Proceedings (In Chambers): Order Requiring Supplemental Submission Regarding Mootness

On February 27, 2026, the District Judge ordered Respondents to provide Petitioner an individualized bond redetermination hearing before an immigration judge within seven days or otherwise release Petitioner from custody. Dkt. No. 9. Respondents were ordered to provide a Notice of Compliance. Id. On March 5, 2026, Respondents informed the Court that Petitioner was released from immigration detention on March 4, 2026. Dkt. No. 11 at 2.

Petitioner and Respondents are ordered to confer regarding whether the Petition is moot. If they agree the Petition is moot, by March 19, 2026, Petitioner shall file a proposed order dismissing the Petition as moot. If either party contends the Petition is not moot, by March 19, 2026, that party shall file its position specifying the factual and legal basis for that position and for the claims and requested relief that remain to be adjudicated.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
