had with those clients is privilege and not the proper subject of inquiry.

THE COURT: Well, I'd rather not because I don't need to address the question of who can object. I see your point. Let's just go to the substance of it. Let me take a very careful read-through of this. I understand that -- not -- you as attorneys were not involved in the special proceeding. I also realize that certain of the defendants were not involved in the special proceedings investigation phase we'll call it. Let me just look at this for a minute.

MR. ROBERT: Yes, sir.

(Whereupon, there was a pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Can I get a readback of the exact question?

(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was

read back.)

THE COURT: I guess I have to rule now. I rule that this is business information or advice, not legal advice. I direct the witness to answer. You are not prejudiced to where any other objections depending upon what the other questions are.

Could you read back the question one more time?

THE COURT: Please. My fault.

(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)

I'm not sure if it was Don, Sr. or Don, Jr.

Q Is the fact that you're unable to distinguish between Don, Sr. and Don, Jr. with respect to the TNGCL project because they were both involved in it?

It is because I saw from an e-mail that you showed me and my recollection Don, Jr. was involved in a lot of things. His father was involved in very few things, but was aware of a lot of things. nd it's unclear to me who I was talking to then and confirming that Don, Jr. was potentially involved was the fact who was on those prior e-mails. So it is just a little bit confusing to me and it was a long time ago.

Q I understand it was a long time ago, but my question was just a little bit different. Is the reason you can't distinguish who was involved in conversations relating to TNGCL because both Don, Jr., Donald Trump, Jr. and Donald Trump Sr.

were both involved in the project?

MR. ROBERT: Objection; leading.

THE COURT: Overruled.

nd my answer I think remains the same. One, I don't know what you mean by involved. I would certainly agree that Don, Sr. was aware. I don't think he was necessarily involved. He was the highest level executive at the company and involved is -- seems to suggest more to me as -- that seems to be more of a day-to-day thing as opposed to aware of having a general awareness. So that's the distinction I make.

s far as Don, Jr., I can't remember if he was involved or also aware and whether it was the staff at the Trump Org who was running the show. I just don't recall.

Q I appreciate, ma'am, your distinction between involved and aware of. So when you say "involved," that's day-to-day and when you say "aware," you mean aware of; is that fair?

I would say there's two spectrums, right, and I would say it is not every single detail every day to be involved, but there's also a general awareness which can be a high level awareness on the other hand and there is a spectrum there. So I just want to be clear that I don't know what you exactly mean by involved, but I don't think -- I don't -- in my view, neither of them were involved as I would use the word "involved."

Q Okay. When I say "involved" and I asked you questions using the word "involved," give me anyone on that spectrum you just described and feel free to tell me where you think they are on that spectrum. Is that fair?

I think at a high level, Don, Sr. was aware. I think Don, Jr. may have been more aware.

Q That's fair. I appreciate the differentiation between the two and I thank you for that. I want to make clear when I use the word "involved" today, I want you to understand it means anywhere on that spectrum that you just described and if you need to explain your answer to tell me where it falls. Feel free to do so, but it would include someone if they're anywhere on the spectrum you described, okay?

Sure.

THE COURT: No. No. If we are going to refer to a spectrum from aware to involve, I guess it's -- it is involved to aware. Let's not call it the aware spectrum. Let's call it the aware/involved spectrum.

MR. SOLOMON: Very fair enough, Your Honor. I will be guided by that suggestion.

THE COURT: Or some other way, just so we're not saying one end of the spectrum to refer to the whole spectrum.

MR. SOLOMON: How about I use the term "a role in" and then the witness can tell me where it falls between aware and day-to-day involvement? Does that work?

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, I think this is an important distinction if he asks a question and the witness needs clarification. It is direct examination. The witness will say, "I can't answer it that way" and explain it her way. I think using a define term will create confusion.

MR. SOLOMON: I'm inviting the witness to explain.

THE COURT: role in -- I would say being aware of something is not necessarily, depending upon your view of language, to have a role in. I'm sure you're creative enough to come up some way to ask the question that doesn't imply the answer and that the witness can explain if she needs to.

MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor. We move PX 1460 into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1460.)

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled.

MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, mark PX 944 for identification.

Q Ma'am, this is an e-mail chain between you and Brian Curry with Rick Zbranek as a cc. Do you see that?

Yes.

Q Who is Mr. Zbranek?

Mr. Zbranek was another appraiser at Cushman &

Wakefield.

Q nd was he working on the TNGCL project, to your knowledge?

Yes, he was.

Q In the top e-mail from Mr. Curry to you on October 16, 2014, Mr. Curry writes, "Sheri, I revisited pricing in both lots and home sales scenarios. Numbers come in around 27 to 28 million "-- "MM for the driving range property. That is about 1.7 to 1.75 MM per lot "as is" condition (not if yet fully entitled before land development, time and risk, et cetera.)"

Do you see that?

I do.

Q Did you understand that Mr. Curry was advising you that the driving range property was worth approximately 27 to $28 million?

That seemed to be his preliminary view at that point in time.

Q His preliminary estimate of the value of the driving range property, right?

I think it speaks for itself. He said the numbers come in around 27 to 28, I understood "MM" to be million, for the driving range property and at that point in time.

Q t that point in time. That's all we're asking. t that point in time, the driving range property was the property that was being considered for the potential donation of the conservation easement, right?

The conservation easement was considered -- the easement that was being considered would be placed over part or all of the driving range property.

Q So if it's over all of the driving range property, it would be somewhere around 27 to 28 million, right?

t this point, I don't recall whether it was all of the driving range property that was being considered. It's been a long time since I looked at these appraisals, so I don't want to commit to something that I don't know if it is true or not.

Q It says for the driving range property. It doesn't say for a portion of it, does it?

Doesn't say for all of it either.

Q But it says for the driving range property, right?

I find that to be sort of an imprecise and it also isn't talking about the conservation easement. It is not talking about a lot of things and if you have more documents, that would be really helpful. I could take a look at them and understand it, but --

Q We will get to more documents, ma'am, but I want to know your understanding at various points in time.

t this point in time, he was suggesting that numbers come in around 27 to 28 million for the driving range property, whatever he means by that.

THE COURT: Just a second. I learned in junior high school or high school that if you refer to something, you mean the whole thing unless there's some indication you only mean part of it. Now, obviously, I don't know what Mr. Curry was thinking at the time, but -- and there is no jury here. I wouldn't be saying this, but I take the driving range to mean the whole driving range. But, you know, if there's an indication that less than that is meant, fine. nd I'm not sure that's what he meant, but that's how I interpret it.

MR. KISE: Respectfully, Your Honor, we're back to a little bit to where we were yesterday. It is a matter of interpretation. I think the witness has to testify as to what she can relate. Understanding your view, but she can only testify to what she can testify to.

THE COURT: I agree. Thank you. You're right.

THE WITNESS: nd I'm not trying to be difficult here. It is just there's a lot of different pieces to a driving range property. There's things beyond just the driving range and the lots. Does it include the putting range? I don't know. Does it include the huts? I don't know. There's a lot to it, so that's what's complicating this. There's a lot of shorthand and abbreviations used in e-mails that make them very hard to understand.

Q Is that why you at one point in time you instructed your associate not to send e-mails to avoid creating discovery?

I have routinely throughout my practice, through all of years of practice, I was taught by lots of folks when anything is complicated pick, up the phone. Don't use shorthand. Don't use abbreviations. You will end up with 40 e-mails that make no sense and no one understands even at the time or later, so pick up the phone and give them a call.

Q Do you recall that the driving range was comprised of 16 lots?

The driving range was a driving range with balls and driving range on it.

Q Wasn't my question. Later in the process of the analysis for the donation or potential donation of the conservation easement, the appraiser determined that you could do 16 lots on the driving range property. Do you recall that?

The driving range property when it was being considered for a conservation easement, one of the plans of a hypothetical subdivision showed 16 lots.

Q Okay. 16 lots times he determined roughly 1.7 to 1.75 million per lot, right? You see that in the e-mail?

I see the numbers 1. --

Q When we multiply 16 lots times 1.7 million, we've done this before.

MR. SOLOMON: I ask the Court to take judicial notice that I think that's $27.2 million.

THE COURT: I'm not surprised. I take judicial notice.

Q Sound about right?

MR. ROBERT: Objection.

THE COURT: What's the ground of the objection?

MR. ROBERT: He's leading and turning this into a cross-examination. It is a direct examination of a witness they called. Is not "is this right," "is that right." sk open-ended questions and get answers.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, this witness was counsel for the Trump Organization and many entities as she testified. She was an agent. We actually have the right to treat her as a hostile witness and lead on it.

THE COURT: I would agree she can be considered a hostile witness.

MR. ROBERT: This witness has demonstrated no evidence of that at all. She's been incredibly forthright and the fact that a question may be inarticulately phrased, no offense to Mr. Solomon, the witness is being very careful in the words she is using as a careful lawyer. So the fact she may not understand one of his questions or she thinks he is being combative is not what the record demonstrates. She is not an adverse witness and she is not a hostile witness. The government has to continue to treat her and do a normal direct examination.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, the standard isn't how the witness is answering the questions. The standard is the witness' status as a former attorney and as a former agent for the Trump Organization and various entities as she testified to. We have a right to treat her as a hostile witness. The word 'hostile' doesn't mean 'antagonistic' necessarily. It is a legal term. We all know that.

MR. ROBERT: The key is former, no longer current attorney. Ms. Dillon is not our current agent. She was a former attorney for our clients. gain, proceed as we have been with other witnesses and so far, things have been going well until the last few questions.

THE COURT: I want to make clear to the witness that by deeming her hostile or adverse, I'm not criticizing her. It is really more of a status situation. Whether or not the answers have also indicated maybe a little bit of body language one way or the other, you could argue that. In any event, objection overruled. I direct the witness to answer.

Do you need a readback or you want to just ask again -- re you asking me to confirm your math?

Q I am just asking you if that sounds reasonable to you that --

1 --

Q If it sounds reasonable to you that the 1.7 to 1.75

million times 16 lots comes out to in the ballpark of 27 to $28 million as referenced in this e-mail?

THE COURT: We must have 50 calculators in this room.

1.7 million for 10 of them. For six of them at -- probably around that number, but --

Q Thank you.

THE COURT: That answers the question.

THE WITNESS: I use my pple calculator all the time.

THE COURT: We all do.

THE WITNESS: I haven't done multiplication in a while.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer this in evidence if I have not already.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations and relevance.

THE COURT: Overruled. Overruled. Granted. It's in evidence.

(Whereupon, the Document were marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 944.)

MR. SOLOMON: Can we, please, mark PX 1402 for identification.

Q Do you recognize this as an e-mail chain with respect to the potential conservation easement donation for TNGCL ?

Yes.

Q nd you are on this e-mail chain, correct?
Yes.
Q nd the top message, the most recent on the first page is from Jill Martin. Do you see that?
I to.
Q Did you understand that on or about November 2014 she was the assistant general counsel for the Trump Organization?
Yes.
Q Brian Curry, we've discussed. Selim Sawaya, do you see Mr. Sawaya is a cc on this?
I do.
Q Do you know who Mr. Sawaya is?
Yes.
Q Who is he?
He was an engineer.
Q Did he work on the TNGCL project?
Yes, he did.
Q What was Jill Martin's role involvement or awareness on this project, to your knowledge?
Jill Martin was in-house counsel for the Trump Organization in L . She was providing legal advice and assisting one of my primary contacts in connection with the conservation easement.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer PX 1402 in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1402.)
MR. SOLOMON: Can we, please, mark PX 1472 for identification.
Q 1472 is an e-mail chain. t the bottom is from Brian Curry to you with a cc back to Brian Curry and Rick Zbranek. You see "attached"?
Yes.
Q Shortly thereafter on December 12th, you forward it on to Samuel Guthrie. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Who is Samuel Guthrie?
He was an associate who worked with me.
Q The e-mail from Mr. Curry, the subject is "attorney-client confidential work product." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q When you forwarded on -- withdrawn.
nd it just simply says, "see attached," right?
Yes, that's what Brian Curry says.
Q Right. When you forwarded on, however, the forward on subject "FW: ttorney-client confidential work product," right?
I see that.
Q nd now there is a line added that says "attachments." Do you see that?

I do.
Q "trumpvalueconclusions.pdf," correct?
I see those words.
Q Did you add that description for the attachment?
I don't believe so. I don't know. I have no idea.
MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, it looks like the e-mail from Mr. Curry already has "attorney-client confidential work product" in the subject line.
THE COURT: We understand that.
MR. SOLOMON: Yes, I wasn't questioning that. That's forwarded. The next line, however, where it says "attachments," "trumpvalueconclusions" is not in the e-mail from Mr. Curry to Ms. Dillon.
MR. ROBERT: Correct. That's why this whole document should not be in evidence because it is attorney-client privilege. That makes our point. It was -- the attorney forwarding the document doesn't undo it and you're correct, sir. There is an additional document that is privileged.
THE COURT: Let me try to get to the --
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, if you look at the second page, the additional document is "Trump Estates Conservation Easement Valuation." The Court has ruled repeatedly that valuation numbers are not privileged. The appraisal process to get to valuation numbers is not privileged. Only attorney work product privilege does not make it attorney work product or privileged.

MR. ROBERT: I understand that there is a distinction between business and legal. I think we all get that. Where things get a little blurry is when you have lawyers that need to understand business aspects of a transaction to give legal advice. Here, it is abundantly clear that the information that's in this attachment, while nobody's going to dispute that it is numbers, it is not a legal opinion of an interpretation of a brief or a statute is clearly designed in the process of obtaining information to give legal advice. Therefore, it's privileged. Just because it is a business item doesn't mean that now it's not something that's subject and covered by attorney-client privilege.
MR. KISE: It's also, Your Honor -- it's attorney work product. ttorneys hire all sorts of consultants and experts all day long whether in litigation or outside of litigation. If your client has an issue and you need to understand an issue, you can hire a subject matter expert. It may be a business issue. It might be an accounting issue. You would hire an accountant to provide information that evaluates numbers.
So just because it's numbers and just because it relates to business doesn't mean that it's not valid attorney work product. That's what attorneys do all day long. I mean, if we're waiving work product protections and privilege protections simply because there are numbers in the document, that eviscerates the attorney work product privilege and attorney-client privilege in the case.

THE COURT: I have not seen any requests for legal advice or legal advice. Work product, I would be happy to discuss what's your definition or would you like to find the definition of what attorney work product is? Or I know it is not a privilege, what do they call it, the doctrine?

MR. KISE: I don't have to define it. The law defines it and so --

THE COURT: What is the legal definition?

MR. KISE: ttorneys is work product, work product gathered in the course of rendering legal advice. I mean, it's very simple. So if an attorney hires someone to give them information and input in the course of their rendering legal advice, the product itself doesn't have to contain legal advice. It doesn't have to contain a legal opinion. It's something gathered during the course of their work.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's hear -- let's hear from the other side.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2590

THE COURT: Why isn't this attorney work product? What is attorney work product?

MR. SOLOMON: The work of the appraiser in determining the valuations contained on the second page of this exhibit. I assume that's all we're arguing over; is that correct? The first page no one is claiming it is privileged.

So the second page of this exhibit, Your Honor, is work done by an appraiser. It is then forwarded on. The original work done by the appraiser is not privileged merely because the appraiser then sends it to the attorney does not make it attorney work product.

THE COURT: Some of these points are clear. The fact that they label it something, that doesn't make it privilege. The fact that it's forwarded, doesn't make it -- well, it could be waived.

MR. ROBERT: Mr. Solomon is conflating. I think the appropriate inquiry is if you ask the witness was this information obtained by you in the furtherance of you providing legal advice to the client. If the answer is no, then it's free inquiry; if the answer is yes, it would be subject to attorney work product.

It's not up to Mr. Solomon at this point to say what Ms. Dillon needed or didn't need in 2014 to help her render legal advice to her client. That's up to her as the lawyer.

THE COURT: I think one thing I remember clearly about work product is the purpose is that other people can't say oh, this is what the attorney is thinking, this is what the attorney is doing, this is not what the attorney is thinking or doing. This is, what, somebody from Cushman & Wakefield, right?

MR. ROBERT: Who is hired to assist the attorney in providing legal advice.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's not the attorney work product. It's the Cushman & Wakefield work product.

MR. KISE: But it's gathered in the course of the attorney's duties and I believe that at least some of these engagements, if not this one, I don't have it here, that Cushman was engaged by the lawyers.

THE COURT: I understand.

MR. KISE: So if I engage as a lawyer and I hire an expert to help me, by definition that's work product. Just because the expert is an appraiser by definition that's work product. That's -- the purpose I'm engaging him is to assist me to render legal advice. I'm not engaging them to assist in facilitating a transaction. If I share that work product later with non-privileged individuals, that's a different story, but we're not there yet.

THE COURT: I believe, again, that I remember the language some cases discussing work product. The attorney's thoughts, impressions. This not the attorney's thoughts and impression. Overruled. It's in.

ny questions you want to ask about it, go ahead. It may also be law of the case at this point.

MR. SOLOMON: I was going to cite Your Honor to your September 23, 2020 decision in which the Court said, "Part of the opinion is this Court orders Respondent Morgan Lewis & Bockius to turn over by October 2, 2020 all documents that they have" -- excuse me -- "identified as settlement privilege." It goes on.

"The Court reflects the applicability of any settlement privilege" and then continues with "Morgan Lewis to produce to petitioner by October 2, 2020 all documents related to the," quote, 'preliminary valuations' closed quote, "of the Seven Springs easement as documents related to a preliminary valuation are of a business and not of a legal nature."

THE COURT: Well, that's the privilege. That's not work product. By the way, I made a ruling. It was either not appealed or affirmed. I'll change my mind if I think I was wrong, but I don't think I was wrong.

MR. KISE: gain, Your Honor, I know Your Honor loves that phrase, but as Your Honor's already pointed out, work product and privilege are two different things.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2593

Second, it's not that -- if individuals or entities that were not parties to that proceeding are here now, their privilege isn't waived. I mean, it's not possible to waive in perpetuity a privilege for some stranger to a proceeding. nd so those individuals and entities are entitled to assert the privilege and they're entitled to assert work product protection at this stage because they wouldn't have had any opportunity at the prior stage.

THE COURT: I understand.

MR. KISE: There would be no waiver based on that. So while I appreciate Mr. Solomon read, I'm sure, accurately from the prior determination, that would have no bearing on individuals or entities that were not participants in that process.

THE COURT: Yes, I understand waiver is a partial and fallback argument, but I don't think -- it's certainly not privileged. I don't believe it's work product either. So let's proceed.

MR. SOLOMON: Can we have it offered into evidence?

THE COURT: Over objection, it's admitted into evidence.

Q Please look at the second page, ma'am.

Did you understand this to be the value conclusions from Mr. Curry for the potential conservation easement over the demonstrative driving range at TNGC L ?

Looking at this document today I don't know if this is the document that was attached to the e-mail you've got. ssuming that it is, I assume this to be some sort of preliminary value conclusion. I don't know if it's a final conclusion. I don't know what it is in isolation, but it is something that shows some valuation numbers. I don't know in what context. If you had other documents -- the final ones are in the appraisal. I know what those are, but these I don't know.

Q I understand, ma'am, but I want to establish the knowledge that you had at various points in time, okay?

I understand there is a -- you think there is a final appraisal. We'll get to it whatever you think it might be. My point is different. t this point in time, you had received Trump Estates Conservation Easement Valuation from the person at Cushman & Wakefield that was tasked with appraising the value of the potential donation of a conservation easement at TNGC L ; correct?

nd, again, I'm sorry, I'm a lawyer. I'm precise. That's what I do. I get paid to be precise. I get paid a lot to be precise, so my problem is if you want me to assume this was attached to that e-mail, I can't coordinate these dates for you because there is no date on what I'm looking at, so I don't know what point in time. I agree at some point in time this appears to be prepared. It doesn't say Cushman & Wakefield on it. I don't know who prepared it. This looks like lots of things I've seen. I've seen many, many, many of these and I'm sure you have, too, by now so I can't connect those dots for you. I would like to. I'm not trying to be -- I prefer to go home instead of sit here, so I'm not trying to delay this. I just can't give you what you want.

Q See if we can approach this another way.

This is how it was produced to us, these pages together, number one.

Number two, "VE" on the bottom, Vincent & Elkins, it was produced by your prior firm, okay? I am making that representation to you that that's who it came from and that's how it was produced as one document. That was in fact an attachment to the December 2014 e-mail, okay? Can you accept that? Can you accept that representation?

I didn't produce the document, so yes, I'll accept -- I'm not trying to quibble with you. ll I'm trying to say is this has no date on it. I don't know. It's an e-mail on that date. I'll agree with that it had an attachment of some sort. Is this what was attached to that e-mail? If you say so, all right.

Q Okay. Let's go based upon that, please?

Okay. So your testimony is that this --

Q No. My representation to you, ma'am?

My representation.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2596

THE COURT: We agreed to be precise.

Q So this second page, if you see note one is before condition. On the top line, "development and golf course property value before condition note one;" right?

Yes, I see that.

Q nd if you look down bottom, the note says, "60 lots and golf course without driving range;" right?

Yes.

Q Okay. "Less development and golf course property value after condition." That's note two; right?

Yes.

Q nd note two is "44 lots and golf course without driving range;" right?

Yes.

Q Okay. You don't need to grab a calculator. 60 minus 44 is 16? That's the 16 lots I made the representation to you about earlier when I asked you to do the math and we did the math together; right, 16 lots?

I don't think we did math on 16 lots. We did math on the value.

Q Yes. 16 lots times approximately 1.7 million per lot. Do you recall that?

Yes, but we weren't -- yes, but the question wasn't 16 lots. It was what was the value. That's what we were doing before was the math.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2597

Q You questioned whether there were 16 lots on the driving range and I told you I was going to show you later that there were in fact 16 lots on the driving range and that's what I'm doing here. Do you see that the before and after show a difference of 16 lots?
I see 16 lots here, but my memory tells me there are many -- there are different configurations at various points in time and it wasn't always 16.
Q Is it 16 here?
It's 16 on this document, yes.
Q Thank you.
So reading this now and assuming this was the attachment to the e-mail cover, okay, Mr. Curry comes up with a valuation for the development and golf course property before the condition of 108 million; right?
108 million. I see that on the page, yes.
Q Okay. nd then the value after the condition is 82 million. Do you see that?
I see the total value after is 82 million.
Q Okay. So by no later than December of 2014 you had received information that the value of the golf course according to Mr. Curry before the condition was 108 million; right?
Yes, if this document was attached to the December 12th e-mail, then yes, this shows the 108 million.
MR. SOLOMON: Okay. Let's mark PX 1464 for identification.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2598

THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
Q Do you recognize what's been marked as Exhibit PX 1464?
I recognize -- I don't specifically recognize it, but yes. It's an appraisal report.
Q Okay. nd you'll see that on the page five of 160 it's signed by Brian Curry?
Yes.
Q nd also by Richard Zbranek?
Yes.
Q Did you receive this appraisal report on or about March 12, 2015?
I'm not sure when I received it, but it is dated March 4, 2015 in the cover letter and it was sent to Ms. Jill Martin. So I don't know when I got it, but somewhere around that time frame.
Q Go back to the first page of the exhibit.
Okay.
Q E-mail?
The e-mail.
Q Yes, ma'am. Thank you.
You'll see that it was originally sent to Sam Guthrie and on March 12th -- Samuel was -- is a he?
Yes.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2599

Q He forwards it on to you on March 12, 2015; right?
Yes.
Q Okay. So by no later than March 12, 2015 you had this appraisal; correct?
Yes.
Q Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: We'll offer this into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and the appraisal itself is hearsay.
THE COURT: I assume it's notice not for the truth of its contents. Objection overruled. nd it's introduced solely for notice, not the truth of its contents.
MR. KISE: Notice to whom? To Ms. Dillon?
THE COURT: Plaintiff, you're claiming notice to anyone else?
MR. SOLOMON: The interior letter on the appraisal itself is directed to Ms. Jill Martin as the witness testified.
MR. KISE: I'm looking at the top of the e-mail, that's fine. If that's the case, I want to be clear.
THE COURT: So just Jill Martin.
MR. SOLOMON: Jill Martin originally and it was forwarded to Samuel Guthrie who was --
THE COURT: Two people?
MR. SOLOMON: t a minimum.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2600

THE COURT: Deal.
MR. KISE: s reflected in this exhibit, that's who is the notice, not at a minimum, if they're not in here.
THE COURT: It could have been shown to other people.
MR. KISE: It could have been --
THE COURT: I understand just for purpose of notice to those three people.
MR. KISE: Correct.
THE COURT: I told you we understand each other.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, before I go into this in depth, you have given me a five-minute warning.
THE COURT: bout four minutes ago, so let's take a break now. 15-minute break and I'm starting again in 15 minutes.
(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)
THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.
THE COURT: Notice that Rock & Roll song, "Can I get a witness?" "Can I get a witness, witness, witness?"
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)
THE COURT: Please continue.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2601

CONTINUED DIRECT EX MIN TION
BY MR. SOLOMON:
Q Ms. Dillon, can we turn to the appraisal which has been marked as PX 1464?
Yes.
Q You'll see on the cover of the appraisal itself, it's dated as of December 16, 2014; correct?
Correct.
Q nd that is the valuation date; right?
I believe so, yes.
Q Okay.
I'd have to confirm it on the inside.
Q Please take a moment. I'm sorry if I misspoke. It's December 26, 2014 is the date on the cover.
Yes, and that is the valuation date.
Q Okay. The fourth page is the letter addressed to Jill Martin. Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd I had mentioned to you an entity VH Property Corp as one of the owners. If you look at the fifth line down there is a reference to property owned by VH Property Corp and VHPS LLC (collectively, the "Donor") and "donor" is in quotes. Do you see that?
I do.
Q Does that refresh your recollection that the owner of the property were those entities?

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2602

Yes, to a degree.
Q What do you mean by "to a degree?"
Well, I'm not sure if it was VHPS LLC that directly owned it or if it was Property Corp, but it was in a structure and those were the ultimate -- I think one owned through the other. I just can't quite remember the setup.
Q Do you have any reason to believe the information contained in this cover letter is inaccurate in any way with respect to the owner of the property?
No. It's just a little unclear, perhaps.
Q Turn to the next page. You'll see there is a chart Valuation Summary. Similar to what you saw in that attachment to your e-mail; right?
Yes.
Q Has the before condition property as note one; right?
Yes.
Q $107 million; right?
That's what it says.
Q Okay. nd is that your understanding of Mr. Curry and Mr. Zbranek's conclusion as to the value of the TNGC L property before the condition?
It is my understanding that is the before condition of the property they valued as 107 million.
Q Okay. nd the after condition, 82 million; right?

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2603

That is what it says.
Q nd that gives you -- I think you explained the math and how it is -- the value of the easement would be $25 million?
Well, unless there are some other adjustments, but that appears to be what they valued the easement as.
Q So the next line is 25 million?
Yes.
Q nd then they didn't have to make any adjustments, N/ ?
They did not make any adjustments.
Q I'm sorry. Please finish your answer.
Yes, it said "not applicable" so there are no adjustments. There is a difference. It's not zero. It's not applicable.
THE COURT: Make sure she's completely finished and try not to keep saying okay, okay, okay. Just ask your next question.
Q Line E, which is "C-D, conservation easement 25 million." Do you see that?
I do see that.
Q Did you understand that to be the conclusion of the valuation of the conservation easement?
I understood that to be the estimated fair market value of the conservation easement as of December 26, 2014.
Q If I could ask you to turn to page 156 of 160 in the exhibit.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2604

156, did you say?
Q Yes, of 160. You'll see there are small numbers on the bottom of each page.
Yes, give me a second. I'm on the wrong --
Q Of course.
Yes, I'm there.
Q Do you see the chart in the middle of the page, "Sales Price Per Hole Value Estimate?"
I do.
Q nd the sale price per hole conclusion is $15,800,000. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q What understanding, if any, did you have or do you have as to what that number represents?
It has been a long time since I've looked at this, so I need to read around it to better understand it. I have no recollection sitting here today it was another way of valuing things. I just don't recall what it was doing. This is a backup for their work product.
Q If you look at the top of page 156, the title is "Price Her Hole." Do you see that?
I see that. If you want me to read this, then maybe I can help you, but it's going to take me a minute to get there. It's been years since I've read this valuation and it was complicated because of the golf course property, the driving range property, and the concept, the hypothetical subdivision, and lot.

THE COURT: Wait. Just to try to save time. If he asks you if you see the title of a paragraph, just yes or no. You don't have to say that you haven't read it. We understand that.

THE WITNESS: Okay. So if all he wants me to do is verify the words, yes, I see price per hole, yes.

Q Do you have any understanding as to whether that $15.8 million number is the estimated value for the golf course property?

No, I don't have an understanding without having read some of this.

Q Let's go back to the earlier chart that we were looking at where the number was, if I recall correctly, $107 million. nd that's on page five of 160?

Ma'am, it is --

Q Ma'am, it's up on the screen, if that helps you.

Not really. Okay, yes.

Q Did you ever discuss with anyone at the Trump Organization the Valuation Summary that valued the before condition of the property at $107 million?

My discussions with my --

Q Yes. It's a yes-or-no question.

MR. ROBERT: Objection.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2606

THE COURT: It's a yes-or-no question, isn't it?

MR. ROBERT: I think we're getting into issues of attorney/client privilege. He's now asking the substance of a conversation.

THE COURT: No, I think he asked her did she ever discuss it with anybody at the Trump Organization.

Let's have a read back of the question.

(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)

MR. ROBERT: That would be in consultation with providing legal advice. The questions that --

THE COURT: But it's not the advice. He's allowed to ask that question, no doubt about it.

nswer the question, please.

I don't remember whether I discussed specifically the -- did you say the before condition of the property of 107 million?

Q That was my first question.

Yes, I don't recall if I discussed the before condition of the property at 107 million.

Q Did you discuss with anyone at the Trump Organization any of the information contained on the Valuation Summary?

MR. ROBERT: I'll just have a continuing objection to this line, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Understood. Overruled.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2607

Not sure what you mean by "discussion," but I certainly -- Jill Martin had the conservation easement showing it was valued at $25 million, so I'm sure at some point I shared that information with her and perhaps with others that this was the final value conclusion so that they could make a decision as to what they were going to do.

Q You say "perhaps others," which others?

gain, we had a long list of people that might have been involved in the project, so I'm not sure who was steering the project besides Jill Martin. It might just have been Jill Martin, it might have been any of the others that I talked to.

Q Okay. I wasn't asking who was steering the project. I asked with whom you discussed any of the information on the Valuation Summary.

I do not remember who I would have spoken to some ten years ago.

Q nd let me be clear. Do you recall any communications -- and remember I gave you that very broad definition of communications earlier today? Orally, written or any other form of transmitting or receiving information.

Did you have any communications with anyone at the Trump Organization concerning any of the information on the Valuation Summary?

Sitting here today, I am confident I would have had some communications about valuation with some people at the Trump Organization. Sitting here today, ten years later, I don't recall who that would have been with other than Jill Martin.

Q Did you send a copy of this appraisal to anyone at the Trump Organization at anytime?

I can't recall sitting here today whether I did or not. Jill had it, so I'm not sure if I was transmitting anything or if they were getting it from Jill. I don't remember.

Transcript continues on the following page....

Q Who would be getting it from Jill? Who are you referencing in that last answer?
It would be whoever she would send it to. I don't know. Yeah, they would have needed it at the Trump Organization.
Q What do you mean by "needed it at the Trump Organization"?
They would have needed documentation to know what they did.
Q So who at the Trump Organization would need that documentation to know what they did?
MR. KISE: Objection. Calls for speculation.
THE COURT: Without speculating, who, if any, would have received this?
nd so who do I think Jill would have sent it to if I don't recall who I sent it to? Is that the question?
MR. SOLOMON: That was not the question, Your Honor. May I ask for a readback?
THE COURT: Readback, please.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)
MR. KISE: gain, Your Honor, that's just -- now that I see it read back, it's just complete speculation. How would she know anything about internal affairs of the Trump Organization?

THE COURT: Well, she dealt with them.
MR. KISE: It doesn't appear that the witness remembers who she sent it to herself much less who in the Trump Organization might have received it. It appears to call for complete speculation.
MR. SOLOMON: Question wasn't who might have received it. The witness testified she understood it would have been sent to whoever at the Trump Organization needed it. nd my question was specifically tailored to that last answer as to who she was referring to when she said who at the Trump Organization might have needed it.
MR. KISE: I don't think she was referring to anyone. I think she was just simply saying when you say I don't --
MR. SOLOMON: Counsel, your thinking of who she might have been referring to is not relevant. The witness' stated who would have needed it. I asked her who that was.
MR. KISE: She said whoever might have needed it would get it.
MR. SOLOMON: I'm entitled to ask who she was referring to.
MR. KISE: I'm entitled to say it is calling for speculation because I don't know if this witness is capable of knowing that.
THE COURT: Overruled. If she doesn't know, she doesn't. If she can tell us, she'll tell us.

Could we have the question again, please?
THE COURT: For a third time, yes. Let's have it read back.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)
nd it -- to the extent anyone wanted to use it to support a charitable deduction on a tax return, the people that would need it would be the accountants and most importantly, the outside accountant who prepared the returns which would be Donald Bender.
Q You said 'the accountants' and then differentiated "the outside accountants." The first accountant, were you referring to the inside accountants at the Trump Organization?
Yes.
Q Okay. Who were those people?
The person that probably would have needed it would have been Jeff McConney.
THE COURT: Try not to say, "okay."
MR. SOLOMON: I'm sorry, Your Honor.
THE COURT: That's okay.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, pull up PX 731 native which is in evidence and go to lines 381 -- let's start at the top of the document first.
Q This previously has been identified as what's known as Jeff Supporting Data or the Supporting Data for the Donald J. Trump nnual Statement of Financial Condition and this is the one for June 30, 2015.

MR. SOLOMON: Could we, please, go to lines 38 through 404.
Q You'll see that for the year ending 6/30/2014, the total valuation for Trump National Golf Club L is $213,690,642. Do you see that?
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: Grounds?
MR. ROBERT: There is no foundation this witness even knows what this document is. He's just asking her if she sees something on a page up on a screen.
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: I'm getting there, Your Honor. I'm just asking if she saw that number on the screen.
THE COURT: Objection sustained. I think we need to know context of what this document is.
Q You mentioned Jeff McConney --
MR. SOLOMON: Sorry. Your Honor, we need to know?
THE COURT: What this document is and the witness certainly might need to know what this document is.
MR. SOLOMON: nd I represented that this is Jeff McConney Supporting Data. That's why we went to the top, the June 30, 2015 Statement of Financial Condition of Donald

S. DILLON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2613

J. Trump.
THE COURT: ll right.
MR. SOLOMON: It is in evidence, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. nd maybe I should have --
MR. SOLOMON: I understand the witness may not have seen this document before. That's not what I'm asking.
THE COURT: That's what I want to get into.
Q What I want to show the witness is as you see as of June 30, 2015 the valuation for TNGCL according to this document is $140,710,895. Do you see that?
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: Overruled. Maybe the question was -- I don't know whether the question was proper before or after, but now it is proper. It has been identified and he's just asking if she sees the number on the document. Overruled.
Q nd you recall --
THE COURT: Did we get an answer? Did we get an answer that she saw the number?
Q Do you see that, ma'am?
I see the number sitting here right now in this courtroom on that screen.
Q Thank you. nd you recall the appraisal that we just saw had valued the entire property at 107 million before the donation of the conservation easement? Do you recall that?

I -- I want to take a step back first. I think --
Q Ma'am, my question was do you recall that the appraisal that we saw earlier on the chart on page 5 of 160 valued the property as you agreed at $107 million before the easement donation? It is a yes or no.
MR. KISE: Objection, Your Honor. Mr. Solomon is using this witness to make some sort of closing argument. He's trying to get the witness to close the loop on connections between documents, one of which the witness hasn't even seen before today and she's just -- the only answer she's given is, "Yes, I can see" like I could give that answer, "Yes, I see the number on the screen says 213 million;" but there's no foundation for her to go ahead and now extrapolate, "I see this appraisal," "I see Jeff McConney's spreadsheet" and somehow there is an interconnectivity there. There is no foundation at all for this. It is totally improper to question this witness about something she knows nothing about.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I haven't asked her to extrapolate anything. I asked her if she saw the number on the screen and I asked her if she remembers a number on a document that she identified that is in evidence for notice.
THE COURT: I don't think that proves much necessarily.
MR. KISE: Notice to whom? We are back to that.

S. DILLON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2615

We established before that the only people that was introduced for notice for did not include Mr. McConney, that I'm aware of. It was the people that were on the e-mail. That was what was agreed to when we introduced the document.
THE COURT: You're objecting to the question or the number's different? Is one number and one number is B?
MR. KISE: If that's all he is asking, does this number on that page says this, and this number on this page says that.
MR. SOLOMON: So the record is clear, the witness also said that since this was on the tax return as a deduction, it would have been sent to Jeff McConney.
MR. KISE: No. No, Your Honor. She did not say that. She said who might need it, might need it, but she didn't testify that that's exactly who it was sent to. She can't possibly do that because she doesn't know who it was sent to. He is now putting words in her mouth which is the danger of going down these lines of questioning.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I will stand on the record transcript as to what the witness testified to with respect to Mr. McConney in receiving what I'm assuming this appraisal.
MR. KISE: Your Honor, she didn't testify that Mr. McConney received it because she can't probably do that.
THE COURT: You know, one thing that even though

I've been judge for over 20 years, I feel like I'm learning more in this case than others, which is we don't deal with -- we don't deal with speculation, the court system. We don't deal with speculation, but we don't deal with certainties either. If somebody says, "Well, I think this person could have" or "I would have" or "This is how I normally did things," it is up to the trier of fact to decide whether it happened or not.
MR. KISE: I would respectfully disagree particularly when it comes to things like intent of a criminal statute. You can't just assume that someone received a document and then ignored it which is exactly what the ttorney General is asking. That's where they're going with this is they're trying to establish through a witness who would have absolutely no knowledge whether Mr. McConney actually received something from Jill Martin.
The right witness to ask is Jill Martin or Mr. McConney, but certainly not this witness. We can't skip over the part where we establish that Mr. McConney actually had a copy of this document and, therefore, would have acted or not acted in a particular way. That's clearly what they're trying to establish, to just back-door here knowledge, actual knowledge and, therefore, intent which they'll argue later that Mr. McConney acted in a certain way or failed to act in a certain way. They can't presume that based on a witness who has absolutely no basis to conclude one way or the other whether or not Mr. McConney would have received this document.

THE COURT: We have a fundamental difference about that. Let me ask you a hypothetical. What if there's proof, solid proof that this witness, and this is a hypothetical, had mailed it to Mr. McConney? We don't -- but we don't have Mr. McConney saying, "Yes, I received it." Could the trier of fact conclude that yes, he received it?

MR. KISE: We don't have that evidence. Your hypothetical assumes facts not in evidence. So if they were to establish that -- if they were to establish, for example, that this witness actually e-mailed it to Mr. McConney, yes, then they would be able to establish that, in fact, this witness would have a basis to know or it would be reasonable for her to conclude that Mr. McConney received it because of the fact of sending.

We have none of that here. What we have is a witness who has been more or less forced to speculate as to who might need it within the organization based on her knowledge and now they're taking that to mean that Mr. McConney, in fact, received it and they're comparing it to Mr. McConney's spreadsheet which the witness has never seen before today it would appear and doesn't have any ability to testify about what any of these numbers on the page mean and connecting the dots.

THE COURT: The number says what it means.

MR. KISE: Well -- but there's a lot of different numbers on here than when you compare them on the valuation and the appraisal. They're oversimplifying and conflating communications, oversimplifying comparison and conflating the communications with a witness who, again, has no basis to know what, in fact, was actually sent or received. If she said it, that's a different story. If they would like to establish that, then okay, then establish that; but they haven't established that.

THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, who goes first, me or you?

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I've learned if you're going to rule in my favor, to sit down, grab my briefcase and leave the courtroom.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, have we established that we don't need the alleged recipient to say, yes, I received it? There are other ways that a trier of fact can conclude that somebody received something.

MR. KISE: There is, but you have to actually do that. I mean, of course, there are other ways. gain, you pointed out if this witness were to testify "I e-mailed it to Mr. McConney," if this witness testified, "I Federal Expressed it to Mr. McConney," if this witness testified, "I mailed it to Mr. McConney," that would suffice. But what you have here is a witness speculating on who might need it within the organization, "might" being the operative word, and no indication from this witness who is being examined about this at this moment, whether or not Mr. McConney, in fact, received it one way or the other. There's no indicia. I don't think the witness could possibly tell you whether or not it was even sent to him. ll she has testified to is what she thinks might have happened. That's not sufficient to establish receipt or even delivery.

THE COURT: We're talking preponderance standard here, 51 percent.

Mr. Solomon, would you explain as specifically as you can what you think the witness has testified to that would indicate in any way that Mr. McConney had received the -- this, whatever we're calling it, origin document.

MR. SOLOMON: The fact -- number one, the fact the witness testified that it was used for tax deduction and that she would have to send it or the recipient would have to be the accountant and the outside accountants. I asked her who. She differentiated between inside and outside. The inside was she identified Mr. McConney, but I didn't want to interrupt Mr. Kise and I think, Your Honor, we can settle this in one quick and easy moment. If the Court looks at line 393 on Mr. McConney's spreadsheet, "per appraisal."

MR. KISE: Right. Which appraisal? That's a different -- that's yet a different number. gain, I'm not sure exactly what Mr. Solomon -- he's smarter than this. I don't know what he's trying to establish. I mean, truly, you can't have this witness testify about who would have received something, maybe might. It's not possible. nd it's not possible to connect up -- if they -- if they want to call Ms. Martin to testify, if they want to call Mr. McConney and ask him about it. I mean, while we're at it, she said that Mr. Bender -- she said that Mr. Bender might have received it or would have received it as well. Is that then to mean Mr. Bender -- we can assume in evidence now that Mr. Bender, in fact, received it?

THE COURT: I don't think it is a question of assumption. It is an issue of fact. I think they raise that issue.

MR. KISE: So then we are to say here that Mr. Bender, in fact, received this appraisal as well. Based on that testimony, she said Mr. Bender and Mr. McConney. So if the sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander as you say, so if, in fact, we're going to presume now that based on this witness' testimony, which is speculation, that Mr. McConney received it, well, then -- then the same fact has to be assumed with respect to Mr. Bender. I don't think either makes any sense, frankly, but if you're going to allow one, then you have to allow that it is a fact now established in the record that Mr. Bender --

THE COURT: If you want to try to bring that out on any sort of questioning, feel free. I'm not going to go there now.

MR. KISE: But there's no way to do one without the other respectfully.

THE COURT: I made my ruling. Enough. I made my ruling.

Mr. Solomon, where are we? I would like to know how we know what -- how we connect that 50 million and change number to a particular appraisal if we can or you can just withdraw that point.

MR. SOLOMON: No. I was just pointing out to Your Honor that the spreadsheet said "per appraisal" as to the question with respect to Mr. McConney. The number I was focusing the witness on is the line on 404 and I don't mean 404 error, I mean line 404 on the spreadsheet value as of 6/30/2015 is 140 million and I --

THE COURT: I know what number you're trying to get to.

MR. SOLOMON: Right. I'm sorry.

THE COURT: I think you were trying to show that Mr. McConney must have seen the appraisal because it says

S. DILLON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2622

"per appraisal," but it doesn't say which appraisal. But if the number is the same, then I'll, as the trier of fact, could say, "Oh, that's the appraisal that the number came from."

MR. KISE: But it isn't the same number.

THE COURT: Okay. So I'm not reading anything into that because we don't know what appraisal it was, but everything else stands.

Q Ma'am, before today, were you ever aware that as of June 30, 2015, the Trump Organization valued TNGCL property at $140 million?

I was not aware of -- I've never seen this document. Everyone seems to accept that, so I don't even know what this is. I don't know what it's valuing. I don't know what it's doing, so I don't know what the $140 million -- I've never been aware of what they, otherwise, valued Seven Springs at in -- at that time. I've certainly seen things in the news since that time.

Q Okay. I think that was just a mistake in your answer and let me clarify for the record. You said Seven Springs?

Oh, I'm sorry. California.

Q It is a simple yes or no. Prior to today, were you aware whether the Trump Organization valued TNGCL as of June 30, 2015 at $140 million? It is a yes or no.

THE COURT: That's a yes or no.

THE WITNESS: You all think this is simple, Your Honor. Respectfully, there's been so much in the news about this, I don't know if I've heard this before or not. m I aware? Do I have personal knowledge of it? No. Have I heard it in the last? I don't know. Two years since this case has been going on, probably. I've heard various numbers at various times that there's a value disparity supposedly, allegedly and I, you know -- was I aware of any of this realtime? No, if that's your question.

Q Sure. Let's talk about prior -- you said realtime so, that may only be at one point in time.

Prior to the filing of this action, were you aware that the Trump Organization valued TNGCL at $140 million as of June 30, 2015?

I was not aware of the spreadsheet. I'm not sure what they did with that number, so I don't know. Nothing to do with the spreadsheet? Is that your question?

Q Yes, nothing to do with the spreadsheet. nd ma'am, let's be very clear. I'm just asking if prior to commencement of this action, were you aware that the Trump Organization valued TNGCL at $140 million as of June 30, 2015; yes-or-no question?

No.

Q Did you ever discuss with Jeff McConney in form or substance how he should value TNGCL ?

S. DILLON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2624

MR. ROBERT: Objection. You are now getting into legal advice that would have been given to a client.

THE COURT: That's business advice, not legal advice.

MR. ROBERT: They're consulting their attorney who is a tax attorney to give them tax advice. This is not a business consultant. They're not talking to the appraiser. The question was did you ever talk with Jeffrey McConney in form or substance how he should value.

THE COURT: It is not asking for the substance. Did they ever discuss? Overruled. They are allowed to ask what was discussed. When it comes to a business advice request, that's something else. So we're getting close to that maybe, but we're not there yet.

Q It is a yes-or-no question.

Could you read it back, please?

THE COURT: Read back.

(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)

No.

Q Did you ever discuss with anyone at the Trump Organization how they should value TNGCL for purposes of the Statement of Financial Condition?

Not to my recollection other than -- let me correct that. I did discuss how it was valued for tax purposes and for, you know -- I made -- when we had the appraisal, so certainly again -- are we including Donald Bender in the Trump Organization or is he an agent? I don't know where he fits in.

Q Let's include him for the moment.
I would have discussed it with Donald Bender because he has to attach the appraisal to the tax return, so I would have sent him the appraisal and discussed it with him and explained the appraisal to him, so he would have known the value to report on the tax return.
Q Other than Mr. Bender, did you discuss the valuation of TNGCL with anyone at the Trump Organization in connection with the Statements of Financial Condition?
I do not believe so, no.
Q Did you ever discuss with anyone at the Trump Organization, and let's exclude Mr. Bender for the moment, anyone at the Trump Organization the valuation of TNGCL ?
I don't -- I don't recall. Over the years, I'm sure it may have come up at some point in time, but I don't recall any specific conversations about that.
Q Do you recall any general conversations?
I don't recall whether we ever had any or not.
Q Did you ever discuss with anyone at the Trump Organization? nd for purposes of this --
Can I correct my last answer?
Q Please.

S. DILLON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2626

I certainly would have had conversations with Jill Martin when we were doing the appraisal for the federal income tax purposes which is a very unique kind of appraisal.
Q nyone else?
I'm trying to think and remember.
Q Please.
I don't believe so.
Q Would you have discussed it with Mr. Weisselberg since this had to do with tax planning purposes? nd I mean llen Weisselberg.
I don't believe so, but people would have been aware and I would have -- the bottom line, would have been discussed, the value of the conservation easement is what would have been a topic.
Q What about the valuation of the property?
The valuation of the property as a whole? I don't recall having conversations about that.
Q Let's turn to Briarcliff Manor.
Yes.
Q Do you recall that property?
Yes.
Q That's the property located in Westchester?
I believe it is located in Westchester. It's been a while since I've been there.
Q That's owned by Briarcliff Manor, LLC, right?

S. DILLON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. SOLOMON) Page 2627

I would have to look at a chart. If you want to represent that, I'll -- I accept your representation.
Q We'll get to it in a document later on. I don't need to represent that, ma'am.
Did there come a time that you were consulted in connection with the donation of a potential conservation easement over a portion of that development?
Yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we look at PX 157, which I believe is in evidence already.
Q Ma'am, feel free to look at whatever you need to answer my question, but I'm going to start with is that your signature on page 9 of 11?
Yes.
Q If you look at page 4 of 11 and look at "intended use," "To estimate the value of 71 hypothetical residential units located at Trump National Golf Club Westchester, 1 Shadow Tree Lane, Briarcliff Manor, New York, (the "property"). Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Do you now -- withdrawn.
Do you recall that the task for the Briarcliff property was to determine the value of a potential donation of a conservation easement over 71 hypothetical residential units?
I'm sorry. I was looking at this. I didn't quite catch the question. I was trying to take a look at the engagement letter.

Q In looking at the engagement letter, do you have an understanding as to why Cushman & Wakefield was being engaged?
It was an engagement that we were exploring whether -- the Trump Organization was exploring whether or not to donate a conservation easement and restrict certain of its land.
Q That would be over 71 hypothetical residential units, right?
Yes, it would be to prohibit the building of 71 hypothetical residential units.
Q Let's remember the number 71 because that's going to come up later.
MR. SOLOMON: If we can, please, can we mark PX 3197 for identification. It is already in evidence. If can we look at PX 3197, please.
Q Ma'am, do you recognize this document?
I see that it is an e-mail that I was copied on, but I don't have any particular recollection of it.
Q Is it fair to say, though, in or about October of 2013, you were aware that Cushman & Wakefield was ready to move forward with a written report?
I see that's what it says.
Q nd that's Trump Westchester. Is that a reference to Trump Briarcliff?

Sitting here today, I think so, but there are a variety of Trump properties that were located in Westchester.
Q But sitting here today, you do believe this is a reference to Briarcliff, right?
Hopefully, that's what Mr. Mc rdle told you.
Q That wasn't my question.
Sitting here today, is it your understanding that that is a reference to Briarcliff, Trump Briarcliff?
It is a reference to Trump Westchester. I don't have an understanding one way or the other that it says Trump Westchester. gain, if you have materials, I'm happy to look at things that say "Trump Briarcliff."
Q Maybe we'll get to those. Do you recall if you moved forward with a written report for Trump Briarcliff on or about October of 2013?
What I recall is there was never a -- a donation was never made. The project was explored on and on for a long period of time. I don't recall the fits and starts and timeline of it all.
MR. SOLOMON: If we can, please, mark for identification PX 3201. Sorry. It's been corrected. It's already been moved in evidence.

Q PX 3201 is an e-mail chain. Top line is from David Mc rdle to Eric Trump with a cc to you. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q "David per my conversation with Sheri, cc'd, please finish but hold off on sending the appraisal until further notice." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Was Eric Trump involved in the consideration of the potential easement donation for Briarcliff?
He was aware. I'm not sure if I'd say he was involved. I mean, he was involved. I just don't know what level of involvement you have. But yes, he was more than aware of it. He was more than aware and I don't know what you mean by "involved."
Q Were you running all relevant material decisions past him before moving forward?
I would have run decisions by representatives of the Trump Organization, not necessarily always Eric.
Q Did you run decisions past Eric in connection with the Trump Briarcliff potential donation?
You're making me uncomfortable again with privilege.
Q It's a yes or no. Not asking what the decisions were, ma'am, and I'm not asking the substance of the decisions. I'm simply asking if you ran the decisions past him before moving forward.

Some decisions, yes; not all decisions.
Q Do you recall why a decision was made to hold off on sending the appraisal until further notice at that time?
MR. ROBERT: Objection. ttorney/client privilege. Why something was done or not done is clearly in the course of acting as the attorney for the organization.
MR. SOLOMON: My question, Your Honor, was not why. It's do you recall whether the decision was made. If I misspoke, I will rephrase it.
MR. ROBERT: Question was do you recall why a decision was made to hold off.
MR. SOLOMON: What I'm saying is yes or no. I wasn't asking what the reasons were.
MR. ROBERT: But I would respectfully submit when you're talking about an issue here that is clearly one of attorney/client privilege even the question of if you know why a decision was made, even the mere knowledge that the attorney has it is covered by privilege.
THE COURT: Rephrase or read back, either way I don't care, one other the other.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I can withdraw the question?
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: We'll fight on other fights.
MR. ROBERT: That I agree with.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I'm going to ask to put in front of the witness PX 1465, which I understand is already in evidence.
THE COURT: Six-minute warning. Break at 4:30.
Mr. Kise, was that your saved by the bell gesture?
MR. KISE: Ready to be done for today.
Q Ma'am, the court officer has put in front of you PX 1465, which is in evidence. Do you recognize this e-mail chain?
I can read it now and see there is the e-mail chain that I was drafting and receiving. Do I have a specific recognition of it, no.
Q Or recollection of it?
Or recollection of it, no.
Q Okay. If you turn to the second page of the exhibit, the e-mail from you to David Mc rdle?
Yes.
Q Okay. "I spoke to Eric and he is aware that the more supportable value at this point is around $45 million." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Was that the value of the hypothetical easement donation -- withdrawn.
Was that the value of the potential easement donation for the 71 hypothetical units?
I'm not sure if it was of the 71 units because one of the things that happens as you're going through this process is you sometime -- you change what may or may not be donated, what may or may not be restricted, whatever the case may be.

What I do see is that there was a value of around 45 million for whatever precisely it was that was being valued. Whether or not -- I don't know if it was 70 units, I don't know if it was determined there were really 75. I can't remember if there were 65. I know there was some confusion around that point, but it was -- the value of a potential donation was around 65 million for IRS purposes under the IRS appraisal standards as compared to other appraisal standards.

Q nd you'll see that Mr. Mc rdle responds to you: "Thanks, Sheri. That is a great summary of where we stand and glad we are aligned here. I will speak with Eric." Do you see that?

Yes.

Q Let me take a step back. I didn't ask you. Your e-mail that started with "I spoke to Eric," is that an accurate summary of your conversation with Eric Trump?

MR. ROBERT: Objection. The document is one sentence. There is a conversation with Eric Trump. That one sentence is what's there. This question is saying is that a -- let me have it right -- "Is that an accurate summary of your conversation?" If you want to talk about that -- whether that one sentence was said since that document is now in evidence, that's a fair question, but to talk about the conversation itself, I would say is privileged, Your Honor.

MR. SOLOMON: Is a response necessary? We're talking about valuations in an appraisal.

MR. ROBERT: You're talking about legal advice in a conversation between a tax attorney and her client. This can be nothing more fundamentally --

MR. SOLOMON: Which is disclosed in an e-mail that's been produced.

MR. ROBERT: One sentence was produced that says "I spoke to Eric and he is aware." If you want to say is that statement accurate, that's one thing, but this is not a waiver of the conversation that Ms. Dillon had with Mr. Trump.

THE COURT: How is it not a waiver if it was turned over?

MR. ROBERT: Well, first of all, let me just see. This was produced by -- pursuant to a court order and nonetheless the document itself may be provided, but the underlying substance of the communication is not waived. There is no waiver that's associated with that.

MR. SOLOMON: My question was if this was an accurate summary.

THE COURT: I'll -- as I often do, I'll make the simple ruling. Is this an accurate summary? That's a fair question for document that's already in evidence, is that --

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2635

MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Overruled. But again, we may be close, but just is that a fair summary. That's a fair question, of course to someone who says "I spoke to Eric." You mean is that a fair summary of, what, the whole paragraph?

MR. SOLOMON: Of the portion that recite what she said to Eric or you said, ma'am, to Eric. I don't mean to --

MR. KISE: But again, Your Honor, if he's asking the witness if what's in here is accurate does it say that, did you write that communication and is that -- what's in there accurate, that's one thing. But to ask what you --

THE COURT: That's all he asked.

MR. KISE: If that's what he's asking, but he's not asking it quite that way.

MR. SOLOMON: Mr. Kise is trying to parse this in what is not acceptable. I'm asking if what she wrote is an accurate summary of what she told Eric Trump on the phone call. I'm not asking if what she wrote -- this document is accurate as to what she wrote. There is no question the document is authentic. No one is challenging that. I'm asking if this is an accurate summary of what she said to Eric Trump in or about October 2013.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2636

MR. KISE: nd that then calls for direct attorney/client communication about the matters to which she was engaged to represent him on and represent the organization on, tax matters. That calls for just a direct communication. They have this evidence. They can argue whatever they want from this evidence, but to ask this witness is this specifically what you told your client in a privileged conversation, there is no waiver here of the privilege. This doesn't waive that privilege. It's not possible to waive that privilege just because you wrote in here something to a third party and made a summary.

If what's in there is accurate then they can argue what they want, but the idea that there is a waiver of privilege based on a document -- this document is nonstarter.

THE COURT: Just a side point, it's to David Mc rdle. He is --

MR. ROBERT: So, Your Honor, the point is if the question is did you tell Eric Trump and is he aware and you want to say that first sentence, is it true that you spoke to Eric Trump and did you tell him that the more supportable value at the point is around 45 million, that's a fair question. But to discuss that whether this e-mail is a fair summary of the entire conversation that Ms. Dillon had with Mr. Trump would constitute a waiver of attorney/client privilege. So the document that was produced is talking about that one sentence or what is contained in that paragraph. Therefore asking about if that sentence was discussed in the conversation is fair game, but once you go beyond that -- this e-mail wasn't designed to summarize the contents of the conversation between Ms. Dillon and Mr. Trump.

THE COURT: Well, whether it was or wasn't intended, I don't want to take more time on this. You can object. ll I understand the question to mean is asking this witness who wrote that paragraph that starts with "I spoke to Eric" and I think summarize -- a summary of the conversation question is is that an accurate summary of the conversation, is that what you're asking --

MR. SOLOMON: I could not have phrased it better myself, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I direct the witness to answer is that one paragraph, one summary of the conversation? Blame me if you have to.

Let me give this a try.

MR. KISE: Same objection.

Let me give this a try.

MR. SOLOMON: It's a yes-or-no question.

THE COURT: It's a yes-or-no question is that a fair summary of your discussion with Eric?

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2638

To your point about my entire discussion with Eric or partial discussion, it's not a yes-or-no question in my view. If I could just have --

THE COURT: Go ahead, explain.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, other witnesses, including us, you have indicated if it's a yes-or-no question you have to answer yes or no and they're able to explain their answers by questioning on the other side.

MR. ROBERT: First of all, Mr. Solomon, as the judge would say if you can answer it yes or no and the witness said that they couldn't the judge would then allow them to answer.

THE COURT: Yes or no to me to the witness may not appear, so I'll allow an explanation. I hope it's brief.

It will be brief.

So I have no recollection of the conversation itself. I don't know if there is more in the conversation, I don't know if there is less in the conversation. I believe I would have accurately reflected the parts of the conversation that I reflected here I would believe are accurate, but whether there were more things talked about, less things -- well, wouldn't be less things, but I can't tell you that sitting here today. It was a conversation ten years ago.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I've gone over my time.

Page 2639

THE COURT: We'll bill you for that. Let me -- I order the witness not to talk about in this case or your testimony or anything related to anybody until your testimony is finished, which won't be at least until tomorrow obviously.

THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

MR. KISE: We have Ms. Dillon tomorrow and Flores?

MR. MER: Yes.

MR. KISE: Okay. Just want to be sure.

PROCEEDINGS Page 2642

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is now in session. Honorable Judge rthur Engoron presiding. Make sure all cellphones are on silent. Laptops and cellphones will be permitted, but only to members of the press. There's absolutely no recording or photography of any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now, be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Okay. So why are we here at 9:30 instead of 10:00? Because we're going to hear oral argument on a motion by Ivanka Trump to quash a subpoena, trial subpoena issued against her.

I read the papers, so, please, don't be too repetitive. I'm hoping that we can finish by 10:00. If we can't, then by 10:30. We want to try to finish with the current witness, Sheri Dillon, today. nd without further ado, who would like to speak on behalf of the motion?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Bennet Moskowitz on behalf of non-party witness Ivanka Trump. First, let me say thank you everyone here, especially Your Honor, Ms. Greenfield and the parties for giving us the time for this in the middle of a very busy trial.

I heard you loud and clear. I have no intention to just rehash what's in my moving papers. s Your Honor knows, I wasn't afforded a reply opportunity, so I'll take this opportunity to address things mostly that the G raised. What I will say just to level set here and I don't want to get lost in the shuffle with all the papers flying back and forth on this. We're not here about technical service defects. This is about fundamental issues of jurisdiction.

THE COURT: Good. That makes things a lot simpler.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Right, and hearing only facts that matter for purposes of the jurisdiction. Ms. Trump does not live in New York. She's not domiciled here and despite the fact that the G concludes otherwise and doesn't present evidence supporting that conclusion, she does not transact business here. Let me say it again, she does not transact business here. That has a very specific meaning under New York law.

Weinstein, Korn & Miller, no offense to Professor Siegal. He's great, too. I picked it up and Section 30809 of Weinstein, Korn & Miller, so that section of Weinstein, Korn & Miller provides, Your Honor, that actual place of business under New York law means where that person is regularly, physically present and regularly transacts business.

Ivanka Trump does not regularly transact business and does not regularly at any of the addresses where they served these subpoenas to these entities at most since 2017 and if they want an affidavit for that business, that's fine. By the way, side note, they didn't put in an affidavit because I urge the Court, and you read the papers, if you revisit it, maybe you don't need to, the correspondence attached to my affirmation, the G's position on this motion has been like a moving target.

First they said, "Oh, it is a subpoena to these entities." No, it is a subpoena to her. Now I'm hearing in their papers for the first time that she transacts business at Trump Tower. She does not. Since 2017, she's been there once or twice a year, never for business, to say hello, people including family members for 15 minutes, 30 minutes, things like that. So there is no basis to say a service on an entity at Trump Tower is service on her individually. That's just wrong.

Let's look at the case law here and I'll address mostly the case law that was cited by my friends across on the other side. First, they don't deal with the fact that Justice Fried's decision just as an example, melius is decisive. non-party, non-domiciliary is not subject to the subpoena power of the court. That's 64 New York State 3d 855 at 866. gain, that was Justice Fried.

When we had the ongoing discussions leading up to this motion and still today, perhaps the G relied on cases like 2323 Communications Corp. Those cases stand for a principle that's very different which is that where an entity is a party, it can be compelled to appear through a specific person. The entities they subpoenaed are not parties, so those cases are not applicable.

They also talk about this Gibson Dunn case. Let's take a close look at that case, Your Honor. It is a First Department case, doesn't help them. Maybe they didn't find anything better. In that case, you could tell that -- it's a Gibson Dunn case, is a dispute over legal fees and the person trying to evade service, Your Honor, had the legal fees sent to a specific Madison venue address. In the few months leading up to --

THE COURT: Wait. Wait, you don't mean that the legal fee was sent. How the bills were sent.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: The bill, excuse me, for the legal fees. Invoice me here kind of thing. Then there is a suit over legal fees. The person trying to say service didn't apply, jurisdiction didn't apply had been to that address for work multiple times leading up to the legal proceedings and leading up to the service. nd what the court found there was this guy induced Gibson Dunn to rely on this place where he does go to work sometimes. He can't now turn to the court and say that "I'm actually not really there that much." That's not this case.

Ivanka Trump didn't induce anyone to go to Trump Tower. She hasn't been there working since 2017 and she did not go to work there since then, certainly not in the three months leading up to this. So if that's the best case they can do, I'm happy with it. It doesn't help them. It helps me.

There are other cases. The Court doesn't have to take my word for it. lot of cases have cited that Gibson Dunn case and what they rely upon such as this Napoli vs. Bern which is 2021 Westlaw 5458747 at page three, 2021 case with the line of cases that I found talking about the Gibson Dunn case. They'll hook on to that inducement. This guy had the legal fees sent there, represented that's where he worked, and then he turned around and said ha-ha, fee over legal dispute, can't get me there.

Now, there is another new argument and, you know, Your Honor, I always tell younger associates there comes a time in trial where parties go a bridge too far and try not to do it. Here is the G's bridge way too far. How they assert for the first time and they are getting a little desperate here, respectfully, that Ms. Trump consented to this jurisdiction in this case because she's a party in the special proceedings.

They must take us all for fools. I'm looking around. This is not the special proceedings. They didn't issue the subpoenas in the special proceedings. There was no trial in the special proceedings, so that's just false on its face. nd in any event, we could cite case law that stands for the proposition, including First Department case law and this is pretty basic, that even consent in one action does not mean that there's jurisdiction over a person who consents even in a related action. Here is not what we are dealing with. They're saying we had this years-long social proceeding. She was subject to jurisdiction in that proceeding. Therefore, in this trial, under separate index number, which we issued subpoenas, she must come today. Not how it works and there's a reason we didn't hear that argument previously. It doesn't fly.

So let's talk about the entities. gain, I urge Your Honor to revisit the fact that the G kind of spoke from both sides of the mouth about what these subpoenas were. It is pretty simple. We all know what happened here. They had easy jurisdiction over Ivanka Trump. They could have served her at her house. Much different. We probably wouldn't be here today. What appears to happen is they task one someone in their office for saying let's go to the transcript let's look at documents let's find some entities that have something to do with her and let's fire off subpoenas. That's what they did.

THE COURT: Wait. Wait. Entities that had something to do with her? Didn't she own some of them and didn't some of them own parts of others?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I'll get to that. It is not clear.

The TTT and OPO entity, she absolutely has an affiliation with those entities as do other people who can competently testify for those entities, but let me stop there. gain, as non-parties, you don't get to subpoena those entities and say you must appear via specific person X rather, I'll get to it in a minute, it's black letter law an entity can provide anyone who's competent to testify which goes back to my point.

I asked them why TTT? Why this OPO entity? Why 502 Park? I never got an answer because what they were very honest about, and I appreciate, is that they want her to appear and there's no limitation in their mind of what they could ask her about because it is really not about these entities. That's just the way that they're trying to get jurisdiction over her. 502 Park, I said to them, "Guys, I'm having trouble here. I can't find anything on my end that shows what she has to do with this entity. What did you have before you served the subpoena." I didn't get an answer. You don't get to -- subpoena powers are awesome --

THE COURT: You might get an answer today if there is an answer.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yeah, I would like to know the answer because I haven't found it. I said, "Please, share it because if there is something "-- I'll note I spent a lot of time. I don't even know that that entity was used for anything. It exists, I grant you that. I could speculate at what it might have been. I have no document that says that like the other two that she was an officer or anything like that. She doesn't know what it is and the G doesn't know what it is.

So they weren't served on Ivanka Trump. They were served at best on these entities. nd, by the way, not all cleanly, but again, I'm not here about service stands or what. If they insist they need those entities, those entities can appear. I think they should articulate with why they need those entities, but I understand the defendants will speak for themselves. They offered -- for the two that we concern that they offer, they offered for someone who has lived here appear and testify for those entities, which you are allowed to do.

New York law again, I pulled out Weinstein, Korn & Miller. You can look at Section 230504, "If a subpoena to testify is served on and is addressed to an entity, that entity may choose the person who will be deposed," period. So they cite --

THE COURT: I'm very familiar with that concept that the entity has the right in the first instance to decide who to produce. I think we are in a different situation than the normal one here. s we all recognize, we are not looking for the entities. They're looking for the person.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: That's exactly right. t the end of the day, Your Honor, they just don't have jurisdiction over her. They tried with this transient business again articulated to me for the first time in their papers that they submitted to Your Honor and I just addressed it. It's just wrong and if they want an affidavit saying what I just represented to the Court as an officer and I'll say it again that she does not transact business at any of those places they served, I will be happy to do it.

THE COURT: Did she ever transact business?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yes.

THE COURT: When was the last time she transacted business?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Before 2017.

THE COURT: Okay. So what?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: You have to have jurisdiction over her now. If someone worked in New York 50 years ago and leaves, you don't get to say, "Hey, you once worked at this address. Come to trial." That's not how it works. It has to be jurisdiction now, transact business here now.

THE COURT: How are we going to define now? What if somebody transacts business here, leaves on a vacation or a business trip or is away?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: gain --

THE COURT: week later, they're not still --

MR. MOSKOWITZ: No. The Weinstein, Korn & Miller basic principle addresses that, Your Honor. If it is a place you regularly return to work such as like I work on Third venue where my law firm offices are. If I leave for a week and they serve me there, I can't turn around and say, "Oh, I was gone that week." Here, you have someone who didn't work at the place for many, many years. They no longer return there for work.

THE COURT: Let me ask you a question. Did Ivanka submit any sworn statement?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: On this motion, no, because again, I didn't hear this argument and didn't get a reply for it. I'm happy to submit one now. I would have done it in a reply brief.

THE COURT: Now is too late. I'm hoping to decide this today and if she testifies, it will be fairly soon.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I wasn't put on notice that that was their argument because they kept changing it. How could I respond to something they didn't articulate? I can't guess what their position is.

THE COURT: Well, it's standard practice in New York law that you need to have an affidavit from someone with personal knowledge if you're going to start spouting facts, but --

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I agree, and they don't have one either showing the opposite, but I'm happy to put one in today.

THE COURT: I'm not sure that they can prove a negative. Ivanka would be the person best able to say when she ever -- when was the last time she worked in New York or whether she still works in New York, what she owns here, et cetera, et cetera, but --

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I could get it to the Court S P.

THE COURT: I promise you I'm not a "Ha-ha, I got you" judge. I'm not trying to say, "Ha-ha, you didn't have an affidavit from her," but it does weaken your argument because you keep talking about what she does and doesn't do. She would know better than you.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I agree, and if I had been afforded an opportunity to reply, I would have submitted it. I did not want to disregard what the Court advised me which was no reply afforded, which was the e-mail I received.

THE COURT: Whether you should have needed a reply, waited for a reply, a reply is to respond to their arguments, but if you don't make out a prima facie case by an affidavit from Ivanka saying "I don't do these things. I don't live there," et cetera, I don't think that should have been in the reply. That should have been in moving papers, but that's just my opinion. ll right, continue.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor. So going back to the idea that corporations can designate their own witnesses, they cite the Standard Fruit case, totally different. In that case -- by the way, it was from 1977 -- the court did allow a party to subpoena an out-of-state witness. It was after the witness provided by the subpoenaed corporation was unable to testify to the relevant facts. nd even then, the court allowed the corporate entity to select between two different individuals.

THE COURT: When I said, I read all the papers, I didn't read all the cases, but that case, I did read.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Right. Right. So again, that's our point. The corporation gets to put someone up and it has to be someone who can speak to the facts, again, which is why my first question to them when we got notice that they were trying to serve these subpoenas, "Hey, what testimony are you going for" and we quoted this and it is in the exhibits to my affirmation. They were honest about it. I appreciate that. It was basically limited. It was, "She knows this, she knows that, but I can't really limit it," so they want her here. They want it to be unlimited. They didn't depose her. They could have. They didn't de benne esse, you know, subpoena her. They could have done that. I guess they didn't think she'd be out of the case. I'm sorry. She is and that changes things fundamentally. You're no longer in the case. You're not a resident. You don't work here. You don't have jurisdiction over that person. That's the breaks.

THE COURT: The expression is "that is the breaks."

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I'm referring in the singular situation, but I appreciate Your Honor's.

THE COURT: ll right. nything else on your initial -- I don't know whether we will have time for a reply, but was that it for now?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yes, Your Honor. I mean, I appreciate the possibility if I hear something new, to address it.

THE COURT: Probably. Probably.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yeah.

THE COURT: Okay. It is my understanding that the defendants themselves do not have standing to contest this, but I'll let them talk if they want to.

MR. KISE: Thank you, Your Honor. I don't know that I would say we don't have standing since it affects the impact of the trial and it affects the course of the trial, but in all events, I appreciate the opportunity to address.

THE COURT: We always like to hear your mellifluous voice.

MR. KISE: That's good. t least there's something positive that may happen here. I will try not to go over as you suggested, Your Honor. I'm not going to belabor the papers. I know you've read them and you've seen in our papers that we view the subpoena truly as just continued harassment of President Trump's children. They were all named and included in this case as leverage. There's no serious evidence that any of them had any involvement in the Statement of Financial Condition preparation.

Ms. Trump was dismissed from the lawsuit by the First Department and now despite having a year to depose Ms. Trump in this case, several months post-dismissal to depose her, now all of a sudden in the trial, the ttorney General claims that her testimony is somehow essential. I thought Mr. Wallace was going to object when he stood up. I'm just so used to it. No. No.

THE COURT: Obviously, testimony does not have to be "essential."

MR. KISE: Even if it were relevant then, then they should have done it during discovery. They're claiming now that only she can provide this information and if it was so essential, then why are we here in the middle of trial? There was no even attempt to do a de benne esse deposition which was done with other witnesses who may or may not be available for trial.

The exhibits attached to their motion demonstrate that this is an inexcusable delay. ll of the documents that I saw that were attached as exhibits were all things they had in their possession for at least a year, if not more. The ttorney General certified in their NOI, their note of issue, that all discovery was complete and the service of that prohibits reopening. I'll cite the Court to the Melcher case, 38 D3d 376. It is a First Department case that stands for that proposition that their certification meant that they've completed their investigative efforts for trial, their discovery efforts for trial and yet, this is tantamount to a discovery subpoena. Nothing was done.

To us, again, our answer is obvious they want to put Ms. Trump on the stand, create another media event while I'm always certainly happy to have the ttorney General in the courtroom, her presence today demonstrates that that's what this is about. I doubt she came here to hear Ms. Dillon. I doubt she came here to hear Mr. Flores. lthough, I'm sure the testimony will be riveting. Really the purpose here is to focus on another one of Mr. Trump's children who has been dismissed from the lawsuit.

To the jurisdictional point that Mr. Moskowitz raised, there's just no legal authority for the Court to require a non-party, non-domiciliary to appear at trial as a representative of a non-party entity. It's non, non, non.

nd the Court itself could not compel her attendance under these circumstances.

The service issue, I'll just touch on briefly. The service on -- and the cases -- I'm not citing all the papers. They're in their papers, Your Honor. The service on a non-party entity registered agent is not service. It is not service on Ms. Trump in her individual capacity and a non-party, non-domiciliary not subject to the court's subpoena power does not constitute service on Ms. Trump. nd I'll cite, as in our papers, the Genger case, 50 Misc.2d 361. The ttorney General argues that Ms. Trump did not contest jurisdiction in the special proceeding, but that's frankly a complete non sequitur. The Coutts case they cite is completely in opposite. That's a judgment debtor who fled the jurisdiction after judgment that then filed a parallel action against the creditor in a New York court.

There was no dispute that the court could obtain the jurisdiction over the debtor in the very case at issue, but here, you have Ms. Trump is not a party. She was dismissed by the First Department. She's not a judgment debtor and she's not actively litigating any affirmative case in New York.

The Standard Fruit case that they cite is also in opposite. There, an investigative subpoena sought information about that entity, about Standard Fruit, about that specific entity. They produced, as was their right, the first witness, the corporate designee to testify about relevant facts. Only after that witness testified and there was a demonstration that that witness could not -- could not testify did the court order another witness.

The melius case, which we also cite 64 NY Supp. 3d 855, draws the distinction further bearing out, Standard Fruit draws the distinction between a non-party corporation and a corporation under investigation. Here, you have three non-parties, none of which are under investigation, none of which have any association heretofore with this case.

So, the subpoenas were not served. They were served all on Ms. Trump. They were served on the non-party entities. Those non-party entities are entitled to designate a corporate representative and the ttorney General has the burden in the first instance to demonstrate that that designation was inadequate. The Barone case, 260 D2d 417 and the other cases we cite stands for that proposition that there must be some demonstration that the initial witness that is designated by the entity is inadequate.

There's no showing that the individual that's been designated here by the corporate entities, Eric Trump is inadequate. In fact, the ttorney General herself alleged in the complaint that Eric Trump is responsible for all aspects of management. I mean, that's their allegation. So I don't see how they can claim without any explanation that -- or any proof that Eric Trump is now somehow an inadequate corporate designee, and they're not entitled to raise that issue unless and until they make that -- make that showing and that has been established by the court.

Finally, and just briefly, the subpoena itself revealing what this is all about is truly overly broad. There is no attempt to narrow the issues. They just want another free-for-all on one of President Trump's children. There's no real relevance to the proceeding. It's more in the nature of a subpoena for a deposition where we're going to spend seven hours. "What do you know about this?" "What do you know about that"?

THE COURT: She was deposed already in a different case related, if you pardon the expression, so it is not like they're not -- it is not like a total shot in the dark.

MR. KISE: It may not be a total shot in the dark, but the subpoena is pretty close. The lights are on dimly and they're shooting off to the right when there's someone over on the left that's their target. So yeah, maybe it is in the same room, but the lights are dim and they're going in the wrong direction. So there's -- if they had a specific focus, then they would have put that in the subpoena. If they had a specific purpose, they would have put that in the subpoena.

nd frankly, had they had such specific focus and specific purpose, we wouldn't be here because they would have either deposed Ms. Trump during the long course of discovery in this case. They had ample opportunity to depose anyone they wanted. She was certainly available for that while she was a party. nd then after she wasn't a party as of June of this year, they still had several months to conduct a de benne esse deposition.

They haven't even deposed -- made any showing to the Court as to why that wouldn't suffice or wouldn't have sufficed. Even after the commencement of trial, they haven't even proposed that. nd I'm not going to agree to that on behalf of Mr. Moskowitz' client. I'm just showing that it just shows the real purpose here is to drag her into court. It is bad faith and it is harassment of another one of President Trump's children who has been dismissed out of this case.

The First Department determined that she left in 2017, so to your point, Your Honor, about affidavit or connectivity, I mean, I think the First Department has certainly, if not established it fully, has established it almost 95 to 99 percent of the way. They basically said she doesn't have anything to do with this case and she should be out. She left years ago. This is not as Your Honor posited, respectfully, a situation where she's gone on some vacation or some business tip. She's been gone for years, multiple years, years and so for those reasons and the reasons stated in our papers and those of Ms. Trump's counsel, we would ask the Court to quash the subpoena. Thank you.

THE COURT: Mr. Robert.

MR. ROBERT: s usual, I will be extremely brief. The goosey gander rule, Your Honor refers to it, what's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. Yesterday morning when Mr. Holl was on the stand and I had colloquy with the ttorney General's office because we didn't think he was going to be called and I said, " re you going to call him back?" nd they said, "Well, no. Try to serve a subpoena on him." Turns out he is an out-of-state resident. We did effectuate service on him outside once he left the court yesterday, but the rules are the rules.

The motion that's before Your Honor today is a motion to quash the subpoena on three entities. I agree with Your Honor's sentiment that what this is really about is trying to serve a subpoena on Ivanka Trump individually. Then that's what they should have done. There were plenty of opportunities to do it. They could have deposed her in this case. She was dismissed in the case the end of June. There was still time to do the de benne esse deposition and they did not and instead of coming before this Court forthright and saying, "Listen, we want Ivanka Trump and these are the reasons why," they come up with this Ruth Goldberg, coming up with these three companies that have nothing to do with it. We want them.

Mr. Moskowitz in consultation with my client says, you know what, for the two companies that have something to do with Trump, Eric Trump is willing to be the corporate representative because he's going to be testifying anyway and they said, "Well, no, no, not so fast." They were smoked out as Your Honor pointed out. They want Ivanka Trump. If they want Ivanka Trump, there is a mechanism to do it. If they do it in the appropriate way and even if there is still an objection by Mr. Moskowitz, that becomes a motion that's before Your Honor. But right now, all there are are three subpoenas, three subpoenas in our view in our papers are defective. There should be no question that they be quashed and we move on. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Does the ttorney General have anything to say?

MR. W LL CE: I will try to be brief, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You don't have to be. They took their time.

MR. W LL CE: I want to try to be, though.

So I'll start with the point the defendants made about whether there is a mystery as to what Ms. Trump might testify to, why it might be that Eric Trump is not a suitable replacement for Ms. Trump and the answer as you somewhat indicated is they have a very good idea of exactly what we would like to ask Ivanka Trump. I don't think we were hiding it. Her name is on the subpoena. We've been going back and forth about whether Ivanka Trump, the person, would be appearing.

We have her examination during the investigation. We've even offered as -- as a resolution that we would put being sued into evidence, her examination from investigation. We even gave the defendants the designations of what we would have introduced from her examination and the defendants, as is their right, declined to waive the fact that they were not present to cross examine her during that exam and hence, it's not admissible. But they very much know exactly what we would like to put into evidence from Ms. Trump.

I'll also go back to the idea that she is no longer a party and somehow the statute of limitations may play into whether or not she has relevant evidence to provide the Court and courts at trial.

I will note that the statute of limitations stretches back to 2014. That means that Ms. Trump was an executive of the Trump Organization in 2014, 2015 and 2016 before departing the company in 2017. ll of that is relevant to the case and within the statute of limitations period. She was an executive of defendant entities and she undertook transactions on their behalf.

Whether or not the First Department thought that we had established she committed fraud during the period that she was subject to the statute of limitations is unrelated to whether or not she has relevant knowledge of what was happening within the company at that time. nd part of the reason we need her knowledge and not Eric Trump's is because she was the direct contact with Deutsche Bank on the OPO loan. She ran that project, not Eric Trump. nd I believe the case law in our brief establishes that we're not required to take a witness who may educate themselves about the company's position and then testify.

I will also add the idea that we should have taken her deposition is -- it is a red herring. She has a presence in this state. She owns multiple businesses within the state. She owns multiple businesses that have their principal place of business within the state.

nd I'll note that Mr. Bennet -- Mr. Moskowitz keeps talking about I believe he's a Weinstein & Miller fan.

THE COURT: Weinstein Koren & Miller is with a "K" and not a "C."

MR. W LL CE: I'm aware of that at least. But he also ignores the plain language of the CPLR 3086 which states: "For purposes of this section, actual place of business shall include any location that the defendant through regular solicitation or advertisement has held out as its place of business." Ivanka Trump has certainly held out the location of Trump Tower and the Trump Organization as a place of business for the OPO Ivanka entity, for TTT and for the 502 entity.

I will add that if Mr. Moskowitz needs additional information on relationship to the 502 entity that can be found in the -- paragraphs 24 through 26 of the supporting affidavit that we submitted and the documents attached thereto. It is a property that she owns and is renting out as a commercial enterprise for TTT.

I would note that this is part of the case already. Ms. Kidder talked about it during week two of the trial. It is part of the licensing fees that the company earns.

I would also note that she returned as a manager.

Proceedings Page 2666

nd this is identified in paragraph 17 and 18 of our supporting affidavit. "She returned as a manager to that entity after her time in Washington was over."

So she is a manager of the Trump Organization business. I think you combine that with the fact that they're offering Eric Trump as a replacement suggests that she is very much still intertwined with the Trump Organization.

So we're not just focused on the specifics of the mechanics of service. I certainly think that under the operative words of this Court she could be brought here by the Trump Organization. They certainly seem to have enough control of her.

The only other point that I think I would make is she clearly owns and operates businesses. They're still affiliated with defendants, they're still relevant to this case and are located in New York. If she truly wanted to completely absent herself from the company, from the state, she was free to do that. She has maintained these businesses and these businesses aren't complete strangers to this action. Ivanka OPO is the ownership interest she held.

s late as after the sale of this property she obtained I believe at least $4 million from her interests in the sale of the OPO property which explains very much directly at issue in this case. She was acting in her own interest when she was negotiating a loan with Deutsche Bank on OPO.

So, in any event, she very much remains intertwined with the Trump Organization. She very much still has a presence in New York and we are now obligated to go seek her de bene esse deposition because she is still available to this Court and through that commercial presence. She is a hundred percent someone who can come in and testify and is susceptible to subpoena in this jurisdiction.

So I don't think she is currently unavailable. She is a hundred percent available and the subpoenas were properly served on business addresses she maintains. Either businesses can require her to come forward and testify or she is holding out herself as doing business in those locations in the services appropriate. The fact that they're multiple avenues to secure her testimony in this court does not mean that we're doing something untoward or hidden or changing our tune. She is still apart of the Trump Organization. She still has commercial interests here in New York. She operates businesses here. Whether or not she visits them once a year just to say hello to the good people who are handling her paperwork or she comes more regularly is really irrelevant under 308 subsection six. But I'm happy to answer any questions Your Honor might have, but we really don't see this as being a closed issue. She has sufficient contact with New York if the subpoenas were appropriate.

THE COURT: What are your thoughts about granting the motion only in part and limiting her testimony to the OPO, Old Post Office transaction?

MR. W LL CE: I don't think -- I'm not sure what the basis would be for that. She would have the knowledge in her head of what the transactions are. I think it would also cover her information on the licensing agreements of TTT, her knowledge of the 502 Park apartment. But honestly, if it's just the OPO, I do think relevant -- the course of conduct with Deutsche Bank is relevant to the OPO loan. I'm not sure it presents that much of a restriction to the scope of her testimony, but I think it -- the entities we've subpoenaed really do cover most of the breadth of what we would be interested in hearing -- what we would be interested in having her testify about.

THE COURT: Brief replies?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

First, as to the only argument I heard that touches on actual jurisdiction, the issue which is what dictates the result today is whether there is jurisdiction over my client. I heard this argument with this other CPLR section. There is no case that says that being affiliated with an entity registered to do business in New York means that service of a subpoena on that entity means you have jurisdiction over that individual. That is just wrong. We do cite cases in our brief that go to that point.

Even when it's a party entity the cases make clear it's not the same thing. What I guess I'm hearing now, again, a new argument going back to, you know, why I didn't put in certain affidavits I was replying to. I'm now hearing basically a general jurisdiction argument. There is no evidentiary record of asserting general jurisdiction over Ms. Trump and now that we're here today and I'm hearing it for the first time I go as far as to say that argument's been waived.

I also heard beyond the jurisdictional argument that was the briefest part of Mr. Wallace's presentation. I heard a lot of, "I want this, we want her for that." I want lots of things. My kid wants a unicorn. What I didn't hear is why there is jurisdiction over her such that you can get those things. There isn't. lot of these things are not in the record. lot of it was just their say so conclusion. She holds herself out as doing business in New York? No, she doesn't. Where is that in the record? gain, all they have submitted and all that there is in life is that she is affiliated with certain entities that are registered to do business in New York.

THE COURT: Well, again, "affiliated?" That's kind of a loosey-goosey term.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Say owner. I can go with that. Someone who lives in Nebraska can own shares in 50 New York corporations. The case law is clear, Weinstein Koren & Miller with a "K" is clear, Siegel is clear that service of a subpoena of process of a complaint, whatever it is on those entities is not service on that person and does not mean that you necessarily have jurisdiction over that person absent something like someone who is also subject to general jurisdiction which is not what we're here talking about today. Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. KISE: Just briefly, Your Honor. I think Mr. Wallace's points about we have a very good idea what we want out of Ms. Trump's testimony, we knew about the OPO loan involvement, all the facts that he's reciting they've known about since the investigation. Forget about since the case started. Since the investigation.

So the question comes up again why not do this during discovery. Why not depose her during discovery? Why not depose her after she was dismissed from the case? They had plenty of time to do that. Why issue a Note of Issue if they had a witness that they still needed an essential witness. The rules exist --

THE COURT: You file a Note of Issue. You don't issue a Note of Issue.

MR. KISE: That actually sounds better.

THE COURT: I'm just trying to get you up to speed on New York law.

MR. KISE: By the time we're done here in November of 2025, I probably will be. The rules exist for a reason, Your Honor, they do. nd the case I cited it's just black letter law. Once the ttorney General files a Note of Issue, that's it. They don't get to reopen discovery. Particularly -- it would be one thing if this were some new witness that no one knew about before that. Well, this is something critical to our case and we didn't know about these facts and there is some justification. This is an individual that's been associated with the investigative process and then this case then dismissed and no attempt to do anything despite the fact that as Mr. Wallace said we have a very good idea we've known about these specifics, we've known about her specific involvement in the OPO transaction, etc.. So they haven't provided the Court with any explanation for that. The designations that Mr. Wallace represent, I'm glad that he acknowledged and I appreciate him acknowledging. Of course, we weren't there which is our biggest problems with using the examinations under oath, but the designations offer little because there were designations essentially with most of the transcript. So it wasn't really a narrowing in that sense.

The idea that somehow Ms. Trump is under the control of the Trump Organization or any of the defendants, her father, all I can say is anyone that's raised a daughter past the age of 13 knows they are not under your control. She lives in Florida, she has her own family. The jurisdiction must be here and now irrespective of what she did five years ago, ten years ago with the OPO transaction, the jurisdiction must be here and it must be now and it simply doesn't exist.

nd respectfully, the Court doesn't have the authority to just ignore that impediment. Respectfully, it doesn't have the authority to ignore the Note of Issue. Respectfully, the Court doesn't have the authority to just say well, I don't care if they knew about all this a long time ago, we're going to let this happen in the middle of trial. I think the case law on that is very well established.

So -- and, again, they haven't even proffered -- I'm not offering this on behalf of Mr. Moskowitz and his client. They haven't proffered the least intrusive means which would be some deposition taking place where she does live, in Florida. nd if it's so narrow and it's so focused her testimony, then perhaps that can accommodate the issues. gain, I'm not volunteering that, but what I'm saying is the ttorney General's offered nothing to this Court but no, she must come in here now. We didn't depose her, we don't have jurisdiction over her, we're sending subpoenas to these nonparty entities, but she must show up now. Only one reason: They want her in the courtroom so that it will be filled again with media and we can have another circus day. So for those reasons and the ones stated, the subpoena should be quashed, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Give me a moment.

(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Let me turn on the microphone first. Defendants, I'm not saying that this is sufficient. In fact, it's not sufficient, but what properties does she currently own in New York or what economic interests does she currently have in New York? If you don't know, you don't know. That's okay.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I don't know, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: nd I'll point out that if it were clearly in the submissions, which it's not, I would have addressed it and I don't --

MR. KISE: I don't know either, Your Honor. I just know there is nothing in the record that shows that she does other than ownership and entities that are nonparties. gain, as Mr. Moskowitz --

THE COURT: I didn't ask whether they were parties or not. I asked whether she has ownership interest in New York now.

MR. KISE: gain, I don't know other than what's in the record and that would -- any ownership of any nonparty entity or party entity would not necessarily give the Court jurisdiction.

THE COURT: I acknowledge that.

MR. KISE: Because JP Morgan is headquartered here and I think it's somewhere in my 401(k) -- I have ownership interest in a New York entity.

THE COURT: You have to be careful what you do up here.

MR. KISE: Yes, right.

THE COURT: Defendants, what, if anything, in the record shows current ownership interest by Ivanka in New York?

MR. W LL CE: I believe that's almost everything that's laid out in our affirmation in support. She owns the OPO entity, which has its principal place of business at Trump Tower; she owns the 502 entity; she owns an interest in TTT Consulting. We -- she is also one of the managers. She owns two apartments at the Trump Park venue property. I believe that's primarily the scope of what we laid out in our affirmation.

THE COURT: nd was the affirmation -- were the affirmations by someone with personal knowledge?

MR. W LL CE: It was made by someone with personal knowledge of our files and it attaches the documents that are the support, so it shows the agreements relevant to the OPO entity, to the TTT entity and to 502. So it lays out documentary evidence that supports our assertions on those fronts.

THE COURT: ny last words by defendants? nd then I'll retreat for properly ten or 12 minutes and come back with a decision.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor. I can answer Your Honor's question. No, it was not someone with personal knowledge. It was a member of counsel for the ttorney General who attached stale documents. None of them show, answer the question that I can't answer either, which is what does she currently own.

By the way, that's all stuff that usually gets addressed at a Traverse hearing, which again, they didn't ask for. We're not submitting to, but that's all about general jurisdiction which they never even argued until now.

THE COURT: I once read all the way through "Prince, Richardson & Farrow On Evidence." One of the things I really appreciated learning is there is a presumption in the law that facts stay the same, that they don't change unless there is some reason to think they change. So I don't think the -- well, we don't know what she owns today. Because she owns something six months ago, I don't think that --

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I was just going to say someone can show you a piece of paper that says I go to NYU. Unfortunately, for me, those days are long gone and my point is that as to the question of what gives jurisdiction over her now, there is nothing in this affidavit from someone who in any event doesn't have personal knowledge of that question.

THE COURT: You said you went to NYU?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Which division, which school?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: College of rts and Science.

THE COURT: Okay. The law school, '79.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I'm aware of because my colleague went to school with you.

THE COURT: nyway, interesting.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Your Honor, I could submit an affidavit, though, again, if the Court has questions I would like to point out, though, they flip the burden.

My life as a litigator would be very easy if I could fire off subpoenas without the basis to do so which last I checked I have to have the basis when I serve a subpoena and then say to the person tell me why it shouldn't be this subpoena which is what they're doing here, but again, I could submit an affidavit and do it very quickly.

THE COURT: ll right. Let's take a break until 10:35. I suspect to come back with a decision.

(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Let me start with two basic ancient principals for which no citation is necessary.

trial is a search for the truth and the law is entitled to every person's evidence. On the other hand, we don't compel people to testify unless the Court has personal jurisdiction over them. s we learned in law school in the international shoe case, personal jurisdiction to satisfy due process has two elements: Notice and power.

Here, the power of the Court to compel Ms. Trump into court to testify. In this case, notice is clear which is why we are here and in any event I think was essentially conceded by her attorney.

I find that the power element is also clearly satisfied here. "The due process element is satisfied where the non-domiciliary has minimum contacts with New York State and based upon those contacts the non-domiciliary could or should have reasonably anticipated being hailed into court," and that's more or less an exact quote or paraphrase from LaMarca, 95 NY2d 216.

lso, and this phrase is engrained in all lawyers, "Ms. Trump has clearly availed herself of the privilege of doing business in New York."

Finally, plaintiff's papers make abundantly clear by documentary evidence that Ms. Trump owns property in New York and has done business in New York. Even Ms. Trump's own papers admit that she is occasionally here.

With all due respect to Mr. Moskowitz, the record is devoid of any evidence because we do not have a sworn statement from Ms. Trump that she does not do currently or has not recently done business here. The time to submit any such affidavit in the first place was in the moving papers. Movant made the argument. There is no jurisdiction over her and it was her burden to provide an affidavit of someone with personal knowledge, meaning herself, to substantiate that. It is black letter law that you may not use a reply to state facts that should have been in your moving papers. Basically we don't know what she does or doesn't do because only she could tell us that and it's too late to tell us that now. That was -- that should have been, could only have been in the moving papers. That's what you do in the motion to quash a subpoena and I've seen that all the time.

I get affidavits from people in California or Nebraska saying I don't own property here, I don't come here, I don't do business here. We don't have that.

So the motion is denied, but her testimony shall not be scheduled before Wednesday, November 1st for Ms. Trump to appeal this decision if she deems herself so advised.

Now, let's go on to the trial. First witness, next witness or same witness?

Sure, Mr. Moskowitz, you want to say something first?

MR. MOSKOWITZ: I just want to request a so ordering of the transcript unless the written decision is forthcoming.

THE COURT: Unlike what I sometimes do there won't be a follow-up written decision. The decision will be a so order of the transcript and I'll make sure it gets so ordered today.

MR. MOSKOWITZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. KISE: Not to volunteer, would the Court entertain -- I mean, we just did one on Monday, a de bene esse deposition? We just did one on Monday. That way Ms. Trump doesn't have to leave her family and three children to come to New York.

THE COURT: No. Denied. I want to see her in person. That's how we prefer testimony.

I'll get the signed transcript from which you can appeal by Monday morning. It's just tough, but you know what it will say.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, before the witness begins her testimony, we did have one housekeeping matter concerning today. I believe Mr. Solomon has maybe an hour and a half -- at least an hour and a half of questioning. I believe the defendants are going to cross and the question is should we bring the next witness, Mr. Flores, back to the courthouse or do defendants expect this will take us through the remainder of today?
MR. KISE: I don't know if we're going to cross this witness at this time. We may call her in our case, but to preserve time we're not going to take up the Court's time today necessarily. We reserve the right as we have with other witnesses, but I'm not sure that's going to become necessary. So I don't want to unnecessarily delay the proceedings.
THE COURT: So that will save time for today.
Will there be enough time to finish the current witness and have Flores testify?
MR. KISE: If we go like yesterday --
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, my questions -- I should be able to finish. With respect to objections and how long they take, I can't speak to that. I will do everything in my power to finish this witness today, if at all possible, yes.

THE COURT: The question is will we be able to get to Mr. Flores today at all? Let's make it easy on everybody.
MR. KISE: I think it would be optimistic.
THE COURT: ll right, so we'll have Flores testify starting next week, okay.
MR. W LL CE: Understood, Your Honor.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
THE COURT: I like to make life easy on everybody.
I'll remind the witness as I always do that she is still under oath.
nd let's get right into it, Mr. Solomon.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.
CONTINUED DIRECT EX MIN TION
BY MR. SOLOMON:
Q Ma'am, I'd like to ask the court officer for PX 158 in front of you. This document is already in evidence.
If turn to page six of 13 you'll see that it's addressed to you from Cushman & Wakefield, David Mc rdle's letterhead. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Okay. nd if you turn to page 11 of 13, is that your signature?
Yes.
Q nd did you sign it on or about February 19, 2014?

Proceedings Page 2682

Yes.
Q Okay. Please turn back to page six.
I'd like to focus your attention on the "Subject of the ssignment and Relevant Characteristics."
THE COURT: Let me just suggest to the witness she has -- you have three different ways to see this: the paper copy, the screen in front of you and the screen there. I often find the screens are a lot simpler. You don't have to turn pages, they turn the pages for you, but whatever you want to do is okay. Some people like physical papers in their hands.
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q Ma'am, if you look at this paragraph, did you understand you or your firm were retaining Cushman & Wakefield to "perform an appraisal on the hypothetical 71-unit development site located at Briarcliff Manor?"
Yes, I did.
Q Okay. nd was that appraisal to be done in connection with a potential donation of a conservation easement?
Yes, it was.
Q Thank you.
nd to be clear, the purpose of this was to document the value of the conservation easement. In connection with that as apart of that assignment it was to appraise the hypothetical 71-unit the residential development.

Proceedings Page 2683

Q The development didn't exist at the time of the appraisal; correct?
No, no, no. It was a hypothetical.
Q When you say "no" let's clarify this.
Did the 71-unit development exist at the time of the appraisal?
There was no building.
Q nd, in fact --
Or two buildings.
Q nd, in fact, to your knowledge, it's never been built; right?
To my knowledge, it's never been built.
Q Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: Can I please have 3194? May I ask the court officer to put 3194 in front of the witness which was already in evidence.
I'm sorry, could I clarify one more thing?
THE COURT: Yes.
I guess it wasn't -- while there was a general scope of -- I think you need to look more at the general scope of work to understand the work that was being done. nd, again, this was all about documenting the value of a conservation easement and not just the 71-unit hypothetical buildings, you know, units needed to be appraised, but it was also the golf course and other properties. So it was a little bit shorthand or abbreviation just to say is that the 71-unit. That was part of the whole project.

Q I appreciate that.
That's why I wanted to take a look at the letter because that didn't sound right to me, but I wanted to get that right.
Q Sure. I appreciate that.
The appraisal needs to determine whether the surrounding parcels or contiguous parcels that may be owned by the same party are enhanced in some way by the conservation easement. I think you mentioned that yesterday; right?
That's apart of it, but again, the whole point is to get to the differentials. What is the value of the conservation easement, the rights and restrictions, the economic value of those things that were being given away.
Q But in that process one of the steps is valuing the hypothetical 71-unit residential development; right?
That is apart of the assignment but it's not the entire assignment. There was more to the assignment than that.
Q If you take a look at PX 3194. The cover is an e-mail to you from Mr. Mc rdle dated pril 25, 2014. Do you see that?
I don't have that yet, but --
MR. SOLOMON: PX 3194.
Yes. It is an e-mail to me from Mr. Mc rdle.
Q nd did you receive it in or about pril of -- pril -- on or about pril 25, 2014?

I have no recollection of that, but I assume that I did since it's an e-mail addressed to me and I have no reason to believe I did not.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer it in evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. Understood.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3194 in evidence.)
Q If you turn to page six of 193, please, under "General Description." Do you see that?
MR. ROBERT: Excuse me, I haven't been provided with a hard copy. Is it just the e-mail or is there an attachment seeking to move it into evidence?
MR. SOLOMON: It's already in.
MR. ROBERT: I thought you moved it into evidence. That's why you asked to move it. You said "we offer it into evidence."
MR. SOLOMON: I'm sorry. It was already in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Got it. Thank you.
Q If you could turn to page six of 193. I'd like to focus you on the general description, second sentence:

"The development site is entitled to allow the construction of 71 luxury housing units contained within two adjacent low rise structure." Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Transcript continues on the following page....

Q So in connection with this project, did the appraisers determine in trying to calculate the value of the conservation easement the value of the right to build 71 luxury housing units?
My understanding, that was part of the assignment, yes.
Q Please turn to page 4 of 193. The chart in the middle of the page, "Final Value Reconciliation." nd do you see, "Final Value Conclusion of Conservation Easement $43,300,000?" Do you see that?
I see that.
Q Did you share this information, the value of the conservation easement, with your client as reflected in this appraisal?
Yeah, I believe, I can. lthough, this easement was never completed, I'm not entirely sure.
Q Would it have been your practice whether the easement was actually completed and donated or not to share the valuation in the appraisal with your client?
It would have been my practice as the project was going along to share values along the way with my client. Do I have a specific recollection of this? No.
Q I understand, but you said it was your practice and I appreciate that.
MR. SOLOMON: PX 132, please. It's already in evidence.

Q Ma'am, would you be comfortable while they're looking for it to look at it on the screen if we move along?
Yeah, if I could look at all the parts we need.
Q Then let's wait.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you.
Q This is a document dated June 23, 2014 addressed to Mr. Eric Trump, Cushman & Wakefield letterhead, again, from David Mc rdle. Do you see that?
I do.
Q Do you have an understanding why Briarcliff Manor Development, LLC was retaining Cushman & Wakefield if you had already retained them, as we saw in that other document, a few months before?
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: Ground?
MR. ROBERT: ttorney-client privilege. "Do you have an understanding why Briarcliff Manor Development, LLC was retaining Cushman & Wakefield if you had already retained them?" It would go to conversations Ms. Dillon had with her client.
THE COURT: Response?
MR. SOLOMON: I don't believe that's in connection with legal advice. The witness has testified that there is a process in determining whether to place a conservation easement on a particular piece of property and I believe the witness testified there are preliminary steps and then there is actually a formal appraisal. I'm just trying to understand is this the next step in the process to get to the formal appraisal.

MR. ROBERT: Those were general questions. I think you started them all at a high level and now we're getting into specifics as to this particular engagement and this particular assignment.
THE COURT: Can you just, please, read back the question.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)
THE COURT: I don't see it as legal advice. Overruled.
Sitting here today, this is a little confusing for me because I haven't had a chance to look at what was the prior appraisal.
MR. KISE: The question as framed is a yes-or-no question. So if your ruling is can she answer, does she have an understanding yes or no, I would agree with you that that answer is not privileged. But if he asks, then, what's the basis for that understanding, that would be different.
THE COURT: I will buy that.
MR. SOLOMON: My first question was does she have an understanding because if the answer is she does not, then we don't need to go further.

Q Do you have an understanding?
Sitting here today, I don't have an understanding without looking through these documents in more detail.
Q You mentioned that you did not believe that a conservation easement was ultimately placed on the Briarcliff property. Do you recall that?
Yes.
Q If you look at the intended use here -- highlight that. "To document the value of a conservation easement placed," past tense, "On a parcel of land for federal and state income tax purposes."
Can you explain if you don't believe a conservation easement was placed on the property, why they would be using the past tense in this retention letter or engagement letter?
In my experience, there are sometimes typographical errors or misstatements and I believe that would be a typographic or a clerical error.
MR. SOLOMON: 3127 which is already in evidence.
Q This is an e-mail to you from Mr. Mc rdle dated July 30, 2014. "Sheri, here is the revised appraisal." Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q Okay. gain, on page 3 of 113 for the document, the third paragraph, "Trump Briarcliff Manor owned a parcel of land in Briarcliff Manor, New York, the parcel over which it has placed." gain, is that just a typographical error? s I look here, yes. This is not a final appraisal and I can see that because it says donated to XXX. So it appears to be in contemplation, but using the past tense.

Q If you turn to page 4 of 113, you will see here, again, the, "Final Value Conclusion of Conservation Easement $43.3 million." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Did you share that information with your client in or about July of 2014?
I don't recall.
Q Would it have been your practice to share that information with your client upon receipt?
I didn't share every bit of information I got along the way. t various points in times, I would have shared some values with the client.
Q Do you believe this was one of those various points in time?
I have no recollection of whether I did or not.
THE COURT: That's not the question. The question is whether you would have, not whether you recollect that you did or didn't.
THE WITNESS: I don't know if I would have because I don't see all the other e-mail traffic around this. I don't know if there is a valuation two weeks before, two weeks later. I don't know if this particular valuation was relevant. There's lots of activities with valuation because lots of new facts and information come in and can make things change from time to time.

Q But you do endeavor to keep your client informed of the changes of the facts, right?

Only if it is material and relevant.

Q Is the value of a conservation easement of $43,300,000 material and relevant?

It may or may not have been. If I would have shared that number with them a month ago, it wouldn't be relevant if it is about the same number.

Q Is it fair to say if you hadn't shared that number with them previously, you would have shared it with them at that time?

If if if, yes, but again, I'm not saying whether I did or not and I'm not trying to be difficult. I just want to be accurate.

MR. SOLOMON: PX 910, please. This is an e-mail from Mr. Mc rdle to you with a cc to your colleague Mr. Zemil, "attaching a revised draft." Do you see that?

I do.

Q He states that he "addressed your comments." Do you see that?

I do.

Q Please turn to page 6 of 217. Do you see the value of the conservation easement has now increased by $1.9 million to 45,200,000?

I do.

Q Would you have shared that information with the client?

gain, we can see this appears to be a work in progress. I'm not sure which works in progress I would have shared or not shared along the way. Only when I felt it was relevant material and a decision needed to be made would I share that information.

Q This is a difference of almost $2 million in the value of the conservation easement from the appraisal we saw earlier, correct?

Yes, it is.

Q nd is that something you would have shared with the client?

gain, not knowing where we were in the process, I can't tell you yes or no would I have done that.

Q We've been talking about the 71 hypothetical units in these appraisals, correct?

Yes.

Q Didn't you and Eric Trump know by no later than June of 2014 that Briarcliff Manor Development did not have the absolute right to build 71 units?

I can't speak for what Eric Trump knew or didn't know. s for myself, I don't recall. You'd have to refresh me with some documents, if you have something that will help me.

Q Did there ever come a point in time that you became aware that Briarcliff Manor Development did not have the absolute right to build those 71 hypothetical units?

I don't recall if it was 71 units or some other number, but that wasn't particularly relevant to me, and that's because it doesn't matter whether you had the absolute right or not in valuing this. gain, it is a hypothetical exercise and what you're trying to show is what is the highest and best use of the property that you're intending to place a conservation easement over. nd then you hypothetically take a look and design and design either buildings or commercial space or whatever the case may be and it doesn't require you to have any permits, any entitlements.

So whether it was 71, 69, 105, there is a number that you thought is, you know, something that is physically possible, feasible, legally permissible, and it doesn't require you to be permitted. It just requires it to be permissible and things change over time, so you certainly don't have to go and get all the entitlements in place.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, move to strike as non-responsive.

MR. ROBERT: It is absolutely responsive.

MR. KISE: It is, Your Honor. She answered the question. He just doesn't like -- Mr. Solomon just doesn't like the answer.

MR. SOLOMON: We like the answer, Mr. Kise.

MR. KISE: Then why are you moving to strike it?

MR. SOLOMON: Because it is not responsive to the question.

THE COURT: Let me just check. I'm so happy --

MR. KISE: It looks very responsive to me.

THE COURT: -- we have the immediate transcript here. It is stricken because it is not responsive to the question which is a yes-or-no question. Is that --

MR. SOLOMON: May I --

THE COURT: Is that how you perceived it yourself, Mr. Solomon, that it is a yes-or-no question?

MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor. May I ask the Court for a readback of that question, please.

THE COURT: Sure. Please, read back.

(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)

I don't remember.

Q Let's see if we can refresh your recollection.

MR. SOLOMON: May I, please, have marked for identification PX 3275.

Q Ms. Dillon, do you recognize this document to be the amendments to the original offering plan for the residences at Trump National Golf Club Condominium?

I can read what it says, but I don't recognize it from past experience. It looks like lots of documents I've seen in the past.

Q Please turn to page 37 of 99. This in particular is mendment No. 8 to the original offering plan (a/k/a mendment No. 4 to the second restated offering plan) of the residences at Trump National Golf Club Condominium."

You will see that this document is dated May 6, 2004.

I do.

Q nd, "roman numeral one, reduction in size of the condominium," do you see that?

I do.

Q nd it still maintains the 16 golf villa residential units on the third line. Do you see that?

Yes.

Q nd then it --

Well, actually where? I'm sorry.

Q That's okay. Third line.

Okay. Yes, I do.

Q "(16) golf villa residential units" and now it is 31 residential units in the Park Briar. Do you see that?

I do.

Q Does that refresh your recollection that the sponsor voluntarily reduced the number of units it could build from 71 to 31 in 2004?

No. It refreshes my recollection that there were lots and lots of amendments and in this particular document, at this particular time, I have no independent recollection of it. I see what the document says and I can read the words.

Q Okay.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer this in evidence.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, I'm not sure what basis there would be to offer this in evidence. She doesn't recognize it. There is no exception to the hearsay rule that he's articulated. It was used as you can use anything to refresh recollection, but that's it. I mean, that's it. I mean, that's fine. We didn't object to his question because his questions were "would this refresh your recollection," but it is not substantively admissible in evidence. There is no foundation. There's nothing to support the admission of this in evidence at all. It is hearsay.

THE COURT: Why is it not hearsay or what exception might there be?

MR. SOLOMON: Certainly. There is a matter of public record, Your Honor. These are amendments to a condominium declaration that are publicly filed. They were also produced from Morgan Lewis' files to us, so there is no question about authenticity or--

THE COURT: uthenticity doesn't do it. Sorry. Go ahead.

MR. SOLOMON: If that's not an issue, Your Honor, I won't address that, but it's not hearsay. These are publicly-available documents. These matters are a public record.

MR. KISE: That's not demonstrable from the face of the document. We can't tell one way or the other. If it came from Morgan Lewis, that's fine; but they're not the public repository last I checked.

THE COURT: How do we know it's a public record? I know these things are routinely filed, but I don't know that this was filed.

MR. KISE: We don't have to take up the Court's time now. If they can demonstrate -- I'm not saying it is or it isn't. I'm saying you can't tell from this record that's presented here and we want to be very careful. The witness on the stand is very careful because she unlike litigators who are very loose with things, tax lawyers tend to be very, very precise.

THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3275.)

Q Do you know if amendments to condominium declarations in the State of New York are filed with the ttorney General's office?

MR. KISE: Objection. Foundation.

THE COURT: She hasn't been qualified. lthough, she may be as an expert at this point, right?

MR. SOLOMON: I was asking her knowledge, Your Honor, not as an expert, but --

THE COURT: But --

MR. SOLOMON: We'll move on. We offer it for notice of the fact that it was reduced to 31 units not necessarily for the truth of the matter asserted and we will address that issue at a later time?

THE COURT: Notice to whom?

MR. KISE: To whom?

MR. SOLOMON: Notice to --

MR. KISE: Morgan Stanley.

MR. SOLOMON: Please, let me finish. Counsel --

THE COURT: ll right.

MR. SOLOMON: Briarcliff Manor Development, LLC which is a part of the umbrella organization in the Trump Organization. That's the entity, that's the sponsor that executed this, that filed this, that voluntarily reduced the number of units.

THE COURT: It's even more than notice. They wrote it so --

MR. KISE: Your Honor.
THE COURT: Yes?
MR. KISE: If they solve the hearsay problem, if it is a matter of public record, I don't know why we are debating it. They just simply demonstrate that it's a public record. Otherwise, again, it is notice to whom because there's no demonstration --
THE COURT: Notice to the author.
MR. KISE: This is our official document. It might be Morgan Stanley's document, but there is no demonstration it is ours. I'm not debating one way or the other. I'm saying in this record as it stands right now, it is not there. On a break, I'm sure they could find it if it is public record. Most everything is online now.
THE COURT: It's admitted into evidence as notice of the statements therein to Briarcliff Manor, whatever the corporate entity is known as.
Q Ms. Dillon, do you remember specifically analyzing the eighth amendment and providing to your client your conclusion that it reduced the number of luxury residential units that it could build from 71 to 31?
MR. ROBERT: I just want to be very careful that this is a yes or no and beyond that, I will object that it is privileged.

THE COURT: Is that a yes or no?
MR. SOLOMON: For the moment, it is a yes or no, Your Honor; but I will say that the Court has actually ruled upon the documents that I'm about to show this witness in-camera and determined that they are not privileged. So this is a yes or no. I'm laying my foundation for the next document.
THE COURT: Please answer yes or no.
I analyzed thousands of documents for this client over the year. Whether this was one of them, I don't recall; but if you can help me, that would be great.
MR. SOLOMON: May we, please, mark PX 3261 for identification.
Q Ms. Dillon, this is an e-mail chain from June 2014 between you and Eric Trump, correct?
Yes, it is.
Q nd the top e-mail, you wrote to Mr. Trump, Eric Trump, "Hi Eric. In going through the documents, this is what I see happening."
You first lay out what happens in the original offering plan and declaration. Do you see that?
I do.
Q You see "Park Briar units, 31"? Do you see that, ma'am?
Yes, I do.

Q Okay. Do you see, "Highlander units, 40"?
I do.
Q Then you analyze what happens under the first amendment to the declaration and the eighth amendment to offering plan, reduced size of condominium. Do you see that?
I do.
Q That was the eighth amendment we were just looking at, right?
That would be my expectation.
Q Now, there are still 31 Park Briar units, right, and zero Highlander units?
Yes, that's what it says.
Q So the number of units that the sponsor could build as of right was reduced from 71 to 31 according to your analysis as well as the language of the eighth amendment?
That's what I understood in this e-mail.
Q Do you know if Mr. McConney and the Trump Organization still valued on the Statement of Financial Condition the ability to build 71 units as of right?
MR. KISE: Objection; foundation.
THE COURT: Overruled. She knows or she doesn't.
I have no knowledge one way or the other.
Q Let's turn to the Seven Springs project. I think we've established that you're familiar with the property located in the Towns of Bedford, New Castle and North Castle, right?

Yes, we have.
Q Did there come a time that you on behalf of Seven Springs, LLC began work on a potential donation of a conservation easement?
Yes.
Q Was that in or about October of 2012?
I don't recall the date.
Q Do you recall Robert Heffernan? Excuse me. Yes, Heffernan.
I do know Mr. Heffernan.
Q nd how do you know Mr. Heffernan?
He is an appraiser that from time to time was consulted, did various work.
Q Did you retain him in or about October 2012 on behalf of Seven Springs to provide an estimate of the fair market value of a portion of the property of Seven Springs located in New Castle?
I do not recall the dates and I don't recall exactly what he was retained for, but I believe at one point in time, Mr. Heffernan was retained to take a look at a part -- a piece -- overall Seven Springs property.
MR. SOLOMON: Take one step back, if I may, Your Honor. I think I may have forgotten to move PX 3261, Ms. Dillon's e-mail chain to Eric Trump.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and I believe it is a privileged communication.

THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It is in evidence. It is business advice in my opinion as I've already held.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3261.)
Q Ms. Dillon, does this refresh your recollection as to when you, you on behalf of your client, retained Mr. Heffernan?
Yes.
Q Was that in or about October of 2012?
Yes.
Q If you look at the second paragraph beginning, "the scope," do you see that?
I do.
Q Second line, "Estimating the fair market value of a conservation easement placed on the client's property located in the town of New Castle, New York." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Is that your signature on the last page of that document?
Yes.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer PX 908 in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 908.)

Q Do you recall the estimate provided by Mr. Heffernan as to the fair market value of the conservation easement referenced in this engagement letter?
My recollection is he never completed the project.
Q Okay. My question was somewhat different.
MR. SOLOMON: May I ask for a readback, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Yes, readback, please.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)
No, because there wasn't one.
Q Do you recall if Mr. Heffernan provided an estimate of the value for the lots in New Castle?
He may have done a preliminary. I just don't recall.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we pull up the 202-G statement, paragraph 52. I'm sorry. Paragraph 55.
Q Ma'am, this is a statement under rule 202-G of our local rules here in New York for court practice. The beginning paragraph 55 is the allegation by the plaintiff of an undisputed fact and then the response from the defendants is below. Do you see that?
It seems to not be an undisputed fact. It looks disputed.
THE COURT: I don't know what you mean by "undisputed fact."

MR. SOLOMON: The response from the defendant. Your Honor, I will withdraw the question.
THE COURT: Good.
MR. SOLOMON: nd rephrase, if I may.
Q The paragraph 55 is the allegation by the plaintiff of what is an undisputed fact. The response is the response by the defendants. Do you see that?
I'm very confused. It looks to me like 55 is an allegation and the response disputes it, so it is not an undisputed fact.
Q I understand, but after it disputes it, "There's an explanation and further discussion where it states Mr. Heffernan indicated he "didn't specifically recall" the preliminary value range he determined, but he recalled an e-mail back and forth with Bob Leonard that he was asking (Mr. Heffernan) why (he) was coming in at a number somewhere around $700,000 a raw lot." That's the response from the defendants.
Does that refresh your recollection as to the number Mr. Heffernan came back with for the lots in New Castle?
I can read what it says here today, but I don't recall the preliminary numbers he was -- that he apparently provided. I have no independent recollection of it.
Q Okay. Just so we are clear, again, Mr. Leonard was affiliated with your law firm?
Yes, he was one of my colleagues. He was an associate that worked with me.

Q He was at Bingham with you at that time?
Yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Can we, please, mark PX 3296.
Q Ms. Dillon, have you had an opportunity to review the e-mail chain?
I'm still working through it.
Yes, I've had a chance to review it.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2708

Q Great.
Does this e-mail chain refresh your recollection as to whether Mr. Heffernan provided a preliminary view as to the value of the lots in New Castle?
I see that Mr. Heffernan is providing preliminary views, but I have no independent recollection of those numbers. I do know we worked with him. I don't disagree with that, but I just don't recall all of this since he ended up not being the appraiser on the project.
Q You have no reason to doubt that he did in fact provide this information to Mr. Leonard in or about December of 2012, do you?
I have no reason to doubt the authenticity of this e-mail.
Q Let's move forward into 2013, please.
Were you aware that at a Town of Bedford Planning Board meeting in May 2013, an attorney for Seven Springs LLC agreed to restrict construction on the New Castle and North Castle portions of the property in order to obtain approval for the subdivision of the lots in Bedford?
I was not aware of that at the time. I have some awareness derived in the course of these proceedings and historically I -- yes, so during the course of these proceedings, not just here today, but overall I've become aware -- yes, go ahead.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2709

Q I'm sorry. I didn't mean to interrupt you.
No, go ahead.
Q Maybe I can clarify.
Prior to 2020 were you aware that an attorney for Seven Springs LLC at a town planning meeting agreed to restrict construction at the New Castle and North Castle portions of the property in order to obtain approval for the subdivisions at the lots in Bedford?
I had an overall awareness of some activity, but I did not have a specific awareness of that -- of the particular planning meeting.
Q My question wasn't whether you were aware of the planning meeting. My question was were you aware of the results of the planning meeting?
Can I have the question again? I'm not sure I understood that.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, may I ask for a read back?
THE COURT: Read back, please?
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
I don't recall being aware of that level of specificity, but I may have had -- again, a general awareness of the results of the planning board meeting developed at some point in the project.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2710

Q Do you recall providing testimony in connection with the investigation conducted by the ttorney General's office in this matter?
Yes, I do.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we pull up Ms. Dillon's testimony, page 660, line 19?
Q You recall this was done during COVID; right?
I remember that distinctly.
Q So we had -- the transcript may not be clear, but we'll go through it, you were asking and we were discussing having the document on the screen for everyone to share. Do you recall that? nd it had to be moved for a period of time so you could see different portions of it?
Yes, yes.
Q nd my colleague, lex Finkelstein, was the one who was moving the documents. So when we see this on the transcript -- we'll be able to see this, 660, line 19. Okay:
"QUESTION: I'm going to ask lex to pull up our first electronically shared exhibit. It is a May 17, 2013 newspaper story from the Bedford/Pound Ridge Record Review.
Ma'am, as you've done in your prior sessions, if you could please tell lex when you refer to a portion and you want him to move down that would be helpful."
"MR. SOLOMON: I'm going to mark this as Exhibit 52."

nd then you go on. The document is being advanced.
"QUESTION: Does reading this article refresh your recollection about any events involving Seven Springs before the Bedford Planning Board?
" NSWER: No, I was not involved in that process.
"QUESTION: That wasn't my question."
"MR. SOLOMON: Can I have the court reporter please read back my question?"
Question is read back.
" NSWER: --
It reads your answer; correct, just to clarify?
Yes.
Q "Because I was not involved in the process, this article does not refresh my" -- excuse me -- "doesn't refresh my recollection about things I wasn't involved in.
"QUESTION: Ma'am, you will agree with me someone could have told you about it, right?
" NSWER: Someone could have told me about it.
"QUESTION: Right. So this article could have refreshed that recollection, even if you weren't involved in the events before the Planning Board?
" NSWER: This article does not refresh my recollection."
Was that your testimony during the investigatory

phase --
Yes.
Q -- of this?
MR. ROBERT: Objection. He's conflating refreshing the recollection with trying to impeach his own witness. I mean, this is consistent.
THE COURT: Overruled. I don't see any problem with this at all. He's just asking her if she sees that was her testimony. I don't know what you're reading into the question.
MR. ROBERT: There would be no reason to do that other than if it refreshed her recollection.
MR. SOLOMON: Can we go to page 663, line 8?
THE COURT: What was the purpose of asking her if she --
MR. SOLOMON: That she previously had no knowledge about this planning meeting which is why we're going to this next portion which is a short question and answer, Your Honor.
THE COURT: So it is the admissibility of that depending upon the admissibility or the answer or the testimony you're going to read now?
MR. SOLOMON: Yes, it's being linked together.
MR. KISE: It looks like he's using something where she didn't have a -- refresh her recollection -- to refresh her recollection now and in either case it didn't, but if Mr. Solomon is going to tie it together here we're on the edge of our seat.

MR. SOLOMON: Glad I can keep you entertained. Can we please go to page 663, line 8:
"QUESTION: Were you aware that Mr. Martabano" --
Q Mr. Martabano is the attorney at the planning meeting, do you recall that?
I have since. Yes, I recall that.
Q "Mr. Martabano on behalf of Seven Springs agreed to, quote, 'restrict construction near the end of the road serving Seven Springs to two houses to help resolve the dispute over the need for an access road?'"
" NSWER: I was -- I'm not aware of that if that's accurate."
THE COURT: "I was not."
MR. SOLOMON: Excuse me. "I was not."
Thank you, Your Honor.
"QUESTION: I asked you to assume it was. You left all of these negotiations to the land use attorneys representing Seven Springs; correct?
" NSWER: I was not involved in this. I didn't leave or not leave. It wasn't my decision.
"QUESTION: To your knowledge who was involved in this then?

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2714

"Because I wasn't involved, I do not know."
So at that time you had no recollection of this planning meeting; right? t that time I was -- I think I've been consistent. I was not at that planning meeting. I was not involved in the planning meeting. Have I learned things about the planning meeting? Did I know some things? But I didn't know they came about from the planning meeting, yes. It's complicated, but for the most part it didn't matter. It didn't matter. It's again back to hypothetical. It's a hypothetical subdivision that's being drawn. No one needed to be permitted. The standard is legally permissible and the courts have ruled time and time again it's a waste of everyone's resources for taxpayers, landowners, etc., to impinge upon a planning board, zoning boards and everybody else that you don't have to actually be permitted and entitled for anything.
MR. SOLOMON: Move to strike as nonresponsive, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Stricken as nonresponsive.
I'll ask that the witness be taken out for a few moments so I can talk to Counsel not in her presence.
(Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness stand and exits the courtroom.)
THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, I feel like we're two or three levels away from anything that's relevant. This all seems to be what happened. She saw something, but didn't you say something different what she knew about all this stuff?

MR. SOLOMON: It goes to the valuation of Seven Springs, Your Honor. They valued it as if they could build 24 lots on the three properties. That's what the appraisal does, which is what we will get to. However, previously, they had agreed to restrict the number of lots to I think 12 or 13.
THE COURT: Okay. But what does that have to do with whether she remembers what happened at a meeting?
MR. SOLOMON: Because this witness was the one who retained the appraiser, who gave the appraiser the information necessary, was the conduit for the appraiser and if she knew this and didn't give it to the appraiser that's relevant. If she didn't know it and other attorneys at the Trump Organization knew it, that's relevant because that information should have been provided to the appraisers when they projected their 24 hypothetical lots by law and we have an ppellate Division decision which is coming up shortly which said they have -- the Seven Springs LLC entity has no access through ragon Road. So they didn't have a second access and this restriction was binding on them.
THE COURT: Okay. It seems to me this has become a game of got you, didn't you say that, didn't you say this, but then you said that. I'll let you go ahead because there is no jury and I'd like to afford some leeway, but maybe if we could get to the heart of the matter quicker, Mr. Kise?

MR. KISE: Your Honor, I think what the witness was trying to say -- what Mr. Solomon asked it be stricken is --

THE COURT: That was a speech. That was not responsive.

MR. KISE: No, I'm just saying she's explaining why what you're saying is correct that we're just going around in circles here because from a tax perspective, from an appraisal, for IRS purposes, for conservation easement you don't get into all of this stuff about whether you had this permit or didn't have this permit or what you knew or what you didn't know.

If Mr. Solomon wants to use a witness to establish the points that he's making, that's fine, but this witness has said both today and before based on the testimony there that she wasn't part of the process, she didn't have anything to do with the process, she can't testify to the process and, most importantly, it would not have been relevant to her job, her role. So we are just kind of going in circular fashion here because her role is with respect to advice on conservation easements. She's already said twice it's been stricken that when you do that you're not looking at actual permits, actual this, actual that. She's the expert on that and so I think that she's testified that's why she wouldn't have a foundation here to have any of this knowledge. But if we want to continue to go around, it's their morning. I don't know that any of this has any relevance.

THE COURT: I'll let the question continue in the manner that Mr. Solomon thinks is relevant.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we will endeavor to move quickly on this.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's get the witness.

THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT: I just want to make a general statement without any accusations that when a witness is asked to depart the courtroom, nobody should attempt to speak to him or her. nd let's go on.

MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.

We'd ask to mark for identification PX 899.

For the record, it is a July 16, 2014 e-mail on Vinson & Elkins letterhead, Ms. Dillon's letterhead in particular to David Mc rdle, Senior Managing Director at Cushman & Wakefield.

Q Ms. Dillon, is that your signature on page four of the exhibit?

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2718

Yes, it is.

Q Did you send it to Mr. Mc rdle in or about July of 2014?

I would assume so.

MR. SOLOMON: We offer it into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and privilege.

THE COURT: Overruled. Give me a second.

(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Overruled on both grounds. It's in evidence.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 899 in evidence.)

Q Was this the engagement letter you were retaining Cushman and specifically Mr. Mc rdle to provide an estimate of the value of the potential conservation easement for the Seven Springs property?

It was to provide consulting services, yes, related to the estimated value of the potential conservation easement.

Q nd did he provide an analysis of the estimated current value of these lots as of a particular valuation date?

I can't recall how far along we got before the project was discontinued in 2014.

Q Why was it discontinued in 2014?

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2719

MR. ROBERT: Objection.

THE COURT: What's the objection?

MR. ROBERT: Why something was done and why if a retention was discontinued is attorney/client privilege. It clearly falls within if it was a direction from the client as to do or not do something that's a continuation in the course of giving legal representation.

THE COURT: It's business. Overruled.

Unless you want to withdraw it on the ground --

MR. SOLOMON: I've learned, Your Honor, if you rule in my favor to be quiet.

THE COURT: I ruled in your favor.

Why was the project discontinued?

THE WITNESS: I have no specific recollection, but I can certainly give you the typical reasons projects would be discontinued.

THE COURT: Do you want that or not?

MR. SOLOMON: I will take the typical reasons for the moment. Thank you.

The typical reason is a landowner just isn't ready, they haven't made the determinations of what restrictions they want to put on property, which land they want to keep out of the restricted property. That's the biggest reason.

Other reasons are there is just simply not enough time to get it done, but those tend to be the biggest reasons as you have not yet decided what exactly you want to do with the property, whether you want to retain it because, again, it's in perpetuity, which is forever and it affects not just that landowner but all landowners.

Q Is also one of the reasons for tax planning purposes?

That could be one of the considerations.

Q Does it refresh your recollection as to whether in this situation it was discontinued at that time because Mr. Trump did not need additional tax deductions for tax year 2014?

MR. KISE: Objection. That's -- I mean, if she wants to answer yes or no, perhaps, but once you get into the substance, that's squarely within the attorney/client privilege. I mean, I think all of it is respectfully, Your Honor, but she is a tax lawyer being engaged to provide tax advice and the conservation easement is -- the purpose of doing one is to get a tax deduction. So it's all squarely within the confines of the privilege. So I would respectfully disagree, Your Honor, it's not business. It involves business matters, but it's at the core of the attorney/client relationship with a tax lawyer.

THE COURT: Overruled. The question is whether that was a factor -- if she knows whether that was a factor in why the process was discontinued.

THE WITNESS: Is it time for me to answer?

THE COURT: Yes, it's also a yes or no.

I believe it probably was one of the considerations among many.

MR. SOLOMON: Could we please put PX 133 in front of the witness? It's already in evidence.

THE COURT: Five-minute warning and then we'll come back. It's not the end of the -- we started early. That's what's throwing you off.

MR. SOLOMON: I'm just focused.

Q Do you recognize what was marked as PX 133?

I have seen this before.

Q Okay. Do you have an understanding as to why Mr. Eric Trump -- withdrawn.

Do you have an understanding as to why this letter was addressed to Mr. Eric Trump at Seven Springs LLC directly when the prior letter that we saw was addressed to you?

MR. ROBERT: Objection. ttorney/client privilege.

THE COURT: It's from Cushman & Wakefield. Overruled.

My understanding would be at this point in time it appears that the project was still going forward and we were seeking a formal appraisal that would be provided to the Internal Revenue Service since this is being done for the purpose of federal and state income tax purposes.

Q Okay.

MR. SOLOMON: Can I have PX 1861? I'm jumping forward.

Q When the project was either terminated or put on hold in 2014, had you already learned of Mr. Mc rdle's estimate of the value of the lots for the potential conservation easement?

I don't remember.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, this may be a good point.

THE COURT: Is this a good time? ll right. Let's just make it 12:10 everybody and then we'll go to 12:55 or so.

(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Witness?

MR. ROBERT: Do we have a minute before the witness comes in?

THE COURT: Sure.

Hold off on the witness.

MR. ROBERT: re we going to finish today with Ms. Dillon?

MR. SOLOMON: In light of the Court's instruction, I have no more than 20, 30 minutes, max.

MS. GREENFIELD: That's after we finish the witness?

MR. ROBERT: That's fine. I just want to know who is on for Monday.

THE COURT: Now witness?

THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT: So as everyone else has just heard, we're hoping to finish with this witness this morning. So let's keep the questions moving and the answers moving.

CONTINUED DIRECT EX MIN TION

BY MR. SOLOMON:

Q Ms. Dillon, could we please put -- I'm sorry -- PX 104 in front of you?

Is this an engagement letter signed by Eric Trump on behalf of Seven Springs LLC dated June 1, 2015?

Yes, it is.

Q nd was this engagement letter executed in connection with restarting the potential donation of a conservation easement at Seven Springs?

Yes.

MR. SOLOMON: Could we please mark PX 195 for identification?

Q This is an e-mail from Timothy Barnes to you and Mr. Zemil with a cc to Didi Yep. Who is Timothy Barnes?

Mr. Barnes was the lead appraiser on the Seven Springs project.

Q nd do you know who Didi Yep is?

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2724

Yes, that was his second -- the second appraiser.
Q The second e-mail draft is attached. Let me know if you have any questions. Do you see that?
I do.
Q Did you see -- did you receive that in or about November of 2015? Specifically November 6th is the date of the cover e-mail?
Yes, I fully expect I received it.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I offer this in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and the attachment is hearsay.
THE COURT: Statute of limitations overruled.
What is it being offered for.
MR. SOLOMON: For notice, Your Honor.
THE COURT: It's in simply for notice.
MR. ROBERT: Notice to whom?
THE COURT: The recipients?
MR. SOLOMON: Ms. Dillon and Mr. Zemil at this point in time.
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. ROBERT: Thank you.
Q If you please turn to page 5 of 139 of this exhibit, "Value Conclusions." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Is this the method that we've been talking about

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2725

previously where you value the property before and after the easement, make whatever adjustments are appropriate and then the difference is the value of the easement?
Yes, that is the before and after method that we talked about before.
Q So the before method values the entire Seven Springs property at 56,500,000. Do you see that?
I see.
Q Did you advise your client in or about November of 2015 that the appraisal had valued the entirety of the property at approximately $56.5 million?
I don't recall.
Q Would it have been your practice to do so?
I don't recall if we would have had a discussion about this in November. There are thousands of e-mails and conversations about this as the process goes through, so I have no idea if I told him the before value of the property or if I told anyone -- it would have been -- I don't know. t some point I would have advised probably the value of the easement. That's what they were interested in.
Q Would you have discussed how that easement was calculated with the client?
I may have.
Q Okay. You say there are many e-mails back and forth and the like. When you received the first draft of an appraisal the first time that you find out what the appraiser is coming in with for the value of the property and the value of the easement, would you advise your client at that point in time?

I was in touch with the appraisers on a regular basis, so I always had some understanding of where they were. t various points in time I would have explained the indicated value of the easement to someone at the organization.
Q Okay. Would you have done it the first time that you found out what the value of the easement or the entirety of the property was?
Not necessarily. My practice would be to understand it and see if I thought that was reasonable, if there were facts that had been omitted, if they understood things, if they had questions. Often these values are very preliminary and we learn things as the project goes on is the things that may or may not affect value.
Q So is it your testimony that you don't always keep your client informed of changes?
It is my testimony that I appropriately keep my client informed of changes and I respect all of my duties and obligations and ethics as a lawyer.
Q Do you recall when you first, a general time frame, advised your client that the value of the entirety of the property was 56.5 million?
MR. ROBERT: Objection. That's not the testimony.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2727

THE COURT: That was just a question. Does she recall when she first notified?
MR. ROBERT: The testimony was that she doesn't know if she ever told the value. She would have told them the value of the easement, not the value of the property. That was the testimony, Your Honor.
MR. SOLOMON: That's an easy foundation, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay.
Q Do you believe you ever told your client what the value of the property was as reflected in the appraisal?
My expectation is I certainly would have given them the appraisal at some point so they would have had that. Probably also at some point in time I would have said here's how it was calculated, but I can't recall when and I don't know if I would have done it at various points along the way, but I would have been in fairly regular communication about the value of the easement.
Q When you received this draft appraisal in or about November 2015, did you communicate with anyone at the Trump Organization as to how they were valuing Seven Springs on the statement of financial condition?
I don't recall. I don't think so, no.
Q Did you ever communicate with anyone at the Trump Organization as to how they were valuing Seven Springs on the statements of financial condition?

Not that I recall.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we please mark PX 3114 -- I'm sorry. It's already in evidence. If we could show the witness?
Q Ms. Dillon, you see this is an e-mail chain? t the top it's from Mr. Weisselberg to Rebecca Marrocio, but the ones below that it's from you to Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. Trump with a cc to Mr. Bender. Do you see that?
I'm sorry, do I see what? I was trying -- I just didn't recognize this. I was trying to see what it was.
Q Take a moment to look at the document, ma'am.
ll right.
Q Pointing to one side, the top e-mail, in this chain that doesn't include --
That doesn't seem to be the same chain I'm looking at. I'm confused. What's on the screen doesn't seem to be what I have.
Q PX 3144?
No, I have 3144. Perhaps that's the difference.
THE COURT: That would make a difference.
I still suggest to follow on the screen because when they highlight lines you don't have to go looking all up and down at a piece of paper. You can see the yellow, but, again, up to you.

S. Dillon - Plaintiff - direct (Solomon) Page 2729

THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Yes, we are on the same page now.
Q Fair enough. Thank you.
You'll see pointing to one side of the top e-mail that doesn't include you, but the one in the middle is from you to Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. Trump with a cc to Mr. Bender. Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd just so we're clear, it's Mr. Eric Trump; right?
Yes.
Q Okay. Did you send -- and the subject is "Easement nalysis." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Did you send this to Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. Eric Trump and Mr. Bender on or about September 23, 2014?
Yes.
Q If you look at the chart that's attached to that, the next page, "Potential Charitable Contribution nalysis." Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd the next page you are suggesting topics they should keep in mind. Do you see that?
I do.
Q Did you provide regular updates to your client as to the progress of conservation or potential conservation easements?

I don't know what you mean by -- could you restate -- could you read back that question? It was confusing to me.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, may we have a read back, please?
THE COURT: Please.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
Yes, but not things that necessarily looked like this.
Q How would you provide those updates to your client?
More informal e-mails, conversations, things along those lines from time to time and if regular means from time to time, then from time to time. There was no set -- it's not like every Monday we talk about conservation easements or anything like that. It would have been from time to time as I had something to say.
MR. SOLOMON: One moment, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Sure.
MR. SOLOMON: Nothing further, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Wow. Where is Flores?
MR. ROBERT: I was just about to bet the under.
MR. SOLOMON: Nothing further, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay.
Transcript continues on the following page....

PROCEEDINGS Page 2731

THE COURT: Plaintiff, are you finished with this witness?
MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Good.
Will there be any cross-examination despite what you said previously?
MR. KISE: Not right now, Your Honor. We are going to try and streamline and determine whether we need to call the witness at all.
THE COURT: We should talk scheduling, but should I let the witness go at this point?
MR. KISE: Fine with us, yes, Your Honor.
MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. I will let the witness go. Thank you.
(Witness excused.)
THE COURT: Let's talk scheduling on the record. Who wants to go first? Should I ask plaintiff since it's still your case?
MR. W LL CE: Thank you, Your Honor. Should we give the witness a moment to leave?
THE COURT: Sure. Go ahead.
MR. W LL CE: Okay, Your Honor. The next witness that we will call on Monday would be Mr. Flores returning to the stand. Our expectation is that examination would take about an hour. fter that, we would have Mr. Cerrone, the City employee, who I think would also take probably about an hour at that point. My understanding is the defendants have some cross-examination planned for that witness. I think we would then propose to play the Mouradian video tape testimony which is 2 hours and 16 minutes.

MS. GREENFIELD: You anticipate getting through all of that on Monday? Just wanted to be clear.

MR. W LL CE: So our total time, then, would be 4 hours and 15 minutes and then accepting whatever defendants choose to do with their time on those witnesses.

MR. KISE: I would think Mr. Cerrone we'll have questions for, not Flores. nd obviously, the video is the video, but I would -- given how our proceedings go, I think that would be a full day on Monday.

THE COURT: s long as we can finish it all Monday, let's hope.

MR. KISE: It would seem likely.

MS. GREENFIELD: Tuesday, who do you have next?

MR. W LL CE: So Tuesday would be Mr. Orowitz, Mr. Cornwell who would also be brief, and then when that is -- when those two fact witnesses are done, the People would move on to the one expert witness they are going to present as part of this section of our case in -- our case in chief, which is McCarty.

THE COURT: Will there be cross-examination of the two Tuesday witnesses as best you can tell?

MR. KISE: Orowitz, no. Cornwell, yes. nd, obviously, the expert, yes.

MR. W LL CE: I would just clarify that Mr. McCarty has been proffered as an expert in bank underwriting issues, but we will -- and issues of disgorgement. t this time, we are only planning to examine him on the issues of disgorgement. We are reserving any evidence or any presentation on bank underwriting issues until after the presentation of the defendant's case which I you understand will cover a number of bank witnesses anyway, would influence his opinion.

THE COURT: That's okay. Hold on.

MS. GREENFIELD: nd Wednesday?

MR. W LL CE: Wednesday, we will then move on to the defendants, specifically Mr. Donald Trump, Jr. Then after him, Eric Trump and presumably, depending on whatever may happen with appeals, would be Ivanka Trump. nd as we have indicated to the Court, reserve Monday, November 6th for Donald J. Trump, for his testimony.

THE COURT: We like to keep families together.

MR. KISE: What about Garten and Brunnett? re we not calling them?

MR. W LL CE: We will not be taking Garten and Brunnett during our case in chief.

MR. KISE: Okay.

MR. W LL CE: lso, Mr. Greenblatt we will not be taking during our case in chief. They will be moved to our rebuttal list, but we will not be taking them at this time.

MS. GREENFIELD: Do you anticipate getting Eric Trump, Donald Trump Jr., Ivanka Trump pending the appeal all in one day?

MR. W LL CE: Our hope is to do one day for each of them.

MS. GREENFIELD: That would be we are looking at Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday for each of the three Trump defendants. Ivanka Trump is not a defendant.

MR. W LL CE: Correct.

THE COURT: Will there be any cross?

MR. KISE: Not -- well, I don't know about with respect to Ivanka Trump just because to minimize her travel here and I can't really -- none of us here at this table can speak for her schedule and availability next week. Mr. Moskowitz, which I don't -- I don't know if he is still here -- would have to address that. But that would be the only witness, again, just to minimize her having to come back and forth whenever it is that she appears. We may try and just do that collectively.

MS. GREENFIELD: Okay. I want to -- I'm sorry, but just to be super clear, I understand that we are going to have each of the Trump witnesses on a separate day, but do we think their testimony will take the entire day or are you going to have filler witnesses or anything in between?

MR. W LL CE: Our expectations, it would likely take a full day. t this point, after we call Mr. Trump, we would rest our case in chief is our expectation at this point. So there -- there's no filler witnesses remaining.

MR. KISE: So a question with respect to Ivanka Trump. To the extent -- and again, I can't speak -- I have no idea what her schedule is, but is Ivanka Trump someone that the People -- because I know you're moving a number of other witnesses out of your direct case. Is that someone that you must have in your direct case?

The only reason I'm asking the question, I'm not suggesting an outcome, if for whatever reason her availability becomes challenging, we certainly would be calling her now that we know she's coming and we certainly would -- I'm just trying to figure out whether we can do it all in one day, whether it is a day on their case or a day on our case on that particular witness. But if they feel that they need to have her in their case in chief, that's a determination they need to make. I just don't -- I'm just trying to minimize the schedule conflicts for that witness.

THE COURT: Well, I think it would be preferable if we could get her Friday and maybe it is up to the plaintiffs to communicate with Mr. Moskowitz about her availability. If not then, when?

MR. KISE: Okay. That's fine.

MS. GREENFIELD: I just want to also point out that Friday is a half day, so whoever's testimony we think is going to take the least amount of time between Donald Jr., Eric and Ivanka, that should be scheduled for Friday just for the Court's logistics.

MR. ROBERT: I would need to know that now because as things stand now, Donald Trump, Jr. on Wednesday and Eric Trump for Thursday and since we need five days notice, can you confirm that now that that's your order?

MR. W LL CE: We provided you guys notice earlier that we might call them as soon as Monday, but I think that is the order. I would propose that Eric Trump be ready to testify whenever Donald Trump, Jr. is completed, so that could be Wednesday. That would be the order, Donald Trump, Jr. and then Eric Trump to clarify.

MR. ROBERT: nd then Ivanka last?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. KISE: I don't know about prior notice. I just know if we are talking about Wednesday and Thursday, that would be five days in any event, right?

MR. ROBERT: That's fine.

MR. W LL CE: nd we can work with Mr. Moskowitz and the defendants if there are issues with Ivanka Trump or if there is some -- but we are definitely calling her as part of our case in chief.

MR. KISE: Okay.

THE COURT: Okay. I will say again. It is my understanding that defendants do not have a standing to object, but I don't mind them being part of the process as a courtesy, whatever. Maybe Mr. Kise is right. Maybe he does have standing.

MR. KISE: They certainly objected or you allowed them to speak yesterday when I was talking about the other matter in the morning and I told you I didn't think they had a dog in the hunt, but you allowed them to speak in any event.

THE COURT: In any event, Monday, ten o'clock, okay. Thanks, everybody. Great weekend.

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is now in session. The Honorable Judge rthur Engoron presiding. Please make sure all cell phones are on silent. Laptops and cell phones will be permitted, but only to members of the press. There is absolutely no recording or photography of any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Good morning. Either the room is getting bigger or more people are showing up.

In this case, as in I'm sure others, the housekeeping matters can be explored as actual testimony, not last week's, but I understand we have a couple of housekeeping matters. I'll just start with the plaintiff because they're the plaintiff.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you, Your Honor.

Just the primary issue is that there is a change from the end of last week is the scheduling of the testimony for Ivanka Trump. We've had a number of e-mail exchanges with Ms. Trump and her counsel over the weekend and I think we have come to an agreement we will not be able to complete her testimony on Friday, the 3rd of this week and so the O G had proposed November 8th and 9th, but because of travel obligations of -- that Ms. Trump had, she had proposed Wednesday, November 15, which is not ideal from our perspective, but the O G is willing to book that date and proceed with her testimony then. We would just need agreement from the Court and from defendants that our case would not actually close with our final witness of Mr. Trump but would remain open for her testimony on the 15th.

THE COURT: Clearly as we work this out in that fashion, there is going to be any -- how long do you think the direct examination would be and how long do we think the cross examination will be?

MR. W LL CE: I think we would certainly complete it within the day, but I don't think it would take a full trial day and that we could do it with three to four hours of testimony.

THE COURT: You mean three to four hours of direct?

MR. W LL CE: Correct.

THE COURT: How long do you think cross examination?

MR. KISE: Probably a little less than that. I think overall it will be a full trial day between the government and the defense. That's I think why the 3rd doesn't really work just because we would get started and they might even finish their direct on the 3rd, but we're fine with the proposal if the Court is okay with it.

