Defendants.

Case No. 3:25-cv-01756

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The “traditional and strong resistance of Americans to any military intrusion into civilian affairs” has “deep roots in our history.” Laird v. Tatum, 408 U.S. 1, 15 (1972). Our nation’s founders recognized that military rule—particularly by a remote authority indifferent to local needs—was incompatible with liberty and democracy. Foundational principles of American law therefore limit the President’s authority to involve the military in domestic affairs.

2. Those principles stem first from the U.S. Constitution, which reserves the general police power for the states while establishing civilian control over the military. It also affords Congress, not the President, the power “to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasions.” Art. I, § 8, cl. 15–16. While Congress has delegated a portion of that power to the Executive, it carefully limited the President’s authority to exert control over a state’s National Guard—the modern term for the militia—to specific circumstances. And for over a century and a half, Congress has expressly forbidden federal military interference in civilian law enforcement.

3. Defendants have trampled on these principles by federalizing members of the Oregon National Guard for deployment in Portland, Oregon, to participate in civilian law enforcement. On September 28, 2025, the Secretary of Defense (now referred to as the Secretary of War) issued a memorandum calling into federal service 200 members of the Oregon National Guard. This order effectuated a social media post by President Trump on September 27, 2025, which authorized the Secretary to employ “Troops” using “Full Force” in Portland. Citing nothing more than baseless, wildly hyperbolic pretext—the President says Portland is a “War ravaged” city “under siege” from “domestic terrorists”—Defendants have thus infringed on Oregon’s sovereign power to manage its own law enforcement activity and National Guard resource. Far from promoting public safety, Defendants' provocative and arbitrary actions threaten to undermine public safety by inciting a public outcry.

4. The facts cannot justify this overreach. While Defendants' actions appear focused on ongoing protests near an Immigration and Customs Enforcement facility in Portland, those protests have been small in recent weeks—typically involving less than thirty people—and the protesters' activities have not necessitated any arrests since mid-June. But Defendants' heavy-handed deployment of troops threatens to escalate tensions and stokes new unrest, meaning more of the Plaintiffs' law enforcement resources will be spent responding to the predictable consequences of Defendants' action.

5. Defendants' deployment of troops to Oregon is patently unlawful. Because their stated basis for federalizing members of Oregon's National Guard is patently pretextual and baseless, Defendants cannot satisfy any of the three perquisites for involuntarily federalizing a state's National Guard under 10 U.S.C. § 12406. Defendants' purpose in federalizing those troops—to integrate them into federal law enforcement activities in Portland—also violates the Posse Comitatus Act.

6. Additionally, Defendants' actions violate the Tenth Amendment's guarantee that the police power—including the authority to promote safety at protests and deter violent crime—resides with the states, not the federal government. And by singling out a particular disfavored jurisdiction for political retribution, these actions also eviscerate the constitutional principle that the states' sovereignty should be treated equally.

7. For these and other reasons discussed below, Defendants' actions should be declared unlawful and preliminarily and permanently enjoined.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 2201(a) and the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. §§ 701–706.

9. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b)(2) and (e)(1). Defendants are agencies of the United States and officers sued in their respective official capacities. The State of Oregon is a resident of this district, and a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to this Complaint occurred and continue to occur within the District of Oregon.

A. Plaintiffs

10. The State of Oregon is a sovereign state of the United States. Oregon is represented by Attorney General Dan Rayfield, who is the chief legal officer of Oregon.

11. Plaintiff City of Portland is a municipal corporation of the State of Oregon duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Oregon. The Portland Police Bureau (PPB) is a bureau of the City of Portland. PPB is the largest law enforcement agency in Oregon and has the primary responsibility for policing the City of Portland.

B. Defendants

12. Donald Trump is President of the United States. As such, he is the Commander-in-Chief of the United States' armed forces, including those portions of the National Guard lawfully under federal control. He is sued in his official capacity for declaratory relief only.

13. Pete Hegseth is Secretary of Defense and the head of the U.S. Department of Defense. He is sued in his official capacity.

14. The U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) is a department of the Executive Branch of the United States government responsible for coordinating and supervising the United States armed forces, including those portions of the National Guard lawfully under federal control. DOD is a federal agency within the meaning of the APA, 5 U.S.C. § 551(1). On September 5, 2025, President Trump issued Executive Order 14,347, entitled “Restoring the United States Department of War,” in which he stated that the Department of Defense “may be referred to as the Department of War” as a secondary title in certain contexts. 90 Fed. Reg. 43893, 43893 (Sept. 5, 2025).

15. Kristi Noem is Secretary of Homeland Security and the head of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. She is sued in her official capacity.

16. The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is a department of the Executive Branch of the United States government. DHS is a federal agency within the meaning of the APA, 5 U.S.C. § 551(1). One component of DHS is U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

A. The Oregon National Guard is a State-Based Military Reserve Force

17. The U.S. Constitution authorizes Congress “to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasions.” U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 15–16. This state-based militia that existed at the nation’s founding was the forerunner of the modern National Guard.

18. Today, the National Guard is a state-based military reserve force that consists of two overlapping but distinct organizations: the National Guard of the various States and the National Guard of the United States. Since 1933, anyone who enlists in a state’s National Guard is simultaneously enlisted into the National Guard of the United States. And when a member of a state's National Guard is ordered into federal service, that member is relieved of his or her status in the state's National Guard for the duration of that federal service.

19. Members of the National Guard may serve in one of three capacities: State Active Duty status, Title 32 status, and Title 10 status.

20. First, members of the National Guard may serve in "State Active Duty" status. This means they exercise state functions under the authority of their state's governor, and their actions generally are governed by state law. For example, when wildfires occur in Oregon, Governor Kotek frequently authorizes the Oregon National Guard to assist with firefighting efforts.

21. Second, members of the National Guard may serve in a hybrid federal-state status under Title 32 of the United States Code. In particular, 32 U.S.C. § 502(f)(2)(A) provides that, "[u]nder regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Army or Secretary of the Air Force, as the case may be, a member of the National Guard may," under certain circumstances, "be ordered to perform" enumerated duties, including "[s]upport of operations or missions undertaken by the member's unit at the request of the President or Secretary of Defense." The United States has traditionally recognized that National Guard members serving federal missions in Title 32 status must have the consent not only of their home state's governor but also the consent of any other governors concerned in the mission. Here, Oregon does not consent to the deployment of Oregon National Guard members pursuant to 32 U.S.C. § 502(f)(2)(A).

