

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

Segundo G.U.O.,

Civil No. 26-830 (DWF/LIB)

Petitioner,

v.

ORDER

Pamela Bondi, Attorney General; Kristi Noem, Secretary, U.S. Department of Homeland Security; Todd M. Lyons, Acting Director of Immigration and Customs Enforcement; and David Easterwood, Acting Director, St. Paul Field Office Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Respondents.

On February 2, 2026, the Court granted Petitioner’s petition for writ of habeas corpus and ordered Petitioner’s immediate release “without conditions.” (Doc. No. 8 at 5 (emphasis added).) Respondent filed a letter informing the Court that Petitioner has been released (Doc. No. 11), but Petitioner notified the Court that the release was with conditions (Doc. No. 12). Specifically, Petitioner was required to sign an “Order of Release on Recognizance” imposing specific conditions. (Id.) Petitioners now ask that Respondents be directed to revoke all conditions placed on Petitioner’s release from unlawful detention or to proceed with a hearing on contempt.

The Court specifically declared that Petitioner’s detention was unlawful and ordered his release without conditions. Respondents violated that order by imposing conditions on Petitioner’s release. It is improper to impose conditions on someone’s release after they have been unlawfully detained. The Court orders that these conditions be revoked by Respondents.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. Respondents are directed to revoke all conditions placed on Petitioner's release from unlawful detention.
2. Respondents shall file a status report confirming that any and all conditions placed on Petitioner's release have been revoked, no later than 10 a.m. CT on February 10, 2026. Respondents must attach any documents that confirm the conditions were revoked.
3. If Respondents fail to timely file the status report or fail to revoke the release conditions, the Court will issue an order to show cause why Respondents should not be held in contempt, and a contempt hearing will be scheduled.

Dated: February 9, 2026

s/Donovan W. Frank
DONOVAN W. FRANK
United States District Judge