THE COURT: I have one creative thought. Let me run it by the person who sits along side of me.

(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

Proceedings Page 2742

THE COURT: We have things scheduled for Friday afternoon, the proverbial other cases we have. ny chance of turning Friday into an all day? We would just have to move things, which would be a bit of a pain, but might be a better alternative. Let's hear from both sides.

Plaintiff?

MR. W LL CE: Certainly. I think we would have no objection to that.

MR. KISE: I would have to note, for me, at least I don't know about the rest of us, since that's our only afternoon off for other cases, that may pose a bit of a train wreck on our side just because we've got -- I know it's hard to imagine there is anything else going on in the world right now other than this trial. Certainly happy to explore this afternoon and try and work that out. I'm not philosophically opposed to it, but I just don't know logistically if it's an option.

THE COURT: Let's talk about it after the lunch break. It would be so much easier for her in particular, right?

So other housekeeping matters by the plaintiff?

MR. W LL CE: That was the only issue. Otherwise, we're prepared to proceed on the issue we laid out at the end of last week.

THE COURT: What is the story with Mr. Solomon?

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2743

MR. W LL CE: We'll go off the record for this?

MR. KISE: Sure.

THE COURT: Okay.

(Whereupon, there is an off-the-record discussion held.)

THE COURT: Let's call the next witness S P.

MR. MER: Thank you, Your Honor. We recall to the stand Raymond Flores.

THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT: I'll remind the witness, witness, as I always do, you're still under oath.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE COURT: Please proceed. Continue.

BY MR. MER:

Q Welcome back, Mr. Flores. I'd like to quickly review where we ended your examination a week ago last Friday.

We were discussing the joint venture Vegas property and we had looked at the 2017 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 719 in evidence. nd if we could go to Row 751, which we had looked at before.

It states in Row 751 that the values listed for June 30, 2013 and June 30, 2014 are, quote, "based on the cash flow from unit sales prepared by Ray Flores 10/20/2103?"

Do you recall that we had looked at that before?

I believe so, yes.

Q nd I believe you testified that you did recall putting this together, this cash flow analysis, that's referenced in line 751; right?

Yes.

Q Were you aware in this time frame that your cash flow analysis was being used for the purpose of valuing this asset for Mr. Trump's statement of financial condition?

No, I was not.

Q Now, let's go ahead and -- what was the business purpose by the way for your preparation of the cash flow analysis that's referenced here?

I believe I was keeping track of the properties's performance and that's the extent of what I thought I was doing.

Q nd you were doing that at the direction of Eric Trump; correct?

I believe at this time it was David Orowitz.

Q nd at some point in time when you were preparing the cash flow analysis was it at Mr. Eric Trump's direction after Mr. Orowitz left the company?

It would have been -- I don't recall.

Q Let's go ahead and look at the 2016 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet, which is Exhibit 742 in evidence. nd if we go to Row 816, this is now for the next two years 2015 and 2016. Same note or similar note on Row 816 says "based on the cash flow from unit sales prepared by Ray Flores."

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2745

You recall that you continued preparing this cash flow analysis?

Yes.

Q nd am I correct that you were not aware in this time frame that your cash flow analysis was being used for the purpose of valuing this asset in Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition?

That's correct.

Q Now, if we could look at the next two years the 2018 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet that's Exhibit 774 in evidence and if we could go to Row 841 that's where Vegas begins.

nd do you see, Mr. Flores, that there is no longer any reliance based on the notation to your spreadsheet, your cash flow analysis, rather?

Can you scroll down, please?

(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

Yes, that's correct.

Q So your cash flow analysis was no longer being referenced as the basis for the valuation in either 2017 or 2018; correct?

That appears to be the case.

Q Let's go ahead and pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1208

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2746

native. nd the document I've handed you is a series of e-mail exchanges that include you as a sender and recipient; correct?
Yes.
Q nd you'll see the last page is an attachment that's a document prepared natively. Do you see that?
Can you show me the document, please?
Q Well, just that last page is a slip sheet for an attachment?
Yes.
Q Provided natively. nd we'll look at that in a moment. nd I just want you to notice that's a native attachment. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd you'll see in on the first page of the exhibit your e-mail in the middle of page to Mr. McConney, Jeff. " s discussed, please find the updated workbook attached," and then he forwards that on to Mr. Birney in the e-mail above that. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd the attachment, the Trump rough and financial model, that's your cash flow analysis; correct?
Yes, I believe so.
Q Let's go ahead and put up the native of 1208.
nd do you recognize this as your cash flow analysis that was forwarded by you to Mr. McConney and that is as of

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2747

June 30, 2017?
Yes.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I ask to move into evidence Plaintiff's Exhibit 1208, including the spreadsheet.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1208 in evidence.)
Q nd if you look at Row 37 of your spreadsheet that has the cash flow to Trump; correct?
Yes, that's what the document says.
Q nd so the value of the cash flow to Trump for your cash flow analysis has a total value of a little over $77 million; is that right?
Yes.
Q Okay. If we could now split the screen and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 774, which is the 2018 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet in evidence that we were just looking at.
If we could go to Row 872 and go over to Column G.
That's the June 30, 2017 value for this property which is slightly over 102 million; correct?
Yes, that's what the document says.
Q Okay. nd that value for the Vegas property as of June 30, 2017 is about $25 million, more than the $77 million value in your cash flow analysis; correct?

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2748

Yes.
Q Were you made aware, Mr. Flores, of a decision to stop using your cash flow analysis to value this Vegas asset for Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition as of the 2017 statement?
No, not that I recall.
Q Before we move on to a new property I just wanted to quickly circle back to Niketown to see if I could refresh your recollection on a couple of points.
You'll recall we had looked at the 2020 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet, which is Exhibit 857 in evidence and Row 88 is where Niketown begins, so if we could look there.
Do you recall we had looked at this before?
Yes.
Q nd if you go to Rows 88 to 103 you will see that there is a method used to value the property in 2019 from Rows 88 to 103 that produce a value of 445 million. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd then if we just go down to Row 106, you'll see that there is a change in methodology for 2020 that says "value per 20 year discounted cash flow from Ray Flores." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd I believe your testimony was that you don't recall performing a 20 year discounted cash flow analysis for Niketown for 2020; is that right?

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2749

Yes, that's correct.
Q nd then I showed you the 20 year discounted cash flow analysis for Nike for 2020 which we could put up on the screen now. It's PX 857. nyway, I believe we put up a spreadsheet and when we looked at that spreadsheet you still did not recall whether it was your work product. Do you remember that?
Yes.
Q So we're going to look at a few more pieces of evidence to see if it refreshes your recollection about the 20 year discounted analysis for 2020.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and look at an earlier draft of the 2020 Jeff Supporting Data, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 2293 in native and let's go ahead and look at Row 118 and actually go down a little bit further just so we can see the Niketown section. The other way. Sorry.
Q You see this is the section starting at 86 that relates to Niketown. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd in this earlier draft of the Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet for 2020 you'll see rather than reference the 20 year discounted cash flow analysis, it has -- starting in Row 105 and going down, a method -- keep going -- a method that takes the net operating income shown in 117 and divides it by a cap rate of four percent to produce a value of 265.1 million. Do you see that?

Yes.
Q Do you --
MR. MER: Well, let me move to admit this exhibit, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 857 in evidence.)
Q Do you recall Mr. McConney asking you to come up with additional reasoning -- actually, before we get there I'll withdraw that.
If you look at line 123, you'll see it says "cap rate." nd you see there is a note below it for 6/30/2020 that says "given the prime location in the plaza district, the proximity to Trump Tower and the high profile tenant, we use the same four percent cap rate as Trump Tower." Do you see that note?
Yes.
Q Do you recall Mr. McConney asking you to come up with additional reasoning to justify using the four percent cap rate for Niketown in the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition because Mr. Bender was pushing back on using the four percent cap rate?
I don't recall, no.
Q You don't recall that.
If I suggested to you that he made such a request to you on Christmas Eve of 2020, does that ring a bell?

No.
Q Mr. Flores, were you aware that as part of discovery in this case and in the investigation you received production of voicemail messages that were left on your office phone?
No.
Q Okay.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I'd like to play an audio file which is a voicemail message that Mr. McConney left on Mr. Flores' phone that we marked at PX 397 and then I'll ask you if it refreshes your recollection.
THE COURT: Go ahead.
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
Q I know you -- he spoke a little quickly. I don't know if you need to play it over again or not, but my question is whether that refreshes your recollection that Mr. McConney left you a message on Christmas Eve Of 2020 asking you to come up with additional reasoning to justify using the four percent cap rate for Niketown?
No, I don't recall that.
Q Okay.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I ask that the voicemail message be admitted into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 397 in evidence.)

THE COURT: I don't know how these things work. Is there a transcript of that that will actually be in evidence or just this recording?
MR. MER: We can transcribe it and put that in as an exhibit as well.
THE COURT: Please do.
MR. MER: Okay. We will.
Q Do you recall, Mr. Flores, that in lieu of convincing Mr. Bender to accept the four percent cap rate you and others working on the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition used the 20 year cash flow analysis we've been discussing as an alternative method for valuing Niketown in 2020?
I'm sorry, can you repeat the question?
Q Sure. Do you recall -- and we've listened to this voicemail message where Mr. McConney is asking you to come up with additional reasons to justify the four percent cap rate.
Do you recall that in lieu of trying to convince Mr. Bender to accept the four percent cap rate you and others working on the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition used the 20 year cash flow analysis we've been discussing as an alternative method for valuing Niketown in 2020?

No, I don't recall.
Q Let's go ahead and put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 3294 in native. This is a draft 20 year cash flow analysis for Niketown for 2020. Do you recall creating this analysis shortly after receiving -- well, shortly after Christmas Eve of 2020?
No, I don't recall that.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and mark as 3295, the metadata for this spreadsheet.
Q Mr. Flores, this document is a printout of the metadata that was produced along with the spreadsheet we were just looking at. nd if you go down you will see that it says the author is you. Do you see that?
Yes, that's what this says.
Transcript continues on the following page....

R. FLORES - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2754

Q nd you will see that the created date is December 28, 2020. Do you see that?
Yes.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I'll represent, and the Court can take judicial notice, that the very first business day after Christmas Eve in 2020, which fell on a Thursday, is Monday, the 28th of December.
THE COURT: I'll assume that's correct.
Q So this metadata shows that the very first business day after Mr. McConney left you the voicemail message that we listened to, there is a 20-year cash flow analysis that the metadata indicates was created by you on that date, the 28th. Do you see that?
That's what the document says.
Q Does this refresh your recollection, Mr. Flores, that you prepared the 20-year cash flow analysis that we've marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3294 shortly after Christmas Eve as an alternative valuation method for Niketown because Mr. Bender was pushing back on using a cap rate of four percent?
No, it doesn't.
Q So you have no recollection of doing this work based on a Christmas Eve 2020 voicemail message less than three years ago today, correct?
Correct.
Q Just to close the loop, let's compare the MPV value on the spreadsheet that we were looking at.

R. FLORES - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2755

MR. MER: If we could put that back up.
Q You'll see the MPV value in Row 14 is $252,779,805?
Correct.
Q nd again, this is the spreadsheet that has the metadata that says you are the author of this document based on what we were looking at, right?
That's correct. Correct.
Q nd let's put up next to this the final 2020 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet that is Exhibit 857 in evidence and let's go to Row 86 where Niketown starts and then if you go to Row 106, which has the value that is attributed to you, same value that's in the spreadsheet -- sorry. The analysis that the metadata says you created on December 28, 2020, correct?
Yes.
Q Mr. Flores, having looked at a number of 20-year discounted cash flow spreadsheets for Niketown, the metadata for one of those spreadsheets identifying you as the author, the Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheets attributing the spreadsheets to you and the voicemail message that Mr. McConney left for you on Christmas Eve in 2020 asking for your assistance, is your recollection now refreshed that less than three years ago, you created a 20-year cash flow analysis for Niketown to be used to value the property in 2020 for Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition?

R. FLORES - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2756

No, it's not refreshed.
Q In terms of the statements that you worked on preparing, I believe you previously testified that you believed you worked on the statement as of June 30, 2020, but that you didn't recall if you also worked on preparing the Statement of Financial Condition as of 6/30/21 before you left the company in March of 2022. Did I get that right?
Yes, that's correct.
Q Let me see if I could refresh your recollection. We did receive in production along with an audio file of a phone message that Mr. Birney left for you some metadata attached to that audio file, all of which gets produced in something called a Cellebrite file.
MR. MER: So I would like to mark as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3300 which I'm going to hand to the witness a report generated by the metadata from Cellebrite file.
Q I may have misspoke, but this is a message that was left for Patrick Birney, not by him, and based on Plaintiff's Exhibit 3300, which is the report for the audio message, it says that the message was left on ugust 2nd of 2021 and it has the phone number of the message of the phone that was calling, leaving the message, and you'll see it is (212) 715-7282. That's your office number, isn't it?
It was, yes.
Q nd you'll see it's a 27-second message that is being

R. FLORES - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2757

retrieved from the phone of Mr. Birney?
MR. MER: Your Honor, I'd like to have this document 3300, admitted into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in .
(Whereupon, the udio recording was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3300.)
MR. KISE: For what purpose, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Mr. mer, you can say it better than I can.
MR. MER: We are going to play the message. This tells us who the message is coming from and the date of the message.
MR. KISE: Okay. ll of these are being used, though, to refresh recollection. Is there some purpose that the hearsay itself is coming into evidence, the same is true as the other message.
MR. MER: I did not admit them for a limited purpose Your, Honor. I admitted them into evidence because they're all admissible for all purposes. They are party admissions against interest.
THE COURT: Well, I don't know what this new one will show, but the last one was relevant to how things were playing out there, simply put.
MR. MER: Is it in evidence?
THE COURT: The metadata?

R. FLORES - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2758

MR. KISE: We haven't heard it yet.
MR. MER: No.
THE COURT: We could wait --
MR. MER: It was this report admitted in evidence. Now, we are going to play the message.
THE COURT: If we haven't heard the metadata, we don't -- if we haven't heard the -- what you're going to play, I don't know whether the metadata is relevant. So why don't we wait until we hear.
MR. MER: Okay.
Q Let's go ahead and play the voicemail message that was left from your phone number.
(Whereupon, the audio recording was played.)
MR. MER: Do we need to hear it one more time?
THE COURT: No, I don't. nybody else does?
Q That was your voice, Mr. Flores, was it not?
Yes.
THE COURT: They're both in evidence now.
MR. MER: Thank you, Your Honor.
Q You were leaving a message for Mr. Birney saying that Eric had asked you to reach out to him about preparation of the financial statement, correct?
Correct.
Q nd that Eric was Eric Trump, right?
Yes.

R. FLORES - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2759

Q nd this is a phone message you were leaving for Mr. Birney in mid 2021, right?
That's what the metadata says.
Q nd does the fact that Eric Trump touched base with you in mid 2021 about having you work on the preparation of the financial statement refresh your recollection that you indeed were involved in the preparation of the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition?
I could have been. I don't recall.
Q No doubt, though, that that was your voice --
Yes.
Q -- leaving that message for Mr. Birney, correct?
Correct.
MR. KISE: So Your Honor, just to clarify, I guess this is where I'm not stating it correctly. Is this message and the subsequent -- or the prior message being introduced to establish that Mr. Flores doesn't actually remember what took place? Is it being introduced to establish that it, in fact, took place? I'm just -- I think those are two very different things. If the government is trying to establish that Mr. Flores doesn't remember something that happened, because that's what the questions are.
THE COURT: I'm sure that's not the reason; am I correct?
MR. KISE: That's all the questions are. "Does this refresh your recollection." He says no and now it is in evidence for all purposes at least according to them and I'm just wondering how that can be because that's not really consistent with the line of questioning. If they're introducing hearsay to -- well, if they're introducing hearsay evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted and not meaning the substance of the communication, not to establish either that this witness doesn't remember or not to establish that a conversation may or may not have taken place. Those are just two very different things.

MR. MER: It is absolutely being offered into evidence and has been in my view admitted into evidence to prove the truth of the matters asserted which is that what is stated in both messages is a correct statement of what was going on at the time. The fact that he doesn't remember, it is also something that's very interesting and pertinent, but it is not the sole basis for wanting to get those into evidence.
THE COURT: Probably not the main basis, but in any event, I think Mr. mer adopted my phraseology what was going on. I want to know who was talking to whom about what in terms of these financial statements, who was communicating with whom about what numbers were going to be put in place. Is that a fair statement?
MR. MER: Yes, absolutely, Your Honor.

R. FLORES - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2761

MR. KISE: Then with respect to the -- this statement since Mr. Flores accurately acknowledged that it was his voice on the message and, in fact, he has no reason to doubt it, then the foundation has been laid. With respect to the McConney message, which the witness doesn't remember and doesn't recall, you would need Mr. McConney here to say, yes, in fact, I left that message unless this witness can say he did leave the message. This witness can't get in a hearsay statement even if it is an admission by a party.
THE COURT: Even if it is an admission by a party? That's classic --
MR. KISE: But we don't know whether it is or not unless someone has authenticated it for that purpose.
MR. MER: Do you need me to respond? It is a voicemail message produced in discovery by the defendants. Mr. McConney is a defendant in this case. It is an admission against interest, clear, classic traditional to the hearsay rule.
MR. KISE: I don't know why it is being admitted other than that he called Mr. Flores.
MR. MER: I think it is admitting quite a bit and that's for argument.
MR. KISE: I'll leave it there.
THE COURT: It is in evidence for the "quite a bit."

MR. MER: Thank you, Your Honor.
Q We are now going to move, Mr. Flores, to a different property, Doral. Do you recall from your prior testimony discussing Poer & Company the tax certiorari firm?
Yes.
Q You previously testified that the firm handled property tax assessment appeals in Florida for the Trump Organization, right?
Correct.
Q You mentioned that you worked with that firm in connection with reviewing property tax assessments of Trump Organization properties in Florida, right?
Yes.
MR. MER: I'd like to introduce Plaintiff's Exhibit 3211.
Q You will see that this is an e-mail from Tony Garcia at Poer & Company to you. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Is Mr. Garcia one of the individuals you interacted with on tax assessment appeal matters that Poer & Company filed on behalf of the Trump Organization?
Yes.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I ask that this be admitted into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3211.)
Q Now, if you look at the e-mail starting with the second sentence of the first full paragraph, he says, "Per our conversation, we will withdraw the RE appeals for lack of supporting evidence."
First of all, do you recall what "RE" stands for in that sentence?
Real estate.
Q Real estate, okay.
Do you have a recollection of having this discussion with Mr. Garcia about the real estate appeals for Doral?
This specific discussion, it seems familiar.
Q nd Mr. Garcia goes on to say, "Our opinion is the property was fairly too favorably assessed as of the 1/1/2020 assessment date." The "YE 2019," we can agree that means year end, the year?
Correct.
Q "The year end 2019 operating statement still supports the county's value as being fair." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Do you recall what the property appraiser determined was the market value of Doral for 2020?
No, I don't recall.

MR. MER: Let's go ahead and mark Exhibit 3209. Your Honor, this is the official notice of proposed property taxes from the Miami-Dade property appraiser that's available on the government's website and I move that this be admitted into evidence as a business record from a government website.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3209.)
MR. KISE: Your Honor, just briefly. I mean, I'm assuming this is a public record, so that satisfies that basis; but I'm just wondering what's the relevance of this document. Why is this coming in?
THE COURT: I guess we'll find out.
MR. KISE: Okay. Subject to connection.
MR. MER: Indeed.
THE COURT: Okay.
Q If we go down, down the document, you'll see that there's value information column. Keep going. You see it says, "Value information, prior value 2019, current value 2020." There are two columns. Well, multiple columns. There is a market value column and then there are two assessed value columns. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd the market value in both years is $78 million,

correct?
Correct.
Q nd that is the market value that Mr. Garcia from Poer & Company was indicating in his e-mail to you as being fair, correct?
I believe so.
Q Let's go ahead now and --
MR. MER: Oh, I think we had your ruling that this is admitted?
THE COURT: Yes.
MR. MER: Okay.
Q Let's go ahead and turn to Mar- -Lago. nd before we talk about Mar- -Lago, I wanted to just put up plaintiff's demonstrative Exhibit 3.10, just so that we can all see the values of Mar- -Lago for the 11-year period in the Statements of Financial Condition.
THE COURT: But before we --
MR. KISE: Before we get there, was that the connection? I'm lost. Was that the connection? We are moving away from this exhibit now. It was offered subject to connection. Maybe I missed the connection.
THE COURT: Well, I think the connection was market value and $78 million.
MR. MER: That's right.
MR. KISE: So this is being offered as the actual market value of the property in this year, just so I'm clear?

THE COURT: Well, the tax assessor's view and I think Mr. Garcia's view of the market value. That's what it says. Now, Mr. Kise, you can certainly argue that there are different market values, but it is still relevant.

MR. KISE: Okay. Same objection, but thank you, Judge.

Q I just wanted all of us to familiarize ourselves with the values for Mar- -Lago that are in this statements from 2011 to 2021.

Mr. Flores, we heard testimony from Mr. McConney that every year from 2011 to 2021, Mar- -Lago was valued as if it could be sold as a private residence. Do you have an understanding that Mar- -Lago was being valued as a private residence when you were working with others to prepare valuations for the Statements of Financial Condition?

I don't recall, no.

Q Do you have any reason to doubt Mr. McConney's testimony that every year it was being valued as a private residence?

No.

Q Let's go ahead --

MR. KISE: Objection; foundation.

MR. MER: I think there was foundation because the witness testified he was involved in discussions with others about the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition. So he has a foundation for knowing if he has any reason to doubt Mr. McConney's testimony.

MR. KISE: But he testified he doesn't know whether it was valued as a private residence or not.

THE COURT: Well, that's his testimony.

MR. KISE: Right.

THE COURT: It doesn't mean --

MR. KISE: Now, any reason -- I mean, is there any reason to doubt that it is raining outside? If you know, you know. If you can't look out the window, you don't know. This witness doesn't have any basis to know what Mr. McConney was doing or what he testified to or the accuracy of it. It is just sloppy, Your Honor.

MR. MER: Well, I take offense to calling my questions sloppy, but I think it was appropriate. I think the witness said he didn't recall how Mar- -Lago was valued and it is appropriate to ask him if he has any basis to dispute Mr. McConney's testimony.

THE COURT: He doesn't say, "I would have no way of knowing that." He says, "I don't recall." The objection is overruled.

MR. KISE: It would be better if he -- I mean, does he have any understanding one way or the other is the question? That's the first question. ny reason to doubt? I mean, he's not demonstrated that the witness has any basis to know one way or the other.

THE COURT: Please explain the basis which I think was evident.

MR. MER: The basis is that this witness said he was personally involved with others in the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition and I will -- if you will refrain from characterizing my questions in a pejorative way, I will extend you the same courtesy if and when you get to the podium to question witnesses, Mr. Kise.

MR. KISE: But I'm still -- pejoratives aside, just because he was involved in the preparation of the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition, there's literally hundreds of properties. There's all sorts of properties. I mean, the question relates to this one particular property and not even that one particular property, but a particular aspect of that one particular property.

So to say that I'm involved -- that a witness is involved generally in the preparation of the Statements of Financial Condition is very different than saying the witness was involved specifically with respect to this asset and would know specifically Mr. -- have a basis to know one way or the other Mr. McConney's rationale.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, I think the questions are perfectly appropriate. There was a basis and the witness said he didn't remember, didn't know. If we're going to have to go through this every time there's some -- you perceive an issue with relevance, we'll be here a lot longer than I think we need to be.

I don't want to stop you from presenting your defense or questioning the plaintiff's case, but gee, save it for something that matters. I don't see that this even matters much less I think you're wrong on the merits. So let's move on.

MR. MER: Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. KISE: Respectfully, Your Honor, it does matter. The rules matter and this witness' knowledge matters. This is a highly-technical case, so all of this collapsing and conflating that has been done throughout the course of their case is inappropriate.

So I am -- respectfully, I'm not trying to take up a lot of time, but I am respectfully going to have to object to that. I understand the Court's position and I will just make my objection and leave it there. Thank you.

THE COURT: Yes, the rules matter at a certain point. I'm just going to say, and maybe the point is now, my ruling is my ruling. I give you some leeway because you know what you're doing and this is an important case and the details do matter, but if I rule rather than you might just question whether it really matters, and "I don't know," "I don't remember," "I don't think" really matters.

But anyway, again, a ruling is a ruling and I'll give you some leeway as I have this whole trial, but let's try -- both of us try to be reasonable about this, okay. Let's just move on.

MR. MER: Your Honor, I do have to just make a simple request. In my experience, evidentiary objections are very short and concise. It is the word "objection" and maybe five or six words after that. I have reviewed the transcripts to date and there are any number of instances where Mr. Kise's evidentiary objections go on for pages in the record. nd then when Your Honor rules against Mr. Kise and overrules the objection, it is an invitation for reconsideration and we get another several pages of the same objection.

It does three things. It interrupts the flow of the examination which is unfair. It educates the witness potentially which is improper, and it prolongs the trial. So I'm just going to ask not for a particular ruling now, but I ask that you consider whether it's now time to restrict Mr. Kise when making an evidentiary objection to what is the standard practice, which is very short, concise statement, the word "objection," and a very quick basis of what the objection is.

THE COURT: Well --

MR. KISE: Most of the time, Your Honor, that's exactly what happens, and then there's a colloquy about why do you think -- you asked Mr. mer how about it. You ask me to explain. I mean, this is part of the give and take. It is a bench trial. I'm not sure what Mr. mer's experience is and I'm not going to get into pejoratives, but I have to make our record.

If they are now asking -- they're now asking that the defense not even be allowed to make its case. They're asking that the defense not be allowed to make objections. They're asking that the defense not be able to make its case. Why don't we just skip over the part where there is a trial and just move to the ruling because that's what they want to do? That's clearly what they want to do.

That's where they began this case from the beginning. That's what they're used to in the ttorney General's office, bullying people in examinations under oath and now we are in open court, in an open trial, in a highly-publicized case and now they're asking that the lawyers not even be able to make sure arguments.

I think it's highly improper for them to even make the request. Your Honor has done a very good job of navigating and negotiating between the lawyers as to their objections. They have done many similar things and so I would just say it is a bench trial. We'll just move on. I understand the Court's direction and as always, I take it under advisement.

R. FLORES - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 2772

THE COURT: Thank you. I won't make any such broad ruling at this point.

Mr. Kise, obviously you're free to object, but keep in mind the point about the deleterious effects of long speeches, speaking objections.

nd by the way, Mr. mer, compared to most judges, I probably do allow and actually seek more of an explanation on objections. In fact, I often turn to the defense side and say "what's the ground." But again, we will all try to use commonsense here and let's move on.

MR. MER: I appreciate, Your Honor.

Q Let's look at Exhibit 3214. This is an e-mail from Mr. Garcia of Poer & Company to you, cc'd to Mr. Corbiciero on November 13th, 2020, correct?

Yes.

Q nd you'll see that the second sentence refers to Mr. Garcia getting calls from the media about the appeals for Mar- -Lago and Doral. Do you see that?

Yes.

Q Did Poer & Company file an appeal for the 2020 tax assessment for Mar- -Lago on behalf of the Trump Organization?

I don't recall.

Page 2773

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move this into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3214.)

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2774

Q Let's go ahead and mark Plaintiff's Exhibit 3170. These are a series of petitions and other materials that were provided to us by the Valuation -- by the Value djustment Board. If you go to the second page you'll see that there is on the bottom the certification from the Board of County Commissioners and that same certification appears on the bottom of page two, the bottom of page four, the bottom of page five, the bottom of page six, and the bottom of page seven, establishing that this is the county's official records.

MR. MER: I move this into evidence, Your Honor, under the business exception -- business records exception to the hearsay rule.

THE COURT: Isn't it more specific than business record exception, public document exception, something like that? Where is Mr. Robert now that we need him? He's our CPLR expert. It's in evidence. I'll just save time. Let's move on.

MR. MER: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Tell him I said so.

Q Let's look at the first page of this exhibit. You'll see that this is the petition to request a hearing and you'll see that it's being filed by Mr. Corbiciero. He's the representative and it's on behalf of Mar- -Lago Club, Inc. Do you see that?

Yes.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2775

Q So this is the appeal that was filed, request for a hearing of the tax assessment for the 202 year; correct?

I believe so, yes.

Q Did you review this petition before Mr. Corbiciero filed it with the county?

I don't believe so.

Q To your knowledge did anybody review it -- anyone from the Trump Organization review it before Mr. Corbiciero filed it with the Value djustment Board?

I don't believe so, no.

Q You don't have any reason, do you, to believe that Mr. Corbiciero would file this petition without appropriate authorization from the Trump Organization; is that right?

Correct.

Q Now, if we go down to the petition you'll see -- too far -- you'll see there is a section that says "type of property." Do you see that?

Yes.

Q nd can you tell us the type of property Mr. Corbiciero checked for Mar- -Lago?

Says "commercial."

Q So he's in an official filing with the Valuation Board denoting Mar- -Lago as a commercial property; correct?

Correct.

Q nd that's consistent with your understanding of what

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2776

Mar- -Lago was; right? It was a commercial property being used as a social club; right?

Correct.

Q nd there were boxes that would have permitted Mr. Corbiciero to indicate that the property was residential; right? There is a box next to "type of property" that says "RES one to four units" and "RES five plus units;" right?

Correct.

Q So he could have designated it as a residential property if he checked those boxes, but he did not; right?

That's correct.

Q Okay. nd so if we go to the last page of the document you'll see this is a withdrawal petition. Do you recall that the petition appealing the assessment was withdrawn?

Yes, I believe so.

Q nd the reason for the withdrawal if you go down a little bit there is a box checked, says "the petitioner agrees with the determination of the property appraiser or tax collector." Do you see that?

Yes.

Q nd so was it your understanding that the appeal was withdrawn because the Trump Organization agreed with the determination of the property appraiser?

Yes.

Q nd that determination was based on Mar- -Lago being categorized as a commercial property; correct?

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2777

Yes.

Q Let's go ahead and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 1382. You'll see the e-mail that begins in the middle of the page is from Mr. Corbiciero to you copied to Mr. Garcia dated November 17, 2021 and the subject is "Mar- -Lago Homestead Exemption." Do you see that?

Yes.

Q Now you go ahead and pass along Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail to Eric Trump and llen Weisselberg in the e-mail above; right?

That's what the document says, yes.

Q Do you recall reading Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail before you passed it on to your boss Eric Trump and Mr. Corbiciero?

No, I don't recall.

Q Can we agree that you would have reviewed the e-mail before passing it along to your boss Eric Trump and Mr. Weisselberg?

Yes.

Q nd you ask and you tell them that they should let you know if they would like to discuss further; right?

Yes.

Q So can we agree that at the time you passed along Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail about the homestead exemption you were prepared to discuss it with them if they so chose?

Yes.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2778

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this exhibit into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3170 in evidence.)
Q Let's look at the second sentence in this e-mail from Mr. Corbiciero. He says "last year we briefly discussed the possibility of filing for a homestead exemption on the Mar- -Lago property since President Donald Trump had legally declared Palm Beach and the Mar- -Lago property as his permanent residence." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt that you did in fact discuss this possibility with Mr. Corbiciero the prior year?
No.
Q Let's look at the second paragraph.
"In order to do this Mr. Trump would have to do certain things to establish residency" and I'm going to -- it says "since the private club is currently owned by a corporation, the property ownership would need to be changed/transferred into his name as an individual and not under a corporation."
Do you recall being aware of that point that Mr. Corbiciero was mentioning?
I believe so, yes.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2779

Q nd he goes on to say "if he was to meet all these requirements then the part of the property that he uses as a residence would be eligible for homestead. The property appraiser would need to come out and do a property inspection and measure the residential area and that portion of the assessment would receive the homestead exemption."
You understood what he was explaining to you when you received this e-mail; correct?
I believe so.
Q nd let's look at the next paragraph.
"Currently, this property is assessed as a private club with the current assessed value at $359 per square foot. The surrounding residential properties are assessed on average of over 2,000 per square foot with a recent sale with just 3,000 per square foot. If the property appraiser were to separately assess the residential portion of Mar- -Lago in order for it to qualify for homestead, we believe this would result in a much higher assessment and therefore outweigh the potential tax savings from the $50,000 homestead exemption in the immediate future. Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns."
Mr. Flores, did you understand from this e-mail from the company's tax advisor that Mar- -Lago was currently assessed as a private club and not a private residence?
Yes.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2780

Q nd did you understand, sir, that as a result of being assessed as a private club and not a private residence, it was assessed at a much lower price per square foot?
That's what the e-mail says. I don't recall.
Q nd that's what you were to understood when you received this e-mail and read it?
Correct.
MR. MER: Your Honor, the Court can check my math, but based on the numbers in Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail and going off of the $3,000 per square foot figure, private residences are assessed at almost eight and a half times the price of a private club based on just the math and I think the Court can take judicial notice of the math.
THE WITNESS: I'll take judicial notice subject to any contradictory views.
Q nd you understood that Mr. Corbiciero was saying it's not worth the $50,000 homestead exemption because of the increase in the assessment of the residential portion of Mar- -Lago were that to be carved out and designated at a private residence; right?
Correct.
Q nd that's because private residences are assessed at a much higher rate than a private club; correct?
That's what the --
MR. KISE: Objection. Foundation.

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2781

MR. MER: He received this e-mail, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Let's ask. I think the question was basically do you understand it that way and he says that's what the e-mail says.
Mr. Flores, aside from the fact that's what the e-mail said, is that what you understood, which is what the question was?
THE WITNESS: I don't know.
Q But isn't that what you would have understood from reading this e-mail?
Yes, that's what this e-mail says.
MR. KISE: That's an entirely different question.
MR. MER: I'm happy with the question I asked and the answer I got.
THE COURT: nd any objection overruled.
Q Did Eric Trump or llen Weisselberg ever get back to you to discuss this e-mail further?
Not that I recall.
Q To your knowledge, did Donald J. Trump ever apply for the homestead exemption?
Not that I recall.
THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
Q When you participated in the preparation of the Statement of Financial Condition, do you recall that Mar- -Lago continued to be valued as a private residence while being taxed as a commercial property?

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2782

No.
Q You don't know one way or the other?
No.
Q We can agree that in 2020 it was being taxed as a commercial property based on what Mr. Corbiciero had designated the property as in the petition; correct?
Correct.
Q You mention that your job entailed conducting financial analyses on real estate investments, including new acquisitions and development opportunities; is that right?
Correct.
Q nd in connection with doing that work, you were required to analyze future cash flows; correct?
Correct.
Q nd we've looked at some examples of discounted cash flow analyses you prepared over the years at the direction of Mr. Orowitz and Eric Trump; correct?
Correct.
Q nd so that is a type of analysis that is discounting cash flows to present value that you knew how to do as part of your job at the Trump Organization; right?
Yes.
Q nd you shared some of your discounted cash flow analyses with Mr. Weisselberg?

R. Flores - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 2783

Yes.
Q nd you shared some of your discounted cash flow analyses with Mr. McConney; correct?
Yes.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and put up the 2020 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet, which is Exhibit 1352, native. If we could go to rows 311 to 316.
Q You'll see that they calculate the profit for the sale of 71 mid rise units approved but put on hold and it comes to over $90 million in 2020 and over $86 million for 2021. Do you see that?
Yes, that's what the -- that's what the document says.
Q In connection with your work on the Statement of Financial Condition were you asked to review the assumptions for the portion of the valuation of this asset that involves the sale of 71 mid rise units?
What is this asset?
Q This asset is Briarcliff.
Then, no, I don't believe so.
Q Did anyone ever ask for your input on whether the profit attributable to the sale of these 71 units should be discounted to present value?
No.
Q Let's turn to Row 453, which begins "the valuation for the L golf course." nd if we look at Row 475 to 492 you'll see it indicates on Row 480 23 lots are being valued at roughly $63 million. Do you see that? ctually, it's for 2021.

nd if you go down to Row 490, the same 23 lots are being valued at about 53 million for 2020. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Did any of the individuals you identified as working with you on the preparation of the Statement of Financial Condition ask you to perform -- ask you to review the assumptions involved in the sale of the 23 lots for this asset?
No.
Q Did any of the individuals you identified as working with you on the preparation of the Statement of Financial Condition ask you to perform a discounted cash flow analysis for the sale of these 23 lots?
No.
Q Did any of them ask for your input on whether the profit from these lot sales should be discounted to present value?
Not that I recall.
Q Mr. Flores, would you agree that future cash flows need to be discounted to present value?
Yes.
MR. MER: That's all I have, Your Honor.
THE COURT: That's it for this witness?
MR. MER: Right on schedule.

Proceedings Page 2785

THE COURT: ny cross examination at this time? No? Okay. The witness is excused. I'll ask again that the defense side check in to whether Friday is a possibility as an all day under the assumption that we could finish it in one day, and we'll come back at 11:35.
(Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness stand and there is a recess in the proceedings.)
THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.
THE COURT: Would plaintiff like to call her, their, its next witness?
MR. MER: I do have one quick housekeeping matter.
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. MER: Just about an exhibit. I showed Mr. Flores it was Exhibit 1352. That was the 2021 supporting data spreadsheet. I mistakenly believe it had been admitted into evidence, but it's the Whitley Penn document that was admitted whereas the one I showed Mr. Flores was the one produced by the Trump Organization, so I think for the sake of good order we should just get the one I used with the witness admitted and, again, that's Plaintiff's Exhibit 1352.
THE COURT: Granted. You'll just make sure it happens. Okay.
MR. G BER: People call David Cerron.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2786

THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)
THE COURT: I thank the court officers for their alacrity.
THE COURT OFFICER: Remain standing and raise your right hand.
Do you solemnly swear or affirm any testimony you give will be the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth?
D V I D C E R R O N, called by and on behalf of the Plaintiff, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE WITNESS: I do.
THE COURT OFFICER: Please state your name and either business or home address on the record.
THE WITNESS: My name is David Cerron. Business address 830 Fifth venue, New York, New York 10065.
THE COURT: Okay. Counselor, please proceed.
DIRECT EX MIN TION
BY MR. G BER:
Q Good morning, Mr. Cerron. Can you please state your employer and title for the record?
My employer is the City of New York. I work for the New York City Department of Parks and Recreation. I am the assistant commissioner for business development and special events.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2787

Q nd until recently, New York Department of Parks and Recreation had a concession agreement with the Trump Organization; is that correct?
That's correct.
Q Could you give me some of your professional background within the Parks Department, please?
Sure. I've had the privilege of working for Parks in the city for just over 21 years. I started there working in our citywide services office, so that was doing a variety of different programs with our parks enforcement; with the Green Thumb Organization, which is community gardening; with arts and antiquities, variety of different operations there.
I moved -- I worked in public programs, which does all the recreation centers in the city and I had a chance to work on their after-school programming and other different events and I've worked in our transitional job programming, parks opportunity program and with the concessions team and have been there since about 2007, 2008.
Q nd can you tell me at a high level what your role has been as a member of Parks and Recreation with respect to the Ferry Point Golf Course?
So my role has been to work with colleagues in the concessions division on contract administration. So contract administration is effectively the oversight of the terms of the contract. So we'll focus on things related to operations, you know, is the operation -- and in this case Ferry Point.

Is it open to the public seven days a week; when does the day start, when does the day end; are we sure that it's being operated that time; when does the season end for most of our golf courses, effectively all of them.
They have a season, so the weather has changed, but they could be open until September or October, sometimes later and then they'll kind of start a new season in the spring.
We'll go over reports that are due to us. We want to make sure they have insurance. We want to make sure they're charging the right rates if rates go up, which they tend to. We want to review those rates and we have to approve them, so those sorts of things.
Q nd at what point in the history of the concession agreement for Trump Ferry Point did you become directly involved in the --
I became involved once the license was registered by the New York City Comptroller's Office and the agency had issued a notice to proceed. So that was when the contract commenced in I believe it was like the spring of 2015.
Q Were you in the office, though, during the period when the request for offers was issued and being considered?
I was.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2789

Q nd did you have familiarity with that process?
I was -- you know, I was there during that process and certainly remember, you know, colleagues talking about it. I was not involved in the selection.
Q Not formally involved?
Not formally involved.
Q Can you describe what a request for offers is in terms of city procurement? Your understanding?
So it's an -- it's under the other procedures under the city's Franchise and Concession Review Committee rules, so that's the -- for short, the FCRC is the acronym that we use.
Typically, when the city does its solicitation to have an operator provide a public service that includes fees we would use two methods: request for proposals, an RFP, or request for bid, an RFB. Generally those are going to be the methods that we'll use. There are instances where we will use either a sole source where there is no competitive process and we go through a process instead to award it directly to one operator. We can just -- this operator is uniquely qualified to provide that service and that, you know, the deal offered to the city is sufficient for that justification.
nd then in other circumstances we'll go through another process. nd this RFO, requests for offers, is part of the other process and to the best of my recollection this is the only time that the agency has done an RFO.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2790

MR. KISE: Your Honor, just -- very briefly just so we avoid interruptions. One thing I notice on the record, it's f-e-r-r-y, not f-a-i-r-y. nd the other is that I just want to have a standing objection so we can avoid on statute of limitations and relevance to this line of questioning, this testimony for this witness. Thank you.

THE COURT: We certainly want to get the spelling correct and the objections are considered standing and overruled.

Q Can you give me some background maybe about the -- before we get further into the request for offers, some background about the genesis of the Ferry Point Park Golf Course?

So the Ferry Point site, the scenario before it was a golf course was a municipal landfill and this was something that when I was working with the city under the Bloomberg administration was a priority for the agency to convert this landfill into a golf course and that was something that, you know, the city had attempted to do through a private operator. We had issued other RFPs and solicitations to try and achieve that goal and ultimately were not able to. So the city invested, you know, approximately $120 million, I think, over that in order to, you know, design and construct the golf course.

MR. G BER: So at this point I'd like to bring up

Plaintiff's Exhibit 3289 for identification.

Q So Mr. Cerron, there is some addition. It was publicly filed in a different legal proceeding, but the document in chief begins on page two of four of this exhibit and I just ask that once you've had a chance to take a look at it to let me know if you recognize this document.

Yes. This is a pre-solicitation review, what we call a PSR, and this is part of the documentation that we have to submit to the mayor's office of contract services before we can formally issue a solicitation, in this case, the RFO.

MR. G BER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.

MS. HERN NDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Standing objection overruled. It's understood.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3289 in evidence.)

Q nd Mr. Cerron, could I ask you to describe your understanding from this document of the selection procedure that's being outlined here?

So, the selection procedure is along the lines of what we had just discussed a few minutes ago. It is neither a competitive sealed bid, which is an RFB or competitive sealed proposal, which is an RFP. We did a different procedure that was not a sole source, so this was the other -- and in this case the other was the RFO.

Transcript continues on the following page.....

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. G BER) Page 2793

Q So this would be followed by your request for offers?

Correct.

MR. G BER: I ask to bring up Plaintiff's 3290 for identification.

Q gain Mr. Cerron, once you've had a chance to review this document, can you, please, tell me if you recognize this document?

This is the RFO document that was issued after the approval of the PSR that we just discussed.

MR. G BER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence.

MS. HERN NDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3290.)

Q Mr. Cerron, I'd like to direct your attention on page two of this document, the underlined header, "Goals for Request for Offers." Starting at the end of the second line, "Parks is seeking innovative offers from entities that can demonstrate substantial experience in the operation of golf courses and management of large scale events and significant financial capability to operate and maintain this concession at the highest level."

So can you, I suppose, tell me your understanding of the goals of this RFO based on this language here?

Yeah. The agency was seeking an operator that had experience and I think that can be interpreted in a few ways, but mainly operation of a golf course and a golf course that had hosted, you know, major tournaments from the PG or LPG and then have an entity that has the financial wherewithal to ensure that the course is maintained at a high level and also any other capital work that would be necessary.

Q Can you turn to page 3 of 8 under, "Content of offers," item number five, it says, "Financial capability, including financial statements and other supporting documentation of the responder's financial worth."

Is that what you were just referring to I think in terms of the wherewithal to operate the concession?

Yes.

Q nd then moving forward to page seven of the document, and we'll go between seven and eight. So there's here, it discusses scoring, I believe in the document, of the offers that are received; is that correct?

If you could scroll I guess -- scroll down a little, so I can -- or the other way. Sorry. Okay. "The conditions based on the following criteria," is that the --

Q Yes, "conditions based on the following criteria." Do you understand that to be the criteria on which offers would be scored?

Yes.

Q nd you see there it says, "Financial ranking, ten percent financial capability." Can you, I guess, provide your understanding of how financial capability would be scored in a request for offer such as this?

So this is -- this is a category that, you know, we would look for documentation verifying someone's finances to move forward with the commitments that they're making in their offer.

You know, there's a number of different documents that we would -- could review depending on what someone provides. It could be tax returns. It could be bank statements. It could be financial statements. It could be attestation letters. It is a variety of different things.

Q I think you said this a little bit before, but can you explain Parks' interest in ensuring that an offerer has sufficient financial capability?

Well, I think generally for any project that we want to do, we want to work with someone that we're sure has the money or the financing to be able to deliver on what will be obligations under the contract and I think specifically given this -- the history of this course and the fact that we ended up doing an RFO, I think the city was even more focused because this was a tough one to get -- to get accomplished and to actually complete.

Q Can you elaborate what you mean by "tough one to accomplish"?

s I mentioned, we had tried a handful of times through an RFP to find an operator for this course and to have someone else perhaps help with the construction or do the construction. The city ended up investigating over $120 million and there was a certainly a sense of importance placed on making sure that this course was open and available to the public. nd in doing so, we wanted to be sure that whoever we had operating the course had the financial capability to deliver on their obligations including making sure the course was operating and working every day.

Q Do you have a sense of how many offers were submitted in response to this RFO?

My recollection is that there were four offers.

MR. G BER: I'm going to now pass up PX 1331 for identification.

Q Mr. Cerron, please let me know if you recognize this document once you've had a chance to read it.

(Witness reviewing document.)

This is the response to the RFO from the Trump Organization.

MR. G BER: I'd ask this document be moved into evidence.

MS. HERN NDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as

Plaintiff's Exhibit 1331.)

Q Mr. Cerron, if I could point you to page four of this document, heading "F, financial capability." It says, "We have enclosed a statement from the certified public accounting firm of Weiser, L.L.P. indicating a net worth in excess of $3 billion and cash on hand in excess of $200 million. s such, we will easily be able to meet any and all financial obligations under this contract."

Just to move to page seven of the document, there's a letter here from Weiser L.L.P. that I think says substantially the same. So Mr. Cerron, is this the type of documentation of financial capability that the city would use in considering offers submitted to it?

Yes.

Q nd the city did consider this letter in reviewing the request for offers?

I believe so.

MS. HERN NDEZ: Objection; foundation.

THE COURT: Do you want him to ask if he knows?

MS. HERN NDEZ: He already testified that he was not involved in the bid process.

MR. G BER: I believe he testified that he was not formally involved, but he had an understanding of process both generally as a Parks employee familiarity, but also specifically in discussions with colleagues. I can ask him what his understanding is or if he knows whether --

THE COURT: Let's start with does he know and then what is his understanding.
Q Mr. Cerron, do you know if this document was considered as part of the offer from the Trump Organization?
I believe it was.
MR. G BER: t this time, I'd like to hand up this document Plaintiff's Exhibit 3291. It is entitled, "Recommendation for ward of Concession greement, Responsibility Determination."
Q Mr. Cerron, let me know if you recognize this document, please.
Yes, I recognize it.
Q What is this document?
This is the request for award. This is what we refer to as an RF and this is part of the documentation that we have to provide to the mayor's office of contract services to formalize the award of a license agreement.
Q So if you look there, there's a box here. It says, "This is to certify that I have determined that the subject concessionaire has the capability in all respects to perform fully the concession requirements and the business integrity to justify the private use of city-owned property and is, therefore, responsible." nd it appears to be signed by Elizabeth W. Smith, ssistant Commissioner for Revenue and

Marketing.
So Mr. Cerron, does this certification mean that NYC Parks is recommending that Trump Ferry Point, LLC be awarded the concession?
Yes.
Q So if we go down to the second -- page three of the document, under the header, "Financial Resources, dequate and ccounting Procedures", the document says here, "Trump has provided Parks with documentation from WeiserMazars, LLP, certified public accountants, stating that Donald J. Trump, the president of Trump, has a substantial net worth and cash position as set forth in Exhibit V to the concession agreement. There is also a personal guaranty from Donald J. Trump regarding payment obligations and the completion of capital improvements. Trump's offer includes setting aside three percent of gross receipts towards a capital reserve fund in years 5 through 12 and two percent in years 13 through 15 of the term of the concession agreement."
Mr. Cerron, can you explain your understanding of this paragraph here and how it relates to the recommendation?
So this part of the -- this part of recommendation is kind of just verifying to the mayor's office that we believe that this elected operator has the financial resources, the wherewithal and organization to competently run this concession.
Q Could I ask you why did the city need to see, I guess, a demonstration of assets of Donald J. Trump in order to grant the concession to Trump Ferry Point, LLC?

I mean, in terms of why they needed to see it, this was part of the financial capability section. nd as I had mentioned, this was a course that the city wanted to open for quite some time and we wanted to be sure as we would always that the operator in place had the funds to deliver on their obligations under the license.
Q I think -- let me rephrase my question. The concessionaire here formally is Trump Ferry Point, LLC. The paragraph here is referring to the net worth and cash position of Donald J. Trump personally.
Do you understand why the recommendation for award here is interested in Mr. Trump's personal financial position and not that of the entity?
Well, in his personal position, it relates to the personal guaranty from Mr. Trump, which was to I think -- again, very important and helpful in helping the city feel comfortable that all of the obligations were indeed going to be met.
Q The next two headers, I just like to briefly ask you about. They are "business integrity" and "other sources of responsibility information." Can you just to a high explain what these categories refer to?
This is -- this is a section where the agency will look for adverse information. So are there outstanding tax liens due to the state, due to the city? re there outstanding lawsuits going back to a certain period of time? re there other kind of like, you know, workplace violations or other issues that are available on any databases that we would need to identify and discuss before moving forward with an award.

Q So going back to the certification at the -- on page two of this document, at the top of the recommendation, is that -- are those two sections we just looked at responding to, I guess, the discussion of business integrity to justify the private use of city-owned property and is, therefore, responsible. That's what's being --
Yes.
Q -- analyzed there?
Yes.
Q nd so business integrity and responsibility of a concessionaire are important to the city?
Yes.
Q So was it important in recommending the award for Parks & Recreation to receive truthful, accurate and complete information from offerers?
Yes.
Q Based on the submissions here, the offer that we just looked at and the additional determinations described in the recommendation for award, did the city and the Department of

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. G BER) Page 2802

Parks & Recreation believe that it was receiving truthful, accurate and complete information from the offerers?
Yes.
Q I'm going to hand you a very voluminous exhibit marked Defendant's 981. Let me know if you recognize this document.
This is the license agreement between Trump Ferry Point, LLC and the City of New York.
MR. G BER: I'd ask that this be moved in evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
MS. HERN NDEZ: Objection; statute of limitations.
THE COURT: You really don't have to do that every time. It is a standing objection, if that phrase means anything.
Go ahead, Mr. Kise.
MR. KISE: s to the testimony, the standing objection, but the documents, we need to object one by one like we've been doing throughout the trial.
THE COURT: Why is that? Don't the documents always or almost always have the date of them?
MR. KISE: gain, I mean, we -- not to belabor it, but our research has concluded that there's no standing objection with respect to documents, but with respect to testimony, yes, but with respect to document by document, no.
THE COURT: Well, Cliff isn't here, so we can't consult him, but I'll assume -- I'll let you do whatever you need to do, okay.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 981.)
MR. G BER: I realize I may not have admitted Plaintiff's 3291. I move to admit 3291, plaintiff's.
MS. HERN NDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3291.)
Q Can I just quickly -- I just want to direct your attention to pages 103 and 104 of this document. Just to confirm that this is a signed version of a license, so this would be the final agreement between the city or Parks & Recreation and Trump Ferry Point, LLC?
Yes.
Q With respect to the trees that went into printing this out, I'm going to move on to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3283. Let me know if you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron.
Yes. This is the personal guaranty made by Mr. Trump.
Q Is it your understanding that this personal guaranty was a condition of the license that we just looked at?
Yes.
Q If you look, Mr. Cerron, at page eight and nine of this document, you'll see that it is signed by Donald J. Trump as guarantor and then there is the signature of Ms. Smith, the ssistant Commissioner of Revenue, correct?

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. G BER) Page 2804

Correct.
Q So I'd like to draw your attention, Mr. Cerron, to page three of this document; heading four there, "Financial Covenants." Well, actually before that, can you just explain your understanding of this guaranty, the personal guaranty here as it relates to what we have been discussing, financial capability and Ferry Point license.
Just generally, that it is -- it's a guaranty to meet the financial obligations of the license. So effectively, that was the biggest part of the obligation was the clubhouse and the concessionaire was obligated to design and construct clubhouse for the golf course and that would also host catered events in the amount minimum of $10 million.
Q So the city or Parks & Recreation asked for a guaranty in order to ensure that the concessionaire would meet those obligations?
Correct.
Q nd so under Section here of heading four, it says, "Until the guaranteed obligations are released or terminated, within 120 days of the end of each calendar year, guarantor shall be required to furnish Parks with a letter from guarantor's accountant stating that there has been no material adverse change in guarantor's net worth (such letter a "No M C" letter)."

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. G BER) Page 2805

Can you explain the purpose of these "No M C" letters on an ongoing basis?
That it was an annual letter that was to be sent to the city to just reaffirm that the initial financial statements that were shared with the city during the award process were in material respects the same.
Q nd would you expect those letters to be true, complete and accurate?
Yes.
Q Would submission of false or fraudulent information in those "No M C" letters be a matter of concern to Parks?
Yes.
Q Can you elaborate on that, what type of concern would be raised?
I think, you know, for -- I guess the first concern would be our questioning of whether or not the financial obligations under the license could continue to be met. nd then I think the second concern would be if this was not accurate, are there other documents, other reports that were provided to the city that were also not accurate.
Q s a general matter, does Parks & Recreation have procedures or mechanisms in place for reporting suspected or actual false or fraudulent submissions if you know about them?
If we become aware of something that was reported falsely, yes. Generally, that's a matter we would refer to our counsel's office and then potentially to the city's department of investigation.

Q So, Mr. Cerron, I'm just going to ask you before I let you -- before I'm concluded to just take a look at a number of documents and tell me if you recognize them. They're going to look substantially similar. This is Plaintiff's 3282. It is a letter from WeiserMazars dated December 21, 2011. Just let me know if you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron.

this is -- this is an e-mail and then starting on page two is the letter. I'm sorry. It is an e-mail with an attached letter.

This is one of the "No M C" letters that were referenced in the personal guaranty that you just had up.

Q Okay.

MR. G BER: I'd ask that this be moved into evidence.

MS. HERN NDEZ: Objection. Statute of limitations and foundation.

THE COURT: Overruled on statute of limitations. What's the foundation?

MR. G BER: The foundation is -- I can ask a question just to --

THE COURT: Sure.

Q Mr. Cerron, is it your understanding that this letter, which I believe you yourself said is the "No M C" letter, was submitted to the city?

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. G BER) Page 2807

Yes.

MR. G BER: I move to admit it.

MS. HERN NDEZ: Objection, Your Honor. He testified he doesn't recognize the first page of the exhibit, only the second page.

MR. G BER: It was produced as a family with the cover e-mail that's an internal Trump Org document. I'm happy to admit only as to the letter at this time just to obviate.

THE COURT: Okay. Then that's what we will do. Just submit it as to the letter.

MR. G BER: lthough, I will note that the e-mail is from Mr. McConney and so to the extent that it's a party admission, perhaps we just seek to have it admitted for all purposes at this point and Mr. Cerron is only testifying as to his knowledge.

THE COURT: It is admitted all pages for all purposes.

MR. G BER: Once again, I think I need to admit 3283 the previous exhibit as well into evidence.

THE COURT: Sorry. Say it again.

MR. G BER: 3283, I may not have moved that in formally. It is the previous.

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. G BER) Page 2808

THE COURT: ll in for all evidence for all purposes.

(Whereupon, the Documents were marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibits 3282 & 3283.)

MS. HERN NDEZ: Just note our objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled.

Q Mr. Cerron, first paragraph here, the last sentence refers to -- well, let me start with the whole first paragraph. "We are the accountants for Mr. Donald J. Trump and have previously compiled his Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2011 as indicated in our accountant's compilation report dated October 6, 2011. This compiled financial statement showed a net worth in excess of $4 billion and cash and marketable securities in excess of $250 million."

So Mr. Cerron, would the city expect that representation to be true, complete and accurate?

Yes.

MR. G BER: I would now move on to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3286 for identification.

Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron?

Yes.

Q Can you tell me what it is?

This was -- this was a proposal from the concessionaire at the time to extend, if memory serves, the 18th hole and perhaps the 17th hole into what is now a passive waterfront park that is approximately 19.5 acres.

Q nd this was sent to the Department of Parks & Recreation?

Yes.

Q I direct your attention to page seven of this document. Section F there, "financial capability." "We have enclosed as attachment F a statement from the certified public accounting firm of Weiser, LLP indicating a net worth in excess of approximately $5 billion and cash on hand in excess of $330 million. s such, we will easily be able to meet any and all financial obligations under this extension proposal" and then it is signed at the bottom there, "Donald J. Trump."

MR. G BER: I'd ask this be moved into evidence.

MS. HERN NDEZ: Objection, Your Honor; relevance, statute of limitations and beyond the proffer that we received for this witness.

THE COURT: Would you have done anything differently if you had received their proffer in the sense that it is now being offered?

MS. HERN NDEZ: Yes, Your Honor. We had a deposition on Monday, last Monday of this witness. We would have asked more questions. That was the intention of the proffer.

MR. G BER: How is this beyond the proffer? I believe that we had a pretty broad proffer related to the "No M C" letters and the maintenance and administration of the --

MS. HERN NDEZ: This was a proposal for extension, so it doesn't relate to the maintenance of the Ferry Point property.

MR. G BER: But it does contain a letter from Mazars and it reflects the -- contains a letter from Mazars which reflects the financial capability of the guarantor.

MS. HERN NDEZ: The proffer doesn't specifically mention the WeiserMazars letters. It is a little bit different. I don't know how much of this we want to get into in front of the witness, but this is beyond the scope of the proffer we received.

THE COURT: Was it beyond the scope of the proffer?

MR. G BER: We don't believe so.

THE COURT: I don't think so either. Overruled on all three grounds. So it is in for -- the document is in for all purposes. Signed by -- apparently signed by Donald J. Trump.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3286.)

Q So I would just like to have you look at page 21 of the document now, Mr. Cerron. This is a letter from WeiserMazars, LLP dated October 29, 2013. It is addressed to Ms. Smith, the assistant commissioner of revenue again. It says, "Dear, Ms. Smith. We are the accountants for Mr. Donald J. Trump and have previously compiled his Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2013. s indicated in our accountants' compilation report dated October 28, 2013, this compiled financial statement showed a net worth in excess of $4,900,000,000 and cash and marketable securities in excess of $330 million."

Mr. Cerron, would the city expect this to be true, complete and accurate representation?

Yes.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2812

Q I'd like to now hand the witness Plaintiff's Exhibit 3284 for identification. gain, this was produced as a family with a cover e-mail, but I'm only going to be asking the witness about page three of three here.

Do you recognize this letter dated March 28, 2016 from WeizerMazars LLP, Mr. Cerron?

Yes.

Q What do you recognize this to be?

No Mac letter.

Q For what year?

For the year ending December 31, 2015.

Q Okay. Thank you.

So this letter states in the second paragraph:

"While we have not reviewed computations of value since the aforementioned June 30, 2015 financial statement, based on discussions with Mr. Trump and his advisors, we are not aware of any matters that would indicate a significant change in Mr. Trump's net worth as of this date or as of December 31, 2015."

Mr. Cerron, the city expects this to be true, complete and accurate as to the representations in this letter?

Yes.

THE COURT: I'll ask the witness to speak a little louder and closer to the microphone, directly in.

THE WITNESS: Sorry. Yes.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - direct (Gaber) Page 2813

THE COURT: Much better.

MR. G BER: Does it to every witness.

THE COURT: nd usually much earlier, right?

MR. G BER: nd I'd like to move this into evidence, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3284.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3284 in evidence.)

MS. HERN NDEZ: Sorry. Objection also they're only showing the third page of a three-page exhibit. The first two pages he does not have knowledge of and there is no foundation to admit those.

MR. G BER: I said I'm only showing him the third page and that there is an e-mail there that at this point I'm only admitting it as to the --

THE COURT: The third page. Okay. So it's only as to the third page.

Q So Mr. Cerron, I'm going to hand you Plaintiff's Exhibit 3285, and again, this was produced as a family, so I'm only going to be making reference to page two of two of this document at this time.

Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron?

Yes. This is a No Mac.

Q I don't think we -- so Mr. Cerron, do you know what year this No Mac letter is for?

Just a moment. I believe this is for June 30, 2016.
Q The 2016 calendar year?
Or I believe if they have a financial year that ends June 30th.
MR. G BER: Okay. So the second paragraph here, I'd ask that this letter, page two, be moved into evidence.
THE COURT: You ask that it be admitted into evidence? Granted. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3285 in evidence.)
Q This paragraph, second paragraph here, says, "While we have not reviewed computations of value since the aforementioned June 30, 2016 financial statement, based on discussions with the trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust dated pril 7, 2014, as amended, and their advisors, we are not aware of any matters that would indicate a significant change in Mr. Trump's net worth as of this date."
Mr. Cerron, would the Department of Parks and Recreation expect this representation to be true, complete and accurate?
Yes.
Q I'm now going to hand you Plaintiff's Exhibit 3280 for identification. gain, this was produced with a transmittal e-mail, so I'm only going to ask you to look at page two of two. Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron?

Yes. This is a No Mac letter for the year ending June 30, 2017.
Q This contains similar language in the second full paragraph as to the last letter I read.
MR. G BER: The -- first, I'd ask this be moved into evidence -- admitted into evidence.
THE COURT: Quick learner. Yes, granted. It's in evidence over an objection.
MS. HERN NDEZ: Just the second page?
THE COURT: Yes, just the second page.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3280 in evidence.)
Q nd so this is -- I believe this is the same language as in the previous letter we read; is that correct? Same or substantially the same?
It seems so, yes.
Q nd would the City and/or Department of Parks and Recreation expect this representation to be true, complete and accurate?
Yes.
Q I'd like to hand the witness Plaintiff's Exhibit 3281 for identification.

Do you recognize this document, Mr. Cerron?
Yes. This is a No Mac letter for the year ending June 30, 2020.
MR. G BER: I'd ask that this be admitted into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in. Can't object on statute of limitations grounds.
MS. HERN NDEZ: No objection.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3281 in evidence.)
Q So here, this is substantially similar to what we've read. I'll note that the last sentence of the last paragraph says that this compiled financial statement showed a net worth in excess of $3 billion in cash and cash equivalents in excess of $90 million.
Mr. Cerron, would the Department of Parks and Recreation expect the representations in this letter to be true, complete and accurate?
Yes.
MR. G BER: I believe I have no further questions for the witness. Is this in evidence?
THE COURT: It's in.
Will there be any cross examination?
MS. HERN NDEZ: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I look forward to it.
You know, before you start I have a few quick questions. I won't disturb your situation.
You described the property before it became a golf course as landfill; correct?
THE WITNESS: Correct.
THE COURT: nd can you in one or two sentences describe what material was there? What was the fill?
THE WITNESS: Municipal waste, people's garbage.
THE COURT: Yes. It was what we would call a garbage dump as I remember it from many, many years ago, which might have made turning it into a golf course difficult if it was just grass or sod or something.
nyway, okay. Cross examination. Let's begin.
MS. HERN NDEZ: Your Honor, for the record, my name is Jennifer Hernandez on behalf of the various corporate defendants, our first time officially meeting.
THE COURT: Welcome to Room 300.
MS. HERN NDEZ: Thank you.
CROSS EX MIN TION
BY MS. HERN NDEZ:
Q So Mr. Cerron, you were not involved in the award process to Trump Ferry Point LLC for the Ferry Point property?
Correct.
Q nd you only later became involved in the administration of the license when the license was entered into between Trump Ferry Point LLC and the city?

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2818

Correct.
Q nd you are aware that the award to Trump Ferry Point was made pursuant to a request for offers process; correct?
Correct.
Q nd that is different from the request for proposal or request for bid process; correct?
Correct.
Q nd in your experience with Parks this is the only time you are aware of a request for offers being utilized in the concessions division for an award process; correct?
Correct.
Q nd so we're going to now pull up PX 3290, which has already been admitted into evidence. nd can you go to the next page?
nd this is the request for offers that you took a look at earlier today; correct, Mr. Cerron?
Correct.
Q nd if we could go to page seven? nd right there in the middle of the page, you see that it says "Selection Committee will evaluate the resulting concession offers and will select or award the entity that proposes the best overall terms and conditions based on the following criteria." Do you see that?

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2819

Yes.
Q nd this selection criteria, similar criterias used in a request for proposal process; correct?
Correct.
Q nd the bulk of the criteria here, 60 percent of it was based on the planned operations and operating experience; correct?
Correct.
Q nd then 15 percent was for the investment and design submitted?
Correct.
Q 15 percent was for the compensation to the city?
Correct.
Q nd then ten percent was for the financial capability of the offer; correct?
Correct.
Q nd that is the lowest percentage of the selection criteria; correct?
Correct.
Q It had the highest importance to the Selection Committee; correct? Sorry. Excuse me. The lowest importance to the Selection Committee; correct?
This was weighted the lowest.
Q nd from your experience with the selection criteria in the request for proposal context the Selection Committee scores in accordance with this criteria; correct?

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2820

Correct.
Q Thank you.
MS. HERN NDEZ: nd so we're going to now move to PX 3291, which I think it's already been admitted. nd so we could go -- could you go to the next page, Nate?
Q nd so this is the recommendation -- this is the recommendation for -- award for the Trump Ferry Point -- for Trump Ferry Point LLC; correct?
Correct.
Q nd if we can go to the bottom of this page, this is a the technical qualification section; correct?
Correct.
Q nd as we saw in the request for offers, the operating experience of the offer was 30 percent of the selection criteria; correct?
Correct.
Q nd this technical qualification section generally explains why the agency moved forward with an operator; correct?
This is part of why the agency moved forward with the operator, correct.
Q nd that is the experience of the operator in running high-end golf courses; correct?
Correct.
Q nd here, the operator, just to be clear, is Trump

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2821

Ferry Point LLC; correct?
Yes.
MS. HERN NDEZ: nd so if we could move to the next page right where it says "financial resources."
Q nd the financial resources section here is meant to provide as much assurance to Parks as possible that the operator is able to meet the financial commitments under the license; correct?
Correct.
Q nd for this section I believe you testified there is no one-size-fits-all requirement for the type of financial information required?
Correct.
Q Concessionaire to provide a tax return, a bank statement or other documentation to provide financial information to Parks; correct?
Correct, the committee that is reviewing these documents collectively has to decide that they're comfortable with what's been submitted.
Q nd you were not involved in that committee; correct?
Correct.
Q nd so if we could move -- well -- and parties after this recommendation entered into a license agreement; correct?
Correct.
MS. HERN NDEZ: nd so if we could move to D 981,

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2822

which is already in evidence.
Q nd this is the license agreement between Trump Ferry Point LLC and the City of New York Department of Parks and Recreation; correct?
Correct.
Q nd it's for the operation management and maintenance of an "18 hole Jack Nicklaus signature golf course, lighted driving range and ancillary facilities and the design construction operation management and maintenance of a permanent clubhouse at Ferry Point Park;" correct?
Correct.
Q nd we're going to go to page 52 of the License greement. 52, sorry, right. Thank you.
This is the capital improvements portion of the License greement; correct?
Correct.
Q nd here it says: "Licensee shall during the term at its sole cost and expense perform and complete all costs to be performed and completed the capital improvements described conceptually on the schedule capital improvements annexed to" -- "annexed hereto as Exhibit F."
nd if we move forward a little bit, "licensee shall spend or cause to be expended capital improvements costs of at least ten million dollars;" correct?
Yes.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2823

Q nd so under this section the licensee is Trump Ferry Point LLC; correct?
Correct.
Q nd the most relevant element of the required capital improvement was the clubhouse; correct?
Correct.
Q nd so Trump Ferry Point LLC agreed to spend at least $10 million to construct the clubhouse and any other capital improvements; correct?
Correct.
Q nd did Trump Ferry Point spend at least $10 million on those capital improvements?
Yes.
Q In fact, Trump Ferry Point LLC spent more than $10 million on the capital improvements; correct?
Yes.
Q nd so we're going to go to page 319 of this exhibit now and so this is Exhibit 5, the Guaranty greement; correct?
MR. G BER: Objection. I believe it's Exhibit V just for clarity of the record.
MS. HERN NDEZ: Sorry?
MR. G BER: I believe it's not Roman V. I believe it's Exhibit V.
MS. HERN NDEZ: So that's news to me.
Q So Exhibit V is the Guaranty greement?

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2824

Correct.
Q nd so this is --
MS. HERN NDEZ: Can we go to the next page, Nate?
Q This is a Guaranty greement between Donald J. Trump and the city; correct?
Correct.
Q nd at the end of the page, it says "guaranteed obligations;" correct?
re you referring to --
Q B?
Correct.
Q nd so B is guaranteed obligations. re the obligations under the License greement that Donald J. Trump guaranteed; correct?
Can you repeat that, please?
Q These guaranteed obligations are the obligations that Donald J. Trump guaranteed under the License greement; correct?
Correct.
Q nd so if it's not under this list, under V, he didn't guarantee it; correct?
I believe so. I'd have to take a look at the whole document, but I believe so, yes.
Q We're going to run through some of it now.
So here in romanette i, President Trump guaranteed the payments of all due and unpaid license fees to the city;

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2825

correct?
Correct.
Q nd those yearly license fees were usually in the neighborhood of approximately $300,000 a year; correct?
That's correct with the caveat that the first -- if memory serves, the first five years there were no license fees due.
Q Understood. nd were there any unpaid license fees for Trump Ferry Point LLC?
No, there were not.
Q So the guaranty was never invoked for payment of any license fees; correct?
Correct.
Q nd so we're going to move down to romanette ii now and so under Section 2, President Trump guaranteed any unpaid deposits to the capital reserve fund less any credit Trump Ferry Point was entitled to; correct?
Correct.
Q nd were there ever any unpaid deposits under the license agreement?
No, there were not. gain, just with the caveat as we had discussed during the deposition that there was a credit related to --
Q Correct, which we're going to get to. Thank you.
So the guarantee was never invoked under this section;

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2826

correct?
Correct.
Q nd Section 3, romanette iii, President Trump guaranteed the payment of a one-time design review fee; correct?
Correct.
Q nd was the design review fee paid?
Yes.
Q So the guarantee was never invoked for payment of the design review fee; correct?
Correct.
Q nd moving to --
MS. HERN NDEZ: We're going to put them up together, Nate, Section 4 and 5.
Q nd under Section 4 and 5, President Trump guaranteed any unpaid portion of insurance premiums and deductible under either the license agreement or the development agreement; correct?
Correct.
Q nd was the guarantee ever invoked to pay any unpaid insurance premiums or deductibles?
No.
Q nd then under Section 6, President Trump guaranteed any unpaid grow-in costs beyond the cap of $750,000; correct?
Correct.
Q nd grow-in costs relates to the costs the

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2827

concessionaire takes over for the city to grow and preserve the grass on the golf course?
Correct. This was before the course opened.
Q Right. nd these grow-in costs were capped at $750,000 under the contract from the city and Trump Ferry Point LLC; correct?
Correct.
Q nd anything over the $750,000 cap was reimbursed to Trump Ferry Point LLC through a credit that would apply to license fees in future years; correct?
Correct.
Q nd the city performed an informal review to determine the grow-in costs Trump Ferry Point LLC incurred; correct?
Correct.
Q Do you recall what year that was done?
To the best of my memory it would have been approximately 2015 or 2016. Sorry, sorry. It couldn't have been -- probably 2016 or 2017 because the course opened in 2015 and up until that point the costs would have still been accumulated.
Q Got it. nd so the informal review that the city performed was to see how much Trump Ferry Point LLC expended beyond the cap; correct?
Correct.
Q nd the review showed that Trump Ferry Point LLC

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2828

expended approximately 5 to $7 million more than the $750,000 grow-in cap; correct?
Correct.
Q nd as a result, Trump Ferry Point LLC received a 5 to $7 million credit to any license fees; correct?
Correct.
Q nd --
MR. G BER: I'm just going to briefly object. This is beyond the scope of direct it feels like at this point, so I just want to launch that objection.
MS. HERN NDEZ: It goes to exactly what was guaranteed, Your Honor, and the scope of their agreement and -- with Trump Ferry Point LLC.
THE COURT: Well, I don't think it matters much. They could always call him as their witness, so as a practical matter, overruled.
MS. HERN NDEZ: nd we're trying not to call Mr. Cerron again.
MR. G BER: Under that representation, I will reserve any further scope objections.
Q So the 5 to $7 million credit, did it cover all of the license fees due under the agreements?
I'm sorry. I don't believe I fully understand the question.
Q The 5 to $7 million credit we just discussed did it cover all of the license fees that were due under the agreement?

It covered all the license fees that were due under the agreement up until the point that the license was assigned.
Q Correct. So Trump Ferry Point LLC never had to pay any license fees under the agreement; correct?
Correct.
Q nd so moving back to the guarantee, there was no unpaid grow-in costs beyond the cap for President Trump to pay; correct?
There were no fees that were due to the city from this license.
Q nd so President Trump's guaranty was never invoked for -- under this section; correct?
Correct.
THE COURT: Try not to comment on the answer like "right."
MS. HERN NDEZ: Sorry, Your Honor. Understood.
Q So moving to Section 7, President Trump guaranteed payment of any due and unpaid late charges; correct?
Correct.
Q nd were there ever any due or unpaid late charges imposed on Trump Ferry Point LLC?
Not that I recall.
Q Okay. nd then moving to Section 8, President Trump guaranteed any other due and unpaid financial obligations under the license agreement or development agreement, which -- and you'll see there at the end "at no time shall exceed $150,000 in the aggregate;" correct?

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2830

Correct.
Q nd were there ever any due and unpaid obligations under these agreements?
No.
Q nd then finally on Section 9, President Trump guaranteed the completion of the required capital improvements; correct?
Correct.
Q nd as we discussed, the required capital improvements were completed in accordance with the contract; correct?
Correct.
Q nd so the guaranty was never invoked under this section; correct?
Correct.
Q nd President Trump's guaranty was never invoked under these agreements; correct?
Correct.
Q Because Trump Ferry Point LLC met all of their financial obligations under the contracts; correct?
There was not a need to invoke the personal guaranty.
Q Because Trump Ferry Point LLC met all their --
They were met.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2831

THE COURT: If you asked that question 20 minutes ago, we could have saved a lot of time. I understand you had a need to go through it all, so.
Q So moving to page three of the guaranty -- or I think we are on page three.
Under Section 4 where it says "financial covenants."
MS. HERN NDEZ: If you could blow that up, Nate.
Q So under the guaranty, President Trump was prior required to furnish a letter from his accountant saying there has been no material adverse change in his net worth; correct?
Correct.
Q nd those are referred to as No M C letters; correct?
Correct.
Q nd there is no requirement that President Trump submit his statements of financial condition to Parks; correct?
I'm sorry. I'm missing that here.
Q I'm asking whether there is any requirement that President Trump submit his Statement of Financial Condition to Parks under the guaranty.
I'm not recalling a provision in the license that required it.
Q nd you've never reviewed President Trump's Statement of Financial Condition in connection with the Ferry Point agreements; correct?
I have not.

D. Cerron - Plaintiff - cross (Hernandez) Page 2832

Q nd moving --
MS. HERN NDEZ: Could we pull B up between page three and four?
THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
MS. HERN NDEZ: Thank you, Your Honor.
Q " nd under the guaranty, in the event that guarantor does not finish" -- "furnish," excuse me, No M C letter as required here, Parks' sole remedy is to increase the security deposit;" correct?
Correct.
Q nd the security deposit can -- "in no event" -- looking to the last section, "in no event shall guarantor be required to pay any additional security deposit after the security deposit has been increased to $470,000 pursuant to this Section B regardless of any additional guarantor M C failures; correct?
Correct.
Q So the sole remedy for failure is to submit the No M C letter with an increase of the security deposit to a maximum of $470,000; correct?
Correct.
MS. HERN NDEZ: Your Honor, I think that's a good point to stop.
THE COURT: But you have more after lunch?
MS. HERN NDEZ: Yes, unfortunately.

Page 2833

THE COURT: Okay. ny progress or responses on the question about Ivanka Trump's testimony on Friday's schedule?
MR. KISE: We're waiting to hear back, Your Honor. Hopefully by the lunch hour. We've been in contact with her. We're working out -- as I mentioned to Mr. Wallace, we're working on a solution.
THE COURT: Great. The witness is excused. I'll direct him not to discuss the case, his testimony or anything related until he's fully excused, so no talk.
We'll see everybody at 2:15.
(Whereupon, there is a luncheon recess in the proceedings.)

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERN NDEZ) Page 2834

* * * * *

THE OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. The Honorable rthur Engoron presiding. Now, please be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Let's hear from the defense about Friday's schedule.

MR. KISE: bout what?

THE COURT: Friday's schedule.

MR. KISE: Oh, Friday's schedule. I think we reached an agreement on the 8th, doing Ms. Trump's testimony on the 8th. She's going to move her trip around. That way if we start, we can finish that day and if we don't -- and if we don't finish that day, we will have the night to rollover.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. KISE: I think at least with Mr. Wallace -- I haven't spoken --

MR. MER: That's fine with us, but I thought the Court was inquiring whether the 3rd was possible if we did a full day rather than a half day.

THE COURT: That was the original idea.

MR. KISE: Well, for the logistical reasons and otherwise I pointed out at least from my end, our end, the 3rd represents a challenge so -- and I don't know that we'll get to her. I know we all have these lofty plans when we start early in the week to get through witnesses, but I'm not entirely sure we'll get through the expert, Don, Jr. and Eric by Friday in any event.

MS. H BB : I just talked to them about the schedule. We were just going back and forth. I don't know about the 3rd. I'm not Bennet Moskowitz. That's her attorney. But I know the way the schedule would work now, we have Don Wednesday, Eric Trump --

THE COURT: Thursday.

MS. H BB : -- Thursday. I think they're representing Eric might be longer than Don. If we have Donald Trump on Monday, then at least there's a day off and a clean break that we have. Ivanka goes into the next day. She is here and can do two full days and then they rest.

THE COURT: Do we know who's going to cross-examine Ivanka?

MS. H BB : I don't.

MR. KISE: I don't know that's been decided that we will, but I'm sure -- without Mr. Robert here, I don't want to say anything at all about that decision because I haven't spoken to him about that.

THE COURT: Mr. --

MR. MER: I wanted to mention one thing, so we are clear. My understanding is Eric Trump will testify when

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERN NDEZ) Page 2836

Donald Trump Jr. is finished. Now, that may be Thursday, but it may also be Wednesday afternoon. I think we don't want to have dead time --

THE COURT: Dead time.

MR. KISE: That seems awfully optimistic. I know they've been eternally optimistic. We never have met those expectations.

MR. MER: I'm putting the marker down because I don't want to hear that we weren't on notice that he could go as early as Wednesday afternoon. I don't know --

MR. KISE: Oh, that. I don't think that's an issue.

THE COURT: Well --

MR. KISE: Without Mr. Robert being here, I can't represent anything, but I don't -- I don't know. I don't anticipate that's going to be that big of an issue.

THE COURT: Well, will Eric be here on Wednesday?

MR. KISE: s far as I know, he will. But again, I'm not representing anything without Mr. Robert here.

MR. MER: Mr. Farina is here. We have somebody who is representing Eric Trump here. I just -- I mean, my understanding is that we start Donald Trump, Jr. Wednesday morning. I don't think we have a full day with him. I think he could be shorter than a full day, so I think in order to not waste time, Eric Trump should be available to start whenever we finish Donald Trump, Jr.

MR. KISE: Well, we'll have an answer for you by tonight or tomorrow morning, well in advance of Wednesday. I just don't want to give you an answer that I can't give you only to have to retreat from.

THE COURT: I think we are all okay with Ivanka on the 8th, Wednesday. What will we do Friday? What can we accomplish?

MR. KISE: My questions is we're going to be -- it is an educated guess after what we've been through that we will need Friday to finish the witnesses that are already on deck. I'm pretty sure. Nothing ever goes according to plan.

THE COURT: S-N- -F-U I think they call that.

MR. MER: I don't disagree. We don't have any witness between Eric Trump and Donald Trump. So whenever we finish Eric Trump, I think we're not going to have anything else to put on until Donald Trump goes the following Monday, which is the only day he's available as I understand it.

THE COURT: So we'll leave Friday as a big question mark and we will all agree Ivanka Wednesday, the 8th and possibly Thursday?

MR. KISE: Yes, Your Honor, that's fine.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's get the witness back.

THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERN NDEZ) Page 2838

THE COURT: I will remind the witness, as I always do, that he's still under oath. Let's continue with the cross-examination.
Q Mr. Cerron, have you spoken to the ttorney General since your deposition on Monday October 23rd?
THE COURT: Or anybody from her office.
Q Or anybody from her office?
Yes.
Q Who did you speak to from the ttorney General's office?
Mr. Gaber.
Q When did you speak to Mr. Gaber?
pproximately -- last week if I'm not mistaken, on Thursday.
Q How long was that conversation?
pproximately 45 minutes.
Q nd what did you speak to with Mr. Gaber -- speak about with Mr. Gaber?
Regarding testimony today.
Q What specifically --
THE COURT: I'm not sure the microphone --
MS. HERN NDEZ: I don't know if it is working now.
THE COURT: Now it --
MS. HERN NDEZ: Is that better?
THE COURT: Yes.

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERN NDEZ) Page 2839

Q So what did you speak to about Mr. Gaber more specifically about your testimony?
Predominantly, it was a review of many of the documents that we've seen here today and kind of generally on questions that I may be asked -- Q So he --
-- by him.
Q So he walked you through the direct examination that you all did earlier today, correct?
We went through some of those documents, yes. I mean, not exactly, but yes.
Q Was there anyone else there other than Mr. Gaber?
I believe there was another gentleman, but I don't remember his name.
Q nd is that the only instance that you spoke to anyone from the ttorney General's office since your deposition?
Yes.
Q You testified --
Just if I could correct.
Q Go ahead.
We did text this morning just to let them know that I was here, procedural stuff, nothing of materiality.
Q Got it. So you testified on direct examination that Ferry Point was a tough one to accomplish, correct?
Correct.

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERN NDEZ) Page 2840

Q But Trump Ferry Point, LLC did accomplish the goals of the contract, correct?
In which respect?
Q The clubhouse was built, correct?
The clubhouse was built, correct.
Q The golf course was maintained, correct?
nd the golf course was maintained, correct.
Q nd the grass was grown in correctly, correct?
The grass was grown in correctly, that's correct.
Q Mr. Trump put more money in the property than was required under the contract, correct?
To the best of my recollection, the capital commitment exceeded the obligated amount, that's right.
Q nd Trump Ferry Point, LLC met all of their obligations, all of its obligations under the contract, correct?
With regard to the items that we discussed. I don't want to give a blanket, correct, to a pretty sizable document, but with regard to the capital, with regard to the grow-in, with regard to the clubhouse, those were all obligations that were met, yes.
Q re you aware of any obligation that was not met by Trump Ferry Point, LLC as you sit here today?
There's not a firm capital obligation that comes to mind that was not met.
THE COURT: Can you just hit your microphone again.

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERN NDEZ) Page 2841

We'll call the tech guy.
MS. HERN NDEZ: It says it is on. It's in and out.
THE COURT: Some drunk who's losing consciousness is becoming conscious.
MS. HERN NDEZ: I'll try to project either way.
Q We are going to pull up PX 1331 which is already in evidence. This is Trump's response to request for offers, correct?
Correct.
Q nd you testified on direct examination that you believe this letter was relied on by -- sorry. Go to page seven before I ask this question.
You testified on direct examination that you believe this letter was relied on by Parks, correct?
Correct.
Q But you weren't involved in the award process, correct?
Correct.
Q nd so you don't know for certain what was relied on by Parks during the award process, correct?
I was -- I was not on -- I was not on the selection committee, so to the extent that that is the definitive marker of whether I know something or I don't and how they made that determination, you know, I would agree, but I think when we're talking about this process that -- of awarding concessions that I've been involved in for over a decade and I look at the requests for recommendation for award, and it cites the content of this letter. In knowing that process, I do believe that this was part of that determination for, you know -- to help them feel comfortable with financial capability.

MS. HERN NDEZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move to strike that answer as non-responsive. It was a yes or no whether he is aware for certain what was relied on in the award.

THE COURT: Well, off the record.

(Whereupon, a discussion was held off the record.)

THE COURT: I'll ask for a readback and I believe that counselor is correct that part of the answer was non-responsive.

(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)

THE COURT: Can you answer that yes or no?

Correct.

MS. HERN NDEZ: So we are going to now pull up PX 3258 which is already in evidence.

THE COURT: nd the earlier answer is stricken because some of it was non-responsive.

MR. G BER: I believe Mr. Cerron on direct testified as to the basis for his understanding as to what was and wasn't relied on.

THE COURT: He did, but --

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERN NDEZ) Page 2843

MR. G BER: He laid a foundation that I think allows this to be considered responsive.

THE COURT: You can re-direct him if you want.

Q So can we go to page two. So this was admitted. Page two of this document was admitted earlier today and I want to point your attention to the third paragraph there. "This letter should be read in conjunction with Mr. Trump's above-referenced Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2016." Do you see that?

Yes.

Q nd are you aware of any instance where the city requested a Statement of Financial Condition from President Trump in connection with the maintenance of the Ferry Point contract?

Can you repeat that question, please.

Q Sure. re you aware of any instance where the city requested a Statement of Financial Condition from President Trump in connection with the maintenance of the Ferry Point contract?

So this is not a yes or a no. It's the last part of that question is a little bit confusing, so I'm sorry if I'm not able to answer this on the first -- on the first try. But with connection with the maintenance of the course, there was -- there's an annual income statement that's submitted by the concessionaire at the end of each -- at the end of each operating year, which we would review. nd that would have information on the costs related to the maintenance of the golf course and it would also have the revenues that would either support that cost or which would not and they might be at a loss or gain depending on how things shook out, but we would not have requested it -- we did not request, you know, certified financial statements, but it would not have been related to maintenance because the maintenance is something we would have seen in the financial statements that they would have sent us purely related just to the course, not to any other business dealings.

Q What you're describing is financial statements from Trump Ferry Point, LLC, correct?

Correct.

Q So did you ever receive President Trump's Statement of Financial Condition during the maintenance?

No. During the term of the license or related to maintenance, no.

Q nd did anyone from Parks ever request the Statement of Financial Condition?

Not that I'm aware of.

Q nd so when you reviewed these "No M C" letters, you did not review them to determine whether President Trump had the financial capability to perform the contract, correct?

Correct.

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERN NDEZ) Page 2845

Q The determination of whether someone has the financial capability to perform under the contract is largely made during the award process, correct?

Correct.

Q nd your interest in reviewing the "No M C" letters is making sure that all of the obligations under the contract are being completed, correct?

Our interest in reviewing the "No M C" letters is simply just to confirm that what was is what is. So I think that's correct.

Q He was required to submit it and he submitted it, correct?

Correct.

Q nd at the time of this letter, it is dated pril 22, 2017, correct?

Correct.

Q t the time of this letter, there was a rent credit in favor of Trump Ferry Point, LLC, correct?

Correct. nd my apologies. I think at this point, there might have not -- there might have been before the rent kicked in.

Q You're not sure?

If it was '15, '16, '17, this would have been before rent was due because the first five years of the license, there was no rent.

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERN NDEZ) Page 2846

Q So when you were reviewing this letter, there was no rent due under the license agreement?
Correct.
Q nd as you sit here today, you're not aware of any false statements in this "No M C" letter issued by Mazars, LLP, correct?
Other than, you know, this -- I think the -- some of basis for this trial, but no, I am not aware of, you know, if there's been -- if it's been revised or anything else.
MS. HERN NDEZ: So we're going to move to PX 3280 which is also in evidence. Can you go to the second page, Nate. Only the second page is in evidence.
Q So this is another "No M C" letter, correct?
Correct.
Q nd this one is dated pril 5, 2018, correct?
Correct.
Q nd so highlighting that third paragraph, it says, "This letter should be read in conjunction with Mr. Trump's above-referenced Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2017," correct?
Correct.
Q t the time of this letter, so pril 5, 2018, was there a rent credit in favor of Trump Ferry Point, LLC?
I believe so, yes.
Q nd so the rent credit basically means that the city

owed Trump money under the contract, correct?
It meant that he had a rent credit. I defer to our attorneys if somehow the license was terminated, whether the city owed money or not, but it meant that the concessionaire had a rent credit.
Q rent credit because he --
Because related to the grow-in, so there was -- once after the five years -- once the license fees were billed, they were billed against a credit of several million dollars that he had, so we would just be drawing down on that credit month over month.
Q Because Trump Ferry Point, LLC and President Trump spent more than what was required under the contract, correct?
For the grow-in, correct. Right.
Q s you sit here today, you're not aware of any false statements in this "No M C" letter issued by Mazars, correct?
Correct.
Q So we are going to move to PX 3281 which is already in evidence. nd so the second paragraph in this one says, "This letter should be read in conjunction with Mr. Trump's above-referenced Statement of Financial Condition including notes and narratives included therewith as of June 30, 2020," correct?
Correct.
Q nd at the time of this letter --

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERN NDEZ) Page 2848

MS. HERN NDEZ: If you can scroll up a little, Nate.
Q This is dated February 26, 2021, correct?
Correct.
Q nd at the time of this letter, the rent credit that we've been discussing was already in place, correct?
Correct.
Q nd so as you sit here today, you're not aware of any false statements in this "No M C" letter issued by Mazars, correct?
I think as I mentioned, I'm not aware of them except for my understanding is part of the basis of this trial is that these were not -- these were not accurate. So I have not received a letter saying, "Here is a revised statement" or "Here is what the numbers should be." So when I say correct, I'm not aware of it. That's because nothing's been brought to me, but it is something that obviously seems like an outstanding question.
MS. HERN NDEZ: I would move to strike that as non-responsive. It is just whether he is aware of it or not.
THE COURT: I understand where both of you are coming from. Why don't we do this. Can I deem the question withdrawn and you will ask it more precisely if you think you can.

D. CERRON - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MS. HERN NDEZ) Page 2849

MS. HERN NDEZ: I can try.
Q So as you sit here today, aside from any allegations in this case, are you aware of any actual false statements in this "No M C" letter issued by Mazars?
I haven't received a correction letter. I have not received anything from Mazars to say that this is -- this is being -- this is being -- these numbers are being corrected. I just -- I feel uncomfortable saying like there's nothing inaccurate here even if I don't know precisely what it is. I'm just not in a position to have the knowledge to know, precisely know what it is and that's part of why I think there is this trial. So I wish I could be more helpful to just in general to anyone in answering that question, but I don't want to represent that my understanding is that there are no misstatements here because I'm just not -- I'm just not sure at this point what the facts are.
MS. HERN NDEZ: Your Honor, could I move to strike that answer as well?
THE COURT: Granted. If you listen to the question, we'll get a --
MR. G BER: If we're talking about any of the other allegations in this trial, then the question is no longer relevant.
THE COURT: Disagree.
MS. HERN NDEZ: I'm asking what Mr. Cerron is aware of.

THE COURT: Well -- but it is a lot more limited than that.
MS. HERN NDEZ: Correct. Correct.
Q What you are actually aware of? re you actually aware of any false statements that are in this "No M C" letter issued by Mazars in 2021?
I am not aware of any other statements regarding this financial -- these financial documents during this time period.
MR. HERN NDEZ: Okay. Thank you. We can take that down now.
Q So you are familiar with the assignment of the concession for the Ferry Point property from Trump Ferry Point, LLC to Bally's, correct?
Correct.
Q You were involved in working with counsel's office on that deal, correct?
I worked with our -- with the agency's general counsel.
Q So you were involved in that deal, correct?
Yes.
Q nd Bally's paid Trump Ferry Point, LLC approximately $60 million for the assignment of this concession, correct?
That is my understanding, correct.
Q nd so I'm going to show you what's already in evidence as PX 1501.

MS. HERN NDEZ: The native, Nate, please.
Q So I'm going to represent to you that this is the 2021 supporting data for the Statement of Financial Condition. nd I'm going to direct your attention to Row 575 of the supporting data. Do you see there where it says, "Trump Golf Links Ferry Point"?
I do.
MR. G BER: I'm going to object to foundation here. The witness -- the witness is incompetent to testify on an internal valuation document from the Trump Organization.
THE COURT: The question was simply did he see -- does he see it. So objection overruled without prejudice to see where it goes.
MR. G BER: Okay.
MS. HERN NDEZ: nd on Row 584, you could highlight that, Nate.
Q You see the value in 2021 is $22,548,589?
I do.
Q nd the $22,548,589 is significantly less than the $60 million that you just testified Bally's paid Trump Ferry Point LLC for the assignment of the concession, correct?
THE COURT: I'll take judicial notice that the $22 million is less than the $60 million.
MS. HERN NDEZ: Okay. If Your Honor will take judicial notice of it, then I have no further questions.

THE COURT: Okay. ny re-direct?
MR. G BER: No, Judge. Thank you.
THE COURT: Okay. We are all finished with this witness, I assume.
Thank you, witness. You're excused.
(Witness excused.)

THE COURT: m I correct that the next witness we are going to hear from via recorded -- video recorded testimony?
MR. MER: That's right, Your Honor. I think we clocked the video at two hours and 16 minutes. I don't think with our afternoon break we're going to be able to play the entire video given our timing, but if we have to spill over until tomorrow morning, then we can just finish it then.
THE COURT: nd why are we not hearing live testimony, which I'm on record as wanting -- valuing?
MR. MER: We were in agreement that the witness is unavailable. She is not in New York, she doesn't work in New York and she is also in her -- knew she was going to be nine months pregnant around the time of the trial.
THE COURT: nd defendants, there is no issue, I assume?
MR. KISE: No, not at this time, Your Honor, no.
THE COURT: Okay. Let's play the movie.
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings while the video recorded testimony is played in open court.)
THE COURT: Okay. We're going to take a ten-minute break, so I'll see you back here in 15 minutes.
MS. GREENFIELD: Just Counselors for the G, I know that the exhibits for this deposition were marked as deposition exhibits. Would it be possible to get a list of the corresponding Plaintiff's Exhibit number that that corresponds to?

MR. MER: I have that and I was going to move all of the exhibits into evidence as soon as the video is over.

MS. GREENFIELD: Fantastic.

THE COURT: So we'll get that in the record. So 15 minutes from now.

(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: I hope you enjoyed the intermission. Let's go back to the movie.

MR. MER: Before we start, I want to confirm you see the table of exhibits?

THE COURT: Thank you very much.

MS. F HERTY: No problem.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's play the feature film.

(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings while the video recorded testimony is played in open court.)

THE COURT: We just want to discuss witnesses for tomorrow.

MR. MER: So the completion of Ms. Mouradian's video deposition -- video de benne esse testimony then we have Mr. Cornwell is next followed by Mr. Orowitz followed by Mr. McCarty.

THE COURT: nd we going to finish all of them?

MR. MER: I don't know.

THE COURT: That's a lot more than we've ever done in a day.

MR. MER: My understanding is there will be cross examination of Mr. Cornwell. I don't believe there is cross examination of Mr. Orowitz; is that right?

MS. HERN NDEZ: That's my understanding as well.

MR. MER: nd there certainly will be cross examination of Mr. McCarty, who is our banking expert although, I will say his examination is going to be shorter than it otherwise would have been but for the summary judgment ruling, so we're obviously taking that into account in terms of what is now relevant for him to testify to.

MS. GREENFIELD: ssuming we don't finish all of these witnesses tomorrow, are they available to resume Friday since that morning is now available? You don't have to answer right now, but if you can find out.

MR. MER: Yes. I mean, I think the idea was to have them finish and have Donald Trump, Jr. start when Mr. McCarty is finished.

MS. GREENFIELD: Okay. So it could be Donald Trump, Jr., would start later in the day on Wednesday?

MR. MER: It could be.

Page 2856

THE COURT: Okay. That's it. Ten o'clock tomorrow. See you all.

Whereupon, the trial proceedings are adjourned to October 30, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.

PROCEEDINGS Page 2859

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is now in session. The Honorable rthur Engoron presiding. Make sure all cellphones are on silent. Laptops and cellphones will be permitted, but only to members of the press. There's absolutely no recording or photography of any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now, be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. Last night, defendants filed a motion in liminae to preclude the plaintiff's expert, Michiel McCarty, from testifying. Defendants first assert, despite repeated rejection from this Court and the First Department, that disgorgement of profits are not available as a remedy in a "purely Executive Law Section 63 (12) case."

For reasons this Court has explained ad naseum, that is simply incorrect, and this Court will not belabor the point here. Disgorgement is clearly an available remedy under Executive Law 63 (12) case.

Defendants next assert that the expert testimony seeks to rely on facts not supported by the record, and that the expert will rely on cherry-picked facts from the ttorney General's office. For example, defendants assert that "the ttorney General certainly could have asked Mr. Haigh whether additional information would have, in fact, altered the loan approvals and/or the pricing. But now, after avoiding what is no doubt unfavorable testimony from those directly responsible for approving the loans and determining the terms and pricing, she seeks to fill the factual void in her case with 'expert' testimony amounting to no more than speculation as to what 'might' have happened."

First, obviously plaintiff has free reign to build the record it believe supports its case, as defendants are free to do the same. To that end, defendants' argument that the ttorney General should have asked Mr. Haigh other questions is as a non-starter, as defendants were free to ask Mr. Haigh those questions on cross-examination. The plaintiff is not obligated to ask questions that inure to the defendants' benefit.

Second, contrary to defendant's assertion, the proffered expert testimony relies upon facts that are in the record, not mere speculation. Several witnesses have testified that they would have acted differently had they known that the Statements of Financial Condition were fraudulent.

Further, to the extent that the defendants wish to cross-examine Mr. McCarty about other facts that they believe are in the record, they may do so. Moreover, the proffered expert testimony is not subjective. It is based on four decades of banking expertise, an evaluation of Deutsche Bank's contemporaneous internal communications and documents, and research into available public sources. If the Court, as the trier of fact, does not find the expert testimony reliable or credible, it may choose to disregard it.

Furthermore, as plaintiff has pointed out, when employing the equitable remedy of disgorgement of profits, precision is not required. s the Second Circuit held in Sec. & Exch. Comm'n v. Fowler, 6 F. 4th 255, 267 (2d Cir 2021), "In general, the amount of disgorgement ordered need only be a reasonable approximation of profits causally connected to the violation. If the disgorgement amount is generally reasonable, any risk of uncertainty about the amount falls on the wrongdoer whose illegal conduct created that uncertainty."

Finally, to the extent defendants assert that McCarty's expert testimony should be precluded because it is beyond the scope of the statute of limitations, as has been explained many times, the statute of limitations bars claims, not evidence. Where, as here, disgorgement of profits is an available remedy, the Court may, depending upon the circumstances, be permitted to look at any "ill-gotten gains" for the entire life of the loan, so long as the final damages award is appropriately prorated to include only such ill-gotten gains that occurred within the statute of limitations.

nd this is all done this morning, by the way. There may be some meaty issues to look into, but this is my current understanding. The motion to preclude is denied and if defendants want to put their objections on the record, they may do so now.

MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge. I'll be brief, but I think I want to at least point out a few things that Your Honor mentioned. First of all, I think you know this, but I just want to make it clear on the record. The issue about disgorgement not being available was not our first argument. It is just simply for not to belabor the point and that's why it is in the footnote.

THE COURT: I appreciate that.

MR. KISE: The fundamental difference here, I guess the disconnect is there's no establishment in the record that the gains are ill-gotten. That's really the issue here. They haven't established that they're ill-gotten. They haven't established that something would have actually been different and that's a very different thing than the SEC case and the other cases they cite. Those cases are traditional fraud cases and materiality and reliance and all of that has been established and so that's what's not been established here.

The purpose of 63 (12) is essentially two-fold. It's one, to stop conduct that the ttorney General -- give the ttorney General the ability to stop conduct that she thinks may be harming the public. None of that conduct has actually harmed the public or not. That's why in the first instance, to stop the conduct, there doesn't have to be any demonstration that someone has actually been hurt yet.

So using our example, if the ttorney General thinks that someone is using a financial statement in a way that could theoretically harm someone, then she goes to court and says, "You're using a financial statement in a way that could theoretically harm someone." "There is a false or misleading statement, you know, something false or misleading contained in the financial statement. Something's in there and you shouldn't be doing that."

Now, as you know, we disagree with whether or not it is false or misleading, but setting that aside, that's one aspect of the statute. That's one reason it exists, is to stop someone, so the court can issue an order saying stop issuing those false and misleading financial statements. You defendants, stop doing that. That's a very separate issue, though, from the other piece which -- and again, I'm not belaboring this point, but restitution, which we think is allowable under the statute, disgorgement, accepting Your Honor's views at this point without waiving our position, but in order to get there, you have to now establish that something actually took place and the restitution in disgorgement, you can't just assume theoretically that something is ill-gotten in the disgorgement context.

You can't assume in the restitution context that someone has lost money based on the conduct. You have to actually establish that and that's the part that the ttorney General is skipping over. This ill-gotten concept that their whole case is premised on, the fact that the defendants secured more favorable loan and insurance terms and then retained those terms with each statement, with each submission of the statement ongoing, but that premise assumes something that hasn't been proven.

That's the whole purpose of bringing Mr. McCarty in here. They are assuming that the defendants received something. They secured more favorable loan or insurance terms that they wouldn't have otherwise received. There's just no evidence in the record. nd the point about Mr. Haigh's testimony is not to say, well, they could have asked this question or they could have asked that. The point is to demonstrate that Mr. Haigh's testimony is squarely counter to their position in the case.

Mr. Haigh never said that something would have actually been different. Mr. Haigh never said because they didn't ask him, no, these loans would not have been issued. So they have -- without that testimony, they haven't established that the loan wouldn't have been issued anyway.

nd if the loan would have been issued anyway, there is no ill-gotten gain. It's not possible to have. The bank's role is to make the decision and as Mr. Haigh testified, there's myriad factors. There's multiple, multiple factors. So the bank's role is to make the decision.

The same with the pricing of the loan. The pricing of the loan is something within the bank's determination. Unless the bank comes into court and says, "Yes, I would have priced this loan differently," there's no basis upon which Mr. McCarty can testify as to what that would look like. If the loans would have been the same anyway, then -- and the pricing would have been the same anyway, while an ttorney General can certainly stop someone upon proof from issuing financial statements that contain something false or misleading, a premise we disagree with, but that's very different than now saying that we can recover money under anything, whether it be damages, disgorgement, restitution, without that necessary element of proof because, otherwise, the statute becomes limitless.

Now, we're dealing with the -- the ttorney General called it in their letter response that I saw this morning a counterfactual world. I'm not talking about a counterfactual world. I'm talking about the real world. In the real world, the banks make these decisions. In the real world, the banks evaluate the decision. In the real world, the banks determine the pricing for loans. That's what happens in the real world.

The ttorney General can postulate, anyone can postulate that something might be different; but unless the bank says it would have been different, meaning that they would have decided something differently, an expert can't come in and now introduce his or her own opinion as to what he or she might have done under the circumstances because there's no room for that sort of -- it renders the statute at that point limitless and I would say respectfully unconstitutional as vague.

There's no way -- there's no way parameters around what conduct it is that's required. So the ttorney General is not allowed at this phase to simply presume and have the Court presume that the Statements of Financial Condition here were relied on, that that was -- and that was material and that that reliance and that materiality then made a difference in the loans. Because again, there's nothing ill-gotten if they haven't proven that anything would have been any different.

That's not a counterfactual world. That's the real world. That's how -- that's how loan transactions works. That's how the capital markets work and what the ttorney General wants to do now is say forget about what the real world thinks, forget about what the bank actually decided on its own, forget about all this criteria. I mean, Mr. Haigh talked about both on direct, and I won't put it in here, it is in our papers, both on direct and on cross that the approvals terms and pricing were based on multiple factors, innumerable factors. They are all in the credit memos.

He also testified that the relevant approvals year after year after year were based on their own internal analysis. That's not testimony that the ttorney General is free to simply ignore. There has to be something in the record that establishes that something would have been different here because if you don't establish that there was real harm, any real world impact, you can't have an expert come in and say, "Okay. Well, now here is the document."

What the expert is testifying to is a penalty. The expert is now testifying as to a penalty. We think -- the G says, "We think the conduct of using these financial statements was wrong. We don't care whether anything would have been different factually. We don't care whether the banks would have done something differently. We think it is wrong and here is what we think the ill-gotten gains are."

That's -- it's beyond counterintuitive to contend that what the bank actually thinks and what the bank actually did is irrelevant and immaterial to the analysis. So to allow this testimony and to allow this theory, frankly, to advance is to substitute a decade later, post-closing of the loan transactions the ttorney General's opinion or her expert's opinion, in this case, for what the bank might or might not have done.

I just want to put on the record briefly the cases -- the case law on this is very straightforward and again, the case law that the ttorney General cites, the SEC cases and the one Your Honor cited, those are traditional -- that's where there has been an establishment that there was reliance and materiality and things would have, in fact, been different.

There, the issue is we can't get precise, but the Gathers case, 242 D2d 506, a First Department case, reversed admission of expert testimony because the expert reached his conclusion by assuming material facts not supported by the evidence. That's exactly what Mr. McCarty is going to do here. He is going to assume that the gains are ill-gotten.

They're skipping over the part where they have to establish that the gains are ill-gotten, meaning that the loans would not have been issued in the first place or that the terms would have been different. There's nothing for him to testify on otherwise and an expert is not entitled to just flatly contradict the record evidence. They can't substitute their opinion for what actually is in the record.

The other case that I'll cite in addition to the ones that are in there in the brief is the Ortiz case, 19 D3d 239, another First Department case. There, the issue is whether or not an accident reconstructionist could come in and reconstruct the accident in a way different than the two eyewitnesses that actually testified to.

nd so again, that's what McCarty is going to do here. He's going to come in and reconstruct the financial analysis irrespective of what the bank would have done, and that's just plainly impermissible because the gains are not ill-gotten until you prove that something would have been different. There's no basis for restitution or, as the Court is saying, disgorgement. There's no basis in the law.

THE COURT: Those are very different --

MR. KISE: I understand that, but both of them hinge on the same underlying premise, though. They are -- the proof is different, but they center around the same underlying premise that something happened that shouldn't have taken place in the first place, that there's already been proof that the gains were ill-gotten. There's already been proof that someone was deprived of something that they shouldn't have. There's already been proof in the case of restitution that someone paid something that they shouldn't have paid and they're entitled to get that money back.

Here, the ttorney General wants to skip over all of that without any introduction in the record about whether or not the gains themselves are ill-gotten. So experts come in to analyze, evaluate, explain facts that are in the record. They don't substitute their own facts for what's in the record. They opine on the factual predicate as it exists in the case. They don't supply the factual predicate.

So here, what Mr. McCarty is doing, what the ttorney General wants Mr. McCarty to do and is asking this Court to accept, to substitute a factual predicate, to have the Court presume, which he's doing, that the gains are, in fact, ill-gotten before that's ever been established anywhere in the record. nd so it's one thing for the Court to say as it has, again reserving our objection, that these statements are false, stop doing them, stop. I'm going to tell you not to do that in the future, and here is the things I'm going to do to keep you from doing it in the future.

ll of that is step one, but before any dollars and cents can be computed under any theory, there has to be some showing that the gains were ill-gotten. The ttorney General is not simply allowed to substitute her own judgment for that of the bank and using an expert to do that doesn't make it any more proper than it would have in the abstract.

Then I'll make just a final comment on what Your Honor said at the end about the pre- versus post-statute of limitations period. To the extent that this Court is, in fact, going to pro rate, meaning look at the arguments that we've made --

THE COURT: Subject to some further research on this, of course.

MR. KISE: -- then we can be heard on that later, but yes, I mean, if you want to hear evidence as you've been doing. I mean we object to it, but that's a very different ruling than saying, okay, not only am I going to listen to it, but I'm actually going to come up with a number based on dollars and cents that took place prior to in this instance July 13, 2014.

Our position is, as it must be, that anything that happened with respect to the loan approval or the pricing and terms was set as of the date of the closing. So those subsequent submissions could not possibly have altered that. They would not have changed the pricing decision that was made in 2011, 2012, 2013. They wouldn't have changed those pricing decisions, so there's no -- there's no basis to then assume, again, that there's ill-gotten gain because the subsequent submission of the certification has nothing to do with the initial pricing. That's all wrapped up in the loan agreement.

So there isn't any monetary calculus to be made with respect to the subsequent certifications. This is -- this goes back to our whole position as to why the subsequent certifications are not false statements in the first place. We're not going to go there today, but because there's no -- it is not connected to any activity, it is not connected to any claim, it is just out there in the abstract.

So for these reasons, Your Honor, most notably that there hasn't been any proof that anything is ill-gotten and that the ttorney General is not allowed to skip over that, we think the admission of Mr. McCarty's opinion is purely speculative and hypothetical. Thank you.

THE COURT: Question for Mr. Robert. Did your colleague start out by saying he would be brief?

MR. ROBERT: It is all relevant, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I would say relative to the Lincoln-Douglas debates of the 1850s in Illinois, which went on for four hours or something. They would talk for two hours and the other guy would talk for two hours.

MR. KISE: I think I kept it under seven pages. Mr. mer set the bar yesterday.

MR. MER: I don't think you did. We clocked it at 15 minutes.

THE COURT: I'll be brief. First of all, I apologize for mispronouncing Haigh's name right. It was Haigh, not Haigh. I think to a certain extent the defendants are whistling past the graveyard here. they -- they think that all of these financial statements, the people, the employees submit numbers, McConney puts together a spreadsheet. It goes -- it gets reviewed. It goes to Mazars to put together a compilation or they compile these data. They send it to the banks. Nobody relies on them. It's -- I'm sorry. It is a fantasy world.

These things, obviously, are done for reasons and we've had testimony that says, yeah, we looked at that, we relied on that. I don't know whether Haigh ever said we would have done things differently. Of course, defendants could have asked him that. The videotaped testimony we are listening to, she said, "I wish I had known what I know now."

I will leave it at that. I don't want to get into the weeds here. In the motion papers that were filed last night and in what Mr. Kise just said this morning said there were many factors. Nobody is saying, and I'm certainly not saying, that the financial statements were the only factor, but they are a factor. To me, that's -- again, without getting too deep into proximate cause whether the financial statements were "false and misleading," I'll let my 35-page decision and order of September 26th stand on its own.

I think they were clearly false and misleading is a little bit more subjective statement, but I think the statute covers false. I think -- I think there's also -- there may also be documentary evidence about the internal analysis by Deutsche Bank and maybe some of the other financial institutions about what their statements of finance conditions said. What were they looking at these things for without relying on them? So if the ttorney General wants to say something on the record, I stand by my decision; but for the record, do you agree with me or Mr. Kise?

MR. W LL CE: s to whether or not the defendants are whistling past the graveyard, 100 percent. There is a decision, Your Honor has highlighted it, saying that the statements are false and misleading, and that they were used in business to obtain these loans. I understand Mr. Kise's arguments. I expect to hear them again at closing. I expect to read them in his post-trial brief. I expect to see them if they challenge this decision to the First Department, but the question before us this morning is can an expert witness come in and tell you the difference between a commercial real estate loan price and a private wealth bank price. nd the Court is free to say, "I think that's a fair measure of disgorgement" or "I'm going to find some other measure of disgorgement or "I don't think disgorgement is appropriate in this case," but this evidence that's going to come in today, if we have enough time, is I, think, admissible and it is up to the Court to accord it whatever weight it decides when it is reaching its final decision.

THE COURT: Okay. Back to Tuesday morning at the movies. Is that what we are?

MR. MER: Yes, Your Honor. We will continue playing the video of Ms. Mouradian. I believe we have just under 50 minutes left to the video and then we'll move in some exhibits.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's do it.

(Whereupon, the video was played.)

MR. MER: Your Honor, we do have some exhibits to move in to evidence. First of all, because this wasn't being transcribed, we need to move into evidence the actual --

THE COURT: Video.

MR. MER: -- designations of what we were just playing. So we've marked that as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3324 and ask that it be admitted into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3324 in evidence.)

MR. MER: nd then we have Deposition Exhibit 1, which we've marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1540. We ask that that be admitted into evidence.

MS. HERN NDEZ: No objection.

THE COURT: Granted.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1540 in evidence.)

MR. MER: Deposition Exhibit 2, that's Plaintiff's Exhibit 1548. We ask that that be admitted into evidence.

MS. HERN NDEZ: No objection.

THE COURT: Granted.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1548 in evidence.)

MR. MER: Deposition Exhibit 3, we marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1552, and ask that be admitted into evidence.

MS. HERN NDEZ: No objection.

THE COURT: Granted.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1552 in evidence.)

MR. MER: Deposition Exhibit 4, Plaintiff's Exhibit 2313, and we ask that that be admitted into evidence.

MS. HERN NDEZ: No objection.

THE COURT: Granted.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 2313 in evidence.)

MR. MER: Exhibit 5, Deposition Exhibit 5 is Plaintiff's Exhibit 1542, and we ask that that be admitted into evidence.

MS. HERN NDEZ: No objection.

THE COURT: Granted.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1542 in evidence.)

MR. MER: Deposition Exhibit 6, Plaintiff's Exhibit 1561, we ask that that be admitted.

MS. HERN NDEZ: No objection.

THE COURT: Granted.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1561 in evidence.)

MR. MER: nd Deposition Exhibit 7, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3014, we ask that be admitted into evidence.

MS. HERN NDEZ: So that one we have an objection to, as sad as I am to break up that little routine we had going.

To PX 3014 has a cover e-mail that was not shown to Ms. Mouradian, so I don't have an objection to the remainder of the exhibit coming in, but that cover e-mail was not part of the deposition.

MR. MER: We're fine if we put it in without the cover e-mail because it wasn't anything that she was asked about.

THE COURT: Okay. Granted, but only as to or except as to the cover e-mail.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3014 in evidence.)

MR. MER: There were two other deposition exhibits which were excerpts, one from the complaint and one from the deposition of Mr. Weisselberg. Those were read into the record, so they'll be in the exhibit we've admitted, which is Exhibit 3324.

THE COURT: Sounds right.

MS. HERN NDEZ: That's fine.

THE COURT: Okay. Granted.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3324 in evidence.)

MS. HERN NDEZ: nd, Your Honor, we would also like to move in the two defense exhibits that were used, so we would like to move into evidence D 969, which was Defense Exhibit in the deposition.

MR. MER: No objection.

THE COURT: Granted.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 969 in evidence.)

MS. HERN NDEZ: nd we'd like to move D 970, which was Defendant's Exhibit B.

MR. MER: No objection.

THE COURT: Granted.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 970 in evidence.)

MR. MER: That concludes the movie, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Is anybody hungry? Tired? Okay, 15-minute break or ten-minute break over the next 15 minutes. See you in 15 minutes.

(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Would the Plaintiff like to call the next witness?

MR. FINKELSTEIN: The People call K. Don Cornwell to the stand.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's get the witness.

THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT OFFICER: Please raise your right hand. Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony you give will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

K. D O N C O R N W E L L, called by and on behalf of the Plaintiff, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

THE WITNESS: Yes.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2881

THE COURT OFFICER: Please have a seat. State your name and either home or business address for the record.
THE WITNESS: Don Cornwell. I live at 90 Furman Street, Brooklyn, New York, partment 1004.
THE COURT: But before you do, to quote Groucho Marx, " hot dog stand would clean up around here."
Please proceed.
DIRECT EX MIN TION
BY MR. FINKELSTEIN:
Q Good morning, Mr. Cornwell.
Morning.
Q Can you please describe your educational background post high school?
Sure. I attended Harvard College where I studied government, graduated from there 1992. Then, I went to Stanford for business school where I received an MB . I graduated 1998.
THE COURT: Please speak a little louder. You have to go right into the microphone like that and we'll be good.
THE WITNESS: Is that better?
THE COURT: Now we're in business.
THE WITNESS: ll right.
Q Can you provide a brief overview of your employment history post college?
Sure. Post Harvard I worked at McKinsey Management Consulting Company for two years in New York. fter that, I worked for two years at the National Football League, '94 to '96. Post business school starting 1998 I was at Morgan Stanley for 17 years until 2015. 2015, I left Morgan Stanley for a firm called PJT Partners. I was there for eight years and for the last year I've run a private equity firm called Dynasty Equity.

Q nd what is PJT Partners?
It's an investment bank.
Q nd where is that based?
New York City.
Q nd what was your role at PJT Partners?
I was a partner doing MN work around sports and gaming.
Q nd after that you went to Dynasty Equity. What is Dynasty Equity?
Dynasty Equity is an investment firm focused on sports.
Q What is your role at Dynasty Equity?
Cofounder and CEO.
Q Focusing your time at Morgan Stanley, what titles or positions did you hold there?
I started there in the summer of 1997 as a summer associate while in business school. 1998, I was an associate eventually getting promoted to managing director in 2007.
From 2007-2015, I was a managing director and certain times towards the last five years I was the global head of sports investment banking.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2883

Q nd what were your duties and responsibilities as an associate at Morgan Stanley?
Hard work. I executed transactions. So in any given deal, you have a deal team. For the most part the associate did a lot of the analytics, a lot of putting together presentations and the like.
Q nd how, if at all, did your responsibilities change upon becoming managing director in and around 2007?
I actually progressed through you start to lead teams and be responsible for revenue generation and getting new clients.
Q nd do -- you also mentioned the title "head of global sports investment banking?"
Yes.
Q Did your responsibilities change with that title?
No, same thing. I was just the lead investment banker on all sports deals.
Q Did there come a time when Morgan Stanley was tapped to assist the Wilson estate in selling the Buffalo Bills?
Yes.
Q Who are the Buffalo Bills?
They are a franchise in the National Football League.
Q How did Morgan Stanley become involved in the Buffalo Bills transaction?
So the estate of Ralph Wilson was looking to sell the team and as part of that process they needed to hire an investment bank. They invited several different firms to give a presentation about their credentials and Morgan Stanley was one of those participants.

Q What was Morgan Stanley's role in the transaction once it was picked by the Wilson estate?
Yes, we led the transaction and assisted with the estate, the trustees, to help them find a buyer for the team.
MR. FINKELSTEIN: I'd like to hand up PX 980 to the witness for identification.
Q Do you recognize this document?
I do.
Q What do you recognize it to be?
This is an e-mail -- well, it's an e-mail thread, but the e-mail is from me to one of my colleagues discussing our first round bid letters in the Buffalo Bills process.
Q So you just referenced the bid letter. What do you mean by that?
So this MN process is one which is very common where we had two steps and what happens is you have interested buyers, people who indicated they'd like to learn more about the asset that you're selling. You've signed a non-disclosure agreement, you give them information, they provide you a bid, a first round bid based on information you've received. Then what happens is you review the bids and you take some or all of the folks who've submitted bids letters into the next phase of the process where they get to have the opportunity to do diligence, take site tours and decide if they want to further acquire the asset they have.

Q So is there any process to screen through the letters you received in the first step?

I'm sorry, say again.

Q My question was did the Morgan Stanley have any process to screen through the letters that you received in the first step that you just described?

Yes, absolutely. We obviously read the letters and what we're trying to achieve in the process is really two things: We want the highest value and certainty of closing and so what we look for in those letters is, number one, what they think valuation is; number two, we start the process of understanding what their ability to close will be.

Q So in this first message that's shown on the screen there are several attachments. I would like to just direct your attention to two of those attachments.

So if we could turn to page eight? Do you recognize this letter?

I do.

Q What do you recognize it to be?

This was the bid -- first round bid letter that we received from the Trump Organization.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2886

Q nd this letter is addressed to you at Morgan Stanley?

That is correct.

Q nd what is the date of this letter?

July 29, 2014.

Q What was your understanding of the purpose of this letter?

This letter was to indicate that the Trump Organization would like to buy the Buffalo Bills for $1 billion.

Q nd turning to the second paragraph of the letter, the letter states: "I have a net worth in excess of $8 billion (financial statements to be provided upon request)."

Does -- was that representation considered by Morgan Stanley in the bidding process?

It was, although we also received another letter that was very important. In our bid instructions we ask people to provide us proof of funds.

Q Did Morgan Stanley ever request financial statements from Donald Trump?

Yes.

Q I would like to direct your attention to the third paragraph on the bottom, the next page, page nine. It says, "Please feel free to call Rosemary Vrablic, managing director of Deutsche Bank's private wealth management; Mr. llen Weisselberg, chief financial officer of the Trump Organization; or me directly if you have any questions about this bid."

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2887

Do you ever recall speaking with Rosemary Vrablic regarding this bid?

I don't recall.

Q Do you recall ever speaking with llen Weisselberg regarding this bid?

I don't recall.

Q Do you recall ever speaking with Donald J. Trump regarding this bid?

Yes.

Q What do you recall about that?

Not much.

Q So I would like to now turn to page 20 of the exhibit. So you had mentioned earlier that there was a second letter. Does this appear to be that letter?

Yes, it does.

Q What do you recognize this letter to be?

This was a letter we got from Deutsche Bank indicating something about Donald Trump's net worth.

Q nd was it your understanding that Deutsche Bank provided this letter to you at the behest of Donald Trump?

Yes.

Q nd in the third paragraph the letter reads: "Our understanding is that Mr. Donald J. Trump has made or intends to make a bid for the Buffalo Bills in the amount of $1 billion in the aggregate. Based upon our preliminary review of the current financial information of Mr. Donald J. Trump made available to us, including liquidity and asset value, it is our assessment that Mr. Donald J. Trump would have the financial wherewithal to fund his bid."

Did you have any understanding of what financial information Mr. Trump made available to Deutsche Bank?

I did not.

Q Was the representation I just read important to Morgan Stanley in its role in managing the bidding process for the Buffalo Bills?

Yes.

Q Why was it important?

We asked for some proof of funds and at this stage of the process a letter from a credible, reputable bank sufficed.

MR. FINKELSTEIN: Your Honor, I would like to move to admit PX 980 into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Relevance and statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It's in.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 980 in evidence.)

MR. FINKELSTEIN: If we can set that aside and move on to a new document? I'm handing to the witness through the court officer for identification PX 3274.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2889

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, in that last exhibit I saw there were a series of attachments in the PDF. Since it was just electronic, what's being moved in, just recovery e-mail and the one attachment referenced or all the attachments?

MR. FINKELSTEIN: I believe the witness has foundation so that we can move in the whole thing.

MR. ROBERT: Can we look at it and see what it is? Because they look like bids from other people.

THE COURT: Those would probably not be relevant.

MR. FINKELSTEIN: t a minimum we would like to move in the e-mail and both of the letters we just looked at.

THE COURT: Those are granted -- that's granted. Those are in.

Q Do you recognize PX 3274 in front of you?

I do.

Q What do you recognize it to be?

Looks like an e-mail from Michael Cohen to my colleague, lex Hill.

Q Do there appear to be additional messages in this thread?

Yes. There is some back and forth between lex and Michael.

Q So I'd like to direct your attention to page four. There is an e-mail from Michael Cohen to lex Hill with you cc'd. Do you see that?

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2890

Yes, yes.

Q nd who is lex hill?

lex was a colleague of mine, somebody -- a member of my team at Morgan Stanley.

Q The e-mail says: " lex, Jason Greenblatt and I just dropped off a packet with Margay at your office for Don. Can you please ensure he receives it and advise me so I can confirm to Mr. Trump its receipt? Thank you."

What is your understanding of what Michael Cohen meant when he said he dropped off the packet for Don?

The bid package.

Q nd the bid -- what did the bid package contain?

I know it contained a letter, the two letters that we saw. I don't know if there is anything else.

Q So in the middle of page three, lex Hill sends a message to Michael Cohen and to you saying "regarding management presentation dates, would you all be able to do ugust 6th in Detroit?" What is a management presentation as described in this e-mail?

Sure. So as I talked about in the second part of the MN process as part of diligence we would provide potential bidders an opportunity to meet with the management team. Typically, what happens in those meetings is the management team presents the story of the asset. So in this case it was the team CEO talking about the future of the Buffalo Bills and why it's such a great asset.

Q Did the Trump Organization in fact receive a management presentation?

They did.

Q Were you present?

I was.

Q Who from the Trump Organization do you recall attending?

I know Donald Trump was there. I don't recall who else. He had people with him, but I don't recall those people were.

Q What, if anything, do you recall being discussed at the management presentation?

We talked about the Buffalo Bills and lots of topics. We talked about the USFL, we talked about lots of things, but it was sort of a wide-ranging conversation.

Q Do you recall whether Mr. Trump provided any documents to you at the presentation?

He gave us handouts of the Forbes list of top paid entertainers.

Q On page two of the e-mail lex hill writes a message to Jason Greenblatt and Michael Cohen with you cc'd that says: "One near term NFL item we would like you all to fill out and have Mr. Trump sign is the attached uthorization and Consent to Release Records." What is the uthorization and Consent to Release Records?

So in order to purchase an NFL team you have to go through a very thorough financial review with the league office. s we progressed through the process we want to make sure that bidders are getting the appropriate paperwork into the league so they can begin that process because it does take sometime so that uthorization and Consent to Release Records is something we need from each perspective bidder so therefore the NFL can go and start doing their diligence.

Q So at the very first message in this document is a message from Michael Cohen that says "after some internal deliberation, we feel it is premature to sign the consent to release forms until such time as we know that Mr. Trump is the final bidder." Do you recall learning in or about ugust 2014 that the Trump Organization was refusing to sign the consent to release records?

I do.

Q Did Morgan Stanley ever receive signed consent to release records forms?

We did not.

Q fter the management presentation that we just discussed did the bidding process continue?

It did.

Q What happened next?

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2893

We continued having those meetings with other parties. Several parties took stadium tours. We then asked for final bids. I don't recall the exact date. We got those final bids and we decided on the winning bidder. That winning bidder then went through the NFL approval process and became owners of the team I believe in October that year.

MR. FINKELSTEIN: Before we get to that really quickly, Your Honor, I move to admit PX 3274 into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Relevance. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It's in.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3274 in evidence.)

Q I'll now hand the witness for identification a document marked PX 3219. Do you recognize this document?

I do.

Q What do you recognize it to be?

This is a letter or an e-mail from Daniel Barzac, who is a member of my team, to me discussing a draft of what we call fairness materials.

Q What are fairness materials?

So in certain circumstances an investment bank will provide what's called a fairness opinions to -- mostly a board of directors, but in this case we were providing that fairness opinion to the trustees of Ralph Wilson's estate.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2894

Q So on page five of this exhibit there is a slide titled "Evolution of Participants."

That's a good title.

Q The slide states that nine parties gave initial indications. Was Donald Trump one of those nine parties?

He was.

Q The slide states that five parties received management presentations. Was Donald Trump one of those five parties?

He was.

Q The slide states that six parties gave final offers. Was Donald Trump one of those parties?

Don't recall the nature of his final offer.

Q But he is?

Listed, yes.

Q Is Donald Trump's name listed?

Yes, it is.

Q Do you have any reason to dispute that Donald Trump provided a final --

No.

Q So going back to page four, the slide is titled "Summary of Key Transaction Terms." Do you see that?

I do.

Q Who is the purchaser of this bid on this page?

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2895

Terry and Kim Pegula.

Q How much is the purchase price listed?

$1.4 billion.

Q Did the Pegulas in fact purchase the Bills for $1.4 billion?

Yes.

Q Does this -- do these attached fairness materials accurately summarize the terms of the transaction?

Yes.

MR. FINKELSTEIN: Your Honor, I move to admit PX 3219 into evidence.

MR. FIELDS: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: What's the relevance of this? This particular page, let's say?

MR. FINKELSTEIN: So this page was just to summarize the final result of the transaction and the other page was to show that Donald Trump participated in all three stages of the bidding process, even though his bid did not turn out to be the final.

MR. FERIS: Your Honor, it's the defendants's position none of this is relevant to any cause of this case. We agree with Your Honor here. This is completely irrelevant.

THE COURT: I just asked the question. What's the relevance of the final bid? We know the successful bid.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - direct (Finkelstein) Page 2896 ttorney General?

MR. FINKELSTEIN: I am offering it for clarification just to show the full story on the Bills' transaction. The amount of the bid is not necessarily relevant, just I was just trying to show that Donald Trump was not the ultimate buyer.

THE COURT: I'll let it in. There is no jury, doesn't really matter, but I understand you're completing the circle.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3219 in evidence.)

MR. FINKELSTEIN: That's all. nd I have no further questions.

THE COURT: Okay. ny cross examination?

MR. FERIS: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Counselor, I don't believe we ever met.

MR. FERIS: My name is Ivan Feris, Your Honor. Can you hear me, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Loud and clear.

MR. FERRIS: wesome. s I was saying, my name is Ivan Feris, and I'm here on behalf of several of the corporate defendants in this matter.

THE COURT: Welcome.

MR. FERRIS: Thank you.

nd if it may please the Court, I would like to proceed.

THE COURT: Please do so.

DIRECT EX MIN TION

BY MR. FERIS:

Q Hello, Mr. Cornwell.

How are you?

Q s you heard, my name is Ivan Feris. I'm going to ask you a series of yes-or-no questions and to the best of your ability, please try to answer them with yes or no, okay?

So, we just heard from you that President Trump was not the ultimate buyer of the Bills; correct?

Yes.

Q I want to talk a little bit about how the process of selling a professional football team works.

You told us here in your direct examination that Morgan Stanley had to compete for a spot to sell the Bills?

Yes.

Q nd the process started somewhere in pril of 2014 or closer to that date; right?

I don't exactly recall.

Transcript continues on the following page....

Q nd you as a member of Morgan Stanley and Morgan Stanley as a bank had to participate in what is known as a bake off for the opportunity, right?

Yes.

Q Okay. So this bake off, Morgan Stanley would gather a list of potential buyers and eventually make a pitch to the seller of the team, correct?

No.

Q You told us here on your direct that you would gather potential buyers and that was Morgan Stanley's role, right?

We did more than that, yes. We presented our credentials.

Q That was part of what you did, though, right, gather the list of buyers?

Yes.

Q nd other banks did the same thing?

I don't know.

MR. FERIS: Can I pull up document D1001, please.

Q I'm showing you this document, Mr. Cornwell, to see if it refreshes your recollection. Right at the top, it says, "From Cornwell K. Don." That's you, right?

Yes.

Q It says, "Three banks invited including us" in the second bullet point. Do you see that there?

Yes.

Q You said that your "best guess is GS, JPM based on their experience and league relationships," right?

Yes, that's what I wrote.

Q So other banks were involved in the bake off, right?

Yes.

Q Correct. So -- and Morgan Stanley was ultimately the bank chosen out of the options?

Yes.

Q nd Morgan Stanley had an incentive to put a list together of suitable buyers, right?

I don't understand the question.

Q You weren't just going to put anybody on that list?

No, I wouldn't just put anybody on the list.

Q Morgan Stanley had to stand by that list, right?

No, nothing binding about the list.

Q Nothing binding, but Morgan Stanley's name was on the list, right, that it submitted?

We would not have been a buyer of the Buffalo Bills.

Q Can you repeat that?

Morgan Stanley would not have been -- I don't understand the question.

Q Morgan Stanley would submit the list of buyers on behalf of Morgan Stanley trying to get chosen as the bank who would broker the sale, right?

Yeah. The process wasn't one where we submitted a list.

Q You didn't submit a list? What --

That's not how that works.

Q We'll come back to that later, sir.

In the list of buyers that you did put together, you placed Donald Trump, the President of the United States later, he later became the president on the list, right?

Yes. He had publicly indicated he was interested in the team.

Q nd the list was eventually submitted to the CFO of the Bills, right?

Presented to.

Q Presented.

To the trustees.

Q nd it was also presented to the NFL eventually?

It was discussed with the NFL.

Q nd even before Morgan Stanley was chosen, you knew President Trump was, right?

Yes.

Q That's right. nd his name came to your mind even before Morgan Stanley was chosen as the bank that would broker the sale, right?

He probably stated he was interested. He was Tweeting about it.

Q But in your mind, Donald Trump was not an option as a buyer, right?

D. CORNWELL - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2901

So you're referring to what I wrote here, "Donald Trump is not an option"?
Q Correct.
The NFL had or still has a rule around people involved in gaming being prohibited from buying NFL teams. So this was a discussion that needed to happen with the NFL, his suitability for NFL ownership because of his affiliation with casinos.
Q So in your mind, he wasn't an option at the time, right? t that time, yes.
Q So one of the things that you said that you looked at was certainty of closing, correct?
Yes.
Q But before you started the process, you knew that Trump President Trump was not likely to close; am I right?
We needed to have a conversation with the National Football League.
Q Is that a yes, sir?
No.
Q But he wasn't an option to you. You admitted that much, right?
We needed to have a conversation actually both with the National Football League and with the Trump Organization to understand where they sat in the gaming world. His affiliations were unclear to us.

Q Regardless of how you felt about him, his name came to mind when Morgan Stanley was competing for the chance to broker the sale, correct?
Yes.
Q nd this was before you actually spoke to President Trump about the sale of the Bills, right?
Yes.
Q You needed to have a conversation. You just testified to that, right?
Yes.
Q This was before any financial disclosure was provided to you from President Trump, correct?
Yes.
MR. FERIS: Can we pull that e-mail back up, please. Your Honor, I would like to move D1001 into evidence.
MR. FINKELSTEIN: No objection.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendant's Exhibit 1001.)
Q nd even before Morgan Stanley was chosen to broker the sale, President Trump showed some interest in wanting to buy the Buffalo Bills, correct?
Yes.

D. CORNWELL - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2903

Q In fact, the chairman of Morgan Stanley communicated with President Trump's interest to you, correct?
Chairman --
Q The chairman at the time.
No. No.
Q No?
MR. FERIS: Can we get on the screen D1002, please.
Jeff's not -- he was not the chairman of Morgan Stanley.
Q Doesn't it say the "chairman of the institutional securities"?
That's not Morgan Stanley, so he's -- he had a chairman title. He was not the chairman of Morgan Stanley.
Q He was a chairman?
Yes.
Q So he was a chairman, just to get it clear?
No, no, not the chairman of the board, but okay.
Q He was the chairman of institutional securities at Morgan Stanley, right?
Yes. Yes.
Q So that's accurately reflected on that e-mail there, highlighted on the screen?
I assume so, yes.
Q Just making sure.
nd at this time, the bank was still participating in the bake off, right?

D. CORNWELL - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2904

I don't know the timing. I have to -- I don't recall the timing of the various meetings.
Q But you thought according to this e-mail that President Trump had no chance of being approved by the NFL? Is that true? I'm looking at page two of the e-mail.
Yes.
Q Yes, right.
How do you pronounce his name, so I don't butcher it?
Holzschuh.
Q So he told you that he had spent some time with Donald Trump, correct?
Correct.
Q nd he told you that President Trump wanted your help with buying the Bills, right, putting in an offer?
Yes.
Q nd he asked you what's your view? You were asked by James Head on behalf of Mr. Holzschuh?
Yes.
Q You thought that President Trump had little chance of being approved by the NFL, true?
Yes.
Q You knew that the president had been previously involved with litigation involving the NFL?
Yes.

D. CORNWELL - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2905

Q You told us that here today, right?
Yes.
Q But that President Trump's strong show of interest doesn't hurt the process, correct?
I'm sorry. re you quoting something? Where are you?
Q t the top of page two, you said, "That being said, his strong show of interest doesn't hurt the process, which I think will be well-attended both north of the border and down into NYC"?
Yes.
Q So President Trump being involved didn't hurt the process?
No.
Q That means it helped the process, right?
Hard for me to know.
Q You were the managing director at this time, right?
Yeah, but I can't tell you whether it helped or hurt.
Q You told us that as a managing director, it was your responsibility to lead these type of transactions?
Yes.
Q So you were involved, right? You had information relevant to this, correct? You thought that -- t this point, I'm now looking at the dates. t this point, we weren't hired to sell the team.
Q Which was one conflict. "We are of three pitching for sell side assignment?"

That's correct.
Q So at this time, there were conflicts with President Trump potentially?
President Trump had asked if we would represent --
Q Sir, yes or no? My question is a yes-or-no question. Did you have a conflict with President Trump; yes or no?
No.
Q Is that what you said in your e-mail there?
We hadn't been hired yet.
Q So it was a potential conflict?
Potential. There you go.
Q Okay. nd you said that you thought that wealthy hedge fund guys would take a hard look?
Yes.
Q So President Trump being involved attracted other bidders?
I don't know.
Q You don't know? So you're telling me here that a world-renowned person like President Trump showing interest in the bills, you don't know if that would have attracted other bidders?
Many times, that can scare away other bidders.
Q What was that, sir?

D. CORNWELL - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2907

Many times, that can scare away other bidders.
Q But your incentive as the managing director at this time before -- even before the sale was to attract as many bidders as possible, right? t this time, my incentive was to get hired.
Q nd you would get hired. You would agree the more bidders you had, the more attractive the bank would be to the seller, right, more qualified bidders?
No.
Q So you're saying if you had only one bidder on the list, you were more likely to get chosen?
No.
Q No, right.
THE COURT: Please, one at a time, so the reporter can take this all down.
MR. FERIS: Sure, Your Honor.
Q nd then the conversation continues with Mr. Holzschuh on the first page of this document and he said that "He probably does have the dough and he told me the bid was 1 billion, so at least he's in the right ballpark," correct?
That's what the e-mail says.
Q But he told you that he was glad to pass on Donald Trump if that was the call, correct?
Yes.
Q Or at least you could tell him that since you were baking off, you could hold off the president for a little bit, right?

D. CORNWELL - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2908

That's not what the e-mail says.
Q "Can certainly tell him we are baking off for sell side and not free until we know the outcome." That's what he said, right?
Correct.
Q nd you told him that "I can get an unofficial view from the league office on Trump pretty easily if that's helpful"?
Yes.
Q So despite certain issues, Morgan Stanley didn't turn away Trump's business outright, correct? I can rephrase my question.
No. I don't understand the question.
Q You had the opportunity to pass on President Trump, right?
Pass what?
Q Pass on him as a buyer. Is that not what this meant, "glad to pass if that's" -- Representing him.
Q s a buyer?
This would be us working for him. That's what this was about. This was us representing him.
Q You put President Trump on the ultimate list of buyers, right?

Yes.
Q You didn't have to do that?
So in an estate sale --
Q Yes or no, please, sir.
THE COURT: It is a yes or no.
No.
Q You didn't have to put him on the list?
No.
THE COURT: Hold on a second. I'll ask that the witness be excused from the room for a minute and I can talk to the attorneys.
(Witness exits the stand.)
THE COURT: Well, we spent I don't know how long, but a significant period of time in which the questions seem to elicit some sort of prejudice against President Trump or against some sort of bait and switch. I don't know where we are going with this. I don't know what this proves. Can I get an offer of proof from anybody?
MR. KISE: It goes back to what we were talking about this morning, which I think we need to be allowed to make this record whether or not you actually agree with us. They need to establish that there is materiality and reliance. It's not enough that a piece of paper was handed to someone that contained, in your view over our objection, a false statement. That establishes only one piece of the case. That was the piece of the case that you decided on summary judgment. That doesn't establish anything about this part of the case.

The two are not connected necessarily and I respectfully disagree with your conclusion, apparently, that they are because if no one does anything with it, if no one relies on it, then it has no impact of any kind, no real world impact. Even if it is out there, even if it is inaccurate, it has no real impact.
So here with this witness, what we will establish is Trump was never a serious bidder in the first place. This guy's dancing all over the place. I'm not sure why, but they never considered him a serious bidder. They took him in to use his name to gin up the price. Sorry. To bid up the price. That's one of those --
THE COURT: It's a southern thing.
MR. KISE: Right. But that's what they were doing. They were using Trump to manipulate the purchase price thinking that he wasn't really a serious contender at all.
nd so the financial information that came in, so what, okay? gain, back to my point this morning. Whether that financial information contained something accurate or inaccurate is immaterial if the recipient of the information doesn't do anything with it. Just like with the bank. If the bank doesn't actually -- you know. So any way, that's really where we are going, to just establish --

THE COURT: There was no reliance on the statement.
MR. KISE: We think the whole thing is irrelevant because there's no claim or cause of action. We think the entirety of this is not correct so -- and I'll wait. You may have a question. I see that Ms. Greenfield passed you a note, so you may have a question.
THE COURT: She's asking me what I'm going to have for lunch.
MR. KISE: Okay. I can help you with that. Thank you.
THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, would you like to respond?
MR. W LL CE: I was just going to say this obviously goes to use and business and repeated use of the false statements. Not every single use is going to generate some disgorgement amount or something else. That's why this is in. That's why it has been introduced. I think part of the reason I guess he's dancing around is I found the questions confusing myself, but obviously, that's the reason why the people are introducing this evidence and it is fairly limited. Thank you.
THE COURT: Well, how much longer do you think your cross-examination will be?
MR. FERIS: It really depends on how the witness answers the questions, Your Honor, but not much longer. I think I'll be done before lunch.

THE COURT: ll right. s is often the case, my attempt to save time is just costing time. So I understand Mr. Kise's point about reliance, so let's get the witness back.
Q Welcome back, Mr. Cornwell.
Thank you.
Q So before you left, we established that Morgan Stanley didn't flat out turn away President Trump, right?
For what?
Q s a buyer, potential buyer.
No.
Q No, right. Had the chance to, but didn't, correct?
Sure.
Q So let's talk about what Morgan Stanley did before the potential buyer submitted bids.
Yes.
Q Now, I'm no expert in the sale of an NFL team, but you would agree with me that the bidding process is essentially a competition between the potential buyers, right?
Yes, and this was an open process because of the estate sale, so we had to talk to all interested parties.
Q nd the potential buyers would each submit a bid or series of bids, right?

D. CORNWELL - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2913

That is correct.
Q nd at this point, Morgan Stanley wouldn't simply turn away buyers if they thought that a bidder was qualified on basic information it had?
We gave all people an opportunity to credentialize themselves.
Q nd even if a bidder had potential problems, that would ultimately disqualify them in the beginning stages? You weren't turning away buyers, right?
No.
Q nd you told me that you would vet these buyers, you would give them a chance to qualify themselves?
Credentialize themselves, yes.
Q Yes, credentialize. Generally, the more qualified suiters for an NFL team, the higher the ultimate selling price would be, right? That's what drives the competition?
No. No.
Q So people don't bid against each other driving up the selling price? Is that what you're telling me?
Sometimes.
Q nd the higher the selling price, the more money that Morgan Stanley would earn on the deal, right?
I don't recall.
Q You don't recall?
MR. FERIS: Can I, please, have the Morgan Stanley document up on the screen. I want to go here where it says "brokerage." Can you zoom in on that?

Q This is from the Morgan Stanley website. It says, "For brokerage activity, we offer transaction-based pricing in which you pay commissions, sales loads, markups, markdowns, or other fees for each transaction you and your financial advisor execute", correct?
MR. FINKELSTEIN: I would like to object to this document that has not been previously identified or otherwise provided to us.
MR. FERIS: Your Honor, he doesn't recall and I'm showing him something to refresh his recollection.
THE COURT: If it is just to refresh his recollection, you can --
MR. G BER: Does the witness have to indicate what would refresh his -- it is withdrawn.
Q So Morgan Stanley earns commissions off the sales price, correct?
That is not related to investment banking, this document.
Q This is not about Morgan Stanley's services?
This is about brokerage services.
THE COURT: Hold on. I think first you have to ask does this refresh your recollection.
Q Does this refresh your recollection, sir?

D. CORNWELL - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2915

No.
MR. FERIS: We can take it down.
Q Part of your job on behalf of the estate was to maximize the selling price, right?
Yes.
Q nd the bidder might be included in that process simply because they drive up the value, correct?
Restate the question, please.
Q bidder might be included simply because they drive up the value, correct?
Yes.
Q nd you told me earlier that representatives of Morgan Stanley met with the NFL to discuss potential buyers before bids were submitted, right?
Yes.
MR. FERIS: Can we get 1003 up here on the screen.
Q This is an e-mail from Robert Kindler on which you're cc'd, your e-mail is cc'd, right?
To Robert Kindler.
Q In which you were cc'd from lex Hill?
Yes.
Q nd you discussed President Trump at the meeting with the NFL, right?
Yes.
Q nd the NFL raised some concerns about President

D. CORNWELL - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. FERIS) Page 2916

Trump's liquidity, true, looking at the fourth bullet point there.
Yes.
Q They also question his ability to get votes?
Yes.
Q The NFL wanted to look at certain management contracts that President Trump was involved in, correct?
Yes.
Q Despite all this, the NFL was not opposed to Donald Trump submitting a bid, right?
They had no jurisdiction over who submits a bid.
Q If I could point you to David Einhorn, it says, "Unlikely, but no problems from the NFL's perspective," right?
Yes.
Q So the NFL could have told you, "We have a problem with this person," right?
Yes, but somebody could still submit a bid.
Q But they didn't tell you that about Mr. Trump?
Sorry. Tell me what?
Q Withdrawn.
Morgan Stanley didn't oppose President Trump submitting a bid, right?
No.
Q nd this meeting took place before any official offer was made, right?

Yes.
Q You still had not received any financial representation from President Trump?
No.
Q This was just based on the Trump name and the conversation with NFL, right?
No.
Q So you had no financial disclosure from President Trump, right?
No.
THE COURT: You know, again, and I've been saying this all trial long, when you ask negative questions, "so you didn't, did you," the answer is inherently ambiguous. Just ask him if he did and that's a direction to attorneys. If you can, please, adhere to that. sk questions -- well, I'll rephrase it. Withdrawn. Don't ask questions in the negative. "You didn't do that, did you." What does yes mean? What does no mean? It is ambiguous.