22. Third, members of the National Guard may be "federalized" and called into federal service in what is known as "Title 10" status under Title 10 of the United States Code.

The President's authority under Title 10 is carefully limited to specific circumstances under 10 U.S.C. § 12406.

B. 10 U.S.C. § 12406 Limits the Circumstances When a President Can Call a State's National Guard Members into Federal Service

23. Congress has granted the President authority over the states' respective National Guards, but it carefully limited that authority to specific circumstances. As relevant here, 10 U.S.C. § 12406 provides that:

Whenever-

(1) the United States, or any of the Commonwealths or possessions, is invaded or is in danger of invasion by a foreign nation;

(2) there is a rebellion or danger of a rebellion against the authority of the Government of the United States; or

(3) the President is unable with the regular forces to execute the laws of the United States;

the President may call into Federal service members and units of the National Guard of any State in such numbers as he considers necessary to repel the invasion, suppress the rebellion, or execute those laws. Orders for these purposes shall be issued through the governors of the States or, in the case of the District of Columbia, through the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia.

24. Thus, the President's authority over a state's National Guard pursuant to § 12406 is limited to circumstances involving a foreign nation's "invasion," an outright "rebellion," or where the President has been "unable with regular forces" to execute Federal Law through ordinary means. And if one of those circumstances is present, the President "shall" issue any orders to a state's National Guard "through" that state's governor.

C. The Posse Comitatus Act Prohibits the Deployment of Federalized National Guard Troops for the Purpose of Civilian Law Enforcement

25. The President’s authority over a state’s National Guard is subject to other constraints as well. The Posse Comitatus Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1385, prohibits anyone from deploying the U.S. military—including any National Guard members in federal service—for the purpose of civilian law enforcement within the United States. That prohibition applies “except in cases . . . expressly authorized by the Constitution or Act of Congress.” Id.

26. Notably, 10 U.S.C. § 12406 does not confer an exception to the Posse Comitatus Act because, while it authorizes the president to “call into federal service” a state’s National Guard under certain circumstances, it does not authorize the president to domestically deploy the National Guard in pursuit of any particular purpose. This stands in contrast to other statutory provisions, like 10 U.S.C. § 252, which authorizes the President to not only “call into Federal service . . . the militia of any state” but also “use such of the armed forces” in specified law enforcement activities under certain circumstances (emphasis added).

27. In light of these restrictions—together with Americans’ “traditional insistence on limitations on military operations in peacetime,” Laird, 408 U.S. at 15—it is unsurprising that until the last few months, no President had invoked § 12406 since President Nixon called up the National Guard to deliver mail during a Postal Service Strike over 50 years ago. See Exec. Order No. 11519, 35 Fed. Reg. 5003 (1970).

28. The legal and normative constraints on presidential authority to federalize and deploy a state’s National Guard are so well established that President Trump previously acknowledged them. Questioned in September 2020 about his commitment to restore law and order, the President said, “[w]e have laws. We have to go by the laws. We can’t move in the National Guard. . . . Even in a Portland [Oregon] case, we can’t call in the National Guard unless we’re requested by a governor.”¹ Instead, the president emphasized that communication and cooperation is key, because even “[i]f a governor or a mayor is a Democrat, like in Portland, we call them constantly.”

D. The President Has Repeatedly Expressed Intentions to Use the Military for Routine Domestic Law Enforcement

29. Despite his prior statements, the President has shared his plans to deploy members of the National Guard to further his civilian law enforcement priorities.

30. For example, asked in April 2024 whether his domestic immigration enforcement efforts would include using the U.S. military, President Trump said “It would.”² The president continued that he would have “no problem using the military,” which he understood to include “the National Guard,” in order to further his domestic priorities and promote “law and order in our country.”³ Asked whether he would go so far as to override the Posse Comitatus Act, the President opined that the Act would not apply to immigration enforcement because in his view, “these [undocumented immigrants] aren’t civilians. These are people that aren’t legally in our country.”⁴

31. Similarly, on November 17, 2024, when a social media post predicted that President Trump “will declare a national emergency and will use military assets” to implement “a mass deportation program,” the President responded: “TRUE!!!”⁵

E. Defendants Have Since Used the Military for Civilian Law Enforcement in Los Angeles and Washington, D.C.

32. Prior to President Trump ordering troops to Portland, federalized national guard and active-duty soldiers were first deployed in Los Angeles, California, and then Washington, D.C.

33. Trump federalized the California National Guard on June 7, 2025, following a day of aggressive immigration enforcement activity in the Los Angeles metropolitan area. The authorization memorandum cited 10 U.S.C. § 12406 as legal authority, and claimed a factual basis of violence, disorder, and damage to federal property. Newsom v Trump, 141 F.4th 1032, 1041, 1051 (9th Cir., 2025).

34. California filed suit claiming, among other things, that the federal action violated the Posse Comitatus Act. On September 2, 2025, the district court found that the Trump administration had “instigated a months-long deployment of the National Guard and Marines to Los Angeles for the purpose of establishing a military presence there and enforcing federal law. Such conduct is a serious violation of the Posse Comitatus Act.” Newsom v. Trump, No. 3:25-cv-04870-CRB, 2025 WL 2501619, at *24 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 2, 2025).

35. On August 11, 2025, the Trump administration’s focus turned to Washington, D.C. At a press conference that day, President Trump announced the planned deployment of the

D.C. National Guard into the district to “to rescue our nation’s capital from crime, bloodshed, bedlam and squalor and worse.”⁶ He called it “Liberation Day in DC,” and said, “we’re gonna take our capital back.”⁷

36. The same day, Defendant Hegseth also announced that National Guard troops would be deployed in D.C. to “stand with their law enforcement partners”—which, he said, was the “same thing” the National Guard did in Los Angeles. The Trump administration deployed national guard troops from D.C. and seven other states into Washington, D.C.⁸

37. On September 4, 2025, the District of Columbia filed a lawsuit challenging that deployment on multiple grounds. D.C. alleged that, among other harms, the “encroachment of National Guard troops in the District has also already caused harm to public safety in the District.” Complaint ¶¶ 129–30, District of Columbia v. Trump, No. 1:25-cv-03005 (D.D.C. Sept. 4, 2025), Dkt. No. 1.

F. Portlanders Protest Against Portland ICE Facility

38. On June 2, 2025, for the first time, federal authorities arrested an asylum-seeker at Immigration Court in Portland.⁹ This arrest catalyzed small public protests at Portland’s ICE facility, located at 4310 S. Macadam Avenue.

