

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

---

RAJESH KUMAR,

Petitioner,

v.

No. 26-cv-00203

LUIS SOTO, et al.,

Respondents.

ORDER

THIS MATTER comes before the Court by way of Petitioner’s counseled Amended Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241, (ECF No. 4), as well as his Motion for an Order to Show Cause, (ECF No. 6); and

WHEREAS, Petitioner entered the United States on September 3, 2024, and has not left the country since. (ECF No. 4 at 2). Immigration and Customs Enforcement detained Petitioner on January 8, 2026. (Id.) Petitioner is currently detained in Delaney Hall Detention Facility in Newark, New Jersey, and being held without a bond hearing. (Id.) Petitioner now alleges that his current detention without a bond hearing is unlawful and that his ongoing detention therefore violates the Fifth Amendment and the Administrative Procedure Act. (Id. at 5–8). He also asks this Court to issue an order to show cause, “directing Respondents to file a return within three days of the Court’s order, showing cause, if any, why the writ of habeas corpus should not be granted,” and to enjoin Respondents from moving Petitioner from the jurisdiction of this Court. (ECF No. 6 at 2); and

WHEREAS, Petitioner alleges that following his detention he has not been afforded a bond hearing, presumably based on Respondents’ position that he is subject to mandatory detention and ineligible for bond pursuant to the Board of Immigration Appeals’ decision in Matter of Yajure Hurtado, 29 I. & N. Dec. 216 (BIA 2025); and

WHEREAS, under this Court’s recent decisions in Bethancourt-Soto v. Soto, No. 25-16200, 2025 WL 2976572 (D.N.J. 2025) and Rodriguez v. Rokosky, No. 25-17419, 2025 WL 3485628 (D.N.J. Dec. 3, 2025), non-citizens apprehended inside the United States after residing here for an extended period can only be detained under 8 U.S.C. § 1226, which requires an opportunity to seek bond;<sup>1</sup> and

WHEREAS, the statutory or other legal authority for the detention of Petitioner, like many others who have filed applications before this Court, is unclear and dubious; therefore

IT IS HEREBY on this 12th day of January, 2026,

ORDERED that the Court shall hold a hearing via Teams on January 14th, 2026, at 2:00 p.m., at which Respondents shall produce at least one witness with personal knowledge and/or institutional knowledge sufficient to testify competently regarding Petitioner’s immigration proceedings and history thereof, as well as his detention history, the basis for his detention, and Respondents’ efforts to effectuate removal; and it is further

ORDERED that Respondents shall file and serve an expedited answer by 10:00 a.m. on January 14th, 2026, which shall respond to the Petition paragraph by paragraph, and a legal memoranda, or letter brief, which

(1) identifies the specific statutory or other legal authority upon which Petitioner is

<sup>1</sup> Federal courts have in near unanimity similarly rejected arguments of mandatory detention in approximately 300 cases to date, a number which climbs with every passing day. See, e.g., Demirel v. Fed. Det. Ctr. Phila., No. 25-5488, 2025 WL 3218243, at *4–5 (E.D. Pa. 2025) (noting “the law is clear” and that “of the 288 district court decisions to address the issue, 282 have determined that § 1226(a) applies or likely applies in situations similar to those presented here. Those decisions are plainly correct.”); see also App., Demirel, 2025 WL 3218243 (ECF No. 11-1) (collecting cases).

- presently detained;<sup>2</sup>
- (2) sets forth all procedural due process provided to Petitioner prior to his detention and includes all related documents;
- (3) identifies whether there is a final order of removal for Petitioner and, if so,
- a. the date thereof;
  - b. the total number of days detained and the specific dates thereof (including the cumulative amount of days of detention for any separate periods of detention);
  - c. all efforts made since the date of the final order of removal to effectuate Petitioner's removal and the results thereof;
  - d. all efforts made since the date of Petitioner's detention to effectuate Petitioner's removal and the results thereof;
- (4) sets forth any and all alleged changed circumstances upon which Respondents claim Petitioner's detention is lawful;
- (5) states whether Petitioner has received a bond hearing and if not, why not, and if so, provides
- a. a full and complete copy of any decision of the immigration court as to bond;
  - b. a full and complete copy of any transcript (recorded or transcribed) of any such <sup>2</sup> The Government is explicitly reminded that it may not unlawfully detain an individual under 8 U.S.C. § 1225(b) and later attempt to justify that detention under § 1226 through alternative, retrospective, or post hoc reasoning advanced during litigation. See, e.g., Lopez-Campos v. Raycraft, No. 25-12486, 2025 WL 2496379, at *7 & n.4 (E.D. Mich. Aug. 29, 2025) (citing cases) (“The Court cannot credit this new position that was adopted post-hoc, despite clear indication that Lopez-Campos was not detained under this provision.”); Lopez Benitez v. Francis, 795 F. Supp. 3d 475, 486 (S.D.N.Y. 2025) (releasing petitioner and explaining that the court “cannot credit Respondents’ new position as to the basis for . . . detention, which was adopted post hoc and raised for the first time in this litigation”); Arias Gudino v. Lowe, 785 F. Supp. 3d 27, 46 n.8 (M.D. Pa. 2025) (releasing petitioner and discussing the impropriety of allowing the government to proceed on “post hoc justifications for detention”). Accordingly, to the extent that Petitioner is unlawfully detained under § 1225(b), a bond hearing will not cure such a defect. “Petitioner’s arrest and detention were blatantly unlawful from the start, the only commensurate and appropriate equitable remedy to even partially restore [Petitioner] is to immediate release him and enjoin the Government from further similar transgressions.” See, e.g., Martinez v. McAleenan, 385 F. Supp. 3d 349, 366, 371–73 (S.D.N.Y. 2019) (holding that because a petitioner’s “arrest and detention were blatantly unlawful from the start, the only commensurate and appropriate equitable remedy to even partially restore [Petitioner] is to immediate release him and enjoin the Government from further similar transgressions”).

proceedings; and
c. the factual and legal basis upon which they claim any such proceeding was fundamentally fair.

(6) identifies the current status of any and all immigration proceedings related to Petitioner;

(7) to the extent not specified above, otherwise fully responds to the allegations and grounds in the Petition, on a paragraph-by-paragraph basis, and includes all affirmative defenses Respondents seek to invoke; and

(8) serves with the response and/or answer a certification attesting as to the completeness and authenticity of all documents produced and information provided in response to this Order; and it is further

ORDERED that, given that Petitioner has already been detained for a period of time, failure to comply with this Order shall result in an Order of immediate release without further notice or an opportunity to be heard; and it is further

ORDERED that because the Petitioner is currently detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement in the State of New Jersey, and the Court has issued an expedited briefing schedule, to preserve the status quo, including Petitioner's continued access to counsel, during the briefing and hearing process and until the Court issues a decision in this matter, and pursuant to the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651, Petitioner shall remain in the State of New Jersey and shall not be transferred outside the State of New Jersey until further order of the Court; and it is further

ORDERED that, in light of the relief granted in this Order, Petitioner's Motion, (ECF No. 6), is denied as moot; and it is further

ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall serve a copy of the Petition, (ECF No. 4), and this Order upon Respondents by regular mail, with all costs of service advanced by the United States; and it is finally

ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court shall forward a copy of the Petition, (ECF No. 4), and this Order to the Chief, Civil Division, United States Attorney's Office, at the following email address: USANJ-HabeasCases@usdoj.gov.