Q Other buyers were deemed unlikely based on this meeting; right?
I don't recall.
Q First bullet point. David Bonderman, unlikely; correct?
Unlikely.
Q Unlikely. That was my question.
David Einhorn, unlikely?
Yes.
Q Where it says "Donald Trump," it doesn't say "unlikely;" right?
Does not say unlikely.
Q So I want to --
MR. FERIS: I would like to move Exhibit 1003 into evidence, Your Honor.
THE COURT: I'll do whatever you want as long as you're finished soon. I feel like we're spinning on wheels here. Yes, it's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number 1003 in evidence.)
MR. FERIS: nd at this time I would like to go back and do D 1002 in evidence as well, which I didn't do, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in evidence.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 1002 in evidence.)
MR. FERIS: Can I get P 0980 on the screen, please?
Q I want to talk to you about Morgan Stanley's reaction to the bids. nd you went over this document with the ttorney General recently.
MR. FERIS: Can we turn to page nine of the document, please?
Q This letter is signed by Donald J. Trump; correct?
I don't know.
Q That's what the letter represents; right?
That's what it represents, yes.
Q nd above Donald J. Trump's name it says "Trump cquisition LLC?"
Yes.
Q It doesn't say DJT Holdings LLC; right?
It does not.
Q It doesn't say DJT Holdings managing member; right?
No.
Q Same question with regard to Trump Organization Inc.?
No.
Q Same question to Trump Organization LLC?
No.
Q Same question with regard to Trump Endeavor LLC?

No.
Q Same question with regard to 401 North Wabash LLC?
No.
Q Same question with Trump Old Post Office LLC?
No.
Q Same question with 40 Wall Street LLC?
No.
Q Same question with Seven Springs LLC?
No.
Q nd same question with the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust?
No.
Q None of those entities are listed there; right?
No.
Q Mr. Eric Trump is not listed on this letter either; right?
He is not.
Q nd neither is Donald Trump, Jr.?
He's not.
MR. FERIS: We can take this exhibit down.
Q nd you told us that that bid on July 29, 2014 was a nonbinding bid; right?
That's correct.
Q nd then based on the bids they received Morgan Stanley put together a bid summary presentation; yes?

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2921

Yes.
Q nd it also put a script together of what it would tell potential buyers that submitted bids; right?
Yes.
MR. FERIS: Can we pull up D 1004?
Q This was sent to you, right, Mr. Cornwell?
Yes.
Q nd it says "attached is the bid summary and script." Right?
Yes.
MR. FERIS: Your Honor, I would like to move this exhibit into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 1004 in evidence.)
MR. FERIS: If we could scroll down, please?
Let's go to page five.
Q Do you see with where it says "Donald T. Trump?" I believe you meant "J" there, right?
Yes.
Q Yes, right.
Yes.
Q So he submitted a bid for 1 billion?
That's correct.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2922

Q nd it says that it was "subject to finalization and signing of all documents and approval by the NFL's member clubs?"
Yes.
Q So at this time nothing was final?
Nothing was final.
Q nd then it said he had a stated net worth of in excess of 8 billion?
Yes.
Q Correct.
MR. FERIS: nd let's go down to the script that you were going to speak about with the potential buyers. It's going to be on page 7.
Q Morgan Stanley at the time had an intention to tell President Trump that his bid was below several others in the process; right?
Yes.
Q But you plan to communicate to him that he could prevail during the diligence process if he could move up in value?
Yes.
Q So Morgan Stanley was encouraging President Trump to raise his bid if he wanted to win; right?
That he would have to raise his bid if he wanted to win.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2923

Q That he would have to?
Not encourage, but he would have to.
Q You were telling him to win he needed to raise his bid?
Yes.
Q nd Pegula, the ultimate buyer, you, Morgan Stanley, planned to tell him you bid enough to get into the next round, but "at the top of your range you were not the highest bidder?"
Yes.
Q So you were planning to communicate to Pegula that he needed to raise his bid -- that they needed to raise the bid to be ultimately successful; right? t the top end of his range he was not the highest bidder. That's what we said.
Q Which means that to be successful he would have needed to raise his bid; right?
No.
Q So the person with the highest bid doesn't win?
Certainty of closing also matters.
Q But one of the factors is whether the bid is --
Yes.
Q -- high in value; correct?
Yes.
Q higher bid would have been beneficial to Morgan Stanley?
I don't understand the question.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2924

Q The higher the bid the higher the ultimate selling price; right?
The higher the bid the higher the -- yes.
MR. FERIS: Let's pull up D 1011, please. Let's go to page two of the document. Let's actually start with page three.
Q So at the top of page three you write an e-mail that says "have you given any of the NFL forms to the league yet;" correct?
Yes.
Q nd then you said "we should discuss the process of starting to get people vetted;" right?
Yes.
Q Then your e-mail is responded to saying "certain people had submitted the background forms; Pegula, the JBJ Group and the Kelly Group;" correct?
Yes.
Q Now, if we turn to page two you write back, "okay, I'd like to get Trump in as well. We don't have the signature page; correct?" That's what you wrote, right?
Yes.
Q So you wanted to get Trump's forms in; correct?
Yes.
Q You wanted President Trump as a bidder?
Yes.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2925

Q You wanted to keep him around?
Yes.
Q Even though he hadn't signed the final consent forms; right?
That's the signature page. That's what we're referring to. I wanted him to sign it, to sign the consent form.
Q The signature page of the background forms, right, you wanted him to?
The consent form.
Q He hadn't signed it?
He had not signed that.
Q So you wanted him as a bidder even though he hadn't signed; right?
I wanted him to sign it.
Q You told me right now that you wanted him as a bidder. That was your answer, right?
Yes. In order to be a bidder he needed to sign it.
Q Mr. Wayne Katz told you "as far as I know we don't have President Trump's" -- it says "Trump's," but I'm adding the "President Trump" as an honorarium, "background check authorization form and I'd be surprised if we ever get his financials?"
What page are you on?
Q I'm on page two.
Yes.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2926

Q nd you said "I'll talk" -- "we'll talk to him about it. We'll talk to him on Monday about it. He has asked we pre-check him with the league and that's what we want to do."
Yes.
Q So President Trump hadn't signed the forms; right?
No.
Q But you were still pursuing him as a bidder; right? You were getting him pre-checked with the NFL?
That's signing the forms.
Q You said he has asked we pre-check him, so that's what we're going to do; right?
Yes.
Q So you were pre-checking him even though the forms were not signed; right?
No.
Q That's not what the e-mail says?
There is no pre-checking without the signed form.
Q t this point you just told me that Trump hadn't signed the forms, but you were pre-checking him. "So that's what we want to do."
We want to pre-check him.
Q nd then you were told thereafter, "I hear Trump hasn't been doing anything in the data room;" right?
Yes.
Q So you were on notice that President Trump was not active in the data room; right?

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2927

Yes.
Q nd the data room is where a potential buyer receive all of their diligence materials; right?
That's correct.
Q When the bidder is not very active in the data room that means they're not really looking at those diligence materials; right?
Yes.
Q nd in your experience when a bidder is highly interested in a purchase, they're active in data rooms; correct?
Sometimes.
Q They want to know where their money is going; correct? Usually? Can we get a verbal response, sir?
Sometimes.
Q nd then you go on that despite him not being active in the data rooms, despite him not signing the background consent form on page one, you say "yes, still want to keep him around though." That's what you said; right?
Yes.
Q You still wanted to keep Donald Trump around; right?
Yes.
Q nd then you were told "understood, but that's why I think it's hard to get his forms;" right?
Yes.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2928

Q When you said "Trump asked to be pre-vetted so that's what we're going to do from his perspective. Better to find out if he is a no go now in a private fashion;" right?
Yes.
Q So he hadn't signed the forms, but you were pre-vetting him; right?
No.
Q "I've got some pretty good intel he has the money;" right? Yes?
Yes, I wrote that.
Q You wrote that.
So -- and you wrote "pre-vetting him." That's what it says. That's what we are doing; right?
No.
Q That's not what you wrote?
I wrote that, but not -- we -- not Morgan Stanley doing pre-vetting, no.
Q Did you write that inaccurately when you wrote it, sir?
I can't answer your question unless I can go outside the yes/no construct.
MR. FERIS: Your Honor, at this time I would like to move D 1011 into evidence, sir.
THE COURT: Okay. Five-minute warning and I hope --
MR. FERIS: I'm almost done, Your Honor.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2929

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 1011 in evidence.)
THE COURT: Will you be able to finish in five minutes?
MR. FERIS: I'm going to try.
THE COURT: I may limit you. I mean, I just have to say, Mr. Kise, you pointed out that the cross examination was supposed to show there was a reliance because they weren't going to pick him anyway, but no other questions seem to be they really did want him as a bidder. I don't get where we're going with this. m I the only one --
MR. FERIS: Your Honor, this goes to show Morgan Stanley did want him as a bidder because it helped the process. The witness has testified that it --
MR. KISE: The witness is on the stand, Your Honor, so I don't really want to discuss this in front of the witness is all I'm saying. I just want to note again --
THE COURT: You don't have to do it again. You already did it. ll right. Here's what we'll do: Ten minutes. I really hope that you finish within the ten minutes. I'll ask the witness to answer quickly as best he can and I'll consider just stopping it at that point because I don't see the point.
MR. KISE: This never happens with the government, never. You never put them on the clock.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2930

THE COURT: Maybe they ask questions in a different matter.
MR. KISE: They don't. They ask a lot of laborious questions and they drag us through a lot of exhibits and lots of things that take a lot of time. They're never questioned about anything they do. I just want to put that on the record because this is becoming a pattern, Your Honor. I'm sorry. Every time something takes a little bit longer with our side it's like you have to hurry up, you have to hurry up, you're on the clock. nd, respectfully, that's not fair to us. They spend all the time that they want and I just ask Your Honor to consider that. We're going to move as fast as we can with this witness. s I've told you before, there is -- no one in this courtroom wants to leave here and have this trial over sooner than me.
THE COURT: Let's continue.
Q re you aware that Mr. Holzschuh -- you are aware that Mr. Holzschuh encouraged President Trump to put his best offer forward; right?
I'm sorry, where are you?
Q I'm not on the document anymore. I'm asking you about your knowledge?
I don't recall.
MR. FERIS: Can we pull up D 1012, please?

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2931

Q You checked off with Mr. Holzschuh about a conversation we had with Trump; right? You told him "how did it go last week."
Yes.
Q nd he said he will stay in the process; right?
Yes.
Q Followed by, "I encourage him to put his best offer forward and let the process work;" correct?
Yes.
Q So you were encouraging -- you, being Morgan Stanley -- President Trump to put his best offer forward; correct?
Jeff Holzschuh did.
Q On behalf of Morgan Stanley?
No.
Q You know President Trump is --
MR. FERIS: We can take that down.
Your Honor, I move this document D 1012 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number 1012 in evidence.)
Q You know that President Trump is a real estate developer; right?
Yes.

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2932

Q successful one; correct?
I don't know.
Q You know he has an interest in several commercial properties in New York?
I don't know.
Q Several golf properties around the world?
I don't know.
Q You were heading this deal and you don't know about Donald Trump's equity holdings?
I don't know whether he held equity or had a license -- he licensed his name. I don't know.
Q You would agree with me that you're aware of President Trump's a world renowned brand name; right?
I don't know.
Q You're not familiar with the Trump brand?
Yes.
Q So you do know about the world renowned brand?
I don't know. World renowned? I don't speak for the world.
Q You're aware there is value in that brand, sir?
I don't know.
Q You are aware that excluding the brand value Mr. Trump had a net worth of 5.7 billion in 2014?
I don't know.
MR. FERIS: Can we pull up on the screen what has been introduced into evidence as PX 730, please?

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2933

Q I'm going to represent to you this is Donald Trump's Statement of Financial Condition that the New York ttorney General moved into evidence.
If we can turn to page four, please. You see this says "assets" right here, sir?
Yes.
Q It lists "cash and marketable securities," right, on the first line?
Yes.
Q "Escrow and reserve deposits and prepaid expenses?"
Yes.
Q In the second line?
Yes.
Q "Real and operating properties;" correct?
Yes.
Q If we skip down after all the properties are listed out it says "partnerships and joint ventures net of related debt;" correct?
Yes.
Q Says "real estate licensing developments?"
Yes.
Q nd "other assets?"
Yes.
Q It doesn't list "brand" on there anywhere; correct, on this page?

I haven't read it in full, but I assume it does not.
Q You don't see it on there right now?
I don't see it.
MR. FERIS: We can turn to the next page.
Q Now, his net worth there is listed as 5.7 just to round or for time consistency as his net worth; correct?
Yes.
Q nd, again, we just went through that it's free of any brand value; right?
MR. FERIS: If we turn to the next page?
Q In the bottom paragraph at the top it says "pursuant to G P, this financial statement does not reflect the value of Donald J. Trump's worldwide reputation; however, the brand value has afforded Mr. Trump the opportunity to participate in licensing deals around the globe as reflected on the balance sheet therein." Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd then the final sentence of this says "the goodwill attached to the Trump name has significant financial value that has not been reflected in the preparation of this financial statement." Do you see that?
I do.
Q So this financial statement with a 5.7 billion net worth does not include brand, according to what we just read;

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2935

right?
ccording to what we just read.
Q That would be a yes, right, according to what we just read?
Yes.
Q re you aware that Trump's brand value is up to $3 billion?
No.
MR. FERIS: Can we pull up PX 431, please?
Q nd I'll represent to you this is a brand -- a letter from Predictiv, that the value -- that values President Trump's brand.
MR. FERIS: If we can turn to the bottom of page two?
MR. FINKELSTEIN: Objection.
THE COURT: Go ahead.
MR. FINKELSTEIN: Hearsay. This exhibit is not in evidence and this witness has no foundation.
MR. FERIS: Your Honor, I haven't tried to move this exhibit into evidence. I'm just showing it into evidence.
MS. H BB : It's already into evidence. I brought it in through Michael Cohen.
THE COURT: I guess we'll accept that representation that it's already in evidence. Yes, no?

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2936

MR. G BER: Was this introduced for the truth of the matter asserted at the time or just for notice purposes?
THE COURT: Might just be notice. nyone remember?
MS. H BB : I mean, I can look back, Your Honor. I believe we brought it in for the truth of the matter asserted, but it was solely -- I will tell you the part I brought in was the last sentence where it said the value only.
MR. W LL CE: We're happy to just have our objection noted and keep it moving.
MS. H BB : Yes, we can keep it moving.
THE COURT: I don't know what this witness has to do with this, but okay. Go ahead. Objection overruled without prejudice.
Q Do you see where it says: Based on the information provided it was concluded that the value of the Trump brand was in the 2.8 to $3 billion range?"
I do see that.
Q You would agree with me that 5.7 plus 3 billion is 8.7 billion?
Yes.
Q nd that's in excess of 8 billion?
Yes.
MR. FERIS: Your Honor, will the Court take judicial notice that 5.7 plus three billion is 8.7 billion?

D. Cornwell - Plaintiff - cross (Feris) Page 2937

THE COURT: I hereby take judicial notice of it.
Q Just to remove all room for doubt, Trump didn't actually buy the Bills; correct?
He did not.
MR. FERIS: If I could have one moment to confer with Counsel?
THE COURT: Sure, go ahead.
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
MR. FERIS: No further questions, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Will there be any redirect?
MR. FINKELSTEIN: No, Your Honor.
THE COURT: That's that. The witness is excused, and I'll see you all at 2:15.
MS. H BB : Your Honor?
THE COURT: Wait, wait. Don't go away.
MS. H BB : I just have a housekeeping matter.
THE COURT: Well, the witness is excused.
What is the housekeeping matter?
MS. H BB : Thank you, Your Honor. My far smarter associates have corrected some exhibit numbers that were in the record wrong when I cross examined Michael Cohen, so I just wanted to clean it up and make a record. I showed them. If I could just put that on the record quickly?
THE COURT: How long about will it take?
MS. H BB : Two seconds.

Page 2938

Record page 2356, exhibit on the record was D 995. What the record should reflect is D 955.
Record 2361, this is not really relevant. D 958-3 is on the record. It should just be D 958, no -3.
2364 record page. PX 341 is the exhibit on the record. It should be D 984.
nd the last one is record page 2400. Exhibit on the record is PX 987. It should reflect D 988.
I'm -- I will give this to the ttorney General, as well, so if they have any objection they can put it on.
THE COURT: ny objections you can raise later.
MS. H BB : Thank you.
THE COURT: For the time being we'll assume that's all correct. ll right. Have a good lunch, everyone.
(Whereupon, there is a luncheon recess in the proceedings.)

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. The Honorable Judge rthur Engoron presiding. Please be seated and come to order.
THE COURT: I know you're ready to call your next witness because the guy is standing there walking around like that. Would you like to call your next witness?
MR. H REN: Yes, we would. The people call David Orowitz. I understand Mr. Wallace has one matter to place on the record before we begin.
MR. W LL CE: Cleaning up from the last examination, there was a question as to whether Plaintiff's Exhibit 431 had been entered into evidence. This was the --
THE COURT: Right.
MR. W LL CE: Valuation. It was sought to be introduced during Mr. Cohen's testimony. The objection was sustained. I don't know that it needs to change anything else on the record, but since I just wanted it to be reflected, that that's where we understood it came out.
THE COURT: Okay. So we all agree it is not in evidence. Thank you.
MR. H REN: We call David Orowitz.
THE COURT: Can we get Mr. Orowitz.
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2940

DIRECT EX MIN TION
BY MR. H REN:
Q Good afternoon, Mr. Orowitz. My name is Eric Haren. I am an attorney with the ttorney General's office. Thank you for being here.
Can you, please, describe your educational background after high school?
I went to Hamilton College for undergraduate and I went to the Wharton School at University of Pennsylvania for my M.B. .
Q Do you hold any professional licenses?

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2941

No.
Q Do you have any professional certifications?
No.
Q Can you, please, describe your employment history after college?
fter undergraduate, I worked at Kaiser ssociates which was a strategy consulting firm. Then I went for my M.B. . for two years, then went to the Trump Organization for eight years, and then after that and since then, I've worked at L&L Holding.
Q t what? Sorry. I didn't hear that.
L&L Holding.
Q Thank you. Can you describe just in general terms your history of working for the Trump Organization?
I joined as a summer intern in between my two years of my M.B. . and then I joined full time at the end of the summer after I graduated from business school.
Q nd approximately what year was that?
2008.
Q So you joined as a full-time employee of the Trump Organization in 2008?
Correct.
Q Okay. nd who offered you the full-time position at the Trump Organization?
Donald J. Trump, Jr.

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2942

Q Could you walk us through your titles at the Trump Organization from 2008 until when you left?
When I joined, I was VP of acquisition and development and when I left, I was SVP, senior vice-president of acquisitions and development.
Q There came a time when you were promoted from vice-president to senior vice-president?
Yes.
Q Who offered you that promotion?
It was the Trump -- the Trump kids. I don't remember specifically who.
Q So by kids, who are you referring to?
Sorry. Donald Trump, Jr., Ivanka Trump and Eric Trump.
Q Thank you. Who did you report to when you worked for the Trump Organization?
I reported to Donald Trump, Jr. and Ivanka Trump and Eric Trump.
Q nd was that reporting structure the same throughout your tenure at the Trump Organization?
Yes.
Q pproximately when did you leave your employment at the Trump Organization?
I left in October of 2016.
Q Is it correct that you frequently met or spoke with Donald Trump, Jr., Eric Trump and Ivanka Trump during your employment at the Trump Organization?

Yes.
Q Speaking generally, what projects did you work on with Ivanka Trump?
I worked on the Old Post Office, the acquisition and financing of Doral, the refinancing of Trump Chicago, and several brand licensing deals around the world.
Q nd same question for Eric Trump.
Eric Trump, I worked on and off with him, but I would say one of the things I worked with him on was the retail at Trump Chicago and I'm sure a number of other things while I was there.
Q nd same question for Donald Trump, Jr.
With Donald Trump, Jr., I worked on some of the leasing at the Old Post Office and some of the Trump India brand licensing deals.
Q Who do you understand to have worked in the accounting department while you worked at the Trump Organization?
llen Weisselberg, Jeffrey McConney, Donna Kidder, I believe Patrick Birney.
Q nd in terms of the physical layout of the office, where was the accounting department located?
The accounting department was on the 18th floor.
Q Where was Mr. Weisselberg's office located?
On the 18th floor.

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2944

Q nd where was your office?
On the 17th floor.
Q Thank you.
Do you recall any instance in which you were asked by llen Weisselberg for valuation information in connection with a conversation with Forbes Magazine?
Yes.
Q What do you recall about that?
I recall that there were conversations going on with Forbes about Mr. Trump's net worth in relation to the rankings of the world's richest people and that he had asked me to have a conversation with Forbes about one or maybe more assets as to kind of what the value of those assets might be.
Q In connection with those conversations, did you have an understanding of Mr. Weisselberg's objective?
Yes.
Q What was your understanding?
To persuade Forbes that some of the assets were worth more than what they originally were discussing valuing them at.
Q Did you have any other understanding about Mr. Weisselberg's objective?
Could you clarify the question, please?
Q Sure. Did you have an understanding about Mr. Weisselberg's objective in connection with Mr. Trump's net worth?

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2945

That his goal was for it to be represented higher on the listing.
Q Thank you. During your time at the Trump Organization, did you ever have an understanding about a report on Mr. Trump's net worth?
Could you clarify what kind of report you mean?
Q financial statement about Mr. Trump's net worth.
Yes.
Q How did you gain that understanding?
There was a transaction that I was working on where he needed to provide a statement to his net worth.
Q Which transaction was that?
It may have been more than one, but I know that it was in relation to the Old Post Office.
Q When you say "in relation to the Old Post Office, can you be more specific about what you mean?
It was in relation to when we put the RFP response together in reaction to the original request for proposals. We had to demonstrate financial wherewithal and his statement was needed for that purpose.
Q Thank you.
MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, a continuing objection to this line of questioning. The RFP was well outside the statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Duly noted. Usual ruling.

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2946

Q Mr. Orowitz, I would like to change topics to the Doral transaction.
Do you have a general recollection of when the Trump Organization purchased the Doral property and obtained associated financing?
Yes, it was generally in the early 2010s.
Q What was your role in that process?
I was involved with putting together the underwriting. I was involved with the 1031 auction or that may not be what it is called, the bankruptcy auction because we were buying another bankruptcy estate and I was involved in the financing.
MR. H REN: I'd like to have marked for identification PX 3243. I would like to pull it up on the screen.
Q Mr. Orowitz, the document on the screen, as you will see on the first page, begins with an e-mail from Ronnie Levine to Ivanka Trump and in the e-mail address, it states that Ronnie Levine is from meridiancapital.com and the e-mail is forwarded to you. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Can you describe the role of Meridian Capital in connection with the Doral transaction?
My recollection is that they were helping to find potential lenders.
Q Helping meaning they were -- were they engaged by the

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2947

Trump Organization to do that work?
I'm not sure if they were formally engaged contractually, but they were definitely engaged in practice.
Q They were assisting the Trump Organization in identifying potential financing?
Yes.
Q nd focusing in the e-mail from Ronnie Levine in the middle of the page, do you see where it states, "heard back from Blackstone a little while ago and they are a pass on the deal"?
Yes.
Q What does that indicate to you?
It indicates that Blackstone was not interested in providing a loan for the acquisition of Doral.
Q nd there's a reference in the second paragraph to getting information to someplace called Inbursa. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Do you have an understanding of what that refers to?
I believe this was another financial institution that was a potential lender for Doral.
Q nd there are other references here to Macquaire, Criterion, Colony, Baupost and HSBC.
It's your understanding that those are potential sources of financing?
Yes. I don't recall at the time all of them being involved, but yes, based on this e-mail, that appears to be the case.

Q There is a question in the e-mail on the first page that reads, "Have you received any feedback from DB."
What do you understand that to be a reference to?
I would presume this was asking whether Meridian heard back from DB about their interest in the loan.
Q DB, is that Deutsche Bank?
Yes.
Q Moving to the top of the page, there is a response from Ivanka Trump that reads, "I actually spoke to Todd Harrison at Colony today (I know Todd through Jared as well). We are partners on another deal together. He said that we wouldn't do a deal with them on the debt side as they are too expensive for what we'd be looking for (low teens)."
What do you understand "low teens" to refer to in the context of this e-mail?
I would assume it refers to the interest rate.
MR. H REN: Your Honor, I move this exhibit into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, continuing objection on statute of limitations and objection to this whole line of questioning.
THE COURT: Overruled, but I will consider it a continuing objection.

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2949

MR. ROBERT: Thank you.
THE COURT: Okay. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3243.)
MR. H REN: Moving to a different document. This is Plaintiff's Exhibit 3244.
Q Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize this set of e-mails?
I don't remember it, no.
Q But it does appear to be an e-mail chain involving you in the middle of the first page?
Yes.
Q nd looking at page one, there is an e-mail from again Ronnie Levine at Meridian Capital to Ivanka Trump that copies you. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q The e-mail states, "Citi has all the info on the deal, but I don't think they are going to make an offer." What do you understand that to refer to?
I would presume that Meridian had sent over due diligence materials and offering memoranda related to the transaction and that Citi was not interested in being a lender.
Q City refers to?
Citibank.
Q gain, on page one, there is a statement that reads, "They might consider a low-leverage first mortgage, but it would be sized to a ten percent debt yield on the in-place cash flow. Even that would be a stretch for them."

Do you have an understanding of those sentences?
Yes.
Q What's your understanding?
Debt yield is the percentage of the assets or the debt that proceeds, so it is the income divided by the debt. So this is basically saying that they would only lend ten times whatever the current cash flow or income was of the asset.
Q Continuing that same e-mail, there's the next paragraph reads, "I spoke with Loancore early last week. My brother-in-law works at Jefferies and is on the JLC credit committee. This transaction is too large for them and they are generally not looking to do deals with large renovation components."
What's your understanding of that information?
My interpretation of it is that they had reached out to Loancore and Loancore wasn't able to do loans this large or loans on assets that required investment in improving them.
Q What is Loancore?
I'm not familiar with Loancore.
Q Do you have an understanding what Loancore is?
-- I believe they are a real estate lender.
MR. H REN: I move Exhibit P X 3244 in evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations.

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2951

THE COURT: I think we've been over this many times. You still feel that you need to object every time even though it is a continued objection because it is a document, not testimony?
MR. ROBERT: Yes, sir.
THE COURT: I'm learning. ll right. Do what you feel you have to do. Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3244.)
MR. H REN: I've handed or the witness has been handed plaintiff's Exhibit 3247. That document is also up on the screen.
Q Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize, if you could take a moment to look through it, the e-mail and the attachment that follows.
(Witness reviewing document.)
I don't recognize it specifically, no.
Q Do you see there at the bottom of the first page is an e-mail from Ivanka Trump to Enrique E. Morelos Zaragoza on November 28, 2011?
Yes.
Q nd the e-mail is then forwarded to you?
Yes.
Q nd the e-mail from Ms. Trump refers to "Inbursa's term sheet" at the beginning of the first paragraph. Do you see that?

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2952

Yes.
Q nd then you can see at the top of the first page, there's an attachment entitled "inbursatermsheet.docx"?
Yes.
Q If you could look then to page -- beginning on page three, do you see a document that appears to be a term sheet from Inbursa Grupo Financiero?
Yes.
Q It refers to Donald Trump as the sponsor?
Yes.
Q nd it refers to the sponsor as the guarantor?
Yes.
MR. H REN: I move Plaintiff's Exhibit 3247 into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3247.)
Q Mr. Orowitz, we're going to move to some information from another potential lender. We're looking at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3231.
MR. H REN: Could we pull down -- I have the wrong document in front of me, so let me try to fix that. One moment, Your Honor.

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2953

THE COURT: Yes.
MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I apologize for interrupting Mr. Haren. I want to note for the record that there appears to be no attorney right now for Donald Trump, for Mr. Weisselberg or for Mr. McConney and I just want to know if the defendants have made some arrangements for this absence, but I don't believe either Mr. Robert or Mr. Kise represent those individuals.
MR. KISE: I certainly represent Donald Trump whether it says so on the docket or not. I mean, that's been obvious since the beginning, that I'm the lead counsel and if you want to ask him next time he's here, you can ask him, but there's no question as to that. I think Mr. Gabra is here. He may be in the back watching, but I think -- I mean in the video room watching, but I'll confirm that.
For Mr. Weisselberg and McConney, I clearly do not represent Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney, but I can check on that momentarily. We can continue the proceeding and I can -- if you'll allow me to go check, I could go do that.
THE COURT: Of course.
MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge.
MR. H REN: You could put the document you've been handed to the side. We will move to a different one and see if we can correct that issue.

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2954

MR. KISE: He is now here, Your Honor. I appreciate the concern of the government for representation.
MR. W LL CE: We want to keep the record clean.
Q So Mr. Orowitz, you have in front of you Plaintiff's Exhibit 3232. You see on the top of the first page, there's an e-mail from someone named Steve Harvey to you and Ivanka Trump copying Jacob Turner and some other people and the e-mail signature states that Steven L. Harvey is an executive vice-president at CSG Investment, Inc.
Do you have an understanding as to who Mr. Harvey is in the context of this e-mail?
I don't have a recollection of it, no.
Q re you familiar generally with Beal Bank and CSG Investments?
Yes.
Q What is your understanding of those entities?
They're affiliated entities that are both owned or partially owned by ndy Beal.
Q nd then are they potential sources of financing?
Yes.
Q So the e-mail states, " ttached is a redraft of the term sheet based on our conversation today. If you find this acceptable, the next step for us will be a loan application, which I am working on right now."
nd you can see that there is an attachment entitled,

"Doral term sheet 111114 "which I assume is November 11, 2014 -- November 14, 2011.
Is it fair to say that this document represents a transmittal of a term sheet with Beal Bank or CSG Investments regarding the Doral property?
Yes.
Q If we could take a look at the attachment. Do you see that this document appears to be such a term sheet?
Yes.
Q It contains an interest rate term of LIBOR plus 5.5 percent?
Yes.
Q nd do you see that it provides a floor rate of two percent?
Yes.
Q nd there's a default interest rate of five percent above the interest rate?
Yes.
Q nd on page three, there are a series of additional fees including an upfront fee, a breakage fee. Do you see those?
Yes.
MR. H REN: Your Honor, I move Plaintiff's Exhibit 3232 into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2956

hearsay and relevance.
MR. H REN: Your Honor, this is a term sheet for a potential loan received by Mr. Orowitz and Ivanka Trump at the Trump Organization. They are right there in the "to" line in the e-mail.
MR. ROBERT: It is not prepared by the witness. It is prepared someone. It is an out-of-court statement and it was produced by whoever Beal is. I don't know who that is.
MR. H REN: It is a bank that offered terms to the Trump Organization for a potential loan and I'm introducing it for notice for the terms that were offered.
MR. ROBERT: Notice of what to whom? Notice that there was a term sheet, but not any of the contents of the term sheet including the amount or the interest rate, correct?
MR. H REN: The term sheet is contained in the document beginning at page two, portions of which I read to the witness and that do specify the interest rate, loan term, loan amount and other terms.
THE COURT: It's in simply for the notice of what's in it, not for the truth of the statements asserted.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3232.)
MR. H REN: Your Honor, I have another exhibit, but before I show it to the witness, it's my understanding that it is still subject to a confidentiality designation under the protective order, so I wanted to hand a copy up to the Court and to counsel.

THE COURT: Is there an issue about showing this to the witness? Mr. Haren, is that a threshold question?

MR. H REN: I don't think there should be an objection. It is a perfectly appropriate document that could be shown to the witness and support in kind to the other documents I showed the witness, but just want to make sure -- the protective order allows that the Court can order that I can show it to him, so I think that that would be appropriate.

THE COURT: I'll give them, defendants, a moment to look at it.

MR. KISE: Is the question as to the protective order, the confidentiality order?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. H REN: Yes.

MR. KISE: No, there is no objection on that ground. I could come up with a lot of other objections, but not on that.

THE COURT: You probably already have. You can show it to the witness.

MR. H REN: Thank you, Your Honor.

Q So, Mr. Orowitz, you could see on the first page of

D. OROWITZ - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. H REN) Page 2958

Exhibit 3233 that there's an e-mail exchange involving you and Ivanka Trump and Jacob Turner and Steve Harvey at CSG Investments. Do you see that.

Yes.

Q The e-mail states in the second line, "I understand that there is no need to discuss the $130 million comment on the markup (CSG is not going to get to that advance level)."

Do you have an understanding of what that line indicates?

Yes, I believe it refers to the loan proceeds that they would be willing to loan.

Q The e-mail also states, "We had a number of discussions" --

MR. KISE: Your Honor.

THE COURT: Hold on.

MR. KISE: So the confidentiality, are we asking him questions about a document that's not in evidence that he can't authenticate or can he? I don't know. I did not see that he did. Maybe he did.

Q Mr. Orowitz, did you receive this e-mail?

I don't -- I don't recall receiving it.

Q Do you see in the "to" line that it states "David Orowitz"?

Yes.

Q Do you have any reason to doubt that you received this

e-mail?

No.

Q Do you understand that it contained responses from CSG Investments concerning potential loan terms?

Yes.

MR. H REN: Your Honor, I move to admit Plaintiff's 3233 in evidence for notice.

MR. ROBERT: I want to be clear with this for notice. Notice of what? I mean, if you intend to try to show later with this document and the other document that there's certain interest rates that are here, that's not notice. So let's just be clear. You want this notice of who of what?

MR. H REN: I want it for notice that Ivanka Trump and David Orowitz at the Trump Organization were expressly advised about potential loan terms from Beal. That's what that document provides them notice of.

MR. ROBERT: Not any of the terms of the loan because the terms of the proposed loan are hearsay.

MR. H REN: I don't understand how they are hearsay if they were expressly advised what the terms would be.

THE COURT: They are not hearsay. I don't know what you mean by that.

MR. ROBERT: statement coming from Jacob Turner who is not a party, sending an e-mail, making a statement of potential terms, that's quintessential hearsay.

THE COURT: It is not being introduced to prove the truth of the contents, just that the recipients were notified that this sender was willing to do these terms. Is that what I --

MR. H REN: Yes.

MR. ROBERT: That goes to the truth of the matter asserted. We are now interpreting that to mean that the lender was going to go ahead on these terms. That, in essence, is the truth of the matter asserted. If it is a question of did you receive a document that said that 10:30 a.m. central standard time, that's one thing, but Your Honor's hypothetical goes to the truth of the matter asserted.

THE COURT: So just to make sure I understand your point, we don't -- does your point boil down to we don't know that this sender really would have done these --

MR. ROBERT: Correct. Correct.

MR. W LL CE: It constitutes an offer which is another reason that it can be admitted on its own for the purposes that there was an offer made. It doesn't need to show whether the offer was going to be closed, whether everything is going to proceed from here, we are not going -- that was down the road.

THE COURT: I don't -- when you say "offer," you mean binding as in we learned in contracts, an offer is binding?

MR. W LL CE: Not binding.

THE COURT: So, then, it is not really an offer.

MR. W LL CE: That's fine, Your Honor.

MR. H REN: I could ask a slightly different question.

THE COURT: ll right. Withdrawn.

Q Mr. Orowitz, when you received this e-mail, did you understand -- did you form an understanding that Beal Bank was responding to potential loan terms with the responses that are here indicated?

I don't remember receiving this specific e-mail at that time.

Q Do you --

THE COURT: I think you said you have no reason to doubt that you did, right?

THE WITNESS: No, no reason.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE WITNESS: Your Honor.

Q Do you have a general recollection of engaging in -- withdrawn.

MR. H REN: Just want to be clear, is the document in evidence for those purposes or is it --

MR. ROBERT: If it is noticed that an e-mail was received, but none of the contents -- all of the contents of the notice are hearsay.

MR. H REN: I mean, just to be clear on the question of hearsay, it's not a truthful fact that it is being asserted by the statement. It is a market term that is being offered. I don't think it is hearsay at all. I don't think it is being offered for its truth. It is being offered to show what a third-party bank offered and notified the defendant organization was the subject of their offer.

MR. ROBERT: That's the definition of the truth of the matter asserted because you want to try to bootstrap that there were other offers, that these other interest rates, these interest rates differed than the ultimate interest rate and you're going to connect those dots or attempt to connect those dots.

What I'm saying is the underlying substance of what's contained here is hearsay. If you had the ability of the time is expired, someone from the bank to come in here and explain something, but that's not what we have. We have a document that you're trying to introduce from a witness who doesn't recall receiving it.

To Your Honor's point, he doesn't dispute that he probably got it because he is on the e-mail exchange, but the underlying substance of this and of the earlier e-mail are all hearsay.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, if I could just clarify my point about it. It's an offer to constitute a verbal act under 8.47 under the rules of evidence and that even if it's not a binding offer it is contractual term.

By making this offer we are interested in establishing and making the offer to the Trump Organization. nd so that is how the -- that's how Mr. Haren is offering to use this document.

nd just to go back to one other point. This came from the Trump Organization, so any issues with authenticity because this was produced in discovery.

MR. ROBERT: I'm not questioning -- so I didn't think it came from us, this exhibit that's here, but I take your word for it.

MR. W LL CE: I'll just clarify that's the production stamp that the Trump Organization used for civil discovery in this action as opposed to TTO is from the underlying investigation.

MR. ROBERT: I'm just saying nonetheless if you want to introduce something as an offer, the person that made the offer has to come in and say here was the offer, here are the terms, not the witness who is looking at the document coming from a third party relaying terms or potential terms of a deal.

THE COURT: ll right. Give me a moment.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2965

(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)
THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, what is -- was the evidentiary rule you just referred to?
MR. W LL CE: I believe 8.47 Verbal ct.
THE COURT: 8.47 of?
MR. W LL CE: I'm --
MR. G BER: This is Section 8.47 of the Bench Book on New York Evidence rticle 8 rules. I think it's incorporated as the rules, but I'm reading it off of the New York courts website. I think it is -- it comes from a line of Court of ppeals cases. I'm not sure if it's codified. I believe 8.47 is the citation here.
THE COURT: Okay. Thanks.
Is plaintiff willing to I think go along with Mr. Robert's view that it can be admitted only for the fact that this was sent -- and by the way, I think we learned in law school back decades ago there is a presumption that something mailed to someone, has been received by the recipient, I'm assuming that should be at least the same with e-mail. So anyway, plaintiff, are you willing to accept that as I just --
MR. W LL CE: I think it essentially does get us to the same place. I think it's fine.
THE COURT: I'll take that as a yes?
MR. W LL CE: s a yes.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2966

THE COURT: It's admitted in evidence over the hearsay objection and only for the purpose that the recipients David Orowitz and Ivanka Trump received this e-mail.
MR. ROBERT: That would be the same ruling for the previous e-mail as well which was the same objection?
THE COURT: I think that's correct.
MR. ROBERT: Thank you, sir.
THE COURT: Okay. Let's move on.
Q Mr. Orowitz, we saw earlier in Plaintiff's Exhibit 3243 that there was a question posed by Meridian Capital about the status of any discussions with DB. Do you generally recall that? I asked you about it in the beginning of the discussion.
I recall discussions with DB.
Q I want to hand you a document that's been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3111.
nd Mr. Orowitz, you see at the top of this e-mail is an e-mail from you to Marc Levine, David Goodman and some other folks at Deutsche Bank with llen Weisselberg copied?
Yes.
Q I'd like to direct your attention to the e-mail that is on the second page. It goes from the first page on to the second page from Marc Levine to Ivanka Trump and it reads: "Refers to an investment memo and projections for the Doral Golf Resort and Spa in Miami, Florida." Do you see that?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2967

Yes.
Q Do you have an understanding in the context of seeking financing for the Doral property what the phrase "investment memo" refers to?
Yes.
Q nd what's your understanding?
It's a presentation that gives key information to potential lenders to explain general terms around what the plan is for the development and what the financial projections are in order for them to evaluate it.
Q nd in the e-mail in the first page from Ms. Trump she writes that she's copied you on the e-mail and you'll be putting together all the information. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q I'll put that to the side for a moment and I'll hand you Plaintiff's Exhibit 3112.
Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize this document as a chain of e-mails involving you, llen Weisselberg and Ivanka Trump?
I don't remember this e-mail specifically.
Q But looking at it here today do you have any reason to doubt it's an e-mail chain involving you, llen Weisselberg and Ivanka Trump pertaining to the Doral transaction?
No.
MR. H REN: Move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3112.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2968

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3112 in evidence.)
Q The exhibit begins on page one with an e-mail from Marc Levine at Deutsche Bank to you. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd it reads: "David, received your e-mail last night regarding the due diligence checklist. I checked with the rest of the team and we are available after 10:30 after a call. Let me know what time works for you and we will send around a dial in for the call."
So you then forwarded that e-mail to llen Weisselberg and asked him if he could do 10:30 for the call; is that right?
Yes.
Q nd is it fair to say you were trying to ensure llen Weisselberg was available to join a call with you and Marc Levine from Deutsche Bank on or about this date?
Yes.
Q I'd like to show you another document, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3117.
Mr. Orowitz, just directing your attention to the first page of the exhibit. Do you recognize it to be a calendar invitation ?
Yes.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2969

Q nd the original appointment in the calendar invitation includes you and you forwarded it to llen Weisselberg; is that right?
Yes.
Q nd looking at the attendees in the original appointment, do you see that there are two names, Mason Parker and William Frauen. Mr. Parker is on the second line and Mr. Frauen is on the third line?
Yes.
Q nd the information beginning on page two of the exhibit is a diligence list pertaining to the Doral Golf Resort; is that right?
Yes.
MR. H REN: Your Honor, I move the Exhibit 3117 into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and the attachment is hearsay.
MR. H REN: nd I'm fine moving into evidence the calendar invitation. I have no need for the remainder of document.
THE COURT: Okay. Overruled on the statute of limitations grounds and it's in evidence just for the invitation.
MR. ROBERT: So then that will come off the exhibit and I guess the question of the witness to the attachment will be stricken since it's not in evidence?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2970

MR. H REN: Why don't we make it easier.
Q Mr. Orowitz, you were provided a copy of this diligence list in connection with the calendar invitation. Is that fair?
nd just so we don't have to generate another exhibit solely for the fact you were provided we could just admit it for that purpose.
That appears to be attached to the invitation.
THE COURT: Okay. That resolves that.
Q nd so if we could go back to Exhibit 3111.
t the top of the page we talked about this e-mail a minute ago, but this is the same day as that calendar invitation, November 18, 2011, and you wrote to Mr. Levine: "Marc, it was good speaking with you earlier today. Please find a link to a folder containing the due diligence materials that you requested." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Did you have a call with Mr. Levine from Deutsche Bank on or about November 18, 2011?
From this e-mail it appears so.
Q Was Mr. Weisselberg on the call?
I don't recall the call.
Q On the November 18, 2011 phone call did anyone from the bank, meaning Deutsche Bank, convey what interest rate the bank might seek for a commercial real estate loan regarding the Doral property?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2971

I don't recall the call.
Q Let's see if a document refreshes your recollection and I'll admit -- I'd ask to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3111.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Even if this refreshes the witness's recollection it will be hearsay what Deutsche Bank may have told him.
MR. H REN: I'm speaking about the e-mail where Mr. Orowitz wrote: "Marc, it was good speaking with you earlier today." I'm not talking about the content of any phone call at this point.
MR. ROBERT: I thought the question was I thought on the November 18, 2011 phone call did anyone from the bank, meaning Deutsche Bank, convey what interest rate the bank might seek for a commercial real estate loan regarding the Doral property so whatever they may have said to this witness is hearsay.
MR. H REN: I'm asking to admit the document that was the precursor to that question and I will have another document that may refresh him.
MR. ROBERT: But even if it refreshes his recollection as to what the bank says, it's still hearsay.
MR. H REN: The e-mail that Mr. Orowitz said when he wrote "Marc, it was good speaking with you earlier today," this is an e-mail that he wrote. The witness is sitting here, he testified --

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2972

MR. ROBERT: I think we're talking about two different things.
MR. H REN: That's right. We are talking about two different things. I haven't shown him the document that may or may not refresh his recollection. That's not what I move to admit. I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3111.
MR. ROBERT: So you're not going to ask him what the conversation was with Deutsche Bank? If you're not going to ask him what the conversation was I have no objection.
MR. H REN: This may --
MR. W LL CE: If we have to lay out how we're doing this we will also say that the defendants are receiving multiple offers from different banks and they choose a bank offer that has a different term. That is an appropriate use of them having learned of the other offers from the other banks.
So we're saying putting things in for notice, but it is notice because we want to show what the defendants understood when they were making decisions about which loan to select.
MR. ROBERT: nd, Your Honor, that proves my point. This is for the truth of the matter asserted. If they wanted to call people from these institutions, they very well could have in their case. They didn't. They're now trying to use hearsay documents and hearsay testimony to make up for the deficiency in their case.

MR. W LL CE: bsolutely not.

MR. ROBERT: I'm still speaking, Mr. Wallace. It is inappropriate.

MR. W LL CE: It is whether or not the defendants had notice of the other terms of what were being offered and then selected another loan.

THE COURT: Now, what the banks would actually have lent the money at these rates I think that's a question of fact.

MR. ROBERT: Then you need someone from the bank to testify; otherwise, it's completely irrelevant. If someone is saying here -- to allow this to come in now without the bank saying they would have done it is completely irrelevant I think because what someone didn't intend to do can't show reliance, can't show any of the elements they need to prove their case. So just because their bank may have sent an e-mail about something without the bank explaining what that's about, it's completely and utterly irrelevant.

They need it for the purpose of the bank made an offer at X and the defendants decided not to do it. They can't do that through hearsay.

MR. W LL CE: I don't know why we can't show that they got an offer and decided not to go with it through their own documents and witnesses.

MR. ROBERT: You have to bring in a witness who actually made the offer. I don't see these documents saying -- first of all, even if they said there was an offer you still need the person that made the offer. You're conflating notice with the substance of it. If you want to show they got an e-mail and there was words on the page of an e-mail, I can't fight you on that. But underlying substance of what the potential offer was and what their notice of that was that's hearsay.

MR. H REN: So I think we're arguing about an e-mail that's not even in front of us.

MR. ROBERT: It's not about the e-mail, Mr. Haren.

MR. H REN: If I can finish, please, Mr. Robert.

The e-mail that's in front of us is a statement from Mr. Orowitz who at the time was an employee of the Trump Organization that "it was good speaking with you earlier today" and in response to a series of other e-mails involving Mr. Orowitz and Ms. Trump who was also an employee of the Trump Organization at the time. That's all this e-mail is. That's what I move to admit. I don't understand the debate we're having here. It's not about this e-mail.

THE COURT: ll right. So objection overruled to the extent we're talking about what Mr. Haren just said.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2975

MR. H REN: So I'd like to bring up Plaintiff's Exhibit 3107, which is being shown to the witness solely for the purpose of refreshing his recollection if it does.

Q Mr. Orowitz, do you see on the screen an e-mail from William Frauen to Richard Byrne and Mason Parker?

Yes.

Q nd Richard -- just William Frauen and Mason Parker were both on the calendar invite we looked at a few minutes ago?

Yes.

Q The e-mail states:

"Had call with them this morning (not Ivanka or Donald was llen) and some other guy-David Orowitz I think."

Do you see that?

Yes.

Q nd it continues: "We told them" -- and this is in the fifth paragraph down, and I realize some of the wording in the e-mail is in shorthand. "We told them we are working two angles:) MTG plus mezz and B) whole loan to Levfin investors. They asked what whole loan costs, we said project development pricing is around ten PCT." Do you see that?

Yes.

Q Does that refresh your recollection as to any loan pricing conveyed by Deutsche Bank to you on the phone call of November 18, 2011?

No, it doesn't.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2976

Q nd directing your attention to information further down in this e-mail. It states: " lso suspect others" -- let me ask you a question before that.

Do you have a recollection of Mr. Weisselberg conveying any information regarding Mr. Trump's personal financial statement on the November 18, 2011 call?

I don't.

Q nd so if you take a look at Exhibit 3107 and you look down where it states -- this is in the second to last line -- "also suspect others may be thinking/exploring direct Donald GNTY or other asset pledge as llen again mentioned he sent you personal statement." Does that refresh your recollection as to whether Mr. Weisselberg conveyed any information about Mr. Trump's personal financial statement on that November 18, 2011 call?

It does not.

Q You can set that to the side.

Putting aside any particular phone call, were you generally aware whether Deutsche Bank offered an interest rate of approximately ten percent on a nonrecourse commercial real estate loan for the Doral property?

I don't remember that.

Q Do you have a general recollection of any difference between terms offered by the commercial real estate arm of Deutsche Bank and the private wealth arm of Deutsche Bank?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2977

Yes. I recall that the commercial real estate arm, the rates and other terms were less favorable.
Q nd what do you mean by "less favorable?"
I believe the rates were higher and I'm not certain, but I -- the proceeds I believe were lower.
MR. H REN: Let's go to Plaintiff's Exhibit 369. nd Mr. Orowitz, again, I'm going to show you this document solely for the purposes of determining whether it refreshes your recollection, and I'll direct your attention to you -- you can see beginning on page two there is a title "Doral Golf Resort and Spa Miami."
Yes.
Q nd on page four on the left side of the page there is a series of items proceed by hyphens, one of which states "$130 million term loan priced at L + 800 with a two percent LIBOR floor." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Does that refresh your recollection that the rate offered by Deutsche Bank's commercial real estate arm is approximately ten percent?
No, it does not.
Q Let's move to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3245.
Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize Plaintiff's Exhibit 3245 as an e-mail from you to Ivanka Trump and llen Weisselberg?
I don't remember it, but it appears to be an e-mail,

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2978

yes.
Q nd do you understand the subject "DB" to refer to Deutsche Bank?
Yes.
Q nd given the timing just five days after the November 18th documents we looked at -- do you understand that this refers to this -- this relates to Doral?
I would assume so.
Q The e-mail states: "I spoke to the DB guys this morning. They are focused on how they are going to present the project to other lenders, which I do not think bodes particularly well."
Do you have an understanding as to what you meant by "I do not think bodes particularly well?"
I'm not certain exactly what I meant at the time, but I could presume what it means.
Q What do you understand it to mean?
I think it means I had concerns that they didn't want to hold the loan on their balance sheet and that they were -- that that might indicate that they were less interested in the loan.
MR. H REN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3245.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. Its 'in evidence.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2979

Five-minute warning.
MR. H REN: Thank you, Your Honor.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3245 in evidence.)
Q Up on the screen will be Plaintiff's Exhibit 3226.
nd Mr. Orowitz, do you see in this exhibit a series of e-mails involving you Ivanka Trump and llen Weisselberg?
Yes.
Q nd do you understand that this e-mail chain involves the Doral property?
Yes.
Q nd beginning on page two there is an e-mail from Rosemary Vrablic at Deutsche Bank stating:
"Please find attached our summary of terms for the proposed acquisition of the Doral resort."
nd Ms. Trump's response: "It doesn't get any better than this." Do you see that?
THE COURT: There is no "any" in there.
Q "It doesn't get better than this," excuse me.
Yes.
Q nd Ms. Trump continues, "I am tempted not to negotiate this, though?"
Yes.
Q nd there are a series of other e-mails involving

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 2980

Ms. Trump and Jason Greenblatt.
Do you have an understanding as to who Jason Greenblatt was at the time of this e-mail?
Yes, he was the general counsel at Trump Organization.
MR. H REN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3226.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3226 in evidence.)
Q Let's move to another document, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3271. nd Mr. Orowitz, in Plaintiff's Exhibit 3271, there is a response from you to Ms. Trump's e-mail where she stated, "it doesn't get better than this?"
Yes.
Q nd you stated: "Some areas that could be problematic in the covenants" and under there you wrote "during reno and during reno and amo periods-guarantor shall maintain a minimum net worth of 3.0 billion excluding any value related to the guarantor's brand value." What does reno refer to in that line?
I think in the context of this loan there was a bifurcation of two time periods; one was while construction was going on and one was after and so I think renovation is reno and amo is probably amortization.

MR. H REN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3271.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3271 in evidence.)
Q Moving to another document, Plaintiff's Exhibit 332. Mr. Orowitz, you'll see Plaintiff's Exhibit 332 is an e-mail from Ivanka Trump to Rosemary Vrablic, Dominic Scalzi and copied are you and llen Weisselberg and the subject is "Doral term sheet." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd I just want to do a quick look through the document. If you could just flip through it and I'll just ask you one question about it.
So, looking at the e-mail and the attachment does this appear to be -- to be the Trump Organization's response to proposed terms from the private wealth group of Deutsche Bank?
Yes.
Q nd I'll just pull up on the screen an undisputed fact from the summary judgment proceeding number 472 that indicates that it's an admitted fact that Ivanka Trump sent a revised term sheet as indicated in this e-mail.

MR. H REN: nd that would be a perfect time for a break once that's up on the screen. We can do that after the break.
THE COURT: Looks complicated and long.
Okay, 15-minute break. See you all at that time.
(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)
Transcript continues on the following page....

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Be seated and come to order.
Witness entering.
(Witness resumes the stand.)
THE COURT: Let's continue.
Q Welcome back, Mr. Orowitz. I would like to turn your attention to the Chicago property and pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 3240.
Mr. Orowitz, do you see on the first page of the exhibit an e-mail from you to David Goodman and Jim Griffith at Deutsche Bank?
Yes.
Q nd the attachment -- well, one of the attachments is identified as a financing memo?
Yes.
Q Do you have an understanding of what a financing memo refers to in the context of this e-mail?
Yes, it was a document that was put together with basic information that a lender would need to understand a real estate deal.
Q You said "was put together." Is that something that was put together in the Trump Organization?
Yes, either -- in some cases, we do it or a broker would do it.
Q Broker, did you say?

Sometimes a broker would do it as well.
Q Thank you.
MR. H REN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3240.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and so the record is clear, is this one that was prepared by the Trump Organization or by a broker because the witness said sometimes it is one or the other.
Q Mr. Orowitz, can you describe the circumstances under which this financing memo was prepared?
This appears to have been put together by the Trump Organization.
Q Thank you.
THE COURT: So it is in. Objection overruled.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3240.)
Q nd directing your attention to page two -- not the page -- the page two of the exhibit where it says 2 of 22 at the bottom, there is a description in the middle of the page that reads -- excuse -- I'll just -- in the interest of time, we could just move on from the document.
Withdraw the question and move to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3239.
Mr. Orowitz, do you see in the first page of Plaintiff's Exhibit 3239, there is an e-mail from David Goodman at Deutsche Bank to you and Ivanka Trump?

Yes.
Q nd just to situate that in the timeline, the prior exhibit when you sent the financing memo was three days before this exhibit or this e-mail, right?
Yes.
Q nd the e-mail from Mr. Goodman states, " ttached, please find term sheets for hotel and condo financings."
Do you have an understanding of what Mr. Goodman was providing in this e-mail?
Yes.
Q Okay.
I believe he was providing two separate financing. One was for the hotel which was an asset that we were going to hold on to and the other was for the residential condominiums which we would sell off over time and paydown the loan.
Q nd could you just describe the nature of the Chicago property and how it relates to those two categories of financing you described?
Yeah. The Chicago tower had retail. It had residential condominium, so individual residences that were sold off to individual buyers and then it had a hotel and that hotel originally was hotel/condominium, so the hotel units would be sold off when we refinanced. t this point, the intention was to hold on to all the remaining hotel/condo units and operate them as a sponsor-held hotel along with the hotel/condo units that had been sold off.

Q nd beginning on page two of the exhibit, there's identified as up to 56 million in financing for the commercial condo component.
Yes.
Q nd on page four, there is an indication of the type of recourse provided for in this term sheet. It states, "The loan will be non-recourse to borrower with some exceptions."
Do you see that?
Yes.
Q On page six, there is an indication that the interest rate fees, et cetera, are outlined on Schedule ?
Yes.
Q nd on page ten, there is actually a Schedule that provides for pricing and various other terms?
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: The ground?
MR. ROBERT: He's reading from a document that's not in evidence and it wouldn't be able to come into evidence because it is hearsay.
MR. H REN: This is the same point as we dealt with with the prior term sheet. This is a term sheet received by Mr. Orowitz in the ordinary course of business seeking financing for the Chicago property. We're offering it for the same purposes as the earlier exhibits were offered and accepted.

MR. ROBERT: For the purpose that they received something, but all of the contents of it are inadmissible hearsay. Is that what you are saying?
MR. H REN: Could go to state of mind internally, inside the company to choose as a private wealth loan with a guaranty as opposed to a commercial real estate loan that is non-recourse, would tend to go to state of mind.
MR. ROBERT: Notwithstanding the fact that you would have to stay whose state of mind you are trying to attribute this to. It doesn't change the fact that the contents of this attachment from Deutsche Bank is inadmissible hearsay.
MR. H REN: I think we dealt with this in the prior exhibit. It is the same principle.
THE COURT: Same ruling, same principle. Overruled.
MR. ROBERT: I think it was sustained as to what our objection was subject to what Mr. --
THE COURT: Oh, well, let's try to be very precise. It is being introduced for what purpose?
MR. H REN: It is being introduced for two purposes; one to show notice of the terms received by the Trump Organization.

Page 2988

THE COURT: Well, that alone should do it. Doesn't it?
MR. ROBERT: Notice of purported -- notice of what's contained in the document, but not those were actually the terms offered by the bank.
MR. H REN: It goes to state of mind, as I said.
MR. ROBERT: That part I don't understand because it would be whose state of mind.
THE COURT: Right. Let's go to the second ground. Whose state of mind?
MR. H REN: Sure. Inside a company, companies work through people. There's imputed knowledge of an agent that gets imputed to the principal. If there is one set of terms that involves the submission of Statements of Financial Condition and those terms have a very low interest rate and there is another set of terms that are a much higher interest rate that are not private wealth loans that would tend to show a motive or a -- minimum a motive to use those statements.
THE COURT: In for both purposes or on both grounds.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3239.)
Q Then turning to page 15, there begins a summary of terms for unsold residential condominium units. Do you see that?

Yes.
Q On page 18, there is a description of recourse at the very top that says, "The loan will be non-recourse to borrower with certain exceptions"?
Yes.
Q nd on page 18 also -- excuse me. I may have the wrong page. t the very bottom of page 18 that provides loan interest rate fees, et cetera are outlined on schedule . Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd page 22 is the Schedule that pertains to this particular term sheet and it -- do you see that it provides an interest rate with a spread of 800 basis points?
Yes.
Q You can set that document aside. We will turn to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3242. Now, Mr. Orowitz, in the e-mail on the first page, do you see that there's an e-mail from Jason Greenblatt to David Goodman at Deutsche Bank on which you, Ivanka Trump and llen Weisselberg are copied?
Yes.
Q nd the e-mail from Mr. Greenblatt provides, " ttached, please find a revised draft of the proposed term sheet." Do you see that?
Yes.

Page 2990

Q nd since the subject of the e-mail refers to Chicago, do you have an understanding that the proposed term sheet relates to Chicago?
Yes.
MR. H REN: nd if we could turn to -- I guess I'll move to admit this document, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3242 as Mr. Greenblatt who was the -- withdrawn. I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3242 as the Trump Organization's response to a term sheet regarding the Chicago property.
MR. ROBERT: This one is just a statute of limitations defense. This is fine because this is us sending our work product to them, so it is not hearsay.
THE COURT: Okay. Understand. Overruled.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3242.)
Q If you can turn to page 17 of the document, please. Do you see at the very top, there's a reference to "Trump draft 6/19/12"?
Yes.
Q Do you have an understanding as to what that refers to?
Yes, this is -- this is a redline or a markup of a term sheet and that refers to a draft.
Q When it says, "Trump draft," that means it is a Trump Organization response, correct?
Yes.

Page 2991

Q nd if you could turn to page 29. Do you see that there is a Schedule that provides an interest rate?
Yes.
Q nd it provides, "The interest rate shall be calculated at rate lock (see below) by adding [392] basis points (the spread) to the yield on the ten-year on the run swap rate. However, in no event shall interest rate be less than 5.64 percent with that number in brackets?"
Yes.
MR. H REN: Since that's -- if we can move to the next document. Handing up to the witness Plaintiff's Exhibit 3235.
Q Mr. Orowitz, looking at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3235, you can see an e-mail from Jacob Turner at CSG Investments to Ivanka Trump followed by an e-mail from Ivanka Trump to you and llen Weisselberg on pril 18, 2012. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd the subject of the e-mail is "Trump Chicago investment memo"?
Yes.
Q nd could you just take a look at Mr. Turner's e-mail. I am going to ask you some questions about the e-mail that's at the top, but take a look at Mr. Turner's e-mail before I do that.

Page 2992

Q So I guess I'll walk you through it before I ask you questions about the e-mail that Ms. Trump sent to you.
On page three, there's an e-mail from Ivanka Trump to ndrew Beal. Is that the ndy Beal you referenced earlier?
Yes.
Q nd Ms. Trump writes in that e-mail to Mr. Beal, "My father had asked me to send you the Trump Chicago loan memo per your conversation yesterday. Sometime in the next few weeks, I was planning to go to market for senior financing on our iconic 92-story mixed-use skyscraper in Chicago Trump International Hotel and tower. This loan would be secured by both the unsold inventory of the condominium units and retail component as well as operating cash flow from the hotel commercial and parking facilities."
On page three of the document, Mr. Turner responds, "Ivanka, thanks for the Trump Chicago memorandum. I have reviewed the materials on a truly beautiful first-class property. We are passing on the loan opportunity based predominantly on the interest rates sought."
Yes.
Q It is a little bit difficult to read because of the small print, but on page two at the very bottom, Ms. Trump asked Mr. Turner the following question. "Out of curiosity and so I can better understand how you look," I think it says, "how you took at these type of loans, what type of pricing would you attach to the Chicago financing request"?

nd Mr. Turner responds in part on page one, bolded underline text short answer, "Our new loan originations generally start with a baseline of around L plus 500, with a LIBOR floor of two." nd Ms. Trump then forwarded that information to you and Mr. Weisselberg stating "some interesting feedback." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Do you have an understanding as to why Ms. Trump added llen Weisselberg to this e-mail chain and stated to you "some interesting feedback"?
I would presume she wanted to give him the benefit of understanding how this specific lender was looking at a loan like Trump Chicago.
MR. H REN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3235 into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3235.)
MR. H REN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 3236 is being handed up to the witness.
Q Mr. Orowitz, looking at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3236, you recognize that it is the same e-mail chain that we just looked at except for a different ending?

Page 2994

Yes.
Q nd following Mr. Turner's e-mail to Ms. Trump, Ms. Trump then e-mailed you directly and stated, "I think we made a mistake adding rate to our memo...." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q What did that indicate to you?
It indicates to me that she was questioning whether we should have included a rate because it does seem to have made them not dig in on potentially giving a loan.
MR. H REN: Move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3236.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3236.)
Q Now, Mr. Orowitz, let's talk about the Old Post Office project. You have a general recollection of working on that project during your time at the Trump Organization?
Yes.
MR. H REN: Handing up to the witness Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241.
Q Mr. Orowitz, Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241, you see that it is an e-mail from you to llen Weisselberg, Jason Greenblatt, Ivanka Trump and Ray Flores on September 3, 2013?
Yes.
Q The subject is " ll documents for OPO financing."

Page 2995

What did you understand that to refer to?
It appears to be me sharing two clean versions of the term sheet that we got from Natixis and DB and then a quick markup of like my initial thoughts on them and then a comparison that Ray did, Ray Flores did against some previous loans that the Trump Organization had done.
Q nd for what purpose were you sending this information to the recipients of the e-mail?
I believe it was to get my initial thoughts out to them as quickly as possible and get everyone thinking about how to proceed with a loan.
Q The e-mail states, "We are speaking to Iron Hound about DB and Natixis today at noon." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Can you explain what Iron Hound is and what its role was in this transaction?
Iron Hound is a broker and consultant that helps real estate owners attain financing.
Q nd what was its role in this transaction?
They were helping us to find potential lenders and negotiate with them.
Q So they were working on behalf of the Trump Organization?
Yes.
Q In item three on your list, you state that "One item attached was a comparison that Ray finalized last night of Natixis and DB versus our previous DB, Hypo and Fortress loans. Who is Ray as referred to there?

Raymond Flores.
Q What was Mr. Flores' role at the Trump Organization at the time?
He was a financial analyst and reported to me.
MR. H REN: nd I'm going to move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241.
MR. ROBERT: s to the cover e-mail, objection, statute of limitations. s to the attachments, there appears that there are more attachments listed on the cover e-mail than are attached to this exhibit. To the extent that they are documents prepared by anyone other than Trump, I object that it is hearsay; but it is not complete because the e-mail talks about a preliminary markup and a comparison and it looks like those are in the attachment, but it is not on what I was just handed.
MR. H REN: So as to any item, one term sheet from Natixis and DB, the Court has already ruled the various purposes for which term sheets could come in. Item two, Mr. Orowitz's preliminary markups, those are his markups. He was an employee of the organization.
MR. ROBERT: I'm not fighting you on two and three. They're not here, so it is not complete. I don't know what they are.

MR. H REN: One may be -- well, page seven of the document, there is a document withheld for privilege in the middle of the document. So why don't we do this? We can take a look at the term sheet from Natixis which is in the document, the term sheet from Deutsche Bank which is in the document, and we can take a look at the native Excel file that's the other attachment, and the defendants can advise if they continue to object to Mr. Flores' -- excuse me. Mr. Orowitz's markups of term sheets and we can move past that issue.
MR. ROBERT: I'm sorry. I didn't understand any of that. I'm sorry. Maybe I didn't hear it.
THE COURT: That was tough to follow.
MR. H REN: In the exhibit, there is a term sheet from Natixis. That's the first attachment beginning at page two.
MR. ROBERT: Goes from page two to page five?
MR. H REN: Page two to page five. Page seven, there is document withheld for privilege.
MR. ROBERT: Seven and eight. Got you.
MR. H REN: nd then following that, there is a term sheet from Deutsche Bank.
MR. ROBERT: Okay.
MR. H REN: That concludes on page 21. nd then page 22 is a document provided natively which our other discussions is likely an Excel file and you can see that the last attachment listed in the e-mail is an Excel file.

MR. ROBERT: So you're representing to me that item two in the e-mail was withheld for privilege? I can't tell.
MR. H REN: You would know better than I would the documents that are withheld for privilege based on the pages that are attached to the exhibit is my understanding.
MR. ROBERT: You are telling me this is the complete e-mail of attachments that was turned over to you?
MR. H REN: Except for the native file which is Excel.
MR. ROBERT: I keep my standard objection then.
THE COURT: Same ruling. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3641.)
MR. H REN: I'm informed that there may be -- since it says "document withheld for privilege" on page seven and page eight, that may be two different documents that are withheld for privilege.
THE COURT: Defendants, Mr. Robert, do you want to waive the privilege?
MR. ROBERT: I accept his representation and later we can clean it up.
THE COURT: Do you want to waive the privilege?

Page 2999

MR. ROBERT: bsolutely not.
Q I want to move to page two of the exhibit. Mr. Orowitz, you see there is a label at the top "Natixis" and it appears to be a term sheet from Natixis for a loan related to the Old Post Office?
Yes.
Q nd beginning on page nine, there appears to be a term sheet from Deutsche Bank related to the Old Post Office?
Yes.
MR. H REN: If we could pull up on the screen Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241 native one.
Q Mr. Orowitz, you recall in the e-mail there was a reference to a comparison that Mr. Flores prepared of potential terms for the Old Post Office transaction. You can see -- do you recognize this Excel spreadsheet on the screen to be that document?
Yes.
Q nd you can see in this document there are interest rate terms identified?
Yes.
Q nd so there's a spread from Natixis of 5.25 in the document. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q From Deutsche Bank, this is a spread identified at 4.25 percent?

Page 3000

Yes.
Q nd there is a comparison to a Fortress loan that had a spread of 11 percent?
Yes.
MR. H REN: I'm going to move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241 including the native file that Mr. Flores prepared.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations, but I thought it is already in based on the Court's ruling.
THE COURT: It was a different document, right? nyway, it is in either way.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3241.)
Q We are going to move to Plaintiff's Exhibit 513. Mr. Orowitz, Plaintiff's Exhibit 513, you mentioned that Iron Hound was working on the Trump Organization's behalf in connection with seeking financing for the Old Post Office transaction?
Yes.
Q nd you can see that this is an e-mail that is sent to Chris Herron at ironhoundmgt.com?
Yes.
Q Was he working on behalf of the Trump Organization at Iron Hound in connection with the Old Post Office?
Yes.
Q Beginning on page two, there is a document -- does the document appear to you to be a term sheet from Deutsche Bank for the Old Post Office project?

Yes.
Q nd just directing your attention to page 15 -- excuse me -- 14, do you see that there's a spread identified of 400 basis points?
Yes.
Q nd just turning your attention back to the e-mail, there are three attachments identified. There's "db_old postofficetermsheet.doc," "termsheet(v7versusborrowercommentstov4).doc" and "termsheet(v7versuslenderpriordraft(v4).doc."
MR. H REN: Just want to move to admit this document and the attachments as notice to Mr. Herron from Iron Hound who was working on the Trump Organization's behalf.
MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations and hearsay.
THE COURT: Overruled.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 513.)
MR. H REN: Moving to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3303.
Q So Mr. Orowitz, in Plaintiff's Exhibit 3303, you see an e-mail from Chris Herron at Iron Hound to you, Jason Greenblatt and others with the subject "OPO term sheet." Do you see that?

Page 3002

Yes.
Q nd the e-mail states, "There are certain points in that term sheet that DB specifically pointed out to us that they do not have room to move on (economics as we discussed) and others that were made without a detailed explanation that may require a direct conversation." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Now, there are three documents attached to this e-mail. "db_oldpostoffice-termsheet.doc" and "term sheet(v7versusborrowercommentstov4).doc" and "termsheet(v7versuslenderpriordraft(v4).doc."
The document is 78 pages long, so I don't want to take you through all of it, but I want to direct your attention to page 14 entitled "Economics" at the top left.
Do you see that this page also contains the same spread 400 basis points?
Yes.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3003

MR. H REN: I'm going to move to admit this document for the same purpose as the last document.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and hearsay.
THE COURT: Overruled.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3033 in evidence.)
MR. H REN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 322.
Q nd Mr. Orowitz, just directing you back to Exhibit 3303. I just want to note the date was November 5, 2013 on the prior exhibit.
MR. ROBERT: Can I ask Mr. Haren to speak up a little? I'm having difficulty hearing.
MR. H REN: Sure. Is that better?
THE COURT: Much.
MR. H REN: Sure. I indicated to the witness that the last document was November 5, 2013.
Q Exhibit 322 is an e-mail from you to Tom Sullivan at Deutsche Bank. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd you were e-mailing him a document entitled, "Old Post Office Offering Memo ugust 2013?"
Yes.
Q What do you understand that offering memo to be?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3004

This is a document explaining the general facts that a lender would want to know about a potential real estate investment in their interest in lending against it.
Q nd the attachment is identified as -- on the first page, it's page two of the document, "Trump International Hotel The Old Post Office Building Washington, D.C." and on the bottom left, it says, "Ironhound Management Company LLC?"
Yes.
Q nd so this document, was this the Trump Organization's offering memo in connection with seeking financing for the Old Post Office?
This was a memo that was put together. I'm not sure to what degree Ironhound was involved in that, but we were certainly involved in putting it together.
MR. H REN: I'm going to move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 322.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 322 in evidence.)
Q nd did you have an understanding that Mr. Sullivan was with the private wealth group at Deutsche Bank?
Yes.
Q nd so just on or about this time November 22nd, is that a -- that was essentially when the Trump Organization began to seek financing for the Old Post Office from the private wealth management group at Deutsche Bank?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3005

It appears to be from the same, yes.

MR. H REN: Just give me one second, Your Honor, to confer with colleagues.

THE COURT: Sure. I confer a lot too, you know.

(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

MR. H REN: So can we pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 327?

Q So Mr. Orowitz, this is an e-mail from Tom Sullivan to you and Ivanka Trump and others attaching a term sheet in connection with the Old Post Office property. Do you see that?

Yes.

Q nd so is this document and the attached term sheet, do they represent terms from the private wealth management group at Deutsche Bank?

Yes.

MR. H REN: I'll move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 327.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations, hearsay.

THE COURT: Overruled.

Q nd let's pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1286. I assure you, Mr. Orowitz, I will not be asking you about this entire document, but do you recognize it to be the request for proposals from the General Services dministration in connection with the Old Post Office property?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3006

Yes.

Q nd turning to page five of the document.

MR. H REN: I move to admit Exhibit 1286 as the RFP for the Old Post Office project.

MR. ROBERT: Objection, Your Honor. Statute of limitations, but this is a complete hearsay document. It's prepared by the government, a request for proposal for Old Post Office.

MR. H REN: It's going to be used to show the Trump Organization's responses not for the truth of any items contained.

MR. ROBERT: I still would object that it's impermissible to have it come in through this witness and it that it's hearsay.

THE COURT: I would think that it's -- the overall -- overall it's basically saying -- the government is saying we want to renovate the Old Post Office, here is what we want, send us your proposals. What about that is --

MR. ROBERT: nd they can call a witness from the government to do that. They're using a former employee of the company to admit documents without having to lay the proper foundation through either a representative of bank, insurance company or the federal government. There is a manner in which to properly present their case. Respectfully, this is not one of them.

MR. H REN: If a person had a business, receives a request for proposals, takes steps to respond to it, participates in the response to it, the request for proposals itself to come in to show what the witness and the business were responding to.

MR. ROBERT: I disagree with that.

THE COURT: I agree with it. Objection overruled.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1286 in evidence.)

MR. H REN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 1164?

Q Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize Plaintiff's Exhibit 1164 as the response of Trump Old Post Office LLC to the GS 's RFP regarding the Old Post Office property?

Yes.

Q nd I just want to direct your attention to page two of the document. There is a letter on page two, letter signed by Ivanka Trump. Do you see that?

Yes.

Q nd do you see that the letter describes the Trump Organization on the roles of Donald Trump, Jr., Eric Trump and Ivanka Trump within the company?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3008

Could you direct me to that?

Q Sorry. I withdraw it. I think I may have the wrong page, so I just withdraw that question.

Page 145 of the document refers to the developer's financial capacity and capability. Do you see that?

Yes.

Q nd then page 153 refers to financial statements.

Yes.

Q nd it reads: "Please find Trump's Statement of Financial Condition in an envelope submitted with each copy of this proposal." nd it continues at the next paragraph.

"Please note that Trump affiliates are all private companies. The attached Statement of Financial Condition was compiled under G P, but it should be noted that there are departures from G P that are described in the accountant's compilation report attached to the Statement of Financial Condition. Most personal financial statements contain G P exceptions. WeiserMazars LLP has compiled these financials." Do you see that?

Yes.

Q nd I'm going to note an undisputed fact from defendant's summary judgment papers, paragraph 143 where defendants stated: " s required by the GS , the 2008 to 2010 SOFCs were submitted as part of the bid and the ttorney General's office response was undisputed." That's number 143 of the defendant's 202 statement.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3009

MR. H REN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 1164.
MR. KISE: So, Your Honor, I don't know whether he did or not --
MR. H REN: I move to admit the Trump Organization's response to the GS RFP Exhibit 1164.
MR. KISE: So hearsay obviously, relevance, statute of limitations, and his reference to the 2008 to 2010 SOFCs, I don't even know those are at issue in the case, so I'm not sure -- there hasn't even been any allegation that there is a problem with the 2008 to 2010. That has never come in before, so I'm not exactly sure what that reference related to -- I'm sure it was undisputed in the summary judgment that they were submitted because yes, but that doesn't make it relevant to this trial proceeding and I don't see what any relevance of these RFPs is. I mean, this is way outside the statute of limitations. There is no claim that is presented with respect to the OPO award process. So is there?
MR. H REN: Couple of responses. It's certainly not hearsay. It's entitled "Proposal of Trump Old Post Office LLC."
THE COURT: Statement of a party.
MR. H REN: s to the other matters it relates to a course of conduct, use of the statements of financial condition and business agreed that the date of the RFP is outside the statute of limitations, but that doesn't mean it's not relevant for the Court to determine what, if any, equitable relief to award.

MR. KISE: But which statements of financial condition? This is the 2008 -- by his own statement, this is the 2008 to 2010 statements of financial condition which heretofore have never been mentioned in the course of this proceeding, so I'm not sure are we going to go back there? I know that we're -- there is no calendar or clock associated with any of this, so -- but that's a new -- 2008 to 2010 is certainly a new allegation.
MR. H REN: I would add there is an allegation in the complaint that refers generally to the Old Post Office, but the statement in the 202 statement is not our statement. It was a statement from the defendants describing the submission of these statements to the GS and that is what we did not dispute, so you put it in your 202 statement.
MR. KISE: gain , there is a big difference.
THE COURT: That's the banned word, but you can say it again.
MR. KISE: s I stated before, but just because we said that the 2008 to 2010 statements were submitted to the GS , okay, they were, but it has no relevance to these proceedings. That may be undisputed that they were in fact submitted, but there is no relevance to these proceedings because these statements have never been challenged. There is not a shred of evidence that has been introduced at trial or before about the 2008 to 2010 statements.

MR. H REN: I don't want to say this necessarily in front of the witness, but there will be other documents that come in in the next few minutes or very early tomorrow morning that describe the actions and responses of certain people in connection with this RFP and they will be relevant at a minimum for that purpose.
MR. KISE: But again, actions by others -- well, I'm saying again to Counsel not to you, Your Honor, actions by other people -- let me just see if I get this right.
In responses in connection with this RFP, but those would be actions based on 2008 to 2010 financial statements, not 2011 to 2021, which is what the case has always been about, at least I thought so.
MR. W LL CE: I'll just interject, and I apologize to Mr. Haren, but the thread here is there is a discussion of some of the G P exceptions in the statements of financial condition as part of the GS process that shows the knowledge of the company and its officers about -- around the G P exceptions that people are now claiming they are not familiar with. So that is the thread that pulls us through and that this is the process that eventually leads to the loan that is in very much indeed apart of this case.

THE COURT: Objection overruled. Pattern and practice to repeat myself or again bars claims not in evidence.
nd five-minute warning.
Overruled.
MR. H REN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 1288.
THE COURT: nd notice which is part of pattern and practice.
MR. KISE: Your Honor, just so I'm clear on the ruling.
THE COURT: Yes.
MR. KISE: Part pattern of practice of what, 2008 to 2010?
THE COURT: Of the Trump Organization.
MR. KISE: But there's not been any allegation that the 2008 to 2010 statements of financial condition have any issues associated with them.
THE COURT: Well, would there be?
MR. W LL CE: But there is and there is a discussion of the G P exceptions that carries through this entire period, including 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, all the way into the future and the G P exceptions that are contained within the Statement of Financial Condition are very much a question that is open to debate at this point and goes to the knowledge and intent of the individuals that were executives of the Trump Organization and the fact that we can establish before the statute of limitations period knowledge of certain individuals is certainly relevant evidence.

THE COURT: That you can certainly do.

MR. KISE: But, again, as to the 2008 to 2010 financial statement -- statements of financial condition that's the key distinction here. Whatever took place before 2011 wasn't ever part of the case. I mean, are we going -- I'm just -- I don't see the thread that Mr. Wallace -- with all due respect, I'm not exactly sure what he's talking about because those had never been challenged as having any issues. There was no testimony from Mr. Bender, there was no testimony from any witness about those.

Does the case now involve the defense of the 2008 to 2010 statements of financial condition?

THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, last word.

MR. W LL CE: I will just say that the complaints or summary judgment papers there has been a through line that there has been a discussion amongst the members of the Trump Organization about the G P exceptions in the statements of financial condition. The defendants have claimed very few people were even aware of these statements within the company. They don't know about the G P exceptions, so it's relevant to that.

I would also note from a timing perspective, this colloquy that we're having here is exactly what we're worried about when it's objection overruled. Let's talk about it for another ten minutes.

I think we've made our case as to why this will connect and we're entitled to put the evidence in and show that connection.

THE COURT: I try to strike a balance between not wasting time when I've made a ruling and explaining the ruling and allowing a record to be made and Counsel to say what he has to say. But we're basically done for today, anyway, so what time are we resuming tomorrow? Let me guess, 10 o'clock with this witness?

Objection overruled, by the way.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, can we have a sidebar?

THE COURT: Sure. We'll have a front bar.

nd I'll order the witness not to discuss this case or his testimony or anything related to that with anybody until you're finished testifying team.

THE WITNESS: Okay, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you.

(Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness stand.)

CONTINUED DIRECT EX MIN TION

BY MR. H REN:

Q Good morning, Mr. Orowitz. Welcome back. Sorry you're here for a second day.

THE COURT: nd I'll remind him, as I always do, the witness is under oath.

Q I'd like to go back to Plaintiff's Exhibit 1288, which we almost began to discuss yesterday.

Do you recognize this to be an e-mail from you to

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3019

Patricia Moore copying Ivanka Trump and others on December 14, 2011?

Yes.

Q Do you see that the subject says "meeting to discuss OPO presentation?"

Yes.

Q Do you have an understanding of the circumstances surrounding this e-mail?

My recollection is that we got I believe two rounds of questions from the GS based on our proposal and this was one of them and I was attempting to kind of organize people around our response.

Q nd you see that the e-mail that you sent contains three attachments?

Yes.

Q nd one is GS letter to Trump Organization 12132011.PDF?

Yes.

Q Do you understand what that refers to?

I believe it refers to one of those letters with some of their questions or requests for clarification.

Q nd the third attachment is entitled, "Outline for 12-19-1" -- excuse me -- "12-19-11 Presentation docx."

Do you have an understanding of what that refers to?

I'm not certain, but I think that that probably refers to a presentation that we did in person where we were presenting our proposal to constituents in the GS .

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3020

Q nd there is a notation in the e-mail that identifies it as one of high importance. Do you have a recollection as to why that designation is there?
We want -- we would have wanted -- this was important and we would have wanted to get organized quickly and make sure we had as thoughtful a response as we could.
MR. H REN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 1288 into evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: Where is Mr. Robert? He usually does that.
MR. KISE: I know. I've got to take over this morning.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1288 in evidence.)
Q nd directing your attention to page three of the exhibit. Do you recognize this as a letter from the General Services dministration to Ivanka Trump as executive vice president of acquisitions and development at the Trump Organization?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3021

Yes.
Q nd the letter states: "This is to confirm that your team is scheduled to make a presentation regarding the above-referenced solicitation on December 19, 2011 at 2:00 p.m.." Is that a reference to the in-person presentation that you mentioned earlier?
I believe it is.
Q nd then on page four this is the second page of the letter under "Factor 3." It states under the second bullet, "financial statements appear to have multiple G P departures, including but not limited to, not including separately held financials, no provision for income tax and the PV of the deposits not reflected." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Was that an issue identified by the GS during the process?
It appears to be from this letter, yes.
Q nd then on page four, same page, there is a bullet that reads -- it's the third bullet, "please provide a statement regarding any bankruptcy or loan defaults on real estate development projects as specified under Factor 3."
Was that also an issue identified by the GS during the bidding process?
Yes.
Q I want to direct your attention to page 15 of the document. Is the information on page 15 and what follows in a table format, is that the outline for presentation that you attached to your e-mail?

Yes.
Q nd the outline identifies under the heading "Oral Presentation" on page 15 that there would be an intro from Ivanka Trump?
Yes.
Q nd the third bullet reads "DJT speaks." What is that a reference to?
That refers to the portion of the presentation when President Trump was presenting.
Q nd on page 18 of the document next to factor 3B regarding financial statements it reads in part, "Dave to discuss with llen how we might address." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Was it your understanding that you will discuss the financial statement item under factor 3B with llen Weisselberg?
Yes.
Q How did you come to that understanding?
I have a slight recollection that this was generally an issue that we had to address in our response, so in reviewing this it sort of reminded me of that.
Q But how did you come to the understanding at the time that llen Weisselberg was the person you should speak to?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3023

Oh, llen is the CFO and was responsible for that side of the business.
MR. H REN: Let's pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1429.
Q Mr. Orowitz, the Plaintiff's Exhibit 1429, do you see that it's an e-mail from you to llen Weisselberg on December 16, 2011 pertaining to language in the G P section?
Yes.
Q Does the information in this e-mail pertain to the GS bidding process?
Yes.
MR. H REN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 1429 into evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1429 in evidence.)
Q nd in the subject line you wrote in all caps, "Important," and then you added "need to discuss now." Why would you write that?
I think we were on a deadline to get the response put together and I needed people to focus on their portions of that response.
Q nd in the first line of your e-mail reads: " llen, Ivanka wanted me to change the language in the G P section. She asked that I review with you."

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3024

Do you have a recollection apart from what's in this e-mail of being asked by Ivanka Trump to review language pertaining to G P with llen Weisselberg?

I don't remember that specifically.

Q nd, again, what is your understanding as to why llen Weisselberg was the person you were directed to consult with about the item referenced in this e-mail?

He was the CFO of the company and was familiar with how the accounting worked and how the net worth statement was put together, so he would be the best person to comment on our response.

Q So far as you understand would any G P-related change require llen Weisselberg's approval as it related to the responses of the GS ?

Yes.

MR. H REN: Let's move to Plaintiff's Exhibit 3273.

Q Mr. Orowitz, do you see Plaintiff's 3273 in the middle of the page includes an e-mail from Jeff McConney to Morgan Miles copying you with the subject "SOFC?"

Yes.

Q Who was Morgan Miles?

Morgan Miles was summer intern at the Trump Organization.

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3025

Q nd do you see at the bottom e-mail is from or includes, it says, "message from RNPFC 77-CE" and it states "queries to scanner@Trumporg.com?"

Yes.

Q Do you have an understanding as to whether this document was scanned or e-mailed?

I would assume that.

Q nd looking at the attachment beginning on page two do you see that it says at the top "Redevelopment of Old Post Office, Request For Proposals?"

Yes.

Q nd do you understand that the attachment reflects under the heading "Financial Statements" Mr. McConney's handwritten input into language describing Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition and G P departures?

I don't know whose handwriting this is.

Q But does the e-mail itself indicate that it came to you from Jeff McConney?

It indicates that it came from Jeff McConney, yes.

Q nd back to the e-mail at the very top, you wrote "please incorporate."

Yes.

Q What did you intend that to mean?

We had a larger presentation that this was apart of and my recollection is Morgan was putting that together or helping put that together and we needed to incorporate it into a larger presentation.

Q nd so you received handwritten comments pertaining to Mr. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition from Jeff McConney and then directed that they be incorporated?

Yes.

THE COURT: Wait. These are two different things obviously. re you saying yes to both? Incorporate the handwritten notes and incorporate the document into the presentation?

THE WITNESS: I was suggesting that with these changes in the handwritten notes, Your Honor, that that should be incorporated into the presentation.

Q nd the handwritten notes came to you from Jeff McConney?

I received them from Jeff McConney based on this e-mail, yes.

THE COURT: So there are two different incorporations. I just want to make that clear. Okay, I'll assume they agree.

MR. H REN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3273.

MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations and relevance.

THE COURT: Don't you wish your buddy was here?

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3027

MR. KISE: I do. He's making me work today.

THE COURT: Overruled. Granted.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3273 in evidence.)

MR. H REN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 1431 has been handed to the witness.

Q Mr. Orowitz, you'll see on the first page an e-mail from you to Ivanka Trump and others on December 17, 2011. I'll jut advise you that's a Saturday.

nd the subject of the e-mail is "handout for Monday." Do you have an understanding as to what that refers to?

I believe that this refers to a document that we were providing to the GS in tandem with our presentation.

Q nd do you have an understanding that the attachment is a copy of the document that was provided to the GS during the presentation?

Yes. This appears to be a version of it, if not the final version.

Q Let's take a look at page ten of the exhibit. You see at the top at the left it reads "Factor 3:" nd then "3B) financial statements appear to have multiple G P departures" and it goes on?

Yes.

Q nd it provides a response about three separate items

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3028

in bold, "separately held entities provisions for income tax and PV of the deposits?"
Yes.
Q nd those were the same G P departures that were highlighted in the letter from GS we looked at a few moments ago?
Yes, correct.
MR. H REN: I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 1431 into evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1431 in evidence.)
Q nd Mr. Orowitz, I'm going to switch to a different topic and hopefully have you out of here, depending on the defendants. This relates to the Doral property.
MR. H REN: Plaintiff's Exhibit 347 has been handed to the witness.
Q Mr. Orowitz, do you recognize this document as a series of e-mails between you and Dave Williams and Josh Frank from Deutsche Bank on or about March 18, 2016?
Yes.
Q The subject of these e-mails is "Doral/Turnberry."

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3029

Do you see that?
Yes.
Q Do you have an understanding of what that refers to in this time frame?
t that time we were in conversations with Deutsche Bank about upsizing our loan, so getting additional loan proceeds and I believe that's what this e-mail refers to.
MR. H REN: nd I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit 347 into evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection. Relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled.
Q Do you have an understanding as to how much in additional financing was being sought by the Trump Organization from Deutsche Bank in or about February or March of 2016?
I don't recall specifically.
Q Let's see if a document refreshes your recollection.
MR. H REN: This is Plaintiff's Exhibit 342 -- 352.
Q Mr. Orowitz, do you see at the top of the document there is an e-mail from Rosemary Vrablic to Ivanka Trump on February 11, 2016?
Yes.
Q nd do you see that in the e-mail Ms. Vrablic wrote to Ms. Trump, quote, "I spoke to the credit team on the" -- excuse me -- "$50 MM request and we are thrilled to consider it for you." Does that refresh your recollection that the Trump

D. Orowitz - Plaintiff - direct (Haren) Page 3030

Organization requested $50 million in financing from Deutsche Bank to upsize the Doral loan in or about February of 2016?
It refreshes my memory that it was around that number, but I don't remember specifically.
Q Thank you.
MR. H REN: I have no further questions for this witness.
THE COURT: Will there be any cross examination at this time?
MR. KISE: Not at this time, Your Honor, no.
THE COURT: Okay. Witness excused.
THE COURT OFFICER: Members of the audience, please remain seated.
(Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness stand.)
THE COURT: nd Plaintiff, would you like to call your next witness?
MR. W LL CE: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor. The People call Michiel McCarty.
MR. KISE: For the record, Your Honor, we renew our objection as stated on the record yesterday.
THE COURT: I understand that, and I overruled it.
THE COURT OFFICER: Court ready for the witness?
THE COURT: Yes.
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3031

(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)
THE COURT OFFICER: Raise your right hand.
Do you solemnly swear or affirm that any testimony you give will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?
THE WITNESS: I do.
THE COURT OFFICER: Please have a seat.
Please state your name and either home or business address for the record.
THE WITNESS: Michiel McCarty spelled M-i-c-h-i-e-l M-c-C-a-r-t-y. ddress is 44 N. Porchuck Road, Greenwich, Connecticut 06831.
THE COURT: Okay. Please proceed, Counselor.
MR. W LL CE: Thank you, Your Honor.
DIRECT EX MIN TION
BY MR. W LL CE:
Q Good morning, Mr. McCarty.
Good morning, Mr. Wallace.
Q So just so that all of us are reminded, I will ask you to speak closely into the microphone so that people can hear you and also remind you to speak slowly so that the court reporter can take down everything we are saying.
Mr. McCarty, where are you currently employed?
I am a chairman and CEO of an investment bank by the name of MM Dillon & Company.

Q nd what do you do in your role as CEO and chairman of MM Dillon?
I spend the majority of my time doing transactions for clients, corporate clients, mergers and acquisitions, financings, joint venture related.
Q nd what kind of transactions are you involved in?
I do debt transactions, convertible transactions, equity transactions, and assorted various mergers and acquisitions.
Q nd how long have you been working in the banking industry?
For a very long time, since 1975.
Q Could you describe for us your educational background prior to becoming a banker?
I have an undergraduate degree from Vanderbilt University in physics and honors and I have an MB in finance with a concentration in capital markets from the Wharton School.
Q So if we could just go through your employment experience after you obtained your MB .
What was the first position you took after you completed your education?
My first job out of Wharton was for Citibank here in New York working in their merchant banking group.
Q nd could you describe for us what kinds of transactions you worked on while you were at Citi?

The first one I worked on just showed up was the Penn Central bankruptcy which was the largest bankruptcy in the history of the country at that time and I was assigned to that group for the first nine months I was there. Penn Central was at that time the largest real estate owner in New York owning 24 trophy properties.
Q nd what were your responsibilities in that engagement?
I was put on the team because of my science in analytical background, so I was the valuation expert on the properties which the bank was trying to originate the sale of to recover their losses on Penn Central.
Q nd what were those properties?
Large number Pan m building, the New York Central building, the Commodore Hotel, the Barclay Hotel, the Waldorf storia and about eight office buildings along Park venue and Lexington venue, Madison venue.
Q nd after your time in Citi what was your next position?
I was recruited to join Dillon Read & Company, another investment bank.
Q nd what was your position at Dillon Read?
I had various jobs. I ultimately took control and responsibility for the financing of corporate clients, both equity and debt.

Q nd can you describe for us some of your experiences when you were at Dillon Read?
One of the most notable was I was the lead banker and Dillon Read was the lead manager underwriter of the privatization of Fannie Mae. Fannie Mae was the largest issuer of debt in the United States and the largest provider of mortgages. I believe it still is. I worked for about a year privatizing, setting it up and taking it public in the market.
Q nd after your time at Dillon Read what was your next position?
I was recruited to join SG Warburg, which is a London-based bank. I believe it's the largest bank outside the United States in a role running North and South merica for the SG Warburg operation.
Q nd what were some representative transactions from your time at SG Warburg?
One of the most interesting was the de-merger of Marriott Corporation. Marriott at the time I think was the third largest hotel operation in the United States.
We designed a system to divide Marriott into the hotel management company, Marriott and the real estate owning company post Marriott.
Q nd what was your role on that transactions?
I was the lead banker on that transaction.
Q Were there any changes in your employment during the course of your time at SG Warburg?

Moore I remember when she was appointed to the Management Committee and Commitment Committee overseeing all the assets in North and South merica.
Q nd what were your -- where were you employed after your time at SG Warburg?
I was involved in selling the SG Warburg to UBS. I stayed on the combined UBS Warburg for my contract period which is nine months and then left to go to a firm here in New York, Gleacher & Co.
Q nd what is Gleacher & Co?
It was an independent investment bank owned by the partners. We sold it to NatWest, a UK institutional bank and we ran it as Gleacher NatWest in North merica. We took over the NatWest operations here in North merica.
Q nd what were your responsibilities at Gleacher and NatWest?
I was running the financing side of the business. Eric Gleacher, who was the founder was running the MN side of the business.
Q When you say "financing side of the business," what does that entail?
The whole spectrum of financing going from bank debt to private placements to public debt and then all the spectrum of equity convertibles and straight equity.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3036

Q nd can you give us examples of any relevant transactions that you worked on during your time at Gleacher and NatWest?

Probably the most prominent client I had was T&T. I'd done a series of senior debt deals for them. I had actually opposed them in the takeover of NCR and they eventually hired me to take them and sell them to one of the other large telcos, ultimately SBC, Southwestern Bell Corp to form the new T&T.

Q nd where did you go after your time at Gleacher and NatWest?

I started up an investment banking group inside a trading firm in Connecticut called CRT Capital. The investment banking group ultimately became MM Dillon. We spun it off after the 2008 crash from CRT, which it had trading problems in the crash.

Q nd what was your position at that entity?

I was one of the managing partners of CRT Capital and we were part of them and ran investment banking and after the spin I became the chairman of the independent company MM Dillon.

Q nd can you describe for us some representative transactions you worked on during your time at CRT?

Maybe one of the more relevant ones is I began having occasional expert witness testimony cases and two of them that are relevant here. I took on for Credit Suisse, an expert witness testimony in the Lake Las Vegas case, a development outside Las Vegas involved about 2,800 homes and golf courses and hotels.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3037

THE COURT: Let me just ask this and/or direct the witness please speak up. You're borderline difficult to hear I think out there.

THE WITNESS: I apologize. I have some seasonal allergies that are clogging me up. I'll try to speak up, though.

THE COURT: Okay, great.

Q Was there any other experts experiences that you mentioned? There were some others, I believe?

I've taken about one a year. I got into the expert witness business very accidentally. I was asked to do for a client in Delaware, a takeover discussion dispute and so I take one or two major a year.

nother one that's relevant maybe is Duke Energy was a past client of mine, had its real estate subsidiary called Crescent Realty and they done it -- a sponsored spin off of Crescent Realty with Morgan Stanley asset management and put on about two and a half billion dollars of debt and ultimately went brought bankrupt. I was put in to testify about the asset of the loans and public debt.

Q So do you have a sense of what's the subtotal number of times you've appeared as an expert witness?

I've probably been hired as an expert witness a couple dozen times and I probably testified at trial maybe 14 or 15 times.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3038

Q cross those engagements was there a general subject matter of the issues you testified on?

Really a hundred percent of it was related to capital markets issues.

Transcript continues on the following page....

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. W LL CE) Page 3039

Q What kinds of capital market issues?

dequacy of equity and terms and condition of debt, structure of the debt, the knowledge of the participants who bought the debt, all related to things that people trade and issue in capital markets.

Q Did any of those cases involve credit decisions made by lenders?

lmost all of them.

Q Did any of those cases involve the pricing of debt?

lmost all of them.

Q Each of the cases where you appeared, were you always qualified to be an expert?

Yes, I was.

Q In any of the cases in which you testified, were you ever disqualified as an expert?

No, I wasn't.

Q I'd like to go back to some of the work you described apart from your expert experience.

Generally speaking, do you have experience with the underwriting of commercial real estate loans?

I have, yes.

Q What kind of experience do you have underwriting real estate commercial loans?

I sat in as a senior officer and approval of loans at NatWest and for my time at UBS as the approval of real estate-related loans.

Q nd what was your role in approving those loans?
I was the senior officer signing off.
Q nd how many other real estate transactions have you worked on since then?
It's not a specialty, but it is probably four or five.
Q Did any of the transactions, any of the commercial real estate transactions you worked on involve high net worth individuals as guarantors?
Yes, so I had a couple.
Q Can you give us those examples?
Yeah. The NatWest had a subsidiary called Coutts that handled the high net worth including the Queen and kind of transaction involving the Coutts client base which one of their high net worth individuals wanted to buy the Cunard Shipping Lines and related real estate assets.
Q ny other experience?
nother client of Coutts wanted to take and split up a public U.S. company that had a real estate subsidiary. Both of these were two and-a-half to three-billion-dollar transactions involving bank financing and equity from the high net worth individuals.
Q nd so who did you represent in those transactions that you just described?
Curiously enough, both parties because the subsidiary

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. W LL CE) Page 3041

Coutts was a reporting agent to me and the clients were investment banking clients, so I was the mediator between both parties.
Q Over the course of your career, was review of financial statements to make credit decisions something you did on a regular basis?
Pretty much everything I've done involves review of financial statements and analysis, be it mergers or equity financing, or debt financing. I might have completed, I don't know, 350, 400 transactions and I probably looked at twice as many. So pretty much every day I go to work, I analyze financial statements.
Q What kinds of financial statements, corporate, personal?
Corporate in the majority and the high-net worth individuals, it is individual statements.
Q nd is there a significant difference between corporate financial statements and individual financial statements?
Not really. I mean, it's still the same accounting principles. It is G P. So I don't really view them as highly different. Many of the family offices that we deal with are multi-billion-dollar enterprises.
Q nd are you familiar with the banking transactions at issue in this case?
I am.

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. W LL CE) Page 3042

Q nd is the analysis conducted by the lenders in this case similar to analysis that you had performed?
Yes.
Q re there any differences?
One difference I notice is I don't know that I've ever dealt with compilation statements, so many of the transactions are done without audited statements, but compilation was a new thing to me.
MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I move to qualify Mr. McCarty as an expert in banking and capital markets.
THE COURT: Would that include expertise about compilations?
MR. W LL CE: Not in the preparation of compilations, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Let's hear from the other side.
MR. KISE: Well, it also appears that it is not a valuation of compilation statements either, so that's yet an additional reason that we would object to this witness in addition to the reasons we put on the record yesterday. He has now just testified that he's never dealt with compilation. "I don't know that I've ever dealt with compilation statements."
The entire case centers around the valuation by the banks of compilation statements. So while this witness merely has experience in the banking and financing sector and specifically with underwriting loan transactions, it appears that he does not have the specific experience relevant for purposes -- for the purposes that we're here.

Q Mr. McCarty are you capable of reading and understanding and analyzing a compilation statement?
I am. They're not really significant differences to me. The private financial statements of high-net worth individuals many times are unaudited and the difference between the statements, I believe, is not material to my analysis.
THE COURT: I hereby grant the request to deem him as an expert, but, of course, I'll keep in mind his statement that he doesn't or hasn't dealt with compilation statements, but balance that against his statement that he thinks they're somewhat similar or very similar to what he does have great experience with.
MR. KISE: nd just briefly for the record, Your Honor, I think the answer to the question that Mr. Wallace posed still doesn't resolve the issue because he's basically saying in his own opinion there aren't significant differences, but if he hasn't dealt with them before, it is not possible for him to really know that. So he's just qualifying himself in that regard, but I understand the Court's ruling and our objection is noted.
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. W LL CE: s I understand, the issue is the Court will afford whatever weight based on Mr. McCarty's description of his experience and that will be included in your final analysis as to what weight to afford his testimony.

THE COURT: nd then the next time that you testify in a case like this, you can say you've dealt with compilation statements.

THE WITNESS: That's correct. I now have.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you, Your Honor.

Q Mr. McCarty, I'm going to hand you a document that's been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1780.

Mr. McCarty, do you recognize this document?

I do. It's my expert report.

Q nd when did you prepare this report?

I submitted it on May 26th. I worked on it for a couple of months before then.

Q Did you update any opinions contained in this report at some point?

I did two additional -- I did a rebuttal report and then a supplemental submission just recently.

Q I'm going to -- Mr. McCarty, I'm going to hand you a document that has been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 1786.

Mr. McCarty, do you recognize this document?

I do. That's my rebuttal report.

Q nd what are the subject matters that you cover in these two reports?

The matters are the same as I was retained to look at the economic impact of the false and misleading financial statements, if any.

Q nd how did you go about conducting that analysis?

I worked through the documents that were provided in production and I approached it the same way that I would in my transaction analysis. I broke down the business into analytical sections and did market research.

Q Mr. McCarty, I'm going to hand you a document that has been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3302.

Do you recognize this document?

I do. This is the supplemental disclosure document I filed recently.

Q If we turn to the last page of this document, can you tell me what is reflected on this page?

This is the updated lost interest calculation that I did in my original report modified in two manners.

Q Mr. McCarty, this is the subject matter I'd like to discuss with you today, this calculation that you prepared.

Could you tell us what was the assignment that led you to prepare this lost interest analysis?

MR. KISE: Your Honor, is this document in evidence?

MR. W LL CE: No.

THE COURT: No.

MR. KISE: Okay. So is this a demonstrative?

MR. W LL CE: I'm happy to mark it as Plaintiff's 4.

MR. KISE: If it is demonstrative, that's fine. If it is demonstrative, that's okay.

THE COURT: re you so moving?

MR. W LL CE: Sorry?

THE COURT: re you so moving?

MR. W LL CE: I am requesting to have this marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit Demonstrative 4.

MR. KISE: Just this page?

MR. W LL CE: Just this page.

THE COURT: nd just marked as an exhibit?

MR. W LL CE: Demonstrative exhibit, yes.

MR. KISE: Well, just this page again. Not the first one, two, three, pages.

MR. W LL CE: That's fine.

MR. KISE: Yes.

THE COURT: I hereby mark it as a demonstrative exhibit. What number are we going to give it?

MR. W LL CE: It's Plaintiff's Demonstrative 4 because I believe our numbering sequence so far.

THE COURT: Okay. It is now demonstrative Exhibit No. 4.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you, your Honor.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Demonstrative Exhibit 4.)

Q Mr. McCarty, going back to the question I asked, what was the assignment that led you to prepare this lost interest analysis?

The same as my retention, to try to get a handle on the economic impact of the financial statements that were, I guess, judged as mistaken or fraudulent.

Q t a high level, can you explain to us how you went about that assignment?

Yeah, I can. I might just say this is a modified version. The first version was in my last page of my report, expert report. This one has been modified to take into account the -- Your Honor's ruling on the statute of limitations and updated from the time from May to October. So it is the same analysis, same calculation. It is just modified for those two parts.

Q Okay. I'm going to hand you another document. This is not going into evidence. It is a copy of the summary judgment decision. It is NYSCEF Document No. 1531.

Mr. McCarty, if I could direct your attention to page 25 of this document, we'll pull it up on the screen. Footnote 21, this footnote states, "The subject loans made the banks lots of money; but the fraudulent SOFC's cost the banks lots of money. The less collateral for a loan, the riskier it is and a first principle of loan accounting is that as risk rises, so do interest rates. Thus, accurate SOFC's would have allowed the lenders to make even more money than they did."

Mr. McCarty, is the statement in this footnote consistent with your experience as a banker?

With a few word changes, it could have been said by me as the way I look at risk and interest rates.

Q nd so just so I understand at this point, your basis for saying that the Statements of Financial Condition that were used in the loans was misstated is coming from the judge's decision on summary judgment?

That's correct.

Q Prior to the judge's decision on summary judgment, what was your basis for reaching that conclusion?

nalysis of the financial statements myself on an independent basis.

Q nd any other sources that you relied upon in reaching that conclusion?

The credit reports of the Trump Organization.

Q Did you also rely on any other experts?

I did for the valuation side. I didn't have an assignment to do the valuation of the assets, so I took as assumed the two valuation experts and the accounting experts' input.

Q t this point, the summary judgment decision is the basis for finding the statements from this --

That's correct.

MR. KISE: That question got cut off. It just said, " t this point, the summary judgment decision is the basis for finding the statements from this" and then it went blank.

Q So at this point, the summary judgment decision is the basis for your conclusion that the financial statements were misstated?

That's correct.

MR. KISE: Just this portion?

MR. W LL CE: The entire decision.

MR. KISE: The entire decision, not this footnote?

MR. W LL CE: I'm going to ask him about this footnote, but he is saying -- the Court decided the statements were false, so that's the basis upon which he is going to discuss the opinions we're going to go through now. I don't know if I need to --

MR. KISE: I reassert my objection to foundation.

THE COURT: He can. Overruled.

Q So going back to this footnote, Mr. McCarty, why is it as risk rises, interest rates go up?

The risk and sometimes it is included credit risk is a representation of --

MR. KISE: Objection. Going back to the footnote, are you asking him in his experience why this happens or are you asking him to comment --

MR. W LL CE: Can I conduct my exam? He has already stated -- I'm sorry. ctually, I assume the objection was to the judge. I withdraw it.

MR. KISE: footnote in an opinion even by our learned judge is not a foundation for an expert to formulate an opinion as to the capital markets. If he's testifying -- if your question is is this his understanding of how it works based on his experience, that's one thing, but your question, I believe, was based on this footnote.

So if it is based on this footnote, I would say that's not a proper foundation because our judge may be an expert in many things, but I would respectfully suggest that he is not an expert in the capital markets. So if his experience bears this out, that's fine; but that wasn't your question.

MR. W LL CE: I'll go back to the prior question.

"Mr. McCarty, is the statement in the footnote consistent with your experience as a banker?"

" NSWER: With a few word changes, it could have been said by me as the way I look at risk and interest rates".

I believe that's a sufficient foundation to show that this is consistent.

MR. KISE: But then your subsequent question was not based on his experience. It was based on the footnote. So we just need to be clear here because as you know, we have a considerable disagreement as to the foundational and appropriate aspects of this witness testifying at all. So I just want to make sure the record is very, very clear here as to what he's testifying about.

THE COURT: I think the simplest way is just to ask the question again.

But I just want to ask the witness some day, will you tell me those few different word changes, so when I get another case like this, I'll know exactly how to state it.

THE WITNESS: Your words were better than mine.

THE COURT: Next question.

Q Mr. McCarty, do you have a view that as risk rises, interest rates go up?

It's really a basis of the capital markets. Risk, sometimes called credit risk, is a representation of the probability of default. We call it PD for short and so as PD goes up, you have to compensate for the potential for loss and to do that, you raise the interest rate.

THE COURT: nd you didn't learn that from me, right? You already knew that, right?

THE WITNESS: I did.

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. W LL CE) Page 3052

Q Mr. McCarty, is there a way to measure the differential you just described?
The differential in what? If you would just clarify for me.
Q s risk goes up, is there a way to measure the differential in a loan when there's differential in risk?
There is. There's reg agencies that exist. The banks all conform to the same, so you have a probability default very very low, nearly zero. It is a credit and if you have a probability of default that is five percent, that's a BB credit. nd there's gradations all along, so people trade based on those analysis of the statements and whether they have a high probability default or a low probability.
Q nd do those ratings apply to debt in all of its forms?
It does. Bonds, loans, notes, convertibles. It is the whole spectrum of debt.
Q nd did you conduct an analysis in this case of the risk differential from the various loans that are at issue here?
I did.
Q How did you perform that analysis?
I looked at the internal documents by Deutsche Bank of analyzing first the credit level of the guarantor versus the credit level of the collateral, the project itself without a guaranty.
Q If we could take a step back for just a moment.

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. W LL CE) Page 3053

What determines the interest rate that a bank will charge for a particular loan?
It varies. The first thing is the cost of their funds. Then they put on a cost of servicing those funds and then the most key element is the risk premium. In the case of , there's very little risk premium. I did T&T's last debt financing back before I was independent and they had a rate that was very similar to the U.S. Government rate, a risk-free rate. If there is a higher rate for premium, the interest rate goes up based on that premium.
Q nd just to unpack some of what you said, you said a cost of funds for the bank is one element in what the interest rate is charged. What is the cost of funds?
It varies by type of debt it is. If it's a personal guaranty where there's very little risk, or credit, the cost of funds is very low for the bank because they don't have to set aside much equity. The Basel II mandated that the bank set aside equity based on the rating of the particular loan. So if you have a rated loan, you set aside very little equity. That means your cost of providing the money and the funds to the loan is very low.
Q nd you said that the most important part was the risk premium. Could you explain what you mean by that?
The risk premium is really, again, your own interpretation of the credit risk of the enterprise you're lending to, the individual, or the project, or some other structure.

Q nd did you identify discussion of the risk premium on the loans in this case?
I did, independently and also with reviewing the Deutsche Bank material.
Q nd what conclusions did you reach?
Conclusion I reached that the loans with the guaranty, the three principal trophy ones, Doral, OPO and Chicago, were assigned a very low risk level an level or better, a strong and a risk premium of almost zero by PWM.
Q Were there any other risk analyses that you found in your review of the Deutsche Bank materials?
I did. In reading through the different credit memos, they did an independent analysis of the collateral which is short for the project-based credit availability and that one was a BB connoting that the probabilities independent without the guaranty held a relatively high risk.
BB is considered the first step of non-investment grade. If you go to BBB, it is investment grade. So they determined the projects were non-investment grade BB.
Q When you say the projects were determined to be non-investment grade BB, which projects were those?
The three I mentioned; Doral, OPO and Chicago.
Q nd was there a reason the bank determined those were

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. W LL CE) Page 3055

BB?
I think so. I mean, I know Doral. I've been there, played the Blue Monster a few times, and it was a project turnaround. It had been brought out of bankruptcy. MSR owned it, was selling it in bankruptcy. It needed a large amount of spending and a change in the image, so when you're doing a turnaround project like that, that's a risk item that a banker would look at and say that's a risky project. OPO was a startup. It was a conversion of a facility to a hotel for the first time. Startups carry their own risk premium.
Q nd did you identify any impacts in the difference between these risks?
Significant. The difference in the strong credit and BB credit is many basis points, so I'm going -- I'm sorry for using basis points. Basis points are ticks in a one percent, so 100 basis points is one percent. I'll try to use percents. It's -- it can be as much as seven or eight percent difference between the two different credit ratings.
Q nd what is reflected in that difference between the interest rates?
It is a difference in risk. gain, the probability default of the two. Historically, banks have been very willing to lend to high-net worth individuals at low rates because they get repaid so...
Q You described that there was -- I think you said there may be as much as an eight-percent difference. Here, did you conduct an analysis to determine the interest rate differential between the BB credit and the credit?

We did. We did several different analysis. We broke down the analysis that Deutsche Bank had done of the projects. We went out and looked at -- it is hard to find a direct comparable, so there is no direct comparable, but we saw things like ClubCorp which was a ten percent issuer, BB credit. We did a scan of all BB credits of similar size and they all centered around kind of nine, ten percent at that time, the time of the loans.

Q ny other confirmation that you were able to obtain as to your analysis of the interest rates?

fter we did the comparable analysis and market sweep, we then looked at documents that CRE had proposed to finance the project without a guaranty.

Q If we could go back to what I believe is now Plaintiff's Demonstrative 4, if I could direct your attention to the top row, which is Doral, could you tell me what is your understanding of the Doral project?

Doral project is a large resort in South Florida. It involves several golf courses and a spa facility and a large number of bungalows. The spin was estimated to be something like $200 million to rehab the facility, make it a viable, long-term project.

Q nd if we look at the top row, the line that says, "actual INT percent," what is reflected in that row?

We took that straight from the Trump statements. This is the actual interest rate paid in each of the years and the same is true of the loan amounts, that they're exactly the amounts that were outstanding for each of the years.

Q When you say "loan amount," you're referring to the row that says, "loan MT DJ"?

Yes.

Q Can you tell us what is reflected in the "low CRE INT percentage"?

We -- after we did the market analysis and determined that the BB credit was in a tight band, we then decided that the CRE proposals for each of the projects, since they knew more about the projects than the market would have, was probably the best representative, contemporaneous data for an interest rate for the projects without the guaranty.

Q nd if we look at the numbers, they're spread out in the row "CRE INT," it stays at ten percent from 2014 through 2022. Why does the rate stay the same?

We made a decision to keep it. The line above it is floating with LIBOR pricing. We decided in CRE to keep it straight for each of the projects as a conservative measure. We were concerned that with interest rates going up in '17, '18 and '19, that it would present too dramatic a number, so we decided to just flat rate it at the original rate.

Q nd just to make sure I'm understanding correctly, you said the line above is a floating rate. This is the numbers reflected in the row, "actual INT percentage rate." That's the row you're referring to?

That's correct. The loans were made as a premium to LIBOR and so as LIBOR went up, the interest paid went up and when LIBOR went down, interest payments go down.

Q nd so if we look at the bottom row under the Doral section, it says "interest delta." What is reflected in that row?

That's the difference between the first two rows and dollar amounts and so each year that's the calculation of the difference in if it's project financed versus guaranteed finance and that differential is totalled up for Doral on the far right, 72,908,308.

Q nd what is the basis for the G P in the interest rates you've identified here?

The basis is that the financial statements as provided wouldn't allow PWM along with conditions of the projects to have made the loans and that the true rate of risk premium was the CRE line. So the differential between the two was the -- my calculation lost interest due to the debt difference.

Q Do you have --

MR. KISE: Objection. Move to strike the answer the answer, assumes facts not in evidence, Your Honor.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3060

MR. W LL CE: What facts are --
MR. KISE: The real banks in the real world that actually evaluated the loan have not testified in this courtroom at trial that in fact they would not have approved the loans and at those levels. So this witness is assuming facts that are not in evidence at all. He's introducing new facts with that testimony -- that answer.
MR. W LL CE: I will make two points. One is an expert is allowed to rely upon hearsay and evidence that is not in the record. I will also note that the terms of the offers that were made by the -- that were made by Deutsche Bank were not disputed at summary judgments. We are entitled to disgorgement potentially coming out of the summary judgment decision and hence, it is part of the record as something that an expert is perfectly capable of considering.
MR. KISE: Your Honor, if the government is asking this witness to do the math between the two numbers and testify that that's the mathematical difference, that's fine, but that wasn't the question. That wasn't the answer that was given. The answer that was given is that Private Wealth Management would not have made this loan on these terms based on his analysis and there is no evidence from the real banks that operate in the real word that did their own real evaluation. That's what's in the record right now.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3061

MR. W LL CE: Based on fraudulent financial statements. This is the hurdle you guys can --
MR. KISE: Can I finish my objection, please?
THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, please don't interrupt.
MR. W LL CE: ll right.
MR. KISE: nd so the government as I say is perfectly capable of eliciting that testimony from the bank. It's their burden to do it. It's not my burden to undo it. It's their burden to do that. They were perfectly capable of doing that. They didn't because we all know from the record that isn't before the Court that the answer would not have been favorable to them. So that's why they didn't do it. So they now have a witness who is an expert and I don't quarrel with his qualifications in that regard, but he is assuming facts not in evidence which is clearly not appropriate under the case law that we cited. There is no record evidence. He's -- as the Ortiz case that we discussed, there are two eyewitnesss and this is an accident reconstructionist that's coming in.
I'll wait so you can read the note that Ms. Greenfield just handed you.
THE COURT: What do I want for dinner?
MR. KISE: Right. That was yesterday.
THE COURT: Well, we could ask the witness what facts he's assuming.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3062

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I actually don't think he is assuming any facts and the record does show there was an offer made. I think he is describing his knowledge and his assessment of whether the loans would have been made, but ultimately, we are asking him to measure the difference between a market rate without a statement of financial condition and the rate that they obtained with the statement of financial condition. This is not an element of a 6312 claim but it is to provide assistance to the Court in determining what was the potential profit that came from the fraudulent activity that we've already identified and established. So it is not an element of 6312. It is not speculation and it is based on the facts that are in the record at this point as to what -- how these loans are being priced by different groups. I think he has also said he compared this to the market rates, which I -- was going to actually be my next question.
So I think that this is a basis. If they want to suggest that it's not reliable, that he should rely on other information, that's perfectly fine. It seems like they have a very large binder for cross examination they can go through and they can make an argument on it as to what the appropriate measure of disgorgement might be, but at this point he's basing his opinions on facts that are in the record.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3063

THE COURT: Well, I think we need to ask him what facts, if any, he assumed. Then we decide whether they're in the record. s for whether experts are allowed to rely on hearsay, that's a subtle one. I don't think I've come across yet. Do you have any authority for that? Can you get authority for that?
MR. KISE: Your Honor, I'm not even suggesting it's relying on hearsay. What I'm saying is that the facts don't exist at all, that they haven't established that the gains are ill gotten in the first place because the bank itself has not provided that testimony.
Just because the statements may have contained falsities based on Your Honor's ruling, which you know we disagree with, but just because the statements may have contained inaccuracies, falsities, how you want to describe it does not mean that the bank in fact would have done something different. nd until that is established, the gains are not ill gotten because if the bank were to say that even knowing what I know today, yes, I would have likely made those loans and Your Honor knows we're going to hear testimony from that same bank that's going to say that Mr. Trump would have qualified for the private wealth management group anyway. So the idea that whether it's two and a half billion, whether it's one billion, whether it's 500 million. So the question is whether the bank who had the responsibility in the real world to make the credit determination to determine the probability of default as this expert has just testified to, made that decision and with the revised information would they have made the same decision? I don't know whether this witness would have made the same decision, but that's not what's at issue here. What's at issue here is whether the bank made the decision or would have made a different decision or would have actually priced the loans differently considering all of the factors. nd yes, we will get to a lot of other specific items in cross examination, but this is a fundamental question and this witness is assuming that the bank -- he's substituting his judgment. He's saying well, based on what I see I wouldn't have approved it, okay, that's great. But he doesn't get to make that call unless the bank says they wouldn't have approved it. Back to the Ortiz case and the other cases that we cited.

MR. W LL CE: I don't think it is our obligation to have a loan officer from Deutsche Bank sit here and listen to all the evidence that comes in at trial and then say yes, so let me go back and figure out what would have really happened if I had known all the lies that Donald Trump was telling me. That's not how this works. nd Mr. Kise is rehashing the same arguments we made yesterday when they made their motion to preclude Mr. McCarty's testimony. This is a measure of the benefit they obtained. That is perfectly reasonable, expert testimony.

We do not need to prove the counterfactual of we reconstruct every piece of his financial statements. We showed that he used fraudulent financial statements in business to obtain these loans.

The measure of the benefit is perfectly reasonable expert testimony. It is not something that we have to establish by going back to each of the loan officers who are making the decision at the time these loans were made.

MR. KISE: Of course it is, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Hold on. I'm arguing for you. I still want to know what he based his answer on.

MR. W LL CE: I'm happy to get that information, but we've now drifted into a legal argument over essentially the same issues we were discussing yesterday. I'm happy to continue with the exam and ask Mr. McCarty to repeat what he based his decision on what the CRE INT percentage.

THE COURT: It's not even a legal argument. It's more of a mathematical argument. nyway, why don't you given Mr. Kise's objection, which I'll sustain without prejudice to further examination --

MR. W LL CE: I'm sorry, what's been sustained?

THE COURT: His objection at this point on the ground that I don't know what he was relying on.

MR. W LL CE: I believe he's testified to it, but I'll ask you -- I'll cover it again, Your Honor.

Q Mr. McCarty, how did you calculate the CRE INT number?

I took the loan proposal from Deutsche Bank which was LIBOR + 8 and with a floor of LIBOR 2, so at ten percent rate proposed in their term sheet and I used that number.

Q nd do you have a view -- any other information you considered in reaching your conclusion as to what that interest rate was?

I might have just to complete for the whole spreadsheet. The term is the actual term of the loan. I used the same term of the loan, the loan amounts of the actual loan amounts and the differential is just the difference in the actual interest paid and the interest proposed by CRE, which I validated in the market comparison as a market rate. So you could put market rate there instead of CRE the same way.

Q So if I'm understanding correctly, then the actual INT reflects the rate that Mr. Trump was able to obtain using his financial statement?

That's actually off their statements.

Q Okay. nd the CRE INT is just the interest rate that he was -- that one would obtain without using a personal guaranty. Is that a correct analysis?

From Deutsche Bank invalidated in the market, yes.

THE COURT: So objection now overruled subject to cross examination. He said where he got the numbers.

MR. KISE: Right. I just want to be clear that he's testifying as to the mathematics, not to the ill gotten nature of the gain. He's just testifying these are the differences and the numbers.

MR. W LL CE: He is testifying as to what he is testifying to. There is someone here writing it all down. If we have a legal dispute as to whether that is an appropriate measure of disgorgement, that's our closing arguments or post-trial briefing, but the evidence of the work he did is the evidence of the work he did.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, you're asking -- you want to be clear what he testified to. The record will show what he testified to.

MR. KISE: But he's testifying to mathematics. That's acceptable. He can put up numbers on the board and testify to them, but our objection goes right to the point he can't substitute his judgment which is what the one question that we talked about that where this whole colloquy began. The one question is the loans -- they're not ill gotten gains if the bank doesn't testify that they would have done -- they would have not done anything differently if the bank would have acted the same under the circumstances. Then the gains are not ill gotten.

s long as this witness is not testifying that the gains were not ill gotten, that this is -- if he's just testifying these are math numbers and there was one number that was the actual and there is one number that was the CRE, then that's fine. But I don't believe that that's where this is going and I don't believe that's what this witness is testifying to.

MR. W LL CE: Well, I believe the witness has said he is relying upon the Court's determination and summary judgment. I will say that if this is, again, legal argument as to whether this is an appropriate measure of damages. nd so I would like to continue to put in this evidence and we can continue our disagreements as to whether or not this establishes an improper benefit to Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization, but that the testimony is the testimony.

THE COURT: Yes, objection overruled. Let's move on.

MR. KISE: Okay.

Q Mr. McCarty, I'd like to move on to the next row, the OPO loan. Can you tell us what's your understanding of the OPO project?

OPO project was the Old Post Office in Washington, D.C.. That was put out for bid for converting it to a hotel. Series of bidders put forward proposals and the Trump Organization ultimately won the right to convert and hold the lease.

Q Okay. nd so in this analysis what does the row "actual INT percentage" reflect?

It's the same. This is off the June statements of Trump Organization actual interest paid.

Q Okay. nd the row marked "CRE INT," how did you determine the CRE INT for this loan?

Unlike Doral and Chicago, which are very forward and similar, we had an issue with OPO because the proposal from Deutsche Bank included what we wonderfully call in my business bells and whistles which is intended to be a representation of other terms and conditions that have economic effect that aren't in the interest rate.

Q nd what were some of the bells and whistles you had to consider?

The first one, the major one was it was for a smaller amount than the proposal, the actual proposal by $30 million. So it required -- the Trump Organization would have required the Trump Organization to put up $30 million more equity into the project to complete it.

Q nd what impact did the fact that the Trump Organization had to put in an additional $30 million of equity, what effect did that have on your analysis?

Well, some people don't realize it, but equity has a cost and the cost of equity can be determined and it's actually more expensive than debt. So we took a shot at cost to capital for the equity and adjusted the interest rate for that additional required equity.

Q nd how did you do that?

We took a cost to capital for project finance real estate-related average which is like 12 percent. So we took 12 percent on the 30 million to come back to an add on to get to a comparable rate.

Q ny other bells and whistles that you had to consider?

This had a series of -- this was the only one that we found that was a proposed syndicated loan and syndicated loans have fees attached to them, one percent up front and three percent on syndication. So this had four percent fees that were not included in the other transactions.

Q nd just to make sure the record is clear what does it mean to syndicate a loan?

One bank originates it. They get an origination fee. They go out to distribute it to other banks. They have an agreement with the borrower they're allowed to sell the loans to other banks.

Q ny other bells and whistles that you had to consider?

There are -- this is cash sweeps and low yield categories that basically restricted the ability to take cash out of the business and we had to take account of the differential.

Q nd could you just describe for us what is a cash sweep?

This is basically a lockbox. I think people might know that better where all the cash that comes into the organization, goes to a lockbox and is only released by the bank when and if the other obligations have been satisfied.

Q nd so taking all those factors into account, what did you determine about the CRE interest rate?

On a comparable basis it was eight percent we believe.

Q nd were you able to determine whether or not that was a market rate?

We did. We went out and did a similar comparable run through for -- again, there is nothing directly comparable to OPO, but we believe that in kind of the center of the comparable group.

Q nd so just so I'm understanding, once again, the actual interest rate row shows the loan that Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization were able to obtain using personal guaranty and the financial statement; is that correct?

That's correct.

Q nd so then the CRE interest rate percentage row shows your assessment of what the market rate would be for a loan with no personal guaranty whatsoever?

That's correct.

Q Once again, you used a fixed rate throughout the term?

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3072

We did. We ran it with a floating rate, but it was significantly higher, so we decided to be conservative and keep it flat.

Q I think you described this when you were talking about the Doral loan as well that is because there was variation in the LIBOR rate during the term of this loan; is that correct?

That's correct. nd it would have been a significantly higher, several points higher for several of the years.

Q nd so what was the total interest differential on the OPO property?

Well, using the same loan amounts as from their books. We came up with an interest differential lost interest of 53,423,209.

Q Okay.

MR. KISE: Same objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Same ruling.

I just want to point out one other thing which goes back to our earlier discussions. I believe you said your only objection or your main objection was to any reading into what he said that these gains are ill gotten. I decided they were ill gotten. He's not deciding that. He's deciding the number.

MR. KISE: Yes, Your Honor, but the only basis for an expert to testify is in this circumstance as we went over yesterday, I'm not going to belabor it, but is where the record provides an opening for that if there is no record evidence that the gains were ill gotten, meaning the bank itself in the real world with their real analysis does not say that they would have in fact done something different, then none of this comes in at all because it's like the accident reconstructionist being brought in in the case that I cited where there is two eyewitnesss to the accident.

The expert simply cannot contradict the record evidence. The expert can opine on the record evidence, but he or she cannot contradict the record evidence.

THE COURT: Overruled. nd five-minute warning.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you, Your Honor.

Q Mr. McCarty, just to move on to the next row. It states "Chicago." Can you tell me what is your understanding of what the Chicago loan is?

There are actually two loans in Chicago, an and a B and we actually didn't do the because it was retired early, so we only did the B loan.

Q nd what was the B loan that you analyzed?

This is related to a hotel condominium complex in Chicago that Deutsche Bank had lent to previously.

Q Okay. nd how did you calculate the -- let me just backup. Was your analysis for the Chicago loan similar to the analysis you conducted for the other loans?

Yes. It's just exactly like Doral.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3074

Q nd so how did you calculate the CRE interest rate for the Chicago loan?

The CRE was from the term sheet that Deutsche Bank CRE provided to them. It had several iterations. I saw a redline version of it, so I think it had been interactively provided and so that was the rate. gain, we did it flat. This was the LIBOR plus the stated premium that CRE offered on a non-guaranteed basis.

Q Okay. nd in the far right, what was your calculation as to the total interest benefit on the Chicago property?

It was 17,443,359.

MR. KISE: Same objection. Interest benefit.

THE COURT: Same ruling. Overruled.

Q Mr. McCarty, do you recall being deposed by the defendant in this case?

I do.

Q Do you recall the defendants asking you about a default rate on these three loans?

I do.

Q Did you consider as part of your work whether the default rate was an appropriate means to establish lost interest?

I did.

Q nd what did you -- what conclusion did you reach?

MR. KISE: Objection, Your Honor. gain, now he's going outside even the documents. I mean, the document the contract, the agreement between the parties specifies a default rate. That was agreed to between these sophisticated parties. It was negotiated carefully. There is no basis in this record for an expert to come in and testify that that default rate wouldn't otherwise apply. It's just not -- there is no foundation at all for that. That's -- that's beyond absurd to have a witness testify directly contrary to the agreement of the parties.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3075

The parties' agreement forms the foundation of the relationship and it was up to the bank to exercise its rights if it felt there was a default or if it didn't think there was a default or if it didn't think there was a default that it cared about because we're talking about performing loans, then they would have done nothing, but there is no foundation for this witness to substitute his judgment for what's actually in the documents.

THE COURT: You said there was an agreement as to the default rate?

MR. KISE: There is a -- there is a --

THE COURT: That was a yes or no.

MR. KISE: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. Was there an agreement that it had to be applied?

MR. KISE: No. It was up to the bank's discretion.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3076

MR. W LL CE: nd, Your Honor, I'm just going to remind you the rules around disgorgement provide that it should be an approximation of what the benefit was. I'm just asking him now if his view is whether the default rate represented an appropriate way to establish lost interest. I think we have an objection.

THE COURT: Overruled.

MR. KISE: There are -- Your Honor, they're asking this witness to substitute its judgment for what was negotiated between the parties. That's completely improper. There is absolutely no basis for that.

THE COURT: re you -- Mr. Wallace, are you doing what you're being accused of?

MR. KISE: It's exactly what he's doing.

THE COURT: re you violating an agreement between the parties?

MR. W LL CE: I just want to make sure I have the question proper.

No.

MR. KISE: He's disregarding it. That's the record evidence. There is an agreement between the parties and he's asking this witness if that's an appropriate measure the parties negotiated that as the appropriate measure. You can't just throw that out by some expert.

MR. W LL CE: Mr. McCarty has his opinion as to whether it's -- he's presenting that to Your Honor. Mr. Kise has his arguments as to why it's not an appropriate measure and it's ultimately a decision for the Court to make. I don't think that's an actual objection to this evidence coming in now.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3077

THE COURT: Objection.

MR. KISE: There is an objection.

THE COURT: ll right. Overruled.

MR. W LL CE: I'll try to get this in the 30 seconds I have.

Q Mr. McCarty, did you make a consideration as to whether the default rate was an appropriate means to establish lost interest?

I've negotiated many dozens of loan documents that include default rates. Default rates are a penalty rate that is used to force compliance of covenants. It is not a measure of ill gotten gains or anything else. It's purely a penalty rate. It's usually standard four percent lately and I didn't consider it something that would be viable for the measurement I was trying to do.

Q Did you analyze --

MR. KISE: Objection. Move to strike. ssumes facts not in evidence.

THE COURT: Overruled. nd to borrow a phrase or two from Mr. Wallace, he's just giving his opinion. He can give an opinion even though you've agreed to something else. He's just saying he didn't consider it. He didn't say he's considered it at another number but for a different reason. He said he didn't consider it.

M. McCarty - Plaintiff - direct (Wallace) Page 3078

MR. KISE: It's not appropriate to even introduce into the record and it's not appropriate for the Court to consider it that it contravenes the evidence in the record if there is no foundation for it.

Q Did you actually conduct an analysis of what the differential would have been if you'd used the penalty rate?

I did.

Q nd what --

MR. KISE: Objection.

Q What knowledge did you come to?

It's a number that's larger than this.

Q So it's larger than the numbers that we have on the differential in the loans here?

The total number, yes.

THE COURT: You see, he's giving you a break.

MR. W LL CE: I think speaking of breaks, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I wish I had thought of that.

ll right. Let's say we'll call it a ten-minute break over the next 17 minutes, so I'll see you all at quarter to 12.

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. W LL CE) Page 3080

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Be seated and come to order.
THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, how much longer?
MR. W LL CE: For my direct, I would say five to ten minutes at most.
THE COURT: Good.
Do you have any idea how long the cross-examination will be if he has five to ten minutes?
MR. KISE: I would say probably three hours, could be two. We are going to have -- we're going to have the lunch break in between. That will help us review.
THE COURT: Depends on what we eat.
MR. KISE: Right.
THE WITNESS: Witness entering.
THE COURT: Let's go.
Q It is still morning, Mr. McCarty.
MR. W LL CE: If we could put Plaintiff's Demonstrative 4 back up on the screen, please.
Q Mr. McCarty, just looking to clarify one thing about your calculations on Doral and Chicago.
Under the year 2014, does that represent the full year calculation of interest or some other time period?
No. I probably should footnote that. s I started to say in the beginning, we modified this for the judge's ruling of July 13, 2014 as a no-look-back date, so that includes only

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. W LL CE) Page 3081

July 14th forward.
Q Thank you. If we go down to the bottom row, 40 Wall. First, can you give me your understanding of this loan transaction?
This was a re-financing of a Capital One mortgage that was done through Ladder Capital and for the 40 Wall Street building downtown Manhattan.
Q nd how did you calculate the lost interest for this loan?
gain, starting off, we took the actual interest off the books. This was a fixed rate loan and for the second one, we took -- the first one is Ladder Capital, not Deutsche Bank. There's a difference here. That's Ladder Capital's actual interest paid and the second line is an assumption we made that with the financial statements being determined to be false and misleading, they wouldn't have been able to get the Ladder Capital loan done and that they extended their existing facility with Capital One for the period.
MR. KISE: Same objection. Move to strike, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Overruled.
Q Now, the loan to -- from -- for 40 Wall Street, that was not a guaranteed loan, correct?
There was usage of the financial statements material in the offering material by Ladder Capital, so that's why we viewed it as something that would be impinged.

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. SU REZ) Page 3082

Q Were there any other transactions that you were asked to look at?
We were asked to look at the Bryn Mawr loan, which was a smaller loan, and we determined that it really wasn't material to the discussion, so we didn't put it in the calculation.
Q nd when you say "material," how did you interpret that to mean?
It was less than a million dollars of impact.
Q Can I ask you the numbers reflected in your table, do they reflect compound interest or simple interest?
It's simple interest. There's no time value of money to these at all.
Q nd in your work compiling these numbers, did you consider any prejudgment interest in reaching these calculations?
No, we did not.
MR. W LL CE: Nothing further, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. Let's start the cross-examination.
CROSS-EX MIN TION
BY MR. SU REZ:
Q Good morning, Mr. McCarty.
Good morning, sir.
MR. SU REZ: Is this on?

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. SU REZ) Page 3083

THE COURT: No. There we go.
MR. SU REZ: Now can you hear me?
THE COURT: I can.
MR. SU REZ: There we go.
Q Good morning, Mr. McCarty.
Banks historically have been willing to lend to high-net worth individuals because they get repaid. That's what you said on your direct, correct?
That's correct.
Q nd that's exactly what happened here, isn't it?
I believe everybody got repaid, yes.
Q Okay. The Deutsche Bank loans, OPO Chicago and Doral, they were loans that were made to borrowers guaranteed by a high-net worth individual and they got repaid, right?
Yes.
THE COURT: I'll give you some leeway, but this has been admitted, conceded, stipulated, et cetera, et cetera, so let's not spend a lot of time.
MR. SU REZ: The key difference here, Your Honor, is that he testified on his direct that banks have historically been willing to lend to high-net worth individuals because they get repaid.
THE COURT: Go ahead.
Q That's correct?
That's correct.

Q nd that specifically happens in the private wealth management environment, correct?
That's where most high-net worth individual loans are made, yes.
Q nd you've never worked in a private wealth group of a bank, correct?
I've worked in the banks that have private wealth, but I've never been an officer in a private wealth management group.
Q So long story short, you've never worked in the private wealth management group of a bank, right?
No, not in the group.
Q You've never worked at Deutsche Bank, correct?
No.
Q You've never worked at Ladder Capital, right?
No.
Q Before you got involved in this case, you had never read the Deutsche Bank credit policies, correct?
That one, I may have. I've done several transactions with Deutsche Bank and I believe I've probably seen it one time or another.
Q Had you reviewed the Deutsche Bank private wealth group policies?
No. gain, I was a customer of private wealth management for a dozen or so years, so I might have seen it as part of my interaction as a customer.

Q Your testimony is that as a customer of the private wealth group, you reviewed their private wealth management lending policies?
I was good friends with Tom Bowers who ran that group and set it up, so Tom Bowers, so I might have seen it. I don't recall it today.
Q But you certainly have no expertise in them, correct?
Clarify for me what expertise you're looking for.
Q Were you a specialist in the Deutsche Bank private wealth lending policies?
No.
Q Were you a specialist in the Deutsche Bank credit policies?
s they consider consistent with Basel II, I'm familiar with their policies, yes.
Q But you're not familiar prior to becoming involved with this case specifically with the Deutsche Bank credit policies, right?
With Deutsche Bank specifically, no.
Q Okay. nd the same is true for Ladder Capital, correct?
Correct.
Q The New York ttorney General, I believe, is paying you $950 an hour for your work on this case, correct?
That's my standard rate, yes.

Q s of your deposition, the People of the State of New York has paid you approximately $300,000, correct?
That's about right.
Q How much more have you been paid since your deposition?
Well, I haven't been paid any more than that. I may have billed some.
Q How much have you billed since your deposition?
I don't really recall, but it might be 40 or $50,000.
Q So in total, you've been paid to bill the ttorney General People of the State of New York over $750,000 for your testimony today, correct?
The math -- 300,000 plus 40 or 50.
Q I heard 450. I'm sorry.
40 or 50.
Q I'm having a hard time hearing.
Sorry about that. I'll get closer to the mic.
Q pproximately $400,000 for your work in this case?
little less than that, but yes.
Q How much more do you expect to charge the People of the State of New York for your work in this case?
Other than for my testimony today, I don't anticipate any more.
Q Since your deposition, have you read any additional materials?
Not that I can recall.

Q nd have you reviewed any of the trial testimony in this case?
I haven't seen any of the daily transcripts, no.
Q I notice you were here for the first day of Mr. Haigh's testimony; is that correct?
Partial day. I think I had the morning.
Q You didn't see the entirety of the Mr. Haigh's testimony; is that correct?
No.
THE COURT: That's another example of a question asked in the negative. The response is ambiguous. "You didn't do it, did you, no." That could mean "No, I didn't do it or "No, you're wrong. I did it." So I suggest to everybody again, ask questions in the positive. "Did you," not "didn't you."
Q Is it correct that you were not here for the entirety of Mr. Haigh's testimony?
I think I left after lunch.
Q You were retained through Kroll in this case?
Excuse me? I didn't hear your question.
Q Were you retained through Kroll, Kroll & ssociates?
K-R-O-L-L. I was retained by the ttorney General's office and through Kroll, yes.
Q That wasn't disclosed in your expert disclosures, correct?

I'm not aware if it was or not.
Q You wrote your expert disclosures, correct?
I just don't recall whether it mentioned Kroll or not.
Q You were the author of the expert disclosures that you submitted to this Court?
Yes.
Q Did anyone else help you in preparing those expert disclosures?
Probably one of my associates, yes.
Q Who typed them out?
Probably one of my associates.
Q Were they reviewed by the New York ttorney General prior to submitting them to the Court?
I believe so, yes.
Q Have you reviewed any other materials introduced at trial prior to your testimony today?
What time frame are you referring to?
Q Since the inception of trial.
No, I don't believe so.
Q Nobody has sent you exhibits that have been introduced?
No.
Q Nobody has sent you trial transcripts? I believe you said you didn't read them.
No.
Q But others did help you prepare the opinions that you're offering here today at trial, correct?

No, they're my opinions.
Q That wasn't my question. Others helped you prepare them, correct?
Not my opinions. They helped me do the research and analysis. My opinions are from myself.
Q So others helped you prepare the research and analysis that support the opinions that you gave today?
Parts of them that I gave them to do.
Q In connection with giving your opinions here today, did you read the Deutsche Bank credit policies?
I've read them before.
Q In connection with the testimony that you are giving here today, did you read the Deutsche Bank credit policies, yes or no?
Yes.
Q In connection with the testimony that you're giving here today, did you read the Deutsche Bank lending policies?
Yes.
Q In connection with the testimony you're giving here today, did you read the Ladder Capital lending policies?
No, I don't believe I read -- since it was an offering, I read the offering material, not the lending policy.
Q Did you review the Ladder Capital lending policies?
No.

Q How much time did you spend reviewing the Deutsche Bank lending and credit policies prior to your testimony here today?
Very hard to say. It's been a while, so I don't really have a recollection how long.
Q You don't remember how long you spent looking at them?
No.
Q Or when you looked at them?
No. I looked at them prior to my submission of my expert report, but I don't really recall how long.
Q nd that was only last July, right?
ctually, I think my report was May 26th.
Q Okay. You testified in July in a deposition?
Deposition, yes.
Q So as recently as May of this year, you reviewed the Deutsche Bank credit and lending policies, but you don't remember how much time you spent looking at them, correct?
No, I don't.
Q You were assisted in the preparation of the research and analysis that supports your opinions here today by Kroll & ssociates, right?
That's correct.
Q nd by another gentleman at your firm named Michael Espinal; is that correct?
That's correct.
Q nd Mr. Espinal and Kroll determined the documents that you would review in this case, correct?

No. They responded to my questions and provided documents related to my questions.
Q They acted as a filter of information, correct?
They had a knowledge base of the production that was useful, save me time in looking through all the documents.
Q Did they act as a filter of information?
No, I don't believe so. They responded to my questions.
Q Because those were your words at your deposition. You said that they were a filter of information.
I think a more accurate portrayal would be that they responded to my questions for documents.
Q But you don't doubt that you referred to it as a filter of information?
I may have, yes.
Q You directed them to provide you with loan agreements, correct?
Yes.
Q nd annual reviews, correct?
Credit reviews, yes.
Q Credit reviews. lso known as credit memos, right?
That's right.
Q nd loan documents?
Correct.

That's right.
Q Personal guarantees, correct?
They were part of the documents.
Q ll right. nd you reviewed all of these documents and understood them, right?
I kind of seen the same thing before, so it is pretty easy to understand.
Q They are pretty easy to understand?
If you've done them hundreds of times.
Q Okay. nd who prepared these documents for your review? Who created the universe of documents for you to review? It was the New York ttorney General, correct?
I assume it was from the production from the case.
Q Did you review Deutsche Bank's entire production in this case?
No, I did not.
Q Did you review any of Mazars' production in this case?
I believe some of it, but I didn't -- my focus wasn't on the accounting aspect. Mr. Lewis took that, so I don't think I delved deeply into the Mazars.
Q Did you review any of the testimony offered by Jack Weisselberg in the trial in this matter?
Not in the trial, no. I think I had looked at deposition material.
Q You never interviewed any of the Deutsche Bank executives that were involved in the relevant loan transactions, correct?

No.
Q You never interviewed anyone from Mazars, correct?
No.
Q You never introduced anyone from Ladder Capital, right?
Nope.
Q You never interviewed anyone from the Trump Organization either, correct?
Nope.
THE COURT: By the way, that was four questions in the negative in a row. I wish you would stop doing that. These answers are ambiguous. "You didn't do that, did you"? No could mean "No, I didn't do that, or it could mean "No, you're wrong. I did that."
Q Did you ever interview anyone from Deutsche Bank?
No.
Q Did you ever interview anyone from Ladder Capital?
No.
Q Did you ever interview anyone from Mazars?
No.
Q Did you ever interview anyone interest the Trump Organization?
No.
THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. SU REZ: Thank you, Your Honor. I appreciate it.
MR. SU REZ: Can we put the demonstrative exhibit back up, please.
Q These are the four loan transactions that you testified about today, correct?
That's correct. I think there was one where I testified about that we didn't include.
Q nd that's not subject of your grand total of lost interest, right?
That's correct. We judged it immaterial.
Q Let start with Doral. ctually, let's start with this chart. Did you prepare this chart?
I did.
Q You went on Excel and created the actual chart?
I do have a technical background. I can do Excel spreadsheets, yes.
Q Is that a yes?
That was a yes.
Q Okay. nd you reviewed the credit memo prepared in connection with the Doral transaction; is that correct?
I did.
MR. SU REZ: Can we pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 293.
Q Do you recognize this document, sir?

I do.
Q Is it correct that this document reflects the bank's analysis of the Doral loan transaction?
I believe it does, yes.
MR. SU REZ: If we could turn to the following page and zoom in on collateral.
Q Would you agree with me that the collateral for the Doral loan transaction is a first mortgage lien and a first priority security interest in the resort including the borrower's fee, simple estate, all personal property, leases, rent, revenue, operating accounts, reserves, and all other related assets?
Yes, I believe that was true.
Q Did you review the Doral loan agreement?
I believe I read it, yes.
MR. SU REZ: Can we pull that up, please. That's Defendant's Exhibit 212.
Q Do you recognize this document?
Term loan agreement dated June 11, 2012 by and between Trump Endeavor as borrower and Deutsche Bank Trust Company mericas as lender.
Q Did you review this document in connection with preparing the opinions that you've offered in court today?
I did.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, we move to admit

Defendants' Exhibit 212.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
nd Mr. McCarty, even closer to the mic, so that it could bite you.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 212.)

MR. SU REZ: I believe we have an actual copy to hand up now in a second.