39. On June 6, 2025, protests began in Los Angeles following increased immigration enforcement activities in the city.¹⁰ In the following days, small protests continued outside of Portland's ICE facility. At one point, protestors blocked an ICE driveway with a makeshift barricade. Portland Police Bureau (PPB) officers cleared the barricade within minutes, citing safety concerns.¹¹ Protests in Portland continued, with PPB officers taking appropriate action, arresting those few ICE-facility protestors who engaged in criminal activity.¹²

40. On June 15, 2025, Portland Mayor Keith Wilson, reacting to troop deployments in Los Angeles, stated that Portland does not need help from National Guard.¹³ Subsequent events proved the Mayor correct.

41. The small protests at the ICE facility became less energetic and required less law-enforcement involvement. Indeed, the last arrest PPB made at those protests was on June 19, 2025.¹⁴ In the days since, PPB has monitored the near-nightly protests, none of which required police intervention to protect public safety or interdict criminal activity on the part of the protesters.

42. On July 8, 2025, as small ICE-facility protests continued, Tom Homan, the President’s “Border Czar,” pledged that immigration enforcement officers would be “tripling down” on enforcement in Portland.¹⁵

43. On July 19, 2025, protests continued with up to 60 people gathered at the ICE facility. A PPB officer described the group as “low energy and seated quietly.”¹⁶

44. Sporadic protests continued over the subsequent weeks. On September 1, 2025, over 100 protestors marched to the ICE building. In response, federal officers deployed chemical gas and pepperballs at the crowd.¹⁷

G. Local Law Enforcement Authorities Have Been and Remain Fully Equipped to Address the Protests

45. Portland Police Bureau is a sophisticated law-enforcement agency employing 812 full-time officers. Every officer receives basic crowd management training and specialized teams receive up to forty hours of annual crowd management training.

46. PPB’s Central Precinct covers downtown Portland, where most public protests occur. As a result, Central Precinct officers have significant experience in protest management. Portland’s ICE facility is located within PPB’s Central Precinct, which employs 80 full-time officers who are the ideal frontline force for monitoring and responding to the small ongoing ICE-facility protests.

¹⁵ Zarkhin & Shaikh, supra note 14.

47. PPB monitors social media and regularly communicates with protest organizers to develop internal risk assessments associated with public protests. Based on the needs associated with any protest, PPB can deploy additional personnel from other precincts, activate crowd management incident commanders, call in PPB's Rapid Reaction Team, bring in off-duty officers, or rely on an extensive network of other local, county, and state agencies.

48. PPB has needed to activate such resources during select times in response to protests involving the ICE Facility in June and July of 2025. And in that single instance, on or around July 17, 2025, the Rapid Reaction Team was deployed in connection with ensuring public order during a planned march from a nearby park to the ICE-facility. In every case before and after July 17, 2025, baseline Central Precinct monitoring has been sufficient to maintain public safety at the ICE-facility protests.

H. In September 2025, the President Turned His Attention to Portland, Oregon

49. Aside from the incidents discussed above, the ICE-facility protests have generally been small and are frequently sedate. On any given weekend, the nightlife in Portland's entertainment district warrants greater PPB resources than have the small, nightly protests in front of the ICE facility a few blocks away.

50. Nonetheless, on September 5, 2025, Fox News aired a report on Portland ICE protests that included misleading clips from Portland protests in 2020.¹⁸

51. Shortly thereafter, President Trump appeared to reference events in the same misleading FoxNews report when speaking to the press. A reporter asked which city President Trump planned to send troops to next, and he said he was considering targeting Portland because of news coverage the night before. President Trump alleged that "paid terrorists" and "paid agitators” were making the city unlivable, further stating “[a]nd when we go there, if we go to Portland, we’re gonna wipe them out. They’re going to be gone and they’re going to be gone fast. They won’t even stand the fight.”¹⁹

52. President Trump later designated Antifa a terrorist organization on September 19, 2025. Afterward, he described a plan to insert federal personnel in cities such as Chicago, Memphis, and Portland. He stated “Have you seen Portland at all? You take a look what’s happening in Portland. It’s uh I mean, this has been going on for years. It’s just people out of control. Crazy. We’re going to stop that very soon.”²⁰

53. While answering questions from the press on September 25, 2025, the President baselessly insisted people had “just burned the place down.”²¹ He said Portland is “on my list of things that I want to do before, uh, we finish up with the cities because I think we’re going to whip the cities into shape. . . .” The President declared his intention “to get out there” and “do a pretty big number of those people in Portland that are doing that.”²²

54. On September 27, 2025, the President followed through on his threats, posting a message to his Truth Social account: “At the request of Secretary of Homeland Security, Kristi Noem, I am directing Secretary of War, Pete Hegseth, to provide all necessary Troops to protect

That order was styled as “further implement[ation]” of a June 7, 2025 Presidential Memorandum, which vaguely cited “[n]umerous incidents of violence and disorder . . . in response to the enforcement of Federal law” that purportedly “constitute a form of rebellion against the authority of the United States.” Id. at 2.

I. Defendants’ Actions Represent the Latest Political Attack Against Democrat-led Jurisdictions that Refuse to Assist with Immigration Enforcement.

59. The federal government holds key powers and responsibilities over the subject of immigration and the status of non-citizens. Those are laid out in the Immigration and Naturalization Act.

60. Components within DHS enforce those laws. Among them, Customs and Border Protection (CBP) is responsible for determining the admissibility of non-citizens and securing the country’s borders. ICE has two primary subcomponents: Enforcement and Removal Operations (ERO) and Homeland Security Investigations (HSI). ERO is tasked with civil immigration enforcement and removal, including housing detainees in facilities nationwide, for immigration proceedings or removal from the United States. HSI conducts federal criminal investigations, in coordination with federal prosecutors and other criminal investigatory agencies.

61. States and municipalities, by contrast, do not have this responsibility. States and municipalities instead protect the general public welfare. The Constitution vests the States with traditional police powers, which include the authority to make policy judgments and regulations for increasing the safety of all residents and focusing local police officers' limited time and resources on preventing and responding to crime.

62. Under the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the “powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.” U.S. Const. amend. X; Slaughterhouse Cases, 83 U.S. 36, 62 (1873) (describing the police power as extending “to the protection of the lives, limbs, health, comfort, and quiet of all persons . . . within the State”). Among other meanings of this amendment is this: the states—and not the federal government—wield the general police power.

