UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SAAJAN DHIMAN,

Petitioner,

v.

DAVID MARIN, et al.,

Respondents.

Case No. 5:26-cv-01365 SPG (ADS)

ORDER REQUIRING RESPONSE AND
LODGING OF RECORDS (194)

Unless otherwise ordered by the District Judge assigned in this case, in order to facilitate the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of this action, IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The parties shall comply with the briefing schedule set by the General Order 26-05. If the parties seek to accelerate or alter the briefing schedule set by General Order 26-05, the parties shall promptly meet and confer and file a stipulation or joint statement setting forth the parties' competing proposals for a briefing schedule.

1 2. Under General Order 26-05, applications for temporary restraining orders
2 are reserved for cases where the petitioner alleges imminent, irreparable harm that
3 cannot be addressed by the standard scheduling order or by expediting the briefing
4 schedule. If the petitioner believes that an application for a temporary restraining order
5 is appropriate, the application must be filed as a separate document from the petition,
6 and must comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65 and Local Civil Rules 65-1 and
7 7-19. The filing of an application for a temporary restraining order does not alter or 8 suspend the parties' obligations under the standard schedule for briefing the petition for 9 final disposition.

10 3. The parties are ordered to file all documents necessary to the 11 determination of the grounds asserted in the Petition. The parties shall consider 12 whether the following documents are necessary:

- 13 a. The charging document initiating removal proceedings against 14 Petitioner (i.e., notice to appear);
- 15 b. Order on Petitioner's prior release (i.e., parole record, order of release 16 on recognizance, order of supervised release, etc.);
- 17 c. Notice given prior to or at the time of Petitioner's current detention 18 (i.e., arrest warrant, notice of revocation of supervised release, etc.);
- 19 d. Order on custody redetermination entered by an immigration judge 20 during the course of Petitioner's current detention; and
- 21 e. Petitioner's criminal history, if any.

22 4. All records provided to the Court should be properly authenticated by a
23 declaration of a person competent to attest to their contents.