I believe I read it, yes.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, we would like to move Exhibit 387.
MR. W LL CE: Evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 387.)
MR. SU REZ: Please pull up plaintiff's premarked Exhibit 2315.
Q Mr. McCarty, can you identify this document?
This is the third amendment to the term loan agreement.
Q nd is this a document that you reviewed in connection with the preparation of your expert opinions?
Yes, I believe it is.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I'd move Exhibit 2315 in evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 2315.)
MR. SU REZ: I'd like to show the witness plaintiff's premarked Exhibit 1303, please.
THE COURT: Can we proceed with the question based on what's on the screen?

Q Mr. McCarty, can you please identify this document?
This appears to be the guaranty from Donald J. Trump guarantor to Deutsche Bank Trust.
Q Did you review this document in connection with your opinions in this case?
I believe I reviewed it, yes.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I would like to move Defendants' 1303 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 1303.)
MR. SU REZ: Let's, please, pull up Defendants' Exhibit 917.
Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. McCarty?
I do. It's the first amendment to the guaranty.
Q Did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your opinions in this case?
I believe so, yes.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move Defendants' Exhibit 917 into evidence.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 917.)
MR. SU REZ: Please pull up Plaintiff's 1304.

Q Mr. McCarty, can you identify this document, please?
This appears to be the second amendment to the guaranty.
Q Did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your opinions in this case?
I believe so, yes.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I'd move Plaintiff's Exhibit 1304 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1304.)
MR. SU REZ: Defendants' 586, please.
Q Mr. McCarty, can you, please, identify this document?
The third amendment to the guaranty.
Q Did you review this document in connection with your preparation of your opinions in this case?
I believe so, yes.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move 586 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 586.)
MR. SU REZ: Please pull up Defendants' 916.
Q Mr. McCarty, can you, please, identify this document?
The fourth amendment to the guaranty.

Q Mr. McCarty, did you review this document in connection with your preparation of your opinions in this case?
I believe so, yes.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I would like to move Exhibit 916 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Defendants' Exhibit 916.)
Q Mr. McCarty, in connection with your preparation of your opinions in this case, you became familiar with loan documents and the guaranty documents, correct?
For the economic terms that we needed to analyze, yes, but not on a complete basis.
Q Sorry?
For the economic terms that I needed to prepare my material I reviewed.
Q I didn't hear the second part of your answer.
Sorry. For the economic results that I needed to prepare my material is what I reviewed.
THE COURT: nd not on a complete basis I think he said.
MR. SU REZ: Not on a complete basis. Understood. Thank you.
Q But you understood how the economic terms worked, correct?

Yes, I was.
Q nd you understood that the Trump Park venue was not collateral pledged for this loan, correct?
That's correct.
Q You understood the Trump Tower was not collateral pledged for this loan, correct?
I think also Niketown wasn't either, so...
Q Okay. Niketown was not part of the collateral pledged, correct?
That's correct.
Q 40 Wall Street was not part of the collateral pledged in connection with this loan, correct?
I'm not certain of 40 Wall, but I don't have a recollection of it.
Q Well, earlier we went through the credit memo.
Right.
Q Described the collateral for the Trump Endeavor 12 loan, correct?
Right.
Q Was 40 Wall part of the collateral pledged for the Trump Endeavor 12 loan? s I sit here, I don't recall whether it was or wasn't.
Q How about Seven Springs? Was Seven Springs pledged as collateral?
To the specific loan for Bryn Mawr, I believe it was.

Q No. We are talking about the Trump Endeavor 12 loan.
No. I'm sorry, it wasn't.
Q Specifically with respect to the Trump Endeavor 12 loan extended by Deutsche Bank, 40 Wall Street wasn't either, right?
I said I don't recall.
Q It wasn't reflected in the credit memos pledged collateral, correct?
I don't specifically recall whether it was or wasn't.
Q We just reviewed it a minute ago.
Yeah.
Q Do you want to me it back up?
No. It's okay. You're asking me whether I recalled it.
Q Okay. Was 40 Wall Street pledged as collateral for the Trump Endeavor 12 loan? gain, I don't recall whether it was or not.
Q ll right. Let's pull up the credit memo again.

Q Do you see Plaintiff's Exhibit 293?
Yes.
Q This is something that you reviewed?
Yes.
Q nd the second page describes the collateral.
MR. SU REZ: Can we blow it up?
Q "First mortgage lien on a first priority security interest in the resort, including the borrower's fee, simple estate, all personal property, leases, rents, revenue, operating accounts, reserves, and all other related assets." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Do you have any reason to believe that 40 Wall Street was pledged as collateral for this loan?
No.
THE COURT: Mr. Suarez and Mr. Kise, I see why this is going to take two or three hours. Every question -- some questions come with three four or more questions. There is no evidence that it was the collateral. He says he didn't remember. We saw this document already. Why are you so worried about whether it was or it wasn't? It wasn't as far as I can tell. If someone in the audience has evidence that it was pledged as collateral, raise your hand. Okay, nobody raised his or her hand. Please stop making one question into four or five.

MR. KISE: So, Your Honor, respectfully, I'm just going to, as I have before, object. You never interrupt the prosecution, you never give them speeches, you never limit their questions, you never limit them on time, so I'm just putting that on the record, Your Honor. I think it's unfair.

THE COURT: I stand by my criticism.

MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I asked the witness a very simple question he was for whatever reason reluctant to give a very simple answer.

THE COURT: No, he did answer. He said he didn't remember that was the answer.

MR. SU REZ: That's even more concerning because we showed him the credit memo ten minutes ago.

THE COURT: It doesn't say and 40 Wall Street is not on the collateral. That was a very general and vague statement, but let's move on.

Q The airplanes owned by entities belonging to President Trump aren't part of the collateral either; right?

No, it doesn't appear to be, no.

THE COURT: Well, that's -- it says what the collateral is. I don't see the word "President's airplanes" phrased.

MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, he said it was really simple to read these credit memos. If they're so simple he should be able to answer them.

THE COURT: They're so simple. You shouldn't have to ask him. That does not state the president's airplanes. That's why this is taking two or three hours.

Go ahead, Mr. Kise.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, we need to make our record with this witness. This witness is the only witness that they have that even hints at anything to do with ill gotten gains. Not going over that again, but we need to challenge his credibility, his memory, his ability to recite even simple things. I mean, all of that is at issue here. I mean, all of it. So I think we should be allowed -- you've allowed them the latitude of introducing him in the first place which I think is completely contrary to the case law as you know, and I respect your ruling. But we should be allowed some latitude. We've been going all of about 15 or 20 minutes. I just don't understand why we always get interrupted. It's becoming a bit of a pattern, respectfully.

THE COURT: I stand by my rulings and my statements.

Please continue. Let's not go over everything that Trump owned and ask the witness is it true that that's not part of the collateral. The collateral is listed there.

MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I heard you on the first day of trial when you asked me to then summarize it and do it in a more rapid manner for the subsequent entities. I'm going to do it on the Doral loan and I'll do it in a much more summary fashion on the other transactions.

THE COURT: Thank you.

Q The guarantor of personal -- withdrawn.

Mr. Trump's personal residences are not identified as collateral for this loan; correct?

That's correct.

Q nd in your review of the loan documents and the credit memos, would you agree with me that the personal guaranty on the Doral transaction was reduced to a ten percent level by ugust 3rd of 2015?

I think that's the right date. I realize it had a decrease in guaranty over time.

Q You understood that the guaranty burns down?

That's correct.

Q s the loan to value burns down?

That's correct.

Q The loan to value being the value of the collateral divided by the loan; correct?

That's what they do.

Q Okay. nd would you agree with me there was a certain point in time that President Trump, the guarantor, elected to retain a ten percent guaranty level on the Trump Endeavor 12 loan?

Yes, I think to keep an interest rate differential.

Q Let's talk about that interest rate differential.

MR. SU REZ: Can we please pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 290 at the second page?

nd can we zoom into there the box that says "the revised terms" for the interest rate?

Q You see here it says that the interest rate is LIBOR plus 1.75 percent or prime minus .75 percent?

Yes.

Q nd when the guarantee level falls below ten percent it steps up to LIBOR + 2 percent or prime -50 basis points; correct?

That's correct.

Q half a percent; correct?

Correct.

Q I just want to establish that I'm using the same language. percentage point is a hundred basis points; a half a percent is 50 basis points?

Yes.

THE COURT: Please keep your voice up.

Q So you would agree with me that the loan agreement between Deutsche Bank and Trump Endeavor 12 provided that the interest rate would step up by 25 basis points when the guaranty was eliminated; correct?

That's correct.
Q nd the benefit to keeping the guaranty in place was a savings of 25 basis points; correct?
Per the agreement, yes.
Q ll right. Let's now take a look at the loan to 401 North Wabash.
MR. SU REZ: If we could pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 291, please, at page three. nd we could zoom into the collateral property.
Q Mr. McCarty, you would agree with me that plaintiff's -- actually, let me withdraw that.
Let's go back to the first page of Plaintiff's Exhibit 291. Do you recognize this document, Mr. McCarty?
I do, yes.
Q Is this a document that you reviewed?
I did, yes.
Q What is this document?
This is the credit report for credit approval of the Chicago -- two of the Chicago facilities.
Q Would you agree with me that this document summarizes Deutsche Bank's only analysis of this loan transaction?
Yes.
Q Okay.
THE COURT: Please keep your voice up.
Q Let's go back to the collateral section.

nd here it's a little more complicated, right, Mr. McCarty? There are two tranches to the loan transaction?
That's correct.
Q nd the first facility, facility , is a secured facility; correct?
That's correct.
Q nd the collateral that's pledged in connection with the secured facility is described here in this paragraph; correct?
That's correct.
Q It's a mortgage lien and a first priority security interest in the residential component defined as the residential component of the property consisting of but not limited to all -- excuse me -- all unsold , residential condominium units; B, deeded parking spaces; C, storage spaces; and D, associated common areas, including the borrower's fee, simple estate, all personal property, leases, rents, revenue, operating accounts, reserves and all other related assets." Do you agree with me?
Yes, that's what it says.
Q Okay. ll right. nd then facility will be cross collateralized with facility B with a subordinate lien on the collateral under facility B; however, only for the period of time that facility B remains outstanding; correct?
Correct.
Q nd I believe in your direct you testified that facility B was retired early in the loan's history; correct?

Yes.
Q nd facility B, in much more summary fashion, you would agree had a collateral of a mortgage lien and first priority security interest in the commercial component of property; correct?
Correct.
Q nd all of the related property interests to that commercial component that are described in this credit memo; correct?
Correct.
Q nd you would agree with me that this describes accurately and fairly the collateral that was pledged in connection with the loan to 401 North Wabash; correct?
Correct.
Q I'd like to pull up Defendant's Exhibit 876 and I'd like to ask the witness if he can identify?
It's an amended and restated term loan agreement for North Wabash.
Q Did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your opinions in this case?
Yes, I believe I did.
MR. SU REZ: I'd like to move Defendant's Exhibit 876 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number 876 in evidence.)
MR. SU REZ: nd I'd like to pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1844 into evidence -- I'm sorry -- Plaintiff's Exhibit 1844 on the screen.
Q Mr. McCarty, can you please identify this document?
This is the amended and restated guaranty for Donald J. Trump in favor of Deutsche Bank Trust.
Q Did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your opinions in this case?
I believe I did.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move Plaintiff's Exhibit 1844 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1844 in evidence.)
Q nd Mr. McCarty, in connection with the opinions you've given today, you reviewed and understood the economic terms contained in these documents; correct?
Yes, I focused on the economic terms. That's correct.
Q nd we can agree other than the collateral we just reviewed there was no other property that was pledged as collateral for this loan; correct?

That's correct.
Q nd Mr. McCarty, would you agree with me that the personal guaranty on this loan was extinguished by July 20, 2015?
I believe that's correct.
Q ll right.
MR. SU REZ: Let's pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 294.
Q Mr. McCarty, do you recognize this document?
I do.
Q What is this document?
This is a similar credit report for credit approval of the North Wabash loans. I believe it's both the and the B loans.
Q Okay. nd you agree that this document reflects the bank's only analysis concerning the decision to make the loan -- I'm sorry -- Plaintiff's Exhibit 294.
I have that.
Q You have that? It's not on the screen. There we go. Would you agree with me that this document reflects the bank's only analysis in making the determination to enter into the loan transaction with Trump Old Post Office LLC as a whole?
I do.
Q nd have you reviewed this document prior to today?
Yes, I believe I did.
MR. SU REZ: Can we turn to page eight of this document, please? Pull up the collateral.

Q nd Mr. McCarty, would you agree with me that the section reflected here, "Collateral," which describes the security and the facility as -- I'm sorry -- "the facility will be secured by (i) a first mortgage lien on borrower's leasehold interest in X, the property, and Y, all improvements thereto, two security interests in and to the extent assignable and as applicable, assignments of the borrower's interest in all permits, licenses, lease, contracts, agreements, operating accounts, receivables, etc. and (ii)" -- I'm sorry -- "(iii), borrower's interest in other customary, ancillary, collateral relating to the property."
Okay. Do you agree with me that that adequately describes the collateral for the Old Post Office loan transaction?
I thought we were on North Wabash.
Q No, 294 is the Old Post Office.
Okay, yes.
Q Yes you would agree with me that this adequately describes the collateral for the Old Post Office; correct?
Yes.
Q nd that no other property was pledged as collateral in connection with the Old Post Office loan by Deutsche Bank to the borrower Trump Old Post Office LLC; correct?
I believe that's true.

Q nd Mr. McCarty, can you please identify the document that I'm going to ask to be pulled up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1238? Turning to the next page.
It's the loan agreement for the Old Post Office project.
Q Did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your opinions?
Yes, I believe I did.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move Plaintiff's Exhibit 1238 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1238 in evidence.)
MR. SU REZ: If we could please pull up D 1013.
Q Would you please, Mr. McCarty, identify this document?
That's the guaranty of Donald J. Trump, I assume for the Old Post Office.
Q nd is this a document that you reviewed in connection with the preparation of your opinions?
I believe it is, yes.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move D 1013 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 1013 in evidence.)

Q ll right. Let's move to the Ladder Capital loan on 40 Wall Street.
MR. SU REZ: If we could please pull up D 552.
MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I would just note that we're happy to stipulate to the entry of these documents. s Mr. Suarez noted, we are paying Mr. McCarty by the hour and so if we could cut down on the time we would certainly appreciate it. I don't know if he's asking the witness questions about these documents or just using them to enter them, but they're generally unobjectionable documents.
MR. SU REZ: lmost done with introducing the documents.
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. SU REZ: If you could turn to the second page. Following page.
Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. McCarty?
Yes, I believe it's the offering document for the 40 Wall Street offering by Ladder Capital.
Q Did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your expert opinions?
I believe I did, yes.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I move this document into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 552 in evidence.)
Q nd Mr. McCarty, would you agree with me that this document we moved to the section on the collateral? Describes the summary of the collateral for the 40 Wall Street loan?
Yes, I believe it does.
Q nd in general terms would you agree with me that the collateral for the 40 Wall Street loan was the building that sits on top of 40 Wall Street and the leasehold interests?
Yes, I believe it does.
Q nd with respect to the 40 Wall loan, you would agree that there is no other collateral that's pledged in connection with this loan; correct?
Other than the guaranty.
Q Well, is the guaranty -- withdrawn.
The collateral that's pledged as a security is the leasehold and the building; correct?
That's correct.
Q Okay. But there is no other property that's pledged as collateral; correct?
No other property, no.
Q No. There is no other property that secures the loan; correct?

That's correct.
Q nd the loan-to-value ratio for this loan you would compute by dividing the value of the property, the 40 Wall property, by the amount of the loan; correct?
That's correct.
Q nd in this instance, speaking of the guaranty, if we could go back to the section that describes the guaranty. We're going to blow that up.
You would agree with me that the guaranty that's at issue here isn't a full guaranty; correct?
That's correct.
Q It's not an unconditional guaranty; correct?
It is limited, yes.
Q Right. nd it's limited to certain carve outs relating to unleased space; correct?
That's correct.
MR. SU REZ: nd if we can blow up the section on the covenants. little further down on this page.
Q You would see here that the covenant that it describes is that the key principles must maintain a net worth equal to at least $160 million and a liquidity of at least $15 million?
That's correct.
Q nd the key principle described in this document is Donald John Trump?
That's correct.

Q Do you have any reason to believe during the life of this loan Mr. Trump didn't maintain a net worth equal to at least $160 million in liquidity of at least $15 million?
No, I don't think there was any violation of this covenant.
Q nd this document that we've been reviewing here, Mr. McCarty, you would agree with me reflects Ladder Capital's own analysis as to the loan transaction with 40 Wall Street LLC; correct?
The terms of the loan I think are described properly, yes.
Q nd it contains the analysis of Ladder Capital; correct?
Term sheets I don't normally say is an analysis, but I guess you could characterize it as analysis.
Q It's a document that's prepared by Ladder Capital; correct?
Right.
Q fter Ladder Capital has performed underwriting; correct?
Right.
Q nd it describes the features of the transaction; correct?
That's correct. I just -- the word "analysis" I don't know if there is any analysis in it.

Q nd if we could please pull Plaintiff's Exhibit 2973. I would ask Mr. McCarty to identify this document.
This is the loan agreement on 40 Wall Street.
Q nd did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your expert opinions in this case?
I did.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I'd like to move Plaintiff's 2973 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 2973 in evidence.)
MR. SU REZ: nd I ask that Plaintiff's Exhibit 625 marked for identification be pulled up.
Q Mr. McCarty, did you review this document in connection with the preparation of your opinions in this case?
We're on 625 now?
Q 625.
Yes, I believe I did.
Q Can you identify this document, please?
This is the guaranty of recourse obligations for 40 Wall.
Q This is what we discussed earlier as a limited guaranty; correct?
Yes.

MR. SU REZ: I'd like to move Plaintiff's Exhibit 625 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 625 in evidence.)
MR. KISE: Judge, Your Honor, I have to step out as mentioned for that hearing that I noted last week. I just didn't want to walk out without letting -- thinking that I was pounding the table and leaving in protest.
THE COURT: We'll miss you.
Q Mr. McCarty, in preparing your opinions you had an opportunity to review the deposition that was taken in this case of David Williams from Deutsche Bank; correct?
That's correct.
Q nd is the analysis that you performed in support of the opinions you've given today reflect Mr. Williams' testimony that President Trump was in the top tier of verifiable net worth in this regional market?
I don't think it was a relevant issue for me.
Q You didn't think that was relevant to your analysis?
No.
Q So it's safe to say that your analysis doesn't account for that testimony; correct?
I think that's a misstatement. I said I didn't think it was relevant.

Q So if you didn't think it was relevant did you fold it into your analysis?
Since it wasn't relevant I didn't need to fold it into my analysis.
Q Okay. So your analysis doesn't account for that testimony; correct?
It does because I believed it to be not material.
Q Okay. So Mr. Williams' testimony that President Trump was in the top tier of verifiable net worth in this regional market was not material to your analysis?
That's correct.
THE COURT: sked and answered three, four, five times.
Q Did you consider Mr. Williams' testimony that Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management had a pricing grid that was in effect since at least 2010?
I'm very familiar with their pricing grid, yes.
Q Was that material to your analysis?
No.
Q Did you consider Mr. Williams' testimony that Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management would use a pricing grid to determine appropriate interest rates to charge on private wealth management loans depending on the credit or collateral type?
No, I didn't think it was relevant.

Q Was that material to your analysis?
No.
Q Was Mr. Williams' testimony -- withdrawn.
Did you review the Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management pricing grid in reaching your opinions in this case?
I did.
MR. SU REZ: Can we please pull up D 205, which was Exhibit 16 to Mr. Williams' deposition.
Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. McCarty?
I do.
Q Did you review this document in connection with preparing your opinions in this case?
I did.
MR. SU REZ: I'd like to move in Defendant's Exhibit 205.
THE COURT: Granted.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Defendant's Exhibit Number D 205 in evidence.)
Q Mr. McCarty, you would agree with me that this is the Deutsche Bank pricing grid for the Private Wealth Management mericas group; correct?
For that group, yes.
Q nd it reflects here -- the first column reflects the geographic region; correct?

That's correct.
Q nd then the subsequent columns describe different type of loan products; correct?
That's correct.
Q nd that in the mericas group the commercial real estate column is the one that would have applied to the loans that are the subject of your opinions in this case and were made by Deutsche Bank?
For the actual interest rates, yes.
Q nd this reflects a pricing of LIBOR plus that spread; correct?
That's correct.
Q nd in reaching your opinions in this case did you consider Mr. Williams' testimony that Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management would depart downward from this range if there was a competitive business case for doing so?
It's one of the standard bank issues in pricing this competition response, so yes, I believe it's correct for Private Wealth Management loans.
Q One issues that the bank can consider that wants to be competitive in the marketplace and in the loan is departing from this?
That's correct. They have some discretion to go lower.
THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
Q Did you consider -- was Mr. Williams' testimony material to your analysis?

No, it was not.
Q Was Mr. Williams' testimony that Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management would not depart upwards from this range material to your analysis?
No, it was not.
THE COURT: I think that's the same question. If he's -- if he says it was not material to his analysis -- we only have four more minutes of this.
Q Did you consider whether the pricing grid would allow for Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management to charge a higher interest rate for a riskier type of collateral?
No, I don't think they could take a riskier position, so they couldn't change the rate.
Q Was Mr. Williams' testimony that he could not recall a single instance where Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management charged a higher interest rate than what was provided in the pricing grid material to your analysis?
No, it wasn't.
Q Was Mr. Williams' testimony that even where the risk commensurate with the particular transaction warrants charging a higher rate he could not recall a single instance when Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management had done that material to your analysis?
No, it wasn't.

Q In reaching your opinions in this case was it material to your analysis to consider whether Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management would enter into these loan transactions regardless of whether the guarantor had a net worth of a billion, two billion or two and a half billion?
No.
Q That didn't factor into your analysis?
No.
Q Was it material to your analysis that Deutsche Bank's Private Wealth Management pricing grid would probably be unchanged even if the net worth of the sponsor was a billion dollars instead of two and a half billion?
No.
Q Did you consider material to your analysis Mr. Williams' testimony that Deutsche Bank's pricing would be unchanged even if President Trump's net worth was only a billion dollars?
I think there is one caveat there. You used just "Deutsche Bank." Did you mean "Deutsche Bank PWM?"
Q Thank you for correcting me. That's absolutely correct. The private wealth management pricing grid would be unchanged even if President Trump's net worth was only a billion dollars?
It wasn't relevant for me, no.
Q Okay. It wasn't material to your analysis?

No.
Q nd was it material to your analysis Mr. Williams' testimony that Deutsche Bank's Private Wealth Management pricing would probably be unchanged because a net worth of a billion dollars constitute a strong borrower or guarantor?
No.
Q That was not material to your analysis?
No.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I'm at a good stopping point.
THE COURT: ll right, and we're at a good time to stop. So 2:15 everybody. Have a good lunch.
THE COURT OFFICER: Everybody remain seated while the witness steps out.
THE COURT: nd I'll direct the witness not to discuss this case, his testimony or anything related during the break until your testimony is finished this afternoon.
(Whereupon, there is a recess in the proceedings.)

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 back in session. The Honorable Judge rthur Engoron presiding. Please be seated and come to order.
THE COURT: Welcome back, everyone. We are ready to continue with the cross-examination.
MR. SU REZ: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Let's get the witness.
THE COURT OFFICER: Court's ready for the witness?
THE COURT: Yes.
THE COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Witness resumes the stand.)
THE COURT: I'll remind the witness that he's -- like I always do, that he's still under oath.
THE WITNESS: Okay.
THE COURT: nd let's proceed.
Q Mr. McCarty, you understood David Williams to be the senior lender and team leader within the Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management Group? s the lender, yes.
Q I'm sorry?
s the lender, yes.
Q Did you discuss the subject matter of your testimony with anyone during the lunch break?

Nope. I just had a solo salad.
Q Now, Mr. McCarty, in reaching your opinions you've given today in court, you didn't consider the deposition testimony of Tom Sullivan, correct?
No. I mistakenly in our deposition didn't recall reviewing Sullivan, but I had. I just didn't recall the name when we did it, but I didn't use his deposition in my opinion today.
Q So you did read it?
I did it read ultimately. I didn't use it in my opinion today.
Q Because earlier today I had asked if you read anything additional since your deposition. You told me you hadn't.
I had read it before my deposition. I just didn't recall it in my deposition that I read it.
Q You didn't remember reading the deposition of Tom Sullivan?
That's right.
Q That's right?
That's right in my deposition.
Q It wasn't listed as a document that you relied upon in your report, correct?
Not relied on. I reviewed it. The listing I had was just of the documents that I relied on.
Q If we pull up Exhibit B to your report, you listed all of the documents that you relied on.

That's correct.
Q nd this one wasn't listed?
No.
Q But you did list the deposition of David Williams, correct?
David Williams and Haigh, I believe, were the two key ones I looked at.
Q Okay. Now, do you understand Tom Sullivan was the head of structured lending at Deutsche Bank during the time it made the three loans at issue in your testimony?
Yes, I do.
Q nd I understand you don't recall having or at the time of your deposition you didn't recall having read his testimony, but now you do, but would it be the case that it was material to your analysis -- let me withdraw that.
Was it material to your analysis that Mr. Sullivan testified that Deutsche Bank was not mislead in any aspect of any credit decision it made based on information that was included in President Trump's Statement of Financial Condition?
No.
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: He answered it. What's the objection unless you want to withdraw the objection?
MR. ROBERT: I don't want to withdraw the objection. I believe that misstates Mr. Sullivan's testimony, but the witness was able to answer.

Q Was it material to your analysis that Mr. Sullivan testified at his deposition that Deutsche Bank was not mislead because Deutsche Bank developed its own independent view concerning President Trump's financial condition?
No, I don't think it is material to my analysis.
Q nd was it material to your analysis that Mr. Sullivan testified that Deutsche Bank's decision making was based on what Deutsche Bank was comfortable with as a result of the assessment that it independently performed rob?
MR. W LL CE: I'm happy to make a standing objection to the characterization of Mr. Sullivan, but the questions, I'm fine with them. I just want to note our standing objection.
THE COURT: Okay. Noted.
No, it is not material.
Q Not material. nd is it material to your analysis that Mr. Sullivan testified that he would have likely recommended a credit facility sponsored by President Trump even if he was only worth a billion dollars?
No, I don't think it is material.
Q nd do you think it is material to your analysis that Mr. Sullivan testified that this was because a $1 billion net worth is still significant wealth?

No. I'm aware of the testimony. I don't think it's material to my analysis.
Q It is not material to your analysis?
No.
Q Was it material to your analysis that such a determination according to Mr. Sullivan's testimony would be based on what the net worth looked like based on asset allocation, quality of the assets and assuming asset allocation, a $1 billion net worth would be sufficient?
No, I don't think it is material.
Q You don't think it is material?
THE COURT: Please don't keep repeating the answer unless you think he can't be heard.
MR. SU REZ: I'm having a little trouble hearing it. That's why I'm doing it, but I understand.
Q re you aware that Mr. Sullivan testified at his deposition in this case that he would recommend the Doral credit facility based on the project strength alone?
No, I don't think it's material.
Q That was not material to your analysis in this case?
THE COURT: That's what I just asked you not to do and you said you wouldn't do it.
MR. SU REZ: I'll try. re you aware -- let me withdraw that.
Q Was it material to your analysis in this case that Mr.

Sullivan testified that he was not aware of any misrepresentation with respect to any asset provided by the guarantor?
No.
Q Did the NY G ask you not to review the Sullivan deposition?
No.
Q Was there -- withdrawn.
Can we agree that regardless of how the loans were procured from Deutsche Bank, the guaranty was still in place for a period of time?
Yes.
Q nd if there was an extreme situation that impacted the cash flow of any of the particular borrowers, the guarantor could have been responsible?
Yes, probably.
Q Let's go up to your demonstrative from earlier today. Going back to the CRE interest rate of ten percent, isn't it the case that that's a number that you used because the New York ttorney General provided to you documents relating to a proposed transaction from CRE at that interest rate?
No. It originally started from the credit reports where I looked at BB rating that it assigned to the collateral and the BB rating to me had a market movement somewhere between nine and ten percent.

MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I move to strike that as not responsive. I was asking if the documents were provided by the NY G.
THE COURT: It is -- all right. Were the documents provided by the NY G?
Q Were the documents provided by the NY G from which you determined that the CRE had offered an interest rate of ten percent?
I received documents produced from Deutsche Bank through New York -- the G that showed the terms and conditions of all three of the loans.
Q Okay. The terms and conditions of all three -- of the offers from the CRE Group, correct?
That's correct.
Q Those were documents that were provided to you by the NY G, correct?
The confusion I had on your question is that wasn't the primary basis of my decision to use the numbers.
Q That's not what I'm asking you. Those were documents that were provided to you by the NY G, right?
The numbers are not necessarily the documents.
Q Sorry?
No.
THE COURT: The numbers are not documents.
Q The documents that you reviewed in order to get those numbers came from offers that the CRE Group made that were provided to you by the NY G?

Only as a portion. I said the other portion was the credit report, my own analysis of comparable transactions and the knowledge of the rated companies.
Q Correct, but you knew that those CRE numbers existed because they were provided to you in documents by the NY G?
fter I had started the analysis that I described, yes.
Q Okay. Those documents weren't in your possession until they were provided to you?
That's correct.
Q Okay.
THE COURT: Mr. McCarty, a little closer to the microphone and a little louder.
THE WITNESS: Will do. Thank you.
Q So with respect to the CRE proposal that was not accepted on the Doral transaction, would you agree with me that that proposal could have been further negotiated?
I'm not aware of whether it was final or not, so I don't have an opinion whether it was negotiated or there may have been negotiations. I'm not aware of.
Q It was never a final proposal, correct?
I don't know that that's true.
Q Well, you reviewed the documents, didn't you?
I did. It had a signature block on it for the ones I saw, so that, to me, usually indicates it is a fairly final document.

Q But you're not certain if that was a final offer from the CRE Group?
Not either way, no.
Q So you're not certain if the CRE Group would have extended credit on those terms, correct?
Based on my experience of banks, I think the projection of a multi-page term sheet with details and a signature block indicates that they would have provided credit under those terms.
Q So your testimony is that based on your review of those documents, you are certain that the CRE Group would have provided a loan on those terms?
I don't think that's what I said.
Q So are you certain sitting here today that the CRE Group would have provided a loan on those terms?
I don't have an opinion. I believe that those are serious, could be final documents.
Q I'm asking if you are certain. Either you're certain or you're not certain.
I can't really give you a judgment about it.
Q You don't know whether you're certain or not that CRE Group would have provided a loan on those terms?
I think my testimony was that I think they would have.

Q Okay. So you can't be certain? You think?
I think --
Q It is a supposition, correct?
Based on experience.
Q You can base it on whatever you want, but it is still a supposition, right?
I guess so.
Q "I guess so" means yes?
I'm uncertain.
Q You're not certain. So that, you are not certain about?
I'm uncertain about your question.
Q re you certain whether the CRE Group would have provided financing on those terms?
I believe my best judgment is that they would have provided financing on those terms.
Q Your opinion is is that they would have?
My best judgment based on experience.
Q Is it not your opinion that they would have?
No.
Q Okay. So, then, you're not certain if they would have produced -- if they would have done that loan on those terms?
No. My best judgment is they would have.
Q Okay. But you can't be certain?
THE COURT: Oh, come on. Enough is enough. How many times does he have to say he can't be certain. He's not certain.

MR. SU REZ: He says it is his opinion, maybe it is maybe, it isn't.
THE COURT: He said it is his best judgment, but he refused to say, "Yes, I was certain."
MR. SU REZ: " re you certain" is a yes-or-no question. I'm certain it is Wednesday.
THE COURT: I wish he had answered yes or no. I think he could have but he's not going to. So let's move on.
MR. SU REZ: So would Your Honor agree with me that the response was not responsive?
THE COURT: Yes. So let's ask him.
It is a yes-or-no question. re you certain that they would or not have, whatever, offered a loan on those terms? re you certain?
THE WITNESS: It is a hypothetical question. I can't be certain.
THE COURT: I'll take that to mean no, he's not certain because he said "I can't be certain."
Q Your analysis here doesn't consider whether the borrower could have obtained another source of financing, correct?
No, we decided that the only way we could look at it was to do it on a static basis, no refinancing, no increase in terms to keep the situation static from the original start.

Q gain, it is a yes-or-no question. It either considers it or it doesn't.
THE COURT: Can you read back the question and the response.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)
THE COURT: Stricken.
Please answer yes or no. If you need the question asked again or read back, we can do that.
MR. SU REZ: Yes, please. Please read back my question.
THE COURT: One more readback, just the question.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)
THE COURT: Hold on. Objection by the judge. It is a negative question. Just ask it in a positive way.
Q Does your analysis here consider whether the borrower could have obtained another source of financing?
No, it does not.
Q Does your analysis here consider whether the sponsor could have borrowed money against another asset?
No, it does not.
Q Does yours analysis consider whether the borrower could have pledged another asset as collateral?

No.
Q Does your analysis consider whether the borrower or sponsor could have just not done the deal?
No.
Q But you would agree with me, Mr. McCarty, that the collateral in your hypothetical analysis here for the CRE rate is the same collateral as that for the actual loan that was made, correct?
bsent the guaranty, it is the same collateral.
Q So the only difference in your analysis is whether the guaranty is there or not, correct?
Correct.
Q nd I have the same question for the OPO loan. Does your analysis consider whether the borrower could have obtained another source of financing?
No.
Q Does your analysis consider whether the sponsor could have borrowed against another asset?
No.
Q Does your analysis consider whether the sponsor could have pledged another asset as collateral?
No.
Q Does your analysis consider whether or not the sponsor could have chosen not to do the deal?

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. SU REZ) Page 3140

No.
Q nd you would agree with me, Mr. McCarty, that the only difference in your analysis between the actual interest charged and the CRE interest that you've included in this calculation is the existence of the guaranty, correct?
That's correct.
Q It is -- it -- your analysis is based on the exact same collateral, correct?
I need to clarify the question. You're asking if that's the only difference between the two lines?
Q Let me ask it differently. Is the difference between the assumption that you made -- withdrawn.
The analysis for the interest rate that you provided at eight percent, that contemplates the same collateral, correct?
Correct.
Q nd with respect to the Chicago loan, the analysis that you've provided with the CRE interest rate at seven and-a-half percent, that contemplates the same collateral as the actual transaction, correct?
That's correct.
Q nd with the 40 Wall loan in the bottom, the same thing, the same question, it contemplates the use of the same collateral, correct?
Correct.
Q With respect to the Doral loan, your opinion doesn't consider whether the sponsor of the transaction could have gone to hundreds, if not thousands, of other lenders, correct?

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. SU REZ) Page 3141

No, it only -- the only consideration I have made was that there was an alternative offer from Beal, so there was another alternative.
Q So it doesn't include that consideration?
It included the consideration of Beal, yes.
Q But not the fact that he could have gone to hundreds, if not thousands, of other borrowers?
I had no knowledge that there was available other than Beal.
Q nd your knowledge as to what was available came from the documents that were provided to you from the -- by the New York ttorney General, correct?
Everything was provided by the ttorney General, but the Beal reference I don't think was the same documentation.
Q But it was provided to you by the New York ttorney General? s part of production, yes.
Q Would it be fair to say that your analysis only contemplates the alternatives that were provided by -- excuse me.
Would it be fair to say that your analysis only contemplates alternatives that were reflected in documents that were provided to you by the New York ttorney General?

M. MCC RTY - PL INTIFF - CROSS(MR. SU REZ) Page 3142

No, I'd say it also includes my judgment about credits and pricing of credits in the market.
Q Is it the case that the sponsor in any of these transactions could have gone out and solicited additional financing from many other different types of lenders?
gain, I'm not sure it was a broad spectrum of available credits for these properties at the time.
Q My question was a little different. Isn't it the case that the sponsor could have gone out and solicited from hundreds, if not thousands, of other lenders loans on these transactions?
My answer was I'm not sure that that type of market exited.
Q But I wasn't asking you whether you thought the market existed. I was asking you whether you thought the lender -- sorry -- the sponsor could go out and solicit lending from hundreds, if not thousands, of other lending institutions?
If he wanted to, sure.
Q Okay. nd that fact is not contemplated in your analysis?
No.
Q ll of the different other financing alternatives that were available to the sponsor of each of these individual transactions are not contemplated by your analysis?
THE COURT: It is a negative question and it has been asked and answered.

MR. SU REZ: ll right. I'll withdraw it.
Q Now, let's talk specifically about the three Deutsche Bank transactions.
Does your analysis contemplate President Trump's obligation to maintain deposits, assets under management at Deutsche Bank?
No, it doesn't contemplate the $20 million deposit.
Q nd isn't the case that at a certain point in time, President Trump and entities related to him had over $100 million on deposit in Deutsche Bank?
I'm not aware of that fact.
Q It is in the credit memos.
No, I don't recall it.
Q Isn't that part of the reason why private wealth management goes and seeks out high net worth individuals?
In my experience in wealth management, it is not a major item. Deposits are worth very little.
Q But you agree with me that you have never worked at a private wealth management group?
I've only managed them.
Q The calculations that you have here for the Doral loan don't factor the cost of maintaining those deposits at Deutsche Bank, correct?
No. We decided to exclude them and the fees associated with the other loans, so we thought they canceled each other out.

Q So there is no credit given for the additional requirements that President Trump had to meet in order to qualify for the private wealth group, correct?
It does because we canceled out the fees for the CRE loans to be equal.
Q But the wealth management loans had fees, didn't they?
They were smaller.
Q The Private Wealth Group, however, has a different business model than the CRE Group, correct?
That's correct.
Q nd the CRE Group doesn't have the same requirements that you maintain assets under management, correct?
No, they have different requirements.
Q But that wasn't my question. My question was whether the CRE Group had the same requirement that you maintain assets under management?
No, they didn't.
Q That's an additional benefit to the bank, right?
It is one of the benefits, yes.
Q nd the other benefit is the opportunity to cross-sell, right?
That's available with any customer, yes.
Q But it is a benefit to the bank, right?

In any division, yes.
Q Excuse me?
In any division of the bank, it is available.
Q Do you consider that to be a an emphasis of the Private Wealth Group?
I think it is an emphasis on every banking group.
Q You don't think that's anything specific to the Private Wealth Group?
Not necessarily, no.
Q The ability to develop relationships with ultra high net worth individuals, is that an objective of the Private Wealth Group?
It is, yes.
Q nd was it the case that they were able to do that with President Trump as a client?
I don't know the specifics. They did multiple loans, yes.
Q nd are you aware that the co-chairman of the bank expressed an interest in developing a relationship with President Trump and his companies?
Yes, I read that.
Q nd that Deutsche Bank sought President Trump's business?
Yes.
Q nd that Deutsche Bank wanted to have President Trump's business in the Private Wealth Group?

They marketed to him and I suspect that's true.
Q They marketed to him, correct?
Yes.
Q He is the type of person that a Private Wealth Group would market to?
Yes.
Q Now, in your analysis of the 40 Wall Street loan, does that take into account the $6 million swap break fee that the borrower had to pay to do the transaction?
It was in the case that we assumed that it was in both. Since we're continuing the Capital One, we considered it not relevant.
Q So, part of the 40 Wall analysis is just an assumption that the Capital One loan would have stayed in place correct?
Correct, would have rolled over.
Q nd it is your testimony that if the Capital One loan would have stayed in place, the borrower would still have had to pay the $6 million swap fee?
No, we don't believe so. We considered it be a rollover on the same terms.
Q It would roll over on the same terms?
Right.
Q So there was a cost to doing the transaction with Ladder Capital, correct?

There was a cost to Ladder Capital, yes.
Q But the $6 million swap breakage fee was paid for by the borrower?
Yes.
Q Okay. That was a cost of doing that transaction, correct?
Yes.
Q So that cost would not have existed if they stayed with Capital One bank, correct?
That's correct.
THE COURT: Move a little closer to the mic, please, or bend the mic more towards you.
MR. SU REZ: May I have a second to confer with my colleagues?
THE COURT: Sure.
(Whereupon, there was a pause in the proceedings.)

Q ll right. I think at some point somebody described this as an exercise; correct?
Not totally simple math, but it's an exercise in mathematics.
Q It's an exercise in mathematics. I'd like to ask you to engage in an exercise in mathematics.
Okay.
Q If you take the Doral transaction and we agree that the guaranty went down to ten percent in the middle 2015; correct?
Yes.
Q nd if we take out all of the interest delta after the middle of 2015, this grand total here goes down to about $63 million; correct? Goes down by $63 million?
I haven't done math, so I don't know.
Q Well, if you take 4.7 million and half of 10.08 million, that leaves you with about 9.5 million?
In order to do that you would have to make an assumption that I didn't make which is you have to say it would be refinanced.
Q I'm asking to you do just the math with me. Walk me through the math here, okay? It's just a math exercise.
Okay.
Q ll right. Can we do a math exercise?
Sure.
Q nd understand that I'm a lawyer and the typical disclaimer we're not good at math, so I won't be offended if you correct me, but if you take all of the interest delta from the middle of 2015 and take it out from the date, approximately ballpark, we're not being very precise here, but if you ballpark the interest delta from the middle of 2015 and you subtract that from the grand total, that leaves you with about nine million dollars in interest delta; correct?

Nine million and change.
Q Nine million and change.
nd if we go down to Chicago and you subtract the interest delta from when the guarantee was extinguished in the middle of 2015, the $17 million number goes down to about 1.7?
It's about right.
Q nd if you take the 40 Wall Street loan and you back out the 60 -- I'm sorry -- the $6 million swap fee that they had to pay in order to do the 40 Wall Street loan with Ladder Capital, that number goes down to 18.2 million; right?
Correct.
Q nd you would agree with me in rough numbers that if you back that out of your analysis you get 18.2, plus 1.7, plus 53.4, plus 99.5, that number would only be 82.8 million?
It's about right.
Q That's about right?
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, I have no further questions on cross examination.

THE COURT: ny redirect?
MR. W LL CE: Was there other cross from any other defendant?
MR. ROBERT: No, thank you.
MR. W LL CE: No redirect, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. I'll let the witness go.
Thank you.
(Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness stand.)
MS. F HERTY: On behalf of the People again, we call Donald Trump, Jr. to the stand for our next witness.
THE COURT: Let's get the witness.
nd Ms. Faherty, you're not coming through that loud. Maybe move it up.
I believe we have some photographers that have interest in this situation? Let them come in.
MS. F HERTY: I was not forewarned and my hair is a mess.
THE COURT: I was forewarned and my hair is still a mess.
MS. F HERTY: I like your hair better, Judge.
THE COURT: I'll ask the witness to take the stand.
(Whereupon, the witness enters the courtroom and approaches the witness stand.)
THE COURT OFFICER: Please raise your right hand.

Do you solemnly swear or affirm that any testimony you give will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?
D O N L D T R U M P J R., called by and on behalf of the Plaintiff, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE WITNESS: I do.
THE COURT OFFICER: Please have a seat.
Please state your name and either home or business address on the record.
THE WITNESS: Donald Trump, Jr., 725 Fifth venue, New York, New York 10022.
THE COURT: Voice sounds good, but get a little closer to the mic. It's very temperamental.
nd let's proceed with the questioning.
DIRECT EX MIN TION
BY MS. F HERTY:
Q Good afternoon, Mr. Trump.
fternoon. How are you.
Q Good, thank you. Nice to see you again.
Mr. Trump, are you taking any medication or drugs of any kind that might make it difficult for you to understand and answer my questions today truthfully and accurately?
No.
Q re you suffering from any conditions that would make it difficult for you to understand my questions and answer questions today truthfully and accurately?

No.
Q Just a few brief questions about your educational background and work history.
First, did you attend college?
I did.
Q Did you earn a degree?
I did.
Q From where did you earn a degree from the college institution you attended?
The University of Pennsylvania.
Q Is it the Wharton School of Business that you attended?
Yes, as a division of the business school of, yes.
Q nd what degree did you receive from the University of Pennsylvania?
Bachelor of science.
Q In what concentrations, if any?
Real estate finance and marketing.
Q nd in what year did you earn that degree, Mr. Trump?
2000.
Q ny sub majors?
I guess the real estate finance and marketing are sort of all the sub majors that are, you know, part of the bachelor of science.

Q Okay. How about professional certifications or licenses?
I'm a real estate broker.
Q nd when did you receive that real estate broker's -- sorry -- withdrawn.
Do you have a license to be a real estate broker?
Yes.
Q Okay. nd when did you receive that real estate broker's license?
I don't recall.
Q Refresh your recollection that it was about the mid 2000s?
That seems about right. That probably was my salesperson license and then took it further after that, but yes, that's probably about right.
Q So you have a real estate broker's license and there are degrees contained within that license; yes?
Correct.
Q nd is there a brokerage firm that sponsors your real estate broker's license?
Trump International Realty.
Q What is Trump International Realty?
Let's call it the brokerage arm of the Trump Organization.
Q nd are you employed at Trump International Realty?

Not specifically, no.
Q re you one of the executive officers that oversees Trump International Realty?
I believe I am.
Q Okay. re you familiar with anyone else who is an executive that oversees Trump International Realty?
Likely my brother Eric.
Q nyone else?
Not off the top of my head.
Q t any point in time did your sister Ivanka Trump also serve as an executive officer that oversaw Trump International Realty?
I believe she would have, yes.
Q Did the three of you Eric, Ivanka and you serve as the initial executive officers that established the Trump International Realty brokerage arm of the Trump Organization?
That would make sense, but I don't recall.
Q Okay. ny other licenses or certifications that you have not told me about?
Not off the top of my head.
Q re you familiar with an acronym G P or G P?
I'm familiar with it, yes.
Q What -- how are you familiar what that acronym G P?
Well, I understand what it stands for.
Q What does it stand for?

Generally accepted accounting principles.
Q nd how did you become familiar with what the acronym G P stands for?
I believe that was an accounting 101 back in the late 90s.
Q t Wharton?
Yes.
Q nything else that you're familiar with with regards to the acronym G P or what it stands for?
No, that's what I have CP s for.
Q Okay. Have you ever been employed in the position that required you to apply G P to your work?
Not to my knowledge.
Q nd correct you're not a certified public accountant; right?
That is correct.
Q nd you don't hold any professional certifications in accounting; right?
Not even a little bit.
Q nd fair to say you're not a member of the merican Institute of CP s or similar types societies; right?
Sounds very exciting, but no.
Q Those certifications aside, have you received any professional training in applying G P in the course of your work?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3156

I have not, no.
Q Okay. So I'm going to ask a series of questions related to G P. I'm sure we'll move through quickly, but I just want to just confirm some of your knowledge with regards to G P.
Is it fair to say based on your testimony that you're not familiar with how revenue is recognized in accordance with G P?
MR. ROBERT: Objection. The witness has already testified he's not familiar with G P. Now asking more questions about what he knows about G P is going to get us nowhere.
THE WITNESS: Yes, I know nothing about G P in terms of that capacity and I'll leave it to my accountants. That's why we have Big 5 CP firms to do all of that.
Q So any further probing questions I would ask you about G P and how G P would be applied your answer would consistently be "I have no such knowledge?"
That's correct.
Q Thank you.
re you familiar with the Financial ccounting Standards Board or F SB otherwise referred to as F SB?
Not to my recollection, no.
Q No specification understanding as to its function or its work?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3157

No.
Q How about the accounting standards codification? ny understandings -- any understanding as to the accounting standards codification and sub rules contained within?
No.
Q So if I asked you about any of the N SC rules you would not have any specific knowledge as to those rules?
That's correct.
Q Similarly, if I asked you a question about the SC rules as they applied to statements of financial condition or compilation work, no specific understanding as to those rules or the application to statements of financial condition?
Correct.
THE COURT: Those are negative questions. You can ask him if he does, not --
MS. F HERTY: I promised I wasn't going to do it, Judge.
THE COURT: It's a tough habit to break.
MS. F HERTY: It is.
THE COURT: Just ask Mr. Suarez.
Q Fair to say you don't have that understanding?
No.
Q Thank you.
THE COURT: I think that was just a negative question. "Fair to say you don't have that understanding?"

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3158

You should ask him "do that you have that understanding."
THE WITNESS: I have no understanding. Simplify it.
MR. ROBERT: That was about G P he meant.
Q I'll take the answer.
Is it fair to infer that any work, if any, that you did on the Statement of Financial Condition you are not applying the FCs or any rules included in the F S?
THE COURT: That's a negative question.
Q You didn't apply any work --
MS. H BB : Excuse me. I'm going to object to that. We've already run through that. He said he doesn't have qualifications. We've asked and answered this so now you're asking him something about a statement of financials and applying FC rules. This will take a lot longer if we keep doing it.
THE WITNESS: I -- that's what you do in business. If you don't have that understanding, I rely on the professionals and CP s that we paid millions of dollars that have that degree and probably have a great degree of understanding and I rely on their opinions and their assessments to make those decisions.
MS. F HERTY: Move to strike, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Well, the last part, yes, but I've sustained the objection. It will be a lot simpler if he says he doesn't understand some standards, not to ask him about the standards.

MS. F HERTY: No problem, Your Honor. Thank you.
THE COURT: Sure.
Q Mr. Trump, who is your current employer?
I believe it's still Trump Payroll Corp.
Q Do you work for an umbrella organization known as the Trump Organization?
Generally speaking.
Q You just made a reference to Trump Payroll Corp. Who is Trump Payroll Corp?
n entity designed to pay the employees of the Trump Organization.
Q nd what is Trump Payroll Corp's business other than paying employees of the Trump Organization?
That's the extent of it. So you can again talk to the lawyers and the accountants who structured those things that way for corporate structure purposes.
Q nd you just made reference to employees of the Trump Organization. What is the Trump Organization?
Generally speaking it's a -- let's call it an umbrella term for the entities under the purview of our family's business.
Q So if I make a reference to the Trump Organization and work you've performed for the Trump Organization do you have an understanding as to the business I'm referring to when I use the term "the Trump Organization?"

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3160

Generally speaking, yes.
Q Okay. When did you start working for the Trump Organization?
Shortly after September 11th, 2001. So I think it was the 17th, right after 9/11.
Q Was that after a gap year from college?
That was.
Q nd when you first began working for the Trump Organization, what was your title?
I worked as a project manager on West Side Yards project, so it wasn't even for the Trump Organization. It was for Hudson Waterfront LLC or one of the derivatives of that.
Q There is a derivative entity known --
I think it's Hudson Waterfront ssociates perhaps.
Q Hudson Waterfront ssociates.
Is that still affiliated with the Trump Organization?
It's been awhile. I'm not sure.
Q ny reason to doubt that it is an entity affiliated with the Trump Organization?
Well, the assets were sold, so perhaps they are gone. I don't know.
Q t the time on which you were working on that project was it affiliated with the Trump Organization?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3161

Yes.
Q nd through your work on the west side Yards project is it correct that you became familiar with Vornado Realty Trust?
Yes.
Q nd you became familiar with the partnership arrangement between Vornado and the Trump Organization; correct?
Really didn't have anything to do with what I was doing at the time, but I generally knew of it. I was a low level guy learning how to build ground-up construction, so I didn't really deal with those entities, but generally speaking, yes.
Q nd generally you're familiarity with that partnership, with Vornado, is that the Trump Organization or the umbrella Trump Organization maintains a 1/3 partnership relationship with Vornado; yes?
Yes.
Q fter the Hudson West Side Yards project, is it correct that you then still were working as a project manager you handled construction and development at Trump Park venue?
Yes.
Q Is that a prewar building?
Yes.
Q nd what specifically did you do as project manager at Trump Park venue?
Little bit of everything; design construction, overseeing some of the banking relationships we had, anything and everything.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3162

Q nd correct that there are certain units contained at Trump Park venue that are rent stabilized, yes?
Hotel stabilized, but yes.
Q nd you're familiar with rent stabilized laws here in New York City; correct?
I was then. I've probably forgotten most of it now.
Q Fair to say at the time you had that knowledge about the rent stabilization laws that impacted development at Trump Park venue; correct?
Yes.
Q nd the limitations imposed by those laws; correct?
Correct.
Q Subsequent to the Trump Park venue project is it correct you then eventually worked at the Trump International Realty Hotel in Chicago; right?
Yes.
Q gain, as a project manager still?
I don't recall my specific title, but probably, yes.
Q nd what exactly were your duties at the Trump International Realty Hotel in Chicago?
Well, when I got involved it was still the Chicago Sun Times building. We had a partnership with them and we were going to build the tallest residential building in Chicago there. So everything from design, architecture, sales, and marketing, finance, construction. You name it.

Q nd do you recall the time period that you were working on that particular project?
Early 2000s. It was quite a bit of time, but probably three, four years I spent three days a week there for three, four years.
Q nd then subsequent to your time working on the Chicago project, fair to say you had a change in title in your work for the Trump Organization?
I may have. I don't specifically recall when that happened, but yes. I was progressing.
Q What do you recall your next title was at the Trump Organization after you progressed from being a project manager?
I don't recall.
Q Fair to say you eventually became an EVP or executive vice president at the Trump Organization?
Eventually, yes.
Q How many other titles have you held in the course of your tenure with the Trump Organization?
I'm not sure.
Q More than five?
Probably not, no.
Q Less than five then?
Yes, but I don't know specifically.
Q Have you at any point become an executive vice president at the Trump Organization?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3164

Yes.
Q So we've got project manager; yes?
Yes.
Q Executive vice president; correct?
Correct.
Q What other titles as you sit here today did -- can you think of that you've had in the time that you've worked for the Trump Organization?
I imagine I was a VP somewhere along the way and I'm not exactly sure.
Q nd at what point in time do you think you were just a VP, not an executive VP?
I can't recall.
Q Before 2011?
I would imagine so, yes.
Q Fair to say beginning at least from 2011 you have served as an executive vice president for the Trump Organization; yes?
On or about, yes.
Q nd considering the hierarchy of executive titles within the Trump Organization where does an executive vice president fit within such hierarchy?
Fairly high.
Q Who is above you in your role as an executive vice president at the Trump Organization?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3165

MR. ROBERT: Time period?
MS. F HERTY: I think we've got from 2011 forward he has served as an executive vice president, so the question was related to in his time as an executive vice president who was above him.
MR. ROBERT: t what point in time? You're talking about a decade.
MS. F HERTY: I can narrow it down. I can ask the question.
THE COURT: Or you can keep it broad. Was anyone ever among you?
THE WITNESS: Obviously, I would have reported to my father during that period of time. I imagine, you know, in the early transition to that title I would have still been, you know, people like an llen Weisselberg still would have been senior to me. Those would have been the primary.
Q When was the time period when llen Weisselberg was senior to you?
Well, certainly initially in that time frame and, you know, as other projects and especially as we started expanding more abroad and outside of New York City obviously I was going to be on the road a lot of that time. So the seniority started let's call it equalling up, then I guess that would have been mid teens, mid, early teens.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3166

Q So around 2013?
Perhaps off the top of my head, yes.
Q So from the period of 2011 to 2013, what, if any, decisions did you need to report in to llen Weisselberg for his approval?
There is not a specific list.
Q Did llen Weisselberg have authority over your work at the Trump Organization between the time period of 2011 to 2013?
I would say yes on some things and other things I'd have total autonomy to do what I wanted.
Q Describe for me the specific things you were thinking about with that testimony that llen Weisselberg had an authority over you between 2011 to 2013?
Well, I wouldn't have done a refinance without, you know, the involvement of our CFO obviously. Those are the kinds of things. If I was making a construction decision or even a deal decision to do a -- say, a licensing deal abroad, I had the autonomy to do that. gain, there is not sort of a defined list of where you would or would not go, but there are definitely things I would bring to him because I was naturally his wheelhouse.
Q In 2011 to 2013, which refinancing deals did llen Weisselberg supervise you on?
I don't recall.
Q No specific recollection as you sit here today?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3167

I'm just using refinance deals as an example of something I would bring. I'm not talking about a specific one, so if you have specific ones you can ask them, I can give you the answer.
Q I'm asking your specific knowledge as you sit here today.
I don't specifically recall in that time frame which ones we refi'd or didn't.
Q ny other areas of supervision between 2011 to 2013 for which you reported to llen Weisselberg for his supervision?
Not that I recall.
Q I believe you also said your father during this period. What is the period to which you are referring to between 2011 forward for which your father Donald J. Trump was a supervisor who had authority over the work you performed at the Trump Organization?
Until he assumed the presidency.
Q When was that?
January of 2017.
Q nd how about your siblings? Between 2011 to present -- let's do 2011 to 2017. What, if any, authority did Eric Trump have over your work between 2011 to 2017?
We were on a similar plane, so we had our own silos and we tried to stick to that. nd if someone would be better at a certain thing or had a more institutional knowledge he would bring them in, but we had our own silos.

Q So in the hierarchy would you say that you were equal footing with Eric between 2011 and 2017?
Yes.
Q How about Ivanka between 2011 and 2017?
Same.
Q nd fair to say your father was above the three of you during that time period, 2011 to 2017?
Yes.
Q Was llen Weisselberg similarly over Ivanka and Eric between 2011 and 2013 that you testified to just a few moments ago?
I don't know the exact dates, but that would make sense. s they matured and as they figured out more, those levels blended together a lot more.
Q nd in 2017, how, if at all, did the hierarchy above you serving continuing sales in EVP change?
We stopped reporting to my father on decisions involving the business.
Q So who at that point in January 2017 was in charge of the Trump Organization?
It would have been a combination of myself, llen Weisselberg and my brother.
Q nyone else?
No.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3169

Q nd was there a change in title in January 2017 to reflect that supervisory change?
Not that I remember, no.
Q Okay. Focusing on your time as an EVP.
You've spoken about some of them, but let's dig in a little bit more.
What were your general responsibilities serving as an executive vice president at the Trump Organization?
It's an all-encompassing developmental role for me. Specifically, I focused a lot on our international business, a lot on our hotel company and development of new licensing deals and such, but you could have done anything at any given day.
Q Fair to say you handled acquisitions?
Yes.
Q You worked on development projects; yes?
Yes.
Q You worked on the operation side of the business?
Correct.
Q I heard you just say you worked on financing; correct?
t times, yes.
Q nd you've worked on the leasing side of the business; yes?
Yes.
Q You've worked on the branding side of the business; correct?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3170

Yes.
Q nd that was generally the types of responsibilities you had between this time period 2011 through 2017?
Correct.
Q Is that still current today?
Yes.
Q Focusing after January of 2017, you've said you did not have a title change, but the responsibilities changed insofar as you did not have to report in to anyone above you; correct?
Correct. I became a trustee of the trust. My title stayed the same, but I functioned as a trustee as well.
Q Since January 2017, who has the ultimate authority over decisions made at the Trump Organization?
Then it would have been again llen Weisselberg, myself and my brother.
Q nd by your brother, you're referencing Eric, not Barron; correct?
Correct.
Q Does llen Weisselberg still retain that same authority that it transitioned to in January 2017?
No, he does not.
Q Why did that change?
Because some legal issues he got himself into, so that switched and I became the trustee.
Q Does llen Weisselberg still work at the Trump

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3171

Organization?
No.
Q When did llen Weisselberg stop working for the Trump Organization?
I don't know the exact date.
Q Can you approximate the year in which llen Weisselberg stopped working for the Trump Organization?
Probably within the last two years. I'm not sure exactly what the date was, so.
Q Was there a specific event that occurred that marked the basis for Mr. Weisselberg's termination from the Trump Organization?
The specific event could be his indictment.
Q So your testimony as you sit here today is because Mr. Weisselberg was indicted at that time his position at the Trump Organization was terminated?
His position wasn't terminated, but that role as trustee was.
Q nd just so that I'm clear, you're referring to a role of trustee. Was that a job assignment or was that something else?
I'm not sure I understand the difference.
Q You don't understand the difference between serving the Trump Organization in an employment role and serving as a trustee over a trust?

Well, our obligations as trustee were to serve the beneficiary of the trust. That was my father. That was similar perhaps to our jobs before. I imagine there is difference in nuance to that.

Q Okay. You said that Mr. Weisselberg was not terminated. What is your understanding of how Mr. Weisselberg ended his employment relationship with the Trump Organization?

I don't know the exact details.

Transcript continues on the following page...

Q Did he retire?

No.

Q Did you ask him to leave?

I did not.

Q Did your brother ask him to leave?

I'm not sure.

Q You have no knowledge as you sit here today as to the reason why Mr. Weisselberg is no longer employed by the Trump Organization?

I have no knowledge of the specifics of how it happened, so I was not involved, so I can't tell you.

Q What is your general knowledge?

He is no longer working at the Trump Organization.

MS. H BB : I'm just going to object. I think she mischaracterized his testimony, first of all. Secondly, we are now going down a rabbit hole of the same question asked seven different ways.

THE COURT: Sustained. Let's move on.

MS. F HERTY: Okay.

Q Did Donald J. Trump have any role in decision making at the Trump Organization between January 20, 2017 and January 20, 2021?

No.

Q How about since January 20, 2021?

Since January, I'm sure he made some decisions, yes.

Q When did his ability -- when did he resume making decisions at the Trump Organization after the January 20, 2021 date?

I don't specifically recall.

Q Sometime shortly thereafter or was it just yesterday?

I don't know.

MS. F HERTY: 1330.

Your Honor, I'm handing to the witness -- I've marked as PX-1330. I'm going to ask the witness to take a look at it and then I'll ask a few questions before I move to admit this exhibit.

THE COURT: Five-minute warning.

(Witness reviewing document.)

Okay.

Q Do you recognize this document, Mr. Trump?

I don't.

Q I'll ask you a few questions.

Did you receive power of attorney over certain of Mr. Donald J. Trump's affairs in or about March of 2017?

Yes.

Q The document in front of you, you can see on page one, it says, "This is a Power of ttorney New York Statutory Short Form," right?

Yes.

Q You could see the front page, there are some cautions issued to the principal.

Do you have any understanding as to what a principal would be in a power of attorney short form?

None that I recall at this time. Though, I may have been briefed.

Q Fair to say that the principal -- if we turn to the -- page 6 of 8, looking at the signature block where there's a signature and acknowledgment section --

Yes.

Q -- there's the word "PRINCIP L" in capital letters. You see that there?

Yes.

Q Do you recognize the signature that is beside that?

I do.

Q Whose signature do you recognize that to be?

It's my father's.

Q So fair to say that this document, if you don't have a specific understanding, but this document reflects that the principal would be Donald J. Trump, yes?

Yes.

Q Okay. So on the front page, we have some warnings to the principal, your father, correct?

Yes.

Q Page two, there is a Subsection B, drawing your attention to that there. "Designation of agents," do you see that?

I do.
Q It states, "I, Donald J. Trump, having an address at 1600 Pennsylvania venue, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20500," that was his address in Washington at the White House, yes?
Yes.
Q So from the White House, he hereby appointed. Is that your name there, "Donald J. Trump, Jr."?
It is.
Q Is that your brother's name, Eric Trump, yes?
Yes.
Q Each of you having an address, "care of the Trump Organization, 725 Fifth venue, New York, New York 10022 as my agents." You see that?
I do.
Q nd the Trump Organization at 725 Fifth venue, New York, New York, that was the same address you gave when you gave a business address at the beginning of your testimony here, yes?
Yes.
Q nd that's, again, affiliated with the umbrella entity, the Trump Organization, right?
Yes.
Q nd that marking underneath that looks like a quick D, is that your father's initial?
It is.

Q nd he has designated you as his agents in the Subsection B?
Yes.
Q nd then if we turn to the next page, Subsection F, it says, "The grant of authority." Do you see that header there?
I do.
Q nd then the explanation paragraph says, "To grant your agent some or all of the authority below, either (1) initial the bracket at each authority you grant or (2) write or type the letters of each authority you grant on the blank line at (P) and initial the bracket at (P). If you initial P, you did not need to initial the other lines." nd do you see he's indicated next to the "(P)?"
I do.
Q Fair to say that the grant of authority included , real estate transactions?
Yes.
Q nd D, banking transactions?
Yes.
Q nd so the grant of authority you had with this power of attorney was for real estate transactions and banking transactions, yes?
Yes.
Q nd under "modifications," it says, "The authority granted hereunder is solely with respect to the execution and delivery of certifications and similar documentation (including, without limitation, compliance certificates) in connection with existing financing in which Donald J. Trump is a guarantor." Yes?

Yes.
Q nd you understood you had this authority, correct?
Yes.
Q nd then drawing your attention to page 7 of 8 of this document, Section O says, " gent's signature and acknowledgment of appointment." Is that your signature there as agent?
Yes.
Q nd then the signature just below yours, do you recognize that signature?
I think so.
Q Whose signature do you recognize it to be?
I believe it's my brother's.
MS. F HERTY: We can take a break now. Put that down, Mr. Trump.
THE COURT: s usual, we will take a 10-minute break that ends in 15 minutes. See you all at 3:42. I'll direct the witness not to talk to anybody about this case or his testimony or anything related to it while he's still a witness.
THE WITNESS: Thank you, your Honor.
(Witness exits the stand.)

(Whereupon, a recess was taken.)
THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.
(Witness resumes the stand.)
THE COURT: Let's continue.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I did not move to admit PX 1330 at the end of my last inquiry. I so move to admit now.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1330.)
MS. F HERTY: Thank you, your Honor.
Q We've spoken a little bit about it, Mr. Trump, but you're familiar with the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust, correct?
Yes.
Q nd what do you understand the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust to be?
It was the trust that governed my father's assets especially while he was president.
Q It said -- it contains for the exclusive benefit of Donald J. Trump, his assets, yes?
Yes.
THE COURT: Hold on. We finally have an opportunity to ask a real trustee. Is it revocable or revocable?

THE WITNESS: Your Honor, its's a good question that I actually don't have the answer for, so it is -- I actually used both and I'm not sure actually which is correct.
THE COURT: Ms. Faherty has sort of started us off on revocable, right? Is that how you pronounce it?
THE WITNESS: Revocable is easier, it seems.
THE COURT: That's what we'll do.
MS. F HERTY: Riveting.
Q nd you are, in fact, a trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust?
I'm not sure what this is. I only understand revocable. Yes. Yes, I am.
Q Do you recall when you first became appointed a trustee of the trust? If I say "the trust," would you understand that to mean the trust that we're talking about?
Yes, ma'am.
Q Thank you.
Do you recall when you became a trustee of that trust?
Not specifically, no.
Q In or around the time period that you can recall?
Probably before my father assumed the presidency.
Q In or around January of 2017, does that seem fair?
Sounds about right.

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3181

Q We'll get some documents. Maybe that'll help.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, PX 769 is already in evidence. We have it on the screen here.
THE COURT: Okay.
Q Mr. Trump, taking a look at this document, you can see at the top it is the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust and it states as a subheading, " cceptance of Donald J. Trump, Jr. as trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust."
Do you see that there?
I do.
Q nd do you recognize the signature at the bottom of this page?
I believe it's mine.
Q nd the date, do you recognize that that date, January 19, 2017, to be in or about the time at which you became the trustee of the trust?
Yes.
Q re you familiar with the ttorney General's complaint in this case?
Vaguely, yes.
Q Do you recall filing an answer and then an amended answer to the complaint filed by the ttorney General in this case?
I recall my attorneys filing it, but generally speaking, yes.

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3182

Q You are aware that an answer was filed on your behalf, yes?
Yes, I am.
Q nd no -- you believe that that answer contains truthful representations of your actual position in responding to the ttorney General's pleadings in this case, yes?
I do.
Q I'll represent to you that paragraph 38 at the complaint states that "Donald Trump, Jr. and llen Weisselberg were trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust until Mr. Weisselberg resigned in June of 2021. On information and belief Donald Trump, Jr. is now the sole trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust. Donald Trump, Jr. is named in both his personal capacity and as the trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust." That was the allegation.
nd your answer submitted, as you've just stated by your attorneys, is that as to paragraph 38, "Defendant denies the allegations therein except admits only that he is the sole trustee and was named in this action in his personal capacity and that Mr. Weisselberg was removed as a trustee in 2021."
Did you review any documents in order to prepare that answer to the complaint?
I don't recall.
Q Do you have any basis to deny that answer?
I don't know.

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3183

THE COURT: You mean to deny the answer or deny the question?
MS. F HERTY: To rebut the answer that he filed in response.
THE COURT: To rebut, okay.
You have to ask the attorneys. I don't know.
Q I'm asking you do you have any basis to rebut that answer?
Not that I recall.
Q ny reason to believe that the answer your attorneys filed in regards to the ttorney General's pleadings -- any reason to believe that it contains false or incorrect responses?
No.
Q Can you explain the basis for that answer to me?
You'd have to ask them.
Q You have no basis as to who the trustees were and Mr. Weisselberg's resignation in June of 2021?
I'm not sure I understand the question.
Q Okay. Let's look at a document.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, our next document is PX 1016. It is already in evidence. I'm putting it on the screen here. It is a multi-page document. There are one, two, three pages of this document.
Q This document, can you see at the very top there, it says -- it is a reference to the trust again, yes?

Yes.
Q nd then the subheading on that particular document is " ppointment and cceptance of Trustee." Do you see that at the top there?
Yes.
Q nd do you see in the middle of the page, there is language -- I'll just draw your attention to the very first "whereas" clause. It states, "On pril 7, 2014, Donald J. Trump," that's your father, correct?
Yes.
Q It identifies him as the settlor and trustee. You see that there?
Yes.
Q Okay. So "Mr. Trump as settlor and trustee entered into an agreement of trust and by amendments," those dates are there, and then there are a number of "whereas" clauses. Do you see those?
Yes.
Q If we go further down on the page, you'll see that there's a "whereas" clause that, "Through the trust appointment, Mr. Trump or the settlor appoints himself as trustee under the assignment of trust and accepts such appointment effective as of 12:00 p.m. eastern standard time, January 20, 2021."
Do you see that in the very last "therefore" clause?
I do.

Q Did you have an understanding that in or about January 20, 2021, your father appointed himself as trustee of the trust?
I'm sorry. What was the date?
Q January 20, 2021.
I believe I'm aware of that, yes.
Q How did you become aware of that?
Conversations with counsel.
MR. ROBERT: I'm just going to object to the witness talking about any conversation with counsel as it is privileged.
MS. H BB : I instruct the witness not to discuss privileged conversations.
THE COURT: Okay. Can we let the answer stand, but from now on, we will be very vigilant.
So I assume you are aware of the attorney-client privilege.
THE WITNESS: I am, sir.
THE COURT: So keep that in mind.
Q Just turning to the next page of this document, recognize that signature there?
Yes.
Q Whose signature is that?
That's my father's.
Q nd does this indicate to you that between -- at some point in 2 -- January of 2021, specifically on the 20th of January 2021, Donald J. Trump restored himself as trustee of the trust?

It would appear that way, but I'm not all that well versed.
Q What was your role as trustee, if at all, at that time?
I don't recall.
Q Did you have a continuous time period serving as the trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust from January 2017 until present?
I'm not sure. I don't remember.
Q No understanding as it relates to this document whether at this particular time in January of 2021 you were still serving as a trustee; is that fair?
I think so.
Q Other than the fact that Mr. Trump restored his rights to serve as trustee in January of 2021, what else do you know? Don't tell me about conversations with counsel, but other than that, what do you know about Donald Trump serving as trustee over the trust in January of 2021 and going forward?
nything to that matter would have been done with counsel, so I don't know. I can't talk about it.
Q Other than conversations with counsel, no independent knowledge of Mr. Trump serving as trustee over the trust in January of 2021?

Right. I would rely on counsel for that kind of stuff.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I handed forward an exhibit marked for identification as PX-1015. It is not in evidence. I am going to ask a few questions before I move to admit.
Q Looking at this cover e-mail and I'll just represent to you that this is how the documents attached to this e-mail were produced from the records of the Trump Organization by counsel, so this is from the files of the Trump Organization.
ny understanding as to whom dam Rosen is at the Trump Organization?
He is a lawyer.
Q How about lan Garten? Do you recognize that name?
I do.
Q Who is he?
He is our general counsel.
Q re dam Rosen and lan Garten both attorneys at the Trump Organization?
Yes.
Q re they still currently employed by the Trump Organization?
They are.
Q nd this is dated February 22, 2022. You see that there is a subject "trustee documents"?
Yes.

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3188

Q nd then there are a series of attachments. Do you see those listed there?
I do.
Q nd I'll represent to you the body of the e-mail which says, "see attached." There are a number of bullets, one, two, three, four, five, six. You see them?
I do.
Q I'll represent to you those six bullets seem to correspond with the attachments to this message and you'll see that the first bullet is the resignation of DJT as trustee, yes?
Yes.
Q nd then there's an acceptance of Donald J. Trump, Jr. as trustee. That's you, correct?
Yes.
Q Then there is an acceptance of llen Weisselberg as business trustee. You see that?
I do.
Q Do you have any understanding as to what that's a reference to, a business trustee?
I don't.
Q Did you have an understanding that after January 20, 2017, llen Weisselberg's role as a trustee of the trust was to serve as a business trustee?
Not that I recall specifically.
Q nd then you see that the next bullet is the amendment to the trust?

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3189

Yes.
Q It states that it is removing W and Don as trustee. Do you see that there?
Yes.
Q ny understanding as to who W would be?
Off the top of my head, would probably be llen Weisselberg.
Q nd any understanding as to who Don is?
Me.
Q ny understanding that there were trustees other than you and llen Weisselberg serving as trustees to the trust?
Not that I recall.
Q nd then there is a document that says, "removal of DJT as trustee." You see that?
I do.
Q nd then there's lastly an acceptance of Donald J. Trump, Jr. as trustee. gain, you see that there?
Yes.
Q gain, that's a reference to you. You're Jr.?
Yes.
Q Let's turn to page 13 of this document. You'll see in the bottom there are numbers. It says -- page -- we'll look at 13 of 18. Tell me when you got there or otherwise, we have it projected on the screen for you.

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3190

I'm here.
Q I will represent to you this corresponds with bullet five of that cover e-mail, okay. Do you see the very last "whereas" clause?
I do.
Q It says, "Pursuant to Sub rticle of rticle Thirteenth of the agreement of the trust, little romanette one, settlor." Remember that's a reference to Donald J. Trump, right?
Yes.
Q "Hereby appoints Donald J. Trump, Jr. as trustee under the agreement of trust and little romanette two, Donald J. Trump, Jr. hereby accepts such appointment effective as of 2:30 p.m. eastern standard time, July 7, 2021."
Did you, in fact, restore your position as trustee on July 7th of 2021 over the trust?
It would appear so.
Q Turning to the next page, you'll see a signature, a witness thereof, July 7, 2021. Do you recognize that signature?
I do.
Q Whose signature is that?
My father's.
Q If we turn to the next page, recognize that signature?
That is my signature.
Q That's your signature. So fair to say that as of

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3191

July 7, 2021, you were restored as trustee, correct?
I believe so.
Q ny understanding as to what occurred in January 2021 and July 7, 2021 during which Donald J. Trump had assumed rights as trustee for that time period?
Not outside of conversations with counsel.
Q s you sit here today, are you aware of whether there has been any revocation of the January 20, 2021 appointment of Donald J. Trump as trustee?
I'm not sure.
Q s you sit here today, are you aware of whether Donald J. Trump is, in fact, still serving as a trustee of the trust?
I don't recall.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit PX-1015 into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1015.)
Q I have marked for identification another exhibit. It is marked as PX-865. It is an e-mail. Take a quick look at that, Mr. Trump, and I'll just ask you a few questions when you are ready.
I can't read it because of that box. Is there anything that can tell me what's -- what's behind the "per discussion with" box?

Q Let's look at the underlying document. Do you recognize the name Christopher Schreiber?
No.
Q Do you recognize the name Sheri Dillon?
Yes.
Q Who do you recognize the name Sheri Dillon to be?
She is tax counsel with Morgan Lewis and was also trustee counsel and generally speaking worked as a lawyer, outside counsel for us.
Q When you say she was trustee counsel, is she one of the attorneys who provided you advice? Don't give me any substance of conversations, but she provided you advice as to the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust?
I believe she set it up.
Q Other than setting it up, did you understand her to be one of the outside counsel that provided legal advice as to the trust?
Yes.
Q Do you recognize the name Donald Bender?
I do.
Q Who do you recognize the name Donald Bender to be?
Donald Bender was a CP . He worked as Mazars, LP. Prior to that, I guess Weiser. He was our accountant at the Trump Organization, outside accountant for decades handling -- I mean everything, practically everything. They did the audits for some of our rental buildings, so he was an outside accountant that we relied heavily on for all of your accounting needs.

Q Your name is not included in this e-mail, right?
It is not.
Q Okay.
I got off of this one.
Q This is a 2017 e-mail between Sheri Dillon -- from Sheri Dillon to Donald Bender with the subject "confirmation of trust facts." You see the date on that e-mail as March 7, 2017?
Yes, ma'am.
Q nd let me just clarify. You have no understanding that Christopher Schreiber was another accountant who worked at WeiserMazars, do you?
I don't know that. I've never heard the name, no.
Q But Donald Bender was at Mazars? That's what you testified to?
Correct. Donald Bender would have been a point person for just about anything we did accounting wise.
Q nd I heard you to reference that there is a box, the red box in the upper right-hand corner of this document, yes?
Yes.
Q That document says, "Per discussion with Sheri Dillon on 1/8/21 and dam Rosen, assistant general counsel of the Trump Organization, on January 9, 2021-no amendments to the trust."

You see that there?
I do.
Q So does this -- would you agree with me this appears to be a stamp relating to a 2021 conversation on top of a 2017 e-mail?
Perhaps it appears that way, but I don't want to speculate as to something I had nothing to do with.
Q Okay. Do you have any understanding as to a conversation Sheri Dillon had on January 8, 2021 with dam Rosen, counsel of the Trump Organization, on January 9, 2021 regarding no amendments to the trust?
I have no knowledge of it.
Q Okay. We can put that to the side. Don't tell me the substance of the conversation, but did you have any conversations with Ms. Dillon on or about January 8th or January 9, 2021 with regards to the status of the trust?
Not to my knowledge, no.
Q Did you have any conversation -- do not tell me the substance of it -- with dam Rosen on or about January 8th or January 9, 2021 with regards to the status of the trust?
Not that I'm aware of or can recall, no.
Q Okay. nd did you have any conversations with anyone at Mazars on January 8th or January 9, 2021 with regards to the status of the trust?
Not that I know of.

THE COURT: Try not to say "okay" after each answer.
MS. F HERTY: I did it as a whisper, Your Honor, but I will do it. I'm sorry.
THE COURT: That was quiet. Other times, it is more audible.
Q What is your understanding as to the responsibilities of the trustees over the trust?
I have an obligation as a fiduciary to function in the best interest of the beneficiary of the trust.
Q What does that mean?
Do what's in the best interest of the beneficiary of the trust.
Q Do you manage the assets of the trust?
Yes.
Q What are the types of decisions you make as a trustee of the trust?
ny of the business decisions related to the ongoing operating businesses of the trust. If we were working on new deals, that would fall in there, but we are very limited in terms of what new deals we were going to do because when my father assumed presidency, we stopped doing all of the international deals that was -- it -- primary part of my role in the organization, but anything and everything.
Q nd who do you consult with with regards to the decisions of the trust as a trustee?

Well, I could have consulted with any number of people in the organization. I mean, you have individual deals that have point people. You're going to talk with them. Many cases, you're talking with counsel. Many cases, you're talking obviously with accounting. So I mean, it could be dozens of people that we're dealing with on a daily basis to make an informed decision about an individual asset.
Q I believe you testified that you and llen Weisselberg for a period of time were both trustees of the trust at the same time, right?
That's correct.
Q Until he was removed from serving as a trustee, correct?
That's correct.
Q You don't have a specific recollection as to the time, but it was within about one to two years from today, right?
Correct.
Q ny other persons serving as a trustee over the trust with you other than the exception we discussed with Mr. Trump appointing himself as a trustee in January of 2021 until July 2021?
Not that I recall.
Q How about Eric Trump? Was he ever a trustee over the trust?

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3197

I don't believe he was.
Q Did you ever have to consult with Eric Trump in your decisions with regards to the trust?
I would obviously consult with Eric. He was a key point person on many, many deals and operating entities and I trust him explicitly and if I needed to consult with him on issues that he was more well-versed than I would have been.
Q nd did Eric Trump have any authority to make decisions on behalf of the trust?
He would have had authority to do things within the Trump Organization. I don't know if that gives him authority specifically within the trust, but if he said something that he wanted to do on a project that he was in charge of, I'd have no issue with that and I understand that he would do the appropriate diligence to make that decision and that's how I would base my decision.
Q Do you need me to have the court reporter read the question again? I don't think that was responsive.
Please ask it again.
MS. F HERTY: Can I have a readback?
MS. H BB : I think that was perfectly responsive.
THE COURT: I thought it was responsive, too, but let's have a readback of the question and the answer, right.
MS. F HERTY: Sure.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was read back.)

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3199

THE COURT: re you still objecting on grounds of nonresponsiveness?
MS. F HERTY: Confirm for me your understanding Eric Trump did not have any authority to make decisions on behalf the trust?
THE COURT: Is that a different question?
MS. F HERTY: different question. I'm going to let the answer stand.
THE COURT: Okay.
That's correct, I guess, ma'am.
Q So focusing on the time period from 2011 to 2020, I heard you just say earlier that you worked on licensing deals?
Yes.
Q For the Trump Organization; yes?
Yes.
Q How about management deals?
Yes.
Q re those similar to each other?
They can be. They can often overlap, but sometimes a licensing deal may involve licensing the brand to put a Trump building somewhere in the world. That may or may not come with a management deal. management deal may be if it was a hotel entity. If it was in the United States or if it was in New York, it would likely come with a management deal to operate the building afterwards because we do that. That may not make the most sense somewhere else in another part of the world where we don't have that level of expertise, so there is not a fixed rule.

Q nd what is your role with regard to the management deals? gain, focusing on the time period 2011 to 2020.
Just depends on which deals you're talking about.
Q Generally speaking.
If you're talking about hotel management deals, I would have been, you know, a point person on getting a lot of those done.
Q What does that mean?
I would have been likely the guy in charge of a lot of those deals, certainly internationally where we were doing a lot of that kind of, you know, hotel management deals and setting that up. That would have been something that fell into my court.
Q Is it a fair characterization that the management deals would be putting Trump Organization personnel to assist in the management of a hotel operation even if it wasn't necessarily a Trump Organization hotel?
Yes.
Q But it could also include Trump Organization hotels; yes?
That's correct. We owned and operated as well as managed for others.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3201

Q On licensing agreements what is your role with regards to licensing agreements? gain, I was probably the primary point person for a lot of our international licensing deals.
Q nd what is a licensing deal?
Developer wants to build a building, they want to know how to do that better, they want to put the Trump brand on it, they want to learn to build to that standard, they want to learn how to value, engineer and create luxury perhaps in a market where that's not as common. So, you know, again, anything and everything to take, you know, a building and make it something befitting our brand.
Q Would it be permitting a third party to use the Trump name in the course of its business?
Yes.
THE COURT: I'll ask the interrogator and interrogatee to talk a bit slower. The report is having a lot of difficulty keeping up with the rapid fire.
THE WITNESS: I apologize, Your Honor. I moved to Florida, but I kept the New York pace.
THE COURT: We've noticed.
Q I heard you just say that this could be worldwide. Fair to say that between these management deals and licensing deals. Would that be domestic deals; yes?
Yes.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3202

Q nd was there a period of time when that also included foreign deals?
Yes.
Q So, for example, did you have any management or licensing deals in the sias?
In what?
Q The sias?
The sian continent? Yes, we did.
Q How about in the Middle East?
Yes, we did.
Q Would those be considered the foreign deals that you had?
We call them international, but yes.
Q nd then the domestic deals, that would be here in the continental United States?
Correct.
Q Including Hawaii, too?
Yes.
Q Do you recall how you were compensated for work you performed on management deals and licensing deals for the Trump Organization?
Generally speaking, yes.
Q Describe for me how you were compensated for this work.
Well, I mean, I'd have to go through each deal, right, sort of -- it was different, but there was an evolution in our compensation where, you know, as we started, you know, seeking other deals abroad and that -- certainly to have a person with a last name Trump and a principal in the room help make that happen and we were branching out from New York quite a bit and we started taking and getting a small piece of the revenue that came in from those deals.

Q nd I believe earlier today you testified that you were paid by an entity Trump Payroll Corp; yes?
For our salary, correct.
Q For salary.
Yes.
Q Did you receive compensation for your licensing and management deals separate and apart from the salary you received from the Trump Payroll Corp?
If we brought in deals we got a small piece of those deals as we, you know, brought and signed up new deals and created revenue for the business, yes.
Q nd what was the entity that paid you for those deals?
I believe it was TTT Holdings.
Q Sorry. Say that again?
I believe it was TTT Holdings.
Q If I said the name TTT Consulting LLC?
Maybe that's what it is.
Q Okay.
It's been awhile.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3204

Q nd TTT Consulting LLC, is that an entity by which not just you, but your siblings Eric and Ivanka, were paid for those licensing and management deals that you worked on with regards to the Trump Organization's brands?
Yes.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I'm going to hand up to the witness a document that I've marked for identification as PX 1259. It's not in evidence yet. I'm going to ask a few questions and then I'll move to admit.
Q nd Mr. Trump, please just take a moment, look at the document in front of you and when you're ready I will ask you a few questions.
Okay.
Q Looking at this cover e-mail --
MR. KISE: Your Honor, Your Honor, sorry, but this is one of those times I'm just going to object on relevance. This is one of those times I would expect the Court as it has done to us to move the government along. I'm not sure what any of this has to do with TTT Consulting. We've spent an hour here and we're basically just talking about what roles he had and who he reported to and some trust documents and now we're talking about TTT Consulting which last I checked isn't in the complaint. Maybe it's somewhere in the 850 paragraphs, but I don't see where we're going at all with this and I would expect the Court as it has done repeatedly to the defense to ask them to move it along. Whether they do or not, I don't know, but I would certainly expect the same instruction.

THE COURT: Move it along as fast as you can.
MS. F HERTY: You already told me not to speak so fast, Your Honor. I'm doing my best.
THE COURT: The substance, move along as fast as you can.
Q Did you have a moment to look at this document, sir?
Yes.
Q Looking at the very bottom --
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Relevancy and statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Well, I don't know what it is yet.
MR. ROBERT: I'm having difficulty hearing Ms. Faherty. I thought she said move it in.
THE COURT: No, she did not.
MR. ROBERT: If you can talk a little bit louder, so I could hear it.
MS. F HERTY: I'm happy to speak louder if that's helpful.
MR. ROBERT: That would be great.
Q Look at the bottom e-mail, Mr. Trump.
Do you recognize the name Katherine Feigin, F-e-i-g-i-n?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3206

Yes.
Q Who do you recognize that name to be?
My assistant during that time frame.
Q Your assistant at the Trump Organization?
Correct.
Q Okay. nd it's from an e-mail address Scane-mail@Trumporg.com. Is it your understanding that's an e-mail from a scanner at the Trump Organization?
I would imagine so, yes.
Q Okay. nd this appears to be a forward without any message in the body from Ms. Feigin to you. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q On June 25, 2013 at 2:52 p.m., and in the very top e-mail, that's your e-mail address at the Trump Organization -- well, that's you, Donald Trump, Jr.; right, in the "from" column?
It would appear so.
Q nd it's addressed to Jeff McConney, Ivanka Trump and Eric Trump; yes?
Correct.
Q Subject is a forward. Nothing else in there; right?
Correct.
Q You see that there is an attachment to this message now?
I do.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3207

Q nd then in the body of your message you write, "signed TTT." Do you see that there?
I do.
Q Is TTT the entity we were just referring to, TTT Consulting LLC?
I believe it is.
Q Okay. nd just drawing your attention to the attachment again, I'll represent to you that this is the document produced from the Trump Organization's files. This is the attachment that was contained -- attached to that message. Do you recognize this document?
Not specifically, but I have no reason to believe it's not a real document.
Q Okay. nd there is a signature block at the bottom right hand corner of this page? Do you see it says "okay" and then it looks like that "D" symbol your dad initials with?
Yes.
Q You recognize that to be an "okay" and an initial from your father, Donald J. Trump?
Yes.
Q nd the heading on this document says "Donald J. Trump et al., Schedule of Fees due to TTT Consulting LLC for the period pril 1, 2013 to June 21, 2013." Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd then there is a series of columns on this document.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3208

The first is an entity column. You see it on there?
Yes.
Q So DT Marks & Baku LLC?
Yes.
Q nd then DT Dubai Wealth Manager LLC?
Yes.
Q It goes down THC. Is that Trump Hotel Collection? Which one is that?
Q THC, is that a reference to Trump Hotel Collection?
Well, specifically to Vancouver Management, but yes, that was likely Trump Hotel Collection.
THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Kise.
MR. KISE: This is a very interesting sojourn into a decade old TTT document, but I just have to object on this entire line of questioning. It's completely irrelevant to this case. Is there any connection that's going to happen at any point?
THE COURT: Ms. Faherty, what is the relevance?
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, there are licensing deals and management deals. First, the entities that are identified here in this column are the entities for which receive licensing fees and management fees which feed into the Statement of Financial Condition. It is a category within the Statement of Financial Condition and the three children or adult children Eric Trump, Mr. Trump, Jr. on the stand right now, and Ms. Ivanka Trump, who we will appear here later next week, all were members of TTT Consulting LLC that received the benefits for the deals they secured abroad that fed in the Statement of Financial Condition.

THE COURT: nd the relevance of that?
MR. KISE: Right.
MS. F HERTY: It all feeds into the statement of financial condition. It's a category of the Statement of Financial Condition, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Not everything in the statements of financial condition is relevant or at issue.
MS. F HERTY: It's the transactions of third parties. I mean, it has been apart of our case, Your Honor.
MR. KISE: I think everything has been apart of their case.
MS. F HERTY: You don't think anything has been apart of our case as well as everything has been apart of our case. I know you don't like it when certain questions come in, but I'd move faster if I would be permitted to ask my questions.
MR. KISE: If you would stick to relevant topics, certainly but this is ten years ago a distribution sheet for consulting deals with no plausible connectivity to anything that's at issue here.
MS. F HERTY: For which Donald Trump reviewed the spreadsheet of the fees, saw them, approved of them.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3210

MS. H BB : Now you're testifying, Colleen.
MS. F HERTY: I am not. I got him to testify as to the signature on this page. You know you don't like it when good evidence comes in, but please, allow me to continue.
MR. ROBERT: There is no reason to raise your voice, Ms. Faherty. There is no way compensation paid or whatever is here showing to Mr. Trump on the stand his brother or his sister flows into the Statement of Financial Condition. It's apples and oranges. It's completely irrelevant and I agree that this line of questioning should end.
THE COURT: Well, let me go back to Ms. Faherty. I understand you're saying these figures feed into this the Statement of Financial Condition. So what. Not everything -- am I correct not everything that fed into the any Statement of Financial Condition is relevant or am I missing something?
MS. F HERTY: No, Your Honor. You're not missing anything. You've appropriately heard me to say that this was one aspect of financial information contained on the Statement of Financial Condition. I'm going to continue asking, if you'll allow it, about the foreign deals, several of those are listed on here, the foreign deals that were represented to have ceased to exist. We have testimony from other witnesses that have already come in as to whether those foreign deals were actually reflected in the Statement of Financial Condition. I think I'm allowed a little bit of room, Your Honor, to continue.

nd also, just noting again this was reviewed by and approved by Donald J. Trump with the numbers and figures on this particular document.
MS. H BB : Your Honor, I'm just going to state one objection as the President's attorney. He will be here on Monday. We have Donald Trump, Jr. on the stand.
THE COURT: Objection overruled without prejudice. I see possible relevance at this point. I hope it will be clearer later on.
MS. F HERTY: I have two more questions on this document and we'll move along.
Q So in this document I was starting to ask there is a column for entities; right?
Yes.
Q nd then the categorization of where that deal location is in that second column. You see that there?
Correct.
Q nd there is a third column, a fee received for those particular transactions; yes? That's included in there?
Correct.
Q Those are redacted line for "fees paid to Daewoo." ny understanding about that?

Vaguely.
Q Then there is "amount subject to fee;" right?
Yes.
Q nd then you have a column "fees due to TTT." You see that in there?
Yes.
Q nd then it's split amongst DJT, Jr., Ivanka and Eric; yes?
Yes.
Q We can move on.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I move into evidence PX 865 and 1259. Those are the prior two exhibits we just discussed.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
(Whereupon, the items previously referred to are received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Numbers 865 & 1259 in evidence.)
Q So with regards to the deals that TTT Consulting LLC paid you for, do you recall the way in which you reported back to the Trump Organization that those management or licensing deals had been confirmed?

I don't specifically recall, ma'am.
Q Would there have been a contract that was signed with whatever the third party was?
Of course.
Q ny other way in which you may have reflected that there were confirmed deals whether they were management or licensing?
Conversations, but obviously everything would have been contractual, right. You're not doing a deal on a handshake anymore.
Q ll right. Let's look at the Statement of Financial Condition for June 30, 2017.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, this is already in evidence as PX 755.
Q Mr. Trump, a court officer will hand it to you, but I'll also represent to you it's on the screen. You can follow along at either. Do you recognize this document, sir?
No.
Q Did you ever perform work on --
MS. F HERTY: Excuse me, Your Honor.
Q Did you ever perform work on the Donald J. Trump Statement of Financial Condition for any year?
Not that I recall, no.
Q No specific knowledge, sir?
No.

THE COURT: That was a negative question with an ambiguous answer.
THE WITNESS: I have no specific knowledge, no.
THE COURT: That answer is not ambiguous.
Q Can we turn to the second page of this document?
Yes.
Q The second page is an "Independent ccounts' Compilation Report." In the opening paragraph it states: "The trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust dated pril 7th 2014 as amended on behalf of Donald J. Trump are responsible for the accompanying Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2017 and the related notes to the financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of merica."
If we go down to the bottom of the page you'll see it as dated October 30, 2017. Do you see that?
I do.
Q It's signed by WeiserMazars. This is WeiserMazars' representation that this Statement of Financial Condition was prepared at the responsibility of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust trustees. Is it your testimony that this statement contained in the Statement of Financial Condition does not include you, Donald Trump, Jr.?
I don't know. I signed off on a document that Mazars prepared with intimate knowledge and as a trustee I have an obligation to listen to those who are expert -- who have an expertise of these things. So I trust in llen Weisselberg who is an accountant. I trust Mazars who is a CP and a Big 5 accounting firm to put together a document of this nature.

So if they put something in, I wasn't working on the document, but if they tell me it's accurate based on their accounting assessment of all of the material -- and, again, Mazars, you know, when you look at Trump Park venue they did the tax return for the condominium that we no longer necessarily even own. We may have a couple units left, but these people had an incredible intimate knowledge and I rely on them.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I move to strike that response.
THE COURT: Can you read the question back, please?
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
THE COURT: I'll strike the answer because it goes all over the place. I don't think the question is that clear.
MS. F HERTY: Okay.
I won't re-read this first.
Can you move up, shley, to the first sentence?
Q "WeiserMazars have made a representation as to whom is responsible for this Statement of Financial Condition." You see that statement there?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3216

Yes.
Q Is it your -- is it your testimony that you are not involved --
THE COURT: It's a negative. Can't you just ask him if he was responsible?
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I did ask him if he was involved in the preparation of the Statement of Financial Condition. I'm now asking a question as to this statement if he understands if he is not included in this statement.
I'm not included in this statement or I am included in the statement?
Q re you a trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust?
I am.
Q s of October 30, 2017?
October 30, 2017? I believe by then I would have been, yes.
Q Did you work on the Statement of Financial Condition for June 30, 2017 for Donald J. Trump?
I did not. The accountants worked on it. That's what we pay them to do.
THE COURT: Five-minute warning.
Q I'll draw your attention to page 21 of 24 of this document, footnote five, "Real Estate Licensing Developments."
Yes.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3217

Q Turning your attention to the second paragraph. The second sentence states that "the estimated current value of $246 million was based on an assessment made by the trustees in conjunction with their associates and outside professionals of the cash flow that is expected to be derived from these associations as their potential is realized."
You did not provide this estimated current value of $246 million as is represented in this paragraph here; correct?
I didn't give them a value of $246 million, but I could have sat there and gone through each one of the deals individually with llen Weisselberg, with Jeff McConney, with Donald Bender and given them an idea of what I believe the cash flow coming from those deals would be worth not even knowing that it was for the purpose of this. So I could have certainly partaken and I probably would have had the most intimate knowledge about those deals, but it doesn't mean that I used that to put this together. They did that and so I could have very well been involved in inferring that number but not specifically know that I was working for that purpose.
They could have asked me on any given day what some deal was going to produce and, you know, again, for a lot of the deals on that list I would have been the primary point person and had the most intimate knowledge and I could have given them that answer but not known it was used to compile in this, but, correct. Meaning, I could have discussed the details of a deal which they would then infer is going to generate X number of revenue. They may have done that a hundred times with me to get a number but I may not have known that it was going to be used in aggregate for the Statement of Financial Condition so that -- I mean --

Q I know you said you could have. What is your specific recollection as to this paragraph valuing the $246 million figure under sub point five, "real estate licensing developments" contained in the 2107 Statement of Financial Condition?
MR. ROBERT: Objection, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Overruled.
I don't recall. I don't remember.
MR. KISE: Your Honor.
THE COURT: One or two minutes.
MR. KISE: So I just want to understand something. PX 1259 which was the document we spent so much time debating, the 2013 TTT Consulting document, is this now the connection that's being drawn between -- this was admitted subject to connection based on your prior statements that the relevance wasn't completely clear, but you think it was going to become clear. So I --
THE COURT: Well, I think it became clear, so.
MR. KISE: Well, this is 2013 and this is 2017. So I'm just wondering is this is what Ms. Faherty is drawing is the connection. She said she was going to connect this up, so I'm just trying to figure out whether it's this line of questioning or there is some line of questioning that relates to the 2013 Statement of Financial Condition.

THE COURT: Can you answer that?
MS. F HERTY: I also think his very long extended answer provided plenty of a connection as to that particular document. I understand if they want to object to statute of limitations, but I have proved it up, Your Honor. I still stand by the admission.
MR. KISE: Your Honor, we've gone completely through the looking glass, completely, fully. This is a 2013 document. 1259 is a 2013 document and this is a 2017 Statement of Financial Condition. What the two have to do with one of another other than in the most general sense I'm not sure, but I would very much object to the fact that there's been a connection.
THE COURT: Well, is there a connection and if so, what is the connection?
MS. F HERTY: The connection is as it relates to the work he performed for TTT.
Q t any point did you stop providing work for TTT Consulting LLC?
Well, we stopped doing a lot of our international deals when my father assumed the presidency because we weren't

-- we voluntarily chose not to do that so as not to create a conflict.

Q TTT Consulting LLC?

We wouldn't do any new deals, so those deals would have fallen under the purview of TTT.

Q nd your father assumed the presidency in 2017; yes?

Correct.

Q nd you still maintained domestic deals; yes?

We maintained existing deals that you couldn't just back out of if you had contractual obligations to.

Q Do you still receive payment from TTT Consulting LLC?

I don't actually know.

Q You have no knowledge as you sit here today what, if any, distributions you receive from TTT Consulting LLC?

MR. KISE: Objection. Relevance.

Not really no.

THE COURT: Objection. Ground?

MR. KISE: Relevance today?

THE COURT: Overruled, but he did answer. It's asked and answered. You asked him twice do you remember or did he have deals.

MS. F HERTY: I think we said foreign deals and I went to domestic deals. There was the distinction there, Your Honor, because as you can see in this particular document which --

THE COURT: Objection overruled. I see the connection. We'll see you all tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

MS. F HERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I'll order the witness again don't discuss this case or your testimony or anything related to it while you're still a witness which will continue until tomorrow.

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Thank you.

PROCEEDINGS Page 3224

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is now in session. The Honorable Judge rthur Engoron presiding. Make sure all cellphones are on silent. Laptops and cellphones will be permitted, but only to members of the press. There's absolutely no recording or photography of any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now, be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: There is no photography allowed in the courtroom, but we're going to let in the photographers now.

(Whereupon, there was a pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: I understand we have at least one housekeeping matter about three witnesses.

MR. W LL CE: Certainly, Your Honor. We just noted our objection to defendant's plan to call three witnesses, former and current Deutsche Bank employee, by videotaped deposition because the witnesses are amenable to subpoena in New York.

THE COURT: What is the defendant's current position and intention?

MR. ROBERT: We will be talking to their lawyers as we were informed. s we've been talking to their lawyers in the past, they said the witnesses will be unavailable, but we'll continue to speak with them and report back what we learn.

THE COURT: Okay. There's unavailable and there's unavailable. So they can testify in person like --

MR. ROBERT: Two of them are definitely out of state. The third is, as I understand it, a resident of New York State, but we had been told previously may be unavailable, but we'll confirm all that.

THE COURT: ll right. Just let us know.

MR. ROBERT: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.

MR. W LL CE: I would just note that we agree, as we note in our letter, that two witnesses are out of state. One is still a current Deutsche Bank employee and to our view is amenable to subpoena through the bank and the other one is employed in New York and so is regularly appearing in Manhattan to work at Morgan Stanley.

MR. ROBERT: Our view, and we don't need to belabor the issue, we argued this last Friday with the deal with Ms. Trump's subpoena. We're dealing with the lawyers for the parties. They'll let us know their position. If they want to get involved at some point, they will, but we will report back in due course.

THE COURT: Perfect. Shall we resume the testimony?

MS. F HERTY: Yes, Your Honor.

We recall Mr. Donald J. Trump, Jr., please.

(Witness resumes the stand.)

THE COURT: Let's continue.

PROCEEDINGS Page 3226

MS. F HERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
D O N L D T R U M P, J R. , a witness called by the Plaintiff, after having been previously sworn by the Clerk of the Court, took the witness stand and testified as follows:
Q Good morning, Mr. Trump?
Good morning.
Q Did you have any conversations regarding your testimony yesterday since you left the courthouse?
No, I didn't.
MS. F HERTY: ll right. I'm going to hand up to the witness a document that has already been admitted into evidence. It is identified as PX-756.
Q Mr. Trump, it will also be on the screen. The court officer will hand it over to you. I'll represent that this is the June 30, 2016 Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump.
Do you have that in front of you, sir?
I do.
Q re you familiar with this document?
No.
Q Did you help prepare this document?
I did not.
Q Did you review this document?
I may have seen this document in preparation for either my testimony here or in my -- at my prior deposition, but otherwise, no.

PROCEEDINGS Page 3227

Q Fair to say you didn't specifically prepare any of the valuations contained within in document?
That's correct.
Q nd just turning to the second page of this document, do you see under the independent accountant's compilation report dated March 10, 2017?
I do.
Q nd at the very top, the opening paragraph says, "That the trustees of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust are responsible for this Statement of Financial Condition"?
Yes.
Q Okay. You can put that down.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I'd like to put on the screen Plaintiff's Exhibit PX 742. It has already been admitted into evidence.
Q Mr. Trump, it's a spreadsheet, so it will only be on the screen because it is a pretty large document.
Fair enough.
Q re you familiar with this document on the screen?
Not to my knowledge.
Q Fair to say you did not help prepare this document?
I don't know anything about the document, so I imagine so, yes.
Q nd I'll represent to you that the title on this document is "Donald J. Trump Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2016."

PROCEEDINGS Page 3228

Fair to say you're not familiar with a support data spreadsheet prepared in connection with the Donald J. Trump Statement of Financial Condition?
I don't know. If that is this, then I'm not familiar with it. I'm not familiar with a document of that nature, no.
Q nd specifically referencing this document on this screen, you have no specific familiarity with this document, correct?
Correct. I don't believe I've seen this document.
Q Did you specifically prepare -- withdrawn.
MS. F HERTY: I'm going to hand up to the witness a document that is not yet in evidence. It is marked for identification as PX-1344. Take a moment to look at it and I will ask you a few questions, sir.
(Witness reviewing document.)
Okay.
Q Do you see in the underlying e-mail, there is a message from Noah K-I-R-S-C-H at forbes.com e-mailing lan Garten on Friday, March 3, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. a message with the subject "urgent, fact checking inquiry from Forbes."
Do you see that underlying e-mail?
I do.
Q nd contained within that e-mail, do you see that there are a number of emboldened headings. The first one on the cover page of this e-mail, it says, "Trump Organization."

Do you see that there?
I do.
Q If you turn to the next page of this e-mail, do you see in the middle of that page there is an e-mail with a heading "Trump Tower penthouse"?
I do.
Q nd you see that there are a series of questions related to that heading "Trump Tower penthouse, one through ten"?
Yes.
Q nd in the first sentence, it references, "President Trump has told Forbes in the past that his penthouse occupies 30,000 square feet comprising the entirety of floors 66-68 of Trump Tower "--
THE COURT: It says 33,000, not 30,000.
Q 33,000.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you for the correction, Your Honor.
Q Do you see that first line there?
Yes.
Q nd then it subsequently says, "It shows President Trump's apartment is 10,996.39 square feet' referencing the property records in the prior sentence. Do you see that?

I do.
Q Okay. nd then on that very same day, if we go back to the cover page, lan Garten, he works at the Trump Organization. We discussed him yesterday?
Correct.
Q lan Garten forwards this message to you, correct?
It would appear so, yes.
Q nd then llen Weisselberg and Eric Trump, right?
Correct.
Q s well as manda Miller?
Yes.
Q Who's manda Miller?
She was running our marketing department at the time.
Q nother employee of the Trump Organization?
Yes.
Q nd then the very top e-mail, that's your e-mail address responding at 12:46 p.m., yes?
Correct.
Q nd you write "insane amount of stuff there," yes?
Yes.
Q Do you recall receiving this message?
No.
Q side from this specific message, what, if any, fact checking did you do to follow up on the message contained in Mr. Kirsch's e-mail?

I don't know that I did any. I don't know that I would spend hundreds of questions worth of time on answering Forbes Magazine.
Q So no specific recollection as to what you did, yes? You don't have that recollection?
I have no specific recollection of doing anything with it.
Q What conversations did you have about this e-mail?
I don't know that I had any.
Q So no specific recollection about conversations?
No.
Q Okay.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit Plaintiff's Exhibit P X-1344.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you, your Honor.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1344.)
Q Mr. Trump, I'm going to display on the screen and ask the court reporter to hand up to you a document already in evidence. It is identified as PX 741.
Do you see that document in front of you, sir?
Yes.
Q nd this is on Trump Organization letterhead, yes?
Correct.

Q I'll turn your attention to page three of this letter. Do you recognize that signature on the bottom right-hand corner of page three?
That's my signature.
Q Okay. Turning back to the front page, this letter is dated March 10, 2017, correct?
That is correct.
Q This is one week after your e-mail in which you stated "insane amount of stuff here" with regards to the Forbes inquiry?
Presumably, yes.
Q Mr. Trump, in connection with the work Mazars performed on the Statement of Financial Condition, the Trump Organization presented Mazars with a signed representation letter, correct?
I believe so.
Q nd this is one such representation letter, correct?
I believe that's correct.
Q Okay. Turning your attention to the first page, the third paragraph states, "We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of March 10, 2017, the following representations made to you during your compilation."
Do you see that language there?
I do.
Q nd then following that confirmation, there is a subparagraph number one. Do you see it?

I do.
Q nd then if you turn to the next two and three pages, you'll see there are numbered paragraphs going up to paragraph 16. Do you see those?
I do.
Q nd we'll just talk about a couple of the representations that the Trump Organization confirmed in this letter.
Do you see point two, the representation is, "We have made available to you all financial records and related data, and any additional information you requested from us for the purpose of the compilation. We have not knowingly withheld from you any financial records or related data that in our judgment would be relevant to your compilation."
You see that that was a representation in this letter?
I do.
Q nd in paragraph four, there's another representation. "We acknowledge and have fulfilled our responsibility for designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the personal financial statement that is free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error."
Do you see that representation?
I do, yes.
Q nd at point five, there's another representation, "We acknowledge our responsibility for designing, implementing and maintaining internal control to prevent and detect fraud."

PROCEEDINGS Page 3234

I do.
Q One more representation just to draw your attention to it. Make sure that you see it is there. Number 15, "We have responded fully and truthfully to all inquiries made to us by you during your compilation."
Do you see that representation on behalf of the Trump Organization there?
I do.
Q Do you agree with those representations in this letter?
I do. Every decision I made was based on all of the information that I would have gotten from Mazars who ironically is also the one we're writing this letter to, but they were intimately involved in every aspect of that. nd again, for purposes of accounting, I rely on the accountants and so while I make these representations to them, they have frankly as much, if not more, information in the details of all of this than I ever would have had.
Q So you relied on Mazars to make these representations to Mazars?
I relied on Mazars and our accounting team to tell me what is accurate within the confines of accounting. That's why we have accountants.
Q So in addition to Mazars, you make a reference to "our accounting team."

PROCEEDINGS Page 3235

Who is that accounting team you're referencing as you're sitting here today?
That would have been llen Weisselberg, Jeffrey McConney and their team.
Q nd in specifically as it relates to this 2016 representation letter, were you relying on llen Weisselberg to make the representations in this rep letter?
I'd have to see what the backup is. I don't recall ever being involved in any of that. But yes, I would imagine -- I'll try to slow it down. Yes, I would have relied on them, but again, I would have also relied knowing that they're working intimately with Mazars and I understand, you know, the world around this time is changing and this could be, let's call it, a cover your butt, but Mazars for 30 years is intimately involved in literally every aspect, every transaction, every LLC. They would have been a key point in compiling anything as it related to accounting and they would have been well aware of that.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I would move to strike that answer and I can ask my question again.
THE COURT: I remember the question. Overruled. That's his response.
MS. F HERTY: Okay.
THE COURT: nd I think it responded to the

PROCEEDINGS Page 3236

question, maybe at great length, but --
MS. F HERTY: Okay.
THE WITNESS: I'm just trying to give the details, sir. Sometimes things aren't, unfortunately, yes or no when it comes to the complex transactions.
THE COURT: Okay.
THE WITNESS: I'll try to hone it down.
Q s it relates to this representation letter, did you specifically rely on Jeffrey McConney to assure yourself of the representations contained in this letter?
Specifically as it relates to this letter, I don't recall who I relied on.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I'm putting before the witness a document that is not yet in evidence. We have marked it for identification as PX-391.
Q Mr. Trump, I'll turn your attention to the second page of this document. Do you recognize that signature on the second page of this document?
That is my signature.
Q nd it is signed as "attorney in fact"?
Correct.
Q Do you have any understanding as to what "attorney in fact" is a reference to?
Well, I guess I'm functioning as an attorney for my father as per, I guess, whatever the lawyers structured for me at the time.

Q Okay. Turn your attention back to the first page of this document.
MS. F HERTY: Oh, Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 391.)
MS. F HERTY: Thank you.
Q Turning to the first page, do you see that this is on letterhead "Donald J. Trump 725 Fifth venue, New York, New York 10022"?
Yes.
Q That's the address of the Trump Organization?
Yes.
Q The date on this certification, this is dated March 13, 2017, yes?
Correct.
Q Okay. I'll draw your attention to point one in this certification. Sorry. I'll just frame your reference, the very, very top, it says, "There is a lender Deutsche Bank Trust Company of mericas." You're familiar with Deutsche Bank Trust Company as a lender to the Trump Organization?
Yes.
Q You'll see that there is an entry for a guarantor.

That's Donald J. Trump, yes?
Correct.
Q nd the borrower identified in the certification is Trump Endeavor 12, LLC. You see that there?
I do.
Q nd you're familiar with Trump Endeavor 12, LLC, correct?
I believe so, yes.
Q Sorry?
I believe so, yes.
Q Turning to point one, "financial information," it says, "The underlined guarantor hereby certifies to lender as of the date hereof that as of June 30, 2016 (the "reporting date") one, financial information. s applicable (please check the applicable box below and insert the applicable date below)."
You'll see the very first bullet is "X"-ed. " ttached hereto is guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2016 (Section 11( ) of the guaranty)" and then there are two other bullets of financial information checked, right?
Yes.
Q Then it states, "The foregoing presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of the guarantor at the period presented," right?
Yes.
Q Did you take any steps to assure yourself of this certification?

s with all of the certifications, as I think we discussed yesterday, I would have sat with the relevant parties; namely, in accounting, whether that's the Trump team and/or Donald Bender. I would have asked them if everything that is in here is correct. I would have likely also checked with our legal department to make sure that the conditions are met as it relates to anything I would sign for Deutsche Bank and if they assured me in their expert opinion that these things were fine, I would have been fine with that and signed off accordingly.
Q Is that specific to this particular certification, sir?
Well, I think I probably would save us some time and say that's probably specific to all of these certifications because I'm sure I've signed dozens of these in my time as a trustee.
Q So no specific recollection as to this particular certification, right?
Correct.
Q You're providing me your general recollection as to what you would do, correct?
Correct. I'm providing you the process I would have gone through. I would have relied on the people who are the experts in compiling all of this who deal with these things down to the very granular levels. If they're telling me it is okay and then legal tells me, it goes through the appropriate processes for whatever it may be, you know. I would be comfortable trusting my team both inside and outside that this is fine for me to sign.

Q nd did the legal department indeed confirm it was okay to sign the certification?
I don't recall specifically, but that would have generally been my process.
Q Do you have any specific recollection that the legal department informed you it was not okay to sign a certification?
No, because I would not have signed it had they done that.
Q side from those conversations you had with the accounting department, with Mr. Bender and with Mr. Legal -- with the legal department?
Mr. Legal doesn't work at the Trump Organization anymore. He's out of state. It may be hard to subpoena him.
Q They're all out of state. Okay.
side from those conversations, did you yourself specifically take any steps to assure yourself of the information you were certifying in this certification?
Well, I mean, I would think speaking to them -- I may have spoken to individuals if there was details that I don't recall right now. I may have taken it further down the line, but I think if the people who are running the numbers on each and every one of the things that would be an aspect of this or are telling me that this is okay, I'd probably would have been fine with it, but I don't recall specifically having conversations about, you know, an individual or an anomaly or whatever it may be.

Q Specifically as it relates to this certification, which documents did you review?
I don't recall this specific certification, so I couldn't tell you.
Q Other than what you just testified generally, no specific knowledge to share about what you did to assure yourself of the certification here?
Correct. No, I don't recall that.
Q When you signed this certification, you intended for the bank to rely upon it, correct?
Sure.
Q You could put that down, sir.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I'm going to turn to a document already in evidence. We discussed it yesterday briefly. It is identified as PX-755.
Q Do you see that document in front of you, Mr. Trump?
I do.
Q We discussed this yesterday. m I correct you don't have any specific familiarity with the 2017 Statement of Financial Condition of Donald Trump, right?
Correct.

Q If I asked you the same question as I did about 2016, we can turn to page two confirming that it is, in fact, the trustees responsible for the Statements of Financial Condition in 2017, it states that there, correct?
Correct.
Q nd this independent accountant's report was finalized, at the bottom of this letter you can see, October 30, 2017. You see that?
I do.
Q You were a trustee, correct?
Yes.
Q nd if I asked you the same questions I asked before about what you specifically did to prepare this document, you have no specific knowledge about that, right?
Correct. It would be the same for all of the Statements of Financial Condition.
Q So if I showed you the 2018 Statement of Financial Condition, same answer?
I think we could save each other a lot of time and effort and yes, it would be the same thing.
Q If I showed you the 2019 Statement of Financial Condition, it would be the same answer?
Yes, ma'am.
Q nd if I showed you the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition, it would be the same answer?

I believe that's correct.
Q I may show you the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition. Do you have any knowledge that you retained a different accounting firm to commission the Statement of Financial Condition in 2021?
Yes, I'm aware of that.
Q Who was that accounting firm?
That's Whitley Penn.
Q Did you work specifically on the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition with Whitley Penn?
If I did, it would have been in the same manner that I would have with Mazars.
Q No specific knowledge as to the work you performed on the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition with Whitley Penn; is that true?
That's accurate, yes.
MS. F HERTY: nd I'll just put it on the screen. We can expedite, your Honor. I'm putting up a document already in evidence.
Q gain, Mr. Trump, it is a spreadsheet, so it is rather large. Nothing to hand up. It is PX 758.
The title on this document is, "The Donald J. Trump Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2017." This is the supporting data spreadsheet.
Similar to 2016, no specific knowledge as to the supporting data spreadsheet created for the 2017 Statement of Financial Condition, correct?

Correct.
Q nd if I asked you questions about the specific work you did on this particular spreadsheet, no specific knowledge of that work, correct?
Correct.
Q nd if I asked you the same question if I put up the 2018 supporting data spreadsheet for the 2018 Statement of Financial Condition, would your answer still be the same?
I believe it would, yes.
Q No specific knowledge as to the spreadsheet, correct?
Correct.
Q No specific knowledge as to work you performed on the supporting data spreadsheet, correct?
Correct.
Q nd if I asked those same questions for 2019, would your answers remain the same?
Rinse and repeat, yes.
Q If I asked you the same questions for 2020, would your answers remain the same?
I believe they would, yes.
Q nd in 2021, if I asked you those same questions for work you performed on supporting data spreadsheet for the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition, would your answer still be the same?

I believe so.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I'm going to show to the witness a document that I don't know has formally been moved into evidence, but may have been and not recorded. It is Plaintiff's Exhibit P X-754. We've discussed it before. I believe Tommy has it, but in case it has not been formally moved into evidence, I would so move.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 754.)
MS. F HERTY: Thank you, your Honor.
Q nd Mr. Trump, I'll turn your attention to the third page of this document. You recognize that is your signature, correct?
I do.
Q You recognize this as the 2017 representation letter to Mazars?
Yes, it would appear so.
Q Dated October 30, 2017?
Yes.
Q nd before, I asked you a series of questions on the 2016 representation letter to Mazars.
Do you recall those questions that I asked you?
Yes.

Q nd you gave me answers as to the assurances that the Trump Organization made to Mazars contained in this representation letter.

Do you recall that testimony you provided?

I do, yes.

Q nd we went over a series of the representations contained in the representation letter and the numbered paragraphs contained within the rep letter.

Do you recall those questions about those numbered paragraphs?

I do.

Q nd if I went through a similar exercise to ask you those same questions about those same representations, would you still give me the same answer?

I can't think of anything off the top of my head that would change that, so yes.

Q So no specific testimony you could provide that would distinguish the assurances you made for yourself to sign the 2017 representation letter to Mazars; correct?

Correct. Not that I can recall anything different, yes.

MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I'm going to put up a document that's already been admitted into evidence. It is a big document, PX 1386. It's a family that Mr. Solomon moved in earlier in the trial.

This may take me a few weeks to read.

Q Mr. Trump, I've handed you a document. It's a family compilation document. I'll draw your attention on the screen, which may be easier, but the first page I'll draw your attention to is at -- you'll see at the very bottom there is a page two of number, so page 2 of 230. It's also on the screen. You'll see that --

Page one.

Q Page two?

Yes, okay.

Q See at the very bottom?

Yes, exactly.

Q Okay. This is another certification to Deutsche Bank; correct?

It would appear so, yes.

Q On behalf of the borrower Trump Old Post Office LLC?

Yes.

Q Dated October 31, 2017?

Correct.

Q nd, again, this has similar language to what we saw earlier in the prior certification that "the undersigned guarantor certifies to the lender as of the date hereof that as of June 30, 2017 the reporting date, point one, that you are providing certain financial information;" right?

Correct.

Q nd attached there is a guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2017. You see that there?

I do.

Q nd the certification states "the foregoing presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of guarantor at the period presented;" correct?

Correct.

Q nd if we turn to page three of 230.

On this document you recognize that as your signature; right?

I do.

Q nd if I asked you the same questions I asked you about the earlier certification about what steps you took to assure yourself of this certification your answer would remain the same as it relates to this specific document; correct?

It would.

Q Okay. If you turn to page five of 230.

Yes.

Q Dated October 31, 2017, another certification to Deutsche Bank on behalf of Trump Endeavor 12 LLC. You see that there?

I do.

Q gain, another certification for the financial information; right?

Yes, ma'am.

Q ttaching the Statement of Financial Condition; correct?

Yes.

Q If you turn to the following page.

gain, that is your certification -- your signature for this certification; correct?

Correct.

Q If I asked you those same questions your answer would still be the same specifically as it relates to this document?

I believe so, yes.

Q Correct that you signed this certification with the intent that the bank would rely on it?

I don't know that they rely on it. I don't -- I know a lot of bankers and they do their own due diligence, but I was fine signing this based on everything I had been told as per everything we've discussed today, yes.

Q I'll re-ask my question.
You signed this certification intending that the bank would rely on it; correct?
I'm fine with the bank relying on it, yes.
Q nd the prior certification I did not ask that question, but same question. You signed that prior certification with the intent that the bank would rely on it? gain, I would be fine with them relying on it. I don't know what their intent is.
Q Did you intend for the bank to rely on that certification that you signed?
I don't know. gain, I think -- I know -- like I said, I know a lot of bankers that do their own due diligence. If they looked at it and that was their -- and if they relied on it, I would be fine with all of the material information that's in those documents.
THE COURT: That doesn't answer the question and the intent isn't the banker's. It's your intent that she is asking about; correct?
MS. F HERTY: Correct.
Then I'm not sure I understand. I'm fine with the bank relying on that information.
Q So is that a question you intended for the bank to rely on your certification?
I don't know that I intended for them to do anything.

I'm fine signing off on it. It's not as simple as yes or no to me.
THE COURT: I'm not going to insist on a yes-or-no answer.
MS. F HERTY: I think that's as best as he's going to give.
ll right. Your Honor, I'm going to put on the screen a document that's already in evidence. It is identified as PX 3285.
Q Mr. Trump, keep that exhibit near you. I'm going to ask questions about it again.
Sure.
Q Okay. I'll turn your attention to the second page, but I'll just draw your attention to the first page.
The subject of this e-mail, which has an attachment, is "Ferry Point 2018 No M C change letter."
You're familiar with Ferry Point; right?
I am.
Q nd the attachment is a 2017 No M C letter.
Do you know what a No M C letter is?
I don't.
Q Let's turn to the second page and see if we can figure that out. Do you see the date on this document, pril 22, 2017?
I do.
Q ddressed to the City of New York Department of Parks and Recreation; yes?

Yes.
Q When the "re:" lines says "President Donald J. Trump?"
Yes.
Q Turning to the bottom of this letter do you recognize your name included as the cc?
I do.
Q nd this letter was sent by Mazars; correct?
It would appear so.
Q Okay. Drawing your attention to the second paragraph, it states: "While we have not reviewed computations of value since the aforementioned June 30, 2016 financial statement, based on discussions with trustees of Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust dated pril 7, 2014, as amended and their advisors, we are not aware of any matters that would indicate a significant change in Mr. Trump's net worth as of this date."
You see that language there?
I do.
Q What discussions did you have regarding the substance of this paragraph?
I don't recall any.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I'm going to move faster. I'm going to hand up to the witness a document identified -- marked for identification as PX 393.
Q This is another bank certification on Trump Organization letterhead for Donald J. Trump; yes?

Correct.
Q Turning to the second page of this document, do you recognize that as your signature?
I do.
Q nd then if you turn to the fourth page of this document, do you recognize your signature again on another certification?
I do.
Q nd then if you turn to the sixth page of this document, do you recognize your signature again?
I do.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this packet of certifications into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in or they're in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 393 in evidence.)
Q nd Mr. Trump, you see that this packet is a very similar packet of certifications sent to Deutsche Bank. The first is on behalf of Trump Old Post that's on page one of six. Do you see that there?
Yes, ma'am.
Q nd it -- this document contains similar language about the certification that we've seen in the prior bank certifications; right?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3254

Correct.
Q nd the second certification, that certification was signed by you in 2018 on behalf of you, Trump Endeavor 12 LLC, to Deutsche Bank; yes?
Correct.
Q nd the third certification we saw signed on October 25, 2018 was certifying to Deutsche Bank on behalf of 401 North Wabash? Is it Wabash or Wabash?
Wabash.
Q Thank you.
401 North Wabash Venture LLC; correct?
Correct.
Q nd if I asked you the same questions that I asked you about the prior bank certifications would your answers remain the same?
Yes, ma'am.
Q gain, you intended for the bank to rely on the certifications when you signed them?
I'm fine with them relying on it, yes.
Q Thank you.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I would just like to show another Mazars rep letter, which I'm not sure has formally been moved into evidence. So I believe Tommy has it. It's PX 841.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3255

Q ll right. You see that this is another representation letter drafted by the Trump Organization issued to Mazars dated October 31, 2019; correct?
Correct.
Q nd on page three of this document that is your signature; right?
Yes.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this formally into evidence if it was not previously admitted.
THE COURT: Granted.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 841 in evidence.)
Q If I asked you the same questions you have provided -- you would provide me the same answers as we discussed earlier with regards to the representation letters, Mr. Trump?
I believe so, yes. I can't think of anything off the top of my head that changed.
Q Thank you. You can put that down.
Just so that we could turn back to it, I had you hold near you PX 1386, and I'll draw your attention to page 100 of 230. I told you it's voluminous.
It's a big one.
Q It's a big one.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3256

nd it's on the screen, Mr. Trump, if that helps.
Yes.
Q Okay. Do you recognize that signature when shley scrolls up to it?
I do.
Q That's your signature?
Yes.
Q nd if you turn to the page prior this is a certification issued to Deutsche Bank on behalf of the guarantor Donald J. Trump and the borrower is 401 North Wabash Venture LLC dated October 31, 2019; right?
I believe so, yes.
Q nother certification that you signed; yes?
Yes.
Q nd then if we turn to page 101 of 230, still October 31, 2019, another certification. This one on behalf of Trump Endeavor 12 LLC; correct?
Yes.
Q The following page, that is in fact your signature; right?
Yes.
Q nd then the following page this is the third certification again dated October 31, 2019, this time on behalf of Trump Old Post Office LLC; right?
Yes.

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3257

Q Same certifications as the prior certifications attaching the Statement of Financial Condition of the respective year; correct?
I believe so, yes.
Q nd the following page that is in fact your signature certifying; correct?
Yes.
Q nd if I asked you the same questions that I had previously asked you as to those bank certifications any specific difference as it pertains to these particular certifications in 2019?
None that I can recall, no.
Q One second, Mr. Trump. I apologize.
No problem.
MS. F HERTY: I'm just going to show the witness PX 1354 and confirm it was already admitted into evidence. This is the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition for Mr. Donald J. Trump. If we could turn to the second page.
Q In this particular year, correct that the Statement of Financial Condition was compiled by the Whitley Penn accounting firm; yes?
I believe that's correct, yes.
Q If we turn to the next page of the Independent ccountants' Compilation Report. It is dated October 29, 2021; correct?

Yes.
Q You were still trustee at this time; yes?
Correct.
Q If we turn back to the first line -- first --
MS. F HERTY: Yes, that page, shley. Thank you.
Q Says "the trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust?"
Yes.
Q " re responsible for the accompanying personal financial statement;" yes?
Yes.
Q Okay. nd again, the rest of the questions that I asked as to statements of financial condition as it pertains to this particular Statement of Financial Condition, no specific response that is different than any of your other responses related to the statements of financial condition?
This was Whitley Penn, but no. Other than that, I can't think of anything different.
Q Thank you.
THE COURT: "Thank you" is okay. It's polite. Not "great," not, you know, "terrific." "Okay" I rather you left it out, probably easier on the reporter. It might show some sort of confirmation.
MS. F HERTY: I'm confirming for myself, Judge. I got it. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you is okay.
Q ll right. I'm going to put up the JSD, Plaintiff's Exhibit 1501. It is a spreadsheet in support of the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition.
No specific recollection of this particular document; right, Mr. Trump?
Not that I recall, correct.
Q nd if I asked you the same questions that I asked you about the other prior supporting data spreadsheets for the Statement of Financial Condition as it specifically pertains to the 2021 supporting data spreadsheet, same response?
I believe so, yes.
MS. F HERTY: Tommy, if we could get PX 1502.
Q Turn your attention to the third page of this document. You recognize that signature as your signature?
Yes, ma'am.
Q s the trustee of the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust?
Correct.
Q Dated October 29, 2021?
Correct.
Q Turning to the first page, this is a representation letter this time addressed to Whitley Penn LLP; correct?
Correct.
Q Dated October 29, 2021?
Correct.

Q You'll see that similar to the Mazars representation letter there are certain assurances contained within this representation letter; yes?
Yes.
Q nd, again, similar to the Mazars letter you'll see that there are assurances in numbered paragraphs. You'll see that there is number one at the top of your screen and it numbers two through five fill out the bottom of this first page. Do you see those assurances?
I do.
Q nd then it continues on to page two. There are a total of 22 numbered paragraphs of assurances provided to Whitley Penn; correct?
Yes.
Q nd if I asked you the same questions I did -- as I previously did as to the assurances you made to be able to sign this representation letter to Whitley Penn would your answer remain the same as it specifically relates to Whitley Penn, this document in front of you?
I believe so. I can't think of anything that changed off the top of my head.
Q Okay. Mr. Trump, I'm going to put a document on the screen already in evidence. It is identified as PX 134, and I will draw your attention to page six of eight.
Yes.

Q It says, " greed client Trump Briarcliff Manor Development LLC" and then there is a signature. Do you recognize that signature as yours?
I do.
Q re you familiar with this particular representation letter -- engagement letter with Cushman & Wakefield?
No, not to my recollection.
Q re you familiar with Cushman & Wakefield, though; right?
I am, yes.
Q re you aware of the purpose of the appraisal identified in this engagement letter?
I'd have to read it, but I don't recall seeing this one before, so not off the top of my head, no.
Q I'll draw your attention to the first page. It is dated June 3, 2015 addressed to Mr. Eric Trump, your brother; correct?
Correct.
Q t Trump Briarcliff Manor Development LLC; right?
Correct.
Q re you familiar with Trump Briarcliff Manor Development LLC?
Generally speaking, yes.
Q nd it says, "re: conservation easement on parcel owned by Trump Briarcliff Manor Development LLC." Do you see that?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3262

I do.
Q Does that refresh your recollection as to the purpose of this particular engagement?
It was made out to my brother. I think you'd have to ask him.
Q You signed it; correct?
Correct.
Q re you aware that there was a potential conservation easement being appraised for the Briarcliff property?
I recall it vaguely now, but I don't remember the specifics.
Q Then why are you signing this document?
Because I signed it as an EVP of the organization. I imagine my brother could have signed it as well if it came to me, but it was his project. He would work on it and he would know the details.
MS. F HERTY: This is a big one. It is not yet in evidence, Your Honor.
Your Honor, I've handed to the witness a document that's been marked for identification as PX-3306.
Q Mr. Trump, I'm not going to ask you to go through the whole thing.
I appreciate that greatly. Thank you.
Q Plenty of reading for the week.
I'll just draw your attention to page 34 of 381, so look at the bottom. It says 34 of 381. nd tell me if you recognize that signature there?

That's my signature.
Q Okay. On behalf of Trump Ferry Point LLC; correct?
Correct.
Q Your title is the president?
Correct.
Q nd this is the agreement of purchase and sale and escrow instructions with regards to the Trump Golf Links at Ferry Point Park?
Correct.
Q There was a transaction to sell this to Bally's; correct?
Correct.
Q This transaction did in fact close; right?
Yes.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit PX 3306 into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: Ground.
MR. ROBERT: Relevance of a 2023 transaction. There is no allegation of anything improper about a 2023 transaction. It's not part of their case.
THE COURT: nd what would the relevance be, if any?

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3264

MS. F HERTY: I believe Ferry Point is relevant to the disgorgement allegations we have here, Your Honor. That sale is available for disgorgement.
MR. ROBERT: The procurement of this contract was well before the statute of limitations even started and now we have a transaction that closed a few months ago. It's completely and utterly irrelevant, Your Honor.
THE COURT: How would that fit into the disgorgement claim?
MS. F HERTY: The sale -- as we've already seen and as this witness in particular testified, there were No M C letters relying upon the statements of financial condition sent into the Ferry Point -- to the Parks Department. That information was --
THE COURT: Hold it. The objection overruled and there is no jury, so no prejudice. Even if it becomes irrelevant, even if it turns out it's irrelevant. It's in evidence.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3306 in evidence.)
Q Did I hand up to you the next exhibit, PX 3304, sir?
Yes.
Q So this is a document on Trump Ferry Point LLC

D. Trump, Jr. - Plaintiff - direct (Faherty) Page 3265

letterhead; yes?
Yes.
Q Dated June 26, 2023?
Correct.
Q This is the "re:" line says: " greement of purchase and sale and escrow instructions dated as of the date hereof, the PS , by and between Trump Ferry Point LLC or (Trump) and Bally's Corporation or (Bally's) in connection with the property known as Trump Golf Links at Ferry Point Park." Do you see that there?
I do.
Q nd turning to page three of four, do you recognize that as your signature, sir?
I do.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this document into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Same objection, Your Honor, and a continuing objection to this line of questioning.
MR. KISE: Your Honor, let me just see if I understand. I'm little lost as to how this relates to disgorgement. Based on what Mr. Robert said it predates the statute of limitations, the close of the contract and then the -- this transaction postdates the allegations in the complaint. Is it the government's intention to assert that a property that was a landfill that the Trump family took and pumped tens of millions of dollars into and converted into a world class facility is now subject to disgorgement?

THE COURT: Well, I think that No M C letters those were during the -- within the statute of limitations period.

MR. KISE: No M C letters were within the statute of limitations period, but the evidence has already established that was after they already spent tens of millions of dollars to renovate the facility.

THE COURT: Objection overruled. Let's move along.

MS. F HERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.

Q How much have you made in this transaction, Mr. Trump?

MR. ROBERT: Objection to "who."

THE COURT: Okay. How much did you make, I think?

MS. F HERTY: Well, he did sign this as president of Trump Ferry Point LLC. I think it's a fair question to ask this witness who has signed these executed documents how much --

THE COURT: I think it's fair to assume that he was acting on behalf of the corporation, but --

I didn't make anything.

THE COURT: Different question, perhaps?

Q How much did Trump Ferry Point LLC make from this transaction?

Well, the sales price is $16 million, but we obviously have, you know, lots of costs and other things, you know, in the deal that we have been funding and working on for years, so I don't know the exact net number for profit.

MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I'm handing up to the witness one additional document identified as PX-3305 not yet in evidence.

Q Mr. Trump, would you agree with me that the license agreement is consistent with the transaction papers that we just reviewed and it was -- that license agreement was in fact assigned to the Bally's Corporation?

I'd have to -- let me read the letter because I don't know this -- I don't have any recollection of this letter.

MS. F HERTY: nd, Your Honor, I just want to correct something. I think the transcription may have stated "16 million" with regards to the sales price of Trump Ferry Point.

Q Mr. Trump, did you say 16 or 60, 6-0?

60, 60.

Q Thank you, Mr. Trump.

THE COURT: ll right. That's what I heard, so make sure the record indicates 60, however you do that.

I'm sorry, what was the question again, ma'am?

Q I asked you if you'd agree with me that the license agreement was in fact assigned to Bally's Corporation?

I believe so, yes.

Q Okay. nd that's Ron Leiberman. He works for the Trump Organization; correct?

Correct.

MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit.

MR. ROBERT: Same objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Same ruling. It's in.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3305 in evidence.)

Q You could put that down, Mr. Trump. Thank you.

MS. F HERTY: One second, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Sure.

MS. F HERTY: Thank you.

Q Mr. Trump, can you hear me?

THE COURT: Can you hear me? I think now.

MS. F HERTY: Thank you.

THE COURT: Yes.

Q Mr. Trump, what, if any, role did you have with regards to the insurance program for the Trump Organization?

Not much of a role.

Q Do you recall in January of 2017 signing an indemnity agreement to Zurich for purposes of the surety program as a result of Donald J. Trump's departure to work in Washington?

No, I don't.

Q No specific recollection of that?

No.

Page 3269

MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I'm handing to the witness a document I've marked for identification as PX-1534.

Q nd I'll draw your attention to page three of six, Mr. Trump.

Yes.

Q Do you recognize that signature on the top line under DJT Holdings LLC?

Yes.

Q You recognize that as your signature?

I do.

Q nd that's as Donald Trump, Jr., President?

Yes.

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3270

Q Just turning to the first page, can you confirm for me that this is a rider dated as of January 17, 2017, correct?
Yes.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this document in evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiffs Exhibit 1386.)
MS. F HERTY: We can take that down. Thank you, shley.
Q Mr. Trump, is it a fair statement that throughout your time working at the Trump Organization between 2011 to present, you have been kept generally apprised of the operating financials of the organization?
I would think so, yes.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I'm handing to the witness a document I've marked for identification as PX 1454.
Q This is a memo to you and Eric Trump, right?
Yes.
Q From llen Weisselberg?
Yes.
Q Do you recall you previously testified that this was a document you were provided by Mr. Weisselberg on a regular basis?

I don't recall that, but if I said it, I imagine that's accurate.
Q Okay. nd do you recall that this information you previously testified or a similar memo to, it was provided also while Ivanka was still employed at the organization?
I believe so, yes.
Q You don't have any specific recollection as to when you began receiving this information, correct?
No.
Q m I reading this correctly? The subject of this memo is "re: 2017 corporate modified cash flow projection versus actual."
Yes.
Q nd contained in this document are a few categories, for example, there is a box in the middle of the screen or if you're just looking at the page, it is at the top third of the page. That first box says, "business entities"?
Yes.
Q nd there's information related to that box "business entities," correct.
Correct.
Q nd then if you scroll a little further down, there's another box, this one is a white box, and it says, "non-business entities," right?

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3272

Yes.
Q There's information related to that box under the non-business entities, yes?
Correct.
Q nd the memo is dated February 14, 2018. However, am I reading it correctly? This is a reflection of the 2017 year, yes?
It would appear so.
Q nd again am I reading it correctly? s of the 2017 actuals, the adjusted net cash flow/operating profit for 2017 was $2,211,038, so roughly 2.2 million?
Yes.
Q nd that's despite the projected six million figure -- 60 million figure?
It appears so, yes.
Q nd this memo, it states at the very top, " s per your request."
Do you recall why you requested this?
I don't believe I did. I recall, you know, probably years prior to that I think we had asked for it. One of the three of us, meaning myself, my brother and my sister, had asked and then it sort of became, whether it is an annual or a semi-annual thing from llen Weisselberg, but no, I don't recall a specific request as it relates to this document at this time.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, I move to admit this document into evidence.

THE COURT: Your microphone is not working.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, it is dead.
THE COURT: Bring it back to life. ll right. Let's -- we'll take our break now because it may take a while to fix.
MS. F HERTY: I move to admit it.
THE COURT: Granted. I could hear that.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you.
THE COURT: It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1454.)
THE COURT: Let's all come back in 15 minutes.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you.
(Witness exits the stand.)
(Whereupon, a recess was taken.)
THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.
THE COURT: For an administrative reason, we are going to break at 12:45. Let's continue with the direct examination.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you, Your Honor.
Q Mr. Trump, when did you learn about the ttorney General's investigation in the accuracy of the Statements of Financial Condition?

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3274

I don't specifically recall.
Q You did at some point learn about the investigation?
I imagine so, yes.
Q When you learned about the investigation, did you in particular undertake any internal inquiry into the accuracy of the Statements of Financial Condition?
MR. ROBERT: Objection, Your Honor. To the extent that this would call upon the witness to discuss anything that was discussed with myself or any other counsel for him individually, a co-defendant or the Trump Organization, I'm going to instruct him not to answer that.
THE COURT: ll right. We'll see what the individual questions are.
MR. ROBERT: Thank you, Your Honor.
MS. F HERTY: There is still a question pending, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Oh.
I imagine I would have spoken with counsel, correct.
THE COURT: Did you speak with any non-counsel?
Q Other than speaking with counsel, did you speak with anyone?
I don't even recall necessarily speaking with counsel. Though, I'm sure I would have.
Q Did you direct others at the company to undertake -- do not tell me about any specific discussions with counsel. I'll give you that as my preface.

Did you direct others at the company to undertake any inquiry into the accuracy of the Statements of Financial Condition?
gain, anything would have been done through counsel.
Q Is that a no?
I don't recall specifically, but anything would have been done through counsel, therefore, privileged.
Q Did anyone, to your knowledge, review the work performed by llen Weisselberg on the Statements of Financial Condition?
MR. ROBERT: t what point in time?
Q fter you learned about the New York ttorney General's investigation.
MR. ROBERT: Outside of any involvement with counsel, I presume.
THE COURT: Yes. Yes, but at any point in time.
I don't specifically recall.
Q Still focusing on the same time frame, did anyone review the work performed by Jeffrey McConney on the Statements of Financial Condition?
Same answer.
Q Have you, Mr. Trump, formed any view about whether Mr. Weisselberg or Mr. McConney performed their work on the Statements of Financial Condition in an appropriate manner from 2014 through 2021?

I actually think the things are materially correct.
Q So is it fair to say that they performed their work as you expected and the "they" I'm referring to are Mr.'s McConney and Weisselberg?
What's the timeframe?
Q Same timeframe.
Can you give me the dates again?
Q 2014 to 2021.
Yes, I believe so. nd, you know, again, they worked in conjunction with Donald Bender who candidly during that period of time since I was doing a lot of international deals probably spent more time in our offices than I did and so between them, I do believe that's still, again, materially accurate.
Q re you aware of any instances between 2014 and 2021 where either Mr. Weisselberg or Mr. McConney failed to follow any instructions from you in their work on the Statements of Financial Condition?
MR. ROBERT: Objection. The witness said he was not involved in the Statement of Financial Condition, so he wouldn't have been giving them instructions on the Statement of Financial Condition.
THE COURT: Can I get a readback of the question?
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the record was

read back.)
THE COURT: nd the objection is what, that he testified he had nothing to do with the Statements of Financial Condition?
MR. ROBERT: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Mr. Trump, did you have anything to do with the Statements of Financial Condition?
THE WITNESS: No, I did not, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.
Q Have you undertaken any changes to the policies and procedures of the Trump Organization as a result of the ttorney General's investigation? nd please do not provide me any discussions with counsel.
MR. KISE: Objection. It would also go to, in addition to attorney-client privilege, which I know she's not asking, to the subsequent remedial measures discussion we had previously. I don't remember with which witness.
THE COURT: We're familiar with the subsequent remedial measures point. Is there a way around that or not?
THE WITNESS: I think I can thread the needle. There have been policy changes that have been made. Those have been done through counsel, so I can't get into the details of that. But yes, there are, you know, prior policies and methodologies have certainly been bolstered.
Q Sorry. Which specific policies?

gain, I don't want to get into the details because these things and structures were done with counsel, but Mark Hawthorn who is now in the similar CFO position is an actual CP , et cetera, et cetera. So there are things I just -- I got to be careful where I go without getting into things that have been structured by legal counsel.

MR. W LL CE: I think to the extent there are changes in how they perform, that is not advice of counsel. You cannot change from a CP to -- from a non-CP to a CP /CFO and claim "I can't talk about that because this is privileged." So if there are changes to policies, he's free to talk about that, not about conversations he had with counsel that led to the changes.

MR. ROBERT: That would still go to a subsequent remedial measure taken in light of a governmental investigation. It would be something the witness would not be required to have to testify about.

MR. W LL CE: I would just make two points on the subsequent remedial measures. subsequent remedial measure undertaken as an obligation of law is actually admissible as to liability. The second point is that this inquiry can go to something more than just liability. It is still relevant to any injunctive relief the Court may choose to fashion in order to if there are policies or procedures at the Trump Organization that need to be changed as a result of this case. So even if it doesn't go to liability, it is still relevant to any relief --

THE COURT: Remedy.

MR. ROBERT: I would respectfully disagree with that. The concept of a subsequent remedial measure is to encourage parties to change their practices in light of when something comes to light without fear that the changing of those processes are then going to be used in any way and the witness be required to testify about it.

To Mr. Wallace's second point, that's why there is a monitor there right now. So this is something I would respectfully suggest to the Court the witness not be required to have to answer. Certainly, we can all agree the issues that we dealt with with counsel are off limits. Now, we are talking to the second bucket which may be what, if any, subsequent remedial measures were taken without the assistance of counsel, but my objection still stands.

MR. KISE: One other thing I just want to recite. The Dominos case which was the case that involved this very circumstance and what the court said there about actions taken in response to a government investigation. That's the only case we could find. I believe I cited that case to Your Honor the last time we had this issue arise on subsequent remedial measures.

So actions taken in response to an investigation by the ttorney General or response to an investigation by law enforcement would fall squarely within the subsequent remedial measures category even though most of the time it comes up as -- I believe we had this colloquy before. It comes up in the context of personal injury actions and medical/malpractice actions and things like that, but the rule would, nonetheless, apply here.

MR. W LL CE: I would add it is not a privilege. It merely prohibits the changes in procedures and being used as evidence of negligence or liability, but it is a fact that the Court can consider as it is fashioning a remedy as to what might happen in the future and who needs to be responsible for those changes.

MR. KISE: If the inquiry -- two things on that. First of all, there are no Statements of Financial Condition being prepared anymore. So that dispenses with a large measure of the issue about subsequent remedial measures because it is not happening.

But separately from that, what Mr. Wallace is talking about is if in response to the inquiry we take a specific action, that's one thing. If the government intends to ask questions about what exactly it is we're doing now, just not in response to any particular inquiry, but they had Mark Hawthorn on the stand. Mr. Hawthorn is a CP . If they ask, "How do you do X, Y, Z accounting? "How do you that?" That's a matter entirely different than something done in response to the government's investigation, something done subsequent as a remedial measure.

If they're going to inquire of witnesses, maybe not this witness, because I don't know that he would know they can ask, but if they're going to inquire about what practices are taking place today, so that the Court can ensure itself that going forward, for example, there aren't going to be any Statements of Financial Condition, or there won't be any issues associated with Statements of Financial Condition, then that's a different line of questioning altogether and that doesn't relate to the question that was asked.

MR. W LL CE: I'll just say if they want to call in Mr. Hawthorn on their case and explain how the processes are working there, they are free to do that. This is the executive vice-president of the company. He and his brother run the company. It is perfectly appropriate for us to ask the persons running the company what they are doing to oversee the financial function of this firm and what they did when they found out that there were allegations of fraud from a government agency.

I don't think what weight Your Honor decides to afford it and how Your Honor decides to use it is not a privilege that cannot be discussed in court.