63. Public health and safety are among the more “conspicuous examples of the traditional application of the police power.” Berman v. Parker, 348 U.S. 25, 32 (1954). States “traditionally have had great latitude under their police powers to legislate as to the protection of the lives, limbs, health, comfort, and quite of all persons.” Medtronic, Inc. v. Lohr, 518 U.S. 470, 475 (1996).

64. In consideration of that responsibility, in 1987 Oregon passed the “Sanctuary Promise,” the first law of its kind in the United States, which prohibits state and local government agencies from using their resources to assist with federal immigration enforcement.

See ORS 181A.820. Oregon's Sanctuary Promise has been updated several times since 1987. See, e.g., H.B. 3265, 81st Legis. Assemb., Reg. Sess. (Or. 2021).

65. The President has repeatedly attacked Democrat-led cities and states, including over immigration enforcement.²⁶

66. On June 23, 2020, he stated: “[A]ll of these problems, Seattle, Portland, Chicago, uh, you could go to Oakland, you could go to Baltimore. What do they have in common? They’re run by liberal Democrats, just like Joe Biden.”²⁷

67. While running for his current term, the President continued to demonize cities where Democrats had been elected as leaders. On August 20, 2024, he said that “the crime is so out of control in our country. I mean, you have cities – I will say this, the top 25, almost all are run by Democrats, and they have very similar policies. . . . But you can't walk across the street to get a loaf of bread. . . . You get shot. You get mugged. You get raped, you get whatever it may be. And you've seen it and I've seen it, and it's time for a change. We have to bring back our cities.”²⁸ defund “‘sanctuary’ jurisdictions” and directed the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) and DHS to target jurisdictions like the Plaintiffs:

Sec. 17. Sanctuary Jurisdictions. The Attorney General and the Secretary of Homeland Security shall, to the maximum extent possible under law, evaluate and undertake any lawful actions to ensure that so-called “sanctuary” jurisdictions, which seek to interfere with the lawful exercise of Federal law enforcement operations, do not receive access to Federal funds. Further, the Attorney General and the Secretary of Homeland Security shall evaluate and undertake any other lawful actions, criminal or civil, that they deem warranted based on any such jurisdiction’s practices that interfere with the enforcement of Federal law.

71. On April 18, 2025, Stephen Miller, on behalf of the Trump administration, leveled the accusation that “Sanctuary cities shield criminal [undocumented immigrants] from removal.” Miller opined that “these cities are engaged in systemic criminal violations and that they are engaged in a scheme to nullify and obstruct the duly enacted laws of the United States of America.”³⁰

72. On April 28, 2025, President Trump signed Executive Order 14287, titled “Protecting American Communities From Criminal Aliens.” In it, he targeted “sanctuary jurisdictions” as well as “State and local officials” who allegedly “use their authority to violate, obstruct, and defy the enforcement of Federal immigration laws.” The order accused its targets of undertaking a “lawless insurrection against the supremacy of Federal law and the Federal Government’s obligation to defend the territorial sovereignty of the United States.” 90 Fed Reg 18761, 18761 (Apr. 28, 2025).

73. The same executive order also expressed the administration’s intention to defund grants or programs to states or municipalities with “sanctuary” laws that leave federal civil immigration enforcement entirely to the federal government, even though federal courts had held this unlawful during Trump's first term.

74. In furtherance of his effort to coerce sanctuary jurisdictions with threats of defunding, the Trump administration, acting through various federal agencies, has asserted sweeping authority to use state law enforcement officers for federal immigration enforcement. It has done so by requiring Oregon and other states to agree to cooperate with federal immigration enforcement activities as a condition to receiving billions of dollars in federal funding.

75. For example, beginning in March 2025, DHS and its sub-agencies, including Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), sought to upend the state-federal emergency management system, holding critical emergency preparedness and response funding hostage unless certain states promised to devote their criminal enforcement and other state agency resources to the federal government's civil immigration enforcement.

76. Forced to choose between foregoing federal funds or facing compulsory diversion of limited law enforcement resources to enforce federal immigration law beyond what Oregon law allows, Oregon, with other states, prevailed in litigation challenging those coercive conditions. Illinois v. Fed. Emergency Mgmt. Agency, No. 1:25-cv-00206-WES-PAS, 2025 WL 2716277, at *16 (D.R.I. Sept. 24, 2025) (granting summary judgment to the plaintiff states). Oregon and other states have similarly challenged coercive immigration-enforcement conditions by the U.S. Department of Transportation, California v. U.S. Dep't of Transportation, No. 1:25-cv-00208-JJM-PAS (D.R.I. May 13, 2025), and the U.S. Department of Justice, New Jersey v. U.S. Dep't of Just., No. 1:25-cv-00404-JJM-AEM (D.R.I. Aug. 18, 2025).

77. In the midst of these immigration-related federal defunding actions and responsive lawsuits, DHS published, on May 29, 2025, a list of 500 purported "sanctuary jurisdictions” around the country.³¹ It accused them of “shamefully obstructing” the Trump administration’s deportation plans and “shielding dangerous criminal aliens.”³²

78. The Trump Administration later revised that list on August 5, 2025, shortening it to just 35 jurisdictions, stating that those jurisdictions were “[c]ities, states, or counties that have laws, ordinances, regulations, resolutions, policies, or other formalized practices that obstruct or limit local law enforcement cooperation with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).”³³

79. That list included the false accusation that the State of Oregon and the City of Portland (along with the listed others) “impede law enforcement and put American citizens at risk by design.” It also stated the Department of Justice would “work closely with the Department of Homeland Security to eradicate these harmful policies around the country.”³⁴

80. Collectively, these efforts sought to coerce sovereign states and their subdivisions and instrumentalities—including the Plaintiffs—to disavow their own laws and subjugate themselves to the political proclivities of the Trump administration. The August 5 publication specifically bragged about the success of a “threatening” letter that coerced Louisville, Kentucky to revoke its “sanctuary policies.”³⁵

81. Also, during that time, President Trump directed federal agencies to focus immigration enforcement efforts in cities led by Democrats.³⁶

82. On August 13, 2025, Attorney General Bondi sent letters to officials in 32 of the 35 jurisdictions on the August 5 list, including Oregon Governor Tina Kotek and Portland Mayor Keith Wilson. The letters contended that “sanctuary jurisdiction policies have undermined this necessary cooperation and obstructed federal immigration enforcement, giving aliens cover to perpetrate crimes in our communities and evade the immigration consequences that federal law requires.”³⁷

