ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On this day, the Court considered the above-captioned case. On December 10, 2025, Petitioner Candelario Rincon Chavero filed a “Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus,” ECF No. 1. In his Petition, Petitioner asks this Court to “a. [a]ssume jurisdiction over this matter; b. [o]rder that Petitioner shall not be transferred outside the Western District of Texas while this habeas petition is pending; c. [i]ssue an Order to Show Cause ordering Respondents to show cause why this Petition should not be granted within three days; d. [i]ssue a Writ of Habeas Corpus requiring that Respondents release Petitioner or, in the alternative, provide Petitioner with a bond hearing pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1226(a) within seven days; e. [d]eclare that Petitioner’s detention is unlawful; f. [a]ward Petitioner attorney’s fees and costs under the Equal Access to Justice Act (“EAJA”), as amended, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, and on any other basis justified under law; and g. [g]rant any other and further relief that this Court deems just and proper.” Id. at 14–15. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2243, “[a] court. . . entertaining an application for a writ of habeas corpus shall forthwith award the writ or issue an order directing the respondent to show cause why the writ should not be granted.” The Court therefore issues the briefing schedule outlined herein.

Further, this case is filed by an alien detainee seeking relief under habeas corpus. Due to prior incidences in this Court of Respondents or their assigns removing petitioners from the United States and/or jurisdiction of the Western District of Texas – El Paso Division even after the Court orders them not to do so,¹ this Court, in its discretion, finds good cause to issue a temporary restraining order restraining Respondents from removing Petitioner from its jurisdiction or the United States until further order of the Court. In the interest of preserving the status quo and the Court’s ability to fully assess this case on the merits, the Court orders that Petitioner not be removed from the United States or to a facility outside the jurisdiction of the Western District of Texas – El Paso Division. See United States v. United Mine Workers of Am., 330 U.S. 258, 293 (1947) (“[T]he District Court had the power to preserve existing conditions while it was determining its own authority to grant injunctive relief.”); cf. Brownback v. King, 592 U.S. 209, 218-19 (2021); see also Santiago v. Noem, No. 3-25-CV-361-KC, 2025 WL 2606118, at *2–3 (W.D. Tex. Sept. 9, 2025) (collecting cases). The Court also sets an expedited briefing schedule for Respondents to show cause to why Petitioner’s writ shall not be granted, as well as all other claims for relief raised in the Petition, ECF No. 1.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Respondents SHALL NOT (1) remove or deport Petitioner from the United States, or (2) transfer Petitioner from any facility outside the boundaries of the El Paso Division of the Western District of Texas, until the Court orders otherwise or this case is closed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondents Pamela Jo Bondi, Kristi Noem, Todd Lyons, Mary De Anda-Ybarra, and Warden of the El Paso Processing Center SHOW CAUSE why such writ should not be granted by filing a response no later no later than Monday, December 15, 2025.

Additionally, on November 25, 2025, the Central District of California certified a national class in Maldonado Bautista v. Santacruz, 2025 WL 3288403 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 25, 2025):

Bond Eligible Class: All noncitizens in the United States without lawful status who (1) have entered or will enter the United States without inspection; (2) were not or will not be apprehended upon arrival; and (3) are not or will not be subject to detention under 8 U.S.C. § 1226(c), § 1225(b)(1), or § 1231 at the time the Department of Homeland Security makes an initial custody determination.

Maldonado Bautista, 2025 WL 3288403, at *1. In addition, the Central District of California extended to the Bond Eligible Class as a whole the declaratory relief it had previously granted: that the Department of Homeland Security Policy of mandatory detention for all applicants for admission under § 1225 is unlawful. Maldonado Bautista, 2025 WL 3288403, at *9.

Accordingly, both Parties are ORDERED to submit additional briefing to address: (1) whether Petitioner is a member of the nationally certified Bond Eligible Class; and (2) what affect if any the declaratory relief granted in Maldonado Bautista v. Santacruz, 2025 WL 3288403 (C.D. Cal. Nov. 25, 2025) has on Petitioner's claims before the Court no later than December 15, 2025.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that should Petitioner wish to file a reply, Petitioner shall file a reply no later than Wednesday, December 17, 2025.

SIGNED this 10th day of December 2025.

THE HONORABLE DAVID BRIONES
SENIOR UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