THE COURT: Well, maybe we can compromise. I love compromise. Instead of "What are you doing in response to the ttorney General's investigation," et cetera, how about just "How is the company being run"? But more specifically --
MR. KISE: That's a more appropriate question. That's the heart of exactly what I'm saying.
THE COURT: nd Mr. Kise, I have to give you credit for that idea.
MR. KISE: I've got one. Let's mark this down. Wow. Okay.
THE COURT: Not the first time.
Can we just do that, so there's no taint about subsequent remedial measure? Just you want to know what's going on there now. sk him now what's going on.
Q Since 2020, Mr. Trump, how, if at all, has the Trump Organization changed the operations with regards to the financial practices of the Trump Organization?
MR. KISE: Same objection, Your Honor. It is the same thing.
THE COURT: I was hoping you wouldn't ask how have things changed, but ask specific questions. "Who makes sure this"? "How does this work"?
Q You testified a few moments ago about an individual named Mark Hawthorn.

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3283

Yes.
Q What is Mr. Hawthorn's title?
Now CFO of the Trump Organization.
Q When did that occur?
I don't remember the exact date.
Q Since 2021?
I imagine so, yes.
Q Why is 2021 the date that you would recall --
It's not. You asked me since 2021. I believe that's the case.
Q Was it before 2021?
Not that I recall.
Q Is there a specific event that you recall occurred in connection with the change of title from Mark Hawthorn to becoming the CFO of the Trump Organization?
I guess llen Weisselberg not being in that position anymore.
MS. F HERTY: Nothing further, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Will there be any cross-examination at this time?
MR. ROBERT: Not at this time, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay. Witness is excused.
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
MS. F HERTY: Thank you, Mr. Trump.

D. TRUMP, JR. - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MS. F HERTY) Page 3284

THE WITNESS: Thank you.
(Witness excused.)
MR. ROBERT: For logistical reasons, a couple-minutes break while we bring in the next witness.
THE COURT: Sure. pproximately how long are you thinking?
MR. ROBERT: Two or three minutes. I didn't want you to wait in silence.
THE COURT: You get five.
MR. ROBERT: Thank you, Judge. We'll take five then.
(Whereupon, a recess was taken.)
THE COURT: Plaintiff, would you like it call your next witness?
MR. MER: Yes, Your Honor. The People call Eric Trump. If I could make a quick request as the witness is taking the stand.
THE COURT: Sure. Go ahead.
MR. MER: This is for Mr. Kise. Given the witness, if we are going to have a lengthy evidentiary objection, and I know the Court is prepared to allow that, I would ask that we excuse the witness if that happens.
THE COURT: Okay. I'll keep that in mind.
E R I C T R U M P, a witness called by the Plaintiff, after having been first duly sworn by the Clerk of the Court, took the witness stand and testified as follows:

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3285

THE COURT OFFICER: State your name and either home or business address for the record.
THE WITNESS: Eric Trump, 115 Eagle Terrace Lane, Jupiter, Florida.
THE COURT: Okay. Please proceed.
MR. MER: Thank you.
DIRECT EX MIN TION
BY MR. MER:
Q Good morning, Mr. Trump. m I correct that you graduated from Georgetown University with a degree in business finance in 2006?
Yes.
Q nd you started to work for your family business a couple of months after graduating from college, right?
I did.
Q nd are you fine to refer to the family business in a very general sense as the Trump Organization?
Yes, I am.
Q nd the Trump Organization is used as a kind of general high level idea as to what the collection of the Trump-related entities are called; is that right?
That's correct.
Q nd that collection of companies likely consists of hundreds of entities, right?

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3286

That's right.
Q When you began at the Trump Organization, am I correct that your job title was something along the lines of project manager?
That's correct.
Q nd at some later point in time you became the executive vice-president or EVP, right?
Yes, that's correct.
Q Do you recall that's sometime before 2014?
That sounds correct.
Q nd during the period of time from when you became an executive vice-president until January of 2017 just prior to your father's inauguration, is it fair to view the Trump Organization hierarchy as a pyramid that had your father at the top?
My father was the owner of the business, yes.
THE COURT: I'll ask the witness to speak very close to the microphone. They're very temperamental. Speak close, directly and loudly.
Q I know you just said your father is the owner of the business, yes. That wasn't my question. My question was is it fair to say that we could view the Trump Organization during that period, the hierarchy at the company as a pyramid with your father on the top?
Yes.

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3287

Q nd during this period that you were EVP up through January 2017, did you report to your father?
Yes.
Q Did you report to anyone else during that period of time other than your father?
I worked with many people, but ultimately reported to my father.
Q nd just again, did you report to anyone else other than your father? I'm not asking whether you worked with them, but just whether you reported to them.
My father would have been my direct report.
Q nd your only direct report, correct?
Yes, that sounds right.
Q nd during this period up again through January 2017, were Donald Trump, Jr. and Ivanka Trump also vie-presidents?
Yes.
Q Were they at the same level in the company hierarchy as you during that period?
Yes.
Q During this period, again, up through January 2017, where in the hierarchy was llen Weisselberg?
He was executive vice-president.
Q So he would have been at the same level as you and your brother and sister, correct?
Yes.

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3288

Q nd where in the hierarchy during this period was Jeffrey McConney?
Jeffrey McConney would have been directly under llen Weisselberg.
Q I know you mentioned Mr. Weisselberg was an executive vice-president. He also had the title of chief financial officer, correct?
That's correct.
Q nd Mr. McConney had the title of controller, right?
That sounds correct, yes.
Q Now, moving to the period from January 2017 to January -- the period between January 2017 and January 2021, during that period when your father had assumed the office of the presidency, is it correct that he no longer sat at the top of the pyramid?
That is correct.
Q nd during the same time period, is it fair to say that you ran the day-to-day operations of the Trump Organization along with Donald J. Trump, Jr. and llen Weisselberg, correct?
Yes, I ran the operations of the Trump Organization.
Q With those two individuals, correct?
That's correct.
Q nd those two individuals, Donald Trump, Jr. and llen Weisselberg, were both trustees of your father's revocable trust during that time period?

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3289

They were the two trustees, yes.
Q During this period, did you have anyone who you reported to?
I did not, no.
Q Subsequent to your father's term ending in January 2021, is it fair to say that he largely relies on you and your brother Donald Trump, Jr. and the other executives of the company to run the business?
Yes, my father relied on me.
Q My question is a little differently.
Let me repeat. My father relied on me and the two trustees to run the business, yes.
Q nd during this post-January 2021 period, is it fair to say that if your father directed you to take some course of action with respect to the Trump Organization, you would follow his directive, right?
I wouldn't sell Mar- -Lago without asking my father, no.
Q I would like my question to be broader if you wouldn't mind.
If my father directed me to take an action post him leaving the presidency, he's the owner of the company, yes, I'd follow his directive.
Q Thank you.
You're familiar with the Seven Springs Estate in Westchester, correct?

Yes, I am.
Q nd in fact, you lived there during the summers in high school working on the property and learning a lot about life during that time, right?
Some of the best years of my life.
Q Yes.
Yes.
Q nd you had certain responsibilities for the property, correct?
Many years later, yes.
Q Fair to say that starting in 2012, you had some involvement with the property from an operational standpoint?
Starting in 2012, I started to be involved in the property, yes.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and put up the 2013 Jeff Supporting Data, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 708 in evidence.
Q We're going to go to Row 633. You'll see that that is the row in this supporting data spreadsheet where Seven Springs starts. Do you see that?
I do. Can you be clear as to what the spreadsheet is?
Q Sure. We've had testimony from Mr. McConney that this is his supporting data spreadsheet that he used to compute values for the Statement of Financial Condition.

Okay.
Q nd Mr. McConney notes in Row 638, you'll see, he says, "6/30/2012, per telephone conversation with Eric Trump September 24, 2012."
Mr. Trump, do you have any recollection of that phone call?
No, I don't.
Q Do you have any reason to believe that Mr. McConney would reference a conversation with you if it didn't happen?
bsolutely not.
Q In fact, people in the company have conversations with you all the time about projects that you're working on and you provide them with answers when you can, correct?
lmost every single day.

Q Now, Row 640, Mr. McConney notes a second telephone conversation with you on ugust 20th of 2013.
Do you have any recollection of having a call with him on that date about Seven Springs?
I don't have specific recollection as to a telephone conversation on that date, no.
Q nd again, do you have any reason to believe that Mr. McConney would reference a conversation with you as noted here if it didn't happen?
I do not.
Q Is it the case, Mr. Trump, that as of the dates of these two telephone calls with Mr. McConney that he indicates he had with you, you understood in this time frame that he needed from you information to assist him in valuing Seven Springs for your father's Statement of Financial Condition?
That's incorrect. I never had anything to do with the Statement of Financial Condition.
Q Just to be clear then, is it your testimony that in the time frame of the two calls he notes he had with you you had no knowledge of your father's Statement of Financial Condition. Is that your testimony?
People ask me questions all the time, but I never worked on the Statement of Financial Condition, correct.
Q Well, let's be clear because my question was different than the one you answered.

MR. MER: Can I have a read back?
THE COURT: We can have a read back, but I'll direct the witness like I very often do, if there is a yes-or-no question and you can answer it yes or no, please do so. If you need to explain an answer, then you can and we can go from there.
nd a read back now.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
I don't believe I ever saw or worked on a Statement of Financial Condition. I don't believe I would have had knowledge of it.
Q Is it your testimony then that you had no knowledge in this time frame, that is by September 2012, that your father had a Statement of Financial Condition valuing his assets and showing his net worth?
It's not what I did do for the company, so --
THE COURT: That was classic yes or no and you're not answering yes or no.
You wand a read back?
MR. MER: I'd like a read back, please.
THE COURT: Read back, please.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
Not to the best of my understanding.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3294

Q nd I just want to nail this down because I appreciate memories fade. Could this be a situation where you were in fact aware back in this time frame that your father had a Statement of Financial Condition and just now don't recall or are you telling us with certainty that in this time frame you were not aware that your father had a Statement of Financial Condition?
I think I was 26 years old at the time. I don't recall what I knew at the time, but as I said, I am unaware of the Statement of Financial Condition. I never worked on it at the time and I didn't know anything about it really until this case came into fruition.
Q nd are you telling us then that in the time frame of these two calls with Mr. McConney in September of 2012 and ugust of 2013 that you had no understanding that Mr. McConney needed information to assist him in valuing Seven Springs for the purpose of your father's Statement of Financial Condition?
I believe that would be correct, yes.
Q Mr. Trump, you're familiar with the golf club owned by the trust in Charlotte, North Carolina; right?
Yes, I am.
Q nd do you recall that the club was purchased in the first half of 2012 by the Trump Organization?
Yes, very familiar.
Q I'm going to hand to you what we're marking as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3329.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3295

Mr. Trump, you'll see that this is an e-mail exchange between you and someone named Dick Grove. Do you see that?
I do.
Q Do you recall who Mr. Grove is?
Very vaguely, possibly a board member at the club at the time.
Q If you look at the second page of the exhibit you'll see at the very bottom it says "board of directors" and Mr. Grove is listed as one of them, so your recollection is correct. He was a board member, right?
That appears to be correct, yes.
Q nd he's a board member of the Point Lake and Golf Club if you look at the first page which is the memo that's in this e-mail. Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q nd do you recall that the Point Lake and Golf Club was the name of the Charlotte club prior to being purchased by the Trump Organization?
I believe that's correct, yes.
Q nd he's forwarding to you an e-mail that he says was sent to members the prior day; right?
I presume that's correct.
Q Well, that's what it says. He says, "Eric, I wanted to confirm that the following e-mail was sent to our members yesterday. Dick;" right?

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3296

That sounds correct, yes.
Q nd he's forwarding you this memo that is entitled "Information on Options and Straw Vote." Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q nd just to get the dates if we go to the top this e-mail is being forward to you by Mr. Grove on January 7, 2012; right?
Yes.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I move this be admitted into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3329 in evidence.)
Q Do you remember receiving this e-mail in early January 2012 in connection with the potential purchase by the Trump Organization of the Charlotte club?
I do not.
Q Do you recall that to purchase the club it was necessary to obtain approval through a vote of the club members?
Yes, I do.
Q nd if we look at the second paragraph of the memo he's forwarding to you do you see that the second paragraph describes future ownership options where one of the options is being a member-owned club as referenced in the first indented point?

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3297

Yes, I do.
Q nd the second option is the sale of the club assets to the Trump Organization. Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q nd do you remember that those were the two options?
Yes.
Q nd the last sentence in the paragraph says Trump drafted a few and approved all statements relating to their offer. Do you see that? You can see it on the screen. I've highlighted it.
Yes, I do.
Q You were involved in putting together that offer, isn't that right?
I was involved in negotiation of this deal, yes.
Q Just to be precise because my question asked about putting together the offer. You were involved in putting together the offer that's being referenced here; right?
I don't remember. I was involved in the negotiating of several business points of the deal and some of this vote, but I don't remember if it I was the one that put together the materials for our offer.
Q Would you have been one of the people to have approved all of the statements relating to the offer that was provided by the company to the members of the club?

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3298

It's possible that I would have been one of the people who would have seen them, sure.
Q I didn't say "see." I said "approved."
I guess it depends on what the actual item in the offer was. I imagine there could have been hundreds of developments that went into that, but I mean, if you could be a little more specific I think it would be easier for me to answer the question.
Q Were you one of the key people negotiating this deal on behalf of the Trump Organization?
Yes, I was.
Q Okay. Let's go to the second page of the exhibit and the paragraph beginning in bold, "the straw vote." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Okay. It says that "if the members vote in favor of the Trump plans, the fully negotiated final terms and conditions will be brought back to the members for consideration and a binding vote in February and March. If members vote for a member-owned club, negotiations with Trump will end."
Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd that was your understanding at the time; right?
Yes, we had to get a vote of the members.
Q nd the negotiations did in fact move forward based on how the straw poll vote turned out; right?

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3299

It was overwhelmingly positive for us, yes.
Q So the negotiations went forward based on how the straw poll vote turned out; correct?
Yes.
Q nd one of the other board members is Philip Delk. Do you see his name in the bottom?
Yes, I do.
Q Do you recall communicating with Mr. Delk about moving forward with the member vote after the straw poll?
I don't, but it's very possible.
Q Do you recall that he was the board member tasked with conducting due diligence on the Trump Organization for purposes of reporting to the club members in advance of the members' vote?
Yes, I believe he was that person.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and mark as exhibit Plaintiff's 3333.
MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, just for the record I object to the whole line of questioning and have a continuing objection on the statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: I understand that, yes.
Q Mr. Trump, do you see that this is an e-mail to llen Weisselberg cc'd to you and others from Mr. Delk?

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3300

Yes, I do.
Q nd it attaches financial due diligence of the Trump Organization. Do you see that?
I do.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this document into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 3333 in evidence.)
Q If you turn to the second page which is the attachment, it's entitled, "Financial Due Diligence of the Trump Organization." Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q nd you received this e-mail from Mr. Delk and the attachment; right?
If you tell me I do, yes, I have no reason to not believe that I did.
Q Well, do you have a specific recollection of receiving and reviewing the financial due diligence summary that Mr. Delk attaches to his e-mail?
I have no recollection.
Q If you look at the financial due diligence summary that's attached to his e-mail just going to read to you the first paragraph of this. Says, "On February 13, 2012, Phil Delk reviewed a financial statement prepared by a CP firm reflecting Donald Trump's net worth. Can we agree that's a reference to your father's Statement of Financial Condition?

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3301

I really don't want to speculate. I could assume, because I don't -- I prefer not to speculate.
Q Well, you were one of the principal people involved in the negotiation of the purchase of this club; right?
Yes.
Q nd you recall Mr. Delk was the board member who was doing the due diligence on the deal; right?
Yes.
Q nd this says he reviewed a financial statement prepared by a CP firm reflecting Donald Trump's net worth.
re you telling us that you are not in a position to understand that this was your father's Statement of Financial Condition?
I'm just saying I don't want to speculate there is a lot of financial statements that are prepared by CP s. It's addressed to clearly not me. It's addressed to somebody else and clearly this is Phil Delk's recollection. I just -- I don't want to confirm or deny either way. I just don't want to speculate.
Q nd I don't want you to speculate either. So that's why my question is very simple.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3302

re you telling us you are not in a position to recognize the document described here as your father's Statement of Financial Condition? Is that your --

I am not in that position. This is 12 years ago. I have no idea.

Q It continues on. It says the statement was not signed by the CP firm giving an opinion that it accurately reflected Donald Trump's net worth, but that it showed the assets, liabilities for Donald Trump and noted any material omissions. The financial statement reflected that the Trump Organization has eliminated significant amounts of debt over the past years.

Having looked at that paragraph, are you still telling us that you are not in a position to recognize that the document referred to here is your father's Statement of Financial Condition?

It's possible, sir. I just don't want to speculate.

Q I am going to ask you to answer my question yes or no because I think --

MS. H BB : Objection. sked and answered.

MR. MER: I think it was a yes-or-no question asked. Can I have a read back?

THE COURT: Well, let's compromise. Let's try one more time. I believe it was asked and answered, but just ask -- a read back or a rephrasing or repetition, whatever you want, Mr. mer.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3303

MR. MER: Sure.

Q I've just now read that first paragraph. Is it your testimony, sir, that you are not able to confirm in your own mind that what's being referred to here is your father's Statement of Financial Condition?

I cannot confirm because it doesn't sound like I was physically there and I don't want to speculate.

Q The next paragraph indicates "the cash and cash equivalents were in the hundreds of millions, the assets in the billions -- billion of dollars were more than ten times the liabilities on the financial statement." You see that?

I do.

Q Okay. nd you're still unclear about whether this is referring to your father's financial statement?

MS. H BB : Your Honor, I'm going to object.

THE COURT: Overruled. He did introduce further --

MS. H BB : Okay, but he's testified that he doesn't -- this letter wasn't to him. He doesn't know. He's going to try and get him to obviously authenticate it, but I think his testimony still stands. I'm just stating my objection for the record.

MR. MER: It's already in evidence, Your Honor.

MS. H BB : Then I'm not really sure what we're doing.

MR. MER: It will become clear very soon.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3304

THE COURT: Objection overruled.

It is very possible that it was the statement. I just don't know because this wasn't directed at me.

Q You, in fact, worked with Mr. Weisselberg to arrange to have Mr. Delk review your father's Statement of Financial Condition as part of his due diligence efforts for the sale of the club, isn't that right?

I absolutely probably would have been the person who made the introduction to llen Weisselberg, yes.

Q Not my question.

I think it was.

MR. MER: Can I have a read back, Your Honor? Because that wasn't my question.

THE COURT: It didn't answer the question.

Let's just read it back.

(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)

I have no recollection at this time.

MR. MER: Let's go ahead and mark Plaintiff's Exhibit 1092.

Q Mr. Trump, you'll see this is an e-mail chain where Mr. Delk e-mails Mr. Weisselberg copied to you on February 13, 2012 and Mr. Weisselberg asks you a question that you then respond to in the top e-mail. Do you see that?

Yes, I do.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3305

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move that this be admitted into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1092 in evidence.)

Q Now, the bottom e-mail from Mr. Delk to Mr. Weisselberg that you're copied on, the first paragraph says, "thank you again for taking the time to meet with me today and answer my questions. I was on the way to LaGuardia, two additional questions occurred to me," and then he asks those questions.

Do you recall that Mr. Delk in doing his due diligence traveled to the Trump Organization offices to review information for that effort?

I do not.

Q Mr. Weisselberg -- well, before I get there. You would agree with me that based on his e-mail to you and Mr. Weisselberg that is in fact the case?

Yes, it looks like that.

Q nd Mr. Weisselberg writes to you "before I respond I want to make sure you and your dad are still going forward with this deal. Your dad did not sound very upbeat about the deal. He spoke about how little we would make and that he did not see himself going to NC, etc."

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3306

You see that e-mail from Mr. Weisselberg to you; right?
Yes, I do.
Q nd then you respond confirming that in fact the deal is going to go forward; right?
Yes, that's what I responded.
Q nd is it fair to say as you indicate in your response to Mr. Weisselberg that you consider the deal to purchase the club to be close at hand and that you wanted to get it done?
Well, my exact words "because we had bigger fish to fry, but we have it on the one yard line."
Q nd I wasn't trying to use your exact words. I was just asking you if you would agree that what you're saying here is that the deal is close at hand and you wanted to get it done; right?
Yes.
Q Just going back, we had looked at the draft, due diligence summary that was attached to the prior exhibit. You recall that?
Yes, I do.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and mark Exhibit 1091.
Q You'll see these are a series of e-mail exchanges among you, Mr. Delk and Mr. Weisselberg; right?
Yes, I do.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3307

evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Same objection, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1091 in evidence.)
Q If you'll look at page two of this document, the bottom e-mail, this is the same e-mail we had just looked at before that attached the due diligence summary; correct?
That's correct.
Q Then you actually on the bottom of page one respond to that e-mail directly to Mr. Delk; right?
Yes, I did.
Q nd you did at the time review Mr. Delk's due diligence summary as indicated in your response to him about it; right?
It sounds like it if it was attached to that e-mail.
Q Not my question.
Based on your response to him at the bottom of this page?
Yes, it looks like that.
Q You received and read Mr. Delk's due diligence summary that he attached to his e-mail; right?
Yes, it appears that way.
Q The one that referenced the Statement of Financial Condition; right?

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3308

MR. ROBERT: Objection. It did not reference a Statement of Financial Condition.
The one that reference the financials, yes.
THE COURT: Well, he seems to think it did.
MR. ROBERT: I want to make sure it is a distinction. It doesn't talk about a Statement of Financial Condition. Fair enough.
Q nd here's what you write to Mr. Delk:
"Phil, sorry to be brash, but it was not the intent that a summary would be circulated to the members. The point of the exercise and the intent of our conversation was to give you and the board comfort that our personal financials have been reviewed on behalf of the members. This exercise was bound by confidentiality which is why we did it in person and was intended for you to be able to convey that you have reviewed our financials and mention that without question we have the financial wherewithal to purchase, renovate and operate this asset. I trust you understand and would appreciate you giving me your assurance that this will not be distributed."
That was your response to Mr. Delk after reviewing his draft due diligence report for the members; right?
Yes.
Q nd Mr. Delk responds in the e-mail above telling you you do not come across as being brash. He understands your concerns and he will not distribute the summary; that he will limit any communication to the fact that you do not -- that you do have the financial wherewithal to purchase, renovate and operate the club; right?

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3309

Yes.
Q nd you thank him in the e-mail above; right?
Yes, I do.
Q Can we agree that the due diligence exercise involved Mr. Delk coming to New York to review personal financials in person?
It sounds like he came to New York to review financials, yes.
Q nd you say the exercise was bound by confidentiality. Does this mean you required Mr. Delk to sign a non-disclosure agreement before he reviewed the personal financials?
I wouldn't know.
Q Well, it's your words in the response to him to say the exercise was bound by confidentiality. re you telling us you don't know what you meant by that?
I don't know if confidentiality was signed. Oftentimes when you get into a deal transaction at the beginning of the deal, both sides sign confidentiality agreements. It's very possible that one was executed. I just don't remember 12 years later.
Q t any rate it was your intent that he be bound by confidentiality with respect to his review of personal financials during this due diligence exercise; right?

Yes, I think we would want to keep financials confidential. No different than any other private company in the world.
Q You were concerned about the personal financials that he was going to be reviewing being distributed to club members; correct?
Possibly. I think you wouldn't want 1,200 people to see personal financials. Yes, I think that would be accurate.
Q Having looked at this document, including your reply to Mr. Delk, can we agree that by February 2012 you were aware that your father had a personal financial statement that was being used by the Trump Organization to demonstrate to a third party the company's financial wherewithal?
MR. ROBERT: Objection. He keeps referencing a personal financial statement. ll we're seeing in these e-mails are personal financials being provided. That's a huge distinction.
MR. MER: Your Honor.
THE COURT: It's definitely a distinction. I don't know how huge or small it is. Mr. mer, go ahead.
MR. MER: I think the witness can answer the question yes or no. If he doesn't agree with the way I phrased the question he can answer no.
THE COURT: Overruled. Do you need a read back or a restatement?

THE WITNESS: Can I have a read back. Thank you.
THE COURT: Read back, please.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
I don't want to nitpick this. Clearly the board member came in to review financials and he did so with llen Weisselberg and not with me. Do I have an understanding that financials were reviewed, yes. Do I have any understanding or had I ever seen my father's Statement of Financial Condition, no. It's just not what I did for the company, sir.
Q You read the due diligence summary that we put up on the screen?
Yes, I did.
Q t the time; correct?
It appears so.
Q nd in response to seeing that you then told Mr. Delk that you were concerned about releasing that summary to the members; correct?
I wouldn't want financial information to be released to 1,200 people no matter who they were.
Q That wasn't my question.
MR. MER: Can I get a read back, Your Honor?
THE COURT: Sure. nd I agree that did not answer the question.

(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
Correct.
Q re you telling us that when you sent your response to Mr. Delk telling him he -- telling him he was bound by confidentiality and he shouldn't release the summary to his members that you had no idea what personal financials he was looking at as part of his due diligence exercise? Is that your testimony?
It would be my testimony that he was looking at financials. s to what financials he was looking at, I do not know.
Transcript continues on the following page....

Q So that's your testimony? You had no idea what the financials were that Mr. Delk was looking at as part of his due diligence exercise when you wrote this e-mail to him, right?
That's correct.
Q Can we agree that your involvement in this due diligence exercise with Mr. Delk was to allow him to determine if the Trump Organization had the financial wherewithal to purchase, renovate, and operate the club?
bsolutely.
Q nd can we agree that your involvement in this due diligence exercise was just seven months before Mr. McConney indicated that he had his first call with you about Seven Springs which just to remind you was in September of 2012?
Sounds correct from a date standpoint, yes.
Q Can we at least agree that by 2012 you were aware that the company had personal financials available to share with third parties for them to understand whether the company had financial wherewithal?
THE COURT: Hold on. You said "personal financials." Can you be more specific?
MR. MER: I think that's the phrase from the due diligence summary, Your Honor, so I think it's a fair question.
THE WITNESS: Your Honor, that's the same thing I'm battling as well.

THE COURT: I'm not saying it is a fair question. I'm just not sure that's what you really want to know.

THE WITNESS: I understood we had financials as a company and we had an accounting department that would often refer or would sometimes work with outside entities such as this. They go through them. I was not personally aware of the Statement of Financial Condition. I didn't work on the Statement of Financial Condition. I've been very, very clear about that.

MR. MER: Let's go to the 2013 Jeff Supporting Data. It is native 708.

Q Let's go to Row 640 and you'll see this references a call with you on ugust 20, 2013, right?

Yes, it does.

Q Isn't it a fact, sir, that in connection with that call, Mr. McConney told you that he needed information from you to value Seven Springs expressly for your father's Statement of Financial Condition?

Not to the best of my recollection.

MR. MER: Why don't we split the screen and put up along with this Plaintiff's 1075.

Q This is an easement from Mr. McConney to you dated ugust 20, 2013, the same date as the call Mr. McConney references in his supporting spreadsheet, right?

Yes.

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move this into evidence. Move to admit it into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1075.)

Q Mr. McConney writes to you, sir, "Hi, Eric. I'm working on your dad's annual financial statement. I need to value Seven Springs. ttached, please find how we valued it last year. Can you let me know when you have time to talk about this year's valuation." Do you see that?

I do.

Q So you were told by Mr. McConney expressly in connection with this call that he notes in the supporting data spreadsheet that he's working on your dad's annual financial statement, right?

Okay.

Q Well, not okay. Right?

Yes. People come to me all the time to ask me questions about various projects I'm involved with, absolutely.

Q nd on this date, ugust 20, 2013, in an e-mail, he told you that he was working on your dad's annual financial statement, correct?

It's absolutely what it says, yes.

Q So you did know about your father's annual financial statement as of ugust 20, 2013, didn't you?

It appears that way, yes.

Q nd he told you that he needed to value Seven Springs for that annual financial statement, right?

That's what it says, yes.

Q nd he attached to this e-mail on the second page an excerpt from his supporting data spreadsheet, didn't he?

Yes, he did.

Q So you've actually seen portions of Mr. McConney's spreadsheet at the time that he was working on it, right?

Yes. I see some blank cells and some cells that were already filled out before this e-mail on Excel spreadsheet, yes.

Q If we go back to his cover e-mail, he says, " ttached, please find how we valued it last year."

So he's showing you how it was valued in 2012 and he's asking for your assistance in valuing it for 2013, right?

Yes. It appears that it was already valued in 2012 and he is asking for my assistance in valuing it for 2013, yes.

Q nd that's the topic of his telephone conversation with you on ugust 20, 2013, the same date as this e-mail --

Well, I want to --

Q -- Exhibit 1075, right?

I just want to clarify. If I'm looking at the footnote, it says, "Per telephone conversation with Eric Trump, New Castle land to be donated, North Castle to be used as part of the main mansion." Those are absolutely facts that I could have given Jeffrey McConney. That's definitely something he could have come to me to ask. It seems like the values had already been established in the spreadsheet from the year before, meaning prior to my involvement in the project.

Q Do you now have some recollection of this call that you didn't have before?

No, I don't. I think I'm pointing out the footnote that you say references numbers and it seems like the footnote -- it seems like the footnote is referencing New Castle land to be donated which was our intent at the time and North Castle land to be used as the part of the main mansion.

Q Just to be clear, when you say "footnote," this is Row 640. It is a note, right? It is not a footnote. It is not a footnote noted anywhere on this page. It is just a note on Row 640, right?

I'm referencing the two notes directly below that mention of my name which would have been consistent with something I would have given Jeffrey McConney, the current status of an active development project, yes.

Q Okay. nd what you received, which was the second page of the e-mail, was an excerpt from the supporting data spreadsheet that had information on Bedford seven Mansions approved with a selling price, a cost, a profit, number of homes, and a value, right?

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3318

That's correct and it looks accurate, yes.
Q That's also information you knew at the time, right? That we were going to develop at the time seven homes on that property?
Q Yes.
Yes, I would have known that.
Q You would have had information relating to the selling price, the cost, the profit, the number of homes, right?
No. I think it is established that this pre-dated me. He's asking this in 2013. It seems like he's updating numbers that were already there pre my involvement. t least that's how I'm reading this.
Q I'm not asking you to read this. I'm simply asking you to confirm that that information, the details about the seven mansions would have been information that you would have known about at the time of this call, right?
Yes, I was working on the zoning at that time.
Q So just to confirm where we are, on the same day as the call Mr. McConney references he had with you in his supporting data spreadsheet, he tells you in an e-mail that he needs to value Seven Springs for your father's annual financial statement and needs to speak to you about the 2013 valuation, correct?
Yes.
Q nd he shares with you the basis for the prior year's valuation lifted from his spreadsheet, right?

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3319

Yes, it looks to be correct.
Q Mr. Trump, it is an undeniable fact, is it not, that as of September 24, 2012, the date McConney noted he had his call with you about Seven Springs, you did know that your father had an annual financial statement?
You knew it was shared with third parties to demonstrate the company's financial wherewithal and you knew Mr. McConney was going to use the information that you provided to him to value Seven Springs for your father's statement; isn't that right?
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
It's just incorrect.
THE COURT: Compound question.
MR. ROBERT: Compound and stating facts the witness didn't testify to, but the witness just answered.
It is just incorrect.
THE COURT: Okay.
Q Isn't it a fact, sir, that you were aware that your father's Statement of Financial Condition was being provided to a bank for review in connection with a banking transaction even before February 2012?
Not to the best of my knowledge sitting here right now.
MR. MER: Why don't we go ahead and mark Exhibit 1265.
Q You see, Mr. Trump, that there's a bottom e-mail from a woman named Elena Sita at FNBLI, which I represent to you is First National Bank of Long Island, to Mr. Weisselberg that he then forwards to you and others at the Trump Organization. Do you see that?

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3320

Yes, I see that.
Q nd you'll see there is an attachment which is a confidentiality agreement which is the second -- starts on the second page of this exhibit?
Yes, I do.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I move that this be admitted into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection; statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1265.)
THE COURT: Overruled on statute of limitations. Relevance, we will see where we are going with it.
Q You will see that the attachment is a document entitled, "Confidentiality between the First National Bank of Long Island and Trump cquisition, LLC," right?
Yes.
Q nd you'll see from the last page of the document that it is executed by someone from the bank, right?
I don't know what this document is, but that appears that it is executed by somebody from the bank.

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3321

Q It is a document that was forwarded to you by Mr. Weisselberg, right?
pparently, yes. It's 2010. I think I was 26 at the time, 24.
Q nd if you look at the confidentiality agreement that's attached, the second paragraph says, "Whereas before on and/or after the date hereof disclosing party may furnish recipient" -- the disclosing party is the Trump entity, right? If you look at the top paragraph, you see that?
Yes.
Q nd the recipient is the First National Bank of Long Island, right?
That looks to be correct, yes.
Q "Whereas before on and/or after the date hereof, disclosing party may furnish recipient with or cause recipient to be furnished with certain documents and information prepared by or for or belonging to disclosing party including without limitation a Statement of Financial Condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2010 and/or other financial documents and information." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Can we agree that is clearly a reference to your father's Statement of Financial Condition?
The chances of me reading a confidentiality agreement that I didn't execute I would say is zero percent, but yes, we can agree that it says it in that paragraph.

Q nd Mr. Weisselberg and in his cover e-mail says, "CONFI received, F/S going to bank overnight." Do you see that?

I do.

THE COURT: Five-minute warning.

Q We can agree that F/S is an abbreviation for financial statement, right?

Yes, I would assume that's what our CFO would send to a third party.

Q So in 2010, you received from Mr. Weisselberg an e-mail forwarding a confidentiality agreement that clearly references your father's Statement of Financial Condition, right?

That clearly references a financial statement, yes.

Q Not a financial statement. Your father's Statement of Financial Condition. Do we need to go back to it? It says Donald J. Trump, right?

s I said, the chances that I read a confidentiality that I didn't sign would be very small, but yes, it certainly referenced that at that time.

Q nd he not only attaches it, but he says in the cover e-mail "financial statement going to bank overnight," right?

That's correct.

MR. MER: Let's go ahead and mark as the next exhibit Plaintiff's Exhibit 3332.

Q This is an e-mail from Mr. McConney to you dated ugust 23, 2013, correct?

That's correct.

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3332.)

Q The subject of this e-mail in ugust of 2013 is "DJT F/S," right?

Yes.

Q You understood at the time that you received this e-mail that DJT was Donald J. Trump and F/S was financial statement, right?

Yes.

Q nd Mr. McConney says to you, "I'm working on the notes to Mr. Trump's annual financial statement and I'd like to include any major construction work that was started, completed, calculated at our golf courses during the last year (i.e., July 2012-now)." He says, "Example, Doral, we're doing a corporate overhaul of the Blue Monster at a cost of X million of dollars. Something short and sweet is all I need. Thanks in advance for your help, Jeff."

Mr. Trump, isn't it a fact that Mr. McConney is reaching out to you for information specifically to assist him in working on the notes to your father's annual financial statement?

That's the exact kind of information I would give Mr. McConney, yes.

Q In his e-mail, he is specifically identifying the fact that he needs the information to work on your father's financial statement, right?

Yes, he's absolutely asking what we're doing on the ground at various projects, what's underway, and that's the kind of information I would -- I'm asked about every single day, but certainly I would have given Mr. McConney.

Q To be specific, though, when he asks you for the information, he tells you exactly why he needs it and he tells you that he needs it for your father's annual financial statement, right?

Yes. I know Jeffrey McConney does financial statements for my father. There's no hiding that.

Q So you would have understood at the time that you received this e-mail in ugust of 2013 that your father had an annual financial statement, right?

We're a major organization, a massive real estate organization. Yes, I'm fairly certain I understand that we have financial statements, absolutely.

Q Not my question. You've testified here quite adamantly that you had no idea that there was something called your father's annual financial statement. So I'm being very specific in my questions, sir.

MS. H BB : Objection. You're mischaracterizing the witness' testimony. He didn't say he didn't know there's something called it. He didn't testify to that.

I said I had no involvement nor ever worked on my father's personal Statement of Financial Condition.

MR. MER: I'm not going to go back. We know what the testimony was, Your Honor. I'm just going to go forward and ask my question again. nd I ask that if the witness can answer yes or no, that he, please, do so.

THE COURT: I'll direct him to do that.

Q It is correct that when you received this e-mail in ugust of 2013, you understood that your father had an annual financial statement and you understood that Mr. McConney was asking you for information specifically to assist him in working on the notes to that annual financial statement; isn't that correct?

Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's take a break. I'll direct the witness, as I always do, not to discuss this case or your testimony or anything related during the break or until you're no longer a witness.

THE WITNESS: Okay. (Witness exits the stand.)

Page 3326

THE COURT: See everybody at 2:15.
(Whereupon, a luncheon recess was taken.)

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3327

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. The Honorable Judge rthur Engoron presiding. Please be seated and come to order.
MR. KISE: You're back to bounding. That's a good sign.
THE COURT: I know. I'm anxious to keep moving things along, and I've got the energy.
Okay. Let's continue with the examination of Eric Trump.
MR. MER: Thank you, Your Honor.
CONTINUED DIRECT EX MIN TION
BY MR. MER:
Q Mr. Trump, when we broke for lunch we were looking at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3332. If we can just put it up to remind ourselves where we were.
This was an e-mail you received from Mr. McConney where he was telling you he was working on the notes to your father's annual financial statement and was asking you for information. Do you recall that?
Yes, I do.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 1071 that we'll mark for identification.
Q Mr. Trump, this is your reply to the e-mail we were just looking at; correct?
Yes.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3328

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1071 in evidence.)
Q So, based on this document you will agree that you received Mr. McConney's e-mail, you read it and you responded to it by providing information about construction work at Doral; right?
Yes.
Q nd when you provided that information you understood it was expressly for the purpose of assisting Mr. McConney in preparing the notes to your father's Statement of Financial Condition; correct?
That's incorrect.
Q You did respond to an e-mail that expressly referenced your father's annual financial statement; correct?
I think where we're getting tripped up is I clearly understood that I sent notes to Jeff McConney. I worked with him almost every single day. What's maybe not registering is the difference between sending him things that were used for financials and things that were used for a Statement of Financial Condition. Somebody from accounting would ask me something, they'd ask me details of a project and I would respond. I don't think it ever registered that it was for a personal Statement of Financial Condition. It was just a detail that was irrelevant to me.

Q Mr. Trump, did you speak to anybody about the substance of your testimony during lunch?
I did not.
Q Okay.
MR. MER: Your Honor, can I get a yes-or-no answer to my question? Because I think it was a yes-or-no question.
MR. KISE: Which question is that?
MR. MER: The one before.
THE COURT: Let's just get a read back.
(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)
MR. MER: I'm not the one about speaking to --
MR. KISE: Right, the one before that.
THE COURT: That's a simple yes or no.
It appears I did.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and mark Plaintiff's Exhibit -- well, actually, it's already in evidence.
1112. The court officer will hand you a copy because it's already in evidence.
Q You'll see that this is an e-mail to you from

Mr. Weisselberg dated pril of 2015; yes?
Yes.
Q nd the subject is Seven Springs; right?
Yes.
Q nd you understood at the time of this e-mail that there was an outstanding mortgage on the property; right?
Yes, I think I would have known that.
Q nd the borrower on the mortgage was Seven Springs LLC; correct?
It appears that way, yes.
Q Were you president of Seven Springs LLC at this point in time?
I do not know.
Q t some point you did become president of that entity; right?
Yes, I did.
Q nd the first sentence of the e-mail says "if we have to pay off the loan I would like to do it post June 30th as that is the date of your dad's annual financial statement and where I to keep his cash balance as high as possible."
There is a grammatical error in that, but do we agree that what Mr. Weisselberg is telling you is that he wants to hold off paying off the loan if it's going to be paid off until after June 30th because that way he can keep the cash balance on your dad's annual financial statement as high as possible?

Yes. Mr. Weisselberg would make decisions like that, absolutely.
Q Well, that's what he's saying in this e-mail?
I agree with you. bsolutely.
Q So as of the date of this e-mail you understood that your dad's annual financial statement was as of June 30th; right?
One of my father's financial statements was June 30th, yes.
Q nd that it had a cash balance figure in the statement; right?
I think any financial statement would have a cash balance figure, but yes.
Q nd the second sentence says, "I realize this will only have an effect on his liquidity and not on net worth." Do you see that?
I do.
Q So you understood as of this date that your father had an annual financial statement that was as of June 30th that reflected his liquidity and his net worth; right?
I see the words on the piece of paper. I'm not sure if I would have paid a whole lot of attention to that, but yes, I absolutely see the words on the paper.
Q But you got this e-mail, so as of this date you understood those things; right?

I understand that there is plenty of financial statements in our company, absolutely, and I also understand the fact that if you pay off debt with cash you're still in the same net neutral space. That's just basic finance 101. bsolutely.
Q Okay. My question is very specific about your knowledge based on this e-mail.
When you got this e-mail and read it, you understood that your father had a financial statement as of June 30th that included both liquidity and his net worth; right?
Yes.
Q nd you knew that as of pril 2015; correct?
Yes. This e-mail was sent to me as of pril of 2015.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and mark Plaintiff's Exhibit 1113.
Q Mr. Trump, this is an e-mail exchange between you and Mr. Weisselberg concerning a line of credit for the Las Vegas property; right?
If you don't mind, just give me a second to read it. I'm not familiar with this.
Q Sure.
Yes, I understand this now.
Q This is an e-mail exchange between you and Mr. Weisselberg concerning a line of credit for Las Vegas; right?
Yes.

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled.
(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1113 in evidence.)
Q Now, Mr. Weisselberg's e-mail, which is the bottom e-mail says "I was speaking with Bender this morning and he happened to mention to me that Drew needed you" -- should be "your dad's financial statement as well as Phil's in order to secure a line of credit with B of ." Do you see that?
I do.
Q So you understood Mr. Weisselberg was looking to use your dad's financial statement to secure a line of credit from the bank; correct?
Presumably. I don't think I would have focused that much on that, but yes, according to this e-mail, yes.
Q Well, you read this e-mail because you responded to it in the e-mail above it; right?
Yes, I told him we didn't need to take out a line of credit and the renovations were to be very small.
Q But the fact that you responded to it confirms that you read it; right?
Yes, I clearly read it at the time.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3334

Q So you were aware from this e-mail that as of July 2015 your father had a financial statement that the company was intending to use to secure a line of credit with the bank; right?

Yes, as I've testified to I know our company has plenty of sets of financial statements.

Q The answer to my question is yes?

Yes.

MR. MER: Okay. Let's go ahead and mark as Exhibit 1079 another exhibit.

Q Mr. Trump, this is an e-mail from Mr. McConney to you dated February 23, 2017; correct?

Yes.

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this exhibit into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.

(Whereupon, the item previously referred to is received and marked Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1079 in evidence.)

Q nd you'll see there is a subject, it says "footnotes." Do you see that?

I do.

Q nd it has a PDF attachment. That's the second and third pages of this exhibit?

Yes.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3335

Q nd Mr. McConney writes to you, "Eric, we're working on your dad's financial statement. I've attached the footnotes relating to the three European clubs with all of the renovations that were done since the last statement in June 2015. I wanted to ask you if there is anything you wanted to add to or expand on in the footnotes. Thanks, Jeff." See that?

bsolutely. That would definitely be consistent with my job in the company.

Q nd if you look at the attachment, it's the footnotes from the Statement of Financial Condition for your father; right?

Yes, I would have focused on two of these three projects because I was actively building them at the time.

Q So Mr. McConney is asking for your input on footnotes that are part of your father's annual financial statement; correct?

These are property descriptions, but yes, that sounds right. I was building Turnberry at the time and I was building Trump Doondeg.

Q nd Mr. McConney is sharing with you a draft excerpt from the Statement of Financial Statement asking for your input on those -- that draft; correct?

Yes, he would have been asking for my input on the property descriptions.

Q nd he tells you in his e-mail that what he's attaching are footnotes to your dad's financial statement; correct?

I think we can agree and with your -- Judge, Your Honor, I know my father has financial statements. gain, I think I've testified to this pretty extensively. Yes, my father has financial statements. These are property descriptions that Jeff asked me to confirm. bsolutely.

Q So the answer to my question is yes?

Yes, I confirm property descriptions that Jeff sent or at least received the property descriptions that Jeff sent.

Q Well, but my question was different. My question was based on the e-mail you understood that what Mr. McConney was sending you was -- were -- was a draft of a portion of your dad's financial statement. You understood that at the time you got this e-mail in 2017?

I understood it as somebody from accounting was asking me for descriptions of property that I was actively working on building at the time.

Q He says "we're working on your dad's financial statement" and he's attaching footnotes. Do you see that?

I do.

Q Okay. So you understood when you got this that what he was attaching was a draft portion of your dad's financial statement; yes or no?

Yes.

Q Do you recall giving a deposition in this case at the ttorney General's offices earlier this year; yes?

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3337

I do.

Q nd your testimony during that deposition was under oath, just like your testimony is here today; correct?

It is.

Q I'm going to play video excerpt -- actually, a few excerpts from your deposition and in between each excerpt I'm going to ask you some questions. The first clip is page 259, line 10 to page 262, line 17.

(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

Q That was your sworn testimony at your deposition; correct?

Yes, and I think it's very accurate with what I'm saying right now.

MR. MER: Can we put up 1075, please?

Q Having reviewed the e-mails we've been discussing during the course of the past couple hour -- couple of hours, including this e-mail, will you now concede that in fact you were very familiar with your father's Statement of Financial Condition at least since 2013; yes or no?

Saying your dad's annual financial statement that reads to me very differently than the personal Statement of Financial Condition. Irrespective, I just don't think it would have registered if somebody from accounting is asking me a question about a property description or how many lots could be built on a property, I don't really care where it's being used. I care about providing them the information from the department that I'm running.

MR. MER: Your Honor, I'll move to strike the answer and ask that the witness be instructed to answer my question yes or no.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, I submit the question was a little bit of a loaded question because it started out with "very aware." I mean, he was trying to make a point and Mr. Trump answered it appropriately.

THE COURT: Why don't we do this, another compromise. You can call it -- I won't strike what he said. He said what he said and I think it wasn't totally divorced from your question, but why don't we get a read back or ask him the question as simply as you can and if it's a yes or no, I'll direct him to answer yes or no.

MR. MER: That's fine. I will say other witnesses have been directed not to give speeches after the yes or no and that's what I'm asking that you direct him not to do.

THE COURT: Yes. If it's a yes-or-no question and you answer yes or no, unless you absolutely need -- well, no. No exception. No speech. You can be cross examined, but if it's yes or no and you can answer yes or no, then we don't want a speech.

THE WITNESS: I'm just trying to be very clear for everybody, Your Honor. bsolutely.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3339

THE COURT: But there is a system going on here, question, answer. Yes or no, answer yes or no. No speech.

Do we need a read back or can you just restate or reformulate the question or just -- I can't remember did he answer it yes and then give his speech or no and then give his speech?

Q I'll repeat my question and ask you to please answer it yes or no.

Having reviewed the e-mails we've been discussing during the course of the past couple of hours, will you now concede that in fact you were very familiar with your father's Statement of Financial Condition at least since 2013; yes or no?

No, I was not very familiar with my father's financial statement, no.

Q Will you concede that in fact -- that you did in fact know as of ugust 20, 2013 that Mr. McConney was intending to use the information you provided to him to value the property for the Statement of Financial Condition; yes or no?

Yes, it appears that way from the e-mails.

Q Let's play another clip. It's page 273, lines nine to 20.

(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

Q That was your sworn testimony at your deposition; yes?

Yes.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3340

Q nd will you now agree that you did in fact know about the backup for the Statement of the Financial Condition because Mr. McConney had forwarded you an excerpt from his supporting spreadsheet when requesting information from you for that property; yes?

I will agree that it didn't register. I certainly provided Jeff material for whatever exercise he was undertaking, but yes, I would agree.

Q Let's play another clip. This one is page 274, lines 15 to 25.

(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)

Q Will you now concede that you did in fact have an understanding when speaking to Mr. McConney about Seven Springs that he was seeking the information from you for the expressed purpose of valuing the properties for your father's Statement of Financial Condition; yes or no?

Same answer as before. It just didn't register, so yes -- does it appear he ultimately was, yes. It didn't register to me and I provide him the exact same information as I provided him at the time all over again absolutely.

MR. MER: I think we may need a reminder about no speeches after answering yes or no, Your Honor, please.

MR. ROBERT: I think it was an appropriate answer.

THE COURT: I think it was a speech. These are yes-or-no questions.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3341

Q I'll take the yes, but please if I ask you a yes-or-no question, then just --

Just trying to be very clear.

Q Your lawyers will have an opportunity to question you.

I understand.

Q They may not take it, but they have it.

MR. MER: Last clip and then we'll move on. This is page 276, line 18 to 277, line 13.

Q Mr. Trump, will you now concede that despite being confident at your deposition that you didn't know the conversations you had with Mr. McConney were ever used as part of the work product for the Statement of Financial Condition you did in fact understand at the time of your conversations with him that the very purpose of his requests to you for Seven Springs information was to use that information for the Statement of Financial Condition; yes or no?

MR. ROBERT: Objection.

No.

THE COURT: I'm sorry, what was the answer?

(Whereupon, the requested portion of the proceedings was read back by the court reporter.)

Q I'd like to ask you some questions about the conservation easement donation for Seven Springs.

bsolutely.

Q You were aware that there was a conservation easement donation made on the Seven Springs property; correct?

Yes.
Q nd that donation was made by Seven Springs LLC based on a final appraisal by Cushman & Wakefield; correct?
That's correct.
Q Do you recall that the easement donation was made for the tax year ending 2015?
That sounds correct.
Q Do you recall that the process of exploring a conservation easement on the Seven Springs property began a few years earlier in 2012?
I have a vague recollection of that now, yes.
Q Let's go ahead and have you look at Exhibit 908, which is already in evidence.
Mr. Trump, you'll see this exhibit is an engagement letter between Robert F. Heffernan & ssociates and Bingham McCutchen LLP and that this engagement is to provide consulting services to the law firm in connection with services the law firm is providing to its client Donald J. Trump. Do you see that?
I do see that, yes.
Q nd the second paragraph says that the scope of the assignment is to provide a written appraisal estimating the fair market value of a conservation easement placed on the Seven Springs estate. Do you see that?

I do.
Q nd on page four you will see -- you recognize Ms. Dillon's signature; correct?
Yes.
Q nd can we agree that Ms. Dillon would have required the Trump Organization's approval to enter into this engagement on behalf of her client?
Yes.
Q Let's go ahead and look at Exhibit 3296 for identification.
Now, see the bottom e-mail is from Mr. Heffernan to Bob Leonard and he is with -- if you turn to the next page you'll see he's with Bingham McCutchen, which is Ms. Dillon's firm and is counsel to the Trump Organization in connection with this engagement; correct?
Yes.
Q nd in the very bottom e-mail from Mr. Leonard he -- this is on December 18, 2012, he writes to Mr. Heffernan and says -- and asks if he's available for a call around two. Then he says "I understand Eric contacted you and wanted to get some details on your assumptions that led to your initial estimate." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Do you recall in this time frame that you had been in touch with Mr. Heffernan and you understood he had an initial estimate and you wanted some details on his assumptions?

I don't remember much about this engagement, no.
Transcript continues on the following page....

Q Well, I'm just asking very specifically if you remembered that. Did you?
I don't remember that.
Q Do you have any reason to believe that Mr. Leonard's understanding as reflected here in this e-mail was incorrect?
I would have nothing to base that on, no.
Q So you have no reason to believe it's incorrect, yes?
Yes.
Q nd if you look at Mr. Heffernan's e-mail in response, which is the next e-mail up, the very end, he references his value would have been 775,000 per raw lot for Seven Springs, correct, raw lot?
I see that, yes.
Q nd so if you had contacted Mr. Heffernan, you would have learned about his initial estimate of 775,000 per raw lot, right?
I would not make that assumption at all, no.
Q You did understand according to Mr. Leonard that Mr. Heffernan had an initial estimate, right?
It's very possible. I just -- again, I remember very little about this engagement at this point. This is a very long time ago.
MR. MER: I'm going to ask to move this e-mail chain and I want to be very specific about which portion gets admitted for which purpose. Mr. Leonard's e-mails come in for all purposes based on an exception to hearsay under CPLR 4549, which was just recently enacted a couple of years ago to create a hearsay exception for parties' agents statements made within the scope of the agency.

nd here, we have Mr. Leonard is the agent as counsel speaking within the scope of his agency role and I'm going to ask that Mr. Heffernan's e-mail comes in only for purposes of notice of what he told Mr. Leonard who was the Trump Organization's agent.

MR. ROBERT: I disagree as to the hearsay exception. They had Ms. Dillon here who they could have shown the e-mail to authenticate who I believe is the partner we are talking about, Mr. Leonard, if I'm not mistaken. nd on that basis alone, I don't think this is admissible that portion is hearsay in addition to my usual statute of limitations objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Well, the fact that they could have asked Ms. Dillon doesn't mean they can't try to introduce evidence some other way.

MR. ROBERT: Even if you bring in as an agent, it would be an agent of whoever the retained party was who did this. So if you're bringing it in as a statement, we'd have to check the engagement letter, but it was Seven Springs, LLC or whatever entity it is who Mr. Leonard and Ms. Dillon was representing. Then that's, I guess, fair game, but to say it comes in as an admission for Mr. Trump or any other individual other than who she was the agent for, I would say is improper, so tell us who it is you say they are the agent for.

THE COURT: Mr. mer, you want to answer that?

MR. MER: Sure. Exhibit 908, the engagement letter indicates that the client is Donald J. Trump. I'll take that.

MR. ROBERT: Can I see the exhibit, please?

MR. MER: It's 908.

MR. ROBERT: Fair enough.

THE COURT: Objection overruled.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 908.)

Q We saw that Mr. Leonard's e-mail indicated his understanding that you had contacted Mr. Heffernan by mid December of 2012, correct?

I appear so.

Q If we put up 2013 Jeff Supporting Data PX 708 in evidence, and if we go to Row 638 and 640, we can agree that the contact that Mr. Leonard indicated you had with Mr. Heffernan is about six or seven months prior -- actually would be about eight months prior to the ugust 20, 2013 call that you had with Mr. McConney, right?

It appears that way, yes.

Q Can we agree that there's nothing in this spreadsheet that reflects information from Mr. Heffernan; yes or no?

I wouldn't know. I know nothing about this spreadsheet and I didn't create this spreadsheet, so that's a question for somebody else. I wouldn't be able to accurately tell you not knowing the document.

Q Well, you're the one who purportedly had contact with Mr. Heffernan, so do you recognize any of the figures on this spreadsheet as being figures that you might have obtained through conversations with Mr. Heffernan?

MR. ROBERT: I think the disconnect, Your Honor, is Mr. mer may be referring to this one entry on the spreadsheet, not the entire spreadsheet, which is much greater in detail. That may be where the confusion is here because he's asking him is it anywhere in the spreadsheet. The spreadsheet, as my understanding, is pretty thick.

MR. MER: I'll limit my question to the document that's up on the screen. That's the excerpt from the spreadsheet.

THE COURT: ll right. So we are just talking about the excerpt?

MR. MER: Yes.

MR. ROBERT: That's fine.

You have to repeat the question because there's many disconnects here, but, please, go ahead and --

Q Do you recognize any of the information on this page, the excerpt from the spreadsheet as being information based on a contact with Mr. Heffernan?

I don't, but I think they are two distinctly different exercises.

Q So the answer is no?

No.

THE COURT: See.

Q You would agree with me that your answer is no, correct?

It couldn't be because they are two totally different subject matters and --

THE COURT: The document speaks -- it doesn't speak for itself. It doesn't say Heffernan. Do you want to --

Q The question is whether you recognize any of these figures as figures that would have come from Mr. Heffernan? Do you, yes or no?

I don't recognize those figures to begin with, so I would not be able to answer that question.

THE COURT: We'll take that to be a no.

MR. MER: Yes.

Q Do you recall that about a year and-a-half later, so in mid 2014, you reached out to David Mc rdle of Cushman & Wakefield to start the ball rolling on getting a preliminary value from him for an easement donation on Seven Springs?

I do. I remember David Mc rdle slightly better. It is a vague recollection, but I remember that David was with Cushman, yes.
MR. MER: Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3330 for identification.
Q This is your e-mail to Mr. Mc rdle in June of 2014. The subject is "Seven Springs" and you indicate it was great speaking to him earlier. So you had a conversation with Mr. Mc rdle?
It appears so, yes.
Q nd you're making arrangements in this e-mail to have him come and inspect the property; is that right?
Yes. I was setting him up with your general manager to inspect the property. I believe Sheri retained him just prior to this.
Q nd the reason for setting up an inspection of the property was for him to move forward with an appraisal for an easement donation, correct?
That's my understanding, yes.
MR. MER: I move to admit this document.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3330.)

Q nd you did, in fact, arrange for your general manager -- is her name pronounced Deb?
Debbie, yes. I passed Mr. Mc rdle off to Debbie who I'm sure gave him a property tour.
Q This was for the purpose of having him come up with a preliminary value; is that right?
You would have to ask Sheri Dillon. She's definitely closer to the details of this than me, but that would be my assumption, yes.
Q I realize we could ask questions to a lot of people, but I'm asking them to you. I just want your best recollection.
It would be my best recollection, yes.
Q Thank you.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and mark Exhibit 3331 for identification.
Q nd this is a series of e-mail exchanges beginning with the one we looked at before between you and Mr. Mc rdle, right?
Yes.
MR. MER: I move to admit this into evidence, Your Honor.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3331.)
Q Mr. Mc rdle, in the middle e-mail responds by asking if we could target -- if you could target June 17th for his inspection and you in the top e-mail forward that on to Debbie and you say -- you ask her if this would work for an hour or so and then you say, "I'll call to give you the details." Let me just stop right there.

Can we agree, then, that you had details with respect to what needed to happen with the inspection?
Yes. I would have had to tell the person who is running our property generally the purpose for the visit.
Q nd you knew the details as of this point in time, correct?
This was probably very preliminary at the point, but yes, I would have said that he's an appraiser coming up to the property, please tour the person around.
Q You go on to say that you'll do your best to make it to the inspection as well, correct?
That's correct.
Q So we can agree that you deemed it sufficiently important for you to take time out of your schedule to do your best to attend the inspection that Mr. Mc rdle was going to conduct, right?
If it was extremely important, I would have said I will make it as opposed to do my best to make it; but yes, if I was free and was able to attend, I would have. I would have joined.
Q Well, not if you were free, but you'll do your best to try and make yourself free to attend the inspection, right?

We'll agree. If I was free, I would have done my best to make it.
Q Let's go ahead and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 169 in evidence. This document is an -- we had testimony from Mr. Mc rdle, this was an internal e-mail and he says -- this is September 8, 2014 -- in the second sentence, "I have completed the research and all verbal consulting."
Do you see that?
Yes, I see that.
THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I don't mean -- if they're struggling, I can see it right there.
THE COURT: Tommy and Mike, I have it on the screen. It is already in evidence.
THE WITNESS: Guys, don't worry about it.
THE COURT: Thanks. The screen version is better because you get all the highlights sometimes. By the way, my favorite words in this trial are "already in evidence," so we don't have to fight about whether something is admissible or not.
MR. ROBERT: I think mine, too.
Q So we can agree that by September 8, 2014, Mr. Mc rdle had completed his consulting on this engagement, right?
I have no reason to doubt Mr. Mc rdle.
Q nd so by that date, you would have received verbally from Mr. Mc rdle his preliminary value for the potential easement donation, right?

I don't remember.
Q Well, if he completed his consulting, you would have received verbally his assessment by that date because that was part of the consulting engagement, wasn't it?
I don't know if it would have been done with me at the end -- Sheri really ran the engagement with Mr. Mc rdle, so I couldn't tell you.
Q So either you or your agent Ms. Dillon had received verbally from Mr. Mc rdle his preliminary value as of September 8, 2014 according to this e-mail, yes?
Yes.
Q nd am I correct that shortly after September 8, 2014, you decided to have Mr. Mc rdle proceed with a formal written appraisal for the potential easement donation; is that right?
I truthfully don't remember.
Q Let's go ahead and look at Exhibit 3188 in evidence. You'll see that this is a series of e-mails among you, Mr. Mc rdle and Ms. Dillon. I'm just going to walk you through some of them.
The first e-mail in the chain, which is on the bottom of page two, is from you to Mr. Mc rdle and Ms. Dillon asking about their schedule to set up a call and this is on ugust 11, 2014. Do you see that?

I do.
Q nd then the top of the page is Ms. Dillon's e-mail back to you and Mr. Mc rdle with her date preference, right?
Yes.
Q nd on the first page of the exhibit, the bottom e-mail is from Mr. Mc rdle with his date preference. Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd then finally, the top e-mail is from you setting a meeting for the following Monday which based on the fact that you're sending this Monday, ugust 11th, would be ugust 18th, right?
Presumably.
Q I think the Court can take judicial notice that -- I'll take your word for it.
Q -- the next Monday --
I'll take your word for it. It sounds right.
Q -- is ugust 18th. You indicate you will -- "I will send around a calendar invite"?
Yes.
Q In the second sentence of your e-mail, "Sheri, by that point, ideally, you will have seen the draft appraisal." Do you see that?
I do.
Q So your expectation was that sometime between ugust 11th and ugust 18th, Ms. Dillon would have received the draft appraisal report from Mr. Mc rdle, correct?

That sounds correct, yes.
Q nd we can agree, then, that after the verbal consulting, you had decided to move forward with having Mr. Mc rdle actually draft a formal appraisal, right?
I believe that's the case, yes.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and mark for identification Exhibit 3327. We just need to get the right exhibit up.
Q So this is a calendar invite that you send back in July setting a date for the Seven Springs appraisal being due of 8/15/2014, correct?
It is very consistent with my OCD personality, yes.
Q So that's why you expected that Sheri Dillon would have received the report by the 18th because you had already calendared it for the 15th of ugust, correct?
I would assume that's a milestone that she set out and we calendared the date, yes.
Q Then if you look at the second page of this exhibit, this is Mr. Mc rdle accepting that calendar invite, right?
It appears to be, yes.
Q nd so that's why you had an expectation that by the time of your call on ugust 18th, the appraisal would be in hand, the draft appraisal, right?
Presumably, yes.

MR. MER: Let's go ahead and put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 3206 in evidence.
Q This is the calendar invite for the call on the 18th that we previously saw had been scheduled the week before, right?
I don't remember much about this, but it looks to be correct.
Q That's a calendar invite you sent, yes?
It looks to be, yes.
Q Okay. nd you titled the subject "Seven Springs valuation call," right?
I did.
Q So we can agree that the purpose of the call was to discuss the Seven Springs valuation that Mr. Mc rdle was coming up with, right?
That seems to make sense. I don't remember much about any of these details, but I presume that's correct, yes.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I'm not sure if I moved in evidence 3327, so I'll do that now. That was the prior document.
MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3327.)
Q nd do you recall that in this time frame, you signed a formal engagement letter with Cushman for Mr. Mc rdle to provide a written appraisal for the potential conservation easement over Seven Springs?

It sounds like that's something that we would have done, yes.

MR. MER: Let's go ahead and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 133 in evidence.

Q You will see that this is an engagement letter addressed to you dated September 15, 2014 and you -- if you turn to page 6 of 8, is that your signature agreeing to this engagement letter?

Yes, it is.

Q nd you sign it on September 18, 2014, correct?

That's correct, yes.

Q nd on page one of the engagement letter, the type of opinion and rights appraised says "fair market value of a conservation easement," correct?

Yes, that was the exercise at hand.

Q Let's go ahead and mark for identification Plaintiff's Exhibit 3189. You'll see these are e-mail exchanges between you, Mr. Mc rdle and Ms. Dillon, and I'll represent to you that all of the exchanges are ones we've seen before in the prior exhibits except for the one at the very top, which is from you to Mr. Mc rdle dated ugust 18, 2014, the date of the valuation call.

Do you see that?

Yes, I do.

Q nd you can just look, the prior e-mails have just the back and forth setting up the date preference for the call.

Do you recognize those?

Yes.

Q nd in the top e-mail from you to Mr. Mc rdle is forwarding along a Zillow listing; is that right?

Yes, that appears to be a Zillow listing.

Q nd you're sending Mr. Mc rdle a comp for him to consider in connection with the appraisal engagement; is that right?

I don't have this at this point, but it was some data point that I thought was maybe relevant to whatever the exercise at hand ultimately was.

Q Well, let me just make sure we're on the same page. Do you agree that what you're forwarding is a comp for Mr. Mc rdle to consider in connection with his appraisal engagement on Seven Springs, yes or no?

Yes.

MR. MER: I move to admit this, Your Honor.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3189.)

Q The comp is 168 Hook Road, Bedford, New York. Let's ahead and put up Exhibit 3190 for identification.

3190, same e-mail string except for a different e-mail at the very top. You're forwarding to Mr. Mc rdle now a Zillow listing for a 72 Guard Hill Road, Bedford Corners, New York.

Do you see that?

I do.

Q Same day, a second comp that you're forwarding to Mr. Mc rdle for his consideration, correct?

Clearly, I was trying to show them some data point that I thought they would think was relevant, yes.

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It is in, and five-minute warning.

(Whereupon, the Plaintiff was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3190.)

MR. MER: Let's go ahead and put up Exhibit 3207 for identification.

Q Mr. Trump, this is another calendar invite you send to Ms. Dillon and Mr. Mc rdle with the subject "call Seven Springs."

Do you see that?

I do.

Q nd this was a call that you scheduled for ugust 25, 2014?

Yes.

Q Do you recall a few weeks after the scheduled date of this call you decided to terminate the engagement with Mr. Mc rdle without getting a final appraisal report?

That could be accurate. I, again, have very little recollection of all of this maybe because it was terminated, but I'll take your word for it.

Q Well, let's confirm the date. So let's go ahead and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 185 in evidence, and this is an e-mail from Ms. Dillon to Mr. Mc rdle dated Monday, October 6, 2014.

Do you see that?

I do.

Q nd Ms. Dillon confirms that there's been a mutual agreement to terminate the engagement as of that date, right?

That's what this says, yes.

Q That would have been something that you would have authorized her to do, right?

I see no reason to believe that Sheri and I wouldn't have had a conversation about that.

Q Well, more than that you had a conversation, but that you actually authorized her as your attorney to terminate the engagement as of this date?

Presumably she was much closer to this than me. I just don't have a recollection of this sitting here today.

Q Well, would you agree with me that Ms. Dillon would not have the authority to terminate the engagement without the approval to do so from her client?

I imagine she told somebody. gain, I just don't have a recollection.

Q Okay. Let me try again because that wasn't my question. I'm just trying to confirm that Ms. Dillon would not have had the authority to terminate the engagement without getting authority to do so from her client; is that right?

Yes. If she made a recommendation, we would follow it; but yes, I think that's right.

Q Well, she's the one who has to follow your direction, not the other way around, because she's the lawyer and you're the client, right?

She was the one running this process, but yes, fair enough. I think you and I are --

THE COURT: By the --

-- in agreement.

THE COURT: By the way, that was another speech. The question was very simple. Would Sheri Dillon have terminated the engagement without authority from the client, yes or no? You said she would not have. Of course, we all know she would not have. You don't have to give a speech after that.

Q Mr. Trump, just to close the loop, based on your testimony earlier that a donation was made in 2015, do you recall that Cushman was re-engaged to complete the appraisal report the following year?

Yes, I believe that's the case.

MR. MER: I'm going to try and see if I can get one more document in before we have to go. ctually, let me move to admit Exhibit 3207, Your Honor.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3207.)

Q Let's quickly look at Exhibit 3328. Mr. Trump, you'll see that this is an e-mail -- the top e-mail is from you to a number of people within the Trump Organization as well as Ms. Dillon, right?

That's correct.

Q nd this is dated May 29, 2015, yes?

Yes, it is.

Q nd you have some follow-up items that you list in your e-mail to this team, correct?

Yes.

Q The item you list for Ms. Dillon is finalized Seven Springs appraisal, correct?

Yes.

Q So does this refresh your recollection that sometime in 2015, you re-engaged Mr. Mc rdle to -- or Cushman & Wakefield to finalize the appraisal report for the easement donation?

Yes, it does.

MR. MER: I move to admit this exhibit in evidence.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. If you want another five minutes, okay, or you want to break right now?

MR. MER: I think I have a little more on this, but let's take our break.

THE COURT: Back at 3:35, everyone.

(Witness exits the stand.)

(Whereupon, a recess was taken.)

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. Please be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Right on time. I like to run a tight ship. Okay. Let's continue with the questions.

MR. MER: Thank you, Your Honor.

Q Let's go ahead and put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 719 which is the supporting data spreadsheet and I'd like to focus you on Row 660 and this is just to close the loop on the Seven Springs easement donation time frame in relation to the calls that Mr. McConney was discussing was indicating in his note. If you look at 660, that's the note that refers to his conversation with you on September 12, 2014. Do you see that?

I do, yes.

Q nd we can agree that that is in the time frame of when you were working with Ms. Dillon and Mr. Mc rdle to get a valuation for Seven Springs for the easement donation; correct?

It appears to be, yes.

Q nd this -- and it's after your ugust 18th valuation call; correct?

I've already told you I didn't provide values. I see nothing wrong with the values, but I didn't provide values. I've testified pretty extensive to that.

Q That was not my question at all. My question was the note about Mr. McConney's conversation with you in September of 2014, that was after the ugust 18, 2014 valuation call that we looked at you had scheduled; correct?

It appears the dates were kept that way, yes.
Q Can we agree that Mr. Mc rdle's valuation was disregarded for purposes of valuing the Seven Springs property in 2014; yes or no?
I'm very confused to that question. I think you need to be much more specific. Is this the 2014 valuation that was never concluded? Is this the valuation that was concluded?
Q The Statement of Financial Condition valuation in 2014 that comes to a value of $291 million, can we agree that Mr. Mc rdle's valuation in connection with the easement donation engagement that he was doing was disregarded for purposes of coming up with that $291 million; yes or no?
No. The exercises are apples and oranges. They have nothing to do with one another.
Q That seems to be a yes to me because the question was whether Mr. Mc rdle's work was being disregarded for purposes of this value. You're telling me that it was apples and oranges. Is that your testimony?
MR. ROBERT: Objection, Your Honor. He's asking whether it was disregarded which presupposes it should have been regarded. If he wants to say is that the same number, that's a simple question that can be answered yes or no, but to suggest it's discarded meant it should have been used.
THE COURT: Disregarded, not discarded.

MR. ROBERT: Disregarded.
MR. MER: Either they took it into account or they disregarded it. Those seem to me to be the two obvious choices, so my question is whether he agrees that the Mc rdle valuation was disregarded for purposes of coming up with the $291 million figure in the Statement of Financial Condition. That's the question I'd like answered.
THE COURT: Objection sustained.
Q Mr. Trump, to your knowledge, did you ever forward to Mr. McConney or tell Mr. McConney anything about Mr. Mc rdle's valuation?
I would have never have thought to, no.
Q So the answer is you did not?
I didn't -- no, I did not. I would have never thought to because I didn't work on this document.
THE COURT: The short answer is no, you didn't do it. You don't have to explain why.
Q I'd like to turn now to Briarcliff. You're familiar with Trump National Golf Club in Briarcliff Manor, yes?
Yes.
Q Can we refer to that for short as Briarcliff?
bsolutely.
Q Let's go ahead and keep up 719, which is the 2014 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet and look at Row 267.
nd this begins the section on Briarcliff. Do you see that?

Yes.
Q nd do you see that Rows 277 to 281 show a profit calculation for the sale of 71 mid rise units approved but put on hold?
I do, yes.
Q nd you're familiar with the plan to develop the 71 mid rise units on the property?
I am.
Q nd you had some involvement in developing those plans; is that right?
No. Those plans predated me, but I am aware of them.
Q Well, did you have involvement in working on the project to develop the 71 mid rise units?
They were zoned before I came into the company.
Q nd as of 2014 it was put on hold; right?
Yes. We retained the zoning, but it was put on hold.
Q Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 157, which is in evidence already. If you look at page three of this exhibit you'll see there is an e-mail from Mr. Mc rdle to you on ugust 6, 2013. See that?
Yes, I do.
Q nd he's referencing a revised appraisal proposal and says "hope this works for you and we can move forward." Do you see that?

I do.
Q nd this was to move forward with an appraisal to estimate the value of the 71 units we were just talking about; right?
It appears so, yes.
Q nd the bottom of page two of this exhibit is your response to him; right?
Yes.
Q nd you write, "good morning, David. ttached please find the assigned proposal. I'm in the process of sending you the retainer of 6,250 by separate cover. I will send you all the information on 71 units."
So you had -- you were gathering whatever information he needed for his engagement to value the 71 units; right?
It appears to be, yes.
Q nd you are calendaring two dates that you are hoping Mr. Mc rdle can actually beat which is Phase 1 date of September 6th and a Phase 2 date of September 27th, the final report; right?
Yes, sir.
Q Let's go ahead and look at Exhibit 3195 in evidence. I think we spoke already about Bob Leonard, he's an attorney, at Bingham. Do you recall that?
Very vaguely.
Q nd he writes to Mr. Mc rdle -- well, let me backup.

Bingham was again acting as counsel for the Trump Organization in connection with engaging Mr. Mc rdle to do the valuation for the 71 units; is that right?

Yes, Sheri Dillon at Bingham was counsel.

Q nd he writes to Mr. Mc rdle in ugust -- I'm sorry, September of 2013 -- I'm sorry. This is the other way around. It's from Mr. Mc rdle to Mr. Leonard and he says, "Bob, I spoke with Eric yesterday and agreed to perform a discounted cash flow analysis reflecting a build-out scenario."

Do you recall discussing with Mr. Mc rdle the need to perform a discounted flow -- discounted cash flow analysis reflecting a build-out/sellout scenario for the 71 units?

Not off the top of my head, no.

Q Do you have any reason to believe that Mr. Mc rdle is inaccurately describing his discussion with you the day before he sends this e-mail?

bsolutely not.

Q Do you agree that estimating the current value for the profit to be realized from selling the 71 units requires performing a discounted cash flow analysis?

I wouldn't be familiar with the methodology.

Q Wasn't my question.

Meaning so I think the answer is no to your question. I wouldn't be familiar with the methodology, so not necessarily.

Q Well, do you have an understanding -- well, you had an understanding at the time that Mr. Mc rdle was going to do a discounted cash flow analysis reflecting the build-out/sellout scenario; right?

Yes.

Q nd is it your testimony sitting here today that you don't know one way or the other whether it was necessary to do such an analysis for this project that was currently on hold and would generate cash flow in the future?

I would not know, no.

Q Would you agree at least that you understood that that was something that Mr. Mc rdle thought was necessary at the time?

I would have left that to Mr. Mc rdle. He's from Cushman and clearly knows that field very well.

Q Okay. But you understood based on your conversation with him that that was something that he was going to do; correct?

It looks like it from the e-mail, yes.

Q Okay. Let's go ahead and look at Exhibit 3204 in evidence. This is an e-mail dated September 13, 2013 from Mr. Mc rdle to you relating to the Briarcliff 71 units; right?

Yes, it appears that way.

Q nd he writes: "This is a follow up to confirm that you will be providing support from your brokers for the potential pricing of the 71 residential units."

Do you recall that you were going to get comps to pass along to Mr. Mc rdle to help with the pricing of the 71 residential units?

I don't. Cushman & Wakefield would certainly have more brokers than we do.

Q Well, when you -- when he indicates that you will be providing support from your brokers, meaning you --

Support. That's possible, yes.

Q Okay. He's talking about your brokers, not his brokers; right?

Yes. We didn't have any brokers on the project at that point, so I'm a little bit confused by what he's saying there, but --

Q Well, you had an in-house realty group called Trump International Realty, didn't you?

We did with main presence here in New York, but fair enough. I'm not discounting your point.

Q Do you recall that you had that group look for comps in the area to provide to Mr. Mc rdle?

I do not off the top of my head.

Q nd in the next sentence he says that -- actually, two sentences down, he says he's going to move forward with the discounted cash flow analysis and looks forward to the pricing and cost estimates from your team. Do you see that?

Yes.

Q Let's go ahead and look at Exhibit 3202, which is already in evidence.

Now, the bottom e-mail is from Kathy Kaye to you dated September 24, 2013. Ms. Kaye was in the Trump International Realty Group; correct?

That's correct.

Q nd she says "please see the attached for your review and comments." nd then if you flip the page you'll see she is attaching some listings from West -- from Westchester closings. Do you see that?

I do.

Q Does it appear then that you had Ms. Kaye from the Trump International Realty Group pull together some comps for you to then pass along to Mr. Mc rdle?

Yes, it does.

Q nd you do, in fact, forward the comps to Mr. Mc rdle in the e-mail above; right?

Yes.

Q Let's look at Exhibit 3201 already in evidence.

You'll see the bottom of page one is an e-mail from Mr. Mc rdle to you dated September 30, 2013, yes?

Yes.

Q nd he says to you "I'm prepared to share my valuation and conclusions with you. re you available to talk this afternoon or tomorrow morning." nd then you can respond you can do 3:30. He says "perfect, I will call you." nd so do you recall that you had a conversation in this time frame with Mr. Mc rdle where he shared with you his valuation conclusions for the 71 units at Briarcliff?

I do not recall.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt that that call happened as indicated in the e-mail exchange?
I don't want to speculate. It very well could have -- I just don't know sitting here ten years later.
Q Well, do you have any recollection of anything that happened that to your knowledge would have prevented that call from going forward?
I have very little recollection on this whole subject, so no.
Q Then the top e-mail is from Mr. Mc rdle to you on October 16, 2013 confirming his conversations with Ms. Dillon to finish but hold off sending the appraisal until further notice; right?
Yes.
Q Okay. Let's go ahead and look at Exhibit 1465, which is already in evidence. Page two of this e-mail, the top is an e-mail from Ms. Dillon to you -- to Mr. Mc rdle. Sorry.
Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q nd she says in her e-mail to Mr. Mc rdle, "I spoke to Eric and he is aware that the more supportable value at this point is around 45 million." Do you see that?

I do.
Q nd then at the very end of that paragraph she says "Eric was pleased with the number." Do you see that?
I see that, yes.
Q Do you recall learning by October 16, 2013 of Mr. Mc rdle's value of 45 million understanding that that was the more supportable value in being pleased with that number; yes or no?
I don't recall.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt that what Ms. Dillon reports in this e-mail is accurate?
No, I don't. I don't Ms. Dillon.
Q Okay. The decision in mid October to have Mr. Mc rdle hold off on sending the appraisal, was that your decision?
It could have been.
Q Let's put up 719, the Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet for 2014 and let's look at Row 284.
Mr. McConney notes here, 9/25/2013 per telephone conversation with Eric Trump "sellout is based on comps in the area." Do you see that?
I do.
MR. MER: nd if we could split the screen with Plaintiff's Exhibit 3202? nd you'll see -- that's the bottom e-mail is the one from Ms. Kaye sending the comps. Do you see that?

Yes, I do.
Q nd her e-mail to you is dated September 24, 2013. So that's the day before the call noted by Mr. McConney with you about the sellout being based on comps in the area. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q So can we agree that that information was information that you provided to Mr. McConney based on what you had received from Ms. Kate and passed along to Mr. Mc rdle?
Not necessarily the dates.
Q The dates do line up, though, that the day before you had this call with Mr. McConney, you got the comps from Ms. Kaye; right?
Yes, it seems like these are again totally --
THE WITNESS: I want to respect Your Honor. I think this one needs just --
THE COURT: Go ahead.
THE WITNESS: I'll respect --
These are two totally different exercises, one of which I wasn't involved in clearly. It says asterisk 9/25/2013 per telephone conversation with Eric Trump sale of 71 mid rise units with that asterisk. nd yes I think those numbers are very well supportable, but this is totally different exercise. This has to do with a conservation easement and that has to do with saleable square footage in incredibly luxurious units that would be built on a golf course. I'm trying to draw a parallel for you because I think you're conflating two very different topics and --

Q re you done? I just don't want to interrupt you.
THE COURT: He meant that seriously. It wasn't a dig at all.
I'm just trying to be as transparent as I possibly can that two completely different things, but yes.
Q Okay. The note by Mr. McConney involved the conversation with you, yes?
The asterisk is next to the asterisk, but yes, I'll concede.
Q nd that same note says "sellout is based on comps in the area." Yes?
It says "sellout is based on comps in the area."
Q nd the day before you received an e-mail from Ms. Kaye of the Trump International Realty Group providing comps which you then forwarded on to Mr. Mc rdle in connection with the 71 unit easement donation engagement; yes or no?
Yes.
Q nd we just looked at the fact that you -- that there was a decision to have Mr. Mc rdle hold off on sending the appraisal and that was as of October 19th or 16th of 2013.

MR. MER: We could put up 3201 just to confirm the date and let's keep up -- sorry -- the spreadsheet. Right.
Q So October of 2013 there is a decision to have Mr. Mc rdle hold off sending the appraisal; right?
Yes.
Q Was the decision to have Mr. Mc rdle hold off on sending the appraisal an effort to delay the creation of that document until after the 2013 statement was issued?
No.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and pull up the 2017 Jeff Supporting Data spreadsheet, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 742 in evidence and let's go to note 295.
Q nd this note says "November 17, 2015. Per telephone conversation with Eric Trump, leave value as is." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt the accuracy of Mr. McConney's note about this telephone conversation with you?
Not at all.
Q So you instructed Mr. McConney to leave the value as is in this call; correct?
Very likely nothing had changed on the project between those two years.
Q nd you gave this instruction to leave the value as is at a point in time where you were already made aware of

Mr. Mc rdle's $45 million valuation for his appraisal engagement; yes or no?
No.
Q So are you saying that as of November 17, 2015 -- well, we've established that as of November 17, 2015 you did know that Mr. Mc rdle had come up with a value of 45 million; right? Yes?
Yes.
Q Okay. nd that was knowledge you had when you told Mr. McConney in this call to leave the value as is; yes or no?
No.
Q Well, you had the knowledge then you had the call. Isn't that right?
I've testified pretty extensively to the fact that I've never seen this document. nd second of all, they're totally different exercises.
Q It's really not my question, Mr. Trump. I'm trying just to establish that you had a particular piece of knowledge prior to the date of this call. I think we've agreed that prior to November 17, 2015 you were aware of Mr. Mc rdle's $45 million value; yes?
Yes.
Q Let's leave it at that because I think the dates are things that the Court can take judicial notice of.
THE COURT: The dates will speak for themselves.
Q Now, Mr. Trump, based on all the e-mails we've been reviewing, would you agree that you conferred on multiple occasions with Mr. Mc rdle in connection with appraisal engagements for Seven Springs and Briarcliff; yes or no?

Yes.
Q I'm going to play you some testimony from your deposition and then ask you some questions about it. It's page 198, line 10 to 199, line 20.
(Whereupon, there is a pause in the proceedings.)
MR. MER: Can we put up the text of that video clip, please? Let's go to page 199.
Q So this is from what we just played and I want to focus on your testimony starting at line six on this page that you really hadn't been involved in appraisal work on the Seven Springs property.
Mr. Trump, will you concede that your testimony was incorrect; yes or no?
I really hadn't been involved in the appraisal work on that property. No. I think that's an accurate statement. Sheri Dillon handled the vast majority of the appraisal work. Clearly, I made an introduction to our property manager. Clearly, I was on a few phone calls, but that was a six-month long process and you've pointed out four interactions that I had. I would stand by the statement that I don't remember Mc rdle well and certainly I was aware of it, but I don't think I was the main person involved or even considered very involved.

MR. KISE: So, Your Honor --
Q I didn't ask about main person.
MR. MER: What's your objection because I --
MR. KISE: Can I say it first?
MR. MER: No because I think we may need to excuse the witness and we can hash it out.
MR. KISE: re you running the courtroom or is the judge? I don't know why you're talking to me. I think the judge is running the courtroom.
MR. MER: I'm asking the judge to excuse the witness if we're going to have an objection.
MR. KISE: Or any objection standing objection.
THE COURT: Or a standing objection.
MR. KISE: ll I'm going to ask --
THE COURT: re you going to ask? It's not going to influence --
MR. KISE: I don't see how it could influence the witness. I don't see how any of this could influence the witness. nd they make speeches all the time, but at all events we've now -- Mr. mer's concerned about disruptions. We've now wasted a minute or two and I haven't even said what I'm objecting about.
THE COURT: Well, I think it's fair -- it's always fair to make sure what is about to be spoken or asked won't influence the witness because we can always take the witness out, but I'll accept your representation that what you're about to say or ask will not influence the witness.

MR. KISE: I don't see how it could. ll I'm going to say is you're constantly on this side of the table about time. I'm not sure what the purpose of all this back and forth is. The witness has testified -- he's testified about what he remembers right now today. Whether he remembered it in his deposition or not seems immaterial to the process at this point because Mr. mer's already gotten the answers that he wants and so now he's going to go back and play this again and go over the same answer. So it's a waste of time. It's asked and answered and asked and answered and asked and answered and we've been doing this all afternoon, so at some point it just needs to end. I don't see how that influences the witness. It should just influence the proceeding.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you for sharing that. Let's continue.

MR. MER: Thank you, your Honor.

Q I wasn't asking about whether I had -- whether principal or main person involved. I'm asking a very simple question based on all of the e-mails that we've been looking at, the calendar invites, the contacts you've had with Mr. Mc rdle, the comps you were sending him, will you concede that your testimony on line six and seven, that you really haven't been involved in appraisal work on this property was incorrect, yes or no?

No.

Q So you stand by your testimony at your deposition that you really haven't been involved in appraisal work on the Seven Springs property, yes?

To a -- to a small -- to a -- I was clearly involved, but to a very small point and I think I was very clear that I had very limited memory of Mr. Mc rdle. I testified -- and yes, I see your e-mails. 100 percent I made a couple of calls.

Q You say here you really haven't been involved and I'm trying to understand if you're standing by that testimony or if you're willing to acknowledge that you did have involvement --

MR. KISE: Objection. This is borderline harassment.

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3384

THE COURT: sked and answered. He said he stands by it. You can make of that what you will.

MR. MER: Well, Your Honor, he said "I was clearly involved." He didn't stand by his testimony. That's in the transcript.

MR. ROBERT: You asked him directly if he stands by it and you asked him directly if he stands by it and he said yes.

MR. MER: nd then he said on line 16, "I was clearly involved."

THE COURT: I thought he said no.

MR. ROBERT: "I really hadn't been involved." You're now -- Mr. mer is now conflating what limited involvement Mr. Trump had which is consistent with he hadn't really been involved. He just said he had a few e-mails.

THE WITNESS: I really haven't --

THE COURT: When I said he said no, I was talking about a different --

MR. ROBERT: Sorry.

THE COURT: It was my confusion. ll right.

MR. ROBERT: Sorry, Your Honor.

THE COURT: If the question is do you stand by it, the earlier testimony on the screen, the answer is yes; am I correct?

THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. I stand by --

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3385

THE COURT: You stand by it, okay.

Q Let's look at line 16 when you testified at your deposition starting at line 16, that you don't focus on appraisals between a law firm and Cushman.

Will you concede that your testimony was incorrect based on all of the e-mails we've been looking at; yes or no?

I don't focus on appraisals between law firms and Cushman, no, I don't. That's not a focus of my day. I'm an operator. I am a construction guy. I build projects. I don't focus on appraisals, no.

Q nd let's look at page 198, line 12. When you testified at your deposition, starting at line 12, that you recognized David Mc rdle's name only very vaguely, would you concede that you had significant communications back and forth and interactions with Mr. Mc rdle on the appraisal engagement for both Seven Springs and Briarcliff; yes or no?

MR. KISE: Objection; "significant."

No, there's a handful of e-mails from well over ten years ago and I don't remember the person's name. I hardly remember the person's name. I stick by that 100 percent.

THE COURT: The language doesn't have to be the exact same. Objection overruled and he answered it anyway.

Q I want to fastforward to 2021. Were you on a video conference call in the fall of 2021 to discuss the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition that was in the process then of being drafted?

I don't remember.
Q If I suggested that there was such a video call that included your brother Donald Trump, Jr., Patrick Birney, Jeffrey McConney and Ray Flores, does that refresh your recollection?
It's possible. I -- I'm on a thousand calls a day. I just don't remember.
Q Let me show you some testimony from Mr. Birney, Patrick Birney to see if it can further refresh your recollection. Page 1390, line 8 to 1391, line 12:
"QUESTION: The meeting that I asked you about, how many participants were in the meeting?
" NSWER: I worked remote for 2021, so there were a lot of these calls. So can you be more specific about which meeting you're referring to?
"QUESTION: Sure. Specifically a meeting over Google Meet about the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition.
" NSWER: There were multiple meetings in 2021 as I was remote.
"QUESTION: Were there any meetings about the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition in which Donald Trump, Jr. and Eric Trump participated?
" NSWER: Yes.
"QUESTION: So about -- speaking about the meeting, how many other participants were there other than those two people?

" NSWER: Myself, lan Garten, Ray Flores, Jeffrey McConney.
"QUESTION: llen Weisselberg was not in the meeting?
" NSWER: I don't think llen Weisselberg was in that meeting.
"QUESTION: pproximately when did this Google Meeting occur?
" NSWER: Probably in October of 2021.
"QUESTION: During the Google Meeting that we are talking about now, did you share any information with the other participants?
THE WITNESS: Yes.
"QUESTION: What did you share?
" NSWER: I shared documents on the screen.
"QUESTION: nd what were those documents?
" NSWER: I believe I toggled between a few documents during the call. One I think was a Statement of Financial Condition summary. One was the supporting data street and we may have seen the Word document which would have been the -- a draft of the final Statement of Financial Condition."
Does seeing that testimony from Mr. Birney jog your memory about this Google Meeting call and whether you were on it?

It does not.
Q One more clip from Mr. Birney on this meeting. It's page 1406:1 to 1407:4:
"QUESTION: So would it refresh your recollection if we pulled up some of your prior testimony, pages 1194 to 1195?
" NSWER: Sure.
"QUESTION: Starting at line 17. So I'm trying to understand the change is discussed about golf club valuation method. You described it as a consensus decision among you, Mr. Garten and Mr. Flores, correct?
" NSWER: Yes.
"QUESTION: Does this decision need to be approved by someone else at the company who is superior to the three of you after it's made in your group consensus?
" NSWER: I don't know if there was an official approval. I think that's why it brought up the change in methodology in that call with Don and Eric."
nd I just said, "okay, continue your answer."
"So that they were at least aware."
"Does that refresh your recollection as to whether you wanted to advise Donald Trump, Jr. and Eric Trump about the change in golf course methodology that occurred in 2021?"

" NSWER: I discussed it. I don't know if I wanted to discuss it. Can you ask the question in a different way maybe?
"QUESTION: Sure. We can look at your testimony. It says, "I think that's why it brought up the change in methodology in that call with Don and Eric, so that they were at least aware." Why did you want to make them at least aware of that change?
" NSWER: Because it was a, as you put it, significant change to the year before."
Does that additional testimony from Mr. Birney about needing to discuss with you and your brother the significant change to the golf course methodology that occurred in 2021 jog your recollection of this video conference call?
It doesn't. I would have left that to the finance team.
Q You considered Patrick Birney to be a solid guy, didn't you?
I like Patrick Birney very much.
Q nd you considered him to be a solid guy, right?
THE COURT: I think that's what he just said, right?
MR. MER: Well, he didn't adopt those exact words.
THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I was looking for help on that one.

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3390

Yes, I do.
THE COURT: You have to look up, not sideways for help.
Q nd you'll agree from his testimony here under oath at this trial that he said you and your brother were on the video call, right?
gain, I have no reason to doubt Pat. I do believe he's a very good guy and it's -- it's possible. I would have left the details to methodology to somebody like him, but I could have been on a phone call.
Q nd you'll agree he says the purpose of the call was to make you and your brother aware of the change in the methodology in the change in the golf courses, right?
Possibly. I just don't remember anything about this phone call, so...
Q I'm asking you if you remember what you read on the screen and heard just a minute ago.
Yes, I do.
Q He testified that the purpose of the call was to make you and your brother aware of the change in the methodology for the golf courses, right?
Presumably. I'll take your word for it.
Q I don't want you to take my word for it. You heard his testimony. Can we agree that based on his testimony, he says the purpose of the call was to advise you and your brother of the change in methodology for the golf courses in 2021, right?

It seems like that's possible, yes.
MR. MER: Let's go ahead and put up the 2021 Jeff Supporting Data which is Exhibit 1352 in evidence. Let's go to Row 289.
MR. ROBERT: Just a point of clarification. This would be Birney's supporting data if it is 2021, not Jeff's.
MR. MER: I'll take that correction. Why don't we just call it the supporting data.
MR. ROBERT: Fair enough.
MR. MER: It is in evidence, so it is what it is.
Q Let's look at Row 289. That's where the section for Briarcliff begins. Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q If you look at Row 306, there's a note in that row and it's -- it says, "Upon the advice and guidance of Marcus and Millichap, golf course industry experts, a normal golf course with a negative EBITD trades at two to three times gross revenue. We took an average of three times gross revenue and net fixed assets."
Do you see that?
I see that, yes.
Q nd we've had testimony from Mr. Flores, others that there was a change in methodology for 2021 based on the advice and guidance that's referenced in this note. So can you accept that?

I mean, if you tell me that's true. I don't know. This is very foreign to me, but if you tell me that's the testimony, I'll believe you.
THE COURT: I may have to swear him in first if he's going to testify.
Q nd does seeing this note about the advice from Marcus & Millichap and this being the basis for a change in the way the golf courses were valued, does that trigger a recollection for you about being on a call where that change in methodology was discussed; yes or no?
It does not.
Q nd if we look at Row 363, which is Colts Neck, it refers to "advice and guidance from Marcus & Millichap for a course with a consistently positive EBITD trading at six to eight times EBITD , but the last few purchases have been nine to ten times based on the quality of Trump courses could sell at ten times EBITD ."
gain, we've had testimony that this is the basis for a change in methodology for those courses that consistently had positive EBITD . Does that trigger any recollection of being involved in a call in fall of 2021 where the change -- this change in methodology was discussed?
It does not.

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3393

Q Now, just to orient us in time with respect to the October 2021 video call that Mr. Birney testified about, as of October 2021, you certainly knew about the ttorney General's investigation that led to this enforcement action, right?
Yes, I did.
Q In fact, a year earlier, you sat for an investigative interview with attorneys from the ttorney General's office where you provided testimony under oath, right?
Yes, I did.
Q nd on dozens of occasions during that interview, you invoked your --
MR. ROBERT: Objection.
THE COURT: Go ahead.
MR. ROBERT: Mr. mer is about to get into something that is completely irrelevant and immaterial in an attempt to sensationalize something that's not really sensational. Maybe you want to excuse the witness and we deal with it, but he is about to get into the fact that two years ago when Mr. Trump was interviewed he invoked his Fifth mendment rights and then two years later sat for a deposition. It's totally improper.
THE COURT: Is that what you were about to do?
MR. MER: I'm happy to explain why it is relevant.
THE COURT: Should we excuse the witness?
MR. ROBERT: It's absolutely irrelevant.

THE COURT: If it is irrelevant, do we have to excuse the witness?

MR. ROBERT: I don't believe so.

MR. MER: I don't think it is irrelevant.

MR. ROBERT: If you want to --

THE COURT: So do you want to explain the relevance?

MR. MER: Sure. I think it's relevant to this witness' recollection or lack of recollection of a phone call that's discussing the subject of something he knows is an ongoing ttorney General investigation where the call is about the very subject of that investigation where he sat for an interview under oath and even invoked his right against self-incrimination.

I think it goes to his credibility as to whether or not he recalls this -- this Google Meeting call that was less than three years ago, Your Honor. So yes, it is relevant to his credibility.

MR. ROBERT: It is absolutely not. Mr. Trump availed himself of a constitutional right that he has because at that point, it was the appropriate thing to do. The ttorney General then noticed him for a deposition in this case. He sat literally for seven hours on the nose because I remember at seven hours on the nose, we ended it. He answered every question. He did not invoke his constitutional right, which he could have, and this line of questioning is improper; but it was dealt with just so that at the end of the day, the stories would be that the issue that Mr. Trump invoked his Fifth mendment right two years ago is what's going to be the news tonight. It is completely irrelevant. It's completely prejudicial and this line of questioning needs to stop.

MR. KISE: One other issue --

THE COURT: I'll let --

MR. KISE: -- just to Mr. mer only has to respond once. It is funny he's not interested in the witness being excused even though we asked three times. Here is the thing. So all of these conversations that we're talking about center around a privileged communication. We've been through this before. Mr. Garten was on the call, so the substance of what was discussed would have been privileged anyway and they've continued to invade that privilege.

Second, anything that was done or decided as a result of that ruling they did as part of the subsequent remedial measures as a result of the investigation. So again, none of this should be really coming in at all. ny decision that was made as a result of the awareness of an investigation would be subsequent remedial measures and it shouldn't be admitted at all.

The witness has said he has no reason to doubt that he was on the call, but he doesn't remember the call. He testified about the call. The fact that he testified before is established. The fact that he was subpoenaed and testified in the special proceeding in the investigation is established. So I don't know what else other than sensationalizing is the issue here other than either invading the attorney-client privilege, getting into subsequent remedial measures, or just harassing the witness. I'll wait again to get the note that you have from Ms. Greenfield. You may have a question for me. Maybe it is about dinner.

MR. MER: Can I mention one thing, Your Honor?

THE COURT: In a second.

MR. MER: Okay.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, all joking aside, and even I like to leaven the proceedings, do not refer to my staff again. person sitting alongside of me is my principal law clerk. She's a civil servant. She's doing what I ask her to do, which is help me process cases and decide them correctly.

Sometimes I think there may be a bit of misogyny the fact that you keep referring to my female principal law clerk. If there is any further reference to anyone on my staff, and I don't have a big staff, I have about three people, I will consider expanding the gag order to include the attorneys including yourself. That being said, why don't we just break for the day because it is almost 4:30. I promised Mr. mer --

MR. KISE: May I respond to that on the record briefly?

THE COURT: Respond to that and then we will get to Mr. mer.

MR. KISE: Briefly. I just want to be clear. I have my own constitutional First mendment rights. I have the right to represent my client in a courtroom. I have the right to observe -- make points in the record about observations that I make if there is bias in the proceeding that my client perceives, I have to advance that. If there is reason for that bias, then that's an issue in the proceeding.

I do often feel -- frequently, I do feel like truly that I'm fighting two adversaries and I'm not trying to impugn anyone. I'm trying to point out as a lawyer and I think it is fair comment as a lawyer. I understand what your ruling is, but I have to respond to this because this is important.

So I feel like I'm sitting here and I have to respond to Mr. mer or their arguments. I hear what those arguments are and I get to see what those arguments are and we get to have our engagement, but then there is someone else who is sending you information on a very, very frequent basis. I think yesterday we counted maybe 30 times, 40 times and so I don't get to understand what this is and those -- and I'm not --

THE COURT: That's right. You don't --

MR. KISE: I'm not trying to invade it. ll I'm trying to say is that gives off -- respectfully that gives off the appearance of impropriety and I'm entitled to at least make a record about that. It is not impugning anyone. It does give off the appearance of impropriety particularly if it is an individual or individuals that have a different view of the case than we do, have a different political background or political view than we do. nd so those are relevant issues for Your Honor's consideration.

gain, this is why I brought up on the constitutional -- I asked you to reconsider the gag order on the constitutional basis because I think it raises much more serious issues and I don't really want to go there and I'm trying not to; but at some level, I have to at least have fair comment on what I think is biased. I made my record and I understand Your Honor's ruling.

MS. H BB : By the way, I'm happy to make the record for Mr. Kise, so that none of my team members are accused of misogyny. I assure you that's not the issue. I have the same, frankly, issues with the person sitting on the bench and I've made that clear on the record. nd frankly, it is not only distracting, but it is insulting.

Your Honor, I respect your position, but I do feel like Mr. Kise that your position is often what you are given in notes and we don't have a clue what is going on; but we do know that there is a nod of the head by you when those notes are received and then decisions are made.

We have to make a record of it because, frankly, it's become part, and as I have said for three years for me personally, a part of the record and I'm not going to stand by and allow it to happen. I'm not going to let someone who's my teammate be called a misogynist because he is pointing out something, frankly, that I can do myself. So I will make my own record. It is inappropriate.

nd I do have to say one other thing to Mr. mer on the record and again, I'm happy to let Mr. Trump off the stand, but I do think it is inappropriate that he's trying to use something and make it appear as impeachment evidence and it is not. Mr. Trump has been very consistent. He doesn't like his answers, so he keeps trying to impeach my witness here and all he's doing is showing things that, frankly, show that he is consistent.

He doesn't have a recollection. If he has a recollection now, he'll tell you; but by showing him somebody else's transcript and telling him that a video conference happened and then asking him if he remembers it and he's going to say, "No, I don't remember it." He's not disagreeing with Mr. Birney, but he doesn't remember it.

We need to move on. We've been here now all day and gotten, frankly, not very far because the questions are repetitive, asked and answered, asked and answered. He's trying to elicit a response that's not accurate and Mr. Trump is not going to give him a response that's not accurate. He doesn't remember, he doesn't remember. We need to move on. We will be here well into next week if we do not move on.

MR. ROBERT: May I simply say that I join in my colleagues' comments.

MR. MER: Can I make a few points, Your Honor?

THE COURT: fter me.

MR. MER: Okay.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise and the rest of the team, I have an absolute right, absolute, unfettered right to get advice from my principal law clerk. It actually goes a little broader than that, but at the very least from my principal law clerk. There is no First mendment value that I can see referring to her particularly when making things up and that's not you, that's somebody else. So weighing the First mendment right against the safety of my staff, we know what's going on out there in the world, I think your points are not well-taken about that.

In terms of the further -- on the merits here, some research has shown that subsequent remedial measures is only appropriate in personal injury cases. I will refer to Rule 4.19. I believe that's of the -- might be out of the benchbook, whatever.

nd now, let's let Mr. mer, who is very anxious to talk, have a few words.

MR. MER: Number one, I'm entitled to question the witness' -- the credibility of the witness' claim that he doesn't recall this video conference meeting that took place two years ago. I'm entitled to question that. I don't have to accept it and I can elicit evidence that puts in doubt his claimed lack of recollection.

Second, as to Ms. Habba's comment, this witness' testimony is great and I'm very happy with it, and so this is not about not liking his testimony. I think his testimony is extremely favorable to our case and I welcome it.

nd third, this witness' investigative interview and his invocation of his Fifth mendment right has been in the news for years. If you want to Google it, you'll see that there are many articles that count the number of times he invoked his right against self-incrimination at that interview. So this is not about bringing to light something that has, heretofore, never been shared with the public.

Those are my comments. I would like to continue tomorrow morning and I will just use this point to question the credibility of a claim that a call two years ago involving an ongoing investigation where he sat for an interview is simply not something that is plausible and that's my right, and the Court can do with it what it will.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, then, just briefly on your initial point, I do disagree, respectfully. I have to on behalf of my client comment on what I see going on in the courtroom that I think could prejudice or bias the proceeding. I don't -- I don't see what is being passed to you, so it is not possible for me to know.

THE COURT: That's right. You don't see it. That's -- I'm going to pound the table -- confidential communications from my principal law clerk. bsolute right to it and you don't have any right to see it or question it.

MR. KISE: I certainly have a right to question what is perceived by my client as bias. I do have that. I have to make that record. I do have that. That's just what lawyers do. I mean, I have to make the record. I don't think, respectfully, there is any security concern. We're talking about observations of what's happening in open court.

Everyone in this room can see what I'm seeing, so it is not a security issue. I'm not commenting inappropriately. I'm directing my comments to you and only to you, but I have to make a record if I perceive that there is potential bias.

THE COURT: How do you perceive there is potential bias by notes being passed back and forth? Don't you and Mr. Robert talk to each other?

MR. KISE: Of course, we talk to each other and we're advocates, so we are -- yes, we are biased, so it is the same principle. It's the same principle. Ongoing interaction, you can receive advice, of course, from a law secretary. I mean, you are a judge, but ongoing interaction in the course of the proceeding where it appears as though it is almost co-judging taking place, that's the perception from out here.

That may not be what you're doing. I can't tell what you're doing, but that's what the perception is, so we have to at least make our record to comment on it and again, I understand your ruling. No one is trying to impugn anyone.

I'm not a misogynist. I have -- I'm very happily married and I have a 17-year-old daughter, so I really have no issues there and so I reject that squarely. My point is and I think -- look, all I want to say is what I've said, which is we have to make our record. We perceive there is bias. There have been public commentaries about political persuasions of people involved in the proceeding. I don't know. So I think it is fair for me to at least make the record and comment. It's -- this is the real point.

When they're speaking, notes don't get passed. That's really the issue, is that when the ttorney General is making arguments, there aren't notes being passed for you to consider. They -- 95 percent. So with us, whenever I'm speaking or -- yesterday, I saw it the best because I stepped out to go to that hearing beforehand. I'm watching on the closed circuit TV and there, you can see what's happening differently than you can see here.

nd so every time Mr. Suarez was making a point and there was a dialog, there would be notes passed to you. When the ttorney General was speaking, there would be no notes passed to you. So that's the perception of bias. Whether it is real or not, I have to make my record. So that's all I'm doing. I'm making my record. I'm doing it respectfully. I haven't made any comments outside this courtroom about anyone and I don't intend to. So all I'm doing is just making a record.

I understand Your Honor's point and I will abide by Your Honor's ruling, but you can't keep lawyers from being advocates. I think that that's over the line, respectfully.

THE COURT: I guess it is time to go. Ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

I direct the witness, witness, please don't talk to anybody about your testimony, about this case, or anything related to it because you'll still be a witness tomorrow.

Thank you, everyone.

(Witness excused.)

Senior Court Reporters

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is now in session. The Honorable Judge rthur Engoron presiding. Make sure all cell phones are on silent. Laptops and cell phones will be permitted, but only to members of the press. There is absolutely no recording or photography of any kind allowed in the courtroom. Now be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: We have some photographers. Tommy does that from memory. He's not holding up a script card.

Good morning, everybody.

Yesterday, Chris Kise noted in the morning that I bound up the steps I'm going too fast. I'm not sure you noticed as the day wears on I go up slower and slower, but.

MR. KISE: You do.

THE COURT: By the same token, as the day wears on, I go down faster and faster. It kind of balances out.

Not yesterday, but several days ago, I believe that one or two or all of the defense lawyers said that they had never seen a judge be so intertwined with his or her law clerk basically passing messages. I mentioned that to the judge for whom I was a law clerk for many years, he reminded me of something that happened decades ago. There was an elected Supreme Court judge, which is what I am, in this very building, and I'll give away the genders. He was very well respected and he had this very high profile case. If I told you the name of the plaintiff and I told you the name of the defendant everybody in this room would know both of them. Now you're really scratching your heads, right?

The law clerk was running for judge and the campaign literature -- the campaign literature said, I'll almost quote this exactly -- I'll put on a little bit of the act. "I sit on the bench everyday with the judge and I whisper in his ear and I tell him how to rule."

Now, of course we haven't seen that, fortunately. The law clerk was elected, is still a judge. This is decades ago and so just to the claim that you've never seen anything like this, apparently that's been even more extreme. I didn't see this happen. I'm assuming that's what the story was and the judge never said no, she doesn't sit up there and tell me how to rule.

So -- but to finish up, I hope I made myself clear yesterday. Okay.

MR. KISE: s too, Judge, I mean, I certainly heard you yesterday, yes.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. KISE: I just don't know we were directed to do anything specific.

THE COURT: Well, how about informally. Unless there is some real reason that I haven't seen any, please do not refer to any members of my staff.

MR. KISE: So how do we then make -- how does the Court propose we make our record about things that we observe in open court happening?

THE COURT: Well, I let you do that the other day, yesterday, whenever it was.

MR. KISE: You did, right. I just want to make sure we're allowed to do that. I don't need to reference names or specifics, but to the extent there are issues that arise based on observations that we have, we have to make that record because, as you know, all that is left in the record is the written transcript. There is no video, there is no recordings and all that probably fortunately for all of us.

THE COURT: Right. Well, let me ask you this: Do you feel the need to make a further record as things stand now?

MR. KISE: I believe so, Your Honor. I mean, to the extent that there are perceptions of bias there are things that we as lawyers -- and I don't want to speak for my colleagues, but to the extent there are things that we observe that are taking place that create either the appearance of bias or the appearance of impropriety in our minds, then I think we have to take that up. I think it's our obligation as lawyers to make mention of these things even if it's just a brief mention.

We all -- it's like any other issue in the case if I have a legal issue. We were respectful to the Court and we don't belabor the issues, but we have to at least mark it, otherwise it's waived.

THE COURT: Well, I promise not to pound the table again and the bench. I have an absolute unrestricted, unfettered right to get advice from my principal law clerk or assistant law clerk. How that shows bias somehow, I don't see it. I mean, but if you want to say something now, say it. But I don't -- I don't want to endanger the safety of my staff. Maybe I'm being overly sensitive or overheated or cautious. I don't think so. I worry about this.

nd notice you could say whatever you want about me, right? I have no gag order about me and that has been taken advantage of -- not taken advantage of in the sense of anything improper, but, you know, I think that's what -- that's where there would be any appearance of bias in me and I cut this case right down the middle.

nd I will respond to some of the earlier statements that oh, I never interrupt or rule against the ttorney General. That's just not so. nd to the extent that one of your team might occasionally have said I might restrict the amount of time you have because I think you're wasting time, I have the right to do that. It's not because it's one side or the other. Right down the middle.

nd I said previously that I don't regard this case as political. I don't. To me, it's just a case about Executive Law Section 6312 and now about those other statutes. So I said enough.

You want to make a record, but please be careful.

MR. KISE: I always am.

I think we're treading in a dangerous area here because what we perceive as counsel to be bias we're certainly entitled to raise those concerns. I think we have to raise those concerns as lawyers.

The Rules of Judicial Conduct which I know you're well aware of maintain that the Court is to act in a way that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the system. nd so impartiality, I believe in the rules is defined as denoting the absence of bias or prejudice, the absence of it.

So to the extent there is the potential for bias, that's certainly something that's relevant. I mean, the entire country, if not the world, is watching this proceeding and they are looking at this. The United States heretofore has been a model for the integrity and impartiality of the system since its founding. Nothing we do here should create any appearance that the adherence to those principles has wavered and so to the extent that there is even the perception of bias that's something that needs to be addressed and addressed in the record because we have no other way to address it other than in the record.

Yes, as a judge you're entitled to receive input, but if you're receiving input from someone who has potentially demonstrable bias or at least there is a question about that and the manner in which that's taking place we have to at least make that record. That is our right.

Now, in the view of President Trump, and I think to some extent the view of counsel here, if not to a large extent, our observations are what we say. You're free to disagree as you've done, but I think the record -- and this is the importance of making this record, demonstrates that we're getting hurried up, we're getting told to move on, we're getting put on the clock, we're -- the rulings are frequently, if not inordinately, against us on almost every major issue. nd so we're also, as I said yesterday, I certainly am often thinking I'm arguing against two adversaries, not one. I'm debating with the government and then I'm debating with someone who is providing input to you on a regular, immediate basis.

THE COURT: Hold on. You say you need to make a record. You've said all this. Those exact words basically.

MR. KISE: I'm not adding words.

So as I understand it this morning, there is a new story out about particular political partisan contributions that have been made by certain members of your staff; that there was a complaint made. It's public and on the web. There was a complaint made about this. It was addressed to Your Honor's attention on October 3rd, the very same day the gag order was entered and it raises questions of impartiality. t least from what I see this morning it raises questions of impartiality.

nd there are specific judicial cannons that prohibit campaign contributions and I don't know anything other than I saw this story this morning, let me be clear on that. But there are specific provisions that the Court is to make sure that the Court and -- I'll define the Court broadly to include the staff so I'm not making that interchangeably because I know Your Honor doesn't want me to be specific about any individual or persons, but that prohibit contributions, that prohibit certain partisan political activity by members of the Court. nd this complaint that was filed and the news coverage of it at least calls into question that particular cannon. I believe it's Section 100.5 C2 of the rules governing judicial conduct.

There are several judicial ethics opinions, 10-76, 07-11 and 97-103, all of which address this particular issue. gain, I'm not weighing the facts of whether something has happened or hasn't happened. I'm just stating to the Court what is being reported and what has been reported as being presented to this Court on October 3rd, the same day as the gag order was entered. I don't know whether that's been considered or whether it's been ignored, but certainly it forms at least in my mind a basis for raising a question of potential bias. I think it's a legitimate question that needs to be addressed.

The fact that we found out about it -- that I found out about it reading it on, you know, in the news, raises additional questions about the appearance of impropriety. Whether or not sustainable, it certainly raises the issue.

President Trump, as you know, was here and purportedly made a statement about the same sort of bias outside. I won't get into the back and forth that took place about who he was speaking about, but he's purportedly making statements about someone who, by your own definition, is alongside of you having bias and now there is some allegation that maybe there is merit to that.

nd to the extent there is merit to that, then it's something that needs to be addressed. nd it is a fair conclusion that warnings to Counsel, gag orders on parties -- we're not allowed to even mention these subjects. It's a fair conclusion to be drawn that the purpose of that is to silence any allegation of bias. It's to silence any challenge to any notion of impartiality and in a case that is this highly watched, I don't think that the systemically we can survive with those kinds of -- those kinds of issues. I mean, the constitutional rights and protections that are preserved to all in this country are at their peak when you're dealing with someone who might not be popular, might be someone who is controversial. nd so in a case like this it's essential that we take real care to adhere as closely as possible to those cannons and I think it's incumbent upon the lawyers to raise these issues.

I think the security concerns as you've heard me say I understand you're concerned, but I think given what just happened that photographers come into the Court and they take pictures of the open bench, all we're commenting on -- by the way, as I understand it, I never knew this before. s you know, I'm from Florida. Where we had open courts for 40, 50 years, TV cameras. Here, apparently, it's a crime to allow photographers into the courtroom and take pictures in a proceeding like this. I'm not an expert on this, I just know that -- so if the security concerns are that heightened, I'm straining to find the rationale that squares both.

I think that if the allegations that have been out in the media have any substance to them and I'm not commenting on whether they do or not, but if they do then I think -- and we'll know more I guess in the coming days. If

Your Honor was aware of this on October 3rd when this random individual apparently filed some complaint and sent it to the Court and no action was taken and no notice was given to Counsel and nothing was addressed, then I think the defense will have to give serious consideration to seeking a mistrial because of the -- as you say, the continuous input if there is someone that's biased.

gain, I'm not the prejudging outcome here and I want to be very careful to note that, but since you've raised the issue of how we make our record, I mean, perhaps we make our record by just saying the Court has done X or the Court has done Y, the Court has accepted a note without any mention of any individual, without any mention of staff, but unfortunately, given the clarity of the rules of judicial conduct, the gravity of what has been reported and the significance of these proceedings to our merican democracy it's incumbent upon us as lawyers and I will say respectfully to the Court to take this seriously. nd I'm not suggesting that you don't. Let me be clear, but I think we all need to take this very seriously because the entire world is watching and none of us can afford to misstep.

I have always and will continue to address my comments to you, the Court, but I have to be allowed as a lawyer to raise issues that are obvious in open court that everyone in this room can watch and see.

nd I notice that the closed circuit camera now -- after my mention has now been adjusted so that it's much more difficult to see if notes are being passed. It may just be that somebody bumped the camera on the TV screen. I do that at home frequently nudging things, but we need to take care here, respectfully, to avoid any appearance.

The allegations that I looked at in the news this morning gave me some concern and certainly gave me some thought that there is at least a plausible basis to have to raise considerations of bias, particularly when you're getting input on an ongoing basis. nd I feel, as I have said, that I'm often debating with two adversaries.

THE COURT: Yes, you've already said that.

MR. KISE: That's it. But I'll leave it there, Your Honor, and I appreciate you allowing me to make the record.

MR. MER: Your Honor, I just have very four very quick points.

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. MER: The first is --

THE COURT: You expect me to let you make a record?

MR. KISE: For once I'm not objecting to Mr. mer's comments.

MR. MER: Well, you haven't heard them yet.

The notion that bias can be based on the number of notes being passed between a clerk and a judge and whether there are more notes being passed when one side's witness is on the stand versus another is a position I've never heard of and I think is completely frivolous. That's our position. I've never heard that and I don't think it has any merit.

Bias. It's clear from the case law can only be established by extrajudicial conduct. You can not establish bias based on decisions that a judge makes or rulings on evidence that a judge makes during the course of a trial. If that were the case, Your Honor, every time a judge issues a partial summary judgment decision against one side then the judge would have to recuse himself or herself. That's not the law. Clearly it's not.

nd this Court has already issued a summary judgment decision that makes certain rulings and you cannot base a -- an argument or bias on rulings during the course of the case.

No party, no party has the right to be privy to the internal deliberations of a chambers. That's absolutely clear and that includes knowing when and how many notes are being passed one way or the other.

recusal or a motion for a mistrial, make a motion on notice with papers and put in your evidence and let's not waste time during the trial with long speeches. There is a process to follow. It's making a motion on notice and that's what should happen and we're just wasting a lot of time with speeches when if they really have a basis, put it in motion papers. They can appeal it, they can do whatever they want with it, but this is just a waste of time, Your Honor.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, just very briefly because Mr. mer has now mentioned more specifically what I was referring to. Perhaps I was not transparent.

The news this morning does in fact relate to extrajudicial conduct specifically and it makes specific allegations about specific extrajudicial conduct that violates Section 100.5 C2 of the rules governing judicial conduct with respect to contributions to partisan political activity.

I -- since I don't know other than the news report, I haven't investigated, I haven't looked into anything other than what I'm saying, I'm not prepared to make a motion, but I did tell the Court just now that on Monday we may if this develops further, but I think it's incumbent to make the record. This information about extrajudicial conduct --

THE COURT: It's not information. It's an allegation. I don't even know what you're talking about, but I'll respond later.

MR. KISE: The allegation --

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. KISE: -- was made and apparently delivered to the Court and that's something that has been brought to our attention so we have to raise it.

MR. W LL CE: I'm sorry to interrupt. Mr. Wallace. Can I just ask what is the report you're discussing? Where does it appear?

MR. KISE: I'm not the Internet person. I want to say it's on -- hold on. I want to say it's on Breitbart maybe, but I don't know. I don't know. I think it's on Breitbart. It's on a news outlet. We get pummeled with news information.

In all events, I've made the record and I appreciate you allowing me to make the record. I do take the matter seriously and we're not just wasting time as Mr. mer just said. These are important matters and they deserve at least to be heard and you have allowed that. Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: Well, I agree with Mr. mer's points. s to Mr. Kise, I'll respond, not to everything. If I don't respond to something, doesn't mean I accept it or agree with it. You covered a lot of ground.

First of all, this idea that somebody had notified me, what was that, on October 3rd or --

MR. KISE: What I understand, yes.

THE COURT: bsolutely untrue, okay. bsolutely untrue. I don't remember and my memory is good enough to remember whether I would have received such an allegation, so that's that.

Secondly, I have no idea until you said Breitbart what this news allegation is. I'll let everybody in the room decide what they think of Breitbart.

Third, having gotten myself elected twice -- actually, three times, I'm not an expert on political fundraising campaign contributions. When a non-judge or a judge is running for office there are window periods -- I won't make a whole lecture because I couldn't. I think it's nine months before and six months after you're allowed to spend money. Okay, neither of us is an expert.

So I'm sorry we've descended to this level where an allegation that the first part I know is untrue or at least I'm 99 percent sure is untrue and the second part what I didn't report today, I don't know. I can't comment.

It's a shame we've descended to this level. I totally agree the world is watching. I've gotten, you know, a sense that it's not just the country. It's the world.

s for the camera being moved, I was vaguely aware that Rob, the tech person, was switching the angle of the camera. Never occurred to me that it could have anything to do with what we're discussing today or why it was.

So I just want to move forward with the trial. I just want to do the best job I can do. I want to be straight down the middle. I don't regard this as political. It's a trial about Executive Law 6312 and the other second through seventh cause of action provisions.

So I hope we've all said what we feel like we need to say. nything else?

Okay. Mr. mer, would you like to continue your examination?

MR. MER: I would. We would like to recall back to the stand Eric Trump.

(Whereupon, the witness approaches the witness stand.)

THE COURT: Morning. I'll remind the witness that he's still under oath, as I always do.

nd let's proceed.

CONTINUED DIRECT EX MIN TION

BY MR. MER:

Q Thank you.

Mr. Trump before breaking for the day yesterday, we were discussing the October 2021 video conference call that Mr. Birney had testified about. Do you recall that?

JCL

I do.

Q nd you'll recall he testified that he remembered that you and your brother, Donald Trump, Jr., were on the call and that the purpose of the call was to make the two of you aware of the change in methodology for valuing the golf clubs in the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition. Do you recall that?

Yes, I do.

Q So I just want to ask you a few questions about matters that you were aware of at the point in time when this call happened.

In October of 2021, you did know about the ttorney General's investigation that led to this enforcement action; correct?

Yes. I would have been working with legal counsel.

Q nd you knew that the investigation focused on the way assets were being valued in your father's Statement of Financial Condition; yes?

bsolutely, yes.

Q nd a year before that call took place you sat for an interview in connection with the ttorney General's investigation where you provided testimony under oath in response to questions; right?

That's correct.

Q nd those questions were about the Statement of Financial Condition as well as other matters; correct?

Yes.

Q So I'm just going to ask you is it your testimony here today that you have no recollection of participating in a video call that occurred two years ago involving the same subject matter as the ongoing ttorney General investigation that you were aware of at the time; is that right?

I'm testifying that I don't recall a specific call out of thousands of calls on every single day. There isn't a question there were conversations in the organization about the Statement of Financial Condition after this action started.

Q But your testimony is that you have no recollection of this specific call that Mr. Birney testified about at trial; is that right?

Mr. mer, I --

Q Yes or no?

I pick up my phone at 5 o'clock in the morning and I put it down at midnight. I don't remember a specific call. There are thousands of conversations about the Statement of Financial Condition after this exercise commenced.

Q Just to be clear, you do not remember the call that Mr. Birney testified about?

I don't remember it.

MR. ROBERT: Objection. sked and answered.

I don't remember a specific call three years ago, no.

THE COURT: Let's move on.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer)

Q We're good.

Let me ask you a couple follow-up questions that you gave toward the end of the day about a distinction you were drawing between the appraisals for easement donations and the exercise of valuing the assets for the Statement of Financial Condition.

MR. MER: Let's go ahead and pull up the testimony. It's page 3376, line 13 to 3377, 5.

Q nd I'll just sort of paraphrase your answer, but please feel free if you need to read the whole thing.

The gist of your testimony yesterday was that the exercise conducting an appraisal for an easement donation and the exercise of valuing the assets for the Statement of Financial Condition were, as you say on line 21, "two totally different exercises;" is that right?

Yes.

Transcript continues on the following page....

JCL

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3427

Q nd if you go down to the next page and you again emphasize that they are two very different topics; is that right?

For the reason I noted above, yes.

Q Okay. Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 3196 which is already in evidence. This is an e-mail exchange from David -- this is an e-mail from David Mc rdle to a consultant that he testified he reached out to on September 13, 2013 related to Briarcliff and you are not on this e-mail, but it does reference you.

So I want to just ask you about the second to last sentence of that first paragraph. Mr. Mc rdle said to his consultant, "of Course, Eric has lofty ideas on value and assumes $1,000 plus price PSF, per square-foot, is no problem." Do you see that?

I do, and I think the market today would show that that would be --

THE COURT: Wait. Wait. The question was just do you see that. One step at a time.

Yes.

Q nd do you have any reason to doubt that Mr. Mc rdle is accurately reflecting what you told him about your ideas on value?

I think $1,000 a square-foot would absolutely be achievable, yes.

E. TRUMP - PL INTIFF - DIRECT(MR. MER) Page 3428

Q nd based on this e-mail, it appears that that's what you told Mr. Mc rdle, correct?

It looks like that I say $1,000 a square-foot would absolutely be achievable for the product that we were going to build, yes.

MR. MER: Let's go ahead and pull up the 2013 supporting data spreadsheet which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 708 in native. Let's look at Rows 253 to 267.

Q This is the section that discusses the valuation of the 71 mid rise units. That was the subject of Mr. Mc rdle's engagement, correct?

Correct.

Q nd line 264, what is the price per square-foot that Mr. McConney is using?

thousand dollars a square-foot.

Q The same number that you provided to Mr. Mc rdle, correct?

Yes. I told you yesterday that those numbers look like they would be very accurate for the project that we had in mind.

Q Okay. nd let's put up some other testimony on the same subject matter from yesterday. This is at line 3367. Sorry. Page 3367, line 9 to 15 and this is a quick Q& , so I'll just read it.

"QUESTION: Mr. Trump, to your knowledge, did you ever forward to Mr. McConney or tell Mr. McConney anything about Mr. Mc rdle's valuation?

" NSWER: I would have never thought to, no.

"QUESTION: So the answer is you did not?

" NSWER: I didn't -- no, I did not. I would have never thought to because I didn't work on this document.

THE COURT: Wait a minute. Wait a minute. You said, "I didn't know." It sounds like "I'm not aware of." I would read that, "I didn't, no."

THE WITNESS: Exactly, Your Honor. nything in life is possible. I sent thousands of e-mails every day. nything is possible.

Q I didn't ask you a question.

THE COURT: There's no question.

MR. MER: pologize, Your Honor. I do recall reading it, so I may not have used the inflexion that I should have, but I appreciate your point.

Q Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 1074. This is an e-mail exchange that you have with Mr. McConney in September of 2013, correct?

Looks to be, yes.

MR. MER: I move to admit into evidence, Your Honor.

MR. ROBERT: Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1074.)

Q I'm just going to look at the e-mails from the bottom up. The first e-mail is an e-mail from Mr. McConney to you where he says, "Eric, did the appraisal come in yet. Thanks, Jeff." Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd then the middle e-mail is from you back to Mr. McConney. "I have a call with David tomorrow at 1:30. Would you like to join." That's a reference to David Mc rdle, correct?
Yes.
Q You were inviting him to join the call that you're going to have with Mr. Mc rdle the next day at 1:30, correct?
It's very diligent of me. I'm very proud of myself. Yes, I am inviting my controller to join a call that apparently I had with David Mc rdle.
Q So you thought it was appropriate to have Mr. McConney join the call that you were going to have with Mr. Mc rdle; yes or no?
I asked him if he wanted to join, yes.
Q In the top e-mail, Mr. McConney says in response to you, "I don't need to be on the call. I'd just like to know the value, so I can use it for your dad's F/S." That's what he wrote back to you, correct?
Correct.

Q nd you understood "F/S" to mean financial statement, right?
financial statement of my father's yes.
Q So at least on this one occasion, you did think it was appropriate to share Mr. Mc rdle's valuation with Mr. McConney; yes or no?
Yes, clearly, I was very diligent. I asked him if he would like to join our call.
Q Now, you testified you were aware that there was a conservation easement donation over the Seven Springs property in 2015, right?
Correct.
Q nd you are aware that that easement donation was based on an appraisal done by Cushman & Wakefield, yes?
Yes, I am.
Q re you aware that the final appraisal for the Seven Springs easement donation was a kind of appraisal known as a before and after appraisal?
I wouldn't get into these details. I would leave something like that to Sheri Dillon.
Q My question wasn't about who you would leave the details to.
I don't know the appraisal methodology of exactly what happened behind the scenes, no.
Q Do you know that it was a before and after appraisal;

yes or no?
Sitting here today, ten years later, I would have zero recollection of that.
MR. MER: Okay. Let's go ahead and put up the 2016 Jeff Supporting Data which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 742 in evidence and I'd like to take us to Row 927.
Q You'll see Row 927 is the row that relates to Seven Springs and has the valuation. If we just go up to check the dates, there's the value in Column G. Just go up until we hit a date for Column G. Column G is 2015, June 30, 2015 and Column H is June 30, 2016. Let's now go back to Row 927. nd you see that Mr. McConney's note says, "even Springs per appraisal for easement."
nd I'll represent to you, and we can put up the testimony if you'd like to see it, but I'll represent to you that Mr. McConney testified at trial that because the donation was made after June 30, 2015, he used the before value from the appraisal of 56 million for the 2015 value and he used the after value from the appraisal of 35.4 million for the value in 2016.
Mr. Trump, were you aware that Jeffrey McConney used the Cushman appraisal for the easement donation on Seven Springs as the basis for the value of the asset in both 2015 and 2016; yes or no?
Not to the best of my knowledge, no.
Q I'd like to talk to you now about some certifications you signed. Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 1330 in evidence. This is a document entitled, "power of attorney." I'll wait until we get you a copy. If you turn to page 6 of 8 of this document, you'll see that -- do you recognize that as your father's signature under the principal line?

It is very distinctive. I do.
Q nd he signs it on March 9th of 2017, correct?
Correct.
Q nd on page seven, it lists both you and your brother Donald Trump, Jr. as the agents, correct?
That's correct.
Q nd is that your signature on the second line?
Yes, it is.
Q nd you and your brother both signed this document on March 13th of 2017, correct?
Yes, we did.
Q nd page three of the document shows the grant of authority. Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd to just to go through this quickly, your father initials item P, which indicates a grant of authority for items and D above. is real estate transactions. D is banking transactions. Do you see that?
That's correct.
Q nd then under G, modifications, there is an underlying paragraph. I'm just going to read it. "The authority granted hereunder is solely with respect to the execution and delivery of certifications and similar documentation (including without limitation compliance certificates) in connection with existing financings in which Donald J. Trump is a guarantor."

Do you see that?
bsolutely.
Q Can we agree that this is the document that authorized you to sign certifications as attorney in fact for your father in connection with loans?
That looks to be accurate, yes.
Q Let's go ahead and look at some certifications for 2020. We are going to look at Exhibit 518. You'll see that the first page is an e-mail from dam Rosen to an individual at db.com, which is Deutsche Bank.
Do you see that?
I do.
Q His attachment lists a number of compliance certificates -- sorry. The e-mail lists as attachments a number of compliance certificates. Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q Do you recall that you were the person who signed these 2020 certificates?
Yes, I do.
Q If we could just quickly look at them and identify your signature the on these. Page three, if you'd look at that first, that's your signature, correct?

Yes, it is.
Q nd page five, that's your signature, correct?
Yes, it is.
Q nd page seven, that's your signature, correct?
That's my signature, yes.
MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.
THE COURT: It's in. Granted.
(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 518.)
MR. MER: Thank you.
Q Let's go back to page two of the exhibit. This is the compliance certificate for the Chicago loan, correct?
That's correct.
Q nd under the first numbered paragraph, "financial information," I'm correct that there's no "X" mark next to the first bullet that indicates the 2020 Statement of Financial Condition as attached, correct?
That looks to be correct, yes.
Q nd the paragraph underneath the three bullets indicates in the second sentence," s agreed by lender and without prejudice to lender's reliance on the certifications herein, guarantor hereby certifies that the guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2020 shall be submitted to the lender no later than December 31, 2020."

Do you see that?
That's what it says, yes.
Q So it appears that that statement was not ready yet to be included in the certification as of the date the certification was signed, right?
I wouldn't know the answer to that question. That's a legal or accounting question. I would have no idea sitting here today.
Q It is a question about whether the Statement of Financial Condition was available as of this date.
I just -- I don't know the date of this document so it is a little bit hard for me to say.
Q Let's scroll down. The other way. Sorry. It is dated October 28, 2020?
Scroll back down, please.
Understood. It looks like it wasn't due until December 31, 2020.
Q Do you know why it wasn't ready yet by the date of this certification? Just yes or no.
I would have no idea.
Q nd there's the same statement in absence of an "X" in the box for the other two compliance certificates, so can we agree your response would be the same for those as well?

If it saves this Court time, absolutely.
THE COURT: It does.
MR. MER: It does.
THE WITNESS: Your Honor, there we go.
Q nd if you look -- if we go down in the document, there are certain facts being stated in paragraph four about the net worth of the guarantor. Do you see that?
I do.
Q Can we agree that by executing -- by the way, there are -- there's a net worth of guaranty section in the other two certificates as well. Can we agree that by that executing each of the three certifications as Donald J. Trump's attorney in fact, you were certifying to Deutsche Bank the facts set forth in the net worth of guaranty section in each of the certifications, yes?
bsolutely.
Q nd when you executed these three certifications, you intended the bank to rely on the certifications; isn't that right?
I don't know what the bank does with the certifications. I certified something that I believe was accurate and my lawyers told me that it was accurate and our financial people told me it was accurate and that's absolutely accurate. s to what Deutsche Bank does with a piece of paper like this, I have no idea.

Q Let me just be clear because I don't think that was my question. I'm not asking you about what you think the bank did or didn't do with the certification. I'm asking you about your own intention when you sign this.

Is it correct that when you signed this, it was your intent that the bank rely on these certifications to satisfy obligations under the loan agreements; yes or no?

No.

Q Your answer is no, you didn't have that intent?

I don't choose what somebody relies on. What the bank wants to rely on, they can rely on. I believe everything I put in this statement was absolutely accurate and I stand by it 100 percent. s to what Deutsche Bank Deutsche Bank does with, it is their purview, their own company.

Q Let me ask it this way. Was it your purpose and intent of signing the certification to satisfy the obligations of the borrower under the loan agreements that these certifications relate to; yes or no?

I don't know.

Q You did intend for this to be accurate, though, correct?

Yes. I think my father's net worth is far higher than that number, yes.

Q Let's go ahead and look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 517. This is now October 28, 2021 and this is a certification relating to Trump Endeavor 12, LLC. Do you see that?

Yes, I do.

Q Is that the Doral loan?

That is Trump Doral.

Q nd it's your signature on the second page of this document, yes?

Yes, it is.

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 517.)

Q If we go to the first page and for this certification, the box is -- got an "X" mark in the first bullet that says, " ttached hereto is the guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2021," correct?

That's correct.

Q So in 2021, the Statement of Financial Condition was available to be attached to this certification, correct?

It certainly appears that way, yes.

Q nd by signing this document, you certified as attorney in fact for your father that Donald J. Trump's 2021 Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2021, correct?

That is certainly our belief, yes.

Q nd you intended that to be an accurate representation, correct?

I wouldn't sign something if it wasn't accurate, so yes.

Q nd let's go ahead and mark as Plaintiff's Exhibit 516 the next certification. nd this is a 2021 certification for the Chicago loan, correct?

Yes, it is.

Q nd that's your signature on the second page of the document, right?

Yes, it is.

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 516.)

Q By signing this document -- if we look at the first page again, by signing this document, you certified as attorney in fact for your father that Donald J. Trump's 2021 Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2021, correct?

That's certainly what it says, yes.

Q You intended this to be an accurate representation when you signed it, correct?

I would not sign something that was not accurate.

MR. MER: nd the next document is Plaintiff's Exhibit 515.

Mr. mer, I could probably save you some time. I think my answers are going to be the exact same to every one of them.

Q It's going to be very quick, but I just need to do it. These are important documents.

THE WITNESS: Just to save Your Honor some time.

THE COURT: I appreciate the witness' desire to save time. Let Mr. mer do what he needs to do S P, quickly.

MR. MER: I think I've been doing that, Your Honor.

Q This is the certification for the Old Post Office loan, correct?

Yes, that's correct.

Q That's your signature on the second page, correct?

Yes, it is.

MR. MER: I move to admit this into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 515.)

Q nd by signing this document, you certified on behalf of your father as his attorney in fact that Donald J. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition present the fairly in all material respects the financial condition of Donald J. Trump as of June 30, 2021, correct?

Correct.

Q nd you intended this to be accurate when you signed it, correct?

I would not sign something that wasn't accurate.

Q Now, we've just looked at three certifications you signed stating that your father's 2021 Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of your father as of June 30, 2021.

Can you tell us what, if anything, you did to ascertain that the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition in fact presents fairly all material -- in all material respects the financial condition of your father as of June 30, 2021?

I relied on a very big accounting office. I relied on one of the biggest accounting firms in the country. nd I relied on a great legal team and when they gave me comfort that the statement was perfect, I was more than happy to execute it.

Q Did you personally review any of the methodologies used to value any of the assets in the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition, yes or no?

No.

Q Did you personally review any of the supporting data prepared by Patrick Birney in connection with the preparation of the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition yes or no?

Not that I can remember.

Q One more certification. It's Plaintiff's Exhibit 76. ctually, let me rephrase that. This is a loan modification, not a certification.

Do you recognize this as the July 9, 2019 loan modification relating to the Seven Springs mortgage?

Yes, I do.

Q nd am I correct that you executed this document on behalf of Seven Springs, LLC as its president?

MR. MER: If we go to the signature page.

It looks like that I did it as attorney in fact for my father.

Q Were you at this time the president of Seven Springs, LLC?

I likely was, yes, July 9th of 2019.

MR. MER: Your Honor, I move to admit this document.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.

(Whereupon, the Document was marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 76.)

Q Let's go to paragraph 8H. You'll see 8H says, " ll of the representations and warranties of borrower under the loan documents are hereby restated and reaffirmed as true and correct by borrower as of the date thereof and hereof and are incorporated herein by their "-- "herein in their entirety by this reference." Do you see that?

I do.

Q nd you understood when you signed this loan modification that you were confirming that representation and warranty, correct?

That's what it says.

Q nd you intended that representation to be accurate when you signed this document, right?

I wouldn't sign something that I thought was inaccurate.

Q Let's go ahead and move to Mar- -Lago. Let me show you Exhibit 1382 in evidence. It is already in evidence. Mr. Trump, you'll see that there are two e-mails here. The first is -- the bottom e-mail is from a gentleman, Mr. Corbiciero who was a tax advisor to the company and his e-mail is dated November 17, 2021 and he's sending it to Ray Flores. Mr. Flores reported to you, correct?

Yes, Mr. Flores worked in our office.

Q Not my question, though.

He reported to you, correct?

He had several different reports.

Q Were you one of them?

Oh, absolutely. Yes, I was.

Q nd the subject matter of the e-mail is Mar- -Lago homestead exemption. Do you see that?

I do.

Q Then if you look at the top e-mail, Mr. Flores is passing this along to both you and Mr. Weisselberg. Do you see that?

I do.

Q nd he passes it along for your information and asks you to let him know if you'd like to discuss this homestead exemption further. Do you see that?

I do.

Q Do you recall receiving this e-mail and reviewing it?

I recall some details about this issue, yes.

Q nd if we look at the second sentence of Mr. Corbiciero's e-mail, he writes, "Last year, we briefly discussed the possibility of filing for a homestead exemption on the Mar- -Lago property since President Donald Trump had really declared Palm Beach and the Mar- -Lago property as his permanent residency." You were certainly aware of that fact, right?

bsolutely.

Q nd then the second paragraph I'm going to walk you through and ask you some questions about -- he begins by saying, "in order to do this and this being filing for a homestead exemption, Mr. Trump would have to meet certain requirements to establish residency."

Did you understand when you got this e-mail and reviewed it that there were certain requirements that would need to be met in order for your father to file for a homestead exemption now that he was legally declaring Palm Beach to be his legal residence?

It's certainly what it says.

Q My question is different.

Do I understand it? Yes, I understand.

Q Okay.

THE COURT: Mr. mer, try not to say "okay."

MR. MER: I will try not to.

Q Skipping two sentences down, he says "since the private club is currently owned by a corporation, the property ownership would need to be changed/transferred into his name as an individual and not under a corporation."

First of all, at this point in time you and your brother were running the company; right?

Yes, I would have been the head of the company at this time.

Q Were you aware that Mar- -Lago was owned by a corporation as of this time?

I don't think we have a single asset that wouldn't be owned in an entity structure. It's just not how you own real estate. Yes, I would be aware of that it's owned in form of entity.

Q nd you were also aware it was being operated as a private club; right?

s a club, yes.

Q He goes on to say "if he was to meet all these requirements then the part of the property that he uses as a residence would be eligible for homestead. The property appraiser would need to come out and do a property inspection and measure the residential area and that portion of the assessment would receive the homestead exemption."

Did you read and understand what Mr. Corbiciero was saying would have to happen to the property in order for your father to file for homestead exemption?

That's what it said. I, again, don't remember much about this, but sure, I certainly trust the words on this piece of paper.

Q Let's look at the next paragraph.

Mr. Corbiciero says "currently, this property is assessed as a private club with the current assessed value at $359 per square foot."

Did you understand in November of 2019 that Mar- -Lago was being assessed as a private club at a rate that applied to a commercial property?

Certainly says that.

Q My question is a little different.

Were you aware of that fact in this time frame?

I don't think I'd be so nitty-gritty that I focused on details like this. This is just not what an executive at my level focuses on. I certainly see it says that in words.

Q nd when you reviewed this you would have understood it at the time; right?

Presumably. I'm not sure how much attention I paid to this to tell you the truth.

Q Goes on to say "the surrounding residential properties are assessed on average of over 2,000 per square foot with a recent sale just over $3,000 per square foot."

Mr. Trump, did you understand that there was a different rate that applied to residential properties versus commercial properties in Florida?

s a real estate guy do I think that residential properties are taxed differently than commercial properties? Yes, absolutely. 100 percent.

Q I want to be more specific. Did you understand that in the state of Florida residential properties were assessed at a higher rate per square foot than commercial properties; yes or no?

I would have no idea.

Q That's what this says, though? We can agree?

That's what -- sure. That's what this says.

Q nd you would have understood that when you reviewed this e-mail which you indicated to us you did; right?

Very tangentially.

Q nd he goes on to say "if the property appraiser were to separately assess the residential portion of Mar- -Lago in order for it to qualify for homestead, we believe this would result in a much higher assessment and therefore outweigh the potential tax savings from the $50,000 homestead exemption in the immediate future." Do you see that?

Yes, I do.

Q So did you understand from reviewing this e-mail that by categorizing a portion of Mar- -Lago as residential it would increase the tax assessment because the rate that applies to residential properties is much higher than the rate that applies to commercial properties?

Potentially. gain, as I said, I probably didn't focus too much on an e-mail like this.

Q Let's look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 1352, which is the 2021 supporting data that's in evidence.

I'm going to ask to look at Rows 184 and 185 relating to Mar- -Lago. Do you see in Row 185 it says "value if sold to individual?"

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3450

Yes, I do.
Q Did you understand at the time that you certified the 2021 statement of financial -- sorry -- withdrawn.
Did you understand when you certified to Deutsche Bank that the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of your father as of June 30, 2021 that Mar- -Lago was being valued as if it were a private residence that could be sold to an individual; yes or no?
Well, I think I testified very extensively I haven't seen the backup, but Mar- -Lago is a residence that could be sold to a private individual and we have that absolute zoning right to do so, so that doesn't surprise me at all that you value it that way.
Q nd you're saying that was your understanding at the time that you certified to Deutsche Bank that the 2021 statement presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of your father; correct?
It's very clear that Mar- -Lago is not a club. It's a private residence and yes -- so I see nothing wrong with that a hundred percent.
Q nd did you understand at the time that you certified to Deutsche Bank that the 2021 statement presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of your father that at that time Mar- -Lago was being valued for purposes of tax assessment as though it were a commercial property used as a private club; yes or no?

It is being used as a private club.
MR. MER: Your Honor --
Yes.
THE COURT: We'll take "yes" to be the answer.
It's used as a private club.
Q nd you understood that at the time you signed the certification; yes?
That Mar- -Lago is a private club, yes. Mar- -Lago is a private club.
Q nd more to the point that it was being assessed for property tax purposes as a private club; yes?
Sure. I think that's how you would assess it.
Q Okay.
THE COURT: Try not to say "okay". Even softly.
THE WITNESS: If you're worried about me, it doesn't bother me.
MR. MER: The Judge has to be even handed. I take his point.
THE WITNESS: I've got thick skin, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Good. You'll need it.
Q You'd be happy to hear I have one more document and the Judge will be happy to hear that it's already in evidence.
nd this is Exhibit 1751. I'm just waiting for the extra copy.

E. Trump - Plaintiff - direct (mer) Page 3452

nd I'm happy to read off the screen. I don't need the formalities.
Q This is a Separation greement between the Trump Corporation and its various related entities and llen Weisselberg. Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q nd I just want to confirm on page seven of eight that you are the person who signed this agreement on behalf of the company?
On page six?
Q Yes. I'm using the page numbers at the very bottom next to the plaintiff's exhibit number. So it says page seven of eight?
Don't worry about it. I clearly signed this agreement.
Q I just want the record to be clear we're looking at the right page?
Understood.
Q Okay. nd you signed this on January 12, 2023; correct?
It looks that way, yes.
Q nd we've had testimony from Mr. Weisselberg just so we have the timeline correct that he had pled guilty to 15 counts of tax fraud on ugust 18th of 2022, so several months before you signed this agreement. You were aware of his guilty plea when you signed this document; correct?

I don't know what I was aware of when I signed this document. Presumably if this document would be after, yes; if it was before, clearly not. I don't --
Q Well, I just said that he testified at trial that he pled guilty on ugust 18th of 2022, so that's --
Yes, I would have been aware if that's the case.
Q nd if you look at page two of the document under -- at the bottom of the "benefits" paragraph.
MR. MER: If we could blow that up.
Q It says "the company agrees to make severance payments to the employee," that's Mr. Weisselberg, "in installments of 250,000." I'm just paraphrasing pursuant to a schedule. Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q nd let's just quickly look at the schedule, which is the last page of the document.
ccording to the payment dates Mr. Weisselberg has received only the first three of his eight installments; correct?
I presume that to be the case, yes.
Q nd if we go back to page two of the document under paragraph three there is a list of employee promises. Do you see that?
I do.

Q nd it says "in exchange for the benefits provided in paragraph two, that would include the installment payments;" right?
Yes, I assume that's what it's referring to.
Q Mr. Weisselberg promises certain things. I just want to highlight two of them. One of the things he promises is Paragraph B, not to verbally or in writing disparage, criticize or denigrate the company or any of its current or former entities, officers, directors, managers, employees, owners or representatives. Do you see that?
bsolutely.
Q So one of the things he was promising not to do in exchange for getting his payments was to not disparage, criticize or denigrate you; correct?
Certainly not a lawyer, but it seems like that's pretty standard language for any severance agreement, yes.
Q So the answer is yes?
I don't know what it's intended for, but it probably means that he can't openly in the press disparage me, yes. I would never disparage him.
Q But at any rate you are not getting installment payments from him. He's getting installment payments from the Trump Company; correct -- Trump Corporation?
He's a man that worked at the company for 50 years. I was -- ten years before I was born he was working at the company, yes.