83. Bondi’s August 13 letters further stated that, to ensure full cooperation in federal immigration enforcement efforts, “the President has directed the Attorney General of the United States, in coordination with the Secretary of Homeland Security, to identify sanctuary jurisdictions and notify them of their unlawful sanctuary status and potential violations of federal law,” which was the letter’s purpose. The letters did not include any specifics regarding any particular laws, nor did they reflect any recognition of prior court rulings holding the laws valid. The Bondi letter also demanded a response by August 19, 2025.³⁸

84. On August 19, 2025, Governor Kotek responded to Bondi's letter. Kotek responded that "Oregon, its public officials and its law enforcement officers do not engage in conduct that thwarts federal immigration enforcement." Kotek further responded that, under Oregon's Sanctuary Promise, "Requests from federal agencies to local law enforcement agencies about immigration enforcement without a judicial order must be documented, reported and denied." Kotek further explained that "Oregon complies with federal law and it will continue to follow its own laws."³⁹

85. That same day, President Trump used the pretext of "crime" to threaten a plan to expand domestic troop deployment to other Democrat-led cities and states.⁴⁰

J. Defendants' Actions Will Harm the State of Oregon by Interfering with the State's Sovereign Interest in Managing Its Own Law Enforcement Activities

86. Defendants' unlawful federalization and deployment of Oregon National Guard members infringes on Oregon's sovereign interest in managing law enforcement within its borders, including the authority to manage protests and unrest. This power is reserved for the states under the Tenth Amendment. It also infringes upon the State's sovereign authority—and the Governor of Oregon's authority under Section 9 of the Constitution of Oregon—to manage the Oregon National Guard's resources according to the State's needs absent lawful federalization of the Guard's members.

87. Defendants' intended use of federalized National Guard troops to control protests in Oregon communities amounts to a usurpation of the role of domestic law enforcement. The State has neither requested nor consented to federal intervention to take over that law enforcement role, which is being carried out by local law enforcement under their lawful authority. The impending use of federalized troops to engage in domestic law enforcement, without the State's consent, threatens an irreparable injury to the State's sovereign interest in managing its own law enforcement activities.

88. Defendants' conduct also will directly and concretely interfere with current and planned law enforcement activities of state and local authorities. State and local law enforcement agencies, including the Oregon State Police and the Portland Police Bureau, have in place their own plans and protocols for maintaining safety and order in Oregon communities, and they are carrying out their lawful role accordingly. The unlawful deployment of federalized National Guard troops to usurp that law enforcement role will directly interfere with the ability of state and local law enforcement to deal with any given situation. The presence of military units purporting to exercise law enforcement authority creates confusion among the public and threatens to undermine the work of local law enforcement in maintaining order and combating local crime. Further, the needless presence of federalized troops will lead directly to escalated tensions and increased unrest, interfering with state and local law enforcement's ability to maintain order.

89. Further, Defendants' deployment of troops threatens to increase civil unrest, requiring diversion of state law enforcement and state resources. Recent deployments of troops elsewhere in the country have provoked protests and escalated tensions. Those military incursions included operations that were directly calculated as shows of force, intended to demonstrate federal presence and strength in otherwise peaceful locations. See Newsom, 2025 WL 2501619, at *7 (describing “Operation Excalibur,” where federal troops were stationed in Humvees and tactical vehicles outside MacArthur Park in Los Angeles and blocked traffic along a stretch of Wilshire Boulevard while federal law enforcement officials marched across the park as a “show of presence”). As in those instances, Defendants’ deployment of troops in Oregon communities will provoke and escalate protests and unrest and will require the State to divert its law enforcement personnel and resources to deal with unrest that the federal military presence has created.

K. Defendants’ Actions Will Also Harm the State of Oregon and the City of Portland by Suppressing Business Activity

90. Defendants’ conduct threatens the economic well-being of the people of Oregon. In recent months, unlawful federal deployments and militarized raids in California and the District of Columbia have directly and rapidly chilled economic activity. The deployment of troops in California stifled economic activity in the Los Angeles area. Restaurants, festivals, and farmers’ markets shut down, as individuals were afraid to leave their homes due to militarized raids. Similarly, the deployment of National Guard troops in the District of Columbia depressed key industries, including tourism, restaurants, and hospitality services. Within a week after the deployment of federal troops in D.C., foot traffic in the District dropped 7 percent on average, with restaurant reservations showing an even steeper drop.⁴¹ Defendants’ military incursion into Oregon threatens similar immediate harms by depressing business activities, travel, and tourism in Oregon communities.

⁴¹ Andrea Sachs & Federica Cocco, D.C. Tourism Was Already Struggling. Then the National Guard Arrived, Wash. Post (Aug. 29, 2025, at 5:00 AM ET), <https://www.washingtonpost.com/travel/2025/08/29/dc-tourism-trump-takeover-national-guard-impacts/>.

91. Defendants' conduct also threatens financial harm to the government of Oregon in multiple ways. The military incursion's chilling effect on economic activity will directly decrease tax revenue collected by the State and by the City. In the District of Columbia, troop deployment has resulted in a reduction of work hours for some District workers, and a corresponding decline in income tax withholding paid to the District government. Deployment of troops in Oregon communities threatens similar harm to Oregon tax revenues.

L. Defendants' Actions Will Harm the State of Oregon by Diverting National Guard Personnel and Rendering Them Unable to Engage in Other Critical Work

92. Defendants' unlawful federalization and deployment of the Oregon National Guard will concretely harm the State's interests by rendering those members unable to engage in other critical work.

93. Except for when it has been lawfully called into federal service, the Oregon National Guard answers to its Commander-in-Chief, the Governor of Oregon. The Governor calls members of the Guard into active duty to serve the needs of Oregon in numerous ways, including to assist with emergent and unpredictable situations the State could face at any moment. The Governor, in consultation with other state government officials and local law enforcement, is in the best position to determine the needs of the State and how the Guard could be deployed to meet those needs.

94. The Oregon National Guard's resources are limited. While the Guard has over 6,500 total members, only a fraction of those are presently available for assignment over the next six months. Others are unavailable because, among other reasons, they are already deployed in federal service; engaged in the Guard's essential administrative functions; or in basic training. Unlawfully federalizing even a portion of these Guard members impairs the State's capacity to respond to emergencies.

95. Wildfire response is one of the most significant functions the Oregon National Guard performs in the State. In 2017, for example, roughly 1,090 members were mobilized to respond to wildfires. In 2020, roughly 998 were mobilized for fire response. On September 27, 2025—the same day that the President announced his intention to send troops into Portland—Governor Kotek invoked the Emergency Conflagration Act in response to a complex of wildfires burning on Southwest Oregon’s Rogue River, which has grown to over 17,300 acres.⁴² Because wildfires can begin unpredictably and spread rapidly, it is critical that all qualified personnel—including members of the Oregon National Guard—remain ready to respond to growing wildfires on short notice.