Q Okay. nd in exchange for getting these installment payments he's agreeing not to verbally or in writing disparage, criticize or denigrate certain entities and individuals? nd I'm just asking you simply to confirm that those entities and individuals would include you; correct? Yes or no?
Well, I'm certainly an officer of the company, so, yes.
Q Okay. nd it would also include your brother Donald Trump, Jr.; correct?
Very much sounds like it, yes.
Q nd it would include your father Donald Trump; yes?
Presumably.
Q nd because it includes former officers it would include your sister Ivanka Trump; correct?
She would be a former officer, yes.
Q Okay. nd then if we look at Paragraph D, another one of the promises that Mr. Weisselberg makes in exchange for getting his payments is "except for acts or testimony directly compelled by subpoena or other lawful process issued by a Court of competent jurisdiction," he will not, "one, communicate with, provide information to or otherwise cooperate in any way with any other person or entity, including his counsel or other agents having or claiming to have any adverse claims against the company or any person or entity released by this agreement with regard to the adverse claim."

Let me just stop there. Can we agree that one such entity with adverse claims against the company at the point you signed this is the ttorney General's Office of the State of New York; yes?
I don't know. This looks like pretty boilerplate language for me in an agreement like this, but are you adverse to us, yes. I think the whole world knows you're adverse to us, so I will say yes.
Q "Or two, take any action to induce, encourage, instigate, aid, abet or otherwise cause any other persons or entity to bring or file a complaint, charge, lawsuit or other proceeding of any kind against the company or any person or entity released by this agreement." That was the second part of that promise; correct?
That's correct.
Q Okay.
MR. MER: Sorry, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Mr. mer, how much longer with the witness, with this topic, etc.?
MR. MER: Just a couple questions both with the witness and with the document and I'm done.
THE COURT: Roughly how long?
MR. MER: Two minutes.
THE COURT: Go right ahead.
Q Mr. Trump, did you participate in the business decision to enter into this agreement with Mr. Weisselberg; yes or no?

Yes.
Q nd was entering into this agreement a business decision that you approved; yes or no?
I signed it. I clearly approved it.
Q nd you testified at the very beginning of our session yesterday that if your father directed you to take an action post his leaving the presidency you would follow his direction. Do you recall that?
I do.
Q Did your father direct you to enter into this agreement with Mr. Weisselberg?
No, he did not.
Q Did he approve of it to your knowledge?
I did this agreement with Mr. Weisselberg. He's a person that worked with our organization for 50 years. I was the person who did this, I was the person who signed it, I was the person who negotiated it.
Q That doesn't really answer my question, which is whether your area approved it; yes or no?
He did not.
MR. MER: That's all I have, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Give me a moment or two.
MR. MER: We have some housekeeping. We don't need do with the witness on the stand.

THE COURT: ll right. We'll excuse the witness. Thank you.

THE COURT OFFICER: Members of the audience, remain seated.

(Whereupon, the witness is excused from the witness stand.)

THE COURT: I'd like to go back to where we were this morning after our various statements on the record. I'll consider defendants' objection to by consulting with or receiving notes from my law clerk to be a continuing objection and I will continue to consult with the staff that I'm ethically allowed to consult with, that being my two law clerks and I will continue to do that for the trial.

Mr. Kise and your colleagues, your record is preserved and going forward I don't want any other comments about my staff or how I communicate with them.

Would you like to respond?

MR. KISE: gain, just to be clear, Mr. Robert may have something as well.

So then we are not permitted to note for the record just the observation? That's it? Without comment, without any argument? Just simply make a note on the record so that it's clear in the record what's taking place in the courtroom? Because otherwise there is no way to -- there is no other way to do it. I don't have another way to do it.

There is no recording, there is no video. So the only way the record will reflect what's actually taking place is to have some reference.

MR. W LL CE: Mr. Kise can note the number of notes passed and submit an affidavit if he chooses to make a motion at some point.

MR. KISE: I don't know that we need to do that, but if something is taking place it could just be simple as making reference that the Court paused or the Court received a note. I mean, it doesn't have to reference anyone specific or any way. It's just we have to be able to make some record.

THE COURT: Okay. You've made considerable record and I am stating on the record that I will continue to receive notes, consultations of any sort at anytime with my staff. So now you have as much as you need. If you want to appeal or move to recuse or whatever you want to do, you have plenty of ammunition. The problem is it's totally useless and meaningless because I have an unfettered, absolute right to consult with my law clerks anytime, anyplace about any matter. Go ahead.

MR. KISE: ll I'm saying is from here forward the record isn't complete so between now and the end of the trial, there may be other things we have to note.

ppeals, as you know, generally take place at the

THE COURT: But I'm giving you an opportunity to make a record going forward. I will continue to do it. If you want me to say every week or every day yes, I can communicate with my law clerk today or yesterday, I'll do that because I am absolutely certain that I have the right to do that and you can make whatever record you want, but let's not belabor this point.

MR. KISE: I'm not trying to, but I just want to be clear the contemporaneous nature of it is relevant for purposes of the record. So, in other words, the fact that there are notes being passed in the abstract I might agree with you may not give rise to any issue, but if notes are being passed at certain specific times or if they're being passed in a way that might indicate some bias -- and I'm not going over that record again. It's there. That's a record that needs to be made contemporaneously. There is no other way to do it contemporaneously.

To say at the end of the day yes, you received notes, okay, that may be fine. s you yourself indicated, you may receive notes about lunch. It's possible, so it's the contemporaneous nature of it and I'm not trying to burden the proceeding and we can even come up with a shorthand for it if you want me to note an objection or some statement like that just so it's in the record. If that's what that means we're happy to do that. We're not trying to disrupt. It's just in order to have a complete record for appellate purposes. nd what we do with that record will have to be decided at the time by maybe the appellate lawyers. We just have to be able to make the record on a contemporaneous basis. That's all I'm saying.

Mr. Robert.

THE COURT: You've had, what is it, four weeks now? nd you've made a record continuously and I completely agree with the ttorney General's position. If you want to make a motion at this point, go ahead and do it.

MR. ROBERT: Your Honor, I think we may --

THE COURT: There is no more need to make a record. You have such a complete record. You've made speeches, you made observations. I've said yes, it's being done and yes, I'll continue to do it. What more record do you want?

MR. KISE: It's like -- well, it's no different from now until the end of trial you're going to make other evidentiary rulings, I presume, or you're going to make other rulings about other aspects of the case. It's the same record. I mean, just because I've objected before to some particular thing, we still have to object going forward. I mean, that's just the nature of the appellate record. We just have to have some basis for it.

Whether we will make a motion now or not, as I said, that's something that we will determine, but that's very different than an appellate record that needs to be complete for appellate purposes. So it would be no different than if I'm not allowed to object to some evidentiary ruling or some other issue. It's the same sort of thing. It's just really no difference to it at all.

THE COURT: What do you propose to do when you see a note or ten notes or a day's worth of notes to make a record every day hey, the principal law clerk is passing notes to the judge on the bench?

MR. KISE: Your Honor, as we have done before, to the extent there is something that gives rise to in our minds the appearance of impropriety or bias then I think we have to flag that in the record. Otherwise, it's waived. We're going to get to the First Department and the First Department will look at us and say why didn't you raise that on the record? Why is it not there? If you're talking about a specific ruling at a specific time, why did you not raise it. That's all I'm saying. It goes back to what I was saying before in the past. I have certainly felt truly that I'm debating with two adversaries. I've got one in one place and one in another and that's a record that needs to be made because that is a record that is I think, respectfully, relevant for appellate purposes.

MR. W LL CE: It's not relevant to what is going on. We are trying to put on a trial and we are putting in witnesses making evidence. This sideshow of talking about the clerk passing notes to the Court is interrupting -- is seems, to me, largely designed -- I don't know. I guess you're making a record trying to blow up the trial, but also designed to interrupt our ability to put in evidence.

We've been doing this for five weeks. If you think this has been prejudice that has disrupted this trial, please make your motion now. Don't let us go on for another four weeks. But if there is something improper about the judge and the clerk passing notes, you should make your motion now instead of continuing to interrupt this trial.

The difference between making an objection about evidence and making an objection about something that is not relevant to an appeal, I think should be obvious at this point.

MR. KISE: So I appreciate the fact that to Mr. Wallace it appears obvious. Maybe I'm slow. It's not obvious to me. The record is the record. I've only handled, I don't know, 200 appellate cases in my career. I've only handled four cases in the Supreme Court of the United States. I don't know much about appellate records.

MR. W LL CE: nd how many of those cases involved an overturned decision based on notes passed from a judge to a clerk?

THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, one at a time.

MR. KISE: The answer to the question is none. That's why it's a significant record to be made. But no one is obstructing the trial. No one is doing anything to obstruct the trial. We are proceeding forward. They have been allowed to put in ample evidence and so, therefore -- and over objection, sometimes the objections are sustained. But the point is we have to make our record. That's our -- that is our role and right as attorneys.

So I -- and we haven't made it repeatedly. I have to disagree with that characterization. It's not been like every minute of every day that this issue has been brought to the forefront if it is impeded or proceeded in any way but there has so be some way if we believe that there is an issue that it be raised. That's all and we will be, as we have before, we will be direct, appropriate and measure. We're not making extra judicial statements about this. I certainly have not made any and don't intend to as you have probably observed over the last year is my general practice.

So the point is as a lawyer, though, I have to make a record and while I appreciate the advice and direction from the he ttorney General, those sorts of things are decided on this side of the table, just like what motions they bring and how they proceed is decided by them.

nd Mr. Robert I know had one other thing.

MR. ROBERT: I just wanted some clarity because, Your Honor, are you directing us not to object or that we're not allowed to object to the conduct we observe in the courtroom? That's all I want to know.

THE COURT: I'll issue a written decision later today and you'll know.

ll right. nybody else? I understand we have housekeeping matters or matter?

MR. MER: Yes, Your Honor. It goes to the point that we played some video clips of testimony and I realize the court reporter does not transcribe the video clips, so what we have are reports that contain the testimony that we've marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit so that we can get those admitted into evidence since there needs to be a record of what we all heard when we played the video clips and I've just --

MR. KISE: record? Really? There needs to be a record? Wow. That's interesting.

MR. MER: Yes, there needs to be a record.

So I'm going to hand out the plaintiff's exhibits. They're all a stack. So that's one stack, this is another stack.

Transcript continues on the following page...

MR. MER: I'm going to go through them individually. Mr. Kise, I already discussed with your colleague Mr. Robert, so we agreed on this process. The first one is a clip of Mr. Weisselberg's testimony and --

MR. KISE: If it is confirmed that they're correct, Your Honor, then we don't have a problem with it. I mean, he doesn't have to go through each line by line.

MR. MER: I'm not. I'm going to say the exhibit number and I'm going to ask that they be admitted into evidence.

MR. KISE: We can do it by agreement.

MR. MER: Plaintiff's Exhibit 3334 is a clip from Mr. Weisselberg. Plaintiff's Exhibit 3335 is the clip we played from Mr. Mc rdle's direct testimony. We did that both with Mr. Trump on the stand. I'm sorry. This is from Mr. Trump's -- Eric Trump's testimony. We played that for Mr. Mc rdle. That's 3335. Plaintiff's Exhibit 3339, that was Eric Trump's testimony that we played. Plaintiff's Exhibit 3338, also Mr. Trump's testimony we played. Plaintiff's 3337, another clip from Eric Trump. nd finally, Plaintiff's 3336, another clip from Mr. Eric Trump's deposition testimony. So we ask that all of these exhibits be admitted into evidence.

MR. ROBERT: No objection.

THE COURT: Okay. Granted. They're in evidence.

(Whereupon, the Clips were marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibits 3334-3339.)

THE COURT: ny other housekeeping matters?

MS. F HERTY: Yes, Your Honor. During the examination of Mr. Orowitz, there were two exhibits that were discussed. There was testimony on them, but counsel did not move them in for admission. So I'm putting it on the record we'd like to move these into evidence.

First is plaintiff's Exhibit P X 3111 and the second is PX 3332. Mr. Orowitz identified both of these exhibits as e-mail chains to which he was a sender and recipient as well. lthough, they weren't formally moved in, we would ask the Court do so now.

(Whereupon, the Documents were marked in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibits 3111&3332.)

MR. KISE: Your Honor.

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. KISE: For good measure on a Friday, statute of limitations and relevance objection.

THE COURT: Overruled. ny other housekeeping matters or any other matters? Just give me one second. Okay. We will reconvene on Monday at ten o'clock and the first witness will be?

MR. MER: The only witness will be Donald J. Trump.

THE COURT: The only witness will be Donald J. Trump. Thanks, everybody. Good weekend.

(Whereupon the trial was adjourned to Monday, November 6, 2023.)

Senior Court Reporters

THE COURT: Well we have a lot of people here and apparently a lot of photographers outside that want to photograph some of you.

We always call them the gaggle of photographers. I think gaggle refers to geese, doesn't it?

(Photographers entered the courtroom.)

(Photographers exited the courtroom.)

THE COURT: I would like to start right away with the next witness.

re there any housekeeping matters that can't wait until later?

MR. KISE: Not that can't wait, Judge. We have a minor housekeeping matter, but if Your Honor would like to proceed we will just wait until later.

THE COURT: Great. Thanks.

Plaintiff would you like to call your next witness?

MR. W LL CE: Certainly, Your Honor. The People call Donald J. Trump.

(Whereupon the witness took the stand.)

COURT OFFICER: Please raise your right hand.

D O N L D J. T R U M P, after having first been duly sworn was examined and testified as follows:

COURT OFFICER: Please state your name and either home or business address for the record.

THE WITNESS: Yes. It is Donald J. Trump, and I live in Palm Beach, Florida, 1200 Southern Boulevard.

THE COURT: That sounds good.

I'll just ask you, like I ask every witness, talk right into the microphone loudly, slowly, clearly.

Mr. Wallace, please proceed.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you, Your Honor.

DIRECT EX MIN TION

BY MR. W LL CE:

Q Good morning, Mr. Trump.

Good morning.

Q You were the beneficial owner of a bunch of companies branded as The Trump Organization; is that correct?

Yes.

Q From May 1, 1981 to January 19, 2017, you were the Director, President and Chairman of the Trump Organization Incorporated; is that correct?

Yes.

Q nd the assets of the Trump Organization are currently held in a revocable trust; is that correct?

Yes.

Q nd that trust is called the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust; is that right?

Yes that's right.

Q If we talk about the Trust today, you will understand that's what I am referring to?

Yes, certainly.

Q You are the donor of all of the assets in the Trust?

Yes.

Q re you the sole beneficiary of the Trust?

Yes.

Q nd you formed the Trust when you decided to run for president; is that correct?

Pretty much when I won, I formed the Trust.

Q Do you recall that the Trust may have been formed actually in 2014?

It could have been earlier, but it was primarily when I thought about running. nd I think maybe came into -- it could be a little earlier, but pretty much around the time that I won.

Q nd the purpose was related to your run for the Presidency; is that correct?

I thought there would be a conflict of interest if I had the properties outright, so I formed the Trust. But no -- Excuse me, even though I would be allowed to do that.

In fact, I told you the story once about George Washington, he had two desks, one for business and one for President. You are allowed to do that. But I didn't like it. nd I felt there may be a conflict of interest, so I formed the Trust.

Q But prior to you becoming President of the United States you were the sole Trustee of the Trust; is that correct?

That's correct, yes.

Q nd after you were elected President of the United States you appointed your son, Donald Trump Jr. and llen Weisselberg as Trustees; is that correct?

That's correct, yes.

Q So why did you select Mr. Weisselberg to be a Trustee?

Well, he had been with the company a long time. nd he was somebody that I had confidence in. He did a good job. I mean, he was very good at what he did. He was a -- he was the comptroller and financial person. nd we really liked him for a long time.

Q nd you trusted Mr. Weisselberg?

I did, yes.

Q t the time you appointed him as Trustee he was the Chief Financial Officer of the Trump Organization; is that correct?

Yes, that's right.

Q Why did you select your son, Don, to serve as a Trustee?

He is a hard working boy, you know, young man, and he has done a very good job; as has Eric. Eric was very busy running the company, and I thought that putting Don in would be good. He is smart. He is a very honorable guy.

Q nd when you left the White House you appointed yourself as Trustee again; is that correct?

That's correct.

Q nd at that time after you left the Presidency you were the sole Trustee of the Trust; is that correct?

Um, yeah, around that time, yes.

Q Why did you make yourself the sole Trustee?

Well, I figured that I would be back in the business world for a little while, depending on what happened in politics. nd I was going to get involved with the business again. I wasn't in politics other than thinking about running or doing whatever I had to do. So, I figured that I would be back in business, I might as well be the Trustee.

Q I am going to hand up to the court officer a document that has been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1720.

(Handing)

MR. W LL CE: If you could put a copy of that up on the screen, please?

If we could skip to page two of this document.

Q This is a document entitled the Donald J. Trump Revocable Trust Removal of Trustee. nd if we look down at the bottom of the page it says: "Now, therefore, pursuant to subarticle of rticle 13 of the greement of Trust settlor hereby removes Donald J. Trump as Trustee under the agreement of Trust, effective as of 2:30 p.m. eastern standard time, July 7, 2021."

If we look on the next page you will see -- is that your signature?

Yes.

Q Why did you remove yourself as Trustee as of July 7, 2021?

I don't know that -- I think we were at a position where I was gaining more and more confidence in my family in terms of business. nd you would have to see what the alternative is. Who are the trustees that were appointed, because I had many different.

Q Sure. Yeah, I am happy to show you page five of this document, which is entitled ppointment and cceptance of Trustee.

It states at the bottom: "Now, therefore, pursuant to subarticle of rticle 13 of the greement of Trust (i) settlor hereby appoints Donald J. Trump Jr. as Trustee under the greement of Trust. nd (ii) Donald J. Trump Jr. hereby accepts such appointment effective as of 2:30 p.m. eastern standard time, July 7, 2021."

Yeah.

Q So that's your son, Don Jr.?

That's right. He was impressive in business, as was Eric. nd I thought that I would do that while I continue onward with politics.

Q Okay. nything in particular was happening in July of 2021 that led to that decision?

Well other than you and about every other Democrat, District ttorney, G and U.S. ttorneys, et cetera, were coming after me from 15 different sides, all Democrats, all Trump haters. nd all cases that are not good, that are inappropriate and not good. Weaponization they call it.

But I felt Donald would do a good job. He would be running the business with Eric. nd I had great confidence in him.

Q So I am just trying to understand. Was the decision to appoint Don actually related to the investigations you referred to?

I think more so to the fact that I was staying very much in politics. You know, obviously as you see I was -- I have been in politics pretty much more than I thought perhaps.

Q Okay. Mr. Trump, I am going to put a document up on the screen. I don't think we need to have a hard copy of it. This is a document that is already in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 787. This is a copy of your 2011 Statement of Financial Condition; is that correct?

Yes.

Q Is it correct that you had a Statement of Financial Condition prepared as of June 30 for every year from 2011 until you became President in 2017?

I think so, yes.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, housekeeping, I failed to move into evidence document 1720, which was the Trust document we just looked at.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you, Your Honor.

Q If we go back to the Statement of Financial Condition, is it correct that you had reviewed the Statement of Financial Condition in each of those years from 2011 to 2017 before it became final?

Yeah, I would look at them. It was not something that was of great urgency because I knew they weren't very badly needed in a true sense, but I would look at them. I would see them. nd I would maybe, on occasion, have some suggestions.

Q When you say they weren't badly needed, what do you mean?

Banks didn't find them very relevant. nd they had a clause in it, a disclaimer clause. You could call it a worthless statement clause, because they were done in such a way that they really were -- you talked about it here recently, a compilation. They were just something that you would have for yourself. But if you were borrowing money, and as I guess people are starting to say I was very under levered anyway to start off with. But they were not really documents that the banks paid much attention to. They looked at the deal. They looked at the asset. If it is real estate, they looked at the location. But they weren't -- these were not very important -- primarily for the reasons that you had a disclaimer clause that was very, very powerful.

Q How did you know that the banks did not pay much attention to your statements?

Because I have been dealing with banks for 50 years, and I probably know banks as well as anybody. nd I have borrowed a lot of money, I have paid back a lot of money, and I know what they look at. They look at the deal. They look at the location. They don't want to get involved in financial statements because that's not what they are after. If a deal goes bad, they want to be able to take the deal back over and, you know, have it. They want you to be able to put up some cash or whatever it is you may be -- including expertise. But they don't want to be fighting for ten years over a personal financial statement. They want to take over the deal.

Q So you understood that these statements would go to banks, but it is your view based on your experience that they didn't rely on them very much?

They may go to the banks. Some banks wanted them. They didn't -- they just weren't a very important element in a bank's decision-making process.

nd we will explain that as this trial goes along, this crazy trial goes along, because we are bringing in some bankers, and the bankers will tell you -- very big bankers, bankers that dealt with me, and they will explain exactly what their processes were. But these were very substantial bankers, and they will explain what the process is.

But they paid little attention to documents, unless they were certificated documents, unless they were at the highest level, where everything was checked, everything was -- but even then they were more interested in the deal.

THE COURT: Mr. Trump, Mr. Wallace is being very patient, but I would like to move things along a little faster. Please, just answer the questions, no speeches. Mr. Wallace is going to ask questions. You are going to answer them. I am going to make sure that happens. nd some of your answers have not been responsive to the question. They responded, but then there is a speech to be had after that.

Mr. Kise?

MR. KISE: Your Honor, respectfully, I have been watching that. ll of Mr. Wallace's questions have called for narratives: Not badly needed, what do you mean; that's an open-ended question. How did you know the banks didn't rely; that's an open-ended question. So you understood. I mean, if Mr. Wallace is going to ask open-ended questions that call for narratives, that I haven't objected to, ordinarily, you know, I like to object to Mr. Wallace's questions, but they are narratives. So if they call for narratives, I think it is fair for the witness to narrate. He will certainly understand your instruction, but they are open-ended questions he is asking. He is not asking narrow questions like: What do you mean by, you know, this. What is your understanding of that.

Those are questions that call for narratives, respectfully.

THE COURT: Well, we agree on the principles. We disagree on the application. So let's just continue.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you, Your Honor.

Q Why don't we go through one of the later statements in a little more detail.

MR. W LL CE: If we could get Plaintiff's Exhibit 730, please.

This is in evidence, Your Honor, so we are providing an extra copy for the witness.

(Handing)

Q Mr. Trump, I have handed you a copy of a document that is in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 730. Do you recognize this as a copy of your 2014 Statement of Financial Condition?

Yes, I do.

MR. W LL CE: If we can turn to page two of the document, we will also put it up on the screen.

Q The second paragraph states: "Donald J. Trump is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of merica. nd for designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement."

Is that statement true and accurate?

True in the sense that what they wanted was -- this is Mazars, what they wanted was as much information as we could give them so they could do their statements. nd if you look at every other paragraph, that's what they talk about.

Q So it is true that you were responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements?

Getting them information, yes. In a form of getting them information.

Q Okay.

nd if they had a problem with it, they wouldn't have done the statement. In other words, if they didn't get what they wanted as per that paragraph, they would call, can you get this, can you get that, and they wouldn't do the statement.

Q So who is responsible --

MR. W LL CE: Well, strike that.

Q Can you tell me, what did you do to meet your responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of this financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States?

Me personally? Me personally or...

Q Let's start with you personally.

Okay. Well, first of all it is so long ago, you know, this is well beyond the statute of limitations. I would think anybody else would be well beyond the statute of limitations, but I am probably not because I am sure the Judge will rule against me, because he always rules against me. But this is something well beyond the statute of limitations.

But, I will tell you that my primary thing was to tell people to give them anything they needed.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, was that comment necessary and part of the narrative to answer the question?

MR. KISE: Well, Your Honor, you know, he is asking broad questions about him personally. I think what he is trying to understand is the witness's perspective. I mean, we are -- this is an unusual situation and an unusual trial. I think the Court should grant the former President of the United States and according to the New York Times this morning perhaps soon to be the future

President of the United States a little latitude to explain himself. It is a bench trial, there is no jury, if it is his view, it is his view.

Your Honor is in charge of the courtroom, you have our view. You can instruct him as you see fit. But again, Mr. Wallace is trying to get at what is this witness's understanding and what he did. The only way he can present that is to explain his position. I think it is fair for the Court to hear his position, whatever it may be, whether it agrees or not. I certainly think it is fair for the merican people to hear his position. But, we are subject to Your Honor's instruction.

THE COURT: I think it was a yes or no question, was he responsible.

MR. KISE: Is the question to me or?

THE COURT: The comment that I always rule against him, which as you know is not true anyway, it certainly didn't answer the question.

So Mr. Trump just answer the question. You can attack me, you can do whatever you want, but answer the questions.

MR. W LL CE: Could we get a readback please, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Read back, please.

(Whereupon, the record was read back by the court reporter.)

Q The question is, yes, what did you personally do to fulfill your responsibilities for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement?

ll I did is authorize and tell people to give whatever is necessary for the accountants to do a statement. In other words, we supplied them with what they needed. nd if they didn't get it, they wouldn't do the statement.

Q What people did you authorize?

Really anybody, you know, sometimes they would call a building or they would call a project, or maybe perhaps I think one or two times they wanted to go see a project. They would go out to Westchester and see something that I did out there and Briarcliff Manor or do things -- I authorized, whatever they needed to get their statement done, they could do.

Q When you said that they would go see a project, are you talking about the firm Mazars?

Excuse me?

Q You said that sometimes they would want to go see a project and you mentioned Westchester. Is the "they" you are referring to Mazars?

Yes.

Q Who internally at the Trump Organization would you provide the direction to give Mazars whatever they wanted?

lmost anybody, if somebody would ask. For instance, if they would call somebody within the organization in purchasing or whatever, I would give them. But I would do it principally llen Weisselberg and Jeff McConney.

Q ny other instructions besides -- let me withdraw that question.

Would you provide Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney with any instructions for how the statements should be prepared?

Not really. No. I just wanted them to get the information to the accountants so they could do a statement.

MR. W LL CE: If we could turn to page six of this document. This is the top.

Q It states: Basis of Presentation. nd says: "The accompanying Statement of Financial Condition consists of the assets and liabilities of Donald J. Trump. ssets are stated at their estimated current values and liabilities at their estimated current amounts using various valuation methods.

Such valuation methods include but are not limited to the use of appraisals, capitalization of anticipated earnings, recent sales and offers, and estimates of current values, as determined by Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates and in some instances outside professionals."

Let me ask first, Mr. Trump, is it correct that you were responsible for determining the values stated in the financial statement?

If somebody would ask me an opinion, I would give it to them. If Mazars would ask me an opinion, which rarely they did, I mean you are talking about many years ago, you are talking about over years, but I would certainly, I think I am probably more expert than anybody else. I think I, you know, have shown that I know more about real estate than other people. So if somebody would ask me or if I would have an opinion I would -- I would give it.

Q In light of your expertise in real estate, do you recall ever thinking that the values were off in your Statements of Financial Condition?

Yeah, on occasion.

Q What were some of those occasions?

Both high and low; both high and low.

Q Which occasions do you recall?

I thought that Mar-a-Lago was very underestimated, but I didn't do anything about it. I just left it be. It didn't matter, I didn't care, because the numbers you are talking about here is, you know, they are very big numbers, very, very big. Far bigger -- the values are far bigger than what is on the financial statement. I thought Mar-a-Lago was underestimated. I thought 40 Wall Street was very underestimated because that building has tremendous value. I thought that there were numerous other things. I thought Doral was very underestimated. I thought it was considerably more valuable. Not necessarily his golf courses, but it is right in the middle of Miami, right next to the airport. I would say you could build thousands of units and hotels on the site. So you don't look at it as a golf course. It is a great golf course, very successful, four of them, four courses. One was sold. It was five. One was sold that was a little disconnected, and sold it.

But I thought Doral was very underestimated.

nd you yourself had Mar-a-Lago at $28 million. The Judge had it at $18 million. nd it is worth, say, I say from 50 to 100 times more than that. So I don't know how you got those numbers. But the Judge ruled against me based on the fact, I guess, that he thought it was worth $18 million, which is just absolutely crazy.

THE COURT: The question was examples of when properties were undervalued or overvalued, not why you think so.

Q I may ask you about those as you go on. Your counsel are free to either cross examine you or call you as a witness. nd you can tell the full story as you see fit, but it will go faster if --

That's fine.

Q You mentioned Mar-a-Lago, 40 Wall and Doral?

nd others. But I think that -- I can think of one that was, I thought, overvalued and we changed it. I thought the apartment was overvalued when I looked at it. But I didn't spend a lot of time looking at this. But when I heard about the apartment and the valuation, I thought it was overvalued. But you never know, because people come along and they -- they will give you -- an apartment was sold fairly recently in New York for $250 million. I like this much better. So I don't know what overvalued means. Somebody comes along, it only takes one very rich person to buy it. But I thought the apartment was high. But I thought many things were low.

nd we -- we didn't value the most valuable asset and I didn't put it on the statement, but it is the most valuable asset, is the brand value. nd I asked about that and I really didn't -- I didn't put it on the statement, but if you look at companies, the brand value is a very big part of the asset value of a company.

Q We, again, I am probably not going to ask you much about brand value, your attorneys are free to ask you all about brand value.

Going back to the estimate.

Excuse me, sir, but if I wanted to build up a statement, like you said that I would before up found out exactly how rich we are, I would have added brand value here and I would have increased it by tens of millions of dollars.

Q Do you have an understanding of whether a Statement of Financial Condition prepared under G P is allowed to include brand value?

It is an asset. Coca-Cola includes it and other big companies, public companies, I think they all include brand value. nd, you know, I became President because of my brand. I sell books at levels that are incredible because of my brand, and so many other things.

nd if I wanted to build up this statement like you are saying, you know, you were very surprised when you saw the real numbers. nd now you go a different way, you changed your case midstream. If I wanted to build up my financial statement all I had to do is add brand value and my financial statement would be very, very substantial.

THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, did you ask for an essay on brand value?

MR. W LL CE: No, Your Honor.

Q My question was, and I will ask it again, Mr. Trump, do you have an understanding of whether a Statement of Financial Condition that is prepared under G P, is allowed to include brand value?

I think it is, because public companies have brand value. Coca-Cola has brand value.

Q nd did you ever discuss with Mr. Weisselberg whether or not under the rules of G P you were allowed to include your brand value on your statement of financial condition?

No, because I didn't care about it. I didn't care whether we added it or not. It wasn't something that was important to me. If I wanted to build up my numbers in a fake way, which you are trying to say, but now you are not. Maybe you are going a different direction. But I didn't care enough about it to bother with it.

THE COURT: That was a yes or no question. It could have been answered yes or no. Please answer yes or no if you receive such a question.

Q So the statement was primarily prepared by llen Weisselberg and Jeff McConney; is that correct?

Yes.

Q nd they would give you a copy of the statement; is that correct?

Yes, at some point.

Q nd you would, in fact, review it; is that correct?

I would in some cases, yes.

Q nd as we just discussed, the only example you remember of an asset being higher than you thought should be was your apartment; is that correct?

There were a couple of other things, I just don't remember. You know, you are talking about a lot of years ago.

Q Would you discuss the statement with Mr. Weisselberg?

Very little.

Q When you say, "very little," what discussions did you have with Mr. Weisselberg about the statement?

I would look it over. I may have a suggestion or something, but very little. It just wasn't very important. You have made it important, but it wasn't important. It wasn't important financially. Most developers don't use accountants for this, they just take a piece of paper and write the name of the building and the address of the building and what they think it is worth, they don't go through this.

I don't believe any developer, at least that I know of, has done a statement so thorough as this. nd frankly so lowball, as this statement is much less valuable in terms of the dollar amount than the actuality of the wealth or the worth.

(The following proceedings were stenographically recorded by Senior Court Reporter Michael Ranita.)

Q So this statement was prepared in a manner that you agree with; that you think was appropriate?

That was fine. It was fine. I didn't go into great detail on it, but it was fine.

Q If anything, you think the statement under valued your assets; is that correct?

Well, I do by a substantial amount. It was the opposite of your case your case. Your case was that I had no money at all. I mean, looking at this year, what could I have 300-some-odd million dollars based on just saw -- 300 -- let me look. But, you know, you sued me on the basis that Trump had no money and he wrote up phony statements and defrauded banks even though they were represented by the biggest law firms in the world and the most sophisticated and best lawyers, and even though these banks were paid back in full, there was no harm; there was no anything. Everybody got their money in full; there was no victim. nd then you are saying, I deferred it. The banks don't even know what they are doing in this case. They said you paid us back.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I move to strike that answer.

THE COURT: Granted.

Mr. Kise, can you control your client. This is not a political rally. This is a courtroom with a case about Executive Law section 6312. I've asked several times, asked the witness several times to answer the questions. I don't want editorializing. We'll be here forever and we'll accomplish nothing. Maybe you should have a talk with him right now.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, I'll do as you instruct. You are in control of the courtroom, not me, and I don't mean that disrespectfully. Truly, I don't, but I'm happy to do as you instruct. gain, we are dealing with an extraordinarily unusual situation here.

THE COURT: " gain" is a bad word.

MR. KISE: I know it is.

THE COURT: I know --

MR. KISE: It's part of the record.

THE COURT: -- it's an extraordinary situation.

MR. KISE: It's an extraordinary situation. It would be most efficient, ultimately, to allow the explanations. It's a bench trial.

THE COURT: I disagree. Talk to your client for a minute.

MR. KISE: Okay. Then should we take our ten-minute break. nd I can't to do it here.

THE COURT: No. Do you want to go in the back?

MR. KISE: If we are going to have a conversation, I would ask your Honor to give us a ten-minute break.

THE COURT: Will you spend the ten minutes in the back explaining the rules here.

MR. KISE: I think the former and again soon to be chief executive of the United States understands the rules.

THE COURT: He doesn't abide by them.

MR. KISE: I'm happy to do as you instruct. gain, I think Mr. Wallace's questions still are very broad questions. They do call -- in some sort of senses they call for narratives, so.

MR. W LL CE: I'm happy to restate my last question, your Honor, and see if we could proceed.

Q The last question was, if anything, do you think the statement under valued your assets; is that correct?

Yes, by a lot. The financial statements.

Q The financial statements.

Yes.

Q Would you discuss the valuation of individual properties with Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney?

On occasion. If I disagreed.

Q Do you recall discussing with Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney the valuation of Mar-a-Lago?

No.

Q Would they ever ask your opinion about the valuation of 40 Wall Street?

They might, yes.

Q Seven Springs?

little bit. It was done largely by a big law firm who testified, as you know.

Q You are referring to Sheri Dillon?

Yes.

Q Sheri Dillon did the valuation of Seven Springs?

Yes, very much her transaction. She was at a very prestigious firm, one of the most prestigious firms.

Q I think you've already said it, but you did not consider the Statement of Financial Condition to be an important document; correct?

It's nice to see, but it's not very important when it comes to borrowing money. s I think you've learned, I'm very under levered relevant to the asset value.

Q Why was it nice to see?

It's a compilation. We'll use that word that you've been using for two weeks. It was a nice restatement of assets. nd you could go up on some and down on some, but it was a nice compilation of assets. It's a great statement, particularly the year you picked, I had essentially $342 million worth of cash. It's a lot of cash. Sometimes you borrow money for tax purposes because you could deduct interest and other reasons, but it's a lot of cash. The banks came to me. They wanted to make deals with me. They liked me very much.

THE COURT: Stricken, stricken --

-- for office, your Honor.

THE COURT: Stricken. Once he got into the last sentence or two.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I would ask it be stricken after the statement, "it was nice to see. "It was a nice restatement of assets."

THE COURT: Well.

MR. W LL CE: Or "it was a nice compilation of assets."

THE COURT: I don't mind the part about how much cash he had, so we'll end it after that.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, again, noted, Mr. Wallace's question, "Why was it nice to see?" When lawyers are in depositions they ask questions like "Why." That's what they do. When they get to trial, usually what they do is ask more focused questions.

MR. W LL CE: Or they sit at Counsel table and don't ask questions and they throw up a bunch of ridiculous questions.

MR. KISE: Mr. Wallace, are you done? I'm just trying to make a point for the record. nd that is, if you ask open-ended questions, then he can anticipate open-ended answers. nd it's not fair to put all this on the witness. I understand your Honor's instructions. I think the witness does, but if you ask a "why" question, why questions are usually in depositions, not in trial, unless you already know the answer.

MR. W LL CE: The open-ended question was about why it was nice to see. I did not ask about the cash on record. It is not relevant to the answer. I think that's the issue.

MS. H BB : It's absolutely relevant. It's --

MR. KISE: That's his opinion, why. When you ask a witness why, they are going to give you an opinion as to why.

MR. W LL CE: You've now stated your objection. I'm being filibustered by the witness and Counsel. I would like to proceed.

MR. KISE: Okay.

THE COURT: Just proceed.

Q Going back to the work of Mr. McConney, Mr. Weisselberg, you understood they were making a good faith effort to put down the value of the properties; is that correct?

Yes, I did.

Q You understood that they used common sense to prepare the statements; is that correct?

I hope so. I don't know, but I hope so.

Q nd as we stated, if anything, you thought the valuations they reached were too low; correct?

bsolutely. Well, that's been proven.

Q Okay. Let's go through a few of those valuations.

MR. W LL CE: If we could turn to page eight.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Of this document, the top we see -- this is the Niketown property. If we look at the middle paragraph here, the third paragraph, it states "The estimated current value of $348,800,000 is based on an evaluation by Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates and outside professionals, applying a capitalization rate to the cash flow to be derived pursuant to the building's net rental stream."

Do you believe that statement to be true and accurate?

No.

Q How is it inaccurate?

The net rental stream is one way, but the bigger value here is holdup. Well, it's not a nice term in real estate, but it's called holdup value. I'm directly with that site and behind, and next to on 57th Street, which is probably the best location 57th and Fifth. It's the best location in New York.

I'm directly next to Tiffany. They cannot expand without us, and I'm directly next to IBM. So I'm between IBM and Tiffany. nd the holdup value is 348 million for holdups, you know. Probably what I mean, if you know real estate it's peanuts compared to what the value is.

So I view that as it's a great property. It's a great rental stream, as you probably have figured out, but it's got much more value as a holdup. They could come to me and offer me $500 million for that site in two minutes if they wanted to expand or if they wanted to do something.

Q The statement, however, is the estimated current value as of June 30, 2014 --

Yes.

Q So, the $500 million price you just referred to, that is as of today; correct?

No. I would say it would be as of anytime. It just -- it's, it's --

Q I'm not asking for further explanation?

It could be any time. It could be then, it could be now.

Q So there's no change of value of, this $500 million value since 2014?

Well, I don't want to sell it. If I wanted to sell it -- I had discussions with Tiffany for years about possibly doing something. In fact, they rented from me right now for a lot of money, and but Tiffany used -- as you know, when Tiffany, as you possibly heard, when Tiffany was rebuilding their store, they came to me and they wanted to do something. nd I leased it to them for a period of time, but they would do -- they would love to be the owner of that site.

My point is, it's a holdup. It's not a nice word, but it's a holdup site. nd holdup sites in New York have made --

Q The question was, had there been a change of value since 2014, and you said, "I don't want to sell it." So I take it the answer is no?

No. I think it's gotten more valuable like everything else.

Q So you do not think that this statement in your 2014 Statement of Financial Condition is accurate; correct?

Well, it's a great rental stream, but I think the real value here is the -- the value it would be for IBM or Tiffany if they wanted to say, and they do, at least Tiffany does.

Q This statement says that the estimate was "based on a valuation by Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates and outside professionals." What was your role in prepare that valuation?

I think I mentioned to them the value of that is it makes a lot of money, throws off a lot of money, as you see, because you see the numbers. nd now more than ever, because Tiffany had to pay us a lot of money in order to lease it. I just wanted to lease it. We gave them a five-year lease while they built their store. They are building -- as you know, they just opened. But, they would love to own it. nd so would, I believe IBM. I don't talk to IBM at all. But they can't expand without it. I believe that -- I did mention, quickly, I didn't know if I -- this wasn't something I devoted a lot of time to, but I did mention to them there is tremendous holdup value on that site.

gain, 57th Street. You have Tiffany, IBM, and you have my building right in the middle of them. nd if they want to expand anywhere, they have to go through my building. nd I bought the air rights --

THE COURT: Hold on.

Excuse me. I bought the air rights over Tiffany, so they can't go up.

THE COURT: In addition to the answers being nonresponsive, they are repetitive, and we don't have time to waste. We have one day with this witness.

Mr. Kise, can you control your witness, because I am considering drawing a negative inference to any questions that might be asked.

MR. KISE: Well, I would urge your Honor not to draw the negative inferences. We have a record on that, which I won't go into, but I think the witness is doing his best to answer the questions and be as responsive as possible.

If you think that it would be beneficial for us to take a break, I'm happy to do that. This is your Honor's courtroom, so I'll do as you suggest. But, again, there -- the questions are calling, maybe not as broadly as the answer, but they are not tight questions. I mean, we are seeing "why" questions; we are seeing "how" questions. I mean, this is not one someone who is a professional lawyer or a witness, so he's answering based on his responses and the reactions to the questions.

Q Mr. Trump, you testified under oath many times; correct?

Yes.

Q The question was, "What did you do, based on an evaluation of Mr. Trump in conjunction of his associates and outside professionals", and you said you talked to them about the holdup value.

Is there anything else you did in preparing this valuation in 2014?

No, I don't think so.

Q Did you ultimately approve this valuation?

No.

Q Did you approve the issuance of this statement?

I think they did something with it, because when I told them about the holdup value, they said, "Well, you're right."

Q Who is "they"?

The people compiling the statement. It could've been Mazars, too.

Q Did you --

I didn't make a big deal.

Q I didn't ask you if you made deal. I'm asking if you told Mazars about the holdup value for the 2014 Statement of Financial Condition?

It's a long time ago. I probably did, but I told Jeff and I told llen.

Q Okay.

Do you believe that the stated value of $348 million was based on true and accurate information?

Well, as a holdup, I think it's very low.

Q I'm not asking about the holdup. I'm asking about whether you have an understanding of whether this valuation in your Statement of Financial Condition was based on true and accurate information. It's a yes or no question?

Well, I'll say it differently. I wouldn't sell it for that number. If somebody offered me that number, I wouldn't sell it for that number.

Q I'm not asking your individual valuation. I'm not asking for an analysis. I'm just asking if whether the information that Mr. McConney and Mr. Weisselberg used was true and accurate when they reached this number?

I guess so. I really can't answer that. I guess so. It's a number that I wouldn't sell it for.

Q Okay.

MR. W LL CE: Can we move down to the bottom of this page.

(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was scrolled through.)

Q We have the header for 40 Wall Street, and if we flip over the next page we'll see the valuation for 40 Wall Street. The top paragraph states "The estimated current value of $550,100,000 is based upon a successful renegotiation of the ground lease and an evaluation made by Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates and outside professionals of leases that have been signed or are currently the subject of negotiation. nd a capitalization rate applied to the resultant cash flow to be derived from the building's operations."

Do you believe that statement I just read is true and accurate?

I don't believe -- it depends on how you look at it, but I don't believe it talks about the making of the building the condominium, a residential condominium, which is absolutely a perfect use for that building.

Q My question is --

Even though it's full.

Q -- is this statement true and accurate?

Well, let's see. So number one, you -- again, you go back a long time. re you still in 2014.

Q We are still on the 2014 statement.

Five-year statute of limitations. You are still in 2014. So, it says here based upon successful renegotiation of the ground lease. Well, that was done. I did that. I made a new 100-year lease, and a very good lease, and long term, very long term. I got a "lollipop" in the lease. It's a legal term, believe it or not, but it's a lollipop, which allows you to build condominiums because you own the land. You own a piece of land. That gives you the right to build condominiums. So this would be a low number, because the highest and best use for that building is the -- it's -- I think it's the tallest building in downtown after the World Trade Center, but there's a dispute about 60 Pine Street, but, whatever.

The tower is of perfect measurement for turning them into condos. nd I have the right to do that, and at some point we, or somebody, will do that. That's the highest and best use. In which case, $550 million is a very low number. ll you have do is look at a picture of the building and say "That building" -- you just look at it and you say that's worth a lot more than $550 million. If you want to put up the picture.

Q My question is --

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, that was a simple yes or no question. I don't have it right in front of me, but the question was whether he believed that was an accurate number. We got another speech. I would beseech you to control him if you can. If you can't, I will. I will excuse him and draw every negative inference that I can. Do you understand that?

MR. KISE: I certainly understand, your Honor. But I will say this: The purpose of this trial is to determine the veracity of the Statement of Financial Condition, in part, to figure out whether there is intent, so I would think, respectfully, your Honor, of all witnesses, would want to hear everything that this witness has to say by way --

THE COURT: No, I do not want to hear everything this witness has to say. He has a lot to say that has nothing to do with the case or the questions.

MR. KISE: gain, your Honor, I will -- I have to say that you're determining what's going to happen here. So I would urge the Court to take in all the information possible, including what this witness has to say about the numbers on the statement, what he did, why he did it. I mean, all of those circumstances. Do we really want to come back here in a few weeks and go through it that way?

I mean, with this witness I would suggest it's far more efficient to listen to what he has to say and take it in, and then you have an understanding of what he has to say. nd I don't think it's fair to draw a negative inference based on his explanations simply because he wants to explain why he got to where he was. We are talking about ten years ago.

nd so I, ordinarily with a witness, you might think differently, but this is a situation where you have, on the stand, a candidate for presidency of the United States. Having him here takes away from that effort. nd so the most efficient way, I would submit to the Court, to get through this is to listen to what he has to say, and then you weigh it one way or the other.

I don't think you should respectfully draw a negative inference. nd, again, I'm happy to discuss this and take a break. More than happy to do that. I'm not saying not to do that.

But I just would like the Court to take in that perspective, because this is a different situation. It's unusual situation, and it would be most efficient. The Court needs to hear what he has to say about what happened with the statements and why he thinks they are viable, and why there is no intent.

He's describing to you why there's no intent to mislead anyone with his answers. That's what he's doing. nd so I would think that's highly relevant and highly probative. If you want to do it the way where we have yes or no questions and then we go back and do it that -- it's subject to your direction, but I think the most efficient way is to listen to what he has to say. I'm happy to talk to him about making the answers more contained. We certainly don't want to waste anymore time than necessary, and spend anymore time than necessary, but this is, as you've acknowledged this a unique situation.

MS. H BB : If I may also add, your Honor. I had to cross examine Mr. Cohen. If I could get him to answer the questions in yes or no, I advise Mr. Wallace to look at that cross examination. It was far more succinct.

The reality of the situation is, he put up two paragraphs which talk about interest rates, the current value, as well as tenants, and et cetera, et cetera, et cetera. If he would like to narrow it, then you narrow it, but President Trump is answering about 40 Wall Street and the values, the interest rates, the purpose of the SOFC; that is absolutely relevant.

So I'm going to push back and say it is time to start pushing pack on the G. Kevin can try to ask better questions, and then we'll move on. But he is relevant. He is talking about two paragraphs of information, and he's explaining them. sk succinct questions you'll get SUCCINCT answers.

THE COURT: Well, Mr. Kise, I think you said several times we should hear what he did, what the witness has to say. No, I am not here, and these people are not here, and the ttorney General is not here to hear what he has to say. We are here to hear him answer questions, and most of the time he's not. He goes into speeches. It's very simple. Is this an accurate number? We don't need a whole speech.

MS. H BB : It's not that simple. I apologize.

It's not that simple, and you are here to hear what he has to say.

THE COURT: No, I'm not here to hear what he has to say.

MS. H BB : Thank you.

THE COURT: I'm here to hear him answer questions. Sit down already. Mr. Kise, Mrs. Habba, sit down.

Mr. Wallace, continue.

THE WITNESS: This is a very unfair trial, very, very. nd I hope the public is watching it.

Q Mr. Trump, was the valuation presented here based on leases and capitalization rates true and accurate to your belief?

It could be, but again, what I told you is a building has many different forms of value. nd this building, the most valuable -- the most valuable asset here is making it into condominiums. That would be -- it will happen as soon as interest rates go down and as soon as the City maybe comes back. It would be nice if it came back; wouldn't it?

But the value of this is -- the big value of this is making it into a condominium, residential condominium.

Q Could we put up --

It would be one of the biggest jobs in the City.

MR. W LL CE: Could we put up Plaintiff's Exhibit 635. It's already in evidence, but I have an extra copy for the witness.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q There is a very thick document. I'm not going to ask you to go through all of it, but it is an e-mail from Jeff McConney to Jack Weisselberg, Ladder Capital, attaching a modification of the ground lease. The e-mail is dated pril 10, 2015. If you go to page three of this document.

(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was scrolled through.)

Q I'll put it up on the screen for you. You could see at the top. Title says -- this is a resume of the fourth modification of the ground lease on 40 Wall Street, NYC. We flip over to page four.

(Whereupon, the exhibit on the screen was scrolled through.)

MR. KISE: Do we have a copy of this document for the witness?

MR. W LL CE: He has a copy.

MR. KISE: I'm sorry?

MR. W LL CE: It's already in evidence.

Q If we look at the header. "Condominium conversion right." It states "Paragraph four eliminates the tenant's condominium conversion rights which it had under Section 2709."

Do you recall that in this amendment to the ground lease your condominium conversion rights were eliminated?

No, because I have a right to do a co-op. You could do condo -- you could do a condo, but I have the right to do a co-op. I believe I have a right to do condo, because we have a lollipop clause, but I have a right to do a co-op.

Q If we go back to the Statement of Financial Condition; that's Exhibit 730.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q We were on page nine?

(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was scrolled through.)

Q Did this valuation include the lollipop conversion that you were talking about?

Um, I don't know. It was around that time. I renegotiated the lease and got a new lease, and one of the things in the lease was a lollipop conversion.

Q My question is about this statement though, which says "That the valuation is based on leases that have been signed and capitalization rate." There is no mention here of converging to condos, is there?

Well, I know you are asking -- you are talking about the estimated current value. nd the estimated current value would be co-op, condo.

Q I'm not asking about what you could do. I'm asking about what was actually prepared?

I don't know because I didn't do it.

Q Okay.

Was the stated value -- let me ask, did you approve of this valuation?

I accepted it. It was just one of many -- this is a very big statement. I have many different things, and this is one of many values. I accepted it. I didn't say, oh, gee, it should be higher or lower.

Q nd you approved the statement's issuance?

Yeah, I accepted it. Other people did it, but I didn't say make it higher or make it lower.

Q Was the $550 million valuation here based on true and accurate information?

I assume so.

MR. W LL CE: If we could move on to page 20 of 26 here.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q nd if we see at the bottom of the page is the listing for the mansion at seven Springs. I'll direct your attention to the paragraph -- first sentence in this listing that says " n entity wholly owned by Mr. Trump acquired a property known as "The Mansion" at Seven Springs in Bedford, New York, which consists of over 200 acres of land, a mansion and other buildings. This property is zoned for nine luxurious homes. It has been valued at $291 million based on an assessment made by Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates of the projected net cash flow, which either derived as those units are constructed and sold, and the estimated fair value of the existing mansion and other buildings."

Do you have an understanding of whether that $291 million valuation is true and accurate?

I thought it was too high, and we lowered it. I guess the next statement or sometime, but I thought it was too high. This is the equivalent of Mar-a-Lago in New York, and I think it sells for -- I think it's valued -- I think the value is higher if you don't build additional housing. This is the kind of -- it's a magnificent place. This is the kind of place that somebody will pay a lot of money for, I think more money than if you build nine, or 16, or 20 units of other homes on the site.

I think the site, as I remember, is 213 acres, and I think it's much more valuable, actually, without the building. I think it's more valuable the way it is.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I think maybe we may need to take our break now, and if Mr. Kise could talk to the witness, I think I would appreciate it.

THE COURT: Let's take -- how long a break would you suggest? Make it 15 minutes so it's easy. 15-minute break.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

THE COURT: I'll direct the witness not to talk about the case or his testimony other than in the ways that I've asked.

THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, please continue.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you, Your Honor.

Q Mr. Trump, when we broke we were looking at the valuation for Seven Springs in your 2014 Statement of Financial Condition. I believe you said that that valuation, you said, eventually dropped that valuation; is that correct?

Yes.

Q Did you eventually take a tax deduction based on easement donation for Seven Springs?

I believe so, yes.

Q You recall receiving appraisals showing that the total value of the Seven Springs before the easement was $56 million?

No, I don't know. It could have happened, but I don't remember.

Q Do you remember if the easement appraisal was the reason for dropping the value of Seven Springs?

No. The person that did that, I believe, was Sheri Dillon. That was the law firm that we mentioned, and a very good one, very prestigious. nd she really was responsible for doing it. It was sort of, I think, her idea to do it.

Q So when you say the person that did "that" the "that" that you are referring to -- Easement.

Q -- is the easement donation itself?

Yes.

Q So if you did not decide to lower the value of Seven Springs based on the appraisal from the easement donation, what was the basis upon which you decided to drop the value?

Well, I thought it was high. I mean, I saw that. When I saw it the statement was done, and I said I thought that was high. That was one of the ones that was high. That doesn't mean it is not going to get that kind of money, because that's the kind of a place that would get that kind from the right person. But I thought it was high. nd they dropped -- they dropped the value.

Q nd so in your view, the estimated current value of Seven Springs as of June 30, 2014 was not $291 million; is that correct?

I thought it was high. Maybe I'll sell it for more than that, you don't know. With that kind of a property, you never know, but I thought it was high.

Q Is the Seven Springs easement donation under review by the IRS?

Not that I know of. It might be.

Q Was it at any point under review by the IRS?

I don't know. I don't know.

Q Do you remember when you decided to lower the value of Seven Springs?

Well, I guess probably when I looked, I don't know if I looked immediately upon -- because again, I haven't spent a lot of time on these statements, because I realize the value of these statements is not that important. But when I looked at it, I thought it was high and I said, you have to lower it.

Q So the answer is, no, you don't remember when you decided to lower the value?

I don't remember. It might not have been immediately, but it was, you know, within a period of time.

MR. W LL CE: If we could turn to page 21 of 26.

Q This is a section of your Statement of Financial Condition entitled Partnerships and Joint Ventures. nd there is a reference to a joint venture that is 1290 venue of the mericas in New York, New York; and 555 California Street in San Francisco, California.

re you familiar with those properties?

Yes.

Q Underneath that it states: "In May 2007 Mr. Trump and Vornado Realty Trust became partners in two properties; 1290 venue of the mericas located in New York City and 555 California Street (formerly known as Bank of merica Center) located in San Francisco, California."

Mm-Hm.

Q If we look down a few more paragraphs it states: "Mr. Trump owns 30 percent of these properties."

Is that accurate?

Yes.

Q nd so you do not control the partnership with Vornado; is that correct?

In many ways it is better, because I have no liability. I am a limited partner, that's limited liability. I have a 30 percent interest, but my interest I don't have to put up any money. I didn't put up any money and don't have to. I have a very good relationship with them. They are great, and very professional. But it is also a limited -- it was limited. I had no liability for what I own. So, it was a lot of people don't understand that. They think that a limited partnership gives you limited rights. In this case it gives me limited liability.

Q The question was: So you do not control the partnership with Vornado; is that correct?

I have 30 percent of the partnership, yes.

Q nd so you do not control the partnership?

In the true sense, no. I will say this, we have a very good relationship and --

THE COURT: No. No. You answered the question.

-- never had a problem.

THE COURT: nd we appreciate that it is the true answer. Thank you.

Q The next paragraph states: "The estimated current value net of debt of $816,900,000 is based on an evaluation made by Mr. Trump in conjunction with his associates and outside professionals."

Is that a true and accurate statement that you valued the property based in conjunction with your associates and outside professionals?

I don't know, because I am not familiar with the number.

But I do know that, as you know, the one building is the Bank of merica building, one of the most, I think, one of the, I think, the best building on the west coast. nd the other is a very great building in Manhattan on Sixth venue, venue of the mericas. We refinanced that building about two and a half, three years ago at a very, very low rate. nd there were valuations placed on it then, and if you want I can get you that information, but the valuations were very high.

Q The question was whether you made an evaluation in conjunction with your associates and outside professionals of the value of those two properties?

I don't know. It doesn't sound high to me. Not for these two buildings, so I don't know.

Q I am going to ask it again.

The question is whether or not you made an evaluation of the property value.

Is that a double property right there? Is that both properties?

Q Both properties.

It doesn't sound high. I don't know if I was involved in that. I remember looking at it, but it didn't get my attention. I think it is worth more than that.

Q Do you remember playing any role in evaluating the estimated current value of these two properties for any years between 2011 and 2021?

2021?

Q Correct.

You mean bringing it back to two --

Q ll the way, for the last ten years. That ten-year period.

By the way, that was the hottest period ever for office properties. So I think you should know that. nd you don't want me to talk much, but I think you should know that.

No, I think the value sounds very reasonable. I don't know. I don't know. I doubt it. I don't know that I would sell my interest for that, actually.

MR. W LL CE: I am going to hand the witness a document or ask the officer.

THE WITNESS: nd excuse me, the buildings have been refinanced, two years ago.

MR. W LL CE: There is no question pending.

Q Mr. Trump, I have handed you a document that has been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3344. This is an e-mail from Jeff McConney to Donald Bender entitled Ferry Point. It is dated October 1, 2012.

Your Honor, I ask this document be entered into evidence.

MS. H BB : Objection, statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.

(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3344 by the Court.)

Q t the top there is an e-mail from Mr. McConney to Mr. Bender, it says: "Doc, I am almost done revising last year's footnotes. llen wants S to speak to DJT tomorrow about the Vornado buildings. I am going to send you a few e-mails with some info on new properties, Doral and Charlotte, and an update to the Scotland footnote."

I want to ask if this refreshes your recollection about whether you had any conversations with Mr. McConney and Mr. Weisselberg about the value of the Vornado properties?

bout the Vornado buildings?

Q Correct.

No, but I probably did.

MR. W LL CE: If we can go back to the Statement of Financial Condition; and if we could blow up the section with the valuation there, the estimated current value and amount of debt.

Q Mr. Trump, do you believe that the stated value here of $816 million was based on true and accurate information?

I think so. I hope so. I can say, if you go to 2021 where it is more familiar to me, because it is more updated, I think that would be a low number.

Q Were you involved in the preparation of the 2021 statement?

No.

Q Who was responsible for the preparation?

I don't know. That was when it was in trust, so I assume llen and Jeff and perhaps they dealt a little bit with Don and Eric. But they were not involved with these statements very much at all, as I understand it.

Q Would you get copies of the statements in 2021?

I hadn't seen it. I was so busy in the White House. I was really -- my threshold was China, Russia and keeping our country safe.

Q My question is actually about 2021. Did you see a copy of the 2021 statement?

I don't believe so.

Q nd just to clarify for the record, you weren't President in 2021, correct?

No, I wasn't.

MR. W LL CE: If we could turn back, if we could go to page 23 of 26 in this document.

Q nd if we look at the bottom of the page, on the category of other assets it says: Trump Tower. Mr. Trump owns a triplex apartment on the top three floors of Trump Tower (see note 3.)

I'll just represent to you that note 3 doesn't discuss your apartment, it discusses the building.

Were you involved in the valuation of your triplex apartment for this statement of financial condition?

No. What date is this?

Q 2014.

No, I wasn't.

Q Did there come a time when you determined that the valuation for your triplex apartment was too high?

Yes, I did.

Q fter you made that determination, did Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney lower the valuation of your triplex apartment?

I believe so, yes.

Q Did they do that at your direction?

I told them I thought it was too high. I thought the number was too high. nd I know they lowered it after that, yes.

MR. W LL CE: If we could pull up Plaintiff's Exhibit 758. This is a spreadsheet, so it is only going to be up on the screen here.

nd if we could go to row 893.

Q This is a category Other ssets. nd if we look down, if we could go down to rows 969 and 971, this shows the valuation of your apartment.

I'll represent to you that the valuation of the apartment is not actually in the Statement of Financial Condition, it is incorporated. So this is where we are going to try and find it.

I think that's why I missed it also.

Q Okay. nd if you look you can see here, I'll represent to you that column G are the values for 2013. Column H is the value for 2014. So you can see that it goes from $116 million in 2013 to $327 million in 2014.

nd so it is your understanding that the $327 million valuation is too high?

Yeah. nd the reason I didn't pick it up sooner is that I thought it was high, but it is not mentioned -- it is not broken down in the financial statement, so I wouldn't have known.

Q Okay. nd I am sorry, I apparently -- this is the Statement of Financial Condition for 2017, so I misrepresented.

That's okay.

Q The 2017 number is in G, and the 2016 number is in H. So I apologize.

MS. H BB : Sorry, just to make the record clear, Kevin, this is the backup, not the SOFC?

MR. W LL CE: Correct.

MS. H BB : I think you said SOFC on the record.

MR. KISE: nd this is the backup for 2016?

MR. W LL CE: 2017. So showing a change from 2016 to 2017.

Q nd this change in valuation came at your direction?

Probably. I mean, I thought it was too high. I don't know what is too high anymore because I am seeing things being sold at numbers that are very high. But I thought it was too high, so I assumed that they didn't.

Q Do you have an understanding of why the valuation was too high?

Well, I have heard different reasons. But one of the reasons was they did it off a broker. broker was sending lists of apartments and they had it down at 30 -- 30,000 feet. Is it 30?

nd another one was that, you know, I have the roof, we have access to the roof which is very big. nd when you add the roof it is not that far off.

nd there are a lot of other reasons. nd there is another reason, they just made a mistake. nd that's why we have a disclaimer clause in case there is a mistake. There is a disclaimer clause, where you don't have to get sued by the ttorney General of New York.

Q Mr. Trump, as you sit here today, do you know how big your triplex apartment is?

You know, you wouldn't -- you wouldn't know. I have heard, obviously, because of the trial, they say 11 to 12 to 13,000 feet.

Q t your deposition testimony, does it sound correct that you testified that each floor of Trump Tower is about 10,000 square feet?

s the floor. nd it is a triplex, and I think they probably took 10,000 feet per floor. I could see how it was done. They took 10,000 feet per floor, because the floors are, I believe, about 10,000 feet, and they went times three. But the -- but they didn't take out, you know, elevator shafts and different things.

Q Okay.

MR. W LL CE: I would like to go back to the 2014 Statements of Financial Condition. F if could go to page ten of 26.

Q This is the heading for club facilities and related real estates. nd if we scroll down, this is the listing for Mar-a-Lago.

If you look, I'll read it into the record, it states: "Mr. Trump acquired this property in 1985 and transferred ownership to a wholly owned limited liability company in 1995. It is now an exclusive private club which consists of 117 rooms.

Formerly known as the Marjory Merriweather Post Estate, it features a 20,000 square foot Louis XIV style ballroom, world class dining, tennis courts, spa, cabanas and guest cottages."

I am going to direct your attention to where it states that the property is an "exclusive private club." Is that correct?

Yes.

Q Okay. nd is it correct that the ownership of the club was transferred to a wholly owned limited liability company in 1995?

I guess so. If you represent, I would say yes.

Q Well, I am asking if you know whether or not the representation here, which is that it was transferred to a wholly owned limited liability company in 1995; do you know if that's correct?

No. But it is probably so because I have done that with many properties over the years.

Q Is Mar-a-Lago today still wholly owned -- is the ownership of Mar-a-Lago today still underneath a wholly owned limited liability company?

I believe it is the same.

Q nd there is no separate valuation for Mar-a-Lago on the Statement of Financial Conditions in this century, correct?

You know, I have no mortgage on Mar-a-Lago, no debt. There is no debt. There was no reason to do it. So I don't know if they did it or not. But there is no debt, zero, on Mar-a-Lago.

Q My question is just that the price of Mar-a-Lago or the, I should say, estimated current value of Mar-a-Lago is not listed here, is it?

No, it is not. It is not.

Q Okay.

MR. W LL CE: If we could pull up the supporting data for this Statement of Financial Condition, Plaintiff's Exhibit 719.

Q This is, I'll represent to you, the supporting spreadsheet for the 2014 --

MR. W LL CE: Do I have this wrong?

Okay. If we could go down to row 189. nd actually go down to the club facilities. Sorry 205.

Q You see the entry is at 207 for Mar-a-Lago, and underneath that it states: "Value if sold to an individual."

That is referencing to selling the property to an individual as a residence; is that correct?

Yes, that's right.

Q Did you approve valuing Mar-a-Lago as if it could be sold to an individual as a residence?

I personally -- well, did I approve it? On this? I don't know. There are two ways you can approve it, as a club or as a residence or as both. It is most valuable as both.

Q nd here it is being valued as a residence, correct?

I guess so. What is the number?

Q We will get to the number in a minute. I was just wondering, did you at some point discuss with Mr. McConney or Mr. Weisselberg valuing Mar-a-Lago as a private home?

I don't remember that, no.

MR. W LL CE: If we go down to row -- just go to the bottom, row 242.

Q Do you see a value listed for Mar-a-Lago --

Yes.

Q -- is $405,362,123 as of June 30, 2014.

Did you approve that valuation number?

No. But it is a very low number.

Q So you -- do you agree with that number?

No, it is much -- it is much more valuable than that, much, much. We are bringing in an expert so that they will explain to you what it is worth.

Q I'll ask you a question. You believe as of today Mar-a-Lago is worth at least 1.5 billion; is that correct?

How much.

Q 1.5 billion?

I think between a billion and a billion five, yes.

Q s of June 30, 2014 though, do you have a view as to how much Mar-a-Lago was worth at that time?

More than this number. I don't know, but much more than this number.

Q Mr. Trump, we are going to hand you a copy of a document that is already in evidence. This has been stamped as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1013. This is a deed of development rights for the Mar-a-Lago club. nd I'll direct you to it up on the screen.

If you could turn to page two of the document just quickly. Do you see your two signatures?

Yes.

Q There? Okay.

If we go back to the first page, under the third "Whereas" clause, and I'll read it into the record for you and highlight it here.

It states: "Whereas, the club and Trump intend to forever extinguish their right to development or use the property for any purpose other than club use."

Was it in fact your intent to forever extinguish your right to use the property for any purpose other than club use?

Well, when you say, "intend" intend doesn't mean we will do it. That's number one. It says "intend." I intend. But we have the right to change it back to a house. I intended, I would always leave it as a club; or a club and a residence, which is really the best combination, which is what it is right now. It is a residence and it is a club, and a very successful club at that.

Q I take it your answer was that, yes, you did intend to do this?

Yeah, I intend. I intend. But I also have the right, if I wanted to, there is no reason to do that, to switch it back.

Q Switching it back would be contrary to forever extinguishing something though, wouldn't it?

No. It says to intend. It doesn't say that. It says to intend. It doesn't say I will. It says intend.

But I don't mind leaving it as a club. In fact, if somebody actually wanted it, the smartest thing to do, because there are a lot of advantages to the club status, the smartest thing to do would be to have a club and have one member; and that would be the member that lives in the club. But it is much more valuable and we will show that in two weeks or five weeks or nine weeks or whenever this thing goes, that it is most -- its biggest value is to be able to use it as a club and residentially simultaneously.

Q If we look at the next paragraph it states: "Whereas, the National Trust for Historic Preservation in the United States (The National Trust) is the grantee of a Deed of conservation and preservation easement recorded on pril 6, 1995, in official record book 8691, page 764, of the public records of Palm Beach County, Florida (The preservation easement).

s reflected here you had in fact granted a preservation easement to the National Trust for Historic Preservation in 1995; is that correct?

That is correct.

Q If you look down at the next paragraph it states: "Whereas, the preservation easement limits changes to the property including, without limitation, the division or subdivision of the property for any purpose, including use as single family homes, the interior renovation of the mansion, which may be necessary and desirable for the sale of the property as a single-family residence estate. The construction of new buildings and the obstruction of open vistas."

Yeah.

Q s reflected in the 1995 preservation easement then, it was prohibited to renovate the interior of the mansion in a way which may be necessary or desirable for the sale of the property as a single-family residential estate; is that correct?

It was a single-family home. It was the home of E.F. Hutton and Marjory Merriweather Post. I don't think anybody would want to touch it. It is designed as a home. nd it was converted to a club very successfully, and it does great. nd that's where it is. But this is, you don't have to do anything to convert it.

nd also, the easement really talks about views. It is only a view easement. If I want to build something, I go to the National Trust. I built a ballroom as an example. I built a very big ballroom there. The ballroom you mentioned in your last page was built by me. nd it is very large, beautiful. nd what happens is, if I want to development other parts of the property, but not in the view corridor. It is called a view corridor. It is a certain view corridor from the main windows of the living room.

But on the side, what is called the side corridors, I have a right to develop, if I want to. But this is a little like we were talking about Seven Springs, this property is more valuable without building houses on it. It is much more valuable, actually, in this case.

Q fter this Deed of Development rights, you stated publicly that Mar-a-Lago would forever be a club; didn't you?

That is what?

Q You stated that Mar-a-Lago would forever be a club; is that correct?

No, I don't think so. I mean it says "intends." I would personally never change it. If somebody later on, including my children, if they want to change it, I believe they would have the right to do that, if they wanted to.

Q Mr. Trump, the court officer is handing you a document that has been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 1730.

(Handing)

Q This is an article from the Palm Beach Post dated ugust 27, 2023. nd if you look at the bottom of the page there is a quote from you. It states: We waited until it became a great success, Trump said, and the Mar-a-Lago club is a great success. It will forever be a club.

That was your statement, correct?

Yeah.

Q In 2003, that the Mar-a-Lago club would forever be a club?

Well, I hope so. I mean, I think that was said with bravado as opposed to with legal intent. It will be for, you know, as long as I am around, it will be a club. nd I live there.

Q nd by making -- I apologize for interrupting.

Yeah. Please.

Q By making sure it was forever a club, you paid less in taxes on the property; is that correct?

club will pay less in taxes, correct.

Q nd that says that, if we look at the forth paragraph here, it states: We pay less tax, Trump said Tuesday, now we are treated like the bath and tennis and the other clubs?

That is correct, pay less taxes. Not too many clubs, you pay much less tax.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I ask this document be entered into evidence.

MR. KISE: For what purpose are they introducing the document?

MR. W LL CE: He has admitted these are his statements at the time.

MR. KISE: So all of his statements in here will be admitted?

MR. W LL CE: The statements of Mr. Trump only.

THE COURT: It is in evidence.

MR. KISE: The statement where it says if it didn't work out as a club it could go back to some other use, that's acceptable as well?

MS. H BB : The one you didn't show the witness. The one on the bottom.

MR. W LL CE: I'll ask him about that then.

MS. H BB : Yeah, you should.

Q Mr. Trump, if you look to the second to last paragraph on the page, we will highlight it for you.

It states: If it didn't work out as a club we could have gone back to some other use; is that accurate?

I believe so, yes.

MR. W LL CE: I believe Your Honor has overruled the objection and this is in evidence; is that correct?

THE COURT: Yes, the entire document is in evidence.

(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1730 by the Court.)

Q Mr. Trump, I would like to hand you another document. This one is marked as Defendant's Exhibit 478.

Mr. Trump, in order to win approval to convert Mar-a-Lago to a club, you took the position that it was impractical for a single individual to continuously own Mar-a-Lago as a private estate at his or her sole expense; is that correct?

Yeah probably in those days. That was a long time ago.

Q Well I can show you, this is -- this document is the Mar-a-Lago, if we turn to the second page, please?

Sure.

Q It is the Mar-a-Lago club special exception use and preservation plan. Do you remember submitting this plan to Palm Beach in order to convert?

Yes, I did.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, we ask that Defendant's 478 be marked into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted it is in.

(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Defendant's Exhibit 478 by the Court.)

Q If we look at page six of this document, I believe.

It states at the top: s to item (1)

I'll represent to you that item 1 is private ownership of Mar-a-Lago.

It states: "It is impractical for a single individual to continuously own Mar-a-Lago as a private estate at his or her sole expense. When the Post Foundation marketed the property after its return to the foundation from the U.S. government, it was almost impossible to sell. bout 80 qualified buyers, thoroughly screened, inspected Mar-a-Lago and elected against even making an offer.

H. Ross Perot was one prospect. lthough 'everything is for sale at a price' no one would step forward to make offers for this so called 'white elephant.'" nd cites to articles from the Miami Herald and the Palm Beach Post Times.

Is it correct, was this statement correct at the time it was made?

Yeah. I got luckily.

Q I take it, it is now your position that it is no longer a white elephant?

That's true. There is a man building a house down the road spending one billion dollars to build it, and it ain't Mar-a-Lago. They are spending 1 billion down the road.

Q If we could go back to the Statement of Financial Condition, that's Exhibit 730.

Mr. Trump, I would like to focus on your Golf Club at berdeen. So if we could go to page 16 of 26.

Here we see the listing for Trump International Golf Club in Scotland- berdeen. I am just going to read into the record the description of the club here. It states: "Mr. Trump, through wholly owned entities, acquired 500 hectares (approximately 1,236 acres of land) on the northeast coast of berdeenshire.

The development received outline planning permission in December of 2008 for a world class, Martin Hawtree designed championship golf links golf course, suitable for hosting major events; a second future award winning 18-hole course; a luxury clubhouse; a state-of-the-art driving range, and golf academy; a tennis center; an equestrian center; a luxury five-star 450 room hotel with associated conference and banquet facilities; an full-time spa; a residential village consisting of 950 holiday homes; and 500 single-family residences and 36 golf villas."

Start there. Was that description of the club as of June 30, 2014 true and accurate?

Probably. But you know, we could do more or less. We could do a bigger job, a smaller job.

Q Do you believe it was accurate, that's as of December 2008, you had received outline tenant permission for a residential village consisting of 950 holiday homes?

Yeah.

Q nd 500 single family golf residences and 36 villas?

Yes, berdeen is the oil capital of Europe, very rich.

THE COURT: Irrelevant. Irrelevant. You answered the question.

THE WITNESS: It is.

Q There's no valuation value for the berdeen property listed in this paragraph; correct?

I don't know.

Q Okay. It's not.

MR. W LL CE: So why don't we put back up Plaintiff's Exhibit 719.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q This is the supporting spreadsheet for the 2014 Statement of Financial Condition. If we could go to row 481, please.

(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was scrolled through.)

Q 481, here we see the listing for Trump International Golf Club, Scotland. That's your club at berdeen; is that correct?

Yeah, right.

Q If we look over in column G, we could see the valuation for 213 -- I will rephrase that question. In column G we see the valuation, as of June 30, 2013, in column H, we see the valuation as of June 30, 2014. Do you see that? Or do you see the dates?

Do I see what?

Q The dates at the top. G is -- I'll direct you to it.

Yes, yes. I do.

Q June 30, 2013, H is June 30, 2014?

Right.

Q Okay. Let's go down and take a look at those valuations, which I believe are down on 43 or 46.

(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was scrolled through.)

Q No, I was wrong. If we stop here, it's in 527.

So you could see the valuation in -- as of June 30, 2013, is $191,165,600, and as of June 30, 2014, the valuation is $435,562,426?

Yeah.

Q Do you see that difference?

Yes, I do.

Q You did not build a second golf course at berdeen between June 2013 and June 2014?

I'm building it now.

Q So you had not done it by June 2014?

No, I didn't. The first one, it was very successful, and then the second one. nd then basically you would have a thousand acres of land -- you have 1230 some-odd acres. It's lot of land on the ocean. nd it was a big development job. nd I could do it anytime I want. I just don't really want to do it. I don't really need to build 2,000 or 1,000 or 500 houses in berdeen. I don't want to do it.

This was an artistic expression. I think it's the greatest golf course ever built. I believe it is. nd we've gotten reviews saying that we are close to that. It's one of the greatest pieces of land I've ever seen. nd we have, now, one course, and we built a clubhouse, we built the roads, we built everything. I'm no rush to build. I'm not looking to build a lot things. I'm doing other things right now. But it's an unbelievable site. We could build more than what you showed in the plan, or less than what you showed in the plan. But I don't want to build anything. I just want to sit with it. It's called an investment.

Q So I just want to make sure I heard that last part. You are not planning to build anything as of today?

Well, I'm building right is now.

Q part from the golf course, you are not planning on building any housing developments?

I'm sort of preparing the site, because I'm putting up the second course. nd it's under construction. It will be done in a year. nd then we have all this -- we have a thousand acres of land that we can do whatever we want with, but I'm in no hurry to do anything with it. I have enough things to do.

Q nd your statement was, "I'm not looking to build a lot of other things right now"; is that correct?

I'm not looking to -- yeah, as I said, I'm not looking to go to Scotland and build a big development, but it's got tremendous value.

Q So we got away from what the actual question was, which was, I believe that you did not build a second golf course at berdeen between June 2013 and June 2014; correct?

Yeah, nor was I supposed to.

Q nd you did not build a new hotel at berdeen between June 2013 and June 2014 did you?

Because I didn't want to.

Q nd you did not build any homes at berdeen between June 2013 and June 2014 did you?

No. I have a castle that we renovated, but no. I want it just the way it is, and at some point, at some point maybe in my very old age I'll go there and do the most beautiful thing you've ever seen, but I just don't have -- I don't want to do it now. It's an unbelievable piece of property.

Q I'm focused, then, on where we get the $245 million increase in the value of the property from 2013 to 2014. So I would like us to go back up to -- if we look at. Let's go down to see 489 at the top. I'll represent to you -- well -- no, go down a little more.

(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was scrolled through.)

Q That's it. Right there. So you'll see the valuation for the club, the golf club, the land allocated to hotel and residential, the remaining value for the golf courses, stays about the same. It goes from $76 million in 2013 to 2014. The remainder of the value for 2013 comes from the line item valuation per George Sorial e-mail, 9/6/2011, in addition to DJT Capital contributions.

George Sorial was a lawyer in the Trump Organization; is that correct?

Yes.

Q He was not a valuation professional; is that correct?

No.

Q Okay.

nd if we look at what changes in 2014, we could go down to the column starting at 508 that says "value of undeveloped land."

(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was scrolled through.)

Q nd you could see that there is a listing that says the residential parcels are 83,000 pounds each. The number of homes to build at 2,500, which generates a value of 207 million pounds, which is then converted into dollars; that's the basis for the 245 some-odd million dollar increase in value; is that correct?

I really don't know, but the job could be much bigger than that, too. It's 1200 acres, more than that, fronting the entire width -- fronting on the North Sea. It's, it's, it's like one of the easiest -- in the oil capital of Europe.

Q I'm asking, was it actually done?

It's a very nice piece of land that everybody said I could never get zoned, and I not only got it zoned, I got it zoned for much more than anyone thought possible.

Q Let's take a look, then, if we could compare this, because 2,500 homes is not the same used in the Statement of Financial Condition, which I think --

MR. W LL CE: Please split those screens.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q If we look, it says -- the valuation states there is 2,500 homes?

Yes.

Q But the statement itself says that it's 950 holiday homes, 500 single family residences, and 36 golf villas?

More luxurious, yes.

Q nd I'll represent to you that that comes to 1,486 homes in total, with only 500 single family residences. So the Statement of Financial Condition for 2014 does not accurately disclose the number used in the calculation; is that correct?

Those homes will sell for a tremendous amount of money; they are on the North Sea. I could also go with a much bigger job if I wanted to. The relationship is very good with berdeen. berdeen is a very rich place. It's an incredible piece of land. nd again, it may be the greatest golf course ever built. nd I own Turnberry and I own great ones.

The numbers there are not shocking numbers. nd this is a very big job. I just don't want to build it now. You know, you're probably right, I'm doing other things right now.

THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, I'm so what following your lead. If you want to let the witness ramble on, be unresponsive, repeat himself, go ahead.

MR. W LL CE: I might normally move to strike, but there are things I would like to preserve for the record in that answer, so I'm reluctantly allowing this to continue.

THE COURT: That's why I'm following your lead.

MR. KISE: I just want to note, I'm not really sure it's clear. Maybe this is the subject of the ambiguity. I mean, I think his answer is a brilliant answer. I just don't know if he is answering the question because he is confused as to whether or not we are talking about the Statement of Financial Condition or the backup data, which he's testified -- I think Mr. Wallace has already admitted -- this witness has never seen, before, the backup data. So I'm not sure what he's answering, whether he is talking about the backup data or he is talking about the Statement of Financial Condition, or if the question is both.

MR. W LL CE: I don't think my question was answered, so I was going to re-ask it, but I'm happy to have --

MR. KISE: If you could clear it up, that's fine. I just think it's not even in the record.

MR. W LL CE: I am I'm just asking that his prior statement remain on the record, even though it's nonresponsive.

Q Mr. Trump, my question is more directed. It's simply that the number of homes used in the calculation for 2014 do not actually match the number of homes disclosed in the statement; is that correct?

I don't know, but it could very well be. It's sort of like a painting. You could do pretty much what you want to do. The land is there. You could do what you want to do. So you could do either one of them, actually.

Q s of 2012, you had actually made a determination that you would not be developing the berdeen property because of Scottish plans to build a wind farm off shore; is that correct?

Well, I was not happy because they are -- they've fought long and hard to build wind mills, I think nine of them, out in the ocean, out in the sea. nd they built them.

Q Okay. "They" being Scotland?

Scotland.

Q nd because of those wind mills, you decided in 2012 that you were not going to be doing further development of the berdeen property?

I told them, I don't know if it has an impact or not, I'm not a windmill person. I think I'm being proven to be right.

Q Did you testify about your unwillingness to develop the berdeen property for a subcommittee of the Scottish parliament in 2012?

Yes, I did.

Q nd do you believe that -- I'll see if I could skip ahead and just ask. Would it sound correct to you that Mr. Weisselberg submitted a statement to the UK regulators in September of 2014 saying that the Trump Organization did not intend to develop the berdeen property any further based on the wind farms?

We had a big fight over the wind farms, but they were put in years ago. They've been there for many years now. They'll probably come down, like all the other wind farms are coming down, and I've been asked whether or not they have an impact -- they are miles out in the ocean. They are not on the property. They are miles out. nd most people tell me, no. lmost everybody tells me no. I don't know if that's true. But regardless, we have the right to build a very big project, if I want to build it. That was in 2014, when we were fighting the wind mills, yes.

Q nd as of today, November 6th, 2023. You haven't built any homes at berdeen; is that correct?

It's just a beautiful piece of property sitting there waiting for homes to be built. It will be very successful. I just don't -- you know, there's nothing wrong with sitting with property and waiting if you have the money to play that game, and I do have a lot of money, a lot more money than you thought, I guess. t some point that will be developed into a magnificent job. I just don't want to do it now.

Q Mr. Trump, apart from the Seven Springs valuation we discussed, and your apartment, do you stand by all the valuations in this Statement of Financial Condition for 2014?

I haven't looked at it in years.

Q Do you have any reason -- so, you might not agree with the valuations in here anymore, is what you are saying?

I think I've been proven to be right, because if you take those valuations and bring them up to 2021, a couple of years ago they are much higher than they were in that statement.

Q But the valuations were the estimated current value as of June 30, 2014; is that correct?

Yeah, but if you carry that forward to 2021, all of those valuations were low.

Q Meaning the properties are now worth more today, November 2023, than they were --

Much more, yeah.

Q Than they were in June of 2014.

Okay. part from the Seven Springs valuation we discussed and the triplex apartment, are you aware of any other properties on the Statement of Financial Condition between 2011 and 2017 that were overstated?

Um, not that would have -- I don't know of any, but not that would have a material effect, because I'm worth billions of dollars more than the financial statements. The financial statements are just the opposite of what your ttorney General thought, and they are having a big problem with it. I'm worth billions of dollars more, so anything that would be a little bit off would be nonmaterial, nonmaterial.

Q nd are you aware of any nonmaterial items that were overstated in the Statement of Financial Condition between '11 and '17?

I haven't looked.

Q Do you still approve of the work that Mr. McConney and Mr. Weisselberg did preparing the Statements of Financial Condition between 2011 and 2017?

Well, again, we have a disclaimer clause that tells you we are doing the work. It's not in accordance with your normal -- if you are going to do some kind of a big certified statement. You are not doing appraisals and everything else. We have a very important clause called a "disclaimer clause", and it's a 100 percent disclaim. nd some people call it a "worthless statement clause." They call it lots of different things. nd as you will be hearing in testimony, they always hold up in court, except maybe in this court. They always hold up in court, always. It's a disclaimer.

It says, very strongly, do your own due diligence. Do your own work. Do your own study. Don't take anything from this statement for granted. You could look at the statement, but you must do your own analysis and due diligence.

Q Do you still approve of the work that Mr. McConney and Mr. Weisselberg did in preparing the Statements of Financial Condition between 2011 and 2017?

s far as I know I do. You haven't shown me anything that would change my mind.

Q Same thing true of the statements that came out between 2017 and 2021? You stand by that?

I was assured of 2021, but I was President, and I was not involved in any way by that. I was doing other things.

Q You were not aware of anything that was done that you disagree with, but you are not familiar with the statements?

Probably the statements would be -- again, if there was a mistake, it was nonmaterial, but even if it was material, and I don't see that, and we did make some changes where they found out there were mistakes, we have a disclaimer clause that says, do your own diligence -- due diligence. Don't, under any circumstances, count on anything here, because it was done -- they are done quickly. They are done -- it says -- I think it says done in accordance with the owner's projections and the owners, The Trump Organization's projections and everything else.

So one of the reasons I never got too involved with these statements was -- that clause is on page one, as you know better than anybody. It's also throughout the statement. When you read the statement, everything is disclaimed. They say go out and do your own. Don't believe it. Get your own appraisers, get your own accountants, do everything. nd that's why we shouldn't be having a case here, because we have a disclaimer clause which every court in this country holds up, except for this particular Judge.

Q Can I ask, then, is it your particular position that the Statements of Financial Condition are, in fact, worthless?

No, I don't think they are worthless, but I don't think they are worthless at all. nd -- but I think that they're -- I think, frankly, with the disclaimer clause, if there is any mistake, the disclaimer clause covers it. nd because they haven't -- they didn't devote their entire life to this. nd again, most developers don't do this. They just write the name of the building and the address of the building. They put some number that they think it's worth. They don't have anything like this.

What I've done is far more -- and it's also far more conservative. You never mentioned the fact that we have 3, $400 million cash in these things. Very -- I mean, people don't know how good a company I built. You know why? Because people like you go around and try and demean me and try and hurt me.

Q Mr. Trump --

Probably for political reasons. In her case, definitely for political reasons. nd I think it's hurting her.

MR. W LL CE: There's a lot in there that I want to keep, your Honor, so I'm not going to move to strike that.

Q I just want to go back and clarify one thing in your last answer. You said "they did not devote their entire life to them." Who is the "they" you referred to?

That would be Jeff and llen. They had other things to do.

Q Does that mean that Jeff and llen were not being careful when they prepared your statement?

No, I think they were being careful. But, again, the disclaimer clause says if you -- if there's a mistake, if there's something, it says, "Don't rely" -- it's called a non-reliance clause, also. I mean it's a very standard thing and it's allowed in every court in the United States. It's a non-reliance.

Q You stated that.

I know I'm trying to make you understand it. It's a non -- non-reliance clause, and every court in the United States has upheld them, and every legal scholar that I've read about this case has said what's going on here? How can a thing like this being going on? It's disgraceful. nd in addition to that, I'm worth more than the numbers in the statement.

MR. W LL CE: That answer I will move to strike, your Honor.

THE COURT: s repetitive?

MR. W LL CE: Repetitive, nonresponsive.

THE COURT: Nonresponsive.

MR. W LL CE: He's already made that point in the record.

MR. KISE: I'm not sure there's any basis to strike -- a valid basis to strike it. It's an answer. Mr. Wallace is satisfied with the answers. He is culling for these narratives, and he is getting answers to the questions. nd this is -- this is -- this goes to the very heart of what we're here about, which is intent. I mean, if -- intent is subjective. nd if this witness's intent is as stated here, I don't see how anyone could ever prove intent under these circumstances. It's a brilliant answer to the question. So Mr. Wallace can't pick and choose which narratives he likes and which narratives he doesn't. We could come back here in two or three weeks and go through the same charade and ask the same question get it out, but as I said, it's far more effective to allow this witness to explain his position and explain to the court his view, what he intended, how he intended it, what was happening, and how he views the statements.

MR. W LL CE: The response is even longer than the statement I asked to strike, so at this point let's leave it in then.

THE COURT: Leave it in. There's no jury. It doesn't matter.

MR. W LL CE: We'll, leave it in.

Q Mr. Trump, I think you said this in the course of your answers. Let me just try to clarify this. You do not agree with the position of the Office of the ttorney General that the values in the Statement of Financial Condition are overstated; is that correct?

I think she's a political hack.

Q That's not the question.

nd I think she --

Q That's not the question.

-- used this case to try to become Governor, and she successfully used it to become ttorney General. nd I think she's a political hack, and this a disgrace that a case like this is going on. nd all you have to do is read the legal scholars and the papers and you'll see exactly what I'm saying. nd a lot of them didn't even know how valuable the properties were. You never said Trump has three and $400 million cash, and now more than that. This is a political witch-hunt, and I think she should be ashamed of herself.

Q You do not agree with the position of the Office of the ttorney General that the values in the Statement of Financial Condition are overstated; is that correct?

The overall value is billions of dollars more than is in these statements. So that when a bank gets them, the bank is seeing a conservative statement, not a -- she tried to make you believe, even yesterday, she's out there saying, "Oh, fraud. Fraud. This is the opposite. Fraud."

The fraud is her where she says Mar-a-Lago -- she said it was worth $25 million. He said it's worth $18 million (indicating), $18 million. She said it's $25 million. She convinced him that it was worth $18 million. nd it's worth a billion dollars, or something like that.

Q Yes or no.

It's a disgrace.

Q Yes or no, do you agree with the position of the Office of the ttorney General that the values in the Statement of Financial Condition are overstated?

MS. H BB : sked and answered.

MR. W LL CE: It has not.

THE COURT: No, it has not been asked and answered.

MS. H BB : He actually did the --

THE COURT: It's been asked. He hasn't answered.

MS. H BB : Your Honor, I'm not screaming. ll do respect, your Honor, I don't appreciate when people scream.

The overall value is billions more was the answer. That's his answer. You could read it in the record.

THE COURT: It's a yes or no question.

Q Just yes or no, Mr. Trump. Do you agree with the statement, the position of the Office of the ttorney General is the values are overstated?

The financial statements are very conservative. The overall number of value is much higher than the number in the financial statements. In addition to that, you have a hundred percent disclaimer clause that goes on for a page and a half.

THE COURT: No, no, no. We are not going to hear about the disclaimer clause. If you want to know --

It's very important.

THE COURT: -- about the disclaimer clause, read my opinion again, or for the first time, perhaps.

THE WITNESS: Well, you are wrong on the opinion.

Q Mr. Trump, let's go to that then. Mr. Trump, you do not agree with the determination of the Court in its summary judgment decision that the Statements of Financial Condition were misleading; is that correct?

He ruled against me without knowing anything about me. He ruled against me and he said I was a fraud before he knew anything about me, nothing about me.

nd then he said in his statement that Mar-a-Lago is worth $18 million and it's worth 50 times to 100 times more than that, and everybody knows it. nd everybody is watching this case. He called me a fraud and he didn't know anything about me.

Q You did not -- so I think the essence of your answer is there, but I would like to get it as a yes or no. You do not agree with the determination of this Court in its summary judgment decision that the Statements of Financial Condition were misleading; is that correct?

I think it's fraudulent, the decision. I think it's fraudulent. The fraud is on the Court, not on me. When you rule that Mar-a-Lago is worth $18 million, I could give you a quarter of a tennis court would be worth that.

When you rule that Mar-a-Lago is worth $18 million and then she rules it's worth $25 million, either people are very stupid or there's a fraud. The fraud is on behalf of the Court, because when the Court does that, and then they say I didn't value my property correct? Think of it, $18 million, he said. nd then he -- he says that I'm a fraud because I didn't value my property correctly? He is the one that didn't value the property correctly.

Q Mr. Trump --

nd how do you do that? How do you rule against somebody and call them a fraud, as the President of the United States, who did a great job. ll you have to look at is the President today. What he is doing? How do you call a man a fraud when you have a property that's a 50 to 100 times more valuable. It's a terrible thing you did. You knew nothing about me. You believed this political hack back there, and that's unfortunate.

Q re you done?

Done.

Q Okay. I'll take you up on one of the invitations. You are talking about the $18 million valuation versus the higher valuation of Mar-a-Lago. Which one are you paying taxes on down in Florida?

Which one, what?

Q re you paying taxes on an $18 million valuation of Mar-a-Lago or $1.5 billion?

You know that assessments are totally different from the valuation of property. n assessment -- as an example in New York. You sell a building, a building was recently sold for a billion dollars. It's assessed for a tiny fraction of that. Same thing in Florida. Same thing in other places. Other places have full assessments. Whatever you pay, that's what the assessment is, but that's not that way in Palm Beach, Florida. It's not that way in New York, and it's not that way in most cases.

Q If it was that way it would make a difference that the property has been appraised --

Sure.

Q -- at $18 million in Florida?

That would be a much different thing.

Q Mr. Trump, I would like to go back to the Statement of Financial Condition quickly. If you could put Exhibit 730 back up?

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q If you could go to page two, this is a paragraph we've looked at before. It's the second paragraph which states, "Donald J. Trump is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements."

I would like to focus on the second half of the sentence which says, "Donald J. Trump is responsible for designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement."

I will ask an open-ended question here. What did you do to meet your responsibility for designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement?

I gave two people total authority to work with a very expensive accounting firm, very high-priced accounting firm who charged me a lot of money for this, a lot of money. nd they worked with the accounting firm and they came up with a statement.

I could've done this statement like many other developers, where I just write down the building and put a value. I didn't choose to do it that way. nd I told them to work with the accounting firm and give them what they need. nd that's what they did.

Q nd so the two people, you are referring to, once again, that's Mr. McConney and Mr. Weisselberg; correct?

Correct.

Q nd so you directed them to prepare the statements in accordance with G P; is that correct?

I don't know what it was. I said, "Prepare the statements so that the accounting firm is happy." So they gave us a statement.

Q The question is what steps you took to --

I told you.

Q To design, implement, maintain internal control relevant to the fair presentation of the financial statement.

I just told you.

Q Okay.

nything else you did to -- in connection with this obligation?

No, but if you looked at the paragraphs, and I don't know if, your Honor, if I could do this, but I have it in my pocket (indicating). If you look at the paragraphs that follow that -- this is a total exculpation -- and if you would like to have it, I would read it, if you would like, or I don't know what the procedure is, but I have -- I've taken this right out of this, and it's very simple. nd it says exactly how important that clause is. nd it's been written about by legal scholars.

Q Between Mazars and the Trump Organization, who is responsible for the fair presentation of the Statements of Financial Condition?

I think they work together.

Q Who was responsible?

They got paid a lot of money too.

Q Who was responsible for making sure the statements were compliant with G P?

I don't know. I assume -- I don't know, were they supposed to be compliant to G P, because I am not sure that that's true, you know, because G P is defined a certain way. I am not sure that's true. But certainly the accounting firm which got paid millions of dollars do this work, they had to do something.

Q Mr. Trump --

They got paid a lot of money to do this work.

Q -- do you have an understanding of what responsibilities, if any, the Trump Organization had in connection with the preparation of the 2014 Statement of Financial Condition?

Well, I think I have answered this question about five times.

Q What is the answer?

I told two top people to work with the accounting firm, give them whatever they needed, anything they needed give them so they can come up with a statement. nd if the accounting firm was unhappy, they would go back and they would say, we need this, we need that. nd they were very insistent on that. Very insistent on that. But they came up with statements in each of those years, so obviously they were satisfied with that.

MR. W LL CE: Could we put up a copy of Plaintiff's Exhibit 717? I think it is already in evidence.

Q Mr. Trump, I have been handed a document that has been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 717. This is the engagement letter for the preparation of your June 30, 2014 Statement of Financial Condition.

I will just direct your attention to the third page of this document, which has a heading: Management Responsibilities, and lists through F, a series of responsibilities. Do you have an understanding that the responsibilities listed here were for the Trump Organization to undertake in the preparation of the Statement of Financial Conditions?

I don't remember this, but it looks like that, yes.

Q So to your understanding, the Trump Organization was responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of merica other than previously noted; is that correct?

Yes, but together working with the accounting firm, the very highly paid accounting firm.

Q The next item states that management is responsible for designing, implementing and maintaining internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements. That was a Trump Organization responsibility, correct?

Sure.

Q Item C: Presenting and detecting fraud. That was a Trump Organization responsibility --

Sure.

Q -- is that correct?

I would imagine they all had to work on it. This was the accounting firm for the company, and I would imagine they all worked on that. You know you do audits and you do all of the things that you would normally do, and hopefully if something is wrong, you catch it.

Q Who within the Trump Organization was responsible for preventing and detecting fraud?

Everybody.

Q Item D. Who within the Trump Organization was responsible for identifying and ensuring that the company complies with the laws and regulations applicable to its activities?

I would say, you know, sort of anybody who sees anything wrong, they should report it. nybody.

Q Is there a formal system for reporting anything wrong, as you described it, within the Trump Organization?

Not formal, but I say to anybody, anybody sees anything going on that is not appropriate, come see me directly, I don't care who you are.

Q Has anyone ever come to see you directly about these?

Yeah people, people tell me things, yeah.

Q What instances do you recall?

Things going on and I get the problem solved when I hear it.

Q But I am asking if you remember any specific instances of someone bringing improper activity to your attention.

Over the years?

Q Yeah.

Yeah, sure. partments that are rented that they say are vacant. Somebody is getting money. Other things, yeah, we hear. I hear things. It sounds like a big deal, but it goes on. partments empty, they put it down as empty but somebody is getting money for it. nd you know, generally it is the person who runs the building or the management person, over the years that kind of thing happens. nd I take care of the situation when it happens. But I want everybody to look -- I tell everybody if you see anything, come to see management or come to see me directly. I don't want that going on.

Q nd that would have been the case up until you became President in 2017?

That is correct.

Q That no longer happens from 2017 to present; is that correct?

Well, present is different than it was, you know, prior to when I was President. Right now, unless you know something I don't know, I am not President.

Q No, I am just asking if people still come to you with problems that they identify.

Yeah. Yeah.

Q What do you remember?

I don't think they come -- I am not sure that they come. I haven't remembered a thing, like, right now. So we are a little new to the game because I haven't been doing this. I am back a little bit in the real estate business. Right?

Q If you look at item E on this chart it says: Selection and pplication of ccounting Principles.

Do you know who within the Trump Organization was responsible for the selection and application of accounting principles?

No. I would assume that the accounting firm would recommend something and we would accept it.

Q I am just pointing out that this is under the heading management responsibilities.

Right. But I would assume --

Q Can I finish my question?

Yeah.

Q Do you know if anyone at the Trump Organization was responsible for this on the Trump Organization side?

gain, I would assume that Mazars would come and recommend something and we would accept that procedure.

Q Item F is: Making all financial records and related information available to us and for the accuracy and completeness of that information.

Who within the Trump Organization was responsible for meeting that responsibility?

That would be the staff in the back. That would be Jeff, llen and the staff.

THE WITNESS: I would love to read this, Your Honor, if I could. m I allowed to do that?

THE COURT: No, not at this point.

THE WITNESS: I am shocked. I am shocked.

MR. W LL CE: Okay. We can take that down.

Q Mr. Trump, I would like to talk a little bit about your building at 40 Wall Street.

Yeah.

Q Have you ever inflated the operating income of 40

Wall Street in order to increase a reported valuation?

Not that I know.

Q Can we take a quick look at Plaintiff's Exhibit 719.

MR. W LL CE: Sorry, we need the native version. I apologize.

nd if we could go to row 118.

Q This is the entry for 40 Wall Street. nd if we scroll down to rows 137 or so, there is a valuation for 2014 and it states: NOI stabilized based on cash flow prepared July 2014 including pending leases. Green Ivy and vacant space. nd it lists an NOI of $23,873,545.

Do you know if that is an accurate reflection of the NOI?

I don't. It is a long time ago. But I don't.

Q Mr. Trump, I am handing up a document that has not been premarked. It is a copy of an article from Forbes magazine dated September 21, 2022. (sic.)

Now, I would just like to direct your attention to the bottom of page 11 in this article.

There is a headline that states: couple months after securing the loan, Donald Trump was feeling good, sitting at his desk in Trump Tower, speaking openly to Forbes about his years' long quest to vault himself higher on the list of merica's richest people. n audio recording of that conversation, which took place on September 21, 2015, makes it clear that Trump was not only involved in the effort to misinform the world about the value of his assets, he was willing to take the ruse further than anyone else, and even admit his motivation for doing so: It was good for financing he said.

I'll stop you there. Do you recall speaking to Forbes on September 21, 2015?

No. nd who would say that? I am not saying that. Forbes, they are owned by China. Now they just sold it to Russia I read yesterday.

Q Did you tell Forbes ever that a high net worth is good for financing?

I mean, it is something that I would say. high net worth is good for some types of financing, not for buildings and not for specific deals necessarily. But I guess having a high net worth it makes -- it would be good. Do you want me to say, oh, let's have a low net worth? Give me a low net worth and let's get financing. No. Having a solid record -- having a good net worth is a positive thing. I can't say it is not.

Q If we look down at the next paragraph. It states: "Even though he had just reworked his mortgage at 40 Wall Street, Trump couldn't resist another chance to boast about it. Its a 78-story building, Trump said. Even though his firm had previously marketed it as a 72-story building. nd it's actually just 63 stories according to documents filed with the City. It is going to throw off, would you say, 50 million maybe this year? He asked, turning to llen Weisselberg. Fifty million at least, Trump concluded faster than his CFO could get out of the words, "Yeah, by the end of the year."

We can stop there. Do you know whether or not it was true that 40 Wall Street in September of 2015 would throw off $50 million by the end of that year?

I don't know. But I have very little respect for Forbes, so, what I say to them, you know, I deal with them very quickly. nd I don't even deal with them. I haven't dealt with them in years.

Q So do you believe you were misquoted?

I think they are out of business. ren't they?

Q Do you believe you were misquoted in this statement?

I don't know. I don't know what I said. You are giving me this information. If you have the statement, let me see it.

Q I am going to move ahead.

I don't think too much about what I say to Forbes.

Q We'll move ahead to page 13. The lower paragraph, we will start there.

It says: Forbes reporter noted that the building was 1.2 million square feet rounding up from its actual square footage of 1,165,207. It is actually 1.3, Trump said. By the way, it is 1.3 to be honest with you.

The same reporter then said Forbes was estimating its net operating income at 24 million, the inflated figure that Jeff, apparently McConney, had shared the previous year. Where did you get that from? We are going to make 64 million net, net after debt service this year, at least, Trump declared.

Do you recall telling Forbes that 40 Wall Street was going to make $64 million in 2015 net, net after debt service?

No, I don't. When was this?

Q 2015.

It is a long time ago. I don't know.

Q I believe Forbes published an audio clip with the article of this interview. I am just going to ask if we can just play that now.

(The audio clip was played in open court.)

MR. KISE: Your Honor, can anyone actually hear that? It seemed relatively undecipherable.

THE COURT: I could not make out what was being said.

MR. W LL CE: Let me skip using the audio. I don't know if we can get it any higher.

Can we?

Q I'll just ask then generally, I know it was hard to decipher, what was on that recording, does it refresh your recollection that you may have spoken to Forbes in 2015?

No.

Q No.

Do you believe it would have been accurate to say that 40 Wall Street was going to make $64 million in 2015 net after debt service?

I don't know. You are putting me back a long time ago, long past statute of limitations.

Q ll right. Let's --

I don't know.

Q We are going to hand you a copy of a document that is already in evidence. It is Plaintiff's Exhibit 652. It is very small print so it is going to be easier to see it up on the screen.

If we could go to page two of this document. nd if we could zoom in on the far right column.

It states: 40 Wall Street income and expense statement. Cash basis. Twelve-month period ended March 31, 2015.

If you look down at the bottom of the pullout here it says: Total receipts for the building are $29,906,711.

Do you know if that was an accurate reflection of the total receipts for the 12-month period of 40 Wall Street as of March 31, 2015?

I don't know. I have never seen that before.

MR. W LL CE: If we scroll down to the bottom of this column. ctually go to the bottom of the last page, please.

Q If we look under the 2015, March 31. Underneath Debt Service In and Capital Disbursements. It states: The excess cash flow or deficit for 40 Wall Street was negative $8,736,924. Do you know if 40 Wall Street in fact ran a deficit of more than $8.7 million for the 12-month period ended March 31, 2015?

Well, we spent millions of dollars based on that. We spent millions of dollars on building improvements. We were fixing the building. I spent a lot of money inside the building, my own cash, to improve the building. We rebuilt the lobbies. We rebuilt the elevators. We spent a lot of money, and actually even more than that, I think. But the building has been a successful building.

Q The building improvements number we can see there under capital disbursements is listed as $8.2 million; is that what you are referring to?

Yea, but we were doing a lot of work. We were doing the elevators and lobbies, doing a lot of work, and the building needed a lot of work.

Q I take it you don't know whether or not it is accurate that in March 31, 2015 40 Wall Street had run a deficit of $8.7 million?

fter spending millions of dollars on fixing the building, yeah, it is possible. But then you make it up in later years. You lease to good tenants and they pay you a lot of rent because they like what you have done.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I am going to pass the witness a copy of the document, it is already in evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 636.

Q Mr. Trump, this is an e-mail from Donna Kidder to Jack Weisselberg and llen Weisselberg with an attachment entitled 40 Wall 2012 to 2014 cash flows.

It will be easier to see it up on the screen. gain, it has very small print.

MR. W LL CE: Can we go to page three of five?

Q t the top it says 40 Wall Street LLC cash flow, year ending December 31, 2014.

nd at the bottom of this section it states: Cash flow (after debt service, Capex and IT) negative $9,904,289.

Do you know if 40 Wall Street, in fact, ran a deficit of more than $9.9 million for the year ending December 31, 2014?

That's a very small number. nd it doesn't include all of the money that was spent in fixing the building, bringing it back to good health. It also doesn't show vacancies and things that are leased up. The building is now actually, I think it is pretty close to being fully leased. But it doesn't show vacancy and it doesn't show all of the money spent on construction.

Q m I understanding then -- I am sorry to interrupt you. m I understanding that this number could be correct but you think there are other expenses that aren't included in here?

We spent a lot of money in fixing the building up, and the building is a very good building.

But this has nothing to -- I mean, you can show this de minimus stuff or non-material stuff. This has nothing to do with values. The value of 40 Wall Street is, you know, hundreds of millions of dollars more than what she says it is. She doesn't know what 40 Wall Street -- she doesn't even know where 40 Wall Street is. nd the value is hundreds of millions.

If I was going to sell that building, because this was a lawsuit that started off with value, now let's get into a rent-roll of one building, big deal. This is all non-material stuff. If we are fixing up a building and spending money on new elevators and new escalators and new all of the things we have in the building, it is going to do very well in the future. You have to do this stuff.

Q Mr. Trump, are you familiar with what technique Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney used to value 40 Wall Street for the 2014 Statement of Financial Condition?

No. But the value of the building I am familiar with, because I would say that building -- I could look at buildings and tell you what they are worth.

Q I would like to move on to page four of this document. Which lists 40 Wall Street LLC cash flow year end of December 13, 2013. We go to the bottom of this year's entry, we see cash flow (after debt service Capex and IT) negative 7 thousand 317,370.

7 million.

THE COURT: I think you misspoke.

Q 7 million. I'll restate what it says.

Which is, negative $7,317,370. Mr. Trump, do you know if 40 Wall Street in fact ran a deficit of more than $7.3 million for the year ending December 31, are 2013?

I don't know, but it doesn't effect the value of the building. The building is the building. If a developer comes along they are going to know that you have to spend money to make money with a building. nd they are going to know, they will either fix it or see that we are doing it. It doesn't affect the value of a building. You are talking about small money. It is not material.

nd this was a lawsuit based on values. nd then when they looked at my statement and when they looked at the cash they said, oh, we are going to have to go a different way, how about disgorgement. Let's take all of his properties away like they do in communist China. Let's take all of his properties away because, you know.

Except you have one problem, I have very little debt, and I have a lot of cash. nd I have assets that are much better than you thought. So that was a little bit of a problem. But in this city today, and in this country today, maybe a certain Judge would do that.

Q Mr. Trump, I promise we will get through this particular document much more quickly if you can stop at, "I don't know." nd you are repeating statements you have made before --

I don't know.

Q -- so I am familiar with your position.

If we could go to page five of this document, please. It is the 40 Wall Street LLC cash flow year ending December 31, 2012. If we go to the bottom, it lists (cash flow after debt service Capex and IT) negative $20,990,873.

Do you know if 40 Wall Street, in fact, ran a deficit of more than $20.9 million for the year ending December 31, 2012?

It could have been for one year it did. It could very well have been. But it makes a lot of money. nd it makes a lot of money now. It depends. You have extraordinary expenses during certain periods of time with a building. You have to redo things. But I can just tell you, it makes -- 40 Wall Street obviously makes a lot of money.

nd by the way, the money we borrowed is all current or paid off. You know, we never -- no bank lost money. With all of this stuff, not one bank lost money. Not one insurance company lost money.

nd by the way, the insurance company that you say lost, they are still my insurance company. It is one of the biggest, most prestigious companies in the world. They don't even know what you are talking about.

Q Mr. Trump, do you recall making misrepresentations about the appraised value of 40 Wall Street?

No.

Q Mr. Trump, you are being handed a document that has been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3341. t the top of this is an e-mail chain between Donald Trump Jr., manda Miller, Rhona Graff and Jeffrey Lichtenberg.

If we could go down to the bottom e-mail in this thread actually, and we will put it up on the screen so it is easier to follow.

There is an e-mail from someone named Kusisto from the Wall Street Journal to a series of e-mail addresses including DTrump@Trumporg.com; Rhona Graff; DJTJrTrumporg.com; manda Miller and Selma Langer. Before we get into the substance of the document, I want to first ask, do you know if the e-mail address DTrump@Trumporg.com was ever an actual e-mail address in use?

I don't know, no.

Q Did you ever use an e-mail address of DTrump@trumporg.com?

Might be, but not that I know of.

Q Go to the top. It states: "Thank you both again for chatting with me about 40 Wall Street. We are planning on running the story tomorrow, so I wanted to make sure I sent over a few facts."

Do you recall whether or not you and Donald Trump Jr. spoke to the Wall Street Journal in or around January of 2012?

No, I don't.

Q If you look down under the headline Value, item three says: "The building is one of the Trump Organizations most significant commercial holdings in Manhattan. It is now valued at $600 million according to a recent appraisal."

Do you know who made the representation to the Wall Street Journal that the 40 Wall Street had been valued at $600 million according to a recent appraisal?

The year is what year?

Q 2012.

2012?

Q Yes.

No. I mean, it is probably around that number. It is not that far off. I don't know. I don't know. I don't know if anybody had an appraisal. But I know that number is not a very far off number. If anything, it could be worth more.

Q I am asking about the existence of an appraisal. Do you know if there was, in fact, an appraisal at the Trump Organization valuing the 40 Wall Street at $600 million as of January 2012?

So you are saying 12 years ago do I know whether or not there is an appraisal sitting around someplace for the building.

Q I am asking if you are aware, yes.

I am not aware.

Q I will represent to you that we have not received an appraisal from the Trump Organization discovery valuing the building at $600 million as of June 2012.

Mr. Trump, are you the one --

MR. KISE: Is Mr. Wallace testifying now?

MR. W LL CE: I said I am representing to him what we got in discovery.

THE COURT: Is that part of a question though? I think you can't just sort of represent.

MR. W LL CE: That's fine.

Q Mr. Trump, were you the person who told the reporter at the -- I'll strike that question and start over.

Mr. Trump --

THE COURT: It is withdrawn.

MR. W LL CE: Withdrawn. I apologize, Your Honor.

Q re you the one who told the reporter at the Wall Street Journal that there is a $600 million recent appraisal for 40 Wall Street?

MR. KISE: Objection, asked and answered.

I don't know of any such appraisal.

THE COURT: Overruled.

We are talking 12 years ago, I don't know.

Q If we look at the top of this e-mail chain, there is an e-mail from Donald Trump Jr. It says: Okay great, there shouldn't be much additional. I don't know where she got the 35 number in renovations, but DJT told her the 600, so he will be happy if that gets printed.

re you the DJT that is being referenced here?

Yes.

Q Does this refresh your recollection about whether or not you told a reporter that there had been a $600 million appraisal of 40 Wall Street in January 2012?

No. But I think the building would be worth about that. I don't think $600 million for that very, very large building is a lot of money.

THE COURT: Five minute warning.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I ask that Plaintiff's Exhibit 3341 be entered into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted.

MR. KISE: Objection statute of limitations and relevance. I am not sure what the relevance is of a news article. It doesn't have anything to do with the SOFCs.

THE COURT: Overruled, on both grounds.

(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 3341 by the Court.)

Q So Mr. Trump, why did you have the Statement of Financial Condition prepared?

When?

Q Let's say in the period -- the period of 2011 to 2017, why was a Statement of Financial Condition being prepared by the Trump Organization?

I think we -- I don't know, I think in one form or another, maybe not officially, we had Statements of Financial Condition. Maybe before that, I don't know. I can't answer that question, we are doing a Statement of Financial Condition.

Q You said you were spending a lot of money to have these made, why were you spending that money?

I think it is a positive thing to have. Even for myself, I think it is a positive thing to have.

Q Did you use them to obtain financing?

Because of the disclaimer clause, they were almost valueless.

Q That's not my question. My question is whether you would actually use them to obtain financing.

I would give them, but I don't think anybody paid much attention to them because of the disclaimer clause, and because generally that's not the way to do it.

gain, I have been doing it for 50 years and they look at the property.

MR. W LL CE: I am going to hand up to the witnesses a document marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1433. It is short so you can look at it on the screen.

Q This is a letter dated November 15, 2011. If you look down at the bottom; is that your signature, Mr. Trump?

Yeah, it is.

Q Okay. nd who is Mr. Richard Byrne?

He is an executive at Deutsche Bank.

Q Do you know if he is in the commercial real estate group at Deutsche Bank?

I don't know if he is now. I think he was then.

Q Fair enough. I am asking as of this letter. s of November of 2011, was Mr. Byrne in the commercial real estate group of Deutsche Bank.

Yeah, it is 12 years ago. This is so crazy.

Q So you sent the --

This is a letter I sent, yes.

Q nd you were interested in whether or not they might finance the Doral transaction; is that right?

Right.

Q You did not finance the transaction through the commercial real estate group at Deutsche Bank, did you?

I did it through some other group, yes.

Q Would that have been the private wealth management group at Deutsche Bank?

Yes, very different people.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I move 1433 into evidence.

MR. KISE: Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Granted. It is in.

(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1433 by the Court.)

THE COURT: Two minute warning.

MR. W LL CE: We can stop here then.

THE COURT: Okay. Okay everybody, we will take a break until 2:15. Have a good lunch.

nd I will order the witness not to discuss this case or his testimony with anybody during the break.

(Whereupon, a luncheon recess was taken at this time.)

(The following proceedings were stenographically recorded by Senior Court Reporter Michael Ranita.)

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in session. The Honorable Judge rthur Engoron presiding. Be seated and come to order.

THE COURT: Let's have the witness take the stand.

(Whereupon, the witness stepped into the witness stand.)

THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, please resume.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you, your Honor.

Q When we broke for lunch, Mr. Trump, we were talking about the loans you took out from Deutsche Bank through the Private Wealth Management Group. Do you recall who you worked with at Deutsche Bank in the Private Wealth Management Group?

Yes.

Q Who was that?

Rosemary Vrablic.

Q Do you recall that loans through the Private Wealth Management Group required you to pride a guaranty on the loan is that; correct?

I believe so, yes.

MR. W LL CE: If we could get Document 426.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

THE COURT: re we having a technical --

MR. KISE: Is the witness's microphone on? I wasn't sure.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE COURT: His is on.

MR. KISE: Okay.

THE COURT: Yours are on.

MR. KISE: Yes.

(n exhibit was handed to the witness.)

Q Mr. Trump, the court officer is handing you a document that has been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 426. It's very extensive, so I'll just walk through it on the screen.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q The cover of the document is an e-mail dated January 12th, 2017, between two Deutsche Bank employees. I'm going to ask you about the attachments. However, if we could go to page two of Document 426?

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q This is the term loan agreement dated as of June 11, 2012, by and between Trump Endeavor 12, LLC and Deutsche Bank.

This is the loan agreement that relates to Doral; is that correct?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: If we could go to page 80.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Is that your signature, Mr. Trump?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I would move Plaintiff's Exhibit 426 into evidence.

MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. Granted. It's in.

(Plaintiff's Exhibit 426 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)

MR. W LL CE: If we go to the next attachment on page 105, please.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q This is the guaranty that is associated with the Doral loan. Do you recall signing a guaranty?

I believe so, yes.

Q Let's take a look at page 124.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Is that your signature, Mr. Trump?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: If we could flip back to page 113, please.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q This is -- I'm going to direct your attention to item nine on this page. It says "Certain Representations. In order to induce lender to accept this guaranty and to enter into the credit agreement and the transactions thereunder, guarantor hereby makes the following representations and warranties as of the date hereof" -- I'll -- you see that section?

Yes, yeah.

MR. W LL CE: If we could flip down one page to page 114.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Item little Roman (viii) under this says "Financial Statements." It states "The guarantor has furnished to lender his prior financial statements. Such prior financial statements are true and correct in all material respects." nd little (i), "Guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition fairly presents guarantor's financial condition as of June 30, 2011."

Do you believe that representation was true and accurate?

Yeah, I do.

MR. W LL CE: If we could flip ahead to page 116, please.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q This is item ten. It states "Certain Financial Covenants. During the term hereunder, guarantor shall comply with the following decisional covenants:"

If we look down at number one, it talks about "unencumbered liquid assets." It states that "The guarantor shall maintain unencumbered liquid assets of not less than $50 million, with not less than $20 million of such unencumbered liquid assets to be held in accounts with lenders or lender's affiliates."

Were you aware that this loan required you to maintain unencumbered liquid assets of $50 million?

Yeah, cash.

Q nd if we look down lower in the sentence --

(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was scrolled through.)

MR. W LL CE: Stay on that section, sorry.

ctually, it was not less than 20, but it didn't make any difference.

Q I believe it was 50 million --

Correct.

Q -- in liquid assets, 20 million were to be on deposit with Deutsche Bank?

That's correct, yes.

Q The last sentence in this paragraph states, "For purposes hereof" -- no -- oh, at the end of the sentence we were just looking at it says that "The unencumbered liquid assets will be tested by lender semiannually during the renovation period" -- no I'm just totally on the wrong section.

MR. W LL CE: I'll withdraw that question if that's okay, your Honor.

THE COURT: That's the right word.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you.

Q Were you aware that the covenant was to be tested and certified each year based on your Statement of Financial Condition?

Based on my cash.

Q Okay.

s represented in your Statement of Financial Condition?

They want to have cash. They wanted -- weren't interested in anything but cash.

Q Do you believe you complied with this covenant?

Yeah, I had a lot of cash.

Q If we could go down to item three. It states, "Minimum Net Worth. t all times during the term hereunder, guarantor shall maintain at all times a net worth of not less than $2,500,000,000. This net worth covenant shall be tested and certified to on an annual basis, based upon the Statement of Financial Condition delivered to lender each year hereunder pursuant to another section."

Were you aware that this loan required you to maintain a net worth of not less than $2.5 billion?

Yes.

Q nd were you aware that this covenant was to be tested and certified each year based upon your Statement of Financial Condition?

Yeah. They would look at -- they would actually come in and check, not so much even the financial condition. They would check the cash and what kind of cash is available. nd I guess at that point I had -- I think I had between three and $400 million in cash, which is more than I needed for the whole job.

Q nd --

That was what they were concerned with. They always wanted to make -- not because of me, because of other people. They always wanted to make sure the cash was substantial, because in this deal I agreed to put up the money necessary above what they were putting up, the cash necessary to complete the job. nd I did that very easily.

Q When you said, "I guess at that point I had, I think, between three and $400 million", are you speaking of the time of the origination of this loan in 2005?

I don't know. Just around that period, over the period of a year or two I had -- it goes up and down depending on whether or not you are doing a development, or whether or not you maybe want to pay off debt, or whatever, but I had -- I've had a lot of cash for a long time.

Q If we go to the next item on this page, it's item 11?

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q It's headed Financial Reporting and Certain Other dditional Covenants. It says that "The guarantor shall comply with the following additional covenants: Number one, financial reporting", and it lists documents that's the guarantor shall deliver to the lender or permit lender to review, and item is, " nnual Statement of Financial Condition, as soon as reasonably available. nd in any event, within 120 days following each June 30th, guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30th, 20" -- I'll stop there.

Were you aware that this loan required you to submit your Statement of Financial Condition on an annual basis?

Yes, or a guaranty of cash.

Q That's not in this term, is it?

Maybe not, but that's all they cared about.

Q Do you believe that you complied with this covenant?

Yes, I did.

MR. W LL CE: Let me get 312.

Q Mr. Trump, we are handing up another lengthy document, but I'll show it to you on the screen again.

(n exhibit was handed to the witness.)

Q I mostly want to verify your signature. This is a document that has been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 312?

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Mr. Trump, this is the hotel term loan agreement with Deutsche Bank for 401 North Wabash Venture LLC. Do you see that?

Yes, I do.

Q Is this the loan that relates to the Trump Chicago Hotel?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: If we could take a look at page 86 of this document.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Mr. Trump, is that your signature?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, we would ask this document be entered into evidence.

MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence.

(Plaintiff's Exhibit 312 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)

MR. W LL CE: I'll ask defendants, are you okay with me doing this on the screen? Do you want me to handout the --

MR. KISE: Sure.

MR. W LL CE: ll right.

MR. KISE: You know I'm old school like that.

(n exhibit was handed to the witness.)

Q Mr. Trump, you've been handed a document that has been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 310.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q This is the term loan agreement "Residential" with Deutsche Bank for the 401 North Wabash Venture LLC. Is this the loan that relates to the Trump Chicago residential development?

I believe so, yes.

MR. W LL CE: nd if we could look at page 85.

Q Is this your signature, Mr. Trump?

Yes, it is.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, we would move Plaintiff's Exhibit 310 into evidence.

MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. That's in evidence.

(Plaintiff's Exhibit 310 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)

Q Mr. Trump, you are being handed a document that has been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 367.

(n exhibit was handed to the witness.)

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q The cover of this document is an e-mail dated November 8th, 2012, from Jeffrey Fried at Loeb & Loeb, to a number of people at the Trump Organization, including Jason Greenblatt. I would like to ask you about the two attachments.

Okay.

Q If you look at page two.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q This says it's the guaranty for the residential, dated November 9, 2012. Do you see that?

Yes.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q If you look at page 22, is that your signature Mr. Trump?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: If we could turn to page 49 -- actually, 26. Let's go 26 first.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q This is the guaranty for the hotel section. nd if we look at page 49.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Is that your signature, Mr. Trump?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, we would move Plaintiff's Exhibit 367 into evidence.

MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.

(Plaintiff's Exhibit 367 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)

Q Mr. Trump --

MR. W LL CE: If we could flip back to page ten here, please.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Item nine on this page states certain representations. It says "In order to induce lender to accept this guaranty and to enter into the credit agreement and the transactions thereunder, guarantor hereby makes the following representations and warranties as of the date hereof."

MR. W LL CE: I would like to go down to item eight, Roman numeral (viii). If you could flip over.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q gain, it says "Financial statements" and it states that "The guarantor has furnished to lender his prior financial statements. Such prior financial statements are true and correct in all material respects." nd little (i), "Guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly guarantor's financial condition as of June 30, 2012." Do you believe this representation was true and accurate?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: If we could flip ahead to page 13.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Here it states, number ten, certain financial covenants. "During the term hereunder, guarantor shall comply with the following additional covenants. Unencumbered liquid assets at all times during the term hereunder, guarantor shall maintain unencumbered liquid assets of not less than $50 million, of not less than $20 million of such unencumbered liquid assets to be held in accounts with lender or lender's affiliates."

Is this the same liquidity requirement we saw earlier?

Similar, yes.

Q nd were you aware this loan required you to maintain an unencumbered liquidity of $50 million?

Yes.

MR. KISE: Objection.

THE COURT: Grounds?

MR. KISE: Just, I think that there is some, because of the way the question is being asked, potential to mischaracterize the evidence, because the question is, this loan required you to maintain, but -- and that's what I've been looking for. That's why I wanted the hard copy, but I haven't looked at it.

But as we heard testimony already in the record, there's a stepdown percentage here, and at some point the guaranty goes away. So I just want to make clear that when he says "the loan required you to maintain it", I think that may mischaracterize the actual evidence. The loan requires it only to a certain point.

MR. W LL CE: This is instruction to the witness. It's an improper objection.

MR. KISE: It's not an instruction to the witness.

MR. W LL CE: I'm not disputing the loan. The agreements say what they want. If they want to ask them about other aspects of this. So I'll say at the time you signed this, were you aware of this requirement in the guaranty.

Yes.

Q nd you are aware that this covenant was to be tested and certified each year based on your Statement of Financial Condition; is that correct?

I think so. gain, they were focused really only on the cash.

Q nd do you believe that you complied with this covenant?

Yes, I do.

MR. W LL CE: If we could flip ahead to page 14.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Item three, "Minimum Net Worth. t all times during the term hereunder, guarantor shall maintain, at all times, a net worth of not less than $2,500,000,000. This net worth covenant shall be tested and certified on an annual basis as of each June 30th within 120 days following each June 30th, based upon the Statement of Financial Condition delivered to lender."

Were you aware that this loan required you to maintain a net worth of not less than $2.5 billion?

Yes.

MR. KISE: Objection. Same objection.

THE COURT: Overruled.

Q Were you aware this covenant was to be tested and certified each year based upon your Statement of Financial Condition?

MR. KISE: Objection. Same objection.

THE COURT: Overruled.

(Whereupon, there is a brief pause in the testimony.)

Q The question was, Mr. Trump, you were aware?

I was waiting for the Judge.

Q He overruled it.

Sorry.

THE COURT: I'll try to speak louder.

THE WITNESS: Sorry.

Q I'll restate the question.

Mr. Trump, you were aware that this covenant was to be tested and certified each year based upon your Statement of Financial Condition?

Yes, which I could've done without a condition. I could've just shown them a couple of assets and they would have been very satisfied with that, if they wanted. They were focused on cash. I could have given them just a few assets which were worth much more than $2.5 billion.

Q But the terms of the contract required you to actually submit the Statement of Financial Condition, not some other information?

MR. KISE: Objection.

I don't know, but I think possibly.

MR. KISE: It mischaracterizes the evidence.

THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, are you mischaracterizing the evidence?

MR. W LL CE: I don't think so, your Honor.

MR. KISE: gain, he is speaking of entire term of the loan as opposed to when the stepdown goes in. It doesn't characterize the evidence properly.

During the term that this provision is in force, then yes. But if the stepdown, as we've heard testimony on the Chicago loan, the guaranty went away.

MR. W LL CE: The guaranty --

MR. KISE: He was here for the testimony. I'm not telling the witness anything he doesn't already know.

This loan was paid off in full with no default -- with no problem, and the bank was thrilled. They got all their money back. There was no victim. There was no anything. This loan was paid off in full. It was a very successful loan as opposed to other people that don't do successful loans. So the bank was thrilled.

gain, the loan was paid off in full. You are talking about a loan that was paid off in full. There was no negotiation. If interest was due on a Saturday, I paid the interest on a Friday, and the bank liked me very much. But this loan is long since gone.

Q "Long since gone"? When did you pay off this loan?

I don't know. Very recently, but I paid off part of it a long time ago, and I think over the last fairly short period of time -- the loan is paid off.

Q Mr. Trump, are you aware --

I will check that as exactly, but I think it is paid off or very close to being paid off.

Q I tell you this is why if we could just go through the questions I have. I was going to get to that at the end.

I'll ask you, are you aware that the Trump Chicago loan was paid off last week?

I heard it was. I don't know about last week, but I know it was paid off recently; on time, on schedule. In fact, I'll go a step further. I think it was paid off ahead of schedule. You could tell me. I think it was paid off ahead of schedule. The bank was thrilled.

Q nd why was it paid off ahead of schedule?

Because we have a lot of cash.

Q Who made the decision to pay it off ahead of schedule?

My son recommended it and I said do what you want to do. We had time left. We didn't have to pay it off. We had time left. I said, the interest rate is higher than what you get if you have your money in the bank, so.

Q Which son?

Eric.

Q Eric. Okay.

The question I asked before we had the interruption, I believe, was the contract actually refers to your Statement of Financial Condition. You did not have an agreement with Deutsche Bank where you could establish your net worth by using some other set of documents, did you?

I don't know. I just -- I don't remember much. I'm sure if I didn't want to put in my financial statement I could have worked out a cash transaction instead. In other words, guaranteed to keep a certain amount of cash in. But they knew I had a financial statement, so they probably just put it down. They knew I had a financial statement so they added it. I guess it's in number 11, or something, financial.

Q So is it your testimony that you made a decision to use the Statement of Financial Condition instead of a cash, additional cash requirement?

No, I think Deutsche Bank said, "Why don't you throw it in?" I'll throw it in. It didn't mean very much to them. What meant much, a lot to them, was that I had a lot of cash. That's what meant. nd they were paid off, as I said, in full. There was no victim. There was no loss of money. They made a lot of money. nd everyone is trying to figure out, why are you doing this for a bank that's very rich, very big, and had the best lawyers in the world. Nobody understands it. Well, I understand it. It's called politics.

Q Mr. Trump, do you believe you complied with this covenant we are looking at on the screen right now?

Yes.

Q If we go to the next paragraph, that's paragraph number 11. "Financial reporting and certain other additional covenants." It says that "Until the earlier satisfaction in full of all guaranteed obligations and expenses are required under section 25 hereunder, or why, this guaranty is earlier terminated by lender or otherwise by its terms. Guarantor shall comply with the following additional covenant", item one, "financial reporting." (i)( ) states, " nnual Statement of Financial Condition. s soon as reasonably available and in any event within 120 days following each June 30th, guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30th."

Do you understand that this guaranty agreement required you to provide an annual Statement of Financial Condition?

Well, I had it, so minds well give it to them.

Q Is that a yes?

Yeah, I had it.

Q Do you believe --

If I didn't have it, I wouldn't have had it put in this loan agreement.

Q Do you believe you complied with this covenant?

Yeah.

MR. W LL CE: We are going to hand up another exhibit.

(n exhibit was handed to the witness.)

Q Mr. Trump, this is the document that's been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 307. It's an amended and restated term loan agreement for 401 North Wabash Venture LLC as of June 2nd, 2014.

MR. W LL CE: If we could turn to page 96.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Mr. Trump, is that your signature?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, we would ask this be moved into evidence.

MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence.

(Plaintiff's Exhibit 307 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)

Q We could put that one aside. If we could get Plaintiff's Exhibit 1844. This is already in evidence. We have a courtesy copy for the witness.

(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Mr. Trump, this a document entitled " mended and Restated Guaranty", dated June 2nd, 2014.

MR. W LL CE: If we could just go to page 27, please.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Is that your signature, Mr. Trump?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: If we could go to page 13, please.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q gain, item nine, "Certain Representations." It states that "In order to induce the lender to make the loan", there are certain reps.

MR. W LL CE: If we go to item eight, it's on page 14.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q gain, the financial statements it says, "The guarantor has furnished to lender his prior financial statements. Such prior financial statements are true and correct in all material respects." nd little (i) "Guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly guarantor's financial condition as of June 30, 2013."

Do you believe that that representation was true and accurate?

Yes. nd the loan, I believe was paid off.

Q Okay.

MR. W LL CE: If we could go to page 17, please.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q There's, again, a listing for certain financial covenants. gain, "Unencumbered liquid assets shall be maintained if not less than $50 million."

Were you aware that there was a minimum net worth requirement contained in this restated loan --

I think so, yes.

Q Okay. nd I will represent to you, if we go down a little further.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q It also contains -- the next page.

(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed was scrolled on the screen.)

Q " minimum net worth requirement of $2.5 billion."

Were you aware that there is a net worth guarantee in this restated guaranty?

I think so. I'm not sure, but I think so. Obviously there was.

Q re you aware that those amounts would be tested and certified by your annual Statement of Financial Condition?

No. But sounds right to me.

Q Okay. Do you believe you complied with those covenants?

Yeah, I paid off the loan.

Q If we look down item 11, little (i), the 11 is financial reporting and certain other additional covenants. Little (i) says, "Guarantor covenants and agrees that he shall keep and maintain complete and accurate books and records."

It then says, item ( ) " nnual Statement of Financial Condition, as soon as reasonably available. nd in any event within 120 days following each June 30th, guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30th."

The first question, were you aware that you had to maintain complete and accurate books and records pursuant to this agreement?

I don't know specifically, but it sounds right to me.

Q Do you believe you complied with that requirement?

Yes.

Q Were you aware that under this agreement you needed to submit an annual Statement of Financial Condition?

Not really, but it would be okay with me.

Q So you don't know if this was accurate?

I wasn't sure. I mean, you know, I'm seeing it here, so obviously the answer to that is, yes.

Q Okay.

No problem.

(n exhibit was handed to the witness.)

MR. W LL CE: I would like to assure everyone we are making good time.

Q Mr. Trump, you've been handed a document that has been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 309.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q The cover of the document indicates this is a loan agreement dated as of ugust 12th, 2014, with Trump Old Post Office, LLC and Deutsche Bank.

Mr. Trump, is this the loan that relates to the Old Post Office in Washington, D.C?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: If we could flip ahead to 108.

Q Mr. Trump, is that your signature?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: We ask that Plaintiff's Exhibit 309 be moved into evidence.

MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.

(Plaintiff's Exhibit 309 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)

Q Mr. Trump, I'm going to hand you another document.

(n exhibit was handed to the witness.)

Q This document has been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 305.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q This is the guaranty for the OPO loan dated ugust 12th, 2014.

MR. W LL CE: If we could flip ahead to page 26.

Q Is that your signature, Mr. Trump?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, we move Plaintiff's Exhibit 305 into evidence.

MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.

(Plaintiff's Exhibit 305 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)

MR. W LL CE: If we could go back to page 12, please.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q Once again, we see item nine, "Certain Representations." It states that "In order to induce lender to accept this guaranty and to enter into the loan agreement and the transactions thereunder, guarantor hereby makes the following representations and warranties as of the date hereof."

MR. W LL CE: If we flip ahead two pages to page 14.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q gain, item nine, "Financial Statements", it states "The guarantor has furnished to lender his prior financial statements. Such prior financial statements are true and correct in all material respects." nd little (i) "Guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly guarantor's financial condition as of June 30, 2013."

Do you believe this representation is true and accurate?

Yes, I think so.

MR. KISE: Which one? Both of them? The financial -- you asked that question -- I think you skipped from page -- just to make sure the record is clear, you went from page 12, then over to page 14 without asking a question.

MR. W LL CE: I'm asking him about the passage I just read.

MR. KISE: Just that provision, not the other? Not that the answer would be different. I just want to make sure the record is clear.

THE COURT: ll right. I think it's clear, now, you are asking him about little (ix).

MR. W LL CE: I thought I was clear the first time. We could keep moving. Let's turn to page 16?

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q It's item ten, little Roman (i) "Unencumbered liquid assets."

Mr. Trump, were you aware that this loan required you to maintain unencumbered liquid assets of $50 million?

Yes.

Q Were you aware that this covenant is to be tested and certified each year based upon your Statement of Financial Condition?

I think so, yes.

Q Do you believe you complied with this covenant?

Yes, absolutely.

MR. W LL CE: If we could move on to page 17.

Q Little Roman (iii), "Minimum net worth." gain, it says, " t all times during the term hereunder, guarantor shall maintain a net worth of not less than $2,500,000,000. This net worth covenant shall be tested and certified on an annual basis as of each June 30th, within 120 days following each June 30th, based upon the Statement of Financial Condition delivered to lender during each year hereunder pursuant to section 11 (i)( ) hereof."

Were you aware that this loan required you to maintain a net worth not less than 2.5 billion?

Yes.

Q Were you aware that this covenant was to be tested and certified each year based upon your Statement of Financial Condition?

No, but it would look like it would be. It's fine.

Q It looks like it is based on --

Yeah.

Q -- the contract language you just read?

Yes.

Q Do you believe you complied with this covenant?

Oh, yes, absolutely.

Q Let's look at the next paragraph.

gain, the net worth of me was far greater than the financial statements, far greater. So I don't know what you are getting at, but keep going.

Q When you say "far greater", are you referring to the brand value that you have?

I'm talking about -- no, but we can add that, too. If you add the brand value, which I didn't even put down on my financial statements, then you are talking about a tremendous difference, tremendous difference. But, no, just even without it. But with it, and it should be a part of it -- brand value should be a part of it. It's -- in either event, it's more.

Q Just --

The brand value is a very substantial value.

Q I just want -- nd I didn't even include that in the financial statements, but I could've if I wanted to. If I was looking to build up a financial statement, I would have put it in, but I wasn't looking to do that.

Q I'm just trying to make sure I understand that. Your position is that the assets listed on your Statement of Financial Condition were worth more than the prices that were on those statements; is that what you are saying?

s a -- yes. s a total, some are much more, some may have made a mistake and it was corrected. Like on the apartment if they made a mistake, and of course this is way before that, because you are going back into ancient history. I don't know how it doesn't involve a five-year statute of limitations. It seems ridiculous to me. It seems extremely unfair to me, but that's okay; that's the way it's been working in this one.

I will tell you that the numbers are far greater than the two and a half billion dollars. nd if I add brand value, then it's different from a different -- but in any event, the numbers of my net worth are substantially more than the numbers reflected on the financial statements, therefore, you have no case.

Q Um --

In addition to that -- no. In addition to that, in addition to that, you have a clause that goes on forever, I think a page and a half, and all throughout, and that clause, as we've discussed quite a bit, tells the lender of this money to go out and do your own work, do your own statement, do everything your own. Go out and hire your own analysts, and all of the things that, you know, that you didn't read today. You read one part of it, but you didn't read the part that supersedes everything else. But it says, "Do your own due diligence." nd I think a lot of people have figured that out today.

Q Well, that clause isn't the only thing goes on forever.

Next paragraph, number 11, Financial Reporting and Certain Other dditional Covenants. It says: The guarantor shall comply with the following additional covenants. Financial reporting.

It says: Guarantor covenants and agrees he shall keep and maintain complete and accurate books and records.

Did you comply with this covenant?

I assume so. I mean, the bank was very happy. They got their money back. They were paid off. I assume so.

Did you get any questions from the bank? I don't think so.

Q Do you know if --

The bank was extremely happy.

Q This is from ugust 12, 2014. Do you know whether or not you maintained complete and accurate books and records of the Trump Organization from ugust 2014 forward?

I hope so. I didn't keep them myself. I hope so. But again, the bank was paid off. There was no victim.

Q When you say, "I hope so," you don't know one way or the other?

I assume so. Who knows. Do I know? I have people. I pay them a lot of money. They are accountants. I assume they keep good records. The bank can't be upset and the bank isn't upset, because they got their money back in full. No victim.

Q Who was responsible for making sure that the Trump Organization maintained complete and accurate books and records?

Primarily Mr. Weisselberg and Jeff McConney.

Q Item underneath this says -- nd the accounting firm. nd the accounting firm.

Q I want to make sure you are finished.

I paid a lot of money to.

Q Item underneath the financial reporting states: nnual Statement of Financial Condition. s soon as reasonably available, and in any event within 120 days following each June 30, guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30.

Yes.

Q Do you believe you complied with this covenant?

Yes.

Q Okay. Mr. Trump, you are being handed a document marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 394. This is a certification in your name dated November 11, 2014. nd if we flip over to the second page is that -- is that your signature, Mr. Trump?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, we move Plaintiff's Exhibit 394 into evidence.

MR. KISE: Objection, statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Overruled, it is in.

(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 394 by the Court.)

Q Mr. Trump, if you look on page one, it says: The undersigned guarantor hereby certifies to lender as of the date hereof that as of June 30, 2014 (the reporting date) One. Financial Information. nd it lists attached hereto is guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2014.

I am going then if you look at the bottom underneath the section of financial statements it says: "The foregoing presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of guarantor at the period presented."

So by this document you are certifying that your Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2014 presents your financial condition fairly in all material respects. Is that correct?

No.

Q What are you -- so what are you certifying here?

Because we didn't put the brand value down, and that's a bigger number than any of these numbers, and they are very big. But I didn't put the brand value down, so, you know, so I don't know. I think that the statement could have put it down, didn't put it down. But I don't know if you consider that to be a material respect. It would increase the number beyond even what it is.

Q So is it your position that this certification is not accurate?

No, I think it is accurate as it is. But the only thing is that we didn't include brand value. nd you could include it or you don't have to include it.

Q Setting aside the brand value issue, are you certifying that the June 30, 2014 Statement of Financial Condition fairly presented in all material respects your financial condition as of that date?

Yes.

Q But the 2014 statements contained an inflated value for your triplex apartment; is that correct?

Yeah, they -- that's right. If this is the one where that's started. We reduced that substantially later.

Q nd the statement contained an inflated valuation for Seven Springs; is that correct?

Seven -- I don't know. I don't know if this is the one. If this is the statement. Is that the statement that we discussed before?

Q Yes, that has Seven Springs.

Then we had those and we made adjustments to them.

gain, compared to the overall worth or net worth, they were not material. But certainly I could say that we have asked -- I asked to have them reduced and they were reduced.

Q You were required to submit the certificate under the terms of the Doral loan agreement; is that correct?

I guess so. I would think so.

Q nd you knew that Deutsche Bank would rely on this certification to determine compliance with the loan companies; is that correct?

Well, they have that in there, yeah. I could have negotiated it out. But it didn't matter to me because we had a financial statement, so I figured why not put it in.

Q You intended to meet your obligations under the Doral loan agreement by submitting this document; is that correct?

Yeah.

Q Mr. Trump, we are going to hand you a new document.

(Handing)

Q This document has been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 503.

Mr. Trump, this is an internal Deutsche Bank e-mail dated May 10, 2016, but I would like to ask you about the attachments. The attachment is a certification in your name dated May 10, 2016.

nd if we could flip ahead to the third page of this document, is that your signature, Mr. Trump?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, we move Plaintiff's Exhibit 503 into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted, it is in.

(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 503 by the Court.)

MR. W LL CE: I am sorry, I didn't realize there was no objection. Is this in?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. W LL CE: I apologize everyone.

Q If we look back at the first page of this document, again, under the heading Financial Information. Mr. Trump, are you certifying that your Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2015 presents your financial condition fairly in all material respects?

If this is the one we discussed before, then we told them a couple of the assets you could reduce.

Q This is actually a different one.

different one? Then it would be fine, yeah.

Q Do you recall whether or not the 2015 statement had corrected the valuation for your triplex apartment?

I don't know. I don't know.

Q Do you recall whether the 2015 statement had corrected the value for Seven Springs?

I don't know. But it really wasn't material compared to the overall net worth. It was a rather -- it was a small amount of money in comparison to the overall net worth.

Q Okay.

I don't think it would be considered material at all.

Q If we could go to the top page of the document again, I just want to highlight one thing for you.

Do you see the borrowers listed here are Trump Endeavor 12 LLC; 401 North Wabash Venture LLC; and Trump Old Post Office LLC. So you were required to submit this certificate under the terms of all three loan agreements; is that correct?

I guess, yeah.

Q nd you knew that Deutsche Bank would rely on this certification to determine compliance with the covenants of those loans; is that correct?

No, I don't know. I don't know what they would have done if I had a statement or not, but I had no problem because we had a statement.

Q If Deutsche Bank wasn't requiring this to be submitted, why would you have submitted this?

No, I would have negotiated that out. They would have taken cash instead.

Q But you did, in fact, have an obligation under those loan agreements to submit this certification?

Yeah, I have no problem with that.

Q nd you intended for the bank to rely upon this certification to meet those loan requirements; isn't that right?

Well, it is what it says. If I didn't have the statement I would have done something else. I would have given them cash instead, or not borrowed the money.

Q Mr. Trump, we have now seen multiple loan agreements requiring the submission of your Statement of Financial Condition. We have seen multiple certifications that the Statements of Financial Condition were accurate. Is it still your position that the bank would not have considered this to be an important document?

I could have done different things other than a financial statement.

Q I am actually asking under the loan agreements you actually signed though, was this an important document?

Yeah, because we had the document done, so we used it.

Q Mr. Trump, we talked about this a little, not in response to a question, but you have now paid off all three loans to Deutsche Bank; is that correct?

I think so.

Q You financed the Doral loan with an xos Bank; is that correct?

I believe so, yes.

Q nd you paid off the Chicago loan recently, maybe last week?

With cash, yes.

Q nd you paid off the OPO loan and you sold that hotel; is that correct?

Yes, we paid that off with cash.

Q Mr. Trump, you are being handed a document that has been marked Plaintiff's Exhibit 1373. This is an e-mail from Jeff McConney to Elizabeth Pettijohn and Whitley Penn with the subject line: OPO proceeds spreadsheet.

Whitley Penn are the accountants who replaced Mazars; is that correct?

Yes.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, we would move this document into evidence.

MR. KISE: Objection, relevance.

THE COURT: What's the relevance?

MR. W LL CE: The relevance it has the distribution amounts for the OPO loan.

MR. KISE: What is the relevance of that?

MR. W LL CE: I think it is subject to disgorgement potentially.

THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.

(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1373 by the Court.)

Q Mr. Trump, if you look down at the bottom half of the first page, there is an e-mail from Patrick Birney to Donna Kidder and others that says: Mark, Mike, Donna, see attached updated spreadsheet. ssuming we get to the $139,404,324 from the title company today, and combine it with the $3,823 of interest on the deposits that is already in the bank account, the amount of the distributions should be in the amounts below (listed in row 31 of the second tab).

MR. W LL CE: ctually, could we pull up the other attachment to this, just to -- it is 1373 native.

I apologize.

Q I just wanted to state for the record, Mr. Trump, this is the attachment that Mr. Birney is referring to. It is a native.

MR. W LL CE: nd just to clarify for the record, we have moved in both the cover e-mail and the native attachment. I just want to make sure that is clear. I want to see if there is any further objection from the defense.

THE COURT: They are both in.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you, Your Honor.

(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1373 Native by the Court.)

Q If we can go back to the cover e-mail. The amounts listed are: DJT $126,828,600.

DJT Jr. $4,013,024.

IT $4,013,024.

ET $4,013,024.

Member Corp. $540,475.

Total $139,408,146.

Mr. Trump, do you know if $126 million represents your full profit on the OPO transaction?

No, I don't know that.

Q Do you know how much profit you did earn on the OPO transaction?

No. Something, I don't know. Something above that I think. But around. I would have to find out. I would have to go check.

Q So you think above but around this number?

bove but around that number, yes.

Q nd do you know if one -- the $139 million listed here reflects the full profits of all of the participants in the OPO sale?

I don't know exactly, but it would be something perhaps above that number.

Q gain, but around that number?

Correct, yes.

Q Mr. Trump, I think we have covered some of this but I would like to go through it one more time. Do you believe any of the Statements of Financial Condition that have been prepared in your name inflated your net worth?

So --

MS. H BB : I am sorry, I couldn't hear you.

gain, we have a very complicated, many transaction, many, many, many-pages document. The overall number is somewhere much higher. nd some are a little bit lower or not materially lower. But the overall net is that we are much, much higher, much, much higher than the document -- the document submitted.

When you add the net worth you are talking about many, many millions of dollars more than that. nd we didn't do that. If we wanted to build up a net worth all I would have had to do is add that, because that number would be very substantial, very, very substantial. So I don't believe that --

I think this case is a disgrace. I think it is a disgrace for people looking to move their business into New York or out of New York. Many people are leaving New York because of exactly this kind of a thing. We had banks that got their money back. We had insurance companies that got their money back. We had no complaints. The only complainant is you. nd with everybody being killed on the streets and murdered on the streets of New York and you have an ttorney

General sitting here all day long watching every little move, I think it is a disgrace. nd people are leaving New York. nd they are fleeing the City. nd it is a shame what is going on.

nd we sit here all day, and it is election interference because you want to keep me in this courthouse all day long, and let's keep going.

nd we have a very hostile Judge, extremely hostile Judge, and it is sad.

I don't have a jury and I want a jury. nd I don't have a jury because she sued me under a statute that doesn't allow a jury, and I think it is a disgrace. nd other people are saying the same thing. Legal scholars are saying it is the most unfair witch hunt they have ever seen.

nd you should be ashamed of yourself.

Go ahead.

Q I promise you, Mr. Trump, I am trying to get you off the stand.

That's great. I am sure you are.

THE COURT: Mr. Wallace, this morning I said I am following your lead in terms of how much you want to put up with this stuff.

MR. W LL CE: I promise you, Your Honor, we are very close to the end.

Q nd we almost got there, Mr. Trump.

But I believe your position is that you do not believe that any of the Statements of Financial Condition inflated your net worth; is that right?

I think that the Statements of Financial Condition were very good, were actually somewhat conservative and in some cases very conservative.

nd they are totally protected, and so am I, and so is everything in there, by a disclaimer clause which tells lenders and insurance companies or anybody that saw it, to go out and do your own due diligence and do your own analysis. It says: Do not rely on this statement.

Q Do you believe that Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney did a good job preparing your Statements of Financial Condition?

I mean, I don't know, but I think so.

Q Did Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney prepare the Statements of Financial Condition in a manner that you believe is appropriate?

I hope so.

Q Did Mr. Weisselberg and Mr --

Don't forget, the bank -- the banks reject them. These banks are not just people that sit back and take paper and put it into a file. When a bank gets a statement they go out and check them very carefully. They are very sophisticated. They have great lawyers, very expensive lawyers working for them. The best law firms in the country. So this isn't just like, oh, here is a paper. The bank would check the work that these people did.

Q So the banks would review the Statements of Financial Condition?

bsolutely. bsolutely.

Q Did Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney prepare the Statements of Financial Condition in a manner that you agreed with?

I guess so. I mean, I would have to say so. The banks seemed to be happy, and Mazars seemed to be happy.

I had an, again, very expensive accounting firm. They seemed to be happy. They didn't complain.

nd if they did complain, they wouldn't have done the statement. They did come to me on one or two occasions and said they didn't like something or didn't like this or that, and it was corrected before the statement was done. nd if they didn't like something they wouldn't have given us a statement. They gave us a statement.

THE COURT: I am going to date myself. But I feel like it is a broken record. There are old vinyl records that go around and around.

THE WITNESS: Because he doesn't understand it, Your Honor, maybe. Because he keeps asking me the same questions, Your Honor, the same questions over and over again.

Q Let me ask you a new question then.

MR. KISE: He has asked the question about 50 different times. We sat here for almost an hour going through what appears to be a breach of contract case, going through provisions of documents that the bank and only the bank are entitled to enforce. nd they didn't.

nd so now when the witness has a great answer, it is a problem. So Mr. Wallace just keeps asking the same question, he is going to get the same answer.

THE COURT: Only the banks are entitled to enforce?

MR. KISE: They are. That's what a contract is all about. This is a contract, and a breach of contract is where one party to the contract gets to decide if a term was breached.

For example, the net worth covenant. If the bank determined -- it doesn't say in here that anybody else other than the bank gets to determine whether that covenant was breached.

THE COURT: It doesn't have to.

MR. KISE: If they didn't determine it was breached and you heard testimony from Mr. Haigh that indicates that, then yes, that's their right to do it.

We don't get to second guess them. The ttorney General doesn't get to come in and stand in the shoes of a contractual party that isn't claiming a breach. There is no provision in the law for that.

But if Mr. Wallace wants to continue to ask the same questions in a slightly different way, he can expect to get the same answers.

THE COURT: Well, I'll leave it at that for now.

MR. W LL CE: I promise everyone here I am really getting as close to being done and we can get out of here.

Let me ask a different question then. Did the fact that Mr. Weisselberg pled guilty to tax fraud cause you to change your opinion of any of the work he performed for you?

Well, it was a sad, very sad thing. People went after him viciously and violently because he happened to work for me. If I never ran for President and certainly if I never won, convincingly, he would have been just like a lot of other people. I mean, he did a good to job for me for a long time. I thought it was a very sad thing.

The education of his grandchildren was brought up because he paid for the education of his grandchildren in a certain way. There was some things. So I feel very badly for him.

Q Well, a certain way was you paid for the education of his grandchildren?

No, the education of his grandchildren, and that is, you know, going to be some kind of a breach where they want to put a man in jail? It is a very sad thing.

Q Were you aware --

He did a good job for me for a long time.

Q So you didn't go back and review any of the work he had performed after?

I didn't think about it. nd frankly, if you talk about these loans, there was nothing much to think about because essentially they were all paid off or soon to be paid off.

Q fter Mr. Weisselberg pled guilty, did you do anything to review other work that he had performed for you outside of these financial statements?

No, because I had no defaults. I had no problems.

Q Did you go through to see if Mr.-- any of the other documents Mr. Weisselberg had prepared at the company were accurate?

I don't know. Perhaps somebody did. I really don't know.

MS. H BB : Your Honor, excuse me. Sorry.

Mr. Wallace, can you just clarify, are you asking whether President Trump himself did or the company? I want to make sure the record is clear. There is a difference.

MR. W LL CE: I am not going back to a question I asked and was answered.

MS. H BB : Of course not. It is inconvenient.

THE COURT: I took it to mean Mr. Trump personally.

MS. H BB : So did I.

Personally? Personally no, but I think maybe the company did. I don't know.

Q Were you aware that Mr. Weisselberg was being compensated with an apartment that was paid for by the company?

You mean previously?

Q Yes.

Yeah. I mean, is there something wrong?

Q No, I am just asking if you knew.

I mean IBM executives get apartments that are compensated by IBM. nd lots of other companies do. But people that work for me can't be so compensated? I don't know, I don't think that's a big thing. Is it? I feel very badly about that whole situation.

Q My question is just whether Mr. Weisselberg was -- you ever became aware that Mr. Weisselberg was not recording transactions in the books and records of the Trump Organization in an accurate manner -- inaccurate manner.

Let me rephrase that.

MR. KISE: re you talking about prior to his guilty plea or after his guilty plea?

MR. W LL CE: I am asking if Mr. Trump ever became aware that Mr. Weisselberg was recording transactions inaccurately in the books and records of the Trump Organization.

MR. KISE: fter his guilty plea I think we all did.

THE COURT: This has come up before, Chris. He is allowed to ask a question without a time limit, because then it means all times, at anytime.

MR. KISE: Okay, but it is --

THE WITNESS: He wasn't making it clear.

MR. KISE: The record is -- most of this record is very confusing, but that's particularly confusing, respectfully.

Q The question is, did you ever become aware that Mr. Weisselberg was recording transactions inaccurately in the books and records of the Trump Organization?

Only through the trial.

Q nd that's the tax fraud trial?

Yeah.

Q You are not going to make any changes to your internal controls because of this lawsuit, are you?

MR. KISE: Objection. It is a question, number one, could call for privilege and number two subsequent remedial measures.

It depends.

THE COURT: Overruled on both grounds.

It depends on what the accounting firm -- we have a new accounting firm, and they are doing a very good job. nd it depends. If they suggest that we make changes, we would do that. We asked them if they would like us to do that.

Q That accounting firm, is that WhitleyPenn that you are referring to?

Yes.

Q Do you think that l anything needs to change at the Trump Organization based on the things you have learned from this lawsuit?

MR. KISE: Same objection, Your Honor.

I don't think so.

THE COURT: Overruled.

MR. KISE: I am assuming that his question is not calling for him to reveal any attorney/client conversations, just asking in general.

THE COURT: He asked him what he intended to do.

MR. KISE: Certain information he may have received from his lawyers.

MS. H BB : Yes. I would instruct --

MR. KISE: nd subsequent remedial.

THE COURT: The subsequent remedial only applies in personal injury cases, tort cases.

Q My question is, regardless of who is giving the advice, is there a decision to make a change to the internal controls of the Trump Organization.

It would depend on what the accounting firm would say, probably in conjunction with some lawyers that do this professionally. But the company has been a very, very successful company and it has had a great record.

Q re you aware, as you sit here today, of any changes -- let me withdraw that question.

s you sit here today, are you aware of any planned changes to the financial reporting systems of the Trump Organization?

I have not heard of any, but it is possible that they will recommend something. I have actually asked for a recommendation, if they feel it is necessary.

THE COURT: So now we are getting --

MR. W LL CE: I am going to ask this question hopefully to clarify this.

Q You asked for a recommendation from accountants or attorneys?

MS. H BB : Don't answer that question, sir. Excuse me. Sorry. This is actually going to privilege. nd I am going to object and instruct my client, any conversation where an attorney was also involved, you are not to respond.

MR. W LL CE: This is the foundational question as to whether he has had conversations with attorneys or accountants.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, I have one other thing to add by way of objection. It may be overruled, but I think it is an important objection. nd that is, I think the question is either unintentionally or intentionally mischaracterizing the evidence that is already in the record. They already had Mr. Hawthorn on the stand, and Mr. Hawthorn has testified about things that the company is doing.

So, I believe President Trump was here for that testimony. So again, we are not telling him anything he doesn't know. But you are not allowed to intentionally mislead or unintentionally mislead, mischaracterize the evidence in the record. The evidence in the record is such, if he already knows the answer, he doesn't have a good faith basis to ask the question.

THE COURT: I will totally disagree with that. In fact, you are generally supposed to ask questions that you do know the answer to.

MR. KISE: No. No. If you have a good faith basis to presume that the answer is something other than is already indicated in the record.

MR. W LL CE: I would note then, I guess if Mr. Hawthorn is recommending anything, Mr. Hawthorn is not an attorney. But I'll ask the same question.

Q s you sit here today, are you aware of any changes that are going to be made to the financial reporting system at the Trump Organization?

There will be recommendations made, and we will perhaps let you know what those recommendations are. It wouldn't bother me to let you know about it. But we have asked and we will see whether or not anything will come of it.

Q re the recommendations you are referring to coming from accountants or lawyers?

I would say accountants and I would also say lawyers working with accountants, yes.

Q Have you spoken to any accountants about potential changes to the financial reporting system at the Trump Organization?

Through the company, not me personally, but through the company.

Q Who have you spoken to at the company?

Eric Trump.

Q Do you have any plans to hire a Chief Compliance Officer at this time at the Trump Organization?

It hasn't been recommended.

Q Have you hired a new Chief Financial Officer at the Trump Organization?

I don't know. I would have to ask one of my sons, one of my two sons.

Q s you sit here today, you don't know who the Chief Financial Officer is?

We have some very good people. I don't know if we are making that permanent or not or if we are going to go outside.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I have nothing further at this time for this witness.

THE COURT: Will there be any cross examination?

MR. KISE: No, Your Honor. Not at this time.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, the next witness we have is --

THE COURT: We will excuse this witness.

Thank you.

MR. W LL CE: I apologize, Your Honor.

(The witness stepped down from the witness stand.)

THE COURT: We can keep going, at least for a while. Would you like to call your next witness?

MR. W LL CE: The only additional witness we have, Your Honor, is Ivanka Trump, who is appearing on Wednesday. So at this point I think that's it for us.

I don't know if Mr. Kise wanted to cover any of the housekeeping items.

MR. KISE: Just briefly, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MR. KISE: nd I appreciate the communication over the weekend.

I just want to make sure, because the way we have operated, and I am going to take whatever direction you provide here, but the way we have operated through the course certainly of the trial are, in limine motions are either done here on the record or there is letters.

nd so by way of example, an evidentiary motion wouldn't be something we would do by notice of motion and have a return date. The same would be true for any sort of mistrial motion or directed verdict motion. Mr. Robert is the CPLR expert, but certainly in my experience those wouldn't be done -- you wouldn't do a directed verdict motion by notice of motion, so that it would be heard a week later; or a mistrial motion --

THE COURT: Right.

MR. KISE: -- or evidentiary motion or those things. So I just want to comply fully with Your Honor's order. I want to make sure that I understand how we are supposed to manage that, to the extent that we have such motions.

Same would be true with respect to any appeal we filed, or any other thing we filed. I assume if -- I think it is fair to presume based on the colloquy we had on Friday, that should any of the matters that have come up that are the subject of the gag order, be the -- become the subject of an appeal, that we would be free to reference them on appeal. There wouldn't be any restriction on that.

THE COURT: Yes, true, agree.

MR. KISE: nd we will take your direction. I am not putting you on the spot. You can give us your direction this evening. But I just want to -- it just seemed very foreign to me, and Mr. Robert can speak to this, that if we were to have a directed verdict motion or mistrial motion or evidentiary motion or anything to do with the subject matter of the gag order that would include that, those wouldn't be by way of notice of motion ordinarily.

I just don't know how we would do that, because we would be asking the Court to rule on something days hence that are more immediate.

Mr. Robert can speak to the CPLR.

MR. ROBERT: I think Mr. Kise said it succinctly and well. When and if the plaintiff rests their case, there will be certain motions I presume we will make. nd at that time there would be oral motions. nd some of the issues contained within your gag order of Friday may be items that need to be referenced in that application. We just wanted to make sure under your order, since there will be no written motion papers with those, that we are free to address those on the record with the Court at that time. Because there is really no -- there is no other mechanism that I am aware of in New York to be able to bring that up to you.

MR. KISE: Or would you prefer us to submit a letter and only make the oral presentation brief? Whatever Your Honor's pleasure is there. But we want to understand what the limits are because the order as written, and I appreciate the clarification over the weekend, but as written it is restrictive.

THE COURT: Yes, I'm restricting you not bringing up my confidential communications. You could do anything else. I don't think the gag order referred to anything else.

MR. KISE: But in terms of a motion, if we file a motion that is directed to that particular relief, like, for example, a motion for reconsideration, or anything like that, we have to reference the subject matter in whatever we are filing, whether we are viewing it on the record here or whether we are submitting it by letter, but by notice of motion; there's not a procedural mechanism to do that.

THE COURT: If we are just talking about motions, requests, decisions about my confidential communications, I'm prohibiting you from mentioning that. Okay, you could appeal it, but I am 1,000 percent convinced, and you don't have any right or reason to complain about my confidential communications. You could appeal that.

MR. KISE: But, your Honor, so let me just be clear. So if we have matters that you may not be aware of that relate to that subject matter, it doesn't relate to the, necessarily, the communications themselves, it's not the notes.

MS. H BB : Not the notes, your Honor.

MR. KISE: But to the issues surrounding that procedure, are you saying that you have already decided before we make the motion that you will deny it without having seen it? I just -- because I can't make them -- I just need to know, because ordinarily I would either include it in some sort of motion for your Honor so that at least you could see the basis for it and then make your determination; that's all.

THE COURT: I'll take you up on your kind offer to think about this, take this under advisement. Obviously I think these other things that I think you are referring to, that's a different story.

MR. KISE: Right. It would just be with respect to the implications. It's not referring anymore to -- I understand the record that you've established, you said that we've established, and I understand your order in that regard, but with respect to appeal, I understand you clearly on that, that we have the right to do that. nd with respect to anything we file here, it would only be referencing those issues in the context of a motion directed at relief with specific arguments that are related to that, not to do with the content of the notes themselves, at all.

THE COURT: No, it's not even the content. I am prohibiting you, or I have already, from referencing my confidential communications. Sorry to keep repeating that phrase. But I feel it's important for the safety of my staff and the orderly progression of this case.

MR. KISE: Of course. But if we were, for example, to move for a mistrial based on the implications of that, we would need to at least reference the subject matter in order to file that motion. There's no way to file that motion without referencing the subject matter. We don't --

THE COURT: Don't file that motion, Chris.

MR. KISE: Well, again, so we can't file the motion that you haven't seen that couldn't be considered. You may not know what it is that is our position, because I don't think our position has -- I certainly haven't said it anywhere out loud, and I don't intend to.

THE COURT: ppreciate that.

MR. KISE: But I think there's something that warrants the Court's attention with respect to the implications of these issues. nd you are free, then, to adjudicate them. But I would think we can't be respectfully precluded from raising the issue in the first instance; that would seem to put us in a position where we are not entitled to advance our client's due process rights.

If there is something that we think implicates the proceeding, we have to at least put it in the record for the Court to consider. nd if you consider it and reject it, that's fine. But you can't, respectfully, reject it before you've seen it. Because you haven't heard it from me either on the record or otherwise.

THE COURT: I'm, in some ways, at a disadvantage in this discussion, because I don't know what you are going to bring up.

MR. KISE: Correct.

THE COURT: I told you what not to bring up. nything else you want to bring up.

MR. ROBERT: For clarification purposes, then, is it the direction and order of this Court that if we were to move for a mistrial based on the grounds that are subject to the gag order, that we are directed not to make such a motion.

THE COURT: Can you repeat that.

(Whereupon, the requested testimony was read back by the court reporter.)

THE COURT: Yes. I'm directing you not to make such a motion because I'm entitled to do what you're referring to, the only subject matter of the gag order.

MR. KISE: But that --

THE COURT: I'm going to protect my staff.

MS. H BB : Your Honor --

MR. KISE: I understand that, your Honor, but that would -- the fact that it is taking place is not necessarily the subject of the motion.

MS. H BB : Okay. I'll be more clear, if I may. I think they are being extremely careful, and it's causing confusion, your Honor, so don't sanction me. I'm doing this in the most delicate way possible.

I personally -- we know that we, obviously, are going to be moving for a mistrial. There's no, you know, that is part of the plan. We do not want to put anyone at risk, which is what they are trying to get at.

I -- outside in the way I read your order, which is different than they do, I think that you are specifically speaking about the contents of your notes being confidential, and that is what we are not to talk about; is that correct?

THE COURT: Not just the contents of the notes, which I assume you don't know, but the fact that they exist.

MS. H BB : Okay.

THE COURT: That's my business, not yours.

MS. H BB : So outside of the notes, your Honor, other issues have come to our attention. re we allowed to address anything outside of the notes? Because they haven't been addressed with the Court, and I think that's the clearest way to ask your Honor, what we are asking, which is we need to have an opportunity to be heard on those things that have not been yet heard.

THE COURT: Give me a second to have a confidential communication.

MS. H BB : That's fine, your Honor. That's fine.

(Laughing.)

THE COURT: Okay. How's this: I think this is fair, and I understand your concerns. You can make that motion, Ms. Habba.

MS. H BB : Thank you.

THE COURT: nd I'm sorry I yelled at you before.

MS. H BB : We will do it in a very delicate manner.

THE COURT: Okay. But it has to be in writing. I don't want to hear it in front of hundreds of people --

MS. H BB : ll right.

THE COURT: -- at this point. Later on we could see, but yeah, you could make that motion.

MS. H BB : Thank you.

MR. KISE: So we should submit that just by letter then, because notice of motion for a mistrial doesn't function that way.

THE COURT: Yeah. Do it by order to show cause, please. You could make it as quick as you can.

MR. KISE: We could do that.

MS. H BB : That's great.

MR. KISE: Mr. Robert --

MR. ROBERT: I've never seen an application for a mistrial done by order to show cause on paper like that, but as long as the order to show cause is signed by the Court, I don't see a problem with it.

THE COURT: I'm not sure that that -- I guess that --

(Whereupon, there is a brief pause in the proceedings.)

THE COURT: Submit an OS -- proposed OSC. It's not an order until the judge signs it. Mr. Robert knows that. Submit a proposed OSC to me and I'll get right to it and make a quick return.

MS. H BB : Okay.

MR. KISE: nd we can include in there the rationale for the Court.

THE COURT: Yes.

MS. H BB : Thank you.

MR. ROBERT: Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: See. I knew it would be a lovefest.

MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: I've used that line before, but some of you haven't heard it yet.

nything the plaintiff wants to say?

MR. W LL CE: I guess it would be helpful for the people to clarify the rest of the week. We have Ivanka Trump testifying on Tuesday -- Wednesday after the Tuesday holiday. I imagine it could be 3:00 or it could be the full day, but I imagine that means the defendants are calling witnesses on Thursday and Friday, and so it would be helpful --

MR. KISE: We are off Friday.

THE COURT: We are off Friday.

MR. W LL CE: May I say, witnesses will be called next by the defendants starting on Thursday, and it would be helpful to know what the order would be. I understand it may be Donald Trump, Jr. and Eric Trump, but I don't know if they are going Thursday or --

MR. KISE: So we had held -- again, we'll do -- I'll take the Court's direction. So we had held Thursday, as a spillover day, in the event that President Trump needed to come back, as agreed, or in the event it's possible that Ivanka Trump was hold over. We are certainly going to ask her questions, to the extent we have questions. We are trying to get that done now so as to minimize the interference in her life to not have to come back again. nd then thereafter we would likely be making certain motions on Thursday.

So we had planned to -- because of that, to ask the Court that we would just -- to keep this organized, to begin our case in chief on Monday, that way we are not starting a case with an hour left on Thursday or two hours left on Thursday, to just begin our case in chief on Monday.

We do have -- this may -- it certainly was pleasant news for me. We do have a schedule now that has us completing our case, right now, by December 15th.

THE COURT: week early.

MR. KISE: week early. I don't want to hold to that, because nothing ever gets done on time here, but I'm offering that because we could still stay in the Court's parameters, if not sooner, even if we start on Monday. So that -- we can start on Thursday, but then that would be a different witness. That's likely to be a witness different than Don Jr. or Eric, and that's what I meant in my communications with Mr. Wallace over the weekend, which we had been communicating about witness order.

If we are going to start on Thursday, particularly Thursday afternoon, we are gonna to have to see availability and we could tell them. It would be certainly among the handful of witnesses that we have at the top, and I could give more clarity on that this evening, but I would just ask the Court that for efficiency purposes, and given this is a long trial, that we just start -- so we don't run into the train wreck of spillover and motions going on, that we just start on Monday.

THE COURT: You know, you said in a certain context, "nothing ever finishes on time", or something. I've been meaning to thank and congratulate all the lawyers for the fact that we managed to start this trial on October 2nd, come hell or high water, written in stone, and you did a Herculean job to get this ready. I hope you think, although you are rushed, although you were pressed, you had enough time and there was no deprivation of due process, shall we say.

nd same thing for the plaintiff's attorneys. It was an amazing job to get as far as we've gotten in the time we have.

ll right. Let's try to figure out exactly what we are going to do.

MR. W LL CE: I -- your Honor, I would just ask Chris, if you could, and we won't hold you to it, but give us that lineup that gets you to the finish line of your case by December 15th.

MR. KISE: I can.

MR. W LL CE: We would appreciate that. I don't know if we are going to have a rebuttal case. I don't know what is going to go on, so do we finish by December 22nd, we do, we will, but --

MR. KISE: It would be on them, not me.

MR. W LL CE: If they could just provide us with the order of witnesses that they think gets --

MR. KISE: We could provide a tentative order, but, again, with all your case as well, witnesses change and schedules change. We could provide a tentative order that would get us to that place, and even starting on the Monday.

THE COURT: Let's be very exact here. With basically through today, once we finish this discussion, all right, what's going to happen Wednesday morning?

MR. W LL CE: Wednesday morning the People will call Ivanka Trump.

THE COURT: Right. How long -- I'm asking both sides. How long will her total testimony, at this point, take? day? day and a half? Less than a day?

MR. W LL CE: Two to three in the afternoon we would expect to be completed with her examination, your Honor.

MR. KISE: If that's the case, then we will almost certainly go to at least through the morning on Thursday, on the next day.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. KISE: t least we'll have an hour plus another two hours in the morning. So we would -- depending on what they ask it may go longer than that; it may not. But we'll at least be moving well into Thursday, as it stand now based on their representation. nd then we would have motions in the afternoon.

THE COURT: nd how long do you think the motions will take?

MR. KISE: That could take --

THE COURT: That could take a long time?

MR. KISE: That could take the balance of the afternoon, yes.

THE COURT: Plaintiff, does that sound reasonable to you?

MR. W LL CE: I'm having a hard time imagining meritorious motions that would require that much time to discuss.

MR. KISE: Of course.

MR. W LL CE: But that's fine, I think, from our perspective.

THE COURT: The question isn't whether they are meritorious. The question is how long they'll take.

MR. W LL CE: I know.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, I think your schedule makes sense.

MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: Make your motions Thursday after Ivanka is finished, and you'll be ready to go the following Monday.

MR. KISE: Yes, your Honor. We'll provide them maybe as soon as this evening. In fact, probably this evening, that tentative schedule.

THE COURT: We would like a copy of that list, too.

MR. KISE: Okay, yes. We could provide that to the court, your Honor. gain, not holding us to it, because things change and witness's schedules come and go.

THE COURT: Of course.

MR. KISE: But we could at least provide something. nd I would like to not file that on the record. We could provide it to the Court, but not have that out there, because this --

THE COURT: Let's assume that, but possibly revisit. I'm still waiting for you to say that your motion or motions on Thursday might be granted. You might not have to put on a defense.

MR. KISE: Well, I certainly hope so.

MS. H BB : So do I, your Honor.

MR. KISE: I think there is a basis for it, and we would all be happier for it. lmost all of us.

MS. H BB : I could make my application now for you to dismiss this entire case.

THE COURT: Save it for Thursday.

MR. KISE: My family certainly would be happy. I could assure you of that.

MR. W LL CE: Procedurally, we haven't rested, so they can't make the motion for a directed verdict yet.

THE COURT: Everybody have a great Election Day and don't forget to vote.

MR. KISE: Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT OFFICER: Everybody remain seated.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. SOLOMON:

Q Good morning.

Good morning.

Q I would like to start by briefly going through your background. Did you graduate from Wharton in 2004?

I did.
Q nd did you receive a bachelor of arts in real estate and finance?
I did.
Q Do you have any postcollege formal education?
I had some licensures in the real estate business, a salesperson's license. nd at one point a gaming license in the state of Nevada, or in the state of New Jersey, sorry.
Q Thank you.
fter graduation, did you start working at Forest City Ratner?
I did.
Q nd for how long did you work there?
I worked there a little over a year.
Q Okay.
nd after you left Forest City, did you start working for The Trump Organization?
I did.
Q t some -- so this was approximately the 2006 time period?
It was.
THE COURT: Hold on. Let me just ask the witness. Good morning, by the way.
THE WITNESS: Good morning.
THE COURT: These microphones are very temperamental. You have to speak right into them loudly. I think they probably heard everything except maybe that last answer.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.
THE COURT: Great. Please continue.
Q t some point in time did you become an executive vice president at the Trump Organization?
I did.
Q nd did you continue working for The Trump Organization until approximately January 2017?
That's correct, yes.
Q From let's say until 2011, until the time you left, what were your responsibilities at the Trump Organization?
Well, they varied and evolved as my experience grew. When I first started in the company I was just shortly out of college. I had worked as, you had mentioned, for Forest City Ratner, another developer, for a year or so, um, helping them on construction related projects, specifically a project in Yonkers.
When I joined our family business, I initially started -- probably spent most of my time under ndy Weiss, who was, then, our head of development and construction, but I moved around within the organization to cut my teeth on various elements of the business.
So over time, as I had more experience under my belt and I -- and I proved myself within the context of the organization, I was given more responsibilities.

Q I would like to focus, though, on the period roughly 2011 until the time you left?
Okay.
Q What were your specific responsibilities in the organization?
Well, alongside my brothers, we worked on various components of the business at the Trump Organization, some of it administrative, others -- for me, specifically, I was very focused on the redevelopment of the old Post Office building on Pennsylvania venue, and Trump Doral in Florida. nd I spent an enormous amount of my time shepherding those two projects through their redevelopment. nd obviously there were license deals that were happening at the time I was at the Trump Organization and -- during the time period you reference, um, and miscellaneous other things. But the majority of my time was spent in those areas.
Q You mentioned Doral; that's the golf course down in Florida?
Correct, yes.
Q When The Trump Organization purchased Doral, was it something that is known as a transitional asset?
When we purchased Doral, it was, um, part of a collection of properties that had fallen into disrepair. The portfolio was in bankruptcy and we purchased it out of bankruptcy. Um, it was in rather poor condition. We invested an enormous amount of money in repositioning the asset and redeveloping it, so we were transitioning it in that regard from a, um, really three-star golf resort and property to a much more elevated experience for the guests.

Q Do you know what the term "transitional asset" means in the real estate world?
Um, did he have -- I can guess what it would mean, but we were -- it was transitioning from what it was under its prior ownership owned by Marriott to what our vision was for the property.
Q I was asking more generally, not necessarily specific to Doral.
Have you heard the term transitional asset in your experience?
Yes, I have.
Q What do you understand that to be?
What I just described we did for Doral.
Q ll right.
re you familiar with G P, Generally ccepted ccounting Principles?
I'm generally familiar with G P, yes.
Q What is your understanding of G P?
You had asked me with that when we had met a little over a year and a half ago. What I told you then is true now, that I hadn't thought about G P as much since college. So, um, it's -- my understanding is very general. I'm not an accountant, but I recall being exposed to this idea when I was in university.

Q Okay.

Other than any accounting classes you may have taken back in university, had you had experience with G P in your professional career?

You had showed me one document that referenced G P, G P principles, but no, not that I can recall beyond that.

Q Have you performed any work for The Trump Organization since 2017?

I don't believe so, no.

Q Between January 2017 and the present, did you have any financial interest in the old post office in Washington, D.C.?

Between when?

Q January 2017 and the present?

Yes.

Q Could you please describe that financial interest?

I had a profit participation in the project.

Q What do you mean by "participation in the project"?

What I just said. I had a profit participation in the project in the event of a sale, all of which was disclosed when I entered government.

THE COURT: Hold on. I think the trick may be to move the microphone closer to you, because I know you can't get that close to the table.

THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I wonder if I could make the cord longer. Thank you.

THE COURT: nd obviously keep your voice up.

THE WITNESS: Let me know if it's better.

THE COURT: Please continue.

Q Thank you, your Honor.

Between January 2017 and present, have you had any financial interest in TTT Consulting?

TTT? Um --

MR. KISE: Objection. Relevance.

MR. SOLOMON: Payments by the defendant organization can go to show witness bias, your Honor.

THE COURT: Overruled.

Yeah, I had an interest in that consulting agreement, but I don't think that there have been any recent payments from it.

Q Do you recall any payments between January 2017 and the present as a result of your interest in TTT Consulting?

I recall that when I went into government, in consultation, at the suggestion of the Office of Government Ethics, I had to resign from many assets and entities, put others into trust, and as it pertained to that one, convert it, um, from a variable stream of income, based on how the assets performed, to a fixed income, which I did at their suggestion.

nd, you know, that's the last I know.

Q Other than -- excuse me, between January 2017 and the present, have you received any other payment from The Trump Organization, other than what you've described with respect to the Old Post Office and TTT Consulting?

No, I don't believe so.

Q I would like to talk about the Trump Organization's relationship with Deutsche Bank. re you familiar with Deutsche Bank?

I am, yes.

Q Prior to 2011, was Deutsche Bank a lender on any of the Trump Organization's projects?

Yes. I believe that they had done the initial construction loan on Trump Chicago, that that predated my involvement of the company.

Q So that's the property, the Trump International Hotel and Towers in Chicago?

Correct, yes.

Q nd was that relationship through the Commercial Real Estate Group at Deutsche Bank?

You identified for me, um, a year ago when we met that it was.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, I just want to put on the record, as we do with other witnesses, a standing objection to these questions that predate the statute of limitations.

THE COURT: Understand. Overruled.

Q Okay.

When we met in ugust of 2022 for your testimonial session --

Yes.

Q -- I had shown you some documents. Do you recall that?

Yes, I do.

Q Based upon those documents, did you understand that the relationship that The Trump Organization had prior to 2011 with Deutsche Bank was through the Commercial Real Estate Group?

I did, yes.

Q Okay.

nd were those loans secured by a mortgage on the underlying real property in Chicago?

I believe so, yes.

Q To your knowledge, was there any guaranty provided on those loans for the Chicago property?

I don't know.

Q re you aware of any?

I'm not sure.

Q You are not sure if you are aware of any?

No, I'm not sure if there was -- I was answering your question. I'm not sure if there was a guaranty that predated my involvement in the company, those loans.

Q I understand. s you sit here today, do you have any knowledge about any guaranty on the Chicago loan prior to 2011?
No, I have no knowledge.
Q Did there come a time that you were introduced to someone in the Private Wealth Management Group at Deutsche Bank?
Yes.
Q Was that Rosemary Vrablic?
It was, yes.
Q Who made that introduction?
My husband, Jared.
Q When was that?
Roughly 2010 or 2011.
Q Was that during the time that the Trump Organization was seeking financing for the Doral loan?
It was, yes.
Q t that time, what benefit, if any, did you understand that the Private Wealth Management Group could provide to the Trump Organization as compared to its existing relationship with the Commercial Real Estate Group?
I don't think I ever made that comparison. I didn't have an existing relationship with the Commercial Real Estate Group, and I had heard that Rosemary was a very formidable banker with a lot of experience and a great person to have a relationship with, and I was excited to show her an opportunity that we were very passionate about, um, to explore working together on the project.

Q Did you understand that the Private Wealth Management Group could provide different loan terms than the Commercial Real Estate Group?
I don't know that I thought about that. This was the first time I had been introduced with Rosemary so, I showed her the project. I didn't make assumptions about what her terms would be, but when she sent us her proposal we obviously decided to proceed with her moving forward.
Q Do you recall if her proposal was any different than any proposal you had received from the Commercial Real Estate Group?
I'm not sure that we did receive a proposal from the Commercial Real Estate Group. You showed me a document, roughly a year and a half ago, that showed a proposal that I don't know if it was ever actually sent to us at the company. I was not familiar with it.
Q Okay.
Let's talk about Doral specifically. You mentioned about the bankruptcy. So let's go through that, if we can, just briefly.
Sure.
Q Did there come a time that the Trump Organization was selected as the stalking horse bidder for the Doral property?

Yes.
Q Could you explain what a "stalking horse bidder" is?
We were afforded the opportunity, within a finite time period, to put forth a bid for the property. The portfolio, I believe it was four other assets, including Doral, five, was going through a restructuring, and part of the plan of reorganization was to sell one of the assets and create some liquidity for, I guess, the portfolio.
So I got a call under -- I believe it was the ninth month of pregnancy with my now oldest child, my daughter rabella, so over 12 years ago saying that we had an opportunity to be the stalking horse bidder if we could move quickly.
Q Okay.
fter that selection, did you, on behalf of the Trump Organization, attempt to obtain financing for the potential purchase of Doral?
Yes, we did.
Q Was it The Trump Organization's intention, at that time, to renovate Doral if they were successful in obtaining financing?
Well, I think it was or intention, regardless, to renovate Doral. t one point we had explored doing the project with just available cash on hand at the company rather than have any financing, but the reason we bought the property was because we believed in its potential to be something better than it was under current ownership. Um, and to rebrand it, to reflag it. It was currently being run by Marriott under a management contract.

We took over the management of the hotel operations, and our goal was to reposition it as a luxury golf resort in south Florida.
Q In connection with potential financing, did you contact ndy Beal of Beal Bank?
Yes, I recall that.
MR. SOLOMON: If I could hand up PX-1266.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
Thank you.
Q You've been handed, and also up on the screen, is what's been marked as PX-1266 for identification. If you look at the bottom e-mail that's from you to ndy Beal. Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q nd further up the chain you forward it to Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. Glick, Mr. Orowitz, and Mr. Greenblatt. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Do you recognize this e-mail?
I recall you having showed it to me a year ago, yes.

MR. SOLOMON: We offer PX-1266 in evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection.
MR. ROBERT: Objection. Statute of limitations.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in.
Q If you look at the last sentence in the first paragraph of your e-mail, "My father will also send you his most recent financial statement by hard mail." Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Was that a request made by Mr. Beal for the financial statement, or were you volunteering it?
I have no recollection of this e-mail beyond you having showed it to me last year, so I'm not sure.
Q Putting to one side the e-mail, do you recall that Mr. Beal actually requested a copy of Donald Trump's financial statement, or did you volunteer it?
I don't recall.
Q Do you recall that Beal Bank, in connection with any potential financing, had wanted an equity interest in Doral?
I don't remember that, no. I recall -- and these were very brief conversations. We never reached a term sheet stage. We just generally showed them the opportunity, but I think as we discussed last year, two names that came to mind; one was Beal Bank. nd we knew ndy Beal quite well. nd another was Inbursa. My recollection is Inbursa had suggested being a partner with us in Doral, not Beal Bank, but I may be mistaken.

There may have been -- it may have been the opposite way.
Q Let's leave Inbursa off to the side for a moment --
Sure.
Q -- and stay focused on Beal Bank.
re you aware of any relation -- any relationship between Beal Bank and CSG Investments?
CSG Investments? Um, that -- that acronym sounds familiar, but I don't recall what it is.
Q Let me show you a document it's already in evidence, so I have a copy to hand up to the witness, PX-3232?
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q nd this is an e-mail from Steve Harvey, to you, dated November 15th, 2011.
Mm-hmm.
Q Did you receive this e-mail in or about November of 2011?
I don't recall this e-mail, no.
Q Do you have any reason to believe you did not receive it?
No, I don't.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer it in evidence, your Honor.
MR. KISE: Objection.

MR. SOLOMON: I'm sorry, it's already in evidence.
MR. KISE: I think it's already in evidence, but I just want to note, as we are going down this path, relevance again.
None of this relates to any of the claims actually at issue. There are no loans prior to 2014 that are the subject matter. This is a non-party witness. I'm not sure of the purpose of going through all of these.
What is going to be, I'm sure, a series of documents between 2011 and 2014 that predates the statute of limitations, it can't possibly have any bearing on any claim actually at issue.
THE COURT: I disagree. It remains in evidence.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, your Honor.
Q If you take a look at Mr. Harvey's cover e-mail, he states that it is a redraft of the term sheet based on our conversation today. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt that you had a conversation with him on or about November 15th, 2011?
No, I don't.
Q If you look at the second page of this exhibit.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Q The interest rate is LIBOR plus 5.5 percent. Do you see that?

I do, yes.
Q Do you recall if that was the rate you had discussed with Mr. Harvey?
No, I don't recall.
Q Do you have any reason to believe this term sheet does not accurately reflect your conversation with Mr. Harvey?
Well, I don't recall my conversation with Mr. Harvey, so I don't know one way or the other. I have no reason to believe it doesn't reflect it.
Q Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: I'm going to hand to the witness PX-3247, which is already in evidence.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q This is an e-mail chain between you and Ronnie Levine and Ralph Herzka. Do you see that?
No. I think --
Q I think I may have a different exhibit.
MR. SOLOMON: I'm on the wrong one.
Q You have the right one, ma'am. This is an e-mail between you, at the bottom, and Enrique E. Morelos Zaragoza Borbolla. I apologize if I mangled the pronunciation.

Is this the potential transaction you were discussing with Inbursa?
Yes. This is with Inbursa.
Q If you look at the bottom of the first page, second paragraph, " ttached for your review is a markup of your term sheet."
Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q nd if you turn, beginning on the third page --
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Q -- there appears to be a markup of an Inbursa term sheet?
Yes.
Q Is that your markup of his term sheet as reflected in the cover e-mail?
I don't recall, sitting here today, any of these terms from 2011. We didn't move forward with the deal with them, so I have no reason to believe it's not. But I don't remember having these conversations other than very high level.
Q If you look on the third page of the exhibit, which is the first page of the term sheet, "Indicative Rates, one month LIBOR plus 550 basis points."
Do you see that?
Which page were you on?

Q The third page of the exhibit, page three of 14?
Okay.
Q Under "Indicative Rates."
Yes.
Q It's highlighted on the screen. That is something I did not strike; correct?
It's not struck here, no.
THE COURT: Let me just suggest. It's often easier to see it on the screen because they highlight what they want you to look at.
THE WITNESS: Thank you. I appreciate it.
THE COURT: But either way. What were you -- nothing. Go ahead.
Q t this time, were you also communicating with Meridian Capital as a potential broker for the financing of the Doral acquisition?
I recall you having asked me about Meridian when we met, and I had forgotten that we had conversations with them. I don't believe we had ever engaged them. I don't recall having done that. But it wasn't uncommon for us to ask people in the market what their thoughts were as we were looking at things. But I don't recall that we actually formerly engaged them.
Q But you had conversations with them; correct?
Yeah, you reminded me of that, yes.
Q Okay.

MR. SOLOMON: If we could hand to the witness PX-3243 which is already in evidence.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
Q nd I was on the wrong page earlier, now on the right page. This is an e-mail chain between you and Ronnie Levine and Ralph Herzka; do you see that?
I do, yeah.
Q They were with Meridian Capital or were with Meridian Capital at that time; correct?
I hadn't remembered Ronnie Levine, but you had reminded me that he worked at Meridian. Ralph I remember.
Q Do you see the first sentence in your e-mail on the very top from November 1st, 2011? You state, "I actually spoke to Tom Harrison at Colony today." nd then it goes on. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Do you recall speaking with anyone at Colony in potential financing for Doral?
There was a point in time when Colony was going to be our equity partner in the project, not on the debt side, but as our partner in -- actually, you know what, that was OPO, so this was -- I don't recall, because there was also Tom Harrison, but I don't recall having spoken to him about Doral. But I do recall having spoken to him about the Old Post Office, and we actually had explored it collectively for some time, so. They were happening kind of around the same time, so apologies for the confusion. But no, I didn't remember speaking to him about Doral.

Q Okay.
Second sentence reads, "He said that we wouldn't want to do a deal with them on the debt side as they are too expensive for what we'd be looking for (low teens.)"
Mm-hmm.
Q Do you have any reason to believe that you reported the conversation inaccurately to Mr. Levine and Mr. Herzka?
No.
MR. SOLOMON: I'm going to hand up PX-1289, which is not in evidence, so it's marked for identification.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.

Q This is an e-mail from Ronny Levine to you; do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q November 7, 2011, correct?
That's what it says, yes.
Q nd it attaches a finance memo that, according to this e-mail, you discussed with him last week?
It appears that way, yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer PX 1829 in evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection, statute of limitations, relevance. Is this going to be connected up at some point to claims that are at issue?
THE COURT: We have been battling, shall I say, over relevance in terms of the statute of limitations, for example. First of all, this is not going to be a comprehensive list:
There is no jury, so there is no prejudice.
This apparently will be the plaintiff's last witness on their case-in-chief, right?
MR. SOLOMON: I believe that to be true, Your Honor, but depending on what happens, we reserve the right.
THE COURT: Of course.
nd these documents, these discussions, I would just like to get the whole picture, not just blind myself.

I am very aware of the ppellate Division's statute of limitations cutoff.
nd finally, I think that a lot of this is arguably, possibly, relevant to the injunctive relief that the plaintiff is requesting.
So that's my response to both relevance and statute of limitations. So overruled.
That was a request to put this in evidence.
MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
THE COURT: I almost forgot after all of the talking I did.
Granted, it is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1829 by the Court.)
Q If you could turn to the financing memo?
Yes.
Q Mr. Levine starts by telling you that they have spoken with a wide variety of lenders regarding acquisition and renovation, financing for the Doral Resort and Spa; do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q t the end of the first paragraph he goes on to analyze certain information from a recent Deutsche Bank securitization; do you see that?

I do, yes.
Q nd on the next page, based upon the information they have, towards the end of the carry-over paragraph, he notes that a 9 percent debt yield is "an aggressive assumption and the lowest indicated of the deals above." Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Do you recall in or about November of 2011 having an understanding that a 9 percent debt yield is an aggressive assumption with respect to potential Doral financing?
No.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt, as stated by Mr. Levine, that a 9 percent debt yield was an aggressive assumption at that time?
I think it would be hard for me to answer that question sitting here today, all of these many years removed. But just looking at the document, it appears that the example he is using is a mezzanine position. This was debt not mezz, so I am not sure if it is -- this is an apples to apple comparison. But it says what it says. I don't remember it and I don't believe we used them to secure financing.
Q I understand you didn't use them to secure financing. Let's go back though. It is the second paragraph on the first page that speaks about mezz financing, correct?
The 92 million mezzanine position on the standard hotel, yes.

Q Which was sold for 80 cents on the dollar, correct?
That's what it says here, yes.
Q Is it your understanding that the securitized portion that is reflected in the chart above was also mezzanine financing?
I don't have an understanding beyond what I am seeing here today.
Q Well, you testified that the 9 percent debt yield related to mezz financing, and I am trying to understand where you drew that from?
I am just reading the document realtime, so I told you that I hadn't recalled seeing it prior.
Q So you don't know then if the securitized portion that is reflected in the chart on the first page is debt or mezzanine financing, do you?
No, I don't.
Q Did there come a time that you and Donald Trump spoke with Richard Byrne, the CEO of Deutsche Bank Securities, about potentially providing a loan to purchase and renovate Doral?
I recall you reminding me of that discussion, but I -- I didn't recall it prior.
Q Do you recall it now?
No. I recall you showed me, I think, a letter from my father to Mr. Byrne. I don't know. You just showed me a document the last time we were together.

Q I am going to show you what has been marked and already entered into evidence as PX 1433.
Thank you.
(Handing)
Q Is that the letter you were referring to, ma'am?
Yes, I believe I was copied on it.
Q Okay. If you look at the first sentence there is a reference to Donald J. Trump's recently completed financial statement. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q nd you are cced on this letter, right?
I see that, yes.
Q ny reason to believe you did not receive this in or about November -- on or about November 15, 2011?
No.
MR. SOLOMON: I am going to ask to mark as PX 1067 for identification.
(Handing)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q This is an e-mail from you to Richard Byrne the next day, November 16, 2011; do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Does that refresh your recollection that you had conversations with Mr. Byrne about potentially financing Doral?

I remembered it when you brought it to my attention. But I think they were very high level discussions and the conversations didn't go anywhere. So, I don't remember the details of it now.
Q Okay. But you did send this e-mail to Mr. Byrne on or about November 16, 2011, correct?
It appears that way, yes.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer this in evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection, statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled on both grounds. Now I understand, particularly from Mr. Robert, that you feel that you have to object every time there is a document introduced --
MR. KISE: We do.
THE COURT: -- on statute of limitations ground. lso on relevance?
MR. KISE: Since I am going to talk about statute of limitations, I might as well just mention relevance while we are at it.
I hope that the Court when we start our case though, I will say this, next week, offers us this extraordinary latitude in the introduction of evidence. I want to put that on the record. Because this is, respectfully, an extraordinary latitude on bringing in things from years ago.

THE COURT: What is our favorite saying: Sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander?
Okay.
Q Do you recall that before you were dealing with Rosemary Vrablic at Deutsche Bank that the commercial real estate group had proposed certain terms for the financing of the purchase of Doral?
I didn't recall that proposal, no.
MR. SOLOMON: I am going to mark as PX 369 for identification.
(Handing)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q This is a Deutsche Bank document from November 21, 2011. If you look at page five, there is a summary of indicative terms; do you see that?
Okay.
Q It identifies the borrowers; do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Guaranties. The guaranties will be by the company and each of its direct and indirect subsidiaries; do you see that?
I do.
Q There is no personal guaranty indicated there, is there?

I don't see one.
Q If you look at "facility," do you understand facility to be the loan?
I do, yes.
Q The amount, loan amount is 130 million correct?
I see that.
Q nd the spread is L plus 800 bps; do you understand that to be LIBOR plus 800 basis points?
I do.
Q Does this refresh your recollection that the commercial real estate group initially proposed terms that were substantially different from those that were eventually accepted by the Trump Organization through the private wealth management group?
No, I don't, I don't recall having seen this.
Q I understand you don't recall having seen this. My question was a little bit different. Does this refresh your recollection that the commercial real estate group had proposed terms that were different than those ultimately agreed to by the Trump Organization through the private wealth management group?
No.
MR. SOLOMON: I am going to ask to mark PX 315 for identification.
(Handing)

THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q This is a cover e-mail from you to Rosemary Vrablic and Dominic Scalzi with a cc to Jared Kushner, December 6, 2011. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q nd it attaches what you described as: Our investment memo, as well as basic information on our golf and hotel portfolios. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Did you send this to Ms. Vrablic and Mr. Scalzi on or about December 6, 2011?
I don't recall it, but I have no reason to believe I didn't.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer this in evidence, Your Honor.
MR. KISE: Objection, statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled.
Q This e-mails refers to a meeting the next day involving you, Ms. Vrablic and Donald Trump; do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Did you, in fact, meet with Ms. Vrablic and Mr. Scalzi the next day?
I don't recall this particular meeting, but over the years I did meet with both Rosemary and Dominic periodically.

Q But you have no specific recollection of meeting to discuss the investment memo or the basic information on your golf and hotel portfolios?
Not that specific meeting, but I recall more generally us meeting to discuss, whether it was in-person or telephonically, Doral.
Q Did there come a time that Ms. Vrablic provided a summary of potential loan terms for the Doral loan?
Can you repeat the question?
Q Sure.
Did there come a time when --
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, may I have a read back?
THE COURT: Read back, please.
(Whereupon, the record was read back by the court reporter.)
Yes.
MR. SOLOMON: I am going to ask to mark for identification PX 319.
(Handing)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q PX 319 is an e-mail from Ms. Vrablic to you: Ivanka, as we discussed, please find attached our summary terms for the proposed acquisition for the Doral resort. Do you see that?
I do, yes.

Q Did you receive this on or about December 15, 2011?
I recall right around that time having received high level terms. But I don't recall this particular -- this particular note and e-mail. But around that time we would have received -- we would have received what their proposal was, yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer this in evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection, statute of limitations, relevance and the attachments are hearsay. For what purpose is that page being offered; it is purely hearsay?
THE COURT: Is it more than just the first page?
MS. H BB : The document we have is three pages, Your Honor.
THE COURT: re you asking to introduce more than the page that is on the screen here?
MR. SOLOMON: Yes, the entire exhibit, Your Honor.
THE COURT: nd what is the relevance of the second and third page?
MR. SOLOMON: The relevance are the terms that were proposed by Deutsche Bank in connection with the potential loan on Doral.
MR. KISE: The document itself is hearsay. Is he proposing notice as the exception that it comes in?

THE COURT: I assume notice.
MR. SOLOMON: Notice and the witness's understanding of what the potential terms were with respect to the proposal from Deutsche Bank.
MR. KISE: But not for the fact of the terms themselves. This witness hasn't done anything to identify that these, in fact, were the terms that were received.
MR. SOLOMON: With respect, the witness said she received term sheets from Deutsche Bank, this is one of the term sheets. nd she stated she has reason to believe that she did not receive this particular one.
THE COURT: lso it is questionable or problematic whether an offer is being introduced to prove the truth of its contents. But anyway, it is in at least for notice.
(Whereupon, the document referred to was marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 319 by the Court.)
THE COURT: That's not necessarily the only reason. But if you want to push, go ahead.
Q Do you see on the page two of three there is pricing, renovation period: LIBOR plus 2.25 percent over prime. nd then during the amortization period: LIBOR plus 2 percent or the prime rate minus .25 percent. Do you see that?
I see that, yes.

Q Do you recall that Deutsche Bank had proposed different interest rates for the renovation period and the amortization period?
I do, yes.
Q Do you have an understanding as to why those pricings are different during the two periods?
Well, I believe that once we had invested a tremendous amount of capital into the asset, the pricing adjusted accordingly. I don't believe that this is the financial proposal though.
Q I did not represent that it was.
Because these terms are not consistent with my recollection.
Q But there was a negotiation back and forth with Deutsche Bank prior to signing loan agreements, correct?
There was, yes.
Q Okay. Do you see there was a guarantor identified here? Donald J. Trump?
I see that, yes.
Q Do you see that the guaranty is described on this sheet as a full and unconditional guaranty of (i) principal and interest due under the facility; and (ii) operating expenses of the resort? Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Did you understand that at some point during the negotiations Deutsche Bank had wanted a guaranty from Donald J. Trump of the principal and interest and operating expenses?

Yes.
Q If you look under covenants, and I direct your attention to the bottom (ii), at the very bottom: Guarantor shall maintain a minimum net worth of 3 billion including any value related to the guarantor's brand value. Do you see that?
I see that, yes.
Q Okay. Do you recall in the negotiations between the Trump Organization and Deutsche Bank discussions about a minimum net worth requirement for the guarantor?
No, I don't. You had mentioned this to me. I think you had shown me one of the term sheets, I am not sure this one, but one of the term sheets that had circulated when we last met and identified that for me. But I didn't independently recall it.
Q nd this doesn't refresh your recollection that a minimum net worth requirement for the guarantor was one of the terms proposed by Deutsche Bank?
No, it doesn't.
Q You thought this was a great proposal, didn't you?
I don't recall this proposal.
MR. SOLOMON: I am going to ask to mark PX 1251 for identification.
(Handing)

Q Keeping in mind, PX 319 was sent to you on December 15, 2011 at 11:13 a.m., in looking at this exhibit, PX1251, the second page, which is the first e-mail, is a copy of that e-mail from Ms. Vrablic, correct?
If you stipulate that it is.
Q I am asking you, same date and time?
It appears to be, yes.
Q Yes. nd you forward that e-mail on, including the term sheet, to Mr. Weisselberg, Mr. Greenblatt and Mr. Orowitz; do you see that?
I see that, yes.
Q nd you state: "It doesn't get better than this. Let's discuss S P."
Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Does that refresh your recollection that you thought that was a good proposal for the Trump Organization?
No.
Q Do you have any reason to believe you did not write that on or about December 15, 2011?
No.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer this in evidence.
MS. H BB : I am going to state an objection on the record on this. If you actually look at the e-mail, it was never sent. Jason Greenblatt there is no "to."

MR. SOLOMON: The bottom of the first page, Ivanka Trump, and then carries over to llen Weisselberg, Jason Greenblatt and David Orowitz.
MS. H BB : Do you see the top of the first page, at least on the exhibit I have, there is no "to."
MR. KISE: Your Honor, also in addition to my initial statute and limitations and relevance objections, I don't think the witness has testified about the top portion.
MS. H BB : That's what I am saying.
MR. KISE: I think that's what Ms. Habba is referencing. Lower portions perhaps, but the top portion here I don't think there is any testimony about that or whether she, in fact, received that at all.
The lower portions that have her in the "to" or "from" category, I believe that's where she is testifying. Mr. Solomon, I am sure, can clear that up. But the top portion is not. That would be something --
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I will note --
MR. KISE: -- I don't know what that is.
THE COURT: But he is asking about the bottom portion.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I will note this was produced to us by the Trump Organization. So it is a

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3698

Trump Organization document. It is an admission against interest. It comes in on many grounds.

MS. H BB : With all due respect, your questions to the witness are whether it was sent and whether those were sentiments. It was not sent.

nd I would just say, Your Honor, this will go a lot faster and I don't think we will have as many objections if they could cut their exhibits into the portions that they would like to show, as opposed to a string of e-mails, some of which were never even sent to anybody. That's going to be my standing objection on this. I just think that is what the issue is.

MR. SOLOMON: Notwithstanding your suggestion, we are not going to alter documents before presenting them to the Court. We are going to present them as they were produced to us.

MS. H BB : Then you should ask --

MR. SOLOMON: Please let me finish, ma'am. I didn't interrupt you.

THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, then Ms. Habba, and then let's get back to the witness.

MR. SOLOMON: Very simply, Your Honor, we can exclude the top portion. Ms. Habba keeps saying it wasn't sent, it wasn't sent, the one I am asking about, the one from Ivanka Trump was, in fact, sent.

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3699

The one from Jason Greenblatt, right above that at 11:54 a.m. does in fact indicate "to" Ivanka Trump, David Weisselberg, David Orowitz, confirming that it was sent and received. Ms. Trump responds ten minutes later at 12:04 p.m., so they were, in fact, sent. The document itself provides evidence that it was sent, received reviewed and commented upon.

THE COURT: Can we eliminate the first?

MR. SOLOMON: We would do that, yes, Your Honor. We would agree to remove the top portion for the present time with respect to Mr. Greenblatt, reserving our rights with respect to dealing with that at a later time.

THE COURT: ll right. Mr. Kise's underlying objection is overruled. nd everything is in except the first section, which may or may not have been sent, I don't know.

MR. KISE: I am not sure, just to clarify, because our understanding is this is their last witness, as you said, I am not sure what later time they are planning on doing that. When their case closes?

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, sorry to interrupt Mr. Solomon. This is their document. This has been used in testimony. This now -- we will go to the metadata, but this is their document. To stand up and say it looks funny, so I don't think it was sent is -- is a new creation from defendants. But we will go back and look at the metadata.

MS. H BB : Nobody said that. I am being very clear and we all have to make the record clear. When you show a witness a document and say, "was this sent." It was not sent. nd I think you probably didn't realize that until now, which is fine. So let's just take that portion out that was not sent. That was not -- yes, it was produced, but it is irrelevant. That's not what you asked the witness about. So just I think that streamlines, Your Honor, so we don't have do this all day.

MR. SOLOMON: I asked the witness about the portion she sent, received and commented on.

MR. KISE: I think we are all in agreement, so we will just move on.

THE COURT: The record is clear. Let's move on.

Q So let's go back and reset if we can.
Okay.

Q Your response or your reaction to the proposal on December 15 at 11:50 a.m. that you sent to lan Weisselberg, Jason Greenblatt and David Orowitz is: "It doesn't get better than this." Do you see that?
I do, yes.

Q Does that refresh your recollection that you thought this was a good proposal for the Trump Organization?

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3701

Well, we ended up doing the deal with Deutsche Bank, so.

THE COURT: That's a yes or no question.
THE WITNESS: Oh.

Not this particular proposal, because I think what we ended up doing was slightly different. s I stated earlier, I didn't remember this particular document. But yes, I thought generally the deal terms with Deutsche Bank for Doral were positive and we proceeded forward.

Q Okay.

THE COURT: That could have been a simple "yes."

Q You see that Mr. Greenblatt responds to you only four minutes later?
Okay.

Q Do you see that at 11:54 a.m. he wastes no time in telling you: "I will review, but not immediately, that this is a full principal and interest and operating expense personal DJT guaranty."
Is that a typo? But "note" as opposed to but "not;" is that your understanding?
It is what it says.

Q Okay. Then it goes on, "Is DJT willing to do that? lso, the net worth covenants and DJT indebtedness limitation -- limitations would seem to me to be a problem." Do you see that?

I do, yes.
Q When you received this, did you have an understanding as to why the net worth covenant would be a problem?
I don't remember having received this.
Q Do you recall the net worth covenant was 3 billion?
No, I think I said earlier that I didn't recall that there was a net worth.
Q In the term sheet that you forwarded on?
Yes.
Q The net worth covenant was 3 billion?
Yes. nd what is here I see that it says 3 billion, or in the earlier exhibit.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we show on the screen PX-787?
Q nd that is Donald J. Trump's June 30, 2011 Statement of Financial Condition. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Can we go to page five of the document?
Q Liabilities and net worth.
MR. SOLOMON: If you scroll down.
Q Net worth. $4,261,590,000. Do you see that?
I see that is what it says, yes.
Q Were you aware that in his Statement of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2011, Donald Trump had represented that his net worth was more than 4 billion?

No.
Q Let's turn back to PX-1251.
You respond to Mr. Greenblatt: "That we have known from day one. We wanted to get a great rate and the only way to get proceeds/term and principal where we want them is guarantee the deal." Do you see that?
I do.
Q Do you recall writing that?
No, I don't.
Q On or about December 15, 2011?
No.
Q Do you have any reason to believe that is not an accurate statement of your view at that time?
No, I don't.
Q Did there come a time that you responded to Deutsche Bank and proposed different terms?
s I said earlier, I don't believe this was the final deal we did. I think the rate was slightly different. So, there must have been subsequent discussions.
Q Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: I am going to hand up PX-332 which is already in evidence.
(Handing)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.

Q This is an e-mail from you to Ms. Vrablic and Mr. Scalzi with a copy to Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. Orowitz: "Greetings from Florida. ttached is a clean version of our marked up LOI." Do you see that?
Yes, if you don't mind just giving me a moment to read it?
Q Please.
Thank you.
(The following proceedings were stenographically recorded by Senior Court Reporter Michael Ranita.)

Okay. Thank you.
Q Do you see that the first paragraph states, " ttached is a clean version of our marked up LOI"?
Yes, I do see that.
Q Is LOI short for letter of intent?
It is.
Q If you look at the third page of the exhibit.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Q The very bottom, "Guarantor shall maintain a minimum net worth of 2 billion, excluding any value related to the guarantor's brand value, as reflected in the Statement of Financial Condition."
Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q So at this time, although Mr. Trump's prior Statement of Financial Condition represented a purported net worth of more than $4 million, you rejected a net worth covenant of 3 billion and proposed a covenant of only 2 billion; correct?
Well, it says what it says here in the term sheet. I didn't, um --
Q Well, the other term sheet we saw this had they 3 billion?
Yes.
Q Your proposal rejects that an counteroffers 2 billion;

correct?
It appears so, yes.
Q Did The Trump Organization ultimately enter into commitment committing and fee letters with Deutsche Bank for the Doral loan?
It did, yes.
MR. SOLOMON: I'm going to mark as PX-320 for identification.
(Plaintiff's Exhibit 320 was deemed marked for identification.)
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q Tom Sullivan is at Deutsche Bank; correct. Or was in or about January of 2012; correct?
I don't really remember Tom, but.
Q Okay.
Did you receive this e-mail in or about January of 2012 from Deutsche Bank attaching fully executed Commitment and Fee Letters?
I don't recall this particular e-mail, but I see it right here, so.
Q Do you have any reason to believe you did not receive this?

No, I don't.
Q If you turn to page four of the exhibit --
(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was scrolled through.)
Q -- do you recognize Donald J. Trump's signature?
I do, yes.
Q If you turn to page nine of the exhibit --
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Q -- do you recognize Donald J. Trump's signature?
I believe so, yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer this in evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations, relevance, and one other thing, your Honor. This witness has been subpoenaed here on behalf of, I believe, three corporate entities, so I just want to note a standing objection, as well, that none of this has anything to do with those three corporate entities.
THE COURT: I don't think that matters.
MR. KISE: It does, because that is ostensibly, ostensibly the basis upon which this non-party non-resident witness was summoned here to testify. That's the reason that she was summoned here to testify. That's the reason we dragged her from her home here to testify.

So we are not asking her about things that are within the parameters of those entities. The argument from the ttorney General was we must have her here because only she can speak for those corporate entities, and so we haven't had any questions about those corporate entities, or even about the OPO loan which, maybe theoretically, or arguably, would have something to do with one of those three entities. None of this has to do with any of that.
So it's just a standing objection. That's all, your Honor.
THE COURT: Well it's an interesting question. To what extent the questioning has to be limited to the grounds of the subpoena. They would have to list every single thing that they might want to ask. lso, the law is entitled to every person's evidence.
Mr. Robert, what is your opinion on that interesting question?
MR. ROBERT: They clearly are limited to the corporate representative of those three entities. We had a whole debate two weeks ago as to they didn't have the ability to serve a personal subpoena, so they did it under the guise of these corporate entities.
So so far -- typically you would actually have the topic attached to it, which they didn't. So so far in the last hour, none of these questions come even close to the basis of those three subpoenas.

THE COURT: Plaintiff, would you like to respond?
MR. SOLOMON: We would disagree, your Honor. The witness is -- obviously. The witness is here. She could testify about these transactions she was involved in. She is receiving e-mails. She is sending e-mails. She is commenting upon term sheets. She is negotiating the deal from top to bottom, from interest rates to amounts of a net worth covenant, which is one of the critical issues in this case, as your Honor knows and already ruled upon.
MS. H BB : Your Honor, briefly --
MR. KISE: Your Honor, none of that has anything to do with those corporate entities.
THE COURT: nd you see that point.
MS. H BB : She is no longer a defendant in this case, so you cannot take full range just because she's here.
MR. W LL CE: I'm not aware of that.
THE COURT: You know, the subpoena -- the ruling on enforcing the subpoena was minimum, not a maximum. So, anyway, overruled.
Let's continue.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we had offered this in evidence. I don't know if there was a ruling.
THE COURT: There wasn't. Granted.
(Plaintiff's Exhibit 320 was deemed marked and

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Solomon) Page 3710

admitted in evidence.)
Q If you could turn to page 15 of 26.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Would you like me to read the whole document, or just turn to the page?
Q If you need to read anything to answer my question, feel free to, but I will focus you on specific areas.
Okay.
Q I'm just going to ask if what was agreed upon under "Covenants", beginning on the bottom of page 15, carrying you over to 16. You'll see there is a bullet point that says "Guarantor shall maintain minimum net worth of 2.5 billion, excluding the value related to the guarantor's brand value (as such minimum net worth is reflected in the guarantor's Statement of Financial Condition prepared by guarantor in substantially the form prepared by guarantor as of June 30, 2011, a copy of which has been delivered to lender.)"
Do you see that?
I see that, yes.
Q Does that your refresh your recollection that the final net worth covenant was 2.5 billion?
No. s I said before, I didn't recall a net worth covenant.
Q Did there come a time in 2016 that The Trump

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Solomon) Page 3711

Organization sought to increase the loan on Doral through Deutsche Bank?
There may have been, but I don't specifically recall that. You may have mentioned something to that effect to me when we were together last, but --
MR. SOLOMON: I'm going to ask to mark as PX-352 for identification.
(Plaintiff's Exhibit 352 was deemed marked for identification.)
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
THE COURT: While we have a moment, I'm trying to remember back to first year civil procedure. Basically, I think that the three corporations were necessary for the power to bring her here. I don't think that limited the testimony. nd that's my ruling anyway.
MR. KISE: gain, for the record, I would respectfully disagree, because all the corporate subpoenas are limited in scope to particular testimony when you bring in a corporate representative.
This isn't a question of whether or not there is sufficient minimum context jurisdiction to add someone as a party to the case. That's an entirely and extraordinarily different analysis.

MR. SOLOMON: We are not talking about adding Ms. Trump to the case, your Honor. That's not the standard that applies in this context.
Q Ms. Trump, PX-352 had been put in front of you. You see this is an e-mail from Ms. Vrablic to you, February 11, 2016, subject "Doral. Hi, it was great speaking to you today. I spoke to the credit team on the $50 million request, and we are thrilled to consider it for you."
Does that refresh your recollection that you sought, on behalf of The Trump Organization, to increase the loan with Doral by $50 million in 2016?
No.
Q ny reason to believe that this is inaccurate?
I just don't recall this.
Q Is that a no?
That's a no.
Q Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer PX-352.
MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations, relevance and hearsay.
THE COURT: Overruled.
(Plaintiff's Exhibit 352 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)
Q Did you also explore, in 2016, the possibility of an

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Solomon) Page 3713

unsecured loan for Donald Trump from Deutsche Bank?
I don't recall.
MR. SOLOMON: I'm going to ask to mark as PX-355 for identification.
(Whereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 355 was deemed marked for identification.)
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q For the record, this is an e-mail from Ms. Vrablic to you from February 16, 2016. Did you receive this on or about February 16, 2016?
Sorry. Just give me a moment to read it so I could have some context.
(Whereupon, there is a brief pause in the testimony.)
Okay. Thank you.
MR. SOLOMON: May I ask for a read back of my question, your Honor.
THE COURT: Can we have a read back of the last question.
Q Does this refresh your recollection that you were seeking an unsecured loan on behalf of Donald Trump in or about February of 2016?
No.
Q Do you recall receiving this e-mail, the top one, from

Ms. Vrablic, on or about February 16, 2016?
No, I don't recall.
Q If you turn to the second page, the very top, it's an e-mail from you to Ms. Vrablic. "Thank you, Rosemary. Just to be clear, based on the note from Dave Williams below, an unsecured facility would not require an appraisal."
Do you see that?
I do see that.
Q Does that refresh your recollection that you were seeking an unsecured loan on behalf of Donald Trump in or about February of 2016?
No.
Q Do you have any reason to believe that you did not send and receive these e-mails on PX-355?
No.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer it in evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection. Relevance.
I think we are passed the statute of limitations, so we'll give you that one.
THE COURT: I'll take what I can get. Overruled.
(Plaintiff's Exhibit 355 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)
Q Do you recall, if you don't necessarily recall the discussions relating to the amount of either the secured or unsecured facility here, questions raised by Deutsche Bank as to the purpose or use of the proceeds of any potential loan in 2016?

No, I don't. I don't think this transpired, so I have no recollection of this discussion or this e-mail.
Q Okay.
nd do you recall that it did not transpire because Deutsche Bank refused to do this transaction?
No.
MR. SOLOMON: Mark as PX-558 for identification.
(Plaintiff's Exhibit 558 was deemed marked for identification.)
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q This is an e-mail from Ms. Vrablic to you on pril 8th, 2016. Do you see that?
I do.
Q She's giving you an update, correct?
It appears that way, yes.
Q Did you receive it on or about pril 8th, 2016?
I don't recall this e-mail, but I -- if I may just have a moment to read it.
THE COURT: I'll give you a five-minute warning at 11:25.
Okay. Thank you.
Q Do you have you any reason to believe you did not receive this e-mail on or about pril 8th, 2016?

No.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer it in evidence, your Honor.
THE COURT: Definitely too late for statute of limitations. Overruled. Well, there's no objection.
MR. KISE: Other than the relevance, which is a standing objection, you know where we are on that.
THE COURT: It's a Pavlovian reaction on my part by now.
It's in evidence.
(Plaintiff's Exhibit 558 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)
Q Do you see the first paragraph, "Hi, as you know, we heard the final answer yesterday, with Dominic speaking with Dave, outlining the bank's review/decision of the request." Continues on the next paragraph, "Needless to say, we are disappointed that the bank couldn't make the exception in this case."
Does that refresh your recollection that the bank declined the request for the loan in or about 2016?
No, I think I had said prior that I didn't think anything had culminated in around that time frame, so that's consistent with what appears to be this e-mail.
Q Does this refresh your recollection that it was the bank's decision not to move forward though?

No.
Q Do you recall entering into a lease for unit Penthouse 28 at Trump Park venue?
Yes.
Q Is that also a street address of 502 Park venue?
It is, yes.
Q Did that lease have an option for you to purchase Penthouse 28 for $8.5 million?
It did.
Q To your knowledge, did Donald Trump's Statements of Financial Condition take into account this option in valuing this unit?
s I had told you a year and a half ago when we spoke, I wasn't involved in his Statement of Financial Condition, so I can't say what it took into account or did take into account.
Q Did there come a time that you entered into a lease for Penthouse 20 at Trump Park venue?
Yes.
MR. SOLOMON: I'm going to ask to mark, as PX-623, a series of documents, including lease, second amendment, assignment and assumption, and first amendment.
(Plaintiff's Exhibit 623 was deemed marked for identification.)
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Q Do you recognize these documents?
They appear to be copies of a second amendment to the lease with 502 Park venue, of Penthouse 20, yes.
Q In addition, on page four is an assignment and assumption of lease. Do you see that?
On page?
Q Four of 22.
Four -- I do see that, yes.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Q nd then page eight of 22 is a first amendment to lease. Do you see that?
I do see that, yes.
Q nd then page 11 of 22 is the actual lease of a condominium unit. Do you see that?
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Yes, I do.
Q Is that your signature on page six of this document?
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
That is my signature, yes.
Q nd is that your signature on page ten of this document?

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
It is, yes.
Q nd is that your signature on page 22 of this document?
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
It is, yes.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer this in evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Plaintiff's Exhibit 623 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)
Q If you turn to page 14.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Q Paragraph 49(d), did you understand that you had the exclusive right to purchase the unit, Penthouse 20, for $14,264,000 during the term of this lease?
That's consistent with my memory of our -- of the option price, yes.
Q Do you know if any filings that were required under the Martin ct or New York Condominium Law disclosed the existence of this option?
I don't know.

Q Do you know if any of your -- of Donald Trump's Statements of Financial Condition, between the time of execution of this lease and your departure from The Trump Organization in 2017, took into account the existence of this option in valuing this unit?
I don't know.
Q We talked about Donald Trump's Statements of Financial Condition in passing. Just so the record is clear, between 2011 and prior to your departure from The Trump Organization in 2017, were you aware that Donald Trump had personal Statements of Financial Condition? s we discussed, I -- roughly a year and a half ago, I would assume he would have personal financial statements that he would work on with his own accountants, but those weren't things that I was privy to.
You showed me a few documents and e-mails and correspondence which reference financial statements generally, but it was not something that I was involved in.
Q I understand you may not have been involved in it, and you, in your answer, you used the word "assume."
Did you know whether he had personal financial statements, Donald J. Trump?
Yes. I said to you then, and I say to you now, I'm not involved with his personal financial statements. I worked at the company, so I knew about company statements, periodically, asset statements, but I didn't know about his personal statements, per se, other than what you've shown me.

Q So, then, is it fair to say that you had no role in preparing any of Donald Trump's Statements of Financial Condition?
MS. H BB : Your Honor, asked and answered.
THE COURT: You used different language before, so I'll allow it.
Let's, again, be clear between the generic financial statements and the specific Statements of Financial Condition, so.
MR. SOLOMON: I'll rephrase my question, your Honor.
Q Did you have any role in preparing Donald J. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition?
Not that I'm aware of, no.
Q To your knowledge, did you ever provide valuations for any of the assets reflected on Donald J. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition?
Not that I can recall, no.
Q Did you ever review any of Donald J. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition before they were finalized?
I don't recall that, no.
THE COURT: Six-minute warning.
MR. SOLOMON: I can go onto another area or --

Page 3722

THE COURT: Break now?
MR. SOLOMON: Whatever the Court's preference.
THE COURT: We could take a vote, but let's take a break now. So 15 minutes. So be back here at 11:40.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, an admonition to the witness, please.
THE COURT: I will direct the witness not to discuss your testimony or this case, or anything about them, while you are still a witness.
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
THE COURT: Sure.
(Whereupon, a 15-minute break was agreed upon and taken by all parties.)

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3723

MR. KISE: Your Honor, can we approach for one second?
THE COURT: Yes. I go up the stairs faster after a day off. So come on up.
(Whereupon, there was an off the record discussion at the bench between the Court and counsels.)
THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, go ahead.
MR. SOLOMON: Before we bring the witness in I have one housekeeping matter to bring up on a document. Can we please pull up 3226, which has already been admitted into evidence.
nd just so the Court is aware, this is the same e-mail chain we were arguing about earlier. nd if you see the top, it is from Jason Greenblatt, and it has "to Ivanka Trump, llen Weisselberg David Orowitz," so I think that removes any objection defense counsel may have had.
MR. KISE: It removes that objection.
MS. H BB : Not the other objections.
THE COURT: The other objections are overruled. That objection is withdrawn, since it is from or to Ivanka.
COURT OFFICER: Ready for the witness?
THE COURT: Yes, ready.
(Whereupon the witness resumed the stand.)

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3724

THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, please proceed.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.
Q Let's talk about the Trump Hotel Tower in Chicago.
Okay.
Q Did there come a time that the Trump Organization sought to refinance the debt on that property?
Yes. Prior to my leaving the company, yes.
Q Yes, prior to your leaving the Trump Organization, did there come a time that the Trump Organization sought to refinance the debt on the Chicago property?
Yes.
Q Okay. Did you reach out to CSG Investments to gauge their interest in refinancing the debt?
I don't recall whether I did or didn't.
Q Sure.
MR. SOLOMON: I am going to ask to hand to the witness PX-3236, which is already in evidence.
(Handing)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q nd this is an e-mail chain. The top is you forwarding to David Orowitz an e-mail you received from Jacob Cherner at CSG Investments. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q If you look at the e-mail you received from Mr. Cherner, did you understand that for refinancing Chicago, in or about 2012, the baseline rate would be around LIBOR plus 500 basis points?

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3725

I don't recall the specifics of the transaction. I don't remember this e-mail.
Q Do you have any reason to believe it is not accurate?
No.
MR. SOLOMON: I am going to ask to be handed to the witness PX-3239, which is already in evidence.
(Handing)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q This is an e-mail chain, the top one is from you to Jared Kushner@observer.com, TIHT Chicago Refi. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q nd you are forwarding on an e-mail you had received from David Goodman, correct?
It appears that way, yes.
Q nd Mr. Goodman is at Deutsche Bank or was at Deutsche Bank at that time, correct?
I don't remember David Goodman. I recall Rosemary, obviously, we spoke about her earlier. nd she is, I see that she is copied on this e-mail.
Q But you don't recall David Goodman at all?
Only, I think, in documents you have shown me. But I don't think I worked extensively with David.

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3726

Q David -- was David in the commercial real estate group?
I don't -- I don't recall.
Q You will see on this e-mail, excuse me.
You will see on this e-mail Mr. Goodman attaches term sheets for hotel and condo financing. Do you see that?
It appears that way, yes.
Q nd so we all understand, the Chicago property had two parts to it, correct?
Could you be more specific?
Q Sure. It had a commercial portion, yes?
There was a hotel, hotel condo, residences, and a retail component.
Q Retail component being commercial?
Sure.
Q Or do you refer to that as a retail component?
You can refer to it as either.
Q So it had two components, correct?
Sure.
Q Okay. If you look at the first term sheet which starts on page two, term sheet which starts on page two, Trump International Hotel and Tower, and it uses the term commercial; do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q If you turn to the tenth page of this document, the proposed interest rate.

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3727

Which page?
Q Page ten of 27, which is schedule for the commercial refi term sheet. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q nd the interest, the proposed interest rate is 345 basis points above the yield on the ten year on-the-run swap rate. But in no event less than 5.28 percent. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Now let's turn to the condo term sheet. That's the hotel and condo portion that you were referring to, right? You will see that begins on page 15 of 27. It says "condo" across the top.
I see that.
Q Okay. Turn to page 22.
The interest the proposed interest rate for this portion of the refi is the sum of the benchmark and the spread. Do you see that?
Yes.
Q nd the spread is 800 basis points, do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q nd the benchmark is the one month LIBOR as reflected on telerate or in certain instances an average of London Interbank Offered Rates ("LIBOR") for dollar deposits in an amount equal to $1 million offered in the London Interbank Euro-dollar market for a term of one month. Do you see that?

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3728

I do.
Q Did the Trump Organization go forward with the refinancing of the Chicago property on these terms?
I don't believe so.
Q I am going to hand up what we have marked PX-477 for identification.
(Handing)
Q You will see this is an e-mail from Emily Schroeder to you and others at the Trump Organization with ccs to people at Deutsche Bank and Loeb and Loeb. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q "Ivanka, we are pleased to present you with the agreed upon summary of terms and expense coverage letter for the refinancing of the Trump --
THE COURT: It doesn't say "refinancing" it says "financing."
MR. SOLOMON: Excuse me, you are right, Your Honor.
Q "For the financing," excuse me, of the Trump International Hotel and Tower in Chicago. Do you see that?
I do.
Q Who is Emily Schroeder?
I recall her having worked with Rosemary on her team,

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3729

Rosemary and Dominic.
Q t Deutsche Bank private wealth management group, correct?
Correct.
Q nd she attaches the summary of the terms, correct?
It appears that way, yes.
Q Do you recognize this document?
I don't.
Q Do you have any reason to believe you did not receive this on or about September 19, 2012?
I don't.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer it in evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection, statute of limitations, relevance and hearsay.
THE COURT: Overruled on all three grounds. It is in.
(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 477 by the Court.)
Q If you turn to page five of seven of this exhibit, you will see it is now described, it is broken into two portions: Facility note ; and facility note B. Do you see that?
I do.

Q nd facility note is for the residential component, if you look to the right of where it says property.
I see that, yes.
Q So note is for the residential portion; and note B is for the commercial component if you go further over to the right. Do you see that?
I see that, yes.
Q nd so the residential component would be the condos we had talked about earlier, correct?
I am reviewing this for the first time in years. It appears to say that. I haven't read the whole document, of course.
Q Under property, the residential component ("residential come point incident") of the property consisting of unsold (a) residential condominium units (b) deeded parking spaces (c) storage spaces and (d) associated common areas.
That's what it says, yes.
Q nd facility note B is the commercial component. Do you see that?
Mm-Hm.
Q Okay.
THE COURT: You can't say mm-hm, you have to say yes or no.
THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes. Sorry.
Q If you look at pricing spread for the residential component it is L plus 3.35 percent. Do you see that?

I do, yes.
Q nd do you understand that to be LIBOR plus 3.35 percent?
Yes.
Q nd the pricing for note B is LIBOR plus 2.5 percent with a note underneath. "Borrower will have a fixed rate option through the execution of a five-year swap with indicative fixed rate of 3.42 percent as of September 4, 2012. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q If you look under guarantor, note has Donald J. Trump 100 percent of principal interest and operating expenses of facility note 's collateral. Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd it also has Donald J. Trump guaranteeing under note B, 100 percent of principal interest and operating expenses of facility note B's collateral. Do you see that?
I do.
MR. SOLOMON: I am going to ask to mark as PX-365 for identification.
(Handing)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q This is an e-mail chain between you and Rosemary Vrablic. Subject is: Pricing update.

Give me one moment to review this document. Thank you.
(Pause)
Thank you.
Q This is an e-mail chain between you and Ms. Vrablic, correct?
Yes.
Q nd on the first e-mail, which if you turn to page two of three, Ms. Vrablic advises you that given the facts that you had discussed with her at that morning's meeting, she is offering revised pricing. Do you see that?
I don't recall this e-mail, but I see what it says here.
Q Do you have any reason to believe Ms. Vrablic misstated your meeting or discussions in any way, shape or form?
No.
Q She offers revised pricing for the hotel, the original rate was LIBOR plus 2.5. She can drop it to LIBOR plus 2.25. Do you see that?
I do.
Q She is able to drop the origination fee by a quarter of a point. Do you see that?
I do.
Q For the condos, with the assumption of a $62 million loan, she is able to drop the origination fee by one eighth of a point. Do you see that? .75 to .625?

Yes, I see that.
Q nd you respond, if we go further up on page two, you respond: "You are the best, Rosemary. Thank you." nd you ask for a clarification. Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd if you turn to the first page, Ms. Vrablic tells you that your clarification is correct. nd you respond to her: "Thanks Rosemary, we all appreciate it." Do you see that?
I do.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor we offer PX-365 in evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection, statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled. It is in.
(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 365 by the Court.)
Q Did you understand that in dealing with the private wealth management group at Deutsche Bank you were able to save -- withdrawn.
Did you understand that the Trump Organization, by dealing with the private equity management group at Deutsche

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3734

Bank was able to obtain a lower interest rate and lower origination fees than if they had dealt with the commercial real estate group?

I don't think I ever thought about it in that context. I dealt with Rosemary on a couple of deals, tangentially Chicago, but really more Doral and the Old Post Office. So it was, to the best of my recollection, those were the only financings I had done involving the company. So those were the deals that I had worked on.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, could I have a read back of my question? I thought it was a yes or no.

THE COURT: I think so to.

(Whereupon, the record was read back by the court reporter.)

THE COURT: That's a yes or no question.

Well, I had contextualized it only to the extent that I don't think I ever thought about it in comparison to another. I had only dealt with Rosemary and her group in any substantive way.

THE COURT: Is the answer yes or no?

THE WITNESS: No.

Q Let's talk about the Old Post Office in Washington DC.

Did there come a time that the Trump Organization submitted a proposal in response to a request for proposal from the General Services dministration?

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3735

Yes.

Q Can we refer to Request for Proposal as RFP; and General Service dministration as GS ?

Yes.

MR. SOLOMON: I am going to ask to hand to the witness PX-1164, which is already in evidence.

(Handing)

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

Q It is a long document. Take your time if you need to look at it.

Thank you.

Q Do you recognize --

This brings back a lot of memories.

Q I think you said that to me a year and a half ago as well.

Yeah.

Q Do you recognize that document?

I believe this is our response to the request for proposal from the GS .

Q If you look at the second page of the exhibit, is that your signature on the cover letter?

Yes, it is.

Q If you could turn to page 144, it is Section III of the Trump Organization's proposal: Developers financial capacity and capability. Do you see that?

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3736

Let me know when you get to the page.

Yes, I see that.

Q Do you understand that the developers financial capacity and capability was a required section in responding to the RFP?

Yes.

Q Do you see there is an asterisk at the end of the title for that section?

I do, yes.

Q nd if you go to the bottom it states: "Trump's financial statements have been provided under separate cover, along with each binder." Do you see that?

I do.

Q Was that an accurate statement?

That Trump's financial statements had been provided under separate cover along with each -- I have no reason to believe not. I assume so.

Q You don't have any?

I don't remember.

Q You don't have a recollection?

No, I don't remember every word of the document, no, of course not. I assume everything is accurate.

Q Because you were very careful not to submit inaccurate information to the GS , right?

I. Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3737

I always endeavor to be careful.

Q t the time of submission of this proposal, was the Trump Organization contemplating partnering with Colony Capital on this deal?

We were, yes.

Q nd at the time of submission of this proposal, had the Trump --

I believe -- I believe it -- at some point we proceeded forward without Colony. But I believe they were still our partner at the time we submitted the original proposal. So, yes, I think so.

Q Okay.

Had the Trump Organization at the time of submission of the proposal executed a letter of intent with Colony Capital for this project? nd when I say, "this project," I am referring to the Old Post Office or OPO project.

Understood.

I can't recall if we had done that prior.

Q Okay. Please turn to page 185.

Okay.

Q Letter of interest from equity partner. Do you see that?

I do, yes.

Q "Trump has executed a detail LOI with Colony Capital to provide equity financing for the redevelopment of the Old Post Office building." Do you see that?

I do. Yes.
Q Does that refresh your recollection that there was a letter of interest, at least, between the Trump Organization and Colony Capital at the time of submission of the proposal?
It doesn't reflect -- refresh my recollection. I have no reason to believe it is not accurate.
MR. KISE: Your Honor --
THE COURT: Yes, go ahead.
MR. KISE: Is there some point at which there is a limit on where we are headed here today?
THE COURT: Yes, 4:30 today.
MR. KISE: But this is, like, Colony Capital 2011, it is just highly irrelevant. Did we really call this witness here to waste this time; dragged her all of the way from Florida to talk about Colony Capital from 2011, on a deal that is clearly and obviously outside of the statute of limitations? This contract was awarded years before the limitations period.
THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, do we need to excuse the witness for you to explain the relevance, or no?
MR. SOLOMON: If we can, Your Honor, I would appreciate that, that we not have this in front of the witness.
THE COURT: May I ask the witness to step behind the courtroom.

(Whereupon, the witness stepped down from the stand and exited the courtroom.)
THE COURT: Let me just add, I think significantly, I hope significantly, to my reasonings for overruling the statute of limitations objections to pre-2014 and/or pre-2016 deals. Because these deals, I don't think all of them necessarily, but at least some of them had requirements for updated financials year after year after year. nd although defendants seem to want to discount them or ignore them or something, to me they are very much a part of this case. So it doesn't make sense to talk about the follow-up documentation without establishing the original loan.
Go ahead.
MR. KISE: I would respectfully disagree entirely with that, Your Honor. Because the only thing that is at issue now, according to the government, are the actual certifications themselves. Those certifications could not have -- those are the wrongful acts. I mean other than the things that are within the statute of limitations. If there are things that are post-2014 or post-2016. But seven of the ten transactions, including this transaction, fall well outside of limitations period. So nothing that was done by way of a certification, to the extent even one was required here in 2015, '16, '17, '18, would have any impact whatsoever on a decision that was made years before the statute of limitations period expired. I mean, there is no possible connectivity between a decision that was made in 2011 or '12 and a certification later. If they want to contend that the certification in 2016 was false in some way, okay, contend that. But it is not going to alter. It is theoretically impossible -- it is beyond implausible to argue that some event that took place in 2016 would have changed the course of events in 2011 or 2012 or 2013. The individuals in 2011, 2012, 2013 and all the way up to 2014, middle of 2014, could not possibly have been impacted by a certification that was submitted in 2015, 2016 or 2017.

So while there is some contextual latitude, I just would, again, submit we got this witness here, we are asking about things that are well far afield. If there is some specific issue with respect to OPO that falls within the limitations period, then okay. But I just -- I am just noting for the record, and I didn't mean to tie up this much time, but you asked. I don't see the connectivity here.
This is true of all of these loans other than the ones that are actually within the limitations period. Because the certifications for the loans, it is the same issue. certification to Deutsche Bank in 2015 or '16 or '17 could not possibly, even theoretically, arguably, plausibly, have any impact on a decision that bankers made in 2011 or 2012 or 2013 or up to '14. It is just not possible.

So while I get that there has to be some context, we are spending an awful lot of time with a witness who has come an awful long way, who is a non-party, going over what appears to be context.
THE COURT: Well, I agree with your logic that a certification, we will agree to that term, in 2017, doesn't affect the -- anything directly about the original loan, how it was negotiated, how it was finalized. However, just to be clear to everybody, these loans some of the loans at issue here, and I believe this one, I could be wrong, but I am speaking generically, required, as a condition of the loan for the Trump Organization or whomever, perhaps one of the individual defendants, certify certain things in the future. I believe that those certifications are at issue.
Let me ask directly. re those certifications at issue?
(The following proceedings were stenographically recorded by Senior Court Reporter Michael Ranita.)

MR. SOLOMON: Yes, your Honor.
THE COURT: Is that something that was in the complaint?
MR. SOLOMON: Yes, your Honor.
THE COURT: Do you want to say anything else?
MR. SOLOMON: I want to be guided by the Court. I learned that if the Court is about to rule in my favor, to sit down and be quiet, so. Let us know if you need to hear from us further, but there are many reasons why this is relevant, and that's why we excused the witness. The deal with Colony Capital is relevant. If you look at the document and understand the document in detail, Colony Capital goes through a description of what an appropriate interest rate would be for this type of project based upon their financing and 25 years in the business. nd Colony Capital, according it this submission, is one of top equity partners in the country. nd it goes on and on, your Honor, as compared to the financing that they did obtain at a lower rate by using false and fraudulent financial statements to induce Deutsche Bank to make loans that they should not have made at those rates.
THE COURT: Well, I'll give Mr. Kise the last word, but you are misquoting me a little bit. It's not if I'm about to rule in your favor, be quiet. It's if I'm arguing for you, you don't have to argue for you.

Mr. Kise.
MR. KISE: So first I'm sure, just as an aside, that Mr. Barrack will be very pleased to know that the ttorney General of New York has such a high opinion of him. Setting that aside, I don't see that what Mr. Solomon said -- I mean, he's making my point for me. Which is that he's talking about obtaining loans. There's no issue with obtaining loans with respect to those that are prior to the statute of limitations. That decision has come and gone. The ship has gone. The tide has come in and gone out, however, you want to frame it. There's no --
THE COURT: The ship has sailed, I think.
MR. KISE: The ship has sailed. There's been no order at issue. The issue is, number one, whether certifications were false or not, and there's all sorts of issues with intent and materiality, which we are not going to discuss at the moment, but whether the certifications were false and what the consequences of certifications standing by themselves. s you know, originally, and we believe the First Department agrees with us, we will wait and find that out at some point, but they originally framed all of those as continuing wrongs. Post the decision in the First Department, they framed them as freestanding wrongs. Either way, either way, if they are now freestanding wrongs, then that's what's at issue. nd that means that in 2015, or 2016, or 2017, but you can't unring the bell with a subsequent certification. You can't say, in 2017, if I submitted a piece of paper in 2017 that was false, that somehow or another that impacted a decision that was made in 2012. That's --

THE COURT: They are not arguing that.
MR. KISE: Well, that's what Mr. McCarty -- that's what you let him testify to. Respectfully, that's exactly what he is arguing, those, the interest rates carry forward. Those decisions were made before the statute of limitations.
Now, if your Honor, if you are clear with us that in fact those calculations are baseless because of that, that's fine. But I haven't heard that. They certainly not conceding that.
So here we are arguing about, and going over issues -- this isn't even the loan document. Let's remember, we are looking at GS documents. The GS decision was made years before the statute of limitations ran.
The GS is thrilled with the Old Post Office renovation. There's no question here that they transformed a hulking relic into a world class facility.
THE COURT: You are starting to sound like your client.
MR. KISE: He makes a point on this, that that's what happened. So I'm not sure why we are debating -- I'm not sure of a lot of things here, certainly, but this one goes really steps well beyond. We are talking about the underlying contract and whether or not prevailing interest rates in 2011 or 2012 has no bearing on whether a certification in 2016 -- '15, '16, '17, and going forward, was false or fraudulent, or what impact or conclusion is to be drawn from that.

THE COURT: I know I keep adding other reasons why I'm making the relevancy rulings I am. It may also be relevant to disgorgement. It may. I haven't decided the case.
MR. KISE: It can't be. That's exactly our point, because --
THE COURT: Put it in your posttrial brief.
MR. KISE: The die was cast when the loans were made; that we believe was the point of the First Department and why they considered these to be continuing effects as opposed to be continuing wrongs, but that's for another day.
But certainly, even under the ttorney General's current theory of the case, you can't go backwards in time and suggest that a certification that occurred years subsequent to a decision had some impact on that prior decision.
THE COURT: Okay. So, Plaintiff, don't do that.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, may I make just two quick points? First, so the record is clear, the ttorney General takes no position with respect to Colony Capital. My description is what is contained in the response to the request for proposal about Colony.

Second, the OPO loan is within the statute of limitations as determined by the ppellate Division, so it's relevant.

MR. KISE: The loan, the loan is within 2014, was a month past the 2014 cut off. I mean, we still have a debate over the other issue --

THE COURT: I understand.

MR. KISE: -- but this isn't a loan document. This is a procurement document. That's why we are having this discussion; two completely disconnected points. The only way -- I'm just going to explain to your Honor. The only reason they want this in is because they are going to argue, that's the reason they asked President Trump on Monday about the distributions from The Old Post Office sale transaction. They are going to argue to you that somehow or another those distributions should be disgorged, because the contract itself was procured using some false financial statement; that's clearly where they are headed. I mean, I'm not telegraphing anything that they haven't already thought of, and so they can't do that. I mean, it's just no room for even making that argument in a case where this decision was made in 2011, '12 or '13. It's just not -- it's not even possible to make that argument.

THE COURT: I disagree. Overruled.

Let's get the witness back and not spend more time.

(Whereupon, the witness stepped into the witness stand.)

THE COURT: Sorry to sort of kept you in the dark. Let's continue.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I guess it would be improper for me to ask for my last question and answer, so I think I'll start a new.

THE COURT: Good idea.

MR. SOLOMON: If I repeat a question, I do apologize.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q I think we were talking about the letter of interest with Colony Capital. If you look at page 185 of 204 I think that's where we were. Do you see that?

That's this document (indicating).

THE COURT: I think it was Monday I complimented all the attorneys for getting us where we are and in a reasonable time. Today I'm going to compliment the technical people on both sides, right and left. It's just amazing. It's like they could read his mind, read the attorney's mind when they get these documents up and highlight things.

I'll just suggest one more time, it's so easy to follow on the screen, and you have two, one right in front of you. nd then you could see all the highlighting.

s far as I know, they've never misrepresented what the larger document is, so you could trust them. But if you show -- if you feel --

THE WITNESS: I compliment them as well. It's very impressive. Thank you.

THE COURT: This is not your first rodeo, I realize.

THE WITNESS: Like this, yes.

Q Does this refresh your recollection that there was a letter of interest between The Trump Organization and Colony Capital?

I believe I had said before that at some point there was some form of letter of interest between us. I haven't recalled the timing of it though.

Q Okay.

MR. SOLOMON: If you could turn to page 193.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Okay.

Q Second sentence of this paragraph -- if you need to turn back to see where this is from, this is a description of central financing. "Through daily participation in the capital markets, Trump and Colony know that construction financing is currently available in top ten coastal MS 's (NYC, DC, San Francisco, Los ngeles) for strong sponsorship, at approximately six percent to seven percent (L plus 500 BPS to plus 600 BPS, with a one percent LIBOR floor) for approximately 55 to 65 percent LTC financing."

Do you see that?

I see that, yes.

Q When you submitted this, what did you understand "LTC financing" to mean?

I would be guessing, now, what I understood that to be. I don't normally use that acronym. It seems a little further down it was a reference to construction financing, loan to construction. I'm not sure.

Q You just don't know?

I can't recall.

Q But the interest rate is approximately six percent to seven percent; correct?

That's what it says here, yes.

Q In the document that you submitted to the GS ?

That's what it says, yes.

Q Did you believe that was an accurate statement at the time of submission of proposal?

I don't recall this section of the document, so I can't say with clarity, but certainly I wouldn't submit something inaccurate.
Q Did there come a time that the GS identified certain deficiencies in the Trump Organization's proposal?
I recall you having shown me a document asking for clarifications, and -- I think it was just a general GS document with questions relating to the proposal. Yes, I recall that.
MR. SOLOMON: I'm going to ask to put in front of the witness PX-1288, which is already in evidence.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
THE COURT: Music to my ears.
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q This exhibit is a cover e-mail from Mr. Orowitz to Patricia Moore, with cc's including you. nd attached beginning on page three is a letter from the GS dated December 13th, 2011. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q nd there appears to be a letter dated September 21st, 2011, beginning on page eight, addressed to Mr. Kevin Terry. He is the senior contracting officer on the OPO transaction;

correct?
He was, yes.
Q nd on page 14 of 19, is that your signature on that letter?
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
It is, yes.
Q nd then at the end, beginning on page 15 is the draft of a proposed response circulated by Mr. Orowitz. Do you see that?
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
I do, yes.
Q Let's focus, if we can, on the GS letter from December 13th, because that appears to be what Mr. Orowitz is proposing to respond to. Do you see that?
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Yes.
Q Mr. Terry is raising certain questions on factor three about Donald J. Trump's financial statements; correct?
Which -- which page are you on?
Q Sure. Page four of 19, factor three?
Thank you. Yes, I see that.
Q Financial statements appear to have multiple G P departures, including but not limited to, not including separately held entity financials, no provisions for income tax, and the PV of the deposits not reflected." Did you understand "PV" to mean present value?

MR. KISE: Objection. Foundation.
MR. SOLOMON: I'm asking the witness's understanding on a letter she received and was proposing to respond to the GS on a deal that she had a primary responsibility.
MR. KISE: That wasn't the question, but in all events.
THE COURT: Withdrawn or overruled?
MR. KISE: It's up to you.
THE COURT: Overruled. Only you could withdraw. Only I could overrule.
MR. KISE: I thought you were asking him if he was going to withdraw the question.
THE COURT: I was asking if you wanted to withdraw the objection.
Overruled.
Q Did you have an understanding that "PV" meant present value when you received this letter?
I can deduce that sitting here today, but I don't recall my understanding of what it was back then, or the specifics of this letter, no.

THE COURT: Please remember to speak close to the microphone.
THE WITNESS: Sorry. Thank you.
Q If you turn to page 18?
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Q Did you understand that this is Mr. Orowitz's proposed response to the issue we just looked at relating to the financial statements?
You said that it was, but I don't -- I don't know.
Q Well, let's look at the cover e-mail. David Orowitz states " ll, I have started brain storming how we can approach the letter."
Okay.
Q "In preparation for our call. Please try to review the letter from the GS thoroughly." That's the letter attached dated December 13th; correct?
Yes.
Q "In addition, read what I have attached and come prepared with viewpoints on how we can create the content that we need and how it should be incorporated into the 30 page presentation, slides, and our verbal scripts."
Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q So if you go through this e-mail and the attachments, beginning on page 15.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Q Do you understand that to be Mr. Orowitz's proposed responses for discussion among The Trump Organization group?
MR. KISE: Objection. Then or now? Same foundation. Objection.
It appears to be --
THE COURT: It looks like she could answer it. Overruled.
No, I.
MR. KISE: She is answering, "it appears to be", exactly the point. Then or now? She knew it then, and that's what she understood it to be then, or is she saying that's what it looks like now? If that's the case, then there's no foundation.
THE COURT: I'm not sure I agree, there's no foundation. re you asking her knowledge then or now?
MR. SOLOMON: I'll ask both, your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay.
Q t the time you received this e-mail, did you understand that Mr. Orowitz was proposing potential responses to the GS deficiency letter?
I don't recall having received Dave Orowitz's e-mail on this topic.

Q Do you recall having received any -- in any e-mail from anyone on this topic?
Well, I mean, we spent years working on the response to the request for proposals, so there were many, many e-mails, many conversations, many of them with Dave. So I just don't -- I don't have a recollection, sitting here all these years later, over a decade, of this particular e-mail.
Q But this is not -- I didn't ask about this particular e-mail. That's why I made it broader. This is not a response to a request for proposal. This is in response to a deficiency letter received by The Trump Organization after the proposal was submitted; correct?
That's what it appears to be.
Q Okay.
nd even with that information, you have no recollection of working with The Trump Organization people to try and respond to the deficiencies raised by the GS ?
I didn't say that. I generally remember that the GS came back to us and asked for clarification on several items, and we endeavored to get them answers. So they had construction related questions. They had operations related questions. They had all sorts of questions. nd I would speak to the various department heads in charge of those elements, or more often I would speak to Dave, and he would speak to those individuals, and, um, endeavor to provide them with the information they were seeking on any points of clarification.

Q nd do you recall that one of the deficiencies related to Donald J. Trump's financial statements that were submitted in connection with the original response to the request for proposal?
I don't recall that independent of sitting here today or -- I believe you may have asked me about this a year ago. So, no, independently -- independent of that, no.
Q Okay. Other than what we may have discussed when we took your testimony in ugust of 2022. You have no recollection, as you sit here today, of any questions raised by the GS in connection with the proposal relating to your -- Donald J. Trump's Statement of Financial Condition; is that your testimony?
MR. KISE: Objection. rgumentative.
MS. H BB : Objection.
MR. KISE: Mischaracterizes the testimony.
THE COURT: Overruled. Her answer is what her answer is.
I think I answered that already. I don't recall that specifically. I recall them coming back to us with a series of questions on all sorts of elements relating to our proposal. nd I recall going to Washington, and there was a presentation, and we endeavored to respond to those questions. Whether we did so in writing prior, or in person in Washington, I don't know.

Q Okay.
In your answer you said you don't recall specifically. How about generally?
No, just -- I recall them asking questions many months. It could've been longer than months. fter we submitted our RFP about the RFP, about different components of it.
Q But you don't recall that one of components related to Donald J. Trump's Statements of Financial Condition?
MS. H BB : Objection. sked and answered.
THE COURT: Overruled.
Outside of what you've shown me, um, in a year and a half ago, and now, no.
Q Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: Could we mark as PX-1431. I'm not sure if it's for identification or evidence -- it's in evidence.
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
Thank you.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Q This document is an e-mail from Mr. Orowitz to you, dated December 17, 2011, attaching "2011 12 17 OPO presentation handout-final-small size.pdf." Do you see that?
Yes, I do.
Q Did you receive this on or about December 17, 2011?

I don't recall having received this specific e-mail, no.
Q Do you have any reason to believe you did not receive it?
No.
Q Did you understand that -- I'm sorry, have you had a chance to review the handout?
It's many pages, so. Would you like -- maybe why don't you ask your question and then I'll see if I need more time to review it.
Q Did you understand that this handout was intended to respond to the issues raised in Mr. Terry's December 13th deficiency letter? s I mentioned, I don't recall this e-mail, so I can only see what it says here. Which I'm happy to read for you, but I don't have an independent recollection of it from Dave to me.
Q s you sit here today, do you understand that this handout was intended to respond to the December 13th deficiency letter?
I don't have an understanding either way. I don't recall it.
Q Do you recall attending a meeting in Washington, D.C. with Mr. Terry in December of 2011?
I don't remember what the date was, but, um, that sounds about -- that sounds about right. It would have been roughly that time frame.

Q Okay.
nd was there a presentation made to the GS at this meeting by The Trump Organization?
There was, yes.
Q nd your -- and Mr. Trump, Donald J. Trump attended that meeting?
He did.
Q nd he spoke at that meeting?
I believe he spoke at that meeting.
Q You spoke at that meeting?
I did, yes.
Q s did other representatives of the Trump Organization?
Correct.
Q nd one of the items they discussed was Donald J. Trump's financial statements; correct?
I don't recall them having discussed financial statements specifically. I recall that it was -- the whole meeting was mainly about our vision for the project, and presenting it. We had or architect, rthur Cotton Moore, who was present with us, um, he presented. ndy Weiss, on construction, presented. We talked about our vision for the redevelopment of the project. nd I recall spending a good amount of time talking about our experience developing, or redeveloping, I should say, historic assets, many of them during a time that preceded my involvement at the company. nd I believe that's what my father spoke about as well. Specifically, I remember him talking about redeveloping the iconic Plaza Hotel, which was quite similar to this asset, um, in its scale and in its, quite frankly, even in the time frame in which it was built.

So it was a general presentation. So I don't recall, with specificity, any discussion over financial statements.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I would move to strike any portion of that answer other than the last sentence, which related to financial statements, which was my question.
MR. KISE: Your Honor, I think the witness is just trying to move this along, as I have been trying to, because he's asking a bunch of questions about what you remember from 12 years ago.
She's testified repeatedly she doesn't have a present recollection. He's not satisfied with that --
THE COURT: Wait, she remembers the meeting.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, she doesn't have a present recollection? She just spent three minutes describing the Plaza Hotel and how it's similar to this --
MR. KISE: He --
MR. SOLOMON: May I finish?

MR. KISE: You may.
MR. SOLOMON: Describing the Plaza Hotel how it's similar to this, how her father spoke about this, how people speak about that, but she has no recollection when I ask her a question, or giving me a direct answer to my questions. So the witness does have a recollection, your Honor.
I do.
THE COURT: Mr. Kise, overruled. I don't think it's good to discuss this with the witness here.
MR. KISE: Fair enough. Fair enough.
THE COURT: Why don't you --
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I'm moving to strike the portion --
THE COURT: Granted, because it was not responsive.
Q The question was just simply, do you recall, at that meeting, discussing Donald J. Trump's financial statements in any way, shape or form?
MR. KISE: re we still arguing?
I don't recall that.
THE COURT: We are not still arguing.
MS. H BB : She did answer that.
THE COURT: fter she gave a whole speech.
MS. H BB : It was in the beginning.
The caveat would be the intention of the meeting was to talk about our vision for the project, so that's what I recall having worked so hard on and having brought to light in that conversation.

Q re you conflating the initial meeting with the GS with the meeting that occurred in December of 2011?

I believe there was only one meeting. I don't recall there being two separate meetings. I recall it was -- we were called once to share our vision for the property. I don't recall there being two separate meetings.

THE COURT: Can you represent, as an officer of the court, that there were two meetings.

MR. SOLOMON: I cannot, your Honor; that's why I was asking.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SOLOMON: Because the way the witness described, it was the vision for the entire project, yet the December 13th meeting in this handout that the witness doesn't recall, even though she received it, describes responses to the deficiency letter from the contracting officer.

MR. KISE: But, your Honor, there were lots of people at the meeting. It may not have been this witness' role to discuss the things that Mr. Solomon is interested in, and I don't know why he is getting so frustrated when the witness tells him that. Like, okay, this is what I remember about the meeting. I remember our vision, I remember these things. I don't remember the --

MR. SOLOMON: My question --

THE COURT: He didn't ask that.

MR. SOLOMON: Thank you.

THE COURT: He asked whether she remembered the discussion of financials, not what happened at the meeting, because -- would you like to clarify the situation, witness?

THE WITNESS: No. Just like I said, I only recall one in-person meeting. Everything had been done -- our requests for proposal, everything had been done via paper. I recall one in-person meeting that I remember the intention was prior to selection of bringing the project to life and sharing -- that's why -- that was the purpose of the meeting, as I remember it, not financial statements or anything granular like that, but a big picture discussion of the vision and, um, our experience from a construction perspective; that's why I mentioned The Plaza.

Q Did there come a time that the Trump Organization was awarded the contract for the Old Post Office?

Yes.

Q t that point in time had Colony dropped out as a partner in the deal?

I can't recall when Colony dropped out, but I believe it was prior to us being awarded the project.

Q Did you then attempt to obtain financing for the project?

Yes.

MR. SOLOMON: I am going to mark as PX 1302 for identification.

(Handing)

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

THE COURT: We will break at ten of.

MR. SOLOMON: Okay.

THE COURT: That clock is a minute or two fast by my phone, so we will call this the eight minute warning.

Q Have you had a chance to review the exhibit?

I have, yeah. Thank you.

Q This is a series of e-mails, the top is from you to Jared Kushner, correct?

Yes, I see that.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, before the witness answers, and we may need to have her step out, but this is bordering on marital privilege, which I know Your Honor is aware of from the other witnesses. This is communications between a husband and a wife.

THE COURT: I think we call it spousal privilege, but same deal.

Mr. Solomon, I Trust you recognize that as well. You must have gone to law school.

MR. SOLOMON: I do, Your Honor. These are business terms. This is nothing private between a --

THE COURT: I don't think there is an exception for that.

MR. KISE: There is no business term exception to the spousal privilege. They can bring their expert, Mr. Cohen, back on that issue.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, this has been produced by the Trump Organization. It was given to the Trump Organization, it was in their files, so any privilege that might have attached was waived years ago and was clearly waived when it was produced to us.

THE COURT: I am more interested in the former than the latter.

Just for the edification, Mr. Robert, is there an exception to the spousal privilege just for business information?

MR. ROBERT: I am not aware of it.
THE COURT: I am not aware of it either. But waived, overruled. nd there are third parties on the string.
MR. SOLOMON: I was going to point out that later down on the stream, not necessarily the top two e-mails, but the parties on the stream later down would waive any further privilege
MR. KISE: To the extent of Your Honor's ruling, we note an exception to it. But then this document is waived, the privilege as to this document. That doesn't waive the actual communications. He can't ask the witness about communications she had with her husband at this time contemporaneously. You can't go there. You may be able to ask, okay, the document is waived but.
MR. SOLOMON: With all due respect, that's as to the subject matter of the document.
MR. KISE: No.
MR. SOLOMON: I am not asking about other communications between Ms. Trump and Mr. Kushner. I am focusing solely on the document, the information in the document, and that's what has been waived.
MS. H BB : No.
MR. KISE: Does Mr. Solomon have a case that supports the subject matter waiver for spousal privilege?

I don't believe there is one.
THE COURT: Give me one second.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I have a suggestion that may address this. If we go question by question I think this may actually not necessarily impact what counsel was concerned about.
THE COURT: ll right. Let's do that.
MR. SOLOMON: Because Your Honor has ruled that its been waived based upon the document.
THE COURT: Okay. We have a couple of minutes let's make use of it.
Q Let's look at the subject on the bottom of page one from Mr. Orowitz to you and Mr. Kushner.
So we can avoid any issue there. Bottom of page one subject: Cap One feedback re OPO. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Is that the Capital One feedback concerning the potential Old Post Office loan?
It appears that way. I don't recall Capital One's involvement in the Old Post Office.
Q Okay. If you look on page two of three at the bottom ending e-mail on June 17 of 2013. Jim Petrus to Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. Greenblatt. Do you see that?
I do.
Q Who is Mr. Petrus?

Jim Petrus. (Peetrus ph.)
Q Petrus?
He was the head of the hotel collection.
Q You stated you had a call with Peter over at Capital One and his initial thoughts right now on the loan are as below.
Does that refresh your recollection that you spoke with Capital One about potential financing for the OPO transaction?
I have a vague recollection, but I think you may have mentioned this to me a year and a half ago. Because I --
THE COURT: Closer to the mic, please.
I don't recall having spoken to Capital One about it.
Q Do you have any reason to believe the information you put in your e-mail is inaccurate in any way?
No.
Q Okay. Principal amount is identified as 110 million. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Term three plus one plus one, what did you mean or what do you understand that to mean?
I would be speculating sitting here today as I don't recall this, but probably years, three years plus an additional two.
Q Right. Three year term for the loan plus two potential one year extensions?

It seems that way, yes.
Q Rate probably L plus 3.75-4 percent. Is that LIBOR plus 3.75 to 4 percent?
I see that, yes.
Q Is that what you meant there?
Same as before, I -- I don't recall this e-mail so I would be guessing as to what I meant -- Q You cite her --
-- over a decade ago. But that sounds reasonable.
Q Okay. If you go further up, while the next e-mail is from Mr. Kushner to you, it is on a chain that you forward on to Mr. Orowitz. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q Okay. So let's talk about that. Mr. Kushner says: "You can get better pricing for such low LTV." Did you understand LTV to be loan to value?
Yes. That makes sense.
Q "Natixis will give you 140 million at that rate most likely. Should I show it to them?"
Do you see that?
I do see that, yes.
Q Why were you showing a Trump Organization potential transaction to Mr. Kushner?
MR. KISE: Objection. This is getting into the spousal privilege now, any reason for her communicating with her husband, any rationale, any conversations they had were -- it is squarely within the spousal privilege.

THE COURT: It is a perfect time to take a break. I'll do a little research over the lunch hour. We will see you all at 2:15.

I'll direct the witness again not to discuss the case or her testimony or anything related to it during the lunch break until she is no longer a witness.

(Whereupon, a luncheon recess was taken at this time.)

* * *

* * *

THE COURT: Before we resume with the witness, I want to pick up where we left off before. The e-mail clearly comes in based on First Department Law. I'll read exactly. This is Peerenboom v. Marvel, et cetera. 148 D3d, 531, 2017. t page -- you will find it. I think it is the second page.

Perlmutter's use of Marvel's e-mail system for personal correspondence with his wife waived the confidentiality necessary for a finding of spousal privilege.

There is an SDNY case also to the same effect.

Cassandra, blah blah blah, versus Petal. 565 F.Supp 557. nd the basic point is, if you use a work e-mail that is subject to being seen by other people, you waive the confidentiality. The e-mail here was from a work e-mail to a work e-mail. I'll call B to B, business to business.

So I'll let the defendants make a statement or argue this if they want.

nd then also the question: Why did you send this -- or ask Jared, her husband, about this, to me that doesn't disclose a confidential communication between spouses. It is a question that is basically a business question. What was the business purpose.

Why don't I hear from Mr. Solomon for 30 seconds and the defendants, if they want, for two or three minutes.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I would also note, picking up your point beyond the business e-mail, when there is a business communication, another First Department case Security Settlement Corporation v. John Paul 128 D2d 429, 1987. The application was also properly denied on the merits, in as much as no marital privilege would attach to the ordinary business records sought here. nd testimony as to "ordinary business matters" of a spouse, citing People v. Melski 10 NY2d 78, 80. nd then there is a jump site.

THE COURT: I totally adopt that also. That's completely relevant here.

MR. SOLOMON: Right. Which goes to the point I raise, Your Honor, about it being a purely business communication, which is an exception to the privilege.

THE COURT: Did you know about that case beforehand or you found it during lunch?

MR. SOLOMON: I will indicate that our strong bench was responsible for that.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's hear from the other strong bench.

MR. KISE: So, Your Honor, without reading your cases, I would -- I'll just say for the record, because I already know where we are going to wind up, the Melski case that they cite is contextually different. I am not going to debate it. There is no point. The document itself -- that speaks to the document itself. s well, everything that you and counsel have put on the record speaks to the document itself, not to the communications they may have had. I would disagree that the conversations they had would now be opened up under some sort of subject matter waiver.

Finally, I think one thing to keep in mind is that the privilege really belongs to the spouse, who isn't here. So Mr. Kushner is not here. It doesn't necessarily belong to the witness. The privilege belongs not to the witness, but to the spouse against whom the testimony is offered. nd so that is the -- I have to find the cites because my handwriting is not what it used to be, my ability to --

THE COURT: Well --

MR. KISE: The Prink case 48 NY2d 309. nd the Fediuk, I think that's how you pronounce it, 66 NY2d 881.

But to the extent the Court is ruling that the document comes in, which we will take exception to, for the reasons stated, certainly any communications other than the document, if the document comes in they can ask, did you send this, did you not send this, is this what it says here, is this what it says here. But going behind that would invade the privilege, particularly as it relates to Mr. Kushner, who isn't here to invoke the privilege. So she cannot be compelled, the witness cannot be compelled to answer questions about her communications with her spouse, when her spouse, who also retains the privilege, isn't even in the courtroom.

THE COURT: Well, we will address the particular questions as they arise. But the question why did you send this or communicate, that's clearly not privileged.

So let's get the witness.

MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.

COURT OFFICER: Witness entering.
(Whereupon the witness resumed the stand.)
THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, let's continue.
MR. SOLOMON: Thank you.
Q Before the lunch break we were looking at PX-1302. The court officer has put it in front of you.
(Handing.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q nd we were on page two of three. We had talked about your e-mail to Mr. Petrus -- did I get that right this time?
Yes.
Q Okay. nd Mr. Orowitz?
That's correct.
Q nd then you had forwarded onto Mr. Kushner right above that. Do you see that?
Yes, I see that.
Q nd the question I had for you is, why did you send this to Mr. Kushner?
THE COURT: Please answer.
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
My husband also was in real estate and would have perspective for me. nd so periodically we would discuss what we were working on specific to real estate and more generally speaking.

Q Speaking?
Well, you asked me why I would forward something to him, and that's why I would forward something to him. I recall telling him, I don't remember this exact exchange, but it was not uncommon that I would ask my husband's perspective on something that I was working on.
Q nd after forwarding it on to him, you then asked Mr.-- well, you asked Dave, I assume that's Mr. Orowitz on the e-mail above; do you see that?
I do.
Q To send Jared, that's Mr. Kushner, correct?
Yes.
Q The latest OM, as well as the THC presentation. Is OM offering memorandum?
That would be my best guess, yes.
Q nd THC is the Trump Hotel Chicago?
No, probably the Trump Hotel Collection. I believe that's the anacronym we used.(sic.)
Q Mr. Orowitz then responds to you and Mr. Kushner, with cc to Mr. Flores on the bottom, page one of three: "Hope all is well, see attached for both presentations." So he followed your instructions, right?
It appears that way, yes.
Q "I wanted to get to you right away, but -- before we sent out again -- we are going to remove management fees from the income statement." Do you see that?

I do.
THE COURT: Please speak closer and maybe a little louder too.
THE WITNESS: My apologies, sorry.
I do, yes.
Q Did you have a view at that time as to whether it was appropriate to remove management fees from the income statement?
I don't know. I think that was Dave that was saying that.
Q I understand it was Mr. Orowitz that was saying that. nd I am asking, did you have a view at that time as to whether it was appropriate to remove management fees from the income statement?
Not as I sit here today remembering -- having a perspective on that, no.
Q s you sit here today, do you believe it was appropriate to remove management fees from the income statement?
I don't know that I have thought about it. I guess it depends, were we managing the hotel? I would need more context to understand if it is appropriate or not appropriate.
Q s you sit here today you don't have a view if it was appropriate or not; is that correct?

That's correct, yes.
Q Before we go on to the next document in this series, I want to go back for a moment. We were talking about your recollection or lack of recollection with respect to the response submitted to the GS for the December 13 efficiency letter; do you recall that?
I do.
Q nd do you recall -- withdrawn.
I am going to ask the court officer to put in front of you PX-1429, which is already in evidence.
(Handing)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q Now, this document is an e-mail from Mr. Orowitz to Mr. Weisselberg, December 16, 2011. Beginning: " llen, Ivanka wanted me to change the language in the G P section. She asked that I review with you."
Does this document refresh your recollection that you had conversations about the G P section in the Trump Organization's response to the December 13 deficiency letter?
No, it doesn't. I don't believe I am on this e-mail. Unless I am.
Q I didn't say you were on the e-mail. I am asking if this letter refreshes your recollection, however --
No.
Q Please let me finish my question.

I.Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3778

-- as to whether you had any role in responding to the G P deficiencies noted in the December 13 letter from the GS ?
No.
Q Do you have any reason to believe Mr. Orowitz was inaccurate in any way when he said you wanted him to change the language in the G P section?
Well, it is a long section. So I don't know which language it is referring to. There is language --
Q Do you have any reason to believe Mr. Orowitz was inaccurate that you wanted any changes in the G P section?
I don't know. You would have to ask Mr. Orowitz.
Q s you sit here today do you have any reason to believe he was inaccurate?
No.
Q He goes on to state that she -- and I assume that refers to you -- ask that I review it with you, meaning Mr. Weisselberg.
Do you have any reason to believe Mr. Orowitz was inaccurate when he reported that you wanted Mr. Orowitz to review it with Mr. Weisselberg?
No.
Q Okay.
MR. SOLOMON: If we could mark PX-327. It is already in evidence.

I.Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3779

(Handing)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q This is an e-mail from Mr. Sullivan to you and Mr. Orowitz attaching a draft term sheet. Do you see that?
I do, yes.
Q nd the reference is the Old Post Office, correct?
I see that, yes.
Q Do you recall receiving this document?
Nope.
Q Do you have any reason to believe you did not receive this document?
No, I don't.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer it in evidence, Your Honor -- I am sorry, it is already in.
Withdrawn, Your Honor, it is already in.
Q If you look at the third page of this document, start with Facility Type.
I see that, yes.
Q $160 million. Facility Type is the loan amount in this context?
Yes.
Q mong other things?
Yes.
Q nd if you turn to page four. Interest costs, top of the page. Do you see that?

I.Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3780

I do, yes.
Q During the redevelopment period LIBOR plus 2 percent or the prime rate; correct?
Yes.
Q nd post-redevelopment period and upon delivery of appraisal indicating a maximum LTV of less than or equal to 60 percent-LIBOR plus 1.75 percent or the prime rate minus .25 percent. Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd if you go to page three, the bottom "this requires a guarantee," correct?
Yes.
Q nd ultimately did Donald J. Trump guarantee the loan from Deutsche Bank on the Old Post Office?
Yes.
Q If you turn to page five. Section Conditions Precedent. Fourth bullet point from the bottom. Quote "Guarantor's financial information" -- before I read that.
t the top it starts with: "Usual and customary for a facility of this size and type including but not limited to receipt, review and acceptance of:" nd then it has a number of bullet points, correct?
Yes.
Q Okay. The fourth bullet point from the bottom, one of the items is guarantor's financial information as previously delivered, including current balance sheet, bank and/or brokerage statement to verify liquidity, real estate portfolio summary, schedule of contingent liabilities, cash flow statement and limited review of most recent tax returns. Do you see that?

I do.
Q Were you aware that that was a condition precedent to Deutsche Bank making the loan on the Old Post Office?
MR. KISE: Objection. Calls for legal conclusion.
THE COURT: Overruled. That's not a legal conclusion. That's common sense.
MR. KISE: Condition precedent? That's definitely a legal conclusion.
THE COURT: If the bank says you have to do X, Y, Z to get this loan, to ask the witness does she understand that guarantor had to do X or Y or Z, that doesn't take a legal conclusion. I understand condition precedent would tend to be a legal word.
Is there some way you can change that? Necessary condition? Pre condition?
MR. SOLOMON: Is Your Honor sustaining the objection?
THE COURT: Well I am trying to -- yes.
Q Did you understand that based upon this term sheet,

I.Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3782

that this term sheet recited a condition precedent to making the loan was or were all of the items in bullet point that I just read, the fourth one from the bottom?

THE COURT: ll right. Just rephrase it without using the term "condition precedent."

MR. SOLOMON: That's the language -- Your Honor that's the language used in the document. That's what I am asking.

THE COURT: But that's not a layperson's, a non-lawyer's understanding.

Q Did you understand that before making this loan, Deutsche Bank required the guarantor to provide the information contained in the fourth bullet point from the bottom with respect to financial information as previously delivered and all of the other items identified therein?

THE COURT: Thank you.

Not with that specificity, no. I generally understood that there was a personal guarantee that was a condition of the loan. nd then there was a series of other requirements that were fulfilled by the team in accordance with the terms of the loan. But this level of granularity was not -- was not something I could sit here today and say that I recall.

Q t some point in time did your company, Ivanka OPO LLC, become a member of Trump Old Post Office LLC?

I.Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3783

I don't recall what the entity names are, but that sounds reasonable that it would be one of my entities relating to the Old Post Office.

MR. SOLOMON: Could we have PX-1333. I am going to ask to hand up what I have marked for identification as PX-1333.

(Handing)

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

Q While you are looking at it, I will identify that it is a document Trump Old Post Office Member Corp., Exhibit D. Second mended and Restated Limited Liability Company greement.

nd the second page is the Second mended and Restated Limited Liability Company greement of Trump Old Post Office LLC (a Delaware Limited Liability Company)?

Mm-Hm.

Q Do you see that?

Yes, I do.

Q nd if you look on page 37 of 42, is that your signature under Ivanka OPO LLC?

For page?

Q Thirty-seven of 42.

That is my signature, yes.

Q Okay. Do you recognize your father's signature on behalf of DJT Holdings LLC?

I.Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3784

I do, yes.

Q Do you recognize Donald J. Trump Jr.'s signature on behalf of Don OPO LLC?

I believe so, yes.

Q Do you recognize Eric Trump's signature on behalf of Eric OPO LLC?

I believe so, yes.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we offer this in evidence.

MR. KISE: Objection, statute of limitations and relevance.

THE COURT: Overruled. It is in evidence.

(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1333 by the Court.)

Q If you look on the page three of 42, please.

Okay.

Q nd the fifth whereas clause. Does that refresh your recollection along with the signature blocks as to the entity known as Ivanka OPO LLC?

s I said to you, it sounded like a reasonable entity name for the Old Post Office and my interest in it.

Q Was it your understanding by entering into this agreement that you, through Ivanka OPO LLC, obtained an interest in the entity known as Trump Old Post Office LLC?

I.Trump - by Plaintiff - Direct(Solomon) Page 3785

Yes, I don't know how the interest was structured, I think it was a profit participation, and that interest was disclosed to the GS . But I don't -- I don't recall exactly how it was structured.

Q You have no reason to doubt that you had an interest in --

No.

Q -- the entity known as Trump Old Post Office LLC, do you?

No, I don't.

Q Did there come a time -- withdrawn.

Do you have a revocable trust?

MR. SOLOMON: Is that the pronunciation we all agreed upon?

THE COURT: I think we like that one better, yes, revoc-able versus re-vocable, (ph.) are we doing revoc-able?

Let's ask the witness.

How would you pronounce it?

THE WITNESS: I am going to go with revoc-able, but re-vocable sounds great. I think it is re-vocable.

THE COURT: I think you just changed your mind there.

Q Do you have one of those trusts?

I don't know if it is active, but I believe -- I believe I had one at some point in time. I remember that, yes.

Q nd do your brothers, Don Jr. and Eric, also have a revocable trust?
I don't know.
Q Did there come a time that your revocable trust guaranteed to Donald Trump payment of certain amounts he might have to pay under his guaranty on the OPO loan?
I don't believe so.
MR. SOLOMON: I am going to ask the court officer to mark what we have identified as PX-1314 for identification.
(Handing)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q Is that your signature on the first page of PX-1314?
Yes.
Q On behalf of the Ivanka Trump Revocable Trust dated ugust 13, 2010.
Yes.
Q Do you recognize Donald J. Trump Jr.'s signature above yours?
I do.
Q nd do you recognize Eric Trump's signature below yours?
I do, yes.
Q Turn to page nine of this document. Is that your signature on behalf of the Ivanka Trump Revocable Trust?

It is.
(The following proceedings were stenographically recorded by Senior Court Reporter Michael Ranita.)

Q nd is that Donald J. Trump, Jr.'s signature above yours?
I believe so.
Q nd is that Eric F. Trump's signature on behalf of his revocable trust below yours?
I believe so.
MR. SOLOMON: We offer this in evidence.
MR. KISE: Objection. Statute of limitations and relevance.
THE COURT: Overruled.
(The Plaintiff's Exhibit was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)
Q If you turn to the second -- page two, the second whereas clause, "Whereas in consideration for lender making the loan to borrower", and "borrower" is defined above as "Trump Old Post Office, LLC," do you see that?
I see that, yes.
Q "Making the loan to borrower, DJT executed and delivered to lender that certain guaranty dated as of ugust 12th, 2014, (the 'existing guaranty'.)"
Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd if you look in section two, "guaranty", the bottom of the first page, "each guarantor" -- and if you look at the top, "guarantor" is a defined term, "to include The Ivanka Trump Revocable Trust." Do you see that?

I do, yes.
Q So it's a defined term, "Each guarantor hereby irrevocable, absolutely, and unconditionally guarantees to DJT a prompt and unconditional payment of his or her respective guarantor proportionate share of the guaranteed amount as defined below, as and when the same shall be due and/or payable pursuant to this guaranty."
Do you see that?
I see that, yes.
Q Does that refresh your recollection that your trust guaranteed to Donald J. Trump certain monies he may be called upon to pay under his guaranty for the OPO loan?
No.
Q Do you have any reason to doubt that this document obligated you or your trust to do that?
I have no recollection of this document, so. I would have to have a lawyer read it to determine what it obligated, but I don't remember it.
Q But you have no doubt that you did in fact execute it on the date indicated on the document?
No, I see my signature.
Q Between January 2017 and present, have you received any payments as a result of your interest in the OPO transaction?
MR. KISE: Objection. Relevance.

THE COURT: Overruled.
I believe you said "since January 2017."
Q Between January 17 and present.
Yes, I believe we discussed it this morning. I received a payment upon the sale of the asset.
Q Did you receive any other payments on behalf of -- or in respect of your interest in the OPO Hotel?
I don't believe so.
Q Okay.
Do you recall the approximate amount of the payment you received upon the sale?
Not the exact amount, no.
THE COURT: He didn't ask for an exact amount, or he didn't mean exact amount.
MR. SOLOMON: I have a document, your Honor. I think we could move forward more quickly this way.
I'm going to ask to hand to the witness PX-1373, which is already in evidence.
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
Q I understand you are not on this e-mail chain, but I would direct your attention to the bottom e-mail from Patrick Birney, with Donna Kidder, with the cc to Mark Hawthorn and Michael Levchuck?

I see that yes.
Q You see distributions based upon a sale proceeds from OPO; correct?
I see that, yes.
THE COURT: Please, a little louder and/or a little closer, or a lot louder and a lot closer.
I see that yes.
Q I believe this has previously been identified as the distribution from the proceeds from the OPO sale. Do you have any reason to doubt that?
I'm not, as you noted, copied on this chain, but I've -- it -- so I don't know one way or another if this is the waterfall.
Q Did you receive approximately $4 million from the proceeds of the OPO sale?
That's consistent with my recollection, yes.
MR. SOLOMON: We have nothing further at this time, your Honor.
THE COURT: Okay.
Will there be any cross examination of the witness at this point?
(Whereupon, there is a brief pause in the testimony.)
MS. H BB : Yes.

THE COURT: I was going to say, I gather that is a yes.
MR. SU REZ: Yes.
CROSS EX MIN TION
BY MR. SU REZ:
Q Good afternoon, Ms. Trump.
Hello.
Q My name is Jesus Suarez. I represent certain of the defendants in this case.
Ms. Trump, what role did you have, if any, in creating Statements of Financial Condition for your father?
None, that I'm aware of.
Q Were you responsible for preparing Statements of Financial Condition for your father?
No, I don't believe so.
Q Were you responsible for reviewing Statements of Financial Condition for your father?
No.
Q Were you responsible for approving Statements of Financial Condition for your father?
No.
THE COURT: Well, she said she had no role, so you really didn't have to ask those questions, but let's just move on.
MR. KISE: So we are getting -- your Honor, I'm just going to note that we haven't even been at it one minute and we are already getting a "hurry up" after they spent hours going over clearly irrelevant documents. I'm just going to note that on the record. Your Honor, that is grossly unfair, respectfully.

THE COURT: Okay. I disagree.
Q Were you responsible, personally, for submitting the Statements of Financial Condition to anyone?
No.
Q Were you responsible for assigning asset values that were assigned to specific assets in the Statements of Financial Condition?
I don't believe so.
Q Were you responsible for developing the methodologies used to value specific assets in the Statements of Financial Condition?
Could you repeat that last one.
Q Were you responsible for developing the methodologies used to value specific assets in your father's Statements of Financial Condition?
No.
Q re you familiar with the Private Wealth Management Group at Deutsche Bank?
Yes.
Q Earlier in your testimony you described Rosemary

Vrablic as a "formidable banker", I believe?
Yes.
Q Why did you describe her as such?
She had an incredible reputation as being exactly that, a long career in the banking industry and considered a very reputable solid lender.
Q How is the Private Wealth Management Division of Deutsche Bank different from the other divisions at the bank? s I testified earlier, I dealt primarily with the Private Wealth Division, so outside of a few conversations here and there, I really -- that was my experience, was dealing with Rosemary and her team predominantly.
Q Would it be fair to say you developed a professional working relationship with Ms. Vrablic?
Yes.
Q She was the banker assigned to Deutsche Bank to manage the relationship with your family and its businesses; correct?
She was one of the bankers. She had a team alongside of her. She was my primary point of contact though.
Q nd her job, together with her team, was to help develop the relationship between Deutsche Bank and your family; correct?
That is correct, yes.
Q In fact, it was her job to help the bank make money by developing its relationship with your family; correct?

Presumably.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, how would this witness know what her responsibility -- Ms. Vrablic's responsibilities were internally at the bank?
THE COURT: I see the point but, I'll allow the question. nd she answered it.
Q Did Ms. Vrablic do a good job?
Yes. We were very pleased with the relationship from when it was initiated to at least what I could speak to, which is up until the time I left the company.
Q She introduced different products that the Private Wealth Management Division offered to your family and its business; correct?
Periodically.
Q She explained products that were available to members of the Private Wealth Management Division?
Correct, yes.
Q nd those products included loans; correct?
Correct.
Q nd Ms. Vrablic would have explained to you and to your family's business the benefits of banking through the Private Wealth Group; correct?
Yes, she was -- expressed tremendous excitement to have our account.
Q nd Ms. Vrablic would have served as a conduit between Deutsche Bank and your family's business for purposes of explaining what those opportunities were?

She may have. My relationship with Rosemary was pretty high level, as I testified earlier. We would have preliminary discussions typically focused on an asset where I would describe, um, the property, the opportunity, what we envisioned for its development potential. nd then she would have a team behind her who would dig into the details.
Q nd from time to time, Deutsche Bank would present you with other investment opportunities?
Periodically.
MR. SU REZ: Could we pull up Defendant's Exhibit 307, please.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
MR. SU REZ: nd zoom in.
(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was enlarged.)
Q Ms. Trump, if you could please take a second to review this document.
(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q Do you recall receiving this document?
I don't recall receiving this document, no.
Q Refreshing your recollection with the document, does this document remind you of any instances in which the bank would have presented other investment opportunities to you?

Only in that it seems consistent with them periodically sending us opportunities for investment, but I don't remember this specific example, no.
Q nd would this have been consistent with the bank's practice of developing its relationship with you and your family's business?
Yes, if they were looking to grow the relationship and expand it.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, we move to admit Defendant's Exhibit 307.
THE COURT: Granted. It's in.
(Defendant's Exhibit 307 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)
Q Deutsche Bank was excited about the relationship it had with your family; correct?
Yes, they were.
Q nd, in fact, Deutsche Bank sought to showcase the relationship that it was developing with your family's business; correct?
That's a characterization of it that I don't know. ll I know is what was expressed to me, which was a level of excitement for the relationship and positive feelings about how it was going throughout the arc of the time that I was there.

(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was taken down.)

Q Was it the case of Deutsche Bank wanted to showcase your family's relationship with the bank in a promotional video?

That's quite possible. I don't remember that, but it's quite possible.

MR. SU REZ: If we could please pull up Defendant's 295, pre-marked for identification.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

Q Ms. Trump, if I could please ask you to review this exhibit.

I see it. Yes, thank you.

Q Is this your e-mail address at the top of this exhibit?

It was, yes.

Q nd would this e-mail refresh your recollection as to a time Deutsche Bank asked you to participate in a promotional video for the bank?

Vague recollection, but not -- not -- I don't -- I don't recall if I did the video or not.

MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, we would move to admit this exhibit into evidence.

THE COURT: Granted. It's in.

(Defendant's Exhibit 295 was deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)

Q Do you recall any discussion with the bank or Ms. Vrablic concerning the different subject areas that they wanted you to speak about in the video?

I think more generally, like I -- it's a long time ago now, but like I said, I was constantly told by Rosemary and members of her team how much they appreciated the relationship and were seeking to grow it.

I'm seeing on this chain a reference to the cochairman Jain, which makes me recall a request from, I believe, Rosemary, or her partner, Dominic, to meet with them as one of their top clients, as he was coming to merica and wanted to meet with individuals that bank with them in New York. So that -- that refreshes my memory on that front, but I don't remember the specific video, no.

Q That's the cochairman of the bank, nshu Jain?

Yes.

Q Do you see it says "What was the key differentiator that DB brought to the table versus other competitors?" Do you see that?

I do, yes.

Q Did you ever provide any feedback to Deutsche Bank as to why you had chosen -- excuse me, why your family's business had chosen to do business with them?

I think I testified earlier that, you know, at one point in time my father was considering building the two projects we spoke most extensively about today, Doral and the Old Post Office, in cash, but we had met with Rosemary. We liked the team. We had heard great things about them. We were excited to work with them. We liked their proposal. nd so I think if I were asked that question, I would probably say the relationship was a huge point of differentiation.

Q Were you present at a meeting between nshu Jain and your father?

I was, yes.

Q Do you recall when that meeting took place?

I do not.

MR. SU REZ: Can we please pull up Defendant's Exhibit 223.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

Q If you could please take a second to review this letter.

(Whereupon, there is a brief pause in the testimony.)

Q Do you see the date of this letter March 14, 2023?

I see that.

Q Excuse me, March 14, 2013.

I see that, 2013, yes.

Q It's addressed to your father; correct?

Yes.

Q nd it says, "Great to meet you for lunch last week."

I see that.

Q Would this refresh your recollection as to when the meeting with Mr. Jain took place?

No, I don't recall when it took place, but I do recall him coming top Trump Tower at some point and meeting with my father and myself.

Q What was the subject matter of that meeting?

I only remember high level that he -- that it was more of an introductory meeting. I don't believe either of us had ever met him before. nd Rosemary had told us that her chairman was coming in from Europe and wanted to meet with their top clients. So I was left with the impression that she was going to introduce him to my father, and to a couple of other select clients of hers, while he was in town.

Q Do you see where it says "It was a pleasure to see your delight in the build out of your family holdings, and your justified pride in having your children in the business."

I do see that, yes.

Q Were the family holdings discussed at the lunch meeting with Mr. Jain?

Yes, it was -- I recall it being a very, very friendly meeting and him encouraging us to do more business with Deutsche Bank. I think it was a little bit of a sales call, stopping by, talking about the different deals we had pending, um, that I'm assuming Rosemary had briefed him on, and suggesting that we do additional business with the bank.

Q nd how did your father respond to the meeting between Mr. Jain and himself?

It was very positive. There was a very nice -- it was a very nice meeting.

Q Who was present at this meeting?

I recall my father, of course, being there, um, and myself. llen Weisselberg may have been present as well.

Q nd after this meeting -- nd Rosemary.

Q Ms. Vrablic?

Potentially Dominic as well, but I don't think so.

Q Who is Dominic?

Rosemary's partner.

Q Is that Dominic Scalzi?

Yes.

Q nd after this meeting, your family's business continued to do business with Deutsche Bank; is that correct?

Yes.

Q nd that included making deposits at Deutsche Bank?

I believe so.

Q nd that included the family business engaging in loan transactions with Deutsche Bank; correct?

Yes.

Q nd that included those loans resulting in interest being paid to Deutsche Bank; is that correct?

Yes.

Q Was there competition within Deutsche Bank for your family's business?

I don't know how I would characterize that. I think we discussed before my experience was with the private bank. I viewed it as a team. I'm assuming, at a big multinational bank there would be many such teams, but Rosemary was the one that I was familiar with and established a relationship with.

Q Did your family's business have an existing relationship with Deutsche Bank before you were introduced to Ms. Vrablic?

Yes.

Q nd was it the case that within Deutsche Bank, the relationship shifted over to the Private Wealth Management Group?

I don't know if it shifted, but that's where my relationship was, and the loans that I worked on were with Rosemary and her team.

Q nd was that because Ms. Vrablic, Rosemary, courted your family's business?

Yes, in part.

Q Were other business sectors inside of the bank also courting your family's business?

I can't speak to -- I can't speak to that, but only to the outreach from, from Rosemary and the -- and I guess her boss, the cochairman, and their interest in doing relation -- doing business with us.

Q What was your individual role in acquiring -- withdrawn.

What was your individual role in your family's decision to acquire the Doral property?

(Whereupon, the exhibit displayed on the screen was taken down.)

Initially, it was being marketed by a brokerage company, um, as part of the bankruptcy reorganization we had discussed a little bit earlier, and we had looked at the project, um, had ended up, I believe, not initially submitting a bid.

There were several people that I recall that were involved at that point in the bidding process, but I remember, then, Michael sher, who is helping spearhead the process on behalf of -- on behalf of the sellers, reaching out and re-engaging us in the bid process.

Um, and I remember the very inconvenient timing of his phone call, because I think I may have been in the hospital, or about to go to the hospital with my first child. nd he called and he said -- I may have actually been in the hospital -- that if we were interested, um, we had the opportunity to be the stalking horse bidder for the project. nd it was pursued from that point forward, and multi-year multi-million dollar renovation, soup to nuts, of the property was embarked on, and a redevelopment.

Q Why was Deutsche Bank selected as the lender in that project?

Well, I spoke before about the relationship, and they had a stellar one, and one that was directly told to me was excellent. nd it was a whole multitude of factors, obviously. They gave us a firm sheet with terms that we were interested in pursuing.

So there was a whole series of reasons why we chose to do a deal with them. I don't think it's one thing sitting here today.

Q Was the development of the relationship by Ms. Vrablic a factor in that decision?

Oh, of course, yeah.

Q nd, of course, there were other options to finance that acquisition; correct?

There were. I think we spoke about a few of them today. I'm sure there were more that I can't recall, um, over 12 years out.

Q It certainly would have been possible for your family's business to self-finance the acquisition; correct?
We discussed it.
Q nd it would have been possible to talk to any number of different lenders who could have provided financing for the acquisition; correct?
Yes.
Q It would have been possible to sell and asset and use the proceeds to finance the acquisition; correct?
Yes.
Q How was the Doral property identified as an asset that your family's business was interested in investing in?
Through the public process I mentioned earlier, but my father had a deep and nostalgic love for that particular property. He used to tell us stories about having gone there as a child with his own father, um, when it was owned by the Kaskel family.
So he told me he took my mother there. They had, at one time, the greatest spa in the world, um, and they had gone there as a couple. I believe I may have even gone there as a child with him as well. So between him being there with his father, on a golf trip with my mother, and I believe me as a small child, he had a lot of, um, sentimental affection for the property, and also a strong feeling that it was not being -- that it was not living up to its potential, physically, in terms of what the asset had become under the then current ownership, or operationally, based on the operating performance of the management team in place.

Q nd what was your vision for redeveloping that property?
Ooh, it was a huge project and Herculian because of the size and scale and enormity and the sheer number of acres, number of rooms. Most of my attention was focused on the actual redevelopment of this asset and OPO. You know, once I had worked with the team and there was high level agreement around the terms of the financing, my attention really went on to the redevelopment of the actual asset, and repositioning it for success, and overseeing the construction and the design of that. So we renovated all 700 plus rooms, ballrooms, meeting spaces, common areas.
I was less involved in the golf component. My father has a particular affinity for golf and a particular vision for that. So typically he would focus on the golf and I would focus on the resort itself.
But it was a -- it was a big project. It was a lot of work, a lot of time, and a lot of energy applied towards an end result that I feel very proud of. nd still now that I live in Florida, have the good pleasure of visiting periodically.
THE COURT: Five minute warning.
Q Was that vision for the property conveyed to Deutsche Bank?
Of course, yes. They were quite excited by it. They sent teams of people down to tour the property, to visit the property, and to, you know, experience it in advance of our purchase.

Q What impressions did Deutsche Bank have after the project had been successfully repositioned?
They were very happy.
MR. SU REZ: Please pull up Defendant's Exhibit 324.
(Handing)
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
Q Ms. Trump, do you recognize this e-mail?
I don't remember the e-mail. But I do remember, as I think I just stated, that they were really impressed by what we had done over the course of several years in terms of upgrading and refurbishing the property. s I mentioned, Rosemary and her team had been at the property as we were acquiring it, so prior to the renovations. So they saw firsthand the extraordinary change in what the asset had become.
Q Would you agree with me that this is an e-mail that Rosemary Vrablic sent to you on March 8, 2013?
It appears that way, yes.
Q nd do you see where it says: "Ivanka, I am so glad we got to see you and have you show us the new rooms"?
Yes.
Q Is that a reference to the renovated rooms at the Trump Doral?