96. The Oregon National Guard serves many other critical functions in the State. Historically, these functions have included, among other things, counter-drug-trafficking efforts; natural disaster response; and supporting the State’s response to the Covid-19 pandemic.

97. Given the Guard’s limited resources, and the inherent uncertainty about what needs might arise, needlessly calling hundreds of the Guard’s members into federal service for a months-long period places the State in jeopardy. All of the Guard members in federal service are unavailable to the State for emergency response efforts.

CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I

Ultra Vires* Action – Violation of 10 U.S.C. § 12406

(Against All Defendants)

98. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

99. Under 10 U.S.C. § 12406, the President is permitted to federalize a state’s National Guard only when (1) the United States, or any of the Commonwealths or possessions, is invaded or is in danger of invasion by a foreign nation; (2) there is a rebellion or danger of a rebellion against the authority of the Government of the United States; or (3) the President is unable with the regular forces to execute the laws of the United States. Any such order “shall be issued through the governor[]” 10 U.S.C. § 12406.

100. None of those factual circumstances are present in Oregon, and Defendants’ assertions to the contrary are patently pretextual and lack any good-faith basis.

102. Nor is there any “rebellion or danger of a rebellion.” The President’s characterization of Portland as “war ravaged” community is pure fiction. The protests contained to a small area near Portland’s ICE facility have been successfully managed by local law enforcement and do not in any way constitute a rebellion or danger of a rebellion. And the President’s June 7, 2025 Memorandum, (Ex. 2 at 2–3), made no reference to the City of Portland or the protests near the City’s ICE facility.

103. Nor have Defendants cited even a single instance in which they were “unable . . . to execute the laws of the United States.” For example, they have not identified an inability to detain or deport those who are unlawfully present in the United States due to protests in Portland.

104. All of these facts—together with the overwhelming evidence of the President’s true intentions—reveal the obvious truth: that this action was motivated by his desire to normalize the use of military troops for ordinary domestic law enforcement activity while also punishing politically disfavored jurisdictions like Portland, Oregon.

105. Because Defendants’ invocation of the prerequisites for federalization in § 12406 was wholly pretextual, the Court should find Defendants’ actions are ultra vires because they violate the statute’s plain language.

COUNT II

Ultra Vires Action – Violation of the Posse Comitatus Act & 10 U.S.C. § 275 (Against All Defendants)

106. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in each of the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

107. The Posse Comitatus Act forbids Defendants from employing the armed forces to engage in law enforcement “except in cases and under circumstances expressly authorized by the Constitution or Act of Congress.” 18 U.S.C. § 1385.

108. This restriction is underscored by 10 U.S.C. § 275, which provides that “The Secretary of Defense shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to ensure that any activity (including the provision of any equipment or facility or the assignment or detail of any personnel) under this chapter does not include or permit direct participation by a member of the Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marine Corps in a search, seizure, arrest, or other similar activity unless participation in such activity by such member is otherwise authorized by law.”

109. Neither the Constitution nor any Act of Congress permits Defendants to use the armed forces—which includes the National Guard—for routine law enforcement such as protest management, the suppression of violent crime or property damage, and immigration enforcement.

110. The Court need look no further than Defendants’ own statements to conclude that this troop deployment is being made for purposes that are plainly incompatible with the Posse Comitatus Act. The President’s statements dating back to his most recent campaign reveal his plans to incorporate military troops into civilian law enforcement activity. And Defendants’ deployment of troops in Los Angeles and Washington, D.C. furthered that plan. Then on September 5, 2025, the President said he planned to deploy troops in Portland to “wipe out” what he described as “paid terrorists” and “paid agitators.” And in his September 27, 2025 social media post, the President said he planned to use troops to “protect” Portland from “domestic” organization that will perpetrate crimes in the City.

111. Defendants’ actions in Los Angeles—where they were found to have violated the PCA—further support the conclusion that they plan to do the same thing in Portland.

112. By willfully ignoring the PCA and 10 U.S.C. § 275, while also relying on a pretextual, baseless, and bad-faith invocation of 10 U.S.C. § 12406, Defendants are acting ultra vires.

113. Therefore, Plaintiffs are entitled to a declaration that any action taken pursuant to the President’s September 27 directive to is invalid, and an injunction prohibiting Defendants from implementing. Absent such relief, Plaintiffs will continue to be harmed by Defendants’ illegal actions.

COUNT III
Violation of the Tenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution
(Against All Defendants)

Infringement on Oregon's Police Power

115. The Tenth Amendment provides that “[t]he powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.”

116. If Defendants federalize members of the Oregon National Guard under present circumstances, they would usurp the Governor of Oregon’s role as Commander-in-Chief of the National Guard in Oregon and violates the State’s sovereign role over local law enforcement, pursuant to its police powers.

117. Under our system of federalism, policing and crime control remain one of the most basic rights reserved to the states. “Indeed, we can think of no better example of the police power, which the Founders denied the National Government and reposed in the States, than the suppression of violent crime and vindication of its victims.” United States v. Morrison, 529 U.S. 598, 618 (2000). “[T]he power to establish the ordinary regulations of police has been left with the individual States and cannot be assumed by the national government.” Patterson v. Kentucky, 97 U.S. 501, 503 (1878).

118. Local control of law enforcement is also essential to the protection of liberty and government accountability. “Because the police power is controlled by 50 different States instead of one national sovereign, the facets of governing that touch on citizens’ daily lives are normally administered by smaller governments closer to the governed. The Framers thus ensured that powers which ‘in the ordinary course of affairs, concern the lives, liberties, and properties of the people’ were held by governments more local and more accountable than a distant federal bureaucracy. The Federalist No. 45, at 293 (J. Madison).” Nat’l Fed’n of Indep. Bus. v. Sebelius, 567 U.S. 519, 536 (2012).

119. Deploying federalized military forces to respond to suppress violence and manage protests despite any evidence that local law enforcement was incapable of asserting control and ensuring public safety during such protests represents the exact type of intrusion on State power that is at the heart of the Tenth Amendment. State officials in conjunction with local officials, such as the officers of the PPB, are in the best position to determine what resources are necessary to preserve public safety amid protest activity, and to intervene to enforce public safety and criminal laws when warranted.

120. Plaintiffs are entitled to a declaration that any action to federalize the Oregon National Guard is invalid, and an injunction prohibiting Defendants from implementing those directives.

Unlawful Coercion and Retaliation

121. Local control of law enforcement is also essential to the protection of liberty and government accountability. “Because the police power is controlled by 50 different States instead of one national sovereign, the facets of governing that touch on citizens’ daily lives are normally administered by smaller governments closer to the governed. The Framers thus ensured that powers which “in the ordinary course of affairs, concern the lives, liberties, and properties of the people” were held by governments more local and more accountable than a distant federal bureaucracy. The Federalist No. 45, at 293 (J. Madison).” Sebelius, 567 U.S. at 536.

122. The Defendants’ actions in calling up and deploying members of the Oregon National Guard are designed to punish Plaintiffs for refusing to accede to the Trump administration’s political prerogatives, not least of which on Plaintiffs’ so-called sanctuary laws.

123. This violates the Tenth Amendment by seeking to coerce Oregon into abandoning its own statutory prerogatives and instead adopt the President’s policy priorities.

Violation of Equality of State Sovereignty

124. “Not only do States retain sovereignty under the Constitution, there is also a ‘fundamental principle of equal sovereignty’ among the States.” Shelby Cnty., Ala. v. Holder, 570 U.S. 529, 544 (2013) (citation omitted). The Supreme Court has long recognized that our nation “was and is a union of States, equal in power, dignity and authority,” and that this “constitutional equality of the States is essential to the harmonious operation of the scheme upon which the Republic was organized.” Coyle v. Smith, 221 U.S. 559, 567, 580 (1911).

125. This “fundamental principle of equal sovereignty remains highly pertinent in assessing subsequent disparate treatment of States” by the federal government. Shelby Cnty, 570 U.S. at 544 (citation omitted).

126. Defendants have trampled these principles by selecting certain politically disfavored jurisdictions—now including Portland, Oregon—for an involuntary deployment of military troops under federal control. “And despite the tradition of equal sovereignty,” Defendants have applied this harsh infringement on state sovereignty “to only [two] states” and the District of Columbia. Id. at 544.

127. Such an “extraordinary departure from the traditional course of relations between the States and the Federal Government” can only be justified by dire and “unique circumstances,” and must be limited to “area where immediate action” is truly necessary. Id. at 546.

128. But Defendants’ selection of Portland, Oregon for National Guard federalization and deployment was, at best, arbitrary, and at worst, a politically motivated retaliation for the Plaintiffs’ adoption of policies that the President disfavors. After all, if Defendants’ true aim were to protect jurisdictions that are “ravaged” and “under siege” by criminal activity, then they would have deployed the military to any of the many jurisdictions where violent crime rates are significantly higher.

COUNT IV

Violation of the Administrative Procedure Act Action That is in Excess of Statutory Authority, Arbitrary and Capricious, and Contrary to Law

(Against Department of Defense, Secretary Hegseth, Department of Homeland Security, and Secretary Noem)

129. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

130. Under the Administrative Procedure Act, a court must “hold unlawful and set aside agency action” that is “arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with the law,” that is “contrary to constitutional right [or] power,” or that is “in excess of statutory jurisdiction, authority, or limitations, or short of statutory right.” 5 U.S.C. § 706(2)(A)-(C).

131. The DOD and Secretary Hegseth’s September 28, 2025, Memorandum, (Ex. 2 at 1), federalizing 200 members of the Oregon National Guard at the request of DHS and Secretary Noem constitute final agency action because they represent the “consummation” of the agency’s decision-making process and they represent action “from which legal consequences will flow.” Bennett v. Spear, 520 U.S. 154, 178 (1997) (citation and quotation marks omitted).

132. For the reasons discussed above, the DOD and Secretary Hegseth have exceeded their statutory authority to federalize the Oregon National Guard under 10 U.S.C. § 12406. For the reasons also discussed above, that action is also arbitrary and capricious. And their direction in deploying the National Guard for law enforcement will violate the Posse Comitatus Act and 10 U.S.C. § 275 as well as the U.S. Constitution.

COUNT V

Violation of the Constitution Separation of Powers and the Militia and Take Care Clauses (Against All Defendants)

133. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

134. The Constitution’s separation of powers doctrine and the Take Care Clause all place limitations on the exercise of executive authority.

135. The separation of powers doctrine is “foundational” and “evident from the Constitution’s vesting of certain powers in certain bodies.” Seila Law LLC v. CFPB, 591 U.S. 197, 227 (2020); see also Trump v. United States, 603 U.S. 593, 637–38 (2024).

136. The Constitution grants Congress the power to regulate the domestic activities of state militias and to authorize the President to “provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections and repel Invasions.” U.S. Const. Art. I, § 8, cl. 15. The Constitution limits the President’s authority to act as Commander-in-Chief of the “Militia of the several States” to instances when they are “called into the actual Service of the United States.” U.S. Const. art. II, § 2, cl. 1.

137. The Executive’s powers are limited to those specifically conferred by “an act of Congress or from the Constitution itself.” Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. v. Sawyer, 343 U.S. 579, 585 (1952). The Executive has no power “to enact, to amend, or to repeal statutes.” Clinton v. City of New York, 524 U.S. 417, 438 (1998).

138. The Militia Clauses expressly provide that “Congress shall have Power . . . To provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the Laws of the Union, suppress Insurrections and repel Invasions. . . .” U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 15. They further provide that Congress has authority “To provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining, the Militia, and for governing such Part of them as may be employed in the Service of the United States, reserving to the States respectively, the Appointment of the Officers, and the Authority of training the Militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress. . . .” U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 16.

139. In addition, the Take Care Clause provides that the Executive must “take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed” U.S. Const. art. II, § 3; Util. Air Regulatory Grp. v. EPA, 573 U.S. 302, 327 (2014) (“Under our system of government, Congress makes the laws and the President . . . faithfully executes them”) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). The Executive violates the Take Care Clause where it overrides statutes enacted by Congress and signed into law or duly promulgated regulations implementing such statutes. See In re United Mine Workers of Am. Int’l Union, 190 F.3d 545, 551 (D.C. Cir. 1999) (holding that “the President is without authority to set aside congressional legislation by executive order”); Kendall v. United States, 37 U.S. (12 Pet.) 524, 613 (1838) (rejecting argument that by charging the President with faithful execution of the laws, the Take Care clause “implies a power to forbid their execution”).

140. Defendants have violated each of these constitutional doctrines by asserting authority over a state Militia that the Constitution and federal law expressly assign to the States and disregarding the limits in the Posse Comitatus Act and 10 U.S.C. § 275, which limit the participation of federal military forces in law enforcement.