I assume so, yes.
Q It says: "They look amazing. I have had a wonderful time here and it is really impressive to see what you have accomplished so quickly." Do you see that?
I do.
Q nd that, again, would have been a reference to the Trump Doral, correct?
I assume so.
Q Which was the collateral for the loan that Deutsche Bank made to the -- to your family's business, correct?
Correct.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, we move to admit this exhibit into evidence.
THE COURT: Granted. It is in evidence.
(Whereupon, the document referred to was deemed marked for evidence as Defendant's Exhibit 324 by the Court.)
THE COURT: nother two minutes, if you want.
Q nd in fact, were they so pleased with the manner that the asset had been repositioned that they agreed to an amendment of the loan terms to let the guaranty on it burn off?
There was a step down of the guaranty, if I recall, once the property was operational. nd they could see that we invested -- what we had invested and obviously verified that into the collateral to enhance it and to make it what it now -- what it now is.

MR. SU REZ: We are at a good breaking point.
THE COURT: Okay. ten-minute break over the next 15 minutes. See you all soon.
(Pause in the proceeding.)
THE COURT: Let's get the witness.
(Whereupon the witness resumed the stand.)
THE COURT: Mr. Suarez, please continue.
MR. SU REZ: Thank you.
Q Ms. Trump, I understand you weren't really involved in the Trump Chicago project, correct?
Yeah, just only tangentially.
Q But you are aware that the private wealth group of Deutsche Bank facilitated a loan on that property, correct?
Yes.
Q nd in fact, earlier the government showed you Plaintiff's Exhibit 3239.
MR. SU REZ: Can we pull that up, please? nd if we could turn to the first page.
Q Dave Goodman. We can go to the following page from Deutsche Bank. I believe you testified earlier today, correct?
Yes. I don't really recall David, but it sounds vaguely familiar.
Q ll right. Let's keep going.

ll the way at the top, you see says: "It is not a commitment, it is for discussion purposes only"?
I do.
Q Would you have understood these terms and conditions that were presented on this document to be something that could be further negotiated?
I think that's reasonable. I don't recall this.
Q It could have been further discussed?
Sure.
Q It was for discussion purposes only?
That's what it says.
Q It wasn't actually an offer?
That's what it says.
Q nd again, when it came to the Trump Chicago property, there would have been many different financing options that would have been on the table to your family's business, correct?
I believe so, yes.
Q They could have self-financed, correct?
I believe so.
Q They could have talked to any number of different lenders, correct?
Yes. I was less involved in Trump Chicago. But it was a very iconic asset on Michigan venue in the heart of Chicago.

Q nd the private wealth management group was very interested in doing that transaction as well, correct?
That's what I remember.
Q Turning to the Trump Old Post Office, how did you learn about the opportunity to redevelop the Old Post Office property in Washington DC?
The General Services dministration put the project out for an RFP as we discussed earlier. nd I don't recall exactly how I first saw it, but I believe that I read about it. nd it was obviously such an historically significant building, such a beautiful building. I was very, very excited about the opportunity to participate in a process with the hope that it would culminate with us being the developers. Which it did.
Q nd what role did you play in the acquisition and development of that project?
I spearheaded the acquisition and redevelopment, so I wore a lot of different hats, at a high level. But I was most focused on the actual vision for the project and overseeing its design, construction, redevelopment. But also shepherding it through the full process.
It was a very, very complicated project. There was an extended lease negotiation with the GS , in addition to the RFP process, followed by the redevelopment itself. nd since it is an historic building there are many, many different agencies. I feel that I remember there were 20-plus different agencies we had to work with for various approvals. So the vast majority of my time as it related to the Old Post Office was spent on the actual design and development side of the project.

Q What was your vision for the Old Post Office project?

Well, when we took over the building it was completely dilapidated. It was a government owned and managed project with a food court in the basement and some commercial office around the perimeter. nd we envisioned and then went on to execute redeveloping it into a super luxury hotel.

nd I believe we are very successful in that goal, as evidenced by how it looks today and ultimately the purchase price that it sold for, that it was -- it was a labor of love. It was a lot of work to bring that vision to fruition.

We also created a museum honoring the history of the building in the context of the greater Washington DC urban plan, and that was part of our submission. nd worked with a renowned DC architect who had been involved in many historic projects to bring it to fruition.

Q Was this vision that you had for the Old Post Office conveyed to Deutsche Bank?

Yes, of course.

Q nd was Deutsche Bank excited about being the lender on this project?

Yes. bsolutely.

Q Was Deutsche Bank's decision to participate in this project part of its ongoing effort to develop a relationship with your family and its business?

MR. SOLOMON: Objection. Use of the word "participate." They were a lender on this project, they weren't a participant.

THE COURT: I assume he means participant in a generic sense, so overruled.

You can answer the question.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

I recall Rosemary referring to it, I believe, as the crown jewel of their real estate portfolio. It was, and is, an incredibly special, iconic building that I am really proud to have had the opportunity to work on and dedicate a lot of years of my life to redeveloping.

Q Did Deutsche Bank send representatives to visit the project?

Oh, yes.

Q What were the representatives -- withdrawn.

How frequently would the representatives of Deutsche Bank visit the project?

That I am not sure. Like I said, you know, my relationship with Rosemary was quite high level. nd once there was general consensus around the terms of the loan, I was more involved in focusing on the asset and the redevelopment of the asset itself, and other people managed the relationship with Deutsche Bank. nd on an ongoing basis the hotel operating team, the construction team, the accounting team, would be in contact, as needed.

So, but it definitely, prior to the loan was made, Rosemary and/or her team would have visited any of the projects that I talked with them about. nd I am assuming on an ongoing basis, but at that point I was less involved.

Q nd the private wealth group team would have visited before they made the loan?

Yes, they did.

Q They would have toured the property?

They toured the property. nd they, for at least Doral and OPO, I can't recall on Chicago, but required independent appraisals of the assets.

Q Earlier today you discussed with the government a meeting between the team at the Trump Organization and the folks over at the GS ; do you recall?

I do, yes.

MR. SU REZ: If we could pull up Defendant's 431?

Q Do you recall what date that meeting took place?

I do not.

Q Do you recognize this document, Ms. Trump?

I believe this was shown to me this morning. I don't know if it is the same one.

Q Do you see that it is the Source Selection Evaluation Report and Recommendation for the Old Post Office?

I see that's what it says, yes.

Q Do you see on page three of this document it has a schedule, and the schedule includes in the middle of the page development team presentations. Do you see that?

Yes, I see that.

Q Do you see there it says the RFP date had a TBD, and the actual date for those meetings was December 19, 20 and 21 of 2011?

I see that.

Q Does that refresh your recollection as to when the meeting with the GS group would have taken place?

I think I said earlier it sounds about right, that December timeframe.

We definitely were not there three days. So I -- but I recall that many groups were brought in to present. I assume the finalists in the process.

Q nd at the meeting, I would assume the presentation was made by the Trump Organization, correct?

Correct.

Q nd that the GS had questions, correct?

Yeah, I don't recall any -- what those specific questions are. I recall that this was our first and I believe only opportunity to articulate what our vision for the redevelopment was, and to do so in-person. Because the RFP was submitted as a binder to the location, the GS said to send it to. So this was our, as I recall, our only opportunity to describe our vision for the redevelopment of this iconic asset.

Q What aspects of the presentation were you responsible for that day?

I think I talked about this earlier, but articulating what our plans for -- at the time it was a complete re-purpose because it was a commercial office building and a food court. I think there was a little bit of retail that wasn't food related, but it was pretty much just that. nd we were proposing converting it into a super luxury five-star hotel operation, with world class food, beverage.

nd it was a complete -- it was a complete repositioning of the building. So we talked extensively through that. nd I think as I mentioned earlier we talked about various redevelopment projects that had been done by the company successfully. So my father had redeveloped the iconic Plaza Hotel. The Commodore Hotel -- former Commodore Hotel here in New York; and 610 Park venue. Many others that were historic redevelopments. So we spent quite a bit of time talking about, and I don't recall who spoke about what per se, but spent a lot of time talking about the wherewithal to take on a landmarked historically significant project of this type, and see it through to completion.

Q You were not the person who was responsible for answering questions about the company's financial condition, correct?

I don't recall those questions having been asked at that meeting.

Q Do you recall if all of the questions that were asked were answered to the satisfaction of the GS ?

MR. SOLOMON: Objection. The witness just indicated she didn't recall any questions being asked.

I can't speculate, but we were awarded the project subsequent to this meeting, so I would assume so.

MR. SU REZ: If we could turn to page 14.

Q Do you see there where it says notable weaknesses and it reads: "Financial statements provided by Mr. Trump were qualified by his accountants as not complying with G P"?

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, we are going to object to the use of this document or reading in anything from this document. This witness has never seen this document. She hasn't identified it. It appears to be an internal GS document. It is classic hearsay.

MR. KISE: So like this morning when they did the exact same thing and you allowed them continuously to read from documents that she couldn't authenticate, didn't have a foundation. This is the document that the GS provided that formed the basis for the decision. Mr. Suarez is just simply asking questions, just like Mr. Solomon did this morning, like you have allowed many, many times in this courtroom, of what was the basis for decision and exploring this witness's knowledge of.

If she doesn't have any knowledge of it, like you said, she can say I don't have any knowledge of it. But otherwise I don't see any difference, goose, gander, however you say. I don't really see any material difference here between what is going on all day and what is going on throughout this trial, and what we are doing now. It is the same. This is the foundational document which is a public record. So the Court can take it in in that regard. nd there is really no reason that it can't be considered. nd whatever knowledge this witness has, she can testify to.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, there is no foundation that this is a public record other than Mr. Kise's representation just now. This is a document that appears to have been produced in connection with this action by the GS to the defendant. So, that I don't know if Mr. Kise has other information to verify that it is a publicly available document.

MR. KISE: It was.

MR. SOLOMON: May I finish, please?

Number two. Number two. The questions that were asked of this witness on the document were e-mails to and from her that she may not have recalled. There is a basis for asking a witness that.

This is a document she had never seen before today. She has not testified that she ever received it; she ever looked at it; she ever did anything with it or knew of its existence. It is an internal GS document.

THE COURT: Okay. Objection overruled.

Let's see what the question -- Can we get a readback of the question? Let me hear the readback and then I'll make a final ruling.

(Whereupon, the record was read back by the court reporter.)

Q Do you see that?

I do.

THE COURT: Wait. Wait. Wait. Hold on. I am still trying to figure out how to rule on the objection. I gave a preliminary ruling, this is the final ruling.

Well, you know, I never mind when someone says do you see that on the document. Yes, she sees it.

Do you see that on the document?

THE WITNESS: I do, yes.

THE COURT: ll right. Let's see what the next question is.

Q Does that refresh your recollection as to any discussion concerning the company's financial condition at that meeting?

It does not, no.

Q Do you have any --

THE COURT: Remember, just a little louder, a little closer.

It does not, no.

Q Do you have any reason to believe that the GS 's own internal document would be incorrect when it says that the financial statements provided by Mr. Trump were qualified by his accountants as not complying with G P?

MR. SOLOMON: Objection, Your Honor. I don't know how this witness would have any idea whether the GS 's own internal documents are accurate, inaccurate; relevant not relevant.

THE COURT: Sustained.

MR. KISE: Your Honor, I --

THE COURT: Let's not argue about this.

MR. KISE: We should argue about it, respectfully. Because this is exactly what they asked about the GS bid document this morning that she hadn't seen. It is the same questions. It is a different document from the GS , but it is the bid document, and they asked questions about Colony Capital and particular terms. nd they said -- they asked whether you saw that provision; does it say that; do you have any understanding; do you have any reason to believe that is inaccurate. It is virtually identical to the line of questioning that they pursued of the documents that this witness said the same thing about. No, it doesn't refresh my recollection. Do you have any reason to believe it is inaccurate. It is the same.

gain, if we are going to operate under two sets of standards, that's fine. But I would respectfully suggest that that's incorrect, because this is the same thing that they pursued. They have been doing it the entire course of the trial. They have been showing witnesses document after document with no foundation. I have objected hundreds of times now about foundation, about whether or not they have seen the document.

nd they are like, well, it is just for notice, and it is just to ask if that's what it says, and to ask if that's their understanding. So he is asking this witness's understanding. This is the foundational document that provides the basis for the GS to have awarded the contract. It is a public record because it was received pursuant to a FOI request. nybody can do it. It was provided by the GS , there is no dispute. They have had this document. They have known about it since -- since long since the discovery period.

So I don't see any material difference. I don't see any difference, frankly, material or otherwise, between their line of questioning and our line of questioning, other than its us asking the questions.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, if I may? There is an absolute distinction. It is not the same. The document that I showed the witness earlier today was the submission by the Trump Organization. nd the cover letter on the submission was signed by this witness when it was submitted to the GS . She represented that the information contained in their submission was truthful and accurate. I am entitled to ask the witness questions about her own document where she signed the cover letter and submits it to the GS . It is completely different than an internal GS document and asking the witness if she has a reason to believe whether the GS was accurate or inaccurate. My questions went to the witness's own submission and whether her submission was accurate or inaccurate. So it is night and day different.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, two things:

One, I think he has got you here, as I remember all of this.

Two, we have talked about the concept of continuing objection. I continuously object, I object now and I continue to object, to your constant insinuations that I have some sort of double standard here. That is just not true. I don't count whether I have sustained more objections for one side or the other. I don't count, you know, the weight, the number of these things. I make every ruling the way I think is correct and fair. So, I have a continuing objection. But you can keep saying it if it makes you happy that I am favoring one side or the other. nd you have said this about the rulings in this case. I make the rulings based on the facts and the law as I understand it. So to complain that, oh, my gosh, you are making more rulings in their favor than ours, I don't count them. I just make the rulings as I see them. You know, like the umpire says, call them as I see them.

Go ahead.

MR. KISE: ll I am going to say, Your Honor, is, as part of an ppellate record I have to make the record. I have to call it like I see it. nd unfortunately what I see is exactly what I am saying. I wish it were different. I wish we were in a different situation. I respect Your Honor's position. I do, you know that. But I see these rulings constantly going in a different -- let me withdraw that. Frequently going in a different direction, particularly when it comes to issues like this.

THE COURT: Well, you could try to surmise that that's because of bias. Or, you could understand that I think their objections have been of greater validity than yours on the whole. nd that their positions -- well, I'll leave it at that.

So, the objection is sustained. This is not her document. I don't know what the point of this is.

Q Ms. Trump, if the General Services dministration was under the assumption that financial statements provided by Mr. Trump were qualified by his accountants as not complying with G P, would you have any reason to believe that that was inaccurate?

Could you reframe the question?

Q Sure.

If the General Service dministration?

Yes.

Q Was under the impression that financial statements provided by Mr. Trump were qualified by his accountants as not complying with G P, would you have any reason to dispute the General Services dministration's understanding?

No.

MR. SOLOMON: Objection calls for speculation.

THE COURT: Sustained.

(The following proceedings were stenographically recorded by Senior Court Reporter Michael Ranita.)

THE COURT: Sustained.

MR. SU REZ: But it's not speculation. It's in the General Services dministration document right in front of us.

I'm asking her about a document that relates to the project that she spearheaded and the pitch that she was at that's memorialized in this document.

MR. SOLOMON: document which your Honor already ruled it's inappropriate to show the witness, and if they try to enter into evidence, obviously we'll object.

So making reference to what's in a document in framing a question creates a hypothetical.

THE COURT: Well, I'm not always against hypotheticals, but I just -- how about a read back of the second time he asked the question.

(Whereupon, the requested testimony was read back by the court reporter.)

THE COURT: That's a ridiculous question. You could ask what she thinks she knows, but referring to this document that is not in evidence, no.

MR. SU REZ: I'm not trying to move the document into evidence. I'm only trying to show her what the GS 's understanding was as reflected in the their document and asking if she has any reason to dispute it. She was at the pitch. She was a witness to the pitch.

THE COURT: I don't know if she knows anything about this document, whether it's a statement in the GS 's document. I think there's been an authentication.

MR. SU REZ: You even heard Mr. Solomon get up and tell us it was an internal GS document. I don't think they dispute that.

THE COURT: He may know it. It is not the same as the record in this case.

MR. KISE: It certainly can come into this case as a public record. It certainly can be admitted as a public record.

MR. SOLOMON: Mr. Kise is representing this as a public record. I think when I was asking questions of Ms. Dillon, if you recall with respect to amendments to a condo plan, there were questions about being a public record, it had to be proved up later. I don't see that Mr. Kise has made any showing sufficient for this document to be deemed to be a public record.

MR. SU REZ: I'm not even trying to move it into evidence. I'm just trying to ask questions about it.

THE COURT: You had asked her three times, and I really don't understand the question, but you heard it three times slightly different.

I'll ask the witness, can you answer that question?

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, just note my objection based on speculation.

MR. KISE: re you objecting to the Judge's question?

THE COURT: Well, I'm just repeating Mr. Suarez's question.

Witness, can you answer that question?

THE WITNESS: I have no reason to believe that the GS wouldn't be accurate in that assessment.

THE COURT: That's her testimony.

MR. SU REZ: I'm sorry, can I get a read back.

THE WITNESS: I think the question was, do I have any reason to doubt the GS being accurate in this document. I have no reason to doubt them.

THE COURT: How about --

MR. SU REZ: I'm moving on.

THE COURT: Instead of "in this document", if they said that somewhere. Plaintiff agrees with that framing of the question?

MR. SOLOMON: Still calls for speculation, but if your Honor has overruled that, we could move on.

THE COURT: So would you doubt it if it was said anywhere, forgetting this document?

THE WITNESS: They were very professional, I have no reason to doubt it.

THE COURT: Thank you.

Q The GS is professional in its valuation of the bid; correct?
Very much so.
Q It was qualified to understand the information that it was being given; correct?
Yes.
Q nd ultimately made a decision after running its selection process; correct?
Yes.
Q nd the team lead by your family's own business was the successful bidder; correct?
That's correct.
Q nd the project was redeveloped; right?
It was.
Q nd you were involved in the redevelopment of the project; right?
Yes.
Q What was the response to the redevelopment of the project by the federal government?
Well, I could speak I couldn't speak for the whole federal government, but I have a few specific recollections I can share with you. Congresswoman Norton, Eleanor Holmes Norton who represented the district and who had spearheaded the push to have this iconic building put out for redevelopment through an RFP process, um, I met with her at her office, at least on one occasion. I had spoken to her on others. I believe she was there at the groundbreaking ceremony. She may have spoken at it, actually. She was -- I have recollection of her being present. But she was, in my conversations with her, um, very pleased by our plan, our proposal.

She issued some statements, I think, speaking to about me, specifically, maybe not my father, but about her appreciation for what we had done. nd this was an asset that she was very, very close to because, of course, it was in her district.
I also recall, at some point, maybe in -- I don't know what year, but sometime after we had been awarded the project, um, but some -- I believe it was prior to us actually opening, I, um -- there was outreach from Congressman Shuster, I believe, if -- I think it was Congressman Shuster and Congressman Nadler, Jerry Nadler, asking if I would come to Brooklyn and speak in front of an infrastructure committee meeting they were having about the redevelopment of the old post office. nd I understood from the request that it was viewed as a very, very successful public/private partnership. nd they wanted to encourage more RFP's of federal government buildings, of which there are many beautiful, iconic, but also underutilized buildings.
Um, in this particular case I think I remember that before we took over the old post office building, it was costing taxpayers, I believe -- and this is a little bit of an estimate -- around seven-and-a-half million dollars a year in upkeep to maintain the historic building; the marble, to keep it in good shape. nd because it was being utilized, and obviously when we took over the building, taxpayers stopped funding into that.

So Congressman Nadler, and I believe his counterpart was Shuster, I believe it was the transportation or infrastructure committee asked me, and I went to Brooklyn to speak about the project and what our plans were and what we had done to date, and my positive experience dealing with the federal government through the bid process.
Q nd to be sure, the two congressional democrats that you just listed are members of the United States House of Representatives; correct?
Yes, there was -- I believe --
MR. SU REZ: You know, I'm glad that the government thinks it's funny for us to try to put on our case and to put on evidence of the great work that this family has done for the United States government, and while they are sitting here trying to destroy thousands of jobs in this state. I have to sit here and ask questions and listen to them laugh? That's insulting, your Honor, I'm sorry.
MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, move to strike that last speech.
MR. SU REZ: They are striking -- they are laughing, sitting back here laughing. They think this is funny. It's not funny.

THE COURT: Well --
One of the things, just because --
MR. SOLOMON: First, there's no question pending. There's also a motion to strike the last speech by Counsel.
MR. SU REZ: I want the record to reflect that the government is sitting here laughing at their attempts to destroy this company.
THE COURT: Well, I don't think they were laughing at that. I think they are laughing at the fact that the witness testified, or said three, four, five times that these were congressional representatives.
Now you are asking if they are congressional representatives. I know Jerry Nadler, he is a congressional representative. Mr. Shuster, I know the name, I think from Pennsylvania -- does that make sense?
THE WITNESS: I think that's right. Maybe they found the question funny, but I will strike what he said.
Q You can answer.
I don't know if there was a question pending, but we were talking about congressional representatives and congresswoman Holmes Norton, and you just mentioned jobs that were created.
The number one thing she cared about was jobs, specifically jobs in the District of Columbia. nd it's something that I personally spent a lot of time talking to her about, both construction jobs, of which there were, I believe, over 500 during the two years we were under construction. nd permanent jobs once the hotel became operational. Obviously, as a hotel, you employ a lot more people than as federal office building.

So this was something that she appreciated. She commented on, I think publicly, and we also committed to hiring within the district. I can't remember what the percentage was. But we created training programs and hired within her district as well, which she appreciated and supported.

THE COURT: I'll consider that a supplement to your answer about what the government's reaction was. ll right. Let's move on.

MR. SU REZ: Thank you, your Honor.

Q What was the response from Deutsche Bank to the redevelopment of this project?

Consistent with what I said earlier. They were very impressed, and they were proud to be able to show them that, I believe, after many years, a lot of time, a lot of thought, and a very meticulous execution. We were able to --

THE COURT: Hold on. Hold on. That doesn't answer the question.

The question was, "What was Deutsche Bank's reaction?" Not how proud you were of it?

THE WITNESS: No, no, what I was saying, I believe that they thought that we had over delivered on the initial vision we had presented to them, so I think they were very, very happy.

MR. SU REZ: Can we please pull up Defendant's Exhibit 299.

(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)

Q I would ask the witness to please review this document.

(The exhibit was handed to the witness.)

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

Q Do you recognize this document as an e-mail sent by Rosemary Vrablic to you, Ms. Trump?

I have a vague recollection of it, but not specifically.

Q Do you see where it says, "My direct boss, Michele Fassiola (he's Italian) would like to call you and your dad to thank you for being such great clients and for all the business we have been doing together."

I see that, yes.

Q It says, "Your family is in the top ten revenue generating names of sset and Wealth Management now, and he is thrilled with how it's grown."

Do you see that?

I do, yes.

Q Is that consistent with your understanding of Deutsche Bank's reaction to its business relationship with your family and its businesses?

It is, yes.

Q Ms. Trump, earlier the government directed your attention to your lease of a unit at the Trump Park venue, Penthouse 20?

Yes.

Q Do you recall that testimony?

I do.

Q How did you come to lease Penthouse 20?

I had lived in the building for -- for some time, with an exception of at one point living downtown. So around the time I was pregnant with my second child, we entered into a lease to rent the unit, Penthouse 20.

Q Did the lease come with an option to buy?

Yes, it did.

Q How was the purchase price on that option negotiated?

I don't recall the specifics. We never exercised the option, so I don't remember.

Q Did the lease require you to invest money in the renovation of that penthouse?

Yes, this was refreshed for me a year and a half ago when we -- during my questioning by Mr. Solomon. The lease required me to invest, I believe, six and a half-million dollars, and we ended up investing over seven and a half million dollars in the apartment.

Q What work did you do on the apartment to renovate it?

Pretty much everything. We completely changed the floor plan. We did a new floor plan, um, to accommodate our family. It was going to be the apartment that we would live in as a family for, hopefully a long period of time, but we ended up moving to Washington, so we didn't fully move in.

Q Why did you leave the family business?

I went to Washington.

Q You went to Washington to work in your father's presidential administration; is that correct?

That's correct, yes.

Q Now, when you were working in the family business, were the projects that you did for the OPO and Doral the only things that you were involved with professionally?

No. I had other roles within the organization as well, overseeing various projects, license projects. I would say that a lot of my time, those were very, very large redevelopment projects. So a lot of time in construction development of those two assets, but at the same time I had my own business. We were doing hundreds of millions of dollars in sales, um, an apparel and accessories business that I had, was totally separate and distinct with no connection to The Trump Organization.

business that I had on my own. My own brand.
So I had numerous responsibilities, both with the company and independent of the company, the Trump Hotel Collection was also something my brothers and I collectively were very involved in.
Q How do you feel about the work that you did for your family's business?
I feel incredibly proud of the work that I did of the Trump Hotel Collection, which I just mentioned generally, and these two redevelopments specifically. lot of time, a lot of vision, a lot of hard work. nd as I testified earlier, they were complicated projects. nd I believe that we over delivered on every metric in bringing them to fruition, as evidenced by the fact that they are both flourishing today.
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, may I have a second to confer with my colleague?
THE COURT: Sure.
(Whereupon, there is a brief pause in the testimony.)
MR. SU REZ: Your Honor, bringing up Defendant's Exhibit 299, which the witness identified earlier was an e-mail from Ms. Vrablic to Ivanka Trump, I would like to move that into evidence.
nd I have no further questions on cross examination of this witness.

MR. SOLOMON: Objection on the document, your Honor. It's hearsay.
MR. SU REZ: Plaintiff's 299? If we could pull it up.
(Whereupon, the exhibit was displayed on the screen.)
MR. SOLOMON: I think you said Defendant's 299.
MR. SU REZ: Defendant's 299.
MR. SOLOMON: Sure.
MR. SU REZ: It's an e-mail from Ms. Vrablic to Ms. Trump.
THE COURT: Overruled. It's in evidence.
(Defendant's Exhibit 299 was admitted in evidence.)
THE COURT: nd that's it?
MR. SU REZ: Nothing further on cross.
THE COURT: ny cross by the other defendants.
MR. ROBERT: No, your Honor.
THE COURT: Will there be redirect?
MR. SOLOMON: No, your Honor.
THE COURT: Oh, then we are through with this witness; aren't we?
Thank you.
THE WITNESS: Thank you.
THE COURT: The witness is excused.
(Whereupon, the witness stepped down from the witness stand.)

THE COURT: Let's talk scheduling for tomorrow on the record.
ctually, does plaintiff rest? Let's hear what he's got to say.
MR. W LL CE: I believe we have some documents to admit.
MS. F HERTY: Your Honor, earlier in this case we introduced two voice messages during the course of Mr. Flores's testimony. We created transcriptions of those voicemails and created them as exhibits. So first would be Plaintiff's -- PX-3297 . It is the transcript for one of those voicemails.
nd then we subsequently created the second voicemail transcription, PX-3298B. This has been consistent with our practice to provide a transcript to the Court of those recordings. We would ask that the Court admit these consistent with what we've done with other exhibits.
THE COURT: Defendants, would you like to at least take a quick look, or how do you want to address these?
MS. F HERTY: They've been added. They were in the exhibit share. You've received them.
MR. KISE: I don't know that we've looked at them. To the extent they are representing true and accurate --
MS. F HERTY: Yes.

MR. KISE: -- transcriptions of the recordings, and the recordings, if your Honor has already allowed those into evidence, then we have no objection.
THE COURT: Right. Okay. They are in evidence.
(Plaintiff's Exhibits 3297 and 3298B were deemed marked and admitted in evidence.)
THE COURT: nything else from plaintiff?
MR. KISE: Your Honor, one other thing in that regard, though. I don't believe we have -- in their opening there were videos played, and I don't believe we have transcripts of those of the -- or at least even if not transcripts, just like line -- page and line references, because I think those were from -- the videos they played there were from the record from the either the depositions or the EUO's, so I just don't think in the record there's a start and stop.
MR. MER: The clip from Eric Trump's deposition was played during his testimony and was admitted as an exhibit. The transcription was admitted as an exhibit. So that one certainly you have. nd I think the others --
MR. W LL CE: We could go check.
MR. KISE: If you tell us the page and number, we have no objection to it at all. The page and line references -- I think Michael Cohen was one of them. There may have been one from Patrick Birney. I don't remember them all, but whatever they are.

gain, there's no objection. It's just page and line references would be good or useful to have. I'm sure they have them.

MR. MER: That's fine. We'll provide it.

THE COURT: You'll provide -- you know what he is asking for exactly?

MR. MER: Sure.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Wallace, anything else?

MR. W LL CE: So --

THE COURT: Five-minute warning.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you, your Honor. We have no further witnesses to produce at this time. I will note, however, we left open the testimony of Mr. Weisselberg pending the document issues. I believe we are still waiting for production material from the defendants that raised that issue. So apart from the reserving our right to recall Mr. Weisselberg, we have nothing further.

We have nothing further on our case in chief, your Honor.

MR. KISE: So do I understand that to mean the plaintiff rests?

THE COURT: Subject to that one condition.

MR. W LL CE: Subject to that condition.

MR. KISE: Well, then, we don't have to do it today. Since there's five minutes, we could take this up tomorrow. I don't know that that's a valid condition. Meaning, that they are not entitled to it. We have informally, as you know, agreed to work on this. We have been working on it, and we can provide information in that regard. But I would just state on the record there are -- this is just Black Letter Law in the First Department, that there's no such thing as post NOI discovery at trial, just -- there's nothing of the kind.

MR. W LL CE: If not -- Chris, if we are not actually following the procedure you --

THE COURT REPORTER: I'm sorry, I can't hear.

MR. W LL CE: We're doing that. We will renew the letter the Judge asked us to submit and we'll do that on the record. If you are going to produce the e-mails, we'll take a look at that following the procedure. I thought we were agreeing to --

MR. KISE: We've agreed, informally, without waiving any rights, and I don't think they've waived any rights, but when it comes down to whether they rest or not, certainly if they are saying they rest, and that gives us the opportunity to put on our case and to move for directed verdict and do those things, um, subject to -- they could always ask you to reopen the case. They could do that. But it's not a reservation of rights. It's simply just, we are resting, and if something comes to their attention that would support a reopening of the case, then they could make that function.

I don't know -- by the way, I tend to think all of this is a tempest in a teapot with respect to discovery. Nonetheless, we will continue to proceed informally without anyone waiving their rights. I just want to be clear that at this stage we are not precluded from moving for a directed verdict, for example, because the CPLR -- our expert is here, not me, but that's at the close of the case, the close of the evidence.

THE COURT: Yes, but maybe we could all agree, but this goes back about five minutes ago, that plaintiff is resting conditional, and defendant can move for a directed verdict, or whatever else you want to do. I suppose if plaintiff wants to say, but wait a minute, we can counter that with Mr. Weisselberg's e-mail, testimony, whatever, then they'll make that argument. So I agree, it's a tempest in a teapot. We don't really have an issue here.

Plaintiff would you agree?

MR. W LL CE: Yes. We will rest, and if we need to reopen due to any issues of Mr. Weisselberg, we will make an application to do that.

THE COURT: Okay. So I think that's agreed to.

We have scheduling issues. I'll ask llison to take over.

MS. GREENFIELD: So the cross, you had initially anticipated was going to be three to four hours. That obviously is not the case. So we have time for a witness tomorrow. So who can we bring in tomorrow?

MR. KISE: We do we don't have any witness for tomorrow because we planned on Monday for the start date.

MS. GREENFIELD: Because you told us you had four hours of cross examination.

MR. KISE: Based on -- first of all, that was based on the direct -- their direct testimony. nd in an effort to streamline the proceedings in accordance with the Judge's wishes, I'm certain that we could have had five hours of questioning, but given the -- given the state of the proceedings and given where they are, in the interest of efficiency, we decided to do what we did. I don't think there's a penalty associated with that.

THE COURT: ll right. So I think, fine, tomorrow we'll have motions. Will you tell us what those motions will be.

MR. KISE: Directed verdict.

THE COURT: How long do you think it will take you to present that motion.

MR. KISE: I think we'll be done, maybe both sides, by the morning, unless they have motions. lthough, I did see a motion on expert issues --

THE COURT: Right, right.
MR. KISE: -- that we'll need to address. I also don't think that will take -- I would still think we would be out of here by lunch break. I mean, that's certainly my hope, if I'm honest.
MR. MER: I think that's right. Certainly our motion on the experts shouldn't take too long.
THE COURT: lthough, it was pages and pages.
MR. KISE: It was. There's a goose and there's a gander. I'm sure you'll hear that again tomorrow.
MR. MER: That leaves less to argue then.
MR. KISE: There -- and the directed verdict motion will take some time to present, but I don't anticipate that it will be extensive where we'll be here all day.
THE COURT: The opposition to the motion for a directed verdict might take a long time.
MR. KISE: It could. I can't control that. I will leave that in their hands, certainly.
THE COURT: ll right. So both side, we agree, will be here 10:00 tomorrow. nd if plaintiff moves -- obviously if the motion for directed verdict is granted, we won't have to worry about the expert.
MR. KISE: That would be good.
THE COURT: In the interest of judicial efficiency and lawyer efficiency, I noticed that on defendant's proposed witness list you have McConney two days. I think there's at least one or two other people. Can you have witnesses ready in case it doesn't take two days?

MR. KISE: We do. We do. In the event it doesn't take that long, yes, but I think Mr. McConney, in order to go through the specifics, will take the balance of those days. nd whatever cross they have. I would anticipate that they would have cross.
THE COURT: nd, yeah, I understand. We are still looking at a December 15th?
MR. KISE: We are. The only reason why I haven't provided the further calendar is because we are waiting on witnesses to confirm availability on particular dates. nd rather than confuse the issues with changing it, I'm going to try to get it as close as possible to where we are, but I -- (Whereupon, there is a brief pause in the proceedings.)
MR. KISE: If the government proceeds as we have proceeded, where we put on our witness that they've already crossed and doesn't spend too much time on cross, we may be out of here before December 15th. I'm not suggesting that they need or want to do that.
THE COURT: That's funny to me whenever one side or the other -- it's always the defendants, say "the government." Sounds like the federal government. You don't represent the federal government, do you?

ll right. So we agree tomorrow just the morning, just motions. ny other housekeeping; that way Mr. Kise can have the afternoon off.
MR. KISE: You hear them cheering outside.
THE COURT: Have a good evening, everyone.
MR. W LL CE: Thank you, your Honor.

Senior Court Reporters

THE COURT: Let me start with, plaintiff, anything to say, bring up, discuss at this point? nd then of course I'll ask defendants.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, I believe we have our motion on the expert witnesses, but I believe the order of operations we determined yesterday that the, if there is a motion for a directed verdict that should be the first motion heard today.

THE COURT: Will there be a motion for a directed verdict?

MR. KISE: re you surprised, Judge? re you ready for me?

THE COURT: Please, yes.

MR. KISE: It may take me a second with the technology. You know how I am with the technology. Okay. Is that working? Still? Yes. If we get any feedback I'll change it around.

Give me one second, Judge, I am sorry.

Thank you, Judge.

Okay. Thank you, Judge.

This -- I'll try and keep this concise, as I said yesterday, to move things along and have us out of here at the noon hour.

The defendants are moving, and I believe Mr. Robert will have comments after myself. The defendants are moving under CPLR 4401 for a directed verdict. nd that provision, as you know, Your Honor, provides that any party may move for judgment with respect to a cause of action or issue upon the ground that the moving party is entitled to that judgment as a matter of law. That motion is also fully available in a non-jury trial. We cite the Court to the Eion Michael Properties case, 143 .D.3d 622.

I'll also point out, while discussing, sort of, the background and legal standard, certainly the defense view, I think it is the correct view, that because the predicates for the 63(12) violations are criminal statutes, that the civil equivalent of the criminal standard, beyond a reasonable doubt, would apply in this context, so clear and convincing evidence.

We do not believe that the ttorney General can meet that rigorous standard or frankly any legal standard. Even if that's not the standard, we don't believe that the evidence demonstrates that they can meet that standard.

So let's -- I am just going to address briefly what the evidence has established so far. The evidence has established so far that the claims of the ttorney General involve only successful and profitable loan transactions. That is undisputed. It is also undisputed that there are no late payments; no missed payments; the loans were all paid back timely. 100 million plus in interest. There is no victim. There is no complainant. There is no injury. ll of that is established now by the evidence.

The evidence also establishes that the SOFCs S-O-F-C.

Sorry, I am doing that for the court reporter, because I am going to say that a lot rather than saying Statements of Financial Condition.

nd the certifications were submitted in connection with certain loan transactions that are at issue. nd only the specific parties involved in those transactions made those submissions. I think that's very clear from the documentary evidence in the case, that it was specific entities and specific parties that made those submissions, not the defendants at large. nd that's a concept I'll come back to, Your Honor.

The certifications were true and accurate when made, and the loan covenants were not violated. There is no evidence that the loan covenants themselves were violated.

The SOFCs and certifications were accurate, and this is important, in all material respects. nd that's a key concept that I'll also come back to. There is testimony in the record that the SOFC values were actually lower than the actual values. President Trump himself testified that he believed the values were lower.

nd I have to pause just for a minute on that, because, you know, in any other context, if we were in any other setting, President Trump would clearly qualify in any court in this country as an expert on real estate, commercial real estate, commercial real estate development, and the commercial real estate industry. This is a man that has been involved for 50 years in reshaping the skyline of New York. I mean, I can list off the top of my head the buildings that he has been involved in in terms of development: The Grand Hyatt; Trump Tower; the complete transformation of the Plaza Hotel back in the 1990s; 40 Wall Street; Trump International Hotel and Tower in Central Park; Trump World Tower; Trump Park; Trump Park East; Trump Palace; Trump Park venue. There are innumerable buildings just in Manhattan.

nd those buildings, I think it is important for the Court's consideration both today and ultimately as you wrestle with the concepts of equitable relief, those represent real jobs, real economic impact in this community, over decades, over a lifetime.

nd his commitment to the revitalization of public resources is also demonstrable. The Ferry Point project. The evidence in this case establishes that President Trump took the Ferry Point project from a landfill, from a garbage dump where they were moving debris back and forth for 20 or 30 years. No one could do anything with the site. nd has transformed it into a world class facility. Wolman Rink was revitalized. The West Side Yards, which began the revitalization of the West Side, which now includes Hudson Yards and many other things in the vicinity.

So this is an individual whose opinions aren't to be disregarded, as the ttorney General would say, or be cast aside, that there is no value to his opinion. So it is fair for this Court to conclude, based on his testimony as an expert in the industry, an established expert in the industry, that there is some deference to be accorded there.

Setting aside all of the theatrics, setting aside all of the politics, setting aside where we are, if we just look at it on its face.

THE COURT: Were there theatrics?

MR. KISE: We will get to that.

THE COURT: I just have to say one other point. You said one of the buildings, I think Trump Tower, was in Central Park. I don't know how they do it in Florida but in New York we don't allow skyscrapers --

MR. KISE: No, No, sorry. Trump International

Tower on Central Park South. I believe, you are correct.

But his testimony that the values, in his view, other than as he stated, are lower than actual values, is entitled to real weight, because he is an expert.

THE COURT: But he wasn't qualified as an expert, so.

MR. KISE: He doesn't have to be qualified as an expert to be one though. That's my point. You don't have to qualify him and put him on as expert testimony for the Court to recognize and acknowledge that this individual has the requisite knowledge, training and experience to be one. I am not suggesting his testimony is expert testimony. What I am saying to the Court is that his testimony in any other forum would be credited as such. He certainly would qualify.

The SOFCs, back to our evidence, had valid and obvious disclaimers negating intent, materiality and reliance.

There is no evidence in the record of agreement, a fundamental premise to support the conspiracy claims. The evidence establishes that the banks relied on their own independent valuation analysis, not the SOFC values.

So there is no intent to defraud. There's no defaults. No breach. No reliance. No unjust profits. nd no victims.

More importantly, or as importantly, there is no real world impact. s I began, there is no -- they are all profitable loan transactions. There is no record evidence that anything would have been different with respect to the loan transactions or the insurance transactions, that anything would have been materially different or different at all.

There is no party complaining or alleging fraud. Zurich Insurance, one of the alleged victims, according to the ttorney General, still does millions and millions of dollars of business with Trump. I am not sure what the Court's experience is with insurance companies, but I certainly know from many years of dealing on the regulatory side of insurance companies, that if they believe they have been defrauded by someone, they are not doing business with them in the future.

There is no fraud victim. There is just banks satisfied with profitable loans. nd so the ttorney General has converted standard commercial real estate loan transactions into fraud, based not on what the bank says, but what -- on what she says.

nd it is similar to the Exxon case. nd I know the ttorney General's office is familiar with the Exxon case, Mr. Wallace in particular, that there was no testimony from anyone who claimed to have been misled by the disclosure. We don't have testimony in this record, particularly from the banks, where they say something would be different; I was misled; I was defrauded. That's essential to proving intent and materiality.

s this Court has held in the summary judgment order, it is the ttorney General's burden to demonstrate a component of intent and materiality at this phase. The ttorney General has failed to introduce any evidence of materiality or intent, and instead simply relies on the Court's summary judgment decision to establish both. That decision, however, as Your Honor knows, specifically determined that intent and materiality must be established at trial. nd the failure to do that entitles the defendants to a directed verdict on the remaining causes of action and as to the issue of disgorgement.

So materiality is an essential element. The statutes make this clear. The issuance of a false financial statement needs to be inaccurate in some material respect. It needs to be known to be materially inaccurate. The insurance fraud statute is the same. written statement as part of support of the application --

COURT REPORTER: Sorry, I missed that.

MR. KISE: Sorry, I always go fast when I am reading, I'll stop that.

The insurance fraud statute requires a written statement as part of or in support of an application for the issuance of a commercial insurance policy, which is known to contain materially false information. That's a different standard than, as Your Honor knows, was applied at the first phase, at the summary judgment phase.

Now, the compliance certificates incorporate materiality.

Just bear with me one minute, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. KISE: I forgot to bring this up.

Thank you, Judge.

The compliance certificates that are part of the ttorney General's claim incorporate materiality. If you look at the language: The foregoing presents fairly in all material respects, all of the representations and warranties made by guarantor remain true and correct in all material respects.

There hasn't been any evidence introduced about materiality other than just a reference back to Your Honor's opinion, which itself doesn't decide that question on its face.

The guarantor made only this representation. That's the standard and that can't simply be read out of the certificate.

That representation also, importantly, was made as part of a contractual obligation. The bank, the contracting party, never asserted any breach claim. nd so you have the additional issue that the ttorney General cannot now just step into the shoes of a private party and enforce contract terms that the private party, whose role it was, contractually, to determine issues like materiality, and breach, never claimed any violation.

The OPO loan documents contained a materiality provision together with a representation from guarantor that there has been no material change.

The 40 Wall Street loan contains materiality language. No material adverse effect or change. There has been no material adverse change. There is a definition of what material adverse effect is.

These concepts are at the core of the ttorney General's claims. nd again, they have done nothing to introduce any evidence of materiality other than rely on Your Honor's opinion and their own opinion.

The 40 Wall Street loan continues with another example about material respects certified by guarantor as being true, correct and complete and fairly presenting financial condition. No material adverse change.

The ttorney General's own complaint, as you have heard me say before, 48 paragraphs reference materiality. Twenty-five of those paragraphs reference materiality in loan covenants. This is a fundamental, core concept.

The complaint paragraphs themselves and I am just giving one example here, paragraph 589, talk about untrue statement of a material fact. material fact necessary to make any material statements contained herein or therein not misleading.

n example of the actual -- I believe this is the 2016, it is -- certificate of compliance. You can see there in all material respects. So materiality is a core concept.

THE COURT: How would you define materiality in this context?

MR. KISE: I would define materiality and I will get there. That's a good question, Your Honor. I would define materiality in this context as through the lens of the user. It is not, respectfully, what you think. It is not what they think. It is not what I think. It is what did the bank think. They are in the role of determining materiality. There is no objective materiality. You have to look at this through the lens of the user. Because everyone's definition might be a little different. Now you heard testimony about a 5 percent standard. nd that's a -- that's a fair standard. nd there is testimony of that in the record. That if you have someone, like you do here, where the net worth is four and a half or five billion dollars and there is $100 million swing or $200 million swing, yes, that's a lot of money in an abstract sense, but in the context of financial statements, it is not.

THE COURT: Just one thing. There is a record so when you say "they" and point to someone.

MR. KISE: I am sorry, the ttorney General. Fair point.

The Court, the ttorney General, the Defendants, the issue of materiality must be viewed through the lens of the user, in this case the bank or the insurance company as the case may be.

The second key component is intent. Falsifying business records, the statute requires an intent to defraud. nd that intent to defraud is commonly understood to mean to act with intent to cheat someone out of money, property or something of value.

nd we have got cases cited there:

The Saporita case 132 .D.2d 713.

The Jeremias case 66 .D.2d 178.

nd the Briggins case 50 N.Y.2d 302.

dditionally, falsification of business records in the first degree requires the additional element that the defendant intends to commit another crime. There is no evidence in the record as to what that other crime was. There is a lot of discussion during the course of the case, but nobody has put any evidence in the actual record as to what that other crime was. nd so for that reason alone, the count that relates to falsification of business records in the first degree is subject to directed verdict.

Issuing false financial statements also has an intent and materiality component to it. The issuance of a false financial statement occurs when an individual, with intent to defraud, knowingly makes or utters a written instrument, which is inaccurate in some material respect; represents in writing that a written instrument that he knows is materially inaccurate.

So let's look just briefly, because it is hard to prove a negative, it is hard to prove that there is no evidence of something, but let's look at what we do have. So President Trump testified, and I will point out that the Court did state that it is not here to hear what President Trump has to say. nd we are not here and these people are not here and the ttorney General is not here to hear what President Trump has to say. But I would respectfully say, the Court cannot ignore President Trump's testimony.

nd the fact that there was an adjudication earlier connected with a collateral matter, should not have any bearing on the Court's view of the witness's testimony or credibility when it comes to the substantive case. nd I am not suggesting it does or doesn't, I am just pointing that out as a matter of procedure.

THE COURT: The first line on that screen: This Court stated it is "not here to hear what President Trump has to say." Do you remember what I said right after that?

MR. KISE: I don't have it in front of me. I have that --

MR. W LL CE: I believe Your Honor said you are here to hear him answer questions.

THE COURT: That's exactly what I remember. So I think it is misleading to just have the first half.

MR. KISE: Since you are the trier of fact, you will ultimately decide that. But certainly the point that I am trying to make, Your Honor, is that the Court cannot ignore President Trump's testimony. nd whatever happened in the course of the proceeding before, that testimony has to be evaluated in the context of whether or not the ttorney General has sufficient evidence to prove intent. nd intent is a subjective analysis. You have to demonstrate that, in a criminal case, you have to demonstrate that the defendants had subjective intent.

nd I won't go through all of the, obviously, the testimony in the record. Here is a question and answer from President Trump's testimony:

"How did you know the banks did not pay much attention to your statements?

" NSWER: Because I have been dealing with banks for 50 years. nd I probably know banks as well as anybody. nd I have borrowed a lot of money. I have paid back a lot of money. nd I know what they look at. They look at the deal. They look at the location. They don't want to get involved in financial statements because that's not what they are after. If a deal goes bad, they want to be able to take the deal back over and, you know, have it. They want you to be able to put up some cash, or whatever it is you may be, including expertise, but they don't want to be fighting for ten years over a personal financial statement. They want to take over the deal."

So that testimony negates subjective intent. If his view, based on 50 years of experience, is I am going to give this statement over and they are going to understand it to be my opinion, compilation statements by definition are the opinion of an owner or the person that prepared them. So there is no assurance of anything other than that. That it is, by definition, an opinion. But if subjectively based on his experience he knows doing deal after deal after deal after deal with banks, that they are not going to do anything other than say, thank you President Trump, for your opinion. We are going to go do our own homework now. nd in fact, that's what the record shows.

THE COURT: I think you are assuming that I believe him.

MR. KISE: Well, I am certainly suggesting that you should, because there is no evidence to the contrary. There is certainly no evidence to the contrary is the point. I mean, they haven't introduced any evidence that you shouldn't believe him, other than them running around saying as many times as the ttorney General can possibly get it out of her mouth that he is a fraud, he is a fraud, he is a fraud, he is a fraud.

But, you know, what building has the ttorney General built in this community? What expertise does the ttorney General or any member of her staff have in the commercial real estate sector? What understanding do they have? Do they have 50 years of understanding how bank deals are done? Do they have 50 years of understanding how negotiations are handled, as to what banks rely on and what they don't? If you are trying to prove subjective intent, then you need to establish that there is a basis to say, other than just saying it, that the individual is not credible and not to be believed.

In response to another question. "That's not my question," Mr. Wallace said. "My question is whether you would actually use them to obtain financing.

" NSWER: I would give them, but I don't think anybody paid much attention to them because of the disclaimer clause."

Which I'll come back to.

" nd because generally that's not the way to do it. gain, I have been doing it for 50 years and they look at the property."

There are multiple examples where he continued this testimony, despite many different ways of asking him the question. Which is fine, that's cross examination. But it negates fully any intent to mislead or defraud. The knowledge of disclaimers in 50 years of industry experience goes to the state of mind of President Trump, and the other defendants for that matter, when the statements were given over.

dditionally, President Trump testified that he "gave Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney total authority to work with the very expensive accounting firm."

We heard about that a lot.

" nd they worked with the accounting firm, and they came up with a statement."

Well, New York Courts have held that plaintiffs, if there is no good faith, if there is no evidence -- excuse me. If there is no evidence to suggest that a defendant's reliance on accounting professionals was other than in good faith, then there is no evidence of intent.

nd I would cite the brahami case 224 .D.2d at 233, I believe.

nd the Dillard case 271 New York 403.

It is beyond reasonable for any CEO in a major corporate enterprise to rely on multi million-dollar accountants and staff when -- when dealing with financial matters. So again, there is no evidence of intent. The disclaimers also -- the inclusion of the disclaimers negate intent, whatever the Court may think about the disclaimers substantively, which as you know we disagree with strongly.

THE COURT: nd I wrote extensively, or at least pointedly, about the disclaimer and the worthless clause, and I believe the ppellate Division affirmed me on both. They are not defenses at all. But I'll let you make your record.

MR. KISE: Whether they are substantive defenses or not, a point which we will allow the ppellate Court ultimately to decide.

THE COURT: They already did.

MR. KISE: Well, I mean, again, respectfully, I would disagree with that. But I -- that's why it is up on appeal now.

But in all events, the inclusion of the disclaimer itself and the knowledge of that inclusion and the testimony you have heard, negates subjective intent. If President Trump knows that when he hands this to someone that it is telling them on its face, these are my opinions. The compilation is, by definition, a corroborated opinion -- an uncorroborated opinion. The disclaimers tell the banks what is being provided and not being provided. nd they notify the users, like Deutsche Bank and Zurich, do your own analysis. If that's what is in his mind, it is not possible for him to form subjective intent to defraud. Whether you think it is a defense or not, is a completely separate matter.

Whether it actually survives as a defense, which again, we think it is a full and complete defense, but whether it is or it is not, it is certainly a defense to intent, because it goes to the state of mind of the person providing the statement itself, the SOFC. I know that there is a disclaimer in there.

THE COURT: Wait a minute. I am sorry to interrupt. nd I want to give you --

MR. KISE: No, you can.

THE COURT: I want to give you your due. But you seem to be saying the fact that somebody says don't believe me, which is not what it says anyway, but don't believe me, proves that they are not lying? Or --

MR. KISE: It proves that they have no subjective intent to defraud. Because why would you -- why would you put a bank on notice to do your own homework? Why would you tell them, don't rely on me? Why would you say, hey, this is my opinion. This is what I think, you go do your own homework.

s you heard President Trump testify, in the industry, I mean, often they don't even put statements together.

THE COURT: I see your point. Okay. Thanks.

(The following proceedings were stenographically recorded by Senior Court Reporter Michael Ranita.)

MR. KISE: Back to materiality. s stated, the ttorney General cannot ignore materiality, and it permeates the complaint. It permeates the documents, and it permeates the governing law here. But from the opening statement the ttorney General makes clear their approach to materiality. The Court has already found that the People submitted conclusive evidence that between 2014 and 2021, the defendants overvalued the assets in the statements between 812 billion and 2.2 billion per year.

There's no world in which that an overstatement of that size -- there is a typo there. I'm sorry. There's no world in which an overstatement of that size is not material.

So, in fact, the ttorney General's position is that the ruling by this Court on summary judgment meant that what the banks thought and did, just doesn't matter. nd that's just completely inaccurate. It does matter. It -- the materiality must be viewed, and we are going to get there. I'm going to show the Court concrete examples of this through the Haigh testimony and the documents, that, in fact, there is a world in which a difference of that size -- I'm not going to call it an overstatement -- a difference of that size is not material. nd it's the world we are living in right now. It's the real world that these transactions were negotiated and consummated in.

nd the standard under New York law for materiality is that in all probability the omitted or misrepresented facts would, in view of the circumstances, have assumed actual significance in the deliberations of, in this case, a reasonable shareholder, or a bank or investor; that's the Essner case 124 Misc., M-I-S-C 2d 830.

THE COURT: Your position is that no witness testified that they would have regarded these discrepancies as material.

MR. KISE: I don't believe they did. In fact, the witness -- the bank witnesses, and I'll show you that testimony, they never asked them if they would have made any different changes. Let's look at that, because the bank employees, Mr. Haigh and Mr. Weisselberg make clear that the materiality was not demonstrated.

The ttorney General never asked Mr. Haigh if anything would have been done differently. They never asked Jack Weisselberg about if anything would have been done differently. Moreover, the bank considered many, many, many other factors, not just the SOFCs in determining loan approvals and pricing. There's testimony in the record for this. Those factors included the nature of the collateral, the quality of the collateral, the loan to value ratio, the bank's lending history, the actual lending experience with the customer, the bank's experience in a particular industry, the client's experience in a particular industry, the client's performance in a particular industry, the guarantor's liquidity, the unpledged access -- unpledged assets. That may be unintentional. The unpledged assets by the guarantor, and the economic climate.

THE COURT: Let me give you a hypothetical. Let's say a bank employee says -- and we are doing this because this is your view of materiality. Would it have affected the view of the recipient of the document? Let's say an employee says, "Oh, we viewed it very differently, but we still would have done the deal." Does that make it material, or not?

MR. KISE: Not, because if they would have viewed it differently and still done the deal, that's ultimately what matters, because ultimately what matters is the decision making process of the bank. If they would have approved it, even with this knowledge, then right in their mind it's not material. nd I think the evidence, and I'm going to point to this now, demonstrates that.

Materiality must be viewed through the lens of the bank, not the ttorney General and not the Court. What is material to the bank? nd so Mr. Haigh testified that all approvals were based on the Deutsche Bank adjusted values. nd those -- and I'll show you the specifics here in a moment, your Honor. nd you may recall them. Those adjusted values reduced the values in the SOFCs by roughly two billion dollars in most years, and Deutsche Bank approved the loans anyway because they didn't view that sort of differential as material.

So when the G says, or the ttorney General says at the beginning of the trial that there's no world in which a $2 billion difference cannot be material, I would suggest that here in the real world it is based on the facts that are in evidence now.

THE COURT: My hypothetical -- sorry to interrupt, my hypothetical, I think you are confusing materiality and reliance. If somebody says we would have -- we would have done the deal anyway, and that could be for any number of reasons; they want repeat business, et cetera. But using your own view, look at it from the eyes of the bank employee, or whomever, if -- let me just ask plaintiffs quickly, did any defendant employee -- I mean, any bank employee, I'm sorry, say oh, yeah, we viewed it differently and if so, who?

MR. KISE: They are certainly going to get their chance.

MR. W LL CE: I guess the question is, would they have said -- would they have done it differently? We didn't present, at trial, the hypothetical of all the evidence that we've shown to show the statements were false.

THE COURT: I'm just asking whether any bank employee said, we would have viewed it differently if we had known B instead of .

MR. W LL CE: Mr. Haigh said that in his deposition, but we didn't put that in front of him at the trial.

MR. KISE: It's not in the trial. Whether he said it in the deposition, it's not in the courtroom.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. KISE: So if they are satisfied with their adjusted values, I'm not conflating the concepts of materiality and reliance, your Honor, respectfully, but they are interconnected. nd I don't think there's a bank that doesn't want to have the federal regulator standing on top of them for the rest of their existence that would ever testify, we deem something to be material, but we went ahead anyway. It's not plausible to conclude that.

So there's no even theoretical argument that the approvals, the rates or terms, would have been any different because the banks own analysis and rationale demonstrates that it wouldn't. nd so the ttorney General cannot simply come along an substitute her view of what's material and say it's material.

nd I'm just going to use the 2014 year as, you know, we went through each year, but I'll just go with the 2014 year. You could see from the highlighted language, approval of the various credit facilities; Doral, Trump Chicago, Trump Old Post Office, are being recommended based on, we have three items listed there. The first is the financial strength of the guarantor. If you'll notice that language that is so pesky for the ttorney General that they don't want anyone to pay attention to, "on an adjusted basis" -- we're gonna flip over to the next slide so you see what that means. On an adjusted basis the financial strength of the guarantor. It doesn't say on basis that he told us. It says on our basis, on an adjusted basis. Mr. Haigh testified repeatedly, I think the Court, frankly got tired of hearing it over and over again, that yes, those are adjusted numbers.

The other two factors which are very important, particularly in this context, are the operating experience and the Deutsche Bank relationship. Remember, President Trump was brought into the private bank because as a whole -- you have his testimony -- as a whole, as a bank, as an institution, they believed that this would be a valued customer to them; this relationship would be valuable to them. nd as the record reflects and as history establishes, they were right. He was a valuable customer for them. He made lots of money for them. They got deposit relationships. nd it was only because he became President of the United States, and that created all sorts of political complications, that they ceased doing business with him at that time.

THE COURT: Is there any evidence that they still do business with him one way or the other? I don't know.

MR. KISE: I don't believe so, because of the testimony you heard about when he became President, it got elevated to the management and they were concerned about the navigating politics of that.

If you look at the credit memos where you see the numbers, and this goes back to my point about the "real world" versus the " ttorney General world." If you look at the net worth numbers each year, just in 2014 here, they looked at the 2012 and 2013 numbers. nd in 2012 you have the client reported net worth of 4.559 billion and you have the Deutsche Bank adjusted net worth of 2.436 billion.

Similarly, in 2013 you have a client reported 4.978 billion, and the Deutsche Bank adjusts the number of 2.645 billion. So contrary to what the ttorney General maintained in their opening, and has maintained throughout, there is a world in which a difference of that magnitude of $2 billion isn't material, is not material, and it's the real world. It's the one in which these loans were negotiated, executed, consummated successfully.

Same is true, if you flip over to the next page of the 2014 credit memo. You see the Deutsche Bank valuation and the client valuation. nd again, there is 1.5 to $1.7 billion differential -- 1.5. We'll call it 1.5, differential between the client reported valuation and the client reported net equity, and the Deutsche Bank valuation and the Deutsche Bank adjusted net equity. nd as we saw from the two slides before, and as we know from Mr. Haigh's testimony, the numbers that Deutsche Bank relied on, their numbers, their own numbers, and they were satisfied with these wide differentials.

Just briefly on materiality, two more points. William Kelly, the General Counsel of Mazars, testified that "Mazars never determined that there were any material discrepancies with respect to the Statement of Financial Condition -- Statements of Financial Condition that it prepared for President Trump from 2011 to 2018."

Mr. Larson, an appraiser from Cushman & Wakefield, who you know I have some question as to his veracity, but nonetheless, he certainly testified, the ttorney General's own witness, that there was absolutely nothing to prohibit President Trump from conducting his own valuation of his property and the valuations never needed to be conducted by an appraiser.

So when you couple that testimony, and bear in mind that all of the witness testimony we are talking about are ttorney General witnesses, they are not even our witnesses. None of them have done anything to establish materiality. nd this point has been ignored by the ttorney General, because as I began, they are relying on your determination and their view that, well, the numbers are so large it must be material. But materiality is measured in the real world by reel participants. In this case the banks that came before this court. There's no evidence of materiality, and the claim, on that basis alone, fails.

I'll talk briefly on insurance fraud. First of all, in our view, there's no evidence that the SOFCs, were material to the underwriting decisions. nd importantly, there's no evidence of any false written statement submitted to insurers. Ms. Markarian testified that llen Weisselberg allegedly told her SOFC values are based on appraisals. Mr. Holl, H-O-L-L, testified about certain verbal representations during a meeting, but he couldn't attribute any statement to any specific person, and therefore, you can't hold defendants liable, in general, but there's no false written statements to insurers, so those claims fail.

Conspiracy. Conspiracy requires an agreement, most importantly. The heart of any conspiracy is agreement. n agreement between two or more parties, an overt act in furtherance of that agreement, the parties' intentional participation in the furtherance of a plan or purpose, and resulting damage or injury. This is the bacus Federal Savings Bank case, 75 D3d 472. We also cite the Court to the Robinson case, 259 D2d 280.

So here, there is no proof whatsoever of any agreement to commit a criminal act. The agreement to prepare and submit SOFCs is not an agreement in and of itself to commit a criminal act. nd there's no evidence of any intentional participation in any plan/purpose in furtherance of a criminal act.

There is also no evidence of resulting damage or injury. s I began, there are no victims here. There's no fraud. There's no complaining witness. There's no defaults, there's no later missed payments. These are all profitable transactions.

There's no evidence of agreement. The ttorney General's star witness. I know that the ttorney General says, no, Michael Cohen is just a small part of our case. Really, it doesn't matter. Right on that screen, Michael Cohen was featured. They played his testimony in the openings. Donald Trump told me to do , B, C, D, E, F G. He was showcased. Now the ttorney General, herself, retreats from his -- no other way to describe it -- pathetic performance. I mean, he is not credible. He admitted to perjury. In fact, I think -- I didn't go back and count -- I think he lied, he admitted to lying in just about every court he's ever appeared in.

Importantly, he finally admitted, after Mr. Robert's cross examination, that President Trump never told him to inflate the statements. He said on redirect, and this I think is the most astonishing part of Mr. Cohen's testimony, that somehow or another President Trump speaks in code.

I mean, you saw him on the stand. I don't think when he was addressing Mr. Wallace, or talking about the ttorney General, or talking about the allegations, or anything else, this is not a man that speaks in code. I could assure you personally, this is not a man that speaks in code. nyone that has been around President Trump for more than 15 minutes knows you will know what it is that he wants, and you will know exactly how it is that he intends for you to get there. This is not someone that speaks in code.

So the idea that Michael Cohen tried to rehabilitate himself on redirect after demonstrating he lied and lied and lied, well, he never really told me. He just speaks in code, is preposterous.

THE COURT: Can I bring up something not in the record, but a matter of public knowledge? I think the perfect call with Zelenskyy about the military aid, there might have been code rather than straightforward talk.

MR. KISE: I don't know. That's a political issue that really has no bearing on anything in the courtroom, and I certainly don't know the facts or circumstances of it. nd I hope, sincerely, that that is not bearing on the Court's mind when it comes to the testimony. I know it's not. I know you were making a point, but that's a completely different context. nd here the only proof of agreement that they presented to the court was Michael Cohen.

THE COURT: Okay. I understand. I only base my decisions and rules on what's in the record, and that clearly was not, so okay.

MR. KISE: There's no testimony to support the ttorney General's claim that President Trump directed anyone to overstate this SOFC values. I mean, Cohen said affirmatively, he did not direct him to overstate the values. nd I'll just touch previously on the other only other statement that's even come close to this issue in the record, is the statement that the ttorney General attempted to get in through Mr. Birney about what llen Weisselberg allegedly told him. Well, as you know from our submission, that statement is inadmissible because until -- unless and until the ttorney General proves a prima facie of conspiracy, without that statement, which they haven't, because they haven't demonstrated agreement over the various elements, then that statement doesn't come in.

Even if it came in, that statement, alone, is not proof of any agreement or any criminal act. The statement is purportedly, "Mr. Trump wanted his net worth to go up." Well, that, on its face, is not evidence of guilt or criminal conduct.

I think I believe President Trump himself said, "Well, who doesn't want to it go up?" I mean, you are going to tell people, "I would like it to go down." You know, I would like it to go down. The statement itself proofs nothing, even if it's admissible, which we believe that it's not.

Briefly, on two points about specificity, because we argued the criminal statutes. The ttorney General has failed to establish individual claims against each defendant. There's no specific proof of liability, specific conduct. I mean, look at Seven Springs, DJT Holdings, DJT Managing Member, Trump Organization, Inc. and LLC. The parties to the loans and the guaranty are very specific parties. They are set forth in the governing documents. So Seven Springs didn't prepare an SOFC or certification, DJT Holdings didn't, Trump Org, Inc. did not, Trump Org, LLC did not. The trust did not prepare and submit the SOFCs at the loan inception, at least. nd so there's no separation of any kind. None of the defendants are specified as to the insurance fraud claim. It's just simply insurance fraud and defendants. nd the ttorney General cannot simply just conflate all of the defendants together. There's no basis in the record to disregard the corporate forum. nd the ttorney General has failed completely to attribute specific criminal conduct to specific defendants, which is the statutory burden.

They've also -- the ttorney General has also failed to establish specific defects. So the ttorney General's position which, you know, we disagree with, but their position is is that each SOFC submission or certification constitutes a separate act. But there's no actual evidence specific to each act.

The ttorney General, just in the record, has conflated the 2011, 2021 period without specific proof, year by year. There's no specific delineation as to each defect year by year. So the evidence has sort of wandered, um, I think some of the media has observed this, that each day we move from the 2014 Statement of Financial Condition to the 2013 spreadsheet, to a 2016 e-mail, back to a 2012 document. There's -- it's just sort of this meandering presentation, which at least where I'm from we call it a spaghetti method. You throw it all up on the we'll and let's just see what sticks, but there's no attempt to establish the materiality of each alleged defect or each separate SOFC, or each separate certification. nd the ttorney General cannot simply conflate all of this together. There's no basis in the law for establishment of criminal liability against any individual defendant without a specific delineation.

nd so the failure to completely to attribute specific criminal conduct to a specific SOFC and a specific individual defendant, and a specific certification and a specific individual defendant, is fatal to their claims.

Disgorgement. I'm only going to say this once for the record. We do not believe, as you know, that it's available under 63(12) or the underlying statutory claims. Even if it's available, though, we do not believe the evidence has established that any gains or ill-gotten, meaning there's no demonstration that there's a causal link between the purported gains to defendants, and the purported fraudulent conduct. nd I cite to the court the JP Morgan Securities case, 91 D3d 226, which unfortunately was reversed on other grounds. I'm not sure what the grounds are, but that case stands for this proposition, that the disgorgement must be causally connected to the violation.

There's no evidence the loan approvals, the terms or rates, would have actually differed. nd the disgorgement must be directed at ill-gotten gains for recompense of investors, or some entity other than the prosecuting agency. That's the ccess, -C-C-E-S-S, Point

Medical case, 106 D3d 40.

So here what you have is no victim, no complainant, no loss, no nothing, and a request for disgorgement based on ill-gotten gains that haven't been established to be, in the record, ill-gotten, all directed at the agency, the prosecuting agency, the ttorney General. There isn't anything to recompense.

I'll bring up briefly, for context purposes, the statute of limitations, because I think it's appropriate here in the discussion of the disgorgement.

ny transactions closed before July 13, 2014, are not subject to any sort of financial disgorgement. They cannot be included in the calculation. So the only remaining loan claims would then relate to the OPO loan and/or the 40 Wall Street loan; that setting aside the issues as to the application of the tolling agreement. But just as a broad proposition, prior to July 13th, 2014, that's a hard stop. So there cannot be any disgorgement as to transactions closed before July 13, 2014 loan transactions or otherwise.

They cannot seek disgorgement as to contracts awarded to the OPO contract, the Ferry Point contract before July 13, 2014. nd this chart, which you have seen before, sort of lays that out. It lays out the relevant dates. The Seven Springs loan was in July of 2000. The Trump Park venue loan was July 2010. The Ferry Point contract was 2012. The OPO bid selection approval was 2012. The Doral loan was in 2012. The Chicago loan was in 2012. The OPO contract and lease was in 2013. So all of those long well predate the 2014, July 13, 2014, date.

So then the only other transactions as I mentioned that are even theoretically viable, setting aside the tolling agreement, would be the OPO loan of ugust 12th, 2014, which is just across the July 13th line. nd then the 40 Wall Street loan on 2015. gain, those transactions, because there hasn't been materiality, hasn't been the requisite establishment, we would say there's no basis to award any disgorgement. They are particularly based on the disgorgement case law that I referenced. There is nothing to recompense. But in all events, those transactions would be the ones only theoretically viable.

THE COURT: What if a loan was closed, money transferred prior to the statute of limitations cut off, but the loan was still outstanding and interest was affected, and let's assume that the loan was obtained through fraudulent means, or the particular interest rate was obtained through fraudulent means. Wouldn't the borrower still be benefitting after the statute of limitations bar?

MR. KISE: Um, no, because you now have to look at the certification, as the ttorney General has requested that you do, on a free-standing basis. What were the impacts of that certification. nd I have a slide on that, but I'll certainly answer your question, your Honor.

What would the impact of that certification be on the loan terms itself? What would change? What difference would there be? We can't -- we can't use the concept of, well, I could look backwards to defeat the statute of limitations. I mean, that's why, respectfully, we believe that the First Department said what it said. I know there's a disagreement; that will be the subject of later proceedings, but that's why when you are dealing with a loan transaction, a transaction of this nature, you have to look at it at the time the agreement is consummated. nd all the subsequent certifications, whether they are false or not, we say they are not, but even if they are, they don't carry with them a corresponding damage component because the bank -- the die is cast. I mean, the deal is done and it's moving forward.

nd to the extent that there is an opportunity to alter the trajectory, that would be pursuant to the express terms of the loan agreements, which you have in the record. The bank and the borrower contemplated expressly in that agreement the exact scenario that the ttorney General is now bringing before this Court, which is what happens if this representation isn't met? What happens if that representation isn't met? ll of that is the subject, the core of the agreement between the parties, and for the ttorney General to interject herself into the private marketplace to this degree is both startling and, and, you know, frankly, frightful, because the parties themselves are in the best position to determine how they want to proceed with one another.

nd if they anticipate specific circumstances, then they anticipate those. nd if the bank is defrauded, they are perfectly capable of coming to the ttorney General to affording themselves to the remedies in the documents. But we don't get to, as ttorney General, ten years later rewrite the terms of a contract and say, "Well, I know that Deutsche Bank didn't believe that this was material." "I know that Deutsche Bank didn't view this these vagaries and the statements and the valuations as material or important, but we do." That's a substitution of judgment which is based on total speculation. There's no record of any ill-gotten gains. There's no testimony or evidence the approvals, the terms or rates would have been different.

The ttorney General is ignoring the multiple factor underwriting analysis. The ttorney General is ignoring the realities of marketplace. There's not even any proof that the loans, based on their concocted theory, would have ever been agreed to higher rates, meaning, that the parties would have come to some agreement.

THE COURT: Hold on. For present purposes, I'll agree with you, without prejudice, that the certifications, the subsequent year certifications would not change the terms of the loan. But my question is -- it's a hypothetical, almost; a rhetorical question.

If the loan was obtained pre-statute of limitations and under false pretenses, but the borrower is still benefitting post-statute of limitations based on the interest rate, I don't know, maybe disgorgement is possible for that. I'm not taking an official position. I'm just raising a question.

MR. KISE: Well, you know our position. There is no way to unwind that analysis, particularly here where the bank itself is telling you -- well, strike that.

The bank hasn't told you that anything would have been any different. The bank hasn't said, wow, if I had known that certification wasn't accurate, I would have acted differently. Most likely what the bank would have done is they would have determined, okay, I have got performing loans. Banks don't want to foreclose on loans. Bank don't like to declare defaults. Banks like, what, making money off of performing loans, that's the business they are in. So if the loan is performing, if the collateral is otherwise secure, both things that are in the record here, if there is no risk or little risk of actual substantive default. Then it is up to the bank. It is up to the private parties to determine, I think in some years actually based on the Deutsche Bank analysis, if we were to go back and look year by year, which I won't, but I think in some years maybe even on our slide.

Let's just look at that briefly.

Here. So right here in 2012 Deutsche Bank credit memo. Their own analysis, their own adjusted value has the net worth at 2.436 billion. So by their own analysis they would say, oh, well, he is not meeting the threshold. That's their own analysis. They obviously didn't complain about it.

In fact, not only did they not complain about it, they approved the loans and the credit facilities. They continued doing business year after year after year after year.

nd so again, I am back to, this is what happens in the real world, not the land of make believe, not the ttorney General's world.

THE COURT: By the way, this is sort of an offhand point. The chart that you were working with, the fact that the defendants or Trump Organization put X dollars, as claimed to have a value of X dollars, the fact is that the bank said, no, it is X minus Y, it is not 4 billion, it is 2 billion, maybe that means they don't trust him.

MR. KISE: It means what Mr. Haigh testified to, they don't trust anybody. No one trusts anybody. What bank would? They will not be in business for very long, and the regulators will be all over them. Their job is to conduct the exact analysis you see here, particularly in the commercial sector. They can't just say, oh, well, that's very nice President Trump, you are worth $10 billion, $50 billion $5 billion, whatever number, here, how much money do you want, let me take it out of my pocket. That's not how any commercial lender works. I think we can all speak from personal experience on dealing with borrowing for homes, cars, anything on an ordinary sense. No lender takes your word for it. That's why we have credit reports and we have all of these checks and balances. The whole purpose is to make sure that at the time the loan is consummated, whether it be a personal loan for a home or a giant commercial loan that is at issue here, that the parties have developed an understanding with each other as to the relative pros and cons of the deal, and that's what they have done here.

nd Deutsche Bank, yes, they discounted it heavily. nd back to where I began, they -- they determined that a $2 billion differential was not material to them. So it is not really a matter of not trusting President Trump or the Trump Organization, it is a -- I think if you were to look at any of the deals in the commercial real estate center, you are going to see these wide disparities. They are looking at it from a different purpose as well.

So there is no proof that the OPO would not have been made, the OPO loan. There is no proof that the OPO loan terms would have differed. There is no proof that the 40 Wall Street loan would not have been made. There is no proof that the 40 Wall Street loan terms would have differed. There is no proof in the record that the OPO or Ferry Point contracts would not have been afforded. nd there is no proof that any of the certifications could have possibly impacted these rates and terms.

Now, you have done me the favor of foreshadowing exactly what I was going to put up. Which is, we had this colloquy, I believe it was yesterday, or Monday.

The G's -- the ttorney General's only remaining theory relates to these certifications, but there is no proof in the record that post-closing certifications could possibly impact approvals, rates or terms. nd you yourself agreed, at least conversationally, you will have to make the ultimate determination, but I agree with your logic that a certification in 2017 doesn't affect anything directly about the original loan, how it was negotiated, how it was finalized.

So the ttorney General ignores all that. The ttorney General also completely ignores the guaranty and step down -- the step downs and the guaranty and the elimination. You know, with Doral and Chicago loans, which still feature prominently in their expert's opinion, the evidence establishes that the Doral guaranty went down to 10 percent and the Chicago guaranty was eliminated. So at that point there is no, even, theoretical impact of the certifications, because there is no longer any guaranty.

nd the guaranty is at 10 percent, so the net worth covenant was at 250 million on Doral and not 2.5 billion. nd so therefore, I don't think there is any allegation, even from the ttorney General, that President Trump's net worth fell below 250 million at any point.

So there is no possible basis, even theoretical, for disgorgement on the Doral or Chicago loan after the step down or the elimination of the guaranty.

So Mr. McCarty's -- and I am closing here to be mindful of the time. Mr. McCarty's analysis is, I don't want to be pejorative and use the word comical, but it is disconnected from reality. He develops his own absurd construct. He ignores the bank officer testimony. He ignores the plain language of the loan agreements, never looks at the step downs, never looks at the elimination, never looks at the default rate. He simply substitutes his judgment for that of the sophisticated counterparties who negotiated this with high-powered counsel, lots of back and forth.

So the ttorney General is just using Mr. McCarty, and apparently he is willing to be used in this regard, to back fill a gaping hole in the case, that there is no ill gotten gain. So we can't prove it so the ttorney General decides let's just make it up.

So these cases you heard us cite before, I will cite them for the record now.

The Gathers case 242 .D.2d 506.

The Quinn case 203 .D.2d 444.

The Ortiz case, which you heard about many times. nd I think you probably think that's my favorite. I do like that one, because the Ortiz case frames it well. You can't have an accident reconstructionist when you have eyewitnesses to the accident testifying and saying X. The accident reconstructionist is not allowed to come in later and say no, no, no, no, this is what really happened.

The Ortiz case is found at 19 .D.3d 239.

nd then the last case I'll cite to the Court is the 91st Street Crane Collapse Litigation. 154 .D.3d 139.

ll of these cases stand essentially for the proposition that experts opine on the evidence. They don't manufacture the evidence. They don't substitute their opinions. They can't contradict facts that are in the record.

So McCarty simply adopted this Court's position on summary judgment without -- assuming facts not in evidence. Didn't give any -- pay any heed to what the Deutsche Bank testimony was, what the Ladder Capital testimony was. Or more importantly here, what it was not, because there is no indication, as I have said, that anything would have been differently. So Mr. McCarty offers only to substitute his judgment for the judgment of the sophisticated private actors who underwrote and negotiated what, without question, are highly successful business transactions. It is not disputed.

The Frye standard and the cases that I cited simply do not permit this kind of expert by speculation. There is nothing in the record to suggest the banks would have denied approval, altered the terms of the loan based on additional information. nd this is important, you heard me say this before, because the ttorney General never asked them.

nd it is fair for the Court to conclude that they didn't ask because they knew they were going to get an answer they didn't want. So they decided, let's roll the dice with Mr. McCarty.

Mr. McCarty, you know one thing, it is interesting, maybe even more than one about his testimony, is in response to, I believe it was a question from the Court, he himself testified he could not -- he couldn't state with any reasonable degree of certainty as to what the banks actually would have done. The Court, you prompted him:

"It is a yes or no question, are you certain they would or would not have, whatever, offered a loan on those terms. re you certain?

THE WITNESS: It is a hypothetical question. I can't be certain."

That's exactly the point.

Mr. McCarty even confirmed there was no violation of the 40 Wall Street loan covenants. The colloquy that ensued on cross examination:

You would see here that the covenant that it describes is that the key principles must maintain a net worth equal to at least 160 million and a liquidity of at least 50 million.

" NSWER: That's correct.

THE COURT: I think principals is spelled wrong.

MR. KISE: It is. It is. I think this is in the record though, sorry. It is though, I noticed that.

"QUESTION: nd the key principal described in this document is Donald John Trump?

"That's correct.

"QUESTION: Do you have any reason to believe during the life of this loan Mr. Trump didn't maintain a net worth equal to at least 160 million and a liquidity of at least 15 million?

" NSWER: No. I don't think there was any violation of this covenant."

So back to your -- the question you posed about certifications and the covenants themselves, I mean, with the 40 Wall Street loan, there is not even any question in the courtroom presented that President Trump always met those thresholds. lways. So there is no impact, it is not even theoretically possible that there would be -- would have been any impact on the rates, the terms, the approval process, none of it.

So in sum, we submit that the ttorney General has failed to establish a prima facie case. There is no proof of intent. There is no proof of materiality. There is no specifically attributable contact to each defendant. There is no specifically identifiable conduct with respect to each SOFC and certification each year. There is no entitlement to disgorgement.

nd what we have here is the ttorney General seeking to impose liability for profitable transactions, to substitute her judgment for that of the banks. nd frankly, her judgment for that of a person who has been involved in the commercial real estate industry for 50 years.

I am not sure about the Court but I know if I had money to invest in commercial real estate and my choices were Donald Trump or ttorney General James, respectfully, I would certainly go with Donald Trump, because I know I am going to make money there. I don't know about the ttorney General. Her opinions in the real world don't matter. What matters in the commercial private sector is what do these parties have to say.

nd the ttorney General is not pursuing any wrongdoer. She is pursuing a political opponent. I am not speaking out of turn or politicizing it, but he is a political opponent. There is no fraud. There is no victim. nd respectfully, Your Honor, there is no liability as to counts two through seven, nor any basis for disgorgement.

Thank you.

I believe Mr. Robert has something.

THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Robert.

MR. KISE: If I have left him time.

MR. ROBERT: Can you hear me, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. ROBERT: Good morning.

THE COURT: Good morning.

MR. ROBERT: I will be brief, as is usually my custom here. But I don't want my brevity to be misconstrued as a lack of importance that your decision will have on the impact of my clients in particular and their future. Or any indication of a lack of how strongly we feel that directed verdict should be granted in favor of my clients.

I think it goes without saying that obviously I join in Mr. Kise's arguments on behalf of Eric Trump and Donald Trump Jr. that we request a directed verdict in this matter.

What I want to spend my few minutes discussing is, what I believe the New York ttorney General has not proven as to my clients. nd since they have rested their case, therefore we believe we are entitled to a directed verdict.

What I believe is clear is that the ttorney General has not proven that my clients were involved in the creation of the Statement of Financial Conditions. They were not involved in the preparation of it; in assembling the backup to it; in reviewing the supporting data spreadsheets to it; in performing the calculations or, quite frankly, in determining the methodologies used in the Statement of Financial Condition.

I know throughout the course of the trial there were exhibits, and we are going to talk about those this morning. But respectfully, the ttorney General is so desperate to make a connection between, for example, Eric Trump and the Statements of Financial Condition, that they actually used an e-mail from 2010 that attached an ND that wasn't signed that had a reference of a Statement of Financial Condition, I think it was in the second paragraph, in the unsigned attachment to show that somehow he had knowledge going back to 2010 of the SOFC.

There were also several other documents that were shown to Mr. Trump which were passing references to the SOFC. But let's not talk about what I am saying, let's talk about how Eric Trump answered the question about that.

If we could put on the screen Mr. Eric Trump's testimony from November 2, 2023, page 3328, starting at line 20.

THE COURT: Just one question. few moments ago you said, "Mr. Trump."

MR. ROBERT: That's why I am being clear now I am going to call them Eric Trump, Donald Trump Jr. and President Trump. Those will be the three words I use.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. ROBERT: This is Eric Trump's testimony.

" NSWER: I think where we are getting tripped up, is I clearly understood that I sent notes to Jeff McConney. I worked with him almost every single day. What's maybe not registering is the difference between sending him things that were used for financials and things that were used for a Statement of Financial Condition. Somebody from accounting would ask me something, they had ask me details of a project, and I would respond. I don't think it ever registered that it was for a personal Statement of Financial Condition. It was just a detail that was irrelevant to me."

Based on testimony like that, I respectfully submit that the ttorney General cannot show any intent for the remaining causes of action as relates to Eric Trump.

s to Donald Trump Jr. let's look at his testimony from November 1, 2023, page 3213 starting at line 21:

"QUESTION: Did you ever perform work on the Donald J. Trump Statement of Financial Condition for any year.

" NSWER: Not that I recall, no.

"QUESTION: No specific knowledge, sir?

" NSWER: No."

But obviously, parties to a case have an interest in the outcome of the case. Your Honor is able to deal with credibility issues. But let's look at what the other witnesses you heard from so far had to say about the involvement or, as I'll respectfully submit, the lack of involvement of my clients in this case. lthough I know Your Honor hates arguing in the negative, but here I am going to need to do a little bit of that to show, respectfully, what it is that we believe the People have not been able to prove.

s to Eric Trump, let's start with one of the earlier witnesses in the case who was Camron Harris, from the Whitley Penn firm, the current accountants for the Trump Organization. nd let's turn to Mr. Harris' testimony of October 4, 2023, page 455, line nine:

"QUESTION: I asked you if you had any meeting with Eric Trump that discussed the Statement of Financial Condition.

" NSWER: No, I did not."

Mr. Harris continuing on page 458, line 19.

"So while not specifically, did you have any meetings in which the Statement of Financial Condition would be a part of the discussion?

" NSWER: I did not have any meetings with Donald Trump Jr. or Eric Trump in regards to the Statement of Financial Condition."

We then can move to the testimony of Donald Bender, who you heard ad nauseam was the long-time accountant for the Trump Organization, had been paid to his firm millions of dollars, representing them for years and years. Let's go to Mr. Bender's from October 5, 2023. Page 526, line three:

"QUESTION: Mr. Bender you never spoke with Eric Trump about his father's Statement of Financial Condition,

correct?

" NSWER: I may have had -- nothing with the actual compilation of the report."

We then move down to llen Weisselberg. nd we know llen Weisselberg and Jeff McConney were the main players, for lack of a better word, in dealing with the Statement of Financial Condition. nd we have Mr. Weisselberg's testimony of October 10, 2023 at page 845, line 13:

"QUESTION: Did you rely on Eric Trump?

" NSWER: No.

"QUESTION: Not at all for any of the information contained in the Statements of Financial Condition?

" NSWER: Not me personally, no."

Now we know from the evidence that the ttorney General did submit to this Court that there were conversations between Eric Trump and Jeff McConney. But respectfully, they don't rise to the level of intent that the ttorney General needs to establish in this case.

So let's look at the testimony of David Mc rdle of Cushman & Wakefield, again a non-party to the proceedings, who can talk about Eric Trump's view of value, which again goes to the heart of this matter.

Let's go to Dave Mc rdle's testimony, which was

October 19, 2023, starting on page 1933, line 15:

"QUESTION: So two questions here. Toward the bottom of that long first paragraph it says "of course Eric Trump has lofty ideas on value and assumes 1,000 PSF, per square foot, is no problem. First, had Eric Trump communicated his understanding of what the values might be on this property?

" NSWER: Well during the course of this engagement, I did have conversations with Eric Trump. Some of it was about gathering the physical data that we just spoke to, you know, construction costs and building configurations and units. nd he did a great job of describing the physical nuances of the project. nd -- but importantly, you know, we ended up speaking about what they could sell for. nd you know, Eric loved this project. He thought it was very special. I didn't disagree with him. I think it is a very unique project and it would definitely appeal to high-end buyer -- to the high-end buyer interested in, you know, low rise attached housing with the amenities that this project might offer.

So he shared his thoughts. He thought it was very special and unique. nd at the time that $1,000 per square foot price point was what he thought was reasonable, you know.

" nd I am perfectly willing to listen. I think its -- owners are a great source of information, but ultimately, you know, I have to come up with my own conclusions."

Eric Trump is not running away from the fact that this would have been a conversation he would have had with the appraiser. It doesn't mean that any of the conversations he had were nefarious or done for any ill purpose.

We can continue with Mr. Mc rdle on page 2034 of the same date:

"QUESTION: Would you agree that as an owner of the property Mr. Trump -- Eric Trump, is entitled to have his view?

" NSWER: Yes. We always seek out an opinion. Its fair to obtain their input."

So here we have another witness who was an impartial witness who didn't have a problem with what Eric Trump had done.

Now, we have heard ad nauseam about Michael Cohen. nd I agree with Mr. Kise that it appears that in every court he has ever testified in, he has lied. But there was actually something that even he couldn't lie about. That's on October 25, 2023, page 2328, starting at line one:

"QUESTION: nd you never discussed the SOFC with Eric Trump, did you?

" NSWER: Not that I recall."

You know, the ttorney General has kind of thrown in this issue of some sort of an insurance fraud, which frankly I still don't understand. But let's look at the one witness that was brought in -- or one of the witnesses that was brought in to deal with it, as it relates to my client.

Let's look at the Claudia Mouradian transcript, which was played in court, but was taken on June 28, 2023. Page 124. nd I will read all three just for context, Your Honor. Line five:

"QUESTION: Did you speak to Donald Trump, Donald J. Trump?

" NSWER: No.

"QUESTION: Donald Trump Jr.?

"No.

"QUESTION: Eric Trump?

"No."

So so far we have gone through these witnesses and nobody -- and everyone has been consistent in what they have said about my client.

We then kind of dovetail into this issue of the certifications that were signed by Eric Trump. nd in a few minutes we will talk about the ones signed by Donald Trump Jr. nd I'll respectfully submit to you that the ttorney General has failed to show that Eric Trump acted in an inappropriate way, in that as a senior executive in a large company, he relied on others to assist him in understanding whether the certifications were appropriate, and as Mr. Kise set forth, the certifications said that they were true in all material respects. Let's go to Mr. Eric Trump's testimony from October 3, 2023, page 3442, line eight.

Being questioned by Mr. mer:

"QUESTION: Now, we have just looked at three certifications you signed stating that your father's 2021 Statement of Financial Condition presents fairly in all material respects the financial condition of your father as of June 30, 2021.

Can you tell us what, if anything, you did to ascertain that the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition in fact presents fairly all material -- in all material respects, the financial condition of your father as of June 30, 2021.

" NSWER: I relied on a very big accounting office. I relied on one of the biggest accounting firms in the country. nd I relied on a great legal team. nd when they gave me comfort that the statement was perfect, I was more than happy to execute it.

"QUESTION: Did you personally review any of the methodologies used to value any of the assets in the 2021 Statement of Financial Condition; yes or no?

" NSWER: No."

I respectfully submit to this Court that there is no basis of which the ttorney General has laid out a prima facie case of remaining claims against my client, Eric Trump.

Turning to Donald Trump Jr. and his involvement, if any, with his father's Statement of Financial Condition.

gain, we start at the beginning with Camron Harris, his testimony, October 4, 2023, page 458, line 19:

"So while not specifically" -- Question -- or rather: "So while not specifically, did you have any meetings in which the Statement of Financial Condition would be a part of the discussion?

" NSWER: I did not have any meetings with Donald Trump Jr. or Eric Trump in regards to the Statement of Financial Condition."

gain, moving onto Donald Bender the next witness. October 5, 2023. Page 527, line 23:

"QUESTION: Mr. Bender, did you ever speak with Donald Trump Jr. about his" -- referring to President Trump's -- "Statement of Financial Condition?

" NSWER: Not that I recall."

Moving onto llen Weisselberg, October 10, 2023 testimony. Page 964, starting at line three:

"I believe you told me earlier Donald Trump Jr. was also a Trustee at this point in time?

" NSWER: Yes.

"QUESTION: What, if anything, did he do, to your knowledge, to determine the estimated current value?

" NSWER: I don't believe he did anything. It was -- it was done by the same people that did it for 25 years."

Going on to page 965, line 20.

"QUESTION: Did you tell Donald Trump Jr. during the time that you were both trustees how the values were calculated?

" NSWER: Not that I can remember."

We go back again to even Michael Cohen, who said the second thing that was truthful, which he could not deny. Page 2327, line two:

"QUESTION: Okay. nd you never discussed the Statement of Financial Condition with Donald Trump Jr., did you?

" NSWER: Not that I recall."

We then move to the Claudia Markarian transcript which, again, is from June 28, 2023. I don't need to read it again to Your Honor. We dealt with it before. But it was: Did you speak to Donald Trump Jr?

nd the answer was "no."

So, again, moving to the certifications in Donald Trump Jr. as well. gain, these officers and directors of the company acted appropriately. nd as Mr. Kise outlined in his presentation, the ttorney General has failed to show any proof of intent and/or materiality. nd I think that goes, we have to look again at the testimony of both Mr. Trump -- Eric Trump and Mr. Donald Trump Jr. s the issue of reliability and what they presented to the banks and the certifications, I would refer you to page 3437 of Eric Trump's testimony, starting at line 17:

"QUESTION: nd when you executed these three certifications, you intended the bank to rely on the certifications; isn't that right?

" NSWER: I don't know what the bank does with the certifications. I certified something that I believe was accurate, and my lawyers told me that it was accurate, and our financial people told me it was accurate. nd that's absolutely accurate.

s to what Deutsche Bank does with a piece of paper like this, I have no idea."

We then have Donald Trump Jr. dealing with the same issue. First at page 3238 of his testimony from November 2, 2023.

nd I apologize, Nate, I know I skipped and changed the order. I do that sometimes.

So we are going to page 3238, starting at line 25.

"QUESTION: Did you take any steps to assure yourself of this certification?

" NSWER: s with all of the certifications, as I think we discussed yesterday, I would have sat with the relevant parties, mainly in accounting, whether that's the Trump team and/or Donald Bender. I would have asked them if everything that is in here is correct. I would have likely also checked with our legal department to make sure that the conditions are met as it relates to anything I would sign for Deutsche Bank. nd if they assured me in their expert opinion that these things were fine, I would have been fine with that and signed offer accordingly.

"QUESTION: Is that specific to this particular certification, sir?

" NSWER: Well I think I probably would save us some time and say that's probably specific to all of these certifications, because I am sure I've signed dozens of these in my time as a trustee.

We then also go to Mr. Trump's testimony on page

3249, line 20:

"QUESTION: Correct, that you signed this certification with the intent that the bank would rely on it?

" NSWER: I don't know that they rely on it. I don't. I know a lot of bankers and they do their own due diligence. But I was fine saying this based on everything --

THE COURT: Not "saying this" -- "signing this."

MR. ROBERT: Thank you, Your Honor.

"I was fine signing this based on everything I had been told as per everything we have discussed yesterday, yes.

THE COURT: "Today." Not "yesterday."

MR. ROBERT: Let me try it again.

" NSWER: I don't know what that they rely on it. I don't -- I know a lot of bankers and they do their own due diligence. But I was fine signing this based on everything I had been told as per everything we have discussed today, yes.

So Your Honor, while the burden of proof is not ours, I respectfully submit to this Court that the evidence is clear that my clients had no real involvement in the preparation of the Statements of Financial Condition. The ttorney General cannot possibly prove that they had the requisite intent necessary for the claims that are still the subject of this trial.

nd having now heard the testimony of witnesses, not just my clients, but also non-parties and people that have no vested interest in the outcome of this, I respectfully submit that there is no relief appropriate other than having a directed verdict in favor of my clients.

I think it is unfortunate that my clients have been dragged into what I'll say is a fight primarily between the ttorney General and their father. But nonetheless, we are where we are. But now the time has come, respectfully, that we need to put an end to it, and a directed verdict entered in favor of my clients.

Thank you, Your Honor.

(The following proceedings were stenographically recorded by Senior Court Reporter Michael Ranita.)

THE COURT: Thank you. ny other defendants have anything to say?

MS. H BB : I'll be brief, your Honor. If it's okay I don't need to go up over there.

I have full confidence in my team, and I join in all of their sentiments. I think they went through, in excruciating detail, why a directed verdict is warranted. Obviously I represent different entities, different individuals. nd we do join in everything that both Mr. Robert and Mr. Kise stated.

With that, I just want to highlight the fact that it is the burden of the plaintiffs to prove every element. nd while there has been a tremendous amount of noise in this trial for the past few weeks, I think that the law has to be what is held and what is examined here, and just the law.

There are elements that need to be proven against clients that I represent that were not proven. There was no intent. There was no proof of materiality. They are not entitled to disgorgement. Frankly, it was more of a press claim, if you ask me, because they couldn't prove it when they came in here. There was no bank that brought any claims against anybody that is a defendant in this case because there was no damage and there was no victim.

Further, the conspiracy to commit fraud is completely ridiculous, and they have no proof of it in this trial. We have seen numerous people come up, but none of them, none of them showed a conspiracy. nd the only one that did, Mr. Cohen, who claimed to say that there was some meeting that never happened, that he never had proof of, committed perjury, lied under oath in this court, and made a mockery of the judicial system time and time again; that was their witness.

The minute he got off the stand, he was retracted and they retreated. nd I think that speaks volumes, your Honor, volumes. Ms. James stated that that was why she brought the case originally. She Tweeted it. I showed that Tweet in trial on my cross examination. nd now we have nothing, but have wasted taxpayers dollars.

So as I said, I believe they have -- I don't believe. They have failed to establish a prima facie case for their claims. I truly do want to encourage your Honor to please look at every individual defendant separately, individually. I think they are all entitled to their fair chance and not to be grouped in for some -- as I feel that the G, frankly, has done and has failed to prove their case as a result.

So, again, on behalf of my clients, I'm also asking for a directed verdict at this time. Thank you.

THE COURT: Just one question, you said something about Michael Cohen retracting his statements after he left the witness stand; is that correct?

MS. H BB : Michael Cohen, as we know -- he has a PR play. I could go on and on and on. He has gone on TV. He has gone on podcasts discussing his testimony here. nd, you know, quite honestly it's irrelevant, because I believe what happened in court was the most relevant. He admitted under oath that he perjured himself, and that speaks volumes.

THE COURT: My point is, if it was after he was a witness --

MS. H BB : That's not relevant. To me what's relevant is what happened here, and, frankly, said it all.

MR. KISE: s predicted, I wound up on his podcast, as predicted.

MS. H BB : I used to be the only one, but he got in on it.

THE COURT: Opposition to the motion for directed verdict?

MR. W LL CE: We certainly oppose the motion, your Honor. I really will try to be brief.

THE COURT: This is past or normal break time.

MR. W LL CE: Should we take a break at this time or just keep going?

THE COURT: It depends on how long you are going to be.

MR. W LL CE: I'll try to be brief, your Honor. I will just say that the presentations we just heard sound like closing arguments. They sound actually like the presentations the defendants made at summary judgment. They are not a basis for a directed verdict. nd I know that Mr. Kise, through all the legal standards he went through, failed to lay out the standard for a directed verdict, which is that when the Court is considering this motion you have to afford the ttorney General every inference which may be properly drawn from the facts presented, and the facts must be considered in a light most favorable to the plaintiff. So that's in the Szczerbiak case, 90 NY2d 553. The defendants don't even come close to meeting that burden.

I would just note that it was two weeks ago the defendants sought a directed verdict after Mr. Cohen's testimony, was denied because there was a courtroom full of evidence. We've moved on to the overflow courtrooms. The evidence has only been supplemented since then, so it is still appropriate to deny a motion for a directed verdict.

I will walk through it at a very high level, your Honor. nd I guess I will start with materiality, which Mr. Kise spent a great deal of time on.

Materiality, I will just note the, false business records claim does not have a materiality standard. The question is just whether this document is false and was done with criminal intent. So for those claims there is no materiality standard.

For the false financial statement requirement, the question is, is the financial statement on its face materially misstated. nd I actually do believe that your Honor did decide that during the course of the summary judgment proceeding.

On insurance fraud, it is questions as to whether the misstatements are material to the insurance transaction. I think the evidence establishes that. I will say, though, because we are not trying to prove bank fraud. We are not -- it's not a larceny claim. It's not a federal bank fraud claim, which I will also note does not actually require a loss by the bank. It is merely based on whether false information is presented in an effort to obtain credit from the bank.

But I would still argue that these statements were material to the bank and that the evidence presented so far proves it. They are material because the banks asked for the financial statements. The banks require them to be certified by the defendants. The information was then evaluated and included in the underwriting. The fact that it was not the end of the analysis does not mean it's not material. Materiality questions whether or not it influences someone's decision. I would also add there are multiple statements here that are potentially false. We have potentially false financial statements, the actual Statements of Financial Condition themselves. We have the false certifications. We have the false representations to Mazars. nd on those, Donald Bender was very clear on the materiality of those statements. He said that the Mazars would not have issued the Statements of Financial Condition if they did not get the representation letter from The Trump Organization.

That was reiterated by Mr. Kelly who said that they decided to pull the statements when they found out that The Trump Organization had not met its requirement to provide them with all information, as had been represented in those statements.

Now, I would go beyond that, your Honor, and just add that the law allows for the creation of a false financial statement to be accomplished by having a third party create that statement in someone else's records. So that means that to the extent people are directing folks to take steps, that creates the false records that are in the Trump Organization's own files; the false records that are in the files of Mazars; the false records that are in the records of Deutsche Bank; the false records that are in the files of the City of New York.

I will also focus briefly on intent. On intent, I would just say that the defendants' position seems to be that if they get on the stand and say, "I had nothing to do with the statements", or more commonly, "I don't remember having anything to do with the statements", then intent is disproven; that's certainly not the law.

s your Honor highlighted in the lamo decision, which Mr. Kise also flagged, a mens rea element is typically proven by reference to the facts and circumstances surrounding the case, and that's 174 Misc 2d 501; that idea is repeated elsewhere in New York law.

Marine Midland, 120 D2d 122 stands for the proposition that fraudulent intent by its very nature is rarely susceptible to direct proof, and must be established by inference from the circumstances surrounding the allegedly fraudulent act, and that's a Second Department case, but the standard is the same in the First Department as set out in Setters, which is at 139 D3d 492 at page 493.

This is also shown in plenty of other fraudulent cases, including in the Second Circuit, in the Powers case at 57 F3d 176 at page 184, which establishes that intent can be shown through a motive to commit fraud and a clear opportunity to do so. nd where the mode of evidence is not apparent, it can be demonstrated by proving circumstances indicating conscious behavior by the defendant.

Now, all of this is just to say that intent is not proven by admissions alone, and that intent is something that the Court should -- is going to infer from the evidence, which makes it a poor prospect for a decision on a directed judgment, as opposed to at the close of evidence and at the close of the trial.

I will say that here we think we have ample evidence to demonstrate the intent of the defendants. The primary argument from Mr. Kise and Mr. Robert seems to be that the individual defendants were not involved in the preparation of the Statements of Financial Condition and had no idea what they contained.

Well, first off, that's obviously not true from Mr. Weisselberg and McConney. No one's talked about them at all in these presentations. nd so there's also almost no defense of their actions whatsoever in what I just heard. That, in turn, means that each of the entity defendants that they were working on ban of are also liable.

nd with respect to the three Trump defendants, I will start by reminding your Honor that this is documents case, and each of the three defendants signed documents saying that they were responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the statements.

Now, the "fair presentation of statements", that's at the heart of the case, and that's the graveyard the defendants keep whistling past, is the finding by this Court, on summary judgment, that the Statements of Financial Condition were false and misleading.

The Court has also issued final, binding rulings that the values of individual properties were inflated, and that includes Mar-a-Lago, the triplex apartment, Seven Springs, 40 Wall Street, berdeen, the Vornado property and the golf clubs. Those standings -- those findings stand, and are not a basis for reargument, because we are having a trial.

THE COURT: Let me ask you a personal question.

MR. W LL CE: Sure.

THE COURT: Do you file tax returns?

MR. W LL CE: I do file tax returns.

THE COURT: Do you have an accountant to do that for you?

MR. W LL CE: I do not.

THE COURT: You're like me.

MR. W LL CE: I did when I was a partner at a law firm. Now that I work for state, I don't have an accountant.

THE COURT: Do you rely on your accountant -- did you rely on your accountant at that time?

MR. W LL CE: I did.

THE COURT: Okay. So the defendants here relied on their accountants, highly paid accountants, and the highly paid attorneys.

MR. W LL CE: Certainly, but I'm also responsible for what is submitted in my tax returns. I was not here when it happened, but I believe that was the subject of some discussion with Mr. Cohen during his cross examination.

The other issue is the statements, on their face, say the values are being prepared by Donald J. Trump. They are being prepared by the trustees. It says in conjunction with their accountants, or with their staff, but they are taking responsibility for it. They are then certifying to Mazars that they've taken responsibility for it. They are certifying to the bank that they are true and accurate. So it's not a case where it's just a question of, you know, a document that went out and went to an accountant. But it's also true that if I, in the preparation of my taxes, give me accountant false information, if I give him fake donations that I didn't make, I'm liable for that fraudulence. I'm not relieved of my responsibility because I handed it off to an accountant before I did it.

So I think there is plenty of evidence here to establish intent. I think in particular with Eric Trump, the idea that he said he wasn't involved. He got a direct e-mail from Mr. McConney saying I'm preparing your dad's financial statement. Here's the manner in which I'm calculating Seven Springs, let's talk about it. Mr. Trump says, "I don't remember that", or "I can't recall", that's something for your Honor to weigh.

THE COURT: Eric. You are supposed to say Eric Trump, not Mr. Trump.

MR. W LL CE: I apologize. Because Eric Trump created that statement, was responsible and involved in the preparation of Seven Springs, which his father, Donald J. Trump, said was overstated. So I think at this point there's ample evidence within the record that if we are given, as we are entitled to assumptions in our favor, is more than sufficient for this to continue to a final verdict where the defendants can repeat these arguments, yet again, on their closing, in their posttrial brief, and your Honor will be able to make a decision with a full record.

I would also not belabor it here, but Mr. Kise is incorrect on disgorgement. The O G does not have an obligation to prove what loans Mr. Trump would have been able to obtain if he presented an honest financial statement. He chose to obtain discounted loans by the use of a fraudulent statement.

The burden here for the government is to demonstrate the reasonable approximation of profits causally connected to the violation; that's the SEC v. Fowler case at 6 F.4th 255 that we discussed in our letter briefing over

Mr. McCarty's testimony. With that, your Honor, I really won't belabor things anymore and I'm happy to answer any questions your Honor may have, but I think there's simply no basis for a directed verdict at this point.

THE COURT: I could ask you more questions, and that would take away some ammunition for Mr. Kise about one side or the other.

MR. KISE: Five minutes.

MR. W LL CE: Your Honor, the standard is usually move for directed verdict, yes or no. But Mr. Kise --

THE COURT: I --

MR. W LL CE: He had an hour and a half.

THE COURT: Nobody else from plaintiff, I assume? I'll give him a reply.

MR. KISE: Just briefly. Is it okay if I stand here?

THE COURT: Sure.

MR. KISE: Thank you.

Could you pull up slide 13, please.

(demonstrative aid was displayed on the screen.)

MR. KISE: So Mr. Wallace talked about the false business records statute doesn't have a materiality element to it, so facially, his argument is correct, but this is kind of part of the problem with the whole case. This is purportedly the false record, slide 13. nd on slide 13 you could see the highlighted language, all material respects. So this certification is not false. It's no at false business record unless and until they proof that it's all material respect. They have to get past that language. They can't read that language out of the document.

Mr. Wallace also mentioned that the differentials were material, but didn't offer any testimony. He just said they are not material in the view of the ttorney General, but no bank thought that these differentials were material.

Intent, he touched on, um, just two brief points there. First of all, intent cannot be inferred. I mean, in the criminal context intent has to be established. President Trump, for the record, did not say, "I don't know and I wasn't involved." He didn't say that at all. He said what I quoted, "In my 50 years of experience" and "based on the disclaimers." He took responsibility for what any CEO would take responsibility for. Yes, they are his statements. He didn't say, "I wasn't involved" and "I don't know." He testified about the things he did know. nd he testified, which hasn't been refuted in any way, other than by accusation, that he relied on accountants, like any CEO would, any accountants -- any CEO is not there putting numbers together on a spreadsheet. There is no evidence he ever saw the spreadsheets; that doesn't mean that he testified that he wasn't involved; that's not his defense at all. His defense is is that I didn't have any subjective intent to defraud anyone, because I didn't need to. I mean, Mr. Wallace, and that goes to that same point, circumstances and motive. The circumstances that are before the Court are circumstances involving profitable loans, no defaults, no victims, and no loss.

nd the motive that you had before the Court is to develop great projects, to pay interest, and to pay back the loans. I mean that's the circumstances and motive that are before the Court. There isn't anything else. They want to paint the ordinary as sinister. nd respectfully, that's not there.

gain, Mr. Wallace relied, as they always have, as I said, he is making my argument for me in that regard. He referenced specifically the summary judgment decision. But your Honor said, no intent, no materiality, and those are very different concepts. So relying on that is simply not sufficient.

The last one I'll make, perhaps to spare Mr. Roberts from standing up. On Eric Trump, they pointed to one e-mail. You are talking about a ten-year period, okay, there's five e-mails, four e-mails, one e-mail, um, there's nothing sinister; there's nothing intentionally criminal, which is what they are accusing these individuals of. By communicating with someone in the finance department, in the accounting kept about valuations over a ten-year period, and simply because you don't remember that doesn't mean that you are now a fraudster. It also doesn't mean you had any material involvement, any real involvement in the preparation of the Statements of Financial Condition and the certification. This goes back to the spaghetti approach. They just want to throw it all up on the wall and say, well, the defendants are guilty.

Lastly, my comments do apply, as Ms. Habba said, with equal force to Mr. Weisselberg and Mr. McConney.

Thank you, Judge. I think I made it under five minutes.

THE COURT: You probably did. You just have to be careful talking about spaghetti around lunchtime.

MR. KISE: I know.

THE COURT: Just one question. I think you said "intent cannot be inferred." Well, I'm familiar with the doctrine in the cases that Mr. Wallace cited that fraud generally isn't, you know, done in daylight. People don't say I'm going to be committing fraud or commit to writing, this is a fraud. But you have to infer, at least in a civil case. I don't know about criminal. Don't you have to -- doesn't -- I'll rephrase it. Withdrawn. Can't fraud be inferred from circumstances in a civil case.

MR. KISE: Two things on that. Number one, we are dealing with criminal statutes, and as I began, I think the civil equivalent of the criminal burden of proof, this is why we think we are entitled to a directed verdict, another reason, is clear and convincing. So even with the deference that Mr. Wallace began with being accorded, there is no clear and convincing evidence here of proof of the criminal statutes.

This isn't pre-summary judgment. This isn't 63(12) where they get all everything lined up, the deck is fully stacked in their favor, whether it be by the legislature or otherwise, and that's not our issue today, but under 63(12), as we've gone through repeatedly, you don't have to prove much of anything other than somebody in the ttorney General's Office thinks it's a false statement, no intent, no materiality, no reliance, no jury, but here, now we do. Now we have to prove those concepts. nd they have not established those concepts, and frankly they haven't attempted to establish them. They are just simply relying on your judgment and this idea that well, you said on summary judgment that the statements were false. You didn't say anything about materiality. You didn't say anything about intent, and the numbers, as I began, the numbers are so great they must be material. No, they need someone to establish that, and that someone would be the bank in the private sector who got to make that determination. s you saw from the numbers, the bank was not at all disvalued in any way, shape, form or fashion by a $2 billion differential.

MR. W LL CE: I'll just note my objection. That was a yes or no question.

MR. KISE: That's true.

THE COURT: I did ask him a question.

MR. KISE: Do we get our 15 minutes? You gave me five minutes.

THE COURT: You went past the five minutes.

Let's talk about burden of proof. I tend to think of them in a criminal context as beyond a reasonable doubt, 99 percent. Some other context, clear and convincing, I tend to think of 75 percent, and a preponderance of the evidence I tend to think of as 51 percent.

Let me ask the G. What's the, in a general way, what's the standard of proof here, because defendants are saying it's clear and convincing.

MR. W LL CE: We would say it's preponderance, your Honor.

THE COURT: On all questions in front of me?

MR. W LL CE: I think so, yes.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, are you claiming clear and convincing on all questions in front of me?

MR. KISE: Certainly as to the criminal predicates, yes, which is most of the counts. I mean, disgorgement, as a lot of other things, that's a different analysis altogether; that's an equitable analysis. But in terms of the predicate counts, they are all criminal counts, and there is no -- yes, there is no 95 or 99 percent in the civil world. There's no beyond a reasonable doubt. The closest standard, the civil standard, if you will, is clear and convincing. That's our position anyway.

THE COURT: ny authority that clear and convincing would be the correct burden of proof in a 63(12) case.

MR. KISE: Well, again, it's not -- I can provide the Court with authority, but I would just draw that distinction, it's not a 63(12) when you are dealing with criminal predicates. 63(12) on count one, very different standard.

THE COURT: Okay. I understand the difference. ll right. Let's take a little break.

MR. W LL CE: Can we do ten minutes?

THE COURT: Ten minutes.

(Whereupon, a 10-minute break was agreed upon and taken by all parties.)

THE COURT: Well, defendants were sort of long-winded, plaintiff was sort of medium-winded, I'll be short-winded:

Taken under advisement.

Okay. What else do we have?

MR. MER: Your Honor --

THE COURT: s if that wasn't enough. nd obviously the time back there was spent really hashing this out and thinking. nd I appreciate the defendants' presentation, and I appreciate the plaintiff's presentation.

Okay.

MR. MER: Your Honor, we ask for an opportunity to be heard on our in limine motion concerning four of the five expert witnesses. So I appreciate the opportunity to be heard on that now.

THE COURT: I read your five-page or four-and-a-half-page letter. Was there any written response by the defendants? There didn't have to be, I am just asking.

MR. KISE: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Then let's hear the in limine motion.

MR. MER: Thank you, Your Honor.

The Court's September 26 decision and order was a significant development in this case. The Court held that the People prevailed on their 63(12) fraud claim based on the undisputed evidence as a matter of law.

The decision rested on predicate findings of fact by the Court that many assets in the Statements of Financial Condition for many years were fraudulently inflated to a material degree, rendering the statements false and misleading.

Now, defendants are certainly free to challenge that decision in the ppellate Division. nd in fact, they filed their notice of appeal already. But they are not free to ignore the decision in this courtroom at this trial. Yet that is what they have repeatedly done.

We have just heard a lengthy hour-long argument on a motion for directed verdict that, to a significant degree, ignored the holdings that this Court issued in its summary judgment motion. So to does their intent to call the four expert witnesses that are the subject of our motion.

THE COURT: Let me stop you a second. Do you want to withdraw your request to have these four witnesses testify? Yes or no?

MR. KISE: No. No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Just wanted to make sure.

MR. MER: s a result of the decision and the predicate factual findings that the statements were fraudulently inflated, any expert opinions about valuation of assets or accounting standards for personal financial statements, are simply irrelevant. nd allowing defendants to put on such expert evidence is, we submit, a total waste of time and resources.

In the wake of the Court's decision, this trial is now about four things:

One, whether defendants have the requisite intent to defraud.

Two, whether they engaged in a conspiracy to violate the three Penal Law provisions.

Three, what is the proper amount of disgorgement.

nd four, what equitable relief should be granted in addition to the equitable relief already included in the Court's decision.

nd I would like to just quickly review why the proffered expert testimony from Dr. Laposa, Mr. Witkoff and Mr. Flemmons is simply not relevant to any of these remaining issues in the case.

s to the remaining causes of action based on illegality, the predicate findings of fact made by this Court on summary judgment largely satisfy the elements of these claims, except for intent to defraud. That is, whether each defendant had an intent to defraud when preparing or using the Statements of Financial Condition in business transactions with banks and insurers. The issue of intent essentially boils down to two questions: What did the defendants know, and when did they know it.

These questions are the realm of fact witnesses. These experts have nothing to say on this issue that is the least bit relevant. They simply have no knowledge about any direct or circumstantial evidence that would bear on any witness's intent.

The same is true for the related conspiracy claims. Experts have no relevant knowledge about whether agreements were or were not made between and among the defendants to engage in the illegal conduct.

Defendants appear to argue that their experts can somehow negate an inference of an individual defendant's intent to defraud, by showing that through some valuation method that was never actually used by the defendants, one could, hypothetically, have derived a value for an asset that is higher than the value that they actually derived.

First, this is the same argument that defendants raised in support of their summary judgment motion. In fact, based on the very same expert opinions that they submitted by affidavit and through their reports that is part of the summary judgment record. nd it has already been rejected by the Court in its summary judgment decision.

Second, the argument simply makes no sense. The Court has found that the statements were fraudulently inflated. The issue of intent is based on what the defendants actually did and what they actually knew when they were fraudulently inflating the values, and certifying the statements to banks and insurers. nd whether what they did provides direct or circumstantial proof of intent to defraud, again, is the realm of fact testimony, not expert testimony.

It simply doesn't matter what someone else could have done to value the assets at their current estimated values, it matters what was actually done. nd that's a fact question to be proven through fact witnesses and the documents in the case.

nd to the extent that the defendants are really arguing that based on their expert case the values were not inflated at all, that ship has sailed. That is just a refusal to acknowledge the binding effect of this Court's decision. The Court has held that many values were fraudulently inflated, and defendants have to live with and abide by that ruling at this trial.

Now, as to the amount of disgorgement, we put on our banking expert, Michael McCarty, to provide his expert opinion about how to quantify the ill-gotten gains attributable to the defendant's use of the fraudulently inflated statements to obtain lower interest rates on loans. None of the four experts at issue on our motion are -- have anything to do with banking or disgorgement. I expect we will see defendants add a banking expert to their list for December. nd to the extent their banking expert offers opinions on matters involving disgorgement, we certainly have no issue with defendants' right to present that testimony. But the issue of disgorgement does not provide any avenue for defendants to present these experts that are the subject of this motion, who are dealing with valuation and insurance and accounting principles.

Now, as to the remaining equitable relief. The remaining additional equitable relief that plaintiff is seeking, that requires the Court to consider evidence bearing principally on the scope of duties for the receiver, whether to bar individual defendants from serving in certain corporate capacities; whether to require preparation of an audited financial statement; and whether to replace the trustees of Mr. Trump's Revocable Trust.

Now, the evidence relevant to the Court's consideration of this type of relief involves the degree of culpability that each defendant has in the preparation and dissemination of the fraudulent financial statement -- statements and matters concerning existing corporate culture at the Trump Organization.

Defendants' proffered valuation and accounting experts offer no opinions that bear on these issues. quick word about a separate argument we raised with respect to Mr. Witkoff and Mr. Miller, who is an insurance expert, both of whom were designated solely as rebuttal experts. We did not call the experts that they have been designated to rebut, because for all of the reasons I am arguing, we don't see a need for that type of expert testimony in light of the Court's summary judgment ruling. So there is simply no basis to permit these rebuttal experts to testify. They could have been designated as experts in their case-in-chief, but they weren't. Their opinions are only relevant to counter opinions from our experts that have not been offered into evidence. They should be precluded.

I would also note that Mr. Miller, who is being offered as a rebuttal insurance expert, he is not their only insurance expert. They did designate another person, Mr. Giuletti, as their insurance expert on their case-in-chief. He is also on their calendar for November, and we do not seek to preclude his testimony on this motion. While we certainly reserve the right to object to specific questions during his examination, we agree there is at least a basis to put him on the stand, since there is an insurance fraud claim that remains in the case. So just to be clear, our objection to Mr. Miller is that he was a rebuttal witness, and we haven't put in the witness that he is being called to rebut.

I am going to make a final point, and it is really more of a fervent plea, Your Honor. For some evidentiary objections the Court has remarked that because this is a bench trial, the Court will hear evidence now and decide what weight to give it at a later date. While that approach, and I would call it, without being pejorative, the path of least resistance, is certainly one that many judges often take when there is no jury. nd it might make sense to take that approach when the issue is whether to let in a handful of documents or to listen to a few more minutes of questioning. I submit, Your Honor, that taking that approach here with respect to these expert witnesses, would be wrong and it would be inappropriate for three independent reasons:

First, this is not about adding a few more documents to the record or sitting through a few more minutes of testimony. llowing these experts to testify will come at significant cost to the Court and the parties in terms of time and effort. nd for the plaintiff, quite frankly, taxpayer expense.

Defendants have three additional valuation and accounting experts, in addition to the ones that are the subject of this motion: Mr. Chin, Mr. Moens and Professor Bartov, who will, no doubt, show up on their witness list for December. nd allowing the valuation and accounting experts to testify will likely require us to put on a rebuttal expert case. This will add substantial time to this trial. These four experts on the current calendar for November account for a solid week of testimony. Including the other valuation and accounting experts they will likely call, our cross examination of these witnesses, and plaintiff's rebuttal experts that will likely be necessary, will add, I would estimate, two weeks of trial time at a minimum. t a minimum, Your Honor.

Second, the Office of the ttorney General and more specifically all of these people here at this table in the well behind me, expended a tremendous amount of effort in culling through a huge volume of discovery material in order to present to the Court a comprehensive summary judgment motion and record that would permit the Court to dispose of a significant portion of the case as a matter of law, and substantially narrow the issues for trial.

We succeeded in that effort. It would be manifestly unfair, I submit, to our side, and would deprive us of the benefit achieved by our summary judgment victory to a significant degree, to now say that despite resolving the 63(12) fraud claim in our favor and removing that claim from the scope of the trial, we should nevertheless take the path of least resistance, act as though the issues for trial have not been narrowed, and spend at least two weeks hearing expert evidence that is not relevant to the remaining issues in the case.

Now, defendants can spin it however they want, press conferences outside of this courtroom. They can take the stand and testify about their perfect disclaimer clause, their statute of limitations theory, and they can invoke other defenses that this Court has repeatedly rejected. But none of that wipes away the court's decision that is the law of the case. Your Honor, we worked hard to achieve the substantial victory we obtained on summary judgment. We should be permitted to benefit from the more streamline trial that inevitably should flow from that victory.

Third, the Court has broad discretion to preclude expert testimony that has no relevance to the claims at issue. nd more importantly, and this is the test in the case law that is clear, will offer no assistance to the Court as the trier of fact.

The Court should exercise that discretion here to preclude these experts from testifying, because this trial should not be turned into an opportunity for defendants to supplement the summary judgment record in an improper attempt to shore up their appeal from the Court's summary judgment decision. They have their opportunity to create a record in opposition to plaintiff's partial summary judgment motion. That was the record on which the Court rendered its decision, and it is the record on which the First Department will review your decision on appeal. This trial is not their opportunity to get a do-over on the summary judgment motion.

Your Honor, for all of these reasons, the Court should preclude defendants from call Dr. Laposa, Mr. Flemmons, Mr. Witkoff and Mr. Miller.

Thank you.

THE COURT: Just one second. I am wondering whether there were two intentional references there. Do-over was very big in City Slicker. Do you remember that? This is a do-over?

nd "What did he know and when did he know it," that was a Watergate phrase, wasn't it? I am getting some --

MR. MER: It was indeed. nd it is phrases I use repeatedly when they are appropriate, Your Honor.

THE COURT: ll right. Mr. Kise, I am sure you are anxious to talk.

By the way, now you know what it is like to listen to a long presentation.

MR. KISE: I know.

THE COURT: I am sure it is not your first rodeo.

MR. KISE: It isn't, not with Mr. mer.

THE COURT: To start off, just as a matter of logic and common sense, do we need Witkoff and Miller to rebut testimony that is not going to exist?

MR. KISE: That is what? I am sorry?

THE COURT: Do we need them to rebut testimony that is not going to exist, that doesn't exist.

MR. KISE: So that raises an interesting point.

The first thing I want to say is, I don't know that I am shocked, because everything I have seen here from the ttorney General's office it is hard to shock me. But I suggest that Mr. mer check the Internet, Vladimir Putin has some openings. That's where he belongs. No question that's where he belongs. This is beyond crazy.

So now they have had five weeks to put on a case, they have had an open-door policy. nd he has the audacity to stand here, the temerity to stand here and tell this Court, oh, well, I know you have allowed evidence in on this liberal standard, and we have operated on that, that's great when it is our case for the ttorney General, but you know, you shouldn't do that now, Judge, that's a waste of time. Frankly, Your Honor, if I were Your Honor I would be insulted by that. That they don't want you to hear evidence.

To your question, how they present their case, how they call their experts, whether they call their experts, does not dictate how we present our case.

THE COURT: If you are trying to rebut testimony that doesn't exist.

MR. KISE: No. No. We put them in as rebuttal -- I am sorry. We put them in as rebuttal because that was the sequencing during the course of the pretrial preparation. But we are not locked in forever to, oh, that's a rebuttal witness, if you don't call your witness, I don't get do it. Those witnesses have things to offer. They have changed the course of their case.

The only two bases for excluding experts in the case law are, they are not qualified; and they weren't disclosed. The whole purpose of the pretrial disclosure process is not to lock someone in and say, okay plaintiff, you get to now dictate how we present our case. It is to disclose to them if these individuals take the stand and there is an issue for them to testify about, then this is what they will say. nd they have had full and ample disclosure. nd these witnesses all address a key issue that Mr. mer glossed right over when he mentioned your summary judgment decision.

He stated, which is their position, that you have already determined that they were inflated to "a material degree" but your opinion doesn't say that. We are here to talk about intent and materiality. Something that I know they don't want to talk about. So these witnesses relate to that. nd we should be entitled to present the evidence to the Court. It is a bench trial.

The goose gander rule, what is sauce for the goose, has been on ample display throughout the course of these proceedings. nd after spending what is, no doubt, tens of millions of taxpayer dollars chasing down someone who engaged in successful business transactions that made all of the parties hundreds of millions of dollars, they are now suddenly concerned with the resources of the State. nd so I think it rings hollow.

We are not ignoring your decision. But we are certainly entitled to put on a case. Unless maybe not. I guess maybe we should just ask them. Should we rest now and not have any defense of any kind? That's really where they want this to go.

nd so these witnesses, Mr. Witkoff is a developer who will speak to how developers view assets. His testimony isn't going to take weeks. But it goes to state of mind. We are talking about intent and we are talk being materiality. Remember that slide 13 that I put up? That pesky materiality language that the government doesn't really want to focus on?

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, I hang on your every word, I am sure I remember. But let me stop you for a second.

Your opening comment about one of the plaintiff's counsels is completely uncalled for. I think you should apologize.

MR. KISE: I am not going to apologize, Your Honor. Because frankly, I am not going to. That is the most astonishing display of one-sided anti-democratic anti-rule of law principles I have ever seen in my years. nd I am sorry, but that's it. There is no reason for me to apologize. I never had anyone from the government say you can't put on your case, in any case, that you can't put on your case.

nd now the rule that they have benefited from, that they have benefited mightily from, the latitude that was accorded them in putting on Mr. McCarty, Mr. McCarty amended his disclosure four days before he took the stand, his expert disclosure. So all of this. nd now they say, well, we shouldn't -- we shouldn't be allowed to put on our case and Your Honor should be concerned with judicial economy and Your Honor should be concerned about this goose/gander rule doesn't apply anymore. They were certainly very happy to be the recipient of it.

So I'll refrain from further pejoratives, but I will not retract. I don't think there is a reason to. I am entitled to my opinion, and I think his conduct is unfair to my client. nd to me, frankly.

To say that here we are, and we are not ignoring your decision, but we have to be entitled to put on our case as to intent, as to conspiracy. These experts have nothing to do with disgorgement.

Mr. Laposa is a valuation expert.

THE COURT: Wait. Wait. Before we get to him.

I'll use another cultural political historical reference. The Red Scare. He is a Communist, send him to Russia. Let's leave the ad homonyms out of it. You don't have to apologize. I think it was totally uncalled for, totally incorrect.

MR. KISE: Well, Your Honor, I will say that unlike everyone else in this courtroom, to date, that's the first time I have ever used an ad homonym insult. I believe other people have used them against me, in the courtroom. Including, respectfully, Your Honor. So I just, you know, I will refrain from further pejoratives I agree with you that ad homonyms are not something we need to have on a basis in a courtroom.

I'll go back to legal arguments.

THE COURT: Now let's talk about the two rebuttal witnesses.

MR. KISE: Right.

THE COURT: Part of the purpose of expert reports are to say what the person will testify to. They can't just then come up here and testify to anything they want to. Their testimony is restricted by what they said they would.

MR. KISE: Right.

THE COURT: I'll confess, I don't think I read the -- all of the expert affidavits, but plaintiffs are telling me that these two proposed expert witnesses, Witkoff and Miller, just said, I am going to testify to rebut the testimony of X and Y; and that X and Y haven't testified.

MR. KISE: They testified that they are going to rebut the positions taken by the People.

THE COURT: Let me ask. ll right.

MR. KISE: So in the context of expert discovery, that's how it is done. But they have advanced these positions. They have said, and continue to say, that my clients had intent. They advanced the position and said my clients, you know, that these were material departures. So we are entitled to at least demonstrate the state of mind. We are entitled to demonstrate what is the thinking of our clients.

nd the discussion we had, to the extent Your Honor is not going to grant the directed verdict, then we certainly have to rebut what they are advancing as their case, whatever it may be.

They are entitled -- they are the master of their own case. nd I will say for the record, Mr. Robert is the expert, as we know. I don't see how a plaintiff gets to sit back and decide, okay, I am not going to call these witnesses now and then if the defense comes along and demonstrates that there are gaping holes in their case in chief, that they get to call rebuttal experts after that. That's not how it works. They made a choice as to who they wanted to call and how to present their case. nd if now there are holes in that case. nd there are holes in that case. nd if the defense in presenting its case, puts on a witness that demonstrates, for example, that a developer, like President Trump, would view properties differently. Mr. Laposa, the same thing. We are not challenging the underlying finding by Your Honor with respect to the summary judgment motion.

THE COURT: Can you stick to these two witnesses?

MR. KISE: I am.

THE COURT: I don't think you are.

By the way, my institutional memory tells me, yes, I did read all of these affidavits, but months ago. So instead of saying I didn't read them, I'll say I didn't remember exactly what they said.

MR. KISE: I took it that way.

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, you can stay at the podium.

Plaintiffs, do you stand by the representation, as I understood your letter, to be the only reason that Witkoff and Miller were mentioned as experts or their only testimony they were going to give was rebuttal testimony to the two witnesses that didn't appear? Yes, no?

MR. MER: Three witnesses, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Three. Okay.

MR. MER: So Mr. Witkoff is a rebuttal to our two valuation experts Mr. Hirsh and Mr. Korologos. nd Mr. Miller is a rebuttal to Professor Baker, who is our insurance expert.

I would add that both of these witnesses were designated on the schedule for rebuttal expert witnesses.

They were not designated in the initial round of experts. So they are rebuttal experts.

(The following proceedings were stenographically recorded by Senior Court Reporter Michael Ranita.)

MR. KISE: Your Honor, because of the initial round, neither side has any notion what the other side is going to present. So the only reason they are in the rebuttal --

THE COURT: You do have a -- knowledge of what they are going to present.

MR. KISE: Not until we get, not until we receive it. It was simultaneous. We exchanged -- we exchanged primary experts, and rebuttal experts simultaneously. So it wasn't like we had time to figure out -- oh, no, this was all simultaneous.

THE COURT: I didn't realize that.

MR. KISE: So that's my point. Before they presented their experts, just like before we presented ours, we would have no idea, really, of the parameters an contours of their case. nd so the fact that these witnesses wind up in the rebuttal bucket is simply more by the circumstances of the way the litigation unfolded pretrial, as opposed to any, like, understanding of what their case was. So that's why I'm saying, the fact that they are not calling someone in their case, that's their prerogative. If they believe, as they do, and I respect that, that they have satisfied their burden of proof, okay, they don't need an expert. But that doesn't mean that we are not entitled to present our case.

Had I known what they were going to present, either before in pretrial, or now at trial, what the evidence would be, then I would have designated all these people as our experts on primary case.

They just -- there's no rhyme or reason. There's no designation that has a meaning because of the way it unfolded. nd so these witnesses will speak to intent, materiality. In the case of Miller, reliance, which goes to disgorgement. Flemmons, as you may recall me talking about, is a former SEC enforcement chief forensic accountant. His testimony goes to materiality, and governing standards, and whether or not they met those standards with respect -- whether or not they had the requisite intent to violate those standards; whether any violation of those standards was material. Those are the issues that are decidedly not part of your Honor's summary judgment, because they didn't have to be. The ttorney General argued, forcefully, at summary judgment that you don't need to consider any of this. nd now we are here considering any of this, and they are saying, no, it's all subsumed by your summary judgment decision, which I think is both inaccurate and unfair.

So the fact that the ttorney General did not put on their experts doesn't -- we think should result, in part, is another basis for why we should get a directed verdict, but to the extent that we will not, and we are here to defend ourselves. Then the Court should be able to consider that evidence. The Court, I would think, would want to weigh that evidence. There's plenty of tools the Court has if it believes that it's going on to long, or it's taking too much time, but for us to say that our case is going to be completed in less trial days than, I believe, the government's case, and we've already got us ahead of schedule, I think give us -- we haven't even gotten out of the gate yet and they want to shut the door. So I just don't think all of these witnesses speak to the elements that are squarely and completely before the Court.

The degree of culpability, Mr. mer mentioned that on the equitable side. The degree of culpability goes to state of mind, goes to intent. It goes to whether or not these individuals, you know, flagrantly violated something, or in the case of the statements under 63(12), we don't have to prove all of this if you find that they are false. s you've said before, okay, I find that they are false. That doesn't mean that they are materially false, it also doesn't mean they intended for them to be false. nd then there is a whole lot of layered issues there.

THE COURT: Five-minute warning.

MR. KISE: Mr. Witkoff, Mr. Laposa -- Dr. Laposa, Mr. Flemmons, Mr. Miller, all of these witness noticed. nd the goose/gander rule, however the Court wants to phrase it, applies wholly here. There's no reason to close the door to us after they had benefitted handsomely from it being opened. There was never any complaint about it before. nd I will leave some time for Mr. Robert, because he is far more the experienced practitioner when it comes to the CPLR in these matters than I.

You heard me say it before, the world is watching, so the world needs to see that everyone's evidence at least gets into the courtroom at some point, respectfully.

Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Robert.

MR. ROBERT: So sitting here and hearing Mr. mer talking about wanting to -- one of the reasons to deny these experts is wanting to save money -- and I'm not going to use any pejorative words -- is beyond anything I could fathom. The relief they are seeking, in particular to my two clients who are relatively young men, is to bar them from doing business in New York for the rest of their lives, and yet he is now coming in here after spending five weeks saying we really should try to short circuit this.

I'll remind the Court that at the last pretrial conference, after the summary judgment motion had been granted, you actually asked the government, well, since you already prevailed on the first cause of action, do you need to proceed on the balance? Do you want to? nd in a resounding yes, they said, " bsolutely." nd your Honor, in a colloquy with them was saying, well, a lot of the relief is the same. You don't get more relief from the other causes of action. nd their answer was, "You need to hear it because that may affect part of your ultimate decision."

So they could've taken away, to save the taxpayers of New York money, they could've said, yes, let's move to a damages phase of the trial. They elected not to do that. t this point now, because they changed their theory to prejudice our clients, respectfully I think would be improper.

Now, as to this issue of rebuttal not rebuttal, I respectfully submit that that's just an absolute red herring. In New York, the fact that we have expert depositions in this case, and expert reports is even more than we usually have in case like this. So there's no issue. My experience has been, as Mr. Kise said, it's always an issue of notice or a qualification of the experts. Not when the plaintiff changes their theory midstream, that affects the ability of an expert to testify. I respectfully submit, I think one of the bases that they failed to meet their burden, and our directed verdict should be granted, is that they failed to call an expert on those issues. However, if your Honor agrees with them, at that point it is incumbent upon us to put on a defense that we feel is appropriate.

My final thing is, what I really took offense to the most of what Mr. mer said is that there should be consideration for the efforts of the ttorney General staff in doing their summary judgment motion. ll I'll say on a personal level is, they had this case over three years. This defense team, in less than a year, worked on this case, are here trying this case, and we are working 24/7 to be able to comply with what these Court's orders were. So nobody is working harden than us, nobody is putting in more energy than us. So to say we should be precluded from bringing in these experts because they are tired, is offensive.

THE COURT: Mr. mer, you are still standing there. I assume you want to say something.

MR. MER: I do, your Honor. few quick points. I think Mr. Kise completely confuses fact evidence with expert evidence.

Nobody is seeking to preclude them from putting in whatever fact witnesses they want to put on the stand. This is about expert testimony. No party has an entitlement to put on an expert case if it has nothing to do with the issues in the case and will not assist the trier of fact. There's no due process right to put on expert testimony. nd the cases we cite in our letter demonstrate that courts have routinely precluded parties from putting on experts if the experts are not going to assist the trier of fact.

So the notion that we are somehow trying to preclude them from making their case is nonsense. This is about expert testimony. nd our position is that in light of the Court's summary judgment decision, there are no issues left in the case that would make these experts relevant.

The goose/gander rule, I have to make a point about this. They are distorting this rule beyond all recognition. This is a very simple rule. When the Court makes a ruling on an evidentiary issue, the Court should then apply that ruling on an evenhanded manner as the same issue comes up again and again throughout the course of the trial.

It doesn't mean that for every time I sustain your objection I have to sustain the other side's objection. These evidentiary rulings are about calling balls and strikes based on how the pitches are coming over the plate. nd there's no goose/gander rule that says if I sustain ten of your objections I have to sustain ten of your adversary's objections.

I would also add, the rule has no application here because the Court has not previously ruled on the question of whether expert testimony is or is not relevant to the issues in the case. There's been no ruling that the Court has issued on this matter to then apply in an evenhanded manner. This is a matter of a clean slate for the Court in terms of whether and to what extent valuation and accounting experts have a role in this truncated narrower trial as a result of the Court's summary judgment decision.

THE COURT: Hold on. If I can speak for Mr. Kise for a minute. His references to goose and gander are that not about expert testimony, but about the fact that you've had a long time to put on a long case, 25 witnesses in 25 days. He wants an opportunity to put on a defense.

MR. KISE: nd expert as well. I mean, Mr. McCarty -- we had that debate over McCarty, whether or not he should be permitted. You said, which is your province, particularly in a bench trial, I could hear it all and I could sort it out. Which would be the appropriate procedure here.

THE COURT: Let's break for lunch. I'll have --

MR. MER: Can I just finish two more points?

THE COURT: Quickly, and I'll probably give you a chance after lunch, because the food might regenerate the brain.

MR. MER: I understand. This will be quick. I think I expressly said that we have no issue with the banking experts that they want to put on in their case. They could put on all the fact witnesses they want and a banking expert. We have no issue with that. So this goose/gander rule, it's just nonsensical.

Mr. Kise talked about state of mind. I don't understand how an expert, who's retained after the fact, has any relevant information to impart on a witness's state of mind at the time of the events in question.

nd finally, Mr. Kise said Mr. Miller goes to disgorgement. I don't understand that. We are not putting on any disgorgement for the insurance fraud. We haven't put in a single piece of evidence seeking disgorgement with respect to any differential in the premium. That's not part of our disgorgement case.

Our disgorgement case is based on the loans and the differential and the interest rates, and that was Mr. McCarty's testimony.

THE COURT: Thirty seconds. Do you need to have a rebuttal expert on disgorgement on the insurance?

MR. KISE: Just briefly, your Honor. I mean, I know you said after lunch. Do you need us back? I don't have anything more to argue, but we are happy to come back.

THE COURT: Have a good lunch, but come back.

MR. KISE: The only thing I'll say on this point is the best disinfectant is sunlight. They want to keep this case shrouded, in their view, their view of the world. They don't want the Court, they don't want to hear evidence and -- to hear full evidence. nd yes, yes if Mr. mer doesn't understand how the experts will shed light on the issues before the Court, it will become apparent to him, I'm sure, when they testify.

Thank you.

THE COURT: Who first said sun slight is the best disinfectant?

MR. MER: Brandeis.

THE COURT: Brandeis. See you after lunch at 2:15.

(Whereupon, the case on trial was adjourned until 2:15 for the luncheon recess.)

THE COURT OFFICER: ll rise. Part 37 is back in sex. The Honorable Judge rthur Engoron presiding. Please be seated and come to order.

MR. KISE: Your Honor --

THE COURT: Mr. Kise, when there is a three-day weekend, I go up the stairs much faster.

MR. KISE: Indeed, you were bounding. I'm glad you gave us the lunch break. I'm going to apologize to the court and apologize to Mr. mer. You know it's not like me to be ad hominem. I shouldn't be. I wasn't raised that way. So when you are right, you are right. Mr. mer is working very hard. He is being a zealous advocate for his client. We are all very tired. It doesn't excuse it, but I just want to apologize on the record. I could withdraw it. You could strike it, leave it there, whatever you want, but I shouldn't have said what I said.

nd I hope the apology is at least accepted, but as you know, I don't make extrajudicial statements. I don't make pejoratives, and I will go back to being my assertive, but generally affable self.

THE COURT: Mr. mer, any response or requests.

MR. MER: I appreciate it, and I certainly accept the apology. Thank you.

THE COURT: ll right. Does either side want to say anything else about the question of whether plaintiff is entitled to preclude the four experts that their letter addressed? No? No? Oh, okay.

Well, Mr. mer asked me not to take the path of least resistance, and I will take that to heart, generally speaking through the trial. Obviously one of my real goals here -- well, one of the real goals, which is obvious, is I don't want a retrial of this case. I don't want to be reversed. nd to me, that basically speaks in favor of allowing, rather than disallowing, the questions, answers, expert testimony, et cetera; however, I'm going to let -- I'm going to deny the request, without prejudice to object to anything that they think is irrelevant, and I'll sort of explain how I see the heart of this case. nd I think I made this clear in the summary judgment decision of September 26th. But let me say again, I'm not here to value these properties; I'm here to decide whether the Statements of Financial Condition and related documents were fraudulent, or whether they were correct or whether they were accurate. I'm not going to say oh, well, and I don't think I ever did, and I specifically disclaim saying it about Mar-a-Lago. I'm not going to say what a property is worth, because I don't have to. This is a case about, as we keep saying, it's a document case, or were the documents truthful, accurate, fair. nd I'm going to go through some of the highlights, if you will, the greatest hits we call it, of the summary judgment decision.

What I think I was allowed to grant summary judgment was because it's -- whether the statements were true or false, it was not a question of whether they presented the correct value of the properties, but whether they were internally true and internally consistent. nd here are the ways I found some, or maybe all of the ways I found they were not internally accurate or fair. I'll start with the low hanging fruit. nd I never want to overemphasize this. nd I'll give you the numbers.

First, the value of the triplex was fraudulently inflated in the SFCs from 2012 to 2016 -- this is at page 22 of the summary judgment motion -- by inflating the square footage by nearly three times it's actual size. ll right, I don't want to focus on that.

Two, the value of Seven Springs was fraudulently inflated in the 2014 Statement of Financial Condition by disregarding and concealing the appraisals within its possession and reporting the value of Seven Springs to be more than 400 percent of its highest appraised value at the time.

Three, the value of the rent stabilized apartments as Trump Park venue was fraudulently inflated in the Statements of Financial Condition -- from now on I'll say SFCs -- from 2014 to 2021 by wholly disregarding the rent stabilized status of certain units and valuing them as if they were unrestricted. You can't get a fair statement of value by pretending that rent regulated apartments are vacant. The value is completely different.

Four, the value of 40 Wall Street was fraudulently inflated in the 2011, 2012 and 2015 SFCs by disregarding and concealing appraisals within defendant's possession and reporting its value as nearly $200 million more than it's highest appraised value at the time.

Five, the value of Mar-a-Lago was fraudulently inflated in the SFCs from 2014 to 2021 by wholly disregarding the land use restrictions which severely limited the ability to develop the property, and were granted in perpetuity by Donald J. Trump in exchange for tax benefits.

Six, the value of berdeen was fraudulently inflated in the SFCs from 2014 to 2019 by falsely indicating that defendants had legal approval to develop 2,035 private residential homes instead of the 500 for which it had actually obtained legal approval.

Seven, the value of certain golf courses was fraudulently inflated in the SFCs in 2014 to 2020 by including a brand premium and ignoring appraisals by claiming the SFCs did not include his brand value -- that was pretty black and white -- while also incorporating a brand value into its valuations.

Eight, the value of cash was fraudulently inflated on the SFCs from 2013 to 2021 by falsely claiming that Donald Trump's interest in Vornado was liquid, when, in fact, he had no right to use or withdraw any of these funds as a minority owner to.

Nine, the value of the Vornado Partnership properties was fraudulently inflated in the SFCs from 2014 to 2016, and 2021, by disregarding and concealing appraisals within its possession and reporting its interest in the property to have a value of more than $170 million more than the highest appraised value at the time.

nd finally, ten, the value of licensing deals was fraudulently included in the SFCs from 2014 to 2018, and 2020, by improperly reporting valuations of intra-organization deals in an asset category that purported to include only values of deals with outside third-party organizations, resulting in overvaluations each year of between 97 and $224 million.

So, first of all, again, sorry to repeat myself, this is common sense. You can't have a correct valid financial statement with these kinds of errors.

nd secondly, if the experts try to testify otherwise, I'm going to shut them down at my discretion. nd something that's bedeviled me this whole trial is the word "materiality", because as Mr. Kise was pointing out, the statutes say, well, there can't be a material misrepresentation. Well, I think I've said before, to me, if something is immaterial, it basically means de minimis. Okay, you could argue whether something is worth 200 million or 220 million, maybe arguably that's not material, but 200 million and 375 million are fraudulent. nd 25 million or 500 million, that is clearly material, and I don't need an expert to tell me that.

If you want to take me up on appeal on the grounds that Judge Engoron doesn't understand material because it's all about how somebody views it, no, at a certain point -- I think these are the words I used in the summary judgment motion, at a certain point it's not material; it's not immaterial. It's fraud.

So bottom line, I'll let all the defendants' proposed experts testify, but in light of what I said about Mr. mer's comment, I'm not going to take the path of least resistance. If it's clearly irrelevant, I'm just not going to allow it.

So Mr. Kise, or anyone on the defense side.

MR. KISE: No, your Honor. I think we understand the Court's position. I would say, without going through each category, you are going to take it on a category-by-category basis. I do think you will find from the experts that there is some intersection of issues here, maybe broader than you realized, but we'll take that up, as you say, as we go forward.

THE COURT: You won the battle, we'll see if you win the war, on the experts.

MR. MER: I would also assume that at least on the rebuttal experts, one basis for objecting on relevance grounds is their opinion isn't addressing anything that has been put into evidence on our case.

THE COURT: I think that's logical and fair, and we'll save the all important taxpayers' money.

Changing subjects, I think I mentioned this before, and Mr. Kise and Mr. Robert, you know, newcomers let's keep things moving along. If somebody is -- if you have an expert or another witness who is not going to be all day, let's make sure you've got someone behind up.

MR. KISE: Well --

THE COURT: I'll be very harsh about that, too.

MR. KISE: -- as I've said, there's no one here that wants to be done sooner than me.

THE COURT: nd there's nothing you said more often than that, and I totally believe you, of course.

MR. MER: Some people may disagree that there's nobody who wants it to end sooner.

THE COURT: I'm sure we all have our own personal stories.

MR. KISE: That's true.

THE COURT: ll right. So have a great weekend. We are resuming 10:00 Monday morning; right?

MR. ROBERT: Yes, sir. Thank you.

THE COURT: The first witness will be?

MR. KISE: Donald Trump, Jr.

THE COURT: I know him.

MR. KISE: Yeah.

MR. ROBERT: Thank you.

THE COURT: Thanks a lot, everyone.

MR. W LL CE: Thank you.