141. This court is authorized to enjoin any action by the Executive and his agencies that “is unauthorized by statute, exceeds the scope of constitutional authority, or is pursuant to unconstitutional enactment.” Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. v. Sawyer, 103 F. Supp. 569, 576 (D.D.C. 1952), aff’d, 343 U.S. 579 (1952). Plaintiffs are entitled to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief barring the actions challenged herein.

142. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201, Plaintiffs are also entitled to a declaration that the actions challenged herein violate the constitutional separation of powers doctrine, the Take Care Clause, and impermissibly arrogate to the Executive power that is reserved to Congress or the states.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray that the Court:

- a. Declare that any order federalizing and deploying members of the Oregon National Guard is ultra vires and contrary to law;
- b. Hold unlawful and enjoin Defendants’ federalization and deployment of members of the Oregon National Guard;
- c. Preliminarily and permanently enjoin, and stay and set-aside, Secretary Hegseth and the Department of Defense from calling Oregon National Guard members into federal service, deploying them in Oregon, or taking any other similar action in Oregon;

- d. Award Plaintiffs' costs of suit and reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses under any applicable law; and
- e. Award such additional relief as the interests of justice may require.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE ADJUTANT GENERAL, OREGON NATIONAL GUARD

SUBJECT: Request for Oregon National Guard Federal Protection Mission

1. I am writing to inform you that the Department of War has received a request from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) for immediate assistance to protect federal personnel, functions, and property in Oregon. In response, the Secretary of War has authorized additional federal funding for up to 200 members of the Oregon National Guard (ORNG) under Title 32 United States Code, Section 502(f), to perform this mission in a non-federalized status under your command and control.
2. I have enclosed DHS's request for protective measures while executing operations in Oregon. Due to the circumstances and immediate nature of this request, if ORNG forces are not mobilized in the next 12 hours, the Secretary of War may direct the mobilization of as many members of the ORNG as he may deem necessary under Title 10 United States Code.
3. The Department of War greatly appreciates your collaboration on this emergent situation. If your Governor agrees to a Title 32 mobilization of the ORNG, we will work with DHS to coordinate mission details with you. To be clear, we believe time is of the essence and failure to mobilize sufficient forces quickly to address the situation may risk lives and property damage. I respectfully request that you inform me immediately if your Governor is unable or unwilling to mobilize the ORNG under Title 32 to perform the necessary protective functions.

THROUGH: THE GOVERNOR OF OREGON

SUBJECT: Calling Members of the Oregon National Guard into Federal Service

On June 7, 2025, the President of the United States called forth at least 2,000 National Guard personnel into Federal service pursuant to section 12406 of title 10, U.S. Code, to protect U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement and other U.S. Government personnel who are performing Federal functions, including the enforcement of Federal law, and to protect Federal property, at locations where protests against these functions are occurring or are likely to occur based on current threat assessments and planned operations. The President signed a copy of the attached memorandum to effectuate the calling forth of these Service members.

This memorandum further implements the President's direction. 200 members of the Oregon National Guard will be called into Federal service effective immediately for a period of 60 days. The Chief of the National Guard Bureau will immediately coordinate the details of the mobilization with you, in coordination with the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and Commander, U.S. Northern Command. The mobilized Service members will be under the command and control of the Commander, U.S. Northern Command.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE
THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
THE SECRETARY OF HOMELAND SECURITY

SUBJECT: Department of Defense Security for the Protection of Department of Homeland Security Functions

Numerous incidents of violence and disorder have recently occurred and threaten to continue in response to the enforcement of Federal law by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and other United States Government personnel who are performing Federal functions and supporting the faithful execution of Federal immigration laws. In addition, violent protests threaten the security of and significant damage to Federal immigration detention facilities and other Federal property. To the extent that protests or acts of violence directly inhibit the execution of the laws, they constitute a form of rebellion against the authority of the Government of the United States.

In light of these incidents and credible threats of continued violence, by the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, I hereby call into Federal service members and units of the National Guard under 10 U.S.C. 12406 to temporarily protect ICE and other United States Government personnel who are performing Federal functions, including the enforcement of Federal law, and to protect Federal property, at locations where protests against these functions are occurring or are likely to occur based on current threat assessments and planned operations. Further, I direct and delegate actions as necessary for the Secretary of Defense to coordinate with the Governors of the States and the National Guard Bureau in identifying and ordering into Federal service the appropriate members and units of the National Guard under this authority. The members and units of the National Guard called into Federal service shall be at least 2,000 National Guard personnel and the duration of duty shall be for 60 days or at the discretion of the Secretary of Defense. In addition, the Secretary of Defense may employ any other members of the regular Armed Forces as necessary to augment and support the protection of Federal functions and property in any number determined appropriate in his discretion.

To carry out this mission, the deployed military personnel may perform those military protective activities that the Secretary of Defense determines are reasonably necessary to ensure the protection and safety of Federal personnel and property. The Secretary of Defense shall consult with the Attorney General and the Secretary of Homeland Security prior to withdrawing any personnel from any location to which they are sent. The Secretaries of Defense and Homeland Security may delegate to subordinate officials of their respective Departments any of the authorities conferred upon them by this memorandum.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I.(a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
- (b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)
- (c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".
- II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.Cv.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
 United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.
 United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.
 Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.
 Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)
- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If there are multiple nature of suit codes associated with the case, pick the nature of suit code that is most applicable. Click here for: Nature of Suit Code Descriptions.
- V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.
 Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.
 Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.
 Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
 Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
 Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.
 Multidistrict Litigation – Transfer. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407.
 Multidistrict Litigation – Direct File. (8) Check this box when a multidistrict case is filed in the same district as the Master MDL docket.
PLEASE NOTE THAT THERE IS NOT AN ORIGIN CODE 7. Origin Code 7 was used for historical records and is no longer relevant due to changes in statute.
- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553 Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.
 Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction.
 Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS 44 is used to reference related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

Within 21 days after service of this summons on you (not counting the day you received it) — or 60 days if you are the United States or a United States agency, or an officer or employee of the United States described in Fed. R. Civ. P. 12 (a)(2) or (3) — you must serve on the plaintiff an answer to the attached complaint or a motion under Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The answer or motion must be served on the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney, whose name and address are: Scott Kennedy
Department of Justice
100 SW Market Street
Portland, OR 97201

If you fail to respond, judgment by default will be entered against you for the relief demanded in the complaint. You also must file your answer or motion with the court.